Girl Scout Cookie Sale Starts Friday

Anybody hearing that "Knock-knock" Friday, and for a week beginning with Friday, won't need to call out "Who's there?" The "Who" will be somebody's little Girl Scout.

The "Knock-knock" will not be a game this time. It will signify very serious business—and something for your money. It's about to be Girl Scout cookie sale time.

Girl Scouts are ready to start their cookie sale Friday, Feb. 1. The annual cookie sale campaign will continue for a week, announced Mrs. Earl Doss, district and neighborhood chairman of the sale of boxed cookies.

Girls have set themselves a goal of 12 boxes apiece to sell for benefit of Boothe Oaks Girl Scout Camp, near Sweetwater and for sake of the local troops' treasuries.

Cookies come in different flavors this season. There will be a choice of chocolate or vanilla. Girl Scouts have bought their cookies for the sale from Weston Biscuit Co., Waco. Cookies cost 'Girl Scout Friends, neighbors, and buyers 50c.

Three cents collected from each box goes into the troop treasury, 21c goes to the Girl Scout Camp, and 26c goes to the cookie-making company for the product to sell.

Proceeds are needed, Girl Scouts can tell you, for the up-keep of their Girl Scout Camp, Boothe Oaks, to help to improve the filter system of the camp's swimming pool, buy more tents for the units, buy a later model camp pickup truck, and buy a bigger and better lawn mower for use at the camp site.

Girl Scouts plan to do their cookie selling in pairs and wearing their uniforms. Homemakers and other citizens are asked to watch for the Scout cookie-sellers, answer their "knock-knock," greet them, and buy.

Weather Switches Roles for Matinee

Whether this week in Colorado City continues to run the gamut, switching roles between acts.

Friday came and went with a 50 degree variance in official temperature at the local weather station. Temperature reading early Friday morning was 24 degrees. At 5 p. m., same day, same place, the reading was 75 degrees, said Virgil Eaton at City Hall.

Winter in the morning, almost-summer in the evening began the double role appearances Sunday and has staged the same show each day this week except Thursday, Jan. 24, when the high was 39, the low 8 degrees.

Sunday's high was 53, the low 11; Monday's high 64, low 24; Tuesday's 74 degree high dropped to a 35 degree low, Wednesday's 57 contrasted with that day's 10 degree low.

Low for Saturday morning was 25 degrees.

Mother's March of Dimes will start Monday night, Jan. 28, with a fund-raising drive to 1963 adults, the disease of daily child, from Monday night through the rest of the week. Plans for the Mothers March are being perfected by a meeting Thursday morning when a film was shown in City House during coffee hour at 10 a. m. Food items for the week's drive are Mrs. Camille Wood and Mrs. Carl Gary Wood.

There are now 11 Clinical Study Centers for Birth Defects and Arthritis, Thrombosis, and the Salk Institute for Biological Studies, where eminent scientists will join Dr. Jonas Salk to explore the basic processes of life and the cause of disease. Included in the March of Dimes campaign are polio, birth defects, arthritis, and sickle cell disease. National Foundation was founded by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a polio victim.

Money given to March of Dimes provides modern medical care for children.

TYPE 3

Statement of Doctor Urges Polio Vaccine

Type 3 polio vaccine is to be offered here in Laraine, Westbrook and Silver Feb. 10.

With the third Sabin Oral Vaccine Day date approaching, the Record publishes herewith a statement from Dr. W. K. Cowan. The statement as the doctor made it to Mrs. Mary F. Post, publicity chairman for the mass immunization program, follows:

"Type No. 3 Polio has been released by the U. S. Public Health Service for both adults and children—and further, more, the Surgeon General and his committee have urged all adults as well as children to take the vaccine."

"The entire hullabaloo over the type 3 program was based solely on the fact that eleven (11) adults could conceivably not be proved at all have developed polio from type 3 vaccine out of 16 million."

"Under normal conditions in unvaccinated adults many more have developed type 3 Polio each year. Therefore, it is almost inconceivable that the adult population as well as the children would pass up this opportunity."

