Queen Lifting Royal Boycott Of Duchess After 29 Years

LONDON (AP) — After 29 years, Queen Elizabeth II is ending the British royal boycott of the Duchess of Windsor. No previous meeting between the queen and the duchess is on record. The general belief in London is that they have never met.

EVING IMMOBILE The queen intended the meeting to take place today. But the duke, lying immobile and with his eyes bandaged after his fourth major operation in three months, was said by his physicians to be too ill to receive visitors.

Vote Right Bill Vowed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican leaders move today toward translating into legislation their call for federal action to assure Negroes the right to register and vote.

The new Republican coordinating committee said in its initial statement Wednesday it was outraged at the denial "by force and fraud" of Negro voting rights. It set a goal of assuring every citizen his constitutional rights in this field before the 1966 elections.

HIGH-LEVEL BODY The coordinating group is composed of congressional leaders, governors, former presidential candidates and national committee members. It announced its support for President Johnson's course in South Viet Nam. It denounced Democratic "disruptive voices of appeasement," which it said, "undercut the President."

But it added: "Our task force on foreign policy shall have as one of its major objectives the examination of some of the most massive failures in foreign policy in recent American history — the consolidation of the Communist beachhead in Cuba, the expansion of Communist influence and control in Africa and the Near East, the deterioration of the Atlantic Alliance."

A task force on human rights also is to be named but Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan indicated they think the GOP civil rights position will be established firmly before it can get into operation. Dirksen said in an interview

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — About a dozen civil rights advocates staged a sit-in demonstration in the White House today. The demonstrators, whites and Negroes, entered the executive mansion with the regular flow of tourists and, once they got into the ground-floor hallway, sat on the floor and began chanting, "We shall not be moved."

'Fast Buck' Men Involved In Bank Failures?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators pursued today testimony that front men for crooked operators seized control and milked the assets of two now defunct national banks in Marlin, Tex., and Brighton, Colo.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee called for testimony from Joseph Barr, president of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., which insured the deposits. The subcommittee chairman, Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., said the senators want Barr's views on what caused these and some other banks to fail and whether new federal laws are needed to provide better protection.

The subcommittee heard testimony Wednesday from Comptroller of the Currency James Saxon and two of his top aides that:

—Mobs from the Chicago underworld, acting through a front man, may have been the ones they said milked assets of the Brighton National Bank until it failed in Colorado last year. They said counterfeit securities and forged notes figured in the deals.

—Alleged "fast buck operators" similarly bought through a false front a controlling interest in the long-established family owned First National Bank of Marlin, Tex., and brought it to failure through a long-planned mortgage deal on which they made $189,186.

—Don Silverthorne, president of the San Francisco National Bank, squandered its assets, gambling some in Las Vegas, and splitting some with a business associate, William Bennett, until the bank failed last January.

Saxon gave few details of the alleged role of underworld figures in the Brighton bank, saying a Justice Department investigation was on.

James Watson, one of Saxon's deputies, named James Egan, who bought purported control of the Brighton bank shortly after it opened in 1963, as an apparent front man.

He said there was "some indication Egan was acting as a front man for gangster elements" including Phil (Milwaukee Phil) Alderisio, alleged enforcer for the Giancana mob in Chicago.

McClellan described Alderisio as a reputed member of the old "Murder, Inc." gang.

Watson said Egan used about $400,000 borrowed from the 17th Street National Bank of Denver to buy control at Brighton.

William Camp, another Saxon deputy, named a Mathew Steiner as the front man through whom, he said, Bernard Garrett and Joseph Morris bought control of the Marlin bank.

Camp said the bank was warned the new owners must not involve it in their business deals, but within a month they had unloaded nearly $1 million worth of mortgages on it, which they reaped a $189,186 profit, split evenly between Garrett and Morris. He said the deal caused its failure.

'NOT COUNTING OVERTIME'

Housewifing Is $8,285 Year Job At Going Rates

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — I have just learned from my friendly neighborhood banker that I, along with 29,999,999 of my co-workers, earn $8,285.68 a year at the going rates for all the jobs we hold under the general title of "housewife."

The Chase Manhattan Bank's Economic Research Department has conducted a survey which reveals what tasks the average housewife performs daily, the number of hours she spends on each, and the rate of pay for these jobs on the labor market.

ON THE HOOF

Their statistics show that America's 30 million homemakers are worth $159.34 a week on the hoof, which is usually where they are during the 99.6 hours they're on the job. As one of that number, I take issue with some of their figures.

In the role of food buyer I may indeed spend 3.3 hours a week at the rate of $1.50 an hour, for a total of $4.95. But shouldn't I get overtime pay for the extra minutes I spend licking the trading stamps?

For the job of nursemaid — 44.5 hours at $1.25 per — I'm entitled to $55.63. I no longer have any little ones around, but we wives who play nursemaid to boys over 40 surely deserve a bonus.

That total of $9.30 for 6.2 hours of dishwashing must be for those who have an army of little kilowatts helping out. I'm a strictly nonautomatic dishwasher myself, and I spend much longer than that acquiring my rose-colored detergent hands.

NOT EARNED

In all honesty, I'll have to return the check for $3.25 I'm allowed as seamstress at $2.50 an hour. Even if I could sew, I'd find some way to keep from spending 1.3 hours a week at it.

Being a cook for 1.1 hours a week at $2.50 an hour sounds about right. But why don't we just take that $32.75 it adds up to and eat it?

Also on the list are dietitian, housekeeper, laundress, practical nurse, maintenance man, gardener and chauffeur, but in our household I have numerous other positions the bank economists never even thought of.

I'm not sure how much certified public accountants are getting these days, but I spend quite a few potentially golden moments making the bank balance come out even, keeping records and figuring out how to rob Peter to pay Paul.

atrist should bring in additional revenue. Every night my husband comes home, lies down on the couch and starts telling me his problems.

I spend more than half an hour every morning in a very specialized job, trying to get my husband out of bed. I don't know what the pay scale is for human alarm clocks, but my task is getting harder and more time-consuming every day.

Meanwhile, Chase Manhattan get that $8,285.68 check ready for me. I'll stop in on my coffee break to pick it up.

Might Raid Deeper In Red Domain

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential policy conference at Camp David indicates new decisions on the U.S. role in the Vietnamese war may be in the making.

One question believed to be under top-level consideration is whether U.S. air attacks on military bases in North Viet Nam should be carried deeper into that country. So far they have been restricted to the southern regions, well away from the capital, Hanoi.

Wednesday night's conference at the presidential retreat in the mountains of western Maryland brought together President Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, and McGeorge Bundy and Bill D. Moyers, White House aides.

WHOLE COMPLEX

The topic for the meeting was not announced but it was understood that the major subject, at least, was Viet Nam and that Camp David was chosen by the President because it afforded a relaxed atmosphere in which he and his chief advisers could talk out the whole complex of problems associated with the Southeast Asian conflict.

These include the efforts by many other countries, including Britain, France and the Soviet Union, to initiate peace talks; political and military conditions inside South Viet Nam, which U.S. officials are said to consider difficult and disappointing but not hopeless, and the Johnson administration's desire for support from other countries in the struggle in Viet Nam.

BRING PRESSURE

The central problem constantly before Johnson and his chief diplomatic and military advisers, however, is how to bring enough pressure on Communist North Viet Nam to persuade the leaders in Hanoi to halt the infiltration of troops and arms into the South to reinforce the Viet Cong guerrilla fighters trying to take over the country.

U.S. combat planes began attacking the North Feb. 7. The raids were described initially as retaliation for Communist guerrilla attacks on U.S. installations in the South and on South Vietnamese troops.

U.S. STRATEGY

The strategy behind the air strikes, however, was to make North Viet Nam feel the destructive force of U.S. military power in Southeast Asia. Implicit in the operations from the beginning was the possibility that if the North Vietnamese leaders did not abandon what the United States has called their aggression against the South they faced increasing destruction in their own country.

It is now more than a month since the air strikes were first undertaken and U.S. officials say that if and when any new decisions are made for expanded U.S. operations against the North they will very likely be made known but by advance announcement but as result of action in the field.

Peaceful Assemblage Ruling Waited In Alabama Turmoil

MONTGOMERY, Ala.

(AP) — A federal judge rejected today a motion by Sheriff James G. Clark of Dallas County that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of a massive Negro vote drive, be held in contempt for leading a street march at Selma.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)

—The spotlight on Alabama's racial strife switches today to this capital city where a federal judge considers whether state officials may interfere with peaceful demonstrations on behalf of Negro rights.

The main question before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. is a suit filed by attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The suit asks Johnson to halt Gov. George C. Wallace; Al Lingo, Alabama public safety director, and Dallas County Sheriff James G. Clark from interfering with a planned march by Negro demonstrators from Selma to Montgomery to plead for Negro voting rights.

WIDER QUESTION

However, the Justice Department has asked Johnson to consider the broader question of forbidding Wallace and other officials from interfering with any peaceful demonstrations. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach intervened in the suit Wednesday.

George C. Wallace; Al Lingo, Alabama public safety director, and Dallas County Sheriff James G. Clark from interfering with a planned march by Negro demonstrators from Selma to Montgomery to plead for Negro voting rights.

WIDER QUESTION

However, the Justice Department has asked Johnson to consider the broader question of forbidding Wallace and other officials from interfering with any peaceful demonstrations. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach intervened in the suit Wednesday.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of the civil rights drive, faces a possible contempt of court charge at the hearing. He defied an order by Johnson Tuesday banning further attempted marches by leading a march later in the day in which about 2,000 demonstrators including many ministers turned back after meeting state police. King was here today for the hearing.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS

There were these other developments on the Alabama racial scene:

1. Selma's public safety director, Wilson Baker, announced the arrest of three white men on charges of beating three white Unitarian ministers who came to Selma to participate in the civil rights drive. Baker identified those arrested as William Stanley Hoggie, 36; R. B. Kelley, 30, and Elmer Cook, 41. Baker said a warrant has been issued for a fourth man.

2. About 350 civil rights demonstrators slept in the streets of Selma in 20-degree weather in a vigil for one of the beaten ministers, the Rev. James Reeb, 35, of Boston, who lay near death in a Birmingham hospital. It was the first nighttime demonstration in Selma in the almost eight weeks since the right-to-vote campaign began in this rich farm soil area known as the Black Belt. The vigil grew out of a night march which along with an earlier one was halted by Mayor Joe Smitherman and state police.

HALTS MARCH

3. A cold rain brought an abrupt end to a demonstration in Montgomery by about 125 civil rights marchers before the Capitol building. Earlier, about 1,000 demonstrators tried to get into the Capitol to see Wallace, but were kept out by police. A homemade fire bomb was thrown onto a Negro house but was extinguished with little damage.

4. Former Florida Gov. LeRoy Collins, a personal representative of President Johnson, canceled a scheduled speech at the University of Florida and flew back to Selma, where he hoped to talk with white and Negro leaders today.

Wife With Beaten Cleric

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)

—A white minister was near death today in a hospital, his anxious wife near his side, while in Selma three white men faced state and federal charges in the beating given him and two other Unitarian clergymen.

