PRE-DAWN RENDEZVOUS PROVES FATAL FOR OFFICER

Red-Headed Bar Maid Jailed For Slaying Police Captain

(By The United Press)

NEWARK, N. J., May 21 — A police captain was shot to death with his own service revolver today during a pre-dawn rendezvous with a red-headed barmaid in his police station office.

Police seized Mrs. Ann Powers, 39, as she ran from the office of Capt. Thomas J. Rowe, 56, a 33-year veteran of the Newark police force after the shooting.

Six hours later, police quoted her as saying:

"I don't know why I did it."

Rowe was shot a few minutes after he and Mrs. Powers had entered the precinct police office together at 4 a. m. EDT. Police Chief John Haller said the two apparently had met after Mrs. Powers had finished work in a Newark bar.

Two policemen heard the single shot and rushed into the office. One of them, Lt. Henry Ville, caught Mrs. Powell in his arms as she ran out the door. Ville said he then heard Rowe gasp:

"She got me."

He was wounded in the abdomen.

After hours of questioning, police said Mrs. Powers had admitted the shooting. They said she made the oral confession calmly but had wept occasionally during the questioning.

Earlier, when she viewed the body at the morgue, according to police, she had lifted the covering sheet, asked to be allowed to touch the body, and then cried.

"This is a police frame-up."

As Rowe collapsed over his desk, Villa said, he murmured "get me a doctor." He died in a hospital an hour and a half later.

Mrs. Powers, an attractive red-head, swore at a battery of news photographers as they took pic-

West Texans Lose Fight To Void Election

Contestants May Carry Battle To Court Of Appeals

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, May 21 — District Judge Roy Archer today upheld the validity of the $60,000,000 college building amendment, and denied the claims of West Texans in two cases where they sought to throw out the constitutional amendment.

The effect of the ruling in the cases brought against Attorney General Price Daniel and Secretary of State Paul Brown is to pave the way for putting the amendment into effect.

Appeal Is Likely

Attorneys for contestants of the amendment were not available, but it was believed that an appeal would be filed.

The ruling knocked down the West Texans' claim that there were election irregularities in six counties, which was the basis of their contest.

Judge Archer's decision ended the first step in a legal tangle which began eight months ago when the twin suits were filed, halting effectiveness of the amendment voted on favorably by the people last Aug. 23.

The cases were brought by Clarence W. Whiteside, Spencer A. Wells and Homer Maxey, all of Lubbock, and H. E. Speer of Dallas.

Sought Restraining Order

Their suit against Daniel sought a restraining order which would halt the attorney general from issuing bonds under the provisions of the amendment.

A hearing before Judge Archer was held on April 23 when attorneys for the West Texas group and the state presented an agreed statement of facts.

On rendering his decision, Judge Archer said he will enter a formal judgment next week.

The challenge against Brown contested the holding of the election last summer in Bexas, El Paso, Galveston, Hill, Moore and Taylor counties.

Whiteside claimed that the state failed to make the required official publication of notice in these counties.

Slight Victory Margin

While the actual canvassed results of the election showed a victory for the amendment by a 102,531 to 97,318 margin, Whiteside said if 15,015 votes he claimed were illegal were thrown out that the amendment would have been defeated by 1,145 votes.

During the course of the legal

Efforts To Get Compromise In Dispute Futile

Final Proposal Of Union Rejected By Company Officials

By A. B. SLAGLE
Journal Staff Writer

Compromise negotiations broke down at noon today, and there was every indication that the strike by drivers of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico Coaches would start as scheduled at 10:45 o'clock tonight.

A proposal, described by union representatives as "final," providing for a wage increase scaled down to one-half cent per mile, was submitted to company officials this morning, but it was rejected by the company, and drivers announced their full intention to comply with a recent strike vote calling for a walkout tonight.

Apply To All Drivers

The announcement came from J. W. Thompson, representative of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, with which the local union chapter is affiliated. Thompson, from Kansas City, has been here several days seeking to negotiate an agreement between the disputants.

The half-cent per mile would apply to all classifications of drivers. These are designated as drivers on Class A and Class B operations, with a different scale for each class, and the pay scale would graduate upward, based on length of service.

In Class A operations, the present scale of 3.8 cents per mile for drivers of six to 12 months service would be increased to 4.3; for drivers with 12 to 18 months service, upper from four cents to 4.5 cents per mile; 18 to 24 months, from 4.1 to 4.6; 24 to 36 months, 4.7 to 5.2; and more than 36 months, from the present five cents to 5.5.

For Class B operations, drivers with six months service would be upped from three cents to 3.5; six to 18 months, 3.375 to 3.875; 18 to 24 months, 3.75 to 4.25; and after 24 months, four to 4.5 cents per mile.

The proposal sets out that "present mileage is not to be cut. ex-

Roof Collapse Traps Victims; Others Injured

Men Caught Four Miles Deep In Tunnel Of Mine

(By The Associated Press)

DANTE, Va., May 21 — Grim and sweat-streaked rescue crews early today brought to the surface the last of six miners killed last night after a roof section collapsed in the Clinchfield Coal company's No. 2 mine.

Tons of coal, earth and debris buried the miners alive as they worked in the mine tunnel four miles underground. There was no explosion.

Mine Dispatcher J. M. Smith said the roof collapse simply "blew the coal out and over the men working near it."

Four Others Injured

Four other miners, working some 400 yards away in the corridor, were injured, but only slightly, in the accident. They were brought from the shaft about midnight after four hours' entombment.

Hundreds of persons, some of them relatives of the victims but many idly curious, lined the mine entrance as the bodies were brought up by rescue crews working in relays.

The dead were listed by Smith as Euris Artrid, Arnold Vickers, Harold Park, Oakley Creger, Troy Phillips, and a miner named Rasnick. All were from the Dante region.

Dante is in Russel county, near the Dickinson county line, in southwest Virginia.

Smith said the corridor roof apparently had been weakened by over-excavation. It was in corri-

Soviet Entry Into Zone Is Restricted

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, May 21 — United States occupation authorities retaliated today against Russian border crossing taboos. They restricted the entry of Soviet missions to the American zone of Germany to a single frontier point.

American officials said last night's ruling was made by European command headquarters at Frankfurt because the Russians decreed that the American military mission stationed at Potsdam could cross into the Soviet zone only at Helmstedt.

Is In British Zone

The Americans responded by notifying members of the four Russian missions in the U. S. zone that they too, could cross only at Helmstedt.

Helmstedt is in the British zone on the Soviet border and is on the highway linking Berlin with the west.

The American mission previously was allowed to cross the Soviet zone border at any point.

American authorities emphasized that the action does not mean a closing of the border between the U. S. and Soviet zones. They called it merely a reciprocal move affecting only official Soviet missions.

To Protect Germans

The American military government in Berlin announced that Germans in the U. S. sector will be "protected against molestation and intimidation" by persons seeking signatures for a Communist-inspired national plebiscite on a unified Germany.

The petitions are being circulated by the Communist-dominated

DEMO PRAYERS SAID ANSWERED

"Praise The Lord!"

EL PASO, May 21 (U.P.) — Radio Commentator Charles Amador of station KTSM last night asked listeners to pause one second to "praise the Lord" when Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, D., Tex., announced his intention not to run for re-election.

Amador said Democratic prayers had been heard and answered.

He suggested that West Texas voters send the senator congratulatory telegrams. O'Daniel's decision, Amador said, "deserves a message of congratulations, the first he ever received from this area."

67-Day-Old Meat Strike Nears End

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 21—An end of the 67-day old nationwide meat strike at most of the major packing plants appeared imminent today.

The CIO United Packinghouse Workers union strike director predicted that the rank and file vote on proposals to end the long work stoppage—on company terms — will favor immediate return to all plants except Wilson and Company.

Secret Ballots Cast

Locals across the country last night voted by secret ballot on the settlement proposals to end the strike, which has been marked by violence at several livestock centers. Results were expected to be announced today at the union's national headquarters here.

Herbert March, directing the strike of some 100,000 CIO workers who quit their jobs March 16 after a dispute over wages, said the union had recommended strikers to vote against returning to work at Wilson, one of the major packers. He predicted the vote would be close for returning to work at plants operated by three other major packers, Swift, Cudahy and Armour.

Questions For Vote

The strikers voted on the acceptance of a nine-cent hourly wage increase, retroactive to the March 16 strike call; retention of all seniority rights, and arbitration with the company on possible discharge of workers accused of unlawful acts during the prolonged work stoppage.

The nine cents an hour pay boost was the original offer made by the packers and also had been recommended by a presidential fact-finding board. The union, which had demanded a boost of 29 cents an hour, rejected the original offer. It had been accepted by AFL and independent union workers, who remained on the job.

March said the union recom-

Troops Guard Meat Workers

WATERLOO, Ia., May 21 (AP)—National guardsmen stood alert with fixed bayonets today to assure protection for non-striking workers returning to their jobs at the Rath Packing company plant here.

A number of the workers had reported to police yesterday that they had received anonymous telephone threats that "if you think anything of your home, you'd better not go to work."

Prepared To Guard

However, Major Roy L. Stephenson, deputy commander of the national guard units who took over the plant yesterday morning after a riot which followed the shooting of a CIO United Packinghouse Workers union picket, said "we are prepared to guard the safety of the workers going to and from the plant."

The picket who was killed was William J. Farrell, 40. A woman picket, Margaret Draheim, 34, was wounded in the shoulder in the shooting affray.

Police Sergeant Clyde Sauer said bus stops downtown would be watched, to see that no violence occurred to workers taking the bus to work.

Major Stephenson said buses bringing workers into the plant would be unloaded inside the plant. The buses would load inside the plant again when the workers leave to go home at night, he said.

Fines, Jail Terms Given Two Writers

WASHINGTON, May 21 (U.P.)—Two Hollywood movie writers were sentenced today to pay fines of $1,000 each and serve one year in jail for contempt of Congress.

The high-salaried script writers are John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo. They remained at liberty under bonds of $1,000 each, pending appeals.

They were convicted of contempt for refusing to tell a congressional committee whether they were or ever had been members of the Communist party. In addition Trumbo was found guilty by a federal court jury of a second charge of refusing to say whether he belonged to the Screen Writers' guild.

Truman To Ask Change In Law

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—President Truman will ask Congress in a special message to extend benefits of the social security law.

Senator Barkley (D-Ky), Senate minority leader, said after a White House conference today that the message will go to Capital Hill within a few days.

Presumably the message will recommend extension of social security benefits to farm labor, domestics, self-employed persons and other groups not now covered.

Rayburn Attends

The conference also was attended by House Minority Leader Rayburn (Tex) and Democratic members of the Senate finance and the House ways and means committee.

"We had a conference on the question of a further expansion of social security coverage which the President has recommended several times," Barkley told newsmen as he left Mr. Truman's office. He added:

"A message is under preparation by the President. The contents are still under consideration. It will be sent in a few days.

In Agreement

"Our discussion was on whether the message should be sent and there was an agreement that it should."

Barkley said that in addition to the extension of coverage to new

Fifth-Graders Fly Plane 120 Miles On Comic Book 'Lesson'

(By The Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21—Two fifth-graders who studied flying in comic books confessed to the state patrol last night they piloted a stolen plane almost to Texas.

"There is no doubt about it," the patrol said.

The plane was a two-place Ercoupe with simplified controls advertised as nearly fool-proof.

"They said it was easy," Trooper Arch Hamilton said.

"They'd looked at some comic books that told all about it. They thought we were silly not to know how.

"They made a perfect landing."

Astonishment at the 120-mile flight — air distance — almost drowned out talk of a juvenile court hearing tomorrow morning.

Jews Pray As Arab Army Forges Ahead

(By The Associated Press)

The violent battle for the old walled city of Jerusalem appeared about ended today, with the Arabs claiming 80 per cent of the sacred area.

Jews in Tel Aviv expressed increasing fears. Rabbis ordered prayers for Jerusalem.

The British-trained Arab legion of Trans-Jordan hurled armored strength and artillery against the last Jewish strongholds in the Holy City.

Jews Driven Back

Haganah and Irgun Zvai Leumi troops were driven back to a thin line of defense along the west side of the Jewish quarter. They holed up for a last stand in the Beit Yaacov of Hurva synagogue, after the Arabs captured the Tiferet Israel synagogue, Jerusalem's tallest structure, to the east.

The loss of Jerusalem would be a serious blow to the Jews. Defense forces were estimated by the Arabs to number 8,000, a considerable chunk of the army of Israel, estimated at about 50,000. Besides, 90,000 Jewish civilians are in the city, which stands as a great road block on the main Arab east-west and north-south supply lines.

Planes Attack

Jewish planes attacked the Arabs in the Gaza coastal area south of Tel Aviv and at Shu'fat, north of Jerusalem. Egyptian planes raided Tel Aviv four times yesterday and the Jews indignantly said four British Spitfire fighters flew over the capital during

Release Asked For Americans

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—The United States demanded today that the Lebanese government release 40 American citizens taken off the American steamship Marine Carp at Beirut.

The State department announced that the U. S. minister to Lebanon, Lowell Pinkerton, was instructed to submit the demand.

The department announced at the same time that American diplomatic representatives in all the Arab countries, including Lebanon, have been instructed to advise these governments that the United States would "view seriously" any discrimination against American citizens because of race, color or creed.

Going To Palestine

The group removed from the Marine Carp were between 19 and 55, and the Lebanese authorities took the stand they might bear arms for the new Jewish state of Israel. The Marine Carp was en route to Palestine.

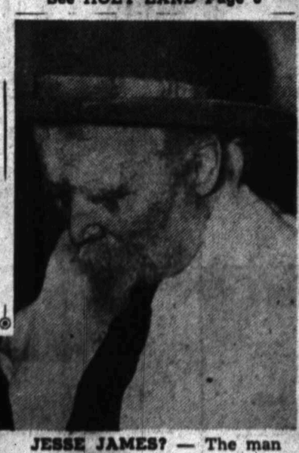

The American citizens, together with 29 persons of other nationalities, were intended in former French barracks at Baker, Lebanon.

The department said Lebanese authorities had threatened to use force, if necessary, in removing them from the ship when it touched at Beirut Wednesday.

Mass Meeting Held At Tech

A crowd variously estimated from 500 to 1,000 persons attended a mass student meeting at Texas Technological college at noon today after advertisement by signs of a meeting to protest an increase in dormitory rates.

Signs were placed on the campus during the night and this morning stating the meeting would be held at 12:30 p. m.

Meeting Not Official

"This was not an official meeting in any respect," a student official said early this afternoon.

Representatives of the student council appeared to help solve any difficulty, it was stated.

Bill Nugent, president of the student council, announced a committee already had been appointed to confer with college officials and get the facts concerning rise in dormitory rates. Membership was announced as Gene Nowlin, commander of Tech War Veterans association; Joe Meador, former commander of the Tech War Veterans association; Clint Formby, president-elect of the student council; Earl Sears, vice president of the student council, and Nugent. A girl is to be appointed to the committee.

Fact-Finding Group

The committee was described as a "fact-finding" group.

At today's mass meeting, statement was made that rates were being raised from $47.50 a month this year to a figure tentatively set at $60 for next year. That was described as a 23 percent

FATE OF PROBE BILL UNCERTAIN

Senators Disagree On Truman's Veto

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 21—Both sides predicted victory today in a Senate fight over President Truman's veto of a bill to let qualified senators call for FBI reports on top atomic officials.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said he was confident the Senate would override the veto and send the bill on to the House. Senator McMahon (D-Conn) predicted flatly that the President would be upheld.

Mr. Truman, in vetoing the measure last Saturday, called it "an unwarranted encroachment of the legislative upon the executive branch." The bill passed the Senate and House without a recorded vote in either chamber.

Parties Split

Hickenlooper said he had not tried to poll the Senate but felt sure he could enlist the two-thirds majority needed to override.

Preliminary debate late yesterday split pretty much along party lines, but McMahon said he didn't think the final vote would follow that pattern.

Acting Majority Leader Wherry of Nebraska said the vote would be close.

Wherry engineered an agreement to shut off debate at 2:30 p. m. (EST) today and vote on whether to override the veto.

The veto message was called up late yesterday. To dispose of it, the Senate laid aside a bill to authorize the admission of displaced persons.

That bill appeared likely to go over until Monday, since Wherry said the Agriculture department appropriation for the fiscal year starting July 1 would be called up after the vote on the veto.

Knowland's bill would provide for an FBI investigation of presidential appointees to the Atomic Energy Commission or to its general managership. All other employees—that is, those who do not require Senate confirmation—are now subject to such a check.

The FBI inquiry would not be automatic. It would have to be ordered by a majority of the nine Senate members of the Senate-House atomic energy committee. Those senators have to pass upon confirmation of such appointees.

Knowland told his colleagues yesterday the Senate should insist on this power "for its own protection." Despite the importance of the agency, he said, Mr. Truman did not call on the FBI to investigate Chairman David E. Lilienthal and the other four members of the present commission.

Musical Ecstasy Is Fatal To Friends

NEW DELHI, India, May 21 (U.P.)—Press reports reaching here said musical ecstasy cost the lives of two young men in Benarea, a holy city of the Hindus.

The report said one Babuliah Sah was listening to music sung by the famous Abdullah, Kawal of Bhopal, an Indian state. During the recitation of the lines "Ashiki Imtiyaz Kya Jane, Farke Nato Niyaz Kya Jane" ("Love knows no distinction. It makes no difference between the lover and the beloved"), young Babullah Sah fell into ecstasy and breathed his last in the moment of bliss.

When Babullah Sah's friend Sardah Sah heard the news, he hurried to his side and dropped dead with these words: "I have lost all love for life after you have gone."

Montecassino Relics Now Housed In Rome

ROME, May 21 (U.P.)—Rare books and codices, removed from famed Montecassino abbey during the war just before it was pulverized by bombs and shell fire, have been placed in a new library here.

