Walter Rogers Checks Great Plains Program

Congressman Walter Rogers toured Collingsworth County Monday, September 28, as part of his tour to see for himself the work that is going forward under the Great Plains Program for soil conservation.

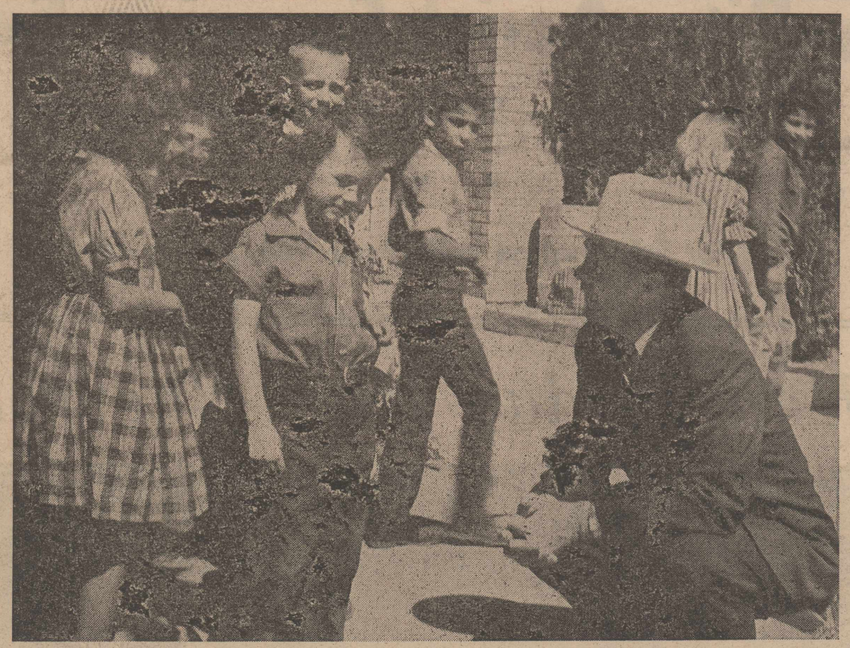

With a group of county farmers, Wellington business men and Soil Conservation Service personnel, he inspected several great plains projects, then took time out to visit boys and girls at Samnorwood School, eat lunch with them and make a short speech.

Rogers talked with farmers who have their land under Great Plains contracts and heard their reactions. He walked over lush pastures that once were worn out fields on Paul Starr's farm at Quail and inspected tanks under construction on the Bourland Ranch at Marella.

Great Plains work was pointed out to him on land owned by James Doneghy, John McIntush, Roland Jenkins, W. C. Harwell, Charles Allen, Durant McInnis and Zook Thomas.

With Duane Bartee, area conservationist of Soil Conservation Service, Rep. Rogers made other stops to inspect the Great Plains program in Gray, Wheeler and Donley counties. In the latter, they visited farming operations of Mr. Doneghy and John Nash, both of this county.

Included on the tour were Thomas, John Coleman, Mr. Starr, Bob Lynch, Mr. Rogers, Mr. Bartee, Billy Davis of McLean, Deskins Wells, Polly O'Neil, Herbert Bearden, Fred Bourland, Judge Luther Gribble, Paul Spillman, Wood Coleman, Tom Cunningham, Alton Pyburn, Millard Brown, Paul Bell and Fred Squyres, work unit conservationist of SCS, who was in charge of the Collingsworth County portion of the tour.

CONGRESSMAN AND YOUNG CONSTITUENT

Congressman Walter Rogers got an unscheduled visit with a group of second and third grade students at Samnorwood School Monday as they returned to class from a gym period. Here he talks to Kenneth Kirkland about school work. Looking on are Donna Clay, Sandra Hankins, Andy Lowe, Arnulfo Gonzales, and at right Simon Garza. The little girl second from right was not identified.

Officers Called to Dodson Fight

Wellington officers were called to Dodson Sunday, September 27, to investigate what was reported to them as a rock and knife fight among Mexican cotton pullers in that town.

Sheriff John Rainey said that by the time Deputy Kenneth Hodge could reach there, the fighters had scattered, apparently to Okla., and only one could be located.

Charges of disturbing the peace were filed against Carlos White, about 20, in Justice Court, where he was fined $10 and costs by Judge Raymond Horton. The man is laying out the fine in Memphis Jail, Sheriff Rainey said.

Rogers Speaks to Norwood Students

Khrushchev was a comparatively little known man in the Communist inner circle when I visited Russia in 1955, Congressman Walter Rogers told students and faculty members of Samnorwood Rural High School in an address there Tuesday. It is bound to have taken a lot of ruthless activity and alert cunning for him to rise from a minor position to one of absolute power over the 16 Soviet Republics in four short years, he declared.

The occasion of Rogers visit to Samnorwood was the mid-day stop of a soil conservation tour that included representatives from Collingsworth, Wheeler and Gray counties. Superintendent Orville Cunningham took the group through the school plant including the newly enlarged and remodeled gymnasium.

I believe Khrushchev desire to visit the United States was largely inspired by the recent visit of Mikoyan who was greatly impressed by our supermarkets and the ability of the American farmer to produce food.

In the United States, Rogers said, one farmer produces enough food for twenty people and in the USSR one farmer produces enough food for only three people. As a result the Communists must keep seven times as many people on the farms in order to feed the Russian people. As a result these people can't be used in industry and this has been a contribution to peace.

Rogers expressed satisfaction at the reception given Khrushchev by the people who crowded the streets of the cities where the Russian leader visited. The people were polite, orderly and courteous, the Congressman said. There were no enthusiastic demonstrations or cheering as there have been for the leaders of other nations for that would have been a lie as far as the people feel about Khrushchev and the Communists. They simply conducted themselves as people in a Christian nation should.

Rogers did deplore one incident occurred at the time of Khrushchev's visit in Washington. He said that one man and his wife, who ran a small private school near Washington, appeared on the route of the parade carrying black flags with a white skull and crossbones.

The grand jury of 100th district court, in a called session Monday, September 28, recommended to the commissioners court that it consider the possibility of hiring a deputy sheriff for Dodson, District Attorney John T. Forbis reported.

Old Paper Pickup October 2

Friday, October 2, is the date for the old newspaper pickup, Mrs. John Coleman has reminded.

City residents should have their papers out early, in large sacks or boxes so they will not scatter. Mothers of kid baseball players will pick up the papers some time during the day.

At Canyon Friday

Rockets in First HS Game at Buff Stadium

Wellington Skyrockets play in the first high school game in West Texas State College's new Buffalo Stadium Friday night, October, 2, when they meet the Canyon Eagles.

This will be the second game played in the Stadium, the Panhandle's largest.

It will also be one of the hardest games for the Rockets, Coach Lindsey pointed out. The Eagles have won both AA games this season, with Perryton and Tulia, and lost only to the Class AAA Dumas Demons.

Coached by Bill Davis, the Eagles can take more than one route to victory. When its usually reliable wide plays were halted at Perryton, Canyon went up the middle and through the air to trample the Perryton Rangers 26-0.

