DAIRY SHOW BETTER IN '31

PORTALES BOY BREAKS LEG ACCIDENTLY

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock Charles Rogers, employee of the Roswell Pump and Supply Company, had the misfortune of having his leg broken and completely crushed.

Rogers and Burnett, another employee, were stacking sheet-iron against two iron stobs. After stacking the entire ton they attempted to straighten the stack so that less weight would rest against the two poles. Each man with pry poles shifted the weight a little too much, causing the entire load to fall upon Rogers' leg before he could get loose.

Calls for help were sent out and immediately another employee of the Pump Company came to their assistance and helped in releasing the weight from his leg.

A doctor was immediately summoned and the leg set and bandaged up.

Farm Home Burns Thurs.

Last Thursday morning at about 10 o'clock, the farm home of Ted Willis, of the Bethel community, caught fire from an oil stove in the kitchen and was completely destroyed before very little household goods could be saved.

Mrs. Willis was hanging out clothes when she noticed flames coming from the two kitchen windows. She immediately summoned her husband, who was working in a nearby field, but by the time he and the close neighbors reached the house it was entirely swallowed by flames.

The home and furniture was partially covered by insurance.

Chicken Thieves Get In Work

On Thursday night of last week, chicken thieves raided the chicken yard of Ab Stokes, and about cleaned up his flock of chickens.

Many reports are coming in from various parts of the county, complaining of the depredations of chicken thieves.

Old Timers Appear In Street Parade

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wood were among the Portales citizens in the street parade held on Friday and Saturday of last week during the Dairy and Livestock Show.

Uncle Bob, as he is familiarly known, and Mrs. Wood are among the real pioneer citizens of the county, as they were here in the early days when the country which now constitutes Roosevelt county was open range for the cattlemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood both had cow poules for their mounts in the parade, and Mrs. Wood used a side-saddle, one of the few now to be found in the county. The saddle, blanket, bridle and quirt were all gifts to Mrs. Wood from her husband at Christmas in 1897. An entertainment was held at the Santa Fe depot on Christmas eve of that year, and these gifts were all upon the Christmas tree.

The Wood family were then living on the H—— ranch, and very few frivolities and useless articles were found upon that community Christmas tree which the early citizens still refer to as one of the most happy holiday times ever experienced.

It was a fitting arrangement to have Mr. and Mrs. Wood among the leaders of the parade last week.

Charles Goodloe left Portales on Wednesday for Lubbock, to enter the Texas Tech. Charles has accepted a position with the Levines Dry Goods store in that city and will be employed during his out of school hours.

Vandals Wreck Benson School Bldg. Monday Night--Much Damage Done

On Monday night vandals entered and wrecked the Benson school building.

Seats were broken up and piled in the floor, several hundred pounds of coal scattered over the floor, stoves and furnace taken from the building and broken up, toilets turned over, and one torn board from bars.

Obscene writing was placed on the blackboards and filth scattered over the building.

On Tuesday County Superintendent Hunt and deputies from the sheriff's office went out to Benson to investigate the damage.

A week or so ago the school building was broken into and benches and other material scattered.

The sheriff's office is making a thorough investigation and every effort will be made to bring the guilty parties to justice.

Governor Says Will Call Guards to Block That Socorro Bull Fight

SANTA FE, Sept. 22.—Governor Arthur Seligman announced Tuesday noon that he will call out the national guard to stop the Socorro bull fight.

Col. Norman L. King estimated that 150 guardsmen will be necessary to handle the situation.

Governor Seligman said that orders for calling out the guard are being drawn up.

With the announcement that the guardsmen will be called out, Governor Seligman said he has relieved Sheriff George Cook of Socorro county from responsibility in stopping the fight.

He said that Cook has assured him that he can handle the situation, but that he had a report Judge Harry P. Owen may grant an injunction to restrain Cook from interfering with the presentation of the program.

Despite the Governor's proposed drastic action, word from Socorro Tuesday was to the effect that the bull fight will be held.

The fiesta is scheduled for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Governor Seligman said that he has received word that application to the federal customs office at El Paso for importing four bulls from Mexico had been granted.

Good Condition

The duty on the bulls was $64 and the Socorro committee was required to sign an affidavit that the bulls will be returned in good condition.

The bulls, it is said, are trained especially for their work and are worth considerable money. Trained handlers are accompanying them.

Governor Seligman said that

Grand Masters Night Monday

Monday night will be Grand Masters night at the Masonic lodge, and all Masons are requested to be present.

There will be work in the Third degree on this night.

Plan to Build Curing House

The Portales Valley Potato Growers Association is making plans for the erection of a new potato curing house on the property which they have just recently purchased.

The property cossists of the three lots lying between the skating rink and the street in front of J. W. Maupin's warehouse.

These lots were purchased from Mrs. Langston and Fred Nulmeyer.

The new building will be a pebble dash building 50 feet by 140, on a concrete foundation. It will have 14-foot walls and will be erected according to the latest designs in potato curing houses, and will face Nevada street.

H. E. Taylor has been given the contract to place the foundation and the erection of the building will be done by day labor under the instruction of a superintendent. Much of the work will be done by members of the association.

The new building will hold between 35,00 and 40,000 crates of potatoes, according to Manager Lewis A. Little, and the workmen plan to have it completed in time for this year's crop of potatoes, which will be harvested during October.

This extra building will give the association storage space for about 100,000 crates, as the association houses and several of the members have their own individual curing houses.

Jay Thompson Scout Master

Jay Thompson has been chosen as Scout Master for the Christian church troop, and is now in charge of this group of boys.

Jay has had much scout training and also training in the R. O. T. C., which eminently fits him for this work.

He is a teacher in the grade schools, a graduate from the state university, and is a young man of high ideals.

Judge and Mrs. T. E. Mears are in Amarillo this week where the Judge is attending to some legal business.

Home and Contents Destroyed by Fire

Last Monday night just after midnight, Mrs. E. C. Luna was awakened by an unusual noise, and upon looking out the window, saw the home of Mrs. Walter Crow, just across the street, enveloped in flames. The breaking of the glass in the windows and doors had evidently been the noise which awakened Mrs. Luna. She immediately turned in the alarm and the fire department responded with creditable speed, but there was nothing which could be done other than save the surrounding buildings, as the roof was beginning to fall by the time the fire fighters arrived.

Mrs. Crow and her daughter Beatrice lived alone in the house, and they had gone to Clovis to the show and had not yet returned home, therefore the origin of the fire is unknown.

From the condition of the house when some of the first persons arrived, the supposition is advanced that the fire started from defective wiring, possibly in the attic.

The residence is one of the old homes of the city, having been the Swaggerty home many years ago, and was diagonally across the street from the grade school. Mr. and Mrs. Crow and their family moved there about six years ago. It was a one-story frame building containing several rooms.

Mrs. Crow and her daughter were called in Clovis and told of the fire. They returned quickly to Portales to find only a smoldering mass where their comfortably furnished home once stood. They went to the Wilson hotel where they are remaining until they make some future plans. One of the local insurance companies reports an insurance of one thousand dollars which will in only a very small way cover the loss of the house and the furnishings, as not a single article was saved from the building. Their entire wardrobe was destroyed with the exception of the inexpensive fall suits which the two ladies were wearing.

