September 14 Creates Wind Erosion Conservation District

First Contingent CCC Enrollees Arrive In Perryton Monday

Ochiltree State Park Site

Ochiltree county citizens are awaiting with interest the visit of Col. R. O. Whiteaker, chief engineer of the Texas State Parks Board, to Perryton the latter part of this month, to make a preliminary survey of the Ochiltree State Park site and make arrangements for the final engineering work necessary for the preparation of plans for improvement.

The above photograph of the park site was taken from the old Indian lookout point located just outside the southwest corner of the park site near the old buried city. The picture shows beautiful Wolf Creek winding its tortuous way through the park from the northwest corner to the southeast corner of the section included in the park area.

The site for this park was purchased by Ochiltree county from Mrs. Mattie Branham. It is the home section of the old J. T. Fryer ranch and since the days of buffalo has been a place of importance in Ochiltree county history. The land is now deeded to the Texas State Parks Board and has received the approval of the National Parks Service for improvement to start October 1, 1935. A CCC camp will be located on the site and all labor and materials will be furnished by the federal government, improvements to be under the supervision and direction of the Texas State Park Board. A dam will be constructed across Wolf Creek at natural dam site near the east line of the section. This dam will impound sufficient water to make a lake covering 100 acres of ground. Other improvements will be made to make it the recreation spot of this entire North Panhandle country.

FREE PROGRAM IS FEATURE OF ANNUAL EVENT

Chamber of Commerce Offers Free Entertainment to Visitors On Anniversary Day

City Was Founded In 1919

Large Crowd Is Expected Here For Observance of Perryton's Sixteenth Birthday Party

It takes more than depression, dry weather and crop failures to keep the Perryton Chamber of Commerce from giving their annual free celebration commemorating the birth of the City of Perryton on August 22, 1919.

Plans for the 16th birthday party to be staged next Thursday have been formulated by C. E. Whippo, general chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee. In addition to Mr. Whippo, the following are members of the general committee: R. H. Prewitt, J. H. Woodward, I. R. Buchanan, and Sam Hergert.

The program this year as in the past, is free to all spectators and is presented with the compliments and best wishes of the business and professional men of Perryton who are members of the Chamber of Commerce. Funds for the expenses of the party are provided from the regular annual budget of the Chamber.

The program starts at 10:00 a. m., when a big program of foot races, tricycle races, and contests for boys age 6 to 18, will be on Main Street. A total of $15.00 in cash will be given to the winning contestants.

At the same hour of the contest for the boys, 10:00 a. m., the official Horse Shoe pitching contest to decide the champion players of this area will start. Appropriate prizes will be awarded the winners.

In the afternoon at two o'clock, a free baseball game between the Perryton club and the Sunray Oilers will be played. Remember the 10 inning, 1-0 game last year between Perryton and Phillips '66." Well, the hope is that many of the players of last year's stellar game will be members of the opposing clubs this year. The game will be played at Powers Field, north of the Santa Fe tracks. The celebration committee has put up a $50.00 purse for the winning team.

The free horse program starts at 4:00 p. m., at Powers Field immediately after the conclusion of the baseball game. $40.00 in added money to the entry fees will be divided between the winning owners.

The Perryton Municipal Band, under the direction of W. I. Byron, will provide music for the celebration with regular concert periods in the morning, afternoon and evening.

Uniformed Boy Scouts from the Perryton troops will assist the regular city police in directing traffic and handling the crowds at the various events. Free ice water drinking facilities will be provided in the downtown district and at Powers Field.

The Chamber of Commerce program will close in the evening with the gigantic free fireworks display which will start at 8:30 p. m., at Powers Field. The committee has gone to the great expense in securing this part of the program and more money has been expended for this than any other part of the free program.

Additional attractions provided for the thousands of visitors that will be in Perryton for the "Sweet Sixteen" party are the showing of "The Irish in Us," at the Ellis Theatre, Perryton's cool, comfortable moving picture place that is the best in the North Panhandle.

Dances will be held on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Donley Hall, with the Manila Serenaders, a 10-piece Filipino orchestra providing the music.

CELEBRATION EDITION OF HERALD 46 PAGES

The Herald comes to you this week with a 46 page edition, issued in commemoration of the 16th anniversary of the founding of the City of Perryton. This is the largest paper ever issued by the Herald or by any other newspaper in the history of Ochiltree county. It represents hours and days and nights of hard work on the part of the Herald staff and mechanical force.

And it also represents a wonderful spirit of cooperation on the part of the business people of Perryton without their assistance by the purchase of advertising space, this edition would not have been possible. To them the Herald force wants to say, "Thanks."

A limited number of extra copies are available at the Herald office. The price is five cents per copy. We think that this edition is good enough to mail to your friends and relatives at distant points. If you want extra copies, come early.

Clint Small Explains Soil Erosion Program

Panhandle soil conservation districts will be eligible to sponsor WPA projects if organized in time to come under that program, according to Senator Clint C. Small, author of the soil conservation bill passed by the legislature this spring.

Districts are to be organized co-extensive of the different counties and the Panhandle-Plains counties have until October 31 to incorporate to take advantage of the various phases of the law.

The bill provides for rebate of all state 1935 and 1936 ad valorem taxes on property in Dallam, Hartley, Oldham, Deaf Smith, Sherman and Moore counties, and for half of the state taxes in Lipscomb, Hansford, and Ochiltree counties.

If all of these counties organize in soil conservation districts the total of the taxes rebated to counties will be approximately $200,000.

The law also provides for diverting 20 per cent of the automobile fees accrued in each of these counties to repairing wind damage to roads and right-of-ways.

Under the soil conservation law, the county judge and the commissioners in any county will have charge of administering the affairs of the district created for the county.

Their powers are wide and varied, sufficiently so that they can eliminate red tape and take emergency action to stop ravages of the wind and dust.

Another liberal provision in the law states that the petition of 50 qualified tax-paying voters can cause an election to be held. A ma-

ELLIS THEATRE IS BEST PICTURE THEATRE IN NORTHEAST PANHANDLE

Citizens of Perryton are very proud of the Ellis Theatre and point this beautiful and luxurious showhouse out to visitors with pardonable pride. The Ellis is easily the outstanding theatre of the North Panhandle, both in the appointments and equipment of the theatre and in the high quality of the pictures shown.

The Ellis was built in 1929 by Carl Ellis, who had been owner and operator of the American Theatre for a number of years. The American is still owned and operated by the Ellis concern.

Only the very latest of projection and sound equipment is used at the Ellis. Two simplex machines, magarc lamp houses, air washed cooling system, and a complete Western Electric sound system are a few of the items for which the Ellis management has expended thousands of dollars in order to give their patrons the best of entertainment.

The theatre has a seating capacity of 900, including the balcony. Only the very latest of pictures are run. It is not uncommon to see pictures at the Ellis before they are shown in Amarillo, Wichita and other larger cities.

The theatre is under the direct management of Virby Conley who has been a resident of Ochiltree county for 29 years. Mr. Conley has been in the show business for 6 years and has been head of the Ellis since the opening day. He is assisted in the management by his wife, who is also cashier. Mrs. Conley is a daughter of B. S. Ellis, pioneer county ranchman. Mr. and Mrs. Conley have made a decided success of the picture business and it is due to their efficient management that this showhouse is so outstanding.

Employees of the Ellis are Larue Norris, operator; C. B. Fuller, assistant operator; and Roy Symons.

The Lesson-Sermon includes also

Sweet Shop in the Perryton Hotel Building is Popular Place With Younger People

The Wolford Sweet Shop, located at 319 South Main St., is a very popular place with the younger set of Perryton and vicinity. Much of the success and popularity of this establishment is due to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wolford, who own and personally operate the business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolford came to Perryton in December, 1930 from Clayton, New Mexico, where they had lived for many years. Mr. Wolford operated a cleaning and pressing shop in Clayton for 14 years.

Watch Summer Foods

State Health Officer Brown In Warning Against Contamination Foods in Hot Weather

Austin, Texas. It is a matter of vital importance, particularly during the warm summer season, that sanitary measures be applied to prevent the contamination of perishable foods, stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Various intestinal disorders result from food which has in some way been rendered unwholesome. Summer diarrhea or "summer complaint," affecting young and old, is a serious type of stomach and bowel condition. So called "ptomaine poisoning," in nearly all cases, is none other than a food infection due to the presence in food of harmful bacteria or germs.

Perishable food, if contaminated, endangers human health. This hazard is greater in warm weather, because germs or their products multiply or develop more rapidly at high temperature. Some of the most valuable foods are of perishable nature. Such foods demand the exercise of safeguards. Among well known precautions, which need to be used if perishable foods are to be kept wholesome, are the following:

1. Some form of modern refrigeration or cooling is necessary to preserve food from day to day. Lack of an effective cooling process causes meat to spoil and milk to contain a dangerously large number of bacteria.

2. Resort to thorough cooking or boiling is the simplest and yet most useful method of preventing illness of food-borne character. This precaution applies especially to food prepared for infants and children.

3. Contamination of perishable food is avoided through the constant exercise of cleanliness on the part of those who handle food.

4. Pastries and other food products make a far greater appeal to the consumer or patron if there is an entire absence of flies. Adequate provision for screens and application of every known means of fly and insect extermination are worthwhile.

The rewards of improved sanitation include tangible assets in good health and sound business.

Want CCC Enrollees Now

Young Men Eligible For CCC Camps Are Urged to Register With County Administrator

Austin, Young men throughout Texas eligible for Civilian Conservation Corps enlistment have been advised by State Enrollment Supervisor Neal E. Guy to make themselves known to their county administrators if they are interested in being among the 16,000 to be enrolled by August 31.

Guy advised county administrators of their quotas and asked that they examine their relief rolls for probable enrollees, with the possibility that quotas will be increased when administrators show enough CCC candidates to warrant.

An eligible candidate is any single man between 18 and 28 whose family is on the relief rolls.

While administrators were asked to search their rolls for probable enrollees, Guy suggested that the young men themselves notify their administrator if they are eager to enroll in the CCC.

Approximately 16,000 Texans are to be enrolled by August 31, with about 10,000 expected to be sent to out-of-state camps, Guy said. Out-of-state assignments are made because Texas camps already have their quotas, while camps in some of the other states have not, he explained.

Enrollment will be made at intervals during the next month, and enrollment instructions have already been issued to the first allotment of 3224.

Forty-three new camps are being built in Texas, bringing the total in this state to 96. Approximately 30,000 Texans will be in the CCC by August 31.

Continue FERA Work?

Acceptable FERA Projects to be Continued to Completion Under WPA Program

Austin, August 10.—What will happen to Federal Emergency Administration projects as the FERA employables are transferred to the Works Progress Administration rolls has been explained by J. B. Keely, chief engineer for the Texas Relief Commission.

The projects are to be re-estimated and, if acceptable, transmitted to the WPA, which is expected to complete them, Keely said. In some cases, the workers on a FERA project will be transferred with the project, and activity will not be halted.

Also, Keely pointed out, proposed projects which local communities have sponsored but which have not yet been accepted by the FERA, should be submitted through the proper channels by the FERA of employable relief they are transferred

Included in this contract are lubricants for battleships, submarines, destroyers, airplane carriers and airplanes, motor cars, trucks, tanks, tractors, etc.

Due to the vast 5th TIME! Public Works program and improved types of automotive and aircraft equipment used, the Navy this year called for a wider range of lubricants and more stringent many specifications. As before, the contract was awarded Sinclair on the basis of lowest service cost as determined by Navy Work-Factor tests and competitive bids.

