VOLUME XXXI

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 MAY 24, 1963

NUMBER 27

A disappointment is in sight for the city of Muenster if the state's coming legislative session adopts a sales tax increase as it is now proposed. According to the report, the rate is to be raised from two to three per cent and the increase is to be refunded to cities on the basis of their 1960 populations. Estimated total revenue to all of the state's incorporated cities would be about $125 million, and the state would get $35 to $40 million from the increase collected in unincorporated areas.

If the measure passes it will replace the local option levies adopted by 267 Texas cities, including Muenster, since last September, and would also benefit the cities which did not adopt it.

As regards our city, however, the proposed method would not give us as much revenue as the method we voted for. Two factors explain why. First, Muenster population has increased since 1960. The refund will be lower than if based on present population. Also, statistics on business activity here show above average volume for cities of this size. Basing the refund on population only would not compensate the city for its plus business.

The better deal for Muenster is the one we voted on. It provides that after July 1 Muenster will get one third of all the sales tax collected here, less a small handling fee to be charged by the state. According to our calculation the one per cent tax actually collected here will be higher than the refund which does not compensate for population increase or plus business.

Needless to say, Muenster is not the only city that would be short changed. Therein lies a strong hope that the proposal will be amended to harmonize more closely with the local option provision. Lots of other places, especially the big metropolitan centers, will be affected like us and will be plugging for a better system of distribution.

A horrible example of the treachery of communism is under way in France this week. President DeGaulle, who has been notorious in cultivating red friendship in recent years and has collaborated with reds in hurting and embarrassing the United States, now learns that a man with such friends does not need any enemies.

DeGaulle was most accommodating to Moscow in ordering America's NATO troops out of France. He supported the red propaganda line in denouncing American involvement in the Vietnam war. He collaborated with reds in sparking and leading the recent assault on America's monetary system. He left no doubt that he regarded communism as the world's dominant force and he wanted to be on good terms with its big shots. In short, DeGaulle served the reds very well. And their appreciation is typical. They have stabbed him in the back.

Is there any doubt about that? Well, reports say communist students and communists workers are leading the revolt. And anyone knows where they got the orders as well as the leaders to organize and promote the turmoil. Anyone knows, too, that such things don't just happen. They are parts of a well planned plot.

We could say that the arrogant old goat is getting his due. He knew he was conniving with scoundrels, so let him take the consequence. Nevertheless, we fervently hope that somehow he will win the big squabble and keep his nation out of the red monster's clutches. We dread to think of millions of good Frenchmen subjected to increasing domination of Kremlin stooges. We also dread to think of this country's future relations with France if reds take over prominent positions in the French government. Dealing with DeGaulle in recent years has been far from pleasant, but dealing with the reds can be much worse.

Extended Illness Of L. A. Bernauer Ended by Death

Muenster lost a long-time resident and businessman with the death of L. A. (Louie) Bernauer, 80, Sunday at 3 p.m. He died in Muenster Hospital after an extended illness.

A resident here 60 years, he was a retired restaurant owner-operator, former member of Muenster City Council, a charter member of the local Knights of Columbus Council and the Fourth Degree Assembly and held membership in the parish St. Joseph's Society. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. from Sacred Heart Church, Father Alcuin Kubis officiating at the Requiem Mass, delivering the sermon and conducting graveside rites in Sacred Heart Cemetery. Nick Miller Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Bearers were J. P. Flusche, Joe Horn, Ervin Hamric, Joe Magee, Jerome Pagel and John Wieler.

Rosary was recited twice at the Miller Chapel Monday. St. Anne's Society conducted a 4 p.m. service and Knights of Columbus and St. Joseph Society members joined in the 8 p.m. community rosary.

Louis A. Bernauer was born in St. Joseph, Tenn., July 24, 1887. He moved to Muenster with his family when he was about 20 and was married to Miss Sue Kaiser here on Oct. 12, 1909. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1959.

Mr. Bernauer is best remembered for his many years in the restaurant business which he started soon after his marriage. As a young man he was in the livery stable business. Earlier he was a blacksmith associated with his father.

