Wolfcamp Wildcat Spotted In Terry

Humble Oil & Refining Company is to start operations immediately at its No. 1 G. F. Bell, which is to be a 10,000-foot wildcat in Central-South Terry County to try for production in the Wolfcamp reef lime.

The project will be 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 3, block C-37, psl survey.

That puts it two and one-half miles east of Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Willard, the discovery well of the Adair-Wolfcamp pool and four miles west of Tide Water Associated Oil Company and associates No. 1 Nystel, the opener of the Corrigan-Fusselman field.

The Humble prospector is 14 miles south of Brownfield.

Connell Discovery Completed In Crane

Atlantic Refining Company has completed its No. 1-LL University as a discovery from the Connell sand in North-Central Crane County.

The new producer was finaled for a 24-hour natural flowing potential of 262.17 barrels of 46.3-gravity oil and no water through a one-half-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio on the completion test was 977-1.

Pressure on casing was zero and on tubing 55 pounds.

The discovery is at plugged back total depth of 11,560 feet. It was completed through perforations opposite the Connell sand at 11,470-11,510 feet.

The nearest Connell sand production to the No. 1-LL University is in the C-Bar field, six miles to the northwest.

The opener was drilled to the Ellenburger where it found oil in the upper section, but not in sufficient quantities to make a commercial producer.

Location of the producer is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 6. block 31, University survey.

Skelly Is To Deepen Scurry Reef Failure

Skelly Oil Company has filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas requesting permission to deepen its No. 6-A Head, exploration on the extreme west side of the Kelley-Snyder field, eight miles northwest of Snyder.

Operator drilled through the Canyon reef lime and found little or no porosity, and that the bottom section of the Canyon carried some water.

Tests of the Canyon failed to develop shows sufficient for the venture to make an oil well from the reef.

Operator filed the application for permission to take the prospector on to the Strawn and Caddo limes and possibly into the Ellenburger.

The new contract depth is 8,100 feet.

Operator will test the Strawn and Caddo formations and if no production is developed in either, the exploration may be taken on to the Ellenburger.

Location of the Canyon failure is 1,667 feet from east and south lines of section 290, block 97, H&TC survey.

Offsets Are Staked To Midland Germania

James H. Snowden of Fort Worth and associates have staked two offsets to their No. 1 Andrew Fasken, discovery well of the Germania field of Northeast Midland County.

No. 2-7 Andrew Fasken is a northeast offset to the discovery and is located 668.5 feet from north and 662.5 feet from east lines of section 7, block 36, T-2-S, T&P survey.

That makes it 14 miles east of Midland.

A southwest offset to Snowden, et al No. 1 Fasken is No. 3-7 Fasken.

Drillsite is 1,897.5 feet from west and 2,005.5 feet from south lines of section 7, block 36, T-2-S, T&P survey and 13 1/2 miles east of Midland.

Projected depth of both of these tests is 8,500 feet. Rotary tools will be moved in and drilling will begin immediately.

Europe Alarmed At Crisis

LONDON —(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said Wednesday Britain still hopes a settlement on "political lines" will end the threat of a third world war over Korea.

"If the Chinese want to avoid general war and if they show the slightest signs of willingness to cooperate in exploring a solution by peaceful means," the foreign secretary said, "I am satisfied a solution can be found."

Bevin told the House of Commons at the beginning of a two-day debate on foreign affairs that the recent surge of Red Chinese forces into the Korean fighting "has not altered my opinion one bit."

"It is on political lines that in the end we must seek the solution," he declared.

Aims Reaffirmed

"I have been in touch with the U. S. government in the last 24 hours and the U. S. government has reaffirmed that their purpose in Korea remains the same as our own: Namely, to resist aggression, to localize hostilities and to settle the Korea problem on a basis satisfactory to the United Nations."

Bevin said he did not pretend to know the Communist Chinese motive in Korea—whether to safeguard their own interest or from some "imaginary fear," or for purposes "of a grand strategy for a bigger purpose."

"Is there a Russian-Chinese conspiracy on a world-wide scale?" he asked.

Bevin spoke after Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet had met in an emergency session Wednesday morning.

Serious Forebodings

Newspapers here and on the continent voiced serious forebodings over the Korean developments.

Winston Churchill, Britain's World War II prime minister, recently has warned Western nations against becoming too deeply involved in the Far East. He has contended the big Communist threat is in Europe.

One French newspaper asserted the third world war has started.

London newspapers blazoned news of the fighting under such headlines as—

High Court Upholds Highway Panel In El Paso Wage Case

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Highway Commission's right to fix prevailing wage rates on road jobs, without being subject to court review, was upheld Wednesday by the State Supreme Court.

It upheld a trial court judgment which had refused to grant an injunction asked by the El Paso Building and Construction Trades Council against the commission.

The unions contended the prevailing minimum wage rates for highway work in El Paso County were the union scale of 95 cents to $2.50 per hour. The commission argued that its determination of 75 cents to $1.65 was the true scale.

Language Is Clear

Associate Justice Meade F. Griffin's opinion quoted the law which reads: "'The term general prevailing rate of per diem wages shall be the rate determined upon as such rate by the public body awarding the contract, or authorizing the work, whose decision in the matter shall be final.'"

"We fail to see how more clear language showing the intention of the Legislature could have been used," Justice Griffin wrote.

Two major El Paso County highway projects have been delayed about a year pending outcome of the litigation.

March Of Dimes To Be Planned At Meet

Plans for the 1951 March of Dimes campaign will be made at an area meeting of National Foundation representatives and workers at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in Hotel Scharbauer here.

Conducting the meeting will be R. E. Kennedy, district campaign advisor for the 1951 March of Dimes in West Texas.

Midland chapter representatives will join those of area counties in the meeting.

The meeting will be held in the private dining room of the hotel.

It's Official—Santa Arrives

Midland officially opened its Christmas season Tuesday night with a gala parade featuring the preview visit of old Santa Claus himself.

Thousands thronged the downtown streets to witness the parade and then scramble for the favors he later distributed from the mezzanine balcony of Hotel Scharbauer.

More than a score of floats trailed behind the jolly old gentleman as the procession wound down Main Street to the tunes from a pair of bands and the excited screams of children.

A colorful float entered by the Optimist Club won first prize in the senior division of the parade sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, while the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, was first in the Junior division.

The Mount Rose Baptist Church was second, and KCRS third in the senior division. Second place in the junior division was won by the Junior High School Girls Choir.

Representatives of these organizations are requested to contact Goodrich Hejl, parade chairman, at telephone No. 2830, and the prizes will be awarded at the Friday noon meeting of the JayCees.

One Minor Hitch

The parade also formally opened a Christmas Treasure Hunt sponsored by Midland merchants. The Treasure Hunt will continue through Saturday.

But the parade was the big show Tuesday night and it went off with only one small hitch.

Santa Claus had picked too big an airplane for his visit to Midland.

As the parade started, it was discovered the plane's wingspread

Chest Drive At $43,042

Closer and closer gets the 1950 Community Chest campaign to its goal of $45,386.

Wednesday's report listed $43,042 with only $2,334 to go for quota.

This is compared with Tuesday's $42,609 mark, which lacked $2,767 of reaching quota.

Wednesday's report represented a gain of $433 over Tuesday.

"The goal is in sight. We must not fail, now," campaign workers said Wednesday. Citizens are urged to still make contributions to Community Chest if they have not done so.

Pipe Line Workers Vote To Walk Out

DALLAS —(AP)— A union official Wednesday announced a strike on the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company's facilities had been voted by the workers but that no date for the strike has been set.

The pipe line funnels oil from West Texas and New Mexico to big refineries on the gulf coast—The Texas Company plant at Port Arthur and the Sinclair Refinery at Houston.

The union official was Floyd Smith, international representative of the CIO Oil Workers International Union.

Smith said negotiations, carried on at Midland, had broken down and he saw no chance of a settlement without a strike.

The union official said that in his opinion the planned strike of the 250 employes will stop the flow of oil in the 2,000-mile pipe line.

Ralph Troseth of Midland, manager of the pipe line system, was out of the city and unavailable for comment concerning the strike. Other officials of the system could not be reached at press time Wednesday.

Dear GI Joe: We Thank You For Christmas

By TANNER LAINE

Dear GI Joe:

Thought maybe you'd like to know—they still have Christmas and Santa Claus back home in the land you are fighting for.

Joe, most of us are humbly grateful for what you are doing for us. Most of us realize your sacrifices. Thank you, Joe.

To those of you from Midland and West Texas, we want to tell you Santa Claus came to Midland Tuesday night. The old whiskered guy still is mighty popular with the kids. And there were multiplied thousands of them out to see him. Your kids saw him, Joe.

Yes, Joe, the lights are pretty this year in the good old USA. The stores are lined with beautiful gift offerings. The carols are sweet in the soft night air. It's Christmas.

We saw your wife in downtown Midland last night, Joe. She was there with your children. She was thinking of you, Joe, and all the fine, noble lads who couldn't be with us.

Wherever you are, Joe, perhaps cold and hungry and heartsick—please take heart. Because there is a God, whose Son we honor at this season. And he said: "Peace on earth."

Good luck, Joe, and thanks again. Thanks for making it possible for our youngsters to have Christmas. We owe you a great debt, we can but express it: "Merry Christmas and God Bless you."

Midland Expands

Ever-growing Midland expanded by acres—1,676.72 to be exact—Tuesday night as the City Council took initial steps toward bringing new territory to the north, south, east and west into the city's corporate limits.

The council approved the proposed annexation ordinance on its first reading, with final adoption scheduled at a meeting to be held December 29.

The bulk of the acreage proposed for annexation is to the north, northwest and west of the present city limits, although tracts to the south, east and northeast are included.

Mayor William B. Neely and Councilmen J. W. McMillen, W. F. Hejl and Jack Wilkinson attended the Tuesday night session, with McMillen and Wilkinson making and seconding the ordinance motion. The vote was unanimous.

Tracts Listed

The tracts proposed for annexation include the remainder of Northwest Acres and Avalon Addition; Grandview Addition, Skyline Heights, Scenic Heights, Baumann Heights, Block One of Thorne Addition; remainder of Garden Heights, Johnson and Moran Addition, Crestview Addition and Ranchland Addition; and the area between U. S. 80 Highway and the railroad south of the Ranchland Addition—all in North, Northwest and West Midland. Some undeveloped acreage in the area also is included.

In South Midland, Hines Addition, Stockard Acres, the remainder of Haley Heights, and portions of Belmont and South Park Additions are proposed for annexation.

To the east, 140 acres out of Sec-

Big Spring Youth's Steer Is Champ Of International Show

CHICAGO — (AP) — A shy 19-year-old, Lloyd Robinson of Big Spring, Texas, probably will be $12,000 or more richer Thursday.

His 1,075-pound grand champion steer of the International Livestock show, "Big Spring Special," will be sold for meat then.

The velvet brown, white-faced Hereford was chosen grand champion Tuesday after it was named the show's champion Hereford and champion Summer yearling. It succeeds "Judge Roy Bean," the 1949 International grand champion, also a Texas Hereford.

"Judge Roy Bean's" owners, 4-H club boys from Pecos County, Texas, sold their animal for $13,800 at a record rate of $11.50 per pound.

Young Robinson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson. They farm 320 acres near Big Spring.

Lloyd finished high school in 1948 and now has a herd of 10 Hereford heifers. He said he knew "Big Spring Special" was a champion from the start. Durward Lewter of Howard County, Texas, Lloyd's county agent, helped him pick the calf when he bought it for $140 at the TO Ranch at Raton, N. M.

Champion Of Fair

"Big Spring Special" was the grand champion of the Texas State Fair at Dallas this Fall. It was born in August, 1949.

Young Robinson had been trying to win an International prize for several years but this was the first time he ever hit a championship.

Large Force In Danger Of Encirclement

SEOUL—(AP)—Two American divisions escaped south across the icy Chongchon River in Northwest Korea Wednesday but Chinese Reds swarming through a wide gap threatened to trap a big Allied force.

The Chinese offensive mass of more than 200,000 men was reported using tanks for the first time.

A spokesman at advanced U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters said one Communist column had cut within 30 miles of the former Red Korean capital of Pyongyang.

He said the Red force was near Sinchang northeast of the old capital, but did not disclose its size.

At least three other Red Chinese columns were reported rolling down through the Tokchon gap in wide sweeps against the Allies' exposed right flank.

This was where Communist attacks earlier had crumpled three South Korean divisions.

Another Chinese force was reported attacking for the first time on the extreme left flank, but the spokesman did not give the location.

A Chinese breakthrough in force to the Yellow Sea would seal off large elements of the 110,000-man force fighting for its life in the northwest.

The Chinese Red attack was mounted by 200,000 or more troops with more pouring in steadily from Manchuria.

Six Chinese Armies

The spokesman said Six Chinese armies now have been identified in Korea. Elements of one Chinese army known to have been in Central China a week ago, he said, were attacking the Eighth Army's northern front.

The first observed Chinese Red tanks were reported across the Chongchon, rumbling from the west on Kunu, eastern anchor of the shrunken Allied line.

Kunu was the escape gate through which U. S. 25th and Second Division troops poured after crossing the Chongchon. The Reds were attacking from three sides. Kunu's fate was in doubt.

The U. S. 24th Division last was reported in the Pakchon area north of the Chongchon, guarding an escape route over the Anju River bridge on the far west or left side of the Allied line.

But the Eighth Army spokesman said no enemy contact was made Wednesday in the 24th Division sector.

This seemed to indicate that the "large enemy forces" reported hitting the extreme left flank might be across the Chongchon somewhere near the Yellow Sea.

Situation Obscure, Fluid

The spokesman described the situation along the Chongchon line as "extremely fluid" and "very obscure."

He said the Allies were trying to stabilize their lines against a concerted enemy attack.

Allied warplanes, grounded Wednesday morning by bad weather, roared over the front throughout the afternoon in close support of desperate ground troops.

But a heavy smoke haze over the eastern flank hampered air activity.

The spokesman said the Chinese may have set fires to conceal their movements.

Roads leading south from the shrunken front were jammed with refugees. Allied convoys rolled down clogged highways. Trucks, jeeps and heavy weapons inched along bumper to bumper.

Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, Eighth Army commander, said the Allies "end-the-war" offensive, launched Friday, "probably saved our forces from a trap which might well have destroyed them."

All But Complete

He said that if the Allies had waited, the Chinese Reds might have had 400,000 troops to throw against the Eighth Army.

The retreat across the Chongchon at Kunu was made under massive Red attacks.

AP Correspondent Tom Lambert, with the Eighth Army, reported at 6:43 p.m. that the river-crossing withdrawal in the eastern sector was all but complete.

But a South Korean division to the west was still north of the river at latest reports, along with the U. S. 24th.

The ROK First Division was fighting on the 24th's right flank, with its back to the river.

The Eighth Army said the ROK's at noon Wednesday were holding off enemy attacks.

It was from this bridgehead north of the river that a 110,000 man Allied force launched General Mac-

Living Costs Rise To New Record High

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index this week advanced four cents from a week ago to $6.67—highest since mid-September and just two cents below the year's peak reached August 29.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government's cost of living index Wednesday rose to a new all-time high. Almost a million workers whose wage contracts are tied to the rise and fall of the index will receive a pay hike of two to three cents an hour.

The new index, covering prices as of October 15, was 174.8 per cent of the 1935-39 base period, an increase of 0.6 per cent since September 15.

It was 0.2 per cent higher than the previous peak of 174.5 in August and September, 1948.

The figure on July 15 was 172.5 per cent of the 1935-39 period.

The largest increases were reported for house furnishings, which rose 2.3 per cent, and apparel, which rose 1.5 per cent. The increase of 0.2 per cent in food prices was restrained, the BLS said, by a seasonal decline in the average prices of meats.

