All About Nothin'

According to information on a large display of pictures of Lamb county men in the service in Ware's window at Littlefield last week, David Glenn, 25, was the first Lamb county man to lose his life. Glenn, a brother of Mrs. Leonard Wright of this city, was killed Aug. 29, 1941, with three other men when their plane crashed near March Field, Calif. He enlisted June 2, 1941, and was in training to become a plane mechanic.

Scatterings: Petersburg Lions club is sponsoring a War Bond box supper at the school auditorium there Friday night, beginning at 8:45 o'clock — Wesley Hardesty and Ray Pinson, who signed as three minute speakers in civilian defense registration early this year, have been called to service and will give three minute talks on our part in the war effort before various gatherings. — Interest in ponies and small saddles for children is being revived here. — You see more of them in stock trailers on the streets now. — Arno Struve rides a pretty paint pony to work and we've noticed several saddle horses hitched at various places in town. Guess we'll have to put up some hitching posts. — The Review has the addresses of many of our boys in service, and we'll be glad to provide them for local people who want to write to the lads.

With the issue of June 11, the Review will round out 21 years of service to the people of this area.

The Review is being sent to every Abernathy boy in the service whose address we have. We want it to go to all of our boys, and the cooperation of their parents is requested in giving us their addresses, and keeping us informed of all changes in addresses as the boys are transferred.

Also, we need pictures of more of our boys in service. Starting next week, we are to use two pictures in each issue. We must have clear, glossy-finish, close-up photos in order to make a good newscut with which to print the picture in the paper.

Although we are sending the Review to the boys without cost to them or their parents, we derive a satisfaction that cannot be purchased with money in knowing that it brings a bit of cheer to our lads in the service every week.

Those of you who have seen the long addresses which some of our boys have will understand the huge task we have in writing the addresses for the individual papers to the soldiers. As her part in helping get the Review to the boys every week, Ruby Joe Merritt, who is employed in the office of Abernathy Motor Co., addresses the wrappers in which the papers are mailed. She is donating this service, and you boys who enjoy reading the Review every week will join me in thanking her for the assistance she is giving.

A missing line from a news story last week left it a mystery who had won second place in the Herald of Holiness subscription contest. Ruth Schaffer, employee at First State bank, and a 1942 graduate of the local high school, placed second in the district contest and was awarded an expense-paid trip to the Nazarene summer encampment at Cisco July 13-19.

A draftee from Hale Center wrote his friends back home to "get in the Home Defense Guard, because it sure helps out. I wish I had drilled some with them, because you have the same thing in the army." Local men who expect to be called for service should take advantage of the basic training offered in the Guard. Meetings are held at the school—in the gym at 8:30 p. m. on Tuesdays, and on the campus at 2 p. m. on Sundays.

Brown Brothers, J. L. Mann and others shipped 500 head of sheep to market from here last week-end.

If a red mark appears in this box, it indicates that your subscription to the Review expires with this issue. We've enjoyed having you on our list of readers, and hope that we will have the pleasure of renewing your subscription soon.

Million Pounds of 'Hopper Poison Distributed Here

Over a million pounds of grasshopper poison bait has been mixed and distributed from the local mixing station at Co-op Grain Co., Frank Tannehill, manager, reported Tuesday. Two machines are operating day and night, mixing sawdust, bran, hulls, water and poison.

Farmers report they are making rapid progress in killing out the insects. Poisoning activities will continue for three weeks more, Tannehill predicted.

Joins Staff of Westinghouse

An Abernathy lad is among seven Texas Tech graduates who is to join Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. at East Pittsburgh, Pa., after receiving his diploma this month. He is Glenn M. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Davidson.

Glenn graduated from Abernathy High school in 1938. He studied engineering at Tech. He was a member of the student branch, American Institute of Electrical Engineers; the Engineering Society and Torch and Castle. He also took part in the annual Engineering show. He worked as an electrician's helper two summers with Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co. at Tucco and spent the summer of 1941 as a student engineer in Trinidad, Texas, with the Texas Power & Light Co.

