Kennedy Says U. S. Prepared To Resist

STORM DAMAGE—This window at J. C. Penney Co. and two more were victims of last night's wind. The other two were at Furr's Super Market and the Buccaneer Stamp Store.

Spring-Like Storm Sweeps Through Area

A spring-like thunderstorm swept through Snyder early Sunday night, dumping from 2 to 4 inches of rain on a strip from Snyder to the Scurry-Mitchell County line and inflicting some damage to property and to crops.

Three Snyder business firms lost plate glass windows, streets were flooded for a time and winds ravaged trees and shrubbery as rain fell in torrents. Most of the rainfall was recorded between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The rainfall varied from 2 to 3 inches over the city, with 2.30 reported on the official gauge.

Up to 4 inches of rain was reported around Dunn, and considerable damage to crops was reported in that area.

The rain and windstorm was accompanied by a brilliant electrical storm which interrupted electric power intermittently.

Plate glass windows were blown out at Furr's Super Market, The J. C. Penney Co. Store and the Buccaneer Stamp Store.

The storm was triggered by a cold front which moved southward across the state.

Only a sprinkle of rain fell at Lake J. B. Thomas, while Ira had about half an inch, with up to .8 of an inch in the area.

Hernleigh also had about half an inch to .6, with a lighter fall reported to the east. Half an inch was reported 10 miles east of Snyder on the Roby Highway.

Fluvanna got only a sprinkle.

Heavy rains flooded homes and caused some damage in Big Spring and Midland.

Heavy hail wiped out much of the cotton crop near Swenson.

Approximately 20 persons who left their homes because of flood waters in Big Spring were given temporary shelter at Howard County Junior College.

Big Spring police used ropes to pull three persons to safety after water five feet deep swirled over their car in the city park. The Midland Fire Department rescued five persons who were trapped on the cotton crop near Swenson.

Mrs. Eatmon Rites Today

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. this afternoon for a former long-time Scurry County resident, Mrs. Lillie Kenneth Eatmon, 39, 23 Grapevine Ave., Houston, died Saturday at 4:10 p.m. in an Arlington hospital. She was born Sept. 23, 1900, in Collin County, Texas.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. C. A. Roton, Houston; Mrs. Don Richman, Beaumont; Mrs. J. V. Davis, Dallas, and Mrs. Linda Stokes, Fort Worth; one brother, Richard Crenshaw Snyder, and nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held at the North Side Baptist Church, with the Rev. Jack Dean officiating. Burial was in the Snyder Cemetery, under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

UAW Is Handed Offer By Ford

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. made the United Auto Workers Union a new economic offer today roughly paralleling a proposal accepted by the union from General Motors Corp.

The company said the offer was contingent on the "peaceful conclusion of new agreements within the next two weeks and ratification within a mutually agreed upon time thereafter."

Current agreements, which originally expired at midnight Aug. 31, would remain in effect.

Today's proposal calls for a continuation of the annual improvement factor and a cost-of-living adjustment, insurance, improved pensions, and the new short work-week proposal which was included in the GM agreement.

The offer came as UAW President Walter A. Reuther and top union aides moved to the Ford negotiating scene following conclusion of talks at General Motors.

Reuther entered the Ford talks today bolstered with strike authorization against the No. 2 automaker.

The UAW International Executive Board Sunday night ordered GM workers back on the job and granted the union's Ford department permission to strike if necessary.

Khrush Hedges On Deadline

BONN, Germany (AP)—Premier Khrushchev moved the end-of-the-year deadline for a treaty with East Germany in his talks with Belgian Foreign Minister Jean Henry Spaak, diplomatic sources reported today.

Khrushchev reportedly told Spaak that the Soviet Union prefers slow negotiations to a quick war, these sources said.

Spaak reported to the council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization last Thursday on his five-hour talks with Khrushchev in Moscow on the previous Tuesday.

Khrushchev was said to have told Spaak he never had committed himself to signing a peace treaty with East Germany before the end of this year.

German officials expressed surprise at this. On several occasions Khrushchev has declared that he will sign a treaty with East Germany before the end of the year, turning over control of access to West Berlin to the East German Communist regime, unless the West agrees to a German pact on his terms.

"As far as we know he has said this a number of times," officials said.

Diplomats said they understood the Spaak report to mean that Khrushchev now proposes to delay signing an East German peace treaty if negotiations are under way by the end of the year.

Khrushchev also was reported to have told Spaak he was ready to discuss with the Western powers other subjects besides Berlin and Germany.

One West German official said Khrushchev's line in talks with Spaak, a former secretary-general of NATO, was "most conciliatory." West German officials were not optimistic, however, despite Spaak's report.

"We heard the message," said one, "but we don't believe it. He has taken on the face of a mild and compromising person for this occasion."

Diplomats said despite Khrushchev's relatively mild attitude, he remained firm against including the status of East Berlin in any East-West negotiations. He took the line that East Berlin is the capital of East Germany and cannot be discussed.

