(Q) Is there anyway that the Railroad Co. can grub the trees on the right-away on Front Street in Loraine or let someone do it with no expense to them?

(A) According to Bob Moreland of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co., the right-away can be cleared if the rail way is leased or owned by the railroad. There is only a certain amount of footage per right-away that can be cleared and only to a certain point of between 50 and 100 feet. Yes, someone can grub the trees with no expense to them. It is up to the railroad to maintain them according to law.

Back to work for phone company workers

Striking workers return to work

Colorado City's striking telephone workers may go back to work later this week.

Leaders of three unions representing 675,000 striking American Telephone & Telegraph Co. workers voted Sunday to accept a tentative contract settlement.

Glen E. Watts, president of the Communication Workers of America, which represents 525,000 of the strikers, including the two workers in Colorado City—Jesse Munoz and Keith Smith, said his members could begin working as soon as Thursday. He stated that the three-year agreement addressed two key issues in the dispute; more money and job security.

CWA presidents are meeting this week in St. Louis to work out contracts on the local level. After details are worked out there, each president will present the contracts to local memberships for ratification or rejection.

Phil Bode, the West Texas Public Relations Staff Specialist out of Lubbock said the Bell company is glad to have the striking workers back on the job. "There was no way of telling how long the strike would last. I think the managers did a good job of handling things while the strike was going on."

Bode says that when the workers return, installations will pick up again and that callers will have a less harder time dialing long distance and directory assistance. "We were just undermanned," explained Bode. So really the strike which entered its third week on Sunday really had very little effect on the general public.

Watts said at a news conference that before CWA members can return to work, companion agreements under negotiation in some 34 areas across the country at the local level must be completed. Members would return to work, however, before actually voting on whether to ratify the pact. That process usually takes two to three weeks.

The tentative settlement calls for an immediate 5.5 percent pay raise, or $30 a week, for employees who have been with the company for five years, which covers about 90 percent of the CWA membership.

Three charged with marijuana possession

On Saturday, August 20 three men were charged with possession of marijuana at approximately 9:30 p.m. by the Colorado City Police Department, according to police personnel.

The three men, Duwayne Edward Jackson, 19, Colorado City, Benito Arocha, Jr., 18 also of Colorado City and Tommy Lynn Williams, 19 of Ira were charged with misdemeanor charges of possession of marijuana less than four ounces.

The victims were arrested when officers noticed the pickup truck the trio were in ran a stop sign. After smelling marijuana in the vehicle, officers searched the truck and found the evidence, said police department personnel.

On Sunday, August 21, two six packs of Coors, one six pack of Old Milwaukee and one 16 ounce can of Coors Light was reported taken from C&N Convenience Store located at 512 Second Street at approximately 3 p.m., according to police department personnel.

The incident occurred when the two suspects, one a young black male weighing 160-170 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes wearing blue jeans and a light blue long sleeve shirt was in the store along with the other suspect, an elderly white female, 5-6 to 5-8, weighing 160 pounds with silver hair, wearing a print dress and high heels.

The two suspects reportedly took the beer when two white males entered the store and threatened the clerk with bodily harm if she didn't give them the money in the register.

When this happened the white female took a 16 ounce Coors Light

Green indicted in Emerson murder case

The Mitchell County grand jury met Friday and returned eleven indictments. One of those was sealed, because the suspect was not in custody.

James Lee Green 30, of Colorado City was indicted for the murder of John Frank Emerson 32 on August 9th. Contrary to reports in area newspapers, Green is a Colorado City native and attended school in Colorado City.

Emerson was shot

once in the forehead with a .25 caliber pistol. Two indictments were returned arising from an incident in The Sands about 10 p.m., Thursday, July 28, in which a high speed chase and attempt to serve a warrant for failure to have evidence of liability insurance erupted into a clash between law officers and Mexican Americans.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Tersero was injured and several members of the Mexican American community were injured including Joe Franco, two women, Naomi Franco and 16-year-old Yvonne Molina and others.

Joe Franco 23 and Felix Franco 27, both of Colorado City, were charged with aggravated assault on a peace officer.

"The King and I"--don't miss it!

By JANA BRITTON

The Colorado City Playhouse production of "The King and I" is a dynamic play from start to finish. It is a vibrant, fast-paced drama that seems to have come straight from Broadway!