The Eagles hard-nosed ground attack can go outside as well as inside, and Coach Davis' ace in the hole is quarterback Jerry Richardson, whose only trouble so far this season is finding a receiver who can handle his teriffic passes.

The Eagles ground attack features the slashing of fullback Chuck Nester and Tommy Henderson, who have accounted for nearly half the Eagles gain rushing this season.

Other fine running backs are Richardson and halfbacks, Jim Marrs and Mike Poole.

In addition to his outstanding passing ability, Richardson is probably one of the finest quarterbacks in area AA circles. His fakes consistently have baffled the opposition, while his timely passing keeps the defense off balance.

Although considered lightweights, the Eagles line is largely responsible for the success of Coach Davis ground attack.

The Smallish line, which averages only around 160 pounds, simply has outcharted the defense to open holes for the backfield. Leading the charges have been guards Zeke Clement and Billy Triplett, tackles Henderson who alternates at fullback, and Jack Breitling and center Bill Cornette.

A reliable feature of the Eagles is what is known in football circles as the "lonesome end" formation. It unbalances the line, but it works.

Physically, the Rockets will be ready to go. Weldon Cleveland's sprined ankle is about mended and Lonnie Roark, injured in the game Friday night with Lefors, was able to report for workout Monday.

Probably Eagle Starters are:

Jerry Richardson, quarterback; Jim Marrs and Mike Poole, half back; Chuck Nester, fullback and co-captain of the team, Jim Killingsworth and Ronnie Harris, ends; Tommy Jenderson, and Jack Breitling, tackles and both co-captains; Billy Triplett and Zeke Clement, guards and Bill Cornette, center.

Hospitality Tea for Working Women

Wellington Business and Professional Women will observe National Business Women's Week with a hospitality tea Sunday, October 4, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the home of Mrs. John Coleman, president, at 1301 Floydada Street.

All women employed in public work of any kind in the county are invited to the tea, Mrs. Coleman said.

"This courtesy is extended to all women in appreciation of service rendered in the community," she continued. "The Club hopes to reach women in all types of work, those who do work in their homes or others homes, such as baby sitting, practical nursing and others."

Written invitations will not be sent, and this general invitation is for all interested women.

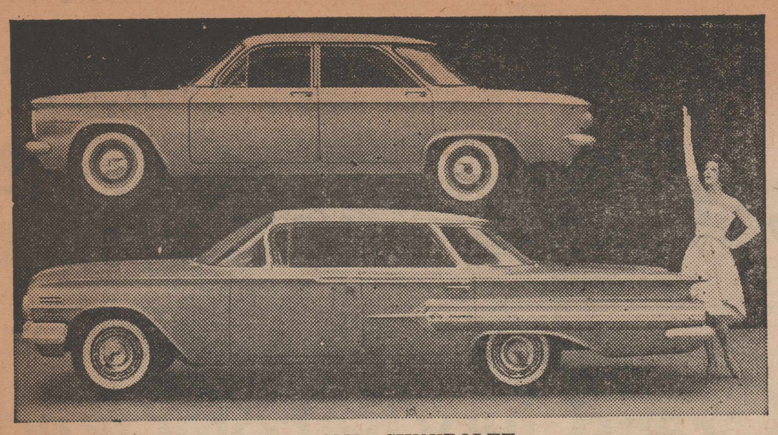

"This is our challenge to you to greet your friends as a united group working for a worthwhile conditions for women and appreconditions for women and apprreciation for a job well done," Mrs. Coleman declared.

National Business Women's Week opens Sunday and will continue through the week.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT MEETS NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

After Congressman Walter Rogers had made a short serious talk to boys and girls of Samnorwood high school during his visit to the county Monday, September 28, he took time out to visit informally with groups of students. Here he talks with Marie Martindale about the friendship necklace she was wearing. In the picture with her are Randall Murry, Joel Lowry, Mary Shields, Margie Conner (directly behind Marie), Bill Bentley, Gene Sherwood and Kenneth Martindale. Standing at right with the Congressman is Supt. Orville Cunningham.

NEW COMPACT CORVAIR AND CHEVROLET

A strong family resemblance between the all-new Corvair and Chevrolet's conventional line of passenger cars for 1960 is evident in this unusual profile view. At 180 inches, however, the Corvair is more than two and one-half feet shorter, while its 108-inch wheelbase compares with 119 on the Impala Sport Sedan with which it appears. Elegance and chassis refinements characterize the larger Chevrolets in an offering of 16 passenger models. The Corvair introduces an array of compact mechanical innovations designed to provide the riding and driving qualities demanded by the American buyer. The Corvair and conventional model will be in dealer showrooms Oct. 2.

New Size Concept

Chevrolet Introduces New Corvair Oct. 2

The revolutionary Corvair, long a target of speculation in the automobie world, makes its debut this week along the distinctive new conventional line of 1960 Chevrolet passenger cars.

On display in dealer showrooms for the first time, October 2, the complete presentation offers 19 models, ranging from the compact six-passenger Corvair to a series of Impalas described as the most luxurious ever introduced in the low-price field.

The trail-blazzing Corvair, product of a nine-year research and development program, offers a compact car specially designed to meet American standards of comfort, convenience, safety and performance at lower initial cost and greater economy of operation.

Special features include a flat, air-cooled engine mounted at the rear, unitized body with virtually flat passenger compartment floor, swing-type rear axle with independent springing at all four wheels.

The conventional line of Chevrolets also boasts progressive modifications. The styling is distinctive, with outstanding newness in the front and rear sectors. Passenger space is roomier, more comfortable and richly fitted. A new economy V8 engine is among chassis improvements that promise greater durability and satisfaction.

The Corvair will be offered in two models, the standard and the deluxe Corvair 700, both six-passenger four-door sedans.

Body types in the Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne series combined include a total of three four-door sedans; two two-doors; two sport coupes; two sport sedans; a convertible and a utility sedan. The Corvette sports car and five station wagons round out the 1960 Chevrolet passenger car line.

A pioneering achievement, the Corvair offers many features which are new to American-made automobiles. Designed specifically for the compact car market, it has these dimensions:

Wheel base, 108. Overall length, 180 inches. Height, four feet, three inches. Width, 66.9 inches. Weigth 2340 pounds.

Quality, comfort, performance and safety were coupled with low initial and operating costs as basic objectives. A low, airy appearance in the modern styling tradition and convenience features such as the automatic transmission, were also tailored to American standards. How well Chevrolet succeeded in this purpose can be illustrated by the following summary:

COMFORT — The overall size and roominess of the Corvair could not have been accomplished with an ordinary design. By virtue of the rear powertrain mount, the driveline tunnel has been eliminated. The passenger compartment floor is virtually flatt Lower seat positioning helps provide plenty of headroom.

Fore-and-aft weight balance is ideal for a short wheelbase car.

THE SUPERLATIVE '60 CHEVY

This is the one that says '60 like no other car. From its clean-thrusting grille to its dapper rear deck, there's so much that's new and different about this superlative Chevrolet it stands out from the rest like a fresh-minted coin. And you'll be just as wide-eyed over what's inside—the relaxing roominess, tasteful trim, hushed elegance of its new Body by Fisher, all comfortably cradled by Full Coil springs at all four wheels. Yet, sumptuous as this new Chevy is, it's got all the thrifty virtues that make it unmistakably a Chevrolet—with new economy of operation, new dependability, new longer life. Here, then, we're confident both you and your budget will joyously agree, is the nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came!

