120 Day Delay

Council Suspends TESCO Rate Hike

Suspension for 120 days was how the City Council of Colorado City voted to handle the proposed Texas Electric Service Company proposed rate hike.

B. B. Hardee, manager of TESCO, appeared before the council at Tuesday's regular session to request a 24.43 per cent increase to Colorado City customers.

Hardee explained that "we can justify the increase."

Noting that TESCO asked for an increase a year ago, Hardee explained that because the Public Utilities Commission did not grant the full request, another hike is necessary.

Four choices were available to the council, Hardee noted. They could vote to grant the 24.43 per cent increase and it would go into effect immediately in Colorado City. Or, the council could completely turn it down, in which case TESCO would file an appeal.

Another alternative would be to grant the increase, pending decision of the per cent of increase of the PUC. Or, the council could choose to suspend the request for 120 days.

At last week's meeting of the Loraine City Council, the group decided to grant TESCO the hike, based on the PUC ruling.

Campbell, however, recommended to the council that they suspend the rate hike.

"We can hold it off, but that's about all we can do," he said. "With the PUC, we've given up our original jurisdiction."

The council voted to suspend the proposed increase.

Increasing the speed limits 1,000 feet west of Hwy. 208 on East 10th and East 17th Streets was approved by the council.

Presently, Campbell noted, there are no speed limit signs in those specific areas and few motorists abide by the 30 mile per hour limit set further up the road. Thus, it was decided to set the speed at 35 miles per hour at those portions of East 10th and East 17th Streets and put up speed limit signs.

While discussing the speed limit proposal, Jodi Neff, mayor pro tempore, suggested that a five mile per hour speed limit be set at the street leading through the ball fields at Ruddick Park.

Mrs. Neff noted that because of the parking situation at the baseball and softball fields, it is dangerous for children who may be playing near the cars.

Campbell said that he did not believe speed limit signs would control the situation, but improving the parking would.

"I think parking is a problem we can solve," said Campbell.

Gary and Becky Harkins appeared before the council Tuesday night to request an exception to the mobile home ordinance.

Mrs. Harkins, owner and operator of Mary's Flowers and Gifts and Colorado Floral, explained that she wants to place a 14'x78' trailer on her private lot behind Mary's Flowers. She said that a new employee would be moving to Colorado City and needed a place to put his trailer.

After a bit of discussion, the request was denied.

Regarding the mobile home ordinance, Mayor Marion Bassham noted that a mobile home located on property not zoned for trailers has not yet been moved, as requested earlier by the council.

Mayor Bassham warned Campbell that the trailer must be moved within a week.

In other business, the council approved a resolution declaring a public policy of fair housing in Colorado City. Campbell informed the council that adoption of the resolution would offer "bonus points to the city."

Mayor Bassham noted that because of the city's participation under grants it was especially necessary to accept the resolution.

As an informational item, Campbell told the council that he wanted to separate the fire marshall's duties into two jobs. Because, he noted, the fire marshall spends so many hours on building and electricial inspections, it would be more feasible to have a "package inspector."

He explained that the inspector would be responsible for sanitary inspection as well as building and electrical inspections.

As for the fire marshall's duties, Campbell said that they would delegate these responsibilities to either a fireman or to himself. He explained that the fire marshall's duties were not too time-consuming, but that inspecting the buildings was.

Also discussed by the council at the meeting was the purchase of asphalt to repair cracks in the auxiliary airfield.

The council voted to purchase 20 tons of the asphalt from a Houston company. Cost of the material will be $7,200, not including transporting charges.

The tournament will begin with a shotgun start Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon and again Sunday morning and Sunday afternoon. First place prize in each flight will be a set of golf irons, second place is a set of woods, third place is a golf bag and fourth prize is a travel bag. CISD Board Approves Seven Appointments

Bolin, who has been transferred to Monahans by his company, noted in his letter of resignation he had lived in Mitchell County for 41 years and though he was leaving he would always have an interest in the people of this area.

Tom Rees, board president and Edward Roach, member, were not present for the meeting and vice president S. L. (Mac) Morris suggested the board wait until the next meeting, July 10, to appoint a replacement to fill Bolin's unexpired term which ends April 1979. The board decided in favor of the motion.

