Tennis Court Fund Grows

A fund to build tennis courts and small park for the people of Hart received a substantial boost this week with a $2,200 contribution from Hart Lions Club.

Proceeds of projects sponsored by the club during Hart Day festivities had been designated for that purpose prior to the event. Lions made a $1,000 contribution to the fund in May.

Lion Boss Ted Averitt appointed a coordinating committee of W.T. King, chairman, K.E. Lambert, L.C. McClain and Everette Heller to work with the tennis court project. Initial efforts in the project have disclosed the possibility of securing a "matching funds" grant for the construction of lighted tennis courts and some playground equipment for youngsters provided such facilities are on city owned property.

Contributions from interested persons and other organizations are needed and invited. Monies may be deposited to the "tennis court fund" at Farmers State Bank. The fund was begun last spring by a $500 contribution from Chi Psi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Mayor Richard Franks made a personal contribution to the fund which now stands at $3,760.

Lions voted to sponsor a pancake supper prior to the homecoming football game Oct. 17. Bobby Reed was named supper chairman; other committee members are Doug Higgins, Joe Bailey, Carl Rambo, J.B. Allensworth, Lambert and Heller.

Band director Jerry Jansa reported on the accomplishments and goals of the school bands noting that this is the first year that fifth grade students have been allowed to take band.

"This will be good for the band because it will give students one more year of experience plus I believe that fifth graders are perfectly capable of learning to play band instruments," he said.

This year, Jansa said, Hart schools have four bands. There are 23 members in the fifth grade beginners band; 24 in the sixth grade beginners band. Twenty-four seventh graders play in the junior high band, participating only in concert and sight reading competition. Hart High School's Longhorn Band boasts 60 members, Jansa said, composed of eighth graders and high school students. Marching contest, he said, is Nov. 4.

Contests, he explained, give the band student opportunities to participate in University Interscholastic League competition in three categories - - marching, concert and sight reading. Ratings are one, superior; two, excellent; three, good; four, fair and five, poor performance.

Winners Miss One Game, Stacey Averitt Leads List

Guessing in the third week of competition in the Hart Beat football contest was not too good for many contestants but a few managed to predict the upsets and emerge with a good record for the week.

The Longhorns-Crosbyton tie-breaker was needed to determine the top winner with Cindy Davis and Scott Rice missing just one game each. Keith Reed was just one loss back to nail down third place.

Mrs. Davis came out with the top money by a 21 to 13 prediction of the Longhorns' score. Her guess was just eight points off the actual 28-12 victory. Young Rice was 12 points off with a 20-16 guess. They claim $5 and $3, respectively.

The master guessers were wrong on the Muleshoe-Friona and Detroit Lions-Green Bay Packers games, respectively.

Young Reed wins $2 for his third place finish. He incorrectly predicted the Detroit-Green Bay and Arkansas-Oklahoma State games.

Stacy Averitt took sole possession of the season lead this week with 35 correct guesses. Just one point back are Teresa Adams of Dimmitt and Marsha George. Contestants with 30 or more points are listed elsewhere in this issue. this issue.

No contestant should give up competing for the season grand prize of $50 even though they trail by several points. Upsets plague contest leaders just as they do football teams and standings are subject to change each week. It is also possible for a contestant to lead for several weeks and then fall several points below one who has trailed. The contestant who gives up is the only one who has no chance at winning.

Any one can also be a winner for the week, even one who has never entered before. The contest is fun and costs nothing to enter. It's simple to enter. Select a winner in each of the games listed in the ads of the 14 sponsoring merchants listed on the contest pages. Circle the number of the team you pick to win on the entry blank found on that page. Predict the tie-breaker score and fill in the entry blank completely.

Students Ask Contributions For Homecoming Bonfire

Bonfire materials are still being sought by HHS students for a "bigger and better than ever before" homecoming bonfire.

Any wood that persons would like to contribute to the bonfire collection will be picked up if persons will call the school.

Homecoming activities are planned for the week of Oct. 13-17 with the football game slated for 7:30 p.m. Friday, the 17th. Schedule of events will be published at a later date.