President Endorses Christmas Seal Sale

WASHINGTON — Asserting that progress already made in tuberculosis control is "proof that further progress can be made and will be made with the continued cooperative effort of the American people" President Truman has expressed the hope that Americans will be generous this holiday season in their purchase of Christmas Seals, which support the work of the National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated state and county associations.

The following is the full text of the President's statement regarding the 1950 Christmas Seal Sale now being conducted throughout the nation:

"Tuberculosis has taken the lives of more than 5,000,000 Americans in the last 50 years.

Nationwide Campaign

"Tragic as this figure is, it would have been worse if the American people had not banded together to fight tuberculosis. They formed the National Tuberculosis Association in 1904 and launched a nationwide campaign against the disease. Since then, the TB death rate has been cut 85 per cent. Yet I am informed that tuberculosis today leads all diseases as a cause of death in the age group from 15 to 35.

"The progress already made is proof that further progress can be made and will be made, with the continued cooperative effort of the American people. One way of showing we are behind the anti-tuberculosis campaign is to use Christmas Seals, sold annually to support the work of the NTA and the 3,000 state and local voluntary associations now affiliated with it.

"First sold in this country in 1907, the Christmas Seal has become a symbol of the people's fight to eradicate tuberculosis. To hasten that day, I hope the American people will be generous this holiday season in their purchase of Christmas Seals.

Climate Change May Help Those Who Have Sinusitis

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

An anxious young woman living in the northeastern part of the United States recently wrote:

"For the last five years I have had sinus trouble every Winter. My head aches, my nose runs, and I feel terribly. I have taken sulfa, penicillin, sinus washings with all kinds of solutions and nothing seems to help. I have a good job, and all my relatives and friends live nearby. What can I possibly do?"

Thousands of other people who suffer from sinusitis could tell much the same story. This miserable affliction is all too common, especially in the north temperate climates. But just what brings it on and what to do for it are questions which have not yet been completely answered.

We know where the trouble lies. It is one or more pockets lying near the nose which normally are filled with air, lined with a delicate mucous membrane and which help to give the voice resonance.

We know, too, that germs get into the sinuses and if they find conditions favorable they will multiply and cause inflammation there. But why they do this in some people and not in others is a mystery.

What can be done for a person like the young woman whose letter is quoted? She already has taken the first steps. Some sinuses are cleared up by the drugs mentioned or by washings. Sometimes the openings from the sinuses into the nose clog up and these can be opened, thus allowing the pus and germs to escape.

If these measures fail, as they do all too often, we are up against it. Surgery offers help to some. Usually this consists in an operation to widen the opening into the sinus permanently. But even this does not always work.

Then there is another difficult decision. Should one move to another climate? Take the young lady who wrote so feelingly of her troubles. If she decided to move she would have to give up her job and leave her family and friends.

She may be miserable enough to do even this but she must still decide where to go. The sad thing is that no one can tell her ahead of time that she is absolutely sure to get relief one place or another.

Change of climate does help a lot of sinus sufferers nevertheless. A climate without extremes of temperature change between Winter and Summer and between night and day usually works out best. Also a reasonable amount of moisture in the atmosphere is desirable.

Certain parts of Florida and Southern California fit these needs pretty well, but some sinus victims do well in Arizona and similar drier climates. There is no one climate which does the trick for all and it is therefore wise to take a long vacation in the place selected and watch the results before making it a permanent residence.

"Only Nature Heals" Chiropractic Proves It" CAN CHIROPRACTIC CURE ME?
is a question often asked. The answer is: ANYONE can get well providing there is no permanent tissue damage. The reason being, HEALTH IS THE RESULT OF NORMAL NERVE FUNCTION. To prove to yourself that this is true, look at it from this logical viewpoint: a dead body will not react to pills, potions or adjustments. Why? Due to the fact that there is not any nerve function in a dead body. This being true, then the basis of good health is a nervous system carrying on its functions in all its phases, normally.
IF YOU ARE EXPERIENCING PAIN AND DISCOMFORT IN ANY FORM, YOUR NERVOUS SYSTEM NEEDS ATTENTION. CHIROPRACTIC HAS THE FORMULA FOR CORRECTING MALFUNCTIONS OF THE NERVES.

Perkins' Daughter Born Tuesday

Lt. and Mrs. John Perkins of Fort Belvoir, Va., are the parents of a daughter, Matilda, born at 5:30 a.m. Tuesday. She weighs six pounds, eight ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Guy McMillian, 1201 West Illinois Street. Col. and Mrs. John Perkins are the child's paternal grandparents.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Perkins are visiting in Midland enroute to El Paso where Perkins will be stationed at Fort Bliss.

Lynn Manning Attends Convention

Lynn Manning of Midland was one of the McMurry College students attending the Methodist Student Thanksgiving Conference held last weekend in Mineral Wells.

Approximately 325 college students and adult leaders attended the conference. The emphasis of the conference was on Christian vocation.

Dr. John Oliver Nelson, professor of Christian vocation at Yale Divinity School, gave four lectures applying Christian faith to vocations, study, war and the lay ministry.

Other speakers were Dr. Nels F. S. Ferre, professor of philosophical theology at Vanderbilt University and Dr. John O. Gross, executive secretary of the division of educational institutions of the Methodist General Board of Education, Nashville.

The Texas Methodist Student Movement sponsored the conference.

Soap Retards Drying Of Over-Forty Skin

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

That scrubbed and shining look, regarded by many women as the best basis for beauty, is likely to present a problem once fortieth birthdays have been passed.

Although many mature women recognize the drying effects of daily soap-and-water washings upon their skins, they argue that their faces don't feel really clean without them.

This young lady courts complexion beauty by cleansing her skin thoroughly with soap and water.

Besides, they usually continue, they have no time for lengthy beauty routines involving various specialized creams.

One possible solution to this dilemma is offered by a well-known cosmetic firm, which claims its cream soap permits your customary face scrubbing without the usual effects.

Because it's super-fatted with essentially the same ingredients that are used in making cold cream, you may enjoy thorough cleansing without fear of the drying that often follows use of soaps with harsh alkali content, according to the manufacturer.

The delicately-scented, hard-milled soap is long-lasting because of a process in its making which reduces its moisture content to a bare minimum.

Bach Music Club Studies Schubert

The Bach Junior Music Club was given instruction on building tetrachords in its Monday meeting in the studio of Mrs. H. D. Williams, 901 North Main Street. Annette Smith gave a report on Franz Peter Schubert and played "Three Waltzs" by Schubert.

Larry Helbert is a new member of the club. Peter Mork was a guest.

The meeting was opened with the junior pledge and the junior hymn, led by Connie Keetly, president.

Communist 'Democracy'

The Russians always say they are for peace. They say it's we in America who are unfriendly and warlike.

In spite of our long and futile efforts to engage Russia sincerely in measures for lasting peace, there still are some among us who really believe we haven't tried hard enough. For them, the recent experience of O. John Rogge at the "World Peace Congress" in Warsaw may offer some instruction.

A former ardent backer of Henry Wallace and the Progressive Party, Rogge until recently clung to the notion the Communist and non-Communist worlds could be reconciled. He bent over backwards to urge the Red viewpoint, and was virtually a hero in the Communist press.

But this time, at a meeting dominated by Reds, he had the temerity to speak some simple truths. He dared to say the United States wasn't guilty of aggression in Korea, and that Communists are using force to impress their ideas on the world.

This was their friend talking, the man who had often defied the folks at home to stand up for the principle of Soviet-American understanding. But from the moment he breathed criticism of the Soviet Union and Communist tactics, he was through.

Now, in a flash, he's just like all the rest of us Americans. He's a tool of Wall Street, a warmonger, an imperialist. To the Kremlin and its pliant hordes, there is only black and white. You're either a complete friend or a complete enemy. Simply because he had the nerve to utter a few incontrovertible facts, all Rogge's past overtures of friendship are forgotten. He has been shoved beyond the pale.

Does anybody need any better evidence of how unreal the Communists' world is? The unassailable fact is they don't want reality. They don't want friends—for true friends criticize. What they want are lackeys, wholly submissive to their will and their distorted, hothouse view of the world. No man who is anything more than that can have any place in the Soviet scheme.

This deep-seated characteristic of Russian thinking is one of the really great barriers to any accord between East and West. So long as the Soviets dwell in their upside-down land where war is peace and aggression is self-defense, words can't have the same meaning for us as for them. There's no channel through which we can reach the men in the Kremlin. We don't speak the same language. And they discourage every slight effort to learn even a few words in common.

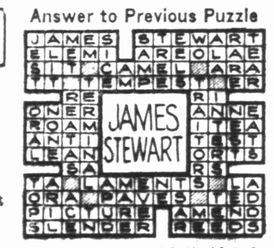

Rogge's record doesn't exactly entitle him to a hero's rating at home, but at least we can be grateful to him for exposing once more the absurdity of trying to make anything solid out of what the Russians say on any subject at all.

Why is it so many speeding auto drivers always follow the middle of the road policy?

A tiresome person: one who is trying to be interesting instead of interested.

Who Takes Over From Here?

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: U. S. may face another rubber shortage; Senator Connally helps Korean doughboys; House committee will tighten excess-profits loopholes.

WASHINGTON — Communist advances in French Indo-China, Tibet and Asia generally are belatedly waking up some of our foreign-policy planners to what may be another Pearl Harbor.

In brief, the United States, after suffering the worst economic disaster in history when the Japs captured Singapore, may find our rubber, tin, quinine and other tropical products cut off again.

For four years the American people were forced to walk as a result of the rubber and tire shortage. Tin cans also were curtailed; while millions of dollars were spent planting cinchona or quinine trees in Latin America, Now, though we are much better prepared regarding synthetic rubber, part of this may happen all over again.

Chief lesson to be drawn from the Communist threat to our economic lifeline in Asia is the manner in which we have neglected our own best neighbors right next door in Latin America. While a few State Department officials under live-wire Assistant Secretary Edward Miller have been pushing Latin American friendship, actually much of our financial help to European cartels has hurt Latin America.

The American public largely has forgotten the fact that when Columbus arrived in America he was amazed to find Indians bouncing balls. This was the first discovery of rubber, which then became the great industry of Brazil and other Latin American countries.

Ghost Rubber City

Today, however, Manaos, the rubber capital of Latin America, has become a ghost city—after a Britisher smuggled seeds of the rubber plant to Ceylon.

Gradually the British-Dutch rubber cartel built up its markets in the USA, and once they attained a monopoly position, they put the price squeeze on the American consumer. Despite the vigorous protests of Charles Evans Hughes when secretary of State, we paid what the Asiatic rubber cartel wanted us to and paid through the nose.

After Pearl Harbor we began frantically to encourage our good neighbors in Latin America to grow rubber again. Brazil, Mexico, Ecuador, Costa Rica, Venezuela, Salvador, Nicaragua, Haiti, Honduras all were urged to grow rubber, regardless of cost. Loud were the cries also: "This will never happen again."

However, it is happening again. In October 1947 American delegates at the Geneva Economic Conference agreed to give up about two-thirds of the American rubber market to Asiatic rubber, chiefly British controlled. This meant two things:

1. The complete collapse of the new rubber industry we had encouraged in Latin America.

2. The closing of various synthetic rubber plants in the USA. Some of these plants, having been closed, later were sold at bargain-rate prices by Surplus Property Administrator Jess Larson, who thought, perhaps correctly, that he was merely following national policy.

Meanwhile, though we are much better off when it comes to synthetic rubber, we would have to have rubber rationing all over again—if war came.

Meanwhile also, communism has been growing at our own front Latin American door—because of unemployment and curtailed economy.

Helping G.I.'s

Senator "Long Tom" Connally of Texas, in addition to helping steer U. S. foreign policy, is never too busy to fight for the little fellow. He is now about to win an important financial victory for American doughboys in Korea.

On October 21, Senator Connally spotted an item in the Washington Merry-Go-Round which read:

"Under the current Army pay system, the real heroes in the Korean war are drawing the least pay. They don't even get a fair share of the glory when the publicity and medals are dished out.

"These unsung heroes are the infantrymen, who form the Army's battering ram, but who are not paid as much as the technical men and pencil pushers behind the lines.

"It used to be that infantrymen could collect $10 extra each month for combat work. If they wore the combat infantryman's badge, it was good for a $10 monthly bonus. However, even this has been taken away from them in Korea."

Senator Connally clipped the column and sent it to the Army, together with a letter wanting to know why combat men were being discriminated against. He now has received a letter from the Army indicating that it would urge a $50 monthly bonus for combat enlisted men, with $100 a month for officers.

What the Army told Senator Connally in summary follows:

"The Department of the Army recognizes the plight of the infantrymen who in past wars and in the Korean operation have borne the brunt of the fighting. We intend to do everything possible to give the deserved recognition and compensation to those combat fighters upon whom the success of all our military efforts ultimately depends.

"From the standpoint of extra compensation for the combat fighter, the Army has prepared and submitted to the Department of Defense a proposal to ask Congress for extra pay for each month of combat duty in Korea. The Department of Defense has indicated considerable interest and we anticipate early submission of the proposal to Congress."

Note — Senator Connally also was among the few who in 1945 protested against removal of the excess-profits war tax. The White House since then has wished that it had followed his advice.

Excess-Profits Loopholes

The House Ways and Means Committee has decided behind closed doors to write a stiff clause in the excess-profits-tax bill to prevent big corporations from "squandering" profits as a means of reducing tax payments.

However, legitimate business expenses will be deductible under a formula proposed by Rep. Herman Eberharter of Pennsylvania whereby expenditures for hotel and travel, advertising and entertainment, would be governed by the amounts spent for these purposes from 1946 through 1949.

In other words, if a corporation spent $100,000 annually for advertising during the 1946-49 period it could deduct no more than that from its excess-profits returns. Allowances will be made, however, for shifts from newspaper to costlier radio advertising.

"I was disgusted by some of the tricks used by corporation to escape taxes when we had an excess-profits tax during the last war," GOP Congressman Carl Curtis of Nebraska told his colleagues, "One company sent me expensive brochures that had nothing to do with promoting sales of its product.

"All that costly paper went into the wastebasket at a time when we were up against a war shortage of paper. But the company could deduct this useless expense."

"Another racket by these big fellows is renting hotel rooms the year round, whether they are used or not," objected Michigan Democrat John Dingell, a gadfly of the large corporations. "Some of these big outfits even rent hotel suites on a yearly basis for occasional cocktail parties for congressmen."

Brown was the wealthiest member of the congregation and was showing the minister his new home in the country.

"There was a big hole here which I filled in," the owner said, "and I built that lake over there, and I had these trees set out."

"Yes," replied the minister, "you and the Lord have done well here."

"Well, parson, I wish you could have seen the place when the Lord had it by himself."

The bishop spent the night in the home of a wealthy member of the church where he had preached Sunday. He was pleasantly awakened by the singing of the cook in the kitchen below; she was singing "At the Cross, at the Cross."

As breakfast, the bishop said, "I heard you singing a hymn this morning."

"Yes," Ellen replied, "I always sing that song when I'm cooking eggs—two verses for soft-boiled and three verses for hard-boiled."

It's unusual to throw away the same contract twice, but it can be done with a little effort. Curiously enough, however, South didn't realize when he played this hand that he had made a doubtful play at any point!

Dummy played low at the first trick (not a bad idea), but East put up the king anyway. East then returned a low club.

If South had been a cautious player, he would have discarded a heart on the second round of clubs. The rest would then have been easy. There would be two spades to ruff in dummy, and South would have to be careful in getting back to his hand to draw trumps, but it wouldn't be really difficult.

However, South was not a cautious player. He expected both red suits to break 3-2, in which case he could make an extra trick — worth just 20 points. Hence he ruffed the second club with the jack of diamonds.

South continued by ruffing a low spade in dummy. He returned to his hand with a trump and ruffed the other low spade with dummy's last trump. He got back with a heart to the king and then led a high trump.