He is survived by his wife, and two sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Flusche and Miss Frances Bernauer, both of Decatur, and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Among relatives at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Flusche and Miss Frances Bernauer of Decatur, J. L. Bernauer of Albuquerque, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stelzer of Fort Worth, Messrs. and Mrs. Charles Reiter of Kerrville, W. E. Black of Deer Park, F. E. Aiken of Waco, Charles Bernauer of Gainesville, Robert Bernauer of Irving, Charles Smajstrla of West.

Mrs. R. S. Mitchell of Waco, Mrs. Joe Simeroth and two children of Fort Worth, Mrs. Lena Bernauer and Mrs. C. D. Mitchell of Gainesville, Louis Wernet of West, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mikeska and son David of Longview, Mrs. Walter Wolf of Gainesville, Mrs. Keith Tompkins and Sharon of Arlington.

Mrs. Charlie Stelzer remained to spend several days with her aunt.

Area Needs Rain Pause

More rain here during the past week has brought weather to the critical stage. Ripening wheat and oats need several days of good drying weather so that combines will be able to get into the field.

The same applies to hay-making. Every day of delay costs on fields that are ready. And a great deal of the crop has already been lost because of the many cuttings that got heavy rain while they were down.

As regards grain, prospects are still rated as good. The crop is in the fields and yields will be good if favorable harvesting weather prevails through the next few weeks.

Latest rainfall measured here was .66 on Wednesday morning. On Friday of last week the city's official gauge read 1.29. The two rains combined bring the month's total to 5.22 inches and the year's total to 21.64. That last is near the second high for the first five months on the city's record. It was 29.92 in. in 1957 and 21.79 in 1946.

Williams Resigns Coaching Position At Sacred Heart

Tom Williams, director and coach of the Sacred Heart High School sports program during the past year, will not be back on the job next year.

He announced this week that he has joined the accounting department of Montgomery Ward in Fort Worth. He will report for duty on June 1. He and his wife will move to Fort Worth next week.

Williams said he has been happy with his work here last year and would like to stay, but his new work offers a better income and much better potential. He begins by training for comptroller. Williams is a graduate of St. Joseph's College, Indiana, with a major in accounting.

Council Approves Adding Deputy

Another resident deputy sheriff for the city of Muenster and a higher rate of pay for both deputies were approved by the city council at its meeting Monday night. Their action amounted to completing a deal with the commissioners court of Cooke County whereby the city shares in the cost of the extra salary and the extra man.

Commissioners last week had authorized Sheriff Bill Pratt to place another deputy at Muenster and had also agreed to raise salaries of deputies from $300 to $450 a month.

By special arrangement Don West received pay of $580 a month but had to furnish his car. Under the new agreement West will be on the regular pay schedule and the sheriff's department will furnish a car to be used by both of the local deputies.

The change in operations was made by county officials at the request of city council members and Monday night's approval completed the city's deal with the county.

Mayor Earl Fisher said that for someone to take the job as deputy here. When he arrives he will work with West part of the time, and the two will work separately at other times.

Mayor Fisher said this will relieve West of an overload and will also increase the time during which an officer is on duty here. As regards cost, Muenster's share was $290 a month, drops temporarily to $225 a month and will increase to $450 a month when the second deputy arrives.

Bayers Awarded Sewer Contract

The contract for construction of Muenster's sewer plant expansion has been tentatively awarded to Bayer Brothers, local concrete contractors.

Members of the city council in session Monday night voted to accept the firm's low bid of $87,876.97, however the contract is subject to approval of the Texas Water Quality Board. Mayor Earl Fisher said that the board's approval is due on June 3 and work should begin within 10 days after that.

Fisher is confident the contract will get state approval. Besides being very near the engineer's estimate, it is far below the only other bid, which was for over $143,000.

The addition to be built will vastly increase local sewage treatment capacity and enable Muenster to meet current rigid anti pollution standards. Equipment here now originally met requirements of the state health department, but new requirements are more rigid.

Steve Moser, sanitary superintendent, describes the addition as an oxidation ditch of the race track type. Its function is to keep sewage in motion and mix in air to oxidize it.