WHEAT HARVEST TO START EARLY THIS YEAR

Combine men are busy repairing their machinery in preparation for an early wheat harvest which is expected to open within the next two or three weeks. Dry weather is causing wheat to ripen early.

E. B. Lindsey is rushing construction of his Plains Grain Co. elevator plant to have it ready to receive the grain when harvest opens. It will have an increased capacity of 8,000 bushels more than the elevator which was destroyed by fire early this year.

Farmers report they have good stands of cotton and grain sorghum crops from recent plantings, but a rain is needed to keep them growing. Irrigation wells over the territory are in operation.

Coke Stevenson was principal speaker were: Archie Nystel, BS in mechanical engineering; Jean Jackson, BBA; Bertha Adelene Hodges, BS in ed., ed. major; Glenn Davidson, BS, electrical engineering.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Consistency is a jewel which is difficult to counterfeit.

"Over There"

So far as we know, this week concludes the list of Abernathy boys who are "Over There" fighting our war for us, and beginning next week we will present the Abernathy boys who are training for service in the various camps and forts throughout the United States.

Subjects for "Over There" this week are Lonnie Joe Fowler, V. L. Hall, G. D. Ashton and Roy Riddle. Fowler is a nephew of the E. L. Landtroops here. They have no picture suitable for making a newscut, therefore, we're unable to print his picture now. When they receive a good photo of him, it will be printed in the Review.

Lonnie Joe, who attended school here for six years, enlisted for service with the Navy two years ago, and received training as a plane mechanic at San Diego, Calif. He was aboard the aircraft carrier Lexington somewhere in the Pacific when Pearl Harbor was bombed Dec. 7.

On April 15, the Landtroops had a letter from him which was dated March 28. He was still on the Lexington, somewhere in the Pacific's war zone. Since Dec. 7, but prior to the date of Lonnie Joe's last letter home, the Japs claimed that they had sunk the Lexington.

Others Are Listed Among other boys of this community who have not been pictured in "Over There" are V. L. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hall, last word received from him was before Dec. 7 and he was somewhere in the Pacific war zone.

G. D. Ashton, former Abernathy lad was injured in fighting in the Philippines shortly after the war began. It is believed he was taken to Australia. He is a grandson of the J. R. W. Brewster and A. J. Ashton.

Roy Riddle, former Lakeview boy and a brother of W. M. Riddle, was in the Philippines when the war opened.

If anyone knows where we might obtain their pictures for the paper, we will appreciate your co-operation in helping us find them. Also, if we have missed naming any of our boys "Over There," please let us know at once.

G. R. (Shorty) Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brown of this city, recently was promoted from rank of second sergeant to first sergeant, air mechanic, at Esler Field, La.

Hale county school board recently classified schools of the county as follows: Happy Union, 6 grades; Lakeview, 8; Sunshine, 8; Abernathy, 12; Hale Center, 12; Cotton Center, 12; Hooper, 8. (Only those in south and central Hale county are listed.) County School Supt. A. C. Koeninger reports the county scholastic census totals 4,457, a gain of 175 over last year. The county board is composed of S. M. Harrison, president; H. C. Griffiths, John Payne, E. C. Reagan and Fred Spraggins.

LOCAL FARMER MAKES LAND NOTE PAYMENT WITH SMALL CHANGE

V. L. Haley, farmer east of town, makes his small change count — in fact, he counted out enough pennies, nickels and dimes to make payment on his farm!

Last week, he walked into the office of W. A. Richter, National Farm Loan Ass'n. secretary, with a sugar sack nearly filled with small coins and counted out $63.09 in pennies, nickels and dimes, the amount needed to make the June 1 land note payment on his farm. Haley said he started less than a year ago saving "small change" which he used to make the payment.