FORD V-8

You can drive it 50 miles an hour the day you buy it

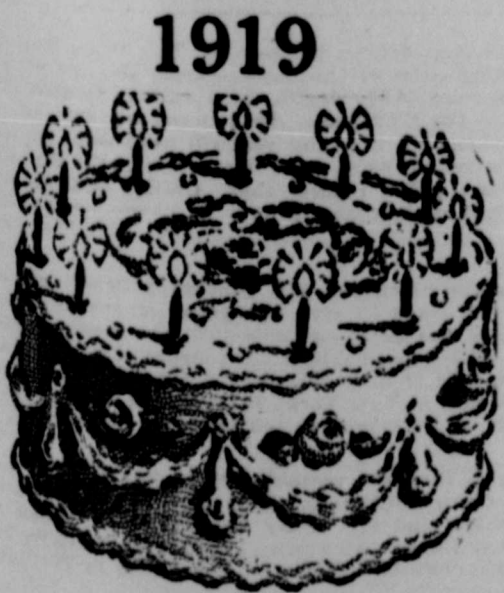

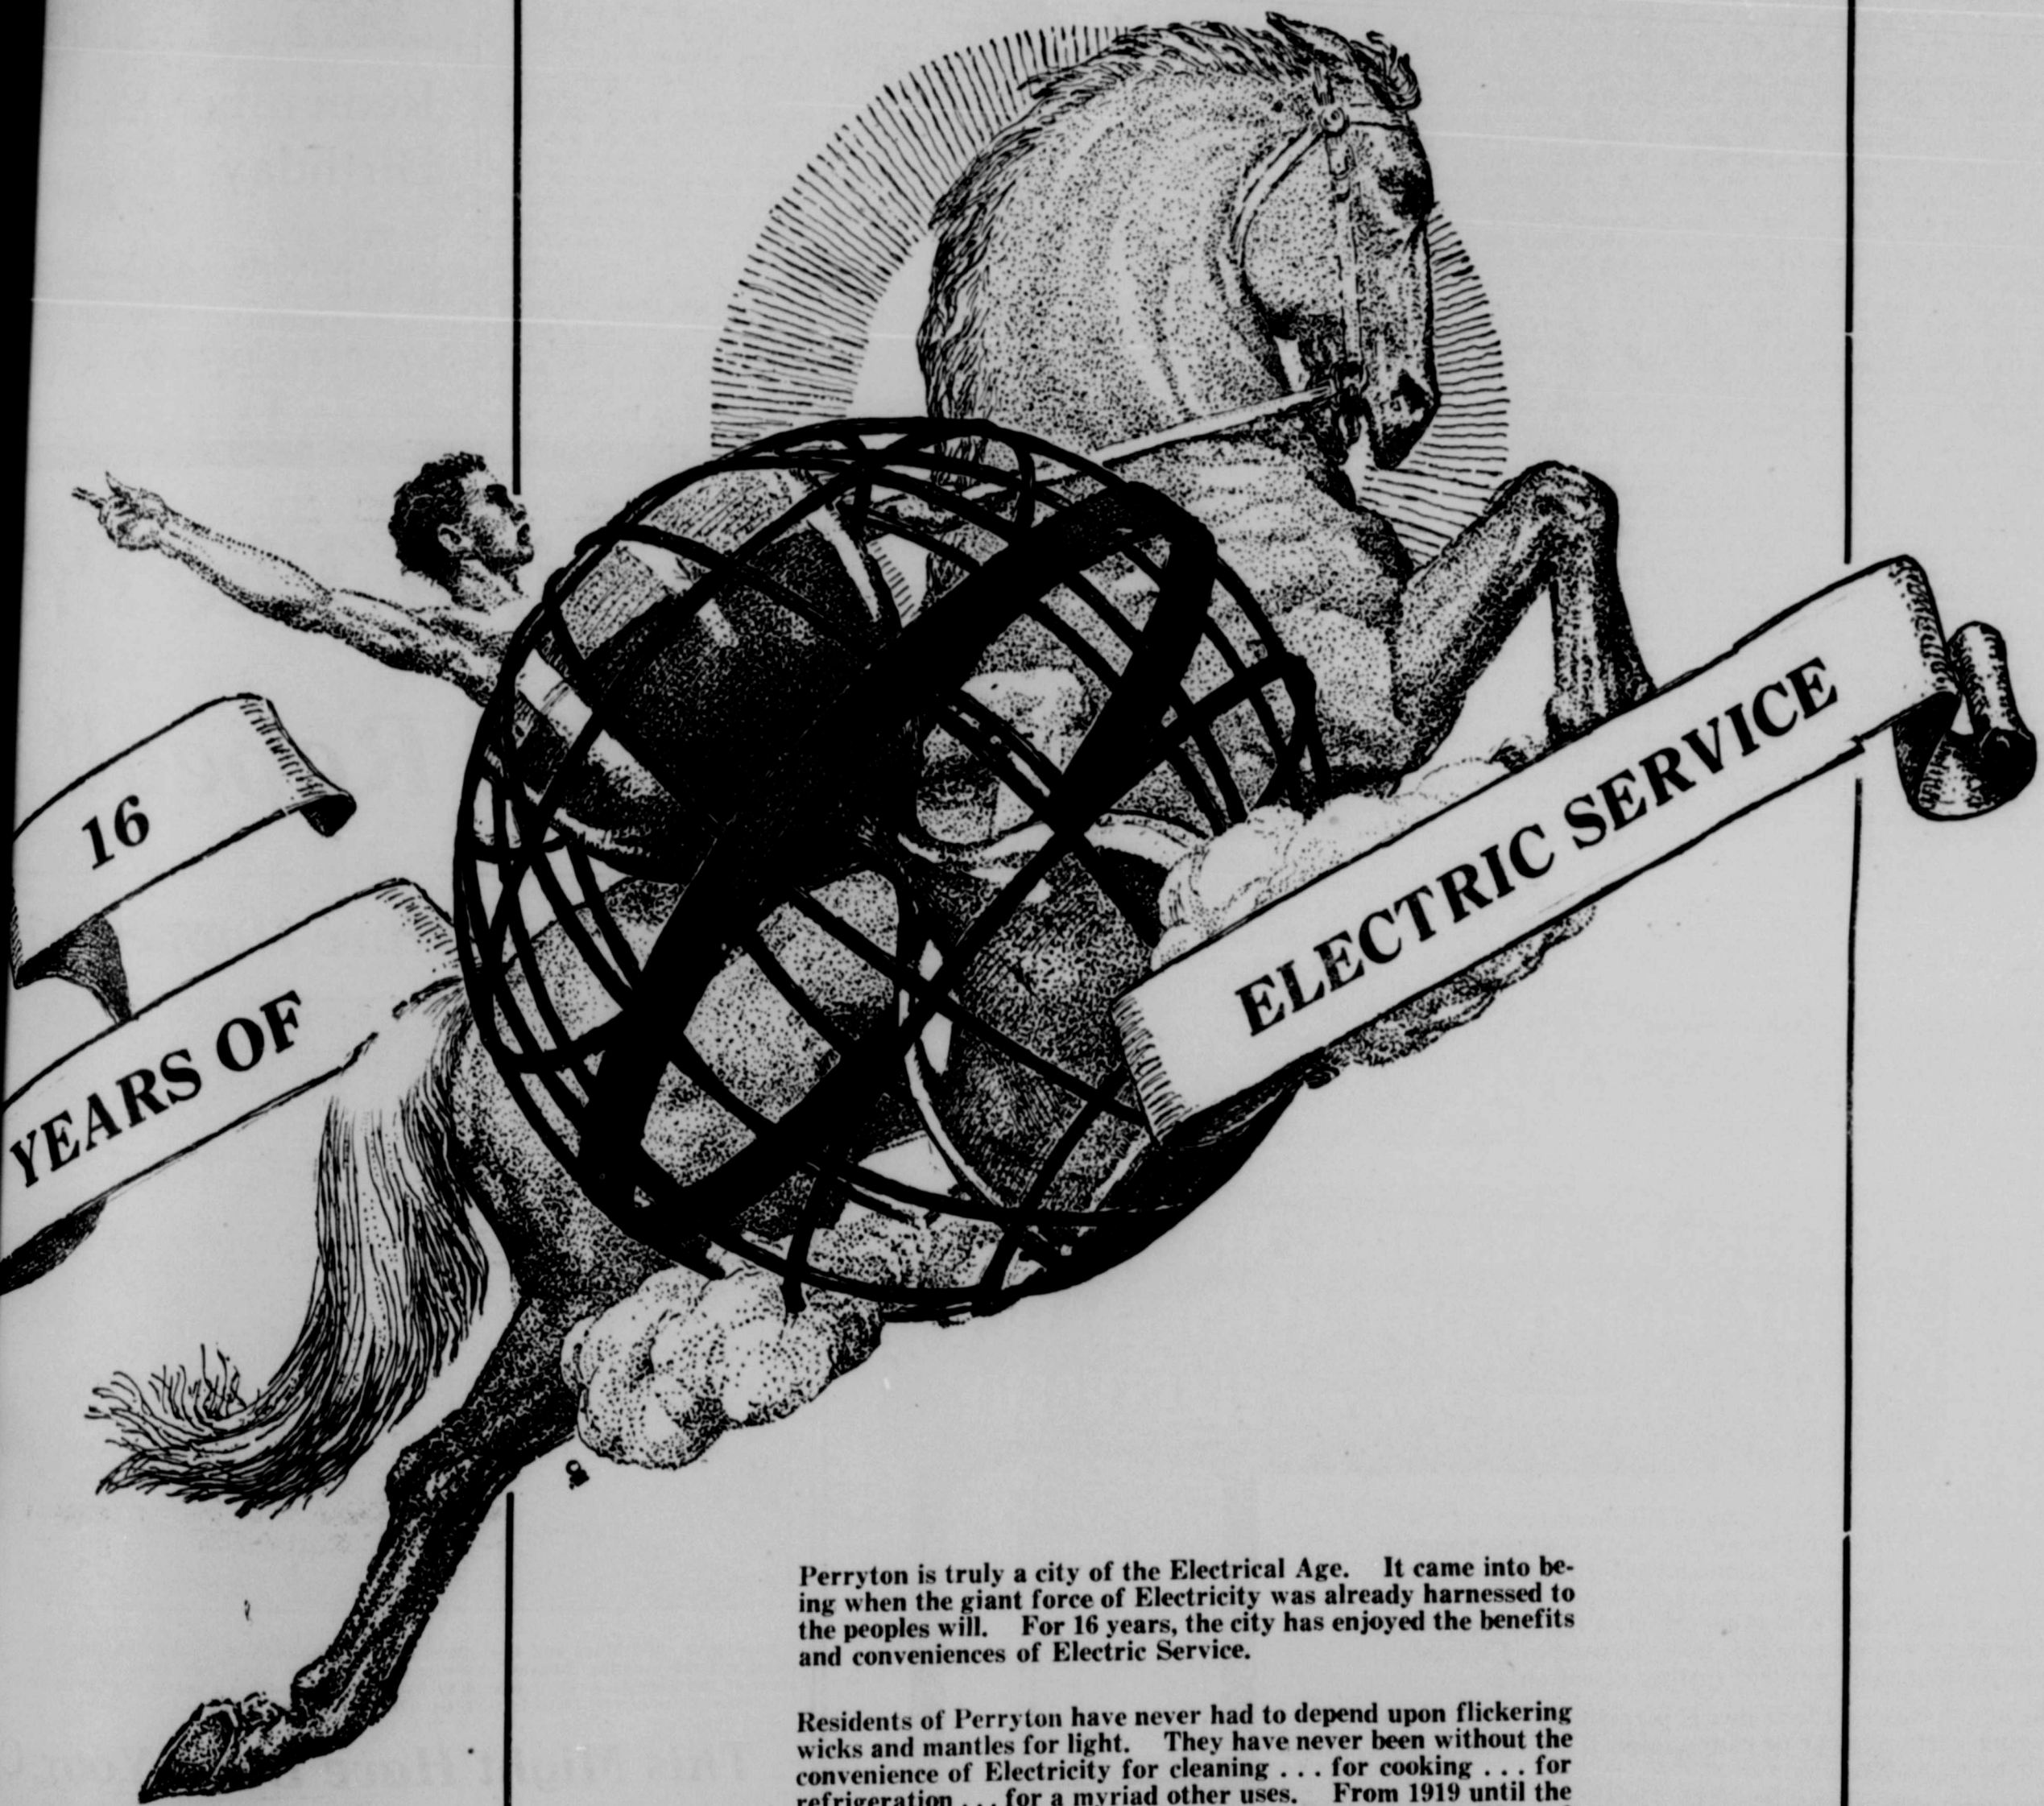

THE FORD V-8 is ready for normal driving when you buy it. There is no tedious period of breaking-in for 500 or 1000 miles. You can drive it up to 50 miles an hour the first day. And after the first hundred miles you can drive it as fast as you desire.

That means greater motoring enjoyment for every motorist. It is especially important to motorists who are thinking about a new car for a vacation trip — to physicians, salesmen and all those who use a car for business. Instead of dragging along at slow speeds for days, you can make good time from the start.

The reason for this is as important as the result. The Ford V-8 needs no breaking-in because of unusual accuracy in the manufacture of moving parts and the smoothness of bearing surfaces. Clearances are correct when you buy the car. It is not necessary to depend on a long wearing-in period to eliminate tightness and insure smooth running. Longer life, greater economy and better performance are bound to result from such precision methods. The Ford V-8 gives you fine-car construction, along with fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty.

Voters of Texas will go to the polls on August 24 to vote for or against seven amendments to the state constitution. Texans have a habit of voting against all changes in the constitution. This is not smart. In fact the voter that goes to the polls with the intention of voting against all constitutional amendments on the assumption that "what was good enough for Texas 100 years ago is good enough today," is either just plain ignorance or is letting his pride in the founders of Texas overrule better judgment. Every citizen should give intelligent thought to the merits and demerits of these proposed changes in the constitution. No doubt some are good and some should be rejected. But constitutions become old and antiquated just as individuals, methods and transportation and communication, dwellings, and everything else. It is utter foolishness to take the stand that a 100 year old constitution should not be changed. The sooner the constitution of the United States and most of the states are replaced with modern instruments, the sooner this nation will get on a sensible working basis.

Amendment No. 1 provides for the payment of a state pension of $15.00 per month to every citizen of Texas over the age of 65 years, excluding inmates of state institutions, habitual criminals and drunkards, and a few other individuals. No restriction is made as to means of support and under the amendment any person, over age 65, even though he may be a millionaire, is eligible for the pension. We would favor and support an old age pension if the needy and the needy only were to receive the benefits. But we cannot support this amendment and see the taxpayers of Texas contribute to thousands of people who are able to support themselves. It will bankrupt the state.

Amendment No. 2 provides that allegedly insane persons can be committed to an institution for a period of observation not to exceed 90 days, without an insanity trial by jury. There is merit to this change in the constitution. If at the end of observation period, the patient shows no improvement then they can be legally declared insane and commitment made. If their condition shows improvement, they do not have the stigma and disgrace of an insanity verdict by jury hanging over their heads for the remainder of their lives.

Amendment No. 3 provides for the repeal of the prohibition laws of the state. This is a highly controversial question and one that plenty can be justly said on both sides. We admit many things that the "repealists" say is true. We admit they are right when they say that open saloons are allowed to run in many places in Texas without any revenue to the state. We admit that liquor should be sold in establishments that are under the direct control of the government but who ever heard of the government controlling the liquor business. Seems like we have heard of the liquor interests cutting some mighty big swaths politically. While making no pretensions as to being an ardent "dry," we expect to vote against repeal and in our opinion Texas will turn down repeal. But which ever way it goes, the liquor question in Texas is going to be in healthier condition. If the state goes wet, then illegal whiskey joints will have to go out of business, just as, regardless of what the dries say, moonshine liquor is rapidly becoming a thing of the past since national repeal. On the other hand, if the voters decide against repeal, we are predicting that Governor Alfred and Attorney-General Bill McGraw, and Adjutant-General Carl Nesbitt, are going to accept this election as a mandate of the people of Texas and really start a drive that will put the illegal vender of both moonshine and legal U. S. tax paid whiskey out of business. If officials, from the highest to the lowest in the nation, had made an honest effort to enforce prohibition, the United States would never have voted for repeal.

Amendment No. 4 provides that special sessions of the legislature be empowered to submit constitutional amendments. Under the present constitution, proposed amendments can only be offered from regular sessions. Personally, we can see no reason why such proposals cannot come from a special called sessions. The legislators are our officially elected representatives, and they are supposed to be just as intelligent and capable of working out proposed constitutional amendments at called as at regular sessions.

Amendment No. 5 in our opinion should be passed. It provides that courts having original jurisdiction of criminal actions, be given the power, after conviction, to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant upon probation and to reimpose the sentence under such conditions as may be prescribed by the legislature. In other words, persons found guilty of criminal offenses, may be sentenced, but the court can suspend the sentence, subject to recall and infliction of sentence, if convicted party does not reform.