South was disappointed, but not discouraged, when East failed to trumps. Having muffed one chance (at the second trick) to make his contract, South proceeded to muff another chance by laying down the queen of hearts from his hand.

This time there was no recovery. West ruffed the queen of hearts, and East eventually got a heart with his jack.

South could have made up for his early error if he had not tried to cash the queen of hearts. Correct play was to give West his trump trick without further ado. Since West was known to be out of clubs, he could not possibly embarrass declarer by his return lead.

If West returned a spade (as good as anything), South would win with the ace of spades and lead the last trump. This would leave South with three hearts to the queen in his own hand, while dummy would keep ace-small in hearts and any club.

By this time East would be mashed to a pulp. Which three cards would he keep? If he kept three hearts, dummy's club would be good. If East kept only two hearts, South's last heart would be good.

Balance Of Power In Congress Falls To Southern Democrats

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Political power of the Southern Democrats will be greater in the coming 82nd Congress than ever before. They not only will hold the balance of power between conservative Republicans and the combination of New Dealers and progressive Republicans which sometimes vote together, they also have gained in the number of chairmanships on important congressional committees.

Senators and congressmen don't always vote consistently, nor do they vote in solid blocs. Forecasting the outcome on important bills would be a lot easier if they did. But there is always a lot of maverick straying off the political range by individual congressmen, for reasons perhaps best known to some of their constituents.

A careful analysis of voting records of the old-timers and political speeches of the newcomers does, however, indicate trends. And the trend for the 82nd Congress lines up about like this:

Take the Senate. Of the 47 Republicans in the next Senate, 36 may be classified as GOP conservatives. Eleven are what you might call middle-of-the-roaders. They sometimes are referred to as liberal Republicans and they do vote with the Democrats on some more progressive measures, or on foreign policy.

The list checks off easily: Saltonstall, Lodge, Vandenberg, Thye, Tobey, Ives, Morse, Duff, Flanders, Aiken, Langer.

Of the 49 Democrats in the next Senate, only 21 may be classified as voting more or less consistently for the New Deal or Fair Deal program. Eleven Democrats—including five from the South—sometimes vote with the liberal Democrats, sometimes with the conservatives. They are liberals on foreign policy, conservative on civil rights and the more extreme Fair Deal proposals.

Balance Of Power

But the real power in the next Senate lies with the 17 remaining Democrats who may be counted on to vote more or less consistently against the Truman administration proposals. When these 17 Democrats vote with the 35 Republican conservatives in the next Congress they will have a majority of 52 to 44.

These 17 conservative Democrats more than offset the 11 liberal Republicans who sometimes vote with the Democrats. These 17 Democrats also more than offset the combination of the 11 liberal Republicans plus the five Southern senators who sometimes vote liberal.

Checking off the list of the 17 is also fairly easy: It includes McClellan, George, Russell, Hoey, Long, Ellender, McKellar, Byrd, Robertson, Eastland, Stennis, Chapman, McCarran, O'Connor, Frear and the two new Southerners, Smathers of Florida and Smith of South Carolina. Frear is from Delaware and McCarran from Nevada, but they have voted with this Southern bloc consistently.

In this group you also have six important committee chairmen: Ellender (succeeding Thomas of Oklahoma), Agriculture: Russell (succeeding Tydings of Maryland), Armed Services; McKellar, Appropriations; McClellan, Expenditures; George, Finance; McCarran, Judiciary.

Add to this list: Maybank, chairman of Banking and Currency; Connally, Foreign Relations; Johnson of South Carolina, Civil Service; Johnson of Texas, Defense Investigation; Kefauver, Crime Investigation, Chavez, Public Works. It shows you how much power the South really has. It leaves Northern Democrats only six committee chairmanships.

Makes Analysis Difficult

The situation in the House is not so easy to analyze because of the larger membership, the greater independence of action, and 66 new members. But roughly the situation breaks down about like this:

Republicans, 199; Democrats, 236, if you include Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., the Democrat-Liberal Party congressman. Of the 236 Democrats, 119—or two more than half—are from the Southern states. This is barely enough to give them control in party caucus, if they should ever vote in sectional lines.

On an average of 15 key votes in the last session of Congress, there were approximately 110 Democrats and 10 Republicans who voted for the Truman program. There was an equal number, 50 Democrats and 70 Republicans, who voted regularly against Truman proposals. About 100 Democrats and 90 Republicans split their votes.

In the last election, the Republicans' gain of 28 seats may be presumed to be at the expense of Truman Democrats. So the ratio in the new House would become approximately 90 pro-Trumanites to 150 anti-Trumanites, assuming the former ratio of vote splitters remained.

On committee chairmanships, Southern Democrats will hold nine out of the 19 top positions, plus, presumably, the speakership of the House, with Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Questions and Answers

Q—Where is the birthplace of the Aryan race?

A—The ancient Persians, like those of today, were members of the white race. Some scholars think that their land may have been the birthplace of the Aryans. It is, however, an unanswered question as to where the white race had its first home. One guess is the area of the Caucasus Mountains.

Q—Is the 1913 Liberty nickel considered a rare coin?

A—The 1913 Liberty or V-type nickel is extremely rare. Only six are known to be in existence.

Q—What is the origin of the word Viking?

A—The word Viking is from the Icelandic word vikingr, meaning pirate. The Vinkings were Scandinavian pirates that infested the seas of Europe during the 8th, 9th and 10th centuries, making raids upon coastal towns and cities.

Q—About how long can beavers stay under water?

A—Beavers are air-breathing animals, but they can close their nostrils and stay under as long as 8 or 10 minutes.

13 Lucky Guys by FRANK R. ADAMS

COPR. 1950 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Sergeant Eddie's squad is wiped out in battle and the dead men go to Westwayco, the Middlewestern home town of most of them. Carl Peterson calls on his wife, who had been unfaithful with a man named Max, but Carl does not realize that she is preparing to kill herself. At a beach, Carl finds Max, reviving Margie Lou, who had made friends with Eddie's dog, the only living thing who can see the ghosts of the fighting men. Margie had been saved from death by Duke. Carl starts to attack Max, but Eddie interferes.

IX

THE other boys transferred their interest to what looked like the beginning of a pretty fair fight. The rescue work was pretty slow.

Just then Carl rose and came at Eddie who regretfully punched him in the astral nose, twice in succession.

Carl realized from the emphatic gestures on Eddie's part that they weren't playing for "mibbs" any more and he settled down doggedly to put the non-com out of business. Ordinarily he would have doubted whether he could do it. (He and Eddie were pals and had never fought each other before.) But Carl knew for a certainty that Eddie couldn't stop him now. Eddie wasn't mad the way Carl was. Carl didn't care much who got hurt or why.

So Carl came in close, took everything that Eddie had to offer but meanwhile chopped the stuffing out of Eddie, under the heart, all over the chest and kidneys, ending up with a commando trick which they both knew but which Eddie wouldn't have used—not on Carl.

The net, or end-result was Eddie flat on his back 15 feet away completely robbed of his strength and Carl grimly turning toward the man he really hated.

The latter, all unconscious of anything unusual, was pressing down with the weight of his shoulders on the small of the girl's back while he said, "One thousand and eighty-nine" (to control the rhythm) and then sitting up straight for a moment.

Carl Peterson swung at him.

Then Carl found out the bitter disillusioning truth. He didn't have anything at the end of his arm that Max could feel no matter how much strength Carl thought he was putting into a blow.

Eddie was on his feet now. He held no resentment. "I'm sorry about everything, Carlo. Is Kirsten pretty sick?"

"No," Carl replied. "She's all right. She ain't going to have the baby for a long time yet." All the fight went out of him as the force of that implication set in. "I'm the only one out of step, I guess," he said listlessly.

EDDIE could not think of any cheerful counter attack against Carl's glum deduction.

The villain in Carl's life was still working doggedly over Margie Lou's slim body totally unaware that a man who wanted to murder him was standing within reach of his arm.

Margie Lou was breathing almost normally now and Max experimented with missing a pressure beat occasionally. It worked all right so he discontinued altogether and began rubbing her arms and legs instead.

"I'll do that," said Eddie, but he remembered. "Darn it, I can't."

The others laughed, including even Carl.

"You're cute, baby," said Max with professional appreciation. "I think I'll be seein' more of you—but not much more at that."

"What say?"

It was Margie Lou's voice—faint and choked.

"She's comin' out of it," said Eddie reverently. "Thank goodness."

"Why?" asked Joe, looking at his sergeant curiously. "If you want her for yourself having her alive is the surest way to lose her. This middlewestern wolf in sheik's clothing looks to me like he's moving right in. And what can you do about it—have your hamburger hound bite him?"

DUKE probably thought Eddie said it. Or perhaps he didn't like Max on general principles. Anyway he did bite Max rather tentatively in the calf of his expensive slacks. Max got to his feet in surprised anger and aimed a terrific kick at the dog. He missed but Duke didn't when he sprang for Max's arm and the man and dog rolled to the sand in a snarling, cursing tangle which looked as if someone might get hurt

"Stop it, Duke," shouted Eddie. "Come here, you misguided son of a slob-sided sea beast! Come here and lie down!"

That was familiar language to Duke and he reluctantly disengaged himself from his freshly made enemy and slunk to Eddie's feet. Max picked himself up and started toward the dog. A blasphemous growling threat in canine language illustrated by a display of beautifully matched dentures stopped Max for a revision of plans. Then the girl spoke:

"Don't touch Duke!"

Max turned back to find his recent patient trying to get up.

"I won't hurt your little pet," he said soothingly. "And you mustn't move around yet on your own power, baby. You've been kind of drowned lately. It's lucky I came along. I've been workin' on you for half an hour." Max didn't want there to be any mistake when it came to assigning credits. He was willing to bear the burden of them all.

When he talked to the girl Max's voice had a high sweet quality totally at variance with his appearance. Very likely when the gentler emotions took possession of him, adenoids got in the way and he had to talk through them.

Margie Lou was reassembling her faculties.

She looked at Max with puzzled uncertainty. "You don't look the way I thought you did. Maybe I was dreaming."

Dallas Woman Given Five-Year Sentence In Guthrie Slaying

AUSTIN —(AP)— A district court jury Tuesday night convicted Anna Pearl Wheeler, 21, of Dallas of murder without malice in the fatal shooting of T. R. Guthrie at his home in Austin.

She was assessed a five-year penitentiary sentence.

Miss Wheeler testified Tuesday the shooting occurred June 14, after she had been working in a place on the San Antonio highway.

She testified the shooting occured after Guthrie "started slapping me around and said he was going to kill me."

Officer Makes Dry Haul In Search For Bomb Death Clues

DALLAS — (AP) — Fort Worth's chief of detectives failed to turn up any new clues in Dallas in the bombing deaths of Nelson Harris and his wife.

The Harris couple was killed November 15 when a bomb exploded as Harris stepped on the starter of his car.

Detective Chief Clay Bishop said he talked to a man in Dallas Tuesday who owed Harris $25 but he found the man was "a legitimate businessman who had bought some merchandise from Harris."

Bishop also tried to contact an oil operator who had purchased some supplies from Harris, but the man was out of town.

A third call was on Herbert Noble, a Dallas gambler, but Noble was not at home. Noble's wife was killed in a similar automobile bombing.

JayCees Announce Christmas Home Lighting Contest

A Christmas lighting contest for homes and apartments throughout the city again this year is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in connection with its overall Christmas activities program.

Colorful Christmas street lights were turned on in the downtown section Tuesday night as Midland opened its holiday season, and JayCees hope the residential districts will be decorated as well and as beautifully within the next week.

The contest will utilize all the color, appeal and atmosphere of the holiday season, sponsors said.

Purpose of the contest, which opens December 18, is to spread the spirit of Christmas by means of colorful decorations and lights in Midland's homes, apartments and business places. The winners will receive attractive and valuable prizes for their work. Awards will be made for the general artistic effect, originality, ingenuity in utilizing the surroundings, and the conformity to the Christmas spirit.

Benefits Cited

In announcing the contest, Chuck Heringer, Jr., chairman of the JayCee Lighting Contest Committee, stated "the community will receive many benefits from an all-out effort to decorate homes, apartments and stores. The contest will provide pleasure for everyone participating, and will help beautify our city this Christmas time." Heringer urged every family to join in the fun, by decorating for Christmas.

"The JayCees are sponsoring this contest with the hope that Midland residents will take this chance to show how decorations may be used as a means of expressing greetings to friends and neighbors" Heringer said.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Mister Wishlet

Mister Wishlet was a little old man who was just as tall as a pencil is tall when you buy it new. Yes, and what a happy little fellow he was. Why, he was smiling now as he climbed up the side of Mugwump's bed.

"Hey! You! Mugwump! Wake up!" shouted Mister Wishlet with his wishly little voice. "Wake up!

Wake up!" Then Mister Wishlet sat down on the cover on top of Mugwump to wait for the boy to open his eyes.

Mugwump did open one of his eyes, then the other eye popped open. He listened while Mister Wishlet explained who he was, and that he had the business of making wishes all come true.

"Bet you can't do it for me," said Mugwump.

"Bet I can too!" Mister Wishlet answered.

And so Mugwump thought and thought for a minute to try to think of a wish that couldn't come true if Mugwump wished it. Mugwump said: "I know! I wish for an elephant right here in my bed, and let's see you make that wish come true."

Mister Wishlet laughed out loud to hear this wish of Mugwump's. Why, of course he could make the wish come ture. He winked his eye, and there! There was a tiny elephant suddenly right in bed with Mugwump.

"Humph!" said Mugwump. "Imagine that." And then he wished out loud that the elephant wasn't there in bed anymore, because the elephant's feet were cold. There! This time the wish came true just as fast as Mugwump said the words to wish it. The elephant was gone just as though it had never been there.

"Humph!" said Muwump, and he pointed his finger and shook it at the little Mister Wishlet. "Mister Wishlet," said Mugwump, "I bet you're only something I am dreaming about".

Mister Wishlet stopped his laughing to hear these words. Oh, what if you were a wishlet, and what if someone said to you that you weren't really real, but only a something to be dreamed about! You wouldn't like it at all, and Mister Wishlet didn't either. He didn't like it especially because it was true poor fellow. He begged and begged for Mugwump please to dream about him some more. Mugwump said he would, and he did, and that is the story I'll tell you tomorrow. Happy day!

Eastern Star Plans Party

Elizabeth Wright spoke at a meeting of the Eastern Star Tuesday night in the Masonic Hall. Her address was on "Eastern Star Landmarks."

Plans were made for the Christmas party to be held December 12 in the Masonic Hall. Each member will bring food for the Christmas basket to be given to a needy family. Reports were made by Mrs. Dewey Pope and Mrs. Fred A. Wycoff on their trip to the Goldsmith chapter Monday.

Margaret Crum invited all the members to attend the evening meeting of the Star Study Club Thursday in her home.

Visitors at the meeting were Gladys Upton of Oklahoma City, Rose Taylor from California, Sarah Stanley, Burbank, Calif., and Inez Rhees, Hobbs, N. M.

Fifty-four members and guests were present.

Mrs. Halfast Calls For Circle Eight

Mrs. Ed Halfast called for the Circle Eight Square Dance Club which met Tuesday night in the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. John H. Dubbels of Independence, Kan., was a guest at the meeting.

Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Dean J. Corley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Gossett, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rood.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Stall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubbeman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Troseth, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. West, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blalock and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Taylor.

Try pineapple waldorf salad for a delicious accompaniment to a baked ham dinner. Team canned pineapple cubes with cubed fresh apple, diced celery, and broken walnut or pecan meats. Moisten with mayonnaise and serve on watercress or other salad greens.

