STAGE SET FOR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

DIPLOMAS ARE TO BE HANDED BANNER CLASS

173 STUDENTS ARE TO RECEIVE HONORS AT METHODIST CHURCH

The crown of reward for eleven years hard work and steady application to secure an education, 173 students will step forth on the stage of the First Methodist church to receive their diplomas from the hand of Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, president of the school board, and to bid goodbye to the institution which has been the center of their efforts thus far in life.

The address of the evening will be delivered by Dr. John C. Granbery when the parting advice which the school has to offer will be tendered and the value of their accomplishment summed up.

Reviewing the work and history of the class, M. H. Dunsen, school superintendent, stated that not only is it the largest class in the history of the school, but it is one of the finest ever to graduate here; that the department, attitude toward teachers and record of achievement set by the pupils was all that the school officials could desire and that the work done by some members of the class has been truly remarkable.

For the fourteenth time Dr. Hutchinson will tender the diplomas to the graduate students. During this time when he has stood at the helm of local school affairs has seen the school grow from a small organization with just a few scholars to an immense institution capable of meeting educational needs for a city of 17,000 persons.

Program Ends Tonight
The graduation exercises tonight will mark the end of an extensive program in honor of the class members, beginning with senior day April 28, when a cutting was enjoyed at Buffalo Springs, and a banquet tendered by ladies of the Baptist church, and ending with the baccalaureate sermon Sunday delivered by the Rev. Walter P. Jennings and the senior night, marked by a program at the high school.

Laborites Will Ask Law For Protection
NEW YORK, May 25. (AP)—Legislation to protect labor "against the abuse of the writ of injunction" by federal and state courts will be sought in congress and state legislatures by the American Federation of Labor by its president, William Green, declared in an address today before the bankers' club of New York.

Declaring that no nation can succeed in industrial competition like industry and capital, is permitted to organize, Green said labor was unable to reconcile itself to court decisions upholding injunctions in labor disputes and added that labor could not abide by these decisions and yet live and function.

Negro Assaulter At Little Rock Missing
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 25. (AP)—The search for a negro who attacked a white woman in fashionable Park Hill subdivision late yesterday was continued today without success. Police who were aided in their search by volunteer posse of 100 men last night, took one negro into custody but he was released when the woman failed to identify him.

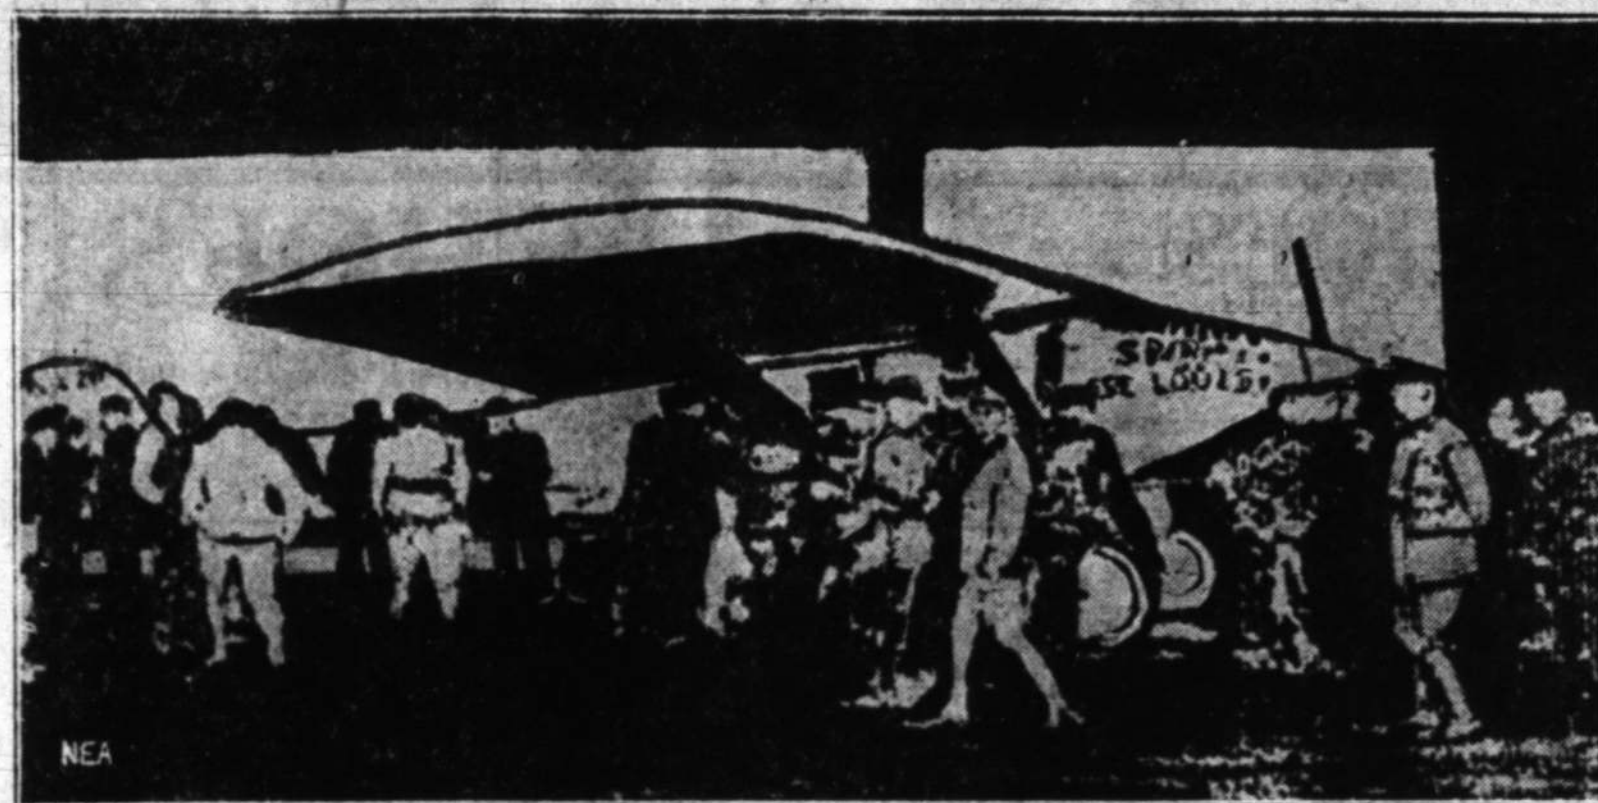

Constable Collects Stolen Auto Reward
Another $25 reward for recovering a stolen automobile is to be received by Constable Roberts in the recovery and identification of a Ford Coupe wanted in Oklahoma City by the Oklahoma Finance corporation.

