

DALLAS MAN DIES IN POLICE BATTLE

VICTIM BARRICADES SELF IN APARTMENT AND "SHOTS IT OUT" WITH FIFTY POLICE

DALLAS, April 30.—Choosing to "shoot it out" with 50 policemen who charged his home, rather than accept arrest, B. G. Perdich, 35, was dead today. He was killed last night in the apartment where he had barricaded himself, after shooting and seriously wounding John Techias, 85, cafe operator, and wounding W. R. Greenlee, policeman who sought to arrest him. Techias was shot in the head as he sat with his wife and child in a park.

When Officer Greenlee sought to enter the Perdich apartment, after the shooting of Techias, he was answered by shots, one bullet striking him in the arm. A general riot call was turned in, and 50 detectives and uniformed policemen answered, bringing machine guns and surrounding the house. The machine guns jammed, so the policemen whipped out pistols and kept up a fusillade of shots through the windows until Perdich was dead. His wife, in a hospital with a newborn baby, was not told of his death. Police seized a quantity of liquor at the Perdich apartment. He had lived here 25 years, coming to Dallas from Greece. Friends of Perdich said he had suffered from mental trouble for two years.

TWO KILLED, ONE NEAR DEATH IN CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—Two deputy game wardens were killed and a fisherman probably fatally wounded in a gun fight today in the bay waters off South San Francisco. The dead: Jack Burke, Daly City; Alan Curry, San Francisco. The wounded fisherman was Antoine Anderson.

The shooting occurred shortly after daybreak when Anderson resisted efforts of the deputy warden to board his fishing smack.

Two Men Buried Alive In Oil Blast
CHICAGO, April 30.—Two men were buried alive today in an explosion at a refinery of the Dabros Petroleum Corporation. Four others were unhurt, dragging with them a fifth, so severely burned he was not expected to live. One of the 400-gallon stills was believed to have become overheated while oil was being poured into it, causing the explosion, which sent a column of oil through the metal roof and one side of the plant.

CLEAN-UP IS IN THIRD DAY
Scores of indigent residents of this city are being employed as the third day of the general cleanup campaign swings into action in Lubbock. One of the major advantages of the campaign is seen in the employment of many who have been in dire need of money. City officials of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Improvement Noticeable
Improvement is noticeable throughout the city, following the cleaning of basements and attics Monday and the dressing up of yards yesterday. Today is flower day, when residents are urged to dig weeds, exchange plants, plant flowers and trim shrubbery. Tomorrow is paint day. Officials of the campaign are urging a cooperative spirit in painting of porches, fences, woodwork, screens and porch chairs. Vacant lots will be cleaned Saturday.

MacDonald Talks Over 12,000 Miles
LONDON, April 30.—Prime Minister MacDonald lifted a telephone in the cabinet room at No. 10 Downing Street today and talked to Prime Minister Scullin of the Australian commonwealth at Canberra, 12,000 miles away. The conversation was in inauguration of telephone service between England and Australia which will be available to the public at a price of 1s or about 25¢ for three minutes.

WHAT IF THEY ALL DID IT?
WASHINGTON, April 30.—An unusually severe attack of coldness ten years after the war has caused an ex-soldier to send the war department a check for $10.78. An itemized statement he submitted with an offer to accept such punishment as may be deemed best.

"DUTCH" SMITH HERE
Russell "Dutch" Smith, newly selected freshman coach and business manager of athletics at Texas Technological college, arrived in Lubbock today from Amarillo for a conference with athletic officials of the college. He will appear on the Matador field this afternoon to assist in the spring practice session.

Legge Flings Challenge On Farm Board's Work

CRITICISM BY U. S. C. OF C. IS ANSWERED

CHAIRMAN OFFERS TO MATCH DOLLARS IN PRIVATE BODY

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Chairman Legge of the farm board today challenged members of the United States Chamber of Commerce to join with him in setting up a private organization which would carry on work now done by the farm board.

Departing from the text of a prepared address in which he sharply criticized the attitude of the chamber toward the board, Legge said the proposed organization would be free of government aid.

Not Too Late
"How many of you," he asked, "will match dollar for dollar my subscription in helping out such an organization into effect? It is not too late. The problem is still to be solved."

After no one answered, the farm board chairman said he would be glad to hold open his offer and discuss it with any of those interested at a later time.

Have Farm Mortgage
Saying that under recent conditions there was nothing to encourage the farmer to improve his property, Legge continued: "One modern improvement on which the farmer has kept strictly up to date is the farm mortgage. Most of them have it."

"After many years of discussion and deliberation congress finally passed the agricultural marketing act, which many of you people are now branding as socialistic, or anarchistic, and complaining of interference with, or necessitating some readjustment in, the present system of handling certain commodities."

Readjustment Needed
"It is rather difficult," Legge continued, "to see how progress can be made toward improvement in the agricultural marketing situation without necessitating some readjustment of existing conditions."

