Kim King is queen of Texas tennis

Nazareth's two doubles teams are state runners-up

Kim King wrote a new chapter in Nazareth High School sports history Saturday when she battled her way to the state tennis championship in Class B girls' singles.

PLAYING ON the University of Texas courts in Austin, the blonde junior defeated two other regional champions to win Nazareth's first state title in athletics.

Meanwhile, NHS's boys' and girls' doubles teams fought their way into the championship matches before bowing in the finals and finishing as state runners-up.

Despite the fact that Celeste — a perennial state tennis contender — won both doubles championships, NHS finished with the highest point total in the tournament. With 15 points for a championship and 10 for a second place, Nazareth garnered 35 team points to Celeste's 30.

MISS KING started her state tourney climb by defeating Tivolia's Suzie Faris, 6-3, 6-4, Friday. In the finals Saturday she topped Forestburg's Carolyn Conway, 6-2, 6-3, for the championship. Miss Conway had defeated Celeste's Debora Henslee, last year's state runner-up, in the first round.

Nazareth's super sophs, Patti Hochstein and Delphine Wethington, won a tough match in the first round Friday, defeating LaPryor's Joy Bevel and Bobbie Walker, 6-4, 7-5, to advance to the championship match in girls' doubles.

THERE THEY found the defending state champions, senior Deborah Statzer and junior Sharon Gray of Celeste, waiting to test them. And there the young NHS team's sensational season ended with a 6-3, 6-4 loss which at least left them with high hopes for next year.

NHS's boys' doubles team — senior Richard Birkenfeld and sophomore Glen Ehly — had a tough climb throughout the state playoffs, but they almost pulled a state championship out of the hat before losing the final match.

The Nazareth boys' duo defeated Nueces Canyon's Norman DeLeon and Leslie Kramer, 6-1, 10-8 in a rugged opening match Friday.

IN THE FINALS, they gained a 5-4 advantage over Celeste's Mike Armstrong and Bobby Nix in the opening set, but let it slip away, losing 7-5. The Celeste team then took the second set, 6-4, to ice the championship.

"I didn't know whether to laugh or cry after it was over," Miss King said after winning the state championship.

She added, "I think Nazareth getting three teams into the state finals surprised everybody, especially Dad," referring to NHS's superintendent, tennis coach and her father, Joe King.

"DAD HELPED us a lot," she said. "He gave us the initiative, and he always evaluated us after a match and told us what we did wrong. And he encouraged us during a match. He put a lot of faith in us, and that helped our confidence."

How does a new contender in a state tournament manage to withstand the pressure and go all the way to the championship?

"I prayed, and that helped a lot in calming me down," Miss King said.

THE Nazareth youths' coach had this to say:

"I'm real proud of all the kids. I think they all did a fine job and played real well this year.

"The thing that helped as much as anything else was that the competition here (at Nazareth) just to be on the team was pretty tough, especially among the girls. These other kids pushed our state winners.

'We owe those kids a lot of thanks, along with the other people who supported us and helped send us to state."

'Slough Street' to be dedicated on WTSU campus

A street on the WTSU campus will be dedicated Saturday morning as Russell Slough Street in honor of the Dimmitt man who died in the Vietnam conflict.

THE STUDENT Senate has declared Saturday WTSU Honored Veterans' Day. Eleven campus streets will be named in honor of former WTSU students who died in Vietnam.

Street signs will be erected in ceremonies at 10:45 a.m. A luncheon honoring representatives of the veterans' families is set for noon in the East Dining Hall.

Capt. Slough, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Slough of Dimmitt, received his degree from WTSU in 1967. He was a 1962 graduate of Dimmitt High School. A member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity, he served in Korea in 1967-1968 and in Vietnam from 1969 until he was killed in action in 1970.

HE RECEIVED the Silver Star, a Bronze Star with V device and two oak leaf clusters.

A plaque engraved with the names of all former students killed in the Vietnam conflict will be placed in the Activities Center on campus.

Funding for the project has been university-wide, with the Greek organizations responsible for corresponding with the veterans' families and serving as hosts for families when they visit the campus.

Woman loses arm in mishap

Fidencia Maya of Hart remained in critical condition in the intensive care unit in Lubbock's Methodist Hospital Wednesday morning.

SHE WAS injured on a farm northwest of Hart Monday evening after her shirt became entangled in a spinning bar on a "rod weeder."

Mrs. Maya received massive lacerations on the left side and scalp and lost her left arm when the revolving bar pulled her under the sweeps attached to the implement.

Wamon Foster, on whose farm the woman was employed, was working nearby and pulled her from the implement minutes after the accident occurred.

HE RUSHED her to Plains Memorial Hospital, leaving the tractor running. An Olton ambulance driver turned the tractor off when he got to the scene.

After receiving emergency treatment in Dimmitt, Mrs. Maya was transferred to Methodist Hospital by Dennis Ambulance Service.

Foster said she had apparently gotten from the tractor to clean mud from the sweeps and had left the tractor and power take-off, which powers the bar, running. She apparently bent over and her sleeve or shirt entangled around the square bar.

Dimmitt, Nazareth schools slate follow-up clinic next Thursday

The Dimmitt and Nazareth school districts have scheduled a follow-up immunization clinic next Thursday for school and pre-school children.

THE TEXAS State Dept. of Health will conduct the clinic at South Elementary School from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be no charge for any of the immunizations.

Vaccines to be given are against polio, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, measles and rubella. Immunization against all these diseases is now required for school children.

Children who have received the first or second doses of polio or DPT vaccine should have additional doses to complete the initial series of immunizations. Health Dept. officials urge that infants start the initial series at two months of age.

SHATTERED DREAM—Grimacing in pain and gasping for breath, a disappointed Bobby Finch of Hart is helped from the track by a fellow runner after the finals of the state Class A 440-yard dash in Austin Saturday. DHS cops four state titles

FOUR OF the young craftsmen captured state championships in three individual categories at the Texas Industrial Arts Fair in Austin Friday and Saturday, and the DHS Industrial Arts Club won top honors again with a vehicle project.

