DALLAS ONLY STOP IN FLIGHT NOW PLANNED

Lieut. Maynard Expects to Make Trip Next Week Landing But One Time.

RELATES INCIDENTS OF HIS CROSS-CONTINENT JOURNEY

Ten Lives Were Lost In Connection With Contest Ended On Saturday.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Lieutenant Belvin W. Maynard, victor in the army's air race across the continent and returned, the greatest aviation endurance test of history, landed here at 1:50 p. m. His official landing time was 1:50:05.

Lieutenant Maynard flew the 152 miles of the last stage in his great flight from ocean to ocean and return, at a speed of nearly two miles a minute. Several minutes before he landed his plane was visibly flashing across the cloudless sky in the brilliant sunshine of a perfect autumn day.

The first persons to greet him as he stepped from his machine at the conclusion of his historic flight were his wife and two little girls, who rushed across the field amid the frantic cheering of the hundreds of spectators who were marshalled at a safe distance by special details of soldiers.

Tribute to Companion.

The first words uttered by Lieutenant Maynard when he put his foot on Mother Earth again were a generous tribute to Sergeant N. E. Klein, his companion on the flight.

"Sergeant Klein deserves the greatest credit," said the lieutenant. "It is all up to the lieutenant," promptly retorted the sergeant.

"He is the greatest pilot on earth."

Between Lieutenant Maynard and his wife, it was not a question of words. Mrs. Maynard was at the side of the airplane almost before it had come to rest, and her husband leaned from his seat and embraced her silently. His two little girls were then lifted up one after the other to kiss their triumphant father.

Proof of Courage.

Lieutenant Maynard's second public announcement following his tribute to his companion in the great race was a signal proof that neither his courage nor nerve had been affected by the gruelling test to which they had been subjected. He declared with a smile that he would be off again within a few days in an attempt to make a one stop trans-continental flight. The single stop will be made at Dallas, Texas, and the lieutenant said he expected to make the attempt within the coming week.

The most joyous member of the party, at least as far as demonstration went, was Trixie, the Belgian police dog, who accompanied the flying parson as his mascot. Trixie's delight at finding the solid earth under her once more knew no bounds and she dashed around and around the plane joyously barking.

Ten Lives to Toll.

The grim spectre of death winged its tragic flight with the army's great trans-continental air derby. Ten lives had been the toll to the time Lieutenant Baynard crossed the finish line. Seven had died actually in the contest and three in connection with it.

From New York to San Francisco the route of the flight was dotted with disabled planes which were forced to land and quit the race, or rushed to destruction from the air. Many fliers were injured, and the 20 control stations between terminal points saw first aid work from day to day as the derby progressed.

Sixty-two contestants started the big race—the most adventurous peaceful air competition the world has ever known. Forty-seven took the air from Mineola and 15 from San Francisco, on Wednesday, October 8, for the 5,000 mile round trip, high speed aerial journey. Before the first plane shot into the air for the start, two aviators had met their death while on the way to participate in the contest. At Bustleton field, Colonel Townsend F. Dodd crashed to his death on Sunday while making ready to fly to Mineola. The day before, Major Patrick Friscell was killed in the wreck of his machine near Fort Jarvis.

Three More Meet Death.

On the first day of the race three more met their end, and five machines were wrecked. Major Dana H. Crissy and Sergeant Virgil Thomas, his echanican, were killed when their mechanican, were killed at Buena Vista field, Salt Lake City, and Sergeant W. H. Nevitt, mechanician for Colonel Gerald C. Brandt, died from injuries sustained in the smash of the Brandt plane at Deposit, N. Y.

Lieutenant E. E. Wales died on Friday, October 10, from injuries received when he drove his craft into the side of the mountain in the haze at Overt Pass, Wyoming. Worth D. McClure, a passenger in Major A. L.

REPORTS FROM PETROGRAD ARE CONTRADICTORY

Reported Capture of City and Kronstadt Are Not Confirmed by Reports.

CAPTURE OF GATCHINA NOW SEEMS ASSURED

Was Affected Only Friday and Not Several Days Ago as Announced.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—No confirmation has been received of the report that Petrograd has fallen, apart from a private message to the Stockholm Svenska Dagbladet, reporting from "an authoritative source" that cavalry of the Northwestern Russian army has entered Petrograd.

By Associated Press.

While unconfirmed reports from Scandinavian and Finnish sources reassert today the capture of Kronstadt and the entrance of General Yudenitch's army into Petrograd, authoritative information at hand only goes so far as to assert the capture of Gatchina, 20 miles from Petrograd, with indications that Krasnoe Selo (Red Village), 16 miles almost directly south of Petrograd, may also have fallen. The capture of Gatchina, according to British war offices information, occurred only yesterday although the Scandinavian advices had been announcing this as a fact for several days.

On the left Esthonian troops with General Yudenitch are just outside of Krasnoe Gorka (Red Hill), on the Gulf of Finland about 30 miles due east of Petrograd. Their further advance toward Petrograd seems held up by the guns of Kronstadt, and of the Russian fleet operating under its protection. From Gatchina General Yudenitch again, according to the British war office reports, holds a fairly straight north and south line 60 miles south of Luga on the Petrograd-Pskov railway. The island fortress of Kronstadt is evidently the key to Petrograd, and so long as it remains in Bolshevik hands it will be extremely difficult to complete the capaign against Petrograd by the capture of that city. At Krasnoe Selo, the old summer camp of the Russian guard corps or even at Tsarkoe Selo (Tsar's Village), former winter residence of the Russian Czar, which is 14 miles south of Petrograd, General Yudenitch's troops would still be out of range of the guns of the remaining battleships of the Bolshevik Baltic fleet, but the immediate approaches to the city are commanded by these warships and the lines which now resemble an inverted fish hook, can with difficulty be straightened out and brought into Petrograd to the north until Kronstadt falls.

UNEASINESS IN PARIS OVER BALTIC SITUATION

PARIS, Oct. 18.—General Mangin, the French member of the inter-Allied commission to superintend the evacuation of the Baltic states by the troops of General Von Der Goltz, will leave Paris immediately for the Baltic, it was decided today by the Supreme Council. Brigadier General Sherwood A. Cheney U. S. A. and representatives of the other great powers will follow in a few days.

The conference has received messages to the effect that General Yudenitch was expected to take Petrograd within two days. It has no advices, however, regarding the reports that his army had actually entered Petrograd.

There is great uneasiness in Paris over the Baltic situation, the continued menace from the presence of German troops in the Baltic region and the increasing possibility that Petrograd may soon change hands and thus put add Northern Russia into the same unsettled state which prevails in the Baltic provinces.

This, it is feared, would afford a wonderful opportunity for a commander of the type of General Von Der Goltz, who has demonstrated unusual strength as a leader of guerilla warfare such as that now common in Northern Russia and who has surrounded himself wit ha large number of fearless adventurers of a similar character. These might possibly show greater powers of organization in Soviet Russia than the Russian leaders who now are pressing on toward Petrograd and Moscow an dmight turn the overthrow of Bolshevism into a decided German victory.

Investigators who have recently been in the Baltic provinces have reported to the peace conference that General Von Der Goltz undoubtedly has plans prepared for eastward movement if opportunity should offer and probably is ready to give central Russia a new government of German making. For this reason members of the peace conference are anxious that the demobilization of the forces of General Von Der Goltz be effected immediately lest his troops move into Soviet Russia and greatly complicate affairs should the Lenine government be overturned.

PRESIDENT MUST CONTINUE USE OF REST TREATMENT

Reported To Be Resting Well With No New Symptoms Developed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Wilson passed the best day he has known since his present illness began, Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his physician, said tonight. No operation will be necessary to relieve the swelling of the prostrate gland which has complicated the case, and the President is making slow but satisfactory progress toward recovery from his nervous exhaustion.

This was the conclusion reached by the six attending physicians after a consultation late today which lasted more than an hour and a half. Their optimistic views were reflected in the bulletin issued at 10:00 p. m.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Wilson rested comfortably today and his physicians were increasingly hopeful that the prostatic complications which has retarded his recovery would not necessitate an operation.

Rear Admiral Grayson held another consultation with Dr. Hugh Young, the Baltimore specialist called in yesterday; Dr. Francis X. Dercum, noted neurologist of Philadelphia, also being present on his regular weekly visit to the President, as were Rear Admiral Stitt, Doctors Sterling Ruffin and H. A. Fowler of this city.

Dr. Grayson said the visit today of Doctors Young and Dercum did not mean a change for the worse in the patient's condition. On the contrary, he said, the President seemed to have responded to treatment by Dr. Young yesterday, and after a good night's rest, was comfortable and cheerful today. The morning bulletin said:

"White House, October 18, 1919, 11:20 a. m.

"The President rested well last night. There is no material change to note in his general condition. No new symptoms have developed.

"Grayson.
"Ruffin.
"Stitt."

Aside from the prostatic complication, the President's nervous condition was not expected by his physicians to permit his return to his desk at an early date, and the rest treatment prescribed will be continued.

COMMISSION IS TO ATTEMPT SETTLEMENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—Secretary Wilson announced tonight the appointment of Mayor Hylan of New York, F. Paul Zacarelli of New York and James L. Hughes, immigration commissioner at Philadelphia, as a special conciliation commission to attempt to settle the longshoremen's strike at New York.

NO PROSPECT FOR RELIEF FROM THE SUGAR SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—No relief from the present sugar situation is in sight and the probabilities are that conditions will become more serious, the Senate agriculture committee was told today by Dr. Alonzo Taylor, of the department of agriculture.

Consumption has increased about 18 per cent compared with last year, Dr. Taylor said, due largely to increased manufacture of candy and soft drinks to satisfy a demand resulting from prohibition. Other causes given by the witness were rebound from war time repression and extravagance due to present prosperity.

BRITISH FEARS REGARDING U. S. NOW REMOVED

Vote on Shantung Amendment Accepted as Proof of Administration Strength.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The last fears of British officialdom that the United States would repudiate the peace treaty appeared today to have been dispelled by retention of the Shantung amendment in official quarters, as well as in a section of the press, this is accepted as final proof of the administration's strength. Adoption of the covenant, in view of the sentiment here, is virtually assured.

Declaring that the vote on Shantung was satisfactory, the Daily News says the fate of a further amendment, eliminating the Shantung clause altogether, is immaterial.

"If America prefers to dissassociate herself from that particular provision no serious harm will be done," the paper says. "It is of first importance that the American representatives be in their places the day the League of Nations starts active work."

Decision As to Mandates.

"Next to the treaty ratification the most important question is America's decision with regard to mandates. The hope of a favorable answer will not be dismissed until an unfavorable answer is given definitely."

An editorial in the Pall Mall Gazette reflects general relief, saying, "attempts to wreck the treaty upon still greater issues may similarly prove less formidable than noisy."

An official of the foreign office declared:

"Coming as a climax to a series of Wilson victories—small, but adding cumulatively to the administration's prestige—the senate vote sees to clinch the outcome. It has entirely removed the last vestige of early apprehension in official circles over America's intentions."

British officials believe the handling of Shantung by the League of Nations will be assumed only after the settlement of Fiume which will be the first test of the League's efficacy. If the League succeeds in Fiume, it is believed it will inspire sufficient confidence to justify a scond trust.

NEWBERRY CASE TO BE REPORTED TO GRAND JURY

Will Make Inquiry Into Election Held in Michigan For U. S. Senator.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The Department of Justice announced tonight that after "careful investigation" it had decided to bring before a Federal grand jury in Grand Rapids, fraud charges arising out of the nomination and election of Truman H. Newberry, as United States Senator from Michigan. The action is based, the announcement states, on complaints filed with the department, "and also public charges of fraud and corruption" made by the Lieutenant Governor of Michigan, and others.

Frank C. Daily of Indianapolis, former United States district attorney for Indiana, has been assigned by the department to conduct the investigation. In previous election fraud prosecutions, the statement says, the department had found Mr. Dailey "to be fair and impartial and free from political bias."

WEATHER FORECAST FOR COMING WEEK.

HEAVY PENALTY FOR STRIKE BY RAILROAD MEN

Permanent Railroad Legislation Advanced by Senate Commerce Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Permanent railroad legislation was advanced a step today, the Senate Interstate Comerce Committee completing work on its bill providing for return of the railroads to private ownership and operation, under strict government supervision, and with drastic provisions against strikes or lockouts.

The bill is to be reported out early next week and placed in position for Senate debate immediately after disposal of the treaty, with leaders planning its passage next month.

Anti-strike provision of the bill provide fines of $99 or 6 months imprisonment, or both, for railroad employes or officials or others convicted of participating in or aiding strikes or lockouts. The prohibition against aiding strikes was inserted, committee members said, to reach both radicals and labor leaders who "aid, abet, council, command, induce, or procure" action toward a strike.

Provide for Committees.

In order that grievances of employes may be heard and adjusted, the committee provided for the establishment of general and regional committees on railway wages and working conditions, to be composed equally of railroad employes and employers.

In its principal features, the final committee bill is similar to the original Cummins draft. It provides for return of the roads with 60 days after the enactment to private operation and control under regulation of the Interstate Commerce Commission and a new Federal transportation board.

Creation of not less than fifteen or more than 25 competitive regional railroad systems by the transportation board is proposed, and the Interstate Commerce Commission is authorized to fix rates which will make certain a return of at least 5 1-2 per cent on the actual value of the railroads in the regional systems, plus one-half of one per cent for improvements. Earnings above six per cent are to be divided between the carriers and the board.

INSTRUCTED TO DENY REPORTS PUBLISHED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The American embassy at Mexico City was directed today by the state department to deny as absurd reports published in Mexican newspapers that the United States was undertaking to establish an aviation base at San Quentin, Lower California.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 18.—R. H. Miller, Kansas City, Mo., was today elected president of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ, in convention here. Graham Frank, Dallas, Texas, was re-elected secretary.

CAPTURE THREE MEN WHO ROBBED BANK NEAR CORDELL, OKLA.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18.—Three men alleged to have been the bandits who held up and robbed the State Bank of Korn, near Cordell, Okla., early this morning, escaping with several thousand dollars in Liberty bonds, were captured while waiting for a ferry across the Canadian River, near Tuttle, late this afternoon.

Tuttle officers, armed with shotguns, pretended to be hunting ducks on the river, and surprised the alleged bandits. Four hundred fifty dollars worth of Liberty bonds were found sewed in the cushion seats of their car. A fourth man is still at large. The three men are in jail at Chickasha.

AGREEMENT ON BARGAINING BY THE COMMITTEE

Take Declaration of the Public and Labor Groups as a Basis.

DISCUSSION HINGED ON RIGHT OF "OUTSIDERS"

Numerous Drafts Are Submitted Before Delegates Harmonize Their Differences.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—A tentative agreement on collective bargaining was reached by the general committee of the national industrial conference tonight after tn all-day session. Committee members will consult with their respective groups tomorrow and take final action on framing a report to the conference will be taken by the general committee tomorrow night.

The committee agreement was reached by taking the declaration of the public and labor groups as a basis and adding to the sentence recognizing the right of wage earners to organize "in trade and labor unions," the words "shop" and other industrial institutions."