Tennessee Negro Is Executed By State
NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 25. (AP)—John Henry Wallace, negro, was executed early today for the murder of Everett Hedgecock, Marshall county farmer, in 1925.

FIVE PAY FOR MOVIE MURDER

Mrs. Kerrick And Companion Slayers Guilty; Jurors Score 'Wild Parties'

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Hollywood today found itself tagged with a fight against "wild parties and killings"—the incidental decree of a jury which yesterday convicted five persons of manslaughter for their participation in a drinking orgy which ended in the shooting to death of Tom "Two Gun" Kerrick, film cow boy.

The quietest involved in the verdict included the slain actor's widow, Mrs. Sarah Kerrick, whom some of her co-defendants accused of deliberately waiting the gun that killed her husband. The others are Joe Hunt, Arizona cowboy, said to have financed the orgy; Iris Burns, Anita Davis and Henry Isabell, the latter three film extras.

Sentence Comes Friday
The five will come up for sentence Friday. The penalty for manslaughter under the California law is from one to ten years imprisonment.

A spokesman for a group of the jurors declared after they had been discharged: "We felt that it was about time to call a halt on Hollywood's wild parties and killings. To have a verdict of not guilty would have put a stamp of approval on such disgraceful conduct. We simply could not do anything else but find the defendants guilty—all of them—under the law."

ATCHAFALAYA RIVER SENDS THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES FROM HOMES IN 'SUGAR BOWL' SECTION

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, May 25.—The slow spread of the muddy waters of the Atchafalaya river, pouring through a break over 1,000 feet wide at McCrea, today brought realization to the inhabitants of Louisiana's "Sugar Bowl" of which the greatest flood in the history of the Mississippi means.

The levee at McCrea broke early yesterday when the current of the Atchafalaya swept aside the barriers 2,000 men had been laboring weeks to hold and burst in upon the fertile fields of the East Atchafalaya basin.

Evacuation is Orderly
The evacuation of the sugar parishes on the west bank of the Mississippi and Eastern Atchafalaya basin was proceeding in an orderly manner. None of the panic which has characterized the last minute rushes in other sections was visible, though relief workers feared

CHURCH GROUP RAPS PRO-LAW

Church Temperance Society, Episcopalian, Demands Quick Modification

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 25.—Resolutions criticizing prohibition, adopted by the board of directors of the Church Temperance society, a Protestant Episcopal organization, were published today by vote of the board.

The resolutions announced a nationwide campaign for "speedy adoption of moderate regulatory measures."

The resolutions charge the 18th amendment has "diminished" the constitution and its enforcement has been "a failure, resulting in increased drinking and drunkenness and use of opiates and fostering political corruption." They state that "it is inimical to the life of any nation to retain laws which are not an cannot be enforced," and that and cannot be enforced "a hindrance in the promotion of temperance," and is "out of harmony with the Bible."

FORT WORTH, Texas, May 25. (AP)—Exorbitant prices are being charged for prescription whiskey by some drug stores, Frank V. Wright, prohibition administrator, declared in statement here Wednesday.

Holland Says Auto Licenses Are Many
That good financial conditions exist among most Lubbockites and local auto dealers are doing a good business, is shown by registrations of automobiles at the county tax collector's office, at the county seat, today.

Two hundred and fifty cars and trucks, about 118 of which were new vehicles, were registered during the past month.

Of this number 50 were registered in the past seven days, 18 of them being new cars. A good percent of them were autos of middle price and the more expensive makes it was stated.

INSANITY PLEA FOR BLAKE IS MADE IN TULIA

CASE OF MAN CLAIMED CONNER SLAYER IS BEGUN TODAY

(By Associated Press)
TULIA, Texas, May 25.—Motion for dismissal on the plea of insanity of the murder charge against Robert F. Blake of Amarillo in connection with the slaying of Fred Conner of Tulia in July, 1925, was made today when the 22 year old youth was arraigned before Judge Charlie Clements in district court.

An earlier motion by Alex Mood of Amarillo, attorney for Blake, for a continuance of the case was denied by Judge Clements. Mood spent an hour in arguments on the insanity plea before noon and resumed the fight at the afternoon session opened.

Asks Instructed Verdict
He is asking for instructions from the bench that Blake be given a sanity hearing and that the murder charge be stricken out.

Examination of witnesses for a jury, should the court order the trial to proceed, is not expected to get under way before tomorrow morning.

A special panel of 250 has been summoned from which to select the jury.

The case is attracting wide attention. Conner, an automobile dealer of Tulia, was found slain by the "side of the highway" last week and his abandoned automobile a few miles down the road. He was returning to his home from Albany, near Sweetwater. Officers of the South Plains were puzzled by the murder and no clues of any significance developed for months.

Blake was arrested about a month ago and nearly two years after Conner's death, by J. Frank Norfleet, nationally famous detective, and returned from Fort Smith, Arkansas, to Tulia on a charge of murder.

A. B. Martin of Plainview and D. H. Gulton, Amarillo, are assisting Mead Griffin, district attorney of Tulia in the prosecution.

AMBASSADOR LINDBERGH IS CHEERED BY FRENCH SOLONS

'Wild Parties' Out GIRLS TO STOP THEM

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, May 25.—Charles Lindbergh, "the new ambassador of America," was introduced to the French Chamber of Deputies today by M. Raymond L. Herriek, "the temporarily retiring ambassador." The American aviator received a tremendous ovation from the crowded Chamber.

The reception was the most impressive formal function thus far of the American aviator's triumphal stay in Paris. Fernand Bonissou, president of the Chamber of Deputies, at whose side stood Vice-presidents Pate and Lafont, greeted the birdman officially, while before the slain stood General Giroud, deputy colonel Picot head of the group of war mutilated known as the "broken mugs," and almost the entire membership of the Chamber.

He Draws Praise
"All of us acclaim you," M. Bousson told him, "and all of us pay tribute to the illustrious aviator."

OAKLAND, Calif., May 25.—Gin and betting parties are "out of date," in the opinion of members of the "Slow club," Mrs. Mary L. Langworthy, president of the Women's City club of Chicago, told the national congress of Parents and Teachers associations here today.

