

AMAZED WONDER REFLECTED ON FIRST GRADE FACES --

Area Crop Prospects Termed Favorable

Farmers in the area seemed pretty well pleased with crop prospects, despite the early rains, washing rains and the greenbug infestation.

A check with area farmers Wednesday showed that some farmers were still watering while others said they might have to begin soon.

Mrs. Doyle Pinson said their crops were looking fine and that they had had approximately one and three-fourths inches of rain and were not watering at the present time. The Pinsons farm is west of town.

"We would welcome more rain for the soybeans, although I imagine cotton farmers probably would not want more just now."

Jack Allcorn, south east of Olton, said crops look "pretty good." He said they had a little over an inch of rain a week ago and has not been watering since.

"We will need to, however, unless we get more rain so --- get one ordered."

Northeast of town, Mrs. George Redinger said their crops were looking better, but added, "They couldn't have much profit in them, we have had to spray so much."

She reported rainfall of about one and one-half inches nearly a week ago and said they would like more.

Mrs. Melvin Berry, northwest of town, stated that they had received only nine-tenths of an inch of rain and were "irrigating full force."

"Crops look fair, considering early fall," Mrs. Berry commented, "And we could use some rain."

A cucumber grower, Royce Collins, said that he had just picked his fields and plans to water them again, then hope for two more weeks' gathering before the end of the season.

Out near Circle, crops were reported to look "real good" by Mrs. Jim Brown.

She said they were not watering at the present time, but will likely have to resume irrigation, because of the hot days. She reported that they received a good rain on the "south place in the sand" where several showers had fallen.

South of Olton, Mrs. John Jefferies said crops looked good, but reported a little hail falling last Friday night. No extensive damage was noted, however, and she said they would have to start watering feed again, but "had rather water it than risk a hail at this time."

Mrs. Roy Copeland said their castor beans and soybeans were a very "pretty crop", having planted them, following early hailouts. Other crops are fair, with maize looking good.

"We may have to irrigate one more time. The cucumbers are doing fine if we could keep enough pickers."

Those farmers who were wishing for more rain were probably looking hopefully at the skies Thursday, hoping that those forecasts of rain would come true, while those farmers who do not need more rain, look anxiously at the skies, hoping the sun would continue to beam down on their crops.

Mustangs Begin Football Workouts

Seventy-eight hopefuls were on hand Monday to begin twice daily workouts and give head coach Don Beck a preview of the stuff from which the District 3-AA champions are made -- that is, if "Texas Football" magazine predictions come true.

Eighteen lettermen are returning including 10 offensive starters and six defensive starters.

Most effort, Beck reports, is going toward offense. "We feel like we're pretty strong on defense so we're concentrating right now on offense," he remarked.

Mustangs will get the chance at 8 p. m. Tuesday to do battle against an opponent when they meet Idalou on their home field.

A second scrimmage is set for Tuesday, Sept. 3 at 8 p. m. when the Mustangs meet Sudan on the Ponies home grounds. The Hornets, who advanced to quarter-finals last year, have nine starters back this year.

"They should be real salty," Beck said.

A Misunderstanding

In a recent issue of the Olton Enterprise, we published an article in which the United States Chamber of Commerce spoke out against farm programs.

It was our intention to inform the public that members of this organization had taken a recent poll and that the results of this poll showed that 63 per cent of the farmers RESPONDING were opposed to Federal Government price support programs.

We felt that this was something that area farmers needed to know after questioning several farmers - only to find that everyone with whom we talked were, in fact, FOR the price support programs.

If this is the true feeling of the biggest percentage of the farmers in this area -- we felt that they should take the necessary steps to prevent the U.S. Chamber of Commerce or any other organization from interfering in these programs.

However, there were some who misunderstood the news item, thinking that it was from our local Chamber of Commerce.

The local chamber is not a member of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and knew nothing of the news release.

Some few members who were of the opinion that it was from our local chamber of commerce withdrew from the organization.

We want to explain again -- the local chamber of commerce is NOT connected with the U. S. Chamber of Commerce in any way.

We felt that if the U. S. Chamber of Commerce were misrepresenting the feelings of the farmers in this area, that the farmers should know about it, and take action NOW before it is too late.

We regret that this misunderstanding cost the local chamber membership loss.

Sue's Views

Grocery List

BY SUE CANNON

As I was wondering what I could fill this space with this week, I was saved by a friend, who called and said they had found an old grocery ad in some belongings of an early resident. Jack and Mildred Snider, who were helping Dwight Coventry sort out his mother's belongings, found a grocery ad that was dated May 6, 1936. You wouldn't believe some of the prices!

10 pounds of sugar for 51¢
Salmon -- 2 cans for 24¢
But -- I'm getting ahead of myself.

The grocery ad was made out in letter form and read:

"Mr. and Mrs. Food Buyer, Have you been taking advantage of the unusual prices we have been offering you? Read the following list for Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9 and be one of the ever increasing numbers who do. All specials will be cash.

