Rules Changed In Part Only To Avoid Jail

Clergy To Be Paid By State Under New Church Control Law

(By The Associated Press)

PRAGUE, Oct. 25—Czechoslovak Roman Catholic bishops told their priests today they may accept salaries from the Communist government and swear loyalty to it—to stay out of jail.

But the bishops told the priests to make these reservations:

In swearing allegiance to the "people's democratic regime" and taking the oath to "support the creative effort aiming at the welfare of the Czech and Slovak people," priests are to add the words: "Unless it is in contradiction to the laws of God and the church and the rights of man."

Assume No Obligations

In taking salaries from the government, priests are to declare they do so without assuming "any obligations which would violate my conscience as a priest nor the church laws."

The bishops' new stand, declaring that they still "regretted" the recent enactment of the church control law, was expressed in a statement to the nation's 7,000 Catholic priests and made available to western newspapermen. The bishops said they were allowing priests to comply with the law because they would be open to arrest and prosecution if they did not.

Statement Is Revealed

Communist Minister of Justice Alexei Cepicka has declared that anyone who opposed the new law would be "broken as an enemy of the state." The new law, which gives the government control of appointments, finances and administration of all churches, was passed by parliament Oct. 14 and becomes effective Nov. 1.

The bishops' statement to the priests said:

"If you accept you do so only because the pressure of external circumstances. It is necessary to defend you against possible consequences and save you for the spiritual care of the faithful."

Only last week the bishops had stated that it would be "unmanly" to accept the higher salaries proferred under the church law "while thousands of believers and other citizens suffer in prison and work camps."

Now the bishops went even

Mother Claims She Killed Son To Spite Her Parents-In-Law

FAYETTEVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 25 (AP)—A 25-year-old woman was in jail today, charged with killing her 13-month-old son to spite her parents-in-law.

State Police Cpl. H. D. Gibbs said Mrs. Margaret Woodson, 25, of Kaymoor bottom signed a statement that she had drowned the infant because "I knew the family loved the baby, and killed it to spite them."

Gibbs said the woman related also that she had been annoyed by the baby's crying. She was charged with holding the child's head in a bucket of water until it drowned.

The woman waived preliminary hearing before Magistrate Virgil Lyons and was ordered held without bonds to await grand jury action on a murder charge.

Gibbs said the woman related in her statement that she had been drinking and "fussing" with her husband and his family.

NEW ECONOMIC POLICY PROPOSED

English Revolt On Austerity Program

(By The United Press)

LONDON, Oct. 25 — A revolt broke out within the Labor party today against the new austerity program, but the rank and file was expected to support the government in the showdown with the conservatives Thursday.

Four Laborites submitted a motion asking for revision of the program announced in Commons yesterday by Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee. The motion proposed shifting the weight of the economy burden from housing and social services to the military program. It called for the abolition of conscription.

All the Labor members of Parliament met with top government officials in secret this morning. Many of them were reported to have voiced sharp criticism of the government's program.

Defense Spending Hit

Major criticism was understood to fall in what was called "overgentle handling" of defense expenditures.

The government was believed to be assured of the support of most laborites and an easy victory in a vote of confidence at the end of House of Commons debate Thursday night.

The labor party revolt was symptomatic of dissatisfaction in all quarters with the government's economy program, which conservative critics tagged as a "half-measure."

The moition called for an entirely new economic policy:

1. Substantial cuts in the military expenditures, including abolition of conscription.

2. Economies in the national debt and consolidated fund service, foreign office, diplomatic service, home office, law and justice.

Ask Salary Cuts

3. No reduction in the housing program.

4. No reduction in social service benefits.

"A new economic policy shall be prepared to meet the urgent and long-term needs of our country," the motion said, "make a greater contribution towards an extension of world trade and cooperation, a quickened development of the commonwealth and our agricultural industry."

Two unionist members of Parliament also submitted a motion calling for a 25 per cent cut in the salaries of all ministers and members of Parliament.

School Board To Ban Book

HOUSTON, Oct. 25 (U.P.)—The Houston school board announced today it would ban a textbook from senior high school civics classes because one paragraph might "have a bad effect on a child's mind."

The book, authored by Professor Frank A. Magruder of Oregon State university, is called "American Government."

The offensive paragraph, on page 37, deals with a round-about definition of "capitalism." the text:

Text Is Revealed

"The United States is called a capitalistic country, but it does not have pure capitalism. It has capitalism subject to increasing governmental control as our manner of living becomes more complex. The country is capitalistic with strong socialistic and even Communistic trends. The postal system, power projects and progressive taxes are bits of socialism, and public free education and old age assistance are examples of Communism . . . to each according to his need."

The ban was suggested by board

600 Trains Halted By Strike

Schedules Are Cut Sharply To Conserve Coal

HST May Be Forced To Intervene Soon In Labor Dispute

(By The United Press)

The nation's railroads cancelled more than 600 trains today as the coal and steel strikes cut still deeper into the nation's economy.

Effects of the coal mine walkout, now in its sixth week, were felt most sharply. But the steel shutdown, in its fourth week, is expected to hit the automobile industry a crippling blow by the month's end.

Railroads slashed their schedules sharply to conserve dwindling coal stockpiles. In Chicago, the nation's rail hub, cancellation of 214 passenger and suburban trains was announced.

Others Were Cancelled

Previously, the same roads had cancelled 103 trains under orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Across the nation, the number of train cancellations, most of them effective at midnight tonight, mounted past 600.

The CIO executive board, meeting in Cleveland, O., was reported ready to vote all-out support for the CIO steelworkers in their fight for fourth round benefits.

Meanwhile, Chief Federal Mediator Cyrus Ching returned to Washington to report to the White House on his lack of progress in talks with executives of major steel companies in efforts to settle the 25-day-old steel strike.

HST May Intervene

Labor experts believed President Truman would be forced to intervene soon in the steel dispute and in the five-week-old coal strike to end a growing industrial crisis.

The number of those idled by the two strikes rapidly was approaching 2,000,000.

The 500,000 striking steelworkers received unexpected support yesterday from a powerful "big steel" stockholder and from the CIO electrical workers union which has sworn enmity against Murray.

The big stockholder who backed the steel workers was James W. Girard, ambassador to Germany in World War 1, who said his hold-

Card Of Death, The Ace Of Spades, Fatal At Solitaire

(By The United Press)

RANCOCAS HEIGHTS, N. J., Oct. 25—Mrs. Doris M. Streaker, 24-year-old divorcee, turned up the ace of spades in a game of solitaire last night. A shot sounded. She slumped over the table, dead of a bullet wound through her heart.

Fifty yards away from her tiny bungalow, police found the body of her rejected suitor, Norman Alloway, 36-year-old taxicab driver and father of seven children. Police said he shot Mrs. Streaker to death and then sent a bullet into his own heart.

Burlington County Detective Capt. G. Clinton Zeller said Mrs. Streaker had put her seven-year-old daughter, Carol, to bed in their one-room bungalow. She apparently sat down to play the card game until it was time for her to retire. She was dressed in pajamas and a housecoat when her body was found. The ace of spades, the "card of death," was top of the pile under her body, Zeller said.

Zeller said Mrs. Streaker had Alloway arrested only last week. He was put under a $500 peace bond by County Judge Lester A. Drenk.

The detective captain said Alloway left a note to his wife. The contents were not divulged.

30,000 ARE TO BE AFFECTED

Army Draftees To Get Early Release

(By The United Press)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 25—Army Secretary Gordon Gray disclosed today that 30,000 soldiers serving under the postwar draft law will be released nine months ahead of schedule.

Gray told the National Guard association conference here that, starting Dec. 1, the draft-law GI's will be let out after 12 months' service, instead of the 21 months for which they were signed up. The shortened service will apply to 24,000 inductees and 6,000 who volunteered for 21 months as permitted by the law.

Budget Is Slashed

The army secretary said the term of service is being reduced as part of the army's cutback to get within smaller budget limitations.

Gray's disclosure scotched recurring reports that the army planned to call for more draftees. The last army call was in January. The navy and air force have never used the peacetime draft.

However, Gray urged that the draft law be kept on the books. Unless renewed, it will expire next June.

He said it is an "invaluable asset" to national defense planning. He added that its lapse might be interpreted by North Atlantic treaty Allies as a "weakening of our effort and . . . support."

Gray said the reduced defense budget calls for an army of 630,000,a cut of 26,000 from present strength. He said the army planned to absorb the cut in overhead and service troops, leaving combat units both at home and abroad at about present levels.

Feb. 1 is the target date for completion of the reductions which are to be maintained through fiscal 1951.

Although the regular army is taking this cut, Gray said, a little more money is being asked for the National Guard and reserves in fiscal 1951, starting next July 1.

Flood Threats Are Reported Across State

Temperature Dips To 33 Here With Heavy Frost Coat

Floods and cold hit Texas stinging blows today, and the South Plains area lay under a heavy coating of frost this morning until a bright sun started its warming process.

Sub-freezing weather prevailed in parts of the Panhandle, but the official minimum in Lubbock was 33 degrees in a sheltered stand six feet above the ground, said Harold Frost, chief meteorologist at the U. S. Weather bureau station.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the mercury had climbed to 59 degrees, and it was expected to reach 62 degrees at the Weather bureau station by late this afternoon.

Streams Overflowing

Meanwhile, sections of North, South and West Texas were worried with overflowing streams, the Associated Press reported.

At least three deaths were attributed to storms that brewed over the weekend.

Agricultural experts in Lubbock were hesitant today to call the early-morning heavy frost a killing one. Don L. Jones, superintendent of the experiment station east of the city, said he thought some cotton foliage might be caught by the frost, but this morning it appeared that the cotton itself would continue to mature.

Some Plants Affected

David Sherrill, county agent, pointing out that full effects of the frost could not be seen until about Wednesday morning, expressed belief that the frost could hardly be classified as a killer although some tender plants were undoubtedly affected.

In open fields the wind kept heavy frost off the cotton plants.

Meanwhile, at Dallas the Trinity river reached 32.34 feet, four feet above flood stage. Rains ranging up to five inches on all the river's forks sent it overflowing thousands of acres of lowlands. The U. S. Weather bureau at Dallas issued flood warnings along the upper reaches.

Creeks Out Of Banks

Heavy rains in South Texas sent two creeks at San Antonio out of banks. Johnny B. Ford, 27, and his brother, Rittles, 25, drowned when a homemade boat capsized. Their bodies were recovered. The third death occurred at Dallas. E. T. Spain was killed when a cement plant roof

Burglars Take Jewelry Here

A pair of genuine pearl ear screws in black enamel and other properties were taken in a burglary reported to the sheriff's department by F. Hughes of 3901 Thirty-fourth, records showed this morning.

The remainder of the reported loss included a gold bracelet, two watches, a belt buckle, and a gold picture frame. There was no estimate of value.

Intruders entered the residence through a rear door.

The house was ransacked.

Bigbe Transferred

A $13.95 coat was reported stolen from J. W. B. Hale, from 706 Broadway.

A bike was reported stolen from Don Gillispie of 2112 Fourteenth.

The sheriff's office said custody of John Henry Bigbie, jr., 21, of Columbus, Ga., was surrendered by Lubbock county officials to Weatherford. He is under six-year sentence here for forgery, and will be tried under a similar charge there, officials said. Bigbie recently was surrendered to Lubbock officials by Bowie county.

Investigation Continued

Investigation was being continued into a headon collision Monday afternoon between a semi-trailer truck and a panel delivery truck at Forty-seventh and Slaton highway.

Chest Drive Shows Hike In Collections

Things began to pick up around campaign headquarters of the 1950 Community Chest drive this morning and team workers who have been canvassing the town during the past week literally "swamped" the office with cash and reports.

So great was the deluge that Chest officials had not been able to tabulate all of the collections at 1 p. m. this afternoon.

When figures are compiled this afternoon, it is hoped that substantial progress will have been registered toward the campaign's $98,850 goal.

The campaign got underway a week ago today, and campaign leaders admitted frankly that they hadn't expected very much progress in the drive until workers had been out a full week. Wednesday will mark a full week for another group of teams, who started their drive last Wednesday, so another deluge of reports is expected Wednesday.

Up until today's barrage of reports, only $13,600 had been turned in during the first four days of the campaign.

TRUMAN REQUEST TO BE OPPOSED

Domestic Aid Program Urged Instead Of Foreign Ventures

BY JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 — Senator Millikin (R-Colo) called today for "a domestic point four" instead of President Truman's renewed proposal for government protection on U. S. investments abroad.

Mr. Truman said in dedicating the United Nations building cornerstone in New York yesterday he will ask Congress in January to give high priority to proposals to speed American technical aid and investments in the world's backward areas.

This was point four of a world program the President outlined in his inaugural address last January.

Notice Of Fight

To carry it out, bills authorizing the Commodity Credit corporation to guarantee American foreign investments against certain risks will be ready for action by both houses when they return next year.

Millikin, who heads the conference of all Republican senators, served notice there will be a fight over the issue.

"I'd much rather see a domestic point four," the Colorado senator told reporters. "We had better start taking some of the handicaps off capital at home, by incentive tax reductions and other methods, before we go into that field abroad."

Millikin said he opposes the President's proposal because he believes it would discriminate between domestic and foreign investments and because he thinks any such program would lay this country open to the charge that it was engaging in imperialism.

Relations May Be Hurt

"If we attempt to give our American investors preferred treatment in foreign nations, it is going to injure our foreign relations," he declared.

"Furthermore, I don't see why we should guarantee investments abroad. Let the countries that need help make guarantees and they will find American capital anxious to help them."

As the point four bill pending on the Senate's calendar now is drafted, it would guarantee investments against the risks of (1) converting foreign currencies into American dollars and (2) confiscation, evpropriation or seizure of American property abroad.

Mr. Truman said in New York that this country intends to play a full part in trying to raise the economic level of areas of the world where "at least half of mankind lives in dire poverty."

Observing that "hundreds of millions of men, women and children lack adequate food, clothing and shelter," the President said: "We cannot achieve permanent peace and prosperity until the standard of living in under-developed areas is raised."

Baptists Discuss Wayland Expansion

About 300 Baptist ministers and laymen Monday night attended a rally of District Nine to discuss the enlargement program of Wayland college at Plainview. The meeting was held at the First Baptist church here.

Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland college, explained to those attending the rally how the college faculty has grown from 11 to 45 and the student body from 200 to 500 in the last three years. He reminded the group that the institution has recently been accredited as a senior college, necessitating many more expenditures.

New Income Needed

It was pointed out that the majority of Plain's Baptist churches removed the college from their budgets several years ago at denominational suggestion and the school must look elsewhere for income.

Rev. A. A. Brian, of Plainview, has been released from church duties for a two-month period, beginning Oct. 10, to tour the area as director of a campaign to raise a goal of $50,000 for the college.

"No collections will be taken in any of the area's churches during this drive," Rev. Brian emphasized. "The collections will come from interested individuals of means who wish to help the college. A Major Gifts committee will be set up at each of the churches visited and this organization will contact the proposed donors between Oct. 10 and Dec. 10."

Dr. J. Ralph Grant, Lubbock pastor, spoke on the problems faced in this transitional period of denominational life.

The International choir, a 40-voice group of many different nationalities, from Wayland college under the direction of Shelby Collier, head of the college voice department, presented a program at the rally.

Dr. Marshall, Dr. Grant and Rev. Brian, accompanied by the choir, will present similar programs Wednesday in Big Springs and Thursday in Amarillo.

Representatives from eight Baptist associations attended the meeting. District Nine includes the territory from this side of Canyon to south of Post and from Dickens to Brownfield.

Crippled Hero Of Anzio Will Have Early Christmas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (INS)—The Veterans administraetion today told how Uncle Sam and the warm-hearted people of Albuquerque, N. M., are readying an early Christmas for a crippled hero of the Anzio beachhead.

The VA said "operation Santa Claus" is providing a specially-built house for Calvin P. Hiller who lost his legs and had his spine severed by a mortar blast in the World War II Italian battle.

Cost Reduced

The house, with ramps instead of stairs to facilitate the going for Hiller's wheel chair, and specially-located fixtures, would have proved too much for the young veteran's pocketbook at its original cost of about $25,000.

However, the VA said, the government put up nearly $10,000 from a special fund, and an Albuquerque attorney and contractor teamed up to clear the title and build the home virtually at cost.

As a result, the agency said, Hiller will move into the house on Dec. 1 and it will cost only about $18,000.

Juror In Court Suit Arrested For Theft

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 25 (AP)—Trial of a $100,000 damage suit in circuit court was interrupted yesterday when deputy U. S. marshals asked the court to surrender a juror to answer to a government theft charge.

Deputy Marshal Jack Butler brought before Judge Bayard B. Shields a warrant charging Daniel P. Spivey, a member of the panel, with "embezzlement, purloining and theft" of government property valued at $18. He is employed at the naval air station.

The court said Spivey was disqualified to continue as a juror, ordered a mistrial, and dismissed the juror. Spivey was followed from the courtroom by the deputy marshals but was not arrested until he left the building.

ELECTRICAL ENERGY VAST FIELD

Brain Specialist Predicts Blind Will Be Made To See

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 25 (INS) — A prominent brain specialist asserted tonight that science would one day be able to make the blind see, the deaf hear and paralyzed walk by shooting electrical energy impulses into the brain and muscles.

He is Dr. Wendell J. S. Krieg, professor of neurology at Northwestern university's medical school.

Dr. Krieg made the statement in a speech at a university meeting. He set no time limit for how soon such advances could be made or tested, but predicted that it might be within the next decade.

Dr. Krieg said that science has learned to control electricity so well now and has learned so much about the operation of the nerves and muscles, that electrical impulses can now duplicate the normal impulses used in sight and hearing.

Workings Speculated

Such artificial stimulus, said Dr. Krieg, could be shot into the brain through a series of electrodes distributed over the skull.

He said a similar technique could be used in the case of the muscles, explaining:

"It should be possible to place permanent electrodes at motor points and activate the muscles whenever desired."

Dr. Krieg outlined how the sight and hearing aids might work.

He said that a device similar to a television scanner might be used.

"It is only a technicolor step," he said, "to devise an appliance to scane the visual field in the same manner as a television scanner and to transmit that which is seen and recorded to the cortex (brain covering) in the same sequence and scanning pattern."

Hearing, he added, could be achieved by carrying impulses to the auditory area of the brain.

Cost Estimated

Dr. Krieg said no tests have been made nor equipment constructed to carry out such tests, but he told newsmen:

"If we had a small building and $65,000 a year available I feel we could develop the equipment at a rate that would produce some practical results in four or five years."

Dr. Krieg explained that we "hear" and "see" with our brains rather than with our eyes and ears.

The impulse for sight, for instance, is transmitted along the optic nerves to a specific area of the brain. These impulses said Dr. Krieg, are electrical in nature.

Similarly, the sensation of hearing is localized in a certain region of the brain and is produced also by electrical impulses transmitted by the auditory nerves.