Mrs. Langworthy made a prophecy that the organization which started in Chicago will soon spread over the entire country.

These Chicago girls who comprise the membership in the seven "Slow clubs" are merely ordinary girls who are willing to assert themselves for decency," she said.

"The members are not dull and stupid girls, but are of good taste and have revolted against the excessive vulgarity which seems so fashionable today not only among members of the younger generation but also with the elders."

Moscow Regards Trade Pact As Already Broken As Britain Stands Pat

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, May 25.—A note containing the British government's final words to soviet Russia was in the course of drafting by the cabinet today. It will be handed to the soviet representatives at Chesham house, the former imperial embassy, as soon as possible after the House of Commons approves the government's decision to sever both diplomatic and formal trade relations with Moscow.

The note, which will simultaneously be dispatched to Moscow, will give the government's full terms regarding the Russian emissaries in England. It is understood they will be allowed a period of three months to pack their baggage in which to pack their baggage.

It is expected the note will be sent immediately after tomorrow night's debate in the House of Commons, or Friday morning.

Moscow Is Philosophic
MOSCOW, May 25. (AP)—Rupture of relations with soviet Russia by Great Britain is regarded here as an accomplished fact, since no doubt exists in the minds of soviet authorities that parliament will approve the British cabinet's recommendations.

Officials expect the result to be the weakening of sympathy toward the soviet in western Europe and the far east. The break is looked upon as an effort on the part of the British to start a conflict with the soviet union which even in the opinion of the British foreign ministry, it is declared, would have most serious results for the peace of Europe.

Four Fliers Off On Hop To New Orleans
GALVESTON, Texas, May 25. (AP)—Four members of the staff of Major General Minson M. Patrick, chief of the United States army air service left for New Orleans today by airplane, they were Lieutenant Colonel Roy C. Kirtland, Major Joseph T. McNamery, Captain Ralph H. Woots and Lieutenant J. R. Starks.

Plans of the second bombardment group, which arrived here yesterday, took off this morning for New Orleans enroute to Langley field Va.

Mexico Workers Ask Communists Ousted
MEXICO CITY, May 25. (AP)—Officials of the Regional Confederation of Mexican Workers announced today that the organization will petition the government to expel from the country all foreign communists, for the most part Cubans, Spaniards and Central Americans.

The petition, they explained, is intended to prevent Latin communists from influencing the Mexican labor movement.

Jurors Can't Agree On Anonymous Note

(By Associated Press)
FALLING TO reach an agreement, the jury in the case of Mrs. Milly Putty, charged with having written an anonymous threatening letter to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary Putty, was discharged at 10:20 Wednesday morning, after having been out for 10 hours by County Judge Nordyke.

The case will be reset on the docket for a later term of court.

Trial of Mrs. J. L. Pate, of Littlefield, charged with having written a bad check given to Jaret's Paak-shon Shop on which the name of E. M. Pate was signed, was begun in county court.

Counsel for the defense was represented by E. S. Hall of Littlefield, while the state is represented by County Attorney L. A. Howard. Trial will occupy the rest of the day, court officials believe.

Original Program At Athenaeum Meeting Yesterday

Numbers contributed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Athenaeum club were all original and consisted of literary and musical selections, needlework and refreshments made by original recipes. After the program Mesdames W. L. Baugh and Edgar Shelton were elected delegates to the County Federation.

Mrs. E. L. Robertson, leader for the afternoon, played a piano solo of her own composition. Miss Lucille Gill contributed four original poems and Miss Flora McGee read a story of which she is the author. True stories, which they had witnessed, were read by Mrs. J. C. Granbery and Mrs. Edgar Shelton. Other members contributed needlework, with the exception of Mrs. C. E. Moreman and Mrs. W. L. Baugh, who served lemon sherbet and cream puffs made by recipes the two had originated.

Mrs. H. A. Davidson Honored By Club Yesterday

A three course luncheon served yesterday afternoon to members of the Twentieth Century club, closed the year's work of that organization, the members planning to start a new club year in September.

Mrs. G. C. Wolfarth was named president to succeed Mrs. H. A. Davidson, who has served for two years. In recognition of the services of Mrs. Davidson during the term of office now closing, while she served as president between the years of 1915 and 1917 and for her work on committees and at other times, she was presented with a token from the club by Mrs. H. D. Woods, who accompanied her presentation with a beautiful eulogy.

During the last administration, the city library was converted into a county library under the leadership of this club and Mrs. Davidson has since served as a member of the county library board. The technological college student loan fund was inaugurated and better speech campaigns have been conducted in the schools. For these things, Mrs. Davidson is given much credit by members of this club.

Mrs. H. E. Killin was toastmistress at the luncheon. Mrs. J. C. Street gave a toast to husbands of members and Mrs. W. O. Stevens told fortunes with original rhymes. Two piano numbers were played by Mrs. Ed A. Rix. The program closed with unison rendition of the club women's collect.

Efforts of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to direct all state liquor prescription fees into a prescription law enforcement were lauded in the house at Austin as seeking a bureau of "breath smellers."

Miss Grace Jennings Luncheon Hostess Yesterday

One of the happy events of the week was a luncheon served yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Jennings, 1016 17th street, with Miss Grace Jennings as hostess. The event celebrated her birthday and she received pretty gifts on the occasion. Forty-two was played during the afternoon.

Flowers in the living room with lavender iris and sweet peas on the dining table and yellow candles on the cake in the place card paintings, struck the color scheme for the affair. The cocktail course, with the oranges tied in lavender ribbons, repeated the colors. Between the five courses, diversions were in the form of contests.

Guests were Misses Nancy O'Neill, Lou Alice Watson, Mary Lou Bayless, Annie Lou Barrier, Louise Wolfarth, Mary Snyder, Mary Elmer Quick, Luby Arnett, Geraldine Smith and Marjorie Leaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fickas Hosts To Members Club Tuesday

With Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Fickas, 1010 Avenue L, entertaining, the Merry Mix-Up club met Tuesday evening for pleasant games of forty-two. Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Brown were guests and the following club members attended: Messrs. and Mesdames W. T. Raybon, A. H. Travis, R. F. Bayless, G. W. Scott, T. W. Jackson and E. M. Smith. Rosas and verbenas were prettily arranged in bouquets in the home grape punch was served while the games were played and dainty refreshments were passed later in the evening. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

The Store for Everybody

How can you tell unless you shop?