Representing the sole remains of the famed Benedictine abbey, the library collection was solicitously preserved in Rome for four years by the Benedictine monks. Now it is housed in the Biblical college, on the ancient Aurelian way just outside Rome.

The books and codices were put in a specially constructed room, where scholars will be able to consult them.

According to estimates, the human heart beats 72 times a minute; 104,000 times a day; 38,000,000 times a year.

Swede To Act In Peace Try

LAKE SUCCESS, May 21 (AP)—A former go-between for Germany and the Allies begins today the hazardous task of trying to restore peace to Palestine.

He is Count Folke Bernadotte, 53-year-old vice president of the Swedish Red Cross. He was chosen by the five great powers last night as the United Nations peacemaker for the Holy Land.

The United Nations security council, meanwhile, hoped to vote today on what to do about the Arab-Jewish war in Palestine.

Gromyko To Talk

Before the vote, the council is to hear the view of Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister. Gromyko, in brief comments thus far, has said Russia wants strong action to stop the fighting.

The council is debating two proposals, neither of which so far has enough votes to be adopted.

First is a United States resolution calling for the council to invoke the most forceful measures against aggression in Palestine, with the council still to decide just who is the aggressor.

Second is a British proposal which suggests the council to try to solve the Palestine conflict by peaceful mediation.

If the council decides on mediation, it is probable that Count Bernadotte will be asked to head up that effort.

Contract Awarded On Borger City Job

BORGER, May 21 (Special)—Borger's mayor and city commissioner's today announced award of contract for a $283,829 sewage treatment plant to an Oklahoma City firm, Lippert Bros. of Oklahoma City.

H. N. Roberts, Lubbock engineer, designed and will supervise construction of the plant.

The Lippert Bros. bid was the lowest of four submitted. Others were submitted as follows: P. and E. Construction compny, Houston, $289,765.60; Sherman Machine and Iron Works, Oklahoma City, $314,261.28; and Harry Newton, Inc., Graham, Texas, $340,460.92.

Army Reservists May Go On Active Duty

FORT SAM HOUSTON, May 21 (U.P.)—Fourth Army headquarters started the machinery today to bring 3,134 enlisted reservists back into uniform for a period of not more than one year.

A spokesman for the Army headquarters, located just outside San Antonio, said yesterday that the reservists would be brought back into the service in the grades they held in the reserve corps.

Recruiting duties, in whatever district they desire, will be offered to 231 of the enlisted reservists. The remainder will be offered duties in whatever Army area they choose and, in some cases, at the station of their choice.

Under the National Defense act, the reservists are given the choice of turning down the call if they desire.

Fourth Army headquarters said, however, that they believed the quota would be filled.

Good-Conduct Favors Early Clemencies

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Convicts who behave while serving their sentences have a better chance of receiving early clemency than do the ones who cause trouble, Gov. Beauford H. Jester said yesterday.

Jester said he is giving the break to the convict who has the better record in prison in cases where two men are recommended for clemency at the same time—"all other factors being about equal."

The governor believed his policy to be in line with the ideas of O. B. Ellis, new manager of the prison system.

Jester would not comment on why the board of pardons and paroles would recommend a prisoner with a bad behavior record for clemency.

"They have their own policy," he said.

The first U. S. census, taken in 1790, listed 3,893,635 persons.

Respects Paid Noted Priest

BOYS TOWN, Neb., May 21. (AP)—Youth of all races and creeds paid last respects today to their great friend and benefactor—the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan, founder and director of world-famous Boys Town.

Dowd memorial chapel on the grounds of the haven for homeless and neglected boys was prepared to receive the body after two solemn masses of requiem said by priests of the Omaha archdiocese.

To Be In Chapel

The body of Father Flanagan, who once said "I have yet to find a single boy who wants to be bad," will rest in a sarcophagus in the northeast corner of the chapel.

The Rev. Edmund C. Walsh, acting director of Boys Town, said Father Flanagan had asked to be buried in the chapel "so I can be near the boys and they can come and visit me."

A marble slab on which is engraved "Father Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, lover of Christ and man, July 13, 1886-May 15, 1948" will seal the stone sarcophagus.

Father Walsh disclosed early today that since the body was brought home from Berlin, where father Flanagan died, more than 15,000 persons had filed past the bier.

In Robes

The body of Father Flanagan, attired in the robes of a monsignor, lay in a solid bronze casket, opened full length.

The sentiment of the 450 boys at the home was expressed by Eddie Dunn, the 29th mayor of Boys Town, who called Father Flanagan "our greatest friend and benefactor."

"He was like a father, a mother, a teacher, a counsellor, a big brother, your best pal, all wrapped in one. We know that he died as he had always lived, fighting for youth. We'll never forget Father Flanagan," the Miami, Fla., boy said.

Praised By Truman

President Truman termed him "an ever faithful friend of American youth and youth everywhere."

Father Flanagan, who would have been 62 on July 13, was ordained to the priesthood in 1912. In 1917 at Omaha where he was an assistant pastor, he borrowed money, took over an abandoned house and made a home for five boys. In the succeeding 35 years 5,500 boys have found a home in Boys Town.

Britain Building Spray-Gun Houses

LONDON, England, May 21 (U.P.)—House - building with a spray gun is Britain's newest short-cut to a target of 750,000 post-war homes by the end of 1948.

The trick is a new building material caled pyrok. It looks like ordinary plaster, can be sprayed over wire mesh to an eight-inch cast, and sets within 50 minutes.

The main shell of a spray-gun house can be completed at a fraction of the cost of normal methods. It works equally well over steel iron, asbestos - cement sheeting, galvanized sheeting, brickwork, concrete, timber, clay blocks, wood or cork.

Laraine Day's No. 1 Interest Will Be Baseball, She Warns

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, May 21—Laraine Day has served notice on Hollywood that baseball will be her No. 1 interest in the future.

Mrs. Leo Durocher says henceforth she will stay with her irrepressible husband during the Dodgers' spring training and playing season, vacation with "the Lip" for a few weeks, then return to Flickerville for an annual movie. She'll rush east as soon as she finishes "My Dear Secretary" to lend her support to the Dodger campaign.

On the possibility that the Brooklyn pilot might join her in a picture, she says: "Not a chance; Leo has no desire to become an actor."

Valentino Film Planned

The Rudolph Valentino biography may finally reach the cameras this fall. After eight years of postponements, Edward Small believes he has the shooting script ready. The producer tested 135 actors for the role of the screen's greatest lover and thinks his choice is Walter Craig, a stage actor. Like "The Jolson Story," the Valentino opus will take liberties with facts and combine the film hero's three wives into one big romance. . . .

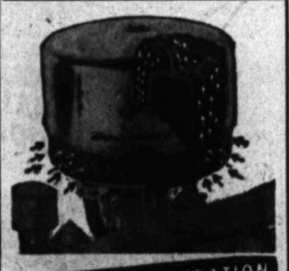

Speedy Dick Powell finishes "Rogue's Regiment" today, picks up a new plane and heads for fishing at Guaymas. Later, he'll attend the 50th anniversary of his high school fraternity at Little Rock, Ark. Dick will spend most of the summer touring his flying schools. He let wife June Allyson work this summer only because "Little Women" presented such a good break for her career. It will be in color . . .

Difficulties Told

Dana Andrews was relating the difficulties of filming "The Iron Curtain" in Canada. Some government workers disapproved of the film and ruined location shooting by waving handkerchiefs from windows of government buildings. Wily William Wellman sent assistants to talk with the workers and during the conversations, shot the scenes he needed.

PRINCIPALS TOLD OFF

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Superintendent of Schools Herold C. Hunt called together his newly-appointed school principals for instructions. Hunt told them their first lesson was "to get to work early, stay at it late and give the job your very best."

Johnston Accused Of Strike-Break Try

CLEVELAND, May 21 (AP)—Alvaney Johnston, head of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, was accused yesterday of "trying to break a strike."

The accusation came from William Finegan, secretary of the AFL Cleveland Federation of Labor, in connection with the five-day-old strike of 32 maids and elevator operators at the Park Lane villa. The brotherhood owns the villa.

"He (Johnston) is trying to break the strike by inserting ads in the newspapers offering jobs," said Finegan in a CFL meeting.

"He said before the strike began that workers who struck would not be returned to their jobs and now he is going through with this plan through these ads."

Finegan said he had tried to reach Johnston on the telephone but that Johnston hadn't paid him the courtesy of talking with him.

Johnston, who was in Washington for another conference on settling a dispute between the railroad brotherhoods and the railroads, could not be reached for comment.

Park Lane villa strikers want six-months retroactive pay and a union shop. They are members of the building service union (AFL).

Students Pitch In To Build Dormitory

WILMINGTON, O. May 21 (U.P.)—The 600 students of little Wilmington College will be able to look back on a 75-man dormitory in the years to come and say "I helped build that."

The students, men and women alike, have turned out to do the actual building work on the new project.

The self - building program, growing out of the high cost of building materials and a shortage of funds was suggested by the students. They are pledged to do a certain amount of the labor on the dormitory during the next five months. Skilled work will be done by regular craftsmen.

TAKING WAYS

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (U.P.)—Claude A. Helms was brought into the police station because his ex-landlord said he had stolen a vacuum sweeper when he moved. Officer Milton Barton thought Helms had a familiar look—he was wearing a gray coat that had been stolen from Barton in a restaurant.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Madly In Love, Engaged To Wed, Girl Believes She Has Reason To Distrust Man's Character

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Two years ago, when I was 22, I met Bob, then 30 and just out of the Army. I am attractive, popular and had many beaux at the time, but I fell madly in love with him and after a short while he asked me to "go steady" with him.

I knew he had been leading a rather fast life and I asked him if he were sure he wanted to devote all his time to one nice girl, namely: me. He assured me that I meant everything to him; that he realized he had been foolish, but wanted now to make his family and me proud of him.

I told him I wouldn't date anyone else, but didn't want to marry for at least a year, and so we became engaged, verbally. We were together nearly every night, I grew to love him more and more, and began to plan our marriage. But always I felt some shadow between us, something that held me back, and though I spoke of it several times to Bob, he professed to be baffled too.

Then one night at a party, I overheard (in a powder room) that Bob was "living" with another woman all the while courting me often leaving me early in the evening to see her . . .

MAN'S LOVE LIFE HAS BEEN VARIED

I FELT terrified but calmed myself and didn't mention the gossip to Bob for a few days. When I did he hotly denounced it as untrue and left in a huff, angry at me. After two weeks I missed him so much that when he called again I was ready for peace at any price.

Later he admitted that what I had heard was true and he apologized for everything, saying he never would hurt me again. Now another year has passed. He has been wonderful to me and my family, but I can't help worrying about his character.

He wants to join my church and get married right away, but would he be faithful to me? He had an affair with one girl that lasted five years before he joined the Army, then married another girl from whom he separated within the year, after which he returned to his old flame in the interim before we met.

He doesn't discuss these things with me; I simply know them to be facts; and I feel that I cannot marry him with these doubts in my mind. Am I just jealous and worrying needlessly? Mother, who is charitable, won't say much, as she doesn't want to influence me. Please advise me. I need help and respect your judgment.

MAN'S BEHAVIOR WORSE THAN WEAK

DEAR G. S.: Bob's incontinence, concerning which he is both belligerent and furtive in his attempts to win your trust without earning it, refers to infantile character and moral callousness—and taking into account these various bad aspects of his personality, you'd be crazy to marry him.

Charity covers a multitude of sins, but it doesn't excuse your mother's failure to see, or lack of courage to speak the painful truth about the essential significance of Bob's behavior, which ought to be clear to any life-seasoned adult with a grain of sense.

In my opinion, his profligate bias, though it illustrates and viciously intensifies all the weakness in him, isn't the worst of his performance in relation to you. The worst is his defiant refusal to entertain any discussion of his double-dealing, except when he has brought you to your knees, by canny exercise of cruel indifference, and knows you are ready to condone anything.

HER INTEGRITY IS THREATENED

IT behooves you to recognize this overtly defensive tactic for what it is, namely, a ruthless, cunning, downright evil attack on your integrity, in the event you try to pit moral strength against his corrupt selfishness. He has, in effect, broken and tamed you by this strategem once; and it is this shocking experience which makes you rightfully afraid to marry him.

You are bound to suffer, one way or another, in consequence of falling in love with Bob, but at least you can choose suffering compatible with self-respect, and that means breaking off with him now, decisively. His chief hold on you is his brute magnetism, and in defense of personal dignity, in the spiritual as well as the social sense, I advise you to rally all the forces of your intelligence to renounce that spell, a course of action which your intuition also decrees.

CIO Is Victor In Union Vote

PEORIA, Ill., May 21. (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers, newly elected bargaining agent for the Caterpillar Tractor Co., planned to open negotiations today on a new wage contract.

The CIO-UAW, in a special run-off NLRB election yesterday to determine a bargaining agent, defeated the AFL United Auto Workers by a vote of 7,702 to 5,644. In the original election by the National Labor Relations board May 12 the AFL unit received the most votes but did not get the required majority.

Strike Ended

The CIO-Farm Equipment Workers union, former bargaining agent at the huge plant, ended a 35-day strike after last week's election.

The FEWU had been denied a place on the original ballot because its officials had refused to sign non-Communist affidavits as required by the Taft-Hartley law. The union had urged workers to vote "no union," but the number thus balloting ranked third in the election.

The FEWU called a strike April 8, making idle some 17,000 production workers, after the company withdrew from wage talks. The company said the union was ineligible to bargain under the Taft-Hartley law.

Louis B. Neumiller, president of Caterpillar, after results of yesterday's election were announced, said, "We look forward to a new era of labor-management relationship."

Roy Reuther, brother of CIO-UAW president Walter Reuther, who will head the union panel in negotiations, said the union's demands would include a wage increase, eight paid holidays and other benefits.

He said part of the pay hike would be to adjust wages "up to those in force among competitors." In addition, he said, the union also would ask for a 30 cent hourly wage boost. Present wage scales were not disclosed.

Joe Jackson had a .408 batting average his first year as a regular player in the major leagues.

Burglar Completes Baby-Sitting Job

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Two detectives brought in their man last night — but only after they'd joined him in a three-hour baby-sitting task.

The officers, John Tracy and Edward Gillen, investigating the burglary of a candy store, nabbed their suspect in his Bronx home

Kenneth Connors, 26, admitted the burglary, police said. But he told the detectives he'd be unable to accompany them to the police station. His wife, he explained, had gone to the movies, leaving him to care for their infant daughter.

The officers shared the baby-sitting task. Three hours later, the wife returned and Connors was taken to the station house where he was booked on a burglary charge.

There was a thud in the dock. James Battle, 34, accused of the holdup, had fainted.

Pappy O'Daniel, Nature Boy Run Dead Heat In Simultaneous Radio Talks, Survey Says

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

Senator W. Lee O'Daniel and Nature Boy ran a dead heat Thursday night, according to an unscientific telephone survey following broadcasts by the two men.

Both the Senator and Nature Boy, better known as Eden Ahbez, took to the radio at 8 p. m., on different networks of course. Ahbez, the Yogi mystic who composed the popular tune "Nature Boy" was on the Dick Haymes program. O'Daniel made a speech on a statewide network, saying he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Two To Two

Out of 15 persons we called, two said they listened to the Senator and another two said they heard Nature Boy.

The poll may or may not represent a cross-section of the people . . . we chose our survey victims from the Dallas telephone directory, merely by running down the columns until we found names that appealed to us.

The two persons who heard O'Daniel were Mrs. J. H. Hoss and Joseph Lastelick.

Mrs. Hoss said: "We listened to the whole thing . . . All the way through."

Lastelick stated: "I listened to the Senator until company arrived . . . about mid way of the program. Then I turned him off."

Lastelick volunteered the further information that "if O'Daniel had decided to run for reelection, he wouldn't have gotten any vote from me."

Other Results

Mrs. Gussie Mae Dennis determined, after conversations with someone in the next room, that she had been listening to Nature Boy. J. H. Epps also had heard the yogi.

Two men were working in their backyard flower gardens, out of radio range. They were Paul J. Sprunck and Andrew C. Tumey.

Other results of the survey:

Mrs. Gray Umpleby: "I wasn't around a radio. I was downtown."

S. D. Eentwistle: "My radio is out of order."

Elia Gurvetch: "I was listening to Gabriel Heatter."

Manuel Debusk: "I was having dinner and was not listening to the radio."

Mrs. O. D. Abercrombie: "I was reading a newspaper. My son had the radio in another room—I don't know what he was listening to."

David A. Phillips: "I was listening to a comic program." Asked further, he said: "Don't have any idea who he was—he was just comic." (It could have been Henry Morgan on the Jolson show)

Feeling sorry for Senator O'Daniel, we decided to call all the O'Daniels in the telephone book. None had heard O'Daniel, in fact none had been listening to a radio at all. They included: Mrs. A. P. O'Daniel, Jester O'Daniel and Mrs. V. B. O'Daniel.

"I was over visiting a neighbor," the latter told us, then added:

"We are not related to the Senator in any way."

Finally we called a newspaperman we knew had listened to the speech. His summary: "The Senator had rare eloquence, expressed deep pathos and fiery indignation. He vieded national conditions with alarm and pointed with pride to his record. And he did what few politicians do—he retired

Pampa Tightens Hold On Top; Hubbers Drop Pair To Clovis

The Pampa Oilers gave a pretty good exhibition of why they are leading the West Texas-New Mexico League, when they banked out a 13-12 victory last night over the Borger Gassers to take their second consecutive win over the second-place club.

The victory zoomed the Pampans into a three-game lead, largest that they have enjoyed in a long time. It didn't surprise Manager Grover Seitz any. He'd predicted in pre-season that Pampa definitely would have to be reckoned with and current examples certainly are bearing him out.