Superintendent of Schools Lloyd McKee presented the resignations of Barry Hughey, math teacher and girl's coach, and Margaret Bishop, 3rd grade teacher. He noted Miss Bishop plans to work for her church in Masschusetts for the next 18 months.

McKee also presented the following teachers for appointments: Sharrylon Kay Vestal, remedial reading in middle school; Theresa Kaye Vest, math, high school and speech, middle school; Linda Sue Duvall, speech, drama and journalism, high school; Molly Bruce, math, middle school and Gary Davenport, health, physical education and coach, high school.

Diana Davenport, Al Cogburn and Jan Cogburn were recommended for appointment by Sweetwater ISD for Plan A staff for Colorado ISD.

The board accepted all the resignations and appointment recommendations.

Other items on the agenda included the boards' acceptance of American Fidelity Assurance Company because a new staff member is presently participating in a tax shelter program with the company.

A proposed budget calendar was adopted with June 20 set for board of equalization; June 22 and June 29 for publishing effective tax rate notice; July 6 for public hearing tax rate at 7 p.m.; July 9 notice of the settling tax rate, public hearing and adoption of school budget; July 18 to deliver working budgets and July 20 for adopting school budget.

Members of the board voted to continue using the Education Service Center at a cost of $1 per student. This service furnishes information, films and instruction to the system.

Senior Citizens requested permission from the board to remove part of a wall, install serving rail and steam tables and move a sink and a cabinet. This is to allow all persons to meet and eat in one large room and not in the hall area.

Board approval was given for the project with proper supervision.

McKee presented the board with two bids received for concrete to be used for stadium repair. Colorado Sand and Gravel Co. bid $20,669.50 and Concrete Inc. of Snyder bid $20,940. Low bid was accepted.

Garage Sale Results In A Dynamite Discovery

By DONNA WATSON

A startling revelation brought quick end to Doris Coleman's garage sale and a plea for help to the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department at 11:30 a.m. Saturday morning.

Deputy Ron Keith, backed up by Deputy Mike Stutts, was disptached to the home at 1025 Oak. "I knew it was dynamite as soon as I saw it and when I saw the beads on it I knew we had trouble," Keith commented.

"We evacuated the homes on both sides of the garage, just in case, then called for expert advice and assistance."

Mrs. Coleman recalled the series of events leading up to the discovery.

She stated that her daughter, Marilyn Turner, and a neighbor, Mrs. Billie Johnson, were helping her move boxes and cartons in preparation for her garage sale.

She recalled lifting one particularly large box and handing it down to her daughter and Mrs. Johnson when it slipped, spilling its contents on the concrete floor. "It was full of pots and pans and dishes, which broke into tiny pieces when they hit," Mrs. Coleman commented.

"We noticed an old lunch pail which fell out too and we opened it," she stated. She described the contents of the pail as something wrapped in paper towel and black plastic tape.

Marilyn Turner commented that they had looked at it and joked about the possibility of a bomb because her mother had found blasting caps in the bushes beside the garage when she was gardening earlier in the week.

"We just set the box outside the garage door and finished getting things ready for the sale," she said.

The garage sale opened on schedule. The next morning a relative stopped by early to see what was on sale. Mrs. Coleman stated she told him about the box and showed the contents to him. "He told us he thought it really was dynamite," Mrs. Turner stated, "so we called the sheriff's office."

Members of the 47th Explosive Ordnance Disposal Detachment at Ft. Hood were contacted and a two-man team flown in to assist.

Playhouse Scores $370 For Organ

About $370 was contributed Saturday by those in attendance of a travelogue slide show at Colorado City Playhouse to go toward paying off the Playhouse's organ.

These contributions bring the organ fund to more than $1,200 with still more than $1,000 needed.

The travelogue was well attended as more than 80 persons were on hand. The slides were taken by George Womack on vacations he took to Easter Island in 1976 and to Ladakh and Kashmir in 1977.

Between the two shows, Addie V. Payne gave a demonstration on the organ of the many different types of music it will simulate.

Anyone wanting to make contributions to the organ fund may do so by contacting any officer of the Playhouse or by going by City National Bank and seeing Womack or Sue Womack.

Playhouse officers are President Carl Beery Moore, Vice President Mac McKinnon, Mrs. Womack, treasurer and Trina Taylor, secretary.

