Spring? Thunder Storm!

Thunder storms across this county beat the drums to herald spring's official arrival in the early hours of Wednesday and strong winds played havoc with the Abel Cable TV system here in Colorado City.

Mrs. James Hull, manager at Abel Cable, reported that lightning struck north of Colorado City knocking out the channel 4 signal and heavy wind damaged many house drop lines.

Trouble crews got to work at 7:15 a.m. Wednesday and by 1:40 p.m. three channels of the five-channel system were back on the air. Mrs. Hull said the other two channels should be cleared up in another hour.

A total of 181 calls had been received at the office by 12:30 p.m. to report trouble with the cable.

Rain totaled half to three fourths of an inch with flakes of snow during the morning and more precipitation was predicted for this area.

Renderbrook Ranch Owners Hosts To 270 Guests

By RUTH COFFEY
Record News Editor

Otto F. Jones and his wife of 54 years were honored here Monday evening in Civic House when 270 citizens dined as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chappell of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bassham, Colorado City.

Guests from Colorado City and from throughout a wide West Texas area were invited by Renderbrook Ranch owners to help celebrate the more than 60 years Mr. and Mrs. Jones have been at Renderbrook.

Invited guests were out in force for the occasion which complimented the longtime manager of Renderbrook and his family.

Chappell, master of ceremonies, and other speakers for the evening teased the big cowman Otto Jones. They praised him, told jokes about him, reviewed his colorful life as Renderbrook boss as the crowd vigorously applauded.

W. C. Hooks, himself a pioneer Mitchell Countian, said the invocation.

Chappell then read telegrams of congratulations to the Jones family from Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Ellwood, from the Rev. Cal C. Wright, and from George Kiker, auditor.

Introduced to the crowd, made up largely of pioneer citizens, were Mr. and Mrs. Jones, their daughters Mrs. Pauline Jones Kayser and Mrs. Lloyd Croslin, the Croslin sons and daugter.

Also presented were Northcutt family, long associated with Renderbrook - Spade Ranch; Ralph Bonds, manager of the Chappell-Spade Ranch in New Mexico; Dub Waldrip, supervisor of the family ranch interests in New Mexico and Texas. Chappell's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bassham, the Chappell and Bassham children.

Chappell followed the introductions with a leisurely and witty review of the history of Renderbrook under what he termed "The benevolent reign of Otto F. Jones."

The story as Chappell told it began in August 1907 when the young cowhand Jones rode horseback, accompanied by his pack horse, from Nolan County to Spade to join Renderbrooks employees at $25 a month "and keep."

The long look verbally pictured by Chappell began with Jones' building of the cattle herd and his early efforts at tick eradication, when he became Renderbrook manager in 1912, to the decade of the sixties when commercial hunting became big at the ranch.

Renderbrook, owned by members and descendants of the Ellwood family for five generations, is now the home of an estimated 8,000 deer Chappell noted.

Quoting from what he called the "Jones Journal," the master of ceremonies even called the names of favorite horses on the old trail drives, "Muskrat, Satan, Roscoe and Sanco."

His account was also rich with names like Miss Mary Arnett (Mrs Tom Stonecroad) Miss Maggie Smith, Miss Jean Ellwood, late mother of Chappell and Mrs. Bassham.

Recurrent droughts, the first feeding of cottonseed and cake to cattle, first projects for poisoning of prairie dogs, the old herds of red Durham cattle, the fight against screwworms, coyote trapping were part of the story along with the first Hereford and registered cattle and the introduction of sheep to the ranch ranges back in 1935 with Pete Ainsworth as sheepman.

Names like Arnett, Bonds, McClellands, Russell, Swann were woven through the informal ranch history as lived by the Jones family.

"This is where we have been," Chapell concluded, "and where we can go because of men like Otto Jones."

Charles C. Thompson, rancher - banker - lawyer paid tribute to Mr. Jones in a speech which recalled Jones'

Civic House in Colorado City was filled with nearly 300 citizens Monday evening for a banquet paying tribute to Otto F. Jones and his wife Myrtle. Jones, widely known cattleman, was manager of Renderbrook Ranch from 1912 until his semi-retirement in 1967. He and Mrs. Jones live in the "Rock House" at the famous ranch owned by heirs of the first I. L. Ellwood.

