City Approves Request For Phone Rate Increase

By a two to one vote the City Council Monday night approved a request by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for a rate increase for phone service.

Aldermen N.F. Jackson and Charlie Garrett voted yes and Mayor Pro Tem Joe "Pepe" Zambrano, who presided at the session in the absence of Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., voted no.

It was explained that the increases in the outlying areas will be the same as in Rockport.

The Council approved a request by R.G. Maples, Corpus Christi district manager of Southwestern Bell, for rate increases that will produce approximately $70,000 per year more in revenue than the present rate structure.

Typical increases granted were:

Business one party--$1.50 per month increase.

Residential one party--75 cents per month increase.

Residential two party--10 cents per month increase.

Maples presented the following explanation to the City Council:

"The level of earnings on Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's exchange operations at Rockport has deteriorated to a point where corrective action is needed by your Honorable Body.

"The present rates for local telephone service, which were approved by the City Council effective April 11, 1972, are no longer adequate to offset the rising costs of furnishing the service.

"We of the Telephone Company are doing everything we can to reduce costs. Despite these efforts, however, the attached statement of operating results for the twelve months ended December 31, 1974, indicates that revenues are insufficient and an adjustment in rates is necessary.

"We ask, therefore, that you give prompt consideration to this earnings problem and authorize a new schedule of rates which will improve the Company's earnings position."

The Council also concurred with recommendations of the Planning and Zoning Commission in denying the following two rezoning applications:

Application of Madalyn Johnson to rezone from R-3 Apartments and Duplexes to B-1 Business or Special Use Permit, Lots 13 & 14, Block 44, S&W, to allow work on stern drive type boats.

Application of Dorothy B. Greene to rezone Lot 4, Block 206, Rooke Addition, from R-1 to R-2 Residential, "as the house I plan to move on this lot contains 576 sq. ft."; requirements of R-1 Residential require 720 sq. ft.

Subordinate only to the Stars and Stripes, Rockport's official Bicentennial flag files proudly over City Hall. Symbolizing recognition of the Rockport area as a Bicentennial community, the flag was presented to the local Bicentennial Commission at a ceremony in Navigation Park which marked opening of the SeaFair. Originally raised on a temporary flagpole at the south end of the Ski Basin, the flag has been moved to the City Hall flagpole where it will fly during the Bicentennial year.

Argentina Trip Apr. 3-May 20

Six weeks of leisurely travel in Argentina is available free to five young South Texans during the period of April 3-May 20, 1976. Applicants must be reputable business or professional men between the ages of 25-35. A working knowledge of Spanish and an appreciation for South America culture is desirable.

This exchange of technicians, rather than students, is a project of Rotary International. It complements the Rotary Foundation Program which provides for the exchange of more than 200 international scholars each year. As in other Rotary exchanges, applicants cannot be Rotarian or related to a Rotarian.

"Applications are available through the local Rotary Club, and should be submitted prior to November 20," according to Mrs. Loyce Ogle, secretary. Five persons plus two alternates will be announced on December 17, 1975.

An area Rotarian, fluent in Spanish, will accompany the group during its Argentina tour. In addition to visiting industrial and business centers, these Texas will reside with families in the different communities of the country.

Plant Clinic Nov. 4 and 5

Latest information about ornamental plants and lawn care will be presented at the Aransas and San Patricio County's ornamental plant clinic November 4 and 5 in the Fellowship Hall, First United Methodist Church, Main and Live Oak Street, Rockport.

The program for both sessions will begin at 2:00 p.m. and all interested persons are invited according to County Extension Agents, D.P. Pawlik and Mrs. Marcia Brown.

Speakers will include four Texas A&M University Extension Specialists. Appearing on the program Tuesday, Nov. 4 will be Dr. William C. Welch, Landscape Horticulturist, who will speak on "Home Landscape Designs and Plants Adapted to This Area," James A. Deer, Area Entomologist, Weslaco, will discuss "Insects on Shrubs, Trees, and Lawns..and Their Control."

The speakers on Wednesday, Nov. 5, will include Dr. Calvin C. Lyons, area Horticulturist, Weslaco, who will discuss "Fruit Trees in Landscape Design, Kind and Varieties Adapted to Area, Establishment and Management." Also, appearing on the Wednesday program will be Dr. Jose Amador, area Plant Pathologist, Weslaco, who will discuss "Diseases of Trees, Shrubs and Lawns."

Home owners with diseased or damaged plants and insect problems are requested to bring the specimens with them and consult the appropriate specialist.

This clinic is free to the public and is being sponsored by the Extension Service and the San Patricio and Aransas Counties Extension Advisory Committee.

CHRISTMAS TREASURES BAZAAR NOV. 12

An atmosphere of anticipation and excitement is evident around First United Methodist Church as the Christmas Treasures Bazaar set for Nov. 12 approaches.

Many hours have been spent by the women of the church in planning, stitching, painting, cooking and growing plants to make this the biggest and best bazaar to date.

Fellowship Hall will be spaced into booths and one of the interesting ones will be the white elephant center under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Hensley.

Many unusual and usable items have been donated for their center. Here one is guaranteed to find something someone could not use but someone else is delighted to possess.

At the Sidewalk Cafe, under the direction of Mrs. Lee Roy Young, food will be served all day beginning with coffee and sweets at 8 a.m., a sandwich lunch at noon, coffee and sweets from 1:30-5:00 and ending with a chili supper from 5 to 8 p.m.

Also plan to visit the Kountry Kitchen under the direction of Mrs. Roy Burke. All kinds of baked goods, candy, pickles and home-canned fruits and vegetables are sure to tempt you.

At the Garden Center, Mrs. W.K. Thomas, chairperson, will be ready to help you with plants, cuttings, and hanging baskets to enhance your yard and home.

Make your plans now to come to Christmas Treasure Bazaar and don't miss a booth. If you do, you may miss just what you are looking for -- something different, something unusual, or something good to eat!

ASS'T COUNTY ATTORNEY NAMED

S. Reese Rozzell has been appointed assistant county attorney as the result of action taken by Aransas County Commissioners Court.

C of C Women Move Workshop

The Women's Committee of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce - Hospital Foundation has moved its workshop to the building formerly occupied by Circle Fence Company, Highway 35. Workdays will be each Tuesday and Thursday 10-5.

The Women's Committee is presently readying arts and crafts to be offered for sale at the Christmas Bazaar to be held November 29 and 30. Proceeds will go toward obtaining some type of emergency medical facility for the Rockport area.

Mrs. George Cone, committee chairman, this week announced further need for materials, yarns, sea shells, ideas for crafts, donations of arts and crafts, and helping hands from volunteers throughout the area.

Additonal information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Cone at 729-5750 or the Chamber of Commerce office - 729-6445.

Cage Seeks Tax Roll Job

M.A. Cage, who has prepared Aransas County's tax roll for eight years, last week asked the commissioners court to continue his services.

The commissioners earlier this month voted not to rehire Cage, of Corpus Christi, after his present contract expires next year. At that time, Cage offered to extend his contract for two years and drop his charges from 45 to 40 cents for each tax listing.

Cage said if the county decided to hire someone else he would consider selling his contract. Cage told the commissioners that he would rather not disclose the figure he had in mind.

Following Cage's appearance, and after he had left the courtroom, the commissioners voted to write him a letter asking how much the contract purchase would cost the county.

Two other firms are seeking the job now held by Cage's firm. They are Prichard Abbot of Houston and Western Data of Dallas. Both contend they can do the job cheaper.

Cage said that he didn't believe any firm could do the same job he does and save the county any considerable amount of money.

Commissioner Raymond Owens, who presided in the absence of Judge John Wendell, said the court had to save money whenever possible. He said that the court was under the impression that the other firms could provide the same service at a considerable savings.

Artmobile Oct. 28-31

The South Texas Artmobile will present "A Mythical Place," landscape paintings from the Brooklyn Museum, at Super D parking lot October 28 to 31.

The exhibit will be open to the public during regular school hours. No admission charge.

TOURIST EXPERT TO SPEAK HERE

A community meeting will be held at the Tourist Association building on Wednesday, October 29, at 8 p.m.

All members of the Tourist Association, Chamber of Commerce members and any other interest persons are invited.

Guest speaker will be Russell Willis, Executive Vice President, Lower Rio Grande Valley Chamber of Commerce, Weslaco. He will speak on "Winter Visitors-Their Impact, How We Attract Them, How We Stop Them, How We Keep Them."

High School Homecoming Will Start October 30

Pirates Meet Flour Bluff Hornets Friday Night 8 P.M. at Local Stadium

On Thursday, October 30, the homecoming activities will start for the Rockport-Fulton High School with a bon fire on the Rockport Beach at 6:15.

The band will assemble at the band hall and they will proceed to the bonfire area, by bus. Other students should meet at the beach.

The bonfire materials have been collected by the Rockport-Fulton High School wood and metal shop boys and other interested students and townspeople. The senior football boys will be in charge of lighting the fire.

On Friday evening, the coronation of the homecoming queen will be held prior to the Flour Bluff vs. Rockport-Fulton football game. The homecoming queen will be named with her court of four duchesses.

Nineteen girls have been nominated by different clubs in the Rockport-Fulton High School. Students made their selection of the queen and her four duchesses by popular vote last Thursday.

