SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, Sept. 5.—
There were only 400 buildings left standing today in the city of Santo Domingo out of 10,000. The storm spared only those too strong for it.
Dead and injured in Wednesday's hurricane far exceeded in number the ability of relief workers to calculate with accuracy.
Available estimates gave 1,000 dead and 5,000 injured.

VOTE CONTEST SUIT FILED

DEFEATED CANDIDATE
IN GRAY ASKS FOR VOTE DISCARD

By Associated Press
PAMPA, Sept. 5.—John V. Andrews, defeated candidate for sheriff of Gray county, last night filed a petition with the Democratic committee requesting the certification of his opponent, Lon L. Blanton.
Andrews, who had been defeated by 22 votes, charged fraud and illegality and asked for the discarding of 367 votes accredited to Blanton.
The petition alleged that some of the voters had not paid their poll taxes, a few were under age and that in one box the presiding judge failed to affix his name on the back of the ballots.

CHINESE STEALING EASY'S THUNDER

SHANGHAI, Sept. 5.—The use of an ancient form of warfare—a maneuver in which burning torches were tied to the tails of hundreds of water buffalo and the animals stampeded against defense lines of Changsha—was reported from the communist beleaguered Hunan capital today.
Changsha reports said Red forces surrounding the city collected many hundreds of domestic water buffalo and used fire to goad them into a stampede toward burning wire entanglements protecting the city. Machine gun fire from defending troops halted the buffalo. Frustratingly, the communists hoped the animals would cleave an opening through the entanglements.

Reports from interior points show that the already tremendous proportions of the greatest recent Caribbean storm must be increased with the arrival of information hour by hour from points left isolated.

Still Extracting Bodies
Although 40 hours have passed since the catastrophe, we are still extracting bodies from beneath the ruins.

It is impossible to deal at this moment with particular cases among the victims. They are all so bad that it looks more as if an earthquake had devastated this island than a wind storm.

We have started to bury the dead but the task has been so hopeless that to solve the urgent problem of sanitation a system of mass incineration has been adopted.

Churches Are Havens
The colonial churches, among the sturdiest buildings, have become the haven of thousands left homeless.

The national congress, sitting in an emergency capacity, has granted President Trujillo full powers and yesterday several thousand dollars were distributed among the most needy.

Special control of foodstuffs has been established.

Weather Is Normal
Weather today was normal, the brilliant tropical sun shining over the wildest scene ever imagined in this beautiful spot.

President Trujillo has taken a moment of rest since the storm began. He has been in the streets of the city personally ordering the distribution of supplies and rationing.

The president's entire attention has been concentrated upon forestalling famine. This afternoon the encouraging news was received.

POLICE STAGE FREE FIGHT

NEW ORLEANS IS SCENE OF CLASH BETWEEN
STATE, CITY MEN

By Associated Press
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—State and municipal police clashed last night over the direction of traffic at a political rally at which Governor Huey P. Long spoke in his senatorial campaign and today a state highway police sergeant and eight others arrested in the disorder were fined in a city court.
Each was fined $25 and released on $250 bonds pending an appeal. State Sergeant Lionel Escude was charged both with interfering with an officer and resisting arrest.

Violating Orders
Upon finding Escude and 15 other state officers at the rally James Cripps, supervisor of city police, complained that Escude was violating city police traffic orders and directed the state officers to leave.

A crowd gathered and arguments and threats led to blows and a free for all fight. A riot squad from city police headquarters quelled the disturbance.

During his speech, Governor Long referred to the incident, saying that the way the city police allowed traffic to move around the platform was an insult to him. He said "after election there may yet be a recall here in New Orleans."

Wilson Rings Are Recovered Today
Following quickly on the heels of announcement yesterday of the theft of two rings, valued at from $750 to $850, from the home of Roscoe Wilson, 2201 Broadway, county officers today reported their recovery.

Officers said that a thorough search of the home was made this morning and that the two rings were found by a negro cook in a guest room of the home.

Mr. Wilson reported loss of the valuable yesterday, stating that they had been stolen sometime between Monday night and Thursday. One, a diamond solitaire, weighed one carat, with eight smaller stones around the mounting while the other was a platinum wedding band.

BRITISH ANTHROPOLOGIST DECLARES MAN IS MISTAKE OF NATURE AND WE ARE STRUGGLING WITH THE CONSEQUENCES

(By Associated Press)
BRISTOL, England, Sept. 5.—The theory that man is a mistake of nature was advanced here last evening by Dr. H. S. Harrison, head of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, in his presidential address before the body.

Dr. Harrison was at a loss to understand why man ever ceased to be an ape for he believed that he did very well while he was an ape.

"Man had already been given the means to earn a livelihood," he said, "and he found himself commanding and inventing luxuries. In producing a new and cunning big-brained animal with hands, nature overtook her mark and we are struggling with the consequences.

"The brain of the later paleolithic man appears to have been like our own in all essentials and a cromagnon man might today become a skilled mechanic or an able bishop."

ATTORNEY'S INSISTENCE OF SPEAKING OF "OUR KAISER" IN LIBEL ACTION IS OBJECTED TO; NEWSPAPER BEING SUED

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, Sept. 5.—An attorney's insistence on speaking of "Our Kaiser" today was strenuously objected to by the defense at the opening of former Kaiser Wilhelm's libel suit against Ewald Mendel, editor of the newspaper Morgenpost.

The court ended the dispute by observing "there isn't any Kaiser any more," and adding that "as far as this court is concerned it entertains the suit of one Wilhelm, Prince of Prussia."

Sued on Accusation
The former Kaiser sued the Morgenpost for libel after the public prosecutor had refused to start proceedings when the paper accused Wilhelm of having permitted the Krupp arms factory to furnish him with munitions.

MOVEMENT TO

C. OF C. TO CONSIDER
FEEDER - BREEDER
PLANS HERE

Whether or not the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will inaugurate a breeder-feeder movement in Lubbock county this season probably will be decided at a meeting which has been called for next Tuesday afternoon at the city hall, according to announcement this morning. The meeting will be held in offices of the chamber of commerce and is scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock.

The conference was called by W. O. Stevens, chairman of the breeder-feeder committee of the local chamber, and is to be attended by all committee members and other persons of the county interested in such a movement. In addition to Mr. Stevens, the committee is composed of F. R. Friend, C. E. Macdougall, T. B. Duggan, Sam C. Arnold, and others.

The committee was appointed several months ago to study and determine whether at this time, with the prospective price of feed, the project should be undertaken or whether it would be advisable to postpone any action until next season.

Purpose of the breeder-feeder idea is to make a market for feedstuffs through livestock. Opinions have been expressed by several county agents over the South Plains in sections where projects are underway that it would be well to start about five projects with leading farmers of the county and use them for a nucleus with which to build a larger organization in the future.

Combination Furniture Ideal For Small Space Homes

BY JULIA BLANSHARD
NEA Service Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—Combination furniture is not only new and modern. It is extremely useful for those of us who are cramped for space.

Since most boys seem to draw the small rooms of the home, some smart looking combination pieces have been designed to give them utility and at the same time add smartness to their quarters.

There are studio beds for boys' rooms that have bookcase ends, in set back manner. Plain, almost severe, are these, yet some way they have a mannish strength about them. For the young man of college age, a studio bed with a bookcase on one end and a flat table for a reading lamp and smoking materials on the other is extremely good.

A "Four-in-One" Model
Among the latest pieces that combine several kinds of furniture in a single unit is a modernistic bookcase that has a radio, desk and chifforon arrangement as well.

This "four-in-one" comes in unpainted version or you can get it in maple or other pretty woods to match other things in your room. The radio cabinet part of it is so nicely noticeable and the desk end pushes in and closes with a plain front. There are book shelves under the desk and radio cabinet part and in between are shallow shelves for magazines. Under the radio is a single compartment that opens with drawers inside for handkerchiefs, gloves and other costume accessories. Or you can store your receipts, manuscripts and other business equipment there.