Mrs. Emil Anderson, 3632 Wabash, Detroit, Mich., says she believes in folks being lucky and all that . . . but she says that people today are inclined to rely too much on just good luck. One thing Mrs. Anderson says, "is fact not fiction" . . . she isn't going around saying she thanks her lucky stars for feeling so good—No Sir! not Mrs. Anderson—she says she feels so good now because she is taking HADACOL. She was suffering from a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Anderson's own statement:

"For many years now I have had nagging aches and pains not in just a few places but all over my body—in my arms, legs, back, shoulders; in fact I know a person couldn't have felt as miserable as I did.

"I was nervous, too—so nervous that I couldn't even darn socks and the worst thing was that I couldn't eat nor sleep properly. I would just eat this and that—never a full meal—and my stomach always felt bad. I was so tired all the time—seems like when I would go up two or three steps I would be completely worn out. I was just about at my wits end, not knowing what to do.

"Then while visiting my son and his wife in Marton-Gap, Ky., he told me how his mother-in-law had been helped so much by HADACOL. I brought HADACOL all the way home to Detroit with me. I could tell a big difference after the second bottle. So far I have taken 6 or 7 bottles of HADACOL. What a wonderful change has taken place—there is hardly an ache or pain in my whole body. I eat well and thoroughly enjoy my food, and sleep—why I can't even stay up late enough to watch all of the television—I just drop off to sleep. I have lots of energy too—now I can get out in the yard and do the yard work. Yes HADACOL is wonderful—and you can bet your life I will never stop taking HADACOL."

Folks All Over The Country

whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron, have been helped by HADACOL and HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer from stomach distress, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia caused by upset stomach, aches and pains, or a general rundown condition, caused by such deficiencies.

That's the kind of product you want—that's the kind you should buy and that's the kind you should start taking NOW!

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel better after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Scent Furs With Perfume For Luxury And Fragrance

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

To envelop yourself in fragrance as well as luxury, try brushing your furs with perfume just before you leave your home.

For best results in adding this extra touch of lavishness, it's a good idea to use special techniques based upon research by a well-known perfume firm.

To surround herself with an aura of fragrance, this young woman touches her furs lightly with perfume.

The scent should be applied with your fingertips. Never pour perfume directly from the bottle onto your furs. Such a drenching could possibly result in stain or discoloration, particularly upon light-colored furs.

An efficient method is to glide perfume-moistened fingers over the long guard hairs of the pelt. The tips will catch and hold a sufficient amount of fragrance to surround you with a pleasant aura.

If one scent were lodged in the depth of the fur, any attempt to change your fragrance would result in a confusion of odors.

The heavier perfumes are suggested as most suitable for furs. Not only are the exotic scents more in keeping with the richness of fur than light florals, but the fixatives in the more compelling perfumes tend to hold their fragrances for longer periods.

In choosing a perfume for your coat, cape, stole or neckpiece, it's advisable to ascertain whether the scent of your choice contains the recommended musk or civet.

Tally Hostess Has Luncheon

Mrs. M. A. Murphree and Mrs. W. E. Lyle, Jr., were hostesses to the Tally Hostess Bridge-Luncheon Club when it met Tuesday in the Ranch House.

Each table was centered with a basket of fruit and greenery with a lighted taper in the center.

Mrs. E. A. McCullough won high score. Mrs. R. E. Morgan was second high and Mrs. Clyde Davidson won the bingo prize.

Guests were Mrs. Bob Burkett and Mrs. F. B. Cochran.

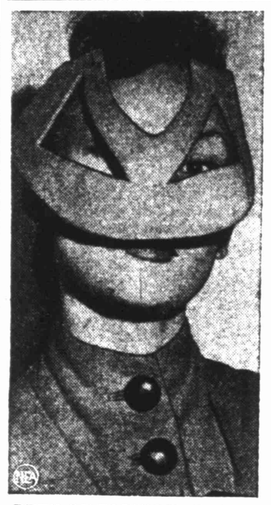

During the business meeting it was decided to have a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. A. L. Attaway. No date was set.

Other members present were Mrs. Jack M. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Huffman, Mrs. David C. Chambers, Mrs. Perry Gill, Mrs. J. V. Hardwick, Mrs. John K. Massey, Mrs. Clarence Symes and Mrs. J. C. Williamson.

Easy crust for a lemon chiffon pie is made by crushing 32 vanilla wafers and mixing with a quarter cup of soft butter or margarine and a quarter cup of sugar; press into an eight-inch pie plate and bake in a moderately hot oven for eight minutes. Cool before adding filling.

Plenty To Give The Handyman A Christmas Thrill

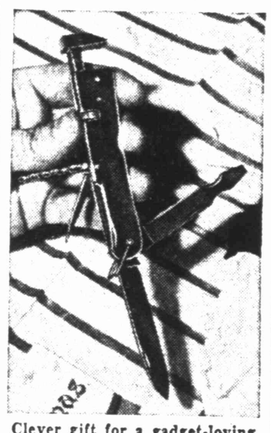

Handsome Christmas gift for the family's favorite handyman is this power tool with three rows of interchangeable precision accessories racked up in the maroon plastic case. With these, he can tackle many tasks from cleaning tarnished metal to intricate engraving and carving.

By KAY SHERWOOD

Christmas cheers from the family's Mr. Fixit will greet gifts of intriguing new gadgets or tools designed to simplify the care and repair of household equipment.

Hand power tool kits, for example, give the amateur mechanic or hobbyist professional help on a variety of tasks. Packed up in the compact, portable plastic case of one such kit are the slim power tool base plus more than 25 interchangeable precision accessories for grinding, polishing, cleaning, drilling, engraving and so on. With this minature workshop at his elbow, Mr. Fixit can care for, repair or even make objects in wood, metal and plastic.

Clever gift for a gadget-loving man is this stainless steel tool kit which fits into palm of hand. Tools unfold from handle; wrench winds up from top.

Shedding a bright light on home workshop chores are new illuminated aids. A pencil-slim flashlight, for example, has three interchangeable curved plastic heads to angle light around corners and into dark nooks. One of the plastic shaft has a magnetized tip which spotlights the missing nail and picks it up. Out of a zippered leather case comes another bright newcomer. This is a screwdriver with a tiny light in the handle aimed to show up a hard-to-see slot in a screw.

Household waxing and sanding chores are handled in a hurry by this new device which attaches to electric beater borrowed from kitchen.

Brightening up the workshop corners is flashlight with curved plastic shafts to angle light beam. Shaft shown screwed to light base has magnetized tip.

Ready to stuff the toe of a Christmas sock are pocket-sized implements that don't yield a point in sturdiness or efficiency to full-sized counterparts.

One streamlined stainless steel handle, no larger than a jackknife, puts a whole tool case in the palm of the hand. Out of the handle unfold a knife, file and screwdriver, punch, awl, and the top screws up to become a wrench.

Another space-saving collection of seven most-needed tools is zipped up in a pocket-sized leather case. These midgets lock into a jack knife handle (included in the kit) for use.

Aimed to get more mileage out of the kitchen's electric mixer is an inexpensive sanding and waxing disc which will take the hard work out of refinishing furniture or whip up a gleaming shine on silver. The disc comes equipped with paper for sanding, lamb's wool bonnet for polishing and an adapter to fit large or small beater holes. This handy device may also be attached to the workshop electric drill.

District Legion Convention Slated Saturday, Sunday

District Cmdr. John F. Crooks, Jr., of Odessa has called on the 20 American Legion Posts in the 16th Congressional District to send delegates to the Fall convention, to be held Saturday and Sunday in Monahans.

The Neal Huffaker Post No. 473 of Monahans, commanded by Kenneth F. Sikes, will be the host to hundreds of Legionnaires from the vast district comprised of 19 counties. Fifth Division Cmdr. Charles C. Gibson is expected to make the long journey from Amarillo to attend.

Charles C. Gibson

Convention delegates will give primary consideration to coordinating the current district drive for 3,418 members with the over-all statewide campaign for 113,000 Legionnaires in 1951, Commander Crooks said.

Also on the business slate will be discussions of proposed expansions of the American Legion programs in the fields of Americanism, rehabilitation, child welfare, youth activities and community service.

Local plans for participating in the statewide "Operation Democracy" program to build a better America will be aired. Under the leadership of State Cmdr. Bill Elkins of Killeen and Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd, the Legion's Americanism chairman, the 777 American Legion Posts in Texas will go all-out on December 7 to rekindle the fires of freedom in the hearts and minds of Texans as a part of the goal for a wide-awake and alert citizenry.

Legion and state officials as well as all members of the American Legion have been invited to attend the Monahans convention.

Tito Government Has Celebration On Anniversary

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA —(AP)—Marshal Tito's government staged an austerity celebration Wednesday to mark the seventh anniversary of the Yugoslav Republic's wartime creation.

Opening the two-day festivities, a spokesman defiantly told the country's Cominform foes, "we cannot be broken."

The drought-stricken, hungry nation dropped such frills as last year's big torchlight parade. But the capital was decked with flags, bunting and extra lighting, and shook to the boom of noon and evening cannon salutes.

The challenge to Russia and the Cominform neighbors was uttered by Boris Kidric, boss of the country's economy and planning member of the Politburo, speaking at an opera gala Tuesday night. Tito and members of his hierarchy attended.

Charge Opposition

As top-ranking Communists long and frantically shouted "Tito—Tito" Kidric charged Russia had opposed Yugoslav independence since 1943, when Tito founded his wartime "anti-Fascist council," the provisional partisan government.

Yugoslavia, he asserted, was continuing to follow the true path of Marxist-Leninism, while Stalin's Russia had gone astray on the path of bureaucracy.

"Yugoslavia must be strong to oppose every aggression," Kidric concluded amid cheers. "But the new Yugoslavia cannot be broken."

Five Airmen Jump To Safety Before B-25 Plane Crashes

WACO —(AP)— Five airmen from Connally Air Force Base here parachuted to safety Tuesday night when their twin-engine B-25 developed engine trouble only about 30 miles east of the base.

The plane was on the last stages of a return flight from Bolling Field, Washington, D. C.

Capt. John A. Bell suffered a slight head injury and Lt. Jerome C. Gross received a cut hand in landing from the 2,000-foot jump.

Maj. Marshall L. Smith, the pilot; Capt. Otis J. Foster and Sgt. W. A. Tarrell were uninjured.

All are stationed at Connally.

The plane crashed in a plowed field and the five landed near it. Carl Adamson, a farmer, took the men to his house nearby, then brought Bell and Gross to a Waco hospital for first aid treatment.

Air base officials said one engine failed and the other engine was unable to keep the plane from losing altitude.

Monahans HD Agent Gets National Honors

CHICAGO—(AP)—Four Texas home demonstration agents were honored here Wednesday.

They are Mrs. Alma Hale, Monahans; Ruth Causey, Lockhart; Mrs. Nan J. Mangold, Emnard, and Bessie L. Vogt, Refugio.

They were among 53 receiving national honors for distinguished service.

Certificates were awarded at the annual meetings of the National Home Demonstration Agents Association.

Ecuador Takes First Census In 128 Years

QUITO, ECUADOR —(AP)— Ecuador shut up shop Wednesday to take its first national census since the country won independence 128 years ago. But the census takers skipped a few villages of rebellious Indians.

Ten thousand workers, most of them public employes, began the head counting at sunup—working without pay. The day was proclaimed a national holiday, with everyone required to stay at home from midnight until sirens announce the end of the census at 5 p.m.

Churches and business establishments were closed. Transport facilities were suspended.

Feared War Count

Indian opponents of the census feared their sons were being counted prior to sending them to the Korean war and their cattle and goods would be expropriated.

Though 300 Indian chieftains, meeting in Quito, swore to bring their tribesmen in line, some Indians in Chimborazo Province refused to participate.

Priests and school teachers spearheaded an educational campaign among the Indians, who make up most of the population. President Galo Plaza and the archbishop of Quito, Carlos Maria De La Torre, were named census takers to soothe persons regarding the census as an inexcusable interference in their private affairs.

Hollywood Banker Fired For Granting Mickey Cohen Loan

HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— The bank president Mickey Cohen said loaned him $35,000 without note or interest is now an ex-bank president.

The Hollywood State Bank Tuesday announced the resignation of Harold W. Brown as president "to avoid embarrassment to the bank."

Cohen told the Senate Crime Investigating Committee he put the bite on Brown two years ago and has paid little, if any, back.

Wade E. Bennett, executive vice president of the bank, who was named to succeed Brown, stated Brown's resignation was voluntary and "none of the loans referred to by Cohen were made by the bank, nor with the bank's funds." Bennett stressed that the loan was arranged as a personal matter between Cohen and Brown.

Senator Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), committee chairman, asked the gambler how he negotiated a loan from a bank president without interest, note or collateral.

"I guess he just liked me," replied Cohen.

"Mr. Cohen," the senator answered, "you must be a man of considerable charm to borrow under such enviable conditions."

Michigan's Merry-Go-Round Over Governor Election Starts To Spin Swiftly Once Again

LANSING, MICH. —(AP)— After a more or less gentle time of it lately, Michigan's merry-go-round over its governor's election spun fast again Wednesday.

Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams accused the Republican-controlled board of canvassers of "shenanigans" and a power-grab in refusing to certify his reelection.

Immediately, Republican Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., chairman of the board, replied Williams was being "terribly premature."

The three-man board, consisting entirely of Republicans, decided Monday to go to the Supreme Court on the question of certification. It refused the certification on its own.

A recount of the nearly 2,000,000 votes in Michigan's "horse race" election of November 7 is at the crux of all this. Williams defeated Republican Harry F. Kelly by a bare 1,154 votes.

The recount, soon to start, will have to be completed by inauguration day January 1 or a scrap is dead certain over who's to be placed in the governor's chair then.

In the GOP view, it would be a Republican—Lt. Gov.-elect William C. Vandenberg (no relation to Michigan's U. S. Senator Vandenberg.)

Williams charged at a press conference Tuesday the canvassing board was making a "gross perversion of the election machinery" in an attempt to "grap the powers of the governorship."

Republican Alger took issue quickly. He said the board would still have time to "change our mind if it appears legally necessary."

The recounts starts Saturday in big Wayne (Detroit) County.

Williams came out the winner in the original statewide count after discovery of a mess of errors in vote counting.

Turnpike Authority Lets RFC Know Loan Snub Left No Grudge

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The Oklahoma Turnpike Authority let the Reconstruction Finance Corporation know Wednesday it holds no grudge because it failed to get an RFC loan.

The authority was set up to build an Oklahoma City-to-Tulsa road. It tried for months to borrow more than $30,000,000 from RFC at four per cent interest. Failing in that, it got the money from private sources at 3.6 per cent.

Wednesday Elmer Harber, chairman of the multi-billion dollar federal lending agency and an Oklahoman himself, got this telegram from the turnpike authority:

"Do you need any money? We have plenty. Cordially yours."

Because half its substance is air, cork is one of the best insulating materials.

The Red River of the North, which crosses the U. S.-Canadian border, is so called to distinguish it from the Red River which forms part of the Texas-Oklahoma line.

BACKYARD STOCKMEN—Passersby in a Chicago street gape and giggle as Hots Michaels, left, and Hal White water their city-bred hogs after taking the porkers along on a shopping trip to neighborhood stores. They are raising the animals in White's back yard for entry in the National Livestock Exhibition. White, a sporting goods salesman and Michaels, a night club entertainer, are trying to prove that city slickers with no farm experience can compete with professional livestock men.

Chinese Drive In Korea Poses Gravest Decisions Since World War's Start

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Chinese Communist offensive in Korea has confronted the United States with the gravest decisions since the start of World War II, Administration officials said Wednesday.

The government's present intention, they said, is to deal with the situation in the United Nations and through intensive consultation with Britain, France and other UN-member Allies in the struggle against spreading Red power in Asia.

These consultations already are under way. Some authorities said they may involve proposals for the use of political and economic sanctions against Communist China by the UN.

Sanctions could mean cutting off all trade with China by non-Communist countries and curtailing or withdrawing diplomatic recognition accorded the Peiping regime by some countries.