In the written exam in power mechanics, the statewide competition came down to a first-place tie between two DHS students — sophomore Frank Ethington and junior Tommy Cleavinger.

The two youths are students of G. L. DuBose and Denton Lingle in separate sections of power mechanics. Each youth posted the top state score in his level, then they tied in score for division honors. State judges awarded a championship plaque to each boy.

Ethington is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ethington. Cleavinger's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cleavinger.

ARTHUR WOOLEVER, a senior, repeated as the state champion in the written exam in architecture, and placed second in the state in commercial architecture plans with his design for a field house and stadium facilities. He is the son of Mr.

4-H'ers schedule auction Saturday

The Dimmitt 4-H Club will hold an auction Saturday at 1:30 p.m. on the courthouse lawn.

Donations of anything of value will be accepted for auction. Items will be picked up, if the donor will telephone 647-5267.

Money from the project will be used for the state 4-H Center, under construction at Brownwood.

Drillers reduce charge to city

The Dimmitt City Commission received a 10 percent adjustment on the bill for its deep-well test hole after voicing complaints on incomplete results Monday night.

Commissioners talked with Bill Wall, drilling supervisor, about the incomplete results and drilling problems on the test hole to locate a deep water source under Dimmitt.

WALL SAID the bill, a total of $3,966.50 for the 1,170-ft. test, would be reduced by 10 percent because of the incomplete results obtained on water samples and logs.

Commissioners called a meeting of the city zoning commission to consider re-zoning of Lots 1-2-3, Block 113 and the proposed garage sale ordinance.

City Manager E. B. Noble told the commission that June 20 was the deadline to file a proposed expenditure report on the revenue sharing money due the first half of 1973.

THE COMMISSION okayed the purchase of a new fire truck and a police car with the estimated $33,639 of revenue sharing money.

One police car was included in the 1973-74 city budget, adopted in April. The additional money will allow the city to purchase another police unit to replace older cars now in operation.

The new fire truck, expected to cost $30,000, will be added to increase the city's fire protection as required under state fire insurance regulations.

IN OTHER business, the commissioners:

— Passed an ordinance repealing the remaining paving assessment program ordinances and allowing the mayor to terminate the paving contract.

— Agreed to participate 10 percent in the cost of paving Sixteenth Street by Dimmitt High School. Estimated cost of the project is $11,002.84. The school will pay the balance of the project costs.

— Postponed action on a petition asking for a junk car ordinance for the city. Commis-

CAR IN WHICH HART MAN DIED
. . . Four trapped inside by high-voltage wire

Car-pole crash kills Hart man

A Hart man was killed and four passengers were trapped inside when his car struck a utility pole and a high-voltage wire wrapped around it north of Hart Saturday morning.

John Tenoria Martinez, 25, of Hart was declared dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Elvon DeVaney.

THE ACCIDENT was discovered by Deputy Sheriff Granville Martin of Hart, who had been called out on a disturbance charge involving Martinez.

Martin found the car 1½ miles north of Hart on an unpaved county road. He said Martinez was thrown clear of the car on impact.

After assuring the trapped passengers — a woman and two children — that help was coming, Martin advised them not to move in the car because of the high-voltage wire that had broken and wrapped itself around the vehicle.

IT WAS nearly an hour before Southwestern Public Service Co. personnel could cut the wire and release the passengers, Martin reported.

Martinez's wife had somehow escaped from the car and walked into Hart. She was returned to the accident scene by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black.

Martin said he had received a call Saturday morning at 2:45, requesting him to investigate a family disturbance.

MARTIN FOUND the family and car gone when he arrived at the farm house. The farmer told Martin the family had driven off to the south. He found the accident scene half a mile from the farm house.

Assisting with the investigation were Highway Patrolmen Dyrle Maples and Bill Scott and Hart City Marshall Don Elliott.

Millers and Carpenters tour South Texas and Mexico

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Goodwin and Jeannie Miller and R. N. and Ann Carpenter are home from a good trip to South Texas. They stopped at LBJ Lake a few days, on to Johnson City to see the old home of President Lyndon B. Johnson, then south to the valley, one night at McAllen, Del Rio, crossed the River there into Mexico. On to Brownsville, that is the south tip of Texas. Of course across the River to Matamoros, a very interesting old border town with very narrow streets, and a nice court square. Then back through the Valley Northeast. Goodwin says the maize there is booting out. Ours is not even planted yet. They attended church at Kingsville, then on to San Antonio, across the hill country to home on the Plains. The rains were fairly steady across the South.

OTHER SOUTH Texas visitors were Lemuel and Gladys Leeth who are home from a week's stay in Houston where they visited daughter Sandra and family. They celebrated Gladys' birthday with a party and a baseball game at the Astrodome. So many things to see in Houston, the Battleship Texas, NASA, the planet study people.

"As Hands Touch Hands" was the theme at May Fellowship Day, Friday at the Holy Family Church at Nazareth.

Mrs. Anthony Acker was the leader. She quotes from a wonderful woman of God, St. Teresa of Avila, who 400 years ago in Spain said, "Christ has no body now on Earth but yours, yours are the eyes through which looks out Christ's compassion on the world, yours are the feet He uses to go doing good. Yours are the 'Hands' with which God blesses us now."

Father Stanley presented the meditation. He says, "As the eyes are the mirror of the soul, so your hands are the mirror of your heart. Let us be careful what our hands do." Use your talents, painting, writing, talking for the Glory of God. Eight ladies from Dimmitt attended the fellowship. The Nazareth ladies served a salad dinner with a social hour.

The group song was. "One Woman's Hands". It is good to meet people from our Castro County towns. The money collected will go to the Sattelite School to be used to help the children.

A Crown for Mother

You, as a Mother, are honored by your children on a special day — Mother's Day. How the little things they make for you with their own small hands please you and warm your heart.

It warms and quickens the heart of God when you honor Him on His special day. "Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy." Exodus 20:8. Worship God on this next Sunday in the church of your choice. We should honor our loving Heavenly Father even as we expect our children to honor us.