ONLY by comparing one face powder with another are you able to find just the right one. Powders are different. That is why comparison is helpful.

So with coffee. They differ widely in quality. Only by comparing their flavors can you choose just the right coffee.

We could tell you that Folger's Coffee is the supreme of the world's coffees. How the vacuum pack keeps all its marvelous, unmatched flavor for you.

Instead, we ask you to compare Folger's Coffee with the brand you are now using by making the Folger Coffee Test. It is the logical, easy way to sleep for coffee.

The Folger Coffee Test: Drink Folger's Coffee tomorrow morning; the next morning drink the coffee you have been using; the third morning drink Folger's again. You will decidedly favor one brand or the other. The Best Coffee Wins. That's fair, isn't it?

WALTER JOHNSON ALMOST READY TO RETURN TO ACTIVE PLAY

ETERAN WILL DON BE WELL FTER INJURY

TSBURGH TIGHTENS FIRST PLACE GRIP IN NATIONAL

(By Associated Press)
Baseball stock of the Washington Senators started on the upgrade today with the word that Walter Johnson had almost recovered from ankle injury received in training on this spring and was ready to return to the club.

The veteran appears on the horizon at a point when the big league slugger is hitting them hard and far to the south of a good pitcher is regarded as never before. Down and the capital his return is as an added ounce of steam that will carry the Senators back to the first division after an unprecedented run of only seven victories and general hard luck.

His Career a Wonder
When the veteran does start his regular turn on the hill, Johnson received a broken ankle in training season but the injured member is rapidly recovering. He'll be a big help to the Senators, who have been handicapped by an unprecedented string of injuries thus far this year.

And It Won't Be Much Longer Now

Walter Johnson

The pennant winning stock of the Washington Senators is on the upgrade today with the report that Walter Johnson, veteran pitcher, will soon be able to take his regular turn on the hill. Johnson received a broken ankle in training season but the injured member is rapidly recovering. He'll be a big help to the Senators, who have been handicapped by an unprecedented string of injuries thus far this year.

DIAMOND FANS AWAIT SEASON DEBUT SUNDAY

HUBBERS WORKING OUT IN PREPARATION FOR PAMPA SERIES

Many fans in Lubbock and on the South Plains are making plans to witness the Lubbock Hubbers in their opening card here Sunday and Monday with the Pampa Oilers. The Pampa Oilers are managed by a former Lubbock resident and Hubber, H. R. (Honey) Guber. The Pampa crew has been going since the first of this month and has many games attached to its winning column. The Oilers come here as the victors of most of the teams in the Panhandle.

While the Hubbers have not played a game this season on paper and to the knowledge of most of the fans in this city their lineup is sufficient enough to battle with the best of the semi-pro clubs of the Panhandle and South Plains.

Manager Grady Hixenbaugh will not appear in the lineup in the first two games—but Gub Jackson, veteran outfielder of the Hubbers, will take the helm and carry on the attack against the Oilers.

Either Terry or Taylor will take the mound against the Pampa nine on Sunday. Just who Jackson will use on the hill is not certain yet; however, Terry is in better shape for the work and will be the probable choice of Jackson.

The Hubber lineup will take a hot workout each afternoon before the game on Sunday. This afternoon some fifteen recruits for the club will be expected to gather for the initial workout.

Detroit Will Have Swat-Kings Of Baseball In Outfield If Only Bob Fothergill, Portly Star, Produces

By BILLY EVANS

BOB FOTHERGILL, pudgy outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, away to a good start at the bat, cherishes designs on the American League swat crown.

If Fothergill should realize his ambition and top the American League batters, it would give the Detroit club an outfield combination without compare in the majors.

Harry Heilmann has thrice won the batting honor. Last year Heinie Manush won great fame by topping the Johnsonian swatters. Should Fothergill come through, it would give the Tigers an outfield trio of hitting champions. Staley Fothergill has had a varied career with the Detroit Tigers. Despite being batted .200 in the majors and minors, not until this season did he definitely win for himself a job as a regular.

First of all, a brilliant fielder, despite the 200 pounds he carries and a .200 batter, he was not used regularly by Ty Cobb for various reasons. This season, the job of playing left field has been definitely assigned to him without any reservations and he is more than making good.

Coming to Detroit after one year in the minors, with Bloomington in the Three-Base League, Fothergill was sent to Rochester in the International for development. Playing under the tutelage of George Staley, Bob came fast and after swatting the pill for the gorgeous average of .353 in 1922, he was pronounced ready for the majors.

The following season he was used in 101 games by Detroit, and batted .315. During 1924 he played only 54 games and in 1925, less than half the season, 31 contests.

Last year, due to the fact that Manager Cobb was able to play only about half time, Fothergill got his big opportunity to make good and he more than delivered.

For the first part of last year he led the American League in batting, a late season slump killing his chances to win the championship. At that he finished a tie for third with his teammate, Harry Heilmann, only 10 points away from Heinie Manush, who won the championship.

Proun to put on weight in the winter, Fothergill is always the life of the party during the spring training trips. He is constantly kidded by the rest of the athletes for the many hours of extra work he puts in to put in in order to remove the surplus.

"You boys do all your laughing now, I'll do mine after the season starts," was Bob's set reply at San Antonio this spring.

"Fifty times for you around the club will battle harder and will put up real baseball. If you fans don't think that attendance helps the game just stuff off the attendance and watch the team begin to stuff—it happens every time."

Don't worry Mr. Disgruntled fan, there are plenty of teams to play in this Panhandle of Texas—of course you say Amarillo has gotten in the Western League—well, did Lubbock play Amarillo all last summer? No, Lubbock bottled several stronger than the Amarillo nine—Lamesa, Post, Big Lake, Crockett, Hereford and other ones. Amarillo may be the only one in the Panhandle to have a league club—but she is not the only city in the Panhandle with a baseball club.

Sunday and Monday—it won't be long now. Lubbock Hubbers—and they are the Hubbers, too, there is Gub Jackson, Chester Shepard, "Woman" Sanders, Terry, J. B. (Red) Hamilton and "Red" Galt—every one of them formerly members of the Hubber aggregation.

"Where are you going to get baseball players?"

"Right here in Lubbock." We have gotten them so far right in this city—don't even have to get out of the city limits. Every member of the proposed Hubber nine is a resident of Lubbock or will be here during the summer.