Amendment No. 6 provides that in counties of 20,000 or more population: and in counties of 20,000 and under by action of commissioners' court, the fee system of payment of county and precinct officers may be abolished and such officers compensated for their services on a salary basis. We believe this amendment should be supported and adopted.

Amendment No. 7 provides for the furnishing of free text books to all children of the state, regardless of whether they are students in public or private schools. While we are against this amendment, yet there are some good points to the proposed change. This amendment makes possible the allotment of state school funds on a daily attendance basis. Under existing regulations, state school funds are distributed on a scholastic census basis. In West Texas, the native white population is 16% greater than the rest of the state. We have but little negro and Mexican population, hence our scholastic population is proportionally less and our enrollment and average daily attendance is proportionally greater than the rest of the state. West Texas has around 29 percent of the scholastic population of the state, while our enrollment and average daily school attendance runs from 32 percent to 35 percent of the state's total. Hence, if this amendment is passed West Texas will secure from 3 percent to 6 percent more school funds than in the past 40 years. On the basis of a $30,000,000 available school fund this year, West Texas schools would receive from $900,000 to $1,500,000 more than in past years. Think this over! The advantages of the extra school money to West Texas may be much greater than the injustice of furnishing free text books to schools other than those in the public system. If private and parochial schools get the free textbooks, their next move will be for a "cut-in" on money to pay teachers and other expenses of operation.

Herald want-ads bring results.

BYERLY HURT IN CAR WRECK AT PANHANDLE

Rev. L. O. Byerly, pastor of the First Christian church, Borger, and two other occupants of his car escaped serious injury in an automobile accident at 4 o'clock last Saturday morning in Panhandle. Byerly suffered a sprained left arm.

Carl Crepps and Miss Jacqueline Kimsey were with the pastor when the car they were riding in struck a truck parked in the middle main street. Byerly said that he accepted all the blame, as he was unable to see because of rain and heavy mist. Crepps and Miss Kimsey were shaken up but were otherwise uninjured.

The truck and automobile were damaged considerably in the crash, which occurred as the coach, driven by Byerly, struck the truck at a speed of about 25 miles an hour. It is the custom to park in the middle of the street in Panhandle. Le Roy Carhart owns the truck.

The Borgans were returning from Chama, New Mexico. Mrs. Byerly and Mildred Kelly were also in the car.

THE PERRY STUD

Paying The Price Of Repeal!

This Might Have Happened Here

One helpless child killed and two others seriously injured when a drunken driver swerved his car off the street and ran over the children who were seated on the curb. The above is a picture taken at the scene of the horrible accident caused by liquor. It happened in a nearby Panhandle city but such occurrences since repeal. THIS IS ONE OF THE COSTS OF REPEAL.

This Might Have Been Your Child

1. The cost in deaths at the hands of drunken drivers is alarming. The Census Department increase of 702 more traffic deaths in 68 leading cities of the nation during the first wet year as the last year before repeal. Last year there were 36,000 deaths from automobile accidents, 4,500 in 1931, the highest fatalities of any year before the Eighteenth Amendment was repealed. Add to these 882,000 injured, many of whom were maimed for life, and you will understand the terrible injuries and deaths from drunken drivers increased 400% in Chicago during the first half of the year compared to the same period of 1933. New Orleans police report that traffic fatalities increased first six months after repeal. Los Angeles had an increase of 95% in arrests for drunken driving legislation of liquor.

2. The cost in the increase of drinking is also alarming. The Statistical Department of every U. S. with a population of 100,000 or more was asked to give reports on arrests for drunkenness. It showed that there was an increase in 84% of the cities and only 16% who showed no increase. The Tribune, a dripping wet paper, says: "The first year of repeal, the amount of liquor consumed increased $80,000,000 and in the same year the sale of milk decreased $70,000,000. The first three months of repeal showed an increase of 55.5% in drunkenness in New York; 95.5% in Los Angeles; 40% in Denver. Those who walk the streets of Perryton can tell the same story here.

3. Instead of cleaning out the bootleggers as the wets promised, there has been an increase. Choate, Jr., Director of the Federal Alcohol Control Administration says: "Bootleggers are more numerous than they were before prohibition was repealed, and the rising flood of outlaw liquor is apparent. Denver Post says: "Bootlegging has increased almost twice since last August." The Portland Oregon State Liquor Commissioner said recently that only one-fourth of liquor sold in Portland is legal.

4. Unemployment has increased since repeal. The American Federation of Labor estimates that in 1933, just before repeal, there were 11,630,000 unemployed, while in November, 1934, with repeal a year old, the number has increased to 11,459,000, or an increase of 420,000.

Now's the Time TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS

Celebration Day reminds us that another year has rolled around and that there is a bit of cleaning up that we would like to do for the birthday party.

Let's brighten up the walls with a new coat of paint or with one of our many beautiful patterns of wall paper. Then too, the floors may have a dull finish. Let's give them a coat of clear floor varnish and bring back the original lustre that they had when the floors were brand new.

You would be surprised how much easier your house work would be with a built-in cabinet in the kitchen and the most surprising thing is the low cost of them.

Take up your needs with us! We shall be only too glad to help you with your problems. Estimates cheerfully given! WE APPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS!

LET'S FORGET OUR WORRIES ON AUGUST 22 AND ALL CELEBRATE TOGETHER!

Farm Land Owners, The Government SLASHES INTEREST RATES

Cooperates In Movement To Speed Recovery and Help Farmers

The interest rate on all Federal Land Bank Loans made through the Ochiltree National Farm Loan Association was reduced to 3 1-2 per cent for all interest payable in the one year period commencing July 1, 1935; the rate was lowered to 4 per cent for all interest payable in the two-year period, commencing July 1, 1936.

Interest payable on installment dates occurring after June 30, 1938, will be at the original rates at which the money was loaned by the Ochiltree National Farm Loan Association.

This action, which was provided for in the Farm Credit Act of 1935, is of tremendous importance to farm land owners in Ochiltree county. Formerly the Land Bank Commissioner could make loans only for the purpose of refinancing debts, for repurchasing farms lost through foreclosure and for purpose of refinancing debts.

Another line of credit is open through this association now. It may make loans to finance the purchase of farms by deserving tenant farmers. If you can qualify in this classification, you should let this association see if it can assist you. Young farmers, who are willing to work hard and try to get ahead, now have a wonderful opportunity through the offer of the government.

No reduction has been made in interest rates for Land Bank Commissioner Loans, which will remain unchanged at 5 per cent. With these loans up to 75 per cent of the appraised value, there should be many young farmers make the effort to become land owners.

Be assured this association wants to help our old borrowers and it invites correspondence and consultation with others needing our services. This association has been of tremendous value to this county in recent years, and we appreciate the opportunity to extend our services.

PAMPA IS DISTRICT OFFICE

S. H. HAILE, DUMAS, NAMED ADMINISTRATOR OF THIS DISTRICT FOR TEXAS RELIEF SET-UP

Austin, August 10—Location of the 38 district headquarters to administer relief in Texas, supplanting the country administrative offices, and the names of the district administrators were announced last week by the Texas Relief Commission at the conclusion of a three-day training period here for district staff members.

While the county administration of relief will be completely eliminated, county offices will continue to operate until they have been replaced by the district offices, it was emphasized. Moreover, case workers will be maintained in the counties after district administration is set up and clients will not have to go outside their own county to obtain relief.

Abolishment of the county administration of relief in Texas was announced last week by State Relief Director Adam R. Johnson, who explained that curtailment of administrative costs in line with the reduced program of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration which is being partly supplanted by the Works Progress Administration, necessitated the business end of the 253 county administrator's offices being taken over by district administrators, whose staffs will administer relief over a much wider area.

Under the new set-up, allocation will continue to be made to counties, but funds will be disbursed from the district offices. County relief boards will be continued as advisory bodies.

The 38 districts are outlined according to the pattern of the Works Progress Administration districts in the state, with each WPA district with a few exceptions, divided into two FERA districts. One of these two FERA district administrator offices in each WPA district has been located when possible in the town where the latter office is now located. The other office was located in a town in the district adjudged the most convenient from all considerations. The town must furnish office and commodity storage space and pay the utility bills of the office.

The district office for Ochiltree county is located in Pampa, Texas. The district administrator is S. H. Haile. Counties in the district are Collingsworth, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Roberts and Wheeler.

Woman is Making Unusual Success of Wholesale Distributing Oil and Gas Agency

Mrs. Banks Ranson, manager of the Perryton wholesale station of The Texas Co., is making a decided success in a business which is usually dominated by men. Mrs. Ranson assumed control of the business on the death of her husband in October 3, 1934, but she has been active in its operation since they took over the agency on June 3, 1927. The Texas Co., is located at 310 West Brillhart Avenue, and are successors to an independent oil company that was operated by L. L. Lance and Luther Wade.

This concern carries a complete line of Texaco products, including Fire Chief and Indian gasoline, cup greases and all kinds of lubricants. Mrs. Ranson is a native of Texas, being born at Waxahachie.

He came to this country when just a boy of three years and served with the United States Merchant Marine before locating in Perryton 5 years ago. Lee Hull, age 23, who moved to Perryton from Knowles, Oklahoma, 6 years ago, has been bookkeeper for this establishment since April 15, 1934.

BOILERS AND ROTARY DRILLING EQUIPMENT UNLOADED AT NORRIS TEST LAST WEEK

Several truck loads of heavy boilers and rotary drilling equipment arrived at the location of the Norris farm in the Notla district early this week.

It is understood that the equipment is being installed and the drilling is to be done by the Johnson-Kemitz Drilling Company of Oklahoma City.

Rig builders have just completed the rig, casing racks, etc. and the bunk-houses, destroyed by storm last week have been rebuilt.

A number of lease and royalty men have been reported in that immediate community and there is the appearance that considerable activity may soon be seen as the operation proceeds.

Relief Roll Clients to Undergo Medical Examination on Transfer to WPA

Austin, August 10—In what physical shape unemployed Texans weathered the depression will be revealed from medical examinations to be given them as they are transferred from the Federal Emergency Relief Administration rolls to the Works Progress Administration rolls. Mrs. Val M. Keating, social service director, has announced.

Examinations will be made under direction of the advisory committee of the various county medical societies throughout the State.

Only persons immediately in line for work on a WPA project will be examined first, with examinations for others to follow as the WPA increases its activities.

There are approximately 140,000 employable persons in the state to be transferred to WPA rolls.

... all He wanted to do was sell tomatoes
but He helped make You HEALTHY
the Year
'Round !

NOT SO many years ago the round, red fruit of a certain vine was called a "love-apple." A man in his right mind would no more eat it than he would go out and munch a toadstool. It was supposed to kill you at the very first bite! Then some hardy soul decided to "bite and see!" And so the delicious tomato was introduced to a hungry world.

But news of the new tomato traveled very slowly. Your children might not be keeping healthy with it today if a grocer somewhere in an old-fashioned town hadn't been "stuck" with a barrel or two. Faced with a loss if they rotted, he threw discretion to the winds and ran an ad in the paper.

"TOMATOES FOR SALE. This fine new fruit said to be excellent for the health and complexion. I have a choice few. Fifteen cents apiece."

Mr. Grocer sold the lot, ordered more, sold those and presently was able to cut his price in half and then some while babies waxed fat on tomato juice.

CONVENIENCES GRANDMA NEVER DREAMED OF

As with tomatoes so with vacuum cleaners, safety razors, oil burners and the latest hat from Paris. The merchants who advertise them to you have no burning desire to make this world a healthier, smarter, more leisurely place to live in. They want to sell vacuum cleaners, safety razors, oil burners and lovely hats—and advertising is the best way to do it. But their advertising has told you about a lot of things you'd hate to be without today. Their advertising has introduced you to comforts and conveniences your grandmother never dreamed of! And—because all wise buyers read advertising—Mr. Merchant sells more advertised goods and can keep on lowering the price to you.

Reads like a romance, doesn't it? But you can prove it for yourself. As you check through the ads in the Herald today just count the number of things that make life pleasant which you might never have heard about if you hadn't "seen them in the ads." And count the number of things you'd like to buy but couldn't afford (like tomatoes at fifteen cents apiece) if advertising hadn't made them so cheap and plentiful.

Perhaps you'll agree—we could get along without advertising—along with tomatoes and fountain pens and electric fans and swell silk stockings at 69c.

But, honest—wouldn't it be a tiresome old world?

Advertising Is Just One Function Of Your Newspaper

Another important duty is to collect, assemble, write and print the news events of the week . . . news that you can find only in your home town newspaper because no other publication on the face of the earth thinks it important enough to tell when you have company, when Mr. Smith is ill and Mrs. Jones has a new baby. Homely news about you and your neighbors.

A staff of trained workers are at your call. They'll gladly start working for you and all they ask is $1.50 per year for their services, 52 weeks for less than 3c per week. Won't you let us put your name on our subscription list?

Ochiltree County Furnished Over One Hundred Men For World War Service

FOUR OR OCHILTREE'S FIRST CONTINGENT OF 11 MEN ARE STILL LIVING IN THE COUNTY

It almost seems impossible that a county so sparsely settled as Ochiltree county at the time of the World War could have furnished over 100 men for service with the United States Army and Navy, but such was the case. The following list of men that went from this county for service in the war was furnished us by Sheriff J. S. Talley. A small portion of this list was compiled from memory but the greater part of it was taken from the records of the Selective Service Board. The latter part is correct but there may be some additions. If any reader of the Herald knows of any veteran who lived in Ochiltree county at the time of his entrance into service whose name is not listed below, we would like very much to have his name added to this list. Members of the Ochiltree County Selective Service Boards during the trying days of 1917 and 1918 were J. S. Talley, and R. T. Correll who served as chairmen; and A. L. Carter, H. C. Coffeen; and Dr. J. C. May, Dr. W. J. Brewer, and the late Dr. J. T. Guthrie, who served at different times during the war period.

OCHILTREE'S FIRST CONTINGENT TO THE WORLD WAR

This picture of Ochiltree county's first contingent to be inducted into the service was taken at Old Ochiltree on September 21, 1917, the day they left to join the army. Two of the boys in this group did not return. Thomas Waters, Jr. died in Camp Travis and taps were sounded for James Floyd Goodall at Camp Bowie. Of the nine veterans who came back, only four of them, R. B. Yoakley, Fred Traylor, Wes Apple, and Lloyd Furnish are residents of this county today. Reading from left to right they are: Wes M. Apple, Earl Chambers, William Newton Noggle, Ralph Evert Parnell, Thomas Waters, Jr., James Floyd Goodall, Fred Earl Traylor, Lloyd Furnish, Daniel Cooper Agee, Richard Byrles Yoakley, and David C. Wright.