Dr. Krieg said the seeing apparatus probably would look somewhat like a television camera and transmit impulses to electrodes on the skull. The hearing equipment, he predicted, might resemble a small radio and could pick up and convert sounds into electrical impulses.

APPEARANCE POSTPONED

Franz Polgar, nationally-known mental wizard, will not make his scheduled appearance at Texas Tech this week, Dean of Men James G. Allen announced.

The performance was cancelled in order that Polgar might appear on a television program in New York Friday night, Dean Allen said. The hypnotist will appear here some time in March, he said.

Mary Haworth's Mail

On Learning Friend Has Been Sneak-Dating His Girl, Man Was Angry And Cut Both

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a young man of 22, a Navy veteran and at present a college junior. Until recently I dated a girl, also a student, whom I have known for over five years.

We had countless mutual interests and in time I came to respect and admire her to a degree little short of worship. We dated as often as her studies and mine would permit, but despite her desire to "go steady" I refused to monopolize her time between our dates, on the theory that our schooling was a check to serious courtship. I said that the time to go steady would be after my graduation.

Several months ago I took this girl on a double-date with my best friend, a young man who had served in the Navy with me, and prior to that had worked with me and had gone to the same camp and belonged to the same club with me in boyhood. Our friendship covered a period of eight years. The double date was most enjoyable and others followed. Dick dating various girls while I dated only Jeanne.

FRIEND REPENTS AVOIDS THE GIRL

THEN One Day I woke up to find that Dick had been dating Jeanne on the sly. When I openly questioned him, both flatly denied what later proved to be all true. They had been dating for some time. I could have forgiven anything but the manner in which both chose to betray me. Since I first learned of the situation I have completely avoided them.

My friend, regretting his action, refuses to date Jeanne again and has sent an apology. As a result Jeanne now wants very much to see me. I myself, having lost faith in the fellow I most trusted and the girl I most cherished, am frankly confused and disheartened. I miss the relationship of both parties strongly.

Should I excuse either or both of them and try to restore our old relations? Or is there such a thing as righteous anger, however painful, which justifies forgetting both of them, rather than risk a repetition of what has happened, at a later and more serious time? Your advice is sorely needed and will be greatly appreciated.

Signed P. J.

PLAINTIFF CUT HIS OWN THROAT

DEAR P. J.: You say you woke up to find your trust betrayed by your best friend and the girl you cherished. Phooey. The harm that's been done stems from your shabby actions.

To see straight is to recognize that the injured member of the trio is Jeanne, in relation to whom you have been and still are a heel—selfish, possessive and unstable — although you think of yourself as a noble fellow who's been fouled.

Here is the story. You've known Jeanne for five years, as her beau. I take it; and you've come to admire and respect her greatly,—but that's not the "love" you're still waiting to experience. Thus while taking Jeanne completely for granted as yours (if you should decide to claim her), and sponging off her emotionally with childish dependency, you've flatly refused to commit yourself to "going steady" or to accept a monopoly on her time between dates with you, and you've also informed her that you aren't a candidate for serious courtship in undergraduate years.

NO FOUNDATION FOR HIS GRIPE

OBVIOUSLY this was a policy of keping in the clear, of putting Jeanne on notice that it was strictly her risk if she chose to keep on loving you, being faithful to you and dedicating all her time to you. But when it develops that she is quietly dating someone else a newcomer to her acquaintance who happens to be your old pal, you carry on like a scalded cat, yowling about betrayel of trust, etc. So, brother, your devious dishonesty is really astonishing, — and it is consistent, all the way through.

According to the dating code, the deal you put over on Jeanne left her free to go out with anybody, without consulting or notifying you; so there is no foundation for your horrorstruck air of injury. Understandably she was in conflict about dating your pal whom she'd met through you: but ethically it wasn't wrong in view of your policy; and the sneaky procedure and first denials were involuntary accommodation to your difficult temperament, which is well known, probably.

For advice, clean up your dirty tactics, whereby you've been assuring Jeane that she has no strings on you, while on the other hand trying to keep your brand on her, for that's what your recent vindictive pouting amounts to. Either get engaged or break off cleanly, or take competition in stride as your due if you can't settle your mind decisively. Since your selfishness started the trouble, don't be stuffy about "forgiving."—M. H.

EXECUTIONERS LEAD BUSY LIVES

Communist-Dominated Eastern Europe Steps Up "Spy" Purge

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 25. (AP)—The exeeutidner stalks through spy-conscious Communist eastern Europe these days.

In a single day three countries—Romania, Hungary and Czechoslovakia — announced yesterday they had executed or sentenced to death 15 persons for espionage or other subversive activities.

More than a score of other persons were sentenced to prison terms ranging up to life.

And nobody knew how many trials were going on in secret with their verdicts not yet announced.

Four Hungarians Die

Hungary's hangman executed four persons.

Two of them, Lieut. Gen. Gyorgi Palfey, formerly Hungary's highest ranking army officer, and Police Col. Bela Korondy, were co-defendants of the late Laszlo Rajk, former Hungarian foreign minister, who was executed a fortnight earlier for espionage and treason. The government had accused all of them of plotting with Yugoslav and American agents to overthrow their country's red regime.

The other two executed in Hungary were Army Col. Deszo Nemeth, former Hungarian military attache in Moscow, and Police Col. Otto Horvath. There were no details announced concerning the charges against them, or their trial.

Thousands In Prison

Romania sentenced seven persons to death and 18 others to long prison terms for "terroristic subversive activities."

Four of the 18 sentenced to prison got life. Details of their alleged crimes were not made public.

In Czechoslovakia, where police roundups recently have thrown thousands of persons into prisons and forced labor camps, the state court last night sentenced four persons to death, four to life imprisonment, and an unstated number to prison terms ranging from four to 25 years.

They were charged with espionage and terroristic activities including the attempted assassination of unnamed government officials. They were charged also with being in league with the intelligence service of an unnamed foreign power.

Building In Lubbock Reaches $12,689,626

Lubbock's 1949 building total reached $12,689,626 Monday afternoon, spurred mainly by eight permits for residences issued to Johnnie Arnold, builder, at a total cost of $48,000.

The October total climbed to $1,576,821, bringing assurance that October will be one of the largest building months of the year, records of Lloyd Ross, building inspector disclosed.

The eight residences to be built by Arnold will be located in the 1300-block of Fortieth and Forty-first streets, the records showed. Of typical frame construction, they will contain four rooms and bath each.

B. L. Williamson, owner, and Joe Telford, contractor, received a permit to construct an addition to a feed and seed store at 335 Ave. H, in the amount of $7,000. D. E. Waters received permit for a residence at 2608 Thirty-eighth, $7,600.

Magazine Picture Leads To Arrest Of Death Suspect

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 25 (Special)—A picture in a true detective story magazine led to the arrest in Vernon, Tex., Oct. 16 of a 44-year-old Mexican, who had been sought since Feb. 17, 1945, in connection with the slaying of a negro woman in Brownfield.

Sheriff Ocie H. Murry, who returned the Mexican to Brownfield, said a picture of the man had been furnished the magazine by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He said he learned a Wilbarger county deputy sheriff and a Texas Ranger were looking at the magazine when the deputy sheriff remarked, "I've seen that fellow here in Vernon."

Denies Identity At First

The deputy sheriff, accompanied by the Texas Ranger, went to a farm eight miles northwest of Vernon where the Mexican had been working for some time. Arrested by the officers, the Mexican at first denied being the man they wanted, but admitted the crime after the officers found on his leg a tatoo described in the magazine article.

The Mexican, Antonio Gonzalez, is being held in the Terry county jail, awaiting trial on a murder charge. He was indicted by a district court grand jury shortly after the negro woman, Daisy Lee Goolsby, was shot three times.

Fire Escapes For Schools Stressed

AUSTIN, Oct. 25. (AP)—Texas school children are going to have fire escapes even if the state has to go to court to get them.

State fire insurance Commissioner Paul H. Brown announced at the opening session of a fire instructors conference here today that the state will file mandamus suits against school boards which refuse to build fire escapes in compliance with the law.

Letters have been sent to school boards all over the state reminding them the law requires the safety device on all school buildings more than one story high.

Brown said all but a few boards have promised to comply with the law.

Information on boards that show no signs of complying will be turned over to the attorney general and mandamus suits to force compliance will follow, he said.

Notre Dame Leads Grid Poll

Army Is Voted Second Place

NEW YORK, Oct. 25. (AP)—Notre Dame, Army and Oklahoma rate 1, 2, 3, respectively, among the nation's college football teams in the fourth weekly Associated Press poll, and their positions seem secure for at least another Saturday.

The Irish, idle the past weekend and sitting pretty with a record of four triumphs in as many games, should prove most unwelcome guests for Navy, which has won only two of five starts.

Army Meets VMI

Army, with a five-for-five Military Institute, beaten in three out of five games.

Oklahoma, victorious in all five starts, will be visited by Iowa State, a team with four wins, one loss and one tie.

Only three of last week's top 10 retained the same places in the latest voting participated in by 143 sports writers and broadcasters. Notre Dame and Army remained first and second and Cornell stayed in eighth position.

Ratings Are Revised

The Irish received 120 of the first-place votes to hold the top spot for a third straight week. Army drew only 12 and Oklahoma 10. Notre Dame had 1,387 points, compared to Army's 1,218 and Oklahoma's 1,143. Army, of place votes following its 63-6 slaughter of Columbia.

Back of the three current leaders come California, Rice, Michigan, Minnesota, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Baylor.

Seven of the first 10 teams remain unbeaten and untied. In addition to Notre Dame, Army and Oklahoma, they are California with six conquests; Cornell and Baylor with five, and Penn with four.

Frog Players Set Hot Pace

DALLAS, Oct. 25. (AP)—Texas Christian may not win the Southwest conference football championship—in fact, no one figures it will—but the Horned Frogs bid fair to sweep up most of the individual titles.

Frog gridders lead in four departments and also show a third place in one of those. In another department they have a second. There are only six statistical chmapionships.

Tops In Offense

The Frogs lead in the offensive departments only, however. When it comes to stopping the opposition TCU just tries to outscore them.

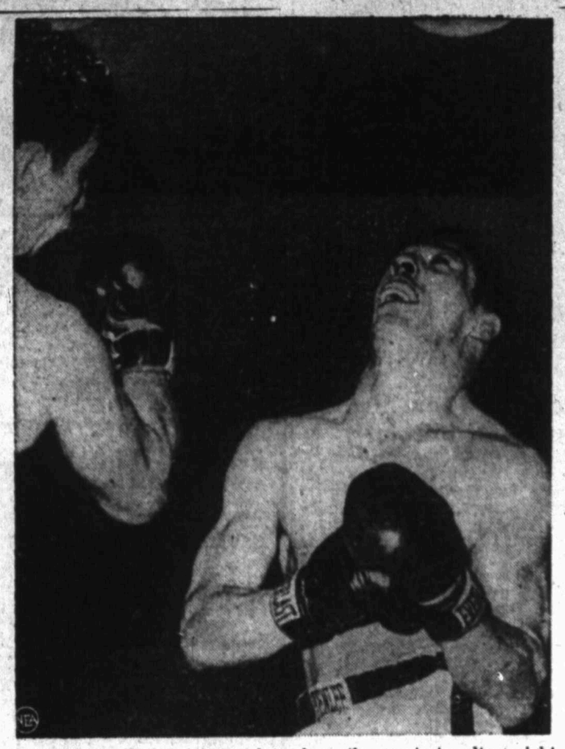

After the TCU 33-27 victory over Mississippi last week, Coach Dutch Meyer remarked: "It looks like football is all offense and no defense these days."

Anyway, Lindy Berry is the busiest Horned Frog of them all—also the busiest player in the conference.

The Christian quarterback leads in both passing and total offense. He has rolled up 1032 yards in the air and 131 on the ground for a total of 1163 on 211 plays.

Dan Wilde of Texas Christian leads in punt returns with an average of 25.2 on five runs while Berry is third with 18.6 on 11 carries. Rex Proctor of Rice is second with 20.2 on seven returns.

Morris Bailey, Texas Christian end, is the leader in pass-receiving, taking 28 throws for 412 yards.

UPPERCUT—This might not have been the greatest welterweight match ever fought, but this easily could be the prize-winning fight picture of the year. Perspiration pops from Bobo Constantino's head as Tony Pellone does everything but tear it off with a terrific right-hand uppercut in the fifth round of a rough 10-round brawl between New Yorkers at Manhattan's St. Nicholas arena. Pellone took a unanimous decision. (NEA-Acme photo by Andrew Lopez, staff photographer.)

TECH FACES RICE SATURDAY

Varsity Gridders Scrimmage Frosh

The 13-7 victory over the freshmen scored yesterday by the Texas Tech reserves, never will be handed down for college posterity to read about.

Monday afternoon wasn't a day of rest for most of the varsity, which went through a mean scrimmage against the eager first year men. Coach Dell Morgan took most of the players seeing little action in the Red Raiders' 27-7 victory over Arizona and sent them through a rugged head-knocking session.

The gridiron was wet, the wind from the north was chilling and the scrimmage was intense. Several times the varsity goal was in danger from the determined freshmen and at one time they held a lead.

Finally, trailing the Picadors by one point, the varsity reserves pulled themselves together and marched down the field. The varsity players finally pieced together some better blocking behind the quarterbacking and passing of Bill Lyman for the winning tally.

But the Picadors, who were rained out at Roswell Saturday night, still had a punch of their own left. With Quarterback Don Seale of Idalou chucking, the freshmen marched downfield, only to have a reverse go bad. Halfback Waldo Young had a clear field ahead of him with the exception of Fullback J. W. Thompson. Thompson couldn't be thrown off and the drive petered out.

Picadors Hold

Moments later, the varsity started downfield and reached the freshman 15 yard line, where the Picadors held for downs.

The rest of the Raider squad worked out on the Jones Stadium turf, running, running and running. Coach Tipp Mooney was in charge of the session and work was light, with emphasis primarily on keeping the squad in condition.

Tech came through the game in good condition, with no major injuries. A few cuts, bruises and pains were the only aftereffects of the bruising, colorless game.

Morgan Stresses Aerials

Coach Dell Morgan, in preparing for the Rice game at Houston this Saturday, will stress an aerial attack this week. He has little hope of gaining through the line, where the Owls have mammoth tackles and guards, along with Center Joe Watson, one of the top pivotmen in the nation.

The freshmen, meanwhile, will be preparing for their second game of the year, since they were rained out at Roswell. Coach Allie White's squad is in good condition and ready for the game against Odessa Junior college.

The game, only Saturday afternoon tilt in Lubbock, will be played in Jones Stadium starting at 2:30 p. m.

Bowling Results

All-State Insurance put a crimp in Astec Inn's first place aspirations in the Major Bowling League, taking a clean sweep of three games to cut the lead to one game.

In other games, Lester's Jewelers went into a third place tie with S & Q Clothiers by taking three games fro Cadenhead Butane, while S & Q was taking only two of three from the No Name five. West Texas Gas forced Hackney's Dental Lab to go into a tie for seventh place by taking two of three from Hackney's team.

MAY GET POST

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 25. (AP)—The name of Bill Corum, New York sports columnist, was moved to the head of the list today as the likely successor of the late Col. Matt Winn as planner of the Kentucky derby.

Lubbock Grid Team Praised

Long before the 8 p. m. scheduled meeting hour of the Lubbock Quarterback club last night, they hung out the SRO sign, but that didn't stop more than 500 fans crowding into the main ballroom of the Hilton hotel to hear two winning coaches and Davey O'Brien, former TCU star and Philadelphia Eagle ace, speak.

Biggest ovation of the night, of course, came for Coach C. R. Pattison of Lubbock High school, who came forward to tell about the Westerners' 47-7 crushing triumph over Amarillo.

"I know that all of you feel good about that victory," Coach Pattison declared, "but I feel as good about it as all of you put together!"

"Jinx" Is Punctured

Coach Pattison gave credit for the victory to the boys entirely. He said that he had told the boys a long time ago that they had to get over any question of inability in their own minds and also to forget about any so-called jinx.

He thought that they had done an excellent job of both. "I don't believe any Lubbock team ever will walk on a football field again and lose the game because of a jinx," Coach Pattison stated. "If a Lubbock team loses, it will be because either they were overconfident, or else lack of ability on their part."

The Westerner mentor related how he had met with a group of the players last January and outlined a list of objectives for them to keep ahead of them. One of those objectives has been accomplished and the other two, he declared, were nobody's business but the boys.

Scouts Praised

Discussing the game further, Coach Pattison said that he wanted to remember the game as a perfect one. "Not that the kids didn't make mistakes," he asserted. "They did. But they had so many good points to offset them that they more than nullified the few errors. And the big thing is that they accomplished what they set out to do."

The Lubbock coach also praised the work of the scouts, who had done such a fine job on Amarillo plays, but his biggest praise was for the boys, all of the squad, who did such a grand job.

Coach Dell Morgan, whose Texas Tech Red Raiders beat Arizona 27-7, opened his talk by praising the Westerners. "Nothing that has happened since I've been in Lubbock pleased me so much as that victory Saturday night," he declared. "I got to thinking back to the years when so many tried to do what these kids finally did and I thought of all those who had tried. I was right tickled."

Coach Morgan also warned the Westerner players, many of whom were present and introduced, to forget the Sandie game. "You can read all about it after the season is over," he said.

Coach Morgan Unhappy

In regards to the Raider game, Coach Morgan was most unhappy. He declared that it had been a terrible first half and one of the worst exhibitions of football he'd ever seen. He remarked that he had told his squad Tuesday that if they weren't prepared to play better than they had shown in practice, that they'd get whipped.

As it was, Coach Morgan declared that the first half was a battle between inferior players trying to see which could do the most things wrong. "We finally got some of it ironed out in the dressingroom between the halves," he declared. "And things went better the second half."

He briefly discussed the approaching Rice game, mentioning that the Raiders' only hope was that Rice was walking on its heels after beating Texas.

O'Brien, one of the game's greatest forward passers, said that he benefitted from athletics and that "I learned things in athletics I never learned anywhere else." He went on to say that while the coaches wanted to win as much as, if not more than, anyone else, they also instilled something that was more valuable than winning alone.

The diminutive FBI agent, who made a special trip from Dallas for the meeting, said that Lubbock had good teams, both at the high school and at Tech. He knew that, because not only were they doing what the public wanted, they also had fine men at each institution in charge of football. He referred to Coach Fred Taylor of the high school as one of the best ends that TCU ever had and to Coach Allie White of Tech as "the man who carried me for four years."

Pictures of the Amarillo-Lubbock game concluded the program, which was in charge of J. Ray Dickey.

Lubbock Is Voted Top Spot In Poll

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (U.P.)—A hard-driving Lubbock schoolboy team topped the Dallas Morning News weekly rankings today, supplanting Port Arthur's Yellow Jackets who had held the number one spot for a month.