Attend church on Mother's Day.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH ... THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

MEXICO BASS—Ralph Glover of Dimmitt shows four samples of the bass fishing which his party experienced on a trip last week to El Novilla Lake in Sonora, Mexico, 175 miles south of Douglas, Ariz. These four lunkers ranged in size from five to six pounds. In one memorable day, Glover's party caught 43 largemouths that weighed 103 pounds. Glover said the best-producing lures were plastic worms, Hellbenders and Bombers.

V.F.W. NEWS

By GERALD BROADSTREET

Greetings Comrades.

I apologize for not having my column last week, but I have a good excuse. My wife and I drove to Garland, and participated in Charles Cannon Jr. Day. Comrade Cannon is Commander of the Department of Texas VFW.

There were many dignitaries on hand for this event including state representatives, city officials and past and present Dept. of Texas VFW officers. Special guest was National Senior Vice Commander-in-chief, Ray R. Soden of Bensenville, Ill.

Comrade Soden praised our organization for the progress we've made in the past few years and men like Charles Cannon Jr. contributed to our growth and prestige.

Prior to going to Garland, Charles Wilkerson and I had the pleasure of going to Clarendon Post 7111. We had a most enjoyable visit and I must say their Commander, J. D Little, is doing a most wonderful job. Clarendon is a small post, but they are active and growing and we are proud to have them in District 13.

WE HAD our Loyalty Day activities at the post home last Tuesday morning. Commencing at 7 a.m. we served coffee and doughnuts. At 7:30 we had the flag raising ceremonies, and at 8 o'clock we closed the post home to go to our jobs. A special "Thanks" to radio station KDHN for announcing this event for us, playing patriotic music throughout the day, and making this event the success it was.

Most of you know that we did have a minor problem with our new paving at the post home. Well, it has been taken care of and we can utilize the whole lot for parking now. This means we will have our "Game Night" activities this Wednesday night, starting time is 8:30. So ya'll come on out and have an evening of fun and excitement. Be sure to bring a friend or neighbor with you, as they'll enjoy it too, I'm sure.

Comrades, our regular meeting would have been Monday, but our 1973-74 officers were installed to their new stations. The regular business was dispensed with until a later date. The business session will be Monday night, May 14, at 8 p.m. Mark it on your calendar and make a point to be there. We need you.

SPEAKING OF meetings, our District 13 Convention in Childress Post 2512 was most successful and we had a big delegation from Dimmitt. Those attending were Ned and Thelma Smith, Harold and Laura Broadstreet, Ted and Sylvia Stubblefield, Bob and Earlene West, Gerald and Karen Siebold, Reese Kesler, Florene Leinen, Lurline Pope, Mildred Leinen and my wife, Linda, and I.

Our post really brought home the honors this time. Would you believe — I was elected to serve as District Commander and Florene Leinen was elected District President of the Ladies Auxiliary! I am so thrilled and overwhelmed, I just can't get over it. Ted Stubblefield was re-elected to District Quartermaster. Harold Broadstreet was appointed to serve as Chairman of the Safety Committee.

In the Ladies Auxiliary my wife, Linda, was elected secretary-treasurer of District 13. Sylvia Stubblefield will be the historian and district color bearers will be Thelma Smith, Lurline Pope, Laura Broadstreet and Mildred Leinen.

THAT'S NOT all, Comrades. Our post won the "Traveling Plaque" for having the most members present. This is the first time it has been awarded to our post since it was instituted in 1961.

The Ladies Auxiliary was awarded the District Attendance Award for 1972-73. This being for having the largest total attendance at the district conventions this past year.

One other thing, it was voted in Childress that Dimmitt will host the next district convention to be held in August. Let's keep this in mind and make an all out effort to present a program that will be remembered long after it's over.

I would like to mention that our good comrades in Childress really made us feel welcome with their warm friendly attitude and I'm looking forward to working with them.

THERE IS no right to strike against the public safety by anybody, anywhere, any time. — Calvin Coolidge

Tech graduation will be Saturday

Approximately 1,900 spring graduates of Texas Tech University will receive their degrees in commencement exercises to be conducted at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

MORE THAN 2,000 others who completed requirements for their degrees in August and December 1972 have been invited to participate in the commencement program.

The spring list includes approximately 230 master's and doctoral degree candidates and 75 law degree candidates.

The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. Frederick P. Thieme, president of the University of Colorado at Boulder. Texas Tech President Grover E. Murray will confer the degrees and introduce the speaker. Dr. Glenn E. Barnett, executive vice-president, will be master of ceremonies.

Lions approve benevolences

In their monthly business meeting last week, the Dimmitt Lions approved the purchase of eyeglasses for an elementary school girl and voted to send money to CARE to help pay for a new school in the Honduras.

EYEGLASSES for the girl were the 17th pair approved by the Lions this school year. The club pays for eyeglasses for underprivileged students as part of its Sight Conservation program.

The donation to CARE was made in conjunction with other Lions clubs throughout the state to help build the new school.

Among the 30 relatives were their other daughter, Felicia Applewhite of Lockney, and a son, Calvin W. Applewhite of Pasadena. The honorees have two grandchildren — Jack Applewhite, who will graduate this spring from Texas University, and Andis, a student at San Jacinto College in Houston.

The view from your library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

Our community has been saddened by several deaths in the last few days. Many people have given money to the library as a memorial to these friends, and we appreciate it so much. The Loudder family gave three microfilms to the Genealogical Society as a memorial to a loved one. Some have given new books in memory of some of their friends. We would like for more of you to use this service of the library.

LIBRARY BOARD members met with the architects again last week and selected colors for some of the new furniture for the new library. This is an exciting time and we are anxious for the building to be completed. We hope we will have enough money for lots of new books. Have you given your donation yet? We have had one more family (the John Merritts) bring their generous donation to the library.

We had two new readers helping with the Children's Story Hour Friday. Pat Day and Melba Sanders said they really enjoyed reading to the nine boys and girls, directing games and leading songs. And the children enjoyed it too — they were unusually quiet during Story Hour. The small number could have made the difference since we usually have 20 or 25 and Friday there were only nine.