The Pampa Oilers hail from the section of flowing gold—should have a fair share—and they have "Honey" Guber, former resident of this city and a former member of the Hubbers, in charge of the Pampa ranks. Gub writes us that he has been setting things on fire in the Panhandle and is out for a good cooling. The Hubbers will attempt to check his flaming aggregation on Sunday and Monday at the Merrill park.

The Hubbers will have a good warming up this afternoon at the Merrill park in preparation for the formal opening with the Oilers of Pampa.

Do you know the best way to have a winning club in baseball? Just show the fans that you are wearing the home town colors that you are behind them right or wrong—win or lose. They will battle as long as you battle but when you get down on them they in turn get down on you. Get your heads up, talk happy, let the other fellow hear you yell, let the other fellow hear you know about the game. You will put as ever as fast a nine as has ever worn the Hubber baseball frock if every fan will speak a good word for the lads.

LAUNDRY TEAM BEATEN AGAIN

Fast Wholesaler Crew Hits Hard To Take Slugfest By 26-2 Tally

Slamming hot drives to all corners of the park yesterday afternoon the Wholesalers defeated the Laundry by a score of 26 to 2. The Wholesale hitters leaned on three of the washerman moundmen for a total of 22 hits. Alex Hensley, new recruit with the Wholesalers, slugged one to right field that took a high bounce and went for a home run as it bounded over the fence.

Raymond Ater, fast curve ball tosser for the Wholesalers, allowed but two runs and five hits during his work on the hill yesterday.

American Defeats British Golf Ace In Hoylake Derby

(By The Associated Press)

HOYLAKE, England, May 23.—In a breathless finish as was ever seen in golf play on this famous old golf course, the young American Edwin H. Holey by defeating Cyril Tolley, former title holder and one of the favorites for the 1927 British amateur championship which the present tournament will decide. The match went to the last green. The cards:

Out Holey 354 446 465-41.
Tolley 356 344 355-40.
In Holey 544 354 544-37-78.
Tolley 544 455 545-40-80.

Holey, hitherto unknown to the championship golf either in England or America, has been in England eight months, attending a technical school in London.

BANKERS BEAT AUTO BARBERS

Ray Waller Hurls Shylocks To 2-1 Victory Over Pitcher Stalaker

The Auto-Barbers held the Bankers to a close game despite the fact that they were forced to borrow a player to complete their lineup. The money players won the game with a score of 2 to 1. Stalaker, city loop's strike out ace, allowed but few hits and was given six strikeouts for the afternoon. "Big" Ray Waller, right hander for the Bankers, held the Barbers to two lone homers and a single tally for the day.

Career of Briand

Aristide Briand, minister of foreign affairs in the present French cabinet, the other day celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his entry into parliament. It has been a long and a notable career. More than that it has been the kind of career that in some respects we like to think of as the ideal of America than of caste-bound Europe.

Borah's Answer

Senator William E. Borah has a good answer for the people who hold that "force is the only argument the Chinese can understand." He voiced the other night in a speech at Cleveland.

A Thought

Love is the fulfilling of the law. ROMANS xiii:10. Love can sun the realms of night. —Schiller.

Just a Jangle

He rowed out on the small canal. His fishing luck to try. Then someone lifted up the locks: The blamed canal ran dry.

Flapper Fanny

Ten years ago the United States government was calling upon the people of this country to contribute to the first liberty loan. In the five liberty loans drives we gave over 21 billions of dollars.

Trying Again

Helen Wills is on her way to Europe, intending to win the international tennis honors which an attack of appendicitis deprived her of last year.

THE PLAINSMAN

Gene Tunney advises Charlie Lindbergh to 'hurry back and cash in before the people forget him.' Wonder why Tunney doesn't follow his own advice?

Worry is a terrible thing—one of the worst obstacles, in fact, that the average person has to contend with. People momentarily worry will advise a fretful friend to stop worrying, calling his attention to the fact that 'worry doesn't help matters any'.

Bones are like most criminals—they're born, not made.

If it is worth a million dollars for Jack Dempsey to fight ten rounds then we'll have to turn our minds over to Captain Charles Lindbergh to even up things.

Rain to the north of us—rain to the south of us—rain all around us—and it won't be long now! A prominent Lubbock banker told the Plainsman yesterday that with the good underground moisture which the South Plains has, virtually insures a good stand of cotton and grain crops if we get a couple of good showers between now and picking time. It always has rained on the South Plains before and if it doesn't rain this time it sure will be a long dry spell!

Remember the next time you revert to a lecture on the superiority of the good old days over those of the present that there weren't any bath tubs in the good old days.

Many people grinned knowingly at news dispatches telling of the visit of Captain Lindbergh to the mother of the lost French ace, Nungesser, in Paris. 'He's a smart boy,' they said. 'He's showing real diplomatic sense.' The Plainsman has too much confidence in human nature—too much faith in a man the calibre of Captain Nungesser to agree. He believes that Captain Lindbergh visited Madame Nungesser in the same light that he would have liked Captain Nungesser to visit his mother had the tables been turned.

As an advocate he won some blinding victories in the courts. As an officer of the government he showed he knew how to use the strong hand when firmness was required. As a war minister he made his led his countrymen into something like a reconciliation with Germany.

As a politician he has broken all records. He has been prime minister ten times. He has held sixteen cabinet portfolios. Out of his twenty-five years in parliament he has held cabinet posts over twelve years. And always and ever he has remained the same old Aristide with his baggy trousers, his funny, drooping, unkempt mustache, his absence of side hair, his easy accessibility, his very real democracy.

This little man who wrote the Locarno pact with Germany will stand high in the annals of his country and of Europe.

Old Master's

Yonder the long horizon line, and there by night and day the old ships draw to home again, the young ships sail away. And come I may, but go I must, and if men ask you why, You may put the blame on the stars and the sun and the white road and the sky! —Gerald Gould Wanderlust.

Love is the fulfilling of the law.

Love can sun the realms of night. —Schiller.

He rowed out on the small canal.

His fishing luck to try. Then someone lifted up the locks: The blamed canal ran dry.

Ten years ago the United States government was calling upon the people of this country to contribute to the first liberty loan.

In the five liberty loans drives we gave over 21 billions of dollars. Since March 1 of this year there have been in the United States thirty-two disasters requiring relief from the Red Cross. In comparison to but one liberty loan drive, the sums asked for relief work at home are small indeed. There can be no reason for holding back, for failure to give.