Here's the car that introduces a whole new decade of design—with so much that's new and different the others can only hope to come close.

It's the superlative '60 Chevrolet—with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, new splendor in every clean-etched line.

Freshly shaped contours rake back from the unified new grille to the jaunty rear deck, fitted with craftsmanship you'd expect only on the most expensive makes. Inside, the solidly built new Body by Fisher surrounds you with finely tailored fabrics and spacious elegance. There's room to sprawl in, room to sit tall in—generously provided by Chevy's sofa-wide seats and extra margin of hat space. And there's even more leg room for the man in the middle—thanks to the way Chevrolet engineers have shaved down the transmission tunnel.

Out on the road, as Chevy's Full Coil ride will persuade you most gently, there's not a car near the price that comes close to the hushed comfort of this one. Adding to your sense of silence and solidity are thicker, newly designed rubber body mounts that do an even more efficient job of isolating road shock and noise.

Quiet, quick-responding power is provided by a choice of two standard engines—Chevy's famed Hi-Thrift 6 and a new Economy Turbo-Fire V8 that gets up to 10% more miles out of a gallon of regular while delivering greater engine torque at normal speeds. There's also a choice of five other V8's and five transmissions, to assure the exact power combination to satisfy the itch in your driving foot. Chevy's accent on comfort and convenience even extends back to its easier-to-load luggage compartment. You'll also find a convenient new parking brake that automatically returns to normal height after application, a new clutch linkage that filters out engine impulses more effectively than ever and new two-toning motif available on all 16 fresh-minted models.

But, impressive as all this may look in print, there's really only one way to tell how near to perfection this superlative '60 Chevrolet actually comes . . . and that's to drop in on your dealer and drive one!

Independent suspension limits unsprung weight to a minimum. Unitized construction increases torsional rigidty of the body by 30 per cent. An airplane-type gasoline heater supplies almost instant warmth.

EFFICIENTY — Astute design and the use of aluminum have created an engine 40 per cent lighter than those of others in the Corvair's 80 horsepower rating. It gets from 25 to 40 per cent more miles on a gallon of gasoline than a regular six-cylinder engine. Air-cooling eliminates need for a radiator. The flat engine lends itself to ready servicing by Chevrolet's 7,200 dealers, all of whom will stock parts and accessories.

ECONOMY — The Corvair weighs ony 2,340 pounds, about 1,300 less than conventional size cars. Light weight helps improve gasoline mileage. The assembly of chassis components to body structure saves 60 per cent of the weight of a separate frame. Important weight economies are further involved in eliminating the customary driveline, the radiator and other accessories of the water-cooling system. No antifreeze is required.

HANDLING — The car's light weight and the all-new 6-cylinder engine makes possible a performance comparable to larger contemporaries. The overall length of only 15 feet aids maneuverability in traffic and parking. Light front-end loading and a new gear design assure ease in steering. weight at the rear improves traction and braking, and reduces the danger of skids. The flat engine and resultant low center of gravity contribute to the excellent cornering qualities.

THE REVOLUTIONARY
Corvair
BY CHEVROLET

There's nothing like a new car—and no compact car like this de luxe Corvair 700.

Here's the car created to conquer a new field—Chevrolet's low-priced compact Corvair.

The product of nine years of research and development, it's America's first truly compact car that retains the ride and 6-passenger comfort you're used to in a big one.

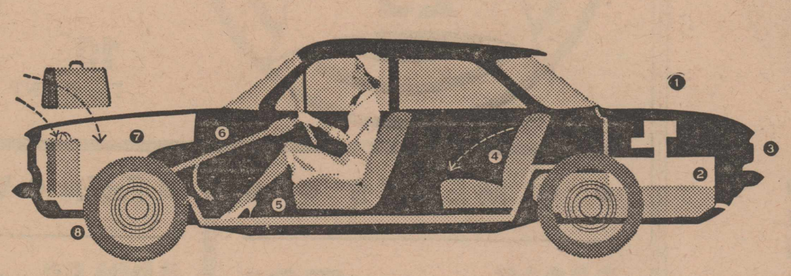

The key to this small miracle: America's only rear-mounted aluminum engine—a lightweight 6 that's so revolutionary it can be packaged with the transmission and drive gears as one compact unit.

With the engine in the rear, the Corvair's floor is virtually flat, front and rear, so there's plenty of foot room for everybody. Combined with Corvair's unique body-frame construction by Fisher, this provides interior spaciousness comparable to many postwar conventional-sized cars.

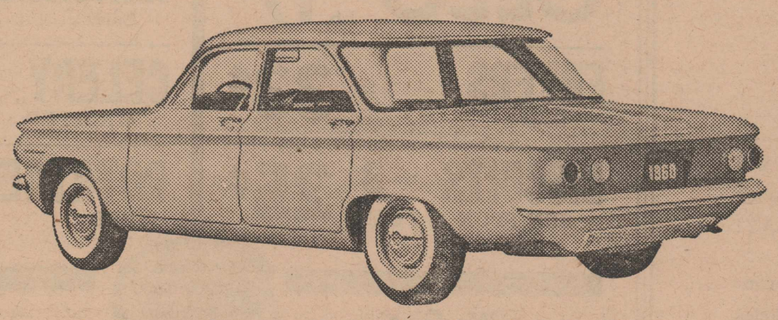

Shifting engine weight to the rear also makes for easier compact car handling and gives glued-to-the-road traction on ice, mud or snow. And with independent suspension at all 4 wheels—an advance comparable to the independent suspension of front wheels years ago—you get a poised, unruffled ride that rivals even the costliest cars.

These are all things no front-engine compact car can give you. And with them you get outstanding economy and practicality that would never have been possible if Chevrolet engineers had been content to make the Corvair merely a sawed-off version of a big car. Corvair's size—some 5 inches lower, 2½ feet shorter and 1,300 pounds lighter than conventional sedans—makes it a joy to jockey through busy streets, a pleasure to park (no need for power assists). Its revolutionary Turbo-Air 6 gets up to 30% more miles on a gallon of regular. And, because the engine's air cooled, you never have to fuss with antifreeze, you get quicker warmup (even heat for passengers comes—almost instantly—from an airplane-type heater*). Wonderfully practical, yes. But you'll find the most practical thing of all about Corvair is its remarkably low price. Your dealer's the man to see for all the short, sweet details.

America's only car with an airplane type horizontal engine!
America's only car with independent suspension at all 4 wheels!
America's only car with an air-cooled aluminum engine!

The engine's in the rear where it belongs in a compact car!

You have your choice of two Corvairs—this one's the standard model.

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer

1 REVOLUTIONARY TURBO-AIR 6
Gets up to 30% more miles on a gallon, needs no antifreeze, provides quicker warmup with less wear on parts. It's the world's first production 6 with the ultra-smooth, space-saving power of horizontally opposed (not vertical or V-stroke) pistons.