Lubbock crushed Amarillo, 47-7, last Friday night. The overwhelming victory by the Westerners caused sports writers participating in the News' poll to cast 10 of their 16 first-place votes for Lubbock.

Port Arthur, idle during the week end, slipped to second place with four first place votes.

In third place was Wichita Falls, recipient of two top-ranking ballots.

The rankings:

1. Lubbock 151
2. Port Arthur 132
3. Wichita Falls 132
4. Corsicana 75
5. Henderson 60
6. Baytown 56
7. Grand Prairie 51
8. Highland Park 39
9. Abilene 37
10. Austin 330

The second 10: Pampa, Marshall, Texarkana, Odessa, San Antonio Jefferson, Breckenridge, San Antonio Tech, Fort Worth Arlington Heights, Dallas Sunset, Gainesville.

Lubbock Gets TAAF Tourney

AUSTIN, Oct. 25 (AP)—Church men throughout the state are expected to compete next summer in the Texas Amateur Athletic federation's new softball and basketball tournaments.

The two new tournaments were announced here yesterday along with designation of 17 Texas cities for various tournaments playoffs.

Tournaments were awarded as follows: Men's basketball to Lubbock, women's basketball to San Angelo, negro basketball to Austin, track and field to Fort Worth, women's volleyball to Texarkana, swimming to Tyler, boxing to Fort Worth, tennis to Galveston, boy's softball to Corpus Christi, men's softball to Temple, roque to Dallas, negro softball to Houston, horseshoes to Wichita Falls, men's baseball to San Antonio, junior baseball to Texarkana, badminton to Waco, church men's softball to Waco, and church men's basketball to Dallas.

Soccer was discontinued.

Tulane, Irish To Break

Contract Will Expire In '50

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (AP)—Tulane, unmercifully drubbed 46-7 by Notre Dame, is the latest school to sever football relation with the South Bend giant, top-ranking team in the nation and undefeated through 32 games.

With several opponents pulling out of the Notre Dame orbid, the old song and dance by Coach Frank Leahy not even being able to get a game with the Chicago Bears is being revived.

But the Irish insist they have no scheduling woes.

Ed "Moose" Krause, Notre Dame athletic director, says:

No Schedule Worries

"There are plenty of good teams eager to play us. Our schedules are drawn up through 1952. In December when the Big 10 conference makes its 1953 slate, we'll go to work on ours. We don't work on schedules during the season."

Tulane's decision to call it quits with the 1950 game, when its six-year contract expires, comes three weeks after a University of Washington regent said his school also is through with Notre Dame.

In five meetings with the Irish, Tulane scored only 19 points while being buried under 204. Washington, in a two-game series with the Irish, was ripped 46-0 in 1948 and 27-7 last Oct. 1. In this season's game the Irish absorbed numerous major penalties. Leahy later blasted the officials after disclosure they had been alerted by movies of the Notre Dame-Washington 1948 clash.

Leahy Protects Players

Leahy said he expressed himself to protect his players from insinuations they played dirty ball.

Another series that was allowed to die was the Notre Dame-Army rivalry which reached a crescendo in 1947 in New York. Officially, the games were "getting too big." There also were hints of personality clashes between the Cadet's Coach Earl Blaik and Leahy, plus dark rumors of gamblers trying to muscle in.

Other corking good rivalries also seem to pass over the boards. Northwestern wouldn't schedule the Irish in 1949, Navy and U. C. L. A. But it is highly possible the two schools will again resume relations.

Pittsburgh also was unscheduled this season, but now has returned on a two-year basis. Perhaps the break off with Georgia Tech several years ago was because its stadium was too small.

TEXAS DOGS WIN

ABILENE, Kas., Oct. 25 (AP)—Two dogs owned by Dr. Jack Woodward, Denton, Tex., divided the derby plate title for all ages yesterday at the national coursing meet here. They were Casino and Bill Casino. Hondo Hatch, running for J. W. Wallace, Dallas, Tex., won the derby purse stake.

SCRIMMAGE FEATURES WORKOUT

Westerners Drill For Lamesa Clash

A short practice session in preparation for Friday night's conference clash with Lamesa was held for the Lubbock Westerner football squad yesterday at Chapman field, and the reserves romped through a vigorous scrimmage while the first team ran play practices.

For the first team the day's work was light, but the reserves were bearing down in the head-knocking with a determination to stop the other team's attack.

The workout followed a preliminary talk by Coach Pat Pattison,

LAMESA TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for this week's Westerner game between Lubbock and Lamesa may be purchased at the athletic office in Lubbock High school through Friday afternoon. Price of reserved seats is $1.50.

the team then going outside for calisthenics led by Freddy Gray and Douglas Wienke.

After this the number one bunch went through play practices while the two teams scrimmaged.

Both scrimmaging elevens played hard, with the coolness of the day adding fire to the action. Tackling and blocking was vicious, and the backs hit the line with determination.

A strong wind limited the number of passes thrown, and aerials were not effective. Offensive teams could not hold the defenders out of the backfield, and on many occasions would-be passers were dropped for sizable losses.

Halfback Mack Taylor was doing yeoman work, playing on both teams, and the hard-running of Billy Tooke, Don Rawls, Tommy Fisher and Charles McCown was noteworthy.

Fisher broke loose on a 50-yard gallop for the tally that sent the boys to the showers for the day.

Coach Pattison Impressed

An intercepted pass by Tackle Dale Young and 40-yard runback accounted for the other score earlier.

In the line, work was fast and heavy. Curtis Roberts, Sleepy Nelson, Ross Craig, Weldon Cobb, Frank Hill, Deverle Henslee, Bob Newell, Dick Cobb and Delwin Doyle contributed much to the offensive and defensive efforts of the two teams, and at ends Wayne Noland, Dean White, Lydell Ross and Jerry Van Pelt were outstanding.

Coach Pattison was very impressed by the great showing of his charges against the Sandies, and the team itself was bubbling with enthusiasm and pep.

The defeat last week of Lamesa by Pampa is not expected to put the Golden Tornadoes in a good frame of mind for this week's tilt with the Westerners, and the Lamesans are expected to produce a fighting aggregation come Friday night.

Open Season On Lubbock

The loss by the Tornadoes was the first of the season and followed five straight victories, and the team can be counted on to try for an upset over Lubbock.

In West Texas it is now open season on the Lubbock team, boosted to first place in the state poll of sports writers this week, and the remaining games with Lamesa, Odessa, Midland and Brownfield will be battles from the starting whistle, with Lubbock trying to maintain its undefeated position on the top of the pile and the other teams trying to add to their own glory by beating the Westerners.

A harder workout faces the Cowpoke squadmen today, and the remaining two days before Friday will be spent polishing the defensive and offensive games.

TEXAS FIGHTER WINS

HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 25 (U.P.)—Harry LaSane, 131, of Houston, Tex., scored a technical knockout over Ermanno Bonnetti, 131, of Milan, Italy, last night in the 10th round of a hard-fought 10-round feature bout before 1,621 fans at Valley arena.

Chauffeurs and shoemakers are organizing unions in Honduras, Tegucigalpa reports.

Between the Lines

Apochryphal stories are always the best and whether the following few tales are true, or not, we wouldn't know. If we did, we probably wouldn't say they were. Sometimes, stories grow and grow, growing hoary with time and telling. We think that possibly these will also, and probably grow better with the telling.

In 1948, Coach C. R. Pattison was in his first year coaching at Lubbock High school. Amarillo came to Lubbock for the traditional game favored to win. The Golden Sandies did, 14-6, but only after they had been scared to death. What's more, they almost were beaten by a Westerner team that still wasn't working at its full peak of power. After the game, Coach Howard "Bull" Lynch reportedly made Pat walk all the way over to the Sandie bench in the customary felicitations exchanged at midfield. Pat walked over. He told Bull that he had a good team, they won a good game and he hoped that the Sandies would go all the way. Bull, some say, looked at the Lubbock coach, turned and said over his shoulder "Well, at least you have them hustling, Pat."

Pat, the story goes, burned all winter on that and hoped that he'd make Bull eat those words some day. Came last Friday night and Pat hung around his bench. Finally, Bull struggled over. "Well, you beat us," he reportedly managed to blurt out. "Well," said Pat, "at least you have them hustling, Bull." The Amarillo coach took about four or five steps when it hit him. He turned and said: "I liked the way your subs played so much tonight." Lubbock fans recall seeing Amarillo whaling the daylights out of Lubbock in 1943. Lubbock finally was driving down to the Amarillo goal late in the game. It looked like a score. Lynch yanked his reserves and put in the first string, which stopped the score. For Pat's sake, we hope that next year the score is 54-0.

Coach Dell Morgan got some laughs out of the Quarterback club meeting last night with his description of the Arizona-Tech game. He said that he went around after the game and asked Morley Jennings, Tech athletic director, whether any of the fans had been by to ask for a refund. Morley replied that they hadn't, but that he wouldn't blame them. Dell also went on to poke fun at probably the worst officiating seen in Lubbock this year. He said that at one point the officials were throwing so many flags that it looked like an invasion by the Russians. That was the point where he said he felt like picking up an extra football and handing it to S. A. Coutchie, referee. He said that his remarks would have been: "Here, you four officials take this ball and play with it and let the 22 players play with the other one. They'll have more fun."

The Raider mentor also drew further laughs by telling of the dressingroom scene, in moderation. He said that during the week he overheard one of the varsity regulars say that if Arizona played the way they did last year, he'd get some rest Saturday. After the particular player had been especially ineffective during the first half, Dell told him in the dressingroom that he'd have a big mattress brought out and placed alongside the bench in the second half. "You can get a lot of rest" Dell declared, "and maybe some of the other boys will play ball. I thought a ball player was going to whip me" Dell laughed. "If he could have gotten to me, he would have, but there was a blackboard in between us!"

Davey O'Brien, probably the finest small player in either college or professional ranks in history made a fine appearance last night. He also made a big hit with the crowd, starting off with a joke and then getting into more serious talk. But he told an anecdote on Allie White, Tech freshman coach and the tackle who made many of O'Brien's runs possible. Seems Mike Brumbelow was line coach while Allie was playing tackle and that Mike would call a meeting of the tackles to discuss blocking and blocking assignments. But he always waved Allie away and told him to go over there by himself. "It doesn't do any good to tell you how to block, Allie," the coach stated. 'You'll just go ahead and block your own way."

Checks must accompany all applications. Tickets sell for $4.80 each and a 25 cent mailing fee must be added with each application. Applications should be mailed, on the proper dates, to the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, 1343 National City Building, Dallas, Texas. THE ROUNDUP: Don Williams, Tech guard, has been moved from West Texas hospital to the college infirmary. He should be out in another week or two. . . Marshall Gettys pulled a muscle in his leg Saturday. . . Arizona, New Mexico, Texas Western and Texas Tech are the only four Border Conference teams considered major colleges by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau. . . Arizona and its first four 1949 opponents were treated the same by officials. Each was penalized 31 times for a total of 273 yards. . . Sid Luckman, playing one quarter, and Johnny Lujack, playing three, completed 32 passes in 58 attempts against the New York Giants Sunday. Who said something about pass defense? When the good boys pass 'em, the good ends catch 'em.

Cage Games Sought By Barber College

Basketball games with independent, high school or college teams are sought by Lubbock Barber college, which is sponsoring a quintet this year.

Tony Liguori, Barber college manager, said that the players had no place to practice, but that they were ready to play. Liguori has signed up such well known local players as Doug, Bob and Dean Galey, David Lawson, Virgil Johnson, Wally Fowler and Bob Collier. Others will be obtained to round out the squad.

Any teams interested in playing the Barber college are asked to contact Liguori at the Lubbock Barber college.

Ralls, Abernathy Change Game Date

ABERNATHY, Oct. 25 (Special) Ralls and Abernathy High school football teams will play their scheduled football game Thursday night of this week instead of Friday, as originally scheduled.

Fred Miller, superintendent of schools here, announced Monday that the shift in date had been made through mutual agreement with Ralls. Both cities have Hallowe'en celebrations scheduled and the game was moved to avert the conflict.

The starting time remains at 8 p.m. at Ralls.

Doaker Slated To Miss Game

(By The Associated Press)

Southwest conference coaches were as gloomy as the weather yesterday.

They ticked off the names of injured players and the strength of opponents this week in a most unhappy manner.

Southern Methodist university Coach Matty Bell reported quarterback Frank Payne has a broken finger.

"We are really in a fix," he declared. "Doak Walker is still in a hospital and won't play against Texas and now my passer has a broken finger. How are we going to stop that bunch? My scouts tell me Texas has a better team than Rice and should have won Saturday. You know what Rice did to us." (Beat SMU, 41-27, and Texas, 17-15).

Doak Walker Out

Bell said Payne would be able to play Saturday against Texas but obviously will be handicapped. He had no hope that Walker hospitalized with the flu, would be able to get into the game.

Texas Coach Blair Cherry said he needed better kicking and that an effort to secure same would be made this week. "Our punting got us into trouble in our last two games," he said.

Jack Gray, chief scout for the Longhorns, told the players yesterday that SMU "is just as good as last year, if not better, with Doak Walker in the lineup."

Jess Neely, whose Rice team has already licked what were considered the two toughest clubs on his schedule, gave his regulars a day of rest. He did this after looking over this injury list:

Van Ballard, right halfback, may be out for the rest of the season with a broken collarbone.

Weatherby Is Hurt

Gerald Weatherly, center and line backer, badly swollen ankle.

Carl Schwarz and S. J. Roberts, starting guards, nursing a sore knee and rib separation respectively.

Bill Howton, reserve end, swollen knee.

Rice plays Texas Tech in a non-conference game this week.

Baylor and A. and M. came out of their game with nothing more than a bunch of bruises. But neither Coach Bob Woodruff of Baylor or Harry Stiteler of A. and M. had any optimistic predictions for games this week.

Baylor plays Texas Christian university, the only team it has run against this year that does not use the T formation.

A. and M. plays Arkansas.

Arkansas had two first stringers out of action—Fullback Leon Campbell and End Frank Fischel—but no new injuries were reported.

Capt. Lindy Berry, Texas Christian's backfield workhorse, called the squad together yesterday for a little secret conversation. It was assumed the subject was Baylor.

Scout Buster Brannon told the Horned Frog players that Baylor will be "by far the best team we've met this year—in fact the best team we'll play."

The Frogs are in good shape physically for this game. Only one player, Tackle Clarence Marable, won't see action.

Class A Showdown Games Are Slated

(By The Associated Press)

Showdown games are scheduled this week for several districts in Texas' vast Class A high school football race.

Dalhart meets Hereford in what may well be the championship game of District One.

New Braunfels plays Gonzales for the top spot in District 24.

Kermit faces a tough foe in Monahans, defending state champion but not a contender this year in District Five.

Grand Saline and Wills Point get together with the winner a big favorite to win in District 18.

There are plenty of other crucial games as the single A clubs move toward the stretch of the 1949 season.

Dalhart Beats Phillips

Dalhart last week knocked off Phillips, 39-20, in a battle of undefeated, untied teams. Hereford, another club with a perfect record, roared over Perryton, 32-0.

Lefors and McLean, District Two leaders, are both in action this week. Lefors, undefeated, untied, plays Clarendon while McLean meets Memphis. Last week, Lefors had to score twice in the fourth quarter to beat Tulia of 3-A, 20-12.

Floydada got a new lease on life in District Three, thanks to an ineligibility ruling that wiped out its only loss. It leads the district, even though tied by Matador, 12-12, last week.

Sudan and Littlefield appear heading for a showdown in the north of District Four. Sudan beat Morton, 32-13, last week as Littlefield rested.

In the south zone of this district, Slaton and Post are tied for the lead.

Kermit, 20-7 victor over Seminole, needs but two more victories to wrap up the District Five title.

New Braunfels, a finalist last year, kayoed Lockhart, 40-6, last week and this week faces probably its last big barrier to another District 24 title.

Mount Vernon, which has scored 311 points to 38 for the opposition, is an easy favorite in District 15. Leverett's Chapel is on top of big District 16, though it had a narrow squeak with New London last week, winning 2-0.

Protests Perfect Record

Title play hasn't started in District 16, but Farmersville looks like the best bet in this four-team circuit.

Dekalb protected its perfect record in District 14 last week by beating Jefferson, 12-6.

Kaufman and Terrell are tied up in District 17 and their meeting in the last game of the season may decide the title. Kaufman is undefeated and untied.

Franklin and Mexia are powering ahead in Central Texas, while Cameron and Rosebud are tied for the top in District 21.

Mesquite jumped into the lead in District 12 as the "big" teams, Irving and Garland, battled to a 7-7 deadlock last week. The latter two clubs are undefeated, though tied.

French and Nederland continue to win in District 26, French beat Livingston, 20-6, last week.

Passing Duel Is Predicted

WACO, Oct. 25 (AP) — Baylor plays Texas Christian here Saturday and that will give fireman J. D. Ison a chance to match passcatching with the only guy in the Southwest conference who has been able to snare more throws than he has.

Fireman Ison—he got the name from working on a railroad in his home state of Kentucky—is quite a card. Everybody wants to play jokes on him. They do, too, except on the football field.

Pass Combination Hot

The passing combination of Adrian Burk to Ison is the hottest thing in the Southwest these days. It has kept Baylor in the nation's unbeaten, untied class—the only team with a perfect record in the conference.

Quarterback Burk has thrown 89 passes and completed 58 for 677 yards. Ison has caught 24 of those throws for 260 yards. In fact, J. D. has missed only three that have come his way this season. He has scored three touchdowns and set up many more.

Ison would be playing at Georgia Tech now if it hadn't been for algebra. He was on the Tech varsity as a freshman—for a few minutes—in 1946. That was before football's peace-time eligibility rules were fully reinstated.

Guatemala revived its Aero Club last year and activity in private flying inreased considerably, with 24 private aircraft licensed there.

Championship Team Of 1939 Recalled

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

DALLAS, Oct. 25—Out in the plains country Lubbock's Westerners beat a championship football rhythm. The Hub city may have its second Texas schoolboy title winner in 10 years.

The Westerners are moving through the opposition like a scythe. The pay-off came last week when they beat Amarillo 47-7. Few times in history has Amarillo taken a 40-point licking.

If Lubbock does go to the finals of the schoolboy race it will be a great story.

Called "Team Of Destiny"

The day the finals will be played will mark exactly 10 years since another Lubbock team—this one called the team of destiny—rolled to the championship.

The Lubbock team of 1939 won because of an ideal—because it wanted to bring that glory to a fellow who couldn't attain it in life. The story of Weldon Chapman is well known. He died in midseason. He had long been a high school coach, had produced many strong teams but never had known a state title.