The Next Great Flood

WASHINGTON LETTER

WHY DID ENGLAND AND U. S. UNCLASP HANDS TO TOSS DIPLOMATIC BRICKS?

WASHINGTON, May 25.—How to explain the unprecedented exchange of notes between the United States and Great Britain over Secretary of the Treasury Mellon's lecture on foreign debts to President Hoover and the Princeton professors is a question, worrying many Washington observers.

It is more than likely that the rancor which burst forth with respect to the fact that this country had made a mess of the British policy toward China by its failure to participate in a joint threat of drastic action in China on the part of the Nanking government.

It is as well known as anything can be that Britain has big stakes in China and that her attitude of late has been stern and harsh.

Well, who was the fire-eater in the British general strike? The fire-eater in Britain's Russian policy? The fire-eater in Britain's debt policy as well as many other policies and the boss of all Britain's finances?

There is no denying that the British note was sharp and brusque. And if any note could have been more so, it was Secretary of State Kellogg's reply refusing to discuss the issue.

Here, also, the theory of the Chinese angle is borne out. No self-respecting government could possibly submit to an attempt at browbeating from another government of equal importance when the attempt was obviously inspired by the other nation's failure to dictate its foreign policy.

But it is not likely, in view of the facts hereinbefore stated, that any intelligent person will suggest that if we had gone the whole hog with Britain in China, any such sharp note would ever have been sent just as we tightened that trans-Atlantic handclasp and stretched our other fist out across the Pacific.

Whether Mellon's letter to Hibben was a careful piece of business is open to argument. So is the question whether Mellon or Churchill fibbed. The American people will generally regard it as a problem in higher mathematics and it is likely that different methods of computation complicate the issue.

HUGHES OUT OF RACE

Politicians will be interested in the announcement of Charles Evans Hughes that he will not be a candidate for the republican nomination for president. 'Mr. Hughes declares he is too old to think about accepting the responsibility of the White House, and adds that he prefers Coolidge for that office, "first, last and all the time."'

Of course, there is a string tied to this "first, last and all the time" business. The American people do not like too much of the "all the time" stuff. It is why the cry of a third term is set up against Coolidge's re-nomination, for there is an erroneous notion in this country that a man should not hold the office of president more than two terms, or one and a piece.

Hughes lost his chance to be president in 1916, when he pulled a political blunder in California and passed up the influential Hiram Johnson. California finally went to Wilson by a few votes and "Wilson was re-elected. Nobody now is sorry, even Mr. Hughes, but Charles E. Hughes is a wise man and has decided to stay out of politics.—Temple Telegram.

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING

Usually it is an overdose of jazz from a neighbor's radio or phonograph that tries the sensitive soul beyond endurance. Recently in New York a complainant appeared with a note that the people on the floor directly above him had been persuaded in Beethoven Week to buy a set of records of the famous Fifth Symphony. These records they have been playing at all hours of the day and night ever since, over and over again, swamping up the last movements to dance time, repeating the second movement twice every time it is played, and so on.

The anguished listener on the floor below has always appreciated Beethoven's music. The Fifth Symphony has been his favorite. It is easy to understand now first he was outraged, then sickened, by the excessive use of those special records.

It is a puzzling problem. One can hardly evict tenants because they have discovered the beauty and magnificence of Beethoven. Of course, the harassed listener might move out himself. Eventually, of course, time will remove this problem. A family added only a month ago to "Valencia" and "Alhambra," added now to Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, will not stop there. They will have a change of records along towards the end of the month.—Guineville Register.

Too many women are killing their husbands, say the poll-women. This movement should be curtailed a little, to be successful. Well, girls, if we can't always reform our husbands, let us by all means try to inform them.pared for delivery by Assistant Treasury Secretary Ogden Mills last February. Some careless editing was involved with the result that Mellon, answering the British note in a public statement, had to fall back upon the defense of a typographical error.

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING and BROADWAY

NEW YORK, May 25.—On a "see-saw" New York has the other evening discovered that seven of the 12 passengers were residents of New York looking over their own town for the first time.

This is by no means unusual. I have met hundreds of people who have never seen the east side and who look at me with dismay when I tell them that Second Avenue is my favorite thoroughfare. Of course they have never studied this "Broadway of the East Side." Here, if anywhere in America, you may see the old world kissing goodbye to its customs and adopting the habits of the new.

In Second Avenue the bright lights glare as brightly as elsewhere, but the names they blazon are foreign names. The movie playhouses flash their huge play bills, as elsewhere, but the lettering is in Hebrew, in Italian, in Russian.

The pictures unroll here, as elsewhere, their typically American stories, but the titles are in all the languages of the earth. From the phonograph stores come the usual crashings of sounds, but the words are in unfamiliar tongues. Along the streets the second and third generations of immigrants sunter, flappers and shikie arm in arm; the girls in high heeled shoes, silk stockings, the shortest of skirts, the most boyish bobs and reddest of rouged lips. I have seen two such girls walking on either side of a venerable patriarch whose white hair was hidden in a skull cap and whose beard flowed well down upon his vest. They were chattering in the latest slang, while grandpa could speak but a few faltering words of English.

Pleasantest of all is the survival of the grand old custom of neighborly meetings on front steps and sidewalks. Here you may relax from the sense of rush to be found on Fifth Avenue or Broadway. Come cold nights or hot, little groups are gathered in doorways chattering. Babies are crawling along the sidewalks. Girls are going home along the street, something about their light free swing that can be found in no other section of this great city.

Three out of ten New Yorkers barely know this street and but one out of ten reads its message. GILBERT SWAN.

BARB'S

It's a Bargain A Chicago building collapsed during a bargain rush. It was blamed on a steam shovel excavating next door, but you couldn't get a jury that would convict a more stentid shovel in a case like that. Some of the bargain hunters didn't pay any attention when the walls fell on them. They only thought some woman had seen a $1 parasol for sale at $1.99 and was trying to get it. Some of the inexperienced bargain hunters were injured, but none of the seasoned veterans had a scratch. It takes something heavier than a brick building to put a dent in a real bargain hunter.

Brush your teeth before and after kissing, the dentist advises. Better stuff a little cotton into your ears, too. The smack may deafen you. Don't trust bubbles to bust your troubles.