A rather strong breeze was coming from the southwest, which carried the burning embers many blocks. All the home owners in the path of the flying brands were out with garden hose to protect the roofs of their property. Some of these sparks were carried as far as three blocks away.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Waltom drove to Canyon, Texas, Monday to accompany their daughter MacKewn and Miss Lois Bankston to college. The two young ladies are enrolling in their first year of college work and have rented an apartment where they will live during the school year.

Loreta McCarty Named Secretary

At the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, Miss Loreta McCarty was elected secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Reports were received from the various committees and routine business transacted.

In regard to the Band attending the Tri-State Fair on Friday of this week, Floyd D. Golden, Coe Howard and A. D. Ribble were appointed a committee to secure transportation and arrange the Portales program.

Portales Band to Play at Amarillo New Mexico Day

Friday, September 25th, has been designated as New Mexico Day at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, and arrangements are now being made to transport the Portales Band with a strong Portales delegation for this day.

Portales has been invited to give a thirty minute radio program Friday evening, and this program is in the hands of a committee composed of Floyd D. Golden, Coe Howard and A. D. Ribble.

Portales Band has won quite a reputation at the Tri-State Fairs of recent years, and Amarillo is awaiting for this band to make its annual visit.

The band this year, while a number of the members have left for college, has been filled with new members and is in splendid condition.

Those who intend attending this day, and who can find room for one or more of the band boys, will see the above committee at once.

School Nurse to Arrive Next Week

The County Health department and the school superintendents of the county have been notified that Miss Attilie Schlapp will arrive in Portales next Monday, September 28, and will be ready to begin her duties as county health nurse on Thursday, October 1. Miss Schlapp comes to the state from Fort Madison, Iowa, and is highly recommended by the state health board.

Miss Schlapp is taking the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Anneke Kollewyn who was taken ill in August, due to overwork, and is now recuperating very rapidly in the home of her brother in California.

NEW FILLING STATION BUILDING ON STATE

Lester L. Rick has a crew of workmen building a new filling station and garage on the corner of Ohio and State streets.

The building will be 50x50 feet and built of adobe.

A roomy drive-in will be one of the features of this station.

It will be modern in every respect.

Mrs. Paul Parks and her small daughter Berna Deen returned to their home in Carlsbad this morning, after spending a few days here with Mrs. Parks' mother, Mrs. Bell Southers, and other relatives. Mr. Parks was connected with the Universal Motor Co. here for several years and resigned to accept a position with the Ford Motor Company in Carlsbad, where he is now employed.

Portales Rams Lose to Farwell 7-6 During Fair

A medium sized crowd witnessed the first game of the season, on the Portales gridiron, when the Farwell Steers defeated the Portales Rams 7 to 6 in a hectic contest.

The first quarter was a constant chase from one end of the field to the other, with Farwell plunging for a long run in the last few minutes to make a touchdown and completing the extra point.

Portales returned after the first opening minutes of the quarter a pass was completed for a touchdown, failing to make the extra point. Portales Rams could not gain on anything except passes and never made a run during the game that was over 10 yards.

The third quarter was less interesting, as both sides were continually punting and attempting long passes.

The last quarter was by far the most interesting of the four for the Portales fans, as Portales was playing in the Farwell end the entire quarter, and once lost the ball within one yard of the goal, and was in scoring distance many times. They seemed to lack the necessary punch to get through the line.

The whole game was filled with penalties for roughing, and offsides.

Cadwell was the outstanding player for the visiting team, while Hilliard carried away the honors for the Rams.

Play by Play Account of the Game

Farwell Steers kicked to Portales. Vaughn takes it on the 30 yard line. An attempt through left end failed to gain. Through center for 5 yards. Kerr kicks out on the 55 yard line.

Farwell's ball. Through center for 6 yards. Around right end for 2 yards. Time out for Portales. Long for Menier.

Farwell tries center again, but fails. Farwell kicks. Portales blocks punt. Portales' ball on their own 45 yard line. Kirksey hits the line for 5 yards. Another try gains 4 more. Five yards penalty, giving Portales first and ten. Smith 5 through center. Vaughn 3 yards through center in off tackle play. Portales penalized 15 yards. A long

Emerson of the New Hobbs school board was charged with diverting school funds and with withdrawing funds and incurring debts in excess of budget allowances. A. C. Cresher, also of the same board, was charged with embezzling funds. H. L. Groner, superintendent of schools in Old Hobbs was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses and L. A. Merit badges were awarded to Herman Bailey and N. H. Green.

Many Thousands Attend Dairy and Livestock Show Friday, Saturday

The Dairy and Livestock Show has come and gone.

On both days, Friday and Saturday, immense crowds witnessed the big parade and attended the exhibits.

On Saturday the crowd was estimated to be around 7,000 people.

Friday morning the Fair opened with a big parade led by horseback riders, and the Portales Band followed by the Pep Squad from the Portales high school.

Next was the large float on which the Fair directors and committee rode.

The Portales business houses had many outstanding floats, that of the sweet potato association was especially attractive, an immense sweet potato and a 'possum being the outstanding features. On this float was a negro preacher, who kept the crowd in on uproar with his negro songs and negro sermons.

The Floyd community float, representing the Cow, the Sow and the Hen, was perhaps the most attractive community float.

The floats of the 4-H clubs, the Girl Scouts and the Rainbow Girls were beautiful and contained many smiling faces of the young girls of the city and county.

The Piggly-Wiggly float attracted much favorable comment.

The parade was almost a mile in length and was colorful throughout.

Mrs. R. L. Wood rode in the parade on a side-saddle which was hung on the first Christmas tree in Portales in 1897, the tree being held in the old depot. This side-saddle, bridle, blanket and quirt was her Christmas present on that occasion.

On Saturday the parade formed practically the same as on Friday, with the exception that the leading float contained the fair committee, Senator Sam G. Bratton, Congressman Dennis Chaves, Lt.-Governor Andy Hockenhull, and many other distinguished visitors.

After the Saturday parade, there was speaking on the court house square, where the crowd was addressed by many of the distinguished visitors, with Coe Howard as master of ceremonies.

Invocation was pronounced by Rev. R. F. Davis.

The welcome address was delivered by Mayor J. N. McCall.

A. D. Ribble then introduced Henry Ainsley of the Amarillo News-Globe, who gave the response to the address of welcome.

Coe Howard introduced Senator Bryant, who introduced the next speaker, Lt.-Governor Andy Hockenhull of Clovis.

Ezra Watts then introduced Ex-Governor Dillon, who spoke a few minutes expressing his pleasure at again being a guest of Portales.

Dr. R. L. Bradley, mayor of Roswell, was introduced by J. G. Greaves, who had been a friend and acquaintance of Dr. Bradley for over forty years.

Dr. Bradley stated that he had been a resident of Eastern New Mexico for the past 32 years and mayor of Roswell for the past 18 months. He made a splendid talk on conditions of the day.

Floyd D. Golden, superintendent of the Portales schools, next introduced Congressman Dennis Chaves.

Mr. Chaves made a splendid talk, stating that the real thing for Roosevelt county to be proud of was its boys and girls who are going to school in Roosevelt county.