The following nineteen girls represent these organizations:

Beverly Barnard - N.I.K.E.
Annette Boney - National Honor Society.
Nancy Goodin - Science Club.
Nina Green - Student Council.
Becky Hale - Annual Staff.
Rose Heasley - Library Club.
Nancy Hicks - Photography Club.
Annette Ledbetter - Masquer & Thespians..
Lee Nuckles - F.H.A.
Valerie Ovenden - Band.
Jeanie Pina - O.E.A.
Beverly Rhoden - Deca Club.
Penny Rossman - Slide Rule
Sarah Shenk - Letterman's Association.
Pat Stevens - F.T.A.
Brenda Valdez - Choir
Carol Walters - VICA
Juanice Watkins - Speech Club.
Laurie Woodman - Greenbackers.

Representatives of the Rockport-Fulton High School Student Council will crown the queen and reognize her courts in the pre-game ceremony on Friday evening.

During the course of the football game exes who have graduated from Rockport-Fulton High School, Aransas County High School, or Rockport High School for the years ending with the digit of five will be recognized.

The pre-game ceremonies will begin at 7:35 p.m.

On Friday a homecoming dance will be held at the Paws and Taws square dance building in Fulton after the Flour Bluff game with the Student Council of Rockport-Fulton High School as sponsor. Price of admission will be $2.00 each. The O'Really band will furnish the music.

Janecek Gets Appointment

Bill Janecek of Rockport will serve as division chairman in the upcoming South Texas Chamber of Commerce membership drive Nov. 13.

The chamber's President's Council will conduct the one-day drive, which will be held throughout the 50-county South Texas region. Local South Texas Chamber members will be calling on businesses here for support of the chamber's programs.

The regional chamber is currently involved in programs dealing with energy, economic development, state and national affairs, international trade and community development.

The President's Council held its first membership drive last April, in which it raised over $7,600. Goal for this drive is $10,000. Drive workers will be competing for a trip to attend the Dallas Cowboys-Washington Redskins football game in Dallas Dec. 13.

Carroll U. Hoffmann of New Braunfels is President's Council chairman.

MARINE EXTENSION WORK DESCRIBED

Ralph Rayburn, who was appointed Marine Extension agent for this area Sept. 1, described functions and responsibilities of his operation at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club Oct. 22 at Sandollar restaurant.

Rayburn, who is one of the six Marine Extension agents in Texas, serves Aransas and San Patricio counties. He has an office in Aransas County courthouse.

He said the operation, which is part of a federally financed Sea Grant program, parallels the Land Grant program which was established in 1914. Basically, the Sea Grant program is designed to stimulate development and use of marine resources. At present there are four Sea Grant schools, including Texas A&M University.

The program includes three main areas of activity -- education, research and advisory service, according to Rayburn who said at present he is spending most of his time working with local seafood industries.

He pointed out that Texas A&M University has extensive marine research facilities available, including the research ship "Gyre." Approximately 500 students each year are involved in oceanography at the university, all of it related in some degree to the field in which he operates.

Rayburn asserted the Gulf of Mexico provides what is probably the world's finest laboratory for marine research. However, he said the Sea Grant program is not devoted to research for the sake of research itself, but only to determine causes and effects on marine resources as they involve recreation and commerce. He used color slide films to illustrate a number of phases of marine research programs at A&M University.

In conclusion, Rayburn said we can learn to manage the sea and its resources without overexploitation, adding that research will provide guidelines for developing and conserving our marine resources for the present and for the future.

Atomic Energy Demonstration

Rockport-Fulton High School students will view a demonstration Nov. 5 of atomic energy and its uses.

A program titled "This Atomic World" will acquaint them with applications of nuclear energy in agriculture, industry, medicine and research. Principles and sources will be discussed.

Orlan L. Ihms will conduct the 40-minute program sponsored by Texas A&M University's College of Engineering.

Ihms will use student terms to explain structure of atoms, nuclear reactor operation and concepts such as radiation, fission and fusion.

He will employ special electronic equipment to show how nuclear energy is harnessed to generate electricity, plus other applications. Use of radioisotopes in life process studies and disease diagnosis and treatment will be depicted.

In a chalkboard talk to Rockport-Fulton High science classes, more detail will be presented. Ihms will go into atomic structure, radioactivity, radiation biology and nuclear science careers, among other topics.

Ihms (rhymes with seems) is specially trained in nuclear science. He has bachelor and master's degrees from Texas A&M. He is in his fifth year touring "This Atomic World."

AGING PROGRAMS TO BE DISCUSSED

A public hearing will be held in Rockport Thursday, Oct. 30, on preliminary proposals for the 1976 area plan for programs on aging. The hearing will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. in the Aransas County Courthouse Commissioners Court Room.

Advisory Committee and staff members of the Coastal Bend Council of Governments will be present to give information and answer questions, in English and Spanish, on proposed objectives of the aging program; action steps proposed to achieve objectives; projected budget allocations for money available through the Older Americans Act, and a review of 1975 objectives and program results.

New Owners of Blossom Shop

Effective Saturday, November 1, Gayna and Milton Harrell will be the new owners of "A" Blossom Shop in the McLester Building.

For over six years, Gayna operated her own florist shop on Wharf Street before deciding to retire from business but, as she puts it, "I have always enjoyed the florist business and have now decided to get back into business."

Gayna has had more than 15 years' experience as a floral designer and she intends to utilize her skill to create beautiful arrangements and please all her customers.

She reminds her many friends and former customers that she will have a gala open house on December 13 with lots of surprises for all who attend.

Halloween '75

Remember the Halloween Party, Friday, October 31, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at the recreational building at Aransas County Airport, sponsored by Fulton Lions Club for area children.

There will be a fish pond for those under two and 8 games by various clubs and organizations for all. A Teen Dance will be in an adjoining building. And there will also be free Coke.

At press time one-half of the needed $1,000 was on hand, according to Treasurer Cass Hamon. Anyone wishing to help with the finances may send a check made out to Fulton Lions Club to the treasurer at P.O. Box 1093, Rockport, Texas.

INTERESTED IN LADIES' BASKETBALL?

Anyone interested in a ladies basketball team for this area please meet at the High School tennis courts, Wednesday, Oct. 29 and Nov. 5, at 6 p.m. There will be a discussion on the possibility of setting up and organizing a team.

Amendments—

Proposition No. 1 is the amendment revising "Article II, Separation of Powers"; "Article III, The Legislature"; and "Article IV, The Executive"; all of which will pass or fail together.

Article II restates the Separation of Powers among the three branches of government: Legislative, Executive and Judicial. No change.

Article III, The Legislature. While the structure of the Legislature remains the same, new provisions established in this article include:

Single-member senatorial, representative and congressional districts - This approach has been established by recent redistricting legislation, and therefore, this provision endorses what is already fact.

Annual "general" sessions of the Legislature - Voters have turned down this proposal several times in the past two decades.

The proposals in both the Legislative [Article III] and Executive Article [Article IV] include several innovations: a regular review of existing state agencies by requiring the extension of their authority every ten years; the requirement that the Legislature consider governmental reorganization bills; authorization for the Legislature to delegate some budget-execution authority to the Governor; a provision for appropriating pre-inaugural funds to aid a new governor coming into office; setting the time of expiration of the terms of all appointees made by the Governor to state agencies to occur during the spring in odd-numbered years; permitting the Governor to designate chairmen of state agencies; granting the Governor some limited removal authority of appointees; and limiting the Governor to two consecutive four-year terms.

Proposition No. 2 creates a new Article V, The Judiciary, which governs the powers and organization of the state court system.

It proposes to establish a "unified" judicial system. This means that all appellate courts would have both criminal and civil jurisdiction; and that both criminal and civil cases would proceed on appeals from the trial courts of appropriate jurisdiction, and that both criminal and civil cases would proceed on appeals from the trial courts of appropriate jurisdiction to a Court of Appeals and then to the Supreme Court.

It provides for the merger of the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Supreme Court. Those judges now serving on the Supreme Court would continue to serve until such time as the attrition by resignation, death or retirement reduces the number of the court to nine justices. Judges of the various courts would still be elected by the people for the same terms they now hold.

Proposition No. 3 creates a new Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections. It provides that a person who is at least 18 years of age, is not a convicted felon in prison, on parole or probation, or is not mentally incompetent, would be qualified to vote under laws enacted by the Legislature.

Proposition No. 4 provides for a new Article VII, Education, which governs public education.

The amendment calls for an equitable system of free public schools below the college level. The system must provide each individual an equal educational opportunity but may provide local enrichment of educational programs.

Propostion No. 5 creates a new Article VIII, Finance, which governs the financial management of the state.

In this amendment the requirement that all new taxes be equal and uniform would be limited only to the levy of property taxes. It would require the establishment and enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for the appraisal of property, the only exceptions being special formulas designed to promote the preservation of open space land for farm and ranch purposes and the preservation of forest lands devoted to timber production.

Propostion No. 6 provides a new Article IX, Local Government, which authorizes the powers of local government. Under this amendment local government would remain basically the same with the exception that County Commissioners' Courts would be granted ordinance-making powers.

Proposition No. 7 provides a new Article X, General Provisions, which is basically a housekeeping article. It includes: the homestead provisions; separate or community property; protection of personal property from forced sale; protection of wages from garnishment; limitations upon banking corporations; provisions for the regulation of alcoholic beverages; and provisions for the regulation of medical practitioners.

It prohibits lotteries and gift enterprises; regulates interest and lending; provides for the various retirement systems of public employees, and protecting the environment, conserving natural resources and public property as well as wildlife resources.