Calendar Deadline Nears

Listings on the Band Boosters' community birthday calendars are being taken until Oct. Persons who have not been contacted may call Mrs. David Nelson, 938-2474 or Mrs. Lyndall Warren, 938-2130. Final deadline for ordering a calendar is Oct. 1.

Proceeds from the calendar sales will be used for some worthwhile project for the band.

Chili Supper Set Friday

Come to supper is the invitation extended this week by members of the Athletic Booster Club. Chili, homemade pie and beverage will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday in the school cafeteria.

Longhorn fans and all other persons are invited to dine with the Boosters. Persons are also invited to attend Booster Club meetings each Tuesday at 8 p.m.

QUARTERBACK ELIAZAR CASTILLO carries the pigskin here in Friday nights 28-12 victory over the Crosbyton Chiefs. Castillo scored one of the Horns' TD's on a 72-yd run and ran for extra points on the final touchdown.

TELLING HOW IT WAS - Band Director Jerry Jansa spoke to Hart Lions Monday and showed film clips of the 1973 and 1974 UIL marching contests in which the Longhorn Band earned "excellent ratings. Caught in the picture is Lions Club Tail Twister, L.C. McLain.

that's what we all want. That means a one rating in all three categories - - you miss on the first and that's it for the year. There are no second tries."

Jansa expressed personal appreciation to the Lions for their support in getting a band program for Hart schools and their continued support since that time.

Editorially Speaking

Willing To Give

"Little in size but filled with people who have big hearts." That has long been a true description of Hart, Texas USA.

No small measure of that reputation comes as a result of the efforts of a group of willing men . . . willing to give of themselves in time, effort and money. Those fellows are the members of Hart Lions Club.

More than a bi-monthly social luncheon, the club is an organization which has been responsible for many of the good things which have happened in Hart and for Hart.

Without the help of Hart Lions, there might not be a band for students of Hart schools. Young in number of years, the band is a source of justifiable pride for the people of Hart.

No small gesture either is the Lions Club's efforts in securing tennis courts for the people of Hart. Primarily to be used by the youth, the courts will also be made available for all persons in the community who want to play tennis.

Thanks to "all out" endeavors Hart Day, the club has been able to add a substantial sum to an already generous one in the fund to secure the tennis courts at the earliest possible date. With the same ambitious acceptance on the part of other organizations and individuals, the proposed courts and park will be reality rather than dream.

Dance Lessons To Be Given

Swinging O's Square Dance Club of Olton will sponsor square dance lessons beginning at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 30. A series of 20 lessons, they will be conducted in the agriculture building at Avenue E and Second Streets.

Lessons will be given every other week until January when they will become weekly. Maurice Stevenson will be instructor.

By-laws of the organization specify there be "no use of alcoholic beverages, prior to or during, club gatherings.

All interested persons are invited. For additional information contact Roy La-Duke of Olton.

Report Cards Get 'New Look'

The first six-weeks period of the 1975-76 school year ends this week and students of Hart schools will be receiving a "new look" in report cards.

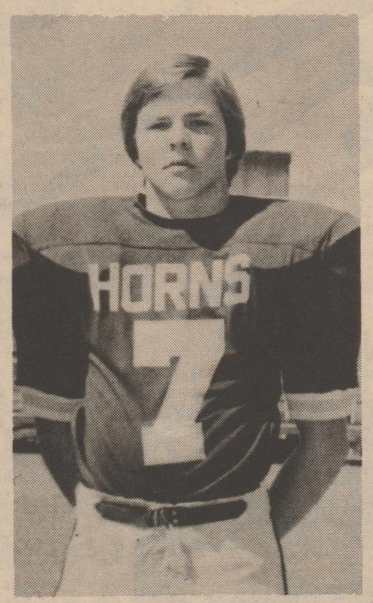

Unlike the cards used in the past, the new reports are not printed with instructions for parents to "sign and return" but that is the instruction sent out this week.

William E. Ammons, principal of Hart High School and Hart Junior High, requests parents to please sign the new report cards. Students will return them to their first period teachers.