Only recently, in agreeing that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko would meet with U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the United Nations to sound out the possibility of negotiations, the Soviet foreign minister said the status of West Berlin based on an East German peace treaty.

The West has insisted that other subjects creating tension should be discussed as well. The attitude of the West has been that Khrushchev was trying to negotiate only for what the West now holds, nothing that the East holds.

Solons Back On Job Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress goes back to work today, hoping for adjournment by Tuesday night at the latest. The leaders were keeping their fingers crossed.

Still to be disposed of were three appropriations bills, all going smoothly, there is a chance Congress members still in town may be on their way home or starting jaunts as early as tonight.

Saturday was to have been the windup of the present session. Apparently, much of the House took the hope seriously and House leaders were wondering today if a quorum would show up.

These are three major items remaining:

1. The foreign aid bill—it has passed both branches, but awaits a final settlement in a Senate-House conference. The Senate voted $4,195,600,000—$539 million more than the House. Reports persist that a behind-the-scenes agreement has been reached.

2. A public works measure carrying funds for rivers and harbors, flood control, reclamation and atomic energy projects—it also has cleared both branches.

Fire Leaves Local Store In Ruins

A fire late Saturday night left the Cochran and Thompson Furniture Store here in ruins.

The blaze, which was discovered at about 11:15 p.m. Saturday, was raging through the interior of the store building at 1400 Twenty-fifth Street by the time firemen were called to the scene.

Ford Kenner and C. S. Cochran, owners of the store, estimated their loss at about $30,000, while the building, owned by Bill and Sig Line, was valued at about $50,000.

No merchandise inside the building was saved, but the owners reported that their books and records were salvaged.

Firemen battled the blaze for nearly six hours and were successful in keeping it from spreading. Traffic on Twenty-fifth Street, which carries traffic of major highways through the city, was detoured around the blaze for several hours.

Mrs. Odom Dies Sunday

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p.m. today in the Fluvanna Methodist Church for Mrs. Bessie Odom, 70, who died at 4:30 a.m. Sunday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

A native of Comanche County, Mrs. Odom had lived in Curry County 56 years.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Jesse B. Johnson of Gal and Mrs. Ruby Lee Beal of Oakland, Calif.; two sons, Oliver Odom of Round Rock and Douglas Odom of Fluvanna; one brother, Buster Robertson of Snyder; and six grandchildren.

The Rev. R. Charles Spivey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Snyder, was to officiate at the funeral service. He was to be assisted by the Rev. Bernie Finch of Fluvanna.

Burial was to be in the Fluvanna Cemetery, under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Palibourne were C. N. Ainsworth, Fowler Mathis, Meri Jones, and Mrs. J. B. Jones.

They all leave for Snyder Sunday.

Soviet Stand Is Challenged

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—President Kennedy told the United Nations today the United States has "both the will and the weapons" to resist aggression. He challenged the Communist world to drop the arms race in favor of a "peace race."

The President, in an address alternately tough and conciliatory, told the Soviet Union the United States believes a peaceful agreement is possible for the central world crisis, that of divided Berlin. But he added that threat of force must be rejected, because "yielding to threats can only lead to war."

The President's address covered the broad spectrum of crises confronting a frightened world. He proposed a six-point disarmament plan and called for the creation of a U.N. peace force.

Kennedy urged the small nations of the world to rally behind the United Nations and defend Soviet efforts to impose a "troika" system of three-man control over its police power.

The troika, he said, would "replace order with anarchy, action with paralysis and confidence with gross confusion."

The President told the 96-nation General Assembly the United Nations' very life is at stake in the issue raised by the death in Africa of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld. He urged for new strength and new roles for the United Nations.

The Soviet delegation, headed by Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, listened impassively as Kennedy spoke. It did not join in applause. The first came when Kennedy attacked the Soviet troika plan.

Watching the President was his wife, Jacqueline, who sat with white-gloved hands folded across her lap.

The blue and gold assembly hall was packed to capacity. There were standees in the public gallery.

Kennedy proposed an approach to disarmament which would be both far-reaching and realistic.

Issues Challenge For 'Peace Race'

"It is therefore our intention to challenge the Soviet Union not to an arms race but to a peace race—to advance with us step by step, stage by stage, until general and complete disarmament has actually been achieved. We invite them now to go beyond agreement in principle and to reach agreement on actual plans," he said.

Attacking the Soviet proposal to substitute a three-man executive for a single secretary-general, Kennedy urged strengthening of the charter first of all by selection of an outstanding civil servant to continue Hammarskjöld's work.

Of the Soviet plan, he said: "To install a triumvirate or any panel or ruling authority in the United Nations administrative offices would replace order with anarchy, action with paralysis, and confidence with gross confusion."

Kennedy touched on world trouble spots and solutions to the cause of cold war conflict in his first appearance before the General Assembly.

