Men Wanted: At The Rita Sunday at A QUARTER 'TILL TEN!

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lroy received word that their son, Ershel, arrived safely in England. He is in the Civilian Technical Corps.

Construction of the Sunday school annex on the west end of the Nazarene church will start soon. It is to have six class rooms and a choir loft.

The Methodist summer revival is to be held Aug. 9-23, to be followed immediately by the Baptist meeting.

Evangelists for the meetings have not been named.

H. A. Wiese of Pasadena, Calif., a returned missionary who was in China during the early part of that country's war with Japan, is to talk at the Nazarene church here Feb. 12.

He is to show movie scenes of actual battles, Rev. H. E. McClain, the local pastor, stated.

A piece of glass about a half-inch long was imbedded in Wilson Tate's left leg near the ankle when he was seven years of age. It worked to the skin surface recently and was taken out about an inch from where it entered his leg.

ONLY THREE DAYS LEFT TO GET POLL TAXES

City, school, county-district and state elections will give poll tax payers several opportunities to exercise their rights as voters this year. Only three days are left in which to pay poll taxes. H. E. Richter and First State bank here will assist residents of this area in securing poll tax receipts.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Abernathy Boy Scouts received $20.40 this week for 6,750 pounds of waste paper which they have collected here for a period of many weeks. The money will be used to purchase supplies needed by the troop. (Left Out Last Week.)

Abernathy Boy Scouts, under the direction of their scoutmaster, L. H. Batton, and former scoutmaster, Q. L. Hallmark, who is chief aircraft observer here, Sunday and Monday participated in aircraft warning maneuvers. They were stationed at the G. B. Adkinson farm southeast of town and telephoned reports to the operators here.

Scouts taking part in the work were Paul Bryant, Bobby and Don Duty, Foy and Gene McMaster, Jesse Robertson, Robert Hurst, Charles Goldston, W. L. Rutledge, Paul Turner, Billy Lroy, Billy Frank Skipper, Eugene Garvin and Gene Nunn.

Scouts are still collecting waste paper. Contact them if you have paper at your home or place of business for them to pick up.

To Attend Court of Honor

Local Scouts are to participate in the court of honor to be held in Lubbock Friday night, Jan. 30. Parents and friends of the boys are urged to accompany them.

WHO WROTE THIS?

"Men will wrangle for religion; write for it; fight for it; die for it; anything but live for it."

LOCAL STUDENTS ENTER DEBATE TOURNEY JAN. 30

Miss Margaret Carver is to take her debating teams and extemporaneous speakers to the Plains-Wide debating tournament to be held in Plainview January 30. Mary Stevens and Maxine Harp compose the girls' team, and members of the boys team are Kenneth Davidson, Robert Hurst, Elton Renfro and Boyd Dale Prather.

Marjorie Ruth Price and Lavern Cope are extemporaneous speakers.

Debate subject will be "whether or not the Federal government should give aid to schools." Current events will be discussed by extemp speakers.

Antelopes and Kress To Battle For District Basketball Title

A last minute rally by the Kress boys team Tuesday night to beat the Antelopes, 31 to 27, threw the boys division of cage district 6-B into a tie. Both teams have lost two games each in conference play. The Antelopes lost an early season game to the Petersburg Buffaloes.

Date for the decisive game between the Antelopes and Kress was not known by Abernathy coach J. Russell Smith at presstime Wednesday. Top ranking girls team was not known by the Review at that time, either.

The local girls lost a 33-18 game to the Kress ladies Tuesday night in play at Kress.

Win At Happy

Playing at Happy Friday night, both Antelope teams won games, the boys victorious 28 to 15, and the girls winning 27 to 6.

Wayland Here Friday

Boys and girls teams from Wayland college, Plainview, are to play the Antelope teams in matches here Friday night.

The Antelopes go to Idalou for games Feb. 3, and Idalou teams are to come here for play Feb. 6.

Antelopes will return the Wayland games in Plainview Feb. 10. The local teams have two open dates, Feb. 13 and 17.