Hubbers Drop Pair

In other loop games, the Amarillo Gold Sox swept a twin bill from the Abilene Blue Sox in the battle of the hose. The Gold Sox won the first game 12-6 and the second, 4-2. The tailend Pioneers from Clovis dealt the Lubbock Hubbers a backhand stab, winning both ends of their doubleheader 10-6 and 9-3. And the Albuquerque Dukes jumped on the Lamesa Loboes for a 12-3 victory.

The wins and losses did some amazing things to a race that once looked like a runaway to Clovis. The Pioneers, by their twin win, are now only three and a half games behind Lubbock, four behind Borger. Amarillo jumped from seventh to fourth and Abilene dropped into Amarillo's spot. Lamesa fell from fourth to a tie with Albuquerque for fifth. All in all, lots of shuffling went on.

Close Competition

And with the team apparently so equally strengthened, this may be the greatest, closest race that the league has ever seen. Teams now are so close to each other that a victory one night can lift one from the basement to the first division.

Tonight Cotton Russell will go to the mound in an effort to turn back the Clovis bats and get the Hubbers back into the swing of winning. It will be a single game starting at 8:15 p. m.

Last night the Pioneers simply had no regard for Hubber hurlers, while the Clovis pitchers had even less regard for the Hubbet reputation as hitters. In two games the Hub City crew collected only 17 hits good for 22 bases. Jackie Wilcox doubled twice and Floyd Walker had a home run. All the other blows were singles.

Three Home Runs

Against this the Clovis nine pounded out 24 hits good for 38 total bases. Included in the barrage were three home runs, two triples and a double. At that, the important thing is that the hits were timely, usually sandwiched around free passes to first, of which there were only seven in two games.

But the Hubbers were leaving men stranded on the basepaths in scandalous fashion, nine in the first game and the same number in the second. They left enough potential runs dying to win both games.

Mrs. Keating Paces Women's Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, May 21 (AP)—The defending champion, a three times former titleholder, and two veteran campaigners who have come close to the throne room but have never been able to unlock the door shot their way into the semi-final round of the 27th annual Women's Texas Golf association championship Thursday at the Oak Hills Country club.

Leading the parade was Mrs. Leonard Keating, the former Kay Pearson of Houston, and the defending titleholder who for the third straight day came from behind on the home stretch to turn what loomed as almost certain defeat into victory.

This time it was Betsy Rawls, the teen-age co-medalist from Austin, who was knocked spinning out of the title picture, 1-up by Mrs. Keating's closing spurt.

Keeping pace with Mrs. Keating were Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, who has the title three times; Mrs. Hack Williford, ex-San Antonio champion now living in Sherman; and Mrs. Bettye Mims White, from Dallas. Mrs. Williford and Mrs. White both are gunning for their first titles.

Lippy Leo Feared Walker's Popularity

Durocher's Book Gives His Reasons For Trading Player

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Brooklyn Dodger faithful were shocked last winter when Dixie Walker was traded to Pittsburgh but Manager Leo Durocher was telling the world today that the guy who "could kiss babies" was ticketed out since 1943 and little Vic Lombardi went along because he wouldn't throw a dangerous "duster."

One of Lippy Leo's pet lines is that "nice guys finish last." He proves his pennant point in his new book, "The Dodgers And Me," ghosted by traveling secretary Harold Parrott.

Two Points Made Clear

And Durocher makes two points very clear. One is that he isn't interested in a player who halts this side of mayhem and manslaughter to win a ball game. The second, by inference, that he feared Walker's popularity.

As a starter, Durocher described Walker as a player "picked up out of the waiver ash can in 1939."

"First of all," he adds, "Dixie had charm, he could kiss babies, sign autographs and talk at smokers and at meetings of the ladies' aid society. He developed a tremendous personal following."

Baseball fans will remember the Ebbets Field mutiny of 1943 when Durocher suspended Bobo Newsom, and Arky Vaughan tore off his uniform, too. Walker threatened to join the walkout but Durocher pleaded that he hadn't suspended Vaughan and Walker continued to play.

Players Go Along

"As usual the players all went along with Walker," Durocher related.

That winter of 1943, Durocher was released outright by Rickey. Those were the days when he was described as "pilot without portfolio." And, when he was rehired, one player was in the doghouse.

"He must go!" Rickey thundered anent the unnamed man.

And Durocher, in his book, explains:

"I can now say that it was Dixie Walker.

"I was bitter at Walker for the way he sided with Newsom and Vaughan. He hadn't bothered to find out the facts or to think them through. I was also peeved at Walker because of other, if minor incidents."

One Of His Holdouts

Hitting one of Walker's holdouts, Durocher editorialized:

"A writer once asked Walker how he came to be the 'peepul's cherse.' Dixie ascribed his success to a three point program . . . First, he answered every question the fans shouted at him when he was playing the outfield. Second, when they rode him, he dropped his head and made no reply; when they applauded he tipped his hat. Third; he was generous with autographs."

Durocher also revealed in the book that he once clipped Babe Ruth under the eye when they grappled over Burleigh Grimes' managerial toga. As for Lombardi, The Lip claimed he wasn't "aggressive enough for me."

Too Easy On Hitters

"I was always begging him to brush those tough hitters back from the plate," he wrote by proxy, blaming the little pitcher for a decisive loss in the 1946 pennant race with the Cards.

So you Dodger fans know now why Walker and Lombardi were traded. Walker was a managerial threat and Lombardi too gentle. It wasn't in the cards. It was in the book—Durocher's.

Two Tech Men Enter Tryouts

Two members of the track team at Texas Tech, Charley Reynolds and Ed Clepper, will attempt to make the United States' Olympic track team, which will hold trials in San Antonio in July.

Announcement that the two outstanding track men for the Red Raiders would participate was made yesterday. Both will attempt to make places on the squad that goes to the Olympics.

Reynolds is the Border Conference 100-yard dash champion and Clepper was the high-point man on the Tech track squad this year. Reynolds also was captain of the Red Raider track and field team.

Reynolds, a junior from Odessa, turned in several good marks in the century event during the season and anchored the mile relay team. He also competed in the 220-yard dash, but was nosed out at the Border loop's annual meet, where he was defending both the 100 and 220 marks.

Clepper was the backbone of the Tech squad, scoring repeatedly in the high jump, broad jump, high hurdles and low hurdles. Clepper tied for the high jump at the Border Conference meet and turned in other place victories.

Clepper High Scorer

The Mobeetie junior led the Raider track squad with 64 7/12 points for the season, followed by Reynolds with 42½ points and Charles Pinnell, freshman from Andrews, with 37½ points.

Reynolds will run the 100-yard dash at San Antonio and Clepper will compete in the high jump.

Other point makers for the Tech track team during the years were Ernest Hawkins, 23¾; Costin Bufkin, 17¾; Seth Murphey, 18; Joe Wilson, 13¼; James Cruser, 11; Edgar Hawkins, 10; James Mullins, 7; Harold Barber, 4; Gerald Davis, 4; Ed Wilson, 3; Walter Hobgood, 3; Henry Briscoe, 2; Ike Stuver, 2.

Missions Move Up In Scramble

BY WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The first division of the Texas league is back where it was a couple of days ago. San Antonio and Houston are tied for second and Tulsa holds down fourth.

The Oilers made their stay in fifth place brief, edging league-leading Fort Worth, 5-3, last night as the Oklahoma City Indians knocked Dallas out of fourth, 10-3.

Missions Beat Sports

Carl Ray held Houston to three hits as Beaumont took a 3-0 shutout and San Antonio used a 6-5 decision over Shreveport to climb into a tie for second.

Harry Perkowski set Fort Worth's Cats down with five hits, snapping a four-game winning streak by the loop's top team. Vic Marasco's two-run homer in the ninth cut Tulsa's winning margin.

Ray had a no-hit ball game for six innings then Roy Huff hit one safely behind second base. Beaumont scored three runs in the fifth off John Grodzicki, Ray starting the rally with a single.

Unearned Runs Count

Oklahoma City found unearned runs count just as much in the scorebook, used six of them to build up the big count against Dallas. The Rebels booted three and the Indians made four errors.

George Archie's fourth hit of the night, a double in the last of the ninth, enabled San Antonio to win. Tom Jordan had homered for the Missions in the second.

Tonight, Beaumont moves to San Antonio and Shreveport to Houston. Oklahoma City continues at Dallas, with Tulsa again at Fort Worth.

Waco Wins Again To Increase Lead

(By The Associated Press)

The swashbuckling Pirates of Waco today had a five-game winning streak and one and one-half game lead in the Big State league.

Waco made it five straight last night with a 6-5 decision over the Sherman-Denison Twins and stretched its lead as Austin walloped second place Greenville, 17-4.

In other games, Paris won a doubleheader from Wichita Falls, 5-2, 7-8, and Texarkana pounded Gainesville, 17-4.

The Pirates rallied for three runs in the ninth, then won in the tenth as John McKeown singled with the bases loaded.

Austin moved into within half-game of second by beating Greenville. The Pioneers took a three-run lead in the first, then made the seventh their big inning with an eight-run outburst.

Sluggers Lash Out Another Victory

It may be a little hard for the Lubbock Sluggers to find any competition now, after they finished slamming out their second straight victory yesterday afternoon in an independent baseball team game.

The Sluggers blasted the Steers 17-10, living up to their name in every respect. Cecil Thompson led the team with a homer, triple and single, while Dean Fawcett collected two for three to lead the losers.

Jackie Lewlling and Louis James were the batteries for the winning team, while the losers used Bobby Summers, Charles Gallimore and Don Meador on the mound, with Bert Sinclair catching.

Congressional Game Scheduled Tonight

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Republicans and Democrats square off tonight in their annual congressional baseball game.

If the contest runs true to form, it will resemble a regular meeting of congress: a little long, a little confusing—but interesting.

Each manager dashed off a last minute statement.

"We will win," said the Democratic mastermind, Rep. Richards (SC).

"We will win," said the Republican mastermind, Rep. Bishop (Ill.)

The Democrats' shining lights are expected to be Reps. Wheeler (Ga), a good pitcher; Harris (Ark), an alert catcher, and Smathers (Fla), who probably is the hardest hitter in the House.

They also will have Rep. Pickett (Tex), who bats and throws both left and righthanded, although not simultaneously.

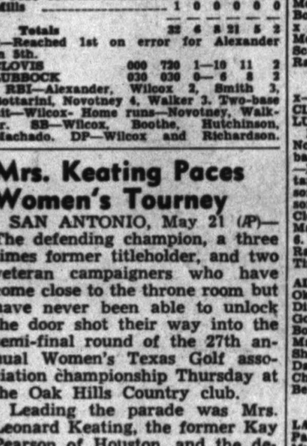

"Furthermore," says Pickett, "I can run backward as fast as I can forward."

Who knows? in a game like this that may be the deciding factor.

Men's Night Set By Girls' Ball Teams

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 21 (AP)—A girl's baseball team, reversing the custom in many major and minor league cities, will have a men's night.

Men will get into the park for free at tonight's All-American league game between the Springfield Sallies and Muskegon, Mich.

Between . . . The Lines

—By JOE KELLY—

The Hubber front office today is looking for the person, or persons, unknown who stole a length of track owned by them. The piece of track was the one on which the Hubber Special was running. When it was stolen last night, sometime between 7:30 p. m. and midnight, it caused the Special to leave the rails and go into a violent crash. The thud, which you heard sometime in that three and a half hour interval, was the Special leaving the rails and spinning its wheels.

• • •

The Lubbock police force today is questioning certain persons from New Mexico, who are believed to have some inside knowledge of the disaster. Whether they were entirely at fault, or whether they were only accessories after the fact, is not known. Some of the officers are under the suspicion that it was a well-trained fifth column working at night. There is no doubt that it was well-planned and thoroughly premeditated. Under particularly close scrutiny today is Manager John Bottarini. He is held under the suspicion of borrowing Eagle Eye Fleagle's evil eye last night. At least one witness swears that he saw Bottarini grin at Manager Jackie Sullivan.

• • •

Whether the grin was intentional, as though having secret knowledge, or whether it was mere pleasantry, is not known. The prosecution has demanded the death sentence on the very insolence of the act. The defense claims complete ignorance of the event. There is also some question as to Bottarini's origin, some of the prosecution claiming he had his early training behind the Iron Wall and is an agent of the Kremlin. However, the jury has received its charge from the judge and has retired to debate the case. A decision is expected some time around 11 p. m.

• • •

There is little doubt in the minds of fans at last night's twin killing that some one was guilty of something. The most generally agreed upon conclusion was that the Hubbers weren't hitting the pitching thrown at them and that Clovis was treating the Hubber hurlers as though they owned them. Only Jackie Wilcox, who has been in a slump, and Jackie Sullivan were able to get more than three hits in one game. The suspicion was that the Hubbers were having one of those nights, which is as good a way as any to describe it.

• • •

The dressing room was deadly quiet after the game. We couldn't blame the players for taking it hard. To lose two games to the tail end club is mortifying; it is also baseball. The only encouraging factor is that the losses didn't come to the first or second place clubs. The two defeats last night were bad, but they weren't as bad as it would be to lose two to Pampa or Borger in one night.

• • •

Today the Hubbers are only half a game behind Borger and they still are a game and a half ahead of the fourth-place nine, Amarillo. They can get back on the victory trail tonight and then gird themselves for the Borger invasion Saturday, Sunday and Monday. That probably will be a four-game series, since the fourth game of the year was rained out, and the Hubbers can be satisfied with nothing less than two out of four. Two out of four wouldn't allow them to gain any, but it would allow them to hold their position. On the other hand, if they should play great ball and take three out of four, or even sweep the series, they would be firmly entrenched in second place.

• • •

The Hubbers didn't lose last night because they played bad baseball. They were playing good ball, but were not hitting and that tells the whole story. The hurling might have been better, although the lack of solid base knocks could not make up for this failure. Defensively the Hubbers turned in a good game. There's no question that the biggest crowd-pleaser last night was Charley Scarborough, who got off a beautiful peg to the plate to catch a runner. There were good double plays and the infield defense was tight. Baseball being what it is, we wouldn't be surprised to see the Hubbers come out of it with a blast tonight and to keep on against Borger. We hope so.

• • •

THE ROUNDUP: Don Moore still hasn't located a place for his wife and two children. If you have a suitable place, don't hesitate to call the Hubber business office, which is offering two season passes for an apartment. Bob Clodfelter, who pitched that one-hitter Wednesday, also needs a place for his wife, with the Hubbers offering the same inducement. Why don't some of you fans relent and help them out? . . . Royce Mills has been a busy man the past three games. He played second Wednesday, pitched in the first game last night and pinch-hit in the second tilt . . . Fans were liberally sprayed with glass last night, when a foul off Mathew's bat broke a light bulb . . . There were 29 strikeouts in the two games, 13 for Clovis, 16 for Lubbock. Eleven men looked at third strikes, three for Lubbock, and 18 men took it swinging, 13 for Lubbock.

Skidding Dodgers Get Bronx Cheers

BY JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Home sweet home has a strange tune in Brooklyn this year. Jeers instead of cheers greet the Dodgers after five straight defeats in "friendly" Ebbets Field.

No longer does a return to Flatbush guarantee success. First the Boston Braves and then the feared St. Louis Cards swept series in the flock's own backyard where the Dodgers are supposed to be toughest. Even the mighty Casey is getting the bumps.

Despite the Dodgers' depth in bright, young players who can run with the speed of light, they find themselves with an inadequate pitching staff.

Casey Bumped Again

Hugh Casey was bumped again yesterday in his second-straight relief appearance when the Cards slugged their way to a 13-4 slaughter. The loss was charged to starter Joe Hatten who was battered to all corners in a six-run fifth inning. Casey and Clyde King also were treated roughly while Howie Pollet tamed the Brooks with nine hits for his fourth straight success.

As a result of the day's firing in Ebbets Field, the Cards have a 2½-game lead over the runner-up New York Giants. Brooklyn is sixth, only six percentage points ahead of Chicago.

Card Manager Eddie Dyer was ejected by umpire Art Gore after a bitter protest over a Casey pitch that hit Catcher Del Rice in the head. Earlier Casey had hit Whitey Kurowski with a pitched ball.

Reds Beat Giants

The Giants lost ground when they were hogtied by Cincinnati's Howie Fox, 3-1. Fox, an early season "bust," hurled a neat six-hitter for his first win of the year. He started the game-winning rally with a single off loser Dave Koslo.

Elmer Riddle continued his remarkable comeback by blanking the Boston Braves with four singles while Pittsburgh clubbed Red Barrett and two successors for 17 hits in a 13-0 romp. Ralph Kiner hit his ninth homer and two doubles to east Riddle's path to his fourth victory.

Chicago's Cubs rapped three Philadelphia pitchers for 14 hits in a 5-3 decision over Walt Dubiel.

Indians Increase Lead

Cleveland opened up a game and a half lead in the American by drubbing Boston, 13-4, at night after the runnerup Philadelphia's A's bowed to Detroit in the afternoon, 4-2. The Indians profited by the generosity of southpaws Mickey Harris and Maurice McDermott who tied the major league record by walking 18 men.

Freddie Hutchinson rationed the slumping A's to five hits while Detroit banged Carl Scheib, Bob Savage and Charley Harris for 15 blows.

With Joe DiMaggio enjoying a field day, the New York Yankees gave the Chicago White Sox their daily whipping. DiMag hit two homers, a triple, double and single for five hits in six trips, driving in six runs.

The St. Louis Browns hopped all over Washington for a 17-7 night verdict to move into fifth place, passing both the Senators and Red Sox. It was the highest run total of the year in the league.

Lufkin Wins, Breaks Long Losing Streak

(By The Associated Press)

Lufkin broke a ten-game winning streak last night in the Lone Star league when it handed Henderson an 8-1 licking. The victory didn't help the Foresters any in the standings, however. They're still deep in the cellar.