Men who went from Ochiltree county for service were:

Claude Stevens, William Newton Noggle, Emory Pierce Cotner, David C. Wright, Daniel Cooper Agee, Loyd Furnish, Jack Rice Allen, Roscoe Daniel Thompson, Alvin Brazell, Albert Roy Painter, Thurman Harrison Talley, William Boyd Dooley, Peter W. WATERSHED PROJECT APPROVED

30,000 ACRES INCLUDED IN DEMONSTRATIONAL AND EDUCATIONAL AREA IN OKLAHOMA

A letter received August 8 from Dr. N. E. Winters of Stillwater, Regional Director of the Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, bears the good news that he has received instructions from Washington that the area north of Guymon in the Pony Creek Watershed has been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture for a new demonstrational and educational area for the Soil Conservation Service with headquarters in Guymon.

Dr. Winters states that maps showing the approximate boundaries of the approved area to receive this work this fiscal year will be forwarded here within the next few days, and will be started as soon as offices, personnel, equipment and supplies have been arranged for.

Dr. Winters does not state whether the plans as originally outlined by him have been adopted for this work, but it is presumed that is the case. If so, the project will cover a period of two years and its estimated cost will be in the neighborhood of $200,000.00. Something over 30,000 acres of good farm and pasture land was signed up by the farmers of the watershed for this purpose several months ago when the matter was introduced here—Guymon Herald.

FARMER SELLS PLUMS FOR SEED TO FOREST SERVICE

W. G. Hite, local farmer, reported that he sold 100 bushels of plums to the U. S. Forest Service. These plums were bought for the seed which are to be used in the Shelterbelt strips to be planted in Collingsworth and other counties in this section.

According to Mr. Hite, the plums were contracted by W. T. Trice, Shelterbelt Assistant, who is now working in Collingsworth County and were hauled to Chillicothe where the seed were taken from the pulp, without cooking, by relief workers at the Chillicothe Cannery. In return for the labor the cannery received the pulp and juice from the plums. It was reported that 631 quart cans of plum juice and pulp was canned for future use from the first 33 bushels hauled to the cannery.

The cleaned plum seeds were turned over to the Shelterbelt Nursery at Chillicothe for planting to

JOSH LEE MADE INDIAN CHIEF

OKLAHOMA SOLON INITIATED INTO CHIPPEWA TRIBE OF MINNESOTA AFTER DEMOCRATIC MEET

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (Special)—Oklahoma, one of the "last stands" of the Indian Brave and long a favorite haunt of the Red-man, now has an honorary Indian Chief as one of its representatives in congress.

This anomaly was disclosed when

Rep. Josh Lee, fifth district congressman, returned from Minneapolis, Minn., when he spoke Sunday of last week for the Democratic national committee, and displayed a colorful red and gray Indian head-dress made of boars' bristle.

After addressing a large gathering of the Thomas Jefferson Democratic club there, Lee was formally inducted into the Chippewa tribe of Minnesota and christened "Ogema Waub" meaning "great leader".

The ceremony was performed by a delegation of Chippewas attired in tribal dress, and at its close, a drop of blood from Lee's finger and that of each tribal member, was spilled into a cauldron of sand. Then the sand was cast ritualistically to the four directions, and the announcement made that the Oklahoma Solon was a "brother of the blood", until each particle of sand be gathered together again.

To Hold Election

Petition Circulated in Hansford County Would Create a Soil Erosion District

An election to create a soil erosion district out of Hansford county will be called at the regular meeting of the Commissioners Court next Monday. It is said by local people who are preparing a petition calling for the election. This would enable Hansford county to raise half the state taxes collected in the county, to be used as funds to fight wind soil erosion. It is anticipated that the Federal government would aid in the campaign with additional funds to carry the program to more successful conclusion.

It is stated that the election will be held at the same time the state wide election is to be held, to vote on constitutional amendments. The date is August 24.—The Spectator Reporter.

EROSION STOPPED AT DALHART PROJECT

The top photo shows how evenly water is distributed where soil is both terraced and contour listed. On such places as this there are no patches of water or any particular piece of land which will get more water than the rest. The middle scene shows where terraces have held the water from adjacent land, flooding the soil between terraces. This is considered equal of flood irrigation. At the extreme left of this photo, although not shown is a former Panhandle lake. Water in these lakes is good for ducks and not farmers. With the terraces causing the land to be flooded, as the picture shows, the moisture will be of untold benefit to the land.

Conservation Head

H. H. FINNELL

Mr. Finnell, during the years that he was director of the experiment station at the P. A. & M. College, Goodwell, Oklahoma demonstrated by actual field demonstrations and farming projects over a ten year period that erosion of Plains land can be checked and crop production increased by terracing and contour farming. He is now director of this region for the Federal Soil Conservation Service. His department has direct supervision of the work to be done by the Perryton ECW camp.

Conservation Program Available To Farmers

Superintendent

DAVID E. AUTRY

David E. Autry, superintendent of the soil and water conservation work to be done by the CCC enrollees of the Perryton ECW camp under the direction of the Federal Soil Conservation Service, Mr. Autry has been in Perryton for the past five weeks making preparations for the starting of the work that is going to mean so much to the people of this section of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Donley, Boise City, Oklahoma, were in Perryton shopping and attending to business over the week-end and were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood.

WIND EROSION CONTROL PLAN INCLUDES CONTOUR FLOWING, TERRACING, COVER CROPS, TREES

To all those interested in the permanent agricultural development of the Plains of Texas it is a hopeful indication that people generally are becoming concerned about the erosion problem. The soils, topography and climatic conditions combine to provide a well balanced complex favorable to efficient production and the permanent maintenance of a high level of soil fertility. The principal hazard which must be guarded against is the wind erosion. The proper precautions to control erosion are fundamentally embodied in the most efficient cropping system. The difficulties of wind erosion control pertain more to the community effects of neglected land and the importance of advance preparations to avoid erosion hazards, than to any extreme severity of conditions making it impossible to control. The problem of the community aided by available government services is to secure the unanimous cooperation of a large group of farmers who recognize the importance of taking every possible practical precaution against erosion.

The government in fact is unwilling to assume the responsibility for the success of half way measures. The full advantage of the ECW camp services therefore is extended to farmers desiring to complete conservation program and priority will be given the communities where a complete coverage of a considerable area can be obtained. The purpose of this preference is merely to assure the most effective results from such expenditure as the government may make in the field of soil conservation. It should be kept in mind by farmers and the public at large that type of soil cropping program, slope of the land, neighboring hazards have much to do with the determination of the actual details of a safe and effective erosion prevention program. It is therefore nec-

TERRACING PAYS BIG DIVIDENDS

HARLEY A. DANIELS OF GOODWELL EXPERIMENT STATION SAYS TERRACING PAYS BIG.

According to information obtained at the Panhandle Agricultural Experiment Station, Goodwell, Oklahoma, terracing is a paying proposition, says Harley A. Daniels, acting director. During the last ten years, terraces have increased the grain yield 36.5 per cent over the adjacent unterraced areas, or a total of 31.08 bushels. The annual average price of grain was secured from the Kansas City market, and it was found that the average yearly price was $1.03 per bushel. Based on the Goodwell data, the total increase income would be $32.01 due to terracing. According to H. H. Finnell's data at the Dalhart Station, terraces may be built for $1.50 per acre, and the extra cost of cultivating about 50c per acre. Therefore the extra expense due to terracing over the ten year period was $6.50. After deducting the total expenditures from the increased income, these data show a net cash income of $21.51 per acre, or an average of $2.56 per year.

Terracing and contour furrowing is making its way in the high plains on merits alone. Even during the very worst years, terraces have over-paid for the extra cultivation. The increase due to terracing varied from 70c to $8.50 per acre per year. In 1933 when wheat failed and a substitute cover crop of Milo was planted, the terrace gain amounted to 70c per acre. The highest percentage increase was secured during the dryer years. In 1933 the percentage increase was 166 per cent, and in 1935, 154 per cent. Although the wheat yields were low in 1935 the terraced gain was 1.98 bushels per acre, assuming 50c to be the extra cost of cultivating the terraced land and the present price of wheat the terraces this year paid a net income of $1.50 per acre.

These data show very clearly that terracing in the high plains

Twenty-eight years of faithful service is the proud achievement of The First National Bank . . . service to the people of this Panhandle country during a time when it was needed most . . . the pioneering stage.

Since its organization at Old Ochiltree in 1907, this bank has played an important part in the wonderful development which has taken place in Ochiltree County and adjoining counties. Nor have we been found wanting during the trying years of drouth and depression from which we are emerging.

When one considers the marvelous developments in all phases of human activity that have transpired in this section during the last few years one cannot but be impressed with the great ingenuity, energy, vision, forcefulness and ability of the Plains people. These are basic resources upon which any section is bound to go forward regardless of temporary periods of depression.

The establishment of the nation's banks on a sound basis; the launching of public works; the scientific approach to the solution of the agricultural problems; the economic readjustments applied to all lines of industry, have already manifested a remarkable effect on business, on re-employment, on the confidence and optimism of the public in general.

It is with a feeling of confidence that we look into the future and visualize the change that another quarter of a century will make. But regardless of time, The First National Bank pledges make. TERRACING AND CONTOUR FARMING CONSERVES RAIN

The above photograph was taken of a field in the Dalhart Experiment project and shows clearly the great value of terracing and contour farming in the holding of the moisture where it falls. None of the water is running off of this field. Every drop of this precious rain will either soak into the sub-soil or evaporate. Is it not better to have this moisture in your sub-soil than to have it running off into lakes, or creeks and thence down to the Gulf of Mexico.

DEMPSTER DRILLS

Perfect For Seeding in Dry Territories

The Dempster Drill is ideal for the seed winter wheat, in territories where there is scarcity of moisture and where land is subject to blowing. The wheat is listed in deep furrows and the wheat seeded over the flat, 9-inch row, properly covered and pressed.

The deep furrows protect the wheat from the wind and the furrows catch the snow in winter, conserving of moisture and keeping the wheat from blowing, assures a fair yield of wheat this kind of farming even in the driest territories. If properly tended, a fair crop is always assured most any year.

His parents are members of pioneer Ochiltree county families, Mrs. Glasgow being a McLarty, a family that has given many leaders to that hardy crew that transformed the home of the buffalo into a cattle range and then to a great agricultural empire.

Business Started in Midst of Depression Had Prospered From Day of Opening

J. A. Graves, better known to the many customers of his Chevrolet Super-Service Station as "Jim", is the proprietor of a business that was started in the darkest and "dullest" days of the depression. On April 22, 1933, when Graves opened his station at the Perryton Motor Co., prospects were anything but bright. The wheat crop was gone and there was no indication that a feed crop would be raised. But due to his strict attention to business and courtesy to customers, this business has been a success from the opening day.

Mr. Graves features the well known Conoco line of gas, oils, and greases. He also carries a complete stock of tires, tubes, and motor accessories. Oliver "Happy" Graves, a brother of the owner, is employed with this firm. "Happy" graduated from P. H. S. in 1933 and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Graves, who have been residents of Perryton for the past 10 years. They formerly lived on a farm near Boyd, Oklahoma, where the boys were born.

Jim Graves, who will celebrate his 28th birthday on the anniversary day of Perryton, was married to Miss Daisy May Battin. They are the parents of three children: Elmer Leon, 5; Donald Wayne, 3; and Ruth Elaine, 1. Mr. Graves is a Past Chancellor Commander of the Knights of Pythias lodge and a member of the Perryton Chamber of Commerce and the Ochiltree County Young Democratic Club. He has been connected with filling stations for 8 years.

CAGNEY-O'BRIEN PLAY IN NEW FILM, AUG 22

Warner Bros. latest comedy drama "The Irish In Us" which presents James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Frank McHugh and Olivia de Havilland at the head of an unusually popular supporting cast, has been booked as the feature production of the Ellis Theatre on Celebration Day, August 22.

The title, it is said, is based on traditional characteristics of the Irish—to alternate between laughter and tears, to jump from comedy to intense drama, to fight with those they love and love those with whom they fight.

The story itself is the story of most families—internal battles, but a common front against an outside attack.

Mary Gordon, a 55 year old Irish widow, whose leap from a job as restaurant cook to near stardom in Hollywood is in itself a romance portrays the part of an Irish mother whose three sons are Pat O'Brien, a cop; Frank McHugh, a fireman; and James Cagney, who refuses to take a steady job, but devotes himself to managing broken down prize fighters.

Ma's catering to the one non-producer of her brood keeps the family in constant turmoil, but the tempest breaks in earnest when Cagney takes O'Brien's girl, Miss de Havilland, away from him.

The scrowls and joys, the anxieties and triumphs of this little family of New York Irish folk is said to have made one of the most laughable and at the same time most touching screen dramas of the year.

In the cast are Allen Jenkins, Harvey Parry, J. Farrell MacDonald, and Thomas Jackson in addition to a number of noted prize fighters and many college athletes.

Lloyd Bacon directed from the screen play written by Earl Baldwin based on an original story by Frank Orsatti.

FRED W. HOOD AT PANHANDLE YARD

Pioneer Lumberman Came to Southwest Almost 50 Years Ago; Cofer is Assistant

Fred W. Hood, manager of the Panhandle Lumber Co., while not the oldest in years, has probably lived on the Southwest Plains longer than any business or professional man in Perryton. Born in Missouri in 1884, he came with his parents to Seward County, Kansas in 1887. They later filed on a homestead in what was then Beaver county, Oklahoma. Mr. Hood has been engaged in the lumber business all of his life being located at Guyton, Oklahoma, and other points before coming to Perryton in 1919 to open up the Summers-Hood Lumber Co.

In 1924, he sold his yard to the Panhandle Lumber Co. and assumed the management. The Panhandle have operated in this county for many years, being located at Old Ochiltree and moving their yard to Perryton when the town started. The present property of the Panhandle was the original Summers-Hood yard.

Fred Hood can be truly counted among one of the builders of Perryton for he has always been in the lead in every movement for the development of this section. Active in the Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Masonic lodge and Lions Club, he has been one of the "wheel horses" of this community. Mr. and Mrs. Hood are the parents of two children, Mrs. Marie Payne, Amherst, Texas, and George F. Hood, Floydada, Texas, both of whom are graduates of the Perryton High School.