Four Sent To Prison

Three men were sentenced to terms in Huntsville Prison and one to a year in Mitchell County Jail Monday in hearings held in 32nd District Court by Judge Weldon Kirk.

Jay Bob Dement, 24, formerly of Colorado City and listed as a resident of Big Spring was sentenced to five years in State Prison for probation violations involving failure to report to probation officer and failure to pay fee and fines. Dement was serving a 7½ year probated sentence for possession of heroin stemming from charges Feb. 8, 1977.

Jerry Wayne Strode, 29, of Vernallas, Calif., was sentenced to three and one half years in State Prison on charges of criminal intent to commit burglary as a result of an attempted break-in of Perry Brothers Inc. Other charges against Strode were dropped and restitution to Anthony's Dept. Store was made. Strode will be returned to California for charges against him there after he serves his term in prison here.

Alvin Nitsche, 47, of Seymour was sentenced to on year in Huntsville for Driving While Intoxicated subsequent offense.

William Loden, 40, of Athens received one year in Mitchell County Jail for DWI subsequent offense.

Frank Ginzel, district attorney and his assistant, Rusty Carrol, represented the state and Pete McKinney (court appointed) represented the defendants in all four cases.

Dozier Retires After 50 Years

Members of the Library Board and Alice Specht, representing the Big County Library System, met with the County Commissioners Monday afternoon during a regular session as a result of the resignation of Mrs. Ruth Dozier.

Mrs. Dozier has been county librarian for more than 50 years and her resignation will become effective Sept. 1.

The commissioners are responsible for hiring a replacement and the board suggested hiring a certified librarian in order to maintain the membership in the State Library System.

As a member of the system the library is eligible for state and federal funding they would not be eligible for otherwise according to state law.

Last year, Mrs. Specht noted, the Mitchell County library received about $1,200 in books, projector and films through the system.

Question was raised as to the authority of the commissioners to hire a librarian who was not state certified and an opinion will be required from County Attorney Pat Barber before any decision is made.

Mrs. Dozier will submit her resignation to the commissioners in writing at a later date.

Chamber of Commerce Board president Jerry Putman and Manager Larry Winders appeared before the court to request permission to install additional electrical outlets and lines in the county agriculture barn in order to make the facilities more versatile.

Commissioner Johnny Shackelford noted the breakers were thrown several times during the last fair and such improvements were needed. The commissioners voted to allow the chamber to make the improvements at no cost to the county.

Winders also requested the commissioners reconsider the need for concrete flooring in the barn. No action was necssary on his suggestion.

A request was received from The Colorado River Water Authority District for the commissioners to volunteer to act as agents in the event it should become necessary at some point to restrict the use of septic tanks due to pollution in the Lake Colorado City area.

A statement from the Water District indicated the commissioners would need to pass an ordinance in regard to the pollution if at some future date it became necessary. Commissioners were in agreement that they have no authority to pass such a resolution. Item was tabled for further discussion.

In other business the commissioners authorized payment of a statement from C. R. Law Tax Record Inc. for service in the amount of $2,142.40 for completion of a county delinquent tax list.

A rate increase request was entered into record from B. B. Hardee of Texas Electric Service Co. No action was necssary on this.

Scott, Bowen Exchange Vows In Universal City Saturday

Cindy McDaniel Scott of Loraine became the bride of Jim Bowen of Universal City at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 3, in the Universal City Baptist Church with the pastor, the Rev. Charles Kemble, officiating at the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Delmar McDaniel of Rt. 1, Loraine and Mr. and Mrs. James Bowen of 435 Almeron St., Evansville, Wisconsin.

The bridal path was marked with yellow satin bows. The altar was centered with an arch candleabra flanked by pyramid candleabra holding yellow tapers and entwined with lemon blossoms. Yellow and white daisy clusters accented the arch and these colors were used for bows on each candleabrum.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a gown of ivory Qiana nylon designed by Bridal Originals. The gown featured wide bands of Venice lace which circled an empire waist and formed a sweetheart neckline. Inserts of Venice lace were repeated on long, full bishop sleeves that fastened with a wide band at the wrists.

Organ wedding music included "You Light Up My Life," "Twelfth of Never," "We've Only Just Begun" and the "Wedding March."