"The country generally and business men for the most part gave their approval of the agricultural (Turn To Page 11, Column 4, Please)

HIGH WATERS MENACE AREAS IN OKLAHOMA

MORE THAN 100 HOMES IN PICHER FLOODED; RIVERS ARE UP
OKLAHOMA CITY, Apr. 30.—Two rivers presented flood menaces today in northeastern Oklahoma as louth-breaking rains taxed capacities of the draining streams.

More than 100 homes in Picher were flooded by Chat creek, a tributary of Neosho river, which also was approaching flood stage to threaten a part of the resident section of Miami.

Caney River Threatening
At Bartlesville, the obstreperous Caney river was threatening a repetition of the flood of October, 1926, when a considerable portion of the city was inundated.

The Caney river had reached a stage of 12 feet above normal at 9 a. m., and was rising at the rate of five inches an hour. At 14 feet the river overflows the Deney and Tulsa highways.

Hail and a severe wind accompanied a heavy rain in the Bartlesville vicinity last night. Hains were reported to the northwest in the Caney river watershed.

TO THE BUSINESS MEN OF LUBBOCK WHO WANT TO HELP THEIR CITY

Census-taking in the City of Lubbock is nearly completed and the 'zero hour' in enumerating citizens has arrived. If the head of each business in Lubbock will inquire throughout his entire establishment if each employe is yet enumerated, in all probability several hundred persons, thus far uncounted, will be found. Phone Dr. I. E. Barr, supervisor of the census, at No. 186, and an enumerator with proper blanks will call for information on any citizen missed in the counting.

You owe it to your city, your state and your country to aid in the census work and remember: Lubbock's population, as announced soon will stand for ten long years!

Rotarians Urged To Help Census

Rotarians are urged to help in the census work by visiting homes of those who have not been enumerated. The census is being taken by the United States Census Bureau.

ANOTHER OF VICTIMS DIES

MRS. CARDWELL WILL BE BURIED IN FLOYDADA
Funeral services are being held this afternoon in Floydada for Mrs. Effie Cardwell, 46, the second victim of an automobile accident which occurred last Saturday night near Idaho.

Mrs. Cardwell, who suffered deep lacerations about her head and abdomen and sustained internal injuries, died yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium.

The body was taken in charge by Bynum Brothers and sent overland to Floydada. Survivors are two brothers, O. J. Blocker, of Roscoe, and L. L. Blocker, of Vernon, and three sisters, Mrs. Lela Cardwell, of Acquilla; Mrs. Rose Calloway, of Haskell; and Mrs. Bertie Adkins, of Rule.

Another occupant of the car, Mrs. Sam Berry, who sustained a bruised chest, severe cuts, is reported improving today at the Lubbock sanitarium. She spent a restless night, but her condition today gives hope for recovery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fred Bell, 40, who died shortly after the accident, were conducted Sunday at Kenney, her former home.

ALL EUROPE ON WATCH FOR DISTURBANCES

SOVIET UNION WILL BE LEADER; MEETINGS PROHIBITED
MOSCOW, April 30.—Preparations for May Day celebrations were in full swing throughout the Soviet union today. All work ceased at three p. m., to give the workers time to participate in the final plans for International Labor day.

Millions of yards of red bunting, hundreds of thousands of red electric light bulbs, and numerous other decorations were placed on government buildings, shops and homes last night.

ATHENS, April 30 (AP)—The police have prohibited all communist meetings here tomorrow.

WARSAW, Poland, April 30 (AP)—The Polish authorities are planning to concentrate strong forces to avert trouble tomorrow when members of the rival socialist and communist organizations hold May Day celebrations.

Numerous communists have been placed under detention as a precautionary measure.

LISBON, Portugal, April 30 (AP)—The Portuguese government gave notice today that no May Day demonstration would be permitted tomorrow.

PARIS, April 30 (AP)—The French government is holding a tight rein on May Day demonstration plans. The government today expelled twenty two foreigners accused of political agitation concerning May Day demonstrations and caused the arrest of 15 persons charged with inciting soldiers to disobey military orders.

Al Capone Winning Friends In Havana
HAVANA, April 30.—Largesse of Scarface Al Capone, Chicago business man and gangster, is winning him friends in Havana, whatever his status in Florida where officials are attempting to close his home under the nuisance law.

Arriving here yesterday by airplane from Miami, the gangster chief, seven of his henchmen and a physician took a corner suite on the third floor of an expensive hotel and made themselves at home.

Mr. Capone sent for a manicurist and the hotel barber to come to his room, and when they had finished he tossed each a five dollar bill. All calls were served there, the waiters and bell boys reporting tips of proportionate size. It was a great day for the all when he arrived.

'NAUGHTY PRINCE' TO LEAVE INAMORATA

PRINCE CAROL

BUCHAREST, Rumania, April 30 (AP)—Dashing Prince Carol, who sold the throne which was his birthright for life with a Milan-haired inamorata on the Parisian boulevards, may come back home and ask forgiveness of his wife, Princess Helen of Greece, who is mother of his son, King Michael.