The elegant, elaborate stage setting adds an extra sparkle to the performance as a whole. The playhouse has never looked better and the year's remodeling has paid off tremendously by allowing more room for bigger props and more room backstage.

All of the actors and actresses perform as if they were professionals and this is a huge asset for the play.

Emily Hataway's performance as Anna Leon-owens, the British schoolteacher is superb. Her beautiful voice seems to ring throughout the entire building which makes her seem very professional. Throughout the entire performance, she carries herself with a special grace that adds a soft touch to the play.

King Mongkut, portrayed by Lonnie Reynolds is truly an asset to the production. He projects his lines with such clarity and his dry sense of humor endears him to the audience.

Tupitum portrayed by Tammy Watson and Lun Tha, alias David Jones are the romantic duo of the performance. They add a softness to the drama and complement each other very well.

Porter Richardson is very effective as the British Captain Orton and The Interrupter played by Walter Hearin and Phra Alack portrayed by Tommy Baker are very impressive.

The Seven Wives portrayed by Alcy Kay, Marie Jackson, Leslie Perkins, Kristy Frizzel, Mary Lynn Hackleman, Margaret Nelson and Priscilla Martin work together to make them seem more than just a group of people trying to act out a part. They seem to really become a part of their character!

Debbie Goforth, who portrays King Mongkut's head wife, Lady Thiang does a great job in helping the play to run as smoothly as it does.

The King's children, Charlie Garrett who plays Prince Chulalongkorn; Lauren Perkins who portrays Princess Yingyowlack; Amy Moore, Betsy Myers, Mendy Conner, Carrie Perkins, Jacob Mikow, Whitney Bassham, Ruben Hurt, Dylan Moore, Tia Bassham and Talva Hurt are heart-warming as well as sensitive and they all do a fantastic job in creating their individual parts.

Tandy Curlee as the Kraralohome is dynamic as ever and Trey Smith who portrays Sir Edward Ramsey is a delightful addition to the overall performance.

John Jones' performance as Louis Leonowens, Anna's son is very convincing.

The Three Amazons,

Jan Winn, Connie Penland and Linda Hearin and the Three Guards and Priests, Tim Beights, Donnie Davenport and Kerry Wright are all very impressive.

The ballet which was choreographed by Mimi Johnson, adds a different dimension to the play. It is very amusing as well as energetic.

The ballet dancers, Staci Free, Stacie Smith, Kristy Frizzel, Kerry Wright, Donnie Davenport, Tim Beights, Linda Hearin, Mendy Conner, Amy Moore, Mimi Johnson, Jan Winn, Walter Hearin and Connie Penland, all do a fantastic performance which delights the entire audience.

The elaborate costumes add to the play's exotic overtones. They were designed by Lovess Curlee and Shirley Delaney.

The lighting designed by George Womack, highlights the beautiful settings.

Doug Baum, percussionist, Cecile Hubbard, pianist and Addie V Payne, organist, add a special effect through their musical adaptation.

Stage manager is Laura Baum; stage properties, Linda and Walter Hearin; screen shifting crew, Robin Pace and Jack Perkins; lighting operations, Chris Hubbard, Greg Chaney and Joe Lynn Mikow and make-up, Nancy Chaney.

Opening night, Tuesday, August 23 was a sell-out and tickets can be obtained at the box office from 1 to 6 p.m.

The pact would also provide 1.5 percent annual wage increases in 1984 and 1985 along with an inflation clause that would furnish workers with additional money to cover 75 percent of the increase in the cost of living.

Over the life of the contract, a typical Bell System employee now earning $12.33 per hour will go up to $14.36, not including any cost of living increase.

The Bell management also retreated on its earlier demand that workers for the first time, contribute as much as 20 percent of the cost of health insurance premiums.

Local worker Smith is glad that an agreement has been reached. "I'm tickled to death. I will be glad to go back to work. When you work for a company for 17 years, and have all this time away, it gets pretty boring at the house."

Smith said that he is satisfied with the agreement and is surprised that the strike lasted this long.

Munoz said that he is happy with the terms of the agreement and is ready to go back to work. "I wasn't that dissatisfied with the salary, but the biggest concern was that they were trying to take away our insurance."

Letter to the Editor

Dear Earl:

I want to thank you, the Kiwanis Club and all the people who have visited me, sent cards, flowers and made telephone calls from Colorado City to me at Highland Hospital in Lubbock.