The Rev. James J. Reeb, 38, of Boston, still was unconscious from a clubbing he received Tuesday night in Selma as the aftermath of a civil rights march there.

His wife, Marie, was with him at the hospital, pale and shaken by what had happened.

The mother of four children told newsmen Wednesday after her arrival from Boston that both she and her husband had been aware of the potential danger when he took the trip South. "I said I would prefer that he didn't go," she said, her lips quivering slightly. "But he felt he had to go."

Mrs. Reeb said her husband considered the civil rights cause important enough to merit the beating he received at the hands of white men outside a Selma cafe.

Reeb was with the Rev. Orloff F. Miller, 25, of Boston, and the Rev. Clark Olson, 32, of Berkeley, Calif., at the time. Miller and Olson escaped serious injury.

Three men were arrested in connection with the incident and pickup orders were issued for a fourth man still at large. Reeb was taken by ambulance the 90 miles to Birmingham for an operation at the University of Alabama Medical Center. It was there his wife found him, still unconscious.

Cong Blamed In Crash Of Marine Helicopter

DA NANG, South Viet Nam

(AP) — A U.S. Marine Corps helicopter crashed and burned today 30 miles south of Da Nang, injuring four crewmen aboard.

Details were lacking, but it was presumed Viet Cong gunfire downed the craft.

The chopper, from a company which had been in Viet Nam several weeks, was believed on a supply mission to Vietnamese troops operating against the Communists in a valley south of Da Nang.

TO HOSPITAL

A Marine officer said three of the injured men were taken to the field hospital at Nha Trang and the fourth was brought here for treatment. The latter's injuries were said to be less serious.

Viet Cong guerrillas Wednesday night lobbed a grenade or mortar shell into a Vietnamese position about eight miles northwest of the strategic Da Nang Air Base. One Vietnamese soldier was killed and two were wounded.

PEACE PANEL

In Saigon, the South Vietnamese Interior Ministry released the names of 385 persons it said had signed a recent resolution sponsored by a so called "Peace Movement Committee."

The names were published following a cabinet decision to curb the activities of such committees, which it termed pro-Communist movements to misguide and deceive the public.

City Spokesmen Refute Statements

City leaders here today took issue with some statements concerning the value of the Big Spring State Hospital to the community made Wednesday by J. C. Hinsley, Austin attorney representing the city in its case before the Third Court of Civil Appeals.

No Indication When Ruling Due

AUSTIN—Judges of the Third Court of Civil Appeals gave no indication today when they would rule on the City of Big Spring's appeal for a reversal of a 53rd District Court ruling finding that the State Board of Control has no authority to negotiate a water contract for the Big Spring State Hospital.

Auction To Close Show

GAIL—The sale of the top 75 animals will climax the annual Borden County Livestock Show Saturday.

Sid Long, agriculture teacher in the Gail schools, said about 100 lambs, 70 barrows and 15 steers would be entered in the show.

Judging in the lamb division will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday. Barrows will be judged at 8 a.m. Saturday with the steer judging to follow. Judges for the show are lambs, Richard Miller, Plainview; barrows, Paul Gross, Seminole; and steers, Jimmy Taylor, Big Spring.

A barbecue dinner will be held after the final judging on Saturday to be followed by the auction at 1:30 p.m.

Probation May Be Revoked

Billy James Green was arrested March 4 for burglary. He managed to post $3,500 bond and was released.

Officers picked him up again March 8 — his bond letting him have only four days of freedom. He is now held in the county jail and a hearing before Judge Ralph Caton in 118th District Court is scheduled this week on a recommendation that a probation sentence hanging over Green's head be revoked.

Another defendant, Donald Lee Varner, 27, who has been free on a probation sentence for forgery, was being readied to go to the state penitentiary today. His probation was set aside Wednesday afternoon by Judge Caton.

Officers related that Varner had been arrested Feb. 3 for theft — the court held his conduct had violated the terms of his probation and the probation has been ordered set aside. He will be taken to the state penitentiary in a few days.

City Takes No Action On Policy

He had lived in San Angelo since 1949. He began his military career in June, 1916, when he joined the Wyoming National Guard as a private.

Since his retirement, he has served as president of the Midwest Texas Retired Officers and had organized the San Angelo chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons in 1961.

Senate OKs Money Bill

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate passed on voice vote today a 1966-67 state spending bill which will satisfy money demands of almost everyone but school teachers.

Passage came with no debate and less than two hours after it was approved by the Senate Finance Committee. Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo sponsored the bill.

The big spending measure calls for the spending of $3.63 billion, including a record $617 million from the general revenue fund.

The bill goes to the House, and if House members follow the practice of rejecting the Senate version, a conference committee then will begin a six-week study to settle differences in the two bills.

Weather Forecast

Weathermen predict snow Thursday night for Lakes region, Ohio and upper Mississippi valleys, northern Plains and northern Rockies and rain for parts of Great Basin and Sierras.

Heart Fund Ends Drive

Formal campaigning has come to an end for the 1965 Heart Fund, and leaders of the drive can recount a successful year.

Mrs. G. Edward Williams, chairman, announced this week that contributions had reached $2,829.97, which included special gifts to the John S. Ritenour memorial offering. She expressed appreciation to all those who had a part in the campaign.

Mrs. Williams was joined in directing the effort by Mrs. Luther Bean and Mrs. Donald Van Meter as co-chairmen. They are all VA Hospital wives.

Several new ways were introduced to gain support for the Heart Association's program of information and fund raising. One of these was a children's Heart Fund party for pre-school and elementary school children.

The youngsters made contributions to the fund as admissions, had a gay afternoon, and in addition were given some knowledge of heart diseases. The story of continuing research to help combat and overcome heart diseases is being told continually by the Heart Association as it seeks financial support.

Man 'Back From Dead'

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — His loved ones and his friends today were welcoming Bobby Martin home, as it were, from the dead.

They had come to bury him. But when the body arrived from Louisiana, a friend of Bobby's who works in a funeral home saw it was not Robert Wade Martin Jr., 22. Bobby was supposed to have been shot to death in a store burglary in Tallulah, La.

The friend called Bobby's father and he called Bobby at his job in Houston, Tex. When his father told him the story, Bobby said he decided to quit his job and head home as soon as he hung up the phone.

Bobby's wallet and some of his clothes had been stolen from him. His wallet was found on the shooting victim, later identified as an 18-year-old Houston youth.

Bobby got a VIP welcome home at Woodrum Airport.

Doomed Man Loses Appeal

AUSTIN (AP) — James Lee Marion, young Negro sentenced to death in the 1963 slaying of wealthy Mrs. Fred L. Turner of Midland, has lost another bid to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

The court refused Wednesday to grant Marion another hearing on his murder conviction. If attorneys don't ask the court to stay its mandate in the case, the Lubbock District Court in which Marion was convicted will be ordered Friday to transfer Marion to Huntsville State Prison for execution, a court clerk said.

No opinion was written by the court in refusing to reconsider its decision affirming the conviction.

Marion, 22, was convicted of pistol whipping Mrs. Turner to death in her Midland home. Her husband, who has since died, was a prominent oil man and owner of the 1959 Kentucky Derby winner, Tomy Lee.

Trial was in Lubbock because of high feeling over the case in Midland.

Crash Costs Pilot Permit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The commercial pilot certificate of Harley Stone of Dallas has been revoked by the Federal Aviation Agency as the result of a crash in an Abilene shopping center Aug. 15.

GEORGE FRANK REYNOLDS

G. F. Reynolds Shot In Head

G. F. (Frank) Reynolds, 76, a retired Texas & Pacific Railway conductor, was found in his room on the third floor of the Settles Hotel shortly before 1 p.m. today shot through the head. A pistol was in his right hand.

Reynolds was removed from the hotel to the Howard County Hospital Foundation where he was taken into the emergency room at 1:10 p.m. He was still breathing, doctors said, but he had lost a large amount of blood. He was still alive at 1:45 p.m.

Mrs. Teena Stone, a telephone operator at the hotel, saw the light on the PBX board flash indicating the occupant of the room wanted service. She opened the circuit and heard the gunshot. She dispatched a bellboy to the room. He found the elderly man sprawled on the carpet in front of the windows facing on East Third Street.

A Big Spring ambulance was called and police officers notified. Officers searching the room found a brief note. Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace, said it contained instructions as to the funeral home to which his body should be sent.

He was widely known here and had lived for many years at the old Crawford Hotel before that establishment was closed down.

Mr. Reynolds, born near Carbon in Eastland County and

Snow, Rains Dampen Areas

Light snow and rain dampened scattered sections of the nation today, following the weather pattern of the past several days.

Rain splashed across arid areas of the Southwest. Fairly moderate amounts were reported at Phoenix, Ariz., including one-half inch in a six-hour period. Showers developed eastward across Texas, Louisiana and in the Middle Gulf Coast.

More snow flurries fell in the northeastern states southward to mountain areas in Virginia. Light snow spread southward through the northern Rockies and in parts of the adjacent Plains states.

Generally fair weather prevailed in the Pacific Northwest, from the Great Basin region across the central Rockies and in the Midwest to the Carolinas and Georgia.

Temperatures continued above normal in the northwestern part of the nation and in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The mercury reached the 60s and low 70s in parts of Washington and Oregon Wednesday and climbed to 90 at Cotulla, Tex.

In most other parts of the country readings were near normal today. One of the coldest spots was Marquette, Mich., with zero.

The agency said Stone failed to check weather conditions and his fuel supply before leaving Midland for Mineral Wells. The plane hit the top of a department store during an emergency landing and crashed into the River Oaks Shopping Center. The plane belonged to B. E. Terry of Roby, Tex.

Expansion Needed At Junior College

Calling a $500,000 bond election for March 20 was not a matter of choice so far as Howard County Junior College trustees and the administration was concerned—it was a necessity, Dr. W. A. Hunt told the Downtown Lions Wednesday.

The HCJC president detailed some of the reasons for the proposal, the urgency of early action, and the financing of the project without disturbing the

LT. COL. LEONARD EINSTEIN

Col. Einstein Wins Award

Lt. Col. Leonard R. Einstein penned a winning letter for which he received $50 in cash and a George Washington honor medal awarded by the Freedom Foundations at Valley Forge, Pa.

The award was one of only 17 made throughout the Air Force in recognition for outstanding entries in the Foundation's letter writing contest for members of the armed forces.

Col. Einstein, executive officer of the 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group at Sheppard Technical Training Center, said it was the first time he has ever entered the annual contest. His entry was titled: "My Vote—Freedom's Privilege."

Col. Einstein, formerly stationed at Webb AFB where he was active in base and community affairs, wrote in part: "The impact of my crossed pencil marks will be felt throughout the United States and the world. Without the opportunity to express our political choices we would be powerless as dammed up water—filled with great potential, but unable to transform that potential into action."

... When we mark our ballots, our hands are acting with an energy that has come to us from every struggle for freedom the world has ever known. Not to exercise this privilege of freedom betrays our ancestors and those who have given their lives defending our country's ideals."

Companies Hike Spending Plans

NEW YORK (AP)—Business executives are celebrating the start of the fifth year of economic growth by raising their spending plans. They now expect to cross the $50-billion mark for the first time in their outlays for new plants and equipment.