COUNSELOR'S CORNER

Although I am not new in the Hart Schools, I do wear a new face this year. It is my pleasure to serve as YOUR School Counselor. Being trained under the philosophy that the word "counselor" means "helper," it is my purpose and desire to first help the students of the Hart Schools. I have not found a task below my dignity nor have I found a task so above me that I won't tackle it.

Secondly, I hope to serve as a helper to our teachers and administrators in order that their jobs might be more effective.

Thirdly, it is my desire to serve the parents of our students. I feel that these three areas - - the students, teachers, and parents - - could open many channels of communication that would enable all of us to have a better school and thus a better life.

I have met with each class of the Hart Schools - - your teachers and your children have greeted me with open arms and treated me graciously. MAY I HELP YOU?? I am in the Hart Schools Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. I serve Nazareth Thursday and Friday.

Due to the rain last Friday the Hart Longhorn Band had to postpone their halftime activities which was to include the crowning of Band Sweetheart. The band tentatively rescheduled the Sweetheart coronation for the next home game. Hart VS Petersburg on Sept. 29.

SPORTS

By Bryan Irons

Last Friday the Longhorns traveled to Crosbyton to play the Chiefs. Hart came out victorious, 28 to 12, for their third straight victory. First, Elizar Castillo sprinted around the left end for a 72 yard touchdown run. This was the only score of the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter Crosbyton's Wiley received a pass from Cargile to tie the score 6-6. Hart came back with a 69 yard run by Lester Aven to bring the Horns in front 12 to 6. Hart's Barry George ran 7 yards in the second quarter to make it 20 to 6. In the midst of the third quarter, Wiley scampered around end for Crosbyton's final score. Terry Hill scored Hart's final TD in the fourth quarter to make 28-12. The Horns host Petersburg Buffaloes Friday at 8 p.m.

AMERICA'S HERITAGE

HIGHLIGHTS OF AMERICAN HISTORY

JOHN PAUL JONES

By Joan Russo

"I have not yet begun to fight!" John Paul Jones shouted across the deck of his ship when the British captain suggested the surrender of the Bon Homme Richard, named after the French edition of Ben Franklin's almanac. Ignoring the obvious superiority of the British frigate, Serapis, Jones had opened fire at sunset. He continued his offensive, deliberately ramming the Richard into the stern of the British vessel. Unable to bring its cannon to bear on Serapis in this position, the Richard pulled away. The ships fell alongside and grappled and the Americans began a close range assault with muskets and grenades. Both ships caught fire, but the fighting continued for three hours under moonlight.

When the Serapis finally struck colors, the Bon Homme Richard was riddled with holes through which "one might have drove in with a coach and six." The Americans abandoned their gutted ship, but in taking the Serapis, they had won the greatest naval victory of the Revolution. Artist Frederick Coffay Yohn commemorates this episode in "The Battle Between the Bon Homme Richard and the Serapis," part of the collection of historical paintings owned by The Continental Insurance Companies.