The Lubbock team of that year hadn't been going anywhere. It had lost game after game. But when Chapman became ill and told his assistant, Goober Keyes, to carry on for him the team of destiny was born. There is no record that the boys actually got together and made a vow to win the state title. Keyes didn't ask the team to do it. He said he didn't feel that was what Chapman would have wanted. But there was an understanding among the team and among the people of Lubbock that this was it—that this team was going to win for Chapman.

Beat Waco In Finals

It did with a dramatic comeback in the last half against Waco at Dallas.

It won't be the same in many ways if, on a day in late December, Lubbock plays for the state title—even if Waco should happen to be the opposition.

But you can bet that it'll call back a lot of dramatic moments for a lot of people.

Coaches, Officials Guests At Dinner

OLTON, Oct. 25 (Special) — A dinner was held for coaches and officials of the South Plains area here tonight in the Olton High school cafeteria by the Olton Quarterback club. Approximately 50 persons attended.

Coaches present were J. S. Fikes and Pat Patterson, Littlefield; J. W. Blaine, Dimmitt; A. D. Shaver and Herbert Welliford, Amherst; and T. M. Cox, Aubrey Lester and J. C. McAlister, Olton.

The officials were introduced, each speaking briefly on such topics as the relation of game officials and coaches, rule changes, special rulings, and a discussion of the problems of officiating football.

Officials attending were Jack Christian, Paul Featheringill, E. E. Carter, Charlie Duval and Leo Duffy.

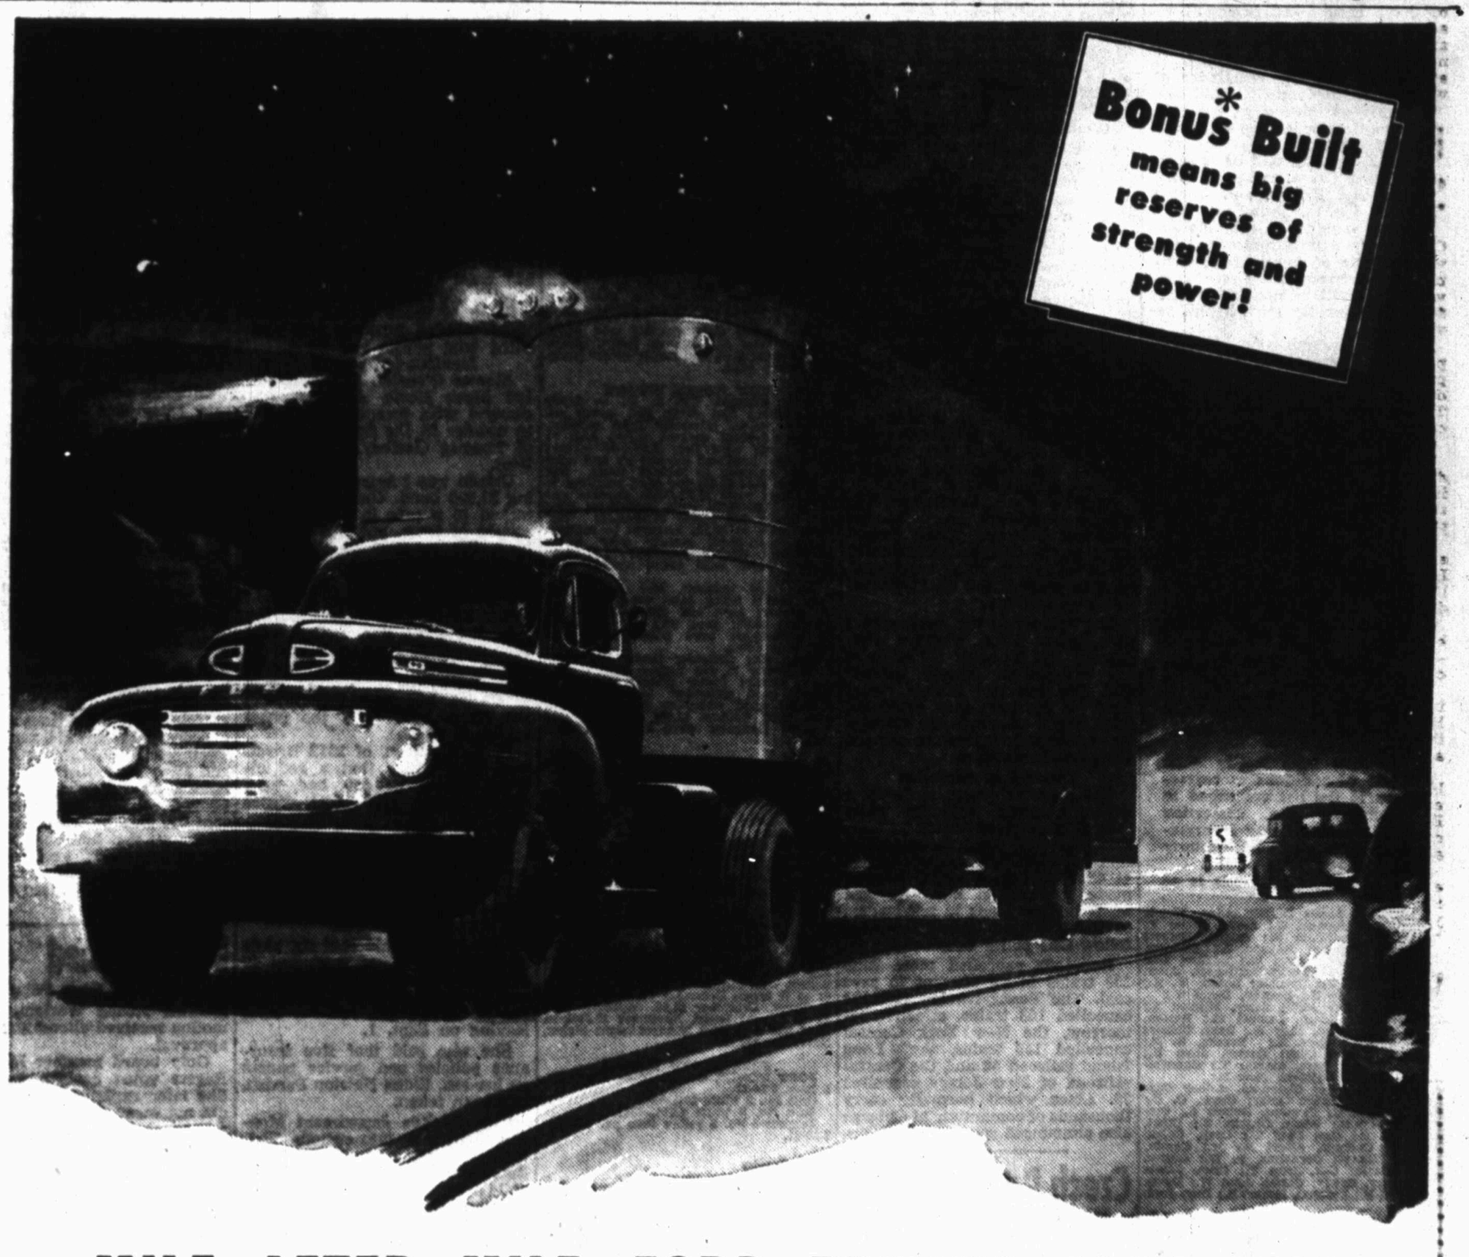

Plans for the quarterback club's activities in connection with the Olton homecoming here Friday night with Anton were also discussed at the meeting.

X-Ray Tests For Texas Tech Students And Faculty Begin

As X-ray examinations of college students and college staff members and their families opened this morning at Texas Technological college, arrangements were made for use of the American Legion hall from Nov. 2 to Nov. 12 in the county-wide X-ray survey.

Chest examinations designed to locate tuberculosis cases will be free to all residents of the county 15 years of age or older.

Examinations will be given through Friday in the agricultural auditorium on Texas Tech campus for students, faculty members and families and college employes not on the faculty. The mobile x-ray unit later will be moved to the American Legion hall, where examinations will be given to other residents of the county.

Tests Are Brief

A few examinations were given this morning before a conflict caused further examinations to be postponed until 1 p. m. A meeting had been scheduled for 10 a. m. in the auditorium.

Lee Roy Bolette and Vardy Wheless, technicians with the state health department, are giving examinations, using a mobile X-ray unit sent here by the state health department.

The survey is sponsored by Lubbock County Tuberculosis association and Hub City Kiwanis club.

An examination requires only a few seconds. Women are asked to remove costume jewelry and men are asked to remove coats.

Continue Through Friday

College students with last names beginning with letters A through F have been asked to report today. Those with names beginning with letters G through L are to report Wednesday; M through R, Thursday, and the remainder on Friday. If they cannot report conveniently on those days, however, they may come at the time convenient for them.

The X-ray unit will be in operation from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Wednesday and Friday, and from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. Thursday.

Those receiving examinations give their names, addresses, age, and names of family physicians. If the test has negative results, individuals will be notified directly by card from the state health department.

If the examination indicates possible presence of tuberculosis, the announcement will be sent to the family physician.

The examination will be given as a free public health measure—not a charitable measure.

The tuberculosis association has pointed out that the disease must be detected early to be cured and that the best way to find out is to obtain a chest X-ray.

Town Mayor Likes Name Like Judge's

MEDINA, N. D., Oct. 25 (AP)

This little city of 900 may change pronunciation of its name to correspond with that of the famed judge who presided over the recent Communist trial in New York.

Mayor Dan Preszler said today he will propose the change as a tribute to Federal Judge Harold R. Medina at the city commission's next meeting.

The city's name now is pronounced with a long "I." like in regina.

In Judge Medina's name the "I" is sounded as a longe "E." rhyming with arena.

Preszler said changing the pronounciation "would be one way to pay some tribute to a judge who by his conduct of the Communist trial showed himself to be a great man and a great American."

Congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Daughtry of 2906 North Second on birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 2 ounces at 4:24 a. m. today at St. Mary's hospital. The father is a landscape worker.

Steel Strike

ings in U. S. Steel were greater than the shares held by majority of the firm's board.

He said U. S. Steel's failure to accept a presidential fact-finding board's recommendation of industry-paid insurance and pension benefits constituted a "disservice to the employes, the shareholders and the country."

Fund Is Ordered

He said that if the industry insisted on forcing employes to contribute to such plans, the workers "in effect" would suffer a wage cut.

"The steel industry is making a grave mistake by not settling this strike promptly," he said, "by accepting the fact-finding board's "modest concessions to labor."

At New York, meanwhile, the general executive board of the electrical workers, third largest union in the CIO, ordered 600,000 UE members to raise a national fund to support the striking steel and coal workers.

The board said the steelworkers and United Mine Workers were bearing the brunt of a "drive of big business to destroy unions" and that the two groups would need all the help they could get from fellow unionists. No estimate was made of how much money the UE planned to raise.

Trains Are Cancelled

The electrical union is one of a dozen allegedly left-wing units that Murray plans to try to eject from the CIO when the organization holds its national convention at Cleveland next week. Murray made it clear to newsmen last night that he plans to ask leaders of the left-wing unions to either follow CIO policy or get out.

Railroads cancelled more than 200 trains in an attempt to save coal. The Pennsylvania railroad cancelled 103 trains, effective tomorrow, the New York Central cancelled 146 trains, the Long Island railroad 42 and the Central railroad of New Jersey cancelled 73. Lines which normally carry thousands of commuters at Chicago also announced schedule cutbacks.

Czech Priests

further in their new, more conciliatory attitude to the state. They offered to participate in church divisions of the regional national committee, the executive bodies which administer governmental affairs for cities and districts.

Negotiations Are Seen

It was also reported without confirmation that church and state leaders might try to get together for a resumption of negotiations for a new church-state agreement.

Negotiations were broken off last spring. The bishops previously said they were willing to resume them only if the state called off its "hostile campaign" against the church. The bishops statement was signed by eleven bishops, headed by Archbishop Josef Matocha of Olomouc, and an apostolic administrator.

It was not signed by Archbishop Josef Beran of Prague, the nation's Catholic primate, who says he has been "interned" in his palace since June 19 when Communist hecklers drove him from his throne in St. Vitus cathedral.

In their statement the bishops made it clear that they still considered the church law, and another law setting up a special cabinet ministry to supervise church affairs, to be a violation of the Czech constitution and "the freedom of the church."

As a result, the bishops said, they themselves would not take any of the salary increases offered under the church law.

Stock Market

STRIKES RESULT IN CAUTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP) — A late rally boosted the stock market fractions to more than a point today.

Closing prices were at the best of the session.

The market followed a narrow course most of the day, with changes limited largely to fractions. Corporate news helped individual issues.

Turnover hit a rate of around 1,100,000 shares.

Some degree of caution was inspired by the continued stalemate in the struck steel and coal industries.

Proctor & Gamble jumped around 2 points at one time to a new high for the year. Demand was linked with rumors of a possible stock split-up or increased dividend.

A fractional gain lifted General Motors to its 1949 peak. Youngstown Sheet, a late starter, rose around 2.

Others higher most of the day included Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Studebaker, U. S. Rubber, Boeing, Benguet Consolidated mining, Phelps Dodge, Dupont, Allied Chemical, Standard Oil (NJ), and Celotex.

Among the sticky spots were Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft, Philco and American Smelting.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP) — Cotton futures were firm today on active commission house and trade buying, although the market turned quiet in later dealings. Aggressive mill buying centered in the old crop deliveries.

Some strength was added by the recent improvement in cotton goods sales and the increase in the flow of cotton into government hands, although loan entries are still far below their levels a year ago. Commission house and New Orleans buying was attracted to the new crop positions by prospects of a high government support price next year and acreage and marketing controls on the 1950 cotton crop.

Futures closed 40 to 85 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Farmers Seek Mystery Man

SILVER CREEK, Mich., Oct. 25 (UP) — Jittery farmers grabbed their shotguns today to "smoke out" an uncanny wanderer who has charmed their watchdogs and frightened their wives.

A posse of 200 mystified farmers, led by Sheriff Louis Johnson, formed to stalk through the heavily wooded hill country for the stranger who has terrorized the area for two weeks.

Bristles With Weapons

The quiet farm community in western Michigan bristled with weapons. Small game hunters were advised to stay clear of the hilly search area.

The farm people became alarmed as the weird events bordered on the supernatural. The prowler stole food from fruit cellars and barns and one farmer reported a 60-pound hog vanished.

The prowler rapped continually on farm house doors, and watchdogs did no more than whimper strangely.

Farmers Are Cautioned

One housewife said she wriggled from his grasp and he sprinted away before she could turn and get a look at him.

Johnson cautioned the farmers against being "trigger-happy."

"He may be the prisoner who escaped from Ionia reformatory and no one has seen him with a gun," Johnson said. "We've got enough of us to smoke him out."

Johnson said the prowler didn't appear interested in attacking or robbing anyone but was searching for food. Wayne Epsy, 22-year-old reformatory inmate escaped recently and might have return to his home area, Johnson said.

member Ewing Werlein, whose motion received almost unanimous approval.

Only board member Mrs. Olon Rogers voted against the action. She later explained that her vote did not mean she approved of the paragraph, but she believed the entire chapter should be read before throwing the book out of Houston schools.

"I think public education is one of the bulwarks of democracy. It is possible that the effect on a child's mind would be bad if he read the book," Werlein suggested.

"When he reads about the post-office, free education and such things, he'll think they're good. And he might think socialism and Communism are good, too," Werlein added.

Increase In Price Of Tires Revealed

Pilot Admits Plane That Killed Crooner Loaded Too Heavily

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Oct. 25. (AP)—Pilot James L. Hayter admits the plane was overloaded which he crash-landed on a busy Los Angeles boulevard and which cost the life of crooner Buddy Clark.

Hayter has been grounded since Oct. 4, charged with reckless and careless flying in failing to carry sufficient fuel and carrying more than the allowable number of passengers.

The two-engine aircraft crash-landed the night of Oct. 1 en route back from Palo Alto, Calif., where Hayter and his five passengers had watched the Stanford-Michigan football game.

Hayter told a Civil Aeronautics administration hearing yesterday that he calculated the plane was overloaded 390 pounds, but insisted it was not dangerous.

Hayter said gasoline consumption the last part of the return trip nearly tripled normal consumption and he planned to land at Newhall airport to refuel. But the airport was dark and he tried to make Lockheed terminal at Burbank, but came out of an overcast over city streets.

With the gasoline gone, he testified, there was nothing to do but crash-land on a street "between cars stopped by traffic signals."

MacArthur Abolishes Jap Export Controls

TOKYO, Oct. 25 (AP)—General MacArthur today abolished floor prices under Japanese exports, effective tomorrow.

The price system has been in effect since August, 1947, when Japan resumed private trade. It was designed to maintain export prices at world market levels and to prevent "dumping" of goods abroad in the prewar pattern.

The order will apply to all exports immediately and to silk next Jan. 1. Silk prices have been guaranteed until Dec. 31.

In his directive, MacArthur made the Japanese government responsible for guarding against unfair commercial practices by Japanese exporters.

The occupation commander told the Japanese their pricing procedures should be based on the principle of setting export prices at no less than prices on the domestic market. For products not sold in Japan, he said, it should be based on cost plus handling and "a reasonable profit."

Taft Urges Monroe Doctrine For U. S. In Western Europe

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 25. (AP)—Senator Robert A. Taft believes the United States should make clear to Russia that if she attacks Western Europe "she will find herself at war with us."

The Ohio Republican senator, who addresses the United World Federalists here today, made that proposal in a speech last night before the Toledo United Nations association.

This, he said, would amount to a Monroe doctrine for Western Europe and would be far more effective than Atlantic Pact, which arms other nations.

The Monroe doctrine, one of the United States' main foreign policies in the 19th century, warned Europe that war against South American would mean war against America.

Freight Train Jumps Tracks; Crew Unhurt

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Twenty-four cars of an eastbound Reading company freight train were derailed at nearby Montoursville today, spilling soft coal, oil and lumber across the tracks.

Reading officials said none of the crewmen on the 72-car train was hurt.

Both the eastbound and westbound tracks were blocked by the wreck as cars were overturned and rails torn up in the borough of Montoursville, a town of 4,000.

The train had been formed and started a short time earlier at the Reading company's Newberry yards, nine miles west of the scene. The train was bound for Tamaqua, Pa.

Member Of Prominent Family Put On Probation For Larceny

ALFRED, Me., Oct. 25 (AP) — Winthrop Lee Biddle, 53, member of a prominent Philadelphia family, is on probation from a two to four years state prison sentence for larceny.

Superior Court Justice Percy T. Clarke suspended the sentence yesterday on condition that Biddle replace what he allegedly stole—$1,107 worth of household goods—and go to the Togus veterans' administrationi hospital for treatment of a mental condition.

"You have been examined by psychiatrists," the jurist told Biddle, "and they feel that you have a mental condition that can be straightened out."

Vet Of Two Wars

A veteran of both world wars, Biddle is a son the late Edward Biddle, Philadelphia writer and art connoisseur.

He has been in jail here since July on a six months' sentence imposed in Yorkshire municipal court for petty larceny.