REAL ESTATE DEALS

Arthur Struve of Olton bought the Stambaugh house on the north edge of town and is moving his family here. Arthur, a son of the Ben Struves, is working at Anderson Bros. Lumber Co. The Frank Roberts family is moving from the house Struve bought to living quarters at the rear of the drug store.

Jack Brown has purchased the A. R. Miller house on the west edge of town.

A deal pending is the probable purchase of the J. J. Harral home by A. C. Jackson, farmer southeast of town. The Harrals moved to Wolforth last year.

Jim Moore bought the Struve house north of the Jess McMaster home and moved there from the Arthur Crow house. The Robbie Heaths moved to the Henson house, vacated by the Earl Meador family who moved to Lubbock. Arthur Crow is moving his house to Muleshoe. G. C. Pope bought the lots from Crow.

You can aid a great cause — the battle against infantile paralysis — by dropping money in the "wishing wells" placed in Rita theatre and other places here.

Unseasonably spring like weather which has favored cotton harvest and work in the feed crop the last several days probably will be ended as you read this. Clouds drifting over at press time Wednesday indicated that a change of weather is coming. Local elevators are busy day and night receiving grain from the big feed crop harvested in this area.

Many farmers are sledding cotton. "Bo" Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wright, was under treatment in a Lubbock sanitarium for a throat ailment.

Mrs. Horace Winningham is resting well at Plainview sanitarium where she had been taken after she suffered a fractured leg early this week.

DEFENSE BOND Quiz

Q. In a payroll allotment plan, is an employee committed to purchase any stated amount of Defense bonds — say $100, $300 or $500 worth?

A. No. The payroll allotment plan is part of the voluntary defense savings program for encouraging the public to save systematically. An employee may drop out of a payroll allotment plan at will. There is no compulsion.

Q. Where are the defense savings stamps on sale

A. At post offices, banks and some retail stores. Look for the sign: Defense Savings Stamps on Sale Here. NOTE.—To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at most retail stores.

Reports from the seven gins in this area on Jan. 17, the comparative date on which previous annual reports were taken, revealed that the 1941 cotton crop was near twice as large as the 1940 yield.

A total of 17,534 bales had been ginned this year, and at that time last year, only 9,175 bales had been turned out. Farmers received from 6c to 10c per pound for the lint and from $17 to $19 per ton for the seed during the 1940 crop. This year lint prices ranged from 10c to 15.25c and seed sold for $37 to $41 per ton.

More cotton was still in the fields when the annual check-up was made this year than in previous years.

Below are reports from Abernathy, Monroe, Caldwell and County Line gins:

Abernathy Records:

Production records for Abernathy from 1935 through 1941:

F. S. C. W. INSTRUCTOR WEDS IN MICHIGAN

The wedding of Miss Lazelle Williams, new member of the faculty of Florida State College for Women, to Captain Randolph C. Dickens, in Battle Creek, Mich., will be of interest to many Abernathy and Tallahasseeans.

The bride, a member of the physical education department, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams of Abernathy, Texas. The bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Dickens, of Lake City, Fla.

The ring ceremony took place at the First Presbyterian church at 4:30 p. m. January 17, at Battle Creek. The bride wore a dress of white chiffon, of floor length, with a high neck and long, full sleeves, finger tip. Her veil was finished with seed pearls and caught up with small clusters of lilies of the valley. She wore white satin slippers and carried white roses.

Wedding attendants were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dickens, of Detroit, best man and matron of honor. Mrs. Dickens wore a gold dinner gown with a small hat of gold feathers and net, and brown gloves. She carried yellow roses. Wedding music consisted of "Because" on the organ and the traditional "Wedding March", and recessional. A small group of friends attended the wedding, and a wedding dinner followed.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Canada and Niagara Falls. The bride chose for her going away costume a two-piece suit of navy blue wool crepe, a hat of blending shades of blue, and dark blue accessories.

Captain Dickens will return to his duties at Fort Custer, Mich., and the bride to her position at Florida State College.

The bride is a graduate of Texas State College for Women, class of 1940. Captain Dickens is a graduate of West Point, class of 1936.