In other games, the pace-setting Longview Texans swept a double bill from Marshall, 6-3, 5-3, and second place Tyler stayed half-game behind by blanking Gladewater, 5-0. Bryan also scored a shutout over Kilgore, 6-0.

Okie Flowers won his fourth game and Joe Pate his seventh in the Longview victories.

Gene Bauer set Kilgore down with three hits as Bryan won easily.

Dewey Jacobs turned in the best pitching performance of the night, a one-hitter against Gladewater.

Sprint Race To Open Relay Games Tonight

LOS ANGELES, May 21 (AP)—The fastest sprinters in the nation face the starter's gun tonight in the headline attraction of the eighth annual Coliseum relays.

The race will be a 100-meter contest involving Pell-Mel Patton of the University of Southern California, Lloyd La Beach of Panama and seven others of national or regional repute.

The weather may hold the key to the speed marks registered. If the night is as chilly as it has been all week, any threats of record-making will be dimmed.

The word "sparrow" originally meant any small bird, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Bluebonnet Beats Baldridge, Golden Light Noses Out Thomas Jewelers

The top and bottom teams in the South Plains Softball league race chalked up victories Thursday night at Jumbo Webster field, with the Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers blanking Baldridge Bakery, 4-0, and the Golden Light Coffee nine edging Thomas Jewelers, 4-2.

The Sunbeamers, who have won nine of their 10 starts in conference play, coasted to the impressive win behind the four-hit hurling of baffling Jackie Neel. It was an even battle until the fourth frame, but then Willis James connected for a double and Floyd Lawhorn slammed a round-tripper over the left field wall to ice the triumph.

Carr Beats Holder

The Sunbeamers added two more runs in the sixth when Willis again led off with a double, Lawhorn smashed a two-baser and Claude Spears singled to center.

The nightcap featured one of the most exciting games played at the local field this seasop, as Dewey Carr bested Wee Willie Holder in a hurling duel. Thomas held a one-run lead until the fifth, when the Coffeemen capitalized on a hit, a walk and four Thomas errors to push across four tallies.

Housion Negro Is Convicted

A 23-year-old Houston negro, Tony Don Juan Pier, today was sentenced to serve seven years in the state penitentiary after he had pleaded guilty to forgery.

He waived a jury in the 72nd district court of Judge Dan Blair.

Five of the seven years will run concurrently with three concurrent five-year sentences assessed by courts at Austin, San Angelo and Quanah, officials said. They said the negro also is wanted for trial at El Paso and Cleburne.

Four Charges Faced

Chester Beckwith Summers, 35, of Slaton faced four charges today after his car had been stopped. In county court he was charged with pistol carrying. In corporation court the charges were speeding, passing a vehicle on a hill, and having in his possession no operator's license. He posted $100 bond on each of the corporation court charges, but had not entered a plea in the county court case, officials said.

A companion posted a $100 bond on a charge of drunkenness.

Luke Silas, described as a 44-year-old negro, was fined $100 and costs for liquor law violation, as was Jack W. Slats, about 35. A charge of liquor law violation naming Sam George, 41, of Beaumont, was dismissed when, officials said, they learned that a cache of whisky taken Tuesday night at a carnival here belonged to Slats, not George.

Two Men Fined

Police said they fined two young men, 25 and 20, $15 each for disturbance and, in addition, fined the younger $10 for having no operator's license. The men allegedly disturbed inhabitants of the 2000-block Twenty-eighth at 8:30 a. m. by loud and boisterous language. They attempted to leave when police drove up in answer to complaints, officials said, but were arrested.

A 38-year-old laborer, Cyrus Edward Drake of Twenty-ninth and Ave. D, was charged Thursday afternoon with incest.

A 17-year-old daughter was the complaining witness against him.

In lieu of $5,000 bond set by D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, in binding Drake over to grand jury investigation, the defendant was remanded to county jail.

Accusation Denied

Drake denied the accusation.

The daughter told E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, and Dep. Sheriff George Eubank, who made the arrest, that the father had been mistreating her approximately three years, since the time she and a sister, 16, returned from an orphanage.

Pharr said the younger girl also would be a witness against her father who, however, was said not to have abused her.

There are no other children in the family.

Suspect Held At Clovis

Drake has been divorced from the mother of the girls since they were quite young, investigators were informed.

The defendant said he was born at Dickens, and that he has been employed to lay building blocks and to assist plasterers.

The sheriff's department has placed a "hold" request with Clovis, N. M., officials for custody of Chester L. Witcher, charged here with passage of a forged $50 check, after disposition of a Clovis case, it was announced.

Extradition Waived

Capt. Paul E. Pierce of the criminal division of the Riverside, Calif., sheriff's department, and P. V. McOsker, transportation officer of that department, left Lubbock this morning with James D. Graham, 24, a Lubbock taxicab driver who will be transferred to Riverside to face a two-count charge of obtaining property with intent to defraud by giving worthless checks. Graham waived contest of extradition after his arrest Wednesday by Dep. Sheriff Leonard Lott.

East Broadway school officials informed the seriff's department of theft there of lights and other equipment, and named a suspect who will be questioned by juvenile officials.

Police were informed by L. G. Coffee, of Veterans Village, that about $85 worth of baseball equipment had been stolen from his car near the Veterans administration building yesterday. He said the equipment was in an orange army bag.

A gate valued at $32 was reported stolen from L. M. Abel of 2109 Eighteenth. A flashlight, pictures and other properties were reported stolen from the automobile of R. T. Roberts of 2208 Fourteenth.

The sheriff's department said a battery was stolen from the W. S. Pierce irrigation well house five miles west of Monroe.

The amendment, passed by the 50th legislature on April 22, 1947, provided that the University of Texas may issue $10,000,000 in bonds and Texas A. & M. college $5,000,000 for building.

The money was to be paid over a 20-year span from income out of the university's permanent fund, which both school's share.

Tax Is Provided

A tax of five cents per $100 property valuation, taken out of the seven cent Confederate pension tax, was set up to take care of the other 14 state-supported colleges. They were to share $45,000,000 over 30 years.

Assistant Attorney General Joe Greenhill handled the state's case, while R. Guy Carter of Dallas represented the opponents of the amendment.

Stock Market

PROFITS ARE CASHED

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Late selling kept today's stock market from equalling its 21-month average high.

Rails and industrials encountered active demand in the early part of the session. When automobile issues led a further advance in the afternoon, some quick cashing of profits developed.

Although a majority of stocks clung to part of their gains, steels and some oils skidded into losing territory.

Total transactions ran to around 2,000,000 shares, highest since Monday.

In a fast final-hour slide, Mission Corp. and Pacific Western Oil saw early climbs of around 2 points fade out. Both finished down 2 to 3 points.

Others lower included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, American Distilling, Goodyear and International Paper.

Holding fractions to more than a point higher were General Electric, General Motors, Chrysler, Atlantic Coast Line, Pennsylvania Railroad, Anaconda Copper, American Smelting, Schenley, Dupont, Allied Chemical, International Telephone, Sinclair Oil (which reported record production), Texas Co., Paramount Pictures, U. S. Rubber and American Woolen. Bangor & Aroostook touched a new high after a good April income report.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Cotton futures turned steady following an irregular pattern in early dealings today. Mill buying, along with short covering supported the market. Some selling was influenced by indications that export buying will get under way slowly and talk that domestic carryover stocks on August 1 may be well above present expectations. There was further switching between nearby July and October.

A private crop survey estimated cotton acreage in the eastern belt 13½ per cent per cent above last season, with increases of 8 to 17 percent forecast in the central belt.

Cotton futures turned easy and declined into new low ground for the day on a late flurry of commission house and local selling. Reports that export buying may be slow for next few months, and the domestic cotton carryover may be well above expectations influenced the selling.

Futures closed 40 to 95 cents a bale lower than the previous close.

Class Rehearsal To Be Sunday Morning

Lubbock High school graduating seniors will meet at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning in the high school auditorium to rehearse for the commencement sermon scheduled at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium that afternoon, Principal Floyd Honey announced today

Following the commencement sermon, Honey said, seniors will meet at 4:30 p. m. on the east side of the new Tech stadium to rehearse for graduation exercises on tap at the stadium at 8 p. m. Monday.

Should weather conditions be threatening Monday afternoon, he said, seniors will meet at 4 p. m. in the high school auditorium to rehearse for an indoor graduation performance, should weather necessitate a change in plans.

Honey emphasized that should weather force the seniors to hold commencement exercises in the auditorium on Monday night only those parents and friends having tickets, along with the faculty, will be admitted for the ceremony.

"I sincerely hope for a nice night Monday so all that care to may attend our first planned outdoor graduation," he said.

Here is his account of what the boys said to Hamilton:

"They hung around the airpark Monday afternoon, and slept in a Cessna plane in a hangar that night. They fooled around Tuesday, and at 5 p. m. pushed the Ercoupe out onto the runway, fired up, and took off."

"They said they took turns flying and didn't have any trouble. They said it bounced a little when they landed in a farm field. But when they tried to taxi they hit soft dirt and the undercarriage buckled.

"Then they took the farmer's saddle horse and rode near town, turned the horse loose and walked on in. The sheriff got them."

The Soviet military administration demanded today that the Americans revoke their action in banning Russian-sponsored publications from the U. S. zone.

The Americans said the ban would remain until the Russians agree to stop interfering with circulation of American-sponsored newspapers and other publications in the Soviet zone.

Col. Gordon Textor, chief of the American military government's information control division, said he had not yet received the Russian protest, which they released through the press.

Former Hillsboro Mayor Is Claimed

HILLSBORO, May 21 (AP)—Sam L. Robertson, former mayor of Hillsboro, died here early today after a week's illness.

Robertson retired as mayor in 1947 after ten years in office. A native of Texas, he had lived in Hill county since 1896 and had at one time been a peace officer.

A past president of the state retail merchants association and past president of the Hillsboro rotary club and chamber of commerce, Robertson was chairman of the county parole board at the time of his death.

Union Limits Are Explained

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board ruled today that it can not hold union shop elections in 13 states which have bans or regulations covering the subject

The board issued an administrative hold union shop elections in 13 is based on a majority opinion of three of its five members.

The agency said the Taft-Hartley act "in effect removes all federal restrictions upon existing and future state legislation prohibiting compulsory unionism . . . even where such legislation may affect employees engaged in interstate commerce."

Closed Shop Banned

The Taft-Hartley law bans the "closed shop" but allows a union shop if a majority of workers vote for it.

In a closed shop, only union members can be hired. In a union shop, the management may hire a non-union man but he must join the union after his employment.

The NLRB had no estimate of the number of workers who would be unable to obtain union shop elections under the ruling.

The states are Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Maine, Nebraska, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Dakota, Tennesse, Texas and Virginia.

cept to conform with Interstate Commerce Commission hours of service, which is 10 hours of driving time a day, or 60 hours a week out of 70 hours."

It is set out further that regular scheduled service is to be arranged into regular assignments which will contain the maximum number of miles possible under outstanding federal or state rules on hours of service, but the company "cannot require operators (drivers) to violate the hours-of-service rules, unless by an act of Providence as provided by ICC rules."

Reinstatement Sought

The proposal also insists either on reinstatement by the company of Harold Stotts, who it is charged was dismissed for minor accident, or a management agreement to submit the case to a board of arbitration "as provided for in the present contract." The union agrees to abide by the decision of any such board.

The proposal, presented by Thompson and the union local's grievance committee, was submitted at a morning session when representatives of both sides in the dispute met with E. A. Walker, commissioner with the Federal Mediation Conciliation service.

The announcement said that Jess Levens, vice president and manager of the bus company, gave a quick "no" to the proposal, declining to consider the plan which had been scaled down by the drivers from an original demand for six and a half cents per mile.

Prepare To Walk Out

There was no indication that further conferences were to be held during the afternoon, and Thompson said drivers were preparing to walk out at the deadline time tonight.

Bus company officials maintained silence on their plans, but there were indications the company might make an effort to continue service, possibly on a curtailed basis.

Efforts Said Fruitless

The current series of discussions has been going on intermittently for two or three days. The strike call followed what was described by Thompson, as fruitless efforts to get some definite proposals from the company.

The strike, involving 72 drivers, would halt practically all bus traffic over the South Plains, and affect more than 2,500 persons who pass through the terminal here on the company's 90 daily schedules in and out.

Shop workers of the organization are not immediately involved in the strike call, but Thompson has said that unless an agreement is reached, any action by the machinists will depend on development of other phases of the strike picture.

Thompson said negotiations on a new wage contract started in January, and he was called into the case in February. The strike vote, which he said carried by a large majority, was taken in March.

Do Not Want Strike

"We are wide open to negotiations," Thompson declared last night, "we do not want to strike. We have agreed to arbitrate the issues, but nothing was accomplished at the sessions held Thursday."

Thompson said that at a regular meeting of the Lubbock local Wednesday night, the grievance committee composed of T. J. Armstrong, chairman, J. H. Pace, vice-chairman, and R. E. Hefner, secretary, the opinion was expressed that the "drivers hope to avoid a strike, but are sincere in their efforts to obtain more equitable pay."

Statement Is Expected

Hurley Carpenter, director of schedules and operations for the transit firm, said last night he had "no statement for the press at this time, but we may have something to say after the meeting tomorrow morning. We are keeping our powder dry."

Carpenter estimated that 2,500 persons pass through the Lubbock terminal each day. The TNM&O Coaches has direct connections with El Paso and Oklahoma City, and other schedules from the terminal tie in with other lines at Big Spring, Odessa, Amarillo, Clovis, Fort Worth and Wichita Falls.

Ropesville Seniors Hear Sam Allred

Sam Allred, Lubbock attorney, delivered the graduating address for the senior class at Ropesville High school last night, urging upon the graduates that they apply themselves to the many opportunities of real citizenship before them.

Edwin H. Boedeker, Allred's law partner, is to address the graduating class at Dickens High school tonight. Boedeker, former county judge in Dickens county, is to be accompanied by his wife and young son, and prior to the exercises, was to have dinner in the home of former Dickens county Sheriff J. L. FBI Searches For Attacker Of Girl

HOUSTON, May 21 (AP)— Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation today were on the trail of a 27-year-old filling station operator who fled after an 11-year-old girl said he assaulted her twice.

The nationwide pickup was ordered after it was believed the man abandoned a taxicab he was driving yesterday afternoon and headed for Florida.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Jake Colca said the man may be carrying a loaded .45 caliber automatic. He described the alleged attacker as "dangerous."

The girl, who was in serious condition at her home, told her mother the man took her for a ride in his taxicab and attacked her.

"I approached the man," the mother said, "and I asked him if he had taken my daughter for a ride. He turned pale and mumbled 'yes' and jumped in the car and sped away."

Officers said the man was married.

mended strikers to vote against returning to Wilson plants because the company's proposals "would mean the destruction of our union." He said the company has insisted it reserve the right to re-employ all strikers and said it would not re-hire workers charged with unlawful acts.

March said the company, by its terms, can rehire "who they want to regardless of seniority rights." Further, he added, the company "reserves the right to fire all members of our union who have fought to preserve our union."

Britain Hopes To Maintain Her Old Position In Middle East

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The sharp differences between the two major democracies—Britain and America—over the Arab-Jewish issue are bringing many anxious queries to this column.

Why should we find the United States recognizing the new Jewish state of Israel, while England withholds recognition as Arab troops (some of which are British trained and supported) move into the Holy land for the attack. Why, in short, should the two powers appear to be taking opposite sides in the conflict.

Delicate Ground

Well, we are treading on delicate ground here. However, I think we are safe in saying that London and Washington aren't really working towards different ends. They just have got their wires crossed in a most disconcerting manner, which is causing much heartburning in both capitals.

Britain's main objective, as I see it, is to safeguard her interests in the Middle East. These include control of the strategic areas necessary for maintenance of her lifeline through the Mediterranean and the Suez canal to the Far East. Many of these strategic bases are Arabic. England also is vitally interested in the Middle East petroleum fields—as is Uncle Sam, and in a big way.

Withdrawal Announced

It may surprise many people to find Britain thus apparently putting heavy emphasis on her Mediterranean defenses once more. It's only a little more than a year ago that she announced withdrawal of her military administrative and supply bases from the Eastern Mediterranean to Kenya colony on the east coast of Africa. It was said that her reasons for this sensational change included the instability of her political and military status in Egypt and Palestine.

London said this program envisaged retention of Britain's forward operational bases "as long as practicable" in such countries as the Sudan, Palestine, Egypt, Trans-Jordan and Iraq. However, the world got the impression that British military experts felt the position was such that they would not be able to defend the Mediterranean life-line in another great war.

Situation Changed

That was a year ago. Since then the situation has changed vastly—due to Communist aggression. Moscow not only has virtually annexed eastern Europe but is trying to make true Russia's age-old dream of breaking through into the Middle East and becoming a Mediterranean power. Thus this area has again become one of the world's worst danger spots.

So we see Britain maneuvering to maintain her position in the Arab countries, or so it seems from here. She proposes to defend the Mediterranean if the need arises.

But meantime the Holy Land is torn by bloody strife. What of that? Some observers familiar with the Middle East believe that sooner or later the Arabs and the Jews will make a deal for a division of Palestine, and end the war. King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, commander in chief of all the Arab forces, is ambitious for expansion and might well be interested in bargaining.

If some compromise is achieved it may not come until after a considerable period of warfare. How that will go is anybody's guess at this writing. The warring forces haven't yet come to full grips, and there is nothing by which to gauge the trend.

Nightgown Is Worn To Opera In Paris

LONDON, May 21. (AP)—Reporter Joan Reeder wrote in the Daily Mirror today she wore her nightgown to the Paris opera and that Princess Elizabeth and the other customers never knew the difference.