Mrs. Jerry Swindle of Sweetwater, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Jana Scott, daughter of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Swindle wore a full-length, yellow dress of Qiana, fashioned scooped neck, butterfly sleeves with sash, emphasizing the waistline. Jana's dress was identical to Mrs. Swindle's. Both wore headpieces of yellow and white silk daisies and lime green star flowers in their hair and carried Colonial nosegays made up of matching flowers.

Mike McDaniel of Houston and Mark McDaniel of Loraine, brothers of the bride, lighted candles and served as ushers.

Best man was Robert B. Murray III of San Antonio.

The bride's parents hosted the reception in the church fellowship hall. A cloth with floor length skirt covered the refreshment table. Crystal votive cups and the attendants' nosegay bouquets, and white candle centerpiece with yellow and white daisies made table decor. The two tiered cake was topped with twin wedding bells.

The bride was attired in a peasant-top yellow Qiana dress with three-tier skirt, for the reception. They plan a trip to Canada in July for their delayed honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of Loraine High School and received a B.S. degree in elementary education from Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. She has taught in the Roscoe Schools the past five years.

The groom is a graduate of Evansville, Wisconsin High School. He is presently serving in the U.S. Air Force, stationed at Randolph AFB, San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gaston of San Antonio, friends of the couple, hosted the rehearsal dinner at their home Friday evening for the couple and the wedding party.

Mrs. Roger Dale of San Antonio, cousin of the bride, hosted a luncheon for the bride, her mother and grandmothers and for the four girls in the house-party, Sally Beavers and Brenda Cleckler, Colorado City, Sue Sorrells, Monahans and Mary Thomas, Pampa, and Ginger Preston and Jana Scott.

Teachers and other friends in Roscoe hosted a prenuptial gift tea in the Gold Room at Roscoe State Bank on May 11.

McDaniel of Colorado City. Also Mrs. Clay Graham and Ginger and John Preston, Loraine and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Swindle of Sweetwater.

Avera Is Genealogist

An article in San Angelo Standard Times, Tuesday, June 6 featured Virgilia (Welch) Avera. Mrs. Avera is sister of Mrs. C. P. Gary of Colorado City and Mrs. Hal Bennett, Loraine.

The staff writer repeated the requirements for a certified bonafide genealogical record searcher. Also, she stated that Mrs. Avera's greatest interest now-a-days is teaching genealogy.

They have tried just about every trick in the book to get the guns out of the citizens hands in this country. I have always felt that if they were successful, the only ones left with guns would be the criminals.

Those rascals have tried, time and again, to get Congress to register firearms and Congress has refused. More recently they managed to get the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) people to attempt to register every firearm in this country without the consent of Congress. Congress, after receiving an avalanche of mail, told the ATF folks that they wouldn't. And they didn't.

Their latest endeavor is in the form of a survey. It was published in a story by the Associated Press in the June 4 Dallas Morning News. The article stated "An overwhelming majority of the public--including firearms owners--supports federal registration of handguns. Among a national cross section of 1,500 adults, the study found that 84 per cent of the respondents favor stringent federal laws governing the registration of newly purchased handguns, with only 12 per cent who oppose such laws."

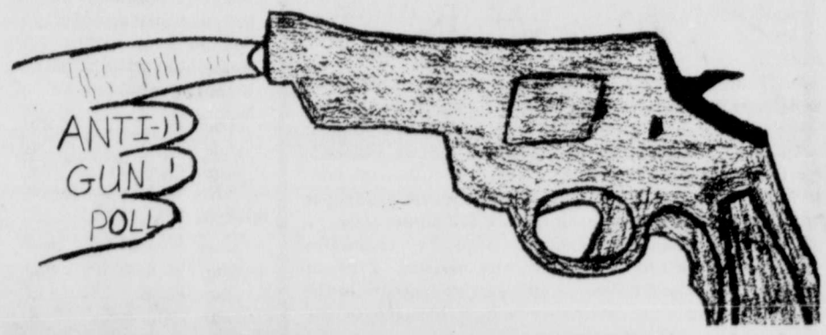

The new poll also stated that 49 per cent of those questioned said they would be more inclined to vote for a political candidate who favors handgun control. It stated that 82 per cent believe that prospective purchasers of handguns should be required to get a permit or license to purchase the weapons.