Justice Clarke said that sentence would be disregarded. As soon as Biddle fulfills the restitution condition he will be sent to the hospital, the jurist said.

Biddle pleaded no contest to charges of stealing jewelry, silver, linens and other household goods from two Kittery Point women—Mrs. Mary G. S. Thaxter and Miss Rosamond Thaxter, relatives of New England poetess Celia Thaxter.

Biddle was a summer resident of Kittery Point.

Freezing Cold Sweeps Plains

(By The Associated Press)

Freezing cold hit the southern plains today, following heavy rains which took at least three lives and damaged the cotton crop at harvest time.

Even lower temperatures moved into the northeast and midwest after the season's first snows fell at several points.

In the Texas Panhandle, Dalhart reported an early morning low of 26 degrees. Elk City, Okla., had the season's lowest, 29, after two days' rain which delayed the cotton harvest but helped other crops.

Geese Sighted

Thousands of geese were sighted in the chilly midwest. They were making their annual southward migration from Canada, following a recent cold snap in the far north.

Snow covered the ground at Georgetown, Del. There was snow in upstate New York and flurries swirled over parts of Maine. The low New England temperature was 18 degrees at Rumford and Houlton, Me. Canton and Massena, N. Y., each reported 20 degrees.

Rain pelted a wide area from the Texas gulf coast northeastward across Louisiana and Arkansas into southern Missouri and in parts of Kentucky and West Virginia.

Some parts of Texas got a heavy drenching and many streams overflowed. Three persons died.

Movie Company Sued On Mark Twain Story

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (AP) — "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County" has hopped right out of California's gold rush days into justice court.

Clara Clemens Samossoud, daughter of Mark Twain, author of the story, yesterday filed a $300,000 damage suit against Columbia Pictures Corp., contending that a film, "Best Man Wins," has "deformed and mutilated" the story.

The suit complains that the movie is a corny love story which injured Twain's reputation. It seeks an injunction against the studio until all reference to the fact the film was based on Twain's jumping frog yarn is eliminated.

The suit alleges the works of Mark Twain, pen name for Samuel Clemens who died in 1910, are still protected by copyright.

Officers Vow To Recapture Or Kill Notorious Outlaw

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 25. (UP)—FBI agents vowed today to track down outlaw Jack Tatum, terror of the southwest, and kill or capture him.

They were convinced that Tatum, who broke out of jail here Saturday, had gotten arms from friends and would fight a battle to the death against officers when they catch up with him.

Deputies Nat Minden, Nev., mounted a 24-hour guard over the Arizona badman's father, Sam Tatum, in the belief that Jack might make an attempt to "spring" him from the Douglas county jail.

Reported Seen

Five persons in Sparks, Nev., two miles east of Reno, reported sighting the gunman last night.

Jack Tatum, his father, and his brother Frank, were arrested at Minden last August for burglarizing the homes of wealthy persons on Lake Tahoe. Jack and Frank sawed their way out. Frank was recaptured and sent to San Quentin as a parole violator. Jack was recaptured in Phoenix and was awaiting transfer when he escaped.

Dozens of reports were being received from persons who believed they had sighted the notorious badman.

Illinois Man Burned To Death In Auto

FORT WORTH, Oct. 25 (UP)—A man identified as W. D. Peasner, about 50, of Springfield, Ill., was burned to death early today when a two-burner gasoline heating stove in the back seat of his car set the vehicle afire.

Firemen said the man apparently lit the stove to keep warm and then fell asleep in the rear seat of the car.

Fire Marshal W. H. Dixon said the man had undressed and placed his clothing beneath him on the back seat.

The blazing vehicle was discovered by a taxicab driver along the Missouri-Pacific railroad right-of-way here.

An inquest verdict of death by suffocation and burning was returned.

Police identified the man from the car's title found in the charred remains of the 1936 Chevrolet coach.

Talks On Wage Hikes For Workers Opened

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 25. (AP)—Workers of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. are seeking wage increases in negotiations that opened here at 10 a. m. (CST) today.

The employes are represented by the CIO Communications Workers of America, which claims a membership of 50,000 in Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and part of Illinois.

Negotiations will affect all these workers.

D. L. McCowen, union president, said the proposed pay boosts would amount to a fourth round since the end of the war. He added, however, he preferred to regard any raises as "adjustments up to those granted in other industries."

The annual American recreation budget amounts to more than $4,000,000,000.

Woman With Brand New Car Not Taking A Chance On Losing Any Of Its Parts

OTTAWA, Canada, Oct. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Fred Browne said she stopped and got out when she heard a clanging noise under her brand new car.

The car seemed to be running all right without the big steel disk lying on the road but she decided to take it home for her husband to look at.

"I just tugged and pulled," she said, explaining how she loaded it into the car trunk. "I guess I was so scared I'd wrecked the car that I could have lifted almost anything."

Hubbie took one look at the big steel disk and suggested she take the manhole cover back to the city works department.

AN INSTITUTION HAS ITS PRICE

College Will Support White Supremacy For $50 Million

WASHINGTON, Miss., Oct. 25. (AP)—Jefferson Military college has qualified for a $50,000,000 bequest by agreeing to teach white supremacy.

The school's announcement last night came from A. J. Armstrong, business manager and son of George Armstrong, benefactor of the 102-year-old prep institute.

The college declined to publicize its enrollment, but estimates place it at between 60 and 80 cadets.

Young Armstrong said his father had notified the board of trustees he would give the school all of his mineral rights in Mississippi upon certain conditions.

Other Conditions Imposed

These conditions, which Armstrong said the school had accepted, called for the exclusion of "any instructor or employe who is a known communist or has communistic leanings or who is of African or Asiatic origin."

In addition, the elder Armstrong specified that the faculty and student body be composed primarily of persons of Anglo-Saxon and Latin-American antecedents who hold "the true Christian faith."

Another requirement called for establishment of a curricula deoted chiefly to "the constitution, Christianity and the superiority of the Anglo-Saxon and Latin-American races."

The young Armstrong said the endowment would include portions of mineral rights on 42,000 acres in three counties in addition to 26,000 acres to be conveyed to the school.

He said the endowment included three producing oil wells and that overall the bequest probably would exceed $50,000,000.

Chewing Gum Said To Prevent Tooth Decay

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Oct. 25 (AP)—A gum chew a day will keep the dentist away.

This may be the slogan of new chewing gums which will be on the market within a month, says Dr. Robert G. Kesel, professor of dentistry at the University of Illinois and developer of ammoniated dentifrices.

Dr. Kesel told 200 fellow dentists at the sixth annual dental medicine seminar here yesterday that the new gum will contain dibasic ammonium phospate and urea. They are the bacteria killing ingredients found in many new tooth pastes and powders.

Medical Schools Ask For Public Hearing

Baltimore SPCA Bans Use Of Stray Dogs For Experiments

BALTIMORE, Oct. 25 (AP) — Baltimore's medical schools are running short of dogs for experimental purposes.

They want to get the unwanted strays now put to death by the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

But the SPCA says the dogs will not be turned over to the doctors if it can help it.

The doctors have asked for a public hearing on the question before the city renews for 1950 its contract with the SPCA.

This is one of the world's medical centers, and important research is always in progress at the Johns Hopkins and University of Maryland medical schools.

Dogs Wouldn't Suffer

The eight doctors who asked the board of estimates, the city's money-handling adjunct, for a hearing, said the current dog shortage is hampering heart disease and stomach ulcer research.

They said in their letter that no dog would suffer.

Miss Mary B. Shearer, president of the SPCA, said last night that her group is unalterably opposed to the proposition.

"We feel that a small body of people have no right to disturb and disorganize a useful public service," she said.

When asked if the SPCA was opposed to the use of stray dogs for medical research, Miss Shearer said:

"I would rather not answer that."

Signing the letter to the board of estimates were the deans of the two medical schools, the heads of all the city medical societies and the director of the state department of health.

Symphony Season Opens, Featuring Met Opera Star

Lubbock Symphony orchestra played a well rounded concert to a near capacity house to open the 1949-50 season Monday night at Senior High school auditorium, starring Met baritone Leonard Warren, renowned in both opera and concert halls, as guest artist. There will be a repeat performance tonight at the auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Warren, whose voice is phenomenal, sang with such beauty and power that he received a wild ovation before intermission and by the time the program ended he had the audience clamoring for encore after encore, piano accompaniment for which was played by Willard Sektberg, an unusually dexterous musician.

Carrying out his promise to fit the concert programs to appeal to a cross section of the area, Conductor William A. Harrod alternated the symphonic selections with easily recognized classics. The program opened with Overture from "Abu Hassan" (Weber) and closed unconventionally enough, with "Chicken Reel," being immediately preceded by "Overture from South Pacific" (Rodgers - Hammerstein).

Harrod, as usual, handled the baton with complete lack of strain and affectation. In "Andante" (Tschaikowsky) he allowed melodies and the slower episodes to take their time, letting their eloquence and songfulness come to full bloom. In Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" the sharper sequences often had explosive force, with vigorous punctuation.

French Horn Solo Included

In the opening theme from the Tschaikowsky symphony, Frank Herring was heard in a French horn solo and William A. McClatchy did the clarinet cadenzas in the Rhapsody.

In "Dance of the Cammorists" (Wolf-Ferrari) and the spiritual "Go Down Moses" (arr. by Morton Gould) the orchestra showed it was never too driven by the climax ahead to neglect the details where polish and restrained tempo were needed.

"Cuban Holiday" (Donald Phillips), a number with a Xavier Cugat touch about it, was roundly applauded.

The guest artist, displaying exemplary diction, ease and experienced style gained with years of experience, sang "Eri Tu" from Verdi's "The Masked Ball" and the ever popular prologue from the opera "Pagliacci" (Leoncavallo) before intermission. Returning, he offered the brilliant and rapid aria, "Largo al Factotum," from Rossini's "The Barber of Seville." The best applauded number was "On the Road to Mandalay," in the repertoire of baritones the world over.

Encore numbers, with Sektberg at the piano, included "A Little Bit of Heaven," "Mr. Jim," "Mattinata" and in conclusion, "The Lord's Prayer" (Mallott).

Tickets for tonight's program are on sale at Adair's and Varsity Book stores and will be available at the box office.

Tech Favorites Are To Be Chosen Today

Students of Texas Technological college were to trek to the polls today to vote for class favorites, Mr. and Miss Tech for 1950, and two representatives to the student council.

Signs and soap-box campaigning dotted the campus Monday as the students rooted for their favorite candidates. The entire student body will vote on the Mr. and Miss Tech honors, while members of the respective classes will vote for one boy and one girl favorite from each classification.

Vacancies on the student council have been opened in the Arts and Sciences and home economics divisions.

Favorite and Mr. and Miss Tech winners will all be featured in the student yearbook, La Ventana, Editor Roy Grimes, Lubbock, has announced. This is the first year since 1945 that the latter feature has had a place in the annual, while only girl favorites have previously been selected.

Had RHEUMATISM So BAD That He Had To Quit Working*

*Caused by dietary deficiency.

Mr. Jerry Watkins, chief of detectives of the city of Hot Springs, Arkansas, suffered with rheumatism so much and the aches and pains were so terrible that he had to quit working in an effort to regain his health after he had tried everything which his friends recommended.

Detective Watkins is well known and his countless number of friends throughout the country will rejoice to know that he is now healthy, free of rheumatic aches and pains and now working hard.

Mr. Jerry Watkins

"For several years," Mr. Watkins says, "I suffered from a rheumatic condition in the hip and leg. I was very nervous and finally developed migraine headaches. I tried all kinds of medicines but nothing seemed to do me any good. I seemed to be growing worse and worse and was finally advised to take a leave of absence from my work on the police force in an effort to recover my health."

"The pains in my head sometimes were unbearable. I suffered tortures and I was miserable. At night particularly I lay awake and could not sleep."

Mr. Watkins said that someone finally persuaded him to try HADACOL, and after taking the first bottle he said he could see an improvement in his general condition.

"On January 14th of this year," he said, "I felt so much better I decided to go back on the job. The examining doctor told me I was in perfect health. Now I am working from 8 to 12 hours daily and I am able to sleep as any normal person. I have taken six large size bottles of HADACOL and all my friends know I owe my good health to HADACOL."

Mr. Watkins is one of the many thousands of people who suffered from a deficiency of the B vitamins and the minerals that HADACOL contains and who, therefore, found relief in HADACOL.

It is a well-known scientific fact that the lack of only a small amount of the B vitamins and certain minerals in your system will cause certain bodily disorders such as nutritional neuritis, which causes the aches and pains commonly known as rheumatism, and there is no known cure for the ailment except the administration of the needed vitamins and minerals. This is why people who suffered for years and years never were able to obtain any relief until they took the vitamins and minerals the lack of which was causing the disorders.

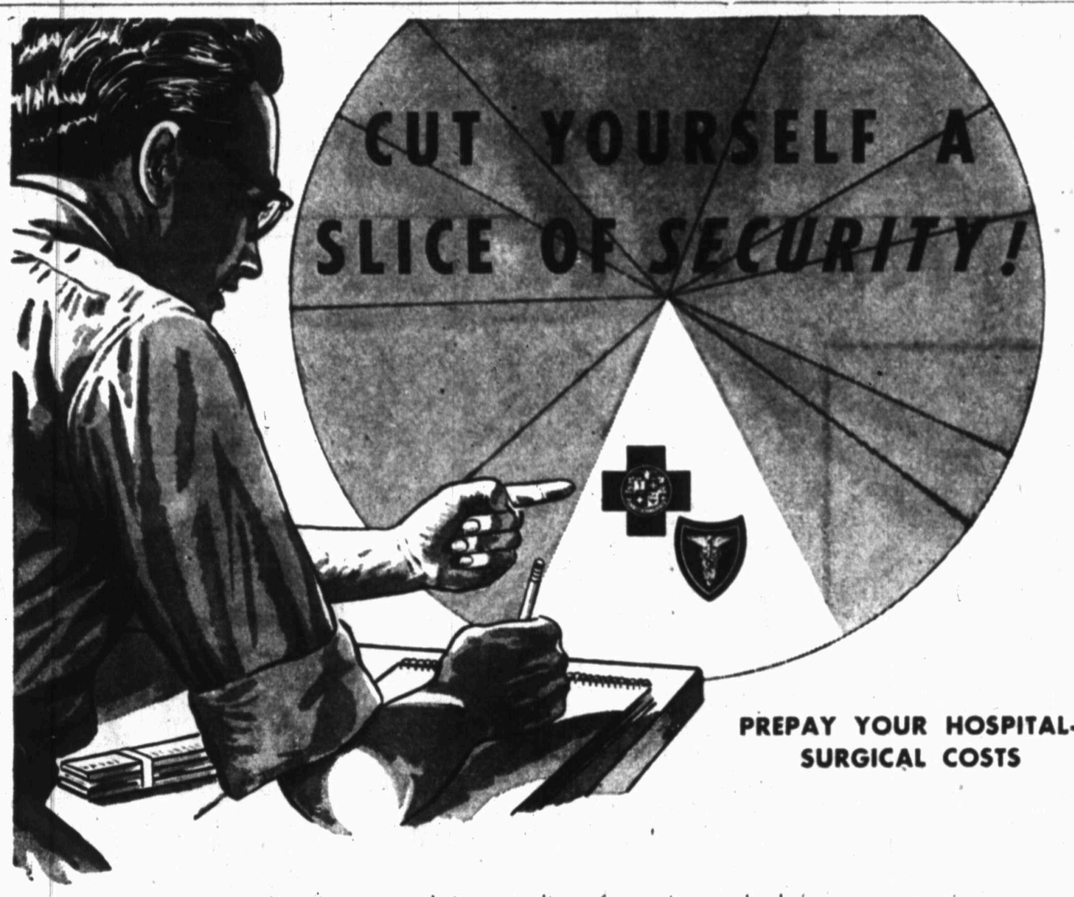

HADACOL does not contain only one but has five of the B vitamins and four necessary minerals. It comes to you in liquid form so that it will be easily absorbed by the blood and therefore, carried to the parts of the body which need them most.

So, it matters not where you live—no matter who you are—if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, you should be fair to yourself and give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. And if your disease is caused by a lack of the B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains, then don't go on suffering—don't continue to make your life so miserable. Temporary relief for you is not enough. Take HADACOL.

Sold at all leading drugstores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money; buy the large family economy size, only $3.50. If your druggist does not handle HADACOL, order direct from The Le Blanc Corporation, Lafayette, La., and when the postman brings your package, just pay the amount plus the c.o.d. and postage. If you remit with the order we will pay the postage.

The if you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.—Adv.

Bette Davis' Husband Yearns For Wife To Drop Divorce Suit

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif., Oct. 25 (AP)—William Grant Sherry said today he will "do anything in the world" to have Bette Davis drop her divorce suit and blames "my severe temper" on her surprise divorce action last Friday.

The 34-year-old artist said he is looking for "a really good psychiatrist" to help him get rid of the temper, which he admitted "has been our real trouble."

Breaks Chair At Times

He said he had received a letter from his 40-year-old actress wife which read: "please remember there is no hate in my heart. I only want a solution to this thing."

Just before filing the divorce suit, charging cruelty, Miss Davis left their mansion here with their daughter, Barbara, 2½. Sherry said he had not seen them since. They were married in November of 1945.

"Many people have a temper but don't go so far with it as I do," Sherry stated. "Sometimes I have to break a chair or a table to get release.

Doesn't Blame Bette

"I don't blame Bette at all for what she did. It's tough for her to work hard in pictures and have this problem at home. I should be able to protect her and not frighten her."

Sherry believes the war may be to blame for his disposition. He said he was in the navy four years, serving both in the Atlantic and Pacific. He was on a minesweeper for a time. The last nine months of the war he was making illustrations of surgery at the San Diego naval hospital.

At present he is doing a book of etchings on circus life, having recently returned from touring with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey show.

ISRAEL TO RESIST MOVEMENT

UN Takes Up Ticklish Dispute On Demilitarizing Jerusalem

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 25 (AP)—The United Nations security council takes up today the disputed question of demilitarizing Jerusalem.

The U. N. assembly nearly a year ago ordered the council to try to get Arab and Israeli armed forces out of the Holy City and Egypt has proposed that the council now take some action.

Egypt is a member of the security council Israel is not, but its permanent delegate, Aubrey Eban, got permission beforehand to appear before the council and make a statement.

Israel has announced that it would resist making an international city of Jerusalem. Its officials have promised, however, that the state would guard and give free access to the religious shrines of the three great religions—Christian, Moslem and Hebrew—situated there.

Jerusalem is considered an integral part of the state of Israel by its leaders and any other attempt to diminish Israeli control of any kind appeared certain to be resisted. It was expected that Israel would argue that she had the right to maintain her own troops in any area of her country.