The structure will be a big oval ditch made of concrete, 750 feet in circumference, 20 feet wide and 4 feet deep. It will remain full and the entire volume of a half million gallons will be kept moving at a speed of 2 feet per second, fast enough to keep solids from settling. Power to keep it moving will be supplied by two 25 HP motors. While the sewage is in motion it is treated by air which breaks down the wastes.

As more sewage come into the full ditch, overflow goes into a clarifier tank, which allows solids to settle out before clear liquid drains into the Graduates of Muenster High School at their baccalaureate service Sunday night were told that their most important purpose in life is to fit their lives into God's will. Their speaker was Dr. Harry Roark, pastor of First Baptist Church, Gainesville.

Dr. Roark opened his address stating that our country will be taken over in the next 15 to 20 years by the students of this generation, and the training they receive will determine whether the country will be better or worse.

To help make it a better country he urged the graduates to train their minds and personalities, but more especially their spiritual nature to know and observe the will of God.

The speaker also pointed out that true success is not reached by just acquiring personal security but in dedicating one's self to the service of God and man. One's goal should be to help make this a better world.

Others on the baccalaureate program were Miss Bettye Dodds in a vocal solo of the Prayer of St. Francis, and a quartet consisting of Shirley Klement, Debbie Russell, Betty Knabe and Debbie Yosten, singing "How Great Thou Art."

Rev. Larry Taylor of First Baptist Church, Muenster, gave the invocation and the benediction. Sandra Sloan played for the processional and Elaine Otto for the recessional.

MR. HOOVER WARNS AMERICA

by Dr. George S. Benson

Because of its timely application to the present moment, as the Communist Party, U.S.A. flaunts its growing power, particularly among a substantial radical element on college campuses throughout the nation, we reprint a statement made by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, two years ago but which received very little press attention at the time:

"The American college student today is being subjected to a bewildering and dangerous conspiracy perhaps unlike any social challenge ever before encountered by our youth. On many campuses he faces a turbulence built on unrestrained individualism, repulsive dress and speech, outright obscenity, disdain for moral and spiritual values, and disrespect for law and order. This movement, commonly referred to as the 'New Life', is complex in its deceitful absurdity and characterized by its lack of common sense.

Radicals are Busy

"Fortunately, a high percentage of the more than 3 million full-time college students are dedicated, hardworking, and serious-minded young people; however, their good deeds and achievements are greatly overshadowed by those who are doing a tremendous amount of talking but very little thinking.

"Much of this turmoil has been connected with a feigned concern for the vital rights of free speech, dissent, and petition. Hard-core fanatics have used these basic rights of our democratic society to distort the issues and betray the public. However, millions of Americans, who know from experience that freedom and right that mean duties and responsibilities are becoming alarmed over the anarchistic and seditious ring of these campus disturbances. They know liberty and justice are not possible without law and order.

Reds Pleased

"The Communist Party, U.S.A., as well as other subversive groups, is jubilant over these new rebellious activities. The unvarnished truth is that the communist conspiracy is seizing this insurrectionary climate to captivate the thinking of rebellious-minded youth and coax them into the Communist movement itself or at least agitate them into serving the Communist cause. This is being accomplished primarily by a two-pronged offensive — a much-publicized college speaking program and the campus oriented communist W. E.

DuBois Clubs of America. Therefore, the communist influence is cleverly injected into civil disobedience and reprisals against our economic, political, and social system.

"There are those who scoff at the significance of these student flareups, but let us make no mistake: the Communist Party does not consider them insignificant. The participants of the New Left are part of the 100,000 'state of mind' members Gus Hall, the Party's General Secretary, refers to when he refers of party strength. He recently stated the Party is experiencing the greatest upsurge in its history with a 'one to two thousand' increase in membership in the last year.

Need Spotlight on Reds

"For the first time since 1959, the Party plans a national convention this spring. We can be sure that high on the agenda will be strategy and plans to win the New Left and other new members. A Communist student, writing in an official Party organ, recently stated, 'There is no question but that the New Left will be won.'

"Thus, the communists' intentions are abundantly clear. We have already seen the effects of some of their stepped-up activities, and I firmly believe a vast majority of the American public is disgusted and sickened by such social orgies. One recourse is to support and encourage the millions of youth who refuse to swallow the communist bait. Another is to let it be known far and wide that we do not intend to stand idly by and let demagogues make a mockery of our laws and demolish the foundation of our Republic."