An Electric Kitchentette
Very new for women or men who are apartment house addicts and yet enjoy a bit of cooking is the kitchentette table that has electric equipment in a drawer that pulls out, a chair that fits into the front when not in use and a top that opens out to use for a table. Then there is the electric refrigerator, a tiny one, that is made with an electric stove on top of it, thus saving much space.

The comfortable easy chair that has a single drawer under it for linen is not new. But these are brand new contrivances, sets of two big drawers or one even larger one, that fits under beds and can hold all of your bedding and clothes. These are made very well and so pull out easily and you can run them back in by pushing with your foot.

Dining Room Substitute
The combination units for the room with no dining room are extremely good. These are made to hold your china, silver and have drawers for linen, and all the time the thing that you notice about them are the one of two shelves holding decorative bits of porcelain or the newest books. Some of these, for use as kitchentette units, have a front that lets down to be used as an emergency eating space.

The good thing about any of these is the inspiration they are for your own ingenuity. Just what a handy man about the house, or a handy woman, for that matter, can do with a couple of good crates can scarcely be underestimated. Finished smoothly and painted some grey scheme, there would be chile exuding great in a window seat, with book shelves under it, a radiator cover with a desk top, a swinging book case that had its lower shelf enclosed to give a little extra space for storing linen. All in all, there is much to be said for these pieces of furniture that give you the use of two or three pieces in the space of one.

Lovington To Send 15 To Road Session
LOVINGTON, N. M., Sept. 5.—(Special.)—A delegation of 15 men have pledged themselves to attend the Caribad Cavern highway meeting to be held in Caribad on Sept. 8, according to Seth Alston, president of the Lovington chamber of commerce.

A handsome four-in-one combination piece of furniture, especially good for a boy's room or a man's apartment, has a desk, radio, book and magazine shelves and a compartment for neckties, handkerchiefs and other things. ANDREE STORY LEGIBLE TO SEPT. 5

LOG AFTER THAT DATE SAID ILLEGIBLE; STILL SECRETED

(By Associated Press)
TROMSØ, Norway, Sept. 5.—The story of the Andree balloon expedition is understood to be legible in the explorer's notes up to Sept. 5 but writing in Andree's log after that date is illegible.
It would seem that the trio arrived on White Island on the 5th of September (presumably 1897) after having battled their way across the ice a few miles when their balloon met disaster on the attempted flight to the North Pole.
Proposed Expedition
Dr. Gunnar Horn today proposed that a Swedish expedition be sent to White Island next summer to look for further evidences of the Andree expedition.
Dr. Horn said it is possible that Frank's body might be found there, buried in the ice. Many of the things which the Horn party found were dug up from a depth of eighteen inches or more. It is considered possible that Frank's body lies further down in the ice. It appeared today that something

Zebras In Harness Is Innovation In Circus Coming Here; 26 To Be Driven

A FEW OF THE TWENTY-SIX ZEBRAS WITH THE RINGLING BROS. AND BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS

For the first time in history zebras have been trained to appear among other features of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus. For many years it had been thought impossible to train these wild beasts of the desert and trainers scoffed at the idea that it might ever be done—for the zebra is a strange and sometimes treacherous animal who has distinct ideas of his own. But this year the twenty-six zebras with "The Greatest Show on Earth" have been so highly trained that they appear in "liberty" acts within the arena, and are even driven in harness, transporting chariots and gemstudded floats in the gorgeous inaugural pageant.

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus this year has also twenty-six camels and presents seven herds of elephants in its vast menagerie, in which are to be found strange and rare animals from the earth's far corners.
The big circus with its wonderful assemblage of novel and sensational attractions will give both afternoon and night performances when it exhibits in Lubbock on Tuesday, September 16.

happened very suddenly and unexpectedly to bring down the balloon on the ice when it was less than 500 miles from the North Pole 33 years ago.
While the diaries of Salomon August Andree, chief of the expedition, still remain secret, it is known unofficially that one of them contains the information that the balloon descended at 12:30 p. m. July 13, 1897, just 46 hours after the start from Dane's Island, Spitzbergen.
Pigeon Dispatched
Earlier on July 13, when the balloon, it was presumed, was nearing the end of its second day out, its occupants dispatched a carrier pigeon containing the message: "Good journey northward, north wind, 145 miles north and 45 miles east of the starting point."
There certainly was nothing in

SELF-MADE HERO

Youth's Plan
Lands Him In
City Jail

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 5. (AP)—The paths of glory led but to the city jail for 16-year-old Ned Meyer.

Meyer saved the family of his girl friend, Margaret Wegener, by extinguishing the fuse on an eight-stick dynamite bomb placed near her home.
The youth was removed from the role of hero and placed in a cell when, police said, he admitted lighting the bomb as well as extinguishing it.
"I did it because I wanted Margaret and her folks to think I was a hero," police quoted Meyer as saying.
"And he almost ruined my pansy bed," sighed Mrs. Wegener.

Italian hotels and merchants are complaining because, while the tourist travel this year was very heavy, the visitors spent much less than usual.

SADDLER SAYS HE GOT BETTER

Confining Work Didn't Agree
With Him.—Black-Draught
Brought Relief.

Somerset, Ky.—"I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for twenty-five or thirty years," says Mr. W. B. Conant, of this city.
"I have often been constipated, and am very closely confined, and found that I had to take something for constiveness, as I would get as tired, or have a dull feeling. After I heard of Black-Draught, and began taking it, I avoided this trouble, and am now in good condition."

"I take Black-Draught in small doses, and it is most satisfactory. I feel better after using it. I have recommended it to my friends."
Theodor's Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal herbs and roots, of highest quality, finely powdered, carefully combined and packaged by automatic machinery. This well-known medicine has been in use nearly 100 years, and its popularity is constantly increasing, as growing sales clearly prove.

FIRST HANGING IN KANSAS IN SIXTY YEARS IS STAGED TODAY; SLAYER OF TWENTY-TWO PERSONS PAYS WITH LIFE

(By Associated Press)
LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Sept. 5.—Carl Panzram, self-accused slayer of 22 persons, died on the gallows in the Kansas state penitentiary here today for the murder of R. C. Warnke, civilian laundry foreman at the United States penitentiary here June 19, 1929.
The slayer was pronounced dead at 6:19 a. m.

Orders Chaplains Out
Jeering the crowd as he walked to the gallows Panzram noted two chaplains present. He asked the warden that they be removed. The chaplains left in accordance with his will.
Panzram, serving his sixth prison sentence, struck down the laundry foreman with a heavy iron bar

June 19, 1929, in a frenzy of rage.

First Since 1870
The hanging was the first legal execution in Kansas since 1870, with the exception of that of a federal prisoner at Wichita in 1868. The Kansas law provides capital punishment only for treason. Panzram, however, was prosecuted under federal statutes, his crime having been committed on federal property.

Before his trial for murder at Topeka, Kans., the prisoner wrote a letter to the trial judge demanding justice which he described as "that I be found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to die."
Panzram was pronounced sane by

Irrigation Plant At Lovington Works

LOVINGTON, N. M., Sept. 5.—(Special)—An irrigation plant two miles northeast of Lovington is proving very successful, according to D. A. Hudgins, former Oklahoma farmer who installed the plant last spring. Hudgins stated that his water was pumped approximately 60 feet and at the rate of 800 gallons per minute.
Hudgins has three acres of sweet potatoes that are harvesting around 300 bushels per acre, his corn he believes will produce from 75 to 90 bushels per acre, and numerous other vegetables are netting a nice profit. Since the coming of the railroad into Les county other irrigation plants are springing up in the shallow water belt.

Automatic stamp machines are to be placed in London subways.