"But if you have thought it over and decided to take the chance and skip the vaccine please consider the public health viewpoint as well as the community service viewpoint. We cannot eliminate polio from our community or our nation unless we immunize a much higher percent of our population than has taken types 1 or 2 vaccine."

"Remember this: the Sabin vaccine is the only vaccine which eliminates the carrier."

"Those who are not concerned about themselves should certainly be concerned about their children and grandchildren and their friends children and grandchildren."

"We all have a true interest in seeing that not only we, but all our acquaintances take this vaccine."

"Those who do not take the vaccine are not only endangering themselves, but they are doing a disservice to their country, their community, and to yours and my children and grandchildren."

"Be a good citizen for your community and take type 3 vaccine on Feb. 10th—for all ages from 3 months to 100."

PEGGY'S Paragraphs

By PEGGY BELVIN

COOKED STEAK DINNER the other night for a half dozen very good friends and had them under control by the time they reached my house.

The steaks were in the broiler, the salad was made and had some quick frozen hot rolls browning in the oven.

Became so absorbed in talking to my guests, I forgot the precious steaks. With so strict a budget, it was a strain to purchase the T-bones and when I remembered they were still cooking about a half hour late, I rushed to their rescue.

Pulled the broiler door open with a jerk and one of the precious steaks went sliding across the kitchen floor.

WHAT TO DO? With seven people and only six dear steaks, this should have been a problem. But if you live on as strict a budget as I, you know what to do.

Carry the steak to the sink and hold it under the running water, take it back to the stove and shift the whole thing around until even you don't know for sure just which steak it was.

AFTER ALL, a dirty steak is better than no steak at all.

THERE'S A CEILING LIGHT in my darkroom with a string that hangs down.

Pulled the string a little too hard the other day and it came out of the light.

No standard procedure then was to climb up on the high stool we have back there and twist the bulb to turn it on and off.

But I found out that the bulb wasn't the only thing that twisted the top of the stool did too.

And insulated as that place is, if I had flattened my head or something, it probably would have been days before anyone found me.

ONE OF THE MOST impressive men I have met lately is the amiable and soft-spoken FATHER ARSENIO REY, priest of St. Ann's Catholic Church here.

Have never seen anyone work quite so hard for a goal as he is working to further the local chapter of CYO, Catholic Youth Organization.

Believe he's one of the best things that have happened to our little town in quite a while.

CONVERSATION CORNER

A CAREER WOMAN young and glamorous and smart to boot, has written a very sophisticated little piece indeed. Her name is Gail Greene, the magazine running her article is nicknamed the Sat-Eve Post, and she titles her theme "I Do Not Want to Have Children."

Well now! We learned too long ago to talk about that taking the other side on public issues is scarcely worth the bother in print.

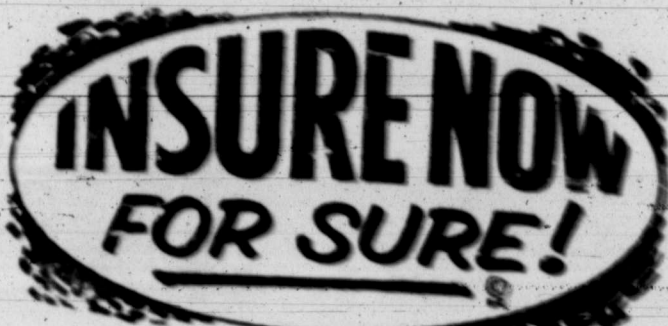

TO TAKE the opposite view in print on a matter so purely personal and private as whether or not the lady wants a baby or three or five is even more futile than arguing religion and or politics. You can't win for losing.

Even so, as we read Gail Greene's piece while the man of the house watched "Untouchables" shook up the screen, over something once known as "take-up," we took to feeling sorry for Mrs. Greene. Not that she wants sympathy. She's far too clever sounding for that.

ALL THE SAME felt, sorta sad about Gail's reasoning. Or lack of same.

Children, says she, complicate the lives of couples. Run the dyke, change the beautiful Romeo-Juliet relationship between lovers into a "Mommy and Daddy" love. A level which takes to formulas, the suburbs, P. T. A., and self-denial, forsaking the excited level of utter selfishness.