And they intend to spend the most in the second half of 1965, a period that many have feared might see a setback.

Baptist Policy Review Slated

WACO (AP)—The Texas Baptist executive board has authorized appointment of a 15-member group to re-study a 1961 interpretation of Baptist policy on separation of church and state.

The 192-member board, meeting Tuesday at Baylor University, also adopted resolutions opposing legalized race track gambling and sales of liquor by the drink.

Dr. Wallace Rogers of Corpus Christi asked the board to adopt a resolution on racial violence in Alabama. No action was taken because no formal resolution was submitted.

New members named to the executive board are the Rev. W. R. Lawrence of Clarendon, the Rev. Herman Coe of Brazoria, the Rev. Carroll Jackson of Fairview, the Rev. Robert Field of Mineral Wells, the Rev. Arthur Deloach of Lufkin, the Rev. J. N. Foreman of Rockdale, the Rev. Bill Austin of Vernon, C. T. Beckham of Dallas and Jack Crane of Nocona.

"The President said that the hospitals were antiquated, inefficient and were being supplanted by newer and better located hospitals."

"I told him I didn't agree." Asked about reports Johnson sought unsuccessfully to obtain support for the closings from the veterans' leaders, Jenkins said:

TWO DECADES LATER — The rusted remnants of warships frame Mt. Suribachi on the small island of Iwo Jima. Twenty years ago United States marines stormed and captured the Japanese-held fortress in one of the bloodiest battles of the Pacific war.

SCENE SELDOM SEEN — Lone pedestrian trudges his way up the Capitoline Hill in Rome during 16-hour snowfall that virtually paralyzed the Italian capital. In the right background is the Arch of Septimius Severus, part of the ancient Roman Forum.

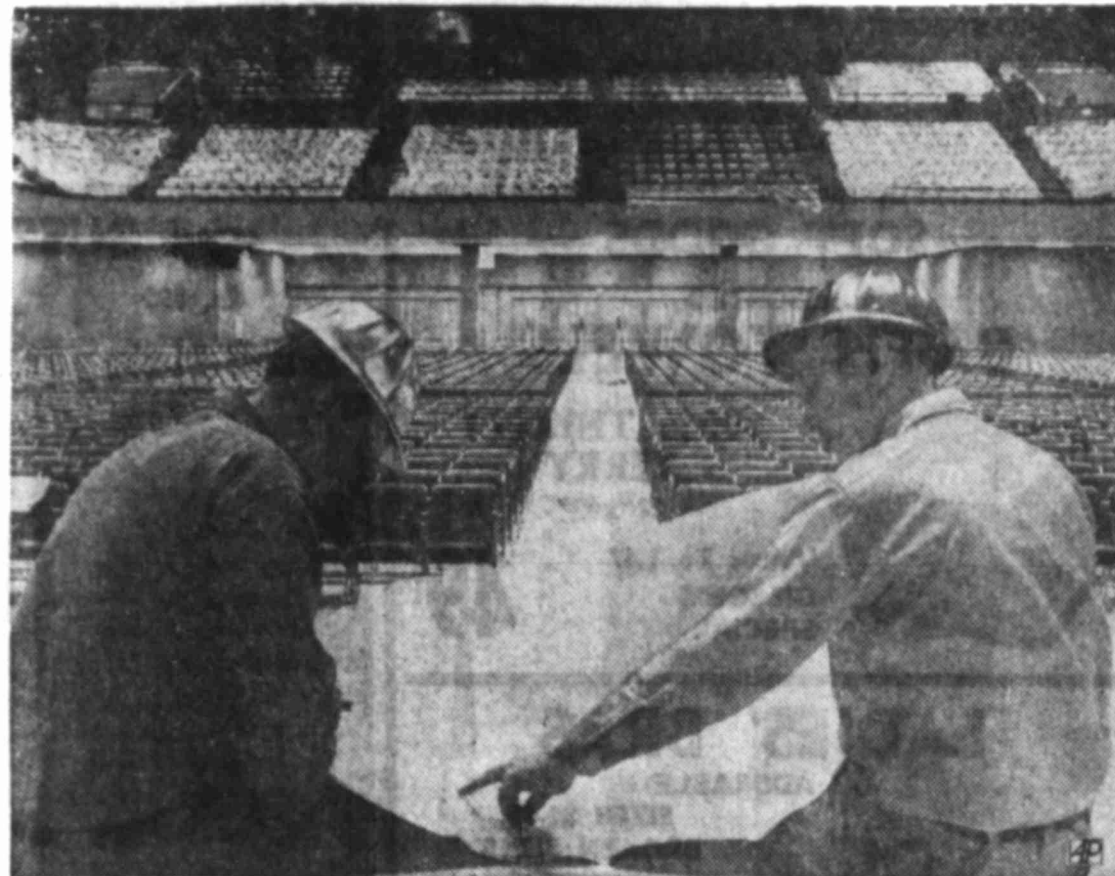

RESTING EASY — Salt Box Lady Deborah, an Old English sheepdog, doesn't appear perturbed at the prospect of vying for honors at Madison Square Garden dog show.

SOFT LOOK — Coiffure inspired by the Empire period features headache band and chignon to contain the limp curls. A diamond loveknot is added for the Parisian chic.

WHAT TO DO? — You couldn't blame a motorist for being perplexed upon arrival at this busy intersection in San Jose, Calif. The traffic signs do appear to be contradictory.

SETUP FOR SHOWS — Workers check blueprints in the new War Memorial Auditorium in Boston. In the background are seats on floor and balcony with capacity of 5800 persons. Structure has exhibition area of 154,000 square feet with floor seats removed.

Cap Rock Tourney Starts At 4 P. M.

The team or individual which doesn't get a trophy in the second annual Cap Rock High School Girls' Volleyball Tournament starting this evening at HCJC will almost have to be looking the other way.

There'll be prizes for the championship club, runners-up, the third and fourth place winners, consolation winner and team sportsmanship award.

In addition, awards will go to the outstanding sets and spikers, the coaches of the top five teams and the tournament queen. The latter will be selected on the basis of looks, demeanor and poise.

Cap Rock Electric Co-Operative, J. D. Jones Construction, Ted Phillips Tire Co., Mancill's Cleaners, Dibrell's Sporting Goods, Swartz, Hemphill-Wells, Ward Boot Shop and Jack and Jill Kindergarten are furnishing the awards. Admission prices have been set at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students each day of the meet.

Plains is the defending titlist in the meet and one of the favorites to repeat. Denver City was last year's runnerup while Lamesa finished third, Phillips fourth and Buena Vista captured consolation laurels.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association of the college. Anna Smith is WRA sponsor. Co-directors of the meet will be Gail Watson and Waynette Dolan.

The all-tournament committee will consist of Arah Phillips, Gayle Bailey, Mrs. Ester Abreo and Jim Gilbert.

Steers Leave For Olympics At Laredo

Coach R. C. Moore and 13 members of the Big Spring track team left this morning for the annual Border Olympics in Laredo Friday and Saturday.

Preliminaries are scheduled for Friday with the finals on tap for Saturday. The Steers are due to return to Big Spring early Sunday morning.

Making the trip are Ricky Earle, Ronnie Anderson and Bobby Baker, running both the high and low hurdles. Ronnie Smith and Kirby Horton will handle the shot and discus chores for the Steers.

In the long distance races the Steers will be represented by Gary Morris in the mile run and Frank Salazar in the 800-yard run. Marvin Hall and Gary Rogers will compete in the 440-yard dash. In the high jumping and broad jumping events, Harrell Newton will represent the Steers.

Johnny Hughes is the favorite to win the 180-yard low hurdles and is given a chance to break the meet record. Joe Jure will concentrate on the 100-yard dash, 440-yard relay and mile relay. Kirby Hodnett will also run the 100-yard, 220-yard dash and the 440-yard relay.

More than 2,000 athletes are in Laredo for the meet which has a high school, junior college and university division.

Lots Of Coaches Are Retiring From Game

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

There'll be a lot of new faces among the coaching fraternity in college basketball next season. No fewer than 14 resignations have been announced in the last several weeks.

Ray Eddy, coach at Purdue University for 15 years, and Presley Askew, coach at New Mexico State for 12 years, were the latest to join the list. They announced their resignations Wednesday.

Other coaches who will not be back next season are Branch McCracken of Indiana University, Ed Jucker of the University of Cincinnati, Eddie Melvin of Toledo, Jim Williams of American University, Babe McCarthy of Mississippi State, Harbin Lawson of Georgia, Jim Nau of Idaho State and Chuck Orsborn of Bradley. Orsborn moves up to the post of director of athletics.

They join Taps Gallagher of Niagara and Joe Lapchick of St. John's University of New York, who will retire.

That means that Lapchick's career may end tonight when his St. John's Redmen encounter Bob Cousy's Boston College Eagles in the feature of a first-round doubleheader that opens the National Invitation Tournament in New York. Texas Western and Manhattan meet in the first game of the twinbill.

With the big boys idle awaiting the opening of the NIT and Friday's NCAA competition at four regional sites, the 27th straight victory this season for the Evansville Aces, the nation's No. 1 small-college team, highlighted Wednesday's play.

With Little All-Americans Larry Humes, 30 points, and Jerry Sloan, 27, combining for 57 points, Evansville whipped Philadelphia Textile 92-76 in the quarter-finals of the NCAA small-college championship tournament at Evansville, Ind.

It was the 33rd in a row for the Aces who have won 53 of 56 games over a two-year span. St. Michael's of Vermont upset Akron 101-87 in another quarter-final and goes against Evansville tonight in the semifinals. North Dakota and Southern Illinois meet in the other semi. The Sioux advanced by defeating Seattle Pacific 97-83 for their 19th straight and SIU trimmed Washington of St. Louis 76-67.

No successors to Eddy and Askew have been announced. Jim Maloney replaces Gallagher, Ken Rosemond succeeds Lawson, Joe Dan Gold replaces McCarthy, Tay Baker succeeds Jucker, Bob Nichols succeeds Melvin and Lou Carnesecca steps into Lapchick's shoes.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Big Spring's Dick Irons is getting rave notices for his fine play in spring football workouts at Southern Methodist University.

The sophomore-to-be continually broke through from his linebacker's position to smear ball-carriers in the Mustangs' first controlled scrimmage recently.

Coach Hayden Fry didn't particularly like what he saw in the scrimmage but the SMU coaches lauded the play of Irons and letterman George Gaiser, like Dick a defensive specialist.

Gaiser, incidentally, saw most of his action on offense last year but the 255-pounder likely will concentrate on defense this fall.

Irons' toughness impressed the Mustang mentors. Dick compelled a lot of respect in freshman ball last fall... enough to be named the outstanding freshman lineman in the Southwest Conference by one publication.

The Big Spring youth blossomed in a hurry here after laying out of football his sophomore year. Big Spring forged an 8-2 won-lost record his senior season and Irons wound up being named to the All-District 2-AAAA team.

If SMU is to win on the football greensward next fall, Irons and other sopho-to-be are going to have to come through in a big way. Mike Livingston is another freshman coach Fry is counting on to fill a void in the Mustang lineup.