Line For Tags

Likely for Car Licenses

If you are still without your 1968 automobile license plates, then get ready to stand in line.

Fifty per cent of all the car, truck and pickup operators in Mitchell County still have not obtained licenses.

These have to be crammed into nine small days because 1968 tags must be on vehicles by April 1.

"Registration is going very slow," reported County Tax Assessor-Collector Mamie Hardegree. "I've never seen anything like it.

"There is only one more week for registration after this week," he continued, "and car owners who continue to wait will face the inconvenience of waiting in line."

Hardegree urged that persons be sure to have their certificate of title and 1967 registration papers with them when they visit the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office to register cars and trucks for 1968.

PRAISE DEAN RUSK

Vets Of WW 1 Fire Round At Senators

Mitchell County World War I Veterans got irked and fired a letter to Washington, D.C., after the open hearing of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee March 11 and 12.

Resolutions adopted by Mitchell County Barracks No. 1582 of WW I veterans praised restraint by Dean Rusk and "deplored" conduct by Senator Fullbright of Arkansas and Senator Morse of Oregon.

Copies of the resolution and of the open letter to Mr. Rusk were mailed to Senators Fullbright and Morse; to Texas Senators John Tower and Ralph Yarborough; to Congressmen George Mahon and Omar Burleson. Another copy went to President Yyndon B. Johnson.

Letter and resolutions were signed by Fritz W. Mogford, commander of the Mitchell County Barracks No. 1582, World War I Veterans.

The letter follows.

"Dear Mr. Rusk: Local veterans of World War I desire to express their sincere appreciation for your restraint in the open hearing before the Foreign Relations Committee and in a regular meeting we have unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"BE IT RESOLVED that Mitchell County Barracks No. 1572 of Veterans of World War I go on record in full support of the war effort in Vietnam and especially commend the Honorable Dean Rusk, Secretary of State for his position on and his restraint in testimony before the open hearing of the Foreign Relations Committee on March 11 and 12.

"We further deplore the sad state of affairs where, it appears to us, that the position of the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Senator Fullbright of Arkansas and of Senator Morse of Oregon and of those who support their position, have given aid and comfort to the enemy; seriously hampered the war effort, resulting in the death of thousands of our men in service.

"We further express our opposition to the use of the war effort as a means of political or personal gain.

"Be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Honorable Dean Rusk, to the President of the United States, to Senators Fullbright and Morse; to Senators Yarborough and Tower of Texas; to Congressmen George H. Mahon and Omar Burleson; and that a copy be offered for publication locally and in veterans publications."

Carriker Speaker At Farmers Union

Family night for Mitchell County Farmers Union attracted 60 people Saturday evening to Medallion Room, Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative building.

Max Carriker, former state representative and a prominent member of Fisher County Farmers Union, was guest speaker.

The speaker traced the history of Farmers Union from its founding in Point, Texas, in 1902. The recently organized Mitchell County F.U. now has 100 farm families on its roll, he noted.

Carriker stated Farmers Union policies and reviewed some of the organization's goals.

"We seek to solve the problems of rural America through a common effort to inform ourselves of the true circumstances of the farming situation, rejecting the misconception and misinformation spread by those who because of ignorance, personal gain or special interests would thwart the common good of all Americans by marching under a banner labeled Free Enterprise," Carriker told the group.

Emerson Is Sentenced to Three Years

Three years in the state penitentiary was the sentence assessed Willie Rose Emerson, 18, in 32nd District Court here Monday, under indictment for burglary.

District Judge Austin McCloud presided. Weldon Kirk, district attorney, represented the state and Dell Parker was counsel for the defence.

Emerson admitted to the court that he had burglarized eight homes in his area, an all-white neighborhood except for the 12th and Austin St. Emerson home. Emerson is a Negro.

Testimony of Colorado City Chief of Police Jesse Browning was that part of the things stolen from the eight homes had been recovered. He said Emerson had given some of it away and thrown part of the loot in Lone Wolf Creek. He did not sell any of the stolen articles.

Parker asked the court for leniency. Kirk recommended three years for each of the nine indictments against Emerson with sentences to run concurrently and with time to be credited for the six moths the defendant had already spent in Mitchell County jail.