Clyde Cofer, assistant manager of the Panhandle, is another pioneer citizen. Mr. Cofer came to Old Ochiltree in 1907, living there until 1919 when he moved to Perryton. Prior to entering the employment of the Panhandle in 1926, he engaged in the general contracting business, with the exception of a number of years when he operated a machine shop. Mr. Cofer is an expert mechanic and a civic minded citizen. He served for many years on the city council. The Panhandle is fortunate to have a man with his experience in building as a member of the yard force.

REMODEL AND REPAIR

at lowest cost -

Protect your home investment by remodeling, repairing and refinishing. Most of us have been guilty during the past few years of neglecting our homes and doing nothing in the way of repairing that wasn't absolutely necessary.

The results of this action are now very noticeable and unless we take immediate steps to correct it, we will find our fine homes permanently damaged.

You'll be agreeably surprised to learn what wonderful work can be done in the way of remodeling and general repairing, at very small cost. Perhaps your roof needs fixing; maybe it's the foundation, the doors or floor; maybe you need an additional room. If so we can suggest a way to do it and still remain within the 1935 budget.

Right now is a splendid time to repair and repaint. With winter approaching the repair work is essential. And fall has always been the best time to paint and redecorate. See us today.

REPUTATION . . .

A Reward and a Responsibility, !

It isn't hard, when business is good, to build a reputation for quality and fair dealing. Anyone can live in a house of brick, when bricks are not dear. But the temptation to let down "temporarily" under stress is a big one - - - though it's then the buyer needs protection most.

We believe, as does the Chevrolet Motor Company, that people stay loyal to those very few men and institutions who choose to remember in a crisis that protecting one's good name is a public obligation - - - a responsibility that must not be taken lightly.

Purely as a matter of sound business we have always acted on this theory. We have reason today, more than ever before, to believe it a practical, workable theory.

Our policy of not cutting quality has continued unbroken through this depression. It will, as long as our name is connected with Chevrolet Sales and Service, continue unbroken.

CCC PROGRAM

Essary that each field and pasture be considered as an individual problem and the requirements of each situation be properly and adequately met. Many an elaborate erosion prevention measure can be completely nullified by the neglect of some other important precaution necessary to complete the circle of defense.

A basic feature of erosion prevention on wheat land soils is the conservation of all available moisture. On wheat land the soil blowing is greatest after a period of clean fallow, or after a crop failure when the remains of the vegetative cover have disappeared. To avoid the loss of cover protection it is necessary to avoid crop failure. Of course, the production of a crop does not insure protection after the crop is removed, unless sufficient stubble or stalks are left in the field to hold the soil until the next crop comes on. However, with an opportunity of returning crop residues to the land each year it is made easy for the farmer to maintain control.

Proper water control by terracing and contour tillage also serves several other practical purposes. It often increases the amount of the subsoil moisture to start a new crop. It prevents the washing out or covering up the young plants by heavy rains, thus avoiding the expense of replanting. On the whole it increases the total amount of water available for crop production and not only gives more frequent favorable production opportunities but a very substantial increase in average yields.

Another very important feature of crop management designed to plug any gaps that might be left in the continuity of vegetative protection is the use of substitute and emergency cover crops to supplement the wheat planting program. Sorghums are preferred for this purpose because of their vigorous root system and tough fibrous character of the stubble material. These crops are not used regularly, but only when the disappearance of wheat residues demand that a substitute be supplied.

Thin and unproductive land where it is difficult to maintain a sequence of successful crops should be taken out of cultivation and returned to grazing before erosion damage makes it still less productive. Thereby, one of the serious erosion hazards to adjacent good farm land is permanently removed. In some cases farmers do wish to increase their pasture areas by retiring good land to grass, but this will be left optional with cooperators in the erosion control program. The government will insist on taking land out of cultivation only where it is impossible to successfully otherwise control erosion upon it.

The windbreak tree planting program will have two distinct phases. The roadside tree planting if approved by the Commissioner's Court will be carried out generally through the camp area. The farmstead shelterbelt planting done on private lands will be available to farmers cooperating fully in the general erosion control program.

The various services contributed by the Perryton camp, under the superintendency of David E. Autry, are tendered to the farmers of this community not in the light of assuming full responsibility for the control of erosion in the area, but rather in the light of assistance to the farmers who are seriously interested in mastering their own program. The main points in a complete wind erosion control program are as follows:

1. Conservative management of the erosion resisting stubbles of regularly grown crops.
2. Water conservation by terracing and contour farming to support the continuance of vegetative covering.
3. The use of substitute and emergency cover crops to fill in any unavoidable gaps in the regular cropping program.

4. The planting of trees in every favorable moisture location to serve as border protection and a general community windbreak system.

5. Emergency tillage to be used as a last resort and consisting of various operations serving to ridge or clod the surface as a temporary protection against blowing.

It will be seen from the above outline that the burden of wind erosion prevention rests upon the continued efforts of the farmer toward a crop and soil management system capable of maintaining a stabilize efficient production, a maximum utilization of current resources, and the maintenance of a permanent level of fertility. The function of the Soil Conservation Service is principally to point out opportunities not being generally utilized and rendering such assistance as available facilities of the government will permit in helping to get the conservation program started.

the citizens of this community increases. Mr. Autry is very anxious that every farmer and land owner have a thorough understanding of the part of the program that the government can do and the cooperation that will be expected from the land owner. It is very important that agreements between the cooperator and the government be signed at once so that the engineers and technicians can make surveys and prepare plans for the work that will start just as soon as the CCC enrollees arrive.

Perryton School Is Community's Biggest Asset

Every citizen of the entire Perryton area points with pride to that wonderful institution, the Perryton schools, that provide such excellent facilities for educating the youth of the county. It is no idle boast, when we say that our schools are our biggest asset. Without good schools and churches, where would we be? Perryton is fortunate in having both.

The Perryton school plant has been constructed as the town and community increased in population. The center building in the above group was built first, just a year or so after the town started. Then in a few years, as more people came in and as the city and country grew, it was necessary to add the building on the left, but in another few years, the two did not provide sufficient room, so the building of the right was erected.

The left building is now used exclusively for high school work. This building is also planned and designed for a junior college, and some day in the future, students of Perryton area will be able to obtain two years of college work at home. The center building contains the rooms for grade pupils, also the gymnasium and a large auditorium seating over a thousand people is located in the wing that extends out from the rear of this building. The north building provides rooms for the junior high, the band and the administrative offices of the school and district.

A large campus extends to the north and west from the school buildings. The lawn and shrubbery in the front of the schools is one of the show places of the city. Playgrounds with all kinds of play equipment are provided. In the rear is also the Ranger Field, located on school property. The athletic field is fenced and is used for all football and baseball games, and track events.

Much of the outstanding leadership of the Perryton school is due to the ability of Superintendent W. B. Irvin and the excellent faculty that he and the members of the board have assembled. Mr. Irvin expects to return to Perryton next week from Simmons University, Abilene, where he has been guest professor this summer. He will announce the faculty for the 1935-36 term on his return. The Perryton schools opens on Monday, September 9th.

NEW STATION LEASED TO SINCLAIR REFINING CO. FOR TEN YEAR PERIOD; TO BUILD AT ONCE

Negotiations have been completed and the contract will be let in a few days for the erection of a modern super-service filling station to be located on Main Street, just across the street north from the Stewart Printing Co., on the location now occupied by the Armour Cream Co.

W. B. LaMaster, owner of the location, has leased the station to the Sinclair Refining Co., who will maintain it as a company operated station. Mr. LaMaster states that the station building will cost approximately $4,250.00 and will embody all the latest ideas in complete one-stop stations. Provisions will be made for washing, tire service, battery, ignition, in fact a real super-service for the motorist. The Sinclair company is taking a ten year lease on the property.

The station will occupy the east 80 feet of the 75x140 lot owned by Mr. LaMaster. The site has been surveyed by Engineer R. C. Allen and the plans are now being prepared by the oil company. Just as soon as the plans are completed, the contract will be let and construction rushed to a speedy completion. Mr. Hobbs, the local wholesale agent for the Sinclair, states that he is not ready to announce who will operate the station for the company.

It operated under the name of Home Owned Grocer until March 1st, when it changed its name to Home Town Grocery. On the first of this month, S. S. Mallett sold his half interest to Cecil E. Sharp. WHITE HOUSE ORGANIZED IN 1898

Perryton Yard Started at Old Ochiltree in 1907; Home Office at Canadian.

The White House Lumber Co., and its officials have been identified with the development of the Panhandle almost ever since this country started to settle up. This concern was organized at Canadian in 1898. At that time it was known as the Tepe-Hoover Lumber Co. In later years the name was changed to White House Lumber Co., but the same officials remained dominant in the organization. The local yard was established at Old Ochiltree in 1907, moving to Perryton when the town started.

The company now operates 11 yards with 23 people on the payroll. Officers of the home office located at Canadian are H. E. Hoover, president; B. F. Tepe, vice-president and general manager; Chas. W. Callaway, assistant general manager; L. O. Records, secretary and treasurer. R. H. Prewitt is manager of the Perryton yard.

Chas. W. Callaway, assistant general manager of the company, although now a resident of Canadian, is still regarded as one of Perryton's own. Charlie Callaway came to Old Ochiltree about 26 years ago as manager of the Tepe-Hoover yard and he remained as local representative of the company until a little over three years ago when he was promoted. L. O. Records another home office official, started in the lumber business in the Perryton yard. Many of the yard managers received their lumber education in the Perryton yard under Callaway.

Perryton yard covers a 140x300 foot site. They maintain a complete building service and hundreds of homes in this area have been constructed and financed by the local yard. R. H. Prewitt, Perryton manager, came here from Spearman a little over three years ago. Mr. Prewitt has been in the lumber business for 16 years and thoroughly understands the work. Chester Cooper is employed as yard man by the local yard. Mr. Cooper also operates a trucking and drayage business separate from his connections with the lumber company.

Miss Cleo Payne is visiting with her sister, Miss Selma Payne, Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wade and children, Fountain and Eugene, were Sunday dinner guests in the J. D. Wade home.

Miss Elmira Cone who has been staying with her sister at Hutchinson, Kans., this summer, returned to her home Saturday.

Miss Alice Kuhn left Tuesday for a week's visit with friends at Cherokee and Lambert, Okla.

PERRYTON BODY & FENDER WORKS OPENED '28

J. H. Jines established the Perryton Body & Fender Works seven years ago, and is equipped to take care of all body and fender repairs. Mr. Jines, who is a native of this county, had lived on a ranch until he took up the present work over nine years ago. After finishing school at Ochiltree, he attended Wichita Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ballard and Miss Irene Hogland came in Sunday from Gladewater and will visit this week in the home of their father, Tom Hogland of the New Hope community.

Ochiltree County Court House Erected In 1928

While there are courthouses in the Panhandle that are larger and cost much more money than the Ochiltree county structure, there are none that are more convenient or that have been built for any less money for the same amount of building.

Ochiltree county is probably in the best financial condition of any county in the state. The people who pay the taxes are fortunate in having officials who are competent and careful with the public funds of the county.

Dave Shanks, county judge; and W. L. Anderson, W. G. Yeary, Fred Tarbox and J. H. Callahan, commissioners, are the men who compose the Commissioners' Court and direct the business of the county.

In the county and district clerk's office is Irvin R. Buchanan, now serving his third term. Mr. Buchanan's deputies are Mrs. E. M. Allen and J. F. Klapp. Mr. Klapp is a veteran of the courthouse, having served the county in some capacity almost ever since the county was organized in 1889.

Sheriff J. S. Tally has the longest service of any sheriff in Texas. He has served continuously since the fall of 1908, and will soon celebrate his 27th anniversary in this office. Deputy sheriffs are Fred Huston, in charge of tax collections and assessing; and D. D. Taliaferro, field deputy. Miss Viola Galispie is working extra in the office now typing the tax rolls.

Other officials are Max W. Boyer, county attorney; Mrs. Arthur Slavanan, county treasurer; Rupert C. Allen, county surveyor; and Dewey R. Allen and J. M. Grigsby, justices of the peace.

County Agent J. T. Stovall and Miss Marie Ludwick, home demonstration agent, represent the extension department of the Texas A. & M. College in this county.

The "ship-shape" condition of the courthouse, and the trees, lawn and shrubbery is due to the excellent supervision of George Rupprecht, who is custodian of the building. In the photograph above, the courthouse yard is covered with beans. These were planted this year in an effort to get rid of weeds and dandelions that had ruined the beautiful lawn. The beans were removed this week and the ground is now being put in condition for planting to Bermuda grass.

Employees of the county in the road working division are Claude Cook, Key Christopher, and J. W. Herrell, engineers; and Noel Keith, Elton Walker, and W. E. Garrison, grader operators.

LOW INCREASE EAT ACREAGE

SHOWS REDUCTION OF FIVE PER CENT OF FARMERS BASE ACRES

Aug. 14.—The AAA reported from 15 per cent to 20 per cent the acreage reduction to be made in wheat control contracts in 1935.

Headquarters it was said would increase wheat acreage by 5,200,000 acres in 1935, but the reduction was announced weeks ago.

Wallace said at a press conference that a change was decided after the August 1 crop reported the total wheat acreage this year would be reduced 5,200,000 bushels, largely by black rust and heat damage was taken, Wallace said, ample supplies for domestic and foreign markets. He added it was expected this country in a good position in the world market.

There would not be a decrease in benefit payments of the altered policy. Details said they expect to see the contract approximately after this year.

It was also said that "adequate" acreage was contained in the AAA contracts now before Congress in a situation which might prevent of unusually large acreage.

BRYAN'S DRY GOODS AND GROCERY STORE IS POPULAR INSTITUTION

Mayor W. C. Bryan is General Manager; Have Separate Grocery and Dry Goods Departments.

The W. C. Bryan stores located at 200-202 Main Street is one of the most popular trading points in Perryton. This business was established by Mr. Bryan on November 15th, 1926, when he purchased the W. B. Lilly grocery and hardware store. A few years later the modern brick building with 50-ft. frontage on Main Street was erected with separate rooms for the dry goods and grocery departments.