The story went on to say that the study was released by the Center for the Study and Prevention of Handgun Violence. We tried to reach these people in Washington (where the article originated) but the operator said there was no listing for them. We called the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and they told us they thought the group was located in Philadelphia, Pa. The operator there said she had no listing for them. The Associated Press in Dallas said they were sure the group existed, but they didn't know where. The National Rifle Association said they would try to locate the group and get back to us. We haven't heard from them yet.

I feel that this article should have stated that somewhere in this country there is a group that has conducted a survey. Its results show that the overwhelming majority (of a small minority) of 1,500 people out of over 214 million Americans favor federal registration of handguns. It looks like that would have been more representative of the facts.

Surveys are conducted by groups all over this country on just about every subject from the popularity of a television show to the unpopular actions of our President. In all these years of reading the results of polls, I have yet to be asked my opinion in any survey on any subject.

Apparently the purpose of these surveys is to influence your opinion by showing you some other persons view. My opinion is that people should do their own thinking--and let others do the same.

D.A. Brings Charges Against Luera For Possession

A Colorado City man, who was arrested by police June 1 and arraigned on charges of possession of marijuana in an amount in excess of four ounces, has been charged by District Attorney Frank Ginzel and appeared before District Judge Weldon Kirk on the charges.

Bond originally set by Justice of the Peace Henry Doss at $15,000 was reduced by Kirk to $5,000.

Frank Luera was arrested as a result of incidents involved in a two week investigation and stake-out by Sgt. Kenneth Abbott.

Abbott received information of a possible narcotics violation and after an extensive investigation obtained search warrants and enlisted the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Wendell Bryant and several other police officers in a search of a local west side residence.

The search resulted in seizure of about five pounds of what police believe to be marijuana, this was sent to the criminal lab in Abilene for identification.

Luera is currently free on bond and investigation is continuing.

Tiller To Visit Soviet Union

Mark Tiller, grandson of Mrs. E. L. Tiller of Colorado City, will realize a long-time ambition to visit the Soviet Union this summer as he prepares for departure this month to spend 6 weeks there as part of a 6-hour credit summer course.

Tiller, a junior student at the University of Texas, left Tuesday, driving to New York where he will spend about 4 days before joining approximately 50 other students for the trans-oceanic flight to London and then on to Moscow.

In New York, he plans to visit the United Nations building and other tourist attractions such as the statue of Liberty. He will also get a short stay in London for pleasure before reaching his final destination, Moscow, U.S.S.R. on June 23.

Although Mark has studied the Russian language since his freshman year at UT, he will try to further his knowledge in that area as well as to develop an understanding of the people and their governmental system. He is a government major at UT.

His Russian stay will also include a side trip to Kiev and then on to Leningrad for 3 more weeks of study.

On the return trip which leaves Leningrad on Aug. 3, he will go back to London and from there to France with 10 days to tour Western Europe, returning to the United States from Paris on August 13.

Tiller, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney G. Tiller of Coahoma, has earned the entire price of the trip himself.

★ DYNAMITE, from page 1

Staff Sergeant Nick Jordan and Specialist Ken Brooks arrived at the city airport at 2:30 p.m.

The twin engine plane piloted by Warrant Officer Harry Schuler overshot the runway and came to rest in a cotton field on the north end with two ruined tires.

The EOD team scrambled from the plane carrying only two small overseas bags which contained necessary equipment; hurriedly entered the waiting car driven by Sheriff Bill McGuire and were transported to the residence.

Upon arrival at the Coleman home the two men removed the blasting caps from a large tree in front of the house. Keith explained he and Deputy Mike Stutts had placed the caps there for safety reasons. If the caps were exploded accidently the tree would absorb most of the concussion.

Next they went to the garage area and examined the contents of the lunch pail. They identified it as dynamite and immediately poured a solution of acetone and alcohol over the two sticks to stabilize it and eliminate friction when moving it.

In conversation, during the thirty minute waiting period before the dynamite could be safely moved, Jordan and Brooks discussed their work.

They stated that they had handled 840 emergencies involving explosives last year.

"It gets to be routine, but I really love my work," Jordan, an eight year veteran in EOD, commented.

"It is very interesting work and the best job I have ever had," Brooks commented. He has been in EOD only 1½ years.

Jordan explained the hazard in the dynamite was due to crystallization which had occurred due to the age of the sticks, though he was not able to tell exactly how old the sticks were.