Plans Made For I. T. U. Convention

HOUSTON, Sept. 5.—(Special)—Preparations have been completed for the seventy-fifth annual convention of the International Typographical union which convenes here Monday, September 8. An elaborate program of entertainment has been prepared.
Prominent speakers on the program will include Governor Dabney Moody, Ross Sterling, Democratic nominee for governor; Mayor Walter E. Moore of Houston who will deliver the address of welcome; George H. Slater, executive secretary of the state federation of labor; Charles F. Howard, president of the International Typographical Union, and others.

Surprised by a speeding motorcycle, ridden by A. Cunningham, Edie, Scotland, a hare attempted to jump over the machine, but hit the handle bars, throwing Cummings off and causing the machine to fall on the animal, killing it.

Thought For Today
O Lord my God, in thee do I put my trust.—Psalm 71.

If you trust God in little things,
he may answer you by great things.
—J. R. Macduff.

Adventure
If a finer tale of high adventure
than the story of Captain Andre and his companions has hit the front pages in the last 10 years it is hard to say just what it was.

When a band of hunters stumbled over three frozen corpses in the wastes of Franz Josef Land they thought to a conclusion one of the great mysteries of the age. Nothing had been heard of Andre's expedition for 33 years. The man had become one of the bi-rare,
disappearing figures that take on an added covering of romance because they simply vanish. He had drifted north into the Arctic silence and
the silence had swallowed him.
Every new polar flight, every new polar tragedy served to recall the disappearance. He became a sort of legend, with the primitive balloon
in which he dared 2300 miles of utter desolation.

Now the mystery is over. When Andre's diary—preserved, most fortunately, for the world to read—
was printed the last hope of uncertainly will go away. We shall know what happened to him, to Franklin and to Strindberg. We shall know how they met their deaths
and what they thought and
did as they finally perished.
Their adventure was doomed to disaster; and it will be knowledge that we would not miss having.

It is easy enough to say that Andre was only a dare-devil who accomplished nothing. Certainly his venture was a tremendous possibility to drift across the top of the world in a free balloon is risky
enough. In all conscience—especially when you remember that even today a flight of 600 or 700 miles is usually long enough to win first prize in an international balloon race.

Yet one imagines that even if Andre and his men could have known in advance just what was going to happen to them, they would have gone ahead anyway.
Three adventures and explorers are made of such stuff, probably, is why haunting always has an unquench-
able admiration for them.

For it is always worth something to see a man over whom the fear of death has no power at all. Most of us never escape from the shadow of that fear. "Safety first" was our slogan long before it became a printed slogan. So when a man sets off for Arctic fastnesses or tropical jungles or man-killing desert wastes
and gambles with his life for the stendest of reasons, we cannot help applauding. He is meeting about the oldest, strongest fear of the race. He is proving that there are things that he values infinitely
above his own life.

There is nothing much for us to say when a man like Andre comes to his appointment with death. It is enough that it could have been otherwise; the Andre, the Amundsen
and the Scotts died when they would have wished. We can, indeed, only repeat that epitaph for another explorer who went to the polar regions
to die—"Here died a very valiant gentleman."

More Speed
The prediction that New York and San Francisco will eventually be linked by over-night air mail service—a prediction that would have sounded foolish only a year or so ago—is beginning to seem a great deal more reasonable in view of Captain Hawks' 12-hour flight
from one ocean to another.

Speed in the air is becoming more and more common. Just as ground, undoubtedly, it would be responsible for a regular air mail plane to maintain, or even attempt a 12-hour schedule across the country; but when the way in which modern designers are constantly improving new and improved models it is considered it seems quite possible that the thing will be done in the near future.

One might notice that it is just as easy to see an aviator make a round journey in flying all the way from New York to San Francisco in 12 hours as it is to see a man make a round journey in 12 hours.

The Plainsman spent several hours in pleasant conversation
yesterday with what folks used to call a "blue-bellied Yankee". Mr.
C. S. Phillips, from Bath, Maine, was the gentleman, and he was making his first visit to Texas.

Although Mr. Phillips packed
the typical New England twang
and had the conservative air of a man who has lived a great portion of his life right in Boston,
the Plainsman was interested to note that he "can't say
any different basically from us folks right down here. Extremely polite, ultra-intelligent, Mr.
Phillips grasps the problems of West Texas in a twinkling of an eye and, measuring them
with his own concept, says our problems are similar.

He reports New Englanders are learning that all Texans are not wild and woolly; that we are rapidly growing and progressing. Of course, Mr. Phillips said, they do not recognize the extent of our growth
but that the old feeling that Texans
were born is rapidly disappearing.

HE pays a compliment to the average Texan which is hard to get around.
The thing I notice most about the Texan, said the visitor, is that he accepts the stranger on face value, rather than on apparent financial worth, and accepts him as a gentleman until he proves himself otherwise. I am frank to say this New Englander puts too much stress upon gentleness and many of the family trees we hear so much about have roots so rotten they are in danger of blowing over.

One of the greatest differences he sees between New England and West Texas is the absence of the "safety first" slogan
here. Mr. Phillips said: "When
we talk about driving 300 miles
we feel lucky if we make it in a
day. And all our roads are paved, too. He went on to point
out, however, that it is the
safety slogan which makes for
slow driving in the East.

The old animosity the New Eng-
lander once felt for the Southerner
is gone by the wayside, the visitor
said. The last war, when soldier
boys from all sections of the country were thrown together in en-
campments, wiped out the last signs
of hatred engendered by the Civil
war. "I'll say this much about it,"
said Mr. Phillips: "Our histories
bearing upon the war were decidedly unfair. When we learn of the south's own story we realize it."

THE Plainsman delights in conversation with men from the extreme North and East because he
can always pick up something about
the people up there and the customs which they follow. After all is said and done, we're all Americans
—all pretty much alike even if our accents are different. If the New Englander knew us, and we knew him—
from actual contact, we'd probably like each other as well as Oklahomans and Texans like one another. It's not knowing people that makes us dislike them or distrust
them.

Speaking of genealogy—one of Plainsman's family connections was recently traced by a bank. They traced him to South America.

man is happy! There's a circus

One of the greatest differences he sees between New Eng-
land and West Texas is the absence of the "safety first" slogan
here. Mr. Phillips said: "When
we talk about driving 300 miles
we feel lucky if we make it in a
day. And all our roads are
paved, too. He went on to point
out, however, that it is the
safety slogan which makes for
slow driving in the East.

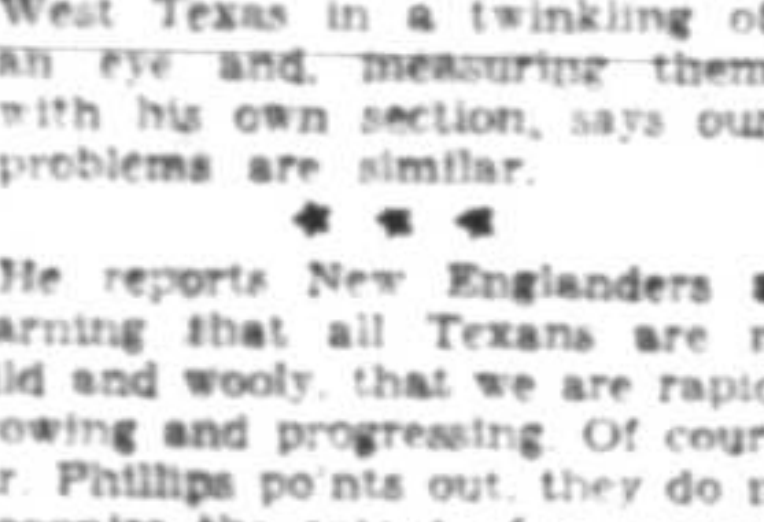

The old animosity the New Eng-
lander once felt for the Southerner
is gone by the wayside, the visitor
said. The last war, when soldier
boys from all sections of the coun-
try were thrown together in en-
campments, wiped out the last signs
of hatred engendered by the Civil
war. "I'll say this much about it,"
said Mr. Phillips: "Our histories
bearing upon the war were decidedly unfair. When we learn of the
south's own story we realize it."