BY ANNE AUSTIN.

she answers every question truthfully, even though the truth is in a bad light, she will bring the fangs out of the possession." Bob whispered to Pathy as he was weeping silently, heartily.

"I was not in love with Mr. Cherry. I was very fond of him," Cherry said in a low voice. "I was afraid of what I would do if I did not marry him, or someone else who was kind and good." "What were you afraid of doing?" Churchill probed suspiciously.

"I was afraid I would marry this man," Cherry's hands knotted in her lap as if she were again feeling that old fear which had harassed her for months.

"Now, Cherry, will you tell the truth in your own words, the way your relationship with Mr. Willey," Churchill took his seat, as if he had made up his mind to allow her to tell her story undisturbed.

"I met Mr. Willey a year ago this year, at a dance at 'Ye Olde Cabin' on the Marlboro road. Mr. Willey immediately began to pay a great deal of attention to me, coming to the house and taking me for drives in his car and dances and the theater. One evening my father asked him if he was the same Mr. Willey who had mentioned in connection with the suicide of Helen Bailey, who had had an illegitimate baby, admitted that he was, and my father ordered him out of the house forbade me to see him again."

"When was this, Cherry?" Churchill interrupted.

"It was last June, Helen Bailey committed suicide early in May. Mr. Willey had begun to go with Mr. Willey," Cherry answered conscientiously.

"And did you obey your father?" Churchill asked. "Go right on with your story."

"I did not obey my father," Cherry confessed, her beautiful eyes dropping. "I saw a beautiful man, Jim Lane's eyes were fixed on me in weary, grief-stricken search. I continued to see him at intervals. In July, I think it was, he took out a marriage license in Marlboro County and tried to persuade me to elope with him. I refused, and he carried the marriage license about with him. He was always showing it to me and urging me to marry him. I was infatuated with him, but I was afraid of him, too, because sometimes he was cruel and harsh with me. I also knew that he went with other girls."

"Did you go with other men, too?" Churchill inquired with apparent pathos.

"Yes, sir. I went with Mr. Willey Warren and Mr. Chester Hart and later with Mr. Robert Hathaway," Cherry confessed, the red of shame dyeing her white cheeks.

"Did you become engaged to any of these men, Cherry?"

"No, sir, not formally engaged," Cherry answered, her golden eyes flicking a glance toward Bob Hathaway. "What I mean is, there was nothing really definite. Mr. Hathaway had told me several times during the week of September 19 to 25 that he loved me—and he took it for granted that I would marry him."

"I see," Churchill interrupted, thoughtfully. "You heard Mr. Hathaway testify that he was engaged to you and that you broke the engagement? Were those statements true?"

"In a way," Cherry answered, her eyes dropping to her twisting hands. "I had told Mr. Hathaway that I loved him—it was during the week of September 19 to 25—but we had not discussed getting married. Then on September 26, the night after I was brought back from Darrow by my sister and Mr. Hathaway, he told my father that he and I were engaged. I told him then in my father's presence that I would not marry him."

"Why, Cherry?"

"Because I knew that he did not really love me, that he loved my sister, Pathy," Cherry answered simply.

In the sudden absolute stillness of the court room, Pathy broke into terrible, uncontrolled weeping.

NEW YORK COTTON
NEW YORK, May 25 (AP)—The cotton market was under pressure of pre-holiday realigning in today's trading. A lower opening was followed by rallies on reports of rains in the eastern belt, but after selling up to 16 1/2% for October, prices eased off again under renewed profit taking. October declined to 16.52, or 22 points net below and mid-afternoon prices were within four or five points of the lowest.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, May 25 (AP)—Although the cotton market advanced 16 to 15 points in the early trading, the favorable weather and crop report and a bearish private condition report induced selling and before the offerings were absorbed July traded down to 16.21, October 16.30 and December 16.78, 19 to 23 points below the highs. In the afternoon the market was steadier and prices were 4 to 5 points above the lows.

More Honors Are Being Heaped Upon Lindbergh As All France Applauds

difficult for a ruler or seasoned diplomat trained in the schools of public life, and never once has he made a mistake. His acquiescent appointments with the same main duty as he listens to what he must be silly questions; he replies to all alike with unvarying patience and ready good nature.

Another honor—and there are many more to come—awaited this day—the honorary diploma of the higher normal school, one of the greatest institutions of higher education in the world. Its class lists are simply a roll of honor of all that is greatest in the French literary, scientific and political worlds of the past century. The directors of the school feel that never was a diploma, although an honorary one, ever better earned than by Lindbergh's thesis in the conquest of the Atlantic.

Early to bed, early to rise is Lindbergh's motto, although with the wealth part of the covert he is not concerned for money has no attraction for him. Consequently he did not linger long at the little intimate dinner party given for him at the American embassy last night, notwithstanding that the guests were specially selected from among personalities who would be likely to be interesting to the aviator. Among them were the Marquis de Polignac, a noted figure in French aviation history.

He'll Inspect Machine
Lindbergh feels that the time has come for him to thoroughly look over his machine if he is going to fly to Brussels Saturday. He will inspect the machine Saturday.

Popularity Wide Spread
PARIS, May 25.—America's aviator envoy, Captain Charles A. Lindbergh, has won universal admiration and aroused unparalleled enthusiasm, but by his modesty and tact, displayed in the race of unprecedented attentions, he has won even greater honor—the respect of all classes of Frenchmen.

It was commented on everywhere today that never for one moment had the young American, who founded suddenly from comparative obscurity to world fame, lost his head or proved unequal to a situation in which he found himself thrust without preparation. He has been called upon to act in circumstances which would have proven

Lubbock Service Stations Endorse Plans To Make City 'Tourist Home'

REPUTATION FOR REAL HOSPITALITY GOAL OF CITIZENS

That local service dealers and garage men approve of the "tourist to the tourist" campaign now being planned, and anticipate a possible organization of dealers here with the object of achieving better service to the public, and to boost the city of Lubbock, was disclosed by interviews with various managers here today.

Under the plan now being discussed, managers or employees of the different stations are to maintain a bulletin board and will call up once a week at the office of the American Automobile association in the Chamber of Commerce to secure authentic road information which can be given to tourist passing through. Where detailed information or road maps are sought, the autoists will be directed to the Chamber of Commerce.