I broke my back three weeks ago Thursday, today, by trying to lift something that was too heavy for me. The ambulance from Colorado City rushed me to Highland Hospital in Lubbock, and I was immediately put in the care of Dr. Ivan Barber, Jr. I didn't remember a thing for two or three days and after that the pain was terrible. Surgery will not help my problem. I will be home the last of this week and from my bed with help of physical therapy, I will have to learn to sit up, walk and maybe ride Shampoo again.

I want to thank everyone again for their prayers and good thoughts for my recovery for they certainly helped.

Sincerely,
Dell Barber

Letter to the Editor

Dear Earl:

I want to thank you, the Kiwanis Club and all the people who have visited me, sent cards, flowers and made telephone calls from Colorado City to me at Highland Hospital in Lubbock.

I broke my back three weeks ago Thursday, today, by trying to lift something that was too heavy for me. The ambulance from Colorado City rushed me to Highland Hospital in Lubbock, and I was immediately put in the care of Dr. Ivan Barber, Jr. I didn't remember a thing for two or three days and after that the pain was terrible. Surgery will not help my problem. I will be home the last of this week and from my bed with help of physical therapy, I will have to learn to sit up, walk and maybe ride Shampoo again.

I want to thank everyone again for their prayers and good thoughts for my recovery for they certainly helped.

Sincerely,
Dell Barber

Serving as bridesmaids were Carol Taylor, sister-in-law of the groom of Arlington and Cherry Hoback, sister of the groom. The attendants wore dresses identical to the maid of honor.

Flower girl was Terri

McKowen, cousin of the bride and ring bearer was Ray McKowen, also a cousin of the bride from Temple.

"Sunrise, Sunset" and "Turn Around" was sung by Mrs. Doris Houston and Mrs. June Brown, aunts of the bride. Rev. Clary sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception followed the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with a baby blue tablecloth and displayed a four-tiered baby blue and white wedding cake.

The groom's table also had a baby blue tablecloth and German chocolate cake was served.

Wolves impressive against Stanton, test Anson Friday

The Wolf football team made an impressive showing in their first scrimmage of the season against Stanton Friday as they moved the ball at will against the Buffaloes.

Although neither team scored, three times during the controlled scrimmage, the Pack penetrated the Stanton 20 yard line, but came up empty handed. The 'Buffs crossed the mid-field stripe only once the entire scrimmage.

The performance left head coach Tom Ramsey with high hopes. "I am pleased with the overall performance of the team. We are much further along this year than last year. This is the first time we have been able to move the ball consistently this early in the season. Last year at this time we were concerned with trying to make a first down," explained Ramsey.

Dropped passes was what kept the Pack from getting into the endzone. The Pack had two sure touchdown passes dropped, and another key pass that might have led to a TD was dropped. Quarterback Doug Chitsey threw the ball well completing over half of his passes.

The receiving corp of Dennis Rivera, Jay Piland, Charles Iglehart and Edward Rivera all snagged passes. For the second week in a row the Pack's front line of Franklin Marsh, Freddie Pineda, Fred Dakan, Raymond Bassinger and Steve Rosas prevented Chitsey from being sacked. "These kids take pride in not letting the other guys get to the quarterback," said Ramsey.

All West Texas running back Larry Hamilton carried the ball only three times, but came close to breaking one run as the last man "caught him by the shoestrings."

Defensively the Wolves front four of tackles Dakan and Marsh, ends Bassinger and Pineda held Stanton in check all night. The linebacking crew of Jay Piland, Chitsey and Don Randle also did a fine job, said Ramsey. Sophomore defensive back Ruben Rivera, who is a newcomer to the varsity picked off a pass to kill a Buffalo drive.

This Friday the Wolf Pack will scrimmage the Anson Tigers at Wolf Stadium, freshmen will start at 6 p.m., junior varsity will begin at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Tigers play a 4-3 defense, and do a real good job in it, according to Ramsey. On offense they are not a throwing team, so they line up in the Wing-T formation and run right at the defense.

Ramsey stated that his team will take a look at all of their plays, mixing them up against the Tigers.

The only injured player is junior lineman Larry Hearn who has a pinched nerve.

Ozona big and quick

Last season, the Ozona Lions finished with a 10-2 mark, including a 4-1 district record. They defeated Kermit 10-9 in bi-district and fell to a tough Stamford team 20-5 in the next round, but this year's team will be minus 18 lettermen, but the quickness that Ozona is known for will still be around.