The dispute was forced by one of the leaders of the Arab states and its debate comes at a time when Israel is charging another Arab state, Iraq, with oppressing thousands of its Israeli inhabitants. The charges were denied immediately by Fadhil, Jamali, Iraq foreign minister, who heads his delegation to the U. N.

Jamali said in a statement that he had been informed by the Iraqi government there have been no recent Jewish arrests there, as charged by the Israelis. He said the charges were an Israeli maneuver to counter Arab charges of mistreatment of Arab refugees by Israel which will soon come up in the U. N.

Reds Accuse Greece

Eban said that there was no intention now to bring the accusations against Iraq before the U. N.

The political committee continues its discussion today on attempts at conciliation in the Balkans by a special peace making committee. The discussion was sidetracked yesterday by a running fire of accusations made by Russia and her satellites that Greece is engaged on a wave of executions and political trials.

The subcommittee dealing with disposal of Italy's prewar colonies in Africa returns to debate an Argentine proposal to give Eritrea her choice of whether she would federate with Ethiopia, demand independence, or be divided between Ethiopia and the Anglo-Eyptian Sudan. It was one of several compromise offers in an attempt to get something done with Eritrea, Libia and Somaliland during this session.

Dollar shortages in Latin-American countries are causing discrimination against buying United States products, a Brazilian delegate told the U. N. economic committee. The committee continues discussion of full world employment today.

The legal committee, discussing a new international code of the rights of states, was begged by M. Bartos, of Yugoslavia, for immediate action in adopting rules which would halt aggression and keep big nations from threatening little ones. Bartos said off the floor hat he meant Russia and her threats against Yugoslavio in his remarks.

Bomb Victims Have Chance

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25. (AP)—You do have a chance against the atomic bomb—if you are at least half a mile away from the explosion.

Maj. Albert J. Bauer, of the U. S. army surgeon general's office says if you're four miles away when the bomb goes off, your chances of escaping without injury are almost perfect.

But from four miles in toward the center, the safety percentages drop off sharply. From a half mile out to a mile and a half from the atomic blast, it is about 50-50 that you will come out alive. In the half-mile inner circle, "there will be almost complete destruction with deaths very close to 100 per cent," Bauer says.

Report Is Prepared

Bauer prepared this report with Capt. John R. Hogness of the U. S. army medical center for presentation today before the 12th international congress of military medicine and pharmacy meeting here. Military medical officers from 28 nations are attending the congress. Basing their findings on the atomic explosions at Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Bikini, the two army medical men described the effect of an atomic blast and how to defend a city against it.

Agreeing that "the atomic bomb is truly a fearful and extremely destructive weapon," the report emphasizes that the public must realize "an atomic explosion is not the end for all concerned."

At Hiroshima, 50,000 in a city of 250,000 died from one bomb. But the report blamed the high death rate on the downtown location of hispitals. At Hiroshima nine-tenths of the doctors and nurses were bomb casualties. This prevented medical aid which could have saved many victims.

Most From Injuries

The report said of all Hiroshima deaths, only 15 in 100 came from the mysterious and much feared radiation sickness. Most deaths resulted from injuries common to any other bombardment—burns, fractures, contusions and lacerations.

Bauer and Hogness regard widespread fire and severe burns as the greatest hazards of the bomb. The intense flash of the blast sends out heat waves that can ignite inflammable materials a mile and a half away.

And what to do about a bomb attack? Bauer and Hogness recommend preparedness measures not much different from those for any other kind of bombing.

THE QUESTION

Are you in favor of support of prices of farm commodities indefinitely at 90 per cent parity?

THE ANSWERS

JOHN PAYNE, Route 2, laundryman: "Sure, I'm in favor of it. It will keep the prices up. The farmer has never been protected until just recently. It will give all of us better prices for what we do."

D. B. SIMMONS, 2606 Ruby, Tech Student: "The less government control we have, the better I like it. It's going to take the whole country into a socialistic form of government if they keep going. The government will eventually control everything."

M. H. HARALSON, Route 1, farmer, "Yes, I'm in favor of it. If they don't support our prices, we won't get anything for our crops. It will insure us a certain price for our products. If we don't get a certain amount, we can't keep farming."

WILLIS HESTER, 1516 Twenty-fifth, farmer: "I'm in favor of it. I don't feel like we're justified to grow a crop unless we get 90 per cent. The expense of raising a crop is so high that unless we do get 90 per cent, we can't live."

M. M. STYLES, Route 1, farmer: "I sure am. It looks like we must have support prices in order to finance our cotton acreage. As it is now, folks won't diversify the farming. We should be able to raise cotton at a little profit now."

K. K. LAMBETH, Route 3, farmer: "I certainly am. This would bring the price of cotton up on less acreage. There will naturally be more foodstuffs grown on the converted land."

Loss Is Heavy In Hobbs Fire

(Special To The Journal)

HOBBS, N. M., Oct. 25—Damages estimated at $25,000 to $30,000 were caused here Monday when a spectacular explosion and fire destroyed the Hobbs Union Bus station along with two passenger buses.

The buildings and buses were the property of the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Bus lines company, with headquarters in Lubbock.

R. C. Bennett of Hobbs, said he was in the station waiting room when he heard an explosion at 10:40 a. m., the International News Service said.

The fire followed immediately, with flames shooting 40 feet into the air from the garage section of the terminal.

Cause Not Determined

Hurley Carpenter, assistant general manager of the TN&MO lines in Lubbock, said here today that it had not been determined what caused the explosion and resulting fire.

Some reports indicated that natural gas rather than gasoline caused the original blast, possibly set of by an electric spark.

Carpenter, who came to Hobbs upon being notified of the fire, said that the company was seeking a new temporary bus stop until new facilities could be arranged.

New Stop Planned

A new stop in Hobbs will be announced, possibly today, he said.

Carpenter gave the estimate of $25,000 to $30,000 loss in the blast and fire.

He said that the two buses destroyed included a 25 passenger and 29 passenger vehicle of the type used on the TN&MO lines throughout the area, although not as large as those used on some routes.

Carpenter said that the fire was entirely accidental.

125 TEACHERS EXPECTED TO ATTEND SESSIONS HERE FRIDAY, SATURDAY

District IV English Workshop Conference Scheduled For City

Final preparations are being made for the second annual District IV English Workshop conference, which is to be held at Lubbock Senior High school Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, according to announcement Monday by Miss Glenys Honey, program chairman.

Attendance at the workshop-conference is open to all English departments in junior and senior high schools and colleges within District IV of the Texas State Teachers association.

More than 125 teachers of English in this district are expected to attend the two-day meeting, representing 38 or more English departments of junior and senior high schools and colleges in District IV.

The meeting will get underway at 2 p.m. Friday. The first session will continue until 5 p.m. A dinner meeting is planned for 7:30 p.m. Friday, and the Saturday morning sessions will get underway at 9 a.m. and continue until 12 noon.

Topics to be taken up at sessions of the workshop-conference are How to Improve Reading Comprehension, How to Increase the Quantity and Improve the Quality of Students' Reading, and How to Evaluate Reading Material.

Discussion leaders are being selected who will present the point of view of junior and senior high school and college teachers and of other educators concerned with the problems of reading, Miss Honey said.

A membership fee of $2 for each participating English department in District IV will be charged. Payment of this fee by the school or department enables each English teacher in the department enrolled to attend and to participate in the sessions of the workshop-conference. Advance payment of this fee is urged. Payment may be made to Miss Quanah Lewis, Department of English, Texas Tech.

The aim of the workshop-conference committee is to have full representation of the English teachers of the area at each of the three sessions of the conference. If it is not possible for all teachers to attend, English departments are urged to send at least one representative to participate actively in the sessions.

Part Of State-Wide Program

The District IV workshop-conference is a part of the statewide program of the Texas State Teachers association and the Texas Conference of College Teachers of English. It is directed toward the coordination and improvement of the teaching of English in Texas.

The program was initiated in 1945. Workshop conferences were held throughout the state last

53-Year-Old Romeo Is Given Life Term

STE. GENEVIEVE, Mo., Oct. 25. (U.P.)—William Mahurin, 53-year-old "lonely hearts" Romeo, today faced a life sentence for the murder of his sixth wife.

An all-male jury returned the verdict of guilty of first-degree murder last night after more than three hours deliberation and fixed the sentence for the balding defendant.

Spectators, many of them holding sleeping children in their laps, waited up for the jury as this town had its first murder case in many years. The state had asked the death penalty in the strangling of Lottie Fisk Mahurin.

Circuit Judge Norwin D. Houser granted Mahurin's attorneys 30 days to file a motion for a new trial and delayed the passing of sentence until that time.

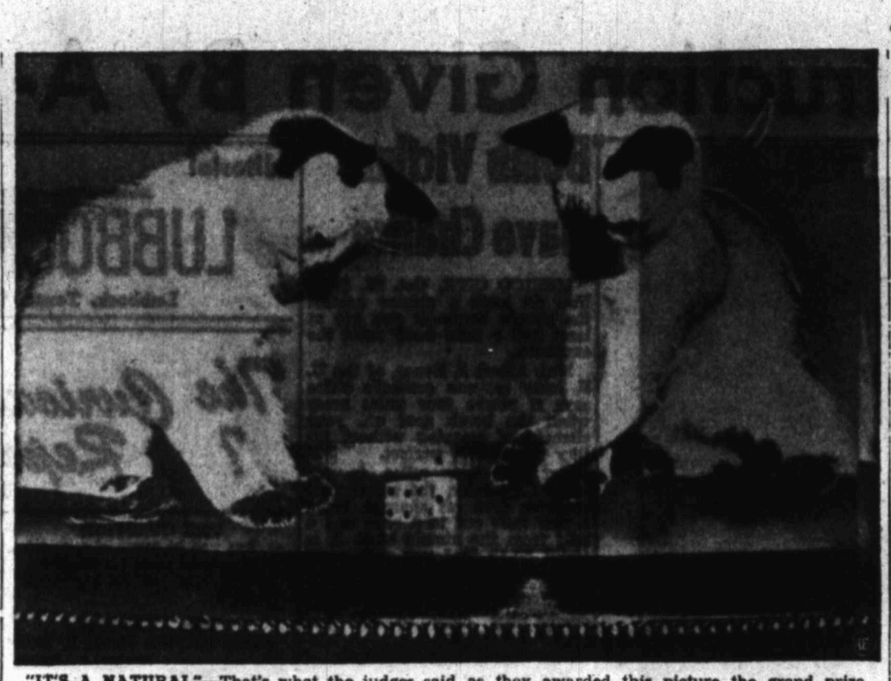

Special Prosecutor J. Grant Frye re-enacted the crime at the Mahurin farmhouse near Farmington, Mo., March 17 in his dramatic closing arguments. Frye assisted St. Francois County Prosecutor B. C. Tomlinson in the preparation of the case after the trial was brought here on a change of venue.

Others Are Present

Mahurin had contended, at the time of his wife's death, that she died in the explosion of an oil stove.

Two of the women Mahurin married before he met the victim through a lonely hearts club, Mrs. Elaine Harriman of St. Louis, wife number 4, and Mrs. Adele Robinson of suburban Wellston, number 5, were present at his trial.

Alan Ladd Assails Hollywood Trend To Exposed Male Chest

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25.—Alan Ladd has a beef—about "beefcake," the new Hollywood trend toward exposing the male chest.

Ladd, along with Victor Mature, Richard Conte, Robert Ryan and others, has been shown stripped to the waist in movie ads. "I don't like it," Ladd said on the "U. S. Mail" set. "I wish I could talk them into letting me stay covered up.

Advertisements Scored

"I especially don't like the way they advertise a picture by showing you stripped to the waist. Usually if you do appear that way in the picture, it's only for a few scenes."

"The Great Gatsby" was the film exploited with Ladd's bare bosom. "That's foolish," he commented, "because I was playing a character role, not a pretty-boy personality. And the only time my chest was shown was during a swimming scene where I was shot."

Film Is Praised

Capsule review: "The Heiress" (Par) is a splendid job of recreating a century-old era and three characters thereof. William Wyler has made a fine film, avoiding the pitfalls of costume drama. Olivia DeHavilland etches a true portrait of a shy heiress and Montgomery Clift convinces as the fortune-hunter. Tops is Ralph Richardson as the father. Film and players are academy fodder.

cation and planning for an atomic emergency to prevent hysteria.

May Come As Surprise

"Discussion on types of shelters is perhaps somewhat academic, as an atomic attack on any city may well come as a complete surprise and little in the way of shelter will be utilized in advance," the report says.

"The population of a city must be advised to remain indoors wherever they are located at the time of attack, turn on radios if current is available, and await instructions.

"After atomic bombardment, . . . the safest action for the individual civilian is to remain in the vicinity of his home and endeavor to control local fires, unless some specific reason for evacuation becomes apparent."

Hospitals must be moved out of the cities, the report says. There must be quantities of reserve beds for emergency hospitals in warehouses and large buildings.

Must Be Mobilized

Doctors and nurses must be mobilized, ready for instant service out of town as well as at home.

Fire fighting must be highly organized, with equipment widely scattered.

For firemen and others entering contaminated areas, plenty of disposable protective clothing and dust masks must be on hand to keep out radioactive dusts.

But though "radioactive contamination of water . . . is possible," the report says ordinary water purification processes already used in most cities will take care of most atomic contamination.

Bomb shelters should be underground, and much stronger than usual to combat the "penetrating radiation" and the "terrific blast effect."

The two men say their "picture of destruction and casualties . . . may well seem grim" and "the amount of organization necessary to meet the problem may sound almost overwhelming." They add:

"However, it must be remembered that without adequate advance preparation, conditions after an atomic bombardment would be far more serious."

Austria announces that an average of 2,600 calories a day in rationed and unrationed food now is available to the population as a whole.

U.S. Monopoly Probe Reopens

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—A congressional study of monopoly powers in business and organized labor reopens today before a House judiciary subcommittee.

Nearly a score of witnesses — specialists in economic law and industry—testified before the committee in initial hearings during the early summer.

Chairman Celler (D-NY) said the month-long hearing session in July and August prepared the ground for extended sessions opening today on specific studies of monopoly growth and concentration.

Called to appear to discuss industrial contract relations with the government were Admiral N. L. Ring and Admiral J. D. Boyle of the navy department; Gen. R. N. Brannan of the army; Clifton Mack, of the federal bureau of supply; and M. H. Elliot, counsel for the government's general services.

Courses Suggested

Out of the volume of testimony is intended to come specific legislative suggestions for curbing and controlling large concentrations of wealth and industrial power, Celler said.

The early preliminary hearings, he said, have suggested three possible courses of action:

1. Specific amendments to existing anti-trust laws. One of these most frequently emphasized has been a proposed change in the Clayton act to limit corporate mergers where greater monopoly is threatened by the merger.

2. Repeal of some or all of the laws which now exempt certain forms of business from the anti-trust laws. Two previously mentioned are the Miller-Tydings act permitting state price maintenance and "fair trade" laws, and the Reed-Bulwinkle law which exempts railroads from anti-trust prosecution in establishing uniform rates.

3. Some limitation upon the size of corporations through regulation similar to that now imposed on public utilities by the interstate commerce commission, federal communications commission and other regulatory bodies.

There's One More Censor In Life Of Lana--It's Husband

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25. (NEA) There's a new censor in Lana Turner's life. All publicity on Lana, including releases from her studio, M-G-M, must be cleared through husband Bob Topping. Bob doesn't always see eye to eye with reporters.

Ray Milland's contract with Paramount expires within a year and Ray has given the studio an ultimatum. He'll go elsewhere unless he is given a chance to prove himself as a director.

George Burns and Gracie Allen may be back on the screen after a long absence. Columbia is talking about a Mr. and Mrs. film series based on their radio show format. . . Paramount will reunite Bing, Bob and Dottie Lamour in another "Road" picture. . . . Bill Williams' switch to a sinister heavy in "Fighting Man of the Plains" is the talk of the town. Says Director Ed Marin: "Bill's the best heavy to come along since Dan Duryea."

David Niven swears it's true. He received a long distance call from a northern California theater owner. Would Mr. Niven like to fly up for a big premiere?

"New theater?" asked Niven.

"No."

"New picture?"

"No."

"What's the premiere then?" asked Niven.

The theater owner replied: "I'm unveiling my new candy counter."

TIGHT RACE

Oscar prediction: "Pinky," "The Heiress" and M-G-M's "Battleground" will fight it out in the Academy race. The ballyhoo already has started. . . Second-generation actors are going to town at M-G-M. Glenda Farrell's son, Tommy, goes into "The Duchess of Idaho." John Wayne's son, Michael, is in "You're Only Young Twice." Alan Dinehart II and General Pershing's grandson, John Pershing III, are in the same film.

When Louis Calhern signed that long-term M-G-M contract a pal sent him a cake. Inside the cake was a file and a note: "If you can't get out with this file I'll send you a rope."

Louis replied: "The only thing that keeps me here are bars of gold."

"Running of the Tide" is Edmund Gwenn's first role in a year. The Oscar jinx? . . . A college prank cost Monogram the loss of a day in production of "Bomba on Panther Island." Star Johnny Sheffield was "kidnaped" for 24 hours by UCLA fraternity pledges. They aloweld him one telephone call—to advise the studio he was a captive. . . Kay Kyser will revive his old "College of Musical Knowledge" for a big hour TV show from New York.

Which reminds me:

Floyd Jackson, who shines shoes and parks cars on the Sam Goldwyn lot, stopped all of the studio's top executives the other day and quizzed them about the future of TV. He was so curious about whether TV was here to stay that someone finally said:

"Jackson, why are you so interested?"

Jackson replied:

"Well, boss, I've been offered the shoe shine stand at Television Center and I don't know whether I should take it."

ONE AFTER THE OTHER

Don De Fore is due for a bigger role in Paramount's sequel to "My Friend Irma." He's also up for two films at Fox. . . Marie Wilson, by the way, isn't the only gal in Hollywood who comes up with confusing answers. A publicity man asked model Pat Hall if she would go east to give away kisses at the premiere of "A Kiss for Corliss." Pat replied:

"Sure, but I'll have to think about it first."

Dinah Shore gets a corny plug in the new Arthur Freed musical, "On The Town." A cop says: "I just saw a dinosaur." His friend replies: "Gee, that Dinah Shore is my favorite singer."

Hollywood is talking about: Director William Wyler's appeal for something besides "boy meets girl" on the screen. Says Wyler: "The greatest films could come from Hollywood if the men in control will not be frightened. We need men of courage—who will not be intimidated or coerced into making only "safe" pictures—pictures devoid of any ideas whatsoever."

Hollywood success formula, by Jackie Gleason: "Start at the bottom and work everybody." . . . Jimmy Stewart finally getting the official nod for the film version of "Harvey." . . . That expectant father's kit sent to Bill Howard, husband of Dorothy Lamour. It included two boxes of cigars, a bottle of bicarbonate of soda, a fifth of Scotch and a pair of crepe-soled shoes for pacing up and down the hospital corridor.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW! BY FAGALY and SHORTEN

Driverless Car, With Children Aboard, Turns Around To Come Back For Owner

VENTURA, Calif., Oct. 25 (AP)—It sounds like something out of an old Mack Sennett movie but it was no comedy to Harry Wilton Field, 35.