Coe Howard then introduced Col. Pearson, superintendent of the Military Institute.

Mason King of Amarillo spoke, inviting all to the Tri-State Fair.

Judge T. E. Mears, in his characteristic way, introduced United States Senator Sam G. Bratton,

Volstead Violators Hit Hard the Day Before the Fair

Portales was medium dry during the Dairy and Livestock Show, on account of a series of raids on Thursday, in which G. A. Elledge, W. F. Simmins, Frank Fenton, Bert Gore and Jess Gunn were entangled in the toils of the law on charges of violating the 18th amendment.

Bert Gore was charged with the possession of a still and with selling intoxicating liquor.

The others were charged with possession and sale of intoxicating liquor.

All appared before J. R. Shock, U. S. Commissioner, and made bond.

Roosevelt County Exhibits at Amarillo

Carl S. Turner is in Amarillo this week in charge of the exhibit from Roosevelt county at the Tri-State Fair.

Coe Howard is responsible for working up this exhibit, and doubtless it will be one of the outstanding exhibits shown at Amarillo this season.

An exhibit will also go to the Texas State Fair at Dallas.

Dairy Show to Exhibit at Roswell

The Roosevelt County Dairy and Livestock Show Association will have an exhibit of farm products at the Roswell fair on the 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th of October.

With the splendid products of the valley and dry land farms this exhibit will have an even break in winning prizes for the best county exhibit.

Carl Turner will be in charge of the exhibit.

Charged With Stealing Turkeys

On Monday of this week, while selling ten turkeys to the Shelton Produce Company of Portales, Nolan DeShane and Chas. Moore were arrested on a warrant from Curry county charging them with theft of ten turkeys from a farm west of Clovis.

They were held till the sheriff from Curry county arrived and took them in charge.

Baptist Unit Elects Staff

Strickland, Texico, Named Moderator; Evans, Melrose, Clerk

MELROSE, Sept. 17.—Rev. H. B. Strickland, pastor of the First Baptist church at Texico, was elected moderator of the Portales Baptist association at the close of the twenty-seventh annual session of the organization here yesterday.

Rev. Rolfe Barnard, Portales, was elected assistant moderator and Rev. John E. Evans of Melrose was elected clerk. J. E. Schleuter of Texico was named treasurer.

Men of the Melrose Baptist church were hosts at a luncheon for the delegates yesterday. The crowds attending the meetings were said to be the largest attending any association gathering in the state in several years.—Clovis News Journal.

MANY NEW SUBSCRIBERS ADDED ON FAIR OFFER

The Portales Valley News received many new subscribers during the Fair, and also many renewals.

Credits on the mailing list will be made as soon as possible, and if your date has not been changed do not become uneasy as these credits have been made on the books and will show on your paper at an early date.

Best Display Ever Shown

Dr. Black, of the State College, who assisted in the judging at the Dairy and Livestock Show, pronounced this by far the best exhibit ever staged in Portales.

Portales Received First Bale Cotton Saturday, Grown by J. G. Carlisle

J. G. Carlisle, who lives six miles west of Floyd, brought in the first bale of cotton of the season on Saturday evening.

The bale weighed 1510 pounds and ginned out a 500 pound bale.

It was ginned and bought by the Service Gin Company, paying 5 cents per pound and a premium of 3 cents per pound in addition for the first bale.

Ginning rates this season are 30 cents per hundred for picked or snapped cotton.

But the snapped cotton weighs more and sells for less, so it is good business for the farmers to pick the cotton if possible.

D. J. Brown of Texico Won the News Loving Cup for Dairy Production

D. J. Brown won the silver loving cup offered by the Portales Valley News in the dairy production contest, with his Holstein cow, it winning over the next entry by 1 one-hundredths point.

This cup will be engraved with the name of the winner, and the date, and presented to Mr. Brown.

The winning of this cup for three years gives permanent ownership to the winner.

This cup was displayed in the booth of Mr. Poe, dairy commissioner, and attracted much comment during the Fair.

HOME LOYALTY

Why isn't Portales a better town?

Are you doing your part to make it the best buying and selling community in the state?

Are you patronizing the door knob knockers, who are flooding the country with house-to-house selling methods?

Are you going out of town for your merchandise, instead of giving the home merchants a chance at your business?

You may contend that you cannot get what you want n the home town and are compelled to go to outside markets.

Make your wants known to the home merchants and they will be glad to carry the goods that you need.

The dollar that is spent outside of your home town is lost to circulation so far as your home town is concerned, and not one penny of it goes into taxes to support your schools, churches, or other civic organizations.

The home merchant is burdened with taxes and other expenses to make your town what it is today, and with a spirit of home loyalty, your town will be a better town in which to live.

In fact your home town is just what you make it.

CAUSE OF THE DEPRESSION

What caused the depression and when will it break? are questions heard on the street every day.

There is just as much money as there was before the depression set in, but it is not working.

It may be that you are partly responsible for the depression.

It may be that you have withdrawn your money from circulation by depositing it in the postoffice savings account, instead of in your local bank.

Money deposited with the postoffice department is withdrawn from circulation and injures your community.

Money deposited in your local bank, enables the bank to make loans and help finance the community.

If every dollar that is being withdrawn from circulation in the United States was put to work, there would be no unemployment, business would be good, and the farmers would receive fair returns for their crops.

Think it over, and see if you are not personally responsible for the depression.

BEWARE OF SLICKERS

Beware of all slickers.

On Friday of last week, a representative of the Southern Agriculturist of Nashville, Tenness, approached Frank Duehning and handed him a small bill fold, stating that he was making him a little present. He then asked Mr. Duehning to give him his name, and handed him a slip of paper on which the name was written.

On opening the bill fold, a subscription receipt for this publication was found inside.

Mr. Duehning became suspicious and called the bank, and found that his check had been cashed for $2.00.

Mr. Duehning did not know that he was even being solicited for a subscription, and had no intention of subscribing.

These subscription slickers are following county fairs, and use this underhand method of relieving the citizens of cash.

All are warned against signing their names to anything presented by strangers, as it aftimes proves to be either a check or a note.

No stranger is making you a present for nothing, and all such propositions should be looked upon with suspicion.

PROPER CREDIT ESSENTIAL

In the News of the issue of Sept. 11th, the News credited an editorial, headed "The Girls Are Fat Agean," to the Lovington Leader, when it should have been credited to the Lovington Tribune.

We hereby apologize to the Tribune for misplacing the credit due on this editorial.

ADMINISTRATION OF POOR RELIEF

The announcement from Portales that relief there would be administered by providing work for the unemployed is one that might be looked at favorably here.

There are many things which these people could be employed at along civic lines such as improving streets, sidewalks and parks, using funds collected recently, for pay.

There will be some who will claim that since the money raised for the purpose of aid was not raised by the city government that to make people work for the city to get the aid would be unfair. Yet, a great many of the tax payers gave to the fund and no great unfairness could be caused.

It seems that such a plan would aid in preventing unworthy people from getting aid, would help the town and would help those aided, for there is no man but that loses when he accepts aid as a pauper.—Roswell Dispatch.

WORRY

Worry is an unhealthy condition of normal mind and is a direct manifestation of fear. Probably one of the richest gifts with which we are endowed is the power of imagination. Yet imagination is a most prolific source of fear.