Engineers for the Domed Stadium at Houston expect there'll be an average of one cigarette for every person attending each game in the park.

This averages out to about 2,250 packs of smokes for a full house. There's no worry about smog, however, because the smoke is supposed to be filtered out of the arena.

Look for the University of Florida to field one of the top football teams in the Southeastern Conference this fall.

The Gators lost a stellar fullback in Larry Dupree but came up with a top replacement in John Feiber, a 204-pounder. Florida will project Jack Harper as a candidate for All-America halfback, will be especially tough at ends and, with Joe Namath gone at Alabama, could boast the finest quarterback in the South in the person of Steve Spurrier.

The NFL Pro Bowl game next year will be televised exclusively over CBS, which has a local outlet.

CBS has broadcast NFL regular season games, the NFL championship game and the NFL Playoff Bowl but never the Pro Bowl game before.

The 16th annual Pro Bowl game is scheduled to be played in Los Angeles Sunday, Jan. 16.

Ted Kluzewski, the former power hitter of the Cincinnati Reds, now owns several restaurants and has a TV sports show in that city.

Other teams besides Big Spring in the April 1-23 baseball tournament at Eunice, N.M., include Andrews, Kermit, Portales, Monahans, Lovington, Snyder and the host city.

The Longhorns will play the opening day of the meet, return here to face Lubbock High in a practice game and then go back to the tournament site.

Only three head football coaches at Texas A&M have gone on to head jobs elsewhere—Dana Bible, Matty Bell and Bear Bryant.

Trent Girls Draw A Bye

AUSTIN (AP)—Three defending champions and three undefeated teams are among 18 girls basketball squads competing for four titles at the state tournament beginning tonight.

This is the first year for a Class AAA conference in the tournament, which has had only classes B, A and AA since the tournament began in 1951.

Entered in the AAA Class, which does not begin play until Friday night, are Victoria, Jasper, Tulla and Westaco. Tulla was beaten in the AA finals in 1962, and Jasper and Westaco have appeared in the tournament once before.

It is the first trip to the tournament for Victoria. The returning champions are Friona in Class AA, Baird in A and Trent in B. Trent has the best record of the trio, 38-1.

Undefeated in regular season and regional play are Edna in Class AA, 27-0, and two A teams—Jourdanton, 36-0, and Roosevelt of Lubbock, 38-0.

Roosevelt also has the most spectacular scoring combination in the tournament in Dee Gregory and Alice Wooley, a pair of 5-foot-11 seniors, each of whom are averaging 33 points a game.

Trent's duo of Diana Lewis and Barbara McAninch aren't far behind in scoring, averaging 29.6 and 26.5 points a game respectively.

Tonight's opening games are Class B quarter-final contests matching Briscoe against Brock (Weatherford) at 7 p.m., and Wells at 8:30 p.m.

I've Been Lucky, Says Wife Of Evashevski

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — She wanted to be a lawyer or in politics but gave up those goals for marriage. Her husband's job forced him to travel extensively, and she shouldered many of the problems involved in raising seven children.

But Mrs. Forest Evashevski says she considers herself very fortunate to have shared in the life of one of the nation's best-known football coaches who now is athletic director at the University of Iowa.

Football team to three Big Ten titles and two Rose Bowl victories in nine years before he quit to become athletic director in 1960.

"As the wife of a football coach, I have been very lucky. Evy has been successful, and I have never had to go through the things that often happen to the family of an unsuccessful coach," she said.

Evashevski, a college star at Michigan, coached the Iowa football team to three Big Ten titles and two Rose Bowl victories in nine years before he quit to become athletic director in 1960.

Strikers Claim Bowling Crown

The Strikers finished five pins ahead of second place Pearl Beer to cop the team championship of the 14th annual Big Spring Bowling Association Tournament.

The singles event with a 695 series. All-Events champion was Dr. Frank Dillion with 1,946.

Lasater, McAlister Vie In All-College Sprint

COMMERCE — A star-studded field, featuring an All-American high school sprinter, two national champion mile relay teams, a pole vault king and a former world record holder, will be on hand for the All-College Meet in Commerce Saturday.

in the state finals in May with a 3:14.9.

Thirteen college and eight high school teams are expected to battle for the two division championships. Northeast Louisiana State is back to defend the college title, while South Oak Cliff returns to compete for another schoolboy crown.

The youngest, Kassie, is 22. Also at home are John, 14, Tom, 11, and Bill, 7.

Joining host East Texas State and Northeast Louisiana in the scramble for the college team championship will be Sam Houston State, Oklahoma Baptist, Howard Payne, Oklahoma City University, Stephen F. Austin, McMurry, Southeastern Oklahoma, Arlington State, Oklahoma Christian, Tarleton State and Union University of Jackson, Tenn.

The Lion one-mile team ran its fastest time of the season (3:17.6) Saturday in Fort Worth and placed second behind Texas Southern, who set a meet record.

Challenging South Oak Cliff for the high school title will be Samuell, Highland Park, Thomas Jefferson, Grady Spruce, Jesuit, Woodrow Wilson and Hillcrest.

Heading the schoolboy division is Highland Park's sprinter George Aldredge. He is considered one of the top high school runners in the nation and a good bet for a third straight sweep in the 100 and 220 in the state finals. His 20.9 in the 220 around a turn last spring tied the national high school record.

Aldredge made a haul at the Southwestern Recreational in Fort Worth Saturday by setting new marks in the 100 with a 9.4 and the 220 with 21.1.

Another top attraction in the college division will be East Texas' one-mile relay, which won first place in the nationals in June. The four-lap quartet of Basil Clark, Bridges Ballowe, Ronnie McNeill and Morris Kyser will bid for a first place in Saturday's meet for the second straight year.

The Lion one-mile team ran its fastest time of the season (3:17.6) Saturday in Fort Worth and placed second behind Texas Southern, who set a meet record.

McMurray sports the former world record holder in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles in Davis Bonds. With a 37.5 clocking in his credit in 1963, Bonds poses as a serious threat to break the meet mark of 38.7.

The top two sprinters in the Lone Star Conference clash for the second time this year. East Texas' R. L. Lasater of Big Spring, and Sam Houston's Leroy McAlister are expected to battle for 100 and 220-yard dash blue ribbons. They met at Fort Worth as Lasater placed fourth in 9.5 and McAlister fifth in 9.6.

Arlington State's Blendon Johnson and ET's Morris Kyser will try to lower the meet record of 48.0 in the 440-yard dash held by Kyser. Kyser also owns the conference mark with a 47.2.

Albany Seeking New Mentors

ALBANY—Class A Albany will have two coaching positions open following action of the school board meeting Monday night.

David Nelson, basketball coach who resigned last month, was followed Monday by Elvin Hill, assistant football coach. Head coach Harold Barrett is the only member of the high school coaching staff left.

Hill resigned to accept a position with Western Republic Insurance Co. His resignation is effective March 15. Nelson resigned to accept a position as field representative with Great Commonwealth Insurance Co. Both men plan to remain in Albany.

KNOX CITY — Ted Darland, head football coach at Class A Knox City, has resigned to become offensive backfield coach at Class AAAA Borger.

Juco Prelims Open Friday

LAREDO (AP) — Fifteen colleges and universities got the Border Olympics under way today as they hooked up in the first 36 holes of the 14th annual golf tournament.

University of Houston, winner of eight of the 13 tournaments, puts its championship on the line against Texas, North Texas, Texas A&I, Texas A&M, Sul Ross, Lamar Tech, Baylor, Texas Christian, Texas Tech, Texas Wesleyan, Stephen F. Austin, Rice, Monterrey Tech and Odesa Junior College.

Friday there will be 18 holes and the final 18 will be played Saturday. Also, Friday the high school division, boasting 17 teams, plays the first 18 holes of a 36-hole tournament.

Rice is favored to win the university title and Texas Southern is picked to repeat in the college class, although Lamar Tech threatens to make it a tough fight.

And tomorrow signals the start of track and field with 1,114 athletes from 85 schools participating.

A couple of dozen records are anticipated, the major one being in the shot put as Randy Matson, Texas A&M star weightman, tries for the world's mark.

Most everybody is running in the Border Olympics except the Texas Track Club of Abilene. The girls ran into the AAU-NCAA squabble on control of amateur athletics and were forced to withdraw from the meet in which they had planned to appear in exhibition 100 and 220-yard dashes.

The Border Olympics are sanctioned by the United States Track and Field Federation, which is sponsored by the NCAA. The AAU would have sanctioned the Texas Track Club if it ran in the Border Olympics but both organizations oppose dual sanctioning. So the Texas Track Club is out of action.

Fifty-three high schools hold preliminaries Friday afternoon. The university and college classes hold preliminaries and a smattering of finals Saturday morning with 10 teams in each class and with Houston defending champion of the university

Johnson Inspects Job Corps Camp

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — Probably no commanding officer has inspected an enlisted men's barracks the way President Johnson swept through the nation's Job Corps camp.

He wandered in and out of buildings, observed some physical training routines, poked into the mess hall to drink coffee with the boys, and bounced up and down on a dormitory bed.

Hand out-thrust, his tone chatty, the President asked for names, for hometowns, inquired into progress and often played it for laughs.

"Any of you-all takin' photography? Plenty of jobs should be open," he remarked to riotous laughter as cameras recorded eagerly his coffee-drinking session.

SERIOUS STANCE

But the chief executive also struck a serious stance Wednesday, telling one youth after another: "A lot depends on how you fellows make out. If you make a good job of it, the Congress will go along and make a lot of training available to other fellows."

The Job Corps camp, six miles up the Catoctin Mountains from here, is the first of 77 proposed conservation centers in 33 states. It is not far from Camp David, a rustic retreat used by every president since Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Johnson drew on his own experiences — drifting from job to job until he decided to enroll in college — when he grabbed one young man by the arm, marched him along by his side, and proffered some paternal advice.

WRITE HOME

"Write home because when I was in California as a boy, my mother was always after me to write," he said.

To James Blackmon, 19, a New Haven, Conn., youth who is learning how to drive heavy equipment, the President said: "If you get onto that good, you'll have to come down home and help me do some bulldozing."

Blackmon, a big fellow who sports a pearl in the pierced lobe of his right ear, beamed and replied: "Don't worry, I'll take care of you."

South walked off with a con-trahand slam when his opponent, West, failed to make allowances for a slight roadblock which nature had placed in his path.

South's decision to use Blackwood led to the partnership's landing in an unmakeable slam. The number of aces held by North was strictly of secondary concern. It was more important to learn where North's strength was located and, particularly, if he had good diamonds.

Instead of asking, South should have told. When his partner raised to four hearts, South is entitled to make a move toward slam. The recommended bid is five clubs to show his control in that suit. This gives North the opportunity to rebid his diamonds, if he has con-

Farm Bureau Group To Meet Mahon

A committee from the Howard County Farm Bureau will be in Lubbock tonight for a conference with Congressman George Mahon on the Farm Bureau's 10-point cotton program proposal. Committees from other West Texas communities will also attend the conference.

The committee was named at a meeting of the Howard County Farm Bureau directors meeting Tuesday night.