W. C. Bryan, the general manager of the stores, is a native of Texas, being born at Waxahachie. He has been a resident of Perryton for 15 years. Prior to that time, he lived at Gray, Oklahoma, where he engaged in the farming and mercantile business. Mr. Bryan is serving at the present time as Mayor of Perryton. He is very prominent in the affairs of the Methodist church and very often fills the pulpit of this and other churches.

The grocery department of these stores is operated under the name of W. C. Bryan & Son, with Louis Bryan as manager. After graduating from the Perryton high school, Louis was employed with the Perryton National Bank, going from there to Spearman where he operated a grocery store for a number of years, closing out same several months ago. He is an experienced grocer and much of the popularity of the grocery department is due to his ability and personality.

Employees of the grocery department are Wesley Bryan; Mrs. Wesley Bryan; bookkeeper; Arthur Townsend, meat cutter; and Rufus Bolerjack.

The dry goods department is conducted as the Bryan Dry Goods Co. with Virgil Castle, the manager, owning an interest in the business. In this section of the large store will be found a complete line of general dry goods, ready-to-wear and shoes. Mr. Castle has been a resident of Perryton for 5 years, coming here as the manager of the L. T. Hill department store, severing his connection with the firm to become associated with Mr. Bryan in January, 1932. Mr. Castle was born in Lewisville, Texas, and was educated in the Mangum, Oklahoma high school and the Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee, Oklahoma. He has been connected with this line of work for 14 years.

Included in the "force" of the dry goods store are the following: Mrs. Virgil Castle, Eveline Bryan, and Mrs. W. C. Bryan.

$65,000 BRIDGE OVER RIVER AT BEAVER CITY

Beaver, Okla., Aug 6—After seven years of patient waiting Beaver will have a bridge that completely spans the North Canadian river.

A new $65,000 steel and concrete structure, measuring 1,162 feet, is being constructed across the stream also known as Beaver creek, on U. S. Highway No. 270. It is due to be completed by September 30.

In 1928, a $20,000 concrete bridge was erected over the stream. After it was completed, it was found that because of the wide river bottom the span was wholly inadequate.

Motorists and others had to ford a quarter of a mile of water at each end with every rise of the river. Now the old structure is being blown down with high explosives.

FARM WOMEN TO FORM DEMONSTRATION CLUBS

Miss Ruby Mashburn, district home demonstration agent, College Station, will be in the Dalhart court house Monday, August 12, to meet with all farm women of Dallam county interested in organization of demonstration clubs, and in forming community and a county-wide farm women's market, announced County Agent Frank Stubbs Jr., today.

Farm women several weeks ago asked Mr. Stubbs about the possibility of farm women's markets, through which they could dispose of surplus canned goods, produce chickens and the like which otherwise would be lost with no revenue.

Dallam county now has several ladies' clubs, such as the ones at Ware and Conlen, which could form the basis for a quick county-wide organization, it was pointed out—Dalhart Texan.

PERRYTON PIGGLY-WIGGLY STORE IS A HOME-OWNED AND OPERATED STORE

W. M. and L. C. Boston Feature
Nationally Advertised Food Products in Grocery and Market.

Contrary to what some people think, the Perryton Piggy-Wiggly grocery store and meat market is not a chain store in any sense of the word. It is strictly home owned and operated. The business is owned by two brothers, W. M. and L. C. Boston, both of whom are active in the operation. When the store was first established in this city in 1929, the Boston Brothers, a company consisting of W. M. and L. C. Boston and several of their brothers, owned and operated a small chain of seven stores, each one of the stores being under the direct supervision and management of one of the brothers. In 1931, the larger organization was dissolved and W. M. and L. C. took over the Perryton store.

Nationally advertised food products are featured by the Piggy-Wiggly, one of the favorite brands carried being the well known Del Monte line of quality foods. A complete stock of seasonable vegetables and fruits will always be found for the particular shopper at this store. By buying in large quantities, the Boston brothers are always able to meet any kind of fair competition.

W. M. Boston, the manager of the store, is a native Texan, and a graduate of the Hedley high school and the W. T. S. T. C., at Canyon. Before entering the grocery business, he engaged in the teaching profession, being principal of the Wellington, Texas high school for several years. At the present time he is Commander of the local American Legion Post.

L. C. Boston, co-owner and assistant manager of the store, is also a graduate of the Hedley schools and the Canyon college. Before becoming interested in the grocery business in this city, he engaged in farming operations near Hedley, Texas.

Paul Bowen, a member of a pioneer Panhandle family, who was born in Lipscomb county, is manager of the meat market. He has had 11 years experience in this line of work and has a thorough understanding of the market business. He is a member of the American Legion.

Dallas Taliferro, who is employed by the Piggy-Wiggly as salesman and buyer of stock for the meat department, is a native son of Ochiltree. His father, D. D. Taliferro, is deputy sheriff of the county at the present time.

BILL'S PLACE IS ALWAYS POPULAR

W. W. McLarty, Pioneer Ochiltree Merchant is Owner of Popular Beer Stand.

Bill's Place, owned and managed by W. W. McLarty, pioneer Ochiltree county merchant, is one of the most popular refreshment parlors in the city. It is located at 400 South Main Street and was started by Mr. McLarty in 1933, soon after the sale of beer was legalized in this county. All the leading brands of beer will be found on tap and in bottles.

In addition to cold drinks, cigars, tobaccos, sandwiches are served. Mr. McLarty is assisted in the operation of the business by his sons, Tom R. and W. B. McLarty.

"Bill" McLarty, a native of Georgia, came to Texas when a very young man and settled with his parents in Hall county. He came to Ochiltree county in 1902 and shortly afterwards entered the grocery and general store business. In 1909 he erected the store building in which is now located at Old Ochiltree. When Perryton started he moved the building to Perryton and it housed his big general store for a number of years until he built the brick building now occupied by the W. W. Virtue Dry Goods Co. He disposed of his mercantile interests several years ago, after 22 years in the same business in Ochiltree county.

This popular business man played a very prominent part in the development of this county and there are but few pioneers in this county who have not been befriended and assisted by "Bill" McLarty during the many years that he was the leading merchant of the county.

As Perryton, the metropolis of the Northwest Panhandle, nears its 16th anniversary, we are proud of the fact that the ALLEN ABSTRACT CO. is the oldest business establishment in Ochiltree county.

Founded on September 19, 1905 at Old Ochiltree, we now have complete indices of Ochiltree county deed records on all lands and town lots in the county. We have over 300,000 sheets already prepared on different properties to insert in your abstract. This represents an enormous investment but it speeds up our service to you in delivery of an abstract. No unreasonable or unnecessary delays when you place an order with us.

We point with reasonable pride to our record of 30 years of continuous service. Looking back over the years, we can recall periods of plenty and periods of want, but through the years, Ochiltree county has steadily been forging forward and we hope that in these 30 years we have contributed some small part to this development.

We join with every citizen of Perryton in bidding the many friends of this "Friendly City," to Perryton's 16th Anniversary Party on Thursday, August 22.

Crop Insurance For The Panhandle!

Reasons Why Every Ochiltree County Farmer Should Support The Soil Erosion Program!

All Must Cooperate

Farmer and land owner tilling land within the area to be served by the Perryton camp of the Federal soil erosion conservation service is urged to give every cooperation to the technical experts that are being here at great expense for the improvement of our living and living conditions. The success of the program will be measured by the cooperation that the farmers and owners give.

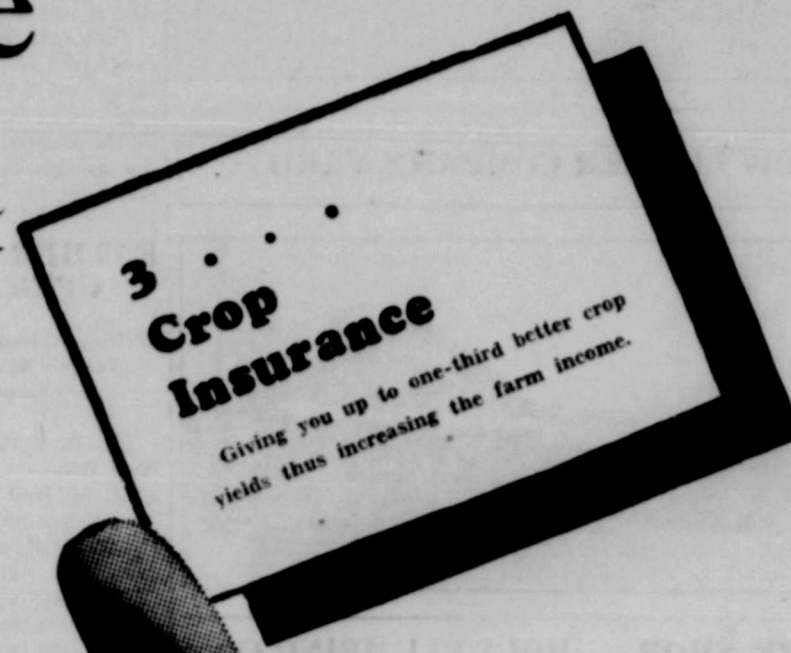

Conserve Moisture

Moisture conservation is the basic feature of the entire program. By means of terracing and contour tillage, every drop of water that falls on these Plains can be conserved. This increases the amount of sub-soil moisture. Terracing and contour plowing will also prevent the washing out and blowing up of young plants, which often causes replanting. In country such as our's, where the problem is nearly always a shortage of moisture, we need to conserve every drop of water that falls. Water in the lakes and streams will not be wasted on the Plains.

Moisture conservation will eliminate complete crop failures and with the elimination of crop failures, wind erosion of fertile farming lands will be stopped or at least reduced to the degree that very little serious damage will be done. Strip cropping leaving stubble in field and more vegetation on the ground will help to stop the wind erosion which has caused such havoc and wreckage in this area in the past few years.

Dollars To You

Program that is outlined by the men of the soil erosion service will not only check soil erosion but it will actually save dollars in the pockets of the farmers of the Panhandle. Actual experiments have been conducted by the men directing this work that show an increase of one-third in production over the ten year period that the experiments have been conducted. Is this not conclusive evidence as to the value of the program?

It's Up To You

Farmers of every area in the Panhandle are clamoring for just such a camp as has been made possible for you here in this section. You have it! Are you going to use it?

The Main Points

The main points in the program are as follows:

1. Conservation management of the erosion resisting stubbles of regularly grown crops.
2. Water conservation by terracing and contour farming to support the continuance of vegetative covering.
3. The use of substitute and emergency cover crops to fill in any unavoidable gaps in the regular cropping program.
4. The planting of trees in every favorable moisture location to serve as border protection and a general community windbreak system.
5. Emergency tillage to be used as a last resort and consisting of various operations serving to ridge or clod the surface as a temporary protection against blowing.

Will You Keep Faith?

So, you can see that the main burden of the program rests on the individual land owner. We are very, very fortunate in having the assistance of the Federal government but it's up to everyone of us to put over this wind erosion and moisture conservation plan that is being brought to us. Give your whole hearted cooperation. Let's don't have another year of those awful devastating dust storms and crop failures. The government is demonstrating their faith in this great farming country of the Plains. Will you keep the faith?

JOHNSON MOTOR IS FORD DEALER

BARBOUR'S SHOP
MOVES WITH TOWN

Barbour Establishes Business Over 23 Years Ago; Moves Here From Ochiltree

After serving his apprenticeship at the barber trade, Jas. E. Barbour opened, some twenty years ago, the Barbour's Barber Shop, in the old town of Ochiltree. When Perryton came into being, Mr. Barbour moved his building to Perryton from Ochiltree, and installed modern up-to-date fixtures, also putting in a number of showers, which were very much in demand in the early days of Perryton, when modern homes were few and far between. When fire destroyed the original home of this popular barber shop, which was located in four hundred block on Main Street, Mr. Barbour moved to his present location. To keep abreast of the town, this shop has given its customers the advantage of new improvements. The growth of this business, from a one-chair shop to five chairs, is due to the courteous and accommodating manner of Mr. Barbour and his employees.

Jas. E. Barbour, better known as "Jimmy," born in Texas, came to Ochiltree twenty-six years ago to make his home, and has followed the barber trade for over twenty years, owning and operating his own shop. He has taken an active part in the Masonic Lodge and Lions Club and has given much time to promoting the program of these two organizations.

Two of the employees have been connected with this firm for years: W. W. Waters, 11 years, and C. E. Farnsworth, 9 years. Ralph N. Parsons has been with Mr. Barbour for a year. Clyde Jones is another employee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brillhart were over from Wewoka, Okla., Sunday, and Miss Ernestine Yoakley returned with them for school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Boston left Tuesday for Halstead, Kansas, where Mrs. Boston will undergo an operation.

International Sunday School Lesson

By A. C. Williams Minister Perryton Church of Christ.

Lesson VII Martha Aug 18, 1935
(A Home Maker)

Memory Verse: "Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus." John 11:55.

Lesson Text: Luke 10:38-42; John 11:17-28.

Time-A. D. 29 or 30.

Places: Bethany and Jerusalem.

Persons: Jesus, Mary, Martha, and Lazarus.

Martha's Good Part (18-40)

It must have been refreshing to receive the invitation to share the hospitality of this humble home at Bethany-the home of Lazarus and his two sisters. With no place to lay his head, elsewhere, how the Lord appreciated those few places where he might rest and refresh himself.

Strange as it might seem, it was not the rich who opened their doors to Christ. The poor were the hospitable. Around such a hearthstone as Lazarus' the Son of God was welcome to share the simple provisions of food and the wealth of true friendship and devotion.

Martha was a wonderful hostess. Nothing would be spared to make her visitors feel at home. In our present lesson we see the good woman inviting Christ in to her house. There was something about that invitation that appealed to Jesus. It was a sharp contrast to the selfishness of the rich Pharisees, that it was at once a winsome exception to Palestine practice. Martha did not merely ask Jesus for manners' sake. It was not merely a gesture of necessary courtesy. It was that whole-heartedness that just made you feel its atmosphere and breathe its bigness.

But the best people have their weakness and such was the case with Martha. She tried to do too much. Many of us fail by trying to do too little. On this particular occasion she was burdened with much serving. She overburdened her self to the point of peevishness. She had become a slave to her housework. We see many modern Marthas today. Children feel lost and grown-ups uneasy around the premises. One tiny bit of dust or mud is criminal with them. Many of them will slave all Sunday morning to have an immaculate house till there is no time for church attendance. They fail to see that a little soul house-cleaning might be more valuable.