The chronic worryer usually has an over-active imagination—an imagination out of control. Our specific worries may be slightly different, but in the main they have the same basic characteristics.

I listen to the troubles of others and they seem to be largely imaginary and trivial. Then I think of my own and I realize that my troubles can be correctly classified about the same way.

We do not rid ourselves of worry by evading our responsibilities, nor by crawling out from under our normal load. The first step away from worry is to courageously and honestly face our problems and to seggregate the real from the imaginary. As the prospector must learn to distinguish between gold and "fool's gold," so must we learn to distinguish between real problems and worries.

Thus we take stock of our so-called "troubles" and see how many we can discard. First in this list should come the worries in anticipation of events possible to happen and which usually do not. The remainder can be classified in the order of their importance and eliminated as fast as possible.

There is a message to us in the parting words of advice of the aged father to his son, "I have had a great deal of trouble in my life—a great deal of trouble—but most of it never happened" Irrespective of ages, most all of us are like that old man.

In these times the successful man has no time to worry. He is too busy thinking and working out constructive ways to solve his problems. e has learned to control his thoughts, which is the secret of the elimination of worry.—John J. Thomas, President, the Lloyd-Thomas Co. in Angles of Business.

TRIAL ONLY TEST OF CHARACTER

There are not wanting signs to indicate that a deep sense of fear for the dissension and strife which the approaching winter may bring in the nation and the world. The trend of the long train of depressing events has crystalised belief that next winter will witness the climax of the present unrest. Portents of brewing trouble are scattered among the news stories of the day—generally inconspicuous. President Green of the American Federation of Labor warns that the government must aid the jobless, or face rebellion . . . A flat tenant in Chicago is evicted, a riot follows, three are killed, many wounded . . . A Wisconsin city, on the brink of bankruptcy, asks the attorney general how its poor are to be fed . . . Montagu Collet Norman, governor of the powerful Bank of England, broadcasts the warning that unless drastic measures are taken the capitalistic system of the world will be wrecked within a year . . . Banks close their doors—silently—intensify distress, kindle into flame the discontent on which communism thrives.

We have at least passed the camouflage stage and begun to face facts. No one any longer denies that industry is in a bad way—not even the professional political optimists. At last we are facing realities divested of bunk, and that is progress. "The people that sat in darkness have seen a great light." We know that in spite of the luminous vision and lofty designing of the mighty wizards of industry and finance, things can go awry, show them up suddenly as mighty little wizards. We know that the politicians' cock sure formula for prosperity, die-cut, stamped and trade-marked, can be turned by events into a withering irony. We know, in a word, that we still have a good deal to learn about industry, trade, commerce, economics, finance. Recognizing our ignorance, there is hope that in time we may learn.

It does seem that the people who sat in darkness have begun at least to see great light. Our next most urgent need is faith, faith in ourselves and, to be honest, faith in God. We need to remind ourselves that Providence will not suffer us to be tempted beyond that which we are able, may be relied on to limit equally our physical trials. We can catch glimpses of a rainbow of hope in the parable of the birds of the air that "neither sow nor do they reap nor gather into barns," and yet they find food enough somehow, and time to exercise the blessed gift of song. We can find inspiration in pausing to consider the lilies of the field that labor not nor do they spin, and yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

We are facing a time that may bring organized unrest. We can face it in the spirit of the timid and cowardly, ready to turn tail and flee at the sound of the first stir in the brush. Or we can face it bravely and confidently. Trial is the real test of character. It is Waterloos and Valley Forges that fix names in history, not the eras of artificially stimulated prosperity about which there has been so much bally hoo. There is nothing to be gained by taking a fearful prospect of what is ahead. Generally the anticipation is worse than the reality. Everything is to be gained by facing the situation squarely and resolutely and adapting our manner of life to meet it. The winter may not be so bad after all.—Times, Chilton, Wisconsin.

SOCIAL ANNEX
BY THE BOSS

The displaying of the News loving cup in the booth of the dairy commissioner attracted much comment.

In fact, the News was complimented on its splendid booth.

It seems that in placing this cup in a borrowed booth resulted in the News swiping this booth.

Henry Ainsley attracted as much attention in the street parade as the clown in the potato wagon, especially by the ladies.

The only shortcoming of the parade was the absence of a "Hoover prosperity" float.

The Fair was great, and the dry farmers had a wonderful display.

The Irrigated section was conspicuous by the small display at the exhibit.

In past years there has been some wonderful exhibits of irrigated products—obtained by the fair committee going out and buying products for this display.

Irrigation farmers are sleeping on their rights, as by a liberal display at these fairs, they will reap direct benefits in markets for their products.

Portales is progressive in a good many ways, and it is already looking around for a way to take care of the unemployed this winter. Spuds Greaves, the editor, made the city pillars think yesterday, with a suggestion that there be no money handed out this winter. Instead, a fund be raised and needy men given employment at a dollar a day, a minimum sufficient to eat on. Inferentially, if they disdain the small pay, the village cops are to whoop them out of town. The normal transients would steer away from a proposition like that, and the worthy could get along.

The proposition is worth something in every town in New Mexico. The writer doesn't know of one where there are not ditches to trim, lots to clar of salt grass and mesquite, connections to be built between sidewalks, and so on. It would be a self-respecting proposition so far as the workers are concerned, and a businesslike one so far as the town is concerned. The worth-while workers out of a job, and anxious to eat, will welcome it.

There should be no wholesale distribution of money by any town in the state. It is going to be necessary to help a lot of people, and while that is being done, they should be required to help themselves.—Will Robinson, in Carlsbad Current-Argus.

Charley Goes Visiting

Charlie Trapp of the Topeka Pink Rag, recently visited Atchison and while there he called on the Globe and writes entertainingly of Nell Webb, the columnist of that paper, who told him this story. "A prominent young Atchison lawyer whose wife had been nagging him to take her some place beside the local picture show, decided one night to take her for a ride. As the night was quite warm, she just slipped a negligee over her night gown and was off. After riding for an hour she asked him where he was going. He said to Denver. And to Denver they went. When they arrived they went to a hotel, night gown and all. The next day he went out and bought her some clothes. Now there is a man for you. Too bad more husbands are not impulsive."

Think of this, young men: Your fathers and grandfathers bought land and paid for it when eggs were not worth a nickel a dozen, when hogs were worth only two or three cents a pound and cattle selling at two and one-half cents a pound, when there was no market for many farm products that now are in good demand. You, too, can own a good farm if you are willing to make the effort, thus making yourself independent. This is the sage advice of an advertiser in the Paris Appeal, based on past proven facts.

CONTEST CLOSES
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, MIDNIGHT

$10,000 IN CASH PRIZES
FOR THE BEST ANSWERS EXPLAINING THE
MYSTERY of the "HIDDEN QUART"
AND TELLING HOW THIS QUART BENEFITS MOTORISTS

Fact No. 1—Thousands of motorists and service station men have observed that after a car has been given its first fill of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and is driven 200 to 350 miles, a look at the crankcase gauge shows that about one quart of oil is apparently missing . . . but

Fact No. 2—These same people have noticed that on the second and later fillings with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, scarcely a drop of oil will disappear during the first 350 miles, and practically none at 500 and up to 1,000 miles!