When Scott Hill said his prayers one night he had "blessed" everyone and he finished by thanking God for the new library. Scott, we are thankful for it, too!

INTERESTING PEOPLE in the library: Mrs. Madge Robb is always so kind to come to the library and help us with any of our problems concerning the genealogical section .... Beral Hance has been quite ill but is better now and well enough to bring the Hereford Brand by the library .... Mrs. Ginny Lapins and her two daughters, who have moved here from Arizona .... Catherine Vardell came in to get a book for her mother, Mrs. Catherine Easter, who is in South Hills Manor nursing home .... Jeanie Hamilton is home from college and has been in to check out some books ....

More donating books: Sandra Bagwell, Randall and Genell Craig, and the Curtis Snitkers gave a book in appreciation for being named the Library Family of the Year.

Clayton urges new tax basis for farm land

Farm and ranch lands would be assessed on the basis of their value when used for raising livestock or crops, if a resolution introduced into the legislature Wednesday is adopted.

STATE Representative Bill Clayton co-sponsored the resolution, which proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the assessment of surface value of certain farm and ranch lands.

No timber or recreational lands would be included under the amendment. Only lands which are used for the raising of livestock or the production of agricultural products would be affected, Clayton said.

The resolution would affect the overall picture of economy in the entire state, said Clayton, who claims that taxing of lands at their market value is forcing people to sell farm and ranch lands and move to the cities. The continuing result of such assessment will be higher and higher prices on agricultural products, he added.

Clayton said that present trends seem to be forcing the state toward assessing all lands on their market value, and would result in tax increases which would be impossible for many ranchers and farmers to meet.

Energy crisis will be felt here by September, fuel experts say

The real impact of a fuel shortage will be felt by Great Plains farmers by September, according to fuel experts in a conference at the University of Nebraska April 10-11, attended by Jack King, research director of Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

LOCALIZED shortages may be felt before September, the experts said, and fuel for irrigation could be critical in certain areas during peak pumping periods.

"The energy crisis is real," said James West, principle advisor on fuels and energy at the Department of the Interior. "We may be hard pressed to supply fuel and energy requirements this year."

An increase in farm fuel storage capacity was urged by both federal and oil industry spokesmen at the conference, who warned that diesel supplies will be tight.

IRRIGATION producers using both natural gas and butane should check with suppliers and make arrangements for stand-by fuels, according to natural gas officials. And they added that some curtailment of natural gas is likely in peak pumping periods.

The fuel shortage has been developing since 1967 partly because Congress has not heeded warnings from government and industry fuel spokesmen, the experts concluded.

"The gasoline shortage is caused by lack of refinery capacity and by the emission control systems on cars," said Granville Garside, special counsel to the Senate Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs.

"Diesel fuel will be short because our refineries are producing gasoline which has a higher profit return," Garside continued. He added that while diesel will be short it probably will be available at least until September, but farmers may have to search out supply sources.

Fuel shortages could continue for the next several years unless some leadership and proper planning emerges soon, the experts warned. They recommended the establishment of a National Energy Commission, incentives for industry to find new sources of oil and gas, and a more realistic approach to environmental problems.

GSPA has contacted authorities about the energy crisis on the farm, encouraging them to make sure fuel is available now to produce food required by the American consumer at a realistic price.

STORE MILK and milk products below 40 degrees F. — preferably around 36 degrees F. A five-degree raise in temperature reduces storage life by half, warns Karen Kreipke, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

State officials move to prevent shortage of LPG

Orders from the Texas Railroad Commission, in reaction to a resolution passed by the legislature last week, has brought action of interest to those facing shortages of liquefied petroleum gas in exas.

THE COMMISSION used a little known statute, set-out in the resolution co-sponsored by State Rep. Bill Clayton, to halt plans of an out-of-state oil company from buying the entire output of three refineries near Breckenridge, Eastland and Cisco and sending the gas out of the state.

The statute puts no hardships on the local plants, Clayton said, for a Texas market is readily available. It just emphasizes that Texans shall get first call on the state's own products and gives them the chance to do so, Clayton said.

The railroad commission also stopped Skelly Oil Co. from closing a distribution point in Howard County which sells four million gallons of LPG annually to 850 customers. The plant, located at Sand Springs, has operated for 17 years. The railroad commission said it was acting to maintain a supply of gas for the West Texas area under a law directing it to protect the public from losing petroleum supplies.

Clayton said the fuel situation in Texas is critical, and rationing began last December to keep heat in homes, schools, cotton gins, tractors, oil rigs, and for other users of gas. Further cuts due this month will affect a million people in rural homes if the railroad commission does not move quickly, Clayton added.

Why is farm debt at record high?

"Widespread concern over food prices, less farm price support, and a possible cut in federal funds for agricultural research and extension all mean that Texas agriculture faces its greatest challenge in the years just ahead," said Dr. John Hopkin.

HOPKIN HAS just been appointed head of the Texas A&M University Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology, according to Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of the College of Agriculture.

"Hopkin is one of the nation's leading academic figures in agricultural finance and was selected after nationwide consideration of many candidates," Kunkel noted. "We believe he can give the department the intellectual leadership needed for outstanding growth and development."

Hopkin, in accepting the appointment said, "Farmers and ranchers are called on to produce more and more food and fiber but to hold down the prices they ask for their products. Yet they're caught in a flood of rising prices for everything they buy to produce that product.

"FARM DEBT is at a record high, in spite of higher prices," noted Hopkin, who served 12 years with Bank of America in San Francisco. "Farm debt last year increased nearly as much as the total farm indebtedness in 1964 ($7.6 billion) for a total farm debt of more than $70 billion.

"Why has farm debt increased 2½ times its magnitude of just a decade ago? And why, with record farm income, did farm debt increase so strongly this past year? There are several reasons, of course, but most fall into two broad categories.