Judge McCloud followed the district attorney's recommendation.

CONVERSATION CORNER

Ruth Coffey's

"SHOULD auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind?"

Not when that old acquaintance stands over six feet tall in his boots, has a big warm handshake, a grin, a beautiful wife, two daughters . . . and the name of Otto Jones.

Otto and Myrtle Jones were hailed by nearly 300 friends Monday night at Civic House after a roast beef dinner and properly informal speeches full of old cowhand lingo Frank Chappell of Lubbock set the relaxed mood as master of ceremonies.

Otto has been at home on the range at Renderbrook Ranch for more than 60 years now. His wife Myrtle (Honey) has shared that home for 54 years.

* * *

HERE for the dinner were two daughters of the late D. N. Arnett, earlyday ranch manager, Mrs. Tom Stonecipher and Mrs. Floyd Beal. They grew up at Renderbrook Ranch as Mary and Ophelia Arnett sisters of the late Mrs. J. G. (Elnora) Merritt and both live in Lubbock.

The Merritt sons and their wives were part of the party — Jake and Eva Merritt, Ford and Jean, John and Mabel, all of C City, Rod and Joan Merritt of Lubbock. Joan looked plumb beautiful.

* * *

FAMILIAR FACES at the Civic House dinner belonged to Thelma and A. L. McSpadden, Mabel Kelley, Lucille Trulock, Lela Price, Irene Robertson, Winnie Quinney, Hilda May . . Bonnie Burt, Daisy and Herb Gunn.

Saw Lewis Elliott and his daughter Ruth Cooper . . . Bill and Nettie Doss, Mmes. Sam, Oscar and Edgar Majors . . . That distinguished gentleman Judge A. S. Mauzey of Sweetwater.

Joe Earnest squired his sister Martha . . . George Womack sat with Ruth Dozier, Mrs. W. W. Rhode, Dr. Bill and Naomi Rhode, Betty and Bill Hankins were there.

Did you know that Bill, our popular game warden, is being transferred to El Paso because of his knowledge of the Spanish language, learned as son of Baptist missionaries in South America?

* * *

THE DANIELS, Ross and Evelyn, were with Josie and Bill Randle at the dinner for the Joneses.

Saw Mary and Ralph Lee, Puddy and Rush Neff, the O. L. Simpsons, Arnel Smiths, J. S. Craddocks, Happy and J. D. Williams, the Sims Palmers . . . Mary Anne and Austin McCloud . . . Jim and Pat Kelley . . . John and Pat Chinn . . . Charlotte and Bobby Northcutt . . . The Bruce Byrnes, Pete Ainsworths, Jimmy Paynes, Dave and Emily Bridgford, Eleanor Cowan and her husband Dr. W. K. the Jake Northcutts, Gerald Gordons, Charles Roots.

GREETED Gladys Miller and Clydine Stickney, same place, same time, Kack McClelland and her mama, Mrs. R. P. Price . . Sefton and Aldred Pickens . . . Jake and Kitten Richardson . . . Nell and Bennett Scott . . . Gus and Frances Chesney . . . the Allan Sheppards, the Farris Lipps, the John Drummonds . . . Billie and Elmer Martin . . . the Ross Hargroves.

Isabel Ratliff was there . . . Ditto Ruth Latham . . . The M. E. Millers . . . Isla Watson, Mrs. Clay Smith . . . the Wright Hocks, of course . . . the Jas. Jarmans, Marcella and Bob Fee . . . Mrs. Sam Wulfjen and Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Sr. . . . Virginia and Raymond Fuller . . . Violet Moeser . . . Wilma Womack and Mae Fuller . . . Emmabeth and Charlie Thompson.

TODAY is officially first day of spring, tra la!

Got in from Big D a few hours before the dinner saluting Myrtle and Otto Jones. On purpose.

Spring traveled with me. There was a gentle rain from Weatherford to just east of Sweetwater.

Redbud is in bloom in the Mineral Wells area along with dogwood blossoms, the pink of the peach trees, the white of plum, apple, and pear blooms.

Japonica is showing off and daffodils parading. Spring is the loveliest time of all.

Bluebonnets and Indian Paint Brush plants are waiting until April, of course. Calendar or no calendar it's never quite spring in Texas until bluebonnets announce it.