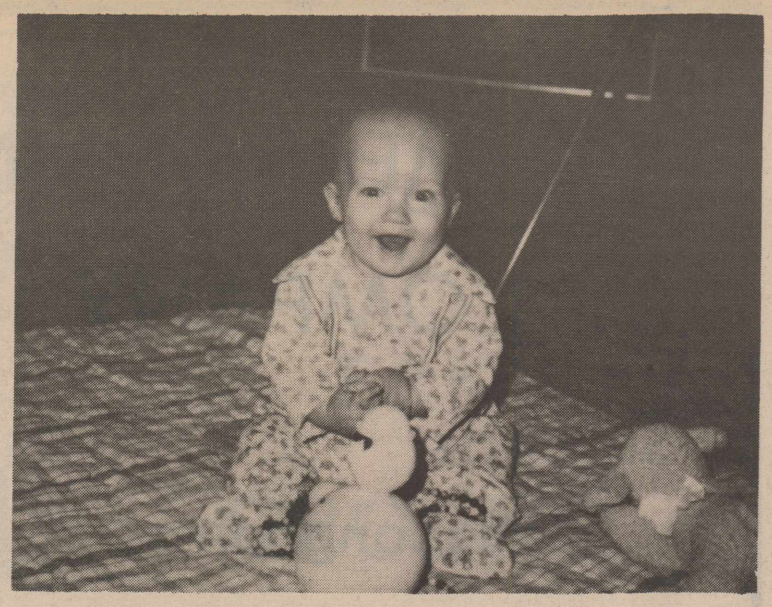

The hero of the day, John Paul Jones, was born in Scotland as John Paul. He came to Philadelphia as a fugitive, added the Jones to his name and joined the patriots' cause. After his victory over the Serapis, he was celebrated in France but forgotten in this country. In 1788, he accepted an invitation from Catherine the Great to become a rear admiral in the Russian navy. He later returned to Paris and died there. His grave remained unknown until it was discovered by the American ambassador to France in 1905. Eight years later, his remains were enshrined at Annapolis where Jones is recognized today as the father of our naval tradition.

'Starving Artists' Sale To Be Held In Lubbock

Area artists are invited to participate in the fourth annual Starving Artists sale Nov. 7-9 sponsored by the Lubbock Jaycee-Ettes. The three-day sale will be held from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Friday and Saturday and from noon until 6 p.m. Sunday in the former Hemphill-Wells building in Monterey Center on 50th Street.

Any type of original work or art is acceptable, including a variety of oils, watercolors, etchings, sculpture, carvings, china painting, pottery, jewelry or stitchery. There is no age or professional limit to participation.

Jaycee-Ettes have added a new convenience this year. For the first time, customers will have the privilege of using two major credit cards for charge purchases at the sale.

Each artist will be charged an entry fee of $5 which must accompany the entry form. Those forms plus additional information may be obtained at any craft or hobby shop in Lubbock or at the Garden and Arts Center in Lubbock, located on University Avenue.

Nov. 3 is deadline for the entry form and artists' fees. Jaycee-Ettes will retain 20 percent of all items sold with 80 percent of the purchase price going to the artists. Profits of the Jaycee-Ettes will be contributed to charitable organizations.

'We Finally Got Untracked' Phillips Says Of Horns

"We felt our offense finally got untracked," said head coach Lonnie Phillips this week of the Horns' 28 to 12 victory over Crosbyton.

Gaining a total of 386 yards offensively, Phillips said that an offensive change the past week from the veer exclusively to the Power I gave the Longhorns better balance offensively.

"Defensively, we were pleased in some areas. Our two defensive line backers, Glenn Black and Bryan Irons, had outstanding games. Our secondary got their most severe test of the season with the Chiefs going to the air 40 times, completing 18 for 190 yards."

"We felt our secondary played even better after looking at the game films than we had felt during the course of the game."

"Lester Aven picked off two passes and Johnny Newsom got one. The TD passes they completed came when our secondary was trying to intercept and pick off the ball. Our secondary was in the proper places most of the night."

Phillips noted that Friday's foe, Petersburg, will be coming into the game with a 2-0-1 record against "tough teams Abernathy, Idalou and Kress."

"According to folks who've seen them they are a better club than last year and everyone knows they've had a tremendous club."

"We feel we'll definitely have to play outstanding ball in order to come out with a victory."

Grain Sales Raise Prices?

The amount that retail food prices deserve to rise because of the Russian sales will be hardly noticable to consumers, while the loss taken by farmers if these sales are shut off would be truly devastating, according to Jay Naman, member of the executive board of the National Farmers Union (NFU).

Naman, who is also president of Texas Farmers Union and represents a major wheat production area, made the statement following a meeting of NFU executive unit at Denver.

"In the first place, the news of the grain sales did not come until early in July so it could not have any effect on retail prices yet," Naman explained. "Normally, it is three to six months before an increase in raw materials prices is reflected through the production and marketing channels.

"Secondly, it takes a one dollar change in the price of wheat to justify a 1.2 cent change in the price of a pound loaf of bread, so there is no basis for the hysteria that bread may go to a dollar a loaf."

The NFU Executive Board noted that there is only 3.6 cents worth of wheat in a one-pound loaf of white bread now selling for 36 cents. A bushel of wheat provides enough flour for 70 loaves of bread.