The members of the committee are Durwood Blagrove, Abilene, Ralph White, Coahoma, and Jimmy Taylor, Big Spring. The National Farm Bureau has drawn up a cotton program to replace the present cotton law which will expire this year.

This program involves 10 major points. The bureau proposal advocates reduction in production coupled with a reduction in price supports to be carried over three years. The bureau feels this plan could lead to an annual reduction in production of 4,000,000 bales a year. Such a reduction would bring the cotton market situation back to about what it was in 1950 when the carry over was around 700,000 bales a year, the bureau feels.

Congressman Mahon is coming from Washington to meet with the Farm Bureau committees.

A number of plans to replace the cotton law which expires in 1965 have been proposed. The Farm Bureau program is but one of the proposals.

Day Cloudy Across State

By The Associated Press
Cloudy weather prevailed over most of Texas Thursday with scattered light rains reported in North Central and West Texas.

Temperatures were relatively mild for an early March morning with pre-dawn readings ranging from 36 degrees at Daltart to 75 at Cotulla.

WEAK FRONT

A weak, almost - stationary front early Thursday lay on a line running from Beaumont to north of Del Rio and west of Midland.

Early morning fog was reported at Victoria, Palacios, Galveston, and Beaumont.

Temperatures were almost springlike Wednesday afternoon, ranging from 51 degrees at Amarillo to 89 at Laredo.

No measurable rainfall was reported during the 24 hour period ending at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Tag Deputy Is In Coahoma

COAHOMA — Patricia Cox, deputy tax collector - assessor, has set up temporary quarters in the Coahoma City Hall for today and Friday for the issuance of car license plates to Coahoma residents.

She is equipped to issue plates for all types of motor vehicles and will be on duty from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily.

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said that she dispatched the deputy to Coahoma as a service to residents of this part of the county. It will be more convenient for them to come to the city hall to get their plates than to go to Big Spring, she pointed out.

Deadline for the payment of license tax and attaching plates to a vehicle is April 1.

Pickle Still Backing Bill

Pending in the House is a bill by Rep. Jake Pickle of Austin to give the University of Texas students association exclusive right in interstate commerce to use, copy and sell, and to control the use, copying and sale of, "The Eyes of Texas."

"Back in the mid '30s," said Pickle, "I was a member of the UT students assembly and helped Ed Nunnally in his efforts which finally culminated in securing a 28-year patent on our song . . ."

"We secured a copyright on the words and arrangement, but, of course, the music had long since been in the public domain. When our copyright time arrived last year, the UT could not legally ask for a renewal because the author had died, and his heirs could not be located. So, the copyright lapsed and also went into the public domain."

"It seems now that the only way we can get control of our state school song is via legislation."

London Faces Housing Woe

LONDON (AP) — A government housing committee said today about 190,000 London families are in urgent need of new and better living quarters.

The committee set up by the previous Conservative government told of one case in which 85 persons live in a building originally constructed as six apartments. Nearly every room was occupied by a family.

Bottom Comes Out On Top

The bottom of an old-fashioned wicker chair forms the brim of this hat introduced in London last week by Madame Vernier, celebrating her 25th anniversary in the hat business. London fashion circles say the hat modeled by Hannarie Dehn is one of the year's smartest. Experts may be off their rockers, but it looks tip-top from here. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Mrs. William Wheeler won an antique white and gold compote as the door prize.

St. Patrick's Day furnished the theme for the hostesses, Mrs. Glenn Phillippe and Mrs. Frank Maberry. Tablecloth and napkins of white were bordered with green shamrocks and the centerpiece was a leprechaun. Green and white frosted cupcakes were served with tea and coffee.

Myrna Greenfield, 21, advertised in the local press: "Bride's dearest wish: a silver-pink Rolls Royce or Bentley for July wedding. Own chauffeur."

Miss Greenfield explained that she has a pink wedding dress and "it's awful for a bride to have to go around in a black car."

Bruce Clifford Sherman, 23, the prospective groom, is not enthusiastic about a pink car. "I'm certainly not going to help her find it," he said.

Women Will Attend Stamford Convention

Delegates who will attend the 25th anniversary of the Woman's Society of Christian Service were named when the local unit of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday. The anniversary meeting will be March 18-19 at St. John's Methodist Church in Stamford.

Mrs. Nell Norred presided as the 26 members and a visitor, Mrs. Lawrence Jensen, met at the church. Mrs. Knox Chadd gave inspirational thoughts on the society and what it offers in regard to spiritual value.

The program, "The Disciplined Life," was directed by Mrs. Hill. Scripture was read by Mrs. Carl Riberd, and Mrs. Bill Ward spoke on "What Is Discipline?" Mrs. William C. House talked on "Inner and Outer Discipline," and Mrs. Hill closed with remarks concerning the areas of concern for spiritual discipline.

Abstract Arranging Discussed For Club

Abstract arranging was demonstrated by Mrs. Dale Smith for members of the Four O'Clock Garden Club Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Roy Linn, 2605 Larry.

The speaker noted that abstract arranging is gaining in popularity and that it is largely a matter of personal interpretation. When selecting materials, five elements of design, line, form, pattern, texture and color should be kept in mind according to the speaker. Mrs. Smith made several arrangements using driftwood or weathered wood, some of which were shadowed or highlighted with water colors. Polystyrene was used in fashioning one piece.

The arranger urged the members to train themselves to see beauty in their surroundings, always being alert for different shapes and textures.

The club voted to hold an individual flower show this fall.

Seven members were served refreshments from a polished table that held an arrangement of yellow and blue irises. Japanese china and folk pottery were used for serving.

SUPPER OPEN TO PUBLIC

Miniature shillelachs and shamrocks in the St. Patrick's day colors of green and white accented the refreshment table for the Planters Garden Club meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. J. W. Trantham, 1319 Stadium. Eight members were present.

Each club is to furnish 10 dozen cookies for the council pilgrimage, and each member is asked to be responsible for two tickets to the pilgrimage and four tickets to the flower show. Lawns, and the different types of grass available, was Mrs. Trantham's program subject. She discussed soil preparation, planting, weeding and the protection against insects and disease.

Mrs. Paul Guy was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. R. L. Collins was appointed chairman of the educational exhibit for the flower show.

Mrs. S. P. Jones and Mrs. Trantham were appointed to audit the treasurer's books.

Guest speaker for the next meeting, to be in the home of Mrs. R. O. Carothers, 1405 Stadium, will be Mrs. J. E. Hogan. She will present a discussion and demonstration on flower arranging.

Convict-Turned-Student

Lester Franklin, who at 29 has spent more than half his life behind bars, is now a freshman at Towson State College. "The Promise," a play he started writing in prison last year, will be presented for the first time tonight by his classmates at the college. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Convict Turns College Student

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — Lots of college freshmen try their hands at play writing, but few can write a one-act drama about prison life from personal experience.

Lester Franklin can. At 29, he has spent half his life behind bars: first as a truant sent to reform school, then as a burglar and most recently as a parole violator and holdup man.

His play, "The Promise," was begun in prison. It will be presented for the first time tonight by his fellow students at Towson State College. Wednesday night the stocky, full-bearded Franklin talked about the play and himself.

CONSTANT CONFLICT
In prison, he said, "there is constant conflict among the inmates. Many of them are wrapped up in their own petty concerns. The tension is unbelievable."

"You can never fully express yourself, either to the prison administration, or to your fellow inmates."

"Inmates don't reveal their honest feelings even to their own buddies because most of them have a tremendous sense of inadequacy and put on an act of some kind to compensate for it."

"But it's the tension — and the waiting — that I try to show in 'The Promise.' Everyone in prison is waiting for something, and they're not always sure just what it is."

"We are all bored to death and everything we do is a reaction to this boredom." Franklin says he started the play last year partly to overcome the boredom and partly to

Arabian Watches Have Many Dials

RIYADH, Saudi Arabia (AP) — Taking a plane to Saudi Arabia is more than just a way of getting there. It is a time machine that catapults you into a maddening quicksand of about six different times.

The system under which Saudi Arabians set their wristwatches to half a dozen times often leads to confusion and missed appointments.

Take Arabic time, for instance. Every day at sunset, as the muzzel calls the faithful to prayer, everyone adjusts his watch to 12 o'clock. No one knows whether it is supposed to be midnight or noon, but it really makes no difference. No matter what the clock says, few people believe it is a new day until they see the morning sun.

BETWEEN COASTS
It is about 850 miles between the kingdom's west and east coasts, with mountain ranges in between that makes for early sunsets. Practically every Bedouin tent keeps a different time.

Since the sun sets at different times from day to day and season to season, a man may realize at the end of a lifetime that he has gained—or lost—a few good years this way.

Then there are the foreign or outside times. In Jiddah, on the Red Sea, you can use Greenwich Mean Time with three hours added. Western sun time—you adjust your watch to 6 o'clock instead of 12 at sunset every day—Zulu time, which is just plain Greenwich Mean Time, or any other time you care to anchor yourself to.

Most of the foreign community staggers along confusedly on Western sun time. Local wags say Western sun time was invented by the British Embassy because it refused to serve cocktails at 12 o'clock.

BREAK DOWN
While this arrangement may be fairly firm on the coast, in the interior things really break down. In this capital, visitors generally use Greenwich Mean Time plus 3 1/2 hours, give or take 10 minutes or so. The national airline is half an hour different all over the country, meaning a lot of passengers miss their planes.

"OH, YES?"
You tell the hotel desk you want to catch the 7 o'clock plane next day and the man beams brightly back: "Ah yes, the 1 o'clock plane that leaves two hours after sunrise."

Or you have made a late evening of it and you give firm in-

Chamber Scores 'Great Society' Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Chamber of Commerce says some of President Johnson's "Great Society" proposals reflect "repetition of familiar and oft-argued expansion of government activity into private economic life."

Farm Income Rise Reported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government figures showed today that farm income last year increased $126 million to $12,644,000,000. This was far below the record high of $17,739,000,000 in 1948. The Agriculture Department said government payments to farmers last year totaled $2,168,000,000, an increase of $482 million over 1963. Thus, had subsidies been held to the 1963 level, total farm income last year would have up $29 from 1963. This increase largely reflected a further decline in the farm population and increased earnings from non-farm work and other non-farm sources.

ARIZONA REPORT

Farms in Arizona led those in all other states in average net income despite a sharp decline of 29 per cent.

The Arizona net income average of $19,633 in 1964 compared with $27,293 in 1963.

The average net incomes per farm in other states and the percentages they represent of the 1963 average included:

Oklahoma $2,448, up 7; Texas, $3,877, down 11; and New Mexico $5,719, down 11.

MRS. CHARLES BELL, BRENDA, CHARLOTTE AND BEVERLY

Three Daughters Add To Cheery Welcome

By ELAINE CLARK
The three pert little faces of Beverly, Brenda and Charlotte add a special touch to the cheerful welcome in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, 2213 Cecilia. The kitchen and den combination, the most "lived in" area in the house, features cabinets and paneling in rich cherry wood.

Mrs. Bell thoroughly enjoys all the facets of homemaking, particularly cooking. Her first attempt was fried chicken when they first married while he was in the service in El Paso.