Sugar, 10 lbs. 51¢
Shortening, 8 lbs. 92¢
Crackers, 2 lbs. 15¢
Post Toasties, 2 for 24¢
Salmon 2 cans for 24¢
Coffee, 1 lb. 25¢
Soap (Hard Water) 6 bars for 25¢

Faultless Starch 3 boxes 25¢
Jello (any flavor) 4¢ box
Eran Flakes 6¢
Corn (Royal Gem) 3 cans 25¢

Peas (Green Bay) 3 for 25¢
(This is pretty good -- but the best is yet to come. Just listen to these market prices! I couldn't believe it.)

"Rib Roast, 2 lbs. 15¢
Cheese, 1 lb. 14¢
Bologna, 1 lb. 9¢
Hamburger, 2 lbs. 23¢

(Wouldn't you like to go to the market and get these prices today? The only thing -- figure money was mighty hard to get hold of during the time these prices were in effect.

Seems like there's not too much difference in that fact and the situation of today. We don't have too much trouble getting hold of it -- it just is no good when we do get it!)

The groceryman put a foot note at the close of his ad saying, "Bring your cream and eggs and receive the highest price for them. We also have ice."

The changing scenes -- any one care to go back to the "good ole days"?

By the way some of you may remember the groceryman who ran this ad. His name was "Red" Harris and did business as Harris Cash Grocery & Market.

Stephenson-Choate Wedding Vows Exchanged In Candlelight Ceremony

Double ring vows were pledged Saturday evening at 8 p. m. in the First United Methodist Church between Miss Carla Sue Choate and John Robbins Stephenson Jr.

The Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor of Trinity United Church in Plainview, directed the exchange of vows.

Five candelabums complemented with white cathedral tapers lighted the altar. One candelabrum formed the background with a floral arrangement of pale pink gladioli and carnations with deep pink roses. Branched candelabra on either side provided an arch-effect with spiral candelabra completing the setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ray Spain of Plainview and the granddaughter of Mrs. Margie Slatten, with whom she was residing. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stephenson of Edmonson are parents of the groom.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory satin and candlelight lace, fashioned with an Empire bodice, outlined with a band of satin. Appliques of matching lace adorned her sweeping train. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held by a satin headpiece enhanced with pearls. She carried a nosegay of phalaenopsis orchids, roses of varying shades of pink with stephanotis.

For something new she wore a strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a silk handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother for something borrowed. A diamond pendant, gift of the groom, served as something old and she wore a blue garter, a gift from Miss Doris Jefferies, bridesmaid.

Mrs. Brenda Hooks of Plainview, sister of the groom was matron of honor. Maid of honor was Miss Kay Pierson of Austin. Bridesmaids were Miss Doris Jefferies of Olton and Miss Kathleen Spain of Plainview, sister of the bride. They wore formal length gowns of pink taffeta brocade with Empire waistlines defined with sashes. They wore circlets of roses in their hair and carried a cascade of pink spider mums and trumpets with lemon leaves and accented of velvet ribbon.

David Hoxworth of Lubbock was best man. Groomsmen who ushered and lighted the candles were Bob Fulkerson of Tulsa and Jim Stanton and Joie Hooks both of Plainview.

Mrs. C. S. Williams of Dimmitt, organist, accompanied Van Perry of Plainview as he sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "Walk Hand in Hand".

Guests were registered by Mrs. George Richards. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spain chose a dress of beige linen and added orange accessories and a corsage of pearlized cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a yellow silk suit accented with rhinestone buttons and a corsage of pearlized cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was laid with a white bouffant cloth with a marble cherub centerpiece holding four pink candles, pink mums, roses and trumpets. Topped with satin wedding bells, the three tiered cake was fashioned with a scalloped bottom tier. Silver punch service and pale pink napkins completed the table decor. Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. David Hoxworth of Lubbock, Mrs. John Mayes and Mrs. A. J. Spain. The groom's table was covered with a white linencloth and centered with a brass candleholder and large pink candle surrounded by lemon leaves. The groom's cake was a chocolate ring with beige frosting accented with dark chocolate drippings and beige roses. Dark pink napkins and a silver coffee service completed the appointments. Misses Susan and Leslie Norfleet of Olton and Mrs. Thomas Pierson of Plainview presided at the groom's table.

Cynthia Carole Busby Becomes Bride Of Danny Lee Byers In Springlake Baptist Church Saturday Evening

Miss Cynthia Carole Busby and Danny Lee Byers were united in marriage Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of Springlake. The Rev. Don Holmes, pastor, directed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Busby of Springlake and granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Hood of Olton. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Byers Jr. of Springlake are parents of the bridegroom.

The altar was set with colonial columns topped with urns holding white gladioli and mums, flanked by candelabra with blue tapers. A white satin kneeling bench completed the setting.

Candles were lighted by Misses Diana McNamara and Karen Jones.