JUST HOPE Mrs. Greene gets her wish. No children. The little things would keep her from horseback rides.

Be safe against financial loss from storm, hail, theft, fire, accident! Be safe... be sure with insurance from G. D. Foster, representing Capital Stock Insurance Companies.

'Pressure Point' Opens At Palace

Some men and some motion pictures just won't conform. Producer Stanley Kramer is one man, for example, who knows that the most vital ingredient in a movie is excitement. Another is point. A picture must make a point. Kramer insists, it is a waste of time to put in a picture unless it has a point. Only in a motion picture filmed without a safety valve could this kind of pressure have been created.

Peter Falk also stars as a colleague of Poitier, with Carolee Benson, Mary Munday and Barry Gordon in support. Hubert Cornfield wrote the screenplay with S. Lee Pogson, based on an incident in when white-hot race. Dr. Robert Lindner's widely discussed book, "The Fifty of human emotions." Starting at the Demy Award winning cinema, Poitier plays a role in the active method for visually telling the tale in black, in white, covers the startling back page.

News in January White Sales. Here are some of the new things that you will be seeing this year in the January White Sales. There is certainly no need to avoid new fabrics and styles when they are understood, and I hope this information will help you be a smart shopper this January.

Rotating Sheets—In caring for bedding in your linen closet, remember to rotate the use of sheets. The easiest way to do this is to place newly laundered sheets on top and take those for bed-making from the bottom of the stack. Sheets will have longer life because prolonged creasing without use often weakens the fibers at the folds.

Business In Texas Rises Says Horne

Business in Texas fared even better last year than it did throughout the Nation as a whole, and should continue to improve this year, Small Business Administrator John E. Horne said Wednesday.

Speaking before a group of Texas businessmen at a luncheon given by the Dallas Chamber of Commerce today, Mr. Horne wrapped up the business picture in Texas with these statistics:

"During the first 11 months of 1962 there were 7,697 new business incorporations, four percent more than during the same months of 1961. This rate of growth which we look upon as a measure of small business growth—since small business makes up 95 percent of the Nation's business—was higher for the State of Texas than for the Nation as a whole during this period. The percentage of increase for the entire country was one percent.

"Another favorable sign for Texans is the fact that business failures in this state have been decreasing during the same 11-month period. Failures declined from 532 to 485, a drop of nine percent. Nationwide, the decline was seven percent."

Three on a Program

Royal Service Has Program Of Missions

The program for the Monday morning meeting of the Royal Service of Oak Street Baptist Church was titled "Home Missions." The meeting was in the church parlor and under the direction of Mrs. E. G. Banks.

Mrs. Banks directed a panel discussion on home missions. Members of the panel were Mrs. H. P. Graves, O. R. House, Connie Hart, H. Wells and E. V. Brown.

The group discussed how they could do more mission work from individual churches.

Mrs. House led the opening prayer.

Mrs. Banks presented the devotional from Acts.

The next meeting will be Feb. 17 in the church parlor.

Annual LCC Lectures Scheduled for Feb. 17

Lubbock Christian College's Sixth Annual Bible Lecture ship has been scheduled to begin Sunday, Feb. 17, and continue four days through Thursday, Feb. 21, according to Jack Bates, Lectureship Director.

The theme of the lectureship will be "Bible For Today's World." Throughout the program, the teachings of the Apostle Paul in the New Testament will be applied to modern life. Selective speakers from throughout the nation have been invited to take part in the annual event.

U. S. Treasury records disclose that the number of individual bonds issued during 1962 set a five-year record with over 73 million individual bonds issued during the year. The number of $50 bonds purchased was the highest amount since the war years, and the sale of $25 bonds was at a five-year record.

"The increasing sales of the smaller denomination bonds are a direct result of the Free, Don't Buy—Drive, when over one million American workers enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan for bond buying. This was a 15% increase over 1961," Chairman, Shawne reported.

Sincere Thanks

to all my friends of Mitchell County who have been so kind to me through the years, and whose support returned me to the office of County Treasurer the several times I sought public office. It was a pleasure to work with you—all of you.