Diplomats reported President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and other government leaders are determined on full consultations with Allied nations to avoid a split in the UN anti-Communist coalition which might result if the U. S. acted alone.

No Hard, Fast Decisions

The National Security Council, with Truman presiding, talked over the new crisis for an hour and 15 minutes Tuesday. Persons familiar with the situation said the secret session produced no hard and fast decisions on new steps to be taken.

It did result, these informants said, in a general agreement to continue pressing in the UN for adoption of a pending resolution demanding that the Chinese get their troops out of Korea.

This is somewhat short of proposing that the UN brand Red China as an aggressor, which the U. S. government did on its own Tuesday.

Formal action on this charge reportedly won't be sought now because it would have to be accompanied by proposals for action to deal with the aggression and there is no final agreement so far on what steps should be taken. Officials said such questions as whether to carry the fight to Chinese territory by bombing supply centers north of the Korean border still aren't answered.

It isn't known for certain here whether the Chinese Communists intend to launch a full-scale war or whether they are only harassing UN forces in a series of mass border actions. The increasing tendency is to fear they mean to drive UN forces out of Korea.

To Avoid Showdown

There apparently is a strong desire on the part of the country's diplomatic and military leaders to avoid becoming involved in a general war in Asia. Basic to American strategy is the concept that any final military showdown with world communism should come in Europe rather than Asia.

The other extreme of action—a UN withdrawal from Korea—is considered to be equally disagreeable as a demonstration of weakness.

Military developments in Korea and diplomatic moves in Washington and New York are related closely. Taking them together, three possibilities of action are now foreseen here:

1. The UN coalition could hold on theoretically to some new defense line and build up strength for an all-out fight with the Chinese. Some of the nations which originally joined the fight against the North Koreans probably oppose this; it could very well mean a general war in Asia. American officials themselves see little to be gained from that, since a defeat of Communist China would not solve the problem of world communism centering in Russia.

2. The UN forces could establish a defense line and try to create a stalemate on the front, while diplomats strive for some kind of political settlement for Korea—aimed at getting the Chinese Communists to withdraw—or perhaps an armed truce which would in effect once more divide the country.

Until the Chinese started their new offensive there was considerable hope that they might be willing to bargain. Some Allied governments evidently still think so. But Washington's hopes have dimmed greatly.

3. The UN forces could accept a total defeat in Korea and in a series of retreats pull out and leave the country to the Communists. Foreign policy makers say this would have disastrous results in Asia by leaving Communist- threatened countries with a sense of defenselessness. Besides, it probably would frighten the Western Europeans so badly with the spectre of Communist power they would weaken in their determination to bolster their own defenses.

Storm-Lashed Areas Dig Out Of Debris; Death Toll Near 300

By The Associated Press

Big industrial centers in the storm-lashed Eastern states appeared moving toward near normal operations Wednesday.

But a big cleanup job remained in many areas. It looked like a slow and tedious fight before resumption of normal activities in some of the hardest hit sections of the storm belt.

The death toll mounted to almost 300 from the savage weekend storms which whipped over areas in 22 Eastern and Midwest states. Damages continued to grow. Uncounted thousands suffered privation. Many still were without heat, electricity or telephones. The damage to property from the snow, winds, sleet and rain was estimated in the hundreds of millions of dollars.

There was no heavy snow or severe cold Wednesday to hamper the thousands of workers engaged in clearing huge piles of snow throughout Pennsylvania and Ohio and other areas.

No New Dangers

There were a few flurries in the St. Lawrence Valley and over the Great Lakes area. Temperatures remained below normal from the Missouri Valley eastward but were at or below the freezing mark. The Weather Bureau said no heavy snowfall was in prospect immediately.

The east coast states counted 95 dead from the violent wind and rain storm. The toll included 36 in New York and 34 in New Jersey. Thousands of telephones still were out in the two states.

In New York City, inspectors condemned $1,500,000 worth of food which had been spoiled, either by flood conditions or lack of refrigeration through electric power cutoffs.

Storm deaths reported by other states included Michigan 22; Indiana 18; Kentucky 17; West Virginia 15; Alabama 13; Connecticut and Illinois, six east; Maryland, South Carolina, Tennessee and Maine, four each; Massachusetts, Georgia, Delaware and North Caroline, two each, and New Hampshire, Vermont and Virginia, one each.

Singer Phil Regan Sues For Share In Scurry Promotion

CHICAGO—(AP)—Singer Phil Regan Wednesday sued for money he claims is due him for introducing an oil well owner to valuable business contacts.

The federal court suit named Ralph Stolkin, president of Empire Industries, Inc., Chicago, as defendant.

It said Stolkin owns a quarter share of two multi-million-dollar oil well properties in Texas: the R. B. Brown lease, Scurry County, and the Mud Flats field, Aransas Pass.

Regan claimed Stolkin agreed to give him one-sixteenth of all his profits in the venture after the singer last year introduced Stolkin to members of the firm that developed it. Regan claimed the introduction enabled Stolkin to invest in the oil land. Regan said he later invested $4,000 in the oil lands and Stolkin promised him certain royalties.

Regan, of New York, asked an accounting and a court order assuring him of Stolkin's adherence to the agreement.

COMES NATURALLY—Richie Davis won the season's upside down contest in the Ohio district of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing. So Johnny Marcum, left, and Johnny Lemmo decided to present the North Olmsted, O., driver with the prize, a $50 check, in an appropriate way. Davis rolled his car nine times.

Pleven To Request Vote Of Confidence

PARIS—(AP)—Premier Rene Pleven decided Wednesday to ask for a vote of confidence in an effort to keep in office France's sixteenth post-liberation government, tottering from a Communist-brewed storm over Defense Minister Jules Moch.

The National Assembly vote, decided on at a cabinet meeting, will take place Friday. Pleven submitted the cabinet's resignation Tuesday night after the National Assembly voted disapproval of Moch, but President Vincent Auriol refused to accept the walkout because of the tense international situation.

By seeking a confidence vote, Pleven will try to utilize the desire of most deputies to avoid new general elections, which a government defeat might bring on. Most deputies would rather delay the poll until the end of the assembly's regular term next Fall.

Concrete Is Business Of Helbert Firm

A name which is synonymous with concrete work in Midland is Helbert and Helbert, contracting firm, which also specializes in jack hammer work including pavement breaking, sandblasting and several other lines.

Among these lines are flagstone for patios, dens, walks and other purposes and ledge stones for flower boxes, curbs, barbecue pits and many other uses.

The concern, which has acquired the Colorado Sand and Gravel Company, also can supply any amount of washed sand and gravel and provides delivery service in this area.

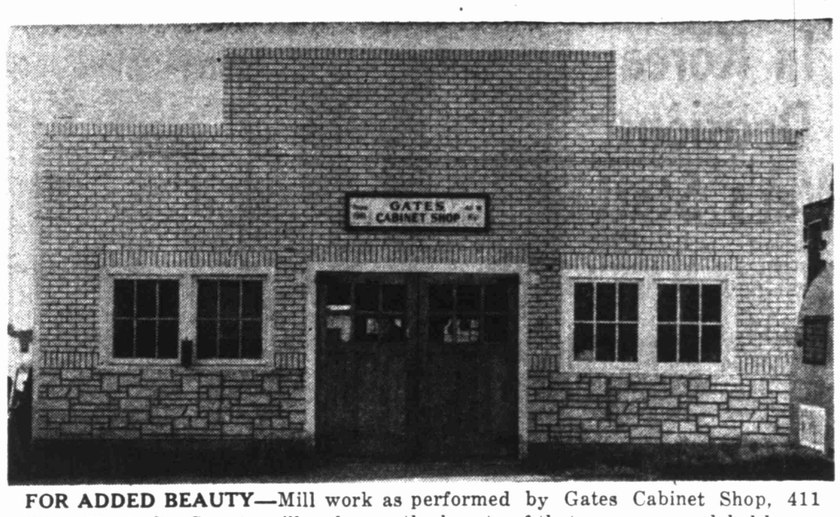

For any type of work in the concrete line, Helbert and Helbert can provide expert workmen and has just the equipment needed for the particular job at hand.

Helbert and Helbert recommends sandblasting as one of the most effective methods known for cleaning the dirty surfaces of iron, steel, plaster stucco, brick, stone and all metals. Sandblasting especially is effective in removing paint, glaze, dirt and grease.

For estimates or other information, the telephone number of the concern is 2520 or 2524.

Foundation work also is performed by Helbert and Helbert, whether it is the pouring of a new foundation or repair of an old one.

If desired, Helbert and Helbert will contract to lay flagstone and has a staff of skilled experts for this work. Or if you perfer, you may purchase stone and lay it yourself.

FOR ADDED BEAUTY—Mill work as performed by Gates Cabinet Shop, 411 West Kentucky Street, will enhance the beauty of that new or remodeled home, regardless of the architectural style. The firm handles any type of woodworking job, including book cases, store and office fixtures, radio cabinets and built-ins.

23 Years Experience Fits Tommie's For Service Jobs

E. N. "Tommie" Thomson, owner and operator of Tommie's Electric Shop, 207 South Pecos Street, has been in the electrical business in Midland the last 23 years and during that time has had experience with all types of electrical service problems.

It is this experience, coupled with technical training, which is behind the statement that no job is too large or too difficult in his line of work.

Motor rewinding, machine work and general shop work all are in the line of work performed by Tommie's Electric Shop. The firm is factory representative for sales and service for Ideal electric motors, Fairbanks-Morse and Wico magnetas.

Complete shop service is maintained for taking care of all classes of work performed by the concern.

Repairs, Rewinding

Repairing and rewinding of all types of electric motors, magnetos, starters and generators are everyday jobs performed in a highly satisfactory manner by Tommie's Electric.

Electrical equipment will be built back to factory standards. The firm specializes in motor service for heavy oil field equipment and commerical motors, regardless of the size.

The telephone number is 1222.

Service calls are made to any point in this section.

A specialty also is made of repairing motors on floor sanders and edgers and similar devices.

Tommie's Electric Shop has been operating in its present location for about four years.

Special Orders Right Down Line For Midland Iron Works

Special orders for beams and similar structural steel are right down the line for the Midland Iron Works, located at 900 West North Front Street. The firm specializes in ornamental and structural steel for residential, commercial and industrial purposes.

A wide variety of other services also is provided by the Midland Iron Works.

Many years of experience are behind the work performed by the concern, thus giving assurance of satisfaction.

There is no iron-working job too difficult for the firm. Estimates will be given gladly. The telephone number is 2303.

Oscar Watlington is the owner and manager of the Midland Iron Works, which was opened in 1944.

The concern will design and make ornamental steel for any purpose.

Highly-Trained Personnel

Portable welding equipment of the most modern and efficient type is used by the concern's highly-trained personnel.

The Midland Iron Works' winch truck service has been used by many oil operators in the Permian Basin for setting equipment and erecting steel. You are invited to get further information and quotations on this service.

The portable welding equipment available at the Midland Iron Works many times has proved a "life-saver" in oil field repairs and installations, by saving valuable time and effecting a saving in cost of repairs and construction.

Hike In Natural Gas Tax Asked As Means To Get Rural Roads

AUSTIN —(AP)— The County Judges and Commissioners Association adopted eight resolutions Tuesday, four involving requests for financial aid from the 52nd Legislature.

One hotly debated resolution, adopted by the close margin of 125 to 115, called on the Legislature to increase natural gas taxes to pay for rural roads.

Others included:

A request for an assistance program for the needy.

Opposition to any increase in the legal weight and length limit of any motor vehicle.

A request for a trucking bill which would require on-the-spot unloading of overloaded trucks in addition to a fine.

Study Is Requested

A request for legislative study of the tuberculosis problem, with particular attention to enforced, adequate separation of such patients.

Approval of a four-year term for all elective state and county officials.

A plan by which each county would pay $50 annually to maintain a "legislative committee" office in Austin to keep tab on bills before the Legislature.

A resolution asking Texas congressmen to push legislation returning Tideland priorities to the state.

A request to the Legislature that a larger portion of the state automobile tax be allocated to county general funds.

Just Neglected To Pay The Bill

A Stanton service station operator Tuesday notified Midland police that two boys driving cars sped away from his place of business without paying their $7.97 bill.

A short time later, one of the youths was picked up in Midland and the other in Odessa.

Both were returned to Stanton.

Fire Department Has Busy Time

City firemen had a busy day Tuesday as they answered seven calls ranging from a burning telephone pole to a blaze in a frame house.

It was the second day within a week the fire department received seven calls, the first day being on November 23.

The calls Tuesday included a frame house at 1109 West Texas Street, a food truck at East Wall and Lee Streets, a frame building on West Highway 80, a pile of lumber at 1601 South Camp Street, a grass fire at 1004 South Johnson Street, a burning telephone pole on North West Front Street and a trash fire at 1013 North Loraine Street.

He was being treated Wednesday at Midland Memorial Hospital.

'Entirely New War' Warns Businessmen Of Pinches To Come

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK —(AP)— The "entirely new war" in Korea Wednesday gave businessmen and their customers the warning that the time for belt-tightening may be near at hand.

Just around the corner, apparently, are new and higher taxes, stricter controls, increasing manpower shortage, another twist in the wage-price spiral, and a speed-up in inflation in general.

Whether the "new war" is contained in Korea, or whether it spreads across Asia, the timetable of United States rearmament will be advanced. Controls on raw materials, on production, on consumption, even on wages and prices—already on the drafting boards—may be expected to come forth from Washington much sooner now than seemed likely before the Chinese launched their attack on the United Nations' armies.

Commodity and security markets reflected that feeling Tuesday. Futures prices of commodities soared as traders figured the time for shortages was brought nearer. Stock prices dropped as traders figured higher taxes and much stricter controls soon might be cramping the business world.

'Need For New Money'

Treasury Secretary Snyder says the federal debt will start up again by the middle of next year—earlier, if rearmament spending speeds up. So far this Fall the Treasury has been getting along on its greater tax take, but Snyder sees "a need for new money" coming now.

The labor shortage, already acute in some places, probably will grow quickly: 1. The armed forces seem certain to push for more men; 2. fires will soon be built under defense production, which until now has been proceeding at a rather leisurely pace.

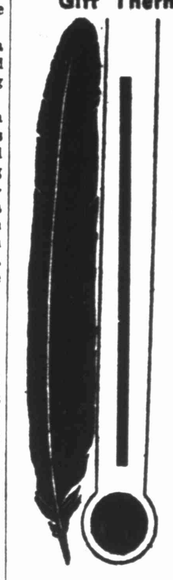

The wage-price spiral seems due for another upward swing. The basic steel industry is reported ready to grant a substantial pay boost. A rise in the price of steel will follow—just how much still is in doubt.

This increase on such a basic commodity as steel probably will fan out through the various manufacturing industries until in time it reaches the retail stores with higher price tags on an almost endless list of appliances and goods.

Part Of Profits Tax Proposal Faces Veto By House Committee

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A key portion of the Administration's $4,000,000,000 excess profits tax proposal faced the threat Wednesday of a House Ways and Means Committee veto.

Split 12 to 12 on a test vote Tuesday, the committee sought agreement Wednesday on a definition of what are "excess" profits. At issue is whether to exempt corporations from such a tax on their entire average 1946-1949 earnings or only on the first 75 per cent of the average.

The Administration proposes to define excess profits as any earnings which exceed 75 per cent of the average of the best three years out of the four from 1946 through 1949. This initial three-fourths of the average would be taxed at present corporation income rates, ranging up to 45 per cent. Any profits above that would be taxed at the 75 per cent rate.

Don't Want Tax

Republicans on the ways and means committee generally don't want any excess profits tax law enacted. Instead, they favor a hike in existing corporate income rates and claim it will produce as much or more than President Truman's proposal.