Proposition No. 8 provides a new Article XI, Method of Amending the Constitution of the State. It maintains the same basis for submission of amendments as was utilized in submitting these eight amendments; that is, submission by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership of both houses of the Legislature and adoption by a simple majority of the people voting in an election called for that purpose.

It does add a provision that a question of a constitutional convention be submitted by the Legislature at least once each thirty years.

Pam Hutchins Queen Nominee

Miss Hutchins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Hutchins of Rockport.

The results of the 1975 homecoming queen election will be announced at halftime of the Blinn-Kilgore football game on Saturday, November 1.

Calallen Bombs Pirates 60-2

Halloween came a week early for the Pirates as a tough Calallen team blasted and pitched their way for nearly 600 yards offense to a 60-2 win over the Rockport-Fulton Pirates last week in Calallen.

The Pirates were in trouble from the opening kickoff. The Wildcats took the kickoff and marched 74 yards for a score in 11 plays. The Pirates had two other TD's scored on them in the first half to put the score to 20-0 at the half.

Calallen never did go to their second team on offense. It was evident that the Wildcats were out to beat the Pirates as badly as possible. Calallen scored on six more occasions in the second half.

The Pirates managed only a couple of serious drives, but a score never materialized. The only bright spot for the Pirates was on a blocked punt by Benet Stewart, and even then the ball took a Calallen bounce and went out of the endzone giving the Pirates only two points instead of a possible touchdown. Stewart blocked the ball at the 13-yard line and the impact sent the ball all the way out of the endzone some 23 yards away.

Jerry Hutson was the positive force in the Pirate defense leading the team with 15 tackles; Hutson received help in the runner-up position from Johnny Washburn and John Picton with 13 tackles.

LSRC Playday Scheduled

The Lone Star Riding Club (LSRC) in Corpus Christi will be hosting a fun filled Open Play Day on November 1st at their arena on Roscher Road. Area horse back riders are invited to participate in this activity for only $1.00 per event per person.

Junior and Senior riders can compete in 13 different speed events for first place trophies and ribbons through sixth. High Point and Runner-Up High Point awards will be given for these two age groups. Pee Wee riders may enter at half price in five events for ribbons only with no High Point.

Registration will begin at 1:00 p.m. There will be bleachers for spectators and a full concession.

SAFETY FEATURES IN CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

She's a consumer marketing-clothing and textiles specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Each child varies in his need for safety features, but a few guidelines can help parents protect their children better.

"For children who are especially curious about fire, mothers may consider buying flame-retardant play clothes. Since 1975, all children's sleepwear is flame retardant. Also some costumes are available with flame-retardant finishes--but it's important to check labels to be sure."

Children who ride bikes at dawn or dusk need reflective tape on clothing--and bright and light colored jackets help prevent accidents also.

"Be sure that trims and decorative details are sewn on securely and won't be caught on knobs, handles and play equipment. Deep hems in pants may be better than cuffs that catch on bicycle pedals and other objects.

"Check that separate hoods on raincoats and snowsuits don't block vision, but remember that attached hoods may get caught on large objects and cause neck or back injuries," she cautioned.

Shoe laces need the "safety look" too. Be sure they're long enough to stay tied--but short enough so that a child won't trip on them, Miss Mitzel reminded.

GI Home Loans

Increases in GI home loan activities during the first two months of fiscal year 1976 were reported recently by the Veterans Administration.

Appraisal requests totaled 106,263 during July and August, 11 per cent higher than the number received during the same period in 1974.

The 65,981 loan applications received during July and August were 8 per cent above last year's figures.

Requests for restoration of GI loans in July and August totaled 11,183. Of that number, 8,749 were approved. The number of requests during the first eight months of this year totaled 38,129, of which 29,632 were approved.

The Veterans Housing Act of 1974 relaxed restrictions on reinstating loan eligibility, effective Jan. 1, 1975. Previously, loan benefits could be restored only for "compelling reasons."

This requirement was eliminated by the new law, permitting the VA to restore loan benefits whenever the property has been disposed of and the GI home loan paid in full.

A total of 8.8 million GI home loans valued at $113 billion have been guaranteed since the program was established during World War II. Almost 4.6 million veterans have paid their loans in full, and thus could qualify for loan restoration if they dispose of the property which secured their loans.

The VA guarantees up to a maximum of $17,500 of home loans made by private lenders to eligible military service personnel and veterans of World II and later periods, it was explained.

Veterans who used their benefits before Dec. 31, 1974, may have additional entitlement. Veterans' maximum home loan benefits were raised from $4,000 to $7,500 in 1950, to $12,500 in 1968, and to $17,500 in 1974. The amount of additonal eligibility would be the difference between the present $17,500 maximum and the amount of entitlement used on prior home loans.

Complete loan information may be obtained at any VA regional office or from representatives of local veterans organizations.

CALVARY BAPTIST YOUTH GROUPS

On Oct. 25, Alphas & Omegans, Calvary Baptist youth groups, co-hosted a supper for their parents.

Meeting in the fellowship hall at Calvary Baptist the young people, led by Youth Director Pee Wee Simmons, brought an inspiring program of messages in poem and songs.

SIX YEARS AGO MONROE HICKS ESTABLISHED

HICKS FEED · SEED NURSERY

Farm Road 1069 at Hwy 35

Aransas Pass — Phone 758-5354
Ingleside — Phone 776-2171

AND TODAY IT HAS GROWN TO BE THE FINEST NURSERY IN THE COASTAL BEND.

With their complete staff of landscape service and design consultants, HICKS has contributed to the vast beautification of homes and businesses in your community.

Now that Fall has arrived -- Don't forget about your own yard. Start the Fall planting now and enjoy the beauty of the plants in the Spring.

Following a practice established several years ago, local Girl Scouts have been assisting with mailing of material soliciting contributions to the 1975-76 Aransas County United Fund. Shown at the task in the Chamber of Commerce office, clockwise from the lower left, are Bonnie Evans, Laura Ogle, Brenda Reid, Terry Gould, Lynda Fisher, assistant Scout advisor, Elizabeth Whitney, Scout Advisor, Susan Reid, Wynne Armstrong and Lillian Vargas.

The local fund campaign, of which Rev. Tom McClung is chairman, is seeking $12,595 which will be used to help 12 participating agencies, including the Girl Scouts, meet operating expenses. In the interest of saving campaign expenses and the time of solicitors, the campaign is being conducted by mail.

"Although the initial response has been good, we need the support of everyone in the community to reach our goal, Rev. McClung said. He also urged that anyone who has been overlooked in the solicitation by mail to bring or send their contribution to the Chamber of Commerce which is serving as headquarters for the drive. —Photo by George's Photo Service

Pirate JV Pounced 44-0

Calallen's JV squad scored the first three times they had the ball to jump ahead 20-0 at the half on their way to a 44-0 decision over the JV Pirates in Rockport last week.

Calallen then scored the first three times they had the ball the second half to put the game out of reach. The Pirates could never penetrate the 20-yard line of the Wildcats.

Rockport's Charlie Edler led the Pirate runners with 77 yards in 14 attempts. Bob Smith, Joe Williams, and Edler passed for 116 yards; receiving five of those passes was tight end Doug McKibbon who snared catches for 71 yards, and Steve Flangan hauled in three catches for 34 yards.

Defensively, the Pirates had only linebacker Bill Adams and defensive back Bob Smith with more than 10 tackles.

The JV team will play this week in Flour Bluff.

Freshmen Trim Calallen 14-8

The Pirate Freshmen of Rockport-Fulton remained unbeaten in district play as they trimmed the Calallen team 14-8 last week, moving them one step closer to a big showdown in each of their last three games. This week the Pirates play Flour Bluff.

Calallen and the Pirates played scoreless ball until Algie Simmons scored from nine yards out with only 18 seconds remaining in the first half to put the Pirates up 6-0 at the half.

In the second half the Pirates' Simmons scored a 6 yard TD and then added the two points after to give the Pirates a 14-0 lead. From that point on the Pirates had to hold on for all they were worth.

Calallen took advantage of a Pirate fumbie to set up their TD on a broken play which covered 46 yards. Two points were added and the Pirate lead fell to only 6 points.

The Pirate defense took over and shut down the Wildcats each time they seemed close to scoring. Linebacker Joe Brooks contributed 20 tackles to the Pirates' defensive stats, plus intercepting a pass. No other Pirate scored over ten tackles, but along with Brooks, Rudy Samora and Steve Naler intercepted passes to stop Wildcat drives, and Dewayne Harrison and Billy Howland recovered Wildcat fumbles.

Harrison also should be noted for his fine day punting; he punted 4 times for a 37.8 average. Simmons was the leading rusher with 132 yards in 31 attempts.

A.A.R.P. CARD PARTY

There were 8 tables of bridge and two of canasta at the A.A.R.P. card party on October 23 at the Airport. Refreshments of cookies, coffee and punch were on hand during the party through the efforts of Mrs. Irene Hopper.

Winner at canasta was Mrs. Betty Jean Ward and Mrs. Louise Zeisler was second.

Mrs. Lorene King took high in ladies' bridge with Mrs. Mildred Reinhardt getting second.

Karl Smith took the men's high bridge prize and Ed Gerchak was second. Bingo was won by R.E. McBride.

NURSING HOME ACTIVITIES OCT. 20-26

Again! -- Last week's activities were many and very enjoyable at The Aransas Pass Nursing and Convalescent Center.

As usual, Monday through Friday we begin our day with our exercise class. This class is a very important activity to over half of our residents.

Monday afternoon, the V.F.W. Ladies Auxiliary of Aransas Pass came out for their game day.