—J. Edgar Hoover, Director

THE PRICE OF SECURITY

Sweden is considered an advanced welfare state. In Sweden, the government "takes care" of you from birth to death. But the bill for this kind of care comes high. Those who live in the delusion that government provides free services will find it instructive to compare the taxes paid by U.S. citizens against those paid by Swedish citizens.

In the United States, which so far is only partly welfare-ized, taxes take about 22 per cent of a single person's income and about 18 per cent of the income of a married couple without children. Social-welfare Sweden is the highest taxed nation in Europe. Total taxes paid by the average worker in Sweden now exceed 40 per cent of his income, according to U.S. News & World Report. Swedish people in the medium bracket — incomes of about $8,000 a year — pay well over 50 per cent if all taxes are added up.

No, the security of the welfare state is not free. Moreover, it is provided at the expense of liberty, for certainly there can be little liberty where people have lost the power of decision over their productive efforts.

A LESSON FOR US

One of the Founding Fathers of our country warned a long time ago that internal weaknesses might present a greater threat to the perpetuation of our country than foreign military aggression. We have had a first-rate example of how internal weakness can wreck a nation. Within a space of 22 years following World War II, the British Empire disintegrated. The obituaries of Britain's decline have been documented in the world's press. What Hitler and his mighty air armada were unable to accomplish — the extinction of Britain as a world power — is now a fact of history. From all accounts, the demise of Britain is traceable largely to socialist leaders. The energy-sapping philosophy of the welfare state which they advocated apparently played an important part in the rapid decline of British fortunes. U.S. citizens should take note that even the mightiest nation can be brought down by its own weaknesses — just as was predicted nearly two centuries ago.

4 Months Volume Of Lone Star Gas Sets New Record

Lone Star Gas Company reported that natural gas consumption over the utility's system during the first four months of 1968 exceeded consumption for the same period last year by almost 25 billion cubic feet.

January consumption totaled 46,787,500,000 billion cubic feet, the largest in Lone Star's 59-year history.

H. H. Merritt, vice president, Transmission Division said that gas consumption during the first four months of 1968 totaled more than 154 billion cubic feet as compared with more than 129 billion cubic feet during the same period in 1967.

The utility executive estimated that gas consumption during the hot summer months will total more than one billion cubic feet per day as compared with 1½-2 billion cubic feet per day during cooler months.

He also showed members the new highspeed dental drill which the Auxiliary bought for the hospital. This equipment had just arrived.

As their next benefit, members are planning a talent show. Mrs. Hamric and Mrs. Bright are co-chairmen.

Thirty members attended the meeting and Mrs. Willie Walterscheid won the door prize.

Traveling Abroad

Picture postcards are keeping relatives in touch with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid who are touring Europe since May 9. They jetted to Germany to visit his relatives and went to London to look up her cousin. And they're touring Austria, Switzerland and Italy with emphasis on Rome in the latter country. They plan to be back the end of this week or early next week.

While they are away their children Johnny, Janet and Gary are headquartering with their uncle and aunt, the Ted Henscheids, and are visiting also with their grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins.

Library Report Reveals Activity

Reports at the May meeting of Muenster Public Library board revealed current activity and a summary of work done during the previous month.

In April library staffers logged 132 hours of volunteer work, checked out 504 books, shelved 72 new books and one gift book. They assisted six students in research and reference and added one new name to the list of patrons.

Mrs. Joe Luke, librarian, also revealed that she has enlisted four girls to help during the summer. Beginning May 28 library hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday. And beginning June 4 a story hour will be conducted for pre-school through second grade children for six weeks beginning at 10 a.m. each Tuesday.

Bernard Swirczynski, board president, reported on cementing a new sign at the library. Lettering was done by Ervin Hamric.

Walterscheids on Acapulco Holiday

Muenster Butane was one of the winners in the Stewart Company's Acapulco Holiday Sales Contest and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walterscheid were among about 135 other Zenith dealers and their wives on a chartered jet flight to Acapulco, Mexico, for four days of fun and sight-seeing.