The proposed compromise also substitutes for the sentence of the original declaration recognizing the right of organized labor to be represented "by representatives of their own choosing," the word "by representatives chosen by a majority of their own members."

Retains Original Form.

The tentative declaration retained the form of the original and was broken up into twelve different parts, each item stating a specific principle, in order to be readily subjected to amendment.

The discussion in committee hinged almost entirely on the right of "outsiders" to represent eployes in negotiations with employers. It was a day of ups and downs, during which at times agreement seemed in sight, and at times the breech widened and compromise seemed impossible. The committee recessed frequently to allow the labor and capital groups to caucus, and during the day numerous drafts of a declaration were submitted and rejected.

Farmers Will Support.

C. S. Barrett, president of the Farmers' National Co-Operative Union and a member of the employers' group of the conference, declared agriculture generally would "support labor in its demand that the right of collective bargaining be recognized by the industrial conference." His statement was issued just before his departure on a visit to his home in Union City, Ga.

"The national board of farm organizations has officially indorsed the Capper-Hersman bill," he said. "This bill gives to the farmers the clear right to collectively dispose of their products.

"Collective buying and collective selling are general policies inevitable. It will be ipossible for this conference to prevent their consumation.

TO USE SOLDIERS AS STRIKEBREAKERS SAYS DEPARTMENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Thousands of longshoremen continued on strike today despite statements of union leaders that the strike was over. It was said the men remaining out were being influenced by radicals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Federal authority stepped in today with a determination to combat the strike of New York longshoremen.

Major E. O. Power, representative of the war department in its dealings with the water front situation, said he intended to man every army base at Brooklyn with soldiers. He said he telegraphed Major General E. T. Hines at Washington, acquainting him with the new developments. These included the action of 600 longshoremen in quitting work at army piers today.

"Strikebreakers should be used at every dock," Power said, saying he had arranged to obtain troops for the all of the nearby camps.

The strike led to additional violence today. Policemen charged 200 longshoremen at Brooklyn, but their clubs hit the wrong heads, according to union leaders, who say the men were waiting to go to work and had taken no part in the strike agitation.

U. S. CAN HAVE REPRESENTATION ON COMMISSION

Privilege Is Granted Whether or Not the Treaty Is Ratified By Senate.

VIGOROUS PROTEST MADE BY REPUBLICAN SENATORS

Administration Leaders Declare President Is Authorized to Appoint Delegates.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—The supreme council today adopted a resolution that delegates of the great powers may sit on the various commissions created under the German peace treaty and may vote on questions before these commissions, whether or not their governments have ratified the treaty.

If the United States Senate does not object, it is stated to be probable that American delegates will take the places assigned to the United States on such commissions.

Germany is anxious to have the commissions begin their work fully organized, it is declared, and is particularly desirous of American representation on them.

Signor Tittoni, the Italian foreign minister, sat in the council today for the first time since his recent return from Rome. He has been ill for the last two days. The subject of Fiume was not taken up by the council at this meeting.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS ENTER STRONG PROTEST.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Republican leaders declared emphatically today that the Senate would not consent to participation by American representatives in the League of Nations or other international commissions until the peace treaty had been ratified by the Senate and specific laws enacted later by congress authorizing such representation and providing for their expenses.

Opposition to premature participation of American representatives, these leaders said, is so pronounced that a new reservation declaring that appointment of American delegates shall await legislation by congress, is under consideration. The suggestion for a specific reservation on this point, it was said, has come generally from the entire Republican membership of the Senate.

Vigorous Criticism.

Today's reports from Paris regarding the American representatives brought vigorous private criticisms from Republican leaders of the Senate and this was expected to be renewed later on the Senate floor. They declared appointment of American delegates before the Senate acted on the treaty would be an affront to the Senate and another usurpation of power by the executive branch of the government.

Administration Senate leaders, on the other hand, declared the President had full power to appoint American representatives on the commissions though they expressed doubt that he would do so if the Senate made formal objection.

Any attempt to put the Senate on record as opposing such a step would be certain to fail, they predicted, citing in support of their prediction the defeat of the Fall amendments to the peace treaty proposing elimination of the United States from representation of these commissions.

In Hands of Executive.

The administration senators said they knew of no movement for an affirmative expression by the Senate authorizing acceptance of the offer of the supreme council, and did not expect one. Until the Senate acted on the treaty, they added, the negotiations for the establishment of a status of peace were in the hands of the executive entirely.

Provisions were made for the establishment of a federal commission on wages and working conditions. The commission would have a number of subordinate regional committees for prompt settlement of local disputes.

The committee's anti-strike clauses, which now are expected to remain in the bill as reported out next week, follow those in the original Cummins bill, except that the penalties against interference with interstate commerce would apply to those who foment railroad strikes, such as outside labor leaders as well as to the railroad employes.

Persons convicted of fomenting or engaging in strikes would be held guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both.

Plan Steps Looking to the Further Relief of Congested Conditions at the Postoffice

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Steps looking to relief of congested postal conditions in Wichita Falls will be taken by the postmaster general as soon as necessary data is procured. Congressman Parrish has had the question of additional postal facilities up with Second Assistant Koons, but owing to lack of data temporary halt has been called in the negotiations. Congressman Parrish is advised that much delay would be encountered in efforts to procure an endarged permanent postoffice building but believes a temporary building can be secured at an early date to serve till the permanent structure can be secured. However until an estimate of the size and location and cost of the temporary building is secured no additional steps can be taken. Parrish said today he is waiting arrival of this data from Wichita Falls.

Further negotiations were had today with the railroad administration by Representative Parrish looking to relieving the freight congestion and blocked railroad traffic at Wichita Falls and vicinity. The administration promises immediate steps toward remedying present blockades.

Parrish to Urge Congress To Investigate Congestion Unless Relief Is Furnished

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 18.—Following prolonged efforts in a combined deterination to have the railroad administration eliminate the freight congestion prevailing at Wichita Falls, and throughout Northwest Texas, Congressmen Parrish, Lanham, Jones and Hudspeth announced today that unless there is decisive action taken by the railroad management to relieve present distressing conditions they will place the whole ugly question before Congress.

These four congressmen have secured an appointment with Director General Hines for Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning, and they will then vigorously urge a clearing of the freight congestion and readjustment of traffic conditions in West Texas. If they do not secure prompt action as the result of this conference Representative Parrish said tonight, they will introduce a resolution in the House demanding a congressional investigation into the whole situation.

ABANDON HOPE OF PREVENTING COAL STRIKE

Conferences Fail to Bring Employer and Employe Nearer Together.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—There seemed little hope tonight of averting the strike of half a million bituminous coal miners, called for November 1.

After a series of conferences with labor leaders here and telephone talks with others in the central coal territory, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, announced that the miners would go out unless all demands, including the five day week were granted.

The operators, standing by their decision not to consider any proposal looking to a shorter weekly schedule, and refusing to open negotiations unless the strike order was withdrawn, charged that the miners were trying to freeze the country into submission by insisting upon acceptance of "impossible demands."

Will Not Call Strike Off.

"The strike will not be called off," Lewis declared.

"We will not arbitrate whilen the strike order stands," said Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' scale committee.

Meanwhile pressure was being sought to bear on both sides from many quarters to adjust their differences. Lewis said there would be enough coal on hand November 1 to keep the country warm thirty days.

Secretary of Labor Wilson, at whose invitation the scale committees of the miners and operators will meet with him here Tuesday, declined to comment on the negotiations, and continued to hope that he would be able to bring about peace.

Tonight President Lewis said recent report by the Federal Trade Commission revealed "that never before in the history of the mining industry have the operators been making such astounding profits upon coal produced."

CHIEF'S QUICK WORK RESULTS IN ARREST ON FORGERY CHARGE

Quick and decisive action on the part of Night Police Chieff Scott and Detectives Overbey, Arledge and Lesuer last night landed B. F. Plotts alias J. A. Harris, a stranger here, in jail on charges of forgery and passing forged instruments.

Eight labor drafts, all drawn upon C. H. Stevens, assistant treasurer of the Gulf Pipe Line Co., with offices at Houston, all alleged to be forgeries, and $196.77 in cash were found upon the man's person. B. C. N. Van Cleave and J. N. Farmer both of the gulf companies here identified the checks and pronounced them forgeries.

Plotts was arrested in Anderson store by one of the clerks when he endeavored to cash one of the checks in payment for a purchase he had made. The clerk grabbed the man and the police were called. Detectives Arledge and Overby arriving immediately after the call, for they were on the trail of the man at the time he was caught.

L. T. Alexander had reported to Night Chief Scott an hour or so that a man had approached him and offered him half of all the money he could get if he would be the dupe to cash the checks. Chief Scott immediately told the detective department and Overby started on a round of all the stores to warn them to cash none of the checks but to hold the man until an officer could arrive, in the even he entered.

Last night there was no way to tell how many of the checks had been cashed here.

The man wore a new pair of shoes bought since his arrival. He told the detectives and a reported that he bought the checks from a stranger man with whom he had played dice in the railroad yards at Fort Worth.

He persisted that his name was J. A. Harris, and held well to his story despite the fact that his hat bore the initials "B. F. P." as did his linen.

A letter in his pocket was addressed to B. F Plotts, 617 Texas street, Fort Worth, Texas. The letter bore the signature of J. L. Ragan later learned from the gulf offices he a foreman for the company tanger. The letter had inclosed identification card and instructed Plotts to call at the company's ces in the Burk Burnett building ort Worth, and get his time.

Two of the checks were made payable to J. A. Harris, while six were made in honor of Fred Wade. They were the regulation labor drafts of the Gulf companies, and had been signed and doubly countersigned in indelible pencil.

Detectives Overby and Arledge last night were searching for the other man they supposed was with Plotts, thought by them to be the man giving the name of Wade.

Pantages Vaudeville At Wichita Theatre

FIVE YEAR OLD MISS ON PANTAGE'S BILL FOR COMING WEEK

Novelty vaudeville, covering a wide range of amusements, is the offering Manager Kirkpatrick makes for the week at the Wichita Theater this week. There will be a whole lot of songs, and almost equally as much dancing, with acrobatic feats and lavishly gowned women to add to the merriment of the attraction.

But, the least shall be first, to paraphrase a well known biblical quotation, and for this reason the wee Miss Dorothy Waters must be presented first in this pre-program of what is to be.

This little Miss, so the advance notices say, boasts of but five winters and one continuous spring, found in her sunny disposition. To lessen your confusion at the rhetoric used, she is five years old.

She has been on the Pantages circuit all season, though and she sings and dances her way into a tawny that resembles in size that drawn by an oil man or profiteer. There is nothing amatuterish about her act and she has won the plaudits of the multitudes wherever she has played. Her's will be the last act of the excellent program.

First will come the Empire Comedy four, which comprise Joe Jenny's quartette. They do comedy songs and dances and pull a lot of witty stuff that will keep your old head working to get.

Joe Fanton & Co., three men and a woman, present "A Morning In Camp," an acrobatic, gymnastic act that has many new and novel features.

Lelia Shaw & Co., present a comedy skit called "There She Goes Again," which is rather mystifying as to the link between the name and the act. The two men are Lawrence Williams and Charles Burnison, while Miss Shaw is the woman of the company, and the star. She is known as "the best dressed woman in vaudeville," while her dancing, particularly the butterfly dance, delights the heart of the admirer of the beautiful.

This company carries its own scenery, while the costuming is gorgeous, say advance notices.

Amoros & Obey will present eccentric rope skipping acrobatic dancing and other interesting entertainment. This act has a decidedly foreign atmosphere, while the woman in it wears stylish Paris gowns and picture hats.

The past week eclipsed even the excellent attendance of the opening week at the Wichita, and Manager Kirkpatrick declared yesterday that with the exceptional bill for this week that he expected even more people to see the show.

TENT THEATRE LOCATED AT TENTH AND OHIO

"HER SILENT SACRIFICE" COMING TO THE PLAZA

When a woman loves, she is ready to make any sacrifice. That is the moral of "Her Silent Sacrifice," the gripping heart-interest photodrama in which Alice Brady, the Select Picture star, ill appear at the Plaza Theater next Monday and Tuesday. The loved one, an American artist, has great talents, but needs the suport of some influential person to further his career. The arrival of Prince Boissard, an old roue, gives her the opportunity, and the unsophisticated little country girl promises to give herself to him in return for his aid to the young artist. The Prince fulfills his part of the bargain, and in the meantime plies the girl with every luxury and attraction of smart Parisian society life. After this artist receives the Grand Prize, the girl carries out her part of the agreement by publicly acknowledging the Prince as her lover; but the Fate which watches over true lovers saves her from the greatest sacrifice. Through the Prince's Hindoo servant, the tangle is finally unravelled, and "the man and the maid" embarked together upon the blissful seas of matrimony.

Like every Select Star Picture, "Her Silent Sacrifice," with Alice Brady, will thrill you and gladden your heart.

"VALLEY OF THE GIANTS" AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY

It is confidently asserted that "The Valley of the Giants," which is Wallace Reid's new Paramount-Artcraft picture and which will be shown at the Empress Theater Monday and Tuesday, is a photoplay that will transport the spectator into the land of the big redwoods of northern California.

The story, which is one of Capt. Peter B. Kyne's most charming and masterful creations, deals with life in the big tree country. There are found great and noble specimens of manhood, strong in mind and body, as invincible to greed and hatred and dishonesty as the big trees themselves.

Mr. Reid plays the role of a young man who has promied his father to protect, at all personal risks, a beautiful forest glade known as The Valley of the Giants, which had been a gift from the father to his wife before her death. Colonel Pennington, an unscrupulous and cunning rival of the young man's father, tries to get possession of this property.

How the property is almost lost and then finally recovered after a series of thrilling incidents, is graphically depicted. A beautiful love romance is woven into the story, and it is considered to be one of the best in which Mr. Reid has been seen in many months.

James Cruze directed, Frank Urson photographed the scenes, and a powerful cast portray the various supporting roles. Grace Darond plays opposite the star.

FARNUM IN "RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE"

One of the strangest chapters in American history is vividly presented in the great photoplay, "Riders of the Purple Sage," in which William Farnum will appear at the Gem theater Thursday.

Based on the Zane Grey novel of the same name, "Riders of the Purple Sage" relates a story whose setting is Utah in the early days of the Mormon settlement, and gives an illuminating insight into the practices of some of the former leaders of that sect.

The play starts with the abduction of a girl by a powerful dignitary of the Mormon cult, and tells a thrilling story of a year's long hunt by her brother for the man who wronged her. The extent of the power of the elders of the church over their followers is startlingly revealed, and to students of American history the picture will prove an amazing narrative of a factor in the great West's growth that is not generally known.

"LOOT" IS ATTRACTION AT MAJESTIC MONDAY

"Loot," to be presented at the Majestic Theater Monday is a genuine thriller—real melodrama—the kind that makes you sit tight, hold fast and breathe hard—that transports you out of your daily hum-drum life and makes you part and parcel of the biggest most daring robberyever put through in a modern city. Not a tawdry, picayune theft of a few dollars in a back street but the robbery of the biggest jewelry establishment you ever saw—a hold-up of hundreds of people—a block in the city's traffic—the telephone service out of commission—the police force paralyzed. A clean story—a virile picture—an absorbing love drama. Just exactly the kind of sensation that you don't believe in till you see it—and then you realize that there's a mighty good chance any day of its coming true.