THE Plainsman delights in con-

extreme North and East because he
can always pick up something about
the people up there and the cus-

accents are different. If the New Eng-

PRESIDENT TO SPEAK SOON TO GROUPS

NEXT CAMPAIGN WORK IS SEEN IN FOUR MAJOR ADDRESSES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Viewed generally as the opening of President Hoover's campaign for return of his party to power in congress in the fall and for his own reelection two years hence, his acceptance of invitations to make four addresses early in October was widely speculated upon today in the capital.

Marking as it does a sharp departure from the policy followed by his predecessor in office, the program of four major speeches in six days, which was announced late yesterday, also will be one of the most ambitious efforts of Mr. Hoover upon the platform.

Before Powerful Groups

Argotane Has Straightened Me Out and I Know From Experience It Is A Good Medicine

"Argotane has straightened me out and I am in fine shape now," said T. D. Travis of 242 Graham St., Abilene, Texas. Mr. Travis is the distributor for all the local advertisers and is a very popular student of A. C. C.

"I suffered terribly from stomach disorders. The things I ate wouldn't agree with me and I would have pains in my back and in my abdomen that would be quite severe at times. I suffered greatly from headaches and would often get so nervous and dizzy every time I stood over 10 minutes.

"I read so much about Argotane and heard so many people talking about it I decided that it would help in my case. It has proven Argotane has got me in fine shape and I am not bothered with stomach disorders any more and my food doesn't bother me as it did and I'm not nervous or dizzy any more. I don't have my headaches any more. I am, in fact, I feel splendid. Argotane began helping me right from the start and I have only taken one bottle and feel like a new person. My health is restored and I know Argotane to be a fine medicine from my own experience."

Genuine Argotane may be bought in Lubbock at the Brown's Drug Store.—adv

Judges Mentioned In Slain Gangster's Records

dresser take him to three widely separated states, but it will permit him to gain contact with the people of several states as he passes through. Also the speeches will take the chief executive before three of the most powerful civil groups in the nation.

It has been generally accepted that all of his addresses are to be made on the occasion which might mean that before the American Bankers' association at Cleveland on Oct. 2, he would talk on finance and business, and before the American Federation of Labor in Boston on the afternoon of Oct. 3 he would discuss unemployment. These two invitations were the latest accepted.

Both would give him an excellent opportunity to be heard today in political circles of "selling" his administration in a way that would not be inappropriate for a president.

His speech on the morning of October 6 before the American Legion in Boston, and that at the Kings Mountain Battle Anniversary celebration on October 7 may be devoted to more general questions, if the president chooses to carry his cases directly to the country in this initial tour.

To Be Briefed
At Kings Mountain Mr. Hoover will deliver a brief and formal speech in North Carolina, out of the southern states which gave him his electoral vote in 1928. Although his address will be made a few miles over the state line in South Carolina much of his audience will be drawn from North Carolina and Tennessee, which also cast its vote for Mr. Hoover for president.

Reports were current early in the summer when the president announced his plans for a western trip during the hot months that it would mark an effort on his part to carry his administration straight to the voters. Other political considerations and the drought, however, compelled abandonment of that plan.

Valley Preparing For Winter Crops

McALLEY, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Rio Grande valley farmers already have begun planting operations for fall and winter crops.

The tomato prospective acreage has been estimated unofficially at from 3,000 to 8,000 acres. Tomato shipments last year totaled about 100 cars, but three times that yield was expected for the new crop.

MOSCOW, (AP)—In the first six months of 1935 nearly 1,500,000 madmen were recorded in the Russian Federated Republic. The average number of offences to each 10,000 of population was 622 in the cities and 94 in the villages.

QUAKES FEAR GRIPS ITALY

EARTHQUAKE MORALE IS CRUSHED IN AREAS OF NATION

BY ANDRUE BERDING

(Associated Press Staff Writer)

MELFI, Italy. (AP)—Earthquake morale, exemplified by the people of the Vulture section of the Apennines who have just seen hundreds of their number killed by falling buildings, is different from the morale of people stricken by other disasters.

An earthquake reaps its victims before they have a chance to scream. And it is over before the echo of a possible scream has died away—hence the awful loss of morale that follows a big shock or series of shocks.

People Still Afraid
Weeks have passed since the tremors of July 23, yet people are still afraid . . . they are dreading.

While the work of rebuilding the 10,000 toppled-down houses goes on, people here and at Vitanova, Ariano, Lacedonia, Aquilone and Trevico look palely into one another's faces and say, "When will we have another?"

Half Are Sleepless
Rumors fly: "There will be a quake tonight, it is three weeks from the big one." And that night half or all the population are sleeping in the fields, away from their homes.

Lightning they say without reason, never strikes twice in the same place. But an earthquake does—practically always it does.

A big quake invariably is followed by smaller ones, evidence, that the earth is returning to its equilibrium disturbed by the first shock.

Morale Damaged
There have been other tremors since the fatal night of July 23. They have done little damage physically, but great damage to the public morale.

After telling of these little shocks, newspapers here say, "No damage, but great panic. The people rushed into the squares and refused to return to their homes throughout the night."

These mountain folk are flocking in greater numbers than ever to their churches to assuage their uncontrollable fear by appealing for divine protection, particularly through the intercession of their favorite saints.

MARSHALS GET RAISE

PARIS (AP)—Marshals of France have had their pay raised, effective October 1, 1936. The new rate for marshals is approximately $6,000 a year. Generals receive from $4,700 to $4,200.

Revival Awaited

NEW YORK—A revival of romantic manners in men is awaited. Kathleen Howard, magazine fashion editor, points out that with longer skirts women have softened their voices and become feminine again. Men used to tell women that if women changed men would return to kissing hands and cease such things as "come on girl, let's dance" but women are still waiting for men to treat them with the deference given mothers.

BUDAPEST (AP)—Mrs. Horvath, wife of the regent of Hungary, has started a movement for decoration of all houses in the kingdom with flowers in connection with the summer long national festival in honor of St. Emory. Best displays will win prizes.

WEST TEXAS COACHES, OFFICIALS GATHER HERE ON SATURDAY

SESSION WILL BE FIRST IN HISTORY

SCHEDULES, RULES AND OTHER PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED

The first annual West Texas Coaches and Officials Convention will be formally opened at ten o'clock tomorrow at the Texas Tech gymnasium, with an expected attendance of nearly 200 college and high school coaches, superintendents, and athletic officials. The meeting will constitute a football rules interpretation conference, headed by P. W. Cawthon, head coach of Texas Tech athletics, and a general discussion of college and high school athletics.

Held as a supplement to the annual state football rules interpretation conference, the West Texas convention is open to all coaches and officials of the state, but is for the primary benefit of coaches in West Texas who did not attend the regular state meeting in Houston last week. It is the first meeting of its kind here, and plans are to make it an annual affair.

C. of C. to Aid Meet
In cooperation with Texas Tech coaches and school officials, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce will aid with the convention here, providing entertainment for the visitors after inviting them here. The organization has been at work for the past month in preparation for the meeting. At noon tomorrow the visiting coaches and officials will be entertained at a luncheon at the Lubbock Hotel, given by the chamber of commerce.

In conjunction with the general meeting, a special meeting of the executive committee of the Class B high schools will be held at the gymnasium. This meeting has been called for 2:30 by Committee Chairman A. B. Sanders of Rails.