After the dynamite had stabilized the team escorted by the Sheriff's Department traveled by car to the city dump where the area was cleared of personnel and the lunch pail placed close to the 20 foot wall of the newest excavation.

Fuses were run to the pail, a small amount of additional explosives were added to the caps and dynamite and then detenated.

A large black cloud of smoke rose from the excavation as sounds of the explosion rocked the air.

Jordan smiled, walked back down into the hole to be certain everything had gone right and indicated a hole about six inches deep and three feet in diameter. He picked up two small bits of metal and stated, "That's what's left of the pail."

The team was returned to the airfield and waiting pilot. Tires for the aircraft were obtained and the three men left about 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. Coleman's garage sale was cancelled until the following day.

Her only comment about the affair was, "I am most embarrassed. I don't know why there was dynamite in my garage. I am very thankful that everything came out well."

Producers Must File By Today

To be eligible for prevented planting of cotton, producers must have been prevented from planting cotton by May 31 and sign prevented planting applications by today (Thursday).

Producers are no longer required to plant a non-tolerant crop, such as grain sorghum, on acreage treated with herbicide, according to Don Stewart, county executive director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

If a producer is prevented from planting grain sorghum by Tuesday, he may sign prevented planting applications by July 5.

Producers with cotton planted that has been hailed or washed out should sign disaster applications and have the crop appraised by the ASCS office.

The recent rains have ended the Emergency Feed Program for Mitchell County. Today (Thursday) has been marked as the deadline for turning in tickets on feed purchased for use during May 1 to May 30.

Stewart noted that money is still available for conservation practices under the regular 1978 Agriculture Conservation Practices Program.

Other members of this interim committee are Representatives Bill Keese of Somerville, Pete Patterson of Brookston, Forrest Green of Corsicana, Elmer Martin of Colorado City and Betty Denton of Waco.

Open to the public, the hearing will be held in Room C of the Reagan Building in the Capitol Complex in Austin beginning at 10 a.m.

Stinson Catches 21 Fish

Ruddick Park's creek banks were lined with children Saturday morning as the Optimist Fishing Contest got underway.

A total of 31 contestants joined in a morning of fun, sport and companionship as they vied for coveted prizes offered for the greatest number of fish caught.

The contest began at 8 a.m. and ended at 1 p.m. and in that time Joe Stinson caught 21 fish to take the top prize and receive a rod and reel combination.

Weldon Walker caught 17 to take second place and win a Zebco reel and rod and Sammy Kenney caught nine fish to win third place for a Zebco 202 combination rod and reel. Tom Rees copped fourth place for the longest fish caught with a 12½ inch catfish.

A special prize was given to David Luera for a substantial turtle of undetermined weight "but he's sure big," Luera stated.

DAVID LUERA shows turtle that won him the surprise gift and fifth place at the Optimist fishing contest Saturday. His catch was released after prizes were awarded.

Blassingame Breaks Ankle In Game

Larry Blassingame broke his ankle in two places at Friday night's First Baptist A vs. St. Ann's A church league softball game.

Playing for First Baptist A, Blassingame slid into third base, breaking his ankle in the process.

Blassingame was treated at Shannon Hospital in San Angelo where his ankle was pinned. He is now resting at home.

It might be noted that Blassingame was safe on third and a substitute runner was able to score for First Baptist A. However, St. Ann's A managed to take the win, 15-17.

Board Reviews Test Results

Results of the proficiency tests administered to students were reviewed by the Loraine School Board at Monday night's monthly meeting.

Administered through the back-to-basics policy, Superintendent L. R. Dunn noted that "overall, we were well pleased with the results."

Dunn said, "We found a definite correlation between academic grades, achievement test scores and the proficiency test scores."

Resignations from three teachers were accepted by the board. Cheryl Stephens (kindergarten teacher), Gay Carpenter (second grade teacher) and Robert Guess (secondary science teacher) resigned.

Recommendations for appointments of three professional personnel were approved by the board. Karen Rose, will be second grade teacher, Annette Hollingshead will be Title I Resource teacher and Frederico Hernandez will be band director.

Also discussed by the board was the counselor's position in Loraine School. Previously, Preston Lightfoot acted as counselor for Westbrook School and Loraine School, but Lightfoot retired this year.