NEARLY $1,000 RAISED FOR ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL FUND, ABERNATHY REPORTS

Subscriptions to the Roosevelt Memorial Association Fund of Wichita county for the establishment of a national memorial to the late Colonel Roosevelt in Rock Creek Park, Washington, now total upwards of $1,000, according to J. R. Abernathy, chairman of the local committee.

Subscriptions are not all in and it is believed that with a little more canvassing the amount can be materially increased.

Mr. Abernathy, who was a close personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt's is particularly eager that Wichita Falls subscribe generously to the fund.

DR. WILLIAMS TO SPEAK ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AT NAZARENE CHURCH MONDAY

Rev. R. T. Williams, D. D., who was for a number of years the president of Peniel University, will speak at the Nazarene church, corner of Fifth and Bluff streets, Monday night, Oct. 20, on the subject of "Christian Education." The general public is cordially invited to hear this address.

Dr. Williams is one of the general superintendents of the Nazarene Church and has devoted practically his entire life to educational work connected with the church.

YOUTHS CHARGED WITH BREAKING INTO LOCAL STORES ARE GIVEN BOND

Four youths, all 16 to 18 years old, were released under bonds of $250 each Friday afternoon following their arrest on charges of burglarizing five business houses here last May. Each youth made a statement to the city's detective department in which he is said to have confessed his part in crimes.

Because illness necessitated the absence of Assistant Police Commissioner Goodfellow from the station, Mayor Marlow acted in his stead and allowed the youths' parents to vouch for them and they were released on probation, and are to report each week to the police. The idea, said Mayor Marlow, was to give the boys a chance to make good.

The youths are reported to have confessed to entering the Herbert & Wheat store, where they got $23 and a quantity of candy, cakes and other confections; the Parmenter Brothers Store, where they stole a pistol and a quantity of cartridges of wrong caliber for the weapon; the Kress store where they could get to none of the goods they sought; the Palace pool hall, where $5 in pennies was stolen, and Anderson's Store, where a suit of clothes comprised the loot.

The National Bank of Commerce possesses all the necessary equipment, facilities and organization for up-to-the-minute, efficient and practical service, and at the same time its officers and employes furnish courteous, friendly attention to every customer whether his account is large or small. 142-1tc

Courtesy and Service
Will Save the World!

This business stands on these two rocks. We are here to render the fullest possible service to people who need things and who wish to see things that we are supposed to provide, and it is our principle to render this service with every possible courtesy.

In our opinion, there can be no real happiness for the worker unless he takes pride in his work—and who can take pride in a thing that is not well done.

What greater happiness can there be than to realize each night that one has done good work that day and MADE NEW or BETTER FRIENDS?

That is the daily ambition of the owners of this business and we trust that it is the desire of all those who work for us.

Each day we try to make this store provide still better Service, with a fullness of Courtesy that will win more and more friends for ourselves and those who work with us.

Yes; Dresses HAVE Been Made More Beautiful

A year ago, it scarcely seemed possible that gowns could be made more artistic and graceful; but what a delightful surprise awaits the woman who doubts today!

These new frocks for afternoon wear and gowns for evening functions not only claim the most exqiusite silken textures; they are not only beautified with fascinating laces and other adornments; but they are designed on such charmingly becoming and youthful lines that every woman who sees them must simply love them—especially when worn by herself.

Of course, they are shown in quite exclusive models—most of which are in only one of a kind, for women who require individuality in their apparel.

Charming New Hats for Women Who Have Waited

Now the Winter hat simply MUST be secured, and we are splendidly ready, with a wonderful new collection of the cleverest models we have yet shown.

More and more, the Turban proves its right to popularity, by the beautiful effects that the milliners have produced in this charming shape. But, the admirers of large Hats and Sailors will find equally delightful assortments in the shapes that they prefer and all are equally correct.

A Satin That Never Wears Rough

When you purchase Satin you expect charming sheen and silky lustre. Here is a Satin of rare beauty with an additional advantage of utmost importance.

Satin Francais Will Not Wear Rough.

It is a firm, rich, silken Satin that will not split open with wear, that will retain its color and beauty and serve for season after season.

See this fine Satin in our silk department. You will find its beauty irresistible, and we know that you will come back for it again and again after you have worn it once, in some glistening, glowing evening shade or in a rich, velvety street shade.

Fashion Highly Favors Furs

Never have furs been more in demand than they are for Fall and Winter, 1919-1920. To be well dressed, fur in some form or other, seems to be almost essential. Our selections contain long and short coats; also stoles, collars, scarfs and muffs in many new and artistic shapes, made up of Hudson seal, mole, nutria, mink, muskrat and fox. The assortments are generous and prices are moderate, affording splendid selections for those desiring to choose now and avoid the shortage of furs certain to prevail later in the season.

The NEWEST FOOTWEAR Styles

Fashion's proclaimed correct for Fall and Winter wear.

A wonderful showing of smart models for men and women.

Here are the newest of the new shoes. Not a model in the showing that does not bear the stamp of fashion's approval. Not a single pair that is not worthy of a place among the footwear of the best dressers.

Particular men and women, who realize that upon their selection of shoes greatly depends the appearance of their apparel, can select here from stocks that afford excellent opportunity to provide just that necessary finishing touch which distinctive footwear imparts.

These are among the latest and most approved styles.

LOCAL WOMEN MAKE GIFTS TO KEMP LIBRARY

Through the generosity of several Wichita Falls women the Kemp Public Library walls are to be hung with reproductions of famous pictures, Miss Poliy Roberts, the librarian, states. Some time ago, when the Freyermuth art collection was on display at the library, Mr. Freyermuth presented Miss Roberts a handsome steel engraving of George Washington for the library. There is no appropriation for pictures for the library, consequently the picture remained unframed until Mrs. S. L. Fowler wanted to do something for the library and the frame was her gift. Several other women interested in the library, and in making it an attractive place gave frames for pictures to hang in the children's room. These pictures Miss Roberts allowed the children to select, choosing their favorites from a portfolio of reproductions of old masters. Those who framed the pictures for the children's room were: Mesdames N. H. Martin, C. W. Snider, Wade Walker, W. B. Hamilton, E. M. Cyrus, T. P. Adams, T. A. Hicks, W. W. Silk and C. H. Clark.

GIRLS FRIENDLY HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

An exceptionally interesting meeting of the Girls Friendly Society was held Friday evening at the parish house of the Church of the Good Shepherd, with about 35 members present. A short program with the work of the Girls Fiendly Society, both local and national, as the subject was given. Miss Florence Sammons told of the Girls Friendly Society in America and Mrs. Lester T. Miss Nelson gave an entertaining reading. The program was concluded by a talk from the rector, Rev. F. T. Datson.

During the business session the program for the coming month was planned. The next meeting, Friday, October 24, will be Physical Training Night with Miss Ruth Clark, Y. W. C. A. recreational secretary as director. The following Friday will be featured by a Hallowe'en party, the next by a home economics study and the fourth Friday's program will be an evening of parliamentary instruction and drill.

The final plans were made for sending off the box of clothing to the French war boy which the society has adopted. The box will be packed and sent off this week.

A social hour was enjoyed, the girls dancing to Victrola music. Miss Collins, acting as hostess, served tea and wafers.

BY JAQUELINE.

Lady Duff Gordon designed this frock and whimsically called it "Looking Back." Who but she would so daringly combine walnut brown silk paulette with georgette crepe, fashioned over a soft satin. The three different materials are all held in the same tone of this most becoming Autumn brown shade; even the dainty venice lace shirring is dyed in the same color. The very lines of this afternoon gown speak of almost forgotten modes found only in old portraits which she so cleverly adopted to present day wants.

CIRCLE WILL MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

Circle No. 1 of M. E Church, South will meet with Mrs. N. H. Martin, Monday afternoon. The Bible study lesson for the evening will be the book of "Nehemiah."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS LARGE AMOUNT OF BUSINESS TO CONSIDER DURING WEEK

A large amount of business awaits the return of Secretary Hubert Harrison of the Chamber of Commerce from Dallas Monday. Many important matters, civic and otherwise were allowed to rest while Mr. Harrison was busy at the Dallas Fair with an exhibit of the city and county's resources.

It is quite probable that a director meeting will be held sometime during the week to hear a report of how Wichita Falls was represented at the Fair, and to plan a schedule of business for the fall and winter.

Mr. Harrison expects to have some interesting facts and figures on the attendance at the Wichita Falls exhibit and the number and character of inquiries concerning the fastest growing city in the United States today.

EDITORIAL

John Todd said, "Set it down as a fact to which there are no exceptions, that we must labor for all we have, and that nothing is worth possessing or offering to others, which costs us nothing." "John Todd must have been a really worthwhile merchant," said a mercantile prince when he heard that quotation. It is certainly true when it comes to catering to the demands of the public. You see in this institution a great thing, not because of good luck or because of good fortune. You see it a big and thriving prosperous institution because we have worked for it. We have labored to make it the leader in its line, and our labors have not been in vain. Just as this great store has cost us much in labor, it is that much more worthwhile offering to you as a shopping place. The dirty, ill-kept little ramshackle store doesn't appeal to you and it can't compete with us. Labor—unceasing and impelled by the right ideals, makes the difference.

DECISION EXPECTED IN WAGGONER CITY CASE DURING WEEK

JUDGE SCURRY TAKES CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT SATURDAY.

COUNTY ATTORNEY TESTIFIES

Says Supervision of Dance Halls Lax and That Marshall-Elect Owns Interest in One.

Following a hearing lasting all morning and well into the afternoon, Judge Scurry in the 78th district court yesterday postponed the rendition of a final opinion in the quo warronto proceedings brought nullify the incorporation of Waggoner City and the election of officials there.

Counsel for the defendants, the officials of Waggoner City, were given additional time by the court in which to present authorities substantiating their contentions, prepare arguments and file a brief of their case. Pending this, the injunction restraining the officials from acting is in full force and effect.

However, an impartial observer of the proceedings would quickly conclude that the city life of Waggoner City is to be short lived, that ere long "the wag will be taken out of Waggoner City" and it will revert to its state of minus municipality, minus mayor, minus the pomp and splendor that incorporation is expected to give.

One bomb shell that fizzled and something of a scandal that did not, featured the hearing, which was set twice for Friday and postponed, and which then dragged through half the day only to go over into this week for completion.

Dance Hall Figures.

Among the allegations of the State and the relators as to why the incorporation and municipal elections at Waggoner City should be set at naught is the charge that one of the officials, Lee Carter, city marshal-elect and a deputy sheriff, is joint proprietor of a dance hall frequented by lewd women.

Judge Scurry announced from the bench, following County Attorney Davenport's testimony relative to this and his allegation that dance halls at Waggoner City are operated in violation of the law, that if the good citizens of Waggoner City, the better element of society, would ask him to do so or would lay the facts before the court, he would issue an injunction restraining the dance halls from operating and ridding the new oil town of them as he did in the case of Burkburnett.

Motion Is Denied.

The bomb shell came when Henry Bolt, city attorney-elect of Waggoner City and counsel for the defendants, of whom he is one, in the fight which threatens that infant municipality's very life, filed a motion for the court to set aside the restraining order, annul the injunction and throw the case out of court.

He cited authorities to show that election contests must be filed within 30 days after the final count of the ballots, and showed that the returns of this election were filed August 30 and the quo warranto petition not filed until September 30, a lapse of 31 days because August had 31 days.

He admitted, however, that quo warranto proceedings could be brought after the 30-day period, but insisted that election contests could not.

Judge Scurry overruled the motion and in doing so explained that the action before him was in the nature of a quo warranto and not an election contest. Counsel for the defendants took exception to the ruling, signifying that the case will go to the higher court.

Says Dance Halls Wide Open.

At the morning session of court, County Attorney Davenport testified as to the laxity which dance halls were operated, declaring that they were frequented by immoral women, and testifying that Lee Carter owned an interest in one dance hall. He said an investigation convinced him that the proprietor of a dance hall was not the person to have as chief of police.

In the afternoon he testified that a further reference to the law convinced him that the election was illegal, the incorporation without sanction of the law and the officials not qualified electors. It was this knowledge, he said, that caused him to determine to institute the quo warranto proceedings. He denied Bolt's intimation that he was influenced by R. M. Waggoner, one of the relators, in taking action.

Mrs. Phillips, wife of one of the signers of the petition to County Judge Jones asking that elections for incorporation and naming officials be held, testified that she and her husband came to Wichita county and took up their residence in what is Waggoner City last June. Previous to that time they had not lived in Texas. Phillips' name was the first on the election petition. Attorneys Davenport and Morrow, of counsel for the relators, brought out this testimony to uphold their contention that the signers of the election petitions were not qualified electors.

Waggoner on Stand.

They also placed R. M. Waggoner on the stand to prove that although he had lived in Waggoner City until April 20 he knew none of the signers as citizens of that community. Attorney Bolt endeavored to have Mr. Waggoner tell why he left the town which now is named after him, but Judge Scurry held the question immaterial.

It was developed that the petition asking the incorporation election bore but 20 names, although the population of Waggoner City is estimated at 10,000 persons.

To rebutt Waggoner's testimony, R. J. Morine was put on the stand by the defense counsel, and told that he had lived in the Newtown community for a year. Asked how long he had liven in Waggoner City, he naively asked: "Well, how long has Waggoner City been a city?" Since that is one of the bones of contention in the legal squabble, the courtroom giggled. It developed that Morine is 17 years old, yet he said he voted in the election for incorporation.

During the course of the hearing, Judge Scurry indicated that the entire issue rests upon whether the incorporation is legal. If there is no incorporation, then there can be no officials, said the court.

To Be Determined This Week.

It is expected that when the matter is finally determined this week, a petition will be presented by citizens to have the court abolish the dance halls, as he offered to do.

By the petition, Waggoner and others are in relation to the State to have the election of incorporation and that naming the officials nullified on the ground that there is no Waggoner City, that Waggoner and others own the land upon which the town is situate', that the officials are not qualified electors and that the election was illegal.

SUPPLY OF BUTTER AND CARS NOTICED BY VISITOR FIRST

How would you like to live in England and have a beneficent and motherly government sell you your four pounds of bread for nine pennies?

How would you like to live there and get no butter and be prohibited from importing an automobile, and be faced with a sugar shortage and be just the victim of the baleful profiteer that you are in this glad land?

A Times reporter asked an English gentleman, who was a visitor in the offices of Kemp &Kell, what his first impressions of America were when he recently arrived on this side of the water.

"Most I was impressed with the abundance of butter and automobiles," was the reply. "In London, you know, we seldom have butter with our meals, while pleasure cars have become very scarce, their manufacture having been stopped and their importation prohibited. You have all the butter and auotmobiles, surely that you could wish."

H. L. Webb, of the firm of Webb & Kenward, London, large importing importer of American flour and wheat who is here with Mrs. Webb, as the guests of Frank Kell and family, was the Englishman interviewed, and while he would predict nothing that might take place when governmental regulation of wheat is removed and the grain again moves to foreign markets, he gave interesting views on several topics.