"First, the capital investment per worker in agriculture has risen sharply in recent decades and is now twice what it is for many other industries. This has been mandatory to remain competitive. One farmer now feeds 51 people.

"SECONDLY, FARM families are saving less and are starting to live better, although farm income is still only 80 percent of that of the urban worker. Instead of living a 'get-by' existence and plowing every spare dollar back in farming, they've begun to spend more income on the good things all of us enjoy. And this has meant that increasingly, as costs went up and savings went down, agriculture has had to borrow money.

"Now what's our main concern? It's not the amount of debt as much as its form. Far too much of it is short term debt. We foresee, if present trends continue, a very real problem with agricultural finance. To agricultural producers and their financial backers alike, I would make two suggestions:

"First, far too many low and poor yielding investments are still being made in agriculture, tieing up large volumes of capital with very low turnover and cash flow. Farmers look to their lenders as their primary financial advisors who should help them avoid poor investments.

"MY SECOND suggestion relates to the maturity of farm loans. There are far too many loans drawn to mature before the cash is generated by the activity being financed. A producer shouldn't have to pay off a loan before selling the crop he borrowed money to produce and market. Financing of depreciable assets is another problem. Annual loans for purchasing farm machinery are barely defensible. Even 36 months is too short a time, five years in most instances is more realistic," concluded Hopkin.

Hopkin, who has served as Stiles Professor of Agricultural Finance at A&M, will succeed Dr. Tyrus R. Timm who will continue teaching and research work. The new department head will also be a part of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Girls honor 'secret grandmothers'

By Mrs. Florance Albracht

The FHA girls entertained their secret grandmothers, mothers and friends Tuesday evening in the cafetorium. The sophomore girls styled the outfits they had made and also one or more for either their little sisters, brothers or friends. Then in a pretty garden scene they styled their play clothes. After this the secret grandmothers were revealed with gifts for all. Punch and cake made by the girls were served and enjoyed by all.

About 30 women came for the gathering and enjoyed pot luck lunch together.

Hospital Week proclaimed here

Plains Memorial Hospital will join the nation's more than 7,000 hospitals in a National Hospital week celebration to honor the three million persons employed in health care institutions.

DIMMITT Mayor Elmer Youts proclaimed May 6-12 as National Hospital Week here.

In his proclamation, he paid tribute to the "dedicated people of this community who provide skilled and compassionate health care to our citizens, both inside and outside the hospital walls."

Verle L. West, administrator of Plains Memorial Hospital, explained that the theme for the week is, "Your Hospital . . . A Caring Community — Your Health . . . Our Common Concern."

WEST SAID the goal of National Hospital Week is to focus attention on how the people who work in our nation's hospitals are meeting the changing and challenging health care needs of the American people.

"With increasing public concern about the quality, availability and costs of health care, the employees of Plains Memorial Hospital are a community of caring people, who are concerned about bringing better health care to more people as efficiently as possible," West said.

For example, he said, 25 nurses at Plains Memorial Hospital are attending a nine-week cardiac care course to improve their nursing skills.

IN 1920, leaders in the health field established a National Hospital Day that marked the 100th anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, the woman credited with establishing the modern profession of nursing. In 1953, National Hospital Day was extended to the week-long event now observed.

Rate hike sought on wholesale gas

El Paso Natural Gas Co. has asked the Federal Power Commission for authority to increase its rates to wholesale customers on its Southern Division to compensate for higher costs in providing natural gas service.

The increase is termed necessary because of higher costs of borrowed capital, labor, materials, supplies, taxes, and the unavailability of domestic sources of natural gas necessary to fully utilize the company's facilities.

Under the application to the FPC, rates to Pioneer Gas and El Paso's other Southern Division customers in Arizona, California, southern Nevada, New Mexico and West exas would be increased by an average of 4.4 cents per thousand cubic feet of gas. This would result in total additional revenues of aproximately 340 million annually.

The proposed rates are expected to provide a rate of return of 9.15 percent on invested capital.

385 Association to meet Saturday

The annual meeting of the International Parks Highway Association in Spearfish, S. D., will be discussed at the Texas US 385 Association meeting Saturday at 4 p.m. in Marathon.

ALSO ON the agenda are reports on the progress of numbering US 35 and US 385 in North and South Dakota and election of officers for Texas for the coming year.

JIMMY BROWN of Hart races to a fifth-place finish in the finals of the Class A 220-yard dash during the state track meet in Austin Saturday. Brown was clocked in 23.2 seconds, more than a second slower than his best time in the event this year. Rain on the Tartan track late in the day hampered all runners.

Rule by law or by men--public decides, CA says

"We are a government of laws. If we don't want a government of men instead of laws, we have to be willing to carry out the duties of citizenship," County Attorney Robert Buntyn said in a law Appreciation Week speech to the Dimmitt Jaycees last Thursday.

THE JAYCEES honored local law enforcement officers at the luncheon meeting at Ann's Steak House. City, county and state lawmen and game management officers were guests of the club. Justice of the Peace Elvon DeVaney served as emcee.

The county attorney praised peace officers as "the front line of law enforcement."

"Prosecutors and judges have an easy time of it," Buntyn said. "We don't have to worry about a case until after the arrest has been made and it's time for the trial.

"IF YOU have a murder, an armed robbery or a kidnapping, and you have an individual with a gun boarded up in a house and he's killed two or three people, somebody has to go in and get him," Buntyn said. "That's when these guys who are criticized and derided, who are called 'the fuzz' and 'pigs,' have to come in and do society's dirty work.

"When a city officer makes a routine disturbance call to a residence, he doesn't know whether he may be met at the front door by a shotgun blast from a crazed husband.

"These people who are constantly being criticized put their lives on the line every day for you and me — for our safety," he added.

BUT THE efforts of lawmen would be in vain if they weren't supported by the courts and the public, Buntyn said.

"Law enforcement rests on three pillars — the peace officers, the prosecutors, and most important of all, you, the people," the county attorney explained. "We get the kind of law enforcement we deserve, because it's only through public acceptance and public involvement that law enforcement can work."