We are not told whether the beans burned, the cake fell, or what kitchen tragedy occurred. But suddenly Martha explodes. Her pent-up worry and nervousness must escape through some avenue. There sits her sister Mary at the feet of Jesus not making any effort to assist in the serving. Why couldn't she help? So the older sister files a complaint to Jesus against Mary. This shows how good people may let their work become their master. It shows how the best intentions to make others happy by going to a lot of trouble for them may cause us to miss the mark by making us peevish and fretful. It is altogether possible to become a social slave.

II. Mary's Good Part (41-42)

Jesus didn't ridicule Martha. He saw she was worried. He simply gave her a mild rebuke and commended Mary for sitting at his feet to hear the word. The good part chosen by the younger sister was so named because it was far better than the one chosen by Martha. Through it is well to entertain company by serving, it is far better to spend some time in meditation upon the finer things of life. All the social functions to which we may attend cannot take the vital place of spiritual diet so sorely needed by us all. In our mad whirl of etiquette we may miss some choice morsels for the soul, for there is nothing that will take the place of God's word in equipping us for life here and hereafter. Mary may neglect the biscuits, but she will feast upon the Bread of Heaven.

III. Martha's One Thing Needful

Heaven wants us to have a well rounded life. All parts of our being need to be developed in proportion. We may have a winsome quality in some respect, yet woefully lack another. Martha needed one thing and she needed it badly. She had overlooked it in her enthusiasm to be a good hostess and entertainer. She had magnified physical needs above the spiritual. In her eagerness to provide food for the body of her Guest, she had neglected to let him turn Host and give her tired and weary being a real feast from Heaven's provisions. It is sad to see thousands starving their souls to death, yet feeding their bodies well.

IV. Martha's Faith and Sympathy (Jno. 11:17-28.)

Another scene greets us in the Bethany home. Death with his ebony wings has hovered low and taken a choice treasure, Lazarus. A great crowd had gathered to console Martha and Mary in the dark hour. Though Mary stays at the house, Martha hurries to meet Jesus who is on the way to their home. She told the Lord that if he had been there Lazarus would not have died. So great was her faith that she was sure the presence of the Master would have prevented the clutches of death from seizing her beloved brother. But the words she next spoke show even greater confidence. She said that even though Lazarus was dead, Christ could wonderfully help in lifting the dark clouds. We imply that she thought Jesus could raise the brother from the dead. That Martha was well versed in the doctrine of the resurrection is seen from her words to Jesus that Lazarus would rise at the last day. But Jesus gave her some additional teaching and glorified the term by saying, "I am the Resurrection and the Life." When Christ asked her if she believed His words, she replied, "Yes, Lord, I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God."

The heart of Martha responded to grief. She forgets her kitchen and its cares to think of the departed brother. Then, too, she remembers her sister, Mary, and with all the harshness of her former rebuke gone, she tenderly informs the gentle sister that the "Teacher is here and calleth thee." We see a gentle arm steal around a weeping Mary, and tender words are spoken to her by the erstwhile "worried housekeeper." Martha too, has chosen "that good part." She too, has sat at the feet of the Teacher and confessed her faith in Him as the Son of God. To her as well as Mary, he has become the "Resurrection and the Life," and she freely mingles her tears with her sister's as together they rejoice through these tears that the grave does not mean all, yea.

"Life is ever lord of death.

And love can never lose its own."

Our Birthday

We join the city of Perryton in extending an invitation to you to attend our sixteenth birthday party on Thursday, August 22.

We are proud of our city, of the growth and improvement made during the few short years it has been established. And we want you to help us celebrate this happy occasion.

PERRYTON

A CITY OF FINE
SCHOOLS
CHURCHES and HOMES---

IS SIXTEEN YEARS OLD
AUGUST 22

As officials of the City of Perryton, we bid you welcome to the 16th anniversary party that is made possible to you through the courtesy of Perryton business men. We want you to visit us on this occasion, come and see us, or better still, we would like for you to become one of our citizens. We try to live up to the slogan which we have adopted, "THE FRIENDLY CITY."

Perryton offers many inducements to those who are looking for a real home. We are a town made up of "just folks," most of whom are home owners. Our school system ranks at the very top of the list of the splendid schools that are to be found in the Southwest. No school in this section has a finer or better equipped group of buildings than will be found here.

We know that the faculty of our schools are persons of high moral character and that they are possessed of the educational facilities to give your children the best schooling. In points of affiliated credits we are excelled by no school in this immediate area.

Perryton citizens are proud of the facilities for Christian education and association offered by the many churches. Among the churches that have their own homes and regular services for both young and old are: Methodist, Baptist, Christian, Church of Christ, Church of the Nazarene, Unity Chapel, Full Gospel, and Christian Science.

We are indeed proud of such a moral, religious and educational background and feel that the phenomenal growth and conservative success of Perryton is due in no small degree to our churches and schools.

Perryton is a city of beautiful homes, shady trees and attractive yards. We have a municipally owned water and sewer system, and are served with natural gas and electric current for lights and power by utility companies. Perryton has hundreds of blocks of paved streets and many other blocks of city streets have been hard surfaced with caliche. Concrete and caliche sidewalks cover every part of the town. Mail is delivered to all parts of the city by carriers.

If you are considering locating in a town that offers you the best advantages to educate your children, we ask you to consider Perryton. As a trading point we believe you will find our stores above the average, in fact Perryton is the trading point for an area that reaches out for miles in every direction. People like to shop here, because they can find what they want and the prices are reasonable.

Texas League Against Whiskey

J. M. SIBLEY, County Chairman

Appeal To the Voters of Texas

The proposed amendment to our prohibition laws must be defeated. Some of our best lawyers tell us that the amendment has been so drawn that if it should be adopted, our local option laws, under which we have been operating for many years, will be rendered null and void and all the school districts that have voted dry will become automatically wet. They tell us that under the terms of the proposed amendment it will be practically impossible of enforcement in any county or precinct that may vote dry. This would turn the entire state over to the liquor interests to despoil and debauch at will.

It is the most astute, ingenious, and sinister liquor law that has ever been presented to our people, and must be resisted to the limit of our strength. Texas is just now in danger of being turned over to the merciless liquor traffic for plunder and exploitation. They propose putting liquor in our grocery stores, drug stores, hotels, cafes, and restaurants, and gasoline stations, and to give it such respectability as the law may be able to give such a disreputable business. They would make our sons and daughters, and all the people familiar with whiskey, and drinkers of the deadly poison. We cannot afford to allow this to happen.

The question to be decided is whether or not the whiskey consumed in Texas shall be quadrupled. Dependable statistics show that under any system of legalized liquor at least four times as much whiskey will be consumed as under any system of outlawed liquor.

Shall we celebrate the Texas Centennial with the return of our great state into the hands of the most debauching traffic that has ever cursed the human family? Shall we invite visitors to come among us when all our highways would be unsafe because of drunken drivers? Shall we ask them to witness the sad spectacle of whiskey being sold everywhere and our people in a state of moral indifference and debauchery? Good citizens would not want such a state for their home. Would not a sober state be more inviting to the kind of citizens we want? Shall we take this great backward step at this critical time? We earnestly urge all law abiding people to come to the polls and register their solemn protest.

The liquor traffic is always organized and will seek to vote every possible wet voter in Texas. The liquor traffic has unlimited financial resources at its command. Subsidized wet members of the press will be active. Hired speakers will be broadcasting their misleading statements. Paid workers will be busy all over Texas. No stone will be left unturned by the enemies of sobriety. False arguments will be used near and far. Shall the sober citizenship of Texas remain indifferent in this critical hour and see their state turned over to the liquor traffic to be plundered of millions in money, and multitudes of our sons and daughters ruined by rum?

We can win this momentous economic and moral victory if we will. We have not a doubt that there is a large majority in Texas against legalizing whiskey. Our problem is to get them to the polls on August 24th.

Let all good men and women buckle on the armour, and go forth to win this immeasurably, significant and far reaching victory. Let no slacker be found in the camp. God is on our side. Let us appeal to Him and do our best for the cause of righteousness, both for today and for the long tomorrow.

IN PERRYTON ON DAY OF LOT SALE

Edwards' Toggery Building Moved to Perryton on Day Before Opening Lot Sale.

Mrs. F. A. Edwards, owner of the Edwards' Toggery, enjoys the unique distinction of operating a business that has actually been in Perryton ever since the opening day and general lot sale on August 22, 1919.

Mrs. Edwards established her exclusive women's ready-to-wear shop at old Ochiltree a few years before Perryton was founded. Then when the railroad built through the old site of Perryton, she along with many others began to make preparations to move to the new town. She beat most other business men to the "move" and on August 1919, the day before the opening of the frame building that they had moved from Old Ochiltree and set upon its foundation in the town of Perryton.

Mrs. Edwards has been very successful in the operation of her business. The store now occupies modern brick building, designed specially for an exclusive ready-to-wear, millinery, and wear and gift goods. Mrs. Edwards has lived in Ochiltree for 21 years and in Perryton since the town was started. She has been engaged in the mercantile business practically all of her life.

Miss Lucille Rupprecht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rupprecht, is employed by this firm as a lady. Miss Rupprecht has been on this line of work for many years.

SHINDLER DRUG A REXALL STORE

Shindler Is A Pioneer Druggist
Opening Here Same Year
As Perryton

Shindler Drug Co., owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Shindler, has been in existence ever since there was a town of Perryton. However, this business was originally started by W. C. Dickson, but the first of November 1919, Mr. Shindler bought his interests. During the first years of the town, the Shindler Drug was housed in a one story frame building.

As time went on and Perryton grew, this progressive store demanded larger and better quarters. So a few years ago, the Shindler Drug moved into their present building, putting in the latest in fixtures and equipment, offering to the people of this territory a complete stock of drugs and sundry items, featuring all Rexall products. Recently counter stools were added to their fountain service, and tables and booths have always been available to those desiring more privacy. Mr. Shindler, a registered pharmacist, gives his personal attention and supervision to the prescription department.

Having had years of business experience, Mrs. Shindler has been active in the operation of the store, looking after many details.

R. T. (Bob) Shindler, born at Nacogdoches, Texas, has been engaged in the drug business for thirty-eight years, having followed this work at Nacogdoches and Dalhart, Texas, prior to coming to Perryton. For a two year period, Mr. Shindler was located at Ochiltree.

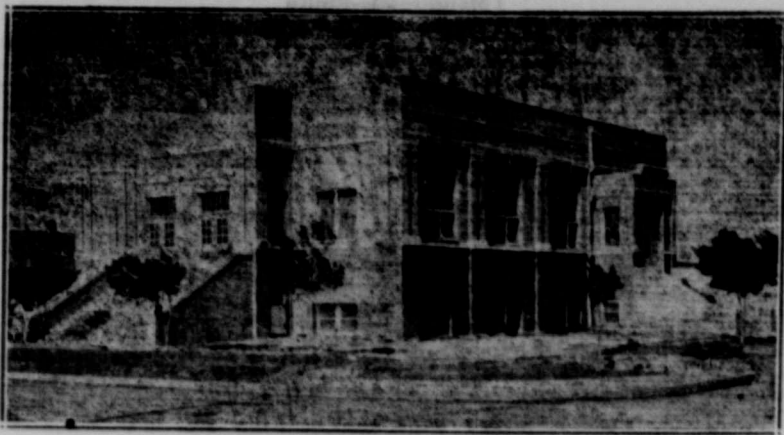

The progress of Perryton is due to men like Bob Shindler, who can forget personalities and is never too busy or too tired to give necessary time and effort to "putting something over" for the benefit of the people of this vicinity. He has always been one of the most active members of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club. The "Left Handed Fishermen's Club" is another organization in which he holds membership.

Others employed by this firm are: W. H. Dunlavy, who operates the jewelry repair department, Bill Massey, who has been clerk for seven years, and Owen Dunlavy.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Young, formerly of this city, will be interested to know that they are now located at San Angelo, and are operating a beauty shop there.

Advertise it if you stock it.

DUNLAVY HAS JEWELRY REPAIR AT SHINDLER'S

W. H. Dunlavy, pioneer business man of Perryton, now operates a watch and jewelry repair shop in the Shindler Drug Co. Mr. Dunlavy, a native of Texas, came to Perryton from Shattuck, Oklahoma shortly after the town started and put in a jewelry store in the Perryton Drug, operating same for a number of years before selling to the present owners. He then came associated with J. A. Jones in the Jones Furniture Store, selling his interests to Jones and establishing his present business about three years ago.

Title: "Deacon Brown's Conversion to the Doctrine of Stewardship."

Cast of Characters: John Brown, wealthy farmer, Gordon Wright, Mary Brown, farmer Brown's wife, Mrs. C. E. McLarty, Paul Brown, only child of the Brown's, George Lewis, Matilda, a colored servant of the Brown's, Rosamond Jarvis, Esther Charity, a kind christian girl who become interested in an orphan girl, Naydine Layton, Deacon Dugood, a faithful church member, Gordon Slaughter, Pearl Price, who preaches ministerial relief to farmer Brown, Charlene McLarty, Ruth Earnest, who feels called to the mission field, Anna Lee Riley.

Our attendance is far above what it was a year ago. Let us continue to make this record by being in our places morning and evening. The pastor urges all members to be faithful and give their support to the services in his absence. He will not be on a vacation, but will be speaking daily and the members are urged not to take a religious vacation. The time when we ought to be most faithful is in the absence of the pastor, when the work and the services need our support most.

right or wrong, constitutional or unconstitutional, the people of Ochiltree county are for the AAA program and for the man who has made it possible for them to continue their farming operations in these days of calamity. The people of Ochiltree realize that they owe a debt of gratitude to Marvin Jones for his assistance and cooperation in the securing of the Ochiltree State Park, the Federal ECW Soil Conservation Camp, the recent shipments of feed, and we could go on and on, naming the countless things that we have called on Marvin Jones was truly representing his district at the capitol and not chasing the social "butterfly" or playing politics for his own personal advancement and aggrandizement.

The Continental Oil Company in 1923 bought out the local interests of the Hagan Oil Company, which was established here in the early days of the town. Marion E. Man- warren, agent for the Hagan Com- pany, remained with the Continen- tal Company for years. In May, last year, A. N. Dowers took over the agency, and about seven months ago he formed a partnership with Harry Nail. Among the many pe- troleum products handled by the Continental Oil Company, bronze gasoline is the favorite. There has also been a great demand for their widely advertised Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil.