Lion coach Don Abbott is not hanging his head and crying over the loss of his lettermen, he still has ample running backs to step in and tote the ball, plus he has a stable of big linemen to block for them.

Abbott says he has the quick players to carry the ball, but they are small (120-140 pounds) but what he doesn't know is if they will be able to take the pounding game after game.

But if this year's team is anything like last year, the Lions will have plenty of guys to run the ball. Last season, Ozona had 17 players to carry the ball from the running back spot last year. Manning the running back spots in the Lions option offense, will be Robert Flores 5-10, 140, the fastest player on the team and Deigo Leal, 5-9, 160 who was the fifth leading rusher last season. Both players have good hands coming out of the backfield.

Calling the signals for the Lions will probably be David Delgado, 5-8, 150. The split end will be Al Ramirez, a 6-1, 140 junior. Manuel Perez, 5-9, 147 will play tight end, also Cap Couch, a 150 pound senior might also get some action at tight end.

But the biggest change and gamble for the Lions will come at the fullback positions where all-district linemen Rowdy Holmsley will be moved to the back spot. The big man (6-1, 240) is an ideal fullback with his size and quickness, running a 4.9 40 and bench pressing over 350 pounds.

Everyone is talking about the Lions quick backs, people forget about their big linemen making the holes. The tackles will be Roy Tambunsa, 6-0, 236, Joe Marshall 5-10, 202 or Ronnie Smith 6-2, 218. At the guard spots junior Ed Barrego, 5-10, 238 will handle one spot and Joe VanDiver 5-11, 176 will handle the other spot. The "lightweight" of the crew will be center Emilio Garza at 160.

The Lions have a host of other linemen backing them up ranging from 160 to 220 pounds backing them up.

Defensively, the Lions will use a 27-defense with the tackles being the strongest positions. Holmsley will be the "strong spot" with either Barrego or Tambunga manning the other position.

The Lions have a host of capable linebackers. Johnny Rodriguez, Raul Arrendondo have the inside track at the outside positions. The middle spot will be a battle between Matt Gutierrez, 5-10, 157 and Chuy Hernandez, 5-11, 156.

At the strong side, ends will be VanDiver, Aycock and Ronnie Smith. Weak ends includes Shannon Souther, 162, Emilio Garza and Marshall.

The Lions' secondary will see cornerbacks Flores, Hernandez, Perez, Vargas, Ramirez and Holkit. Hernandez is a shoo-in at the free safety position.

So what if the Lions did lose 18 lettermen, they have some quick people coming back, a host of big linemen and a fairly solid defense.

Trice optimistic about season

"We are optimistic about improving and playing with respect," were the words of Loraine Bulldog head coach B. D. Trice after the Bulldogs had scrimmaged New Home Friday night at Johnson Field.

The Bulldog offense scored two times while allowing the visitors to cross their goal line only once during the controlled scrimmage. "We made some progress, but we have to do better if we want to compete in this district," stated Trice concerning his teams performance.

Trice says the Bulldog offense needs a lot of work, especially in the line. Both of the Bulldog tallies came on passes. Ruben Garcia did a good job running the ball from his running back position and catching the ball from his wide receiver spot.

Another bright spot for the Bulldogs on offense was the play of quarterback Aundra Rose, who is seeing his first action ever at this position. "Aundra did an outstanding job considering he has never played the position before," said Trice. The other Bulldog quarterback, Tony Morris saw limited action because of a bruised hand.

Trice was also pleased with the play of freshman offensive guard and defensive tackle Armando Castro. Sophomore Phillip Sanders also did a fine job at defensive tackle. "Phillip played a lot more aggressive," said Trice.

Senior defensive and offensive end James Griffin also had a pretty good scrimmage considering it was his first day in pads. Griffin reported to practices late and has spent the last four days in shorts.

Trice says the Bulldogs came out of the game relatively healthy with Buck Trice having a pulled hamstring and Darryl Petty with a sprained ankle.

The Bulldogs are scheduled to scrimmage this Friday. It is not for sure who the opponent will be or where the contest will be played.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:
"Applause! Brava, Bravo and Bravi! Encore!"

I have just returned from opening night of "The King and I."