An unwillingness by private citizens to do their part in the law enforcement process could lead to a breakdown of the system, Buntyn said.

"GOOD LAW enforcement requires a willingness on your part to report, to testify if called, to cooperate, and to aid your law enforcement officers," he said. "You must be willing to get involved. No man is an island — we can't each do our own thing and forget our responsibilities to each other.

"This nation was founded on the proposition that people are capable of governing themselves," he added. "We cannot govern ourselves without being involved and supporting the laws. Those laws, in turn, must be strong and just.

"If we don't want a government by men rather than a government by laws, we have to be willing to carry out the duties of citizenship," he said. "If we are not willing to carry out these duties, if our law enforcement machinery breaks down, there will — as there always has — come a strong man who will take over."

HE concluded, "I hope you will always be willing to accept those duties of citizenship, to carry out those duties, and not be afraid to get involved."

Graduation will be 'all in the family'

When West Texas State University holds its spring commencement Saturday, three Birdwells and two Goldens from Dimmitt will receive their bachelor's degrees.

THE BIRDWELLS include two sisters and their cousin, and the Goldens are twin brothers. The five students who share two family names will make up a majority of the Dimmitt graduates receiving degrees from WTSU.

The girls' third cousin, Larry Birdwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norvelle Birdwell, will receive a BS degree in physical education. He plans to coach basketball and football.

THE GOLDEN brothers, Donald and Ronald, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Golden. Donald has earned a BS degree in agriculture, and Ronald will receive a bachelor of business administration degree in industrial agriculture — business.

The Birdwell sisters are resident students at WTSU, but Larry Birdwell and the Golden brothers are all commuters. The three men are all married, live in Dimmitt, and have been driving back and forth to classes while holding down part-time jobs here.

West Texas State will hold its commencement at 4:30 p.m. Saturday in the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum.

DHS cops

and Mrs. Dale Woolever.

DHS even had a freshman state champion. Jim Birdwell, a student in beginning woodworking, captured first place in his level. His entry was a game table of polished pecan, with turned legs and an inlaid game board of laminated holly and rosewood. Birdwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Birdwell.

The Industrial Arts Club won the group-project state championship in its level with its "Heminational" four-door pickup — a 1963 International crew-cab pickup which the boys reconditioned and equipped pith a "hemi" engine.

THE PICKUP had been retired by the US Air Force, then used four more years by the DHS vo-ag department and retired again before the club bought it and started the reconditioning project. The pickup now has a new lease on life with a Chrysler 341-CID hemi engine with four-barrel carburetor, pushbutton Torque-Flite transmission, vinyl upholstery, shag carpeting, ironed-out body, red-white-blue paint job, Uniroyal "Tiger Paw" tires and chrome wheels.

DHS students won seven other state awards in woodworking and one in power mechanics. They were:

— Roger Allison, second place in Woodworking II with a teak bar with slate Formica top.

— Brent Armstrong, second place in Woodworking I with a walnut end table that incorporates a tape player behind a grille-wire front.

— Kenny Smith, second place in Woodworking I with an oak occasional table, featuring a hexagonal top with turned pedestal, and third place with a turned walnut salad bowl.

— Tommy Cleavinger, second place in Power Mechanics I with an overhaul of a dual-ignition Briggs & Stratton engine.

— Charlie Sammann, third place in Woodworking I with an eight-gun rack of ash.

All DHS woodworking students adapt their own project designs, start with milled lumber and do their own cutting, trimming, lathe work, laminating, molding, fitting and finishing under supervision in the school's woodworking shop.

THE STUDENTS made their Austin trip aboard Dan Nelson's "Weekend Warrior," a charter bus which the Industrial Arts Club converted to a motor home last year in a state championship project. Nelson and Dale Woolever alternated as drivers.

Local VFW members get top District 13 offices

TOP DISTRICT OFFICERS FOR '73-74
. . . Florene Leinen and Gerald Broadstreet

GERALD Broadstreet became the first Dimmitt resident ever to be elected District 13 commander, and also is the first Vietnam veteran to hold the top district post.

A veteran of four years in the US Marine Corps, he served 26 months in Vietnam. He is currently the quartermaster of the local post.

Florene Leinen, president of the local VFW Auxiliary, was elevated to the presidency of the District 13 Auxiliary for 1973-74. Mrs. Leinen's husband, the late Robert "Bud" Leinen, served in World War II, and she has long been active in the Castro Memorial Post Auxiliary.

Ted Stubblefield, commander of the local post, was elected district quartermaster, and Linda Broadstreet of Dimmitt was chosen secretary-treasurer of the District 13 Auxiliary for the coming year.

THE SWEEP of district offices by the local post will make Dimmitt the headquarters next year of VFW District 13, which covers 17 counties and includes 16 posts with a membership of more than 3,000.

The commander's and president's offices carry appointive powers that will result in several other district offices being under the charge of local post members. The district's top officers are empowered to appoint members of their home posts to help them with their duties during the year.

MRS. LEINEN has appointed Sylvia Stubblefield of Dimmitt as District 13 Auxiliary historian; and has named Thelma Smith, Lurline Pope, Laura Broadstreet and Mildred Leinen as district color bearers.

Broadstreet has appointed Harold Broadstreet as chairman of the District 13 safety committee for the coming year.

Castro Memorial Post also won ethe district traveling plaque, and the local Auxiliary captured the district attendance plaque for the year. Fifteen members of the local post attended the district convention. Broadstreet and Mrs. Leinen will be installed in their new offices June 24, during the state VFW and Auxiliary convention in Houston.

NEW OFFICERS of the county unit were elected. They are Mrs. Harry Kleman, president; Mrs. Jean Kennedy, vice-president; Mrs. Bob Lindsey, secretary; Mrs. W. A. Epperson, treasurer; Mrs. Claude Forson, public education; Mrs. L. C. McLain, Crusade chairwoman; Mrs. Christine Braddock, service chairwoman; Mrs. Trent Downing, publicity chairwoman; Mrs. Elvon DeVaney, memorials chairwoman; Mrs. Ruby Stone, second vice-president; Mrs. Leonard Welty, third vice-president; Mrs. Kleman, delegate; and Mrs. Forson, alternate delegate.