For 20 years Mr. Webb has been an iporter of American flour and wheat. During the war he was one of England's "dollar-a-year men," although it is probable that over there they got a shilling or a pence or some other sort of money, their government having no dollars. Recently he married an American born girl and this is Mrs. Webb's first visit to the states since her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Webb have made their visit to Canada and the United States partly as a wedding tour and partly as a business trip. Mr. Webb calling upon many of the men and firms he did business with before the war played havor with wheat importation.

He is laying the ground work for a resumption of his business association with American grain and flour men after the government lifts its wheat control, May 31, 1920.

"No, there has been no wheat or flour shortage in England," replied Mr. Webb to a question by the interviewer. "You see, over there the government controls the wheat and flour situation absolutely. All during the war, from the time the government imposed its regulation and restrictions until now, the government has sold wheat and flour to the public at a loss, paying the American, Canadian and Argentine exporters ore for flour than it was sold for. The war loaf, what we call the 'nine-penny loaf,' which weighs four pounds and is two loaves in one, has been the adopted standard government loaf of bread.

"Bread was our cheapest product during the war. It was controlled money was lost by the government that the people might have bread."

Asked as to other foods and their supply in England, Mr. Webb said that butter is so scarce that it seldom is placed on the dining table. Milk, sugar and meat also are scarce and it may be that the sugar rationing plan will be resumed. It is expected that coal will be scarce this winter, too.

The profiteers hald sway in England, too. Mr. Webb said that while prices have at least doubled, he did not think they had advanced as in this country, more than 100 per cent.

It probably will be a month before Mr. and Mrs. Webb return to Europe. They plan to visit other parts of the United States.

Mrs. Webb, who accompanies her husband, is a daughter of A. B. Langdon, a former resident of Michigan, who went to England 20 years ago, and who since that time has been one of the largest importers of American flour in the Isles, and is representative of the Kell Milling interests in England. Several years ago before her marriage, she enteretained the Misses Kell and Kemp in her home, while they were touring England and the continent.

BURKBURNETT POSTOFFICE BORROWS EXECUTIVE FROM WICHITA FALLS OFFICE

Just as the postoffice here "borrowed" the services of J. C. Jack from the Dallas postoffice for a period of three months, the Burkburnett postoffice has borrowed Walter A. Hall, superintendent of mails of the Waco postoffice, for 90 days. Mr. Hall will act as assistant postmaster at Burkburnett.

There has been a heavy mail congestion at Burkburnett, partly due to the scarcity of executive help, and Mr. Hall is expected to assist in relieving that condition.

Mr. Jack here has been acting superintendent of city delivery and has got that department systematized in the few weeks he has been here.

OLD TIME FRIEND VISITS FRANK KELL

F. J. Becker, for 40 years connected with the Texas Star Flour Mills, which his father organized years ago as the first actual flour milling concern in Texas, and who was on the same payroll with Frank Kell when the latter was employed there as a wheat buyer, is here as the guest of Mr. Kell.

Mr. Becker has been identified with flour milling in Texas practically all of his life and is well known both in and out of the trade. He expects to re-enter the business for himself within a short while, it was learned.

KING ALBERT WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE SENATE OCTOBER 30

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Owing to the illness of President Wilson, King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and their son, the Duke of Brabant, will not be entertained at the White House during their stay in Washington from October 27 to 30. They will be the guests instead of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall.

Plans for the visit of the Belgium royal party were announced today in the following statement by Secretary Tumulty.

Secretary Tumulty today issued the following statement:

"It is much regretted that the illness of the President will make it impossible for the President and Mrs. Wilson to receive the king and queen of the Belgians and the Duke of Brabant as their guests.

"During the visit of their majesties and his royal highness in Washington the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall will act in the place of the President and Mrs. Wilson as hosts for the government of the United States.

"Their majesties and his royal highness, during their visit to Washington, will occupy the residence of the third assistant secretary of state."

King Albert will be received by the Senate and House on October 28. Leaving Washington on October 30, the party will proceed either to New York or Newport News, Va., to embark for home.

While in Washington the royal visitors will occupy the home of Assistant Secretary Breckenridge Long of the state department, which has been placed at their disposal.

ABOUT THE NEW PRINTING PROCESS.

The appearance a few days ago of the Literary Digest with the body of that weekly printed without typesetting followed by the announcement Saturday that the Los Angeles Times had appeared with a page printed by the same photographic process with several improvements shows the rapidity of progress in the graphic art.

But printing without typesetting is not entirely new. It has been done for a number of years presumably by the same process by which the Literary Digest and the Los Angeles Times were printed. Like a great many of the other arts the process was the invention of an Englishman and was given practical application by a German and brought to a higher state of perfection by an American. It is a photographic process by which typewritten manuscript is photographed onto curvey copper plates. Until recently difficulties have been experienced in printing by this process at the great speed that is necessary in the publication of daily newspapers and weeklies of large circulation like the Literary Digest.

It will probably be a number of years, if ever, before this process comes into general use. It was used in the printing of the Literary Digest as an emegrency to meet the situation growing out of a strike of printers in New York City. The Los Angeles Times doubtless used it merely to show what could be done, but these publications will create widespread interest in the process and there doubtless will be further improvements that will make it entirely practicable.

It may make possible the use of a lighter weight of water and thus help in solving one of the real big problems of the publishing industry. The increasing prices of print paper and the growing scarcity of timber supplies from which come the wood pulp used in its manufacture make any process that will make possible the use of thinner or lighter weight of paper one that will be given the most careful study and investigation. This is one of the question that publishers are already asking about the new process.

PARRISH URGES ACTION.

Congressman Parrish's threat to lay the oil field traffic situation before congress is likely to bestir officials of the railroad administration to their utmost efforts to bring about an improvement in the situation. The situation is one that has long demanded action and, indeed, efforts have been made to improve conditions and some progress has been made in this direction, but there seems to have been a failure on the part of the railroad administration to appreciate the extent of the traffic arising from the oil industry, and there is a feeling among shippers that there has been a lack of co-operation between the railroads in the handling of the problems growing out of the great volume of business that has aggravated the situation.

Mr. Parrish is not given to making idle threats. He has already won a position of influence among his colleagues in congress. Unless he is given positive assurances that real relief will be provided the Wichita Falls-Burkburnett traffic situation will be investigated bf congress.

SOME RESERVATIONS LIKELY.

Dispatches in The Times Friday indicated that the Republicans opposing the League of Nations and demanding textual amendments to the treaty had practically conceded that the amendments would be lost. It was through these textual amendments that President Wilson's opponents sought to bring about the rejection of the treaty and the League of Nations.

The next move will be an attempt to secure reservations to the treaty. There is no doubt that a number of interpretive reservations will be adopted, as doubtless they ought. It is believed that some reservations will not be objectionable to President Wilson. The great wish of the President is to see the treaty ratified and the League of Nations created. It is safe to assert that he will accept any reservations that do not make it necessary to negotiate a new treaty.

HOROSCOPE.

(Copyright, 1919, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Astrologers read this as an uncertain day. Mars and Saturn are in evil aspect early in the morning, but later Venus and Mercury are friendly.

During this sway the mind may be oppressed with discontent and quarrels, especially with elders, may be more easily indulged in than under more favorable government of the stars.

The sway is a fairly fortunate one for the interest of women, especially for love affairs and for love letters.

According to ancient lore this should be a lucky sway for the wearing of new clothing, making for becomingness as well as for long usefulness.

Again a movement affecting dress of women seems to be foreshadowed. This is held to be standardizing reform that is beneficial to those who work.

Religious controversies are foretold and some of these will affect politics. The first of the year may bring some sort of a sensation involving men in high place.

There is a sign read and encouraging judgment, foresight and reticence.

Mars is in a place read as indicating a continuance of conditions that make the maintenance of an army necessary and increased caution imperative.

There are sinister signs that are read as contradicting the hope that the last war has been fought by the United States, but the menace appears to be from the West and the South.

Persons whose birthdate it is should safeguard themselves against accidents in the coming year. They may have a busy period that severly tests them.

Children born on this day may be rash and impulsive, but generous and affectionate. These subjects of Libra may have many ups and downs in life.

Increase the Joy of Living

Music brings sunshine and renders its appointed service alike in the humblest cottage and in the palace of the king. It makes no difference in what circumstances the hand of Providence has placed us, music immeasureably increases the joy of living.

It is not an ear for music that we need, but a heart for it. We need to get music into our hearts and let its sunshine radiate through our lives. By surrounding ourselves with music we geta heart for music.

When there is music in the home, every member of the family profits spiritually and mentally. Even the children soon begin to recognize the various selections on the player-piano and the phonograph. Unconsciously, the musical taste and the love for music develops, and with that development comes refinement and grace in conduct and bearing. Children reared in the home where music abounds rarely give their parents cause for worry in future years.

Music in the home is the greatest household benefit. Nothing is more wholesome than for the young people to gather around the piano for group singing or to dance to the phonograph—to find satisfying pleasure in the home rather than to feed the insatiable craving for outside excitement.

Nothing is more enjoyable for older people than a concert in their own sitting room.

There is no substitute for music. Music entertains friends; it binds the family closer together; it is the solace for the sorrowing, the necessary vent for the joyous; it is a God-given companion to man in every mood known to man. Through the wonderful development of recent years music has been brought within the reach of everyone.

THOMAS APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER OIL ASSOCIATION

RETAIL MERCHANTS' SECRETARY SELECTED BY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

PROTEST SENT COMMISSION

Wire Declares Commission's Order To Texas And Magnolia Pipe Lines Inequitable.

The Wichita County Producers and Refiners' Association got underway in earnest Saturday morning with the appointment of John W. Thomas, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, as general manager, and wiring an appeal to the State railroad commission calculated to strike at a more equitable running of oil from the Burkburnett field—one of the foremost purposes for which the oil men organized.

Coincident with Mr. Thomas' appointment, it was announced that the executive committee of the association would meet every morning at 9:30 o'clock hereafter, in Mr. Thomas' offices, No. 214 First National Bank building for the discussion of matters pertinent to the organization.

It was also announced that more than 250 oil men interested in the Burkburnett and Northwest Extension had affixed their signatures to the agreement presented at the organization meeting of the association Thursday night. This number, it is believed, represents more than 35 per cent of the producers, which was the proportion sought at the outset, and believed necessary to accomplish the association's aims.

Expect Prompt Results.

The executive committee believes that prompt results will be obtained by the association within a few days. C. H. Clark, president, was in Dallas, Saturday pertaining to some matters of great importance to the Wichita county producers and refiners, while other agents have been sent elsewhere on similar missions. A large fund is in the process of being raised to carry on the fight for stabilizing of conditions, which were characterized by one big producer as "demoralizing" in the Burkburnett field.

Through press dispatches the executive committee learned today that some producer in the Burkburnett field prevailed upon the State railroad commission to issue orders to the Magnolia and Texas companies to run one-fourth of the potential production of his wells. It was pointed out that these two common carrier pipe lines transport about 30,000 barrels of crude a day. It was also explained that the producer who asked that one-fourth of his potential production be run would be getting more than an equitable share of the distribution of oil from the field. It was therefore decided to send the railroad commission the following telegram, praying that the commission withdraw such action:

Telegram to Commission.
Texas Railroad Commission.
Austin, Texas.

The Wichita County Oil Producers and Refiners Association composed of over 250 leading producers beg to call your attention to newspaper reports to the effect that you ordered the Magnolia and Texas companies run one-fourth of the potential production of one of the producers in the Northwest Extension and Burkburnett field.

On behalf of the executive committee this association wishes to respectfully submit that the estimated potential production of the field is in excess of 300,000 barrels per day. One fourth of this would be 75,000 barrels daily, and the Texas and Magnolia companies cannot possibly handle this amount of oil.

We wish also to submit that it is unwise and unjust to other producers to make an order on the ex parte showing of any one producer to run an arbitrary amount of oil for him.

Wells are changing from week to week and the amount of the runs can only be regulated through men who are on the ground and in touch with the entire situation and take into consideration the rights of all producers.

If press reports are correct please withdraw this order and let the companies pro-rate the oil as nearly as possible. We will endeavor to compile and present the entire facts to you.

WICHITA COUNTY OIL PRODUCERS AND REFINERS ASS'N.
By C. H. Clark, President.

A conference was later held with T. L. Coplin, who is in Wichita Falls representing the railroad commission in the oil fields, in an effort to have him lend his assistance and influence with the commission in having the order of the commission rescinded on the ground that it was unfair to other producers in the field.

At the suggestion of the executive committee a letter was written to the railroad commission explaining quite exhaustively conditions in the Burkburnett and Northwest Extension, and calling attention to the fact that unless the common carrier laws were more rigidly enforced the producers would suffer serious damage.

It was pointed out that there were many small pipe line companies operating in the Wichita county fields who were refusing to transport oil on the ground that they were not common carriers. It is the contention of the Producers and Refining association that many of these companies are common carriers and that an investigation by the commission will compel them to recognize this fact.

The selection of Mr. Thomas as general manager of the association's business met with enthusiastic approval from the members of the association. Mr. Thomas has earned an enviable reputation as an organizer and they believe that his assistance will do much toward accomplishing all that the association can hope for.

It was announced that anyone interested in the production of oil in Wichita county may take his complaint to Mr. Thomas and it will receive proper consideration.

The officers of the National Bank of Commerce know thoroughly the particular conditions which characterize Wichita county and know how to meet them. Oil men, farmers, stock men, business and professional men therefore find the service of this bank of real, practical help. 142-1tc

DALLAS ONLY STOP IN FLIGHT NOW PLANNED

Sneed's plane, was killed when the machine crashed in landing at Curtiss field, in Buffalo.

Lieutenant French Kirby was instantly killed when his plane fell near Castle Rock, Utah, last Wednesday, and Lieutenant Stanley Miller, his observer, died shortly afterward.

Yesterday Lieutenant Cameron Wright was killed at the landing field at St. Paul, Neb., when a plane in which he went up as a passenger dropped out of a tail spin 200 feet up and was demolished.

Incidents of Interest.

The great race was marked by many incidents of interest. With virtual simultaneous starts from Mineola and San Francisco, westbound and eastbound fliers strove to win the honor of crossing the continent first. News of Lieutenant Maynard's arrival Saturday, October 11, at the Pacific terminal was followed in two hours by word that Major Carl Spatz and Lieutenant E. C. Kiel had reached the Atlantic terminal within half a minute of each other. Captain Lowell H. Smith followeed them with claim to first place in actual flying time.

Maynard's actual flying time from Mineola to San Francisco consumed little over 25 hours, and the flying time of Spatz and Kiel came within the 27-hour limit they said. Army air service authorities computed Smith's actual flying time, however, at 30 minutes better than Maynard's.

Arrangements for the trans-continental air race were worked out thoroughly by the army with the cooperation of the American Flying club. Every precaution for safety first was provided in regulations governing compulsory stops and inspection of planes at the chain of 20 control stations between terminals, and supplies of food, fuel, oils,greases and spare parts on hand for aviators and machines at all times. Instructions were to hold flyers at control stations if daylight time would not allow them to reach the next station before sundown. Wind and weather reports were furnished constantly for their information and guidance of the racers.