Tuesday was rather a leisurely day.

Wednesday morning at ten o'clock Bonnie Fletcher was here to teach our residents in their paint class.

Wednesday evening the LULAC's #630 came out and had a very nice time playing their games.

Then Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday is always beauty shop day for our ladies.

Also, Monday afternoon of October 13, the City Barbershop of Ingleside came over and cut our men's hair. We do sincerely appreciate this service that they do on their off day and free of charge.

Thursday morning the Aransas Pass Pentecostal Church came out for their hour of inspiration.

Thursday afternoon was our stereo music hour where the residents, their relatives and friends may go into the dining area and visit and listen to the music.

Friday afternoon Father Hamilton was out to have mass for all of our Catholic residents.

Friday evening Wayne Jones of Aransas Pass Church of Church of Christ came out for the "Bible on Film," which is a wonderful thing to do for those who cannot go out otherwise.

Saturday evening was a special treat for our bingo players. The ladies of St. Mary's Star of the Sea Catholic Church of Aransas Pass Altar Society came out and had a big game night.

Sunday morning at ten o'clock morning church services were held and led by Rev. Al. Bankert.

Sunday afternoon Rev. Avery and Alta Nolte from First Christian Church of Ingleside came over for their monthly "Sing In."

Again, I want to thank my resident helpers for getting our residents out for their programs.

Also, a big thanks to Mrs. C.J. Bromley, Jr., for all the clothes and the nice clothes rack which she gave to us.

We do appreciate all of your gestures of caring throughout the whole area.

True, we're hard to find, but we believe in Crowd Control.

We also believe in giving personal attention to each of our customers. Personal attention means more than a smile and a hello. It means we're ready to deal with your problems, your ideas, your plans for the future.

Because, afterall, we're nothing without you. That's why we care. And that's why we'll take better care of your money.

So we'll try to keep the crowds in check.

Even though it is getting a little harder.

Baptist Ladies Met Tuesday

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday morning October 21 at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Truett Roach for Bible Study.

The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Roach. Mrs. James Russell was in charge of a short business meeting.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Judy Phelps was to teach the Mission study book, "Sick and Ye Visited Me" November 11th. Also announced the church would have a revival the 3rd week in November.

The Society is to have a covered dish luncheon and invite all the Baptist Churches of Rockport and Fulton.

A letter was read from a family in Kentucky with needs for several things. It was decided to table this until a later date.

Mrs. Gayle asked members to bring cup towels, hot pads, etc. for the church kitchen.

Mrs. LeMaire announced she was making a trip to Mexico City and would take tracts from the church to hand out in Mexico.

Mrs. Dolores Leach taught the Bible Study, taken from the Pauline Letters in 1st Thes. Mrs. George West closed with prayer.

We welcome new members and visitors.

7TH GRADERS LOSE TO BISHOP 14 - 8

The 7th graders lost a thriller to Bishop last Thursday 14-8. Bishop scored first in the second quarter and the Bucs defense led by Robert Stevens, Roy Riojas, Alvino Valenzuel, Alvin Miller, Coy Boone, Brad Reininger, and Bryan Evans prevented the extra point.

The Bucs scored in the 3rd quarter with Kyle Dietz going in for the score and extra point with the excellent blocking by center Aaron Pena and guards Joe Barrera and Bubba Scott.

Tailback Johnny Little and fullback Kroy DeForest played their best game of the season. Little accounting for over 100 yds. kept Bishop wondering what was going on. DeForest picked up approximately 40 yds. Offensive line was paced by Kenneth Butcher, David Kubjak, Shane Harper, Leo Olson, Mark Goodin, and George Solis who caught a pass behind Bishop Line and gained about 15 yds.

For the Bucs, secondary was paced by David Williams who played a very good game, along with Pee Wee Solis, James Winters, and Wes Wilhour.

DOMASCHK NAMED V-P OF JACKSON MARINE

A.E. (Gene) Domaschk was recently named a vice president of Jackson Marine Corporation of Aransas Pass, Texas.

Gene started with the company in February of 1968 as Port Captain for Jackson Marine in Rotterdam, overseeing the operation of two vessels.

He then transferred to Cabinda, Angola, Portuguese West Africa to supervise the shore-base support for a six vessel operation engaged in construction of an offshore oil gathering facility.

In early part of 1970, he returned to England for a short stay as Port Captain and then was assigned as Area Manager in South America in October of 1970 where his responsibilities included the operation of support vessels for projects offshore Guayaquil, Ecuador and Talara, Peru.

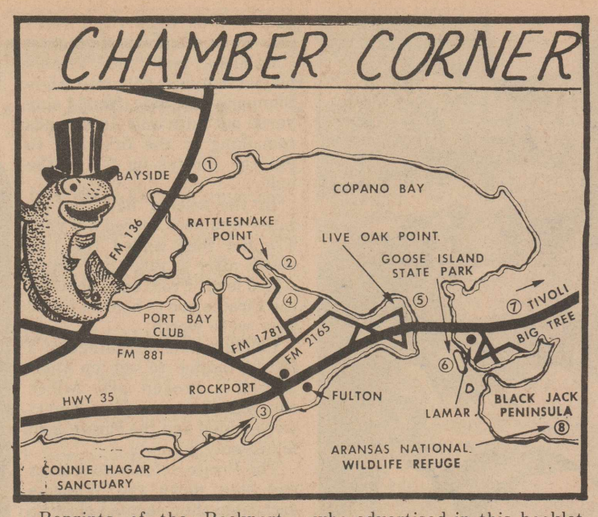

During 1972, he served as Marine Superintendent for the Far East operation which supported vessels working offshore of Indonesia and Sabah, Malaysia (Borneo).

He came back to the home office in charge of New Construction until January of 1973 when he was appointed Vice President of Jackson Marine, S.A. Far East and Middle East which now comprises extensive operations at Bahrain and Dubai in the Middle East, as well as operations in Malaysia, Indonesia, and the New Zealand operation which will begin November 1, 1975.

In addition, he coordinates the construction of new vessels in Singapore. These areas of responsibility include approximately 27 company owned vessels and 15 third party vessels.

Mr. Domaschk, wife Ila, daughter Kim, and son Nelson reside in Singapore and make Rockport, Texas their permanent home.

CHAMBER CORNER

Reprints of the Rockport, Fulton, Lamar brochure have been received and are now available at the Chamber of Commerce. Business people who advertised in this booklet may pick up their copies at the Chamber office.

Gordon Stanley will be in charge of the Chamber booth in January at the Houston Boat and Vacation Show. This event runs one full week and is one of the biggest shows in Texas. Gordon is planning on a big week of publicity for our area.

The Woman's Committee has recently moved into their new working headquarters. Several ladies were on hand last Thursday to help get things arranged in the Prophet building on Highway 35. November 29 is the date for the bazaar to be held at Paws and Taws Building in Fulton. All proceeds will go to the Hospital Foundation Fund.

A letter from All Texas Air Tour was received thanking all those who helped chauffeur some 135 people to Sea Gun for lunch and back to the airport Oct. 6. Howard Born, All Texas Air Tour co-ordinator, stated about 50 people will fly in Nov. 7 for the weekend. Arrangements are being made to welcome this group.

Two new businesses joined the Chamber force this past month. Duckworth Signs owned by Carl Duckworth, Jr., and Sam Simpson, Lone Star Beer Distributor. Welcome to the force!

IRS CHANGES HANDLING OF FORMS W-2 FOR HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYEES

Austin -- Employers of domestics and other household employees should note recent changes in the handling of Forms W-2 (Wage and Tax Statements), according to Robert M. McKeever, Internal Revenue Service district director for southern Texas.

He said the IRS copy of W-2's will now be forwarded to the tax agency only with the forms W-3 (Transmittal of Income and Tax Statements), or in the case of household employees, with the employer's Form 942 (Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees).

New, also, is the requirement that W-2's will be filed with the Form 942 even in cases where the employee's wages are subject only to withholding for Social Security.

The director said that W-2 statements undeliverable to employees are no longer sent to IRS but are retained for four years by the employer.

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

The first fall meeting of the Woman's Club of Aransas County was held on October 14. This was the annual covered dish luncheon with its usual delectable array of food. Individual tables set for four were brightly decorated with cut blossoms of hibiscus.

A most successful style show was presented by Suttles Apparel Shop. Many lovely styles for street wear, afternoon, evening and night time were charmingly modeled by Mary B. Burke, Queenie Camehl, Kay Ragot, Geneva Taylor, Marian Tuttle and Betty Ward.

The models were beautifully made up by Geneva Taylor, a local representative of Mary Kay Cosmetics. The style show was not only entertaining and thoroughly enjoyed by all, but it was convincing proof that in order to be well dressed it is not necessary to go shopping outside of Rockport.

At the short business meeting following the luncheon and style show, it was decided to erect a sign painted in the Bicentennial motif in front of the clubhouse.

Members, as well as residents and visitors in the Rockport area, are reminded that the weekly tourist card parties for women for the year 1975-1976 will begin on Monday, November 3.

Coffee and dessert will be served at 1:15 p.m. and bridge and canasta games will start at 2:00 p.m. Come early to be assigned a table, to greet old friends and meet new ones.

Members are also reminded that the club's annual Flea Market Bazaar will be held at the clubhouse on Friday, November 7, and Saturday, November 8. The in-gathering will commence at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 6. Please bring in your donations as early as possbile.