Day Supports It

J. A. Day, manager of the Broadway Service station, one of the men heartily in favor of the new plan, gave his reasons for supporting it. "Dozens of persons come through each day asking for road information and other data regarding places ahead of them, enroute to their vacation grounds. Most of these ask a few questions about Lubbock and the Plains. Tourists are among the best patrons there are, and they help make the reputation of most cities by carrying stories up and down the main highways as to what various

FARMERS BUY GOOD CHICKS

Purebred Chicks Are Being Shipped Into Lubbock In Large Numbers

Persons entering the Lubbock Postoffice are usually greeted with a melody of chirping, coming from numerous cases of small chicks, which represents a marker of progress among farmers of this district, according to J. R. Green, superintendent of mails.

Approximately 10,000 baby chicks, most of them of purebred or standard breed stock, and some of them the progeny of the best show birds have been handled through the postoffice within the past ten days.

Shipments Are Varied

The shipments come from Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, the Johnson farms at Bowie, some few from the Carolina and eastern states, and other points where big poultry farms are located. Apparently they are shipments to local raisers who desire to improve the quality of their stock.

From one to four cases per day, or an average of about 250 chicks are handled.

Also in addition to the persons buying better blood lines, many raisers buy baby chicks to raise for the produce market, finding a substantial profit in this undertaking. It was stated:

cities are like and how they were treated.

"If local dealers will arm themselves with information about Lubbock and give a "dozen word sales talk" as to the advantages of the city to the persons passing through here, it will help a great deal to make this a better business city."

Mansell Gives Figures

D. E. Mansell, manager of the Super Service station on West Broadway, advanced figures to show the value of tourist trade.

"Aside from the purchase of meals and supplies, tourists from a large integer in the profits made by service stations. There are approximately 4,000 cars in Lubbock, and about 42 service stations, counting the cars in the city and the ones immediately surrounding it which trade here, each station has a quota of about 30 cars to keep it running.

The ordinary car refuels about once in three to four days on a commercial basis. From 15 days, unless the owner is running to 100 tourists pass through here every day when the season is good, and most of them refuel. This means that the trade offered by the tourists and traveling men amounts to almost one-fifth as much as the home trade. Add one-fifth to any man's business and see how it affects his profits.

Tourists Arrange Stops

"Tourists making inquiries from motorists, going in the opposite direction, usually arrange their schedule to stop at cities having the reputation of being the most hospitable. If Lubbock will take aggressive steps to make this reputation, it will increase her business.

"Furthermore scouts for factories and business enterprises of all kinds usually travel by automobile and inquire of service dealers as to conditions in different cities to get inside information. The service dealer should be a spokesman for his city and is in position to render a real service."

Graduation Exercises To Be Held For High School Seniors Tonight

Invocation by Rev. W. A. Bowen; selections by the high school girls' chorus; vocal solo by Miss Louise Ocker; selection by 15 members of senior band; violin solo by Miss Margaret Hiebel, and a trombone solo by Manell Hall. The presentation of scholarships will follow the program and the 16 honor students are to be presented also.

Senior Class Night Is Well Attended

Gladsome applause greeted rendition of an impromptu program consisting of senior class night, which included everything from black music by a negro maid to modern radio programs.

Just after 123 seniors marched in behind their class officers, Homer Harberger, president; Sally Bean, secretary; Farren James, vice president; and Lellose Hays, editor of the school paper, the evening ran on a domestic scene, with the radio being played.

Following which musical and novelty numbers were presented with Homer Harberger acting as announcer.

The hit of the evening was "The Bill of Halcyon Campbell," "The Soliloquy of a Baby," Farren James and Francis Stalch, giving a novelty act including the song "He Ain't Done Right by Nell," also pleased. A trombone solo by Manell Hall with Marjorie Mitchell at the piano, and a blackface quartet by Brady, Jennie, Hubane, Frewland, Culver Hill, Audrey Brown, Farren James and Bill Garrison was liberally greeted with applause.

Juniors To Present Play On Thursday

"Wives to Burn," the play of the Junior class of Lubbock High School will be presented tomorrow night in the high school auditorium, with Mrs. Wanda Hanks directing. Some of the students in the cast are: Roscoe Bayless, LeRoy Vaughan, Marjorie Alsworth, Hubert Hopper, Robert Cooper, Annie Laura Hancock, Luther Williams, Denna Vaughan, Bill Tatum and Mark Cullins.

Miami Smoked Out As Everglades Burn

MIAMI, Fla., May 25. (AP)—Heavy smoke rolling all from a forest fire in the everglades enveloped Miami and Miami Beach today. Fog whistles were sounded several miles off shore.

The fire, creeping eastward over a 20 mile front, has destroyed 100 square miles of muck soil since Saturday. Hundreds of volunteers today bent their efforts to saving 20,000 acres of rich muck soil between the burning area, and the outskirts of Miami, Coral Gables, and Hialeah. Several small farms

Mexican Troops Are Executing Bandits

MEXICO CITY, May 25. (AP)—Travelers report that federal troops are summarily executing all bandits and rebels found in their searches along the railroads between Mexico City and the border.

Arrivals from Laredo say they saw the bodies of two men slung from telegraph poles near the station of Ohegong and that they witnessed the execution by a firing squad of five recently captured bandits.

RESERVES TO BACK C. M. T. C.

Will Maintain Information Booth in Hotel Lobby During Week-End

As their part toward seeing that the boys of Lubbock and the South Plains have a chance to receive excellent recreation and training during the summer, several local members of the Officers Reserve Corps are to maintain an information bureau in the lobby of the Lubbock hotel, Friday and Saturday, in the interest of the Citizens Military Training camps which are to be held this summer in the various areas of the country. It was decided at a meeting of a number of students and officers at the Tech last night. Detailed information and bulletins telling about the camps are to be distributed by the men. Col. Clark Mullan, A. H. Waite, of the college, and a number of other local men are interested in the work.

The camps are open to young men between the ages of 17 and 21 who pass the regular physical examination. One month will be spent in regular army training and the purpose of the camps, to stimulate and promote citizenship, patriotism, Americanism, through expert physical direction, athletic coaching and military training, to benefit the young men individually, and to bring them to a greater realization of their obligations to their country and to their home, will be observed at all times.

Three camps are to be held in Texas and boys from this section may enter any one. A camp will be held at Fort Crockett, Texas, from July 1 to July 30; at Fort Sam Houston from July 6 to August 4, and at Fort Bliss from July 22 to August 20.

The officers are urging every boy in Lubbock and the South Plains to call at the booth and gain information regarding the camps.