SOUTH PLAINS LEAGUE IN LAST DAYS

SEASON ENDS SUNDAY; TIGHT GAMES ARE PLAYED THURSDAY

Games in the South Plains League resulted according to dope yesterday when Tahoka, Southland, and Brownfield emerged victorious. Brownfield's scheduled game with Anton was forfeited to the Browns when the Anton team failed to show up, while the other four teams clashed in close contests.

Tahoka took a 6 to 5 victory over the Lubbock Hubbers when a two-run spurge in the seventh inning broke a 4-all tie and proved to be the winning margin, though Lubbock came back in the ninth after two were out to score once and get two more on bases. The teams played along together for the first six innings, with first one team getting in the lead only to see the score tied and additions made.

In a game featured by two-base hits, the Tahokans excelled by driving out five of the eight doubles. Crites, Rich, and Morgan hit for the extra base and made the hits count. Del Morgan, hurling the route for Lubbock, pitched a nice game and except for the seventh inning when the visitors bunched four of the ten hits he was the leading pitcher. Burleson went all the way for Tahoka, giving up ten hits which he kept well scattered. Both teams started the game with doubles, both scoring as a result in the first inning.

Over at Levelland the Southland Sluggers remained on top with a one game margin over Tahoka when they defeated the Levelland boys 7 to 4 in a well played game. Cummings pitched for Southland and was master of the situation. Evans started for Levelland but was relieved by Hilton during the course of the contest.

The teams close the 1930 season Sunday with games in Anton, Southland, and Tahoka. The Hubbers journey to Anton for a try for their third victory of the second half. Brownfield will be in an interesting game with Southland to wind up their seasons, while Tahoka will entertain the bunch from Levelland. Should Southland lose her game and should Tahoka win, the teams will be tied for first place, and will battle it out in a one game play off before entering the championship series.

CARDS MOVE INTO TIE WITH GIANTS

SPORT SIDELIGHTS

NEW YORK HAS ADVANTAGE IN FINIS

CUBS CONTINUE LEAD; CARDS FACING LONG TOUR ON ROAD

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer
Except for the difficulties which the schedule has in store for them, the St. Louis Cardinals might well be considered the most serious threat to the supremacy of the Chicago Cubs in the National League instead of New York's Giants. The Cards and the Giants are tied for second place and the recent record of the St. Louis club is far more impressive but the Cards are faced with a long tour of the East while the Giants will have the advantage of playing at home most of the time.

Cards in Second
The Cards gained their deadlock for second place yesterday by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds, 13 to 2, for their fourth straight victory and their 13th in 15 games. The Giants at the same time took a 7 to 1 beating from the Boston Braves and lost a full game in the chase for the pennant.

Since Aug. 1, the Cubs have made an upward rush that has brought them 26 victories in 35 games.
Cubs Came Out
Chicago had another tough struggle with Pittsburgh but came out victorious in the tenth inning—13 to 7, when Gabby Hartnett clouted his second home run of the game and his 31st of the season with two on base. Previously the Cubs had staged their favorite act of giving away a big lead and then overcoming it. Brooklyn and Philadelphia had another day of idleness.
The American league leaders also had to go overtime to gain a victory. It took the Philadelphia Athletics 15 frames to down the Boston Red Sox 8 to 7.

Senators Keep Pace
Washington's Senators kept pace with the champions by winning a tight game from the New York Yankees, 3 to 2, their 16th triumph over the Yanks in 20 games this season. Cleveland retained its last mathematical chance of tying the Athletics by downing the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 2, as Willie Hudlin pitched a three-hit game. The Detroit Tigers did some effective hitting to defeat St. Louis 8 to 4, in the fourth American league game.

CUBS BACK AS TEAM EXCEPT ONE MAN

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 5.—P.—The Chicago Cubs today were within one man of being the team that started the season in quest of a second consecutive National League championship.
Rogers Hornsby—the Rajah himself—yesterday played his first game since his left ankle was fractured on last Memorial day, and only captain and first baseman Charlie Grimm was lacking from the band of seasoned athletes who composed the starting Cub lineup.

Hornsby demonstrated that he can still get around. He handled six chances without an error, was in the middle of one double play and started another that squeaked a Pirate rally. He also was the same patient Hornsby at bat, waiting out Pittsburgh hurlers for three weeks.

Grimm got in Wednesday as a pinch batsman and probably will be ready early next week. However, he may find it difficult to break back into the front line, as Long George Kelly has been hitting at a buzz-clip.

RAKU, Azerbaijan (AP)—The birth anniversary of the sovietization of this region on the southwest coast of the Caspian Sea was celebrated here by dedication of new factories and power stations. The government also pointed with pride to a ten inch oil pipe line from this city to Batum on the Black Sea.

FORTY-FOUR-YEAR OLD CUP AT STAKE; FAST GAMES EXPECTED

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The battle for a 44-year-old cup and world polo supremacy begins on Meadow Brook club's international field, Westbury Long Island, tomorrow with Tommy Hitchcock's American four favored to beat back Great Britain's challenge for the third successive time.

Close to 40,000 spectators are expected to witness the opening match of the series for the Westchester cup, first up for competition in 1886. Although Great Britain won the first series and the next one in 1902, the United States leads six victories to three. England won in 1914 while the United States, regaining the cup in 1921, successfully defended it in 1924 and 1927.

Texas Tech tomorrow will be the meeting place of nearly two hundred coaches of colleges and high schools of West Texas, and the football field officials of the section. It will be the first meeting of its kind in West Texas, and will be made an annual affair henceforth.

Coach Cawthon of Tech will be supervisor of the meeting here, which begins in the morning. Cawthon returned early this week from Houston where he attended the state convention of coaches and officials and should have a great deal of useful information at his command. He reports that the Houston meeting was the most successful in the history of the convention, in point of attendance as well as for informative value.

Fort Worth and Wichita Falls are dressing up for the series that will decide the champion of the Texas League for 1930. The Cats have to win only one game out of the last five to clinch the second half. It should be a great play-off series, and if the Spudders go like they've been going for the past two weeks, a precedent may be set in Texas League history. Should Fort Worth win the series and the crown, it will be the first time the winner of the first half of the season failed to enter the Dixie series.

The question of what's wrong with the Spudders is going around, and different opinions are being expressed. The Wichita Falls scribbles say it is because of the pitchers. Here's what he fills up half his column with yesterday:

"Most decidedly the Wichita Falls Spudders are undergoing one of the most amazing slumps any club in the Texas League ever experienced. Their brilliance in the first half has been almost completely drowned by the washouts of the second half. And what is to blame? Is it the hitting? Is it the pitching? The answer to which is that it is not the hitting and it is not the pitching. The hitting has been rocking along in a very creditable manner. There's not a Spudders who has not improved his batting average very substantially during the second half."

"We took a trip through the records and they produced the amazing fact that we have only two pitchers on the staff who have showed any sign of improvement during the second half, whereas three have been throwing away their reputations and consequently our pennant chances. Further, that our leading pitcher, Hal Wittke, has remained about stationary, and that Ash Hillin has been more of a deterrent in the second half. The only two pitchers that have shown any improvement at all are Mill Steengrafe and Freddie Vincent. Steengrafe is head and shoulders above the other hurlers. In the first half he won eight games and lost three, and has come through with his hoop skirt curve in the second to win 10 and lose three."

And on and on. The wise boys of the front boxes are grinning sheepishly and explaining with pseudo bravado that their Spudders are merely letting up for the play-off series, and that they will stage a comeback to sweep the play. Well, maybe so. At any rate they'll need whatever rest they can get before tugging with the Cats. We're placing our nickel on the Spudders, but we'd sell out at a reasonable figure.