"I planned every menu every day, very carefully, then," she said. "Now the only time I make menus is when we are having weekend guests, then I plan down to the last detail, using foods that can be prepared in advance so I'll have time to visit.

"I don't follow a budget, but I do buy a week's supply of day-old breads and buns and freeze them, and we also buy milk at an economical self service store.

"With three little girls, learning to sew is almost a necessity," she laughed. "I have made most of their clothes, and now I am working on the sister outfits for Easter."

Mrs. Bell said that their favorite foods are desserts, and most of her recipes are handed down from her mother and her mother-in-law. Chocolate is always first on the list — cakes, pies, puddings, cookies, and ice cream, as long as it's chocolate.

"Dinner is our big meal of the day," she said. "Charles travels a lot, and he enjoys eating at home. I seldom cook highly seasoned foods. My family prefers 'plain American.'"

Mrs. Bell feels that the most unusual thing she has ever cooked is rattlesnake. This meat is rolled in salt, pepper and flour and fried in deep fat, and tastes like chicken or fish. She helps in the Jaycee snake cooking each year.

Bridge supper parties, with four or five tables participating, is their favorite entertainment. In these affairs, the hostess prepares the meat dish, and each guest couple brings a covered dish.

The Bells moved here three years ago from Oklahoma City. He is sales representative for Burroughs Corporation.

Mrs. Bell was a music major at the University of Oklahoma, playing piano, organ and saxophone. Her first love is classical music, an interest which is shared by her husband. She taught piano for several years, until the time that her children required most of her time.

She is active in the Big Spring Music Club, and played a saxophone solo at their meeting Monday. Musical talent is already obvious in five-year-old Beverly, who plays the piano and is in the church choir.

Bell is a home movie "bug," taking, splicing and editing his films. His favorite subject is his family.

The entire family is active in the First Methodist Church, and they are enthusiastic Jaycee members.

IT'S BUTTER-FRIED

Electric Skillet Makes Quick Work Of Chicken
By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Chicken Kiev, an old and luxurious Russian dish, has been streamlined by an American cook.

The classic version is deep-fried. But with electric skillets abounding in American households, one culinary expert redesigned the recipe to fit that utensil. Tried in her household, this new rule worked out efficiently.

This chicken with its rich but-tery flavor is definitely party fare. But if you want to rehearse the recipe before serving it to guests, we feel sure your family won't mind one bit.

CHICKEN A LA KIEV
3 large chicken breasts (12 to 14 ounces each), split, boned and skinned (about 4 ounces each)
Salt
Pepper
3/4 cup (1 1/2 sticks) hard butter
2 eggs, slightly beaten
3 tbsps. water
1-3 cup flour
1 cup (about) fine dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
With a meat mallet pound chicken breasts until they are very thin cutlets. Sprinkle each side with salt and pepper. Place 2 tablespoons hard butter, cut into 4 to 6 pieces, in the center of each cutlet; fold over the 2 short ends, then the long ends. Secure together with wooden picks or skewers. Mix eggs and water together.
Roll cutlets in flour, dip them into egg-water mixture, then roll them in bread crumbs. Dip cutlets into egg-water mixture again, and roll them in bread crumbs again. Chill.
In a heavy skillet melt 1/2 cup butter and heat until hot; add cutlets and saute 5 to 7 minutes on each side, or until they are golden brown all over. Without draining, place skillet in hot (400 degrees) oven and bake 10 minutes. Remove picks and serve at once.
Note: Chicken cutlets may be prepared ahead up to the step for sauteing, then covered and frozen. Allow to thaw slightly before sauteing.

Nippy Dressing For Fruit Slaw
Fruit slaw gets a nippy dressing.
PINEAPPLE SLAW WITH ROQUEFORT DRESSING
4 cups shredded green cabbage
1 large carrot, pared and shredded
1/2 cup each sliced radishes and slivered green pepper
1 cup drained pineapple tidbits
3/4 cup each buttermilk and mayonnaise
1-3 cup (1 1/4 ozs.) crumbled Roquefort cheese
1/2 tsp. celery seed
Salt to taste
Toss together the cabbage, carrot, radishes, green pepper and pineapple.
Beat together the remaining ingredients; add to cabbage mixture and toss to distribute dressing. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Loaf Ring Surprise Is Winner

Some of the entries were quite exotic, others were daring and sophisticated, but it was a real "sleeper" in the form of a simple lamb meat loaf that won the judges' votes and top prize in America's Cookout Championship recently in Hawaii.

For his recipe, which he called "Grilled Imperial Crown Meat Loaf," Thomas J. McDermott Jr., prominent 32-year-old Los Angeles attorney, received a cash award of $10,000 in this annual barbecue competition "for men only."

Twenty-five amateur outdoor chefs from all sections of the nation competed in the event. McDermott's recipe was considered best from the standpoint of clarity, uniqueness, completeness, practicality, taste and attractiveness.

Disarmingly simple to prepare, the recipe contains a surprise that will intrigue all outdoor cooks. Sandwiched in the center of the loaf is a stuffing of whole mushroom "crowns" and juicy pineapple chunks, which add a delightful flavor to the meat mixture.

GRILLED IMPERIAL CROWN MEAT LOAF

2 lbs. ground lamb
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup cracker crumbs
3 tbsps. soy sauce
1 clove garlic, pressed
1 tsp. cumin
1/2 tsp. seasoned pepper
1 cup catsup
10 mushrooms, medium size
1 1/2 cups pineapple chunks, drained
Quilted foil, 18-in. heavy duty
In large mixing bowl, combine lamb, eggs, cracker crumbs, parsley, soy sauce, garlic, cumin, pepper and 1/2 cup catsup. Mix thoroughly.
Place half of mixture on an 18-inch sheet of quilted foil; shape into lower half of loaf. Place mushrooms in a row down center of meat; arrange pineapple chunks beside each mushroom "crown." Top with remaining meat mixture, sealing edges together. Wrap foil around loaf, sealing securely.
Grill loaf about 1 hour, turning a quarter turn every 15 minutes. Open foil and fold back to make a "pan." Brush meat with remainder of catsup and continue cooking and turning loaf about 15 minutes longer. Serves 8.

Now comes a new version of this delightful pudding, this recipe created by an ingenious California cook. Tried in our kitchen and served at supper to eight tasters, it won lots of applause.

Most cooks who make this dessert, in one form or another, serve it with whipped cream and we've followed suit. Other cooks serve it with vanilla ice cream, whipped cream cheese or sour cream. But this year we offered the dessert (made by the following recipe) with a rich soft custard sauce, and the combination pleased. So take your choice of toppings. A little of the fruit cocktail used in the pudding makes a garnish.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN PUDDING
1 1/4 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. baking soda
3/4 tsp. salt
1 tbsps. butter, soft
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts
1/4 cup flaked coconut
1/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
1 egg
1 can (1 lb., 14 ozs.) fruit cocktail, well drained

Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt.
Spread the soft butter over the entire inside surface of a 5 or 4 1/2 cup ring mold. Mix together the walnuts, coconut, brown sugar and 1/4 cup of the granulated sugar; using the back of a spoon, firmly press this mixture against the buttered surface.

Beat together thoroughly the remaining 1 cup granulated sugar and the egg. Reserve 1/2 cup of the well-drained fruit cocktail; stir the remaining drained fruit cocktail into the sugar-egg mixture.

Add the sifted dry ingredients and stir until completely moistened. Spoon into prepared mold. Bake in a slow (300 degrees) oven 1 hour and 20 minutes. Place pan on wire rack to cool for about 10 minutes; invert on serving plate. If some of the sugar mixture sticks to the bottom of the pan, remove it with a spatula and press it down in place.

Serve warm with whipped cream or soft custard sauce; garnish with reserved 1/2 cup fruit cocktail. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

SCANDINAVIAN PUDDING
New version of an old favorite

Old Swedish Pudding Gets American Accent

We don't mind taking some credit for reviving, during the past few years, a Scandinavian pudding that is both foolproof to make and utterly delicious.

We're not sure whether this dessert originated in Sweden or whether Swedish-American cooks in this country developed it. But we've found Iowa women of Swedish descent devoted to the recipe, and we've also discovered that it is used as a favorite dessert at Swedish-American festive suppers.

Now comes a new version of this delightful pudding, this recipe created by an ingenious California cook. Tried in our kitchen and served at supper to eight tasters, it won lots of applause.

Marinate For Meat Miracle

All the winter long, hearty marinated meats add a superb touch to cold-weather menus. A marinade sauce tenderizes, flavors and glazes meats all in one operation, and works its magic on pork, beef, lamb or veal. The meat is cut into small pieces, marinated for several hours or overnight, and simply cooked in a skillet and served with rice and a salad. Into the marinade goes a variety of nippy ingredients, and mellow un-sulphured molasses counteracts the tanginess and adds a wonderful flavor of its own. During the cooking, the marinade simmers down and handsomely glazes each morsel of tender meat.

MARINADE

1/2 cup un-sulphured molasses
1/4 cup catchup
1/2 cup cider vinegar
2 tps. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. salt
2 tps. monosodium glutamate
1/2 tsp. marjoram
1 1/2 cups water
1 large onion, sliced
Combine all ingredients in a deep bowl. Add meat; marinate and cook as directed.

GLAZED MEAT

Use 2 pounds of pork shoulder, beef, lamb, or veal . . . cut in 1-inch pieces. Add meat to marinade and let stand several hours or overnight. To cook, turn the meat with marinade into a large skillet. Place over medium heat; bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer 30 minutes, or until meat is tender. Uncover; cook rapidly 20 to 25 minutes, or until liquid is reduced and meat is glazed. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Color Shows Taking Over On Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tentative schedules of the three major networks sound neither novel nor exciting, but 1965-66 may prove to be a turning point: The year of the big color breakthrough.

NBC announced earlier this week that 27 of its 29 regularly scheduled evening programs next season would be colorcasts — 96 per cent compared with about 70 per cent this season.

ABC has been increasing the number of its color shows over the past two seasons from a point where only its cartoon shows were tinted.

The big foot-dragger in color has been CBS which has had a policy of supplying color shows only when sponsors asked for them. Tuesday there was a change in executive thinking.

MORE COMING

John A. Schneider, appointed last week as president of the CBS-TV network, said in his first official announcement that both "The Red Skelton Show" and "The Danny Kaye Show" would go to color in the fall.

Vote Ending Fluoridation Challenged

ANTIGO, Wis. (AP) — The city fathers of Antigo, where voters four years ago ended fluoridation of the water supply, decided this week to ask residents whether they really meant it.

In the four-year interval, according to a State Board of Health survey, tooth decay among elementary school children has increased as much as 183 per cent.

Since the survey was made public last month, the community has been in an uproar. But Tuesday night's council decision to resubmit the question to voters on April 6 came on a 12-0 vote with no discussion.

Miss Frances Cleveland, the only woman on the council and chairman of the health and welfare committee, moved for the vote on the question, "Do you favor fluoridation?"

TOOTH DECAY

The study showed, among other things, that tooth decay had risen 92 per cent among kindergarten pupils, 183 per cent among second graders and 100 per cent among fourth graders in 1964, compared with a similar survey in 1960.