2 ONE-PACKAGE POWER TEAM
Wraps rear engine, transmission and differential into one compact unit. Takes less room, leaves you more.

3 STYLING—PURE AND SIMPLE
Clean, uncluttered lines shape both 4-door models—the de luxe Corvair 700 and the standard Corvair. Each has its own distinctive trim, and you get more visibility area than in many full-sized cars.

4 FOLD-DOWN REAR SEAT*
Works instantly, adding to Corvair's versatility by enlarging rear seat cargo space to 17.6 cu. ft.

5 FLAT FLOOR
Corvair is America's only compact car with a practically flat floor, the only one with the kind of relaxing room that U.S. motorists are used to.

6 UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER
Does away with conventional frame, incorporating all structure into a rigid body-frame unit that gives you more inside room with less weight.

7 UNDER-HOOD LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT
Trunk's up front (like an elephant's) where it's convenient for groceries, shopping bags, luggage.

8 4-WHEEL INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION
There's no conventional axle—front or rear. Wheels, cushioned by coil springs, take bumps independently of each other, for smooth, road-hugging ride.

*Optional at extra cost.

Classic Sophistication

1960 Pontiac Shows New Exterior Styling

Dramatic new design concepts, accentuating overall appearance of classic sophistication, distinguish Pontiac exterior styling in 1960. Sixteen new body styles feature long flowing lines gracefully complemented by soft curves and sculptured highlights.

Clean low roof lines meeting generous glass areas, add further distinctiveness to the formal styling simplicity.

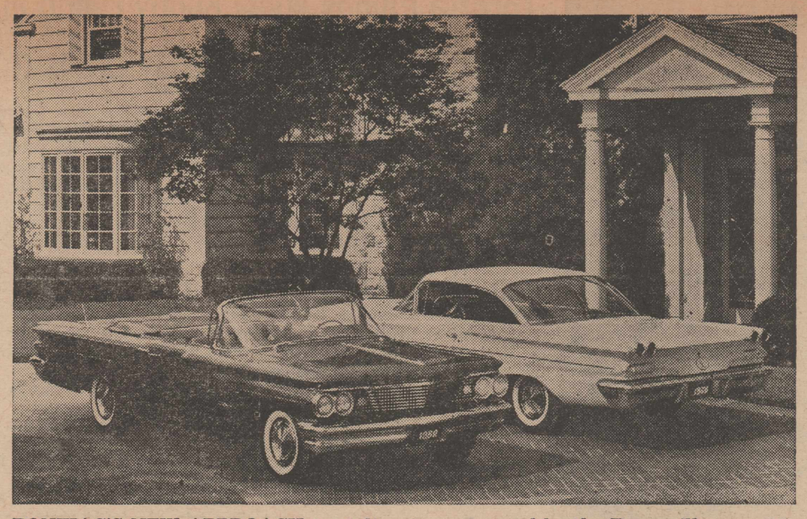

Embellishing the exciting designs are lustrous fade resistant Magic-Mirror acrylic lacquers in 15 new solid colors and 60 recommended two-tone combinations. Included in the vivid selection are such colors as Coronado Red, Skymist Blue, Palomino Beige, Berkshire Green, Stardust Yellow, Mahogany, and Sierra Copper.

A spectacular V-shaped front end is formed by a classic grille of seven horizontal chromed bars topped by a stylish hood of airfoil design. Twin headlamps, flanked on the inside by parking and signal lamps, are mounted at each end of the grille. In the center of the hood is a long, slender blade moulding a sculptured channel which flares outward from the cowl to the "Pontiac" block letters above the grille. An impressive onepiece wrap-around bumper of contoured design projects forward to continue the new "V" styling theme.

Sculptured side styling presents a subtle wind appearance extending along both front and rear fenders into the door panels. Tailored, straight-line side mouldings-spanning the entire length of the car, the other bordering the rear fender wing -enhance the quiet good taste. Script nameplates adorn the forward areas of both front fenders. Bonneville models are distinguished by a crest in the lower front fender area and three horizontal ports of vaned design integral with the lower rear fender moulding. Four star emblems readily identify the Star Chief series. New stainless steel and chrome plated wheel discs feature either a recessed or spinner design with "Pontiac Motor Division" imprinted in the center.

Breath-taking jet age design characterize new Pontiac rear styling. Twin trailing nacelles, decking the wenders, extend rearward from the back window to house dual tail lamps encircled in chrome. The tail lamps and an imposing deck lid top artistic sculpturing flowing downward from arrow shaped backup ports to the massive wrap-around bumper. Decorating the lower deck panel are block letters denoting Bonneville or Ventura series, and spelling "Pontiac" for Star Chief and Catalina models. An oval-shaped fuel filler door, centered below the lettering, mounts an ornamental gold and white Pontiac medallion which also serves as a handle.

Safari station wagon rear styling is distinguished by single tail lamps, the Safari name in script, and an extension of the backup port trim moulding across the tail gate to form a narrow rectangle around the Bonneville or Pontiac name. The fuel filler door is on the side of the left rear fender.

PONTIAC'S NEW APPROACH to styling is pronounced by the Bonneville convertible and the Ventura sport coupe, only two in a parade of 16 beautiful models introduced by Pontiac for 1960. Priced just above the Catalina series, the Ventura features special interior appointments, including seats trimmed entirely in Jewel-tone Morrokide. The Ventura is also available in a four-door hardtop Vista model.

County's Study Clubs Hold Opening Sessions Preparing for New Year

Not all study is done in school, for Collingsworth County women are picking up their "text books" preparing for the work they will do in their study clubs this year.

These clubs, nearly a dozen in number, are made up of women of similar interests and activities. All ages are included. Most of the clubs are members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and follow its recommendations for certain studies. For instance, all member clubs devote one program to Texas each year, another to the study of federation.

Only one, the Wellington Federated Music Cub, was organized for a specific purpose, the study of music.

In Wellington, the study clubs are the Domestic Science Club, 1924 Study Club, Excelsior Club, Belles Lettres Club, 1954 Study Club., Wellington Book Club and Wellington Federated Music Club.

In Dodson, the Dodson Civic Club serves these women's needs, and at Quail the Quail Friendship Club.

1954 Study Club

The 1954 Study Club will open its club year with a luncheon, Thursday, October 8, in the home of Mrs. Billy Hatch. Co-hostess with Mrs. Hatch will be Mrs. Lynn Wright, Mrs. James Richardson and Mrs. H. L. Duncan.

Officers, who are chosen for two-year terms, are Mrs R. L. Templeton, president; Mrs. Calvin Hurst, 1st vice president; Mrs. Billy Hatch, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Fred Squyres, secretary; and Mrs. Grant Wooldridge, treasurer.

"Invest in Knowledge", is the theme chosen for the year.

This is Wellington's youngest study club and is made up of younger matrons of the town.

The study course is not the full extent of their work, however, for they include projects that touch on civic improvement. Soil conservation is a part of their yearly study.

Domestic Science Club

The Domestic Science Club, Wellington's oldest study club, will open the new year with a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. John Sherman on October 8.