And until the temperature quits dipping to the '30's.

LETTER from Weldon Moore, retired principal at Hutchinson, renews his Record subscription.

"Since our retirement in 1965 we have traveled extensively," writes Mr. Moore. (His wife is a former first grade teacher here.)

"We make a trip to the East Coast every year to visit our son Ronald Clyde and his family in Maryland. We have lived in Austin since moving from C City. We enjoy living here and like the climate, culture, and recreation facilities of this area. We also think this is a pretty place.

"We happily remember our pleasant years in Colorado City. think C City school's are the best, and enjoy reading all the news. We look forward to reading the column and news about people in Colorado City, too."

SEEN LATELYS, around the town places, were Lucy Berry (Mrs. Walt) of the downtown scene . . . Mrs. John Brown, too.

Giles Bircham was an office drop-in . . . So was Wendell Turnagin . . . And Billie (Mrs. Corky) Brown.

* * *

Penney's famous store, Neiman's, was featuring bright collons in all the downtown store windows . . . collons worn with contrasting jackets or coats and very dark hose.

THEY inches above the knee, gals. The breton is very "in again" this season as are the "mini" bags not big enough to hold more than one lipstick and two one dollar bills.

Shoes are low-heeled, square and bright . . . sunshine yellow, orange patent, green-green, black and white, and wild flower patterns.

"It's spring again . . . and birds on the wing again" are not the only things a-soaring upward. So are skirts and prices.

Local Florist Speaks To Club

Mrs. Rush Neff of Colorado Floral Company was guest speaker for a meeting of the Hesperian Study Club Friday in Hesperian Room of Mitchell County Library.

The club presented the formal arrangement to the public library, the triangle bouquet to Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Thomas and the low arrangement to Miss Mabel Smith.

The meeting was hosted by Mrs. Bennett Scott. Mrs. Lynn Halbert, president, read an announcement of the Mesquite District Convention which will be in Abilene this week. Mrs. Halbert was to attend the presidents' dinner Wednesday evening.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Neff, Mrs. A. R. Carter, Mrs. J. B. Magill and Mrs. J. P. Nunn.

Either Way—

Every day when I meet one of our citizens associated with the oil industry I'm reminded again the major role oil and gas continue to maintain within our community.

Of course, the best thing about these oil industry citizens within our midst is that they are good, wholesome neighbors. They are active in every phase of community life from industry, to schools, to churches and clubs.

If you are impressed with dollars, you might look at gas industry properties amount to $7,334,220 in rendered valuations — about a fifth of the entire tax roll.

So, either way you look — for good citizens or industrial evaluation — our oil families and their firms mean a lot to us.

Both Ballots Test Liquor By Drink

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

All those candidates for governor got a hefty bit of pressure off them when both the state Democratic and Republican executive committees decided to put the question of liquor-by-the-drink on the May 4 ballot.

With increasing concern over liquor law enforcement and the Texas Liquor Control Board coupled with Gov. Jonh Connally's push for liquor-by-the-drink, gubernatorial candidates have been pressured hard for their stand on the issue.

Now, with the question being put to the voters in a referendum, all the candidates have to say is that they will abide by the wishes of the voters.

Also on the ballot as referendums will be the question of pari-mutuel horse-race betting and the creation of a Texas Dairy Commission with the power to regulate and fix the price of milk and other dairy products.

Although none of the voters' answers to the three questions will be binding, the issues do assure a high turnout of the more than 4,000,000 registered voters. It will take an act of the legislature to put any of them in effect. Ballots will merely say: "This proposition is only an expression of public opinion and has no force or effect as law."

Legislature directed the first primary vote on local option pari-mutuel gambling. Petitions signed by 119,000 voters called for voter opinion on creating a Texas Dairy Commission with power to regulate milk prices.

Both party leaders decided the liquor-by-the-drink issue is hot enough to warrant a check on that, too. This referendum will be the first opportunity Texas voters have had to express their opinions statewide since the repeal of prohibition in the 1930s.

Campaigns already are shaping up on the high-stage drinking and gambling issues. Opponents of a dairy commission also are organized for battle. Anti-Crime Council of Texas has formed to combat organized crime and defeat the racing proposition. Committee for Tourism and Regulated Sale of Mixed Drinks stands ready to get back into action. Dry spokesmen report they have organized to fight liquor-by-the-drink. Texas Racing Association is ready with a campaign for wagering proposal.