A Dallas attorney of high standing has announced that, if urged sufficiently, he will submit a petition to the state legislature to legalize boxing in Texas. To Governor Moody goes the credit or blame for making the boxing game unpopular in the state, under pain of the law, and since that good man's decision the state has had to struggle along without one of the favorite pastimes. Struggle is right. In place of the perfectly legitimate and clean boxing matches that used to be staged, the ring has been covered with a dirt mat on which semi-barbarians have drawn side show like crowds to see what is called wrestling matches.

Wrestling, in the best of circles, is a fine sport, but adopted in Texas as a substitute for boxing, it has in many cases proved a blot on an honorable sport. Somebody pipes up to say that boxing can be only second rate in Texas. Perhaps. But such as it is, it surpassed the mat game. We certainly had better in sympathy with the Dallas attorney's idea, and wish him luck.

Prominent Paris theatres, well patronized by Americans, when silent films were shown, are being deserted by them since talkies in French have been installed.

CATS HANDICAPPED BY TRADITION IN PLAY-OFF

CHAMPIONS OF FIRST HALF NEVER LOSE

OPENING OF SERIES TO BE AT WICHITA ON NEXT WEDNESDAY

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
A Texas league tradition that says a first half champion never has been beaten in a play-off will ride with Wichita Falls when they engage Fort Worth in the first of a five-game series next Wednesday at Wichita Falls.

In addition to that psychological advantage, the Oilers will play the first two games of the saw-off on their home grounds, where they have been beaten to all opposition this year. Notoriously long hitters, the Williams clan can deal enemy pitchers misery in their ball park, where an almost constant breeze from home plate wafts high flies over the ballustrade.

Move to Cowtown
After the two opening bouts at Wichita Falls, however, the advantage will rest with the winners of the current race. Resting Friday, the two clubs will move to Fort Worth for the concluding games of the series, starting Saturday. The first to win three decisions will meet the Southern Association champion, almost certain to be Memphis in the Dixie series.

Neither of the title contenders exerted themselves in the first game of their concluding series at Wichita yesterday. With the second half already sewed up, the Panthers used two fingers to win the lackadaisical contest, 10 to 7. After Dick McCabe had held the Spuds to one run for five frames, he was relieved by Terry, a rookie, who yielded six more in the eighth. McCabe's grief, showing made him a certainty to start one game of the play-off.

Indians Too Late
Waiting until the waning days of the season to get hot, the San Antonio Indians won their sixth straight at the expense of Waco, 4 to 0. Cy Gotley limited the Cubs to five scattered knocks.

Bill Morrell outpitched Walt Tauscher as the Shreveport Sports downed Dallas, 9 to 3, to start their final series. A homer by Hugh Williams for the Steers featured the tilt.

Dean and Stout turned in two brilliant performances as Houston took both ends of their night doubleheader from Beaumont, 8 to 1 and 5 to 0. Dean allowed only four hits and fanned 16 in the first. Stout gave up one hit and whiffed

TEXAS STARS HOG TOURNNEY

FOUR TO FIGHT IT OUT IN SEMI-FINAL ROUNDS TODAY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 5.—Four Texans met today to fight it out in the semi-finals of the Southwest Amateur golf tournament over the Nichols Hills course here. The Texans yesterday eliminated the last of the Oklahomans in the race.

Today Tommy Cochran of Wichita Falls was playing Dennis Lavender of Abilene and Bob McKinney of Del Rio was matching strokes with Byron Nelson of Fort Worth in 36-hole fights for the final positions. The finals will be played tomorrow.

Lavender yesterday entered the semi-finals by eliminating Harry Maids of Oklahoma City, 2 and 1. E. S. Hansenberger, also of Oklahoma City, fell before Cochran 3 and 2. McKinney yesterday defeated M. L. Masling of Fort Worth after the match went to the 36th green and Nelson eliminated Glen Crisman of Orange, Texas.

Memphis Apparent Winner of Season

ATLANTA, Sept. 5 (P)—The pennant race in the Southern association neared an end today due to the leading Memphis club winning again yesterday which gave the Chicks a seven and a half game lead over New Orleans. Memphis needs only four more games in the won column to clinch the pennant. After tying the score in the sixth, the Chattanooga Lookouts were held scoreless by Pitcher Kelly while his mates crossed the plate twice more to give the Chicks a six to four win. New Orleans also held tight to its position in the league by swamping the orphaned Mobile club, 21 to 4. The Panthers scored in the third with eight runs and repeated the act in the fourth to build up the bulk of their score.

Birmingham was set back at the hands of Atlanta yesterday when the Crackers added a run in the eight to nose out the Barons 6 to 5. Little Rock won a tight game from Nashville 3 to 2. It was a hard game for the Vols to lose as they got 10 hits to the Travelers 5 and made two errors to three for Little Rock.

Bell and Borotra Meet in First Round

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (P)—The National men's singles tennis championships got under way at Forest Hills tomorrow with a first round clash between Jean Borotra of France and Berkeley Bell of Austin, Texas, expected to provide most of the fireworks.

The first day's schedule of 21 first matches will cut the field of 56 by about one-third.

The luck of the draw was all against Borotra, favored with Big Bill Tilden to reach the final round. Not only is he pitted against such a formidable first round opponent as Bell but probably will be forced to meet another "first ten" player in the second round, Fritz Mearns of Bethlehem, Pa.

Americans Win In Six Meter Yachting

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 5 (P)—The American six meter yachting team scored its fourth successive victory over Great Britain Thursday to win the British-American cup series.

The Americans, who had overwhelmed Britain's yachtsmen in each of the first three races, had only three boats in the deciding contest against four for the invaders, yet won by a score of 20-14 to 15. The United States scored a grand total of 81 points to 66 for England to win the series, a best four out of seven affair.

LAWS GOVERNING REPRESENTATIVES' RECEIVING GIFTS TO BE ADVOCATED IN STATE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

(By Associated Press)
SHERMAN, Sept. 5.—The Grayson county delegation to the state Democratic convention at Galveston next month will seek adoption of a plank prohibiting members of congress and state legislature from receiving a gift, fee or employment from public service corporations, or from others directly interested in legislation.

The Democrats of Texas will also be asked to pledge its enactments into law.

C. B. Randall, a member of congress from this district from 1901 to 1913, has been using his influence for more than 30 years to have such a law passed. He was a member of the resolutions committee which presented the matter to the county convention here.

Efforts Defeated

In the last session of the state legislature, the senate defeated efforts of the house to have all members of both houses publish their connections with public service corporations and others directly interested in legislation.

Wording of the Grayson county resolution follows:

"Believing that he who legislates on any subject should be free from any interests therein and that no member of congress or the state legislature should receive a gift, fee or employment from public service corporations, or from others directly interested in legislation; therefore, be it resolved by this convention assembled that the same should be prohibited by law.

"Be it further resolved that we believe that the Democratic state convention at Galveston should make this a platform declaration and pledge its enactment into law."

Lamesa Negro Spend Month At Hard Labor

LAMESA, Sept. 5.—(Special)—Four weeks of hard labor cleaning out alleys in Lamesa's business district has taught Albert Baysinger, colored, the cold fact that it is against the law to make and sell beer. He was arrested one month ago by A. L. Boyd, city marshal, for possessing eight bottles of beer. This week Al found nine bottles of beer hid in a sack in an alley near the jail. Reflecting that it would mean many more weeks of alley cleaning if he tried to sell this beer, he calmly set about bursting all nine bottles, showing them to Boyd after he had devastated the lot.

JONES' O. K. IS GIVEN AGENT

WITNESS TESTIFIES IN HEARING IN LIQUOR RING TRIAL

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 5.—United States Senator Wesley L. Jones, sponsor of the "five and ten" liquor law, approved the appointment of Alfred M. Hubbard, protégé of Roy Olmsted, king of Pacific northwest bootleggers, as a dry agent. William M. Whitney, suspended legal adviser of the prohibition unit here, testified in his trial in federal court here today.