The club is varying its study this year to include the two new states, several foreign countries and programs on Russia and the Civil War. The club is stressing safety this year.

While the members themselves will participate in the programs, a number of guest speakers will be presented. Wellington residents and former residents who have toured or lived in Alaska, Hawaii and Scotland will be featured at the program on those states and country.

1924 Study Club

A luncheon in the home of Mrs. James Sullivan on October 1 will open the club year for the 1924 Study Club. Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Sullivan will be other members of the year book committee. Mrs. Henry Vaughan, Mrs. J. F. Michael and Mrs. Bobo Castleberry.

"A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." (John 13:34.)

The command to love was not a new one. To love neighbor as self was given long before Jesus said, "A new commandment I give."

The degree of love was new; "even as I have loved you." "Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren." The new command was not just to love but that we love "even as" he loved.

Census Taker Begins Asking Questions April 1

It's hard to believe that almost 10 years have rolled around since the last nose count was made in the nation, but 1960 will bring about an answer.

Besides the usual queries on name, age, and address, they will also inquire as to:

Times married? Use bathtub or shower? How do you get to work? Do you havea washing machine, TV, radio, clothes dryer, food freezer and airconditioner?

All are part of the 18th Decenual Census of the United States.

The census taker won't be knocking on doors until April 1. But during March the mail will bring the Advance Census Report Form to every household in the United States.

This will ask seven questions about each person in your household and four about your dwelling.

Your answers to all questions will be held in strict confidence by the Department of Commerce. But the census taker could be the guy next door, and he'll know all the answers.

But he is sworn to confidence under penalty of law.

He will have obtained his job on referral from the local Republican Party organization, as part of the long-standing political patronage system.

Enumerators do the doorknocking.

They will get paid on a piece work basis, designed to yield about $12 per day for "diligent work." Crew leaders are in charge of 15 to 20 enumerators; they get $15.50 for an eight hour day.

Enumerators' jobs will last two to four weeks; leaders' five to eight weeks. Job applicants will be told where to apply by press and radio in December or January.

Don't apply unless you're American, 18 and over, "physically vigorous with good hearing or vision", or if you are in a law enforcement or taxation organization, on a federal pension, or are a political officeholder.

There are hosts of more restrictions, due to be published at year's end.

Democrats were in power in 1940 and 1950, so the 1960 census gives the GOP the first chance at the census payroll since 1930, when Herbert Hoover was President.

The first census was held in 1790. The nose count was 3,929,214. This time it will be about 180,000,000.

Millions of people and the thousands of organizations use census figures. Every program planned by the government, Congress, the armed forces, business, labor, and local government needs them.

First results of the census will be in by late April and May. They will include population totals of cities 10,000 and up.

The Census Bureau is required by law to report state figures to the President by December 1, 1960. Population and housing reports are scheduled for publication in 1961. Some detailed reports will not be out until 1942.

For the first time the census will be tabulated by electronic computors.

In charge of the program was Mrs. E. F. Bartlett and those taking part was Mrs. Bill Long, speaking on "Our need to Conserve our Oil and Water to Maintain Our Peace." Mrs. Calvin Hurst spoke on the work of UNESCO, Mrs. Robert Lewis explained how the work of UNICEF is helping other countries of the world toward better health and much better medical facilities.

Attending were Mmes. N. E. Masten, Robert Lewis, Ca. Hurst, J. L. Alexander, Henry Vaughan, W. R. Franks, Mayme Somerville, Bil Long, John Henard, E. F. Bartlett, James Sullivan, Gene Nelson, Lynn Courtney, Bob Lynch, R. L. Karnes and A. J. Fires.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tiffin Young last week end were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crowder of Fort Worth, also a son, Glenn, who is attending West Texas State at Canyon. The Crowders also visited with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crowder of Dodson and with a sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Wright of Wellington.

Points Given for Quicker VA Service

The Veterans Administration offers these suggestions for quicker, more efficient VA service:

To veterans—

1. When first seeking a benefit, bring a copy of your discharge, if available.

2. When writing VA always give full name and address.

3. When writing about benefit claims, address the VA regional office in your area and give your "C" number.

4. When writing about insurance, address the VA district office to which you mail your premiums, and give your policy number.

5. Report changes of address promptly to both VA regional and district offices.

6. Compensation or pension recipients can save time, money, and avoid a lapse, by having their insurance premiums deducted from their monthly benefit checks.

7. All other veterans can save time and money by paying their insurance quarterly, semi-annually or annually.

8. Keep your list of insurance beneficiaries up to date. VA can pay claims only to the names on record.

To dependents or beneficiaries of veterans—

1. When writing regarding pension or compensation checks, address the VA regional office in your area, and give the name of the deceased veterans and his "XC" number.

2. When writing regarding insurance, address the VA district office that sends you your check, giving the policy number and your name in full.

3. Report change of address promptly to both VA regional and district offices.

4. Feel free to write or visit a VA office for assistance in any problem.

Have Your Gas Stoves Inspected

Now is the time to have your gas heating equipment inspected and adjusted for winter use, Eldon Holley, Lone Star Gas Company manager, suggested today.

"By calling today to have your heating equipment serviced," he said, "you will avoid any delay. Heating service companies and Lone Star always receive hundreds of calls for service the day that cold weather hits. And this usually results in considerable delay in filling individual orders."

All users of gas central heating systems, floor furnaces, wall heaters, unit heaters and other gas heating equipment should call their heating equipment company or Lone Star Gas Company for this service, he said.

Wellington Volunteer Fire Department Deserves Support

Taken for granted year in and year out, Wellington's Volunteer Fire Department remains a stable protector of our property, both town and country. It is also one of the top small-town departments in the Panhandle. So it is not too much to observe National Fire Prevention Week by looking at our local fire department with an appreciative eye.

Certainly, the twenty-odd men who always make up the fire department like the work or they wouldn't be doing it. At the same time, they are performing a civic duty that saves this community thousands of dollars every year. Ask the man who has had a fire.

Often the blaze the firemen go out to handle is a minor episode. Somebody's burning trash got away. A little patch of grass caught fire, no one knows how. Or even a skillet of grease caught fire. But the fire, minor because of the efficient handling by same Wellington fireman, could be major if left to itself. Remember the Chicago cow that kicked the lantern.

It is not often that we hear criticism of our local fire department. The members aren't going to demand higher pay, as firemen have in some cities. They don't get any pay in the first place.

The Wellington Fire Department is one of the best investments of the taxpayers dollar that we have.

Protection is offered town and country citizens alike. Certainly, rural fire fighting will always have some limitations because of the distance the fire truck must travel and because lack of sufficient water usually limits firefighting to chemicals.

The few instances where the department has been slow getting to a country fire have been due to vague directions or inaccurate directions, so the firemen had to find the fire before they could fight it. Example: "The Smith's barn is on fire." End of conversation and click of telephone receiver. And firemen had to find out if it is Jim Smith's place or John Smith's five miles away and neither has a phone. Incidents like this have happened to the department.

These men give freely of their time for small fires, and even may risk their lives fighting large fires, and they deserve our support in every way, and our encouragement and commendation throughout the year.