Meanwhile, House committee studying liquor laws has asked for an attorney general's opinion on constitutionality of a mixed drink local option bill.

PARKS IMPROVED

While finishing touches were applied to the $1,000,000 renovation of the Davis Mountains State Scenic Park near Fort Davis, new federal grants were approved for four other state parks.

Federal funds of $104,150 matched by a state appropriation of like amount will finance a 498-acre park 14 miles southwest of Cleburne.

Federal funds of $28,500, also matched by legislative appropriation, is earmarked for Mission San Francisco del Los Tejas Historic Park northwest of Crockett, a 118-acre historic park in the Piney Woods.

Lake Brownwood State Recreation Park near Brown wood will get $117,150 federal money matched by the state for its 538-acre park.

Another federal grant of $99,900, matched by state funds, will create the 588-acre Benisen-Rio Grande Valley State Scenic Park near Mission.

Dedication tentatively is set for March 28 of the Davis Mountains Park. Also slated for dedication by Governor Connally that same day at the Park is scenic Texas Mountain Trail, one of ten unveiled by Connally last January to lure tourists off the beaten path into Texas areas of outstanding beauty and historic interest.

SCREWWORMS CUT

Texas' screwworm eradication program cut reported cases of infestation from 49,484 in 1962 to 1,219 in 1967. So reports Auditor C. H. Cavness in his audit of the Animal Health Commission.

Commission's share of the program has been turned over to the federal government except for security supervision of the Rio Grande Valley screwworm fly production plant and the required inspection force.

COURT SPEAKS

State won its $1,000 civil penalty suit against a Bellville Contractor under a water permit law. The road builder was first permanently enjoined from using public waters without permit from the Texas Water Rights Commission.

State Supreme Court denied rehearing of decision that Hillsboro cannot enforce a peddlers and vendors ordinance against an insurance company.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a six-year probated sentence for a Houston lawyer who encouraged his client to lie on the witness stand.

Same court ordered a new trial for the man who received the death penalty for the shooting death of a potato chip salesman in Chambers County.

APPOINTMENTS

John Stokes of Lufkin is the new executive director and special counsel for the Republican Party of Texas. He succeeds Al Allison of Dallas who resigned to accept a private business offer.

Gubernatorial candidate John Hill named Rep. Bob Armstrong of Austin as executive director of his statewide campaign.

Governor Connally appointed A. E. Fawcett Jr. of Houston and R. F. (Bob) Byers of Dallas to the Texas Water Well Drillers Board.

House Speaker Ben Barnes has appointed Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock as chairman of the House Interim Committee to study egg importation and grading.

William J. Harding will direct activities of the new Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Insurance Companies.

John Peace of San Antonio, a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas System, has been appointed by Chairman Frank C. Erwin Jr. as a member of the Board for Lease of University Lands.

MORATORIUM ASKED

The Texas Animal Health Commission has joined the Texas Farm Bureau and the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in asking the U. S. Department of Agriculture to delay a proposed new regulation prohibiting interstate shipment of cattle from countries not certified for brucellosis control.

Under the proposed regulation, cattle in uncertified counties could be sold for consumption only in Texas, unless the cattleman has his herd qualified himself, which involves personal expense.

Ninety-five Texas counties are not certified, and one AHC official estimates that three years will be required for compliance. As the regulation now reads, it will go into effect sometime between May 1 and January 1, 1969.

The USDA regulation is being sought by those states which are completely certified and do not want infected cattle being shipped in from states not so certified.

SHORT SNORTS

City of Abilene has received permission from the Texas Water Rights Commission to divert water from the Brazos River's Clear Fork as long as flow in the Fork is not reduced to less than 200 cubic feet per second.

Rio Grande Valley cotton farmers have been given a 13-day planting extension (until April 13) because excessive rains and low soil temperatures have made planting impractical under the old schedule, says Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

State Rep. Dave Allred of Wichita Falls, who is unopposed for re-election, has taken a leave of absence from the Wichita Falls Record-News and Times to handle press relations for Dolph Brisco in his campaign for governor.