Field took his two children along with him yesterday as he drove a trailerload of trash to the city dump.

He saw in the rear-view mirror that the trash was afire. He stepped on the gas to beat the fire to the dump.

Rounding a curve, the car door swung open and Field fell out. The driverless auto with the children aboard sped crazily down the highway.

Then the car turned itself around in the road and came back toward Field, ran him down and knocked him to the pavement.

The car stalled. Field was treated for cuts on the head but the children were unhurt.

Mock Invasion Set For Oahu

ABOARD USS ELDORADO, Oct. 25 (AP)—Fifteen thousand men of the 2nd infantry division stood by for orders today to land on Oahu and liberate it from a mythical enemy.

The invasion will top off the biggest amphibious games since the war. Unlike wartime, it's no secret the 2nd division is supposed to hit the beaches along Pokai bay. The island is held by 9,000 "enemy" troops who theoretically captured Hawaii four months ago.

Daylong attacks by carrier planes softened up the invasion target yesterday. Umpires ruled they had left Hickam field inoperable and wiped out the aggressor air force—represented by the Hawaii air national guard.

Gruman Bearcat fighter bombers and Douglas Skyraider bombers flew four bombing missions from the operation Miki task force. They made simulated attacks with 500 pound rockets.

The navy planes hit Hickam and Barbers point, navy air base; Kaneohe naval air station and bellows field on northern Oahu; Schofield barracks ammunition and supply dumps; and sands airfield on Kauai island and General Lyman field on Hawaii.

They actually substituted Dillingham and Wheeler fields on northern Oahu for Hickam and Barbers point. The latter are used by commercial airlines.

Flight Test Made In Jet-Powered Airliner

LONDON, Oct. 25. (AP)—The world's first jet airliner, the British-built DeHavilland Comet, made its first overseas flight from London to Tripoli, North Africa, today at a speed of about 440 miles an hour.

DeHavillan company officials said the plane left London at 5:33 GMT (12:33 a. m. EST) and arrived at Castel Benito, Tripoli, at 8:56 GMT (3:56 a. m. EST), taking 3 hours 23 minutes for the 1,490-mile flight.

The 36-passenger Comet is intended for Transatlantic service to New York in 1952 or 1953.

Capt. John Cunningham, DeHavilland's chief test pilot, flew the plane loaded with testing equipment. It carried a crew of three.

Before leaving England, Cunningham said the flight was intended to provide range and fuel consumption information. The pilot said he expected to cruise at 450 miles per hour. At 35,000 feet altitude the jet airliner has a top speed of about 600 miles per hour.

Ten Shot As Man Goes On Mad Spree In A Begrudging Farewell To World

WATERFORD, Mich., Oct. 25. (AP)—A crazed, middle-aged farmer shot up two taverns last night, then killed himself after wounding ten persons.

On a mad spree with a shotgun Joe Runyon, 57, terrorized this sleepy little resort village in a begrudging farewell to the world.

Two of his victims, both women, were critically wounded.

Tramping back and forth across a street, Runyon fired seven or eight charges from a 12-gauge shotgun through windows of the two taverns, witnesses said.

Fired Final Charge

At the end of a violent 10 or 12 minutes, he walked a short distance up the street and fired a final charge through his own chest.

This was the last in a series of rapid reloadings. Runyon's gun was a single-shot weapon.

Reported in critical condition today at Pontiac General hospital were Mrs. Irene Zurawski, 37, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen Pscuik, 50.

It was at the Zurawski family's small bar where Runyon made one attack.

Six persons were wounded there and another four at the bar of the Waterford hotel across the street before Runyon shambled away to kill himself.

The shootings recalled the recent Camden, N. J., mass killing of 13 persons by Howard Unruh, young former service man who later was found insane.

Lived Alone On Farm

Runyon, a former auto factory worker in nearby Pontiac, lived alone on a farm he was said to have bought a year ago.

Little was known of him, but evidently things had gone wrong recently and he had become despondent.

At his tidy farm house was found a note saying:

"Take over, Joe. Dad's quit work. (Obscenity) 'em all."

There was also a detailed list of Runyon's possessions.

Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George Taylor said the note apparently was meant for Runyon's son, Joe, jr., a Pontiac resident.

Runyon, a stocky man of medium height, was known as a quiet person. He had his daily beer in town and peddled his farm crops here.

He began his rampage shortly before 8:30 p. m. Accounts of witnesses varied, but it was established that he walked from one bar to the other, standing at the windows to fire blasts inside.

Screamed In Fright

Patrons screamed in fright. Some dropped to the floor. A television program was being broadcast.

Mrs. Zurawski was shot in the neck and face. Her mother-in-law was wounded in the face and chest. The latter's son, Stanley Zurawski, 29, was shot in the left arm.

The Rev. Fr. Frederick A. Delaney, pastor of Our Lady of Lakes parish in Waterford, was driving past the hotel. He saw Runyon holding the gun at a window.

"I heard a sot," he said. "I think I said 'stop, you crazy fool.' He turned around and started cursing me. Then people started running in all directions out of the hotel."

As alarm swept the town, ambulances sped the ten miles to Pontiac with the injured.

Earlier Runyon had spoken to some of his victims, including Zurawski.

"He told me he had plenty of trouble," Zurawski said. "He also told me "if a man feels like he's going to die in his old age, he might just as well take a few people with him'."

Mrs. Etta Ficher, 60, grey-haired day bartender at the hotel said that shortly before the shootings Runyon had complained that "three of my horses died and I lost $250."

Seated at a table, Mrs. Ficher escaped injury. At the first shot she thought "a lamp exploded."

The hotel night bartender, Kenneth Friesner, 39, was wounded in the face and neck. He knew Runyon and regarded the farmer as "a nice fellow and the kind of person you liked."

Last night, however, Runyon seemed "surly," Friesner said.

Talked And Cried

"I told him I could see he had something on his mind but said I was sure everything would work out all right. After we talked a while, he cried," Friesner said.

It was soon afterwards that Runyon left the bar and returned with a shotgun blazing.

Also wounded at the Zurawski bar were Howard Stites, 26, Ortonville, shot in the face and neck, Dale Palm, 28, Ferndale, shot in the face and eyes, and Harold Meston, 29, wounded in right arm and chest.

State police said Palm might lose his vision from his wounds.

At the hotel bar Ben Prunty, 49, a hotel employe, was shot in the neck, and James Grant, 60, of Waterford, in the arm and chest. Thomas Hudson of Dearborn was slightly wounded.

Negress Arrested In Palestine Shooting

PALESTINE, Tex., Oct. 25 (AP) Police today held a 31-year-old negro woman in the fatal shooting of a negro man.

Willie Nixon died Sunday in a hospital.

The woman said Nixon was a stranger to her. He walked into her yard, she said, as she prepared to kill a chicken with a .22 rifle. He attempted to take the gun, she said.

Raccoon Satisfied After Good Bath

BOONE, Ia., Oct. 25 (INS)—The E. K. Erickson family at Boone, Ia., was still chuckling today about their strange visitor who was a stickler for cleanliness.

Hearing a loud noise on their back porch yesterday, members of the family rushed to open the door and in walked a raccoon.

The animal was coaxed outside with a cookie and an apple but when Erickson started back into the house—the raccoon rushed in ahead.

Recalling animal lore that raccoons are cleanly animals, Erickson produced a pan of water and the raccoon voluntarily followed him outside again.

After carefully washing its paws and face, the raccoon left — tummy full and body clean.

"Black October," they called this month in 1929, and more things have been said and written about the depression which followed than about anything else during ensuing years—with the exception of World War II.

The other day, Harry C. France wrote about "Black October," and what he wrote was interesting.

Mr. France, a nationally known investment counsellor, spoke here last Winter on the Knife & Fork club program. Author of a weekly column which appears in numerous metropolitan papers over the country, he is widely quoted and an acknowledged expert in his field.

In the following, Mr. France looks at "Black October" in retrospect—and compares the situation then with the situation now.

"I was living in Detroit—the world's leading industrial city—at the time. Evenings, I lectured at Wayne university and at the University of Detroit. Finance being my field, I talked frequently about call money, brokers' loans, speculation and the many matters growing out of these.

"I was also in charge of the investment department of a leading New York Stock Exchange firm. Strange things happened there. The partner in charge was a retired (and rich) Michigan farmer. When the industrial expansion of Detroit started, he owned a large farm of 300 acres right in the heart of this development. He sold plant sites to corporations; he merchandized home lots to individuals; he collected handsomely from the city for land Detroit needed.

"With a million dollars in the bank, he became a financier overnight. No one any longer called him a farmer. The saying 'a little knowledge is a dangerous thing' fitted him perfectly. But in those days a man with a million dollars in the bank didn't have his intelligence questioned.

"OUR Detroit office was a riot. Deals this farmer-financier arranged afforded me with excellent class-room lecturing material. Everbody in the city was borrowing money at 15% per annum to buy a motor stock at $125 a share that was paying $3 a share in dividends yearly. I remember the day, 20 years ago, when a speculator bought for $55,000 100 shares of a leading New York City bank stock. The speculator borrowed $40,000 at 12% ($4,800 interest charges annually) and put up $15,000 of his own money. This stock was paying $4 a share a year. The interest charges alone were 12 times his dividend income.

"In 1929, brokers' loans were $8,000,000,000. Speculation was rife. In Detroit, ministers and teachers and doctors and dentists were trying to ride to quick-riches

BY DREW PEARSON: JOHN L. LEWIS CHICKENS HATCHED RECENT COAL-STEEL STRIKES

Gen. Bradley Scolds Senators For Leaking Story

WASHINGTON.—Still coy about his romance, Vice President Barkley blushingly admitted to the Senate before adjourning that he "may" spend some time in Missouri instead of heading right back to Kentucky.

The question was brought up by Missouri's usually humorless Senator Forrest Donnell after a fellow Republican, Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, assured that the vice president would be welcome in his state any time — even if he is a Democrat.

PEARSON

With a twinkle in his eye, Donnell broke in: "I should like to invite the vice president most graciously to visit Missouri occasionally."

"The present occupant of the chair appreciates that invitation, and in view of its sincerity, the chair may accept it," smiled Barkley.

"I will say to the vice president that I was quite confident that he would, when I extended the invitation," replied Donnell.

"The chair would like to state," replied the vice president, "that if he does accept the invitation, it will not be in his capacity as vice president of the United States."

Then he blushed—just a bit.

John L. Lewis' Chickens

The public has forgotten it and the J. P. Morgan-Andrew Mellon interests would like to forget it, but they have themselves largely to blame for the nation's now serious coal and steel strikes.

The incident they would like to forget goes back to the summer of 1947 when John L. Lewis sat down with the biggest coal operators in the country and was both surprised and pleased when they gave him a 45-cents-an-hour wage increase, plus welfare fund, plus almost everything else he asked for even including some nullifications of the Taft-Hartley act.

The companies which led in handing Lewis this bonanza were J. P. Morgan's U. S. Steel corporation which owns the biggest captive coal mines in the U.S.A. and the Mellon-controlled Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal company.

Following their lead, smaller coal operators had to follow suit.

This gift to Lewis came as a shock to the rest of the industry because only six months before, Harry Truman had thrown everything he had into a court battle against Lewis and won. Most of the nation had applauded. Furthermore, only one year earlier, the coal operators had bitterly criticized Secretary of the Interior Krug because he gave Lewis an increase of 18½ cents—exactly the same given in other industries.

Yet, on top of this, Ben Fairless of U. S. Steel and George Humphrey of Pittsburgh Consolidation coal handed Lewis 45 cents an hour extra plus welfare fund, etc. Furthermore, the workers didn't have to contribute to the welfare fund. It all came from the employer.

THE HIDDEN motives for this sudden 'surrender, it was reported at the time, were (1) that Lewis in return would line up labor for Tom Dewey and against Truman, and (2) the steel industry was able to pass the increased cost on to the consumer. In brief, Truman had kicked Lewis in the teeth; now powerful Republicans wanted to show how they could stroke his mane.

But the effect of this bonanza to Lewis still is reverberating through the auto industry, the aluminum industry, and the banked furnaces of the steel industry. The Mellon's aluminum corporation would not be shut by a strike today, had not their Pittsburgh consolidation played politics with Lewis two years ago. Nor would General Motors and Chrysler be up against tough pension demands today.

For their gift to Lewis set a pattern which every other labor leader had to duplicate, and now this makes it impossible for Murray to take anything less from U. S. steel than Lewis got from U. S. steel.

Obviously, if Lewis' miners don't have to contribute to a welfare fund, Phil Murray's steel workers aren't going to contribute. But the boys in Wall street didn't look ahead far enough when they rushed through their mine agreement two years ago.

Gen. Bradley Flares

It's nothing new for a congressional committee to call the brass hats on the carpet, but it is new for a brass hat to call senators on the carpet.

The man who reversed this rule is General Omar Bradley, the nation's top military commander, who scorched the Senate appropriations committee for leaking secret information to the press.

The senators had given out figures from a secret intelligence report which Bradley had quoted to the Senate committee behind closed doors—namely, that Russia has 175 divisions under arms and can boost this to 300 divisions within 90 days and to an eventual strength of 502 divisions. This compares with a peak alied strength of 91 divisions during the war. Bradley had also disclosed Soviet air strength at 15,000 planes.

But Bradley had hardly left capitol hill before these figures showed up in front-page headlines. Next day, Bradley returned for a second appearance behind closed doors, snorted fire.

"I made certain statements yesterday that were highly confidential and highly secret," he scolded. "If I can't testify before a committee of Congress and tell them confidential information without being betrayed, I will have to use a different approach."

G.O.P. Floor Leader Ken Wherry of Nebraska winced.

"I had read a lot of that information in other places," the Nebraska senator protested. "If it was highly confidential, it certainly had been given out bofer in other places."

But the general went on with his lecture.

"A lot of people felt the information was highly sensational and accused me of war mongering," blazed Bradley. "I bitterly resented being put in that position."

There wasn't another peep out of the senators.

THE Swish Set is in stitches relaying this one. A Los Angeles whoopsy went to San Francisco to visit a palsy. They were at The Top O'The Mark and the local Minty pointed out the sights, the Golden Gate Bridge, Telegraph Hill, Alcatraz, etc.

"What are all those little lights down there on the water?" asked the Petunia from L. A.

glory. One day, I was invited to address the Wayne County Medical Society. Before arising to speak, I asked the chairman of the meeting what motor car was most popular with Detroit's physicians and surgeons.

"Packard!" he said quickly.

"Well, before I sat down, I talked about this company's capital structure and current position. And before two weeks had passed, more than 25 men came to my office to open margin accounts. Packard was selling at $150 a share. Who was I—on a payroll at a substantial salary—to say anything about the evils of speculation?

"Call money went to 18 and 20%. Going into hock to buy stocks became the rage. With currency in circulation at that time around $4,000,000,000 and with a commercial bank demand deposits at $23,000,000,000 there were 27 billions of dollars available for investment and speculation. Money was tight. Credit was restricted.

"Today we have the very reverse of the conditions of October 1929. Money is cheap, cheap. Money is plentiful. Brokers' loans are practically nil. A speculator in securities who wants to borrow $40,000 can almost name his own rate.

"Currency in circulation is about $28,000,000,000. Demand deposits are above $80,000,000,000. Potential money in cashable government securities is $30,000,000,000. Thus liquid funds available for investment and speculation total around 138 billions of dollars!

"Who wants to borrow call money now at 1% to buy stocks paying 10%? Nobody. Who, with interest rates at 1 and 2% per annum, wants to purchase equities paying 3 or 4 times as much? Very few.

"In October, 1929 people were too courageous. In October, 1949, people are too fearful."

IT is not our business to urge anybody to borrow any money for any purpose.

It isn't our business to advise people to buy stocks—any kind of stocks, at any sort of price.

But Mr. France's comparison of October 1929 and October 1949 is very revealing—even when one takes into consideration that 1949's dollar is only about two-thirds as valuable as the dollar of 1929.

"Glad I caught up with you Doc. Got anything for a headache?"

Operation Woodshed

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

ARE working wives making it tough on the girls who figure that one reason for getting married is to get out of an office and settle down to a full-time job of home-making?

One of my readers claims they are. When she married two years ago she gave up her job as secretary. She was good and tired of it.

Now, she says, her husband frequently points out how many of the men in his office have working wives and how much they are able to do on two salaries instead of one.

MILLETT

"I thought when I got married," says this wife, "that I was through with office work for good. One reason I wanted to marry was so that I could quit work."

Well, it's this way. Marrying a man for a meal ticket isn't quite as respectable as it used to be.

When Grandma married in order to have someone to support her for life that was fine and dandy. That was what a woman was supposed to do.

But young men today don't look with favor on being married "for security" or "for a home." They figure they ought to be married for themselves. And that any woman who is lucky enough to get them ought to be glad to help finance the marriage if it's necessary for the couple to have two incomes so that two can live as well as one.

So your husband is only reacting in a fairly normal manner for 1949.

USE GENTLE PERSUASION

DON'T hold it against him. Just try to lead him around gently to the conviction that a full-time wife has it all over a working wife in many ways.

Be thrifty in ways working wives haven't the time to be. Do a bang-up job of housekeeping. Take time with meal planning and cooking. Show your interest in your husband's career and do anything you can to help him. A wife with secretarial training can often find ways to be a real help to her husband.

And don't be above saying now and then: "Poor Joe: it must be hard on him having to come home from the office and pitch in and do housework. But, of course, as long as his wive is working the same hours he is, she has to have help with the house."

'Try And Stop Me"

IN New Orleans, Francis Parkinson Keyes, author of Dinner at Antoine's, is the queen of Beauregard House and everything else she surveys. In Boston, however, at a Louisburg Square party which she attended with her family, she discovered she was known only as "Peter Keyes' mother." The fourth young man who thus identified her aroused Mrs. K's ire, an operation not to be undertaken lightly.

"I am beginning to realize," she remarked icily, "that here in Boston, being Pete's mother seems to be my chief claim to fame." The young man, vastly unimpressed, inquired, What is it anywhere else?"

Methods Of Wiping Out Vice Needed More Than Speeches

NEW YORK, Oct. 25—I suppose this is a very sinful city, because a man named Newbold Morris says so, and I want it understood right now that I am four-square against sin of all sort, but what nobody tells me is how you are going to stop it.

RUARK

Mr. Morris, who is running hard for mayor, against Mr. Will O'Dwyer, has startled me loose from my shoes with the announcement that there are horse books in town, a horse book being a place, or situation, in which it might be possible to make a small wager on a steel. I do not see how it is possible that this deplorable circumstance has escaped my notice.