Farm wheat prices would have to go to $45 to $50 a bushel before a dollar price-label on a pound loaf of bread could be justified, Farmers Union insisted.

The Farmers Union leaders maintained that while the retail price impact of the Russian grain sales would be nominal for consumers, the hold on grain sales ordered by Secretary Butz and the dock workers boycott could have a disastrous effect on farmers if it continues for any length of time.

The statement cited estimates that Russian grain purchases, if consummated, could improve the wheat market prices by 75 cents a bushel and the corn market price by 30 cents a bushel.

"If the sales are shut off, farmers will not only have to forego that potential gain, but the value of the whole crop will be depressed," Naman said.

Getting Better Acquainted

In Hart Schools

When the Hart Longhorns take to the gridiron, their action is captured on film by Lonnie Joe Howell, coach and math teacher at Hart Junior High and High School.

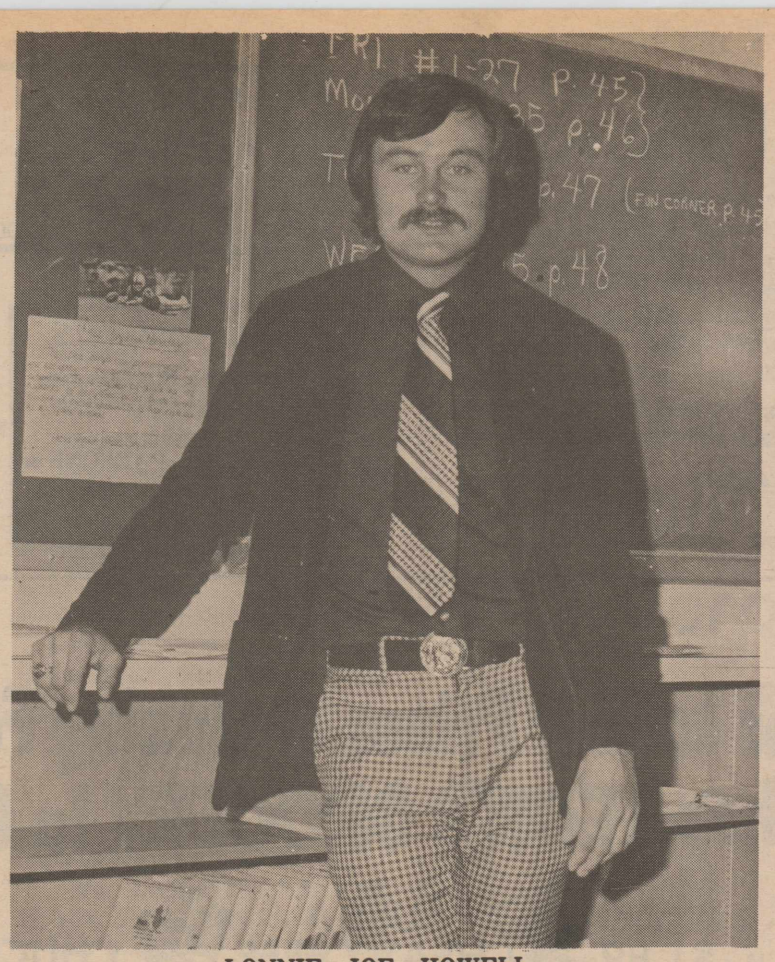

In his fourth year with Hart schools, Howell says he grew up as Joe and was not called Lonnie until coming to Hart. Fellow teachers adopted his double name to avoid confusing identities with Lonnie Joe and head coach Lonnie Phillips.

Lonnie Joe was born in Lubbock and attended school there 10 years. He graduated from Valley Union High School in El Frida, Ariz. and attended Cochise Junior College in Douglas, Ariz. and South Plains College in Levelland before enrolling in Texas Tech. He majored in secondary education and received a bachelor of science degree from Tech in the summer of 1972.

Math teacher in Hart Junior High, Lonnie Joe also teaches two high school math classes. He is senior class sponsor for the second consecutive year.

A Baptist, Lonnie Joe has one older sister and two younger sisters. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Howell, live in Levelland.