Tuesday's tie vote, slated for reconsideration Wednesday, demonstrated that Republicans have picked up at least two Democratic votes on the committee. It is made up of 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans. One Democrat was absent Tuesday.

Once it decides whether to give corporations full credit for their 1946-49 average income, or only 75 per cent, the committee must determine the rate of tax to impose on the excess. Should full credit be allowed, the rate of tax may be hiked to 85 per cent.

The committee hopes to have a bill ready by the end of this week.

A recent article in Sport Magazine comments at great length on Texas high school football. The article, titled "High School Football's Hot In Texas," points out how seriously fans take the gridiron game in Texas schoolboy circles. It says $50,000 was wagered on the outcome of the 1946 championship game "in one Dallas hotel lobby." That game, you will recall, was between Jefferson of San Antonio and Odessa.

The article pays tribute to Texas as having the finest schoolboy setup in the states. It said: "No other state has a high school athletic plan so thoroughly integrated and so smoothly handled as the Interscholastic League of Texas."

It is reported also that Bill Edwards, Vanderbilt coach, told a group of alumni: "I want more football players from Texas. Those guys like to knock people around on a football field just for the fun of it."

Maybe we could be a little one-sided about the whole thing, but we agree that Texas high school football is the best in the nation. The nearest thing to it we have seen is the Pennsylvania and Ohio brand of play. New York, New Jersey and other Eastern states can not compare with it. And, even here near home in the neighboring state of New Mexico, the caliber of play isnt' up to the Texas type of schoolboy football.

—KR—

That should be a lulu of a ball game between Kermit and Coleman Saturday afternoon. The tilt is to be played in Odessa's Broncho Stadium and it is the second round of the Class A schoolboy playoffs.

Earlier in the year we doubted Kermit would go farther than the bi-district because of an apparent inability to develop a passing game. But last week the Yellow Jackets completed four of six passes and looked good in trouncing high-scoring Colorado City 38 to 0.

Coleman has a fine record—unbeaten in Class A competition. The only blots on the record of the Bluecats are a 13-7 loss to AA Brownwood and a 20-20 tie with Class AA Stephenville.

Still, we think Kermit will win this one now. The brand of football in 5-A seems to be about the best of that class in the entire state. Pecos, loser of only one game —a 20-12 affair to Kermit—might have gone all the way in any other district. Too, the 5-A schools posted a record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie in competition with teams from other districts. Both Pecos and Seminole defeated Levelland, a team that is in the playoffs now. Pecos turned the trick 18-0. Seminole, an average team in 5-A, tripped the Lobos 7-0. Therefore we'll go out on a limb and pick Kermit to win the Class A championship.

—KR—

The "all" teams now are being picked in just about every district and conference in high school and college circles. The 3-AA team hasn't yet been selected, but it shouldn't be long until the districts get around to it. We have letters dispatched to all coaches in 5-A, taking a poll of that district for a Reporter - Telegram all - district eleven. It seems to us that coaches are in a far better position to know boys deserving those honors than anyone else — including sports scribes.

The Southern Conference all-team has just been released, and looks this way:

ENDS—Blaine Earon, Duke; Elmer Wingate, Maryland.

TACKLES—Elmer Costa, North Carolina State; Jim Stanton, Wake Forest.

GUARDS—Bob Ward, Maryland; Joe Dudeck, North Carolina.

CENTER—Irvin Holdash, North Carolina.

BACKS—Gil Bogetti, Washington and Lee; Billy Cox, Duke; Steve Wadiak, South Carolina; Fred Cone, Clemson.

—KR—

The Crane Golden Cranes will oppose the Midland Bulldog cagers in the opening basketball game at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Midland High School gym. The "B" elevens will clash first with the varsity outfits to follow.

Crane has turned out some fine basketball teams in the years gone by. Every year the Golden Cranes field teams that are fast, tall and have an eye for the basket. We believe the best Crane team of them all was in 1945. We saw that team drop a "post season" tilt to powerful Stanton 45-43 in Midland's gym. Both teams were unbeaten when they clashed, and it was quite a ball game. Both had beaten Midland.

So don't be looking for a "soft touch" just because Crane is a small school—the Cranes will be one of the best Midland will face all season, if they are up to Golden Crane basketball standards.

—KR—

DOTS AND DASHES — Billy Baker, Coleman's star back, ran for one touchdown and passed for three others last week as the Bluecats trounced Ranger 27-0 in a bi-district tilt . . . Emil Rassman, local attorney is a happy man . . . His "alma mammy," Washington and Lee, has accepted a bid to play in the 'Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. come New Year's Day . . . The W&L Generals will oppose Wyoming, champions of the Skyline Six . . . Dodger Pitcher Ralph Branca will undergo a nose operation soon so he can breathe easier . . Prompting one scribe to remark: "We thought he'd been doing that ever since the last time he escaped from Rickey's office without a salary cut" . . . End of the Row!

Purple Cagers In Daily Workouts

Midland basketball hopefuls cantered through their second workout of the season Tuesday afternoon, still concentrating on ball handling, passing and pattern plays. More than 30 candidates have reported for duty with 'C', 'B' and varsity outfits.

Coaches F. D. (Red) Rutledge and Audrey Gill are the varsity mentors. John Higdon is working the 'B' five. Bernard (Pat) Patterson is in charge of the 'C' team.

Five lettermen return from the cage team of last season. One, Center Ralph Brooks, has not reported for practice yet. Brooks is nursing an injury suffered in football but expects to report for workouts soon. Other returning lettermen are Guard Reed Gilmore, Forwards Buddy Johnson and Norman Drake and Center Corky Moss.

The Bulldog five hopes to improve on last year's lean record that saw but one conference game in the Midland win column. Real scrimmage sessions are due to get underway at once. The first game of the season is slated next Tuesday night. The Crane Golden Cranes will furnish the opposition. Workouts for the Bulldogs will continue daily, with the tempo being increased each day until the opening tilt.

Brion Says He'll Kayo Aging Louis In Chicago Melee

CHICAGO —(AP)— Young Cesar Brion, full of vim and confidence, predicts a kayo within seven rounds of aging Joe Louis in their scheduled 10-rounder in Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

The 23-year-old Argentine heavyweight is at the short end of 4-1 odds to defeat Joe. Louis, trying a second comeback at 36 after being beaten decisively in 15 rounds by Ezzard Charles last September, still thinks he packs enough dynamite to chill Brion.

Although not appearing impressive in training sessions, Louis says he will try to end the fight as soon as possible. He would not name the round.

Brion will weigh 194, spotting the ex-heavyweight champion some 21 pounds. Joe expects to be three pounds lighter than when he met Charles.

When Syracuse University's cross-country team lost to Manhattan recently, it was its first defeat in 19 dual meets since 1946.

Dressen To Put Mound Staff On Spot At Brooklyn

BROOKLYN—(AP)—Brooklyn's disappointing Dodgers of 1950, especially the collapsible pitching staff, will be put through the wringer in 1951.

This was promised by new Manager Charlie Dressen, who was named Tuesday afternoon to succeed Burt Shotton in a move that surprised nobody. Salary terms were not disclosed, but it was reported the figure is $40,000 a year.

"I've read everywhere that Brooklyn should have won the pennant by 10 games last year," Chuck told newsmen. "I wouldn't know. But I can tell you this. I'm going to find out."

"You ask me about the pitching staff which was such a disappointment last season," the former Dodger coach went on. "That's something I can't answer right now. All I know is that when I left the club, we had a 20-game winner in Ralph Branca and another sure-fire 20-game winner in Rex Barney. Something happened to them since. I don't know what it is. I sure aim to find out."

New Training Policy

Dressen said he will discontinue the Dodger policy of having the players on all the Brooklyn farms train together with the parent club during the Spring.

"The Brooklyn club will train at Vero Beach, Fla., by itself," he said. "Not until it leaves for Miami on March 10 will the minor leaguers be permitted to arrive. The Dodgers will then remain in Miami until we head north."

Asked what he thinks of his team's chances for '51, Chuck laughed and replied:

"I see where Leo Durocher already has named us as the team to beat. Funny thing, all the Pacific Coast scouts have told me that the Giants will be the team to beat next year. However, I think we've got as good a chance as anybody else to win the pennant."

Rankin, Marathon In Regional Game

McCAMEY — Two high-scoring elevens will clash here at 7:30 p.m. Friday for the regional championship of Region II-B. The Rankin Red Devils won their bi-district game last week, setting back the Ackerly Eagles 20-6. Marathon's Mustangs, the other club, disposed of Poyote in a bi-district affair 51 to 8.

Both teams have identical records for the year, each having won eight and lost two. Also in the "identical" column is the fact that both coaches are first-year men at their respective schools. Also, both teams were beaten by Mertzon and both elevens wear the colors of purple and white.

To the winner will go the highest title a six-man team may earn—that of regional champion. Both teams expect to be at full strength for the important tilt, sponsored by the McCamey Lions Club.

The team records:

Rankin 7, Grandfalls 13.
Rankin 40, Garden City 0.
Rankin 41, Courtney 0.
Rankin 64, Christoval 13.
Rankin 20, Mertzon 21.

'Warlike' Peace Song Project Is Underway

VIENNA —(AP)— What is war and what is peace? East Europe's Communists use "peace" as the biggest, most frequent word in their newspapers. It is part of the Communist campaign that Russia is the only power against war.

But sometimes the Communists get their words mixed up. The Hungarian newspaper "Magyar Nemzet" recently reported:

"Our composers are writing noble, warlike peace songs for our peace congress.

Because they would keep for a long time, beans were a welcome addition to ships' menus in the days when salted meat was their staple.

'Had A Good Year'—Tug

"All in all we had a good year." Thus Coach Thurmon L. (Tugboat) Jones summed up the 1950 football season to the Bulldog Boosters Tuesday night at a regular Booster meeting held in the junior high school cafeteria.

"We won a couple of games we figured to lose at the beginning of the season — Sweetwater and Lubbock," Jones said, "and we lost a couple we didn't figure to lose — Brownwood and Lamesa. But I am satisfied with the season."

Films of the Lamesa-Midland game were shown with comments by Jones and Assistant Audrey Gill and Red Rutledge.

Gill defended Midland against charges of "dirty football" that have circulated West Texas recently. "We taught our kids to play hard and rough and to tackle as hard as they could," Gill said, "but we did not teach them to play dirty. If we had a boy on the field playing a dirty brand of ball we would take him from the game."

Coach Gill pointed out that the single wing type of play featured by Midland makes for a rougher brand of football due to the hard blocking that is required to make the formation work. "In the 'T' formation the linemen only 'brush block,' but in the single wing he must block hard every play," he said.

The Boosters voted to buy a whirlpool for the Bulldog team, to be used for treatment of bruised and stiff muscles. Also on the agenda was a discussion of a football banquet for the Bulldogs and their coaches to be sponsored by the Booster club. The date and site have not been determined. Further plans will be made at a later date. Russell Cotton, Booster prexy, said no meeting would be held next Tuesday, December 4, unless a called meeting is announced at a later date. The next meeting is scheduled at 8 p.m. Tuesday, December 11, in the junior high school cafeteria.

Texas May Name Successor To Blair Cherry This Week

AUSTIN —(AP)— A University of Texas official says a successor to Texas Head Coach Blair Cherry may be named this week.

Dr. Vernon T. Schuhardt, chairman of the Athletic Council, said Tuesday night the council would meet this week with the Board of Regents.

"We have made no offers," he said, "but we are studying the problem. We definitely will make an announcement after Thanksgiving."

Dr. Schuhardt told the Dallas News three outsiders are being considered for the job as well as members of the present coaching staff. He did not name them.

AFL Tests Court Ban By Picketing Brown & Root, Inc.

HOUSTON —(AP)— AFL building trades unions have resumed picketing at the Houston plant of Brown & Root, Inc., contractors, apparently to test the legality of a court order which forbids such action.

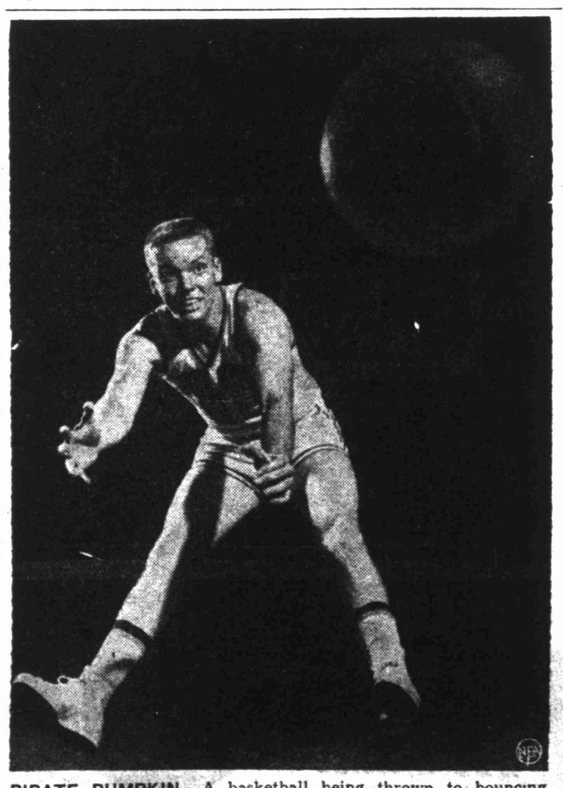

The unions and the construction firm are involved in a complicated legal controversy in which the firm asks a permanent injunction against the unions. The company claims the unions are trying to force them out of business because the firm will not abandon its open shop labor policy.

One result of lengthy legal actions here and in Austin has been a temporary restraining order against the unions prohibiting them from picketing the company. The order, issued in October, has been extended several times but expires Thursday.

Tuesday, the company presented evidence in a pre-trial hearing here that the unions had resumed picketing at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

At the request of the company, Master in Chancery E. L. Bauknight —in charge of the pre-trial hearing —certified the evidence for immediate presentation before District Judge Charles O. Betts in Austin —who issued the temporary restraining order.

Observers at the hearing here interpreted the renewal of picketing as a test of the legality of the temporary restraining order.

Bauers To Help Open Aggie Course

Midland's famous golfing sisters—Alice and Marlene Bauer—will be on hand December 6 at College Station, when Texas A&M College officially opens its new golf course.

The 18-hole course roams over 125 acres and is 6,800 yards in distance, making it the third longest course in the South. Par is 71.

Also on hand will be the 1926 Texas Aggie golf team. That team won the first Southwest Conference links title.

Ratliff Gives You Texas, TCU, Baylor As Winners

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Three games this week will close out the Southwest Conference football campaign.

The race came in like a storm but goes out gently, like a breeze through the trees in the river bottoms.

There isn't much left to play for—just some deep, bitter rivalries to be settled.

The deepest is that which goes on the line Thursday at Austin, where Texas and Texas A&M battle for the fifty-seventh time.

Only second place in the conference race is in the balance with five teams competing for it. Chances are it will end up in a tie, perhaps four-way.

Saturday, Texas Christian and Southern Methodist put on their wild afternoon at Dallas while Baylor and Rice clash at Waco.

Texas, already conference champion and looking toward the Cotton Bowl, will meet an Aggie team that would like to break the longest drouth in the ancient series. It has been 11 years since A&M won a game from Texas.

It has been five years since Baylor beat Rice and four since SMU could muster a victory over TCU although there have been some ties in both series.

Close Games Expected

The oddmakers think all the games will be close. They are giving Texas seven points, Southern Methodist six and one-half and Baylor seven and one-half.

There'll be 66,000 at the Texas A&M game Thursday while Dallas looks for 50,000 to see SMU and TCU swap touchdowns. Baylor hopes for about 30,000.

We got one out of three last week so presume that behooves us to miss some more this week and try to make a worse record. Here goes:

Thursday: Texas A&M at Austin (2 p.m.)—It'll be quite a ball game but Texas has too much all-around strength; Texas by a touchdown.