"From the standpoint of pleasure," said Lieutenant Maynard, in an interview after landing, describing his round trip, "we had quite a bit out of it, flying over a number of states and getting into touch with people in different parts of the country."

"Our hardships were scattered over the continent. The first day was not so bad. We were tired out at night very tired, when we reached Chicago on the way to San Francisco. The aero club had sleeping quarter for us on the field. They offered to take us in town but it would have taken us a couple of hours to get back in the morning so we decided to stay on the field. We didn't get much sleep. We had straw pillows and straw mattresses and it was not very comfortable.

"Next morning we started out and encountered the roughest weather of the trip. We finally got to Omaha and the weather got better. The wind was against us but we finally made Cheyenne. We were delighted at the amount of ground we had covered at that time.

"It was freezing cold at Cheyenne. We were ready to start before sunup next morning. Four minutes before the sun appeared we started our motor. We were pouring water into the radiator and some of it fell into the overflow pipes and froze."

Temperature 20 Degrees.

"The temperature was about 20 degrees. We had to thaw the pipes out and in so doing we thought we had blown the radiator to pieces. We took it off, brought it to town and had it repaired, got it back and were ready to leave by 12:30.

"We got to Salduro that night at sunset. The people there gave us a great reception. We got away shortly after sunrise next morning and made San Francisco at 1:12. The enthusiasm was manifested by the greater number of people that turned out, the congratulations that were freely extended to us and numerous invitations to receptions that werecelved.

"The control stop commanders were unprepared for our coming. Before starting the trip we thought that the Rockies would be the worst part for us. As a matter of fact, they were not at all bad. Over the Rockies 500 feet above them, we found we could glide to a safe landing place in any valley.

"When we got near Reno we had trouble in finding the field. Smoke hung over the city and made it difficult to see. Going out of Reno we had to climb straight up."

Beautiful But Dangerous.

"Going from Reno to Sacramento was the most beautiful and most dangerous part of the trip. The mountains were covered with trees and snow. There was hardly room enough to drive an ox cart through. We crossed the mountains at an altitude of about 13,000 feet.

"We had trouble in finding San Francisco because of the heavy fog which hung over the city and were halfway across the bay before we could see the shore. We lost about ten minutes trying to find the city but had a wonderful reception when we arrived. It seemed as though the whole city was out to welcome us. I hated to leave there.

"I walked in a couple of churches last Sunday and had all kinds of invitations I could not accept and was rather disappointed to have to go away."

Misses Lunch With King.

"I was invited to lunch by the King of Belgium. He was late and I did not have time to wait. I invited him to ride and he informed me his stay was so short he would not have time.

"We had three days in San Francisco and got away about 1:20 in the afternoon on Tuesday. We found Battle Mountain, Nev., about the most enthusiastic town in the West.

"Battle Mountain is the home town of Captain Lowell H. Smith. The whole place turned out at the schoolhouse that night and they gave a dinner and dance in our honor. I did no dance. They presented us with a golden nugget and three arrowheads. We took Trixie, the dog, along for company."

Sergeant Klin interrupted the Lieutenant here to remark that during the flight "Trixie kept me company and helped to keep me warm." He said the dog was unusually cold in the mornings but kept her nose into the wind most of the time and seemed to enjoy the trip.

CORPUS CHRISTI TO PASS FROM MILITARY CONTROL AT NOON

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEX., Oct. 18—Corpus Christi passes from under martial law at noon tomorrow for the first time since the storm of September 14, when W. D. Cope, adjutant general of Texas, releases control of the district to the civil authorities. The State health department withdrew its workers today.

The State of Texas will have been in command here one month to the hour when General Cope surrenders the district tomorrow. Previous to that, the regular army forces, under Colonel John A. Porter, were in control. Rockport will still remain under martial law at the request of its mayor.

"Corpus Christi is one of the most healthful cities in Texas today," said Dr. G. W. Goddard, State health officer, on leaving for Austin tonight. "There has been absolutely no contagious disease as a result of the storm, and once more the city's hospitable gates are open to the nation.

DRILLING OPERATIONS IN THE NORTHWEST POOL HAMPERED BY HIGH WATERS OF PAST WEEK

Bad weather and high water the past week resulted in slowing up operations very perceptibly and a report from the field shows an unusually large number of wells drilling above sand depth shutdown because of weather conditions.

There have been no developments outside the proven pool of any importance during the past week, though definite news has been expected from the Skyline Oil Company's test on the Holtzen, close to Red river and in block 819. This test like that of the Burk-Senator, drilled in the river bed, has been considered as in condemned territory, because of numerous holes which were below the Waggoner sand depth, and were not producing, and for this reason the report that the Skyline was showing up for a producer aroused much interest. Operations are reported temporarily suspended on the Burk Senator well, in the river bed, because of high water. This well is believed to be good for several hundred barrels.

In block 97, lot 32, Knight subdivision, Clois Green has a 1,500 barrel well of his No. 1 Taylor, Nos. 1 and 2 in lot 38 of the Knight subdivision are reported on the sand, ready to complete.

The Gulf Production Company is reported to have several completions, their No. 4 Waggoner in block 87 being a 1,750 barrel producer, the No. 1 Elsea B a 250 barrel well, and the No. 1 Waggoner, block 86 a 1,000 barrel well.

The Majestic Oil Company's No. 2 Vogel, block 74, is reported a 2,250 barrel well and the Texas Eagle Oil Company has a 1,000 barre lwell out of their No. 1 Wagner, block 72. The Trio Oil Company's No. 1 Evans is reported a 500 barrel well.

There is a considerable amount of interest being shown in the outlying tests to the west and in the Waggoner Colony tests in the Stephen Denison survey, lying between the Burkburnett extension and the old Electra field. The Cauble Oil Company, drilling on the Dale, and the Burk Payton Oil Company, drilling on the Payton farm, are both drilling below 1,600 feet. The Burk Cameron Oil Company's No. 1 Allen, block 833 is reported temporarily shut down around 800 feet and the United Chief Oil Company's No. 1 Allen, same block, is reported drilling around 1,225 feet.

One Hundred Million Dollar Company

Old Man Cowling is organizing or promoting a one hundred million dollar company to fight the Hudson Bay Fur Company, the name of the company being "The International Cat Ranch," with it's main offices at Wichita Falls, Texas. Here is the proposition, read it, look it over and let it soak in. No wildcat scheme.

We will start with 1,000 cats (skunks), and 4,000 rats, with a division fence between the cats and the rats. The Agricultural Department has demonstrated that that it takes four rats to feed one cat and one cat to feed four rats. We will feed the rats to the cats and the carcasses of the cats to the rats. Rats multiply four times as fast as cats, therefore there will always be enough rats for the cats and enough cats for the rats, making it automatic and perpetual. Medical research has demonstrated that the smell of a skunk is sure cure for hay fever, and we figure there will be a rush of hay fever patients to skin skunks free of charge. After the first year we will have one million skunk hides or pelts worth at least five dollars each. Figure it yourself, and get this into your head: the rats feed the cats, and the cats feed the rats, and the hay fever patients do the work, and we get the money. There is no stock for sale but we are going to give away $10,000 worth of this stock to each and every man buying a home through us in the next thirty days.

Look over a few of our samples. If you don't see what you want here drop in and talk it over. We have about everything that is loose.

TENTH STREET:

5-room strictly modern, built-in features, garage, driveway, fruit trees and shade trees, lot 50 by 210 feet; price $8500; $2000 cash and balance $50 per month. How are these terms? We might loan you a little on this one.

POLK STREET:
6 rooms, fire place, mantel, hardwood floors, all kinds of built-in features galore, garage, etc., $7350, with good terms.

MONROE STREET:
We have two new homes here that President Wilson would like to live in. In fact we were figuring on writing him about these two homes. Fire places, yes. Book cases, hardwood floors and edgegrain. The kitchen is a dream. This is the home where you hear the rustle of the angels while you sleep, and the music of the heavenly choirs. You can keep your husband at home in either one of these homes, and he'll think about his wife and home all during work hours.

IN CONCLUSION:
While we deal principally in high class homes we have a few good ones from $4,000 to $5,000, with $1,000 cash payment. And, we own several of them that we can arrange the terms to suit you.

We have the exclusive sale of two close in tracts for new additions. One tract contains 37 acres, the other 23 acres. The price and terms are attractive.

A chance at you is all we ask. If you cannot find what you want with the other boys give us a chance, and if we don't sell "we smile just the same."

THE SANTA FE has built a new branch railway line through the south plains region of West Texas. A new farming and live stock region with new towns is being opened up. This territory already is partly occupied by a good class of settlers and crop possibilities proven by actual experience. Here you can profitably raise cotton, corn, sorghums and fruit. It is an ideal live stock and dairy country. Low prices for untilled lands and very easy terms. Move in early and take first pick. Write today for free illustrated folder. T. C. Spearman, 1042 Railway Exchange, Chicago, Ill. 46-tfc

TEXANS DEFEATED IN GRIDIRON BATTLE

DALLAS, Oct. 18.—Forcing the University of Texas into a defensive fight almost at the start, the University of Oklahoma football eleven triumphed over the Longhorns, 12 to 7, in a Southwestern Conference game at State Fair here today.

Marked principally by open style play, much punting, several serious fumbles and considerable ineffective forward passing, the contest produced little sensational individual work, although the consistent work of several performers on each team counted vitally at crucial times.

Neither team showed an attack that compared with its defense in the first two periods, and the resultant punting exchanges, the honors were about even between Swatek and McCallum. The last half, especially the final period, found Texas resorting to repeated forward passing in a frantic but unsuccessful effort to win.

In the second period Texas retained the ball on an intercepted forward pass near her own goal line, but when McCallum attempted to punt from behind the posts, Marsh blocked it and a safety for Oklahoma resulted, giving her two points.

After a somewhat see-saw fight in the third period, M. Tyler, receiving a forward pass from Davis, Oklahoma halfback, shook off several Texans and counted a touchdown after a 20-yard run. Davis kicked goal. Davis added Oklahoma's final three points in the last period on a 30-yard goal from placement.

Texas heartened her followers in the third period when, in the shadow of the Oklahoma goal posts, Greer blocked Swatek's punt, and Graves grabbed up the ball and plunged over the goal line for a touchdown. McCallum kicked goal. After that, Texas tried everything she had, but with out avail.

Line-up and summary:

Texas (7)		Okla. (12)

ELECTRA DEFEATS CRIPPLED ELEVEN FROM LOCAL HIGH

The badly crippled Wichita Falls high school team was defeated by the Electra high eleven on the Electra grounds Friday afternoon by the score of 27 to 7. The game was harder fought than the score indicates as there were several players on both sides who were taken out of the game on account of injuries, among the being Abe Bashara, of the local team who was knocked unconscious, and had to be brought to this city in an automobile. Bashara was struck on the head in a line buck and it was thought at first his injuries were serious but Saturday morning he was reported as feeling little effects of the injury.

Electra scored three of her touchdowns in the first half and only one in the last half. Most of the gains were made on straight football, there being only one forward pass successfully completed.

Wichita Falls made her only touchdown by a series of end runs by Ray Patton and Edwin Weldon, which brought the ball to Electra's 5-yard line where Ray Patton carried the pigskin over the line for a touchdown.

One of the prettiest plays of the game was the desperate effort of Luke Wilson of the local High to overtake the Electra runner, who got away after a fumble for a 50-yard run to a touchdown.

The shining luminars of the contest were for Wichita Falls, Luke Wilson, Edwin Weldon and Ray Patton; for Electra, Cross, who playew full back. A return contest between these two team has been arranged for two weeks from last Friday on the local grounds.

The officials of the gaffe were: Referee, Greer; Umpire, Mathis; Head linesman, Smith; Timekeepers, Densmore and Robinson.

DOOM HOVERS OVER THE CORNELL CAMPUS

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 18.—A little gloom hovered over the Cornell campus today. Announcement that Davies, star half back, had irritated an old injury in yesterday's workout and might not be able to play caused some concern about the critical game with Colgate. Either Mackenzie or Hasbrouck will take his place and Dunen will start at end instead of Wilson, who is in poor condition.

THE TIMES READERS TO HAVE FIRST HAND INFORMATION ON SITUATION IN THE BALTICS

The Times is in position to promise its readers an interesting series of articles dealing with the general political, social and industrial situation which presents itself in the Baltic provinces of Russia. Mr. Phillip Witz, buyer for the Southern Electric Company of this city, has kindly consented to write a series of articles exclusively for the Times, in which he will describe his experiences during the time he spent in Russia, and will give in detail his views of the origin of some of the many far-reaching problems that have for the past few years faced the statesmen out of the old Empire of the Czars.

Mr. Witz was born and reared in Oger, in the Province of Lipland, which is about thirty-two Russian verst southeast of Riga. He has also travelled extensively in the Baltic provinces. His splendid knowledge of the Lettish language enabled him to become familiar with the life and customs of the inhabitants of those provinces; consequently, his views on the conditions in that part of Russia will doubtly will prove of great interest to all who are acquainted in a vague way with present day developments in that far-away country. As far back as 1890, while he was only a small lad changes and under-the-surface movements, destined ultimately to shake the throne of the ruler of all the Russians, were easily discernible by the thoughtful. As he grew up to manhood in his environment of continual change he learned to apreciate keenly the multitudious problems confronting the natives and which must be met and mastered before an era of government by the people could be ushered in.

The people of these provinces were among the very first to lift their voices in protest against the rule of the Romanoffs, and, at all times this valiant people were struggling on towards freedom and democracy in all walks of life. Thousands upon thousands of them paid the supreme price for their devotion to the high ideal of liberty in the mines and prisons of Siberia. The struggles and heroism of this brave people will receive their share of Mr. Witz' attention in his articles.

Mr. Witz was well acquainted in all the circles of commercial and political life and activities of the City of Oger. His comments on the situation in that famous city will be of the greatest interest.

These articles will appear in the Times as often as Mr. Witz' time will allow him to write. He is 34 years of age, and he is of Jewish decent.

WICHITA FALLS

Is confronted with a great shortage in residence lots. The above statement is absolutely true and we can convince you in very few words. Study the topography of the city for a minute, located between a river and a creek, which run together, forming a city in a "V" shape. Both streams occasionally overflow, which naturally condemns considerable low lands for building purposes. The city can't grow east and not much further south. To the north of the river, outside of Scotland Addition, practically every tract of land for quite a distance is occupied or owned by the railroads, refinery and industrial sites.

What does this prove? That at least one-half the area of all land surrounding the business district of Wichita Falls is eliminated for residential purposes, forcing the city to grow in a shoestring shape along the car line to Lake Wichita. This condition brings about high price residence lots, even out miles from the business district. Scarcity naturally enhances values.