The above facts have been checked by actual tests with cars that use six quarts of oil for the crankcase, cars in good mechanical condition and driven at ordinary rates of speed. These facts will also prove true for your car, in proportion to the amount of oil your crankcase usually holds, your car's mechanical condition and the speeds at which you drive

What becomes of the "hidden quart"? The answer is easy if you study the Facts given above and keep in mind the things that only Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil can do. The explanation of the whereabouts of the "hidden quart" is simple—no technical knowledge of motors or oil is necessary.

Remember—The "hidden quart" of Germ Processed Oil does not escape through leakage . . . does not burn up, wear out nor evaporate. It is "present but unaccounted for." Fact No. 2, given above, proves all this.

After you've found where the "hidden quart" goes, you can easily see the special benefits it gives the motorist—advantages that no other oil can give.

Ask at any Conoco Station or Conoco Dealer for free Entry Blank which contains information about Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil that may help you win. Conoco Station and Dealer employees will gladly answer your questions. Remember, you do not have to buy anything to enter this contest.

See Rules of Contest for complete details.

BUILD UP TO PREVENT PAINS

How a Missouri woman was benefited by taking Cardui is described below by Mrs. Joe Schumae, of Cape Girardeau: "I suffered with irregularity. For weeks at a time I was so weak I could not work. I had aches in my back and head and legs—I ached all over. I would get dizzy and feel faint. I had read about Cardui, so I got some and took it. I improved a great deal. After I had taken four bottles, I felt like a different person." HS-16

LIVE STOCK BANKING

One of the most difficult and trying jobs, particularly in periods of depression, is being a banker. The average citizen thinks of a banker as a man who sits behind piles of currency and laughs at anybody who wants to borrow some of it unless he can put up about 150 per cent of the loan in gilt-edged securities.

A weak-kneed man has no business being a banker because the piles of currency stacked about him are not his. He is merely their custodian and is responsible to the owners and to the government for their safe keeping. To make those stacks of currency earn dividends and still be intact to pay depositors on demand is a job that few men are fitted for. Sentiment can play no part in it.

The main concern of the banker is the prompt payment of the loan. He has accepted deposits in good faith, and any man who would loan deposited funds without assurance of their return would be criminally guilty and a menace. His obligation is to the depositor rather than the borrower.

It is unfortunate that a banker who is safe and sound and sane sometimes goes by the name of tightwad, for in reality when a banker is cold-blooded to the applicant for a loan he is serving the depositor to the greatest capacity.

It is gratifying to go to the bank and get what you go for, but the sensible man who is refused a loan knows it is his fault and not the banker's if he can't qualify for a loan on the rules of safe banking.

So it seems there are two parties necessary to borrowing along safe banking lines, namely, the banker who must safeguard the funds of his depositors, and the applicant who must be equipped for the return of the funds borrowed. To proceed any other way would destroy the banking system with its conveniences to the public.—Kansas City Drovers Telegram.

FOURTH ANNUAL MEETING OF CROP ASSOCIATION

The fourth annual meeting of the New Mexico Improvement Association has been called for October 7, according to G. V. Clayton, president. This meeting will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at Roswell, New Mexico, and will open at 9 o'clock a. m. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at this meeting and any other business that may regularly come up for consideration will receive attention. There are a number of important problems, including inspection fees for 1932, which will be discussed.

The New Mexico Crop Improvement Association was organized in 1927 with about twenty-five members. This number has grown from year to year until the membership has now reached two hundred and sixty-five, an increase of fifty members since the annual meeting of 1930. There are seventeen counties of the state represented in this organization and it is hoped that the majority of these, if not all, will send delegates to the annual meeting.

The New Mexico Association is a member of the International Crop Improvement Association and has the reputation of producing some of the best certified seed grown in the United States.

October 7, the day of the meeting, is also the first day of the Eastern New Mexico State Fair. Visiting members will thus have the opportunity to attend the largest Fair in New Mexico as well as the program of the Crop Improvement Association.

Much Optimism as to McAdoo Test in DeBaca Co., N. M.

(From New Mexico Oil News)

Parties interested in the McAdoo test of the Buffalo Creek structure in central DeBaca county are sincerely optimistic that they will soon have a good producer.

A geologist writes The Oil News as follows: "Just returned from the McAdoo well and enclose report. It looks extra good to me."

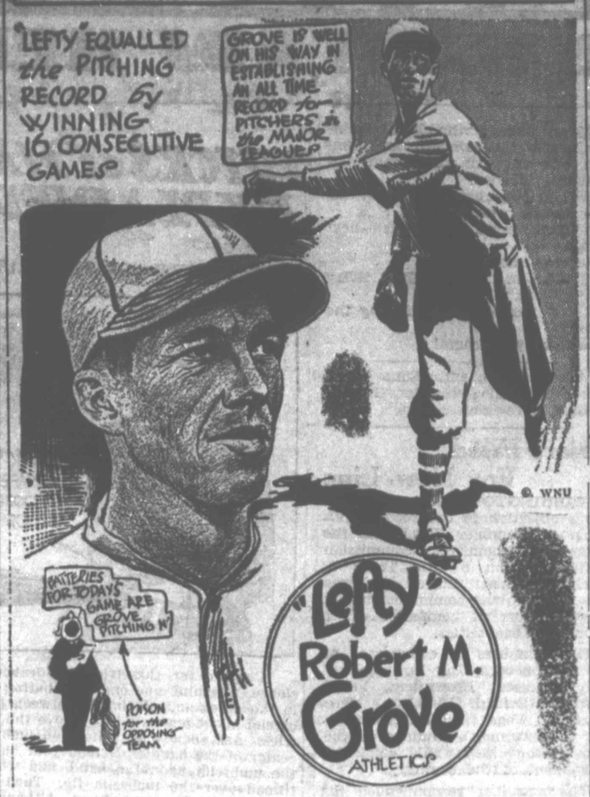

His report is as follows: McAdoo test drilled by Landowner's Oil Company encountered yesterday horizon, in a sandy shale, showing of wet gas at 4531 foot.

The bore had just penetrated a 39 foot measure of hard dark brown lime of Pennsylvania Age and broke to a sandy shale wherein the gas was encountered. This bore cut the top of the Magdalena limes at the 4,080 foot horizon and the gas encountered was not looked for by examining and consulting geologists until 4,730 foot horizon had been passed. Visiting geologists at the well today were elated with the showing and stated that it defined the well's location on structure. They are drilling today in an 8-inch hole past the 4,550 foot horizon, with an increasing volume of gas and geological conditions are most excellent for opening up a major oil field from the Magdalena limes at this location."

A letter from Alfred H. McAdoo, who is now staying at Fort Sumner, who has always believed strongly that the area would prove productive, whose sincerity can hardly be questioned although the basis of his extreme optimism could be—writes as follows:

"Just a hurried and brief note to advise you that we are about to get a commercial well and open a new field down here. Before we shut down nearly two years ago we had lime from 4592 to 4508 feet. Since resumption of drilling we have been in solid lime except we had a break from 4531 to 4533 feet and again from 4539 to 4541 feet. In each of these breaks, consisting of sandy shale, we had pronounced gas evidenced by a strong odor and by gas bubbles when we dumped the bailer. It looks like the bubbles carry a little film or rainbow. We are today drilling at about 4549, approximately in a very hard cap of shell. We look for anything under this shell. You may hear we have an oil well before this letter reaches you.