Saturday: Southern Methodist-Texas Christian at Dallas (2 p.m.)—It ought to be a scoring game but TCU will score the most; Texas Christian by a touchdown.

Baylor-Rice at Waco (2 p.m.)—Anything can happen and probably will; Baylor by a touchdown in a low scorer.

Tempe To Tangle With Miami, Ohio, In Salad Bowl Tilt

PHOENIX, ARIZ. —(AP)— Miami University of Oxford, Ohio, will meet Arizona State College of Tempe in the Phoenix Salad Bowl January 1.

Bill Ladow, chairman of the Phoenix Kiwanis Club Selection Committee, announced Miami has accepted a bid. Arizona State at Tempe was selected Monday.

Tempe finished the season with nine victories and one loss, and Miahi won eight while losing one.

The Kiwanis Club sponsors the annual game for the benefit of the state's crippled children.

ACC 'Wonder Team' To Play In Bowl

EVANSVILLE, IND.—Undefeated and untied Abilene Christian College will play in the Third Annual Refrigerator Bowl game here Saturday. The Texas eleven will face Gustavus Adolphus College, champions of the Minnesota Collegiate Conference.

Gustavus Adolphus, from St. Peter, Minn., has nine victories to its credit against one defeat. Through the season the Golden Gusties led the list of unbeaten teams until they were edged 7-6 by Lacrosse (Wisc.) Teachers in the last game of the season.

The Gusties had a winning streak of 13 straight over two seasons until the LaCrosse game. During the last two years they have won 19 and lost but two.

ACC, coached by Garvin Beauchamp, was the "surprise package", of the Texas Conference. The Wildcats had a far better season than was expected, rolling to 10 straight wins. Beauchamp's wonder team rolled up 231 points while giving up only 50 to the opposition.

Formerly At Midland

Garvin Beauchamp, ACC coach, was an assistant at Midland, Texas, High School prior to this season. Beauchamp is also one of the all-time greats at the Texas school, being a star back for ACC a few years ago.

This is the third year for the Refrigerator Bowl. In 1948, Evansville College defeated Missouri Valley, and last year the Evansville Aces dropped Hillsdale (Mich.) College.

A complete evening of entertainment is planned for Refrigerator Bowl fans. The Indiana University military band, the Marching Hundred, will play in pre-game ceremonies and during the halftime intermission.

The Evansville Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors the Refrigerator classic for three reasons; Ho promote youth welfare in the city of Evansville; to publicize Evansville as the World's refrigerator capital; and to provide Evansville with an outstanding post season football game. The committee this year thinks it has the best attraction of them all lined up, in the meeting of the Golden Gusties and the ACC Wildcats.

'Bomb In Woodpile' Rumors At Aggieland Fail To Materialize

COLLEGE STATION —(AP)— If there was a bomb in the wood pile none of the Texas Aggies noticed it.

Tuesday night, Texas A&M students burned their traditional bonfire before the Aggie-Texas football game in Austin Thursday.

Before the gigantic pile of logs blazed up there were some misgivings. Late Monday night an anonymous telephone call from Austin warned the Aggies that a sodium bomb had been planted in the logs. However, if there was a bomb, it burned peacefully along with the rest of the East Texas timber.

Parilli Chosen Most Valuable In Southeastern Loop

ATLANTA —(AP)— Vito (Babe) Parilli, the South's most publicized back and one of the most respected passers in football history, Wednesday won his greatest honor.

The great Kentucky quarterback has been elected the most valuable player in the Southeastern Conference.

Parilli was listed the most valuable on 68 out of 160 ballot cast by Southeastern coaches, scouts, sports editors, broadcasters and Associated Press sports writers.

Tackle Bob Gain, like Parilli an All-America candidate from Kentucky, was second and sophomore Quarterback Haywood Sullivan of Florida was third. Both Gain and Sullivan trailed badly. Gain received 11 votes and Sullivan 10.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

flowing producer from the Ellenburger on the southeast side of the Pegasus field in Northwest Upton County.

The project, located 660 feet from north and east lines of section 43, block 40, T&P survey, T-5-S, made a natural daily potential of 773 barrels of 53.7-gravity oil, flowing through a one-half-inch tubing choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,290-1. Top of the pay is at 12,945 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at that point. Total depth is at 13,136 feet.

Midland Prospector Drilling After DST

Houston Oil Company of Texas, No. 1 T. A. Golladay, North-Central Midland County wildcat, eight miles southeast of the city of Midland recovered 452 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud during a four-hour drillstem test at 8,460-8,865 feet in the lower Permian sand and shale.

Gas was at the surface in one hour and seven minutes. No fluid came to the top while the tool was open.

Operator is now drilling ahead below 8,915 feet in sand and shale.

This prospector is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 3, A. P. Veasey survey. The section which developed the oil and gas cut mud is in the Dean horizon of the Permian.

Permian Wildcat Is Staked In Sterling

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-C R. T. Foster is to be a 4,500-foot Permian lime prospector in South-Central Sterling County.

It is located six miles southwest of Sterling City and 1,730 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 16, block T, T&P survey.

That makes it one location northeast of the same concern's No. 1-B Foster, recently abandoned dry hole which went to a total depth of 8,68- feet in the Ellenburger.

That formation made salt water. The project had logged some good shows in the Wolfcamp section of the Permian. After the Ellenburger had tested barren the project was plugged back and tested in the Wolfcamp.

It showed some oil but not enough to make a well and was abandoned a short time ago.

Spraberry Stepout Is Spotted In Glasscock

Trinity Production Company of Dallas No. 1 Wrage, one-half mile southwest outpost to Hubbard S. Russell to Maricopa, Calif., No. 1-20 Wrage-Hendrickson, discovery in Central-West Glasscock County from the Spraberry sand, will be drilled to 7,300 feet to explore the Spraberry.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of the southwest quarter of section 20, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey. That puts it about 25 miles southeast of the city of Midland.

Drillsite is one mile west of Olsan Brothers, Inc. of Dallas No. 1 Louis A. Wrage, 4,000-foot southeast outpost to the discovery.

Adair-Wolfcamp In Terry Gets Flanker

One location south of Amerada Petroleum Company No. 2 W. O. Miller, recently completed south extension to the Adair-Wolfcamp field of Central-South Terry County, the same company has spotted location for its No. 1 R. W. Carter.

Exact location of the prospector is 660 feet from west and north lines of the southeast quarter of section 6, block C-37, psl survey. That makes it 20 miles northeast of Seagraves.

Amerada's No. 2 W. O. Miller was completed this week for a calculated 1,031.52 barrels of 43.7-gravity oil. The potential was based on an actual seventeen-hour flow of 730.67 barrels of oil. Three-tenths per cent basic sediment and water was made with the oil.

Flow was measured through a three-eighth-inch choke.

Pressure on casing was zero and on tubing 500 pounds. Gas volume was measured at 478,000 cubic feet per day. The gas-oil ratio was 463-1. Total depth of the new well is at 8,560 feet in the Wolfcamp.

Location of the No. 2 Miller is 660 feet from west and south lines of the northeast quarter of section 6, block C-37, psl survey.

Hockley Ropes Area Gets Oiler, Drillsite

Honolulu Oil Corporation and Signal Oil & Gas Company have completed one prospector and staked location for another in the Ropes-Pennsylvania area of Southeast Hockley County.

Their No. 1 A. O. Monroe is to be drilled as a one-location west offset to the No. 2 Hopper, which reported the completion.

Location of the new exploration is 694 feet from south and east lines of labor 7, league 5, Wilbarger County school land survey. That makes it five miles south of Smyer.

The No. 1 Monroe is to be drilled to around 9,500 feet to test the regular pay of the field.

Honolulu and Signal potentialed their No. 2 Hopper for a 24-hour flow of 1,816 barrels of oil. Choke size was unreported.

Gas-oil ratio on the test was 224-1. Hole is bottomed at 9,380 feet. No other details are available on the completion test.

The No. 2 Hopper is 694 feet from south and west lines of labor 8, league 5, Wilbarger County school land.

C-E Crane Indicator Gets More Oil Shows

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Hallie C. Day, et al, Central-East Crane County wildcat continues to find shows of oil and gas in the Devonian.

The latest indication of possible production was in a drillstem test at 7,680-7,710 feet. The tool was open three hours and 30 minutes.

Gas surfaced in one hour and 15 minutes. There was no gauge or estimate on the gas volume.

Recovery was 330 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud. There were no signs of formation water.

Operator is to drill deeper. If and when more oil and gas signs show in the samples another drillstem test will be run.

The first shows of oil and gas in this prospector came in a drillstem test at 7,650-80 feet. The tester was open two hours and 35 minutes. Gas surfaced in one hour and 30 minutes. Recovery was 330 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud.

This prospector is five miles southwest of the town of Crane and 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 15, block X, CCSD and RGNG survey.

It is a stepout from a dry hole Humble drilled on Cowden land about two years ago which had some interesting shows of oil in the Devonian. Those shows could not be developed for commercial production and the wildcat was abandoned.

Unofficial sources say that the No. 1 Day is high, structurally, to the Cowden dry hole.

Application Is Filed For Tom Green Test

Aurora Gasoline Company of Tulsa filed application with the Railroad Commission of Texas asking permission to drill a 5,000-foot rotary wildcat in Southeast Tom Green County one and three-quarter miles east of the Susan Peak multipay field.

The test will be No. 1 Mrs. Mona Green Kent and will be located 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 197, block 11, SPRR survey, on a 240-acre lease.

It will be on a farmout from Seaboard to Dan Auld that was secured by Charles W. Shelton of San Angelo and turned to Aurora.

Empire Drilling Company is contractor.

Exploration Slated For N-C Schleicher

Hiawatha Oil & Gas Company will drill a wildcat in North-Central Schleicher County, two and three-quarter miles northwest of the recently opened Hulldale-Strawn field.

The prospector will be drilled as the No. 1 Forest Runge, 660 feet from south and west lines of section 66, block M, GH&SA survey.

Projected destination of the prospector is 6,500 feet.

Drillsite is on a 960-acre spread farmed out by George W. Strake of Houston.

Failure In Crockett Is To Be Abandoned

Murphy H. Baxter No. 1 E. H. Hunt, Central Crockett County wildcat, was preparing to plug and abandon at total depth of 3,537 feet.

Operator recovered 30 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil or gas on a one-hour drillstem test from 3,512-37 feet in the Clear Fork.

Location of the No. 1 Hunt is 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 2, block 1, GC&SF survey and nine miles southwest of Ozona.

Norwood Abandons Tester In Dawson

Norwood Drilling Company and others have plugged and abandoned their No. 1 Fritz C. Vogler, wildcat in South-Central Dawson County eight miles south of Lamesa, as a failure in Pennsylvanian shale.

The abandoned hole is bottomed at 10,203 feet. The last drillstem test reported was taken at 10,100-203 feet. Recovery was 30 feet of drilling mud with no show of oil, gas or water.

Exact location of the failure is at the center of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 2, block 36, T-4-N, T&P survey.

Lynn Prospector Is Plugged, Abandoned

Placid Oil Company No. 1 Holland, Northeast Lynn County wildcat, was plugged and abandoned as a failure at total depth of 9,012 feet in Pennsylvanian lime.

The prospector drilled through the Strawn where salt water was developed on a drillstem test at 8,812-45 feet.

The well was originally drilled to 4,107 feet by W. E. Dunigan of Midland and abandoned there as a failure. Placid took the project and deepened it to its present bottom.

Location is 330 feet from north and east lines of section 13, block J, GW&TP survey.

Wasson Operators To Meet In Midland

An informal conference will be held for operators of the Wasson, Wasson 66 and Wasson 72 fields of Yoakum and Gaines Counties in the county court room of the Midland County Court House at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

"This is not a hearing but an informal conference to see whether or not the operators can get together and arrive at some plan that would be of benefit to the Wasson fields," J. L. Greer, deputy supervisor of Railroad Commission of Texas' District 8 office, said.

Jack K. Baumel, chief engineer for the RRC, will conduct the conference.

AIME To Hold Joint Meeting In Lubbock

The annual joint meeting of Texas Local Sections of the American Institute of Mining & Metallurgical Engineers will be held at Texas Technological College in Lubbock, Friday and Saturday.

All local sections in Texas and three student chapters will be represented. Texas Tech Student Chapter will be host.

Speakers at the two-day session will include: Dr. D. M. Wiggins, President, Texas Technological College, Lubbock; D. A. Hulcy, President, Lone Star Gas Company, Dallas; Harold L. Hensley, Humble Oil & Refining Company; Max K. Watson, Natural Gas Consultant, Amarillo; H. W. Hinkle, Stanolind Oil & Gas Company, Lubbock; T. C. Williams, Jr., Honolulu Oil Corporation, Midland; David B. Schultz, George P. Livermore, Inc., Lubbock; George A. Whetstone, Texas Technological College, Lubbock; and Waldo L. Grossman, Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company, Midland.

Technical Papers

Other activities besides the discussion sessions will include a competition in the presentation of technical papers by student representatives of The University of Texas, Texas A&M College, and Texas Technological College.

A banquet also will be held Friday evening with Doyle McClennon, president of the Texas Tech chapter, as toastmaster. The principal address of the banquet will be delivered by General Earnest O. Thompson, Railroad Commission of Texas.

Committee Chairman

Chairman of the committees making the arrangements for the meeting include: Alden S. Donnelly, Honolulu Oil Corporation, Midland, chairman program committee; W. L. Ducker, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, chairman arrangements committee; C. R. Bowen, Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation, Amarillo, and H. E. Chiles, Jr., The Western Company, Midland, chairmen of the publicity committee; R. C. Tucker, George P. Livermore, Inc., Lubbock, chairman entertainment committee, and Phillip Johnson, Texas Tech, Lubbock, chairman registration committee.

National Council Of Churches Created By 29 Denominations

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The National Council of the Churches of Christ—manifesting "the essential oneness" of 29 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox churches—was born Wednesday.

Formal formation of the council, which will coordinate the work of 31,183,227 communicants, came at mid-morning in Cleveland's giant auditorium.

Allies Flee—

Arthur's proclaimed "end-the-war" offensive only six days ago.

The offensive stalled after two days when United Nations forces ran into masses of surging Chinese Communists.

There was hope of salvaging enough Allied manpower and material to set up a Winter defense line and hold off the Chinese somewhere in North Korea.

Military authorities considered such a defense could hold with Allied superiority in the air and in firepower against Chinese who had depended at the outset on the swarming weight of their lightly armed foot soldiers. Now Red tanks are reported in battle.

There was no indication on the battlefronts or in UN or Western diplomatic capitals that the Red Chinese would be stopped by negotiations.

An end sweep by the Red Chinese hordes, through the Tokchon gap torn on the right flank when three South Korean divisions crumpled, had threatened to trap the four Allied divisions north of the Chongchon River.

Withdrawal Orderly

Lambert said it was hoped the last troops of the two divisions in the Kunu sector would be across the river by nightfall.

He described the withdrawal as orderly and without panic.

Lambert said he left Kunu, eastern anchor of the shrunken northwest front, at 4 p.m. He said it was doubtful if the city, south of the river, could be held long.

Eighth Army Headquarters said Wednesday night: "The situation in the Kunu area is confused." It reported Communist tanks rumbling on the road center from the west.

Lambert said Chinese attacks from the northeast and east seriously threatened Kunu.

U. S. Second Division elements fought an eight-mile delaying action into the town, blasting through strong Communist ambushes and flanking attacks.

Five miles south of Kunu, the UN Turkish Brigade repulsed a night attack and dug in on defensive positions. Earlier it had fought its way with bayonets out of a Red Chinese trap farther east.

A Turk liaison officer who fought through to American lines early Wednesday with remnants of his platoon said his commanding general had been wounded. The general was not identified.

GI's Mauled Badly

AP Correspondent William J. Waugh, with the U. S. Ninth Corps, said the U. S. Second and 25th Divisions were mauled badly.