If the rest of us gave as generously to the welfare of our community, things would be a lot better.

Here's the Law on Passing School Buses

Texas' largest transportation system is now in full swing—the State's fleet of more than 8,000 school buses. Furthermore, for the next nine months, these buses will carry the bulk of nearly 2,000,000 pupils to and from school each week day.

It is truly a Texas-size task to transport all these pupils—it is an even greater task to transport them safely. No one will deny the school bus driver has a tremendous responsibility.

But, says the Texas Safety Association, motorists are also charged with the safety of our school bus riding pupils. The State law is very precise on this point and reads as follows:

Sec. 104. Overtaking and Passing School Bus:

a. The driver of a vehicle upon a highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus, which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle immediately before passing the school bus, but may then proceed past such school bus at a speed which is prudent, not exceeding ten miles per hour, and with due caution for the safety of such children.

b. Every bus used for transportation of school children shall bear upon the front and rear thereon a plainly visible sign containing the words "school bus" in letters not less than eight inches in height.

c. The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled-access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is a part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I note that lots of the folks around here are now back from their vacations and showing pictures and lying about what a good time they had and how many miles per gallon they got.

My shook-down neighbor says it would be cheaper and less tiresome to stay at home, but we have got to uphold the good old See America Fast tradition.

So, when Summer sets in, all good citizens get out their cars, borrow the money, grit their teeth and bare their knees and go for the tourist snares.

I see where some people think all judges had ought to wear robes so as to give the courts more dignity and to maybe generate more respect for same.

My ranch-type neighbor says he knows some judges who would be respected if they came into court barefooted, but no robe can make this type of judge out of a pressure-sensitive politician.

Says a fancy wrapper don't do anything for a nickel cigar, and it's been proved that you can't make a bronco-buster out of a bank clerk by putting him in bow-legged pants.

I see where our Washington world-fixers are aiming to start passing out a stork inhibiter recipe to the people in over-populous countries.

My Republican neighbor says we had better keep some of this information for selective home use, on account of otherwise it looks like we are liable to get overstocked on Democrats.

Says, though, if we have got to wet-nurse the world by our Good Neighbor Policy and our Chump Uncle Policy, it ought to save us money in the long run to equip all possible foreigners with heir brakes.

I see where the Post Office Department is after a stiffer law to let its operatives decide what is fit for us people to get by mail.

My corruptible neighbor says he is glad our leaders are bent on keeping our nice clean minds safe from pornographic infection.

But he wishes they would also put a ban on the postoffice carrying monthly bills, which demoralize him much worse than reading about the petty details of some total stranger's sex life.

I see where House Speaker Rayburn's pet peeve is Democrat congressmen who sometimes vote against the party position.

My free-squealing neighbor says Mr. Sam would no doubt like it better if we just sent Democratic and Republic votes to Washington instead of these convertible congressmen.

Says this would save lots of money now spent on salaries, relatives, junkets, etc., and we could further frustrate official bedevilment by electing a veto for president.

I hear lots of complaint about bankers moving their loaning desks out in the open so the whole town can watch a borrower sweat.

Some say this practice is more inhumane than the public hanging, on account of at those old festivals the honoree at least was soon forgotten.

But my modern neighbor says anybody who don't like to be seen borrowing is just an old fogey who owes for the longest boat.

Had you ever thought that it is man's plow that has made the waters of our rivers thick with mud, leaving behind acres of barren sub-soil.

1960 Oldsmobiles Display Here Oct. 1

Mickey Kendrick of Kendick Oldsmobile announced today that the 1960 Oldsmobile will go on display in his showroom at 1110 8th Street beginning Thursday, October 1.

New crisply-tailored styling and a new balance of design are teamed with further advances in economy of operation in the 17 new Oldsmobile models for 1960, it was announced today by Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and a vice president of General Motors.

Wolfram stated that the 1960 Oldsmobile features a redesigned Rocket engine in the Dynamic "88" series for use with lower cost regular grade gasoline.

"This engine," said of Wolfram, "will give our customers an improvment of 15 per cent in miles per dollar — maintaining excellent performance."

In all series there are new rear axle ratios and many other engineering advancements. Two three-seat Fiestas have been added to Oldsmobile's station wagon line.

"From the trim curved grille to the cean-sweep of the rear deck, the 1960 Oldsmobile is the finest automobile we have ever built," Wolfram said.

"The balanced design of the car is new from every view — front, side and rear. We believe the new Oldsmobile has the styling our customers want, the full-family spaciousness they need and the luxurious interiors they asked," he said.

Bright chrome plated bars in groups of 3 give the 1960 Oldsmobile curved grille a wide, stable look even though the car itself is no wider than the 1959 models. Headlights are placed horizontally with the outboard pair set slightly behind the inboard pair. The parking lights are safely recessed in the wrap-around section of the bumper where they can be easily seen from front or side.

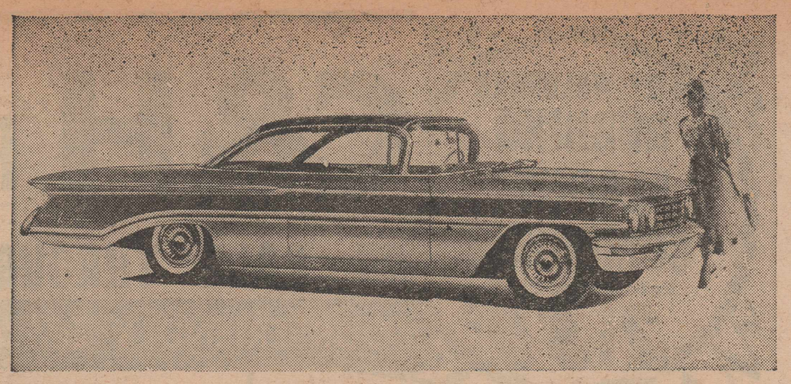

The lower and slightly rounded styling of the new front end aids maneuverability of the 1960 Oldsmobile, Wolfram said, especially in tight parking situations. Maneuverability is increased 2¼ to 3½ inches.

The flowing lines of the 1960 Oldsmobile are emphasized by an attractive chrome accent strip which starts at the headlight on the front fender, sweeps back to the rear quarter where it dips down to the lower edge and rearward to the new bumper.

Taillights are moulded into the rear fenders in a high, easy-to-see position. Below the attractive angled bumper is ribbed heavy gauge steel that completes the solid, built-to-the-road appearance of the new rear end.

Oldsmobile has developed a new balance of power and economy for 1960 in the Dynamic "88" series, Wolfram said. The Regular Rocket engine, standard for the series, is a high compression engine designed for the most efficient use of modern regular grade gasolines while maintaining excellent performance.

The adaptation of the Rocket engine for use with lower cost regular gasoline was accomplished through design changes in combustion chamber contour, piston and camshaft and the changing of the compression ratio to 8.75:1. The engine has a displacement of 371 cubic inches and develops 240 horsepower. It incorporates a new two-barrel "Econ-O-Way" carburetor recalibrated for maximum economy and power at the new compression ratio.