How are we to grow and expand? We talk of building a city of 100,000 population. This would require more than double the number of houses we now have. Where will we put them? Have you ever figured on the scarcity of sites for additions? The first thing to take into consideration is the distance out and transportation facilities. The next thing is the city conveniences, water, lights, sewerage, gas, telephone, etc. Do you know how difficult and almost impossible it is to get these conveniences? Of course if you had all these problems solved it would be easy enough to go way out on high lands in any direction and put on an addition to the city. Under present conditions this is prohibitive and no one is going to undertake it.

The consequences are that vacant lots are daily becoming scarcer and more valuable and there is no excuse or reason why anyone wishing to purchase vacant lots should wait for something better and cheaper.

Located about half way between the business district and all the refineries and industrial plants on the north side is the only close in addition that you will ever have a chance to buy lots in. It is in easy walking distance, only one mile from the postoffice and lots are much cheaper than lots four and five miles out on the car line. This addition is now within the city limits and will soon have most of the conveniences and we are fighting hard for all of them. The lots are 50x140 feet, elevation four feet higher than court house block and impossible to overflow. The stockholders are now considering the advisability of raising the price of every lot, and no doubt a raise will take place in the near future.

This beautiful addition must build up. Fifty houses have already been constructed. Houses are in great demand. Resolve to answer the cry for homes. Our lots are cheap. Rents are enormous. Get busy and do something for the wage earner, so we can build a great city here. You will make big money on your investment.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

New York Stocks, Grain and Provisions, Cotton and Livestock.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, Oc. 18.—The week on the stock exchange ended very much as it began, with sharp advance in motors and related issues.

Equipments also shared in the movement, relatively the most active session of the week, though gains in that quarter were less extensive.

Numerous "peace" industrials were to the fore at new high records, notably American Woolen and several of the shipping and chemical shares, tobaccos and leathers also displaying market strength.

Rails and the better known steels were backward most of the time, their rally in the second hour being partly forefeited in the heavy realising just before the close. Sales amounted to 800,000 shares.

Despite he week's activity in the stock market, the bank statement disclored the very substantial decrease of some $60,000,000 in actual loans and discounts and another moderate gain in excess reserves.

General news of the reported a favorable turn in the impending coal strike situation and progress in the plan to organize a vast railroad equipment.

The bond market was irregular on the easier trend of high grade rails, Liberty issues alos reacting slight.

Total sales (par value) aggregated $9,750,000. Old U. S. bonds were unaltered on call during the week.

Final prices on Liberty bonds today were: 3½'s 100.50; first 4's 96.30; second 4's 93.66; first 4¼'s 96.30; second 4¼'s 93.82; third 4¼'s 93.40; fourth 4¼'s 93.60; victory 3¾'s 99.68; victory 4¾'s 99.64.

COTTON MARKET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Early declines were followed by rallies in the cotton market today owing to apprehensions of renewed rains in the southwest and bullish crop advices December closed at 34.28, with the general list closing steady, net 3 points lower to 20 points higher.

The market opened barely steady at an advance of 2 points on October, but generally 10 to 25 points lower and sold 25 to 30 points below last night's close during the first half hour. The decline was checked by the Western belt forecast for cloudy or increasingly cloudy weather, however, and the market rallied quite sharply later in the morning on covering or trade buying.

October sold up to 34.25 or two points net higher, while January advanced to 34.12 with the active months generally selling 2 to 22 poins net higher. Later in the morning New Orleans dispaches reported a slightly easier spot basis but closing prices here were within five or six points of the best.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18.—Weather news governed the course of prices in the cotton market today during the greater part of the session. A more favorable map than had been seen for some time caused early selling and a loss of 25 to 27 points, but late in the session nervousness over prospects of more rain in Texas, which some traders saw in the area of low pressure to the west of the belt, caused new business for long account, on which the market firmed up rapidly, carrying the trading months 24 to 28 points above the level of yesterday's close. Last prices were at net gains for the day of 20 to 25 points.

Claims of an easier spot basis in the western belt helped the seller to some extent around the opening but a little later the eastern belt commenced to send in telegrams telling of sales having been made at some points at the highest basis of the season.

Bearish comment was caused by the large into sight this week which caused an increase in the visible supply of American cotton of 200,000 for the week.

Cotton Seed Oil.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—After starting lower with cotton, the market for cotton seed oil firmed up on short covering and support from the south, but realising sales effected another reaction near the close. Final prices were four points lower on November and unchanged to 10 points net higher for later months. Sales 12,300 barrels. Prime crude 19.00@20.00; prime summer yellow spot nominal; December 22.60; March 22.85; May 23.15; prime winter yellow and summer white nominal.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Bullish sentiment regarding corn became more widespread today and carried prices upgrade. The close was strong, 1 to 2½c up, with December $1.25⅝ @ 1.26⅛ and May $1.24⅝ to 1.24¾. Oats gained ⅛@⅜ to ⅝c. In provisions the finish raged from sixty cents decline to 65c advance.

Increasing reports from the interior that farmers were inclined to hold back corn for more money had much to do with the strength of the corn market. It was current gossip tha failure of other commodities to follow grain down to lower levels had especially impressed growers and had led to general belief that corn was selling too cheaply. Forecasts of unsettled weather tended also to encourage buyers. On the other hand non-resumption of work on the part of the longshoremen failed to act as an offset and so too did weakness of foreign exchange.

Oats paralelled the action of corn. Rural offerings were light but receipts here for the week totalled 560,000 bushels in excess of the shipments out.

Provisions were bullishly affected by the advance of grain. Later, however, lard underwent a reaction because of releasing sales.

WICHITA FALLS STYLE & QUALITY STORE

A FASHIONABLE MOTHER.

My mother has a brand new gown,
It's quite the finest one in town,
It has no collar and no sleeve,
And that's not all—would you believe—
It has a girdle for a waist,
She can't sit down nor walk in haste,
Or else, by fashion's late decree,
My mother, then, would show her knee,
The skirt's so tight.
But that's all right,
'Cause I heard mother say
To friends the other day,
"It matters not how high or low
One's gown is cut, for we all know
There's naught immodest now, my dears,
Unless, perchance, we show our ears."
So mother's hair, now reddish cast,
A color that will never last,
My mother fears,
For once it was a glossy brown—
Is twisted up and then pulled down,
To hide her ears.
—Maude Chandler Modlin.

The foregoing poem, clipped from a Fort Worth paper, will be of interest locally to the friends of Mrs. Modlin, who beside being a writer of verse is prominent in musical circles of Fort Worth, and has several very pleasing song compositions to her credit. Her Wichita Falls friends will be glad to learn that her latest composition, "Love's Recompense," will appear at local music stores shortly. The music to "Love's Recompense" is by Cal De Voll, composer of "Alabama Lullaby."

MISS LENA PRESCOTT MARRIES LUKE WARREN

An unusually pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday, October 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Prescott of Cashion, when their daughter Lena became the bride of Luke Warren of Iowa Park, Rev. Mr. Lefever officiating. The bridal party entered to the strains of the Mendelsohn Wedding March, played by Miss Eileen Willis, and met the minister under a floral arch, from which was suspended the wedding bell. The ceremony over, Miss Bertha Stansbury one of the brides maids broke the clapper of the wedding bell, showering the bride and groom with rice.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin and georgette, beaded in rose design, and carried an immense bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaids, Misses Bertha and Jamie Stansbury and Miss Frances Livermore, wore frocks of white, with all accessories to match. Attending the groom were Glen and John Prescott, brothers of the bride, and Roby Stewart.

The Prescott home was attractively decorated for the occasion in pink and white carnations, and ferns. A tempting three course repast was served to the wedding party and guests, following the ceremony, then Mr. and Mrs. Warren left by motor for Iowa Park, where they will make their home.

Both young people are prominently connected, and well known in Wichita county, the bride being the daughter of Lee Prescott, the county commissioner from Burkburnett district. The groom is considered one of the rising young men of his community, and both have many friends who unite in congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Warren.

Lazzari! Carolina Lazzari! She is the most eagerly sought contralto of a decade.

This Fall, she goes under exclusive contract with the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York. Yet, rival operatic stages and the concert field continue to plead for her appearance.

Why? Because there is only one voice of such rich, noble beauty in all the world.

But look at these two pictures. You see—extraordinary thing!—that

Lazzari's Voice and the New Edison's RE-CREATION are without any difference

These pictures are drawn from actual photographs. They show Lazzari in the act of comparing her voice with its RE-CREATION by the New Edison. She sang. Suddenly she ceased to sing, and the New Edison took up the same song alone. There was no difference. It was only by watching Lazzari's lips that the audience could tell when she had ceased to sing.

This test, made before more than ten thousand music lovers and music critics, proves there actually are two voices of Lazzari. This Fall she will sing not only to the music lover who sits in the Metropolitan's golden horse-shoe, but also to you, where ever you are. Both of you will hear identically the same voice. You could even change places—it would make no difference. The voice of Lazzari, as RE-CREATED by the New Edison, is indistinguishable from her voice as heard on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

We want you to hear the world's greatest contralto. Come into our store. Let the New Edison prove its RE-CREATION of Lazzari's voice is equal to any contralto you have ever heard on any operatic or concert stage.

MAYOR MARLOW SAYS PAVING INSPECTION IS UP TO STANDARD

AFTER INSPECTION WITH DR. REED PAVING ON HUFF AND ALMA IS APPROVED.

WILL BE NO TAX DODGING

Budget, Delayed on Account of Tax Rolls, May Be Presented Monday.

Paving inspectors caustically criticised at Thursday night's session of the city council for alleged incompetency, were fully exonerated yesterday by Mayor Marlow following his trip of inspection over the paving on Huff avenue and Alma street. The mayor and Dr. Reed were the only members of council to make the inspection, and they put the two inspectors through a quizz that convinced them, the officials, that both men were highly competent and were doing good work.

One little crook, that does not impair the value or permanency of the paving, said the mayor, was found. This will result in a small crooked crack. Otherwise the paving job is up to specifications and satisfactory in every way. In fact, the mayor declared that crooks can be found in paving all over the city.

"You fellows have gone ahead and published a lot of scandal when there was none," said the mayor. He was in a good humor, despite the thought he expressed that The Times story of the council meeting had created what he termed a wrong impression in the minds of the people.

Taxes Can Be Collected.

"Now, that tax-dodging statement Dr. Reed made. It shouldn't have been printed. That sort of stuff gets the people all stirred up when there is no cause for it," continued the mayor. "There is not going to be any tax-dodging and I doubt if there is an attorney in Wichita Falls but who knows there can be none, that whether we fix our budget or do not fix it the state laws protect incorporated cities so that taxes can be collected.

"And, about this budget: It would have been prepared long ago and the tax rate fixed but the tax rolls have not been ready. You see, the assessment on every piece of property in the city changed this year. All property is more valuable and there is a great volume of work in connection with the tax rolls that has not been wholly completed. It is nearing completion, though, and the budgets of estimated expense of the various city departments are being worked out, so that in the immediate future, probably Monday, there will be a meeting of the city council, adjourned over from Tuesday, when the budgets will be approved and the tax rate determined.

Mayor Worked Last Sunday.

"You newspaper boys don't ever say anything about the good things we are doing. You only jump up and tell about the things that go wrong or that we do not do. Now, last Sunday, I got a gang of men together and we worked 12 hours and hauled 300 wagonloads of mud from the streets, but there wasn't a word said about it," complained the mayor.

The reporter explained that when these matters—the good things—were kept secret by the mayor and his administration, they very well could not be told of; that even newspaper men are at least partly human and sleep most of Sunday when they work until 1:30 or 2 o'clock Sunday morning getting out a paper.

"If you will tell of these things, Mr. Mayor, they will be told gladly, for they are news," said the reorter. It was explained by the reporter, too, that when things go right there isn't much news in the going, for they are expected to go right. It's the unusual that is news.

"Now, about that crook in the paving," continued the mayor. "When Mr. McFall said what he did, I knew that conditions were not as bad as he painted, for I had been out there and knew from personal observation. He knew from what somebody told him. The trouble is, the commissioners do not get about over the city enough I go all the time. So does Dr Reed The others go occasionally through an alley and find something wrong, or see some job just when it isn't being done right and raise a fuss, when, as a matter of fact, everything is right nearly all the time, and wrong just a few times.

Paving Job All Right.

That paving job is being done right the cement is being in right and that's the main thing. The inspectors are keeping a check on cement and have been all the time and are doing their work right. If they had not allowed an inch and a half grade there a flood would have been caused. They did the right thing.

"You reporters ought not publish all the petty charges and complaints, for we are getting along fine and will continue to get along well. This is a big city now and it is working many men. Everything cannot be right all the time but there is no need for fuss and worry, for things that are not right will be righted."

And the mayor even wanted his name kept out of this story, but the reporter, being part human anyway, saw a really big interview because it was simple, straightforward and so evidently true, that he, human-like, erred, by using it all.

PATE GETS TURKEY FOR HIGH GUN AT CLUB SHOOT

The turkey donated by Wilfong & Woods to the high gun of the weekly shoot of the Wichita Gun club held Friday afternoon, went to Joe Pate, who shattered 44 birds out of a possible 50.

The next highest contender for honors was A. G. Deatheridge with a score of 42 out of 50.

The attendance this week was the lowest for some time, only four members taking part. The score follows: Deatheridge, 42 out of 50; Pate, 44 out of 50; Kooken, 13 out of 50, and Nobb 36 out of 50.

MEMPHIS ENTERTAINS VISITING COTTON MEN

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 18.—Delegates returning from the world cotton conference in New Orleans today inspected the plant of the Memphis Terminal Corporation, were guests at a luncheon and during the afternoon visited points of interest about the city. MAYOR WILL CHOOSE ONE OF TWO NEGROES AS POLICE OFFICER

WILL WALTON, ENDORSED BY NEGRO MASS MEETING, IS FAVORED CANDIDATE.

MAY BE OPPOSED BY COUNCIL

Some of Aldermen Said to Doubt Wisdom of Mayor's Move.

Either Will Walton or N. E. Jackson will be Wichita Falls' first negro policeman, with odds favoring the former, who was first choice of a negro mass meeting held in the dark belt of the city a few nights ago.

Mayor Marlow announced Saturday that he likely will appoint Walton, although, he said, "the crap shooting intimated that Walton had "no more trust over there," meaning the flats, sense than to arrest a dice playing nigger."

Councilmen are said to be divided in sentiment as to the need of a negro copper and the wisdom in appointing one. There may be a fight when the time for confirmation of the appointment comes.

At least one police official, perhaps others, is known to strongly oppose the idea. He predicts racial trouble and other dire and dangerous things the first time the negro attempts to enforce the law against a white man. He says the mayor's idea of having the negro pay heed only to negro law-breakers is impracticable—that when he takes the oath as an officer he cannot swear discrimination between the colors or the races.

Be that as it may, Mayor Marlow will name a negro police officer within a few days, and he will be one of the two men named and he will be instructed to let white persons very much alone and devote his time and talents wholly to his black and yellow brethren and sisters.

Y. W. C. A. ORGANIZING PHYSICAL TRAINING CLASS FOR MATRONS

Physical training classes are to be an important part of the work of the recreation section of the Young Women's Christian Association in Wichita Falls this winter, and Miss Ruth Clark, the recreation secretary, has made arrangements for the opening of the first class, for matrons, which will be organized next Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, in the recreation room. Other classes for the young girls, the school girls, and the business girls and women of the city are to be arranged, and announcements concerning these will be made later.