HALE RESIDENTS MAY SIGN UP HERE FOR CANNING SUGAR

Good news, and tire saving news, was announced this week by Mayor Fritz Struve who arranged for a place here for people of this area to register for sugar for canning purposes without having to go to Plainview. Mrs. Ethel Downs, bookkeeper at Consumers Fuel Ass'n., is to be in charge of the registering activities. Those who plan to register for sugar are requested to do so in the afternoon to prevent conflict with the morning rush business. Mrs. Downs will take the applications at Consumers Fuel Ass'n. for Hale county residents only. Arrangements may be made for a similar registration point in the south part of town for residents of north Lubbock county.

Abernathy this week sent several more boys into the service, five going from Hale county and two from Lubbock county. ★ THE BOYS Write Home

(Editor's note: Following is a letter from Pvt. Jack Homesley, 510th School Squadron, Perrin Field, Sherman, Texas. His brother, Sgt. Ralph Homesley, also is stationed there. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Homesley.)

Dear Buford,
Ralph and I are getting our copy of the Review now and we want to thank those responsible for it being sent to the boys in service.

It means a lot more to a boy to read his home town paper than it does any other paper. We can learn about the folks at home as well as our friends who are either in service or just entering.

As for me, I like the army fine and feel like the army is one of the best jobs I have ever had. That is really all the whole war is, just a job. It will take every one of us to win, and no one can be a slacker. Thanks again for the Review, and keep printing plenty of news about the boys in the service. The Review is our only means of knowing where the other boys are.

Sincerely,
Pvt. Jack Homesley.

(Editor's Note: At long last, here is the letter from Iceland which we promised several weeks ago. It was written by Maj. Randolph C. Dickens, who was transferred recently from Fort Custer, Mich. He married Miss Lazelle Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams, early this year at Battle Creek, Mich. Miss Dickens is an instructor at Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee.)

Following is a portion of the letter:

"We arrived in good condition, and now I am authorized to tell you that I'm comfortably settled in Iceland. The climate has been exceptionally fair and warm. It is almost comparable to a New England Spring. There are plenty of mountains — all snow covered and very steep.

"Near camp there is a little town where there is a dam. The stream is warm water from the geysers, and the Icelanders have prepared a swimming hole.

"The first day we were here, the Colonel and I walked up to the swimming hole, arriving just in time to see an Iceland diver in. Can you imagine swimming in Iceland in early March?

"Here where I am quartered is even better than at Fort Custer. We have steam heat, and without getting out of the same building, I can go to the office and work.

"We could not ask for better food. Just tonight we had California fresh grapes for dinner, and for lunch, we had fried chicken. They are really seeing that we are properly fed, regardless of the risk to get it here.

"The island is a Republic, having 140,000 inhabitants. They have several recreational activities — fishing, skiing, riding and others. (The horses are more the size of ponies.)"

Dear Buford,

Just got last week's Review today, which is the latest I have ever received. I am not complaining—definitely not—but, just thought I'd mention the fact. So far I have missed only one copy, which I think is super deluxe.

We are living in tents and enjoying the outing. Mosquitos haven't a chance against the army equipment. You have probably heard rumors of how large the mosquitos get in Louisiana. Well, the mosquitos in Delaware have a quality all their own — they fly in perfect Echelon formations and then dive in dive bomber fashion on their well prepared foes. They are just like the Japs — they haven't a Yapping chance!

We had a wonderful trip from the north. Saw cities that I have been longing to see all my life.

There's a lot of difference in folk here and those in New England. Dover is a small town of less than ten thousand people, most all of whom are Puritans with their Puritan way. I have seen some of the older folks who still wear their Puritan garb. Ladies wear dark bonnets and men wear blue denim overalls and white shirts, wearing snow and grandfather beards and black hats. The people are more like their brothers south of the Mason-Dixon line. They are friendly and have time for a good word. They give parties galore for the men in the services. They give coffee, cake, candy, cigarettes, matches, fruits, etc., anytime during the day to the men in the services. They also do minor repairing of clothing, etc. Yes, sir, there's lots of difference this near the BORDER.

Here, we are in sight of the Atlantic. In digging holes in the ground for the camp we found that five feet was the limit—we struck water! The boys found a horse-shoe crab, which was the first one I have ever seen.