1960 OLDS HAS FRESH, SMOOTH LOOK

Designed for the start of a dynamic new decade is this 1960 Oldsmobile "98" Holiday Sceni-Coupe. The low, level hood treatment affords maximum visibility through the Vista-Panoramic windshield. This smooth look is carried through on rear fenders and the expansive rear deck. Heat-resistant glass is standard in the spacious rear window of all Sceni Coupe models. Adding smart accents to the front end styling are the horizontal grille louvers. The parking lights are safely recessed in the wrap-around section of the bumper where they can be easily seen from the front or side. The Holiday Sceni-Coupe body style is available in all Oldsmobile series for 1960.

Mrs. H. B. Lowrie was in Lawton, Oklahoma over the week end visiting with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lowrie and family who live there and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Uselton of Bridgeport who came up for the week end.

"They have some of the best Angus cattle I've ever seen outside the corn belt," Jim Jacobs vocational instructor, commented.

"We're still hunting more calves, possible shorthorns.

"We're going to make it pretty rough on the show circuit," he added.

News of Men in Service

HAWAIIAN ISLANDS (FHTNC) — Marine Acting Cpl. Roy D. Maxwell, son of Mrs. Lela R. Maxwell of Quail, Texas, participated in an amphibious training exercise, Sept. 20 to 23, in the Hawaiian Islands while serving with the First Marine Brigade.

Known as Operation "Clear Ridge", the exercise was a routine training operation involving Naval and Marine Forces, and designed to develop proficiency in planning and conducting an amphibious exercise.

After a live firing exercise on the island of Kahoolawe, amphibious troops stormed ashore under simulated battle conditions on the island of Kauai on D-day, Sept. 20.

A battalion of Marines were flown by helicopter from the carrier Princeton to position behind "enemy" lines, practicing the Corps' modern doctrine of "vertical envelopment".

Air support for the operation was furnished by 75 "Fury" and "Crusader" jets of Marine Aircraft Group 13.

A recreational visit to Pearl Harbor was made upon completion of the exercise.

GRAFENWOHR, Germany (AHTNC) — Army Pfc. Jimmy M. Langford, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Langford, 1205 Floydada Street, Wellington, Texas, is participating in a lengthy large-scale field training exercise with the 3rd Armored Division in Grafenwohr, Germany. The exercise is scheduled to be concluded October 17.

The training, which will be climaxed by a mock war pitting armored, artillery, aircraft and infantry units against realistic aggressor forces, is designed to test the combat readiness of the 3rd Armored Division, a major part of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Langford, a supply specialist in Headquarters Company of the division's 13th Cavalry in Kirch Gons, entered the Army in May 1958, completed basic training at Fort Hood, Texas, and arrived in Europe last November.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Quail High School.

His wife, Betty, is with him in Germany.

Norwood FFA Buys Cleaner

Samnorwood FFA has bought a seed cleaner, which will clean 12 crops, including wheat, oats, alfalfa, field peas, grain sorghums and almost all others that can be grown here.

Jim Jacobs, vocational ag instructor, said the boys will use it to clean their entries in the fairs next year.

The cleaner will not be operated commercially, Jacobs pointed out, athough farmers of the Samnorwood area may use it by special arrangement.

Thirty-one FFA members will pull cotton one day to pay for it. One hundred and fifty dollars is the goal.

Rockets Nip Lefors Pirates in Tight 8-6 Brawl

By Tom Wilkins

Wellington's Skyrockets continued to show their ability to win the close ones as they took a thrilling 8-6 triumph over the Lefors Pirates Friday at Powell Field. Thus ended the two year drouth which had found the Rockets on the short end of the score each time.

The Rockets trailing 6-0 late in the second quarter, brought hundreds of fans to their feet as they stormed back to go ahead 8-6 as the half ended. An exciting second half climaxed the thrilling contest as both squads fought to score again. As the game ended the half time score was still on the scoreboard Rockets 8, Pirates 6.

The first quarter was a defensive battle, with both teams exchanging punts and setbacks. Neither team could get up a sustained drive and the first quarter remained scoreless. It was apparent that the Rockets had been well scouted as the Pirates seemed to be on top of ever play.

The second quarter was the action packed period in which all of the scoring occured. The first score came as the Pirates drove and scored with three minutes left in the first half. The drive took nine players which started from their own five yard line. It was capped when Junior Taylor crashed over from the one yard line, point after failed Pirates 6, Rockets 0.

On the following kick off Ronnie O'Rear returned to the 35 yard line. On the next play Bruce Crosby uncorked a pass to Weldon Cleveland which resulted in a 55 yard gain, and the next play Dickie Elbert flipped a short pass to Lonnie Roark for the TD. Crosby to the air again and hit Elbert for the extra points. The half ended Rockets ahead 8-6.

The Pirates came back in the second half and played inspired football. They connected several passes and began gaining large amounts of yardage on the ground. As for the Rockets they just couldn't seem to get going. Nothing seemed to go right on offense. The Rockets ran very few plays the last half as the Pirates controlled the ball most of the time. Statictic wise the Rockets were out played, but when the final gun sounded the score told the story Rockets 8, Pirates 6.

From The Sideline

The worst blow to the Rockets Friday night was the injury of Lonnie Roark. Roark played brilliantly on defense and accounted for the Rockets only score. At this time the extent of his injury is not known but we are hoping that he will be back with us before long.

Well the Rockets try the Canyon, Eagles Friday night. The game will be played in the new Buffalo Stadium, in Canyon. The Rocket-Eagle clash will be the first high school game ever played in the mammoth stadium. This should be a very interesting game as both teams carry identical records of 3-1 into the game. Lets back the Rockets as they go to Canyon this week. BEAT CANYON!

A new world of style! A new world of savings!
A new world of performance! A new world of built-for-people comfort!
A new world of station wagon living!

On October 8, for the first time, there will be not one, not two, but three completely new kinds of Ford cars designed and priced for nine out of ten Americans:

The 1960 Fords—The Finest Fords of a Lifetime, beautiful from any Point of View, worth more from every Point of Value!

The 1960 Falcon—The New-size Ford, the world's most experienced new car, and the easiest car in the world to own!

The 1960 Thunderbird—The World's Most Wanted Car!

FORD—The Finest Fords of a Lifetime

Here are 15 new models! Economy-minded Fairlanes. Big-value Fairlane 500's. Elegant Galaxies. Five beautifully husky new station wagons. A sleek new Sunliner convertible and a brand-new hardtop model, the Starliner.

A wonderful new world of style. Ford's beautiful new proportions flow smoothly through an elegant Thunderbird-inspired roof to swift rear-quarter lines.

A wonderful new world of performance. For action, there are new Thunderbird V-8's that blend blazing power and acceleration with kid-glove smoothness.

A wonderful new world of ride. With Ford's new Wide-Tread Design, wheels are spread farther apart for a full 5-foot tread. It handles and rides like the Thunderbird!

A wonderful new world of economy. Ford's Mileage Maker Six and Thunderbird 292 V-8 and 352 V-8 all travel beautifully on regular gas at savings up to a dollar a tankful. And go 4,000 miles between oil changes.

