First Choice FOR SAVINGS

"First Choice For Savings" doesn't always mean what it sounds. You can buy "cheap" things and they are really higher than those Quality things that you pay relatively a larger sum of money for.

The difference is the results. Results, in the long run are what you're after, and this applies to foods as well as any other commodity.

Right foods reasonably priced, and full of the "quality" and nutrition giving values are much, much better than "cheaper" foods that lack these inherent values.

Quality for your money is the "cheapest" in the long run in Fruits, Vegetables, Groceries and Meats at Southerland's.

BAPTIST BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT

Mr. R. A. Springer, treasurer of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Dallas is the speaker at the First Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock. Travis Meharg president, indicates that plans are being made to serve 200 men. Claude W. White is in charge of the special music. Some 15 men are distributing 200 tickets to the men of the church.

Mr. Springer was the banquet speaker three years ago and his visit proved so popular the Brotherhood has finally secured his promise for a return engagement. Before going to the treasurer's office, which handled more than 3 million dollars for Texas Baptists last year, Mr. Springer was educational director at the First Baptist Church, Lubbock. In addition to his duties as treasurer he has acted as director of the state Brotherhood for the past 4 years. The Brotherhood officers invite and urge every man of the church to attend this annual banquet which has come to mean so much in enlisting the men in church work.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 27, at 3:00 p. m. at the church.

Mrs. Rabon Balch led the devotions, using Luke: 18, 19 and 24 as her scripture reading. The singing of America, and My Faith looks up to Thee followed. After devotions Mrs. Guggolz, the president, made the announcements stressing that they would have one more lesson in Mission Study, and that the meeting following would be the Social Hour.

Mrs. Hamilton study director, gave the second and third chapters in the mission study book, "Indians in American Life". Indian curios were displayed. Mrs. Balch showed a ring and bracelet made by an Indian, and Mrs. Porter, a hand made bow and arrow that had belonged to an Indian Chief in New Mexico.

Thirteen members were present, and two visitors, Mrs. Ted Martin of College Station, and Mrs. W. H. Juring of Gatesville.

Twenty Women Study Mission Book At First Baptist Church

Despite inclement weather, twenty women met at the First Baptist Church Tuesday to study the book Epochs of Home Missions by Joe W. Burton.

Mrs. Crawford Scott, Mission Study Chairman, was in charge of the program. A lovely old-fashioned reed organ, property of Mrs. Travis Meharg, lent atmosphere to the meeting as the period in the book was from 1845 to 1945. Many of the old songs were sung with Mrs. E. H. Schloeman at the organ.

At noon a lovely luncheon was served.

The five chapters of the book were presented by Mesdames Claude White, H. K. Jackson, Sterling Edwards, D. R. Boone, and E. P. Schloeman.

The book was taught in preparation for the Annie Armstrong offering for Home Missions, which will be observed next Tuesday and Thursday, March 6 and 8 at the church. All women of the church are urged to attend these meetings, and visitors are especially welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lipsey and daughter visited Mrs. W. M. Lipsey and other relatives last week end.

I bought the big package of Dr. Salisbury's REN-O-SAL when I got my chicks—enough for tonic benefits now and to have on hand at the first sign of cecal cocciidiosis in my flock. Better try this new drinking water medicine with your chicks, too.

Put yourself in his shoes

Suppose there weren't money enough to bring your child into the world? Pvt. R.'s wife told him she was going to have a baby. There wasn't enough money to pay for medical care. Helpless, Pvt. R. appealed to the Red Cross. They assisted his wife in applying for emergency maternity and infant care.

Suppose you were wounded... disabled, jobless and discouraged? A Marine Private, he was wounded in the South Pacific and discharged for disability. He went home—jobless and afraid! In desperation he appealed to the Red Cross. They put him in touch with the proper agency—he's doing swell, now.

Suppose your mother were ill... and without funds? Seaman T. M. received word his mother was desperately ill and without money. He went to his Red Cross Field Director who requested the boy's local chapter to arrange for care. They did. Now, anxiety lifted, Seaman T. M. is a better fighting man.

Suppose your son were a prisoner? Imagine the anxiety of the parents of Pvt. E. D., who had had no word from him in months. The Red Cross sent a welfare inquiry. And then the International Red Cross reported he was healthy and well, and was receiving American Red Cross packages regularly.

Suppose you were dying for want of blood plasma? Shrapnel riddled Sgt. R. J. M.'s left arm. He was losing blood fast. A medical corpsman administered first aid and Red Cross blood plasma. Then they carried him to the field station and gave him 8 more pints of plasma. Without it, he would have died.

Suppose you'd lost your leg? And you couldn't tell your family? It happened to Sgt. J. T. and now his parents were coming to see him in the hospital. He appealed to a Red Cross worker to break the news. She did... and soon Mom was holding his hand while Dad was telling funny stories—and Sgt. J. T. was happy.

The Red Cross can't do this work without your help!

The actual cases outlined above illustrate just a few of the thousands of ways in which the Red Cross helps our fighting men—at home and overseas. But without your help there would be no Red Cross. For the Red Cross is wholly dependent on the money that you and other sympathetic Americans contribute.

Think of the suffering you can alleviate by your contribution—and give all you can!