Among highlights of the holiday were a Fiesta Cruise around Acapulco Bay with a stop for lunch at Playa Island, a banquet at the El Morador Hotel and the famous High Divers Show, and on the evening before their departure, a beach party with a buffet supper on the beach of the Acapulco Hilton.

Cub Scout Leaders Plan for Summer

Planning for the summer program was the principal topic of the Cub Scout pack leaders meeting held last Monday night in the VFW hall.

It was agreed that the three pack meetings during the summer would be more fun as family outings. The first will be held in June in the ball park and will have a ball game on the program. Other outings will be planned later.

Pack leaders also discussed ways of making the pack self supporting. And Don Murch reported help from the VFW post in the form of a pack library, a pack flag and a fund for badges and awards. A list of names for the first awards was submitted to Cubmaster Leonard Reiter.

Ideas on entertainment of the Cubs were exchanged by the Cub mothers.

Be Careful With Lawn Mowers

Ever since George Washington turned a flock of sheep onto the grounds at Mount Vernon to keep his lawn well-groomed, homeowners have been plagued with the task of keeping up with the Father of our country.

And, "keeping America beautiful," is no longer as simple a task as turning loose a flock of sheep, even though it is easier today than it was back in 1919 when the first power mower was put into operation by an enterprising homeowner.

This ingenious piece of equipment consisted of a gas engine from a washing machine attached to a hand-powered mower. But, it was effective enough to launch the power mower industry in the nation and today it is estimated that there are more than 25 million mowers in use across the country.

However, E. E. Edmondson Jr., President of the Texas Safety Association, and Safety Director for Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Houston, notes that power mowers, particularly the rotary type, can prove to be a mixed blessing.

"The power lawn mower is potentially hazardous and it is estimated that these efficient, time-saving devices cause over 100 fatalities and between 55,000 and 80,000 personal injuries across the country each year," he explained.

"Studies show that about 70 percent of the injuries and deaths result from direct contact with moving parts of the mowers and 30 per cent from flying objects. The hurling of objects by the whirling blade of rotary mowers is the greatest 'single cause' of injuries, with flying wire apparently the most common object since it is not easily seen in tall grass and is readily propelled through the air."

The Association President

said toes and fingers are the parts of the body most frequently injured. More than 50,000 toes and 18,000 fingers were amputated by power mowers in the United States during a recent year. One in seven of these accidents brought a permanent disability and rotary mowers were involved in over 90 percent of all cases.

These injuries result from getting the foot or hand into the cutting area. Toe injuries usually happen when the power mower is being operated in an incline and the machine is pulled up over the shoe top, or when the foot slips into the cutting area under the machine. Fingertips are often amputated when the operator tries to pull grass or other material, which has stopped the blade so that it will not rotate, from the mower. If the motor is still running, the blade will turn rapidly and catch fingers or the hand when the grass or other object is removed.

Many injuries to feet, ankles and legs are caused when objects are propelled by rotary blades. The blades of the rotary mower constitute a potentially tremendous propulsive force as well as a powerful direct hitting force.

"The swift blades can pick up a rock, stone, rusty nail, bits of glass, steel or wood and hurl them at the operator or a bystander at the speed of a bullet," Mr. Edmondson said, and added: "So fast do such objects fly from the mower that when people are struck they frequently do not even realize what has happened to them."

Studies of such accidents show that projected objects usually strike the left leg, ankle or foot of the operator. Sometimes they are thrown upward hitting the torso, or the eye, causing serious eye injuries or the loss of sight. More rarely, a piece of broken blade, loose metal, wire or stone is hurled out of the discharge chute with such force it can kill anyone it hits.

Boys, ages 10 to 19, are injured more frequently than other operators, according to one study. Among all injuries reviewed, there were three and one-half times as many males as females injured. Saturday was the day most of the victims were injured, but Monday and Thursday did not lag far behind. A high number of accidents occurred in late afternoon and early evening when visibility was decreased and fatigue increased. The highest number of accidents occurred during the early mowing season, with the month of May having the largest number of injuries and showing twice as many mowing accidents as June, the second highest injury-month.