Some years back a little round man named LaGuardia was on the radio daily, admonishing the children to turn stool pigeon and inform on their fathers if they caught the old man sneaking a bet down on a hot hide in the fifth at Jamaica. It was natural to assume that the Little Flower had wiped out the menace once and for all, since few fathers dare face the wrath of a righteous child.

News Is Confirmed

But now I see headlines that Mr. Morris has forced the bookmakers into hiding, and that he has run Mr. Francis Costello, the prop villain, all the way out of town, and that he says the cops are in cahoots with the books and there is nothing but evil all around the mulberry bush. Mr. O'Dwyer, the incumbent mayor, more or less affirms this startling news when he says that there are more serious things for cops to do than chase bookmakers. This seems highly cynical of Mr. O'Dwyer, who appears to be callous to rampant evil.

Obviously, now, the thing to do is stop this wholesale sinning—to crack down on the canasta casinos, shut up all the bookie shops, knock off the numbers, and frown severely on hopscotch, if it is played for possible profit. All I want to know is how Mr. Morris proposes to enforce his all-out crusade against sin.

SO long as there are two men and one horse alive on the globe, there will be gambling. So long a sthere is one underpaid cop on a beat that gambling will be condoned. So long as there is one politician in thrall to a rich manipulator there will be fixes up top. So long as there are fixes up top all you can do is admire the rhetoric of fresh-faced boys who come out flatly against sin, because rhetoric is all it is.

Despite my own bitter reaction toward bookmakers, I must say in all fairness that I never had one stick a rod in my nape and command me to bet. Violence of this sort has never been necessary in the trade, because a horseplayer is the kind of critter who will climb that highest mountain in search of somebody to remove him from his wad. No hole has yet been digged so deep that a bookie can hide from a truly serious horse fan, equipped with a hunch and two limp dollars in his sweaty fist.

Methods Are Poor

What I cannot understand in the constant running battle against betting is how a state can make a moral issue of same when said state is in the race-track business, and takes its cut of the trimmed suckers with a placid face and a clear conscience. If the state is sore because the illegal bookies invade the state's racket, that is understandable, but it cannot be morally good to lose your substance to a pari-mutuel and morally bad to lose it to a bookmaker.

Possibly I have a low estimate of human nature, but I know of no single way to curtail the personal whims of adults, short of locking them in a bare cell. The gamblers find ways to gamble; the drinkers find whisky, even in legalized prohibition, and to date nobody has been able to discourage love as a popular practice among people.

Together with Mr. Morris, I am sad that such sinfulness exists in this paragon of cities, but I am simultaneously sad with the United Nations and Mrs. Rooseyelt that unpleasantness exists in the world. We must drive out sin; we must stop wars; we must put two chickens in every pot, and I will lead the first charge if somebody will just tell me how.

Chicago Police Check Fingerprint Collection

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (U.P. — The Chicago police department is classifying its collection of 4,000 fingerprints found at the scene of unsolved crimes.

The prints will be checked against any new ones that are filed, according to Inspector Emmett A. Evans of the Bureau of Identification. Previously, the unknown prints were available for investigating murders or other exceptional crimes but had not been classified.

Condemned Structure Is Reprieved For Age

THOMASVILLE, N. C., Oct. 25 (U.P.)—A house once condemned for its age now may be saved for the same reason.

The house sits in City Memorial park here and is thought to be at least half a century older than the town.

Built of two-foot thick logs joined and pegged, the five-room building has a chimney made with bricks reportedly brought from England.

No one knows its exact age but research indicates it has been standing for at least 150 years.

Park officials who had it condemned have decided to keep the structure as an example of early building methods.

Today's Journal Editorial

THE PROGRAM ISN'T WORKING!

The paramount facts in the present cottonbelt wide controversy over the government support prices for cottonseed appear to be these, and neither is disputed in any quarter:

The government has announced it will pay $49.50 a ton for cottonseed; few farmers, if any, are getting that price because, they say, it is physically impossible for them to comply with the complicated conditions necessary to obtaining it. They are having to sell their cottonseed at whatever the market price may be—which consistently has been substantially below the theoretical support figure.

The technical details in the controversy are exceedingly involved. But the results of the operation of the pretended support program are apparent to everyone, with no one denying them.

The result is that the alleged support program hasn't been worth a slick nickel to the vast majority of cotton farmers.

The pretense in official Washington that the government is supporting seed prices is and will continue to be a fraud unless and until the way is provided for the farmer actually to collect them.

TOP SCIENTIST BLASTS CRITICISM

GOP Minority Weakens Attack On Atomic Energy Commission

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP) — Republicans posted a declaration today to the Atomic Energy commission that "leisurely, wasteful or incompetent" administration of the nation's atomic program can not be tolerated.

The stand was expressed in a statement signed by six minority members of the joint congressional atomic energy commission. The six demanded 'bolder, speedier, and more effective development" of the program to maintain the "preeminence" of the United States in atomic weapons.

The statement was issued late yesterday in answer to a majority report of the committee. Both reports were follow-ups to an investigation of charges of "incredible mismanagement" directed against the AEC by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa).

Majority Report Favorable

The majority report, signed by the 10 Democratic members of the joint Senate - House committee, cleared the AEC and its chairman, David E. Lilienthal, who was Hickenlooper's principal target.

The minority report attacked the commission on three counts—progress, security and management. It was signed by Hickenlooper, former joint committee chairman and now ranking GOP member; Senators Millikin (R-Colo) and Knowland (R-Calif), and Reps. Cole (R-NY), Elston (R-Ohio) and Van Zandt (R-Pa).

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), now recuperating at his home in Michigan, did not participate in either report. Rep. Hinshaw (R-Calif) reportedly is preparing a summary of his own views.

The minority report shied away from the terms of "incredible mismanagement," "maladministration," and "equivocation" used by Hickenlooper in his original blast last May 22.

Violent Exception Taken

But the minority members did accuse the commission of waste, "loosely administered" security measures and a leisurely and indecisive approach to major projects.

The criticism of security brought an angry retort from Dr. Harold C. Urey, one of the nation's foremost atomic scientists.

"I take the most violent exception to this security charge," he told a reporter in Rochester, N. Y. "This secrecy is hampering our atomic energy development."

Urey called the present emphasis on secrecy "a lot of damned foolishness," and said that if he had his way he would "fire all the security guards employed by the AEC except those at the Los Alamos laboratory" in New Mexico, on the ground that "progress is better than dead secrets."

Security Claimed Okay

AEC Commissioner Sumner T. Pike said he commission might be open to criticism for waste—although "none of the waste was intentional"—but he insisted security has been maintained.

The congressional committee's minority report said:

"We cannot tolerate a leisurely, wasteful or incompetent administration of our program."

It adde that "we would fall short of our obligation to the Congress and to the American people if we gloss over or excuse the weaknesses in the operation of this program."

Chief criticism was centered on the AEC's security program.

"... Security has been so loosely administered in violation of the has been provided for infiltration of subversives and for loss of secret information," the statement said.

The majority, in an earlier report, said flatly that the AEC had in no instance violated the atomic energy law. This report added there was no evidence to hint "that Russia has acquired information from the commission which would enable her to improve the current Soviet bomb design."

Know the store behind your diamond!

Few of us, unless we're gemmologists. . .can tell the difference between two diamonds even after the most thorough examination. Two diamonds of the same size that appear exactly the same to the layman may in fact be hundreds of dollars apart in value. Frequently, a large diamond that appears perfect is actually worth much less than a smaller stone that is flawless in color, cut and clarity. Carat weight alone does not determine the value of a diamond. Color, cut and degree of perfection all influence the value greatly. This is why it is important that you KNOW THE STORE BEHIND THE DIAMOND YOU BUY. . . .YOU KNOW ANDERSON BROS., LUBBOCK'S OLDEST AND FINEST JEWELERS, who has not departed from their old tradition of offering you the highest in quality, the best in value, and the most courteous in friendly service.

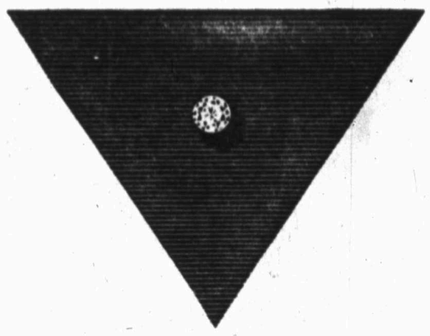

Which is best?

They all look alike in the newspapers!

¾-CARAT—PERFECT
400.00

Now On display in our store are 2 diamonds of the same size. . . both perfect, yet at the same percent of markup there is $350.00 difference in cost. We cordially invite you to come in and test your knowledge to see if you can determine which is the better. There is no obligation. It's educational! It's fun! It's free! Do come in and permit us to show you why the reputation of your jeweler is your best protection.

¾-CARAT—PERFECT

Anderson's

Sell more FINE d i a m o n d s than any other jeweler on the South Plains. For 26 years, Anderson Bros. has enjoyed the confidence of the buying public. Our policy still stands. IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE QUALITY AND VALUE OF YOUR PURCHASE FROM ANDERSON BROS., NEITHER ARE WE SATISFIED, AND WE ASK THAT YOU BRING YOUR PURCHASE BACK. Anderson's are never higher, and in most instances for the same quality merchandise our prices are substantially lower than elsewhere.

GAP IN WORLD TRADE CONSIDERED

ECA Urges Boost In Imports To Help Europe Get Dollars

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 — Officials of the Marshall plan—the Economic Cooperation administration (ECA)—have just said a few things about Europe and made some suggestions.

Over the week-end ECA issued a 227-page report, the results of studies here and abroad by specialists of ECA and the department of commerce. The studies began months ago.

This country has been pouring billions of dollars into Europe to help it get healthy. This can't continue indefinitely. The government help all means money out of your pocket in the taxes you pay.

What then can be done so that Europe does get healthy? About the main thing the report said was this: The U. S. should increase the amount of things it imports. It said:

"World trade is fundamentally out of balance . . , other countries simply are not earning enough dollars to pay for what they import from us. They have a dollar shortage."

Exports Exceed Imports

In other words: if Europe could sell us more of its own things—since we'd pay them with dollars for what we bought—they'd have more dollars to buy from us.

From July 1914 through 1948, the report said, the U. S. exported goods and services to a value of $270 billion and imported goods and services valued at about $169 billion.

So we exported $101 billion more than we imported in that 34-year period. How was the difference paid for?

Some of it was donations by private individuals or organizations, some in capital loans by private groups. But—$68 billion came from the U. S. government.

Of that amount, $49 billion was in grants, almost all made since 1941, and $19 billion in loans. Said the report:

"The American taxpayer therefore has a direct interest in closing the dollar gap as soon as possible."

Then the report reasons this way: one method of making a balance in the future would be to cut down on such government help.

Four Causes Listed

But, without such help unless some other method was found, Europe couldn't buy from us. Then we couldn't sell to her. That would bring trade in both directions to a low level.

And the ECA experts, like many others, consider that bad. So it lists four things that could be done:

1. We could continue to shovel out American taxpayers' money so Europeans, with our money, could buy from us. This "is no solution of the basic problem," said the report.

2. We could cut down on our exports but that would damage our various export businesses and "would cause world trade to stagnate again as in the 1930's."

3. Americans could invest capital in Europe and "this is highly desirable" but "the gap is much too large to be closed by this method alone."

4. We could increase our purchase of imports, thus putting money into the hands of Europeans to buy our exports to them.

Traffic Could Be Cut

The report likes No. 3 and No. 4. Putting No. 4 across, the report says, would require things like these:

Lowering those American tariffs which are too high, in the opinion of the ECA specialists, on the goods we could use. (The report turns thumbs down on just buying any kind of European imports and emphasizes we should buy only what we need, but points out we could use plenty.)

The report goes into some detail on what the European nations in turn should do to step up exports to us, including reducing and improving their controls on stuff they'd import from us.

All this is just an ECA report but it shows what ECA's specialists think after looking over the field at home and abroad. What this government, Congress and the European governments do is something else.

Police Puzzle Over Attempt At Suicide

HOUSTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—A New York society playboy clung to life today while police puzzled over some details of his suicide attempt.

Allen Thomas Sturges, II, 26, is unconscious, a bullet in his brain. He was found shot Saturday afternoon in the bedroom of a pretty airline employe. Police said the bullet was self-inflicted.

Hospital attendants listed his condition as very critical.

Police said they had received no replies to queries sent to Sturges' family in New York and New Jersey.

The telephone company had found no record of a long distance call which reportedly tipped the New York Journal-American of the suicide attempt at least four hours before Sturges was found slumped in a chair in the bedroom of Miss Marion Yturria, 23.

Shooting Of Negro Near Morton Probed

MORTON, Oct. 25 (Special) — A 30-year-old negro cotton puller from Terrell, James Rocher, was brought to West Plains hospital here Monday night with a bullet lodged in his left lung after being shot about 9:15 p. m. on the Reba Farmer farm operated by Jimmie Hill, 10 miles northwest of here.

Sheriff H. D. Crockett of Cochran county said a negro suspect, 38 years of age, was being held held in connection with the case.

Attendants at the hospital said Rocher was in "good" condition. The bullet struck his left arm, breaking a bone, and then entered his chest.

Crockett said a charge of assault with intent to murder would be filed Tuesday against the suspect. The sheriff reported that the suspect was apprehended nine miles northwest of here shortly after the shooting. Crockett Deputy John Goswick and a Texas Highway patrolman stopped the man in a car.

The sheriff said a .32-.20 pistol was found in the suspect's pocket, and 11 pints of liquor in the car. A liquor possession charge also will be filed, Crockett said.

NATION IS SPLIT ON PROBLEM

Japanese Want Peace Treaty, But Fear Soviet Aggression

TOKYO, Oct. 25 (U.P.)—When it comes to the question of the peace treaty, the Japanese, just for this one time, would like to be able to eat their cake and have it.

The treaty, which would enable Japan to become once more "independent," is infinitely to be desired. Yet, many Japanese quake in their wooden sandals to think that it would leave to withdrawal of American troops and leave the country vacant for Russian aggression.

A realistic school of Japanese thought leads toward continuance of an unformalized peace, to be attained by gradual stages, and to last until the international situation is stabilized.

An editorial in the English-language Nippon Times, published in Tokyo said:

"Many Japanese are not agreed that a peace treaty at any early date is necessary. There are those who express complete satisfaction over the present state of 'peace without a peace treaty,' where trade contracts are being included, Japanese citizens are going abroad, and numerous contrals are being returned to the Japanese government.

Fear For Future

"Others seriously feel that the nation will not be able to stand sufficiently on its own feet as yet.

"But whether pro or con, the question which invariably crops up is that of security; whether Japan would be able to maintain her independence both internally and externally if put on her own.

"That is the $64 question as far as all sincere Japanese citizens are concerned.

"Many Japanese fear that the nation cannot protect itself. That feeling is intensified by the fact that the Communist and the right-ist groups are so insistent upon an early peace treaty and the removal of occupation forces. The motives of these minor extremist groups are too clear.

"Internatianolly, the Japanese peace treaty question will most certainly raise a furor.

Nations Suspicious

"Despite Gen. Douglas MacArthur's confidence that the Japanese people have earned the right to a peace treaty, many nations still fear the resurgence of the military Japan of the past. They feel that democracy could not possibly have taken roots in the four postwar years.

"That such fears should be expressed is not surprising, but that they are not compatible with actual conditions in present-day Japan any close observer of this nation can see.

"The question of the when, how, and what of a peace treaty is purely an academic matter as far as the Japanese people are concerned. As for the expression of the Japanese position in any peace settlement, the people, with full confidence in the discretion and judgment of Gen MacArthur, should not be at all concerned.

"What the Japanese people, however, must do is to exert even greater efforts towards national recovery and the establishment of a truly democratic nation."

Lubbock Breeders Of Rabbits Attend Meet

The group discussed the forthcoming national convention to be held in San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 6 to 10. Delegates from the Lubbock organization are L. E. Settle and C. M. Harmon. Both plan to attend the meeting.

Future meetings of the group, it was announced, will be held at the FFA room at Senior High school. J. D. Goodmin, 716B Ave. N, was listed as a guest at the session.

Lubbock Man Heads Car Dealers Group

HOUSTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—Legitimate used car dealers are victims of false publicity, brought about by a few unscrupulous "fringe" operators, a Michigan dealer declares.

Marvin McCollum, Detroit, president of the National Used Car Dealers association, spoke yesterday before the Texas branch.

R. W. Workman of Lubbock was named president of the Texas association. Other officers include Claude Glasscock, Tyler, vice president; Damon Salter, Fort Worth, secretary-treasurer, and Carroll Dickerson, Abilene, Bill Southworth, Amarillo, and Vic Vickers, Houston, directors.

Tech Directories To Be Sold To Students

Student and faculty directories for Texas Technological college will be released Wednesday, according to Connor Cole, manager of the campus bookstore.

A red cover will bind the directories this year, which will list the name, hometown, local address, telephone number, division and classification of every student. Faculty members will be listed by name and will have their local addresses and phone numbers, staff positions and office numbers listed.

Housecleaning Is Costly For Woman

DES MOINES, Oct. 25. (INS)—A Polk county deputy sheriff's wife was a penitent woman today.

Mrs. George Rouse of Des Moines carried a bunch of boxes and other refuse from their home yesterday and burned it in the back yard.

It was only after the fire had completely consumed the trash pile and the ashes had been scattered by a brisk wind that she realized one of the boxes contained $600 in paper money the family had saved.

Post Man Claimed By Death At Gulf City

SLATON, Oct. 25 (Special) — Ervin Bruedigam, 38, of Post, died Monday about noon in Corpus Christi.

The body will arrive at the Williams Funeral home in Slaton on Wednesday, when complete funeral arrangements will be made.

Bruedigam is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bruedigam of Post; two brothers, Manuel Bruedigam of Wilson and Marcus Bruedigam of Slaton; and four sisters, Mrs. H. T. Young and Mrs. Jerry Melcher of Lubbock, M. Milton Bruister of Wilson and Mrs. Arlene Clack of Albuquerque.

Drought and famine still continue in some sections of the Aden Protectorate and Yemen, although seasonal rains have relieved large areas.

Counsellors' Group Will Meet At Tech

The 1951 meeting of the Texas Association of Deans and Counselors of men will be held on the Texas Tech campus, Dean of Men James G. Allen announced Monday after returning from this year's session at Texas A. and M.

Dean Allen spoke at this fall's meeting, outlining results after one year of the college's dormitory counseling program. Many of the other schools represented at the meet plan to send representatives here to study the plan, he said.

Tech made its bid for the 1951 convention because it hopes to have its present building program complete by that time, including the construction of several new buildings. Next year's conference will be held jointly by Trinity and St. Mary universities in San Antonio.

The counseling program which Dean Allen outlined to the delegates is one by which students living in college dormitories are provided guidance and help by a fellow student whenever their grades or other phase of college life falls below average.