Joan, 25, was sent to Paris on short notice last week to report the visit of Elizabeth and Prince Philip. She got an unexpected invitation to the opera, but had no evening gown.

She wore instead a pink and black nightgown with a bare midriff. It being Paris, no one noticed, she wrote.

"There were new looks everywhere but the looks I got were the most old-fashioned in the world," she commented.

Bishop Pickett Will Speak Here Sunday

Baptists Talk Policy Stand

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 21 (AP)—Southern Baptists today considered a committee proposal that they refrain from taking any stand on President Truman's civil rights proposal.

With the election of a new convention president—the Rev. Robert G. Lee of Memphis—cleared from yesterday's agenda, the convention paused in its rapid pace this morning to hear reports on its ministerial education program.

The controversial social service commission report was one of the top items on the afternoon program.

No Recommendation

"There is a general expectation," the report said, "that this commission will make some recommendation concerning the issue of civil rights.

"We have no recommendation beyond the unanimous action of this convention in St. Louis one year ago."

Last year the body announced support of the negro's "right to vote, to serve on juries, to receive justice in the courts, to be free from mob violence," and other rights.

The convention dealt a slap yesterday at Dr. J. Frank Norris, Fundamentalist pastor of First Baptist church, Fort Worth, Texas, who has criticized President Louie Newton of Atlanta for what he calls his "pro-Communist" stand.

It adopted an amendment to its constitution to ban representatives of churches not sympathetic with its purposes and work from taking part in its deliberations.

Norris termed the move "a huge joke" and said: "If I want to go back in, I'll do it."

Bachelor Leaves His Fortune For Peace

LONG BEACH, Calif., May 21 (AP)—World peace was worth $70,000 personally to Egbert L. Durham.

Durham, a former Tennessee farmer, left that amount in government bonds to the U. S. treasury "to promote the cause of world peace," it was disclosed yesterday when his will was filed for probate.

Durham, a bachelor, came here 10 years ago from Sharon, Tenn. He died May 13 at the age of 82.

The rest of his estate, valued at $27,500, was bequeathed to relatives.

Priest, minister of the Monroe Church of Christ, will give the benediction. Rev. John S. Rankin, Monroe Baptist church pastor, will give the scripture reading.

John Lee Smith, Lubbock attorney, will make the principal address at the commencement services on Monday night, and A. L. Faubion, New Deal superintendent, will present the diplomas to the graduating seniors.

The valedictory address will be made by John Kveton, and the salutatory will be given by Loretta Shinn. Verlin Anglin will present the class's gift to the school, and Paul Crosnoe, class president, will talk on "In Memory of the Senior Class."

Forest Smith, high school principal, will announce the awards. A. L. Acker, grade school principal, will pronounce the invocation, and the benediction will be given by C. S. Wales.

Music will consist of two numbers by the class, a song by the senior girls' chorus and a number by a sextette of senior boys. Mrs. B. M Hays will play the processional.

12,000-Foot Wildcat Test In Gaines County To Be Started

W. H. Black Drilling Company, of Midland, is to start drilling by May 28, on its No. 1 L. H. Wentz, as a 12,000-foot wildcat in southwest Gaines county, 15 miles southwest of Seminole.

The drillsite is 660 feet from south and west lines of the north half of section 8, block A-25, psl survey. That puts the prospector one mile east and one-half mile south of The Texas Company, Humble Oil & Refining Company, and Ralph Lowe No. 1 Sam C. Jenkins, et al, which had reached 9,479 feet in a lime section, and was running a drillstem test.

The No. 1 Jenkins is high, geologically, and has developed some signs of possible production in the top of the Devonian. Those shows do not indicate a heavy production from that formation. The venture is going ahead to try to find and test the Ellenburger.

Flowing To Test

Seaboard Oil Company of Deleware, and Southern Minerals Corporation No. 1 M. G. Reed, Southeast Coke county Ellenburger prospector, 10 miles southeast of Robert Lee, and 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 1, HE&WT survey, was flowing to test on perforated section at 6,180-24 feet in the Ellenburger.

The project was washed with 500 gallons of mud acid, and operators then tried to treat with 1,000 gallons of regular acid. The formation would take only 175 gallons of the acid. The remainder of that fluid was circulated. The well was swabbed a few times, and it kicked off and started flowing.

In the first hour of flowing to tanks it made 24 barrels of fluid —50 per cent oil and 50 per cent wash water. A 20/64th inch choke was used. Flowing casing pressure was 300 pounds and flowing tubing pressure was 450 pounds.

In a subsequent six-hour period the well made a total of 55 barrels of oil and 113 barrels of wash water and salt water. Various sized chokes, ranging from 19/64th inch to 25/64th inch, were used during the six hours.

49 Barrels Of Fluid

During the first 60 minutes of the six hours of flowing the wildcat flowed through a 25/64th inch tubing choke, and made 49 barrels of fluid, 40 per cent oil and 60 per cent wash water and salt water.

It appears that the water which was encountered in this project below 6,200 feet—and which operators had attempted to squeeze off with cement—has broken in and is coming out with the oil. It is expected that the project will be completed as a producer of both oil and water, and an Ellenburger discovery, in the near future.

Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation No. 1 Wendland, another southeast Coke county prospector, seven miles southeast of Robert Lee, and 4,850 feet from south line and 2,970 feet from east line of the Jose Antonio Guiterrez survey No. 22, ran a 45 minute drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger at 6,230-43 feet.

Gas showed at the surface in 45 minutes. It was not gauged or estimated. Recovery was 60 feet of oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no shows of water.

The project was to deepen about five feet and then run another drillstem test.

Drillstem Test Run

Superior Oil Company No. 1-C-8 University, wildcat in southwest Reagan county, six miles southeast of Texon, and 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 25, block 8, University survey, ran a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger at 9,840-76 feet.

Length of the test was not learned. There was a very slight blow of air for a part of the period. Recovery was 50 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water. The wildcat is now making hole below 9,923 feet.

Tentative top of the Ellenburger was picked at 9,843 feet.

Leases Are Acquired

Intercoast Petroleum Corporation, of Midland, has acquired oil and gas leases on a spread of 5,080 acres in northwest Loving county, adjacent to, and surrounding the Mason feild, where the production from the 10 wells in that area comes from the Delaware, at an average total depth of 3,900 feet.

Intercoast acquired the acreage from Argo Oil Corporation. Argo retains a one-sixteenth over-ride, and also has the deep rights on about half of the spread. Intercoast secured the deep rights on the remainder of the acreage, as well as the shallow rights on all of the leases.

Intercoast plans to start drilling on a one-half mile north stepout to the Mason field, within 20 days. Exact location for that venture has not yet been officially reported.

In the deal Intercoast acquired one producing oil well on the north side of the Mason field, from Argo. That well is in the southeast corner of the southwest quarter of section 17, TP survey, T-1.

Included in the acreage which has been acquired by Intercoast, is the north half and the south half of the south half of section 1, block 56, TP survey, T-1, and all of section 12, north half of 13, all of 6, the north half of the north half and all of the south half of 7, all of 18, the south half of the north half and the south half of the southeast quarter of 19, the northwest quarter and the east half of 5, all of 8, the west half of 17, the northeast quarter of 29, and the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 2, in block 55, TP survey, T-1.

Intercoast has also recently acquired leases on 3,200 acres in central Loving county, a few miles north of the Wheat field, where the production is also from the Delaware. That concern is planning to acquire more leases in that area — with the idea of drilling a wildcat in the near future.

Intercoast has production from the Delaware in the Wheat field and it is understood that the concern plans to carry on an active campaign i . Loving and adjacent counties to try to find more fields which will produce oil from the Delaware.

Flowing To Tanks

McAlester Fuel Company No. 1 Fisher, north-central Andrews discovery from the top of the Devonian, 12 miles north of the town of Andrews, three and one-half miles east of the Shafter Lake-Devonian field, and in the southwest corner of section 4, block A-36, psl survey, was flowing to tanks to test.

This project kicked off after acid, from perforated section at 11,020-090 feet, and flowed to pits for several hours, at the estimated rate of from 10 barrels to 12 barrels of 28 gravity oil per hour with no water.

In the first hour of flowing to tanks, it made 35 barrels of oil, through a one-quarter inch tubing choke. In the second hour, using a one-half inch choke, the well made 25 barrels of oil.

At last report the new discovery was holding rather close to 25 barrels of oil per hour, flowing.

Seed stock of the highly regarded Andrew and Zephyr oat varieties will not be available to the public until 1950.

City Tax Spree Is Criticized

By DON JENNINGS
United Press Staff Writer

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 20—Pennsylvania has more local taxes these days than you can shake an empty pocketbook at.

Under the commonwealth's new local tax law, barely a year old, cities, boroughs and townships have slapped imposts on a wide range of things from incomes to juke boxes.

Yet while the rush for added municipal funds gains momentum across the state, the men most familiar with government finance structures admit the future of the law is uncertain.

The Pennsylvania Boroughs association warned that some taxes had been levied on the wrong items, others were overlapping and some were just plain confiscatory.

Caution Urged

The association called a meeting to caution its members on the hazards. Misapplication of the taxing power, the president of the association said, might lead to its repeal in the 1949 Legislature.

"What the end result will be," said the state chamber of commerce, "few persons are willing to prophesy."

The chamber said that in the first 10 months of the "tax-anything" law's existence, nearly 250 political subdivisions passed new levies, the most popular being amusement taxes.

More than 50 places have adopted or are considering taxes on coal production, the chamber said, 20 had imposed income taxes and 55 have adopted amusement levies, while 32 are thinking about it.

The legislation already has weathered a constitutionality test in the State Supreme court.

The law is not in violation of the requirement for uniformity of all taxes, did not constitute a denial of due process of law and involved no improper delegation of the power of taxation, the court said.

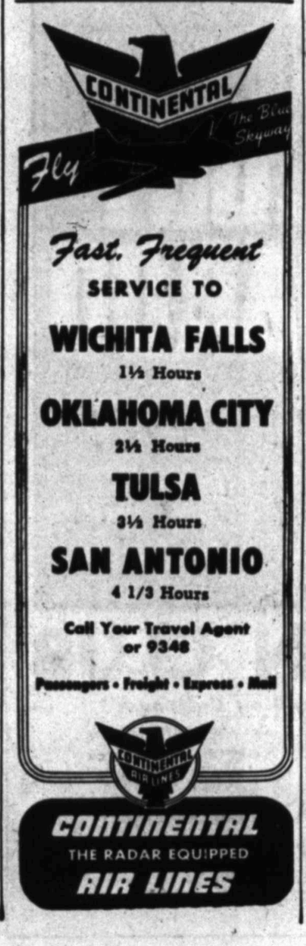

Judge Dissents

However, Chief Justice George W. Maxey commented during argument of the test case, involving a coal levy, that he thought the statute "oppressive and unwise."

"He we are," Maxey said, trying to bring business into the state, while this act is driving industry out of it."

A spokesman for the Joint State Government Commission countered that the result would be just the reverse because the measure would spread the tax burden among more people.

One of the governor's chief aims in promoting the law was to reduce the amount of taxation on real estate, which had been virtually the sole support of local government functions, including schools.

American Ban Is Protested By Reds

BERLIN, Friday, May 21 (AP)—The Russian military administration today protested as illegal an American action banning Russian-sponsored publications from the U. S. zone of Germany and demanded its immediate revocation.

The Americans announced their embargo Wednesday and said it would remain in force until the Russians guaranteed to stop interfering with the circulation of American-sponsored newspapers and other publications in the Soviet occupation zone.

The U. S. military government charged that hundreds of thousands of such publications had been confiscated on Russian orders in violation of four-power agreements for a free exchange of information throughout Germany. Repeated protests proved fruitless, U. S. officials said.

Man Wins Election Days After Death

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 21 (U.P.)—A dead man was elected by voters of this community in the recent primary.

Willard Kreiger, who died after the ballots were printed, received 77 votes to his opponent's 76 in a contest for Republican committeeman.

Friends of Krieger worked to defeat his political rival so the post could be filled by appointment.

Village Shows Heart For Europe's Needy

GLENCROSS, S. D., May 21 (U.P.)—The 200 or so people of this small ranch community of western South Dakota possibly have done more to aid the hungry of Europe than any other community in the country of similar size.

Since the war, the community has contributed 1,875 parcels of food to European needy and donated $10,800 for the purchase of food through the organizations CARE and SAFE. It also has sent large quantities of colthing overseas.

The community's overseas relief program was originated by Father Emmanuel J. Reichenberger, a refugee priest from Czechoslovakia.

Letter Gone Astray Promotes Romance

PATTERSON, N. J., May 21 (U.P.)—In 1944, when Pvt. Louis Carola received a letter addressed to Pvt. Louis Carola, little did he dream that four years later he would marry the sender and be the brother-in-law of the addressee.

The letter was written by Sofia Carola of Paterson to her brother, Louis, shortly after he was injured in the Battle of the Bulge. By mistake, it was received by Louis Carola of Philadelphia.

The wrong Carola re-sealed the letter, inserted a note of apology, and mailed it back to Sofia. A correspondence began.

They have been married.

Famed Czech Airman Arrives In England In Flight From Reds

LONDON, May 21 (INS)—Josef Horak, reputed Czech trigger-man in the famous killing of Nazi leader "Heydrich the hangman," arrived in England today—this time in flight from the Communists.

The 32-year-old Czech airforce major whose name was linked with the famous Nazi vengeance razing of Lidice said:

Refugees Kidnapped

"Every day in Czechoslovakia refugees are kidnapped off the streets and taken to Russian camps never to be seen again."

Horak, who joined his wife at Swindon in southern England, declared that 30 or 40 persons escape across the border of Communist-dominated Czechoslovakia weekly, but few manage to reach the safety of Britain. He did not give details of his own flight.

Horak is the man whom the Nazis believed shot and fatally wounded Reinhard Heydrich, the Nazi gestapo aide of Heinrich Himmler and deputy-protector in Nazi-occupied Bohemia-Moravia, on May 27, 1942.

Six Executed

Horak, a former RAF squadron leader who fought to liberate his homeland from the Nazis, arrived in England one day after eight other Czech airmen who likewise said they could not live in the Communist totalitarianism.

The Germans six years ago executed 20 members of the Horak clan in reprisal for the assassination of Heydrich.

This preceded the atrocity killings and razing of Lidice. Czechs have estimated that 1,568 persons were executed by the Germans as a result of the Heydrich killing near Pilsen.

Holds Decorations

The Germans later claimed they had found Heydrich's assassins and paid off a reward of $235,000 to two Czechs who gave them information.

The German high command, however, believed that Horak was the key member of a team parachuted into Czechoslovakia by the RAF with instructions to wipe out Heydrich.

Horak, who is silent on the episode, holds eight British and Czechoslovak decorations. He served in the RAF for nearly five years, participating in the first raid on Berlin.

THEY SAILED ATLANTIC—Crewmen stand aboard the 23-foot sailboat Monsunen in which they cruised 10,000 miles from Goteburg, Sweden, to New York. Left to right: Gunnar Hildebrand, Ake Eliasson, the skipper, and Thor Wolff. Their route was via European ports, West Indies, Miami and Cape Hatteras. Slow Changes Are Not Startling Enough

Husband Who Didn't Notice His Wife's Dress May Be To Blame For "New Look"

By BARBARA BUNDSCHU
United Press Fashion Writer

NEW YORK, May 21—A husband who didn't notice when his wife bought a new dress may be the fellow to blame for the "new look."

A wife can take just so much of that male obliviousness, New York dressmaker Harry Collins said today.

After a while, she'll go out and buy something that shocks him into noticing. . . .

Change Gives Appeal

For practical purposes, Collins believes, it's that drastic change, rather than revelation, that makes a woman's dress have sex appeal.

Collins, who's been selling custom-made dresses to fashionable and wealthy New Yorkers for close to 50 years, points out that the cover and uncover cycles have been going on for years. They're inevitable, he figures.

Right now, we've in the same period as the silent movie vampire. She had to have "black hair and a tight dress" to lure the hero into the spy ring.

More Polite Now

Today's heroes are "just as expressive," Collins said, "but more polite about it."

The up and down cycles run by skirts and necklines are more or less determined by law. Skirts had to change, Collins pointed out. They couldn't go up. So they went down.

When necklines get down to show as much as the law allows, they jump right back up to the ears. A gradual creep back isn't startling enough.

Treasury's Savings Bond Drive Is Off To Slow Start So Far

BY EARL RICHERT
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 21—Off to a slow start on a muddy track is the U. S. Treasury's savings bond sales campaign to siphon "inflationary" dollars out of the pockets of wage earners.

The thousands of volunteer bond salesmen now working throughout the country have discovered that a pretty good job of siphoning already has been done by groceries, automobile companies, real-estate dealers and department stores.

18 Per Cent Decrease

The drive, labeled as the "Security loan," started April 15. Bond sales for April, even with the drive in effect for half the month, were down $104 million from last April, a decrease of about 18 per cent.

Bond sales for the first 17 days of May total about $289 million—just about the same amount as was redeemed during the period. But the amount indicated that last May's total sales of $488 million would be surpassed.

Treasury spokesmen say they aren't disheartened at the slow start; that, in fact, they expected it.

They say that although the drive was launched more than a month ago many county and state sales organizations are just now starting to operate. The wartime sales organizations had folded up in most localities.

Many Sign Up

They say too that the payroll-savings plan constitutes the backbone of the drive and it takes several weeks for the weekly reductions to show up in an actual bond purchase.

Two million wage earners have signed up for the payroll-savings plan since the drive started, making a total of seven million now having regular amounts deducted from their paychecks for bond purchases. During the war, 19 million persons used the savings plan.

No national quota was fixed for the drive—the Treasury said it would try to sell every bond possible. Many states and cities are fixing quotas, however. The drive ends June 30.

Louis Carow, a Treasury bond official, said that a long drive was planned because authorities knew it would take some time to get the campaign going well.