Sports and music are his hobbies. He particularly enjoys country and western music.

KITTRELL ELECTRONICS

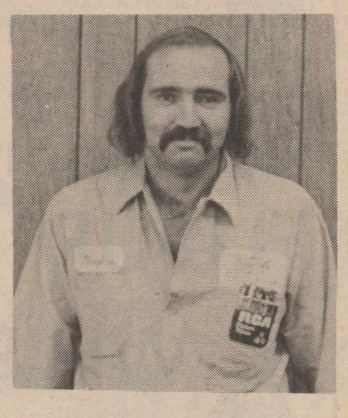

JERRY KITTRELL started Kittrell Electronics in 1964. Raised at Hart, he attended Draughan's School of Electronics in Lubbock. Jerry sells seven major brands of appliances and electronics equipment, and services what he sells. He bought and remodeled his present building two years ago, and this summer he added 750 sq. ft. of floor space for more inventory, to give you a larger selection. His wife, Edna, is the company's secretary-bookkeeper.

TOMMY SWARINGEN, 21, completed his first year with Kittrell Electronics last month. Originally from Dickens, he's a graduate of the Texas State Technical Institute Electronics School in Waco. He specializes in TV and stereo service.

WAYNE HENDERSON, 25, joined Kittrell Electronics as a service technician in July. He holds an associate degree in applied science [electronics] from South Plains College, Levelland. A native of Earth, Wayne worked three years at Thompson TV in Plainview before joining Kittrell Electronics. He specializes in TV and stereo service.

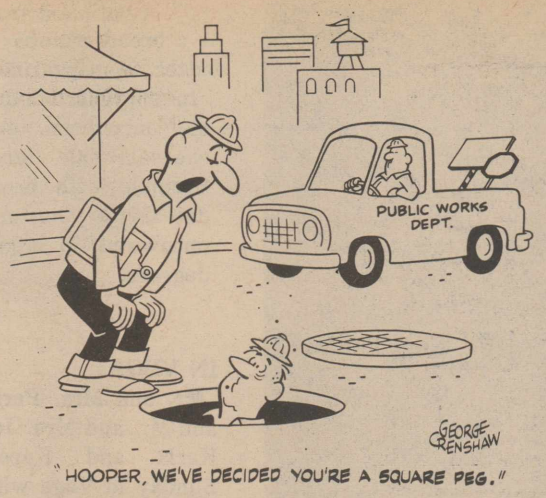

COY ETHRIDGE, 25, joined Kittrell Electronics Monday as an appliance service trainee. Born and raised here, he graduated from Hart High School in 1968. Coy served six years in the US Marine Corps, seeing action with the First Marine Division in Vietnam in 1968-69. Coy is enrolled in the Whirlpool Training Courses.

Shorthorns Stop Cowboys, 22-0 Shut-Out Thursday

The Hart eighth grade Shorthorns traveled to Happy last Thursday and shut out the Happy Cowboys 22-0.

Cowboys received the opening kick-off. A stout Hart defense led by Mark Werner, Scott Jones, Van Burress, Tracy Rich, Nathan Ingram and Luther Isaguirre was able to hold the Cowboys without a first down on the first possession.

Hart offense took over the ball and began a 60 yard drive capped with a 25 yd. TD run by Eloy Hernandez.

On the try for extra points, quarterback Luther Isaguirre was able to sweep left end for the score. At this point the Shorthorns led 8-0.

Throughout the remainder of the first half, Hart continued to make yardage but due to fumbles were unable to get the ball in the end zone. Half time score was Hart-8, Happy-0.

At the beginning of the second half, Hart received the kick-off. Led by the running of Ricky Smith, Eloy Hernandez, John Barretero, and Nathan Ingram the Shorthorns moved in for their second score as Luther Isaguirre took the ball in from 1 yd. out.

Try for extra points failed. Hart leads 14-0.

As the second half continued, all Happy threats were stopped as the Hart defense rose to the occasion causing one fumble which Mark Werner recovered and forcing two interceptions both by John Barretero.