Joan Dawson, organist, presented nuptial selections and accompanied Kathie Clayton as she sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Lord's Prayer".

Corey Hopping of Springlake was ring bearer. Sharla Perkins of Amarillo was flower girl.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath gown of white Guipure lace over bridal taffeta, fashioned with a scalloped lace front. A bouffant chapel length train of taffeta fell in folds from the lace Empire bodice back. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was caught to matching lace flowerettes enhanced with seed pearls and crystal drops. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and daisy mums. For something borrowed and old she wore a lavalier belonging to the groom's great-grandmother. She wore a blue garter and a penny in her shoe. For something new she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Don Curtis of Earth was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Barton, Anita O'Hair and Carolyn Fralin. They wore formal length gowns of romance blue silk with blue velvet bow trim. Dior bows of blue velvet held their illusion veils. They carried colonial bouquets of blue asters with velvet bow accents.

Thomas Gregory of Ada, Okla., served as best man. Groomsmen were Davey Haberer of Maryland, Tom Farmer of Dallas and Ricky Byers of Springlake. Guests were seated by Stephen Busby, Danny Parish, Jerry Don Sanders, all of Springlake and Douglas Messer of Earth.

For her daughter's wedding,

MRS. DANNY LEE BYERS

Mrs. Busby chose a dress of icy green with matching lace coat. She added matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a tunic styled dress of blue lace with matching accessories and orchid corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a floor length lace cloth. Appointments were silver and crystal. Members of the houseparty were Tanya and Rhonda Perkins of Amarillo, Pansy Been and Vickie Sanders of Earth and Linda Hood of Littlefield.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose an off-white suit styled with Nehru jacket. She chose matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The couple will be at home in Austin where both are students at the University of Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Springlake-Earth High School and attended Texas Technological College her freshman year. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Springlake-Earth. He is a senior at the University.

Football boys - Did you feel tired and sore Tuesday morning? Then, did you realize it was all to do over again that day? And as your eye sought the clock, did you discover it was nine o'clock and practice started at eight?

Band members - did you have any problems trying to remember those notes that last year you couldn't forget? By the way, how DID you sound Monday night??

Students - Did you feel complete confusion as you glanced over the schedule you did not remember signing up for last year???

And Seniors - Does it shock you that every morning you find you are still a senior -- finally???

Well, cheer up, there's still hope! (Something could be postponed for . . . about a . . . well, it might not even start!) But otherwise, 8:30 a. m. will be coming too early Monday for most of us.

This year, the former "Chit Chat" will be known as "Horse Tales" and will be written by -- da, ta, da -- Luci Gunter and Helen Smith.

We have some great plans for this year and we are really looking forward to this 68-69 school year -- especially the end -- when we graduate!!!!

The long-awaited annuals finally showed up Saturday afternoon at the annual signing party held in the lunchroom. If you did not make it to the party, you can pick up your edition at Mrs. Campbell's house sometime soon.

SUMMER '68 . . .

What went on this summer? Who went where for what? Let's look back at what happened . . .

WAY BACK IN JUNE . . .

Vacation Bible School kept several kids busy . . . The Mustang band made a hasty trip to Dallas where they toured Six Flags and marched in the International Lions Club Parade . . . Summer homemaking came with paint, scissors, varnish, and yarn . . . Leslie Holladay added her talents to the cast of Paul Green's production of "Texas" . . . Luci Gunter and Sandee Gregory were at Trinity University in San Antonio to attend a journalism clinic . . . Hugo Hondequin, foreign exchange student from Belgium, left his Olton parents . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson, after a year's stay in Olton . . . and Joel Nelson attended the National Student Council Convention in Hurst, Texas.

JULY "POPPED" IN . . .

Letha Estes, Jeanie Gardner, Greg Smith, and Joel Nelson attended a workshop for student council members at SMU in Dallas. . . Baseball in full swing, had several occupied . . . The smell of cotton candy attracted kids to the Lions Club Carnival . . . The OHS twirlers, Cheri Dorris, Helen Smith, Jan Carson, and Letha Estes attended a camp in Dallas at SMU for a week . . . and most of all the daily activities of hoeing, working on the farm, at the 'pickle shed', the service stations, grocery stores, swimming and the trips to the Dairy Mart, and the drive-in, and just sitting at the 'pig lot' made the month of July a typical summer month.

AUGUST SLIPPED IN . . .

The 68-69 cheerleaders, Kate Carson, Francine Offield, Jan Scruggs, Sunya Sorley, Janie Jones and Bonnie Offield left for a spirit-filled week at camp in SMU where they won several ribbons and the spirit stick. . . Suneo Sachow, foreign exchange student from Thailand, arrived to make her home with the K. Y. Givens family . . . football practice and band rehearsals begin . . . and the summer is gone much too soon. But with the end of 'Summer '68' comes the realization of a spirited fall bringing on pep rallies, football games and all the excitement of a new year.