A. N. Dowers, manager of the local company, came to Perryton nine years ago from Beaver county, where he was farming. Eight years ago, he purchased a local gas and oil agency, and has been engaged in this business ever since.

Although J. H. Nail has only been with this company for a short period, he has had many years ex- perience in this line, having just previously been local agent for the Gulf Refining Company.

Mr. Dowers and Mr. Nail, who have a wide acquaintance over this territory, are World War veterans and active in the local Legion Post.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Wilson and sons moved to Perryton Wednesday from their farm, southwest of Per- ryton, so that they might be here for school. Mrs. Wilson is an ac- complished musician and will take pupils in piano.

PERRYTON DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.

Utility Firm Division Manager
Started First Light Plant In Perryton Sixteen Years Ago

Sixteen years ago when the railroad company opened up the townsite that is now the City of Perryton, different individuals planned on moving to town and going into different lines of business.

C. E. Whippo and J. F. Mead decided to enter the public utility field, organizing the Perryton Public Utilities Company, a stock company, to supply water and lights. People that attended the first celebration will recall that there was a well drilling machine set up on the rear of the lots where the Bradbury Produce building now stands. This equipment belonged to J. W. Wright who contracted to dig two water wells.

The order for the first engine and equipment to generate electricity was placed in August, 1919, a fifty horse power Fairbanks-Morse. It arrived in November and by the time it was installed enough service had been connected to the distribution system to overload it and a one-hundred horse unit was ordered and installed the following spring.

Two water wells were completed and produced about twenty gallons of water a minute and a fifty thousand gallon water tower was erected.

This company operated until January 1, 1923 when the plant was purchased by the city for $33,000. A block of land was purchased in the Lilly addition and two more wells were drilled and a 150 horse engine installed. The city operated the plant until January 1, 1927, when it was voted to sell to the Inland Utilities company at a price of $55,000.

Perryton was made division headquarters and a central generating plant built, installing a 360 horse unit and a 180 horse unit, moving the old fifty horse engine to Higgins where it is still in operation. Transmission lines carrying 22,000 volts were built west to Spearman with sub-stations at Waka and Farnsworth, and another line east to Pollett with sub-stations at Twichell, Huntoon, Booker and Jarrouzett.

The Inland sold to the Texas-Louisiana Power company on January 1, 1929. The new company built the present power plant, adding an additional 360 horse unit bringing up the capacity to 900 horse power, also building a transmission line connecting with the Farnsworth Light & Power company, thus giving two sources of power. The voltage on the line west was raised to 33,000 volts. The local distribution system was completely rebuilt.

C. E. Whippo, present division manager, was one of the original owners of the Perryton Public Utilities company, was employed by the city as superintendent when the plant was sold, then going to the Inland Utilities as manager, being made division manager for the Texas-Louisiana, which is now the Community Public Service company, due to a reorganization effected January 1 of this year. Twenty towns are served by this company in the Perryton division.

The local office employs include H. W. Yorke, W. E. Landrum, J. L. Couger and Mrs. G. W. Acker. Plant engineers and linemen employed locally include R. A. Jackson, chief engineer, Earl Reeves, Ross Cook, Joe Schollenbarger and W. A. Thurman.

Van W. Stewart is owner and editor of the Herald, assuming the publication in April, 1921, when a mortgage on the plant of D. Brazzel was foreclosed by the equipment houses from which the machinery was purchased. A brother, Paul Stewart, was a partner in the enterprise, but his interest was purchased in the fall of 1923.

C. W. Claybaugh serves the Herald as advertising manager and assistant editor, acting in this capacity since May, 1926. He is a journalism graduate from Kansas State College with previous experience on daily and weekly newspapers.

Miss Myrtle Conley has been connected with the Herald for the past eight years, acting as society editor and bookkeeper. She is a graduate of Ochiltree high school and attended college at Canyon and at Boulder, Colo. Miss Conley taught school for several years and had some business experience in the county clerk's office.

Hamman, vice-president. Mr. Hamman is manager of the Perryton store. The firm gives employment to over 100 people.

Mr. Hamman has been in the Perryton store ever since it was established. Much of the success of the store is due to Mr. Hamman's ability as a merchant.

In Some Ways This BANK Is Like A Country Store

The old-time country storekeeper was a good judge of human nature. He had to be. He got many requests for goods on credit and he needed to know—and usually did know—when to say "no".

Modern banking, despite advanced bookkeeping and adding machines is a human business, too. To protect his depositors, a good banker relies on not one but several sets of dependable factors.

But, if he is wise, he looks beyond what mere statistics tell him. He makes it a point to know as much as he can about conditions. For figures may occasionally mask the truth. You can't juggle human nature.

Here at the Perryton National Bank we never depend entirely upon machine-made statistics or upon chance where our depositors' money is concerned. We always make our decisions in the light of what we know can be depended upon.

UNLIMITED SUPPLY OF GAS AVAILABLE

Public Service Corporation Supplies
Natural Gas To City Since
Fall 1929

Natural gas from the tremendous reserves of Wheeler county has been made available to residents of Perryton since the late fall of 1929
by the Public Service Corporation of Texas, holders of the local gas franchise.

This corporation which was organized early that year is also serving Canadian, Higgins, Booker, Glaser, Texas, and Shattuck, and Fargo, Oklahoma.

Construction work on the pipeline was started in September and the local distribution plant was in operation before the first of the year, although the entire line was not completed until June, 1930.

Wm. Horwitz is president of the company, Thos. Cook, vice-president, and I. E. Horwitz, general manager. After an intensive survey the system was projected to make natural gas available to towns located in this territory which the managers believed to have great possibilities for growth and prosperity.

R. J. Bisdorf became associated with the company in November, 1931, as superintendent of operations, in charge of the Perryton district offices. He was previously connected with the West Texas Gas company and with the Producers
Refiners corporation of Wyoming.

His wide experience in every division of the gas industry. Other employees of the district office include George Clennan and Mrs.
Hatche Bull.

W. H. Lance, taking over the stock of the Palace Drug, opened the Theatre Drug in September, 1932.
Cosmetics, sundries and all kinds of tobacco and cigarettes are carried by this store. The fountain service enjoys a large patronage, and the magazine stock brings many to the store. An added attraction is the popcorn machine, which is the only one in Perryton.

Mr. Lance, who has lived in this county for nineteen years, had been employed by Shindler Drug and the McGee Drug of Dalhart before establishing this business. Wilford
Lance is assisting his brother.

ELLIS IS PANHANDLE'S FINEST MOVIE HOUSE

The Ellis Theatre is the finest moving picture theatre in the northeast section of the Panhandle and one of the few that was built exclusively for the reproduction of sound pictures after their introduction several years ago. The Theatre Drug occupies quarters to the right of the entrance.

JEOFFROY DEALER DEMPSTER DRILLS

Handles Farm Machinery Line Featuring Dempster Wheat Land
Drills

Roy Jeoffroy, who entered the implement field in 1923 in Perryton, as dealer, took over the Dempster line of farm implements at that time. For the past seven seasons he has been local representative for the Avery combines. Mr. Jeoffroy is featuring the Dempster Drill as ideal for seeding winter wheat, in localities where there is scarcity of moisture.

Coming to this county twelve

Santa Fe, N. M.
August 9th, 1935.
The Editor, Ochiltree Co. Herald,
Perryton, Texas.

Dear Ed:

Got back here to the bar nuthin' ranch about two weeks ago, and since then I been hibernatin' and tryin' to find out if the deer hunters down there aint played a joke on me, and my wife says its a compliment er sumptin'.

So I'm not askin' you "is it aint," I's askin you "aint it is." Its this way—I ambled into the sheriff's office to pass the time o day, and a check with my old friends there, an after awhile Undersheriff Huston axed me had I seen the "Herald" and I lowed I haint, and after I looked at the head lines and the adds he taken the paper back, and then I seed him take a bottle of peruna and a box o saw dust and he tinkered with that paper and all at once I seed my finger prints all over the paper and they looked like JEB in box car letters. En then he got a magnifyin glass and looked em over carefully with one eye and his mouth open. An then he said, "Nope, you aint the man." An I axed him howkum, an he said that I been suspicioned of gettin that $20 bill that Potlick Brillheart had turn up missin on his elk hunt last fall. An then with a big grin he allows that hes mighty pleased kose the fingerprints cleared me of all suspicion in the matter. If I was goin to do any devilment, I would be like a fox and do it a long ways from home an it would be further from Perryton than from here, for those boys are sure on their job in the court house. (Member, there was just three of us there when the $20 was lost—me and Pot and one other. Uneasy rests the hand that carries the fingerprints.)

Im wonder since I kum back "Whats the matter with Texas?" It just seemed to me that maybe it was a hoss and buggy country in an aroplane age, or too few cow tracks and too many tractor tracks. An I was about to get in the saddle an preach a sermon on my mount. But Ive backed down, the countrys right and we will be after while but maybe we need some thrift taught in our homes. Porque? Well I learned a lesson just across the creek over in Lipscomb county that wouldnt hurt everyone to learn. It is the Robbins family, (five of the birds in this nest.) Its the ole Ten Mile House to you all who used to freight to Glazier an its here that they run a small bunch of jerseys, raise feed, some wheat an live as well as the King of England or Two Belly Glasgow. They keep books, can food, report statistics and information to the government—all except alibis. They wintered their herd on Russian thistles and molasses, and they are gettin over a hundred dollars a month out of the cows. Their living cost them $2.13 per person per month. They do not have a horse on the place. They farm with tractors. They are a big success. These birds have made me begin to wonder "whats the matter with me?"

With love.

J. E. BROWNLEE.

His (X) Mark.
P. S.—This should o been first. You axed in your paper how to take care of black widow spiders. If they like some widows maybe they would like to be squeezed in your Washington press, but I dont recommend it. I think if you do them like the son-in-law wired about his mother-in-law you will "embalm, cremate, and bury, take no chances."

Amarillo College Head

President J. F. Mead of Amarillo College Visited Relatives in Perryton Today

J. F. Mead, president of the Amarillo College, is in Perryton today visiting with his father, T. W. Mead, and his sister, Mrs. C. E. Whippo. Mr. Mead lived in this county for many years and was one of the owners of the first light and water systems installed in Perryton. Mr. Mead is now president of the Amarillo College and is considered one of the leading educators of the state. While here, he stated that the college is interested in placing a number of girls in home positions in Amarillo, thus enabling them to pay their expenses while attending the college. Any girls of this community who are interested in obtaining a college education should communicate with Mr. Mead at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake LaMaster, Forgan, Okla., were visitors in Perryton Saturday night and Sunday.

Dr. Powell, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be at Drs. Brewer & Kengle office, Tuesday, August 20. Glasses fitted, tonsils and adenoids removed. 30-11-c

Mrs. Lulu Franklin, who has been seriously ill at her home in this city for several weeks, is now a patient in a hospital at Liberal, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson and children, Reva, Evalou and Robert Glenn, who have been visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gamel the past week, will return to their home at Coleman, Sunday. Mrs. Gamel and Minnie Kathryn will accompany them for a few weeks stay.

Contour Terracing Plots Show A Penetration of 18.06 Inches

Goodwell, Okla.—Experiment data secured at Panhandle Agricultural Experiment Station, show that 50 per cent of a dashing rain that occurred June 5 was wasted as runoff water from wheat land, says Harley A. Daniels, acting director.

At the time the rain occurred the land was too wet to plow and the 0.8 inch that fell came in a dash, consequently the loss from runoff was very high. The cut (from a picture taken during the rain) shows the position of the water on terraced and contour listed land compared with land listed not on the contour. Moisture penetration studies were made after the rain on both the terraced and unterraced land and the data obtained showed that the water had penetrated 18.06 inches on the contour terraced plots and 8.12 inches on the adjacent unterraced listed land.

The picture shows very clearly the reason for the greater depth of penetration because the contour furrows are standing full of water while the furrows on the unterraced land are acting as ditches and draining the water from the field as fast as it falls.

The terraced and contour plots shown in this picture made an average of 36.7 per cent more Tepyary bean hay last year than the adjacent unterraced land with 5.8 inches total rainfall during the growing season and only 3.4 inches of this being effective to crop growth.

The picture and the moisture penetration data show very clearly that reasons for the increased crop yield on this land were due to holding the water where it falls. Moisture conservation practices are paying propositions in the high plains and Daniels says that the only hope for a continuous agriculture in the wind blown area is through such a program.

W. E. Folgesong in Charge Horse Shoe Pitching Contest On Celebration Day

Even the "Horse Shoe Pitchers" are going to have their inning at the 16th anniversary party in Perryton on August 22. W. E. Folgesong is director of the contests that will start at ten o'clock in the morning. Teams all over this section of the country are putting in hours of "hard work" getting in condition to win the box of cigars that will be awarded the winning team.

Competition is open to the best team in each community. Contestants are requested to bring their own shoes and be on hand for the opening round of play. The teams will decide the method of elimination.

C. D. Rowies went to Liberal, Kans., Thursday evening to meet his daughter, Mrs. Joseph E. Thurston, who has been spending the les has been ill the past week and her daughter will stay with her until she is better.

More home raised meat will be served on the rural home makers' tables; more milk and butter and chickens and eggs will appear in the diet of rural families because of these crops.

HERALD OFFICE OPEN ON CELEBRATION DAY

The Herald office will be open for business as usual on Thursday, August 22, the day of Perryton's big 16th anniversary celebration. We don't expect to do much business, but we would like to add a few new subscribers to our ever increasing list of readers and we would accept the price of renewal. But we do want to extend an invitation to the good people of this community to come in and visit with us on the 22nd. When you get tired of "milling around" come down to the Stewart Printing Co. We have a big cool building, and will provide chairs if we don't have too much company. Plenty of ice water (nothing stronger) on tap. Just come in and make yourself at home, you can put the babies to bed on the counters, but we're not furnishing nurse maids or any diaper changers. Now come and see us, we'll be looking for you next Thursday.

How One Woman Lost 14 lbs. in 3 Weeks Husband Lost 12 Lbs.

Mrs. J. H. Valentine of Freeport, N. Y., writes: "lost 14 lbs. with Kruschen and my husband took off 12 lbs. in 3 weeks and intends keeping up the good work. I think Kruschen is simply wonderful."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—cut down on fatty meats, butter, cream and rich pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at Perryton Drug Co., or any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.