Ogle And Gould Unite

Miss Christy Louise Gould and William David Ogle were married in First United Methodist Church Saturday, October 25. Christy is the daughter of Lt. Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. James A. Gould of 730 Copano Cove Rd. and William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Ogle, 1136 Oak Avenue. Reverend Thomas O. McClung officiated.

Miss Terry Gould, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the best man was Ricky Ogle, brother of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore an ecru princess-style gown with ecru lace bodice and sleeves. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies and babies' breath and wore a head band with matching flowers.

Miss Penny Rossman sang "Color My World" and Peter Cheaney sang "Oh Lord Most Holy." The organist was Mrs. Norman McLead. The ushers were Mark Pattillo, College Station, and Steve Gould, brother of the bride, College Station.

Out-of-town relatives attending included Mrs. B.J. Schneider, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mrs. Louise Kee and Mitch Gould, Stillwater, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Gould, Duncan, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Clay B. Ogle, Sweeny; Mrs. Booth McCarson, Boling; Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Shelton, Beaumont; Michael Shelton, Houston; Mrs. Norbin Jones, Max Jones and Ross Jones of Alvin.

The wedding was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents. The groom is employed by Al's Dental Laboratory. They will reside in Rockport.

"Mamas" B-B-Q

Sunday, November 2, at 2 p.m. the Mamas softball team will hold a barbecue at Memorial Park. All team members and ex-members and families are invited. Barbecue will be furnished by Charlie and Rita Parish and several members of the team will bring the side dishes. Come one, come all!

OUTDOORS 'n things

by L. D. NUCKLES

Just about everyone who is interested in duck and goose hunting knows that the season opens Saturday, November 1 in South Texas.

As usual, because of the federal guidelines within which the Parks and Wildlife Commission must operate, the seasons and the bag limits tend to be a little complicated.

Duck season in South Texas is open November 1 through November 30, 1975 and December 20, 1975 through January 18, 1976.

The daily bag limit of ducks is reached when the point value of any bird taken brings the total day's bag up to or exceeds 100 points. Possession limit is the maximum number of birds that could have been legally taken in two days.

Canvasbacks and redheads are 100-point birds, except that the season is closed on them in Brazoria, Chambers, Galveston, Harris, Jefferson and Orange Counties. This means that when you kill one of these birds your hunting for that day is finished.

Hooded mergansers, mallard hens and wood ducks are 70-point ducks and gadwells, other mergansers, pintails, scaups, shovelers and all teal are 10-point birds.

All other legal ducks are 25-point birds. The season is completely closed on black-bellied tree ducks, fulvous tree ducks and Mexican ducks.

The bag limit on coot is 15 and the possession limit is 30.

The season on geese is open November 1 through December 12, 1975 and December 20, 1975 through January 18, 1976 in South Texas. Shooting hours for both ducks and geese is one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The daily bag limit is five and the possession limit is five. That's right -- the bag limit and the possession limit are the same in numbers. The daily bag limit may include no more than one Ross' goose and no more than either one Canada goose or one white-fronted (speckled-belly) goose. The possession limit may include no more than one Ross' goose and no more than two Canada geese or two white-fronted geese or one Canada goose and one white-fronted goose.

These regulations and a colored duck indentification sheet can be obtained at any office of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Another less-publicized season that opens November 1 is the oyster season. Oysters less than three inches long may not be taken and the legal oystering hours are from sunrise to sunset.

Charts published by the State Health Department showing areas that are closed because of pollution are available.

Junior High Ties Calallen

Rockport-Fulton's 8th grade Bucs played the Calallen Wildcats to a scoreless tie. The Bucs were inside the Wildcats' 20-yard line 4 times during the contest, but failed to score. The Bucs dominated the game with 14 first downs to Calallen's 6.

The Buc offense was led by the running of Esequiel Hernandez and Miguel Contreras behind the blocking of Bruce Bardwell, Bill Schendel and tight end Buc Wilke. Fumbles and dropped passes kept the Bucs out of the endzone.

The Buc defense did a fine job in holding the Wildcats scoreless. Members of the defensive team are: Jeb Beall, David Garcia, Hector Saucedo, Tommy Tumilson, David Viess, James Stevens, Gasper Pena, Esequiel Hernandez, Miguel Contreras, Bill Schendel and Bruce Bardwell.

The Bucs will host Flour Bluff for the last home game of the season on Oct. 30. The last game for the Bucs will be in Gregory-Portland on the 6th of November. All 7th grade games begin at 5:30 and the eighth grade game will follow.

Buck Armintrout is back at home after spending the past week in Memorial Hospital.

Overeaters Anonymous

Do you eat when you're not hungry?

Has anyone ever told you to use a little will power to stop overeating?

Do you eat sensibly when with friends but eat more when you are alone?

Does your obsession with food make you and others unhappy?

Have you tried to lose weight and fallen short of your goal?

If you have answered yes to one or all of these questions, it could mean that you are suffering from the illness of compulsive overeating.

Only you can make that decision.

Many compulsive overeaters have found a solution to their problem. They believe that compulsive overeating is a progressive illness. One that, like alcoholism, can be arrested. Overeaters Anonymous is the solution to their problem.

O.A. is a fellowship of men and women who meet to share their experience, strength and hope with each other in order that they may solve their common problem and help those who still suffer, so that they may recover from compulsive overeating.

There are no dues or fees for O.A. membership. They are self-supporting through their own contributions. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively.

Overeaters Anonymous had its first meeting in January, 1960 in Los Angeles, California. There are many members who have arrested their illness of compulsive overeating, living happy, fulfilled lives today at normal weight.

O.A. invites anyone who has the desire to stop eating compulsively to attend a meeting. Meetings in this area are Monday, 9:30 a.m., and Friday, 7:30 p.m. For information on meeting places call 729-0248, 729-7230 or 729-7217.

I want to thank, one and all for a most enjoyable October birthday party, I had a ball.

A.A.R.P. Meeting

Zollie Glass, president, called the A.A.R.P. meeting to order and Mrs. Mae Willets gave the invocation. Then everyone gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. New members were introduced.

Mrs. Hazel Bobbitt reported for the Sunshine Committee. She had sent several cards to ill members.

Mrs. Esther Decker called for help for sitting with one member who is ill in the hospital. They want someone to sit with him at night. She left immediately after the meeting to take her turn at the hospital.

There was a call for "white elephants" for the fair. If you cannot bring the items yourself call 729-7080 and someone will pick them up. Another committee is working on Friday afternoon to make little items for the bazaar. After this week they will meet on Tuesday afternoon instead.

A covered dish dinner was enjoyed by everyone. Tablecloth and napkins had the Halloween theme with black cats, etc.

Anyone who is planning on coming to the Thanksgiving dinner on Nov. 26 and does not yet have their name on the list should call the Concern Center.

Next A.A.R.P. meeting will be on November 12 and at this time the new officers will be elected for 1976. Also Representative Leroy Wieting will be guest speaker discussing state legislation.

WISHERT REPRESENTS RELO IN AREA

Members of RELO/Inter-City Relocation Service, who every year serve the real estate needs of thousands of families on the move to or from more than 8,000 communities covered by their offices, have developed a checklist to help make moves easier.

"Families who attend to small details on a sensible schedule prior to a move make the major events of a home relocation much less traumatic," said Ana Wishert of Wishert Realtors, which represents RELO in this area.

The RELO checklist involves the post office, banks, insurance companies, doctors, schools and such everyday items as the family freezer, Mrs. Wishert said. She suggests anyone interested to drop by their office on North Highway 35 and get a free check list. The staff will be very happy to explain how RELO works to help the family move.

Mrs. Wishert offered another suggestion to families that are planning to relocate in an unfamiliar city:

"Allow your local RELO member to refer your housing needs at destination to a capable RELO member there. He and his experienced staff can help you avoid many of the frustrations and time-consuming details of house-hunting by starting the preliminaries even before your first visit to your new community."

RELO's more than 800 member-brokers serve cities and towns in every U.S. state, throughout Canada and in several nations overseas, Mrs. Wishert pointed out. The referral service is provided without cost or obligation to the transferred family, she added.

The Kinsey Report

My wife and I don't happen to be fans of Howard Cossell. In fact, we can't stand him.

Recently Mrs. K read an article written by some wire service sportswriter who obviously feels the same way. He explained how he figured out how to watch Monday night football and not listen to Cossell.

He said he turned the TV to the ABC outlet carrying the game and then turned the volume so low he couldn't hear Howard. Then he turned on his radio to a station carrying the game and set the volume to his liking.

Monday night after Mrs. K got home from a B&PW dinner meeting and I returned from covering the City Council meeting, we decided to watch the last half of the Monday night game (Minnesota Vikings vs. Chicago Bears) and use the combination radio-TV technique.

It worked like a charm. We couldn't hear old nasally Howard and if we didn't want to look at him, we just looked at each other lovingly.