Canvasses Conducted

In many communities, civic organizations are conducting house-to-house canvasses to get persons to sign up for payroll savings, or the bond-a-month plan at their banks.

The money received from bond sales to the general public will be used to retire government bonds held by banks. The retirement of bank-held bonds serves, through a complicated process, to reduce the amount of money banks can loan and thus is anti-inflationary.

Although war-bond cashings have been heavy, the amount of savings bonds in the hands of the general public stood at an all-time high at the end of April—$50-½ billion, including $31-¼ billion of the popular series E bonds.

12-Plant Strike Is Delayed Five Weeks

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP) — The threat of a strike at 12 plants of the International Harvester company for at least five weeks was removed last night as company and CIO farm equipment union officials signed an agreement to extend contracts to June 28.

The contracts, scheduled to expire at the 12 plants between now and May 29, affects approximately 40,000 workers. Under the Taft-Hartley act the union had complied with all steps required to call a strike.

The extension of the contract, however, postpones any threat of strike action," said Gerald Fielde, union secretary-treasurer and chairman of its Harvester council. He said "peaceful negotiations will continue next week."

The contract extension agreement was on proposals made by federal conciliators who had met with company and union representatives. The union had asked a "substantial" wage increase, not naming a definite figure. An improved vacation plant and company-paid health and accident insurance also had been asked by the union.

The plants include five in the Chicago area and others in East Moline, Rock Island, Rock Falls and Canton, Ill.; Louisville, Ky., Auburn, N. Y., and Richmond, Ind.

Even The Squirrels Take Part In Ohio Capital's Bickering

COLUMBUS, O., May 21 (AP)—Fussin' and feudin'—nothing new in Ohio capitol politics — has spread to the squirrel population of the state house grounds.

The state—as though fearing the ruckus might compete with the human bickering in its legislative halls—stepped into the squirrel squabble today by providing more shelter for the animals.

New Shelters

Public Works Director George B. Sowers reported that around 50 new dens, the latest word in shelter for squirrels, are in the state house basement ready for placing in the tree tops on the capitol lawn.

Sowers blamed warfare among the squirrels on the lack of adequate shelter.

"The squirrels that live on the north side of the state house," he said, "don't get along with those on the south side. There hasn't been much actual fighting, but there is a lot of bickering and chatter."

Dr. Ed Martin, in charge of game management for the state conservation division, is cooperating with Sowers in the project.

To Trap Squirrels

"We plan to use box traps to catch the squirrels," Dr. Martin, a veterinarian said.

All the squirrels on the state house lawn won't get to live in the new dens. As soon as they've been deloused and won't spread lice, it is planned to move them to the country.

Dr. Martin said there were a lot of squirrels living near the state house waiting a chance to move in when the present occupants have been evicted.

"They aren't dumb," he said, referring to the squirrels on the outside. "They know there is a good food supply there."

The statehouse squirrels live mostly on peanuts and popcorn handed them by humans visiting the capitol grounds.

A true blizzard must be accompanied by a gale wind, zero temperatures, and drifting, powdery snow.

Bible Salesman Does Not Read Own Wares

AMERICAN FALLS, Ida., May 21 (U.P.)—Murray Bollwinkle, business man, was asked by an elderly salesman to cash a check.

The salesman said it had been given him by a woman living in this area. Bollwinkle obliged. Later he began checking and found there was no such woman on the bank records.

Bollwinkle called the sheriff. They found the salesman at the edge of town. The salesman paid the money back and moved on with his wares—Bibles.

Don't look down your nose at rhubarb any more. Right now it is cheap and wonderful! Maybe these hints will help you. Cut rhubarb on the bias in 1½ inch strips but never peel. Soak in cold water 10 minutes, and cook over a very low heat. Fresh strawberries stirred into the cooked rhubarb pep up the flavor.

Qualities Of Leadership Are Seen In All Major Candidates

BY MICHAEL O'NEILL, JR.
United Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, May 21 — Leon York stepped forward today and announced he had discovered that all the major presidential candidates have one thing in common.

"They all write like chief executives," he said.

York is a handwriting expert. He worked on the Lindbergh kidnapping case and other famous criminal cases.

Taking No Sides

He said he was taking no sides in the political wars. But he said the signatures of eight of the presidential possibilities showed definite qualities of leadership.

"From the rolling scrawl of Thomas E. Dewey to the small, neat script of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the autographs revealed unusual characteristics," he said.

York said Eisenhower's signature showed a simplicity of script, heavy pressure, and small letters. These qualities indicated "virility, perseverance, and constructive thought," York said.

Interest In People

President Truman's somewhat larger and more vigorous signature showed broad spacing which York interpreted as indicating liberality and interest in people.

"The lack of loops shows a desire to get things done in a hurry," York said, "while the long cross on the "T" reveals a certain mechanical ability."

In York's opinion, the outstanding thing about Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg's signature is the "joined writing technique," showing a strong and sustained mental capacity. York said Vandenberg's autograph also showed grace, care, and diplomacy.

York called Sen. Robert A. Taft's signature "artistic." It showed he said, an interest in learning and a tendency to make quick decisions.

Formed In Unusual Way

Dewey's writing revealed originality, according to York, as well as executive ability and business-type efficiency. All of the letters were formed in an unusual way.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's signature had low letters and heavy pressure, indicating, in York's opinion, a sense of justice and deep emotions.

York said Henry A. Wallace's signature had a "garland" appearance and showed his ability to get along with all classes and styles of people.

Harold E. Stassen's autograph, a bold scrawl, showed York that he had leadership ability and a capacity to win friends easily. His knack of being a good mixer was indicated in the easy way he writes, York said.

"They may not be elected yet," said York, "but these candidates are already writing as if they were in the White House."

Jesse James Discovery Poses Other Interesting Questions

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK—What kind of a figure did the face on the barroom floor have?

Who really put pussy in the well? Who mowed down Cock Robin and why?? Where's Elmer?

These are celebrated mysteries still left unsolved by the reported discovery of Jesse James alive and well in Oklahoma at the age of 100 —and drawing more interest than he ever got from a bank.

It is a dull year indeed when somebody doesn't revive the famous Missouri outlaw, and it is only recently that doubles for John Wilkes Booth, the man who shot Lincoln, quit reappearing. Booth would be 110 years old now and entitled to a lot of back payments on his old age pension.

Congress Should Act

The time is ripe for Congress to set up a permanent commission to investigate all the popular puzzles that rise again and again to worry a peaceful people.

Let's get rid of these uncertainties. Where is Elmer indeed? Did the face on the barroom floor have piano legs? Why do we have to go on wondering what became of Sally? Who really did pay the rent for Mrs. Rip Van Winkle while her husband was grabbing his long shut-eye? Let's don't just jest about why the chicken crossed the road. Let's find out.

There are enough of these unsolved, vexing riddles to keep a congressional investigating committee busy forever. An ideal counsel for the committee would be Jim Moran, the first man in history to sit on an ostrich egg and hatch it single-handed by the warmth of his own personality.

Moran boasts he also is the first man to sell an icebox to an Eskimo and find a needle in a haystack.

Search Advocated

Let's put him in charge of the committee's "lost and found" department and send him off in Rudyard Kipling's phantom rickshaw to get the real lowdown on what happened to Charley Ross, the kidnaped Philadelphia boy. He could also take sidetrips, expenses paid, looking for Ambrose Bierce, Justice Joseph Force Crater, Adolph Hitler, and the cigar store Indian.

That still leaves plenty of problems for the committee members themselves.

Why has the fiend who put the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder never been brought to justice? His capture might swing the Irish vote in an election year.

More Questions

Can't Congress find out after all these years who broke the lock on the hen house door? What about the lost Atlantis, the lost chord and the lost weekend? Can the FBI say for certain they weren't stolen? Can't it do anything about getting them back?

That goes for the missing link, too. Who misses it anyway? Do you? Maybe it's a dead issue now. Let's get the facts and tell the people.

Isn't it important in these dangerous times also to check into the identity of the little man that wasn't there? Where really was he then?

Tunisian Arabs Are Against Recognition

TUNIS, Tunisia, May 21 (AP)—Arab Nationalist leaders in this French protectorate warned today that French recognition of Israel would bring "disastrous consequences."

They sent a message to Premier Robert Schuman and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault saying:

"All Arabs of Tunisia proclaim that they will consider recognition of the state of Israel as a hostile gesture towards 25 million Moslems in North Africa and call the government's attention to the disastrous consequences such recognition would have on future relations between Tunisia and France."

There have been unconfirmed reports that France intends to join the nations, including the United States and Russia, which have recognized the new Jewish state in Palestine.

The stems from fresh mushrooms may be utilized in various ways if only the caps are served to garnish a dish; chop them fine and saute them, then use as a sandwich filling, in a rice stuffing for baked green peppers or in a tomato sauce for spaghetti.

Soviet Flier Burns Plane

SEOUL, May 21 (AP)—A Soviet Yak-9 airplane landed near Taejon in U. S. occupied South Korea and the pilot destroyed the craft by firing it.

The U. S. Army said today the plane, bearing the number, 84, was forced down by lack of fuel Wednesday.

The Army announcement related:

When American soldiers arrived at the scene, they found the pilot had been seized by unidentified South Koreans. The Americans took charge of him and quartered him in an American officer's billet.

The pilot has refused to eat, wash or shave.

Wore No Insignia

The pilot gave his name as Ivan Feodrovich Osmakov. He said he is a Soviet air force captain. He wore no insignia and said he carried no identifcation papers.

He will be returned to Soviet authorities.

The pilot said he had become lost. When he found himself over an airfield with American vehicles nearby, he thought he was over Ongjin peninsula airstrip.

He said he flew north until he exhausted his fuel,

He failed to reach, or perhaps overshot, Taejon airfield.

Another Soviet Yak-9 was reported over Taejon shortly after the crashed craft, but it presumably flew to North Korea.

Taejon is in south central Korea—some 90 miles south of the U. S. - Russian occupation boundary and south of Seoul, the American occupation capital.

No bird or mammal can see better at night than in the daytime.

Medical Costs Said 35 Per cent Higher

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—The cost of living has outstripped the cost of keeping well, a medical research worker said today.

In a study published today, Dr. Frank G. Dickinson, director of medical economic research of the American Medical association, gave this report:

The U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, covering the cost of living in 34 cities, was 59 per cent higher in 1947 than in 1935-39.

The bureau's 1947 index for all medical care, including drugs, was only 32 per cent above the 1935-39 period. Excluding drugs, the increase was 35 per cent.

Dr. Dickinson said his study showed that the quantity of medical care was at least two thirds higher in 1947 than in 1939, growing much faster than the number of physicians. This increased output probably reflects an increasing use of technical assistants, he said.

Atom Secret Wouldn't Be Easy To Give Away, Dr. Condon Says

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 21. (AP)—How easy would it be to give away atomic secrets?

It wouldn't be easy, says Dr. Edward U. Condon, one of the country's top scientists and head of the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

Condon has been accused by the House un-American activities committee of being one of the "weakest links" in our atomic security.

But the scientist, whose bureau handles some atomic work, says of himself that he is "absolutely reliable." More of this later.

It would be easy, Condon says, for anyone wishing to betray this country to tell a spy we're working on some certain kind of atomic project.

Details Different

For example: A spy might be able to learn that the U. S. is working on a super-super atomic bomb.

But—giving away the details of that project is something altogether different. This is what Condon says:

"The amount of essential detail—even with regard to principles and especially with regard to specific designs—that inheres in any modern scientific military device is fantastically great.

"To give away such secrets one would have to transfer vast quantities of drawings and documents. Even those are usually so unclear without explanation that the receiver would need to be given a special course of instruction in their meaning.

High Training Needed

"Even this, to be really effective, requires the receiver to be a man of high scientific and technical training . . .

"I feel sorry for any modern Mata Hari who might be assigned to get the secret of the atomic bomb by working her wiles on a young Army sergeant."

In short, Condon says it is extremely difficult to give away scientific secrets, for several reasons:

1. The mere principles of modern scientific military developments are extraordinarily complicated.

2. The really valuable working designs are even more detailed.

3. An ordinary, flat-foot spy wouldn't be able to understand them. A scientist would be needed to understand the documents.

Addresses Academy

Condon said all this last night in an address before the Washington Academy of Sciences.

It was a lengthy talk in which Condon stressed the need for secrecy but spoke out against strangling scientists in their work or playing up spy scares.

The House un-American activities committee jumped on Condon several months ago.

It accused him of having associated—knowingly or unknowingly—with an alleged Soviet spy.

The FBI had investigated Condon before this attack by the committee. It had turned over its report to the Commerce department, under which the Bureau of Standards operates.

Considered Okay

The Commerce department officials considered Condon okay. But the House committee demanded to see the FBI report. The department refused.

Condon himself called for an investigation to end what he called "public smears" of scientists inside and outside government.

The Atomic Energy commission told Congress Condon had no access to top atomic secrets. The House committee still demanded the FBI report.

Finally, the Commerce department turned the FBI report on Condon over to President Truman. The committee couldn't get it from him.

Then Condon publicly asked the President to let the committee have the report. So far Mr. Truman has shown no sign of doing so.

Big Party Is Given For Dying Boy, 12

ATLANTA, May 21. (AP)—Courageous Lamar Clark today had every thing he had ever asked for after "the best birthday party a boy ever had."

About 1,000 well-wishers joined him last night in celebrating his twelfth—and probably last—birthday. Doctors say his cancer is incurable and that he has only a short time to live.

So officials of the Exposition Cotton mills, where his parents work, staged the mammoth birthday party last night.

There was tub after tub of pink lemonade, more than 200 ornamented cakes, a telegram of congratulations from Gov. M. E. Thompson, a frisky brown pony and saddle, a Pekinese puppy, and "more presents than you could put in a truck."

Motorist Mystified By License Set-Up

BISMARCK, N. D., May 21. (AP)—The North Dakota highway patrol set up business in the memorial building here to issue drivers licenses during the spring rush.

An applicant spotted a desk and gave the clerk behind it his name and address. In return, he got a shiny blue badge and started to leave, thinking the procedure quite simple.

"Just a minute. That will be $3," said the clerk. The surprised motorist turned to discover that, instead of registering for a driving permit, he had become a delegate to the postal carriers state convention—in progress in the same building.

To prepare baked or shirred eggs break each egg into an individual custard cup that has been greased. Pour a few teaspoons of cream over each egg and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Bake in a moderate oven for about 15 minutes or until the eggs are set.

Runaway Actress Is Missing Once More

LOS ANGELES, May 21 (AP) — Runaway Jackie Horner is missing again, but this time Mama is believed to be with her.

Jackie—that's Jacqueline Horner, 15, Hollywood's pianist-actress—is the girl who ran away from home last January and was found a week later in a San Francisco hotel room with a sailor.

Superior court Judge A. A. Scott yesterday ordered an all-points pickup broadcast for Jackie and her mother, Mrs. Clara Horner.

A probation officer told the judge that Mrs. Horner took the girl, a ward of juvenile court, from a rest home last week and that neither has been seen since last Saturday. Jackie was scheduled to be back at the home Monday, the investigator said.

The girl, when found last January, denied any wrongdoing with the sailor, Wallace Wells, 19. Investigators agreed with her.

Swarms Of Locusts Entering Guatemala

MEXICO CITY, May 21 (AP) — The agricultural department said today it had received reports from Guatemala that swarms of locusts are entering that country from Honduras.

The department said insecticides would be sent at once to Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador to combat the pests.

O'Daniel Not In Senate Race

Future Plans Not Revealed

FORT WORTH, May 21 (AP) — Senator W. Lee O'Daniel of Texas announced last night that he would not be a candidate for reelection.

He said he would not recommend a successor and has not decided what he will do for a living. "As I announce my intention to retire for the present from public service, I do with a clear conscience."

The 58-year-old, husky, former governor of Texas who was twice elected to the Senate—in 1941 to fill an interim term and again in 1942—told a radio audience that he was not "forever and completely eliminating myself from politics or from seeking public office at some future time."

Reviews His Record

Reviewing his record, he said he felt he had earned the right "to come back home and take a rest and, at least for a time, devote my efforts to my own personal affairs.

"I have made no decision as to what line of work I shall take up. My health is still good. I want to keep it that way."

Noting that he will maintain an interest in public affairs he said he is "burning no bridges behind me or in front of me."

He will return to Washington and complete his term, he added, and then return to Texas "to again rub shoulders with the common citizens."

Speculation Caused

One statement made by O'Daniel caused speculation that he might be inviting a draft. If the public dislikes the candidates in the senatorial race, he said, they should pick a man they do like and put his name on the ticket. Interviewed later, he refused to discuss that statement as possibly leading to a draft movement.

Major candidates who have announced for the Senate race include George Peddy of Houston, former Texas Governor Coke R. Stevenson, and Rep. Lyndon Johnson of Austin.

At Dallas, Johnson beamed that "I was very glad to hear O'Daniel won't make the race. I think it was very significant that he waited to give his decision until after I announced." Johnson announced last week.

Issues Are Important

And at Houston, George Peddy, an attorney, said "the issues and not personalities are of importance."

"It is my opinion after talking with many people in every walk of life that the people are ready for new blood and new faces in Texas politics."

There was the possibility, too, that O'Daniel's withdrawal from HUSBAND SUES WIFE FOR ALIMONY—Figuring his wife has made so much money the past year that he can't afford to support her any longer, George T. Mathews, 35, Cleveland, Ohio, filed suit in Common Pleas Court for $130 monthly alimony. Complaining that his wife, Irene, doesn't even get home from her night-shift in time to prepare breakfast, Mathews, left, serves the morning meal for their three children, Donald, 3; Barbara, 9; and Patricia Anne, 11. Defending his unusual alimony action he said he still loves his wife, but that unless she changed he would have to hire a housekeeper to take over Irene's duties—with some of her money.