Colorado City has much in its favor, making it the best town in which to live, not the least of which is our live theatre. Because of the enlarged stage, this is the most lavish production ever. It has been heartening through the years to see how much talent can be discovered, talent people didn't know they themselves possessed: dramatic, singing, dancing, set-design and execution, costuming and music.

From the time the lights go down and the orchestra strikes up, live theatre, indeed, becomes Magic, nothing like entertainment on the screen or television.

I won't name persons responsible for the present great show except to say that Carl Moore, the director, has worked months and weeks making the show come together into a superb production.

We can be proud of our Playhouse. Area playgoers are—from Odessa to Abilene, from Lubbock to San Angelo. What other small town in West Texas can do so fine a job? Mr. and Mrs. Preston Burchard (he is the grandson of the late Dr. P. C. Coleman) came from Palo Alto, Cal., just for the opening. As the King says, "Et Cetera, Et Cetera, and Et Cetera." So many are being educated to live theatre as exemplified by the precious tiny children. They are our stars of tomorrow. Don't miss the show.

Loraine Nursing Home staff honored at dinner

The Loraine Nursing Home Staff were honored during Nursing Home Employees Week.

The elderly of our nation are special and so are the people who care for them. To recognize the efforts of nursing home employees, August 21-25 has been declared National Nursing Home Employees Week.

Providing health care to the elderly is something that not everyone can do. It takes someone with lots of patience and empathy.

"Appreciating Excellence" is the theme of National Nursing Home Employees Week which is sponsored by the American Health Care Association and the National Council of Health Centers. It is supported by Beverly Enterprise, the nation's largest health care provider.

At Loraine Nursing Center an employee recognition dinner is planned for Thursday, August 25. This day was chosen by Beverly Enterprises, which operates Loraine Center, to focus on its employees dedication to caring for its nursing home residents across the nation.

The recognition program will feature the seven most outstanding employers selected by residents and co-workers.

Based on their contributions to the quality of life for the nursing home residents, the following Loraine Nursing Home employers were selected:

Portia Way, LVN; Mary Lopez, NA; Loretta Martinez, MA; Juanita Bryant, dietary; Rosa Garcia, dietary and Valentina Martinez, laundry.

These members will receive a certificate of recognition from Beverly Enterprises on Thursday, August 25.

We want to honor each and everyone of them. They all have mastered the art of caring.

Over-40 Gang surprised, 15-7

Well, it looks like the word is out, the Over 40's Gang are no push-over on the softball diamond, so local teams are loading in order to get the upper hand on the "old men."

Monday afternoon was just the case as the Over 40's bit off more than they could chew as they were overwhelmed by a bunch of softball players under the alias of Little League Dads by a score of 15-7.

This reporter knew something was fishy when all the players on the Little League Dads still had all of their hair, and all of them warmed up by running the length of the 295 foot diamond without getting winded. As one Over 40's member commented before the contest, "This is the youngest bunch of Little League Dads I have ever seen."

In all fairness to everyone, the Little League Dads turned out to be a reunited group of the Old Baptist Mission softball team, a team that won many Church League Championships in the mid 70's.

When they saw what they were up against, the Over 40 Gang seemed to panic for a while. Rumor has it that coach Travis Turner was furiously pacing the dug-out muttering "What did we get into?"

First at bat, the Little League Dads or Baptist Mission or Surprise Package might even be a better name, because that is just what they were to the old dudes.

They promptly scored a run with one swing of the bat from Robert "Old Man" Garza as he zipped an inside home-run by the outfield. "Pappa" Earnest Aguilar followed with a single, and "Gramps" Sammy Contreras doubled, scoring Aguilar. They went on to score two more runs aided by the hits of Ralph Martinez, Cecil Contreras and Jimmy Mendoza. (When did little Jimmy start playing Little League Jimmy?)

At their first at bat, the Over 40's seemed in a state of shock as leadoff hitter J. O. Dockrey grounded out. Big Nathan Hoyle singled, Bob Riley forced Hoyle out at second for out number two. But Ronnie Conner, who has improved tremendously with each game, singled and David Marion followed suit to load up the bases. This brought up Big George Davenport, a perfect time for the old guys to get back into the contest.

Now Big George is the long ball threat of the team. Last week versus the Methodists, he came up in the same situation and made an out. But this time the big slugger was due, right? Wrong! and "Pappa" Aguilar had a lot to do with it as he gathered in Davenport's long fly in left field at the warning track to end the threat, and the score was 4-0.