The retreat was carried out in near-zero weather.

Helicopters shuttled back and forth removing the seriously wounded from the front.

UN forces held virtually nothing east of Kunu. Contact with the U. S. 10th Corps in Northeast Korea was broken.

Besides the frontal attacks along the Chongchon, the Chinese were throwing at least three columns behind the Allied forces there.

These were streaking in from the east. The Eighth Army rushed up tanks and troops in an effort to hold open a corridor to Pyongyang, the former Red Korean capital, less than 50 miles to the south.

Midland—

tion 36, including the Greenwood and East Front Additions, east of the Moody Addition, are included in the proposed ordinance.

The remainder of Loma Linda Addition, all of Sun Garden Village, and 40 acres north of Morningside Addition—all in Northeast Midland—also are included. Field notes describing the boundaries of the tracts proposed for annexation are listed in a legal notice appearing in this issue.

Not Included

Wallace Heights, to the northwest, which earlier this year voted down a proposed plan of incorporating as a municipality, is not affected by the proposed city ordinance, which was recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission. John Hills and R. D. (Bob) Scruggs of the commission attended the Tuesday night session.

City Secretary J. C. Hudman, City Engineer K. E. McFarland and City Attorney John Perkins, also were present, as were C. G. Murray and Cecil Boles, who own properties in the affected areas.

The city last annexed new territory on Dec. 27, 1949, when 1,012 acres were brought into the corporate limits. Properties brought into the city limits would go on the city tax rolls January 1.

Upon final passage of the proposed ordinance, the corporate limits of the City of Midland will include 7,483 acres, including 1,670 acres at Midland Air Terminal.

The council recessed its Tuesday night meeting until 7:30 p.m. Thursday, when a re-zoning hearing will be held and routine business matters considered.

TO MOTHER'S BEDSIDE

C. Ed Prichard and Mrs. Agnes Park were called to Big Spring Tuesday because of the serious illness of their mother there.

Midland Lions Hear Recorded Address

Midland Lions Club members, at their regular meeting Wednesday noon in Hotel Scharbauer, heard a recording of an address, "The National Outlook," delivered by Robert P. Gerholz, president of the National Real Estate Association, at the recent convention of the Texas Real Estate Association.

Clarence E. Nelson, Lions Club secretary and president of the Midland Real Estate Board, was in charge of the program.

Roy Carter of Kermit, governor of District 8-T-2, Lions International, was a special guest at the meeting. He was to meet with the club's district convention committee following the luncheon.

Leon Cline, editor of the Midland High School Bulldog, a member of the school's A Cappella Choir and an honor roll student, was introduced by Charles F. Mathews as the Junior Lion of the week.

Vice President Kit Carson presided at the meeting in the absence of President C. Ed Prichard.

It's Official—

was too great and Santa Claus had to dismount at Missouri and Marienfeld Streets and continue his journey on the front fender of a shiny Midland Fire Department truck.

But it made no difference to the excited youngsters, hundreds of whom were held high by their parents so they could see the visiting celebrity.

Even 11-year-old Neal Mabee, who suffered a broken leg a few weeks ago in a traffic accident, was able to see Santa Claus.

Accompanied by his father, Louis Mabee, 1500 West Kansas Street, he was brought to town in a Newnie W. Ellis ambulance, from which he watched the festivities, parked at Loraine and West Wall Streets.

A couple of policemen cooperated by catching some of Santa's favors and bringing them to the youngsters.

The more than a score of floats were judged as they paraded along the 100 block of North Main Street. The judges were Allen J. Watts, H. D. Bushnell and O. J. Hubbard.

Besides the winners, the floats included those of the Church of the Nazarene, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Epsilon Alpha, Disabled American Veterans, the Jaycee-Ettes, Order of Eagles, First Baptist Church, Schlumberger, Lions Club and the Junior High School football team.

Police Chief Jack Ellington, who had his entire force on duty during the evening, reported an orderly crowd.

"There were no accidents," he said, "and only three or four children were lost. They quickly were reunited with their parents, however."

Weather Not Christmasy

The traditional Christmas weather was lacking but the spirit was there, as evidenced by the throngs who jammed the streets to get a glimpse of the parade and Santa Claus, as well as to view the many beautiful decorations in store windows and look for lucky numbers in the Treasure Hunt.

Long before the parade was to move streets were lined all along the route with persons of all ages. And by parade time the walks and curbs along the route were a mass of humanity.

Automobiles were parked several blocks in the residential area in all directions from the business section. Many persons who desired more choice parking places arrived before sundown.

Many observers said it was larger by far, than any former gathering for such an occasion.

The distribution of candy and favors was a gay, scrambling occasion with young and old taking part in the fun and festivities.

It was "Treasure Hunting" time. Again, perhaps the most popular attraction of the Christmas program was opening of the Treasure Hunt, sponsored by Midland merchants and businessmen.

The inviting display windows of more than 50 firms were unveiled at 6 p.m.

And citizens by the thousands walked past and looked into these windows at some time or other during the parade program.

In these windows were the treasures—gifts to customers by appreciative merchants.

The "treasures" proved to be just that. The range of gifts was wide. There were blankets, radios, record players, hosiery, costume jewelry, watches and many, many more offerings. Treasure Hunt ticket holders have until Saturday night to find and claim their treasures.

Participating in the Treasure Hunt are the following businesses: Angelo Luggage, Kruger's, Midland Hardware and Furniture, Johnson's, J. C. Penney Company, Barnes, F. W. Woolworth, Grammer-Murphey, City Drug, Perry Brothers, Wilson's, United, Dunlap's, S&Q, Caffey Appliance, Morrison's, Beauchamp's, Cash & Carry, Western Furniture, Nix Trading Post, Gillis-Hanks Furniture, McMullan's, T Paul Barron, Western Auto, Kinberg Studio, Palace Drug, Colbert's, Brooks' Stores, Basin Supply, Houck's Jewelry, Cameron Drug, Cruse Jewelry, Midland Drug, Wemple's, Hughes Jewelry, Gwyn's Printing, Fashion Salon, Virtue's, Haynes', Green Furniture, Hardwick-Stewart, The Bootery, Firestone Store, The Book Stall, Tailorfine, Stanford Furniture, Wes-Tex Food Market, White's Auto Stores, Pauline's, Vosatka's, Kiddies Toggery, Midland Studio, Franklin's and Woodford Drugs.

Official musical organizations for the 1950 Santa Claus parade were the Midland High School Band and the John M. Cowden Junior High Band.

cans in Trap—Gap Widens in Big Encirclement."

The Daily Express — "Acheson—Grave Warning."

The Daily Herald—"Truman Calls Crisis Council."

Much concern was shown in government and diplomatic quarters here. But one Western diplomat expressed the view the Chinese move probably was made only to produce a situation in which they could "now negotiate from strength."

'Can Europe Escape?'

In Paris, the independent Socialist "Combat" said the "Third world war has begun in the Far East between the United States and Communist China." It asked: "Can Europe escape catastrophe?"

The Liberal Stockholms-Tidningen, in the Swedish capital, said the "danger of a third world war has never been as great as now."

"Democratic leaders must keep cool heads to settle the situation. MacArthur has already proved he can't," the paper declared.

But another liberal Stockholm paper, Dagens Nyheter, editorially approved the U. S. charges of aggression by Red China.

"The dictator state does not allow volunteers into another state without deliberation," it said.

Terming the news from Korea "exceptionally grave," the independent Times of London said: "This latest stroke has set the United Nations in the field and at the council tables, a very serious problem which may be full of foreboding."

'Worsened Overnight'

London's liberal News Chronicle declared: "The international situation has been immeasurably worsened almost overnight by the deliberate, carefully prepared, but quite unprovoked intervention of Chinese Communists divisions in Korea."

The independent Conservative Daily Mail said: "What a tragedy it is that at this crucial moment Churchill is not at the head of our affairs. And by that we mean leader of the Western world."

British officials said they believed their government would oppose authorization for Gen. Douglas MacArthur to strike at Red Chinese bases in Manchuria. Britain, they added, wants to avoid involving UN forces in a war against China.

French Foreign Office circles contended a neutral zone should have been left on the Korean side of the Manchurian border as evidence to the Chinese that the UN had no aggressive intentions.

The Communist press was jubilant over the UN reverses. The Paris Ce Soir trumpeted "Washington envisages the bombing of China—a crime against peace is being prepared."

Dutch newspapers and government sources voiced chagrin over the whole UN attempt to drive to the Manchurian border.

Clary Granted Third Trial In Wife's Death

AUSTIN —(AP)— T. Clifton Clary Wednesday gained a third trial for murder of his wife when the Court of Criminal Appeals threw out his second conviction.

Clary now has secured reversals of convictions which carried sentences of 99 years and life imprisonment, respectively, in connection with the death of his schoolteacher wife, Odilia Clay, in a burning ranch house near Ballinger January 31, 1948.

Have You Waited Too Long?
NOT IF YOU WANT A BRICK HOME!

In many cases, Regulation "X" is not as bad as you might have thought. As an example, a down payment of about $2,500 is all you need in the purchase of one of the very nice brick homes now being built by The Boyce Company in Parklea Place. Several floor plans from which to choose YOUR NEW HOME!

PARKLEA ADDITION

Have you been out to this new addition recently to see the high type development in small homes? If not, drive out today! Over 50 brick homes are being laid out now for immediate construction, and will sell at prices ranging from $11,500 to $14,000, with only a small down payment of approximately $2,500. You should choose the house and the location from The Boyce Company immediately, as these homes will be sold before they are completed.

No doubt you have been waiting for a nice brick home, priced within your means. Contact The Boyce Company, or my field office on the addition. The home of your choice can be built and ready for occupancy by Christmas time.

Drive out any day to the field office on the ground, where a courteous salesman will explain and show you the plans and locations of these homes. You should not overlook this opportunity to buy that new brick home you have been wishing for. Contact the salesmen, Mr. Belcher, phone 3235; or Mr. Friberg, phone 3910 or 3712.

Extension Of Rent Curbs Hits Barrier

WASHINGTON —(AP)— President Truman's appeal for a stop-gap extension of the federal rent control law ran up against increasing "let it die" sentiment in Congress Wednesday.

Senator Maybank (D-SC), said, however, the critical turn of the war in Korea may help push through a brief continuance of the program.

Federal rent controls expire December 31 under the present law, except in communities which vote to keep them in effect for another six months. Truman has asked for a 90-day extension at the current short session, pending a new study of the issue next year by the 82nd Congress.

Chinese Reds At UN Have Privacy

NEW YORK —(AP)— Communist China's delegates to the United Nations have set up a little "Iron Curtain between themselves and the stares of curious New Yorkers.

The aloof Reds have maintained a maximum of privacy since their arrival in the United States Friday.

They have done no sightseeing and have spurned the dining rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, having their meals sent to their rooms instead.

A special elevator is held in reserve for them at the hotel — to minimize the posibility of such incidents as face-to-face meetings with Americans who have lost relatives in the Korean war. A room at each end of their suite is kept vacant to foil possible eavesdroppers.

The Aswan dam in Egypt was begun in 1898.

School Land Lease Bids To Be Opened Tuesday, December 5

AUSTIN —(AP)— Sealed bids on 410,000 acres of public school lands will be opened here December 5.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

Jer. 51:58 (Moffatt); Rom. 6:16—33; II Cor. 7:8—12

PAIN IS GOD'S PREVENTIVE GRACE

Christianity survived the worst thing that could happen to it, namely, the death of its Founder, and turned that worst thing that could happen to its into the best thing that could happen to the world. It redeemed the world through a catastrophe. A faith that can do that has survival value, and will outlast all the shallow-rooted, surface philosophies of life. Nothing less than that kind of a philosophy of life can stand up to life.

We can see why God allows pain—it is His preventive grace. Had there been no pain in the world, we should not have survived as a race. For instance, were there no pain attached to disease, we should probably allow disease to eat on—it doesn't hurt, so why bother? But pain stabs us broad awake and says: "Look out—there is something wrong here; attend to it." Pain is God's red flag run up to warn of underlying lurking danger. We can then thank God for pain.

But this we cannot do unless we can do something with pain other than bearing it stoically. Unless pain is working out to some end, it breaks us by its meaninglessness. That is why the prophet saw that "pagans waste their pains." (Jeremiah 51:58, Moffatt.) Those who live without the God-reference—the pagans—don't know what to do with pain; they waste it. Their pains end in mere dull, fruitless, meaningless suffering. It gets them nowhere. So much of the world's suffering is wasted. During 1914-18 we suffered dreadfully, and yet we wasted that world pain. The best that we could do with it was to coin it into the Versailles Treaty; and then we were back again, compelled to go through the whole miserable business once more. We may do the same thing with this present world pain unless we can transmute it into a determined purpose to make a new world out of it, so that war may never happen again. Only where we see redemption in pain can we have any release while in it—purposeless pain is paralyzing.

Christ, Thou master of the central pain, help us to master both the central and marginal pains. Help me to take hold of life when life is hard and impossible, and thus make life not only possible, but also full of possibilities. For the struggle is on—I am to master, or to be mastered. Help me to master, through Thee, O Master. Amen.

Southern Democrats Wage All-Out Fight To Prevent Passage Of Alaska Statehood Bill

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Southern Democrats, with strong Republican backing, waged an all-out fight in the Senate Wednesday to block the bill to grant statehood to Alaska.

President Truman has asked the short session of Congress to pass the bill and a companion Hawaiian measure, both passed by the House.

One Southerner, asking not to be named, told a reporter the dispute might endanger Truman's entire program for the session. The President has asked for rent control legislation and big defense appropriations, among other things, before this Congress expires January 3.

Senator Lucas (D-Ill), Democratic floor leader, called the fight a filibustering effort to talk the Alaska statehood bill to death. He voiced concern over its apparent proportions.

The anonymous Southern spokesman suggested that he saw little point in Senate committees working to draft rent control and other Administration measures if Administration forces planned to let statehood become a long-drawn fight.

No Hint Of Swap-Out

The Dixie leadership, however, gave no hint it might be thinking of offering to trade its support of Administration bills for abandonment of the statehood measure.

Southern senators long have objected to granting statehood to Alaska and Hawaii for a variety of reasons—among them a belief that any senators elected by the new states would be likely to link up with Northern supporters of civil rights bills.

To Lucas and many others the fight looked and sounded like the start of a filibuster—the ancient device of dragging out debate until the opposition wields.

But Senator Russell (D-Ga), quarterbacking a drive to block the measure, insisted "there is no organized filibuster." He conceded, however, that his forces planned a lot of debate" before even this first round of the battle ends.

At issue is whether to sidetrack pending legislation and let first the Alaskan and then the Hawaiian statehood bills come up for debate and a vote. Both bills will die automatically if they are not passed by January 3.

Senators generally take it for granted that the fate of the Alaska statehood bill is apt to be the fate also of the Hawaii measure.

Two Of Tennessee Convicts Still Free

MEMPHIS, TENN. —(AP)— Two of eight convicts who broke out of the Shelby County Penal Farm in a hail of bullets still were on the loose Wednesday.

But the intense search launched by law officers in the area had six of the men back behind bars Tuesday—including 21-year-old Norman E. Carter of Rockford, Ill., described as the ringleader.

Collectors' Award Is Fine, Jail Term

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— William L. Goodwin, real estate operator, was quite a collector: 114 assorted parking tickets in eight months.

And, police said, Goodwin successfully had evaded 60 warrants for his arrest, until last week, that is.

Tuesday, Municipal Judge Edward F. O'Day officially recognized Goodwin's super-collecting record with this citation:

"Five hundred dollar fine . . . and 30 days in jail."

At least 80 animal diseases also affect man.

Experts say eggs will keep longer when held at a temperature of 40 to 60 degrees in a room where the moisture content is fairly high.