Short Life Of Flier Was Packed With Story-Book Adventure

Wartime Canadian Ace Who Had To Have Action Is Mourned By Friends After Crash

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 21—(INS) — Canadian friends today mourned ex-flight Lt. George F. Beurling, Canada's wartime ace who never in life could beegrounded by fear of man nor love of woman.

News that the "hawk of the dominion" was forever grounded in the fiery crash of a Palestine-bound plane near Rome brought to all of Canada a deep and personal sorrow.

Died At 26

Buzz Beurling, to whom Vancouver was as much of home as he ever knew, was only 26 when he died. But his short life was a long battle.

In July and August of 1942, his blazing guns dropped 29 German and Italian planes into waters around the beleaguered island of Malta. He ran his total to 32, then was wounded—and grounded.

His grounding came almost as a relief to RCAF and RAF commanding officers who long had despaired of keeping the overtired ace out of the sky even long enough to rest between battles.

Liked Killing Germans

Beurling came home, a decorated hero ordered to duty on a victory loan tour. In Vancouver, he met Dina Whittall Gardner. He complained:

"They're choking me up with red tape. I like killing Germans. It's good sport. I want more of it."

Beurling, who first sought action in 1939 with the Chinese air force, tried desperately to get back into World War II. He sought and failed to get U. S. citizenship, contingent upon further war flying.

In 1945, the hero and the home town girl were married. They bought a home and the air ace talked of studying aeronautical engineering at the University of British Columbia.

Tried Again

He talked also of farming. But it was only talk. All the while, he champed at the bit, a harnessed pegasus.

Two years ago, he quit Vancouver for Monteral, saying:

"I'll try again to fly for China."

Thus, the Canadian hawk and the Vancouver debutante each sought freedom; he in the air and she in a home. He won his when he headed for action over Palestine. She won hers by divorce last January.

Today, in fitting epitaph, friends quoted the words so often voiced by the famed Buzz Beurling:

"I can't live without action, and I'll die in it."

He did.

Red Skelton Father For Second Time

HOLLYWOOD, May 21 (AP) — Commedian Red Skelton was a father for a second time today.

His wife, Georgia, a former actress, gave birth to a seven pound boy shortly before midnight at St John's hospital in nearby Santa Monica. The Skeltons have a one-year-old daughter.

Annual Rodeo Attracts Large Crowd At Post

POST, May 21 — Only a few hands stayed at home to do the chores around Garza county ranches Thursday as the county turned out almost en masse for the opening of the annual Post Stampede and Rodeo.

Streets of this little oil and cattle town, nestled under the Caprock, were thronged with people in the afternoon as more than 300 riders rode in a gigantic parade opening the four-day event. Last night more than 3,500 persons witnessed the opening performance at the rodeo grounds on the Lubbock highway northwest of Post.

Good Crowds Seen

The crowd was the largest ever to attend a rodeo in Post and larger attendance is expected for performances Friday and Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Everything went fine except for the contestants vying for $3,000 in prizes in the rodeo events who had tough sledding in all divisions. The bareback broncs and wild brahma bulls bucked higher and longer than usual and fortunate was the cowboy who stayed to side.

Even the little dogie calves were tough customers to handle in the roping event and the fastest time in this event was chalked up by Bill Lambert of Levelland—23.4 seconds.

But the boys in the wild cow milking contest really had trouble. Only one or two came running to the judge with enough milk in his bottle to be counted.

Plenty Of Action

It was the type of show which offered plenty of action for the paying customers and spills were plentiful.

In the cowgirl sponsor contest, Miss Monte Murfee of Rotan led the list of five contestants with 12.3 seconds time. Other girls finished as follows: Betty Rush, Levelland, 13.2 seconds; Snooks Craighton, O'Donnell, 13.4 seconds; Mary Black, Lovington, N. M., 13.8 and Jo Ann Davis, 15.8 seconds plus five seconds penalty for missing one barrier.

Sandy Cross, representing the Lone Star Station, won first prize in the merchants' sponsor contest in the parade—$10 in cash. Second prize of $5 went to Nonnie Rogers, representing the Post Dispatch; and third prize of $2.50 to Alma Floyd, representing Floyd's Service Station.

Other Winners Named

Contestants in the bareback riding were: Gene Frazier, Abilene; Kid Morley, Lamesa; John Farris, Wichita Falls; Bud Miller, Wichita Falls; Guy Weeks, Abilene; Charles Boyles, John Wilson, and Joe Boone, Lubbock; Red Fisher, Snyder; Doug Bloodworth, Denver City; Jim Pippin, Vernon; Jack Brown, Tuscola; Sherman

Horse Has His Own Idea About Drink

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Pulling a plow under today's warm sun was thirsty work and Admiral, a big bay plow horse, had ideas on where to get a drink.

Owner Marshall Polo and Admiral were plowing up some vacant lots on the southwest side today when the hot sun worked up a thirst in both. Polo unhitched the animal and went for some water for himself and horse.

But Admiral had another ides.

The horse ambled three blocks down street and into the open door of a tavern.

Orrville Rowe, a patron, said "that big horse just walked in, looked the juke box over and then nuzzled its head right in between us at the bar."

When Polo finally caught up with his horse, he found Admiral sniffing a beer, eating a few slices of bread and chasing it all down with a bucket of water.

Polo then led his amiable beast back to the plow.

Students Here Win Contests

AUSTIN, May 21—Lubbock students took three prizes in the statewide annual Fire Prevention Poster contest, Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, announced Thursday.

The State Fire Insurance department sponsors the contest each year for Texas public school children, and the cash prizes are donated by Cravens, Dargan and company, insurance managers of Houston.

Joe Frank Johnson, third grade grade student at the George R. Bean school, won third place in the primary division and a prize of $3.50. Deborah Decker in the sixth grade of Roscoe Wilson school won a fourth place in the intermediate division and a prize of $2.50.

Another fourth place winner was Norma Holton who won $2.50 in the high school division. Norma is in the twelfth grade at Lubbock Senior High school.

"It was a real honor for a student to win in this contest as over 300 Texas schools from 78 cities entered this year," Commissioner Hall stated. "And the excellent quality of the posters was as high as the quantity."

Joe Frank's poster pictured a fire devil gushing out of a can of gasoline with a smoking match laying beside the can. A hand holding up a flaming match illustrates Deborah's theme of the danger of matches and keeping fire under control.

Norma's poster featured three witches, "poor house keeping,"

Peace Efforts For Austria Are Futile

Two Years Of Negotiations End As Major Powers Fail To Reach Agreement On Pact

LONDON, May 21 (AP) — Four-power efforts to write a peace treaty for occupied Austria hit dead end today, after nearly two years of futile negotiations.

Official United States sources said the negotiations broke down completely Wednesday, after a two-week temporary suspension during which efforts were made to compromise the differences between Russia and the western powers—the United States, Britain and France.

As a result, these informants said, it was decided last night to call off the confabs indefinitely.

The breakdown came, they said, when Samuel Reber, chief of the American delegation, privately conferred with M. P. Kotimov, head of the Soviet delegation, to discuss the prospects of compromise.

Kotimov, the U. S. sources said, advised Reber he had been instructed by Moscow to stand fast in support of Yugoslavia's claims against Austria. The western powers oppose these claims.

Yugoslavia has demanded approximately 800 square miles of Austrian territory in mineral-rich Carinthia and scenic Styria, both of which have numbers of slavic residents. The Yugoslavs also have made reparations claims against Austria.

Two Basic Principles

Just before the talks were suspended two weeks ago, Reber outlined the American position by saying that the United States would insist upon two basic principles in any Austrian peace settlement:

1. Austria's frontiers must remain as they were before anschluss in 1938.

2. Austria must pay no reparations.

Since Wednesday, American sources said, Reber has talked with French and British officials and received their support concerning Russia's position.

In the long course of the talks in London, only one agreement was reached concerning Austria —that its armed forces should be limited to 53,000 men.

The Austrian peace treaty negotiations began in June, 1946, after Russia finally gave in to western power demands to start on it and since have been carried on at both high and low level, in Paris, Vienna, Moscow, London and New York.

Block, Bridle Banquet Held

Robert W. Baumgardner, graduate of the agriculture division of Texas Technological colege and now an assistant professor of animal husbandry at the college, was presented as the merit award winner for 1947 at the 14th annual banquet of the Block and Bridle club at Hotel Lubbock last night.

Chosen for the honor by a secret ballot of the club at large from a list of five candidates for the award Baumgardner was named the outstanding club member of 1947 on the basis of leadership and service. The award was announced by Deibert Devin, assistant professor of animal husbandry at Tech.

Ranch Manager Speaks

D. Burns, manager of the Pitchfork ranch and a schoolmate of Tech's Dean W. L. Stangel at Texas A & M college, made the principal talk of the evening. Burns emphasized the fields of agriculture and animal husbandry on the South Plains is still a wide-open field for the enterprising young man graduating from college and intending to enter such work.

He pointed out that the success of agriculture and ranching in this area will depend in the future upon successful programs of soil conservation, water conservation and development and range management.

Burns is one of two honorary members elected to the Block and Bridle club for 1948. The other honorary member, also present at the banquet, is George M. Boles, pioneer Lubbock county cattleman and breeder of registered Hereford cattle. Boles brought the first registered Hereford bull to Lubbock county in 1896, walking the animal down from Amarillo. Two Hereford heifers, some of the first Herefords given to Texas Tech, were gifts from the pioneer rancher.

Other Awards Presented

R. C. Mowery, head of the animal husbandry department at Tech, presented International Livestock Judging team awards to Herman Henson, C. L. Brownloe, Carl

Guest Figures Horse In Hall Is Unusual

LLANFACHRETH, Wales, May 21 (AP)—A guest at the home of Joseph Joness opened her second floor bedroom door and stared into the eyes of a horse in the hall.

Feeling this to be unusual, she summoned firemen, who backed Dobbin down the stairs and returned him to his owner.

That Girl on Broadway says a man is either long married, or has given up all hopes of getting married, if he isn't sensitive about growing bald.

* * *

IT'S always customary for people to congratulate and wish well the high school graduates they know, or are kin to. In recent years, it has been customary, too, for various business firms to write letters or send pseudo telegrams to the lads and lassies finishing up their public school days.

But this year the male segment of graduates of Lubbock High have been astounded to learn that their success in finishing the course has come not only under the cognizance of the President of the United States, but also numerous dignified gentlemen with the stars of the Army, Navy and Marines on their shoulders.

* * *

The gay young boy graduates—and those not so gay—have been almost bombarded this Spring with letters of congratulations from the armed services.

The armed services, it seems, are simply delighted that each one has finally made the grade and want each graduate to know about it.

Peculiarly, though, the armed forces don't seem to be a bit interested in the sweet girl graduates. To them come no letters from the "brass" giving three rousing cheers and a tiger!

* * *

SERIOUSLY, though, for a young man who is not planning to go to college and fit himself for a particular career, going into the armed forces these days is a pretty good deal.

Today's soldier, sailor or marine not only has everything furnished him from dental and medical care to entertainment. He also gets good pay; he has plenty of chance for advancement; he can fit himself for any one of many good trades—and if he stays with the service for 20 years he can retire at the ripe old age of 38 or 40 with a darned, nice monthly pension.

We congratulate the armed services in carrying on an intelligent publicity campaign with high school graduates. That it will bear some fruit, there is no doubt.

Here's hoping it bears plenty—for the good of the services, the individuals involved, and the nation.

* * *

Operation of a democratic form of government is about the only thing more expensive than the current cost of living.

* * *

NOTING the rash of strikes, actual as well as threatened, members of both the national House and Senate are reported to be studying ways and means of attempting to strengthen the Taft-Hartley Labor Control law by additional legislation in the Winter meeting of the Congress.

If representatives and senators are seriously seeking ways of strengthening the law to better control the excesses of organized labor, certainly the news columns of late have given them some inspiration. From the reports of strikes of both auto workers and packinghouse employes, Congressmen must have gotten the decided idea that legislation is needed to stop violence and anarchy in connection with labor disputes.

* * *

In Michigan and Minnesota, especially, strikers have far overstepped the bounds of legality by way of mass picketing; forcibly refusing to permit non-striking employes to go about their business, and in at least two instances illegal entering plants to do damage.

This sort of thing not only is illegal by state statutes. It is in complete violation of the federal constitution. It must be controlled and the best way to control it is by federal law.

* * *

NOT many West Texans have seen mass picketing in action, but those who have know it for exactly what it is: Violence or threat of violence toward any free American who may wish to follow his own legal business whether or not it is acceptable to hoodlums.

In mass picketing, which is carried on in several forms, strikers simply gather en masse before gates or entrances of struck plants, making it impossible for anyone to enter without bodily contact. Very frequently, clubs or other weapons are displayed—and used—to enforce the illegal dictates of the strikers.

There should be a federal law defining picketing, and setting out the maximum number of pickets permitted to patrol any area. Until such a law is passed and then strictly enforced, strikers will continue to illegally interfere, by force, with the lawful activities of citizens.

* * *

There has been too much prattling in this country about the "sacred right to strike," while venal officials blandly overlook illegal interference with the rights of others by the strikers.

Just as "sacred" as the right to strike is the right to work; the right of the individual to peacefully go about his business, especially if he is not engaged in the sort of work which has been struck.

The union auto worker from the assembly line has no right, legal or moral, to interfere with the activities of an office worker; nor has the packinghouse unionist any sort of right to deny entrance of an executive to the packing plant by which he is employed.

If Congress really wants to do something to uphold the law and protect the citizen from organized violence and anarchy, let Congress pass laws with teeth in them to regulate picketing.

That will get the job done.

That Man on Avenue Q says the best way to make an average person mad is to let him know you consider him average.

IT was just 21 years ago that a young, blonde flier known to his friends as "Slim" sat a rickety airplane down in Paris after having made a non-stop flight from his native U. S. A.

"Slim" was Charles A. Lindbergh. The single-engine plane was the "Spirit of St. Louis," so named because a St. Louis manufacturer of pharmicals put up the money for the flight.

Today, American commercial lines are running 60 or more flights across the Atlantic every week. The French, the British, the Dutch and one or two of the Scandinavian countries are flying numerous flights per week, too. What was regarded as little short of a miracle 21 years ago, now is little more than commonplace—especially when one takes into consideration that a dozen or more trans-Atlantic flights are now made weekly by U. S. Army planes on official runs.

That's the way things go in this modern world.

Television, 20 years from now, will be as common as today's radio set.

Telephones, even with their progress held back because of monopoly, will be greatly improved. So will the countles electrical aids to living; eye-glasses, hearing aids, automobiles, airplanes, houses—all of the relatively modern conveniences which have become part of our daily lives.

Lindbergh, the trans-Atlantic pioneer, is almost forgotten, along with the late Wright brothers, whose experiments at Kitty Hawk broke the ice on what now is the air age.

The world does move—and as it moves the people in it take innovations in their stride.

BY DREW PEARSON: CONG. MONRONEY NEVER MENTIONED POST OFFERED BY TRUMAN

Earl Long Sends Big Contributor To U. S. Senate

WASHINGTON — It will be interesting to see what the Senate does about the seating of William Feazel, appointed to the vacancy left by the late Senator Overton of Louisiana by Governor Earl Long.

Two aspects of Mr. Feazel's career are interesting. One is the large amount of cash he contributed to Governor Long's campaign. Second is a grand jury proceeding held by assistant Attorney General John Rogge in 1939 showing that Feazel was involved in a big gas deal with Governor Dick Leche, who served a jail term in connection with another matter.

PEARSON

Louisiana politicos say that Mr. Feazel was by all odds the largest contributor to Gov. Long's campaign — donated over $200,000. Louisiana, incidentally, isn't bothered about limits to state campaign contributions.

In the past, the Senate has been cranky about large amounts of money influencing senatorial elections. Senator Smith of Illinois was denied a seat when his campaign contributions went over $130,000. Senator Lorimer of Illinois was not seated for the same reason. Senator Newberry of Michigan finally resigned from the Senate while his colleagues were probing his large campaign gifts, and Senator Vare of Pennsylvania was denied his seat when his gifts ran around $200,000.

All there were Republicans. Now comes a Democrat who was not running for office but helped handsomely to put a governor in office. Then that governor turns round and puts his chief monetary benefactor in the Senate. A Republican Senate may want to think this over.

On top of this is the fact that when the Justice department was probing the Louisiana scandals, John Rogge unearthed the fact that $125,000 had been paid by United Gas Improvement Corp., an Electric Bond and Share subsidiary, to Tom Hill, a big New Orleans gambler, who in turn passed part of the money on to Governor Dick Leche, part to Louisiana's new senator, William Feazel, and kept part for himself.

Reason for this unusually large payment by a big corporation to three interesting Louisiana figures never was revealed. For about that time Roosevelt threw cold water on the Louisiana probe. However, the present Republican Senate may want to continue the unfinished story of Louisiana where the Justice department left off.

Note — Governor Long would like to appoint his nephew Russell Long, eldest son of the late Huey Long, to the Senate. But Russell is only 29, and under the law a U. S. Senator must be thirty. Therefore it's reported that Feazel will make way for Russell later.

Modest Mike Monroney

It was like Congressman Mike Monroney of Oklahoma never to breathe a word about the fact that President Truman offered him the job of Secretary of Agriculture. However, he did—just after Clinton Anderson resigned.

It was also like Monroney that he turned the offer down. His refusal was on the very simple ground that he didn't know enough about agriculture or the farmers' point of view.

"All my life," he told Truman, "I have spent defending the consumer and thinking about his point of view. Therefore, I just wouldn't be a good man to champion the farmers."

So, without saying a word to anyone, Monroney, one of the most respected men in Congress, has gone back to the job of battling for his constituents.