What else could one expect of a Plainsman. Well, I have to go sweat out the chow line and then the payroll line so this is a good place to quit.

A friend,
Rudolph.

Dear Buford,

How are you, and everyone in Abernathy? I surely miss a lot of you folk and the gear old home town.

A letter from Capt. George W. Ragland a few days ago sounded very good as to the Abernathy Home Guard unit, and it shows a loyal and manly spirit.

I like the army, especially the food. It is a great organization, and a fine place to make a man out of a person. Our officers are stern and right to the point in line of duty — but off-duty are boys like the rest of us.

We have most everything we want such as movies, reading and writing rooms with papers, magazines and books, also have radios. The soldier is well provided for here.

This Fort has a chaplain for every denomination. We have a lecture from our chaplain during the week, besides Wednesday night, and we are encouraged to attend church often, which is the best here and to come.

I miss the Men's Bible Class in Abernathy and the church there.

My training with the Abernathy Defense Guard has certainly come in handy here, and every man there should take advantage of the opportunities it affords. I can't stress that too much to fellows who are likely to be called into service. It is worth every minute of the time you spend in drilling. I appreciate it now more than I realized I would, so, fall in, fellows, and let's go!

I surely enjoy the letters from hometown folk to the boys in service.

In closing, my best wishes to you, and the good old town of Abernathy. Sincerely,
Crowley Harris.

Dear Buford,

I have just finished reading the Abernathy Review. I surely am proud to get it and read the news of the home town. It is a lot of consolation to me, and I want to thank the ones responsible for sending the paper to me.

I am liking the army better all the time. I have been appointed physical education instructor for the 44th Supply Squadron. I am hoping we will be stationed here, for it certainly is a fine place.

Tell everyone hello, and write to me.

Sincerely,
Jack Hackler.

War-Time Care For Your Car!

Tires should be switched if they have not been in the past 3,000 miles and should be thoroughly checked for nicks and cuts. Repair of those minor damages may mean thousands more miles for the driver who cannot replace his tires. Another "mileage insurance policy" is correct wheel alignment. A simple check-up and adjustment may be the means of prolonging tire life many months.

Radiator hose and fan belt will bear checking at this season, also, while brakes, which in winter months are so constantly in use, should be inspected by a competent mechanic.

To prevent motor knock and to realize full gas economy, Chevrolet owners should have octane selectors reset. This is done as a courtesy service.

This spring and summer the new emphasis upon conservation of those materials vital to the military demands that every motorist operate his car at peak efficiency. A motor tune-up is advisable to make sure your car is not wasting gas or oil.

Driving a car that operates economically is more than just good common sense today; it is a patriotic duty and represents another "contribution to victory" that those behind the lines can make.

Dear Buford,

Just a few lines to let you know that I appreciate getting the home town paper. I like to know what is going on back home and I think that goes for all the other boys, too.

I have been in the army two years and have been in seven different states.

They are giving out a few passes now and then, and I hope to see all the home town folks again soon.

I want to thank you again for the paper.

Sincerely yours,
Carl Shipman.

Dear Buford,

I hope this finds you and all the good old home town folks well and happy. I am sure all of you worry a little, and everything doesn't seem like it did in the good old days, but, I am sure there are brighter days ahead, so I guess we will just all have to wait and look forward to them and do the best we can now.

I thought I would just drop you a line thanking you for sending me the Review. I have been receiving it every week, and you have no idea how much I enjoy it, and I am sure all the other boys feel the same as I do about it. I really have enjoyed the nice letters to the boys in the service which have been written by citizens of the community. It makes one feel good to know that all the folks back home are thinking of us. I really miss all of you, and hope some day I can be back among you.

I think about all the boys who have gone across. I feel just like I am not doing a thing sitting down here, although we work all the time. I wish I were over there with them, and I hope before long I will be. Since we have to do it, I am ready to do my part.

I have transferred to headquarters and service troop, have traded my horse for a jeep in other words. I like it a lot better than I did my horse.