With best wishes, I am,
Very truly yours,
Alfred H. McAdoo."

Now We Are Three

KATHERINE AND BILL—what fun it is to know them! They seem to get so much out of living. You met them just a little over a year ago—the week before they were married. Ten days later it gave you a pleasant glow of anticipation to receive the trim card telling you when they'd be "at home.'

And today you got another card, headed, "Now we are three!" Bill's signature comes first, then Katherine's and then—the guided, chubby scrawl of the newcomer, Jeremy.

You happen to know that although he is in line for an important promotion, Bill's present salary isn't large. Most other young couples would consider themselves "up against it" if they had to manage on so little. Yet Katherine and Bill maintain a standard of living that is the admiration of their friends.

You know how they do it, for Katherine has told you. They budget all expenditures. And when they decide a purchase is to be made, whether it is a new shade for the reading lamp, or a suit for Bill, or shoes for Katherine, they study the advertisements until they find just what they want for the price they can pay. Careful, budgeted buying of consistently advertised merchandise enables them to get the most out of their dollars.

It's a wise baby that picks parents like these. Take advantage of the advertisements in this paper. They are your guide to profitable buying.

CONCERNING THE CHILDREN

Poisoning From Toys

It would seem that almost the last thing that parents should need to worry about would be lead poisoning. This is a disease that has always been associated with industry—painting in particular. In recent years it has been found that the human body takes up lead from its surroundings much more readily than was formerly supposed, and it is now believed that the dust arising from scraping or sandpapering dry paint may be more serious than the fresh paint itself.

Doctors are now reporting cases of lead poisoning in infants and children, apparently due to biting lead paint from cribs and playthings. It is likely that many more cases are caused in this way than become known.

Although lead paint has many wide fields of usefulness, babies' toys, beds, and carriages are not the places to put it. We assume that the manufacturers of such articles will not use anything that might be dangerous, but a warning to parents may be needed.

Train the children as early as possible that food is the only thing meant to be eaten. In repainting articles that children can get into their mouths the use of lead paints should be carefully avoided.

Growing Pains

THE ILLUSION still exists that so-called "growing pains" are a natural—even desirable—experience. In this case, at least, there's nothing in a name.

The real name for these pains may be old-fashioned rheumatism, or a much less familiar term—osteomyelitis. In either case it means harmful germs with pus formation somewhere. The pains are the body's signals that it is in trouble and a physician should be rushed to the rescue.

Infected teeth or tonsils frequently cause this kind of rheumatism, and heart troubles often follow, if it is neglected. Occasional physical examinations often detect these defects before they begin to make themselves known.

Inflammation of the bone is osteomyelitis and is most common among children and young adults. Sometimes it is a form of tuberculosis and is likely to be very serious, if not taken in hand early and skillfully treated.

REMEMBER! Growing pains mean trouble somewhere. The sooner the source is discovered and removed the better for everybody concerned. This is no case for home-made remedies. Consult your doctor without delay.

Briefs Filed For New Line

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Vigorous objection to the recommendation of Examiner Weed that the Interstate Commerce commission limit extension of the Texas & Pacific Northern railway in Texas was made to the commission today by chambers of commerce of a group of Texas cities.

The chambers of commerce of Dallas, Lubbock, Big Spring, Ackerly, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield, Dimmitt, Hereford and Vega filed briefs attacking the examiner's findings on the ground that they would delay development of the country.

The examiner recommended that he commission approve only about 125 miles out of 330 miles of proposed extension between Big Spring and Vega, withholding approval of construction north of Brownfield and Lubbock.

The Dallas chamber of commerce filed a separate brief. The others joined in a single brief.

Summing up the situation, the joint brief said further development of the region was being impeded by lack of railroad facilities. "The whole region needs the service of an east and west system which will provide it with efficient connections east of Fort Worth and Dallas and points beyond, and west to El Paso," the brief said.

It argued that motor trucks and busses could not remedy the transportation deficiencies of the region.

TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will L. Lindhorst

HOW THREAD PREVENTS LIFTING UP AN UMBRELLA

Prepare for this trick by drawing a black thread through your sleeve, fastening one end to a button of your vest, and making a loop in the other and placing it between two of your fingers. Let the loop extend about one-half inch above the fingers and you are ready for the trick. Ask some one to hold an umbrella extended, grasping it in the center of the handle. Extend your hand, back upward, place the tip of the umbrella upon the hand, and while doing so slip the loop of the thread over the umbrella tip. Then ask the person to try and raise the umbrella from your hand. Although it is held by only a thin thread, it will be found practically impossible to budge it. Ask the person to try using both hands, and unless he has unusual strength in his arms, it will be found equally difficult to raise the umbrella. Even if the thread should be discovered, this would be a good trick.

TRUCK GROWERS TO MEET

The Truck Growers Association has announced a meeting at the court house on Thursday evening, October 1st.

The members are urged to be present at 8 o'clock as there are some matters of importance to be brought before the organization.

YOUNG GIRLS' PARTY

Miss Ora Dendy was hostess on Monday evening to a party which will be remembered by the guests as one of the most delightful of the month.

The girls were first invited to the Dendy home where a picnic supper was arranged on the lawn. The menu consisted of those foods ites, and they fully enjoyed every which are the young ladies' favorbit of it. At nine o'clock the guests were taken to the Palace Theatre where they saw a splendid picture. After the picture they returned to the Dendy home and spent the remainder of the night. Tuesday all went early to the home of Miss Cleo Fortner for a delicious waffle breakfast, which was completed in time for the school girls to be in the class rooms on time.

Those forming the party were Mildred Stinnett, Mildred Disney, Pauline Baker, Anna Sue Parrish, Lucile Ison, Cleo Fortner and Ora Dendy.

The Church of Christ had a good attendance last Lord's Day. Bro. Phillips of Arch delivered a very good sermon on St. Luke, 15. We understand that Bro. Kercheville and his people are building them a home and will not need our house any longer, so in the future we will meet at 10:30 in the morning instead of the afternoon as formerly. Come and be with us; we believe in the Bible, we teach the Bible, we expect to be judged by the Bible.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The first program in the new year of the Portales Woman's Club was held yesterday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. ... Neer, with Mrs. Neer and Mrs. E. L. Wright, hostesses.

During the business meeting a vote of thanks was given the ladies and the president, Mrs. M. B. Jones, who arranged the car that appeared in the parade on the mornings of Friday and Saturday during the Dairy Show. The car was decorated in the club colors, white and blue.

By a unanimous vote of members present, the meeting hour was changed from 2:30 in the afternoon to 3:00 o'clock. This will give the teachers a better opportunity of attending the program sessions of the meeting. The president announced that the meetings would begin promptly at 3:00 o'clock.

The program for the afternoon was very interesting and was an account of visits to some of the playgrounds of America. Mrs. Lacy Armstrong told of the Grand Canyon in Arizona. Mrs. E. N. Neer gave a very interesting review of a recent visit to the Yellowstone Park. Mrs. P. M. Bailey graphically told of some of the wonders of the Carlsbad caverns, and Mrs. Floyd D. Golden gave an interesting account of her sight-seeing in the Rocky Mountains.