In his prepared text he was most specific about halting the spread of atomic weapons. He said the new U.S. disarmament program, which may be set forth in detail within 24 hours, would include a proposal for all nations to sign a nuclear test ban treaty.

"To sign a nuclear test ban treaty," Kennedy said, "is not enough. It should not await general disarmament talks. Kennedy said to counter Soviet insistence that discussion of a nuclear treaty be wrapped into over-all disarmament negotiations."

Kennedy advocated a special U.N. power to keep the peace throughout the world. He recommended that all member nations earmark special peace-keeping units in their armed forces to be on call to prevent aggression.

Kennedy pointed directly to threats of peace in Laos and in Germany.

For the first time he personally emphasized that in connection with a Soviet-East German pact that "the Western allies are not concerned with any paper arrangement the Soviets wish to make with a regime of their own creation, on territory occupied by their own troops and governed by their own agents."

Western Powers Cannot Surrender

"But we believe a peaceful agreement is possible which protects the freedom of West Berlin and Allied presence and access, while recognizing the historic and legitimate interest of others in assuring European security."

Events of the next 10 months may well decide man's fate for the next 10,000 years. Kennedy declared: He pledged every effort to "shape future generations, the future of war."

"I pledge you that we shall neither commit nor provoke aggression—that we shall neither force nor invoke the threat of force—that we shall never negotiate out of fear and never fear to negotiate," he said.

To the noncommunist nations which make up nearly half the U.N. membership, Kennedy said "a worldwide declaration of independence has transferred nearly a billion people and nine million square miles into 42 independent states since World War II. In response to their protests against Western colonialism, he said less than 2 per cent of the world population now lives under such rule."

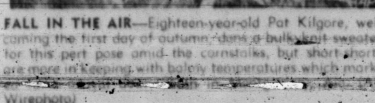

Active Participation Promised

The United States intends to be a participant and not merely an observer in the movement of nations from colonial to equal status, Kennedy said. He added, referring directly to the Soviets, that "there is no ignoring the fact that the tide of self-determination has not reached the Communist empire."

Kennedy said the U.S. program for disarmament would proceed through balanced and safeguarded stages designed to prevent one country from gaining military advantage over another.

"It would place the final responsibility for verification and control where it belongs—not with the big powers alone, but with one country from gaining military advantage over another."

Houston Has Rough Time With Chargers

By HAROLD E. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

When a team beats another three times it should at least give the hint of superiority.

That's what San Diego has done to Houston, the defending American Football League champion, and the hint is strong enough that the Chargers are easy favorites to win the title.

The Chargers haven't lost a game all year, either exhibition or league, and are the only unbeaten team in the field.

Sunday they whipped Houston 31-24, holding a 31-3 lead at the half and coasting in twice in the exhibition grind the Chargers laid it on Houston, beating the 1960 champs 27-14 and 35-28.

San Diego tops the Western Division with a 3-0 record while New York and Boston are tied for the lead in the Eastern Division with 2-1.

New York beat Denver 35-28 and Boston tossed out Buffalo 23-21 the past weekend to push into the deadlock for the top Houston fell down to third place with a 1-1 record.

Texas moved into undisturbed second place in the Western Division when the Texans managed to beat Oakland 42-33.

Spahn Chalks Up Twentieth Victory

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

National League historians may label 1961 the year of Warren Spahn. The Milwaukee pitcher reached the 300-victory mark in midsummer. Spahn's 20th victory Sunday marked the 12th time he has scaled that peak, breaking his own major league record for left-handers.

The 40-year-old marvel now has won 300 in his career, tying him with Hoss Radbourne for 11th place on the all-time list. His 33 shutouts are tops for a lefty. The only pitchers who have won 20 as often as Walter Johnson (12), Christy Mathewson (13) and Cy Young (14).

Spahn left nothing to chance in his third bid for No. 30. He shut out Chicago with two hits and a single. The Cubs won the second game 4-2.

Cincinnati edged a step closer to the pennant despite a 12-5 drubbing at the hands of San Francisco. Because St. Louis beat Los Angeles 8-7, any combination of two Red victories or Dodger defeats would end it.

The Giants scored nine runs in the fourth inning, including a grand slam homer by Orlando Cepeda, routing Joe Jay in the Red's last home game.

Los Angeles trailed 4-0 at one stage and just missed by one run in a ninth-inning rally. As it turned out the winning run was driven in by Stan Musial's pinch double in the seventh, which put the Cards out front 8-3 at that time.

In the other National League game, Pittsburgh put together four straight singles by Dick Groat, Don Clendenon, Dick Stuart and Bob Skinner to score two runs in the seventh for a 4-3 edge over Philadelphia.

Major League Baseball's appearance of the year, drew an ovation with his pinch double off the right field wall.

The glasses worn by Los Angeles Angel pitcher Ryne Duren are so thick that his teammates refer to them as bottle bottoms.