The board approved the motion to employ a teacher who would work halftime dealing with counseling duties and halftime teaching.

In discussing the leave of absence policy for members of the professional staff in the Loraine School, the board decided that if a teacher decides to take a leave of absence, the position will not be held open, but when the teacher returns, he will be given first consideration for the job.

The board approved a policy to allow a two day personal leave per year for members of the professional staff. Dunn noted that the leave is non-cumulative and will only be granted with prior approval by the superintendent.

In other business, the board approved contracts for Mrs. Wanda Hamilton, tax assessor-collector for the school district.

Use of the school gym during the summer months was discussed by the board. It was decided that the gym would be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 8-10 p.m. There will be a coach on duty during that time.

Granting a 25c per hour increase for auxiliary personnel was another item of business transacted by the board.

The board also approved membership in the Education Service Center, Region 14, for the 1978-79 school year.

Slated on the agenda for the meeting was discussion of the feasibility of holding a bond election but because of a time factor--the meeting continued until 1 a.m.--it was decided to hold a called session to review the matter.

"Try 78° this summer. You'll save on your electric bill."
"For saving money on energy bills this summer, Texas Electric recommends a temperature setting of no lower than 78°. This may be higher than you're used to. But when it's 90° or more outside, you'll find that 78° is pretty comfortable after all.
There are a lot of other ways you can help cut down on the amount of electricity you use this summer. For our free tips booklet on ways to lower your bill, call Texas Electric, or request the booklet on the comment section of your electric bill.
And give 78° a try. We think you'll find it comfortable, and you'll sure notice the difference on your electric bill."

the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's office. This is a required course and completely funded by the state to acquaint J.P.s with the legal processes.

"Ruby has done a real fine job in Westbrook," Shackelford commented.

Carter also announced for general information a workshop to be held June 20-21 for personnel handling traffic control around work sites.

Jail standards were again a topic of discussion after the commissioners received correspondence in reply to their request for a ruling from the office of the attorney general in regard to salaries to be paid to jailers required by the Jail Standards Commission.

The letter indicated the commissioners had full authority to set the salary of the jailers and because a deputy was in residence at the jail and the intercom system is to be installed, the jail may qualify for a variance in the ruling requiring additional jailers.

Revenue sharing will be down next year according to a report given by Carter from $141,616 to $118,539. He stated this is due to an estimated decrease in population and successful county tax collections.

Mrs. Geneva Bynum was officially hired by the commissioners on a part time basis to act as secretary and assistant to District Clerk Bill Erwin. Mrs. Bynum acted as district clerk during Erwin's recent illness and absence.

A note of levity due to "red-tape" was inserted into the meeting as Carter read a long series of correspondence which began Jan. 23 with the transportation of Renauldo Garcia to Root Memorial Hospital with injuries allegedly requiring his transfer to Hendrix Memorial Hospital in Abilene.

Commissioners chuckled at the entanglement of "red tape" but noted that this was a serious matter in need of resolution. "We might want to use the hospital in an emergency again and if they have lost faith in us they could deny entry since they are a private hospital," Carter stated.

The issue was who is responsible for the debt incurred by Garcia, a city prisoner at the time he was admitted to Hendrix.

Garcia, arrested by city police just after being involved in an accident, was transported to county jail awaiting charges.

The county transported him to Root for medical attention. They were reportedly told by the doctor on duty he needed specialized attention which they were unable to give, so the prisoner was taken to Hendrix in Abilene.

Unaware the man was not officially charged and not a responsibility of the county, the deputy informed Hendrix, the county would be responsible for the debt. Upon returning to the county the deputy was told to contact the hospital and correct the error, which he did.

Hendrix billed the city. The police department declined payment because they had not authorized the transfer and suggested billing the patient.

Hendrix rebilled the county and the county requested a ruling from County Attorney Pat Barber. Barber reviewed the situation and declared Root Memorial Hospital District responsible since Garcia had been declared an indigent after charges were filed and the hospital district must care for needy in the district.

The hospital district declined to pay the debt on grounds the doctor on duty had no authority to act for the district in the transfer.

Hendrix billed the county again with a request for assistance.

After hearing all the letters, Commissioner Paul Hunter suggested the matter be presented to the City Council since the incident had begun with that entity. The commissioners agreed.