Many pictures were shown of the places described, and at the conclusion all the guests felt they had been on a real pleasure trip.

The hostesses served a plate lunch which was most delicious, and the afternoon closed with the social hour.

KENNA NEWS

The Kenna correspondent understood that the humorous items of two weeks ago under the "Kenna News" heading was merely an error, and thought it rather amusing, and last week's article on Kenna in the by-gone days was very interesting We, too, who live in the tiny village today are hoping as the editor states that "Kenna will come back" We have a very picturesque little town, located between grassy hills. We have neat, well kept homes, thrifty, agreeable people, and who knows but perhaps some day in the future Kenna may be a thriving little city.

Kenna is to have two "preaching Sundays" each month. Bro. Rankin the Baptist pastor, preaches on the second Sunday. Brother Brown, the Methodist missionary preacher, is to preach each first Sunday.

The singing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Price Crume was well attended Sunday night Mr Nicholas, the leader, who is a singer of unusual ability, was full of pep, and the others responded willingly. Next Sunday evening we are to meet at the church. Every one is invited. Come and bring someone with you.

Miss LaVerne Lightfoot of Pleasant Valley was a guest of Rowena Crume Sunday night.

Kenna school is progressing nicely. We have two splendid teachers, and the boys and girls are doing good work.

R. H. Crosby ("Dad") as he is known, had the misfortune to break a bone in his ankle recently driving a runaway. He has suffered considerable pain from it. The correspondent does not know how he is getting along at present.

The Kenna-to-Elida school bus is filled almost too full with junior high and high school pupils. In all probability one truck cannot haul them next year.

Kenna had a light shower Sunday night. We need a good rain badly. Crops are ready for harvesting.

Mrs. J. B. Fattenfield is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Leona Evans. Her husband is employed in Arizona.

Mrs. Early returned home from her visit in Texas. We are glad to have her back with us.

Mrs. Claude Elder's mother is recovering from a severe fall.

Several of the members of our Sunday school were unable to be with us Sunday on account of illness. We hope they will be with us next Sunday.

SOCIAL

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The teachers of the Portales schools were the special guests of the Methodist Missionary Society last Wednesday when the organizatino met for an all day meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brown.

Each of the members had brought one dish of food for the noonday meal which was served promptly at a few minutes after twelve o'clock, thus giving the teachers ample time to enjoy the meal with their hostesses.

The business session and the program was deferred until another meeting, and the day was devoted entirely to a social occasion, for the society celebrates the accomplishments of the year with an annual social session.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The junior department of the Baptist Sunday school enjoyed a picnic last Wednesday evening at the H—— ranch.

This department some months ago purchased a piano for its own use in the Sunday school and have paid for the same on installments. The Sunday preceding the picnic the last debt upon the musical instrument had been paid and the party was a celebration of the event.

There were about sixty-five who gathered at the church at 3:30 and drove to the picnic ground. A bountiful supper was spread and later ice cream cones and watermelons were served.

Mrs. J. C. Compton is superintendent of this department and was in charge of the arrangements for the outing celebration. Several of the teachers were busy and unable to be present at the picnic. The teachers of the junior department are Mr. Hill, Tip Fullerton, Murray South, Mrs. Sam Fletcher, Miss Ora Dendy, Mrs. F. W. Stephens, Misses Mary and Wilma Coe, Mildred Stinnett and Mildred Disney.

EVENING OF BRIDGE

The visiting team did its work in splendid manner and was very effective to the members present, as well as the candidate

H. E. Taylor has been elected superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school and during this week department superintendents and teachers have been chosen and now all is promising for a school better and bigger than the church has ever known.

With a splendid body of able Christians to guide the work of training the young, the pastor finds the work he is trying to do greatly stimulated and aided.

Miss Lois Webb is president of the B. Y. P. U., and in the name of the organization extended a vote of great appreciation to the hosts and hostess for the very delightful evening.

There were about twenty-five of the young people in the party and were chaperoned by Mrs. Rolfe Barnard.

After enjoying the melons and the outdoor games during the early evening hours, the members of the party returned to their homes, as a great many were school students and had responsibilities which required their attention.

DINNER IN CLOVIS

CONSERVE SURPLUS FOOD BY COOPERATIVE EFFORT

New Mexico has been blest this year with an unusual abundance of both fruits and vegetables. In most of the fruit growing counties, large crops are assured while almost every county of the state boasts of its gardens. From reports of county Extension agents nearly every rural housewife is taking advantage of this bountiful supply and canning, both by individuals and clubs, to the fullest extent. Even at this, in many counties there is a decided surplus which, if properly conserved, would be of material benefit to those people who, for lack of material and equipment, are unable to take advantage of the present conditions. However, many individuals and organizations in a county can have a part in saving for needy people fruits and vegetables which are abundant now and which can be sold for little money.

During the coming winter, many people will need food and charity organizations will be called on for help. Many people who can not give money to help others who are out of work, will now give fruits, vegetables, and meats for canning. These products, to be of greatest value at the time of most need, must be conserved for winter use and canning is a very effective way.

Other people, who have no surplus of fruits and vegetables from which to donate, either as individuals or members of organizations, can have a part in this great work by doing the actual canning. This effort also provides a means of cooperation between rural and town people.

As jars or cans will be needed if products are canned, and sugar may be necessary, organizations may contribute by furnishing them. The canned products can then be stored and distributed through welfare channels during the coming winter months to those in greatest need.

In some counties, such work is already being done with the cooperation of many individuals and organizations, under the direction of the Extension service.

Irish Potatoes Yield Extra Good

H. Redburn of the Bethel community reported to the News office that he had one of the finest potato crops ever produced in the county.

His patch consists of 8 acres, where the soil was specially prepared last year by alfalfa. Under some of the hills more than thirty potatoes were removed, and extra large in size.

Mr. Redburn has only started the harvest, and as yet does not know what the yield per acre is going to be, but expects the largest of any previous crop.

CHRISTIAN AID SOCIETY

Mrs. T. E. Hensley and Mrs. E. H. Hudson were joint hostesses last Thursday to the ladies of the Christian Aid Society when that body was entertained in the Hensley home.

The opening devotional services were given by Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. C. A. Lorts.

Mrs. W. H. Catt was in charge of the program, which was a lesson study on the subject, "History of the Restoration Movements." The members assisting Mrs. Catt were Mrs. W. W. King, Mrs. C. A. Lorts, Mrs. J. J. Brown, Mrs. J. W. McMinn, Mrs. E. H. Hudson and Mrs. P. E. Jordan.

Mrs. R. E. Morey, who is here from Madison, Wisconsin, to visit her daughter, Mrs. Turner Hensley, was a guest of the afternoon, and the Aid members had a very happy visit with her during the social hour.

The serving of refreshments also marked the pleasantness of the social time.

Mrs. W. I. McCarty and Mrs. Durwood Wright will be the hostesses when the Aid meets the first of October.