The Surprise Package picked up a run in the second, while the Over 40's went three up and three down. In the third inning, Little League Dads, I mean Baptist, oops! whatever you want to call them put together another big inning by scoring six runs.

The remarkable thing about this is that the Over 40's had switched to their new defense, six outfielders, (seems I have my doubts about this new defense). But anyway, Contreras, Mendoza and Garza got things going with singles. That's when over 40 left, left fielder started out with problems. Jimmy "Loco" Lopez hit a grounder that scooted through Marion's legs for a homerun. The next batter, Joe (I can still play shortstop) Silva hit a hot grounder that hopped over Marion's head for a triple. By this time, poor David thought they were taking target practice at him. By the time all the smoke had cleared, the score stood 11-0 and fans started to wonder if the old guys would be shut out for the first time this season.

In the bottom of the third, the Over 40 Gang showed that they were not quitters as the two red men, Jim Baum and Bobby Lemons led off with singles. Dockrey, whose bat has been struggling of late, hit into a double play. But Nathan Hoyle kept things going when he hit a hot shot that shortstop Silva couldn't handle, scoring Red Lemons with the first run for the old men. Riley then hit his usual double, which scored Hoyle. Conner then collected his second hit in as many tries as he singled scoring Riley. After three full innings of play the score stood 11-3.

The Surprise Package scored four more runs and the score stood 15-3 going into the bottom of the seventh. This was the last swing for the old guys and you could see the determination in their eyes. They were not about to give up as they cranked up their old bones for one more half-inning.

The ever consistent Riley singled to lead things off. Conner finally made an out as he flied out. Marion somewhat redeemed himself as he stroked an inside-the-park homerun to score two tallies, and all of a sudden, the elderly gentlemen's bones were not as tired as they were when the inning began.

Davenport kept things going as he belted a hot shot by the third baseman. Lindy Market singled and brother Bo walked to load up the bases for Walter Bingham. Well, the big lefty promptly came through with a hard single that scored two runs which put the count at 15-7. The game ended on fly-outs by Henry Hoyle and Baum, but I tip my hat to the Over 40's for a gallant comeback.

Now in the future, the Over 40 Gang does not mind playing tough opposition, but please don't go under fictitious names because it throws off the old dudes game plan.

But something tells this reporter the next time the Over 40 Gang is scheduled to play another group of dads, an I.D. check will be made.

Lorraine B&PW meeting held

The Lorraine Business and Professional Women's Club met at the home of Dorothy Johnson August 15.

Margaret Brame, president and welcomed visitors.

Billie Ruth Tarrt introduced Sandra, Donny and Chris Phillips of the Lorraine Emergency Medical Corp., who gave the program on emergency care.

Mr. Phillips explained just what to do in many instances of emergency, illness or accidents. He told how to care for people of all ages, babies, children and older people, emphasizing emergency care for the elderly, also how old people can care for other old people.

He listed this case under three categories: 1. heart attacks, 2. strokes and 3. fall victims.

1. Recognize heart attacks by cool clammy skin and labored breathing, never raise head, but tilt head back. Keep patient still, call an ambulance or the EMT. He stressed the importance of letting the EMT know exactly where you are and your correct name.

2. Stroke victims are recognized by inability to move, incoherent speech and abnormal focusing of the eyes. On a stroke victim, turn head to side and keep very still until help arrives.

3. Fall victims—never move them. If a fracture is suspected, never try to straighten a broken limb.

Sandra and Donny illustrated the various points, using their son,

Chris as the "patient."

Following the EMC program, Margaret Brame presented Lana Dalton of Abilene who is District Membership Chairman. She used the motto, "Speak up-I did it."

I've grown because of it." She emphasized the importance of keeping club activities and programs updated and in tune with the times. She invited club members to a "Self Improvement" seminar in Abilene September 17th at the WYCA.

Molly Dixon of Abilene spoke on a new project for B&PW Clubs in this area, a home for abused women and children. This home is in Abilene and can be helped by donations of money, clothes and personal items for women or children.

In a short business session which followed, the club discussed the possibility of sponsoring a program by the Lorraine Emergency Medical Corp. for the general public. Plans will be finalized and announced later.

Punch and cookies were served by the evening's hostesses, Ann Preston, Elba Mae Evans and Verla Owens.