Being from Chicago, we pulled for the Bears and they did better than expected but not good enough to win.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS MICKELSON

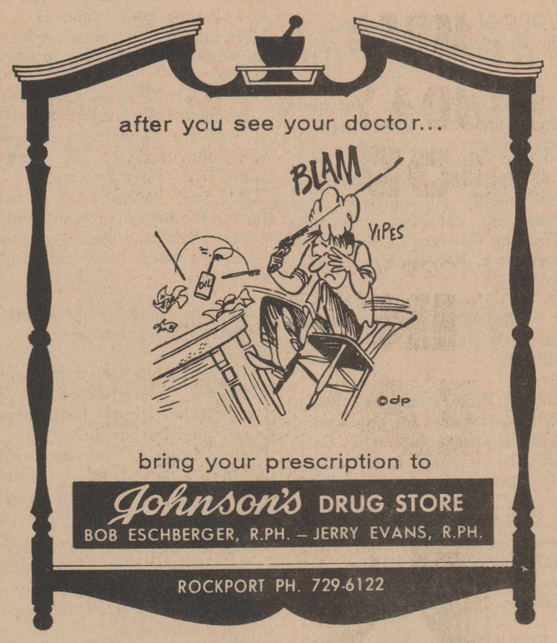

Miss Karen Mickelson, Dallas, bride-elect of Lee Meador, San Marcos, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower October 25 at the Parish Hall of Peace Lutheran Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. Reagan Lee, Mrs. Bob Davenport, Mrs. Louise Spielman, Mrs. Coke Lee and Mrs. C.L. Lee.

The register table was laid with an ecru lace cloth over pink and held a centerpiece of fall colored feather flowers. The serving table was laid with an ecru lace cloth over pink and held a centerpiece of red carnations and gladioli.

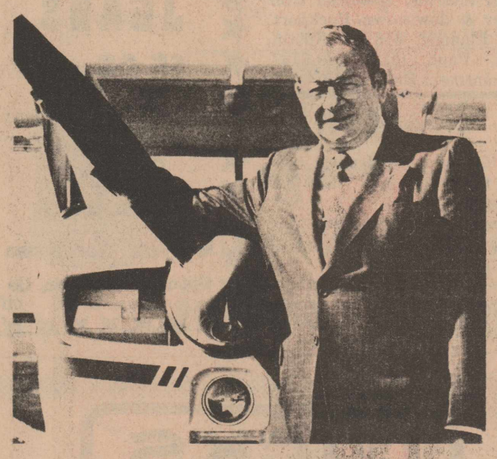

Miss Michelle Meador registered the guests, Mrs. Brent Meador served the cake and Mrs Joel Meador, all of Austin, assisted with the gifts. Mrs. Phyllis Epps, Houston, served the punch and Mrs. C.L. Lee served the coffee.

Everyone is a coward, about some things, and justly so.

"Of course, I must ask you for a deposit," said the landlady.

"Certainly," replied the new tenant, handing over the required sum.

"Thanks. Now, shall we trust each other, or do you want a receipt?"

Consumer Food News

College Station - Fish, some dairy products and eggs are among "economy" items at Texas grocery stores this week.

Fish supplies are plentiful in several varieties, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt said, adding that frozen and canned fish products are especially economical.

"At dairy counters, features include sour cream, yogurt, cheese slices, cottage cheese and sharp cheddar cheeses.

"In buying eggs, check prices on large-size eggs--now in best supply."

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

At beef counters, she reported features on ground beef, chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, corned beef, calf and beef liver.

At vegetable departments, cabbage is this week's thrifty item, while items becoming more plentiful include eggplants, broccoli, cauliflower, pumpkins and hard - shell squash, such as acorn and butternut.

Other items with "attractive prices" are cooking greens, rutabagas, sweet potatoes, carrots, soft-shell squash and dry yellow onions.

"Fruit sections offer excellent quality apples at moderate price levels, and other seasonal fruit choices are grapefruit, oranges and grapes--along with bananas, cranberries, persimmons, pomegranates and pears.

CONSUMER WATCHWORDS: Economical potatoes--at about five cents per serving--provide high returns in food value. Choose well shaped, firm potatoes that are reasonably free from blemishes, decay and green discoloration.

IT'S A QUESTION OF HOUR

College Station -- What time teenagers should return from a date is a "conflicting" issue in many families--and Dorthy Taylor, a family life education specialist, offers some insight into the problem.

She's with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"The basic issue to consider is why teenagers want to stay out late in the first place."

Miss Taylor explained that people usually stay out late because they think that the longer the date goes on the more fun they'll have.

"But what many young daters don't realize is that a prolonged date may dwindle in interest as time goes on--it's better to end a social activity at its peak rather than wait until it fizzles out," she said.

Also, sometimes teenagers stay out later than is sensible not because they're really having fun, but in an effort to prove to themselves that they are. And usually this effort is unsuccessful. It would be better to end the date and plan another more enjoyable one, she advised.

"How late is too late? There's no magic time when all dates should end. The Cinderella story with a midnight curfew makes dramatic telling, but doesn't make much sense in real life. For some dates, midnight may be too late -- and for other it would be early."

The specialist suggested some guidelines for determining when a date should end.

--How old are the two people involved?
--How responsible are they?
--How do the parents feel about the hour question?
--Where will the date take place?
Who else is going with the dating couple?
What time will the planned activity end?
How long will it take to be served some refreshment?
How far does the couple have to travel to get home?
What is considered a reasonable hour in the community?

"Many communities--particularly small ones--determine the appropriate time for young people to return to their homes. Some communities almost 'roll up the streets' by 9 or 10 p.m. So when activity ceases in the community, young people usually return home," Miss Taylor said.

TRICK OR TREAT FOR UNICEF RESULTS

On October 26 twenty-two youth of the First United Methodist Youth Group collected for UNICEF, the United Nation's International Children's Emergency Fund. The youth were accompanied by five adult sponsors as they worked for two hours in various parts of the Rockport community, West Terrace, Oak Terrace, Palm Harbor, Key Allegro and City by the Sea. Through the contributions of these residents, we will be sending $300 to the UNICEF fund. We would like to take this opportunity to say "Thanks" to all of you for helping us to help others.

The youth and adults helping with the fund were: Greta Adams, Robert Allred, Wynn Armstrong, Bruce Barre, Karen Barre, Clyde Barre, Robin Crisp, Gretel DeWolf, Jean Flanagan, Steve Flanagan, Betsy Gorton, Terri Gould, John Hancock.

Celebrity Parade

BY CATHY POST FIELD

Is it true that Jerry Lee Lewis, my favorite rock star, got into trouble with the police recently in Memphis? G. Penn, Santa Cruz, Calif.

No. What happened is that Lewis was evicted from his office because of fellow renters complaints. "The Killer", as he is nicknamed, is a night person and starts his business day at midnight. The police got into the act when Jerry Lee was fooling around with his .45 pistol one night and he drilled 25 holes in his office door. No charges were filed but the entertainer was told to move.

Hints of a divorce between Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon continue to be in the press. Is such a break likely? C. Adunsky, Pittsburgh, Pa.

There is no question the couple is very unhappy. And, the Princess' personality has done a complete turnabout from the days when she shocked all of Great Britain by doing the Can-Can. But the 15-year-marriage is said to be held together by Queen Elizabeth who has ruled that her sister must remain married — but that Lord Snowdon (real name Anthony Armstrong-Jones) and Margaret may discreetly go their separate ways.

Is John Payne, the movie star of the forties, still around? Penny Stagno, New Orleans, La.

Very much so. In addition to recently co-starring with Alice Faye in a musical on Broadway and on tour, Payne will be seen next season in an early segment of "Colombo." Payne doesn't work too often because he invested his money wisely and doesn't need to. He also spends much time on his working Montana ranch.

Field-Findings: To J. L., Augusta, Ga., The Mills Brothers, who just celebrated 50 years in show business, have no intention of retiring . . . To B.C., Akron, O., Top country-western singer Tommy Overstreet is indeed the nephew of the well-known deceased singer Gene Austin.

DEALING WITH TERMINAL ILLNESS

College Station -- Terminal illness often requires families to come together for mutual support--physical, emotional or even financial, Dorthy Taylor, a family life education specialist, says.

"The dying person and his remaining family members may have different needs--but the family unit usually offers the best medium for handling the problems of the terminally ill," she said.

Miss Taylor is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

She explained that the dying individual will be going through the necessary emotional and physical steps to accept death and deal with his feelings about it. He has to face potential isolation from friends and relatives and has to find meaning in the remaining time he has to live, and because he can't live in a vacuum, he has to occupy himself.

"His family members need also to accept death, mourn their loss and ultimately learn to function successfully as a family who has lost one member.

"The terminally ill must become aware of his feelings about dying and yet accept that death itself is a natural part of the human condition. A dying individual may experience rage at being unable to postpone his death, hostility and resentment with those whose fortune it is not to have his fate, or guilt for being troublesome and inconvenient for others," she continued.

He often feels isolated and alone. And there's often a basis for those feelings because family and friends of the dying tend to limit their contact with the person as death approaches. This is probably because the dying person stimulates in them fears about death and loss, Miss Taylor said.

"But when families continue to support the terminally ill with frequent visits and conversation, the patient won't have an opportunity to feel he's an object of dread or a 'non-person'."

Miss Taylor also pointed out that a young person's capacity to understand illness and death is generally more limited than an adult's. Children live in a world where reality and imagination are closely related. And most children, for example, can comprehend neither the inevitability nor the permanence of death until about the time they reach adolescence, she said.

"Death is always permanent, frequently unexpected and often denied or minimized by those it affects. It requires that the family develop the capacity to provide realistic acceptance and meaningful service to the terminally ill."

$300,000 REVENUE BOND ELECTION CALLED

The City Council called a $300,000 water and sewer bond election.

Before taking this action, Mayor Hollis Collum, Aldermen Wallace Maley, Charles Garrett, Earnest Harrist and N.F. Jackson, and City Water and Sewer Supt. Tom Shults discussed the need for these funds.