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, chairman of the House Interim Water Study Committee, sustained a heart attack in Austin after attending a meeting of the special House subcommittee on liquor law revision.

Attorney General Martin in a new opinion has held that the highest-ranking officers eligible for Texas National Guard Armory Board membership are Brig. Gen. D. A. Thompson, Col. Lewis E. Bracy Jr., and Col. Charles A. Francis.

State Securities Board blocked dealer sales of securities of Eastridge Park Baptist Church of Mesquite.

Texas Railroad Commission set May 7 for hearing on current market price for gas used for light and fuel in the Panhandle.

Judge Sherman G. Finesilver of Denver, Colo., who has worked with the Colorado Commission on Aging, specializing in pedestrian safety and home safety problems confronting older persons, addressed the annual meeting in Austin of the Governor's Committee on Aging.

Congressman's View

By OMAR BURLESON
U. S. Congressman
17th District

To speculate what may happen in the November elections is about as certain as an amateur prognosticator predicting what the weather will be eight months hence.

The possibility, however, is that the election of the next President of the United States could be thrown into the House of Representatives. The case for such is no longer theoretical. Conditions which could bring it about are showing more substantially.

Should this occur, the decision would certainly not be in conformity with the "one man, one vote" rule laid down by the Supreme Court placing more political strength in the populated areas.

In such an event, each of the fifty states would have one vote. Alaska, for instance, with 272,000 citizens would have the same vote as Texas with its 11,000,000 and Delaware with one vote equal to more than 19,000,000 people of California.

NEW PROCESS

Even the possibility of such a situation points up the great need to amend the Constitution abolishing the Electoral College and provide for the election of the President and Vice President by more democratic processes. It is much too late for such action to avert the possibility of the President being elected in 1968 by theHouse of Representatives and the Vice President by the U.S. Senate but with the splinter parties likely to increase instead of decrease, reform should be brought about before another Presidential election.

The experience of 1948 should have been a lesson. In that election there were really four parties and four pretty important Presidential candidates. There was Mr. Truman as the Democrat, Thomas E. Dewey as the Republican, Senator Strom Thurmand of South Carolina as the "States Rights Party" candidate and Henry Wallace on the "peace" ticket.

TWO DECIDE

A change of less than 6% of the popular vote from President Truman in only two states would have shifted the election into the House of Representatives.

Henry Wallace did not carry a single state but was perhaps controlling in taking New York, Michigan and Maryland away from the Democratic candidate.

There is a feeling among some expert politicos that political opinion now dividing the Country causes the possibility to be greater in 1968 than it was twenty years ago. Some pretty astute political writers are already cautiously predicting that no Presidential candidate in this year's election will be able to get an adequate popular vote to assure a majority in the Electoral College. In this event only two things could happen — either some electors would have to defect and act contrarily to the voters who selected them or have a deadlock, throwing the whole thing into the U. S. House of Representatives.

DEADLOCK SIGNS

Some political analysts say there are more signs pointing to a deadlock situation this year than in the Truman-Dewey-Thurmond-Henry Wallace year. One reason given is that Thurmond's counterpart, George Wallace of Alabama, shows far more strength in that slot than was shown in 1948. In that year the combined vote of Thurmond and Henry Wallace was 4.78% of the total. The polls are now giving George Wallace around 12½ or 2½ times greater than the two splinter parties got in 1948.

Alaska, Delaware, Nevada, Vermont and Wyoming have only one Member each in the House of Representatives. Each of their votes would equal that of California with 38 Members or Texas with 23. Borderline States where political sentiment shifts from year to year are keeping close watch on these developments. It is to be assumed that the one unit vote of any State's Delegation in Congress would be cast for the controlling Party's Presidential candidate.

The 1968 Elections appear to have new Dimensions of Importance.

Senator's Point

For Wildlife Bill

By RALPH YARBOROUGH
United States Senator

Recently I introduced a bill in the United States Senate to try to curb one of the most shameful practices toward wildlife going on around the world, the tremendous illegal traffic in wildlife and wildlife products. My bill would cut off imports into the United States of illegally captured wildlife and their products, and it would also curtail poacher trade within the United States.

Deer hunters in Texas are required to get their deer tagged by the game warden, to show that it was legally captured. What we need is some sort of tag for imported wildlife, to show that it was legally captured or shot.