"Why My Next Car will be A FORD"

WHEN you buy a Ford there are two things you never have to worry about. One is reliability. The other is long life.
Here's an interesting letter from a Ford owner in North Carolina:
"My Ford was purchased May 8, 1928, and has been run 121,767 miles. It has never stopped on the road for repairs of any kind whatsoever except punctures.
"The brakes were relined at 101,000 miles. My gas mileage averaged 21 miles to the gallon, and on tires, 19,000 miles per tire. I travel over all kinds of road conditions—mountainous and flat.
"I consider this a wonderful record and I assure you my next car will also be a Ford."
This is just one of many tributes to the reliability and long life of the Ford. A Ford owner in Iowa tells of driving his Ford 73,000 miles in a single year. Another writes of 120,000 miles of good service.
Think ahead when you are considering the purchase of an automobile and consider what it will be like after thousands of miles of driving. Will you still be satisfied? Will you still say "it's a great car"?
If it's a Ford, you know everything will be O. K. It will be taking you there and back in good style, just as it has always done. And you will have saved many important, worth-while dollars in cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly depreciation.

Governor Says...

protests against the fight are still coming in, and that the W. C. T. U., of California, Tuesday morning wired urging the fight be stopped.

Numerous letters from New Mexico protesting against holding the fight have been received over the week end, he said.

That the Socorro bull fight will not be as bloody an affair as Governor Seligman has believed it might be was indicated Tuesday with word from El Paso that an affidavit was required that the four bulls imported from Mexico must be returned in good condition.

Socorro Wants Fight

Socorro residents are determined, however, to have some sort of a bull fight.

Mrs. W. E. West of Socorro, wife of one of the committee members, brought word to Albuquerque that "there will be a bull fight."

She said her husband told her to assure everyone that a bull fight will be staged.

She said that four bulls have been imported from Mexico, and that there are two more at Las Cruces ready to be shipped to Socorro.

who talked for about thirty minutes on national conditions.

"We must raise the income tax rate on the multi-millionaires so that they will pay their pro rata share of government expense, asserted Senator Bratton.

"The capitalistic system is now on triel," said the speaker. "The government and that system must solve the problem or the capitalistic system is doomed. The principal cause of our trouble is the unequal distribution of wealth.

"Three per cent of our people pay 90 per cent of the income tax. Conditions are such that six men are absolutely able to paralyze the circulation of money, the expansion or contraction of industry. That is dangerous to our republic.

"We should not only raise the amount of income tax rates on the multi-millionaires, but we should also increase the inheritance tax rates on big estates.

"The next congress should adopt another emergency road program and we should build highways and government buildings wherever they are needed.

"We must scale the tariff rates. The Smoot-Hawley tariff bill has paralyzed international exchange. Something must be done to relieve that situation, and personally I favor the debenture plan which would insure the producer of the middle west getting one-half the benefits from the tariff.

"The iniquitous tariff law we now have has been the cause of millions of American dollars being invested in factories in other nations, thus depriving American labor of many opportunities to earn a living."

Senator Bratton also announced that he favored a three-year suspension of the armament building program, provided a majority of the nations would agree to it.

After the speaking, a luncheon was served at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at which the many visitors and the fair committee were guests.

Chairman G. W. Carr presided, with Arthur F. Jones acting as toastmaster.

This meeting was opened with the introduction of the members and guests.

Short talks were made by Senator Bratton, Lt.-Governor Hockenhull, Congressman Chaves, Gov. Dillon, Henry Ainsley, Dr. Bradley and Mason King.

After the luncheon the visitors spent the afternoon viewing the fair exhibits.

FLORENCE NELSON WAUSON

A fond wife and mother, a loving daughter and sister was taken from the home, and a considerate friend from the community, when Mrs. Florence Nelson Wauson passed away Tuesday night at the Clovis hospital, following a very brief illness.

Florence Evelyn Nelson was born in Newark, Missouri, February 19, 1905, and was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nelson.

When a very small child she was brought to Roosevelt county by her parents, who homesteaded in the Redlake community. She attended the grade school in that community, and when ready for the high school, came to Portales where she graduated with the class of 1924.

After her graduation she accepted the position of cashier for the New Mexico Utilities Company. She was a popular and efficient employee and held the position until she resigned in July, 1926.

She later became Dr. J. S. Pearce's assistant in his drug store and held that position until her marriage to H. C. Wauson.

Never being of a robust nature or powerful strength, she was unable to take a very active lead in matters outside her own home or duties, but was always willing to help in every way possible to the full extent of her physical ability.

She leaves, with other grief-stricken relatives, her small daughter who is too young to realize the great loss she has suffered in the death of her mother. The husband, parents and brothers are broken in grief.

The body of Mrs. Wauson was brought from Johnson Bros.' Mortuary in Clovis Wednesday noon to the home of her parents here in Portales, and there remained in the tender care of her loved ones until three o'clock when it was carried to the Christian church for the funeral services, conducted by Rev. Claude A. Lorts.

The flowers were many and beautiful. All a silent but pretty tribute to the memory of this young girl whom her friends had loved and her acquaintances greatly esteemed.

The young men carrying the body of their friend to its last resting place were Ernest Wheeler, Turner Hensley, Harold Sweetland, Jay Slone, Willard Owens and Lorace Disney. The first five named were in the same graduating class in 1924 when Florence completed her work in the Portales high school.

Attendants from the Wheeler and Johnson Funeral Home here in Portales were in charge of the interment services at the Portales cemetery.

Six girls of her graduating class of the Portales high school acted as honorary pall bearers, and the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary supplied an escort.

Texas Passes Cotton Edict

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 22.—Governor Ross S. Sterling today signed the bill reducing Texas cotton acreage next year and in 1933 to about one-half of what it was this year.

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 22.—A bill acreagee in Texas to 30 per cent of the cultivated land for 1932 and providing for reduction of cotton the cultivated land for 1933 and 1933 afaited only the signature of Governor Ross S. Sterling today to become a law.

The measure, expected to reduce the Lone Star State's production by about half, was passed by both houses of the legislature yesterday. Observers expressed little doubt that the governor would sign the bill immediately.

The bill was Texas' answer to pleas of the South to the nation's largest cotton producer to legislate against over-production. The legislature discarded the "no 1932 cotton' plan, which Louisiana and South Carolina have enacted into law.

Each Texas farmer would be prohibited for two years from planting in cotton more than 30 per cent of the total cultivated land this year. After 1933 there would be no fixed percentage limitations, but no land could be planted in cotton in successive years.

Those opposing the bill declared it was unconstitutional because it deprived persons of property without due process of law. A test of its constitutionality in the courts was virtually assured.

The bill provided for a penalty of from $25 to $100 an acre for violation. Inspectors of the state department of agriculture would be instructed to report all infractions.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY MEETING

Mrs. E. M. Kornegay was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the members of the Baptist Missionary Society. The meeting was postponed from Monday in order that some of the ladies might attend the call meeting of the Workers Council which was held in Clovis on Monday.

Mrs. O. S. Strickland, president of the society, conducted the business meeting and gave a report of the Clovis meeting.

Much of the business session was devoted to plans for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors who will be in Portales at the state meeting in November.

The lesson for the afternoon was a mission study, the subject being "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem."

Mrs. Kornegay was assisted by her daughter, Miss Knight Edward in serving the splendid refreshments during the social hour.