They agreed that the reasons for this need were:

1) The need for expansion of the sewer plant facilities.
2) The need for additional water wells and storage.
3) The need to expand the entire water and sewer systems to keep pace with the expected growth of Rockport.

SHOWER HONORS MISS WASHBURN

Miss Denise Washburn, bride-elect of Howard Scanlan of Houston, was honored at a bridal shower October 18 at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

The bride's colors of copen blue and dusty brown were carried out in the table settings and floral arrangements. The serving table was laid in blue, with a gathered net overskirt. The edge of the table was trimmed with ribbons of dusty brown and copen blue and tailored ribbon bows were at the corners and center of the table. The floral arrangement was of blue carnations and asters with brown eucalyptus leaves.

The register table was laid in blue and white check, with a net overskirt. Two blue lovebirds flanked a blue bowl of hibiscus and oleander.

Two of the bride's attendants, Miss Patricia Henderson and Miss Virginia McNichols of Austin, assisted her in opening the gifts, as well as the flower girl, little Miss Susan Yolland of Houston.

Special out-of-town guests attending were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J.C. Washburn and her aunt, Mrs. David Yolland, of Houston.

Hostesses for the event were Mesdames Del McLain, M.D. McNorton, Jerre Ledbetter, C.E. McElveen, Eddie Bradley, R.W. Landrum, Norman R.L. Irwin, Jr., Tom Goodin, W.E. Jackson, Melvin Moore and Grover Watkins.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z.T. Washburn of Rockport. The wedding vows will be exchanged on Saturday, November 15, 1975 at the First Baptist Church, Rockport, at 7:30 p.m.

MAGONIGAL GETS GOOD CONDUCT MEDAL

Army Staff Sergeant Robert N. Magonigal, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Magonigal, Fulton, was presented his third award of the Good Conduct Medal at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., Oct. 6.

The medal, established in 1941, is awarded on a selective basis for those who distinguish themselves from among their fellow military personnel through exemplary conduct, efficiency and fidelity during their active military service.

Sgt. Magonigal, an instructor at the U.S. Army Ordnance Center and School, entered the Army in August 1966 and was last stationed at Ft. Hood, Tex.

He is a 1966 graduate of Junction City (Kan.) High School.

Texans:

If you are tired of bigger government and higher taxes, vote NO on the proposed new constitution November 4.

Don't give future Legislatures a blank check.

The Houston Chronicle calls the new constitution "a dangerous document." Governor Dolph Briscoe warns it will "lead us down the road to a state income tax."

Governor Briscoe says: "It is my personal view that the current Constitution under which Texas has grown and prospered for a century is preferable to the proposed new constitution. Accordingly, I believe it is in the best interest of Texas that all eight propositions on the ballot be rejected."

Play it safe. Keep our present Constitution by voting NO on Tuesday, November 4.

HIRING DISABLED VETERANS

Veterans Administration officials have been told to intensify their efforts to hire disabled veterans and Vietnam era veterans, VA Administrator Richard L. Rousebush said recently.

While noting that the VA in fiscal year 1975 hired 14, 756 veterans of the Vietnam conflict, Roudebush said, "I expect VA to continue to demonstrate a firm commitment to maximum employment and advancement of disabled veterans.'

More than 14,200 disabled former servicemen and women are currently employed by the Veterans Administration and Roudebush said "their record is a credit to these capable and deserving veterans and has earned noteworthy recognition for them in the form of promotions, awards and commendations.'

The VA Administrator said he was concerned, however, by the fact that the employment rate for disabled veterans has slipped in the first six months of 1975 from 6.8 per cent to 6.6 per cent.

"I want to make certain that we do more than just be receptive to hiring disabled veterans and Vietnam era veterans,' Roudebush said. "We must affirmatively and aggressively seek them out.'

As a result of the renewed emphasis on hiring of disabled and Vietnam era veterans, and the fact that large numbers of the VA's World War II veteran employees are approaching retirement, Roudebush said, "I expect a number of openings to become available to qualified veterans in many job field during the coming year."

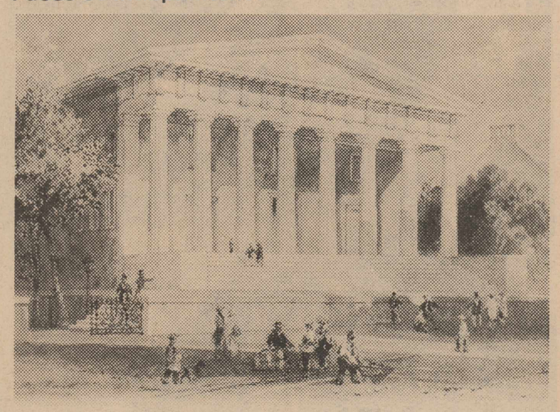

Disabled veterans are employed by the VA in a wide variety of positions and serve as hospital directors, veterans' counselors, personnel officers, mail clerks and other occupations, mostly in the Department of Medicine and Surgery which contains nearly 90 per cent of the agency's 212,000 personnel.

Handicapped employees make up 23 per cent of the VA's specialists in rehabilitation of the blind, 17 per cent of its prosthetics specialists, 16 per cent of the office service managers and insurance technicians, 14 per cent of its manual arts therapy assistants, 13 per cent of its mail clerks and 12 per cent of its personnel officers.

Second National Bank Portrait Gallery—Faces of Independence

The Second Bank of the United States. Watercolor on paper by William Henry Bartlett, about 1836-'39. (Courtesy of the Independence National Historical Park Collection)

The Second National Bank of the United States satisfied the needs for a central bank after the War of 1812, but its brief life was snuffed out by President Jackson's veto of its application for recharter in 1832. This classically elegant building in Philadelphia with its Doric-columned porticos and vaulted ceilings was designed by William Strickland in 1818 and is considered one of the finest examples, in America, of the Greek Revival style. Its sheer beauty and adaptability saved it from destruction until it was properly restored and opened as a Portrait Gallery on October 13, 1974.

As a portrait gallery, the Second Bank displays over 185 portraits of the founding fathers—28 members of the Continental Congress, 28 Signers of the Declaration of Independence and/or the United States Constitution; 15 general grade officers of the Continental Army during the American Revolution; 37 members of the first three Congresses under the United States Constitution, as well as many professional men and women—the citizenry of American Society prior to 1836.

In 1854, the city of Philadelphia bought all the portraits of Charles Willson Peale for $6,000 from the Peale estate, after Peale's failure to realize his dream of a National Museum.

Peale was the foremost painter in America during the Revolution, a product of the Age of Reason, who came to portrait painting quite by chance and inspired a host of his relatives to pursue his profession. Americans were sensitive—they still are—about the cultivé European's reaction toward their cultural progress, and therefore, a group of Maryland gentlemen sent Peale to England in 1766 to study portrait painting in the European style. This was to insure themselves and their portraits from becoming outmoded, or worst of all, ridiculed as provincial. Peale, fortunately, was aware of himself and his contemporaries as history-makers and he purposefully set about to create a visual record of the times in portraiture. This record is now at the Second Bank Portrait Gallery.

The James Sharples family of artists is also represented by 45 portraits in pastel of some of Philadelphia's noteworthy faces.

The Foreign Dignitaries Room at the Second Bank is graced by a magnificent Waterford crystal chandelier purchased in 1824 in anticipation of Lafayette's visit to Independence Hall. A very large portrait of Lafayette by Thomas Sully, a life-sized sculpture of George Washington by William Rush, a Gilbert Stuart portrait, and a bronze bust of John Paul Jones by Houdon are choice pieces on exhibition in the carefully divided galleries on two floors of the Second Bank.

A Changing Exhibits Gallery is now featuring an exhibit from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. In 1976, this gallery will house an exhibit of Historical American Needlework.

Tours are given regularly at the Second Bank which is open daily from 9-5 p.m. Admission is free.

Sugar Prices May Dip With Increased Production

College Station -- Remember the high sugar prices and widespread hoarding just a short year ago. Well, if the current outlook for sugar production in the United States and the rest of the world is accurate, sugar supplies will be plentiful during the coming year. So, consumers may see a slight softening in retail prices.

"U.S. production of both sugarcane and sugar beets should be up sharply this year compared to 1974," points out Dr. Russell McDonald, economist in marketing for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The U.S. Department of Agriculture has estimated sugarcane output will be up about 14 per cent while production from sugar beets may be up 25 per cent from levels a year ago.

Combined U.S. production of sugarcane and sugar beets should total in the neighborhood of 56 million tons while the world sugar crop may exceed 93 million tons--up four to six million tons from a year ago.

At the same time that production is expanding, per capita consumption of refined sugar in the U.S. is down, notes the Texas A&M University System economist. Each American may consume less than 90 pounds of refined sugar this year, the lowest amount since the sugar--short years of World War II.

"The decline in sugar use is mainly due to consumer resistance to high prices of sugar and sugar-containing products," believes McDonald. "Also, a new high-fructose corn syrup is becoming available in larger quantities and is competing with the sugar market."

The economist notes that the decreasing consumption of sugar is not unique to the U.S. alone. Demand is also expected to be down in Europe, Japan and Canada.

What effect will the larger sugar crop have on prices?

"Prices for raw sugar in the U.S. may drop as low as $17 per hundred pounds this fall," says McDonald, "after rising above the $23 level at mid-August.

"This means that consumers may see a little relief at the supermarket. But for those hoping for sugar at bargain basement prices of several years ago, it's just not in the cards," contends the economist.

The man or woman who has captured personality is not worried by the competition of other men or women.