That was just after this northern Wisconsin city of about 10,000 ended 11 years of fluoridation.

Since the April referendum will be advisory only, with the final decision left up to the council, the controversy is expected to continue with unabated heat.

Managing editor Gene Legro of the Antigo Daily Journal said the newspaper has been "swamped with mail" from readers. He began printing a column or two of letters each day, and the process went on without a letup. "We've got enough to run until Memorial Day," he said.

PUBLIC STANDS

Scores of parents, nurses, professional people, civic clubs and individual members of the Citizens Committee for Better Health took public stands urging a return to fluoridation.

Many opponents were unwilling to be identified in print.

Varying grounds were cited for opposition. A woman said water with fluoride made her mouth burn and upset her stomach; a man said it was a relative tried to keep for a bait business, and a dairy farmer said he was against it because he was sure dental troubles could be reduced if residents would drink more milk.

Center To Get $50 Donation

A gift of $50 was to be presented today to the Howard County Rehabilitation Center by the Warhawk Flight, 3561st Pilot Training Squadron, Webb AFB.

The money was collected at a penny a vote in the competition for Miss Diamondback last week, part of the Rattlesnake Roundup. The winning contestant, Madeleine Cole, was sponsored by Warhawk Flight.

Instructor for the flight is Capt. Benard A. Regets. Rehabilitation Center director Jim Thompson is to accept the donation.

Connally Urges U.S. Either Cut Or Freeze Oil Imports

Both are ideally suited to it. NBC recently declared there were about 2,500,000 color sets in use in the country and predicted the total would reach 5,000,000 by next year.

While this is a respectable number, it still represents a fraction of the more than 50,000,000 TV-equipped homes in the country. But it is enough, obviously, to lead Schneider to state that "the level of color television set ownership now warrants color broadcasts on a weekly basis this fall" on CBS.

"The Pope and the Vatican," on NBC this week, was a good example. The news program undertook to illustrate the change in the Roman Catholic Church, to shed some light on the personality of Pope Paul VI, to show some of the ancient and beautiful ceremonies of the church and to show some portions of the Vatican — a large order.

Much of the color film was a delight to the eye but most of the time it was accompanied by a dry-as-dust commentary in an expressionless voice by NBC Rome correspondent Irving R. Levine. The result was a long lecture that arrived much too late in the evening to be appreciated.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. John Connally of Texas said Wednesday the federal government should either cut oil imports immediately or freeze them at present levels until downward trends in the domestic industry are corrected.

Connally, who also is chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, was one of several governors and members of Congress from oil-producing states who called for import reductions at a hearing opened before Interior Department officials on the mandatory oil import program east of the Rocky Mountains.

Connally said adequacy of available energy in the United States is essential to security, that a competitive industry must be maintained and that import levels must not be watered by various exemptions.

MAJOR FORCES

The domestic producer is confronted with two major competitive forces, he said, one the industry's own production and sale of natural gas at one-third the price received on a thermal basis for oil, the other the rapid increase in the rate of imports since 1950 which contributed to a decline in exploratory drilling in this country.

He asked that import levels be set that will permit the domestic industry to regain its "just level of economic health" and stimulate exploration.

Sen. Milward Simpson, R-Wyo., submitted a statement by Gov. Clifford Hansen of Wyoming recommending the import level of crude and its products, except residual, be fixed at 10 per cent of domestic production instead of the current 12.2 per cent.

In a statement submitted by Rep. Page Belcher, R-Okla., Gov. Henry Bellmont of Oklahoma noted that an oil compact committee of governors had reported that crude imports should be restricted to a level that would assure the health and vigor of the domestic industry and maintain adequate domestic supplies to consumers at reasonable prices.

1963 LEVEL

He added the report noted the 1963 level was considered greater than desirable.

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., contending the present import system is not working, asked that imports be frozen or rolled back until the domestic industry's health and more exploratory drilling is assured.

Rep. Omar Burleson, D-Tex., noted he has introduced a bill to cut imports by 375,000 barrels daily. Rep. Graham Purcell, D-Tex., urged imports be reduced to 10 per cent of domestic production.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall in opening the hearing noted that since quotas were imposed six years ago the domestic oil and gas industry has enjoyed a rising earnings trend.

Law Protecting Golden Eagle Hit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's ban on use of airplanes for shooting down golden eagles is not only conserving their numbers — it's bringing about their multiplication, says Rep. Clark Fisher, D-Tex.

And, from the way he looks at it, that's bad. The eagles kill lambs.

The San Angelo congressman says that since enactment of a law in 1962 giving the Secretary of Interior authority to draw up conservation regulations (shooting from planes is barred by Secretary Stewart Udall's regulations), the golden eagles are on the increase.

PREDATORY BIRD

Addressing the House, Fisher said:

"It is amazing that our government spends millions of dollars—and properly so, to destroy predatory animals, and at the same time protects our leading predatory bird—the destructive golden eagle.

"Yet, the predatory animals and the predatory eagle destroy the same livestock and wild game. The predators have been killing small lambs, kids, and wild game since time immemorial."

Pointing to the 1962 law, which provides that the Secretary of Interior should issue blanket permits for destruction of golden eagles in counties where the bird is killing livestock, upon the request of a governor, Fisher said:

"On the face of it, the ranchman, farmer and game conservationist, would appear to be protected in their right to defend themselves against the ravages of the predatory golden eagle. But not so . . .

TIED HANDS

"The secretary of interior proceeded to issue a regulation which effectively tied the hands of victims of these predators by prohibiting the use of airplanes—the only known means of effectively coping with the problem . . ."

Texas Women On Rights Warpath Again

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Texas women are on the "equal rights" warpath again—and this time they're aiming to cut off a man's defense of justifiable homicide if he kills his wife's lover.

A woman doesn't have the same privilege, if she catches her spouse in adultery and shoots the other woman, she is charged with murder.

Rep. Bob Bass of DeKalb thought he had a remedy. In a bill (HB367) introduced early in the session, he advocated giving men and women the same shooting privileges.

LEGAL MURDER

He admitted Wednesday to the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, however, that he guessed in a sense the bill "was legalizing murder." He asked approval of a substitute (HB316) which would take the justifiable homicide excuse away from men entirely.

Not everyone agreed it was such a fine idea.

Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston said, half in jest, that he thought the men were being discriminated against under current law, since "only the adulterer may be killed, not the adulteress." He said the state could "license a kind of general carnage" to get rid of all discrimination.

SERIOUS MATTER

Mrs. Hermine Tobolowsky, a frequent spokesman for the women, said "We consider killing a serious matter at any time. Any civilized country should take a long, hard look at letting any killer go scot free, except in self defense."

She said it was especially unjust for a woman to stand trial for murder "for doing exactly the same as a man, who gets off free merely because of a difference in sex."

The bills went to a subcommittee. Also referred to subcommittees for further study were:

A bill (HB364) to protect physicians from civil or criminal liability when they report cases of battered children.

CALLED OUTDATED

A measure (HB366) repealing what members called an outdated—and discriminatory—law that bars women from dancing in tents.

A bill (HB395) to provide for probation for misdemeanor offenses.

And, a proposal (HB297) requiring a four-foot fence around apartment house swimming pools. An amendment exempted hotels and motels.

The committee approved for House debate a bill (HB133) to prohibit tattooing of persons under 21, with a penalty of six months in jail and a $10-$200 fine. The age limit was raised from 18 to 21 by the committee.

Med School Plan Pushed

AUSTIN (AP)—A teaching hospital for a proposed Texas Tech medical school would serve a 20-county area expected to have a 1970 population of one million, a Lubbock physician told a House committee.

Dr. Brandon Hull, president of the Lubbock Medical Society, urged approval of a bill by Rep. Bill Parsley of Lubbock to create a 100-student medical school if a teaching hospital is built. The bill was sent to subcommittee.

Hull said a 400-bed hospital is projected for a site on the Tech campus to be financed by a district of 20 counties.

Lawmakers Face Major Decisions

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Texas lawmakers face big decisions today on state spending, liquor regulation and tuberculosis control.

Today also is likely to be the last day available for free introduction of bills. One important holdout expected to be introduced is Gov. John Connally's controversial proposal to re-group the 22 colleges into three systems. Sen. Galloway Calhoun of Tyler is sponsor of the Senate bill.

While senators are devoting more attention to the 1966-67 $3.6 billion general appropriations bill, House members can complete actions on two important bills: Rep. Gus Mutschers' bill to bring malt liquor and ale under the beer section of state liquor laws, and a Senate-passed bill to transfer state tuberculosis treatment and control programs from the Hospital Board to the Health Department.

The Senate version of 1966-67 state spending was reported to the Finance Committee Tuesday and set for a hearing today.

The Senate appropriations bill calls for healthy increases for welfare, hospitals and education, but leaves only about $14 million to help finance a teacher pay raise.

The Senate bill, however, follows the governor's recommendations more closely than the House bill passed Feb. 24, which leaves a $25 million general fund balance.

Although the spending bill spreads the $151 million increase above present state spending of $466 million among most facets of state government, key improvements include:

SPENDING HIKE

Hospitals and special schools—current state spending of $119 million is hiked to $146 million in the Senate bill, much of the increase going to new institutions in Dallas, Lubbock and Corpus Christi and extensive renovations to Lufkin and Austin institutions.

Education—present state spending of $237 million is increased to $341 million in the Senate version, giving the governor almost all of his important higher education requests.

Welfare—state and federal spending total $588 million is provided in the Senate bill, including the doubling of medical assistance welfare grants to $33 million. The subcommittee which wrote the bill said its proposals are based on the belief that Congress will enact a medical care program for persons over 65 years old.

KEY PROPOSAL

One of the governor's key recommendations cleared the House easily Wednesday and went to the Senate. It is Rep. W. H. Miller's bill to replace the Hospital Board with a new agency called the State Department of Mental Illness and Mental Retardation.

House passage came after Miller won a 98-42 vote to replace a provision which had earlier been removed. The controversial section provides that the department's administrator must be a physician.

The central feature of the proposal is a provision for state financing of community centers for mental health and mental retardation.

The bill also calls for the new agency to take over mental health programs carried out by the State Health Department.

New Pooling Law Hailed

HOUSTON (AP)—A new law permitting forced pooling of an oil and gas drilling tract if voluntary pooling efforts fail will help assure equitable allocations, says the newest member of the Texas Railroad Commission.

Byron Tunnell, speaking to the Natural Gas Men's Association of Houston, said:

"This act gives the commission considerable leeway in establishing administrative procedures and handling matters not specifically covered.

"These procedures and decisions will have to fall within the pattern of the commission's over-all authority to prevent waste and protect correlative rights."

Gov. John Connally signed the pooling bill last week. It becomes effective about Sept. 1.

The Texas Supreme Court has ruled that drilling on tracts of town lot size is unconstitutional because the owners would get more than a fair share of production from a reservoir.

Idea Of Cut In Aid Hit

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson's foreign aid chief cautioned Congress today against reducing the administration's $3.38-billion overseas assistance program in the face of the rising threat of "Communist-inspired internal insurgency."

Administrator David E. Bell of the Agency for International Development told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the threat, not only in Viet Nam but also in other parts of Asia and in Africa and Latin America, has been made "all the more serious by the rivalry between the Russians and the Chinese."