The Crusade committee reported nearly $4,000 had been collected in the county Crusade.

Dr. DeWitt said the main problem of oral cancer is early detection. He said 15,000 cases of oral cancer will occur this year, with 7,500 resulting in death.

HE LINKED tobacco with oral cancer, as well as chronic trauma, often caused by ill-fitting dentures.

Dr. DeWitt stressed the importance of self-examination of the mouth. Any changes in normal appearance should be reported immediately to one's dentist or physician, he said. He illustrated his talk with slides of healthy and cancerous signs in the mouth.

Mrs. W. A. Epperson, Ruby Stone and Mrs. William Moss served on the nominating committee.

GIRL OF THE YEAR—Nancy Ross was named 1973 Girl of the Year of Beta Sigma Phi sorority last Wednesday night. Mrs. Ross is past president of the sorority and was cited for her contributions during the past year. Her name will be added to the chapter's Girl of the Year plaque.

Mrs. Ross named BSP Girl of Year

Nancy Ross was named 1973 Girl of the Year at Beta Sigma Phi's annual Founders Day meeting last Wednesday night in Carol Bryant's home.

SUE DeVANEY described Mrs. Ross as the "one outstanding sister" in the club this year. She served as president of the club in 1972-73.

Mrs. Ross installed the new officers — Sandra Clark, president; Marty Benton, vice-president; Jan Baca, secretary; Kay Kellar, treasurer; and Shirley Shrum, parliamentarian.

Gifts were presented to Boo Kemp and Sharon Wilke, who are leaving the chapter.

MARTY BENTON gave Mrs. Ross the past president's gavel. Mrs. Ross then presented award charms to past officers and committee chairwomen.

In the business session, the chapter moved to give another $100 to the Rhoads Memorial Library building fund. This brings the sorority gifts to the library to $600.

Gail Bruegel and Mrs Kemp gave a program on paintings and their meanings. Paintings by Mrs. Bruegel, Mrs. Kemp and Mary Bechtol were exhibited.

THE FOUNDERS Day message from Walter Ross and the Founders Day pledge were read at the beginning of the meeting.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ross and Virginia Hansen.

Chi Psi chapter picks new officers

Election of officers highlighted the Thursday night Founders Day meeting of Hart's Chi Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, held in the home of Mrs. Bob Lacy. Mrs. Roger Edwards served as co-hostess.

MRS. GEORGE Ed Bennett was elected president. Other officers include Mrs. David Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Doug Martin, recording secretary; Mrs. Mike Burnam, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Darryl McLain, treasurer. Mrs. Frank Barnes was named to serve on the Beta Sigma Phi co-ordinating committee with Mrs. Harold Bob Bennett as the alternate.

Pledge ritual for nine pledges was conducted during a candlelight ceremony. The ritual was read by Mrs. Bob Bowden, president, assisted by Mrs. Donna Vance and Mrs. Edwards. New pledges are Mmes. Don Elliott, Monty Upton, Steve Hanes, Bob Gallagher, Albert Key, Ronnie Truelock, Sue Summers, Barbara Sheffey and James Jackson.

Mrs. Burnam was recognized as the chapter's representative for the Outstanding Woman of the Year. She is currently serving as program chairman of Chi Psi, vice-president of Hart PTA, holds a college degree, is active in community and church activities, and is a teacher in the Hart school system.

AN ARMCHAIR tour of Utah was presented in a slide, presentation by Mrs. Clinton Billingsley. Her program topic was travel, and the slides were the country where the aerial search for the missing Hart men was conducted. The slides were taken by Harley Wilke. To close, she showed slides of the Canary Islands.

Surprise baby showers were given for Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. Upton at the conclusion of the meeting. The chapter also presented each new mother with a traditional silver baby cup.

Refreshments were served to the pledges, Mrs. Leon Kendall of Kress, a member-at-large, and eleven members.

Mrs. Kirby is shower honoree

Mrs. Anthony Kirby, the former Kathy Taack, was honored at a shower and tea in the home of Mrs. Alvin Frazier Saturday afternoon.

MRS. FRAZIER presented guests to Mrs. Kirby, her mother, Mrs. Dean Taack; her mother-in-law, Mrs. Vaden Kirby; and grandmother, Mrs. A. T. Kirby.

Vada Kirby registered guests. Brenda and Jeanette Seeley served lime sherbert punch and homemade coconut cake from a table covered with a green linen cloth. It was decorated with an arrangement of white carnations and daisies.

Mrs. Cox feted at tea in Hart

Mrs. T. B. Cox was honored at a tea Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. D. L. McLain. Her home was recently damaged by fire and she was given a money shower and an array of gifts.

GREETING GUESTS at the door was Mrs. John McLain.

An ecru lace cloth covered the serving table, which was centered with a money tree in a base of rainbow-colored carnations and tulips. The money was tied with rainbow-colored ribbon. Finger sandwiches, cookies, coffee, tea and lemonade were served. Spring floral napkins completed the table decor. Alternating at the table were Mmes. Wade Mills, Tom McLain and Paul Brooks.

Sixteen women served as hostesses.

Engagement is revealed at tea

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thornton hosted an engagement announcement tea Sunday afternoon for their daughter, Susan, and Steve Mack of Lubbock.

Mrs. Nell Humphries served punch and cake from a table that was covered with a white cutwork linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white daisies and gladioli, with two big gold rings entwined.

OTHERS IN the houseparty were Mack's mother, Mrs. Martha Mack of Lubbock, Mrs. Elvis Barker, Mrs. Emmett Broderson, Mrs. Nolan Froehner, Mrs. Clarence Woods and Mrs. F. J. Mears Jr.

Out of town guests were Mrs. B. N. Graham, Mrs. E. G. Blair and Mrs. Wilfred Quickel of Farwell; Mrs. Bedford Caldwell, Mrs. Vernon Estes and Mrs. Norvell Strawn of Bovina; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross of Morton; and Mrs. Randal Price and Evelyn Price of Amarillo.