Note — Monroney comes from Oklahoma City, where oil wells almost sprout from city streets. Yet during the war he had the courage to fight the oil lobby's clamor for increased prices. Came elections, and the oil lobby tried to get revenge, but the people of Oklahoma City voted for Monroney's courage even though they didn't all agree with him.

DEAD MAN'S STORY

Dead men tell no tales. But before George Polk, the American news commentator, was murdered in Greece, he wrote Drew Pearson some dynamite - laden letters which may touch the fuse of the long-smouldering situation in Greece. Read another installment of a dead newspaperman's story in Drew Pearson's column tomorrow.

JOHN L. LEWIS has sometimes berated the big steel companies for having "captive" coal mines, but it looks as if John now had a "captive" Senator—namely, Eugene Millikin of Colorado.

For months Millikin has been blocking Senate confirmation of Dr. James Boyd as chief of the Bureau of Mines, due to the fact that John L. Lewis is opposed. Boyd was former dean of the Colorado School of Mines and cleared with Millikin before his appointment. The Interior department phoned Millikin, asked if he objected to Boyd—they come from the same state—and Millikin said O. K.

That, however, was before the Colorado Republican knew John L. Lewis was opposed. Lewis named the last director of the Bureau of Mines, Dr. R. R. Sayers, also had his own brother planted inside the bureau at a juicy salary until Secretary of the Interior Krug cleaned them both out. But now with Senator Millikin's help Lewis wants his control back again.

Note—Dr. Boyd, who has several children, has been patriotically serving the government without pay since last summer. Lewis hopes he will soon be starved out.

Tydings' Brother-In-Law

When Senator Tydings of Maryland, Democrat, rose on the Senate floor to oppose the confirmation of Oklahoma's Jess Larson for the thankless job of War Assets administrator, he claimed he had absolutely no personal interest in the matter. Among other things, Tydings supposedly had no interest in American potash, the company which Larson ruled against when it sought to buy the Kalunite plant in Utah.

However, here is what Tydings did not tell his fellow Senators:

Tydings' brother-in-law, former Brig. Gen. John M. Eager, happens to represent the Heyden Chemical corporation, a large stockholder of American Potash. Furthermore, it was Eager who actually signed the letters on behalf of American Potash protesting the fact that it did not get the Kalunite plant.

Yet Tydings said he had no personal interest in the matter.

Perhaps in Maryland a brother-in-law isn't considered personal.

It's A Cockeyed World — And Small Wonder

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

WANT to be more attractive than you are today? It can be done, if . . .

You look 10 years ahead and figure out what you wish most that 10 years would do for you, and then set about seeing that you are on the right track, heading in the right direction.

MILLETT

Without neglecting your appearance, you realize that looks are only a small part of a woman's attractiveness.

You face the fact that some of the things you should do well you do poorly and get busy trying to improve.

You search until you find some creative activity that gives you a chance to study and learn and widen your viewpoint.

* * *

MAKING NEW FRIENDS

YOU make an effort to make new friends, so that your circle of friends doesn't grow smaller with the passing years.

You guard against becoming opinionated or set in your ways.

You do your best to keep up with the news of the day, instead of limiting your curiosity to those things that affect you directly.

You make an effort to be friendly and helpful, especially toward younger women.

Any woman who includes these points in a 10-year plan for her own development and enjoyment of life will become more, rather than less attractive with the passing years.

"Try And Stop Me"

A CONFIDENT youngster stepped up to the microphone on one of Art Linkletter's "People Are Funny" radio sessions and informed all and sundry that he frequently kept his baby brother amused while mama did the housework. "That's very noble of you," commended Linkletter. "How do you amuse him?"

"With a pillow and a gun," explained the young joy-around-the-house. "I put the pillow over him to keep him quiet—and then I play with the gun."

BEFORE Dashiell Hammett discovered how much more profitable it was to write about private detectives than to be one himself, Ben Hecht once applied for a job in the agency. "I'm looking for experience and a couple of real thrills," he explained. Hammett scoffed, "Suppose you were in a car all by yourself, and a gang of desperadoes in a black limousine came bearing down on you at seventy mile an hour. What would you do?" Hecht replied promptly, "Eighty."

SOFTENING PLANT PROSPECTS

No one can dispute Lubbock's need for a water softening plant. Local citizens expressed their wishes in the matter emphatically in 1945 when they voted $650,000 in bonds for such a plant by a 1,200 to 52 margin.

Nor is anyone likely to deny the aggregate cost for soaps and other materials used by Lubbock housewives to soften water amounts to a great deal. We don't pretend to know what that cost might total. But probably it would more than pay for a softening plant rather quickly.

Unfortunately, the softening plant bonds have not been sold. They can't be sold until city assessed valuations rise substantially, Lubbock now being bonded practically to its ears. When valuations do rise sufficiently, the question must be decided whether citizens prefer a softening plant ahead of a public library, for which $500,000 in bonds have been voted, and/or a city auditorium-coliseum for which $1,750,000 have been approved.

These and other improvements can't be built at the same time. They doubtless will have to be provided one at a time, with a year or longer elapsing between the starting of the different projects. It is up to the collective citizenship to let the City commission know which they want first—a library, the softening plant or the auditorium-coliseum. If preferences are clear and conclusive, the commission can be relied upon to follow them.

French Government Points Out Dangers In Present Policies

WASHINGTON.—In his memoirs now appearing in serial form, Winston Churchill pays high tribute to the capacities of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. In one of the most impressive passages in his extraordinary story, Churchill analyzes the brilliance of the steel-cold mind of the man who guides Russia's foreign policy.

CHILDS

This is a tribute from one master of world politics to another. Molotov has now once again demonstrated that mastery.

In the way he handled the American note of May 4 and the Russian reply—broadcasting them on the Moscow radio without any warning whatsoever—he put the United States in an embarrassing role. The obvious intention of the Soviet maneuver was to make it seem that we hinted at the need for negotiations, that they came forward readily desiring such negotiations, and that now, if nothing comes of it, the fault will be ours.

Russian propaganda can be stepped up immediately toward that goal. And in the wake of the hopes, the fears, the doubts stirred in troubled Europe by the incident, this propaganda would have a fertile field.

From all over Europe comes the rumor that the Russians intend to push the U. S., Britain and France out of Berlin by June 30. Molotov may well have decided to exploit the American note in the game he is playing to force the western powers to abandon their isolated position.

* * *

Policy Needs Review

The time has come, it seems to me, to re-examine the policy of the western powers on Berlin. It was altogether too easy to assume, after the uproar of some weeks ago had subsided, that the Russians had given up on Berlin. The U. S. has believed that the western powers could maintain their position in the German capital regardless of what the Russians might do.

But there is another point of view that should be considered. It comes from the French, who have been deeply concerned over British-U. S. policy in Germany.

While they have reluctantly gone along with the plans to set up a separate German administration in the zones occupied by the western powers, they have several times pointed out the dangers in creating Bi-Zonia or Tri-Zonia. Only rceently they made strong representations to the State department.

The French believe that, in setting up a separate bi-zonal or tri-zonal administration, the western powers will lay themselves open to a Russian charge that they no longer have any real business in Berlin. The four-power occupation of the capital exists theoretically in order to develop a government for all of Germany under the terms of the Potsdam agreement. With their great sense of logic, the Grench point out that the Russians can say:

"Since you have formed a separate government for your part of Germany, you can have no more reason to stay in Berlin. Therefore we must ask you to go, since Berlin is in the Soviet zone and since the Soviet zone is now a separate entity."

* * *

THE French also talk of the "calculated risk" and wonder if the U. S. has taken into account the hazards in our German policy. They draw an analogy with French policy before World War I, when the French understood very well that each step they took in Morocco risked eventual war with Germany. To take such a calculated risk, a nation must have the resources to act if it turns out badly.

Following a provocative policy, the U. S. and Britain do not have the resources in manpower to buttress a failure.

The grave concern of the French can be put down, of course, to the fact that they live next door to the dynamite mill. If the Russian determine to push the western powers out of Berlin and if war follows, as it probably would, France would be occupied in ten days or two weeks.

The fact that this is an election year in the United States, with the odds heavy on a new administration, makes it impossible to put a new ambassador in Moscow at this point. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith has served for two years; and reports from Moscow indicate that he is in a state of intense irritability, his nerves worn down by the constant pressure of Soviet antagonism.

The best evidence indicates that Russia does not want war and will go a long way to avoid a shooting war. She will continue to press for her objectives short of war. It is just here that negotiations, conducted perhaps by a new man with sufficient background but without the nervous tensions built up

Oregon Vote May Flash "Slow" Signal For Dewey Or Stassen

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP) — Oregon voters may flash a "slow" signal today on the presidential hopes of either Harold E. Stassen or Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

While the two major contenders for the Republican nomination are battling it out on the Pacific coast, a third, Senator Robert A. Taft, will be invading New Jersey territory where Dewey and Stassen have been claiming support.

Dewey Invited

It is Taft day at Princeton, where Stassen visited last month. Dewey also has been invited to drop in for a chat with the New Jersey delegation before the Philadelphia convention opens just one month hence.

The outcome of Oregon's primary vote today was generally regarded here as likely to be heavily damaging politically to the loser. The winner gets the support of the state's 12 delegates. But a lot more is involved in this last contested balloting before the convention.

Most politicians look at it this way:

If Dewey wins, he will go a long way toward wiping out the defeats he suffered at Stassen's hands in Wisconsin and Nebraska. He will be reinstated as a top notch contender.

Backing May Melt

If he loses, the New York governor will have little claim left to being the No. 1 candidate for the nomination. He still will have 133 delegates lined up in his corner, but he may find his secondary backing melting away rapidly.

If Stassen wins, he will have a string of three popular primary victories—plus a write-in victory in Pennsylvania—to back his contention that he is the popular choice of the rank and file. He will have a powerful weapon for touching off a convention blitz like the one that gave the late Wendell L. Willkie the 1940 nomination.

If Stassen loses, his foes will say that the Minnesotan's only real popular appeal is in the middle west, which the Republicans generally chalk up in their column anyway. His loss to Dewey in New Hampshire and his failure to get a majority of the 23 delegates in his contest with Taft in Ohio will be cited in this connection.

Oregon Important

Stassen has 76 convention votes either pledged or claimed without dispute. He has been claiming that he will have more than any other candidate on the first ballot. But few think that claim would survive an Oregon defeat.

Taft planned to speak in Princeton on military training. He has opposed universal military training but has said he will support a temporary draft to bring the armed forces up to full strength.

The Ohioan will outline his views on foreign policy in a speech at Bard college, Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y., tomorrow night.

Taft expects to share in the support when Utah Republicans pick 11 delegates at a state convention tomorrow. Dewey and Stassen already have laid their lines in the state.

Demos Line Up

Oregon Democrats, participating in today's primary there, are expected to name 16 delegates ready to support President Truman for the nomination.

Nevada Democrats will choose 10 and Utah 11 in convention tomorrow.

Democratic leaders were pleased with the selection at Philadelphia yesterday of Senator Barkley of Kentucky as national convention keynoter and Rep. Rayburn of Texas as permanent chairman. Both are highly regarded by colleagues, north and south, and could go a long way toward solving party differences.

Meantime North Carolina Democrats steered a middle course in the civil rights intra-party revolt and cautioned their Dixie neighbors to go slow lest they aid the Republican party.

Free Hand

The state convention yesterday voted to give the 32-vote Tarheel delegation to the democratic national convention a free hand by sending them uninstructed. Alabama, Florida, and South Carolina have named anti-Truman delegations.

The North Carolina action came as Vermont Democrats named a six-vote delegation with four of the votes apparently in the President's column. That gives him a total of 473 pledged and claimed delegates, with 618 needed for the nomination. Some of his claimed strength is in dispute.

Alabama Republicans named a 14-man delegation yesterday, 12 of them uninstructed. Two were instructed for Dewey. Of the uninstructed, one has announced for Dewey and one for Taft.

Maryland Republicans picked an uninstructed delegation of 16. Four said privately they liked Dewey, but made no pledge.

Grosvenor Square Is Now Lovers' Lane

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—Grosvenor square, beautified to be a fitting setting for the newly unveiled statue of Franklin D. Roosevelt, has become infested with lovers, according to complaints to the ministry of works.

They sit on the grass in great numbers, and even lie on it, to the disgust of some Mayfair neighbors. One of the neighbors is the United States embassy but, according to a spokesman, no complaint has come from there.

"The State department has taken no notice, but as individuals we have of course noticed a few things," he said.

The works ministry has assigned uniform attendants who chase all the lovers into Hyde park.

ONE PONY POWER LAWN MOWER—Champ supplies the power when Mrs. Julian Pope, Strongsville, O., mows the lawn. Mrs. Pope augments her income by mowing neighbors' lawns, too. She charges a minimum of $1.50 for her poney-powered grass chopper.

St. Bernard Cannot Be Fed On 20 Cents

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., May 21 (AP)—Pound keeper Steve Wismann was handed a stray 200-pound St. Bernard dog Wednesday.

The village allows him 20 cents a day to feed each canine in his care. Not enough, says the pound keeper, to buy the new inmate an appetizer.

Dogged by reproachful looks, Wismann shares his lunch with the St. Bernard. Meanwhile, he's hoping the owner will claim his pet pronto.

Russia Ridicules Vandenberg's Idea

MOSCOW, May 21 (AP)—Izvestia poked ridicule today at a resolution by Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich) calling for changes in the veto power in the United Nations.

The Soviet newspaper branded the resolution as a "clandestine" attempt to revise the U. N. charter, and to use the U. N. as a "cover" for United States imperialism.

(The Senate foreign relations committee, under Chairman Vandenberg, recommended voluntary agreement "to remove the veto from all questions involving specific settlements of international disputes and situations and from the admission of few members."

(The resolution was in the form of a "working paper" for the advice of the President in pursuing U. S. policy in the foreign field.)

Boots clunked and spurs jingled on a dance floor near the arena until the wee hours of the night to bring down the curtain on the first day's events. Shows will be held at 8 p. m. Friday and Saturday nights and 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

O'Daniel

the senatorial scene might bring new faces into the race. At Beaumont, the Enterprise reported that Martin Dies, Lufkin attorney and former representative from the second congressional race, said last night he is "almost ready to enter the race.

The newspaper said Dies, one-time chairman of the House un-American committee, is expected to announce late next week.

Cries For Joy

O'Daniel's studio audience last night included his wife and his daughter, Molly. Molly cried with joy and when the microphones had been deadened she rushed to her father and kissed him.

The attractive Molly and her two handsome brothers, Pat and Mike, were for several years closely identified with the spectacular O'Daniel campaigns which pioneered hillbilly music as a means of getting votes.

O'Daniel was elected governor of Texas in 1948 and again in 1940.

Of his future plans, the senator said "New Deal destruction of our private enterprise system" may make it difficult for him to be a good provider for his family "but I am willing to try."

It was another shot at the New Dealers by a veteran marksman. Longtime foe of the New Deal, O'Daniel has also lambasted over the years at "professional politicians," "labor leader racketeers," Communists, bureaucrats, centralization of power in Washington. In many instances he has voted with Republicans, has often differed sharply with Senator Tom Connally of Texas.

He Would Accept

O'Daniel friends have mentioned him as a possible candidate for vice president. The senator stated a few weeks ago that he would accept the vice presidential nomination as General Douglas MacArthur's running mate.

O'Daniel said he intended to stay strictly out of the senatorial race "unless some of the candidates stick their necks out by dragging my name into the race." In such an event, he said, he would come back to Texas "and make a few pertinent remarks."

"It is certainly a grand and glorious feeling," he added, "to be the undisputed and undefeated champion in four of the most hotly contested political campaigns ever waged in Texas."

The backswimmer is an insect that makes a boat of its overturned body, and rows with its legs.

Banquet Held

Dwyer, John Montgomery and George Elliott. The sixth member, Jim Herring, was not present.

National Dairy Cattle team awards were presented to Gilbert McAllister, L. D. Ballard, Jim Hutchins and John Montgomery. The team participated in the Intercollegiate Livestock Judging contest last October in Waterloo, Iowa.

Freshman Livestock Judging contest winners, introduced by Clinton Ritter, were O. R. Cook, Harold Riley, Maurice Kingsbury, George Berry, Joe Wilson and William Piper.

Winners Are Named

Herman Henson, superintendent of the recently held Block and Bridle club Junior Livestock Judging contest, presented winners in the various divisions of the contest with awards. Winners were: Robert D. Cox, high individual in all classes and high individual in swine production; W. D. Hancock, high in beef production; John Clark, high in sheep production; and W. D. Stalls, high in horse production.

Other judging teams which have competed for the college during the year were introduced at the meeting and commended for their work.

New Block and Bridle officers for the coming year, installed by Edd McLeroy, retiring president, are: President, Clinton Ritter; vice president, Will Hooks; secretary, Russell Sadler; treasurer, Jack Erwin and marshall, O. B. Freeman.

Edd McLeroy, president, presided at the banquet, which was attended by approximately 100 persons. Charles Hamilton was toastmaster for the occasion, and invocation was given by Robert Baumgardner.

Students Win

"faulty wiring," and "careless smoking," dancing around a flaming house. Her wording reads "Keep Them from Your Home."

As the contest was tied-in with the governor's statewide fire prevention committee, the judges were members of his educational committee. They were Dr. Pat Norwood, director of public relations, Southwest Texas State Teachers college, San Marcos; A. T. Deare, Dow Chemical company, Freeport; and W. E. Lowry, executive secretary, State Board for Vocational Education, Austin.

Posters were judged May 17 at the state insurance department in Austin. Having to meet requirements in each division as to size and design, posters had to be original and on any phase of fire prevention in general.

Prizes totaling $104 were given to the winners in the four divisions: high school, intermediate, junior high and primary. The seven equal prizes awarded in each division were first place, $7.50; second place, $5.00; third place, $3.50; next best four, each, $2.50.