Shower Honors Karen Debord

Karen Debord of Mission, Texas, bride-elect of Steve Shaver of La Joya, Texas, was honored at a shower at the home of T.D. Baugh, Rockport.

The hostesses were Mrs. James C. Baugh of Victoria and Mrs. Tom Baugh, Rockport.

Karen is the daughter of Mrs. Willis Debord of Olivia, Texas. Steve is the son of the late C.V. Shaver.

Cake and punch were served to twenty people. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bill Miller, Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hanselman, Cindy, Tina and Susan of Sinton.

BUILDING STARTED AT CALVARY BAPTIST

Work was started Oct. 21 on a new educational building for Calvary Baptist Church. General contractor for the one story, 30 by 68 foot structure is Steve Clark and the work is expected to be completed in approximately two months.

This work inaugurates a building program undertaken to relieve growing pains at Calvary Baptist and includes a proposed remodeling of the existing auditorium.

What the good neighbor did when Charlie's house blew away.

A hurricane strikes, and many a family, rich or poor, is left with nothing but the pieces.

What would you do?

Here's what The American Red Cross—America's Good Neighbor—does.

We move into the area to help. To feed people. To provide them with the necessities of life.

As a gift from You, the American people.

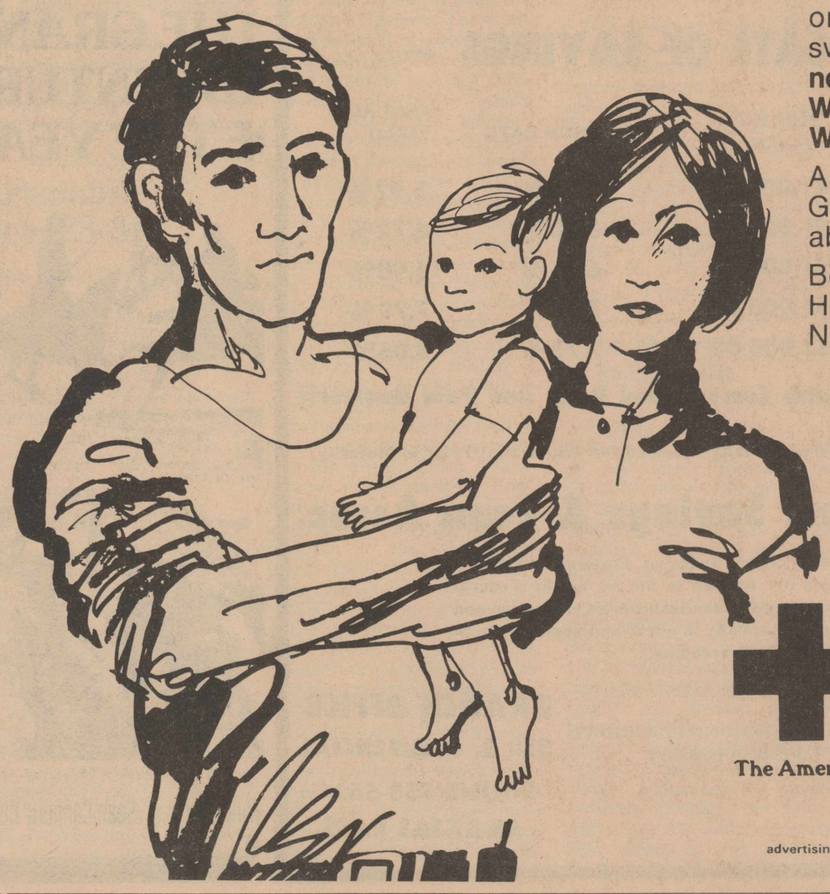

Now maybe you live in an area where hurricanes seem pretty remote.

Yet Red Cross is at work where you live, too. Helping the aged, the desperate, the sick—anyone in need.

Because the Red Cross is a home town affair. We do what needs to be done—whether it's pick up the pieces of a hurricane . . . or find the right blood donor . . . or teach a blind kid to swim. We're what you need us to be. Whoever you are. Wherever you are.

And isn't that what a Good Neighbor is all about?

The club welcomed two guests to the meeting, Mrs. Larrimore, mother of member Roger Larrimore from Arizona, and Janet Odom from the Ingleside TOPS #497. She had come to invite the club to a Halloween party being held in Ingleside where there is going to be fun and games, skits and prizes.

Queen of the week was Jerry Larrimore with a 2 pound loss; runner-up was Rita Beaty with a 1¾ lb. loss. King of the week was Roger Larrimore. Jerry and Roger are a husband and wife team who are "losing together." Princess of the week was Roxanna Hewes. 20 members were present.

Meetings are held at the Methodist Church Youth Building on Thursday evenings at 7:30 p.m. Weigh-in is from 6:30 p.m. to 7:20 p.m. Want to lose weight and have fun, too? Please drop by and give us a try.

Give Pewter Gentle Care

College Station -- Pewter, long-beloved of collectors, will enjoy new popularity for the Bicentennial--but it needs special gentle care, Mrs. Janice Carberry, a family resource management specialist, says.

"Pewter, a soft metal that is easily dented and scratched, needs this gentle care to maintain its lustrous beauty. Wash by hand in lukewarm sudsy water, rinse and immediately dry with a soft cloth to restore luster and prevent water spots."

Mrs. Carberry is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

She suggested a quart of water with two tablespoons of ammonia is a good pewter cleanser.

"Polish pewter according to desired finish--for a bright finish, use a silver or special pewter polish. It can be made from a whiting and denatured alcohol paste. Let it dry on the pewter, then polish. Wash, rinse and dry.

"For a dull finish, rub the piece with a paste of rottenstone and olive oil," the specialist said.

She pointed out that some pewter items may have a protective finish and shouldn't be polished. Check tags accompanying the purchase for care information. And if giving pewter for a gift, be sure care instructions are included before wrapping, Mrs. Carberry reminded.

Modern pewter is usually 90 per cent tin, plus copper and antimony. Its excellent heat and cold retention makes it usable for hot and cold drinks. But it can't stand direct heat. Acetic foods damage the finish so pewter trays or bowls used to serve citrus fruits and vinegar type salads and relishes need protective glass or plastic liners, she said.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

What shall we have for dinner is a question which disturbs many women who are concerned with feeding the family. Try serving a main dish meal, plus a fresh, crisp salad and a fruit dessert.

Chicken Creole Casserole

- 1 3 lb. chicken cut in serving pieces.
- ¼ c flour
- 1 t salt
- ½ t pepper
- 2 T fat
- ¾ c chopped onions
- 1½ c canned tomatoes
- 2 sprigs parsly chopped
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 clove garlic chopped fine
- ½ t thyme
- 1 c condensed canned consomme
- 5 peeled potatoes

Dip pieces of chicken in flour which has been mixed with salt and pepper. Brown lightly in hot fat. Arrange in a greased 3 quart casserole. Cook onion in remaining fat until golden brown. Add to chicken. Add tomatoes, parsley, bay leaf, garlic, thyme, and consomme. Cover, bake in an oven 350 degrees until tender from 1½ to 2 hours. Add potatoes last 35 minutes of cooking.

Governor OK's $131,086 Grant

Austin -- Governor Dolph Briscoe announced his approval recently of a $131,086 grant to the Coastal Bend Council of Governments to supplement the regional law enforcement radio communications system.

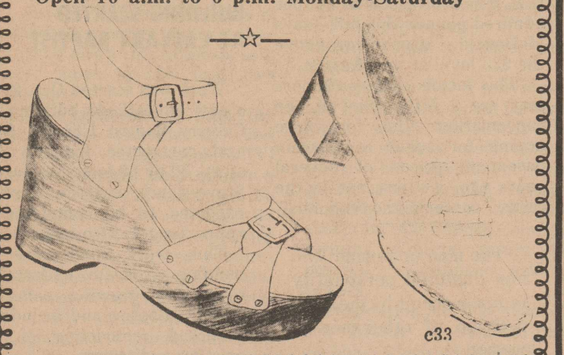

The money comes from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office. CJD administers the state's block grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration under the Crime Control Act of 1973.

Thirty-four local law enforcement agencies will be provided with radio equipment. Decreased police response time, increased clearance and conviction rates, and improved agency operations are anticipated results of the system's expansion. The project will be supplemented with a $44,079 cash match from the grantee.

The grant was among 38 approved by Governor Briscoe, totaling $2,928,826 for improvements in law enforcement and criminal justice at state, regional and local levels.

HOLIDAY BEACH CLUB NEWS

The Copanoakers Ladies' Club met at the Lee Miller Recreation Hall Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1975, at 7:30 p.m. with President Gwen Woodward presiding. Devotions were given by Melissa Voss.

Members present were: Delora Alderman, Myrtle Everitt, Pearl Gaubatz, Janet Langham, Pearl Monk, Irene Pflaum, Louise Smith, Lee Stobbs, Melissa Voss, Louise Wilken, Gwen Woodward and Mae Willetts.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Notes of thanks were read from the Willett's family, and from Mrs. Marcie Pye.

Betty Campbell had a baby boy. Mrs. Fredricks has had surgery in Citizens Hospital in Victoria. Bill Caraway is in the hospital. Louise Hughes is home, Elmo Hodges is in Galveston for routine medical attention, and Mrs. Pye is back in the hospital.

Instead of a program, the members were assigned to committees to help build display racks and decorate the club's booth at the Sea Fair, as well as attend the booth to sell items on display. The balance of the meeting was spent pricing items to be sold.