Miss Clark has made a specialty of physical classes, in her work as a Y. W. C. A. secretary, and the great interest she takes in this work, and her experience as a director, assures the success of these classes, which are now offered the girls and women of Wichita Falls. Her work as recreational secretary, and at present as general secretary, may possibly preclude her acting as director of the classes, but a competent and skilled director will be secured, it is stated, as several prospects are already in view.

The matrons who wish to take advantage of the first class forming are urged to be present at the recreation room Tuesday morning. Details of the work will be explained at this time.

Wichita county people are prospering and will continue to prosper. A good share of the money they are making should be invested where it will be assured permanent safety. The Savings Department of the National Bank of Commerce provides exactly what they need—absolute security together with 4 per cent interest. 142-1tc

Famo Stops Baldness

It Kills Seborrhea—the Scourge of Healthy Hair

You need no longer be alarmed at the falling out of your hair.

There is actually a way to prevent it.

Science discovered that the scourge of baldness was due to Seborrhea, the disease that produces dandruff.

Two years ago science found Famo.

The formula was worked out and perfected as a specific for baldness, in one of the oldest pharmaceutical laboratories in Detroit.

It was given a rigid test in the hands of reputable hair specialists.

Its efficiency was proven in scores of cases in private practice long before it was given to the world at large.

Seborrhea undoubtedly causes baldness.

It is known now that Famo actually stops baldness.

Seborrhea produces dandruff and kills the hair.

Famo grows new healthy hair by making the scalp healthy.

The action of Famo is not that of a hair lotion or a massage which rubs out the dandruff.

Famo immediately penetrates the scalp. It feeds the glands that nourish the roots of the hair.

Famo dissolves the dandruff so that it actually disappears.

Better still it kills Seborrhea, the germ of dandruff.

It improves the lustre and the texture of the hair. It makes the hair grow thicker and faster.

Famo contains no alcohol. The persistent use of alcohol on the hair dries the hair and the scalp.

Famo retards grayness by keeping the roots and natural oil of the hair in healthy condition.

If your scalp itches, if your hair is dull and lifeless, if you have dandruff, it means that Seborrhea is working against the life of your hair.

You will find Famo on sale at all toilet goods counters and the better barber shops.

It comes in a convenient trial size at 35 cents, and you can buy an extra large bottle for a dollar.

Your money will be returned if you are not satisfied.

Seborrhea is the medical name for a morbidly increased flow from the sebaceous glands of the scalp. The seborrhea secretion forms in scales or flakes and is commonly known as dandruff.

REPORT AMERICAN SOLDIERS RELEASE MEXICAN PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The Mexican consul at Presidio, Texas, has reported to Ambassador Bonillas, two violations on Mexican territory, which he says has involved the kidnaping of Mexicans by American soldiers. The consul in his reports said he had complained to the proper United States military authorities and that the soldiers were arrested and the Mexicans freed and their arms, which had been taken by the soldiers, restored to them.

No complaint has been made or is contemplated by the Ambassador to the American state department, it was said at the embassy today, because the incidents have been promptly settled by the action of the military authorities and the Mexican government does not care to create a "situation" by filing a formal protest.

On one occasion it was claimed by the consul, three American soldiers went across the border to the town of San Juan and seized a number of Mexicans, searched them and their houses and carried them back into United States territory with the arms they found. The other occasion, the consul alleges, was in the town of Barranca de la Luge and the Mexican citizens seized were taken to the town of Marfa, Texas, where they were being held by the soldiers when the consul secured their release through the military commander at Marfa.

Snake Oil

Accomplishing Most Wonderful Results

"I want to thank you for your wonderful oil," writes Mr. J. C. Gibson of Jonesboro, Ark. "My little girl was very low with diphtheria; I had given her two doses of medicine which cost me $10 with no results. I bought a 25c bottle of your oil and one application relieved her. Now she is well. It is the greatest remedy I ever saw." Mr. Gibson made this statement before hundreds of people. Mrs. Florence Meager, 234 Whitney street, Hartford, Conn., writes: "I have used your antiseptic Oil for neuralgia with good effects. Only thing I have ever tried that stopped the pain immediately." Mrs. Williams, Gadsden, Ala., writes: "I have used your great pain oil for rheumatism, stiff joints, also for sore throat, and I want to say that it is the greatest remedy I ever tried. I recommend it to all sufferers. Many cures reported daily from thousands of grateful users of this wonderful oil. Every bottle guaranteed, 30c, 60 and $1.00 a bottle, or money refunded, at The Miller Drug store.—adv.

NAMING AMBASSADORS TO GERMANY TO DEPEND ON FULFILLMENT OF TREATY

PARIS, Oct. 18. (Havas.)—Allied nations have agreed to make their nominations of ambassadors to Berlin dependent upon the manner in which the clauses of the treaty or peace are carried out by Germany, according to the Echo De Paris, which quotes a "prominent diplomat," as its source of information. Consuls will be named soon for German cities, the newspaper says, and these officials will look after interests of their nations until ambassadors are chosen.

DEFEAT PLAN TO AMEND THE CANON ON MARRIAGE

DETROIT, MICH., Oct. 18—With much stronger opposition than was offered in the last convention, three years ago, the proposal to amend the canon on marriage today was defeated by vote of the clergy and laity of the Protestant Episcopal Church here.

The proposal would have made it impossible for the clergy to officiate in the marriage of any divorced person whose husband or wife was still living. After bitter debate the majority report of the committee on changes, recommending against the change, was accepted.

The house of deputies late yesterday rejected by non-current vote substitution of a new prayer for the President of the United States for the one now in use, a transcription of the prayer for the king used in the English church.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, "flatly refused to recommend or sanction the shipment of any munitions or rifles to Carranza," according to a letter from R. B. Sutton, of the American Gun Company, read today to the senate committee investigating relations between the United States and Mexico.

CHARGES HUSBAND WITH CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Summons and complaint in a suit of Mrs. Helen Stokes against her husband, W. E. D. Stokes; her stepson, W. E. D. Stokes Jr.; Thomas Stokes, a brother of her husband; Albert H. Gleason, Stokes' attorney, and the Mervyn Realty Company charging conspiracy, were on file here today.

Mrs. Stokes alleges the defendants conspired to defraud her of her dower interests in the property of her aged husband estimated at $1,000,000.

Stokes has submitted to Supreme Court Justice Gavegan an affidavit denying charges made by Mrs. Stokes in a motion for separation with allmony and counsel fees. She charged him with cruelty and diffidelity.

With Stokes' affidavit was a letter which he said was written by his son at his request. It reads:

"My Darling Pop: I am sorry to say I was intimate with Helen at Narragansett Pier this fall.

"W. E. D. Stokes Jr., January 11, 1919."

MEXICO IS THREATENED WITH FINANCIAL CRISIS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Liquidation of the commission reguladora, the sisal growers' organization in Yucatan, ordered by the Yucatan government because of the depreciation of the paper money of La Reguladora, and the high price of silver have combined to create another financial crisis in Mexico, according to official advices received today in Washington. The Yucatan government's order for liquidation of La Reguladora created a panic in the state and the chamber of commerce in Meridia was in session for several days and nights in an effort to prevent the liquidation. The legislature, however, is now considering a bill providing for the liquidation of the company in accordance with the orders of the government and the federal government is said to have refused to extend any aid to the state authorities in handling the situation.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH LOSES HEAVILY IN THE RECENT STORM

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Oct. 16.—Damage amounting to at least $25,000 was done to church property of the Episcopal Diocese of West Texas by the flood disaster, according to reports made to the diocesan headquarters of the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church. In Corpus Christi alone the damage to the Church of the Good Shepherd was $10,000. The rector, Rev. J. W. Sykes lost all of his personal effects.

B. S. McKenzie, of San Antonio, chairman of the diocesan campaign committee, sent out an appeal to the members of the Episcopal church to rally with immediate relief for the stricken parish. The disaster automatically increased the needs of the diocese previously tabulated for consideration in the Nation-Wide Campaign of the church to increase its work and equipment. Mr. McKenzie added that the disaster had changed the entire situation as many communicants who would otherwise have supported the campaign liberally would be unable to do so because their crops had been destroyed, depriving the members of this year's income. New figures will have to be compiled for the Nation-Wide Campaign, said Mr. McKenzie.

Work in the other dioceses of the Episcopal church requested in the Nation-Wide Campaign includes religious centers in the new oil boom territory of Dallas diocese—at Burkburnett, Ranger, Eastland, Cisco, Desdemona, Gorham and Breckenridge. The influx of population, drawn by the oil boom brought in a big number who were unchurched by the lack of religious centers. The Nation-Wide Campaign has been asked to provide funds for churches and workers for this field.

AMES APPLIED TO AUTO MODELS HAVE INTERESTING ORIGIN

here are many styles and types of omobiles in use today, but prob- the five best known and most ular in the United States are the pe, the Sedan, the Limousine, the ring Car and the Roadster. The three names are French in their in and the last two are English. he word "Coupe" was applied or ally to a four-wheeled closed car e for two persons inside, with an ide seat for the driver. It is de- d from the French word meaning cut" and is so-called because it s the appearance of a larger car. e cut in half. The word was later n and applied to the present en- ed car with one seat in the rear, river's seat, and an auxiliary seat. he word "Sedan" is probably one the oldest terms applied to a ve- e for transportation. It was used the first time in France and takes origin from the French city of that e. This name takes on a peculiar ificance now when it is remember- that the sensational advance of shing's fighters reached Sedan n the armistice was signed. The Sedans were portable enclosed irs carried on poles by two men. y were extremely popular in Eng- d are are still used in China, Aus and India. The modern Sedan an enclosed body and accomadates en passelngers. Because of the le enclosed compartment it is pop- ly known as the all season, all pur- e family car.

"Limousine" was originally the name a cloak worn in France, and prob- y originated from Limousin, the name of an old province in central France. Today it is applied to the chauffeur-driven car with an enclosed compartment. The driver's seat is outside, but covered by a roof.

"Roadster" was first applied to ves sels that worked their way by means of the tides. Later it was used for bicycles. The modern roadster has an open body and was designed pri- marily for two persons, but of recent years the four door roadster, accom- modating four passengers, has met with popular favor.

The touring car, which is the most familiar type of car, takes its name from the fact that it is used by motor- ists on lengthy tours. It is an open car also, with a tonneau and four foors, seating seven passengers.

"The nine new styles of the 1920 Haynes character cars which have met with such a tremendous demand throughout the country are in a great way responsible for the popularity which these types of cars enjoy," says Nolen-Stringer Co., who sells Haynes cars locally. "Since the appearance of the 1920 Haynes sedan, coupe and limousine the increase in the demand for closed cars has been especially noticeable. Whereas the sedan and coupe a few years ago were used most- ly for city purposes, these types are now being used by thousands of mo- torists for long distance tours. Be- cause of their all-purposes, all-season adaptability it is predicted that they will grow more and more in popular favor. The open styles, namely the touring car and roadster, will never lose their hold upon the favor of the car-using public."

CHANGE IN PERSONNEL OF OVERLAND MOTORS CO.

Announcement was made during the week of a change in the personnel of the former Overland Sales Com- pany, in which A. B. Booth and J. C. Lewis were partners.

W. J. Daugherty, who until a year ago was associated with the company, has rejoined it as a part- ner of Mr. Booth's. The firm name now is the Overland Motors Co. Mr. Lewis is no longer connected with it.

For the last year Mr. Daugherty has been connected with the Fire- stone Tire and Rubber Co. of Dallas.

While cars are not plentiful, the Overland company states they are managing to keep their trade well supplied with cars.

BIG SHIPMENT RECEIVED BY McFALL BROTHERS

The road conditions have so much improved during this past week that McFall Brothers, dealers in Dodge Brothers cars, have been able to drive from Waurika, Okla., some thirty cars which have been held up there for some time. The arrival of these cars has put them in position to take care of a nice lot of their orders and has also put them in position to make de- liveries on new orders in something like ten days or two weeks earlier than previously.

McFall Brothers have just received the first one of their new model "Oil Field Special", designed by them for especial use in the field, which is a combination of the roadster with a tool pusher bed built on and is very roomy and comfortable, it having been the subject of very favorable comment from various oil men who have in- spected same on the salesroom floor. Deliveries on this model can be made within five days after receipt of or- der. Further sales of the sedan and coupe are reported for the past week and McFall Brothers anticipate a con- tinuance in the sale of these models.

NEW MODELS FRANKLIN AND HOLMES EXPECTED SHORTLY

E. E. Sanders, the local dealer in Franklin and Holmes automobiles, has just returned from Dallas where he attended a conference of the dealers and factory representatives for the Franklin in the southwest. The meet- ing had for its purpose a general dis- cussion of the trade and the pros- pects for the coming season. Mr. Sand- ers reports there is a shortage in Franklin cars anticipated, as the fac- tory has on hand now only enough ma- terial for 90 days run. The allotment of this city decided by the Franklin sales department as a share of the production in sight was put at 15 or 20 automobiles and it is expected the first shipment of the new 1920 model will be received here by next week.

Unusual interest is being shown in the new model air cooled Holmes, ac- cording to Mr. Sanders, who is state dealer and it is growing in popularity with the discriminating motorists. He reports the delivery of a carload of the new model Holmes to C. E. John- son at Amarillo and also the receipt of a carload at Waurika, Oklahoma, from which place he will drive the cars to this city to fill the local orders. The practice of shipping cars to small towns adjacent to here and driving them in is becoming quite common with local dealers since this is practi- cally the only way of securing cars, on account of the freight congestion in the local yards due to the oil busi- ness.

A. A. Norris, a mechanic employed by Mr. Sanders, is now taking a course of instruction in the Holmes car at the factor yat Canton, Ohio, in order that the local owners of this make will be assured of expert servcie. When he has completed the course Mr. Nor- ris will make the return trip by au- tomobile in the latest thing in the way of cars that the Holmes factory puts out, one of the four passenger roadster models.

LITTLE PROSPECT OF AUTO FACTORIES CATCHING UP WITH ORDERS SAYS WEAVER

Lloyd Weaver of the Lloyd Weaver Automobile Company, returned from Detroit last week with the announce- ment that manufacturers of all makes of automobiles were up to their necks with orders, and were offering little enrouragement of de livery owing to congested traffic con- ditions and an extraordinary demand.

"The Hudson people are turning out 125 Hudsons and the same num- ber of Essex cars a day, but I don't believe Texas is getting more than 10 of this daily output," Mr. Weaver said. "Houston and some other points are getting somewhat better service on delivery than we are because of crowded local traffic conditions.

"We are finding some relief, how- ever, by unloading at Dallas and driving our cars through. We un- loaded two carloads during the week."

If the steel strike continues, condi- tions will be much worse, Mr. Weav- er said. Many manufacturers are now drawing on their reserve stock of steel, while smaller concerns which had on hand only a limited supply of steel because of war conditions may be obliged to shut down entirely if the strike is not over soon, he ex- plained.

The entire output of the Hudson company of 70,000 cars for 1920 has been contracted for, Mr. Weaver said.