The United States is the leading market in the world for hides and wildlife products, for exotic furs, ivory, rare skins, and other animal and reptile products. All of us admire the beauty of a leopard skin or an alligator bag, but I don't think we want to see these breeds wiped out. My bill would attempt to save these and other species by fighting the illegal traffic in furs, hides, and the like. Legally captured products would still be available, since they are usually controlled. They have laws in Africa, for example, to allow only so many leopards and so many elephants to be killed each year. But it is impossible to enforce these laws when a man can make thousands of dollars through illegal killing.

A New York furrier estimated recently that some 7,000 African leopard skins were brought into New York last year at a cost of more than 2½ million dollars. Conservationists say the Somali leopard will be extinct within 10 years unless this killing is brought under control.

Closer to home, alligators like those in Southeast Texas have become a prize on the fashion fronts of the world, and that puts them in grave danger. Poachers can get up to $6 a foot for soft belly skin from alligators, and the most valuable ones are the alligators of less than five feet in length. That means the poachers go after the baby gators before they reach breeding age. That's why alligators are on their way out.

This is not a unique case. About 250 kinds of birds, fish, reptiles and mamals are vanishing from the earth. The best place to provide the protection needed for conserving these creatures is right here in our country.

Once a whole species is gone it can never be revived. John Thompson of the Fort Worth Star Telegram had a fine article the other day explaining how hard it is to enforce conservation measures in other countries as things now stand. A government policeman in Tanzania, he said, can make a year's wages by killing one leapard so naturally he's not going to be too tough on other lawbreakers. In Southeast Texas poachers can earn $25,000 a year hunting alligators at night. If they've caught they are fined only $200. But if we reduce the market for these illegally caught creatures, the poachers will lose their big profits.

Hunters and adventurers have already taken a heavy toll in species like the beautiful passenger pigeon, the Carolina parakeet, the Heath Hen and the Great Auk. The whooping crane and the California Condor are disappearing. The American bald eagle and the Texas attwater prairie chicken are also vanishing. I hope my bill will reverse this trend toward extinction.

For Older Workers

Social Security Benefits

(This is the eighth in a series of articles concerning Social Security. The articles were written for publication by Erven Fisher, District Manager at Big Spring.)

* * *

For older people and other beneficiaries who continue to work, the recent changes in social security will enable them to make more money and still draw some or all of their social security benefits.

The amount of money a person can earn in a year and still draw all the social security benefits has been raised. Beginning with 1968 a person who makes as much as $1,680 can still collect all of his social security benefits. Even if he earns considerably more than that, he may still draw some benefits. The old law had set that limit at $1,500 through 1967.

Here's how it now works. If you are working regularly and do not earn more than $1,680 a year in wages, you will receive all of your social security benefits each month.

If you are working regularly and make more than $1,680 a year $1 will be withheld from your benefits each $2 you make over $1,680, and up to $2,880. If you make more than $2,880, $1 will be deducted from your benefits for each $1 you make above that amount.

However, regardless of your total earnings for the year, you will receive your social security check for any month in which you do not earn more than $140 in wages and are not active in self-employment. This means that you could make any amount over $1,680 a year, and still receive your checks for any month that you do not work but with deductions against the months you do work. Remember, these new provisions apply to earnings in 1968. The old law applies to earnings and benefits in 1967.

As in the old law, there are no deductions taken from your social security benefits for any month after you reach 72, regardless of how much you earn in the year.

The provisions of the retirement test apply also to dependents of people who are receiving disability benefits, but not to the disabled worker himself. Special rules, including medical considerations, apply to people who are receiving benefits because of disability.

About 760,000 people across the country are expected to receive some $176 million in additional benefits during 1968, as a result of this change.

Taxpayers Quiz

On Federal Tax Matters

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

* * *

Q — I made a mistake in filling out the pre-addressed Form 1040 I got in the mail. What should I do?

A — The label on your form may be peeled off and put on another Form 1040. Use of this label will help avoid mistakes or delays in processing your return since it contains the information needed to identify your tax account.

Copies of tax forms are available at most banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

* * *

Q — How does the retirement income credit work? Does it reduce your income or the tax you owe?