A wonderful new world of built-for-people comfort. Six big people—including the man-in-the-middle—ride in greater comfort than ever. The new Fords give you as much as 4 inches more shoulder room, more knee room, more hip room. You relax on chair-high seats.

A wonderful new world of safety. Ford's big safety news for 1960 includes new Truck-Size Brakes with brake linings 25% bigger. Ford's new Safety-Girder Frame is 25% stronger than ever before. Better visibility, too.

FALCON—The New-Size Ford

Here is the welcome news Americans have been waiting for . . . the Falcon, a product of Dearborn, Michigan, automotive capital of the world, was expressly designed for American needs on the American road. It's the one economy car without the economy-car look.

Averages up to 30 miles per gallon. Experience Run, U.S.A., proved it! Oil savings? Ford's standard Full-Flow Oil Filter stretched oil changes 4,000 miles apart.

The engine's up front for greater safety and stability. Built brand-new for the Falcon, the short-stroke Falcon Six was developed, and mounted up front, according to long-proved, thoroughly accepted engineering principles.

1960 Falcon seats six with ease. Six fit comfortably into the Falcon—and it swallows luggage for six in the big rear trunk that holds 23 cu. ft. Compare this with others!

Easiest car in the world to own. A Falcon is so easy on the wallet that it's easier than ever to be a 2-Ford family!

THUNDERBIRD—
The World's Most Wanted Car

For 1960, the Ford Thunderbird is distinctively new—without basically disturbing the famous profile that has made it America's new fine-car favorite. It's the most wanted car of all!

No matter who you are . . . or what your tastes and needs . . . there's an exciting 1960 Ford styled, sized and priced for you. See your Ford Dealer October 8!

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

This county needs at least a thousand cotton pullers and the thing is we needed them last week. On an acre basis the 1959 crop is expected to rival that of 1949 provided the growers can get it gathered. Grades thus far have been exceptionally good and the farmers are getting more and more anxious to get it to the gin while the cotton is still white.

Anybody who thinks that a congressman can take it easy when Congress is not in session ought to have been on the conservation trip with Walter Rogers last Monday. In fact a Congressman stays just as busy when he is at home as he does in Washington. The demands on his time are incessant. Sunday Walter Rogers will return to Washington to resume committee work. He is a member of the sub-committee that is now investigating radio and TV. quiz shows. He says that the investigation to date has revealed practices on some quiz shows that are unbelievably raw. It is startling to discover some of the things that have been done on these shows, he observed. It is abuses like this that cause the Government to have to step in.

Incidentally our congressman was looking as fit as an athlete and ten years younger than his actual age. He radiated health and good cheer as he joked and laughed with the school children of Samnorwood.

There was an interesting advertisement in our want ad section last week. It was signed Lindy McDaniel. I phone his father, Newell, who lives near Dodson, to find out if it was "the" McDaniel who pitches for the Cardinals. Sure enough it was. He wants a nice furnished house for four months or a furnished apartment. It would be nice to have this splendid young man living in our midst. How about it Brother Paul Starr, can't you Church of Christ people figure out some way to get this young man a furnished home for four months. Perhaps the Chamber of Commerce could figure out something.

The State Game and Fish Commission of Texas has announced that the quail hunting season may be moved up to Nov. 1 in 120 counties under its direction. The reason is that quail are so plentiful this year it is believed some may starve before the regular season arrives. Wonder if Collingsworth is one of those 120 counties under the control of the commission. It is certain that we have a tremendous quail population this year.

Next week is fire prevention week and it is time for a word of praise for the men who make up our Volunteer Fire Department. They have done a splendid job of keeping fire losses down and as a result of this record Wellington has enjoyed a credit on its fire insurance rates for many years whereas some cities must pay a penalty over the average rate. Much of the credit for this should go to the men who man the fire trucks not only for the efficient work they do but for the educational program on fire risks and fire hazards that they conduct.

Mrs. Frank Johnson says this is going to be a hard winter. She bases her prediction on the activity of the red ants during the last few weeks. She says they have been working like mad during all daylight hours. Well I can add to that the fact that the squirrels have been mighty busy, but the only thing about them is they stay that way all summer long.

One Case Diagnosed

Norwood Children Get Diphtheria Vaccine

The illness of a 6-year-old Samnorwood school boy was diagnosed Friday, September 25, as diphtheria, and as a result all children of that school 10 years of age and younger are to receive diphtheria vaccine this week, Supt. Orville Cunningham has announced.

The child is Richard Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barker, who live in the north part of the county. He is in Shamrock hospital, where at last report he was "doing all right," Supt. Cunningham said.

He explained that the child was in school Friday, and after he returned home, he was taken to a Shamrock doctor, where his parents were told he had diphtheria.

Mr. Cunningham said that parental concent would be asked before the children are given the diphtheria vaccine at school. There is no charge for this.

If parents prefer, they may take their children to their family doctor.

Supt. Cunningham said that plans are to dismiss school Friday for cotton pulling and this will be before the incubation period of the disease is up for any children exposed last week.

He added that this is the first case of diphtheria in the school in the 14 years he has been there.

October Church Stewardship and Loyalty Month

The first service will begin at 2 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m., with a joint service of the Brotherhood and W.M.U.

Visiting in the home of Mrs. J. L. Hayes this week end is her daughter, Miss Myra Hayes of Plainview. Mrs. Hayes will return home with her for a weeks visit. She will also visit another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pollard at Odessa.

ith Wilson and Danny Wheeler, seniors.

Miss Sharon Phipps, reported for the senior class says a entertaining evening has been planned and every one is invited to attend whether they plan to buy an annual or not.

Rogers Speaks

A policeman saw them and arrested them although he was not sure under just what law he was making the arrest. An investigation showed that there was no particular statute to prevent them from carrying the flags, but nevertheless they were held for three days before being allowed to return to their homes. Rogers pointed this out as an example of the need of people fighting for their rights or else they could be taken away right here at home.

Rogers ended his talk by expressing regret that a tight schedule for the day prevented him from talking longer.

Superior MACHINERY and an EXPERIENCED Crew of Workers
mean BETTER SERVICE

AT the beginning of the 1959 cotton harvest the officers and directors of The Farmers Co-Op Gin of Dodson extend a cordial invitation to make use of our services and facilities during the season. We are confident that it will make you a greater net profit on your cotton.

This gin was planned and built with one idea in mind and that was to serve the cotton grower better, and our machinery incorporates a number of features not found in the average run of gins.

Distinctive features include our Super Champ Cleaners that take out the sticks on machined cotton as well as the dirt and trash. Another superior service is the use of two drying operations instead of one; and a third is the superior type of lint cleaners — the carding lint cleaner first to remove pin trash and shale, then through the Moss Combers to give smoothness and blend the spots, bringing many Light Spots up to White grade.

All of these plus an experienced gin crew mean that you will get a better turnout and a better sample when you gin at The Farmers Co-Op Gin of Dodson.

And, of course, there are those appreciated rebates that are returned to the grower at the end of the season. Remember the more you gin—the larger the rebate.

We are a certified purchasing agent and can handle both A and B cotton. You do not need to leave the office to get your money.