Bell withheld comment on a weekend proposal by Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., that the United States give consideration to the possibility of future joint U.S.-Soviet ventures in aiding underdeveloped countries. Fulbright suggested the possibility of an invitation to the Soviet Union to join in the financing and operation of an international Central America canal.

Governors Sent LBJ Invitations

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House is sending out invitations to the nation's 50 governors to meet with President Johnson March 22-23, it was learned today.

The White House normally does not announce dates for such meetings until after acceptances have come in.

Johnson said, on March 4, that he planned very shortly to have the governors come to Washington to talk to them about various problems.

Dear Abby

Report It Promptly

DEAR ABBY: Our problem is this: Our teenage son has been receiving filthy literature in the mail. We were very much disturbed about this and talked to him about it. He says he has no idea who is sending it to him. And we believe him. This is the first time this junk has ever been in our home and we don't want it. Can you tell us how to keep this stuff out of our mailbox?

NO NAME
DEAR NO: Take it to your local postmaster. Be sure you have the original envelope in which the "literature" was mailed. The postmark is an important clue.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you can help me with a problem which is rather unusual. I was born without that part of an arm just below the elbow. Having been born that way, I find it awkward to explain to people why I have only one arm. Try as I do, it always ends up with the same question, "but why?" My little nephew is now at the stage where he asks a lot of questions, and he is so perplexed about this. Believe it or not, I have had many hurts from playmates whose mothers used me as an "example" to make their children behave. Mothers will tell their children that I have only one arm because I was a bad boy and God "punished" me like that—and if they are not good, it could happen to them.

There must be others who have a similar problem, and I shall be watching your column for some kind of answer that will satisfy the curious small fry.

WAITING: Explain that from the mysteries of human reproduction, unexplainable things happen now and then, and that your incomplete arm is one of them; that you do not feel handicapped and have learned to live with the loss.

DEAR ABBY: One day last week a very good friend of ours invited my husband and me to join her and her husband for a drive to a nearby resort to spend the day and have dinner in the evening. We accepted. Later she called back and said they owed another couple a dinner and asked what I thought about asking them to join us?

It so happens that I do not like the other couple. Being around them leaves me low in spirits, so I told her that I didn't think much of the idea. Well, she didn't invite them. Now my husband is ashamed of me. He said I should have agreed to let the other couple join us and suffered through the day and evening. If he is right, tell me why.

PERPLEXED: I think your husband is wrong. Since you were ASKED by your hostess whether you wanted the other couple to join you, there was no reason for you to have been hypocritical.

Antidote For The Beatles

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—An emergency shot of classical music is being given public school students here as an "antidote for the Beatles."

Donald D. Armstrong, supervisor of music in the schools, said 520 classical record albums have been purchased to bring "classical selections down to the first-grade level" in the city's 52 schools.

Armstrong said teacher guides explain the classical music and its background.

"I believe the children can get as excited over this music as they do over rock 'n' roll," Armstrong said. "We simply need to give them an opportunity to hear it."

Rodeo Plant Being Readied

Work has started on conditioning the rodeo grounds for the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo.

This early start, pointed out Charlie Creighton, president, will mean that the plant will be in top condition for the May 19-20-21-22 show.

Elra Beutler and Jiggs Beutler, Elk City, Okla., are lining up specialty acts for the show. The Beutlers, producers of the rodeo, also have acquired new stock for the rodeo season in addition to holding over some of the saltiest bucking stock.

Three new members have been added to the board of directors following a stockholders meeting of the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion.

They are W. L. Wilson Jr., Lorin McDowell III, and Kinney Thompson. Continuing on the board are Toots Mansfield, Charlie Creighton, Harry Lees, Bob Middleton, E. P. Driver, Ed Fisher, Malcolm Patterson, Leland Wallace, Jay Dement, Rich Anderson, Jimmy Taylor, and H. N. Read Jr.

Creighton is president; Lees, vice president; Middleton, treasurer; and Driver, the secretary.

Plant Blaze Injures Trio

ODESSA (AP)—A fire damaged the Pan American North Cowden gasoline plant 10 miles northwest of Odessa today. Three men were sent to a hospital with burns.

Harold Smith, 39, burned on the head and hands, was the most seriously hurt.

Officials said a compressor was leaking gas and exploded.

Over 350 To Take Part In Easter Lily Parade

More than 350 volunteer workers are getting their walking shoes out for the Easter Lily Parade this weekend in conjunction with the 1965 Easter Seal drive.

The parade will be a house-to-house solicitation for funds and will start Friday and end Sunday. Chairmen for the parade are Mrs. Rube McNew, Jim Thompson, Mrs. Dwight McCann, S. M. Anderson and Mrs. Roscoe Newell.

In addition to the over-all parade chairmen, the city has been divided into sections with a chairman in charge of each section. Area chairmen and their sections are: Mrs. Joe Horton, Washington Place; Mrs. Jack Alexander, College Heights; Garrett Patton, Boydston; Mrs. Jesse Hernandez, Bauer; Elmer Giles, Marcy; Julian Fisher, Park Hill; Ray White, Airport and Cedar Crest; Mrs. A. J. Prager, College Park Estates; Mrs. William Banks, Lakeview; Spike Dykes, Coahoma; Horace Wallin, Sand Springs and Midway; Mrs. H. L. Motates, Gay Hill; Mrs. M. A. Dunagan, Elbow; Mrs. Harry Middleton, Vealmoor; and Mrs. Larson Lloyd, Kentwood.

The Coahoma drive will be led by the Coahoma football team under the direction of Coach Spike Dykes. Boy Scout Troop 136 will handle the canvassing chores in the Sand Springs area. Anderson, president of the Howard County Society for Crippled Children and Adults, reports that the Easter Seals mailed two weeks ago are beginning to be returned. He said more than $270 had been collected by the mailers.

Easter Lily pins will be sold once again Saturday in downtown Big Spring by Boy Scouts. Last Saturday, the Big Spring Rainbow girls handled the Easter Lily sales.

Tickets for the Easter Seal dance, scheduled for March 27 at the Cosden Country Club, are available from any member of the society. Admission is $1 and music for the dance will be furnished by the Bob Featherstone combo of Midland.

Halfway House Needs Tools

Garden tools and hand tools are needed by the men of the Halfway House, it was reported in Wednesday's meeting of the organization's directors.

Ample land for the men to raise a few vegetables and flowers is available, but they lack tools. Gifts of hoes, rakes, shovels, garden hose and any other type of garden tool will be sought. Also the house is in need of linens — sheets, towels and mattress covers, particularly for twin beds. Those who can help are asked to leave the items at the house, Fifth and Lancaster.

Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, was a guest at the meeting. He congratulated the group on the work of the facility for the patients, the hospital, and the community.

Treasurer Clyde Hollingsworth told the board that the organization was $189 in the black for the month of February.

Prison Bus Stops Here

The Texas State Penitentiary bus, loaded almost to capacity with prisoners it has picked up on a loop over West Texas in the last few days, stopped in Big Spring today to take on one more rider.

He was Morris D. Minter, who recently pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery and was sentenced to serve seven years. The bus had room for no additional passengers and can only take convicts to the institution where papers for the prisoner have been transmitted to Huntsville and been processed.

Services Are Developed To Assist Webb Retirees

Three services to assist Webb retirees and local employers on retiree home in Big Spring are being developed.

Assistance in job placement, securing adequate housing and informing on available veterans services are the initial steps to be taken, said Jeff Brown, chairman of the housing and commercial committee of the base-community council.

The program was developed at a meeting of the committee, which is following up on a previous suggestion to the chamber of commerce. Col. George Franks is chairman of the committee.

Big Spring Employment Agency, a private concern, has offered free service to retiring Webb military personnel in attempting to find suitable employment. The agency will also counsel between Webb military retirees and local employers on employe skills and job opportunities. If this plan proves effective, it may be extended to cover all military retirees planning to make a home here.

The Big Spring Board of Realtors also will cooperate in helping to find satisfactory housing for retirees. The procedure has not yet been detailed, but assistance was pledged.

Information on veterans' affairs will be available through Ray Boren, VA contact representative at the VA Hospital. This service will work in conjunction with personnel services at the base.

Big Spring offers several attractions for military retirees, it was noted recently in a chamber directors meeting. There are certain privileges extended on base to retirees, and the presence of military and VA Hospitals also is an advantage.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Former Legislator Supports Bond Election

I am for the Junior College bond issue and will tell you why. For eight years I served on the Education Committee in the Texas Legislature. At one time I was chairman of this committee. In this capacity I had the opportunity of working with the presidents of our junior colleges and gained a fair knowledge of their problems. With our population growth, our junior colleges are our major hope in providing an opportunity for education to all young people.

We have in Big Spring one of the best junior colleges in the state. Some 23,000 men, women, boys and girls have been helped by this college. One of these boys was our own. The two years he attended the local college saved us about two thousand dollars by not having to pay board and room, the expense of trips to and from school, laundry, extra clothing and etc., but the thing that was priceless, it gave us two extra years with our son.

From a hard economic point of view this school is tied in with the future of Big Spring. It brings in outside money and people to Big Spring. We have had officers and servicemen and their wives from Webb Air Force Base tell us they were glad to be in a town where their children could get their first two years of college work at home.

One of the finest things that HCJC does is it gives the family that is short on money a chance to educate their children.

We have always been interested in the young people of Big Spring and are willing to do anything we can to keep this college one of the best in our state and available to all people, who want an education. Therefore, we ask the friends of the school, those people who have had a son or a daughter attend either in the past or presently, those people whose child may some day attend, and the young men and women who are presently students, please work and vote for this bond issue.

Educators Outline Needs

School facilities, and their uses in relation to the needs of the community, were discussed at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the education committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, and Supt. Sam Anderson of the Big Spring schools, each made comments on the subject and indicated their opinions of present advantages and disadvantages.

Howard County Junior College, in providing special classes—many at night—is aiding in adult education, Dr. Hunt pointed out.

In the public schools facilities are being incorporated in the building program to enable adult education in several vocational areas, Anderson said.

Bob Dyer, spokesman for the group, sought to bring out information on how buildings and facilities could be used in the adult program of education, and how schools could be put to the best use in serving community needs.

Most of the question and answer type program was taken up in generalities, but it gave committee members an insight into problems concerned with full utilization of all school facilities. Most of the questions were aimed at getting answers to questions generally asked by industrialists seeking information on a community, including the cost of educating regular students and adult students.

They also pointed up the need for surveys to determine how many students, both regular high school and adults, would need certain regular, special, or vocational training, and how many would use these if available.

Library Stays Open Tonight

Howard County Free Library will put its new "longer hours of operation" policy into effect today.

Mrs. Opal McDaniel, librarian, said that starting today, the library will remain open each Thursday until 9:30 p.m. This is the first Thursday the new schedule has been in effect.

Mrs. McDaniel said that the plan is being adopted as a special service for persons who find it difficult to visit the library during its normal operation hours. She said that many libraries in other cities follow the plan on one or two nights each week.

Whether this policy will be made permanent at the library will depend on the public response, she said.