A — The retirement income credit is a credit against your income tax. Taxpayers qualified to claim this credit, can reduce their tax by up to 15 percent of their "retirement income." Use Schedule B, Form 1040, to claim this credit.

Further details on this credit are contained in the booklet, "Retirement Income and Credit," Document No. 5018. Send a post card to your District Director for a free copy.

Q — I still have not received one of my W-2's from a former employer. Can I file without it?

A — W-2 forms from all employers should be attached to your return to avoid delays in processing. Ask your former employer about it since he is required by law to give W-2 statements to his former employees within 30 days after the last payment of wages.

* * *

Q — I am itemizing my deductions. Should I send in my expense records when I file?

A — No, do not send in records with the return. If your return is selected for audit, then you may be required to either send or bring them in.

Note that for some deductions or exclusions, schedules or supplementary forms must be filled in and attached to the Form 1040. Check your 1040 instructions carefully before you file.

* * *

Q — Does interest from a savings accout have to be reported as income if it's under $10?

A — Yes, this interest income must be reported if you are required to file a return.

* * *

Q — How should I figure my deduction for state gas tax?

A — On page 9 of the 1040 instructions there is a table you can use. It is based on the state tax rate and the mileage drive.

* * *

Q — Are the dividends on GI life insurance taxable?

A — No, they are not. Dividends on other insurance policies are not taxable either when they represent a return of premiums paid.

* * *

Q — Can a single person use the head of household tax rates?

A — Yes, if he furnished over half the cost of maintaining a home for a dependent relative or, his unmarried child, grandchild or stepchild. Details on this may be found on page 3 of the 1040 instructions.

* * *

Q — I was greatly overwithheld last year on my income tax. What can I do to reduce my withholding?

A — If you are presently claiming all of your exemptions for withholding purposes you may be able to claim additional withholding allowances based on the size of your itemized deductions. This is explained in Schedule A (Form W-4) available at local IRS offices.

* * *

Q — If somebody has a job overseas, do they still have to pay U.S. income tax?

A — Income earned overseas is fully taxable for civilian or military employees of the U. S. government. Those who work for a private concern overseas may be able to exclude all or part of their income from U. S. tax.

For details, send a post card to your District Director for a free copy of Publication No. 54, "Tax Guide for U. S. Citizens Abroad."

* * *

Q — Our daughter earned several hundred dollars last year babysitting. Does she report this income or do I since she is my dependent?

A — If your daughter earned $600 or more last year, she is required to file a tax return. You should not report her earnings on your return even though she is your dependent.

* * *

Q — Are Social Security benefits ever taxable?

A — No, they are not.

* * *

Q — Where can I buy a copy of "Your Federal Income Tax?"

A — Most local offices of IRS have copies or you can write the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. 20402. The cost is 50 cents.

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever — she always fears the worst!

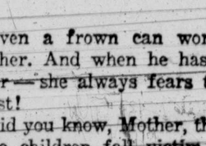

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to spiritual neglect than any of the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.

Yet it isn't a disease, at all! It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child . . . HIS church

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

PROBABLY COMING DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

Mrs. Hines Presents Devotion

Mrs. Witt Hines last Friday told members of Fidelis Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church to "think positively, think progressively, think constructively."

"Put wings on your thoughts," she advised the class during a meeting in the church parlor.

The measure of a man is in his thoughts, Mrs. Hines emphasized. She quoted Proverbs 23:7, "For as he thinketh in his heart so is he."

Mrs. Chester Hart, Mrs. Keith Miles and Mrs. Maude Charters were co-hostesses for the monthly meeting.

The business session was opened with prayer by Mrs. Perry Barber. Mrs. Hart presented the secretary's report. Mrs. O. B. Trulock Sr. reported on the class shut-in members.

Refreshments were served from a table which was decorated wit St. Patrick's Day theme.

Members attending were Mrs. Posey, Mrs. Willie Whitmore, Mrs. Dona Reed, Mrs. Bell Mathis, Mrs. Sam Thompson, Mrs. M. J. Dawson, Mrs. Jack Heldeberry, Mrs. Ed Majors, Mrs. M. E. Miller, Mrs. Witt Hines, Mrs. O. B. Price, Mrs. Trulock, Mrs. Dave Womack, Mrs. Barber and the hostesses.