Vows are recited in home ceremony

Charlotte Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Murray, and Robert H. Fulkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Fulkerson, were married at 10 a.m. April 27 in the home of the bride's parents at Hart.

REV. RANDALL Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Baskets of white stock accented with blue ribbon bows, flanked with white candles and an open Bible formed a decorative setting for the vows.

Attendants of the couple were Helen Murray, sister of the bride, and Ronald Gfeller of Dimmitt, brother-in-law of the groom. Michelle Bates, daughter of the bride, was flower girl.

The bride wore a blue crepe floor-length gown designed with an Empire waistline and puff sleeves. An orchid corsage complemented her attire.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the Murray home. Mrs. Ronald Gfeller of Dimmitt, Miss Murray and Judy Jenkins of Amarillo served hot spiced punch and the two-tiered wedding cake.

The bride and groom are at home in Tulia, where he is engaged in farming with his father. A graduate of Hart High School, the bride is attending Southwest Business College in Plainview. She will complete her studies June 15. Fulkerson is a 1965 graduate of Tulia High School and attended South Plains College at Levelland and Texas Tech University.

Wedding guests were Richard Murray of Canadian, brother of the bride; Bertha Deisher, the bride's grandmother; and Mrs. G. L. Sadler, Sam Sadler, Frank Venhaus and Mr. and Mrs. Volney Sprawls Jr., all of Tulia.

H.D. WOMAN OF THE YEAR — Frances Smith (right) was named Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year in Castro County last Thursday at the annual THDA luncheon. Here, Irene Keating, county Extension agent, makes the presentation. Nominees for the award included Daphene Montgomery of the Dimmitt HD Club, Maxine Ballard of the Flagg HD Club and Jackie Smotherman of the Town & Country HD Club. Candidates submitted written accounts of their club, church and family activities which were evaluated by out-of-county judges.

THDA luncheon memorable

By IRENE KEATING

The Texas Home Demonstration Association luncheon here last Thursday was delightful. I am so proud of the gravy boat and relish tray the club women gave me. I'll enjoy them for many years. Thank you also for the pretty corsage.

DID YOU KNOW that 5,043 Texans are over 100 years of age? If equally divided, there would be 19 per county. I have a great aunt who is 101, but I don't know of anyone here locally who has passed the century mark. This is Senior Citizens Month, so let's think of our older people. I appreciate the help and wisdom that our older people are so willing to share with us.

PLEASE REMEMBER the Dimmitt 4-H Club Auction Saturday. They are raising money for our State 4-H Center at Brownwood. The sale will be on the courthouse square at 1:30 p.m. See you there.

As school days come to an end, I'm sure many mothers want to recycle some of those school clothes so they'll look fresh again. Here are some suggestions that may help you.

Sewing notions can transform old garments into style-conscious wearables. Examples include replacement pockets, zippers, new belt fasteners, trims and iron-on patches. Some patches, especially designed for jeans, add new dimensions, promising teen aproval. With iron-on patches, follow directions carefully. Success requires the right pressure and heat — otherwise the patch will fall away after cleaning.

Other renovation techniques turn to sewing machines, and most now feature numerous stitch variations — valuable in creative mending.

Shrinks — those brief sweaters — are one current rage. Home sewers can create them simply by taking in side seams and hems of old sweaters. Commercial sweater knits can be cut and sewn without raveling — hand knits can't.

SEW-ON PATCHES and appliques will cover stains or holes in recycled garments. For a unified look, carry these new additions throughout the garment by adding contrasting pockets of the same fabric or color. Decorative stitching, rick-rack, braid or contrasting band of fabric cover that lengthening line on dresses, skirts or slacks. In other recycling "facelifts," appliques reinforce buttonholes, and decorative pulls replace plain zippers.

Extend pants wear-life by reinforcing inside hems. For best protection, cut half moons—measuring about 5 inches by one inch deep — of heavy fabric and add to inside hems. As for care of a recycled item, consider both garment and added trim or fabric. Both should be compatible — washable trims on washable garments.

For best results, pre-shrink trim before using — following the procedure normally used with the garment. This insures a recycled garment as attractive later as when first changed.

FEEDGRAIN OUTLOOK

A grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says that exports are the key to the long-term feedgrain outlook. With high export sales, above average prices are anticipated at harvest. Domestic grain usage is also up due to increased livestock feeding. U. S. production is expected to reach near record levels in 1973, with feedgrain acreage up about seven percent. In Texas, grain sorghum acreage should be up about 10 percent and soybeans up 56 percent, but corn acreage will increase only slightly.

Here are week's best food buys

Chicken and turkey, though higher-priced than a year ago, remain economical mealtime choices, according to Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt.

THE CONSUMER marketing specialist with the Extension Service listed current beef values as liver, ground beef, round steaks and roasts, chuck roasts and steaks.

"Pork prices continue at the higher price level of the past month with best values on picnics, shoulder roasts and steaks, and end-cut loin roasts and chops. Some markets will feature canned hams."

Mrs. Clyatt reported fresh fruit and vegetables in best supply include grapefruit, oranges, apples and bananas.

ALSO, CABBAGE, carrots, potatoes, mustard collards, turnip greens, radishes and green onions are in good supply now.

Citing eggs as a "nutritious, economical and convenient" food to serve. Mrs. Clyatt advised purchasing them from refrigerated cases and storing them with the large end up to help maintain quality.

"Eggs may absorb odors from other foods, so they should be stored covered. A few days' supply stores better in a plastic refrigerator dish or plastic bag.

"Temperature changes during storage cause egg whites to become thin and less desirable for frying or poaching," she added.

A LAW PASSED last year makes it a federal offense to tamper with an odometer. Now, anyone selling a car in the US must say whether he can vouch for mileage on the odometer, says Doris Myers, home management specialist of Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

TO MACHINE wash a shower curtain, use warm water, a gentle, four-minute cycle and a non-precipitating conditioner. Tumble dry on the air setting, suggests Lillian Cochran, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.