Mr. Edmondson reports that all power mower studies show that most power mower accidents are preventable and offers the following tips for "keeping America beautiful" safely:

BEFORE MOWING

Read the instruction manual that comes with your mower. It contains useful information and hints on the right way to use the mower.

Check mower for cracks, loose nuts or bolts and parts that need replacing.

Fill the tank so you won't have to do this during the operation when the engine is hot — but leave space for expansion. The heat of the sun can cause gasoline to expand. Work out-of-doors to protect yourself from harmful fumes.

Inspect the lawn and clear away any small objects, such as stones, sticks, wire and rocks. Place large objects such as sand boxes, tricycles and swings where you will not step back and trip over them.

Be sure you can stop the mower and motor at a moment's notice. Know how to disengage the clutch and stop engine quickly. Practice this for any emergency.

Don't wear ill-fitting or loose clothing that can get caught in the machine. Wear sturdy shoes, preferably steel-toe safety shoes. Never mow in sandals or bare feet. Wear safety glasses for eye protection.

Keep children and pets away from the area of mowing at all times.

Do not permit children or young teenagers to start or operate the mower. No inexperienced person should be allowed to use your mower.

Do not use electrically-powered mowers when grass is wet or when it's raining unless you're sure entire motor and power cord are in perfect condition and the motor is properly grounded.

WHILE MOWING

Stand firmly when starting the mower. Keep feet well away from the blade. Set machine on a flat, even surface so that it will not tip or roll when starting.

Stop the engine and wait until it is cool if you must re-fuel.

Stay clear of the front of self-propelled mowers.

With hand-propelled mower, cut banks and slopes sideways, rather than up or down provided the grade is not too steep, to preserve balance and control. Do not pull mower back toward you on a down-grade. With a riding mower, mow slopes up and down and use extreme caution when on steep inclines.

Never attempt removal of any object from the mower until motor is stopped and blades stop turning. If you want to work on the underside to make an adjustment, disconnect spark plug wire or accidentally start the motor while lifting or turning the mower.

Mow to the left, away from exit chute. If you are using an electric-powered mower, keep electric cord to the right behind you, and mow to the left, using care at all times not to run over cord.

Do not allow double riding on a riding mower and never allow your child to ride with you while you're mowing.

Many a child who watches television for hours will go down in history — not to mention arithmetic, English, and geography.

County's Annual Oil-Gas Income Is $31.4 Million

Oil and gas wells provide approximately $31.4 million a year of Cooke County's economic output, according to statistics released this week by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Based on most recent U.S. Bureau of Mines production figures, the Association compilation showed that Cooke County produced crude oil valued at $30.9 million in 1966 and natural gas worth $518,000.

Texas oil production in 1967, responding to demands for more domestic crude as a result of the Israeli-Arab conflict, totaled 1,050,000,000 barrels, a statewide increase over 1966 of about 7 percent. Production last year varied widely among state Railroad Commission districts, however, ranging from 3.5 percent below 1966 to 15 percent above.

"Production from Cooke County last summer helped prevent any oil scarcity for U.S. consumers at a time when one-third of the world's supply was cut off," said Corbin J. Robertson, Houston, Association president. "We must keep in mind, however, that it may be difficult for Texas fields to sustain production in future emergencies if the discovery of new reserves continues to lag, due to lack of exploratory drilling."

The annual study showed that Cooke County ranked 38th among Texas counties in total value of its production of some 10.4 million barrels of oil and 4 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

Texas oil men, according to Rinehart's yearbook, drilled 148 wells in the country risking some $2.6 million. Forty percent of them were dry holes, costing about $917,000.

County landowners and others with mineral interests cashed royalty checks totaling about $4 million during the year. Likewise, the county's flow of oil and gas generates $1.5 million a year in production taxes paid by producers and royalty owners to the state treasury.

Reports from the Texas Employment Commission show some 754 persons directly employed by the oil and gas industry in the county, with an annual payroll of $4 million.

Plants which convert crude oil and natural gas into useful products also added to the value of a county's output. The Oil and Gas Journal lists one refinery, and three gasprocessing plants, with a total capacity of 35 million cubic feet a day for the county.