Whitney, with his superior, Roy C. Lyle, former prohibition administrator, and Earl Corwin and R. L. Bryant, former agents, are charged with having accepted more than $100,000 in bribes from bootleggers to permit them to operate under federal protection.

Accused As Brains

Whitney, accused by the government of being the "brains" of the alleged alliance of officers and law violators, began his recital of his dealings with Hubbard.

Whitney testified the first time he met Hubbard was in the fall of 1924 during a raid on the home of Olmsted then the biggest liquor importer in the state. Hubbard was operating a radio station in the Olmsted home and was arrested. Hubbard had previously testified Whitney had called him into the prohibition office before the raid and threatened him with arrest if he did not furnish information in regard to the Olmsted liquor operation.

The day after the raid Whitney said he questioned Hubbard but the latter refused to tell him what he knew about Olmsted. Hubbard was indicted by a grand jury in January, 1925, along with Olmsted and about 90 others, on liquor charges. Whitney denied the testimony of Hubbard and several other discredited prohibition agents that Whitney had urged Hubbard's indictment.

MAN FALLS TO HIS DEATH

REX BROOKS, DALLAS, VICTIM OF FALL FROM 6TH FLOOR

DALLAS, Sept. 5.—Still clinging to a window screen which he evidently had clutched in a futile effort to save himself from falling from a sixth floor window of a downtown hotel here last night, Rex (Wingy) Brooks, 31, one-armed rent car driver was found in a dying condition on the street below. He died an hour later in a hospital.

His fall followed a fight that occurred in the room from which he fell, officers were told.

Two men were placed in the city jail for questioning concerning the affair.

Federal Reserve Is To Be Reorganized

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Early reorganization of the federal reserve board will be made with Eugene Meyer, a veteran government financial administrator, taking over the governorship.

Edmund Platt of New York, the vice-governor is retiring shortly and his departure clears the way for appointment of Mr. Meyer, who comes from the same federal reserve district.

With Platt's retirement, both the governorship and vice governorship of the board will be vacant. Roy A. Young, having resigned as governor recently to become head of the Boston federal reserve bank.

President Hoover intends to name Mr. Meyer governor. He is looking for a vice-governor and there are indications that he will go to the northwest to fill this office.

Seven of the twelve federal reserve districts are open to Mr. Hoover in selecting a vice-governor. These districts which are now without representation on the board are Kansas City, Minneapolis, Dallas, Atlanta, Richmond, Philadelphia and Cleveland.

REAPPORTIONMENT BILLS PREPARED AS TIME NEARS FOR TEXAS TO GAIN NEW MEMBERS IN REPRESENTATIVES

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANGELO, Sept. 5.—Three bills reapportioning Texas for congressional, state senate and legislative districts are now being framed by a group of Texas lawmakers, one of them being Penrose Metcalfe, representative, of this city.

Metcalfe has a map well in process of completion which bears the "mathematics of reapportionment" preliminary to making official suggestion at Austin.

Metcalfe said the committee is state-wide and the bills will reflect no sectional partisanship though they will take into account the exceptional growth of West Texas.

May Get 3 Members

Under the congressional reapportionment, already authorized, Texas is to get two or perhaps three new members. Mr. Metcalfe said this will cut the size of some of the gigantic districts, running, as in the case of the district of Marvin Jones of Amarillo to 33 counties. The El Paso-San Angelo district now embraces a territory from El Paso to within 70 miles of Austin. The Abilene district runs from Eastland and Shackelford counties to within a few miles of Austin.

Both the state senate and house of representatives have received their maximum membership. Districts will be revised to equalize them so far as possible, in population.

Cities Offset 94 Counties

Now four big cities in the one-county senatorial districts off-set 94 counties in the state senate.

Mr. Metcalfe announced that under the 1930 census figures each 36,000 population will be entitled to a house member. Tom Green county will have almost enough population for a member of its own.

The nine-county district of Representative Carl Rountree, Lamesa, has population to justify more than two members. Mr. Metcalfe pointed out.

Lovington Group Is Taken By Company

LOVINGTON, N. M., Sept. 5.—(Special)—The Lea County Building and Loan association has been taken over by the Republic Thrift Syndicate, operating in five states. The memberships were transferred and a local board appointed, composed of Seth Alston, J. E. Simmons, Jim Reed, Luke Roberts, Green Beady and D. C. Berry.

Bob Arglin was made secretary and manager of the local board, handling loans for the syndicate.

The South African Government has started an economy campaign in its railway shops.

Mrs. Guin had been ill for some time.

LEGGE WARNS ON FEEDING

FARM BOARD CHAIRMAN
DECLARES CORN MUST BE SUBSTITUTED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—A warning that livestock growers must substitute wheat and other small grains for corn in feeding if a normal supply of meat, dairy products and poultry is to be produced this winter, was issued today by Chairman Legge of the Federal Farm board.

In addition to being a measure of economy for the producers, he said
in an address over the Columbia Broadcasting system, under the auspices of the Washington Star
this substitution should have a beneficial effect on the situation in the wheat market.

To obtain the best results, substitution should begin at once, he said, by mixing the substitute grains
with corn.

In this way the chairman explained, a complete change in the cattle ration at a later date may be averted.

Legge renewed his appeal for a reduced wheat acreage as the first essential step in the improvement
of the farmer's economic condition.

SUN PAPERS WILL CONTINUE ALONG

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5 (AP).—The control and management of the A.
S. Abell company, publishers of the Baltimore Sun, and the Evening Sun, will in no way be affected by the death of Van Lear Black, chairman of the board of directors, or by provisions of his will, it was stated
today by Paul Patterson, president of the company.

The will was admitted to probate yesterday at the courthouse of a hearing at which proof of the death of Mr. Black was established.

Van Lear Black's stock in the publishing company was bequeathed
in the will to his brother, Harry B.
Black, and the latter already was the owner of a larger share in the company than Van Lear Black. Mr.
Patterson disclosed.

"The Sun papers will pursue their usual policies with no change in control," he said. "The same group of Baltimoreans who have been interested in maintaining the Sun
papers as Baltimore institutions
will continue in charge."

Sing Sing Inmate Kills Fellow Convict

OSWEGO, N. Y., Sept. 5 (AP).— An inmate of Sing Sing prison, believed to have harbored a grudge
over the decision of lost obtained in a bank robbery, stabbed another convict to death last night in the prison recreation hall. The deed was committed in the presence of a keeper and large group of prisoners.

The victim, Joseph Raymond Klune, 28, was pierced once in the abdomen with a seven-inch knife
from the prison kitchen. Harry Lushtitz, 26, taken before Warden
Lewis E. Lewis, admitted the act, authorities said.

Lewis said Lushtitz reported not having been given a "cut" in the proceeds of a $6,700 bank robbery in Woodhaven, Queens, staged by Klune and another man.

Crude Industry In Healthiest State

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP).—The statistical position of the oil industry for the moment at least, is in the most healthy state attained
in its history, a current survey by Standard Statistics company says.
Production of crude is currently at the lowest point reached since 1923,
and with production in all active
territories throughout the country,
stocks of crude petroleum are being moderately reduced.

THE BETTER WAY
TO PREVENT
CONSTIPATION

You must look out for the health of your family. Often a faulty diet leads to constipation. Headaches, dizziness, loss of energy
follow. Husband and children become irritable. Serious diseases may develop.

You can prevent this by including roughage in the diet. A pleasant way to supply this roughage is with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. New processes have improved its flavor tremendously.
Two tablespoons daily, for each person, will prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal. Do this instead of giving them habit-forming pills and drugs.

ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron to enrich the blood. Made by

'RAREST' STAMP TO BE SHOWN AT WORLD EXHIBIT BY AN AMERICAN

UTICA, N. Y. (AP).—What is rated
as the world's rarest stamp will be shown at the International Philatelic exhibition in Berlin September 12 to 21 by Arthur Hind of Utica.