SHIPMENT FROM DALLAS EXPECTED BY MUNGER AGENCY

The Munger Automobile Company, agents for the Cadillac, are expecting an early shipment of cars from the branch house in Dallas. While the show room has been stripped of cars for several days, the demand is being fairly well met, according to officers of the company. A number of cars were driven through from Dallas to Wichita Falls the latter part of the week.

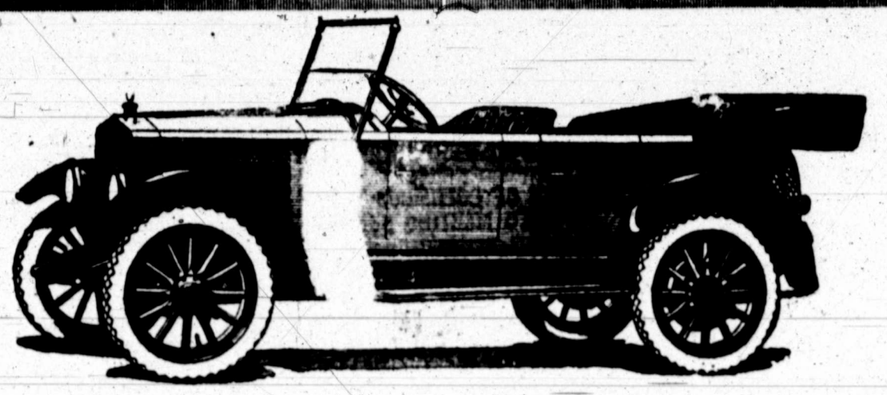

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS AT DIXON-KEIM AGENCY

Extensive improvements are being made at the sales and show rooms of the Dixon-Keim Company, agents for the Buick. These improvements were started sometime ago but were held up for lack of labor and material and during the rush of the summer.

Cars continue to come in on an average of a carload every week or so, but delivery is far from keeping pace with the demand, Mr. Dixon states.

No immediate relief from this sit- uation is expected, although later on in the winter it is believed a freer movement of cars will be developed

Wichita county people are prosper- ing and will continue to prosper. A good share of the money they are making should be invested where it will be assured permanent safety. The Savings Department of the Na- tional Bank of Commerce provides exactly what they need—absolute security together with 4 per cent in- terest. 143-1tc

EVERYBODY KNOWS VALVE-IN-HEAD MEANS BUICK

The Buick Built Radiator

The design of the Buick radiator is such that it not only affords the maximum of cooling space to the water, but is the simplest, cheapest and quickest radiator to repair in case of accident

A small leak may be plugged up temporarily with anything that is convenient until the proper time comes to remove the radiator for repair.

If the leak is a large one, the affected area may be cut out entirely and a new repair section fitted into place in such a manner as to avoid detection, without interfering in any way with the circulation or cooling properties. This is distinctly a Buick feature.

As will be seen from the sectional photograph shown, this leaves all of the ver- tical tubes in exactly the same condition as they were before the section was put in, and does away entirely with an unsightly repair job, reduced circulation space or the cost of a new radiator.

NO CONTRIBUTIONS TO SALVATION ARMY FROM OTHER COUNTY TOWNS

Burkburnett, Electra and Iowa Park have not been heard from as yet on the quotas assigned to them in the Salvation Army Home Service drive. Burkurnett was given a quota of $1,500, Electra $1,000 and Iowa Park $500.

Wichita Falls subscribed more than enough to exceed the entire country's quota, but this did not relieve other towns in the county from subscribing their quotas, B. F. Johnson, chairman of the county committee, said today.

The campaign, he added, will not be considered as having been completed until these towns make some sort of a return.

A carload of Master trucks and Miami trailers were unloaded last week by the concern, a large number having already been contracted for.

ESTABLISHMENTS SELLING FOODSTUFFS MUST GET LICENSES, SAYS INSPECTORS

Establishments in the city which handle food products must take out licenses from the food inspection department, or complaints will be filed against them, says Dr. A. H. Douglass of the department, in an announcement which promises a rigid enforcement of provisions of city ordinances dealing with these establishments. The statement reads:

"The city ordinances relative to the handling and sale of food products require that all who deal in such commodities make application for and obtain permits from the food inspection department of the board of health. Any persons who are now operating food vending establishments without such permits are not complying with the law and are subject to arrest. The inspectors have been instructed to make a thorough investigation and to check up on the delinquents.

"It is absolutely essential that every establishment engaged in the food vending business be listed with the food department and the ordinance will be strictly enforced in this regard. Those who have not obtained permits will be given until November 1, and after that date complaints will be filed for non-compliance.

"This will be considered sufficient notice to all food merchants in this city because any one in this business should have acquainted himself with the city's requiredements before entering such business."

Just because some garage man says, "I'll fix it and it'll be good as new," don't trust your battery to an amateur.

Come to battery headquarters where we have the equipment to really test your battery and the knowledge of what it needs.

Only a careful hydrometer reading can show if a battery needs charging. Only the proper instruments can give it a discharge test showing that it is properly recharged. It costs a little more to make repairs in the right way, but a thorough job is always worth while.

DEBS WOULD RENEW HIS ACTIVITIES IF RELEASED FROM PEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Eugene V. Debs, head of the socialist party in America, now confined in the federal prison at Atlanta, Georgia, was quoted by the New York Call in an interview today as follows:

"If I should get out of this prison today I would be in Gary or Pittsburgh tomorrow. That is exactly where I belong and that is exactly where I would go. Mr. Palmer and Mr. Wilson and the capitalists know perfectly well and that's why they keep me here.

"I am not being kept prisoner here for the speech I made at Canton in June 1918. I am being kept here for the speech I would make at Gary or Pittsburgh in 1919.

"If I should get out of prison today I would continue my work on behalf of the workers for socialism where I left off in April of this year when I went to Moundsville prison. The intervening time, while it has been a waste could be easily made up by renewed activity and fresh endeavors."

RESIGNS POSITION AS STATION AGENT AT ANSON

STAMFORD, TEX., Oct. 18.—E. S. Cummings, who has been agent for the Wichita Valley Railway at Anson for the past seven years has resigned his position and will devote his entire time to the practice of law. He was licensed to practice last year.

His wide knowledge of railroad conditions made possible the clearing up of numerous traffic problems which affected not only his station, but all stations on his road.

ROCKEFELLER AND FEISS TELL WHY THEY FAVOR BARGAINING RESOLUTION

(Editor's Note.—The United Press asked Paul L. Feiss, Cleveland manufacturer and big employer of men, to explain his reasons for supporting the collective bargaining resolution before the national industrial conference. Most of the big employers opposed it. Feiss, a member of the "public group," and John D. Rockefeller Jr. spoke in favor of it. Feiss in the following article declares his faith in collective bargaining is based on experience and not on theory.)

By PAUL L. FEISS
(Written for the United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—I am in favor of collective bargaining because we have tried it out successfully in the business organization with which I am associated. While we have not a union shop we have an organization of our employes which gives them an opportunity not only to participate and assist in the determination of all matters relating to wages, hours and other conditions of employment, but it has given them also the opportunity to assume a more definite obligation and responsibility to their own work and business in which they are working.

My belief in this resolution and in the efficacy of this plan is based therefore not upon theory, but experience. It seems to me that the time has long passed when we can quibble about small things when great principles are at stake. The important thing is that we recognize that if democracy means anything in industry or in any other element of life, it means the right of a personal determination of those things which it is right that we should determine for ourselves. The obedience to law is liberty and that means not only the law of the land, but the law of morality and the principles of ethics. I could not conscientiously face my associates in business—and by that I mean the men who run the works, who toil at the machines and the women who work with their hands, any more than I could have faced my fellow citizens if I denied them a right which I myself possess.

I not only support the resolution in its present form but would have still further and urged every employer to assist in organizing his men so that they might have a coherent and collective voice in the determinations of employment in which they might always be interested. With the modifying phrase which has been added to the first clause, the right of individual to organize or not to organize, to choose his method of organizing, whether through labor unions, shop unions, employes organizations, or any other, it seems to me it is safeguarded.

I don't know what has been in the minds of the labor union representatives, whether they have made a great sacrifice in making that concession or not. It do not know what it is in the mind of the employers in opposing it, but it seems to me that we have the basis of an understanding and as good citizens and all of us representing the public, we should get together and accomplish this end by supporting this resolution unanimously.

(Editor's Note.—John D. Rockefeller Jr., who stands in favor of collective bargaining before the industrial conference at the request of the United Press has written the following article explaining his attitude.)

By JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER JR.
(Copyright by the United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—I believe in the principle of representation in industry which includes the right to organize and to bargain collectively, embodied in the resolution now pending before the national industrial conference.

Trade resolution is intended as a recognition of the manhood of the employes and of his right to be heard and treated as a human being and not as a machine, a mere name on the payroll, a cog in the wheel, a mere hand. I hope this principle will be endorsed by the delegates to the conference. The principle, applied to all industrial relations, will help to re-establish the personal relationship which existed in by-gone days. This spirit must be re-established, if not in its original form, at least as nearly as possible to its original form. Legislation will never bring it about.

Much of the present strife and bitterness in industrial relations results from lack of ability or willingness on the part of both labor and capital to share their common problems from each other's point of view.

The common interest can not be advanced by the effort of any one party to dominate the other, or arbitrarily to dictate the terms on which it alone will co-operate.

Surely it is not consistent for us as Americans to demand democracy in government and practice autocracy in industry. Can we not, however, unite in the adoption of the principle of representation and the agreement to make every effort to secure the endorsement and acceptance of this principle by all chambers of commerce, industrial and commercial bodies and all organizations of labor? Such action, I feel confident, would be overwhelmingly backed by public opinion and cordially approved by the federal government.

It does not seem to me that it is the function of this body to undertake to determine for industry at large what form representation shall take. Once having adopted the principle of representation, it is obviously wise that the method to be employed should be left in each specific instance to be determined by the parties at interest.

But adoption of the idea of representation is essential to development of the new spirit between the parties of industry which we seek to bring into being.

FREIGHT CONGESTION IS REASON ASSIGNED FOR SUGAR SHORTAGE

SHORTAGE BEET SUGAR CROP AND LABOR TROUBLES HAVE BEARING.

ONLY THREE DAYS SUPPLY

Short Supply And Small Prospect Of Relief May Require Further Restriction Of Purchases.

Freight congestion on the railroads, slowing up the shipments from the refiners to the wholesalers, coupled with a natural shortage in the beet sugar crop for this year, and labor disturbances at the refineries, are the reasons assigned by local wholesalers for the sugar shortage which has been existing in Wichita Falls and other points in this section for the past few weeks, and which from their very nature, make the duration of the shortage a problematical matter. Wholesalers report that they have only three days supply on hand. A shortage in the cane crop similar to that of the sugar beets, has little to do with the sugar shortage in this section, since the beet sugar, which is the chief source of supply for this district, still exists in considerable quantities in the form of refiner's reserves.

While refiners are accepting orders from local wholesale houses freely, and a considerable quantity billed to these houses is rolling, deliveries are extremely few and far between. An instance of what this means is given in the case of the last car received, which came in several days ago, containing 520 sacks of sugar, and which was divided between Wooten Grocery Co. and Carrol-Brougt-Robinson and Gates.

An attempt was made by the wholesale houses to apportion this supply among the local retail stores, but owing to the fact that most of the grocers were entirely out of this commodity and even the larger concerns were allowed only two or three sacks the relief was of the most transient order.

Practically al lof the retail concerns have now been forced to adopt the expedient of conserving the supply by limiting the amount which any one individual may purchase to 25 cents. With only three days supply in the hands of local wholesaelrs, and no immediate relief in sight, it is expected that even more drastic limitation may have to be adopted.

VANGUARD LEAVES MONDAY FOR STATE GOLF TOURNAMENT

Loaded down with brassies, jiggers, putters, niblicks and other clubs bearing names that always make the novice titter, the advance guard of Wichita Falls golfers will leave this city Monday morning en route to San Antonio to participate in the play for the annual state golf championship. The advance guard is hardly a "corporal's guard," consisting only of Dr. M. A. Bonnefond and C. F. Carter, and their wives—and Dr. Bonnefond's rejuvenated flivver.

C. E. McCutchen, Fred Couper, A. E. Murdock, A. H. Britain and several other members of the local club will leave next week for San Antonio, the tournament not beginning until October 29th. Carter and Dr. Bonnefond, however, are making an early start with the intention of having five or six days of practice on the turf greens of the San Antonio Country Club.

It is expected that over 150 golfers from various sections of the state will be entered in the tournament, and if any Wichita Falls club swingers succeeds in annexing a prize of any kind, it will be a distinct athletic honor to the city in view of the short time golf has been played here.

To Stockholders of the Northwest Oil and Gas Company:

You are hereby notified that the books of the company will be closed on October 25 for the purpose of paying to stockholders of record dividend No. 1. See that the stock you hold is transferred in proper form before that date. This dividend will be mailed out about October 30.

LOCAL ODD FELLOWS MAKING PROGRESS IN ORGANIZATION FOR ENCAMPMENT DEGREE

Considerable progress is being made by local Odd Fellows in the organization of the Encampment degree, which comprises the three higher degrees of Odd Fellowship, according to Judge J. R. Ogle, past grand of the local chapter. A considerable impetus toward this end has been given by the action of the Iowa Park lodge in voting to move their charter to Wichita Falls, which will make a nice addition to the number of Odd Fellows. At least 30 names have been obtained for this work already from among the membership of the Panhandle lodge, and from the ranks of the Odd Fellows in Wichita Falls in general.

All Odd Fellows in the city, whether they hold membership in the local lodge or not, are urged by Judge Ogle to attend the regular meeting Monday night at 7:30 at the Odd Fellows hall where this matter will be discussed fully.

In addition to this business the second degree will be conferred on a large number of candidates at this meeting.

The officers of the National Bank of Commerce know thoroughly the particular conditions which characterize Wichita county and know how to meet them. Oil men, farmers, stock men, business and professional men therefore find the service of this bank of real, practical help. 142-1tc

RAISE IN OIL FIELD INSURANCE FOLLOWS FIRES IN NORTHWEST

Fires in the Northwest Burkburnett pool during the past few weeks, have resulted in a material increase in insurance rates on oil field property and wells, according to operators in the field who have had occasion to take out insurance recently. The rate which was $3 a hundred before the fire of last week, was increased following these fires to $3.75 a hundred, it is stated.

Lack of sufficient embankment protection about storage tanks has caused spread of the fires that have been very disastrous recently and in some instances where wells are so close together as to almost preclude any fire precautions being taken, insurance is refused altogether.

In the northwest fires have already occured in much larger number, and with far more disastrous results, than have occured in the townsite pool during it's life of more than a year, despite the fact that the pool was developed in the midst of a town which carried on it's life as usual, and that wells were drilled in on town lots with boilers blazing only a short distance away, and with numerous other disadvantages to work under.

The most disasterous accident in the townsite occurred a number of months ago when a boiler exploded killing several, and injuring others, but there has been very little property loss, compared with the costly fires which have swept the Waggoner or Northwest pool on several occasions recently.