Barretero's last interception set up the final TD for Hart as Eloy Hernandez scored from 10 yards out. Ricky Smith scored the extra points which gave Hart the shutout victory. 22-0.

Overall, the eighth grade is continuing to improve each week according to the coach.

One particular bright spot was the passing of Luther Isaguirre to Adolfo Carrasco as they combined for two pass completions for a total gain of 60 yards. Also the defensive work of the secondary comprised of Daniel Higgins, Ricky Smith, John Barretero and Mike Corriker was real strong. Higgins continues to look impressive on his tackling.

Also continuing to improve in the offensive line comprised of centers Arthur Tenorio and Joe Agado, guards Van Burress and Tracy Rich, tackles Scott Jones and Marlin Marble and Tight and Adolfo Carrasco.

H. t travels to Petersburg Sept. 25 for seventh, eighth games beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Horns Trample Chiefs

BY JESS HUDNALL

Hart running back Lester Aven proved too much to handle for the Crosbyton Chiefs as the junior letterman led the Horns to their third straight victory without defeat Friday night. When the dust had settled, Aven had rushed for 173 yards and intercepted two enemy passes in guiding Hart to a 28-12 conquest over Crosbyton.

From the opening kickoff, the game proved to be a match of contrasting styles of offense. The Horns of coach Lonnie Phillips, with their veer offense, grounded out 358 yards via the rush while the Chiefs went to the air route for 190 yards. Hart ran the ball 49 times while attempting only 3 passes. Crosbyton threw 40 aerials and rushed another 29 times.

Hart's initial score came late in the first quarter when Eliazar Castillo dashed around left end and went 71 yards untouched for the Longhorn touchdown. The kick failed and the horns led 6-0.

With 8:27 remaining in the second quarter, Chief quarterback Joe Mark Cargile hit speedster Ronald Wiley for a 17 yard touchdown pass to knot the score at 6-6. Robbie Karr attempted to run the extra point but was stopped short. The Chiefs score was set up when tackle Joe Greene recovered a Longhorn fumble at Hart's 38 yard line.

Without delay, Hart took the ensuing kickoff and two plays later Aven broke through the middle and scrambled 69 yards for the Horns second score. Again the point-after failed and Hart led 12-6.

Following Kerry George's kickoff, Crosbyton failed to gain a first down and Cargile punted the ball to the Hart 11-yard line. From there, Terry Hill and Aven combined their efforts to reel off four consecutive first downs to the Chief seven yard line.

On first and goal from the seven, Barry George blasted over to increase Hart's margin to 18-6. Aven ran the extra point and with 2:04 remaining in the half Hart led 20-6.

The third quarter proved to be a test of the Longhorn pass secondary as the Chiefs' aerial bombardment began. Cargile attempted 14 passes and completed 6 during the period. The lone score of the quarter came when Wiley sliced over from 4 yards to captilize a 50-yard drive. Thirty-eight of the fifty yards came on passes from Cargile to Wiley. Cargile's attempt to run the extra point failed and the score stood at 20-12.

Unable to sustain an offensive drive, Hart turned the ball over when Sterling Mize recovered a Longhorn fumble at the Hart 48. Aided by a pass interference penalty, the Chiefs moved to the Longhorn 20 yard line and were marching toward the tying touchdown. However Lady Luck cast her spell on Hart as the Chiefs failed to execute properly on a fourth down play and the Horns took over on downs.

The final score of the evening came with only :46 seconds left in the contest when Terry Hill plunged over from the one to assure Hart's victory. Castillo added the extra point on a keeper around right end. In the scoring drive, Aven and Hill again provided the punch as they netted 54 yards on the ground. Hart's lone completion of the night came when Castillo found Barry George for a 28 yard gain. Penalties played a major role in the final scoring drive as Hart was assessed 4 for a total of 40 yards.

With time expiring, the Chiefs tried one last ditch attempt but this was quelched when Aven snared a Cargile pass deep in Crosbyton territory. Castillo chose to run out the clock and preserve the Longhorns 28-12 triumph.

Hart faces a real test next Friday night at 8 p.m. as they entertain the undefeated Petersburg Buffaloes at Longhorn field.