The stamp, believed to be the only one of its kind in existence,
is a British Guiana one-cent issue
of 1856. It is valued at $50,000.

The stamp supply ran out in British Guiana in 1856, and new supplies from England were overdue.
To meet the emergency the postmaster designed this stamp, and copies were run off in a printshop
there. To prevent counterfeiting
postal clerks initialed each stamp
as it was sold.

When a new supply of regular stamps arrived, the makeshift issue was destroyed. Sixty years later a boy found one in his father's attic, and sold it for $1.50.
Then it was sold to an English dealer for $125, and again to an Austrian count for $500.

During the war the count's collection was seized by France as contraband and sold at auction.
Hind bought the Guiana stamp for $32,500.

Hind's stamp collection has been called the greatest assemblage of rare stamps in the world, and he refuses to estimate its value.

Whenever the stamps are taken from their vault they are insured
against every conceivable manner of loss. Premiums paid during a few weeks run into thousands of dollars.

A part of Hind's collection was insured for nearly $1,000,000 a few years ago, an amount declared to represent less than their actual value.

KEY POSITION FOR 'BLOC' AS LEAGUE MEETS AGAIN; THREE MEN TO RETIRE

GENEVA (P)—Cesar Zúñiga, Venezuelan minister at Paris and Berne, will preside over the first sitting of the League of Nations assembly next Wednesday. Thus he has both council and assembly jobs to keep him busy.

Senor Zúñiga is chairman of the league council, which began its sixtieth session Friday.

A quiet, gray-haired man, Senor Zúñiga and his colleague, Dr. Gustavo Guerrero, minister of Salvador at Paris, are credited with having played large parts in the organization of the "Latin-American bloc" at the assembly last year.

This bloc, the strongest numerical group within the league, is expected to be influential during this year's deliberations.

Three members of the council—two of them from the western world—will retire at the close of the present session. They are Senator Raul Dandurand of Canada, Senor Agüero y Bethancourt of Cuba and Hjalmar Procope of Finland.

Senor Agüero y Bethancourt, he

of the Napoleonic features, may relinquish his seat to another Latin-American, perhaps a representative of Guatemala.

Mr. Procope's seat is likely to be taken by a representative of another of the Scandinavian countries. He has been foreign minister of Finland throughout his three years of duty in a council seat. Mr. Dandurand's probable successor will be another representative of a member state in the British commonwealth.

The present council session, which began September 3, will be concluded after the adjournment of the assembly session.

SUB-STATION TO CARE FOR FRUITS

AUSTIN, Sept. 5. (P)—A sub-office of the state department of agriculture will be opened at Harlingen September 15, for citrus inspection purposes. J. M. Del Curto, state entomologist, said today. The office will be in charge of J. C. Powell of Austin.

The main purpose of the office will be the inspection of fruit packed for shipment to determine if it is matured and to aid in elimination of citrus diseases.

A survey recently completed by the agricultural department disclosed the crop will be between 20 and 30 per cent under last year's yield but will be harvested earlier due to favorable growing conditions during the past few months. The drop in production was caused by the hard frosts of last winter. Five thousand carloads were shipped last year.

Seventy-five per cent of the crop will be grape fruit; 25.4 per cent oranges and two per cent miscellaneous, Del Curto said.

Nearly all industries in Japan are restricting output.

PROBE INTO ANDREE RELICS GUARDED CAREFULLY; PROFESSORS ARE SWORN TO SECRECY; RECORDS ARE LOCKED

By Associated Press.
TROMSØ, Norway, Sept. 5.—Examination of the bodies of Saamund August Andree and Nils Strindberg, resumed today by the Swedish experts, Prof. Hedberg and Prof. Luthberg, produced a variety of small objects belonging to the two men but threw little additional light on the fate of the expedition.

In Andree's pocket was discovered a box of matches, besides some trinkets identified as having belonged to Strindberg, who apparently died before Andree and was buried by him on White Island. Strindberg's belongings were recognized by his brother, a Stockholm sculptor.

The preserved body of a very rare

Arctic bird, nautical tables and charts, all belonging to Andree were found among the objects in the boat.

Clearing up the mystery of the expedition's wanderings now depends wholly on the text, as yet unexplained, of the Andree diaries and note books, particularly those found on Andree's body yesterday.

The diaries are being kept carefully locked, and it is stated that even the experts have not examined them thoroughly. Mr. How, the Norwegian scientist, said statements about them were based on rumor and guess work.

Silence Is Sworn
Prof. Luthberg stated that all members of the examining commission had sworn silence on their contents, and that nobody else had been permitted to get near the books. The doors of the room where they are stored were padlocked and sealed Tuesday night and the seals were unbroken when the commission started to work yesterday.

In addition to all other finds the diaries will be turned over to the Swedish government, according to Prof. Luthberg.

"I know nothing about Frankel's death during the march (Stockholm dispatch yesterday reported that this was narrated in the diaries). I have had no time for studying the diaries. We have been busy preparing the finds, and if any other member of the commission had seen such a thing, he would certainly have told me."

The commission issued a statement on their most recent finds.

"The continued examination of Andree's body has not produced any new finds to throw further light on the fate of his expedition."

Shells Are Found

"In his pocket, however, were found a number of shells for his gun, a box of matches and a pocket knife. After that, Strindberg's body was examined. In one of his pockets was found a pencil. Observations made at the examination seem to strengthen the belief that Strind-

has any knowledge of it thus far.

Based on Statement

"The story is simply based on an official statement of yesterday. When it is said that Frankel died on the march to White Island, that is probably a correct deduction, since only two bodies were found and there was no trace of Frankel.

But when it is stated that the expedition reached White Island on September 2, I don't know where they got that date for it is not in the diary."

Unemployment amongst trade union members in Hungary has decreased 10 per cent since March.

While passing through Alton, England, recently, a thirty circus elephant forced as much of his bulk as it could through the door of a saloon, extended its trunk to the bar and refused to move until given a quart of "the best."

PAYNE DIARY IS TURNED OVER TO KIDDIES

COURT ACTION THREAT VANISHED; BOOK TO BE COPYRIGHTED

(By Associated Press)
AMARILLO, Sept. 5.—Threatened court action to obtain the diary of A. D. Payne, confessed wife slayer who committed suicide while in the Potter county jail here, vanished today when the document was turned over to Homer A. Callaway, attorney for the three Payne children.

The diary, kept by Payne after he was arrested in connection with an explosion in an automobile which killed Mrs. Payne and crippled for life the couple's 11-year-old son, was turned over to the attorney after he had presented a letter from Sid Payne, brother of the dead man.

To Be Copyrighted

Callaway announced that the document would be copyrighted in the interest of the orphans of the tragedian. He expressed belief the memoranda had a literary value.

Sid Payne, who lived in Tulsa, Texas, has been appointed temporary guardian of the children, who now are living with relatives in New Mexico and Texas. An application to make the guardianship permanent has been filed with the county court, and a hearing on it will be held Sept. 13.

berg was buried by Andree.

"Among the books was found the body of a rare bird. In a tin container was found a typewritten roll of paper that seems to contain an article written by A. G. Nathorst.

"Of the expedition's guns, one double barreled rifle and a carbine were found in the boat, and the other carbine was found beside Andree. Examination of the boat continues."

Records Guarded

Steps taken by the government agents to guard the Andree records were explained today by Dr. Adolph Noel, chief of the Spitzbergen research mission, who said that some correspondence evidently had been referred to "pure imagination" in piecing together details. He added:

"Not only have the Andree documents been kept behind locked doors at the hospital but they also have been sealed and the seals are unbroken. The men who sent out reports regarding Frankel's death had absolutely no idea of what is in the diary. Only the commission of experts knows that. Nobody else