The newspaper columnist says it has confirmation of rumors that the former Crown Prince is attempting a reconciliation with his wife and that he has broken off with Mme. Luescu. The Prince is supposed to have written a letter conveying this idea to the Princess at Easter.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. B. C. RIX HELD TODAY

PIONEER CITIZEN OF AREA DIES TUESDAY; CHILDREN HERE

Funeral services for Mrs. B. C. Rix, 76, pioneer West Texan, who died at the family residence, 2162 Broadway, Tuesday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock, are being held this afternoon at the home.

Bishop E. C. Seaman, of Amarillo, is conducting the services, assisted by Rev. L. G. H. Williams, rector of Saint Paul's-On-The-Plains church of this city. Burial will be in the Lubbock cemetery.

Died Of Heart Trouble
Mrs. Rix died as result of a heart attack suffered one month ago. All of her children and other relatives were at her bedside when the end came.

Born in Washington county, Wisconsin, Mrs. Rix moved to Texas in 1887, settling at Colorado City. In 1890 she moved to Big Spring with her husband and lived in that city until 1926 when the family came to Lubbock.

DAIRY DIRECTORS TO MEET, MAY 6

Directors of the Texas Panhandle Dairy association will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Plainview for the purpose of electing a manager and an executive committee, it was announced here today.

The meeting has been called by Henry Hopkins, manager of the Plainview Board of City Development, and also manager of the dairy association.

Two directors of the organization reside in Lubbock county. They are Glen Blackman, of Shallowater, and W. L. Stange, head of the animal husbandry department of Texas Technological college.

D. F. Eaton, Lubbock county agricultural agent, who is a former president of the association, is now an honorary vice-president. He will also attend the meeting.

IRON HAND OF MILITIA IS GUARDING OHIO PRISON; 1,000 GUARDSMEN ARL STATIONED AROUND WALLS AND INSIDE

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—The iron hand of the militia ruled Ohio penitentiary today after more than a week of tumult, climaxed yesterday when national guardsmen entered the prison to put down a mutiny that followed the death of 320 convicts in the fire a week ago Monday.

With nearly 1,000 national guardsmen, led by Colonel Robert Haubrich, on duty inside and outside the prison walls, the situation has been quiet since prison guards raised bullets into the prisoners' ranks and ended an attack on the barred doors of "White City," the old house.

Atmosphere Tense
An atmosphere of tensely still was evident, however, and the revolting convicts, idle since the fire, apparently had not entirely abandoned their "passive resistance" movement by which they hoped to bring about the removal of Warden Preston E. Thomas.

After Colonel Haubrich had led his men into the prison, the staff of prison guards went to the outside, leaving the soldiers in charge. A few of the guards had returned today.

Investigating Statement
Prison officials were investigating a guard's statement that the first shot was fired by a convict. Warden Thomas said the guard, whose name was withheld, told him that no shooting occurred until a bullet came from the direction of the cell blocks.

Two convicts were wounded, one seriously, as the bullets assailed the Chequamegon Bay region as fighters backed in an attempt to save threatened farm dwellings. Near Herbert, Wis., 125 men worked to extinguish a blaze spreading northward toward Lake Superior over thousands of acres of forest. Approximately 4,000 acres have already been burned.

More Than 250 Men Fight Forest Fires

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 30.—More than 250 men today fought fires burning over approximately 20,000 acres of Wisconsin's forests. A heavy smoke hung over the entire Chequamegon Bay region as fighters backed in an attempt to save threatened farm dwellings.

Meat Storage Unit Is Asked In City

Application was made this morning at the city hall for a permit to construct a $12,000 wholesale meat storage building for Swift & Company.

The new structure is to be erected at 601-602 Avenue G. Sampson Construction company has been awarded contract for the erection work.

When the permit is granted valuations in Lubbock for April will be increased to $101,395 and to $1,029, 190 for the year.

ELEVATORS ARE BOUGHT

CORPORATION CONTROL SOUGHT FOR 140 IN 2 STATES

(By Associated Press)
ENID, Okla., April 30—John Manley, general manager of the Oklahoma Wheat Growers' association, said last night plans rapidly are taking form for the control of at least 140 rural grain elevators in Northwest Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle by the Oklahoma Wheat Pool Corporation, a subsidiary of the Wheat Growers' association.

Manley said it was hoped to have control of the elevators by harvest time. Elevators are being acquired almost daily, through purchase and construction, he said.

The expansion move has resulted in the investment of approximately $1,000,000 not including the 1,500,000 bushel terminal elevator under construction in Enid as the key storage point to the corporation's system.

ANOTHER WELL BROUGHT

BEEVILLE, April 30—The fourth of producer in the Bee county area, Humble Oil & Refining company's No. 2 McKinney, was completed today at 3,850 feet for an estimated 550 barrels of high gravity oil daily. The well is located 600 feet north of Humble's discovery well.

TERRY COUNTY HAS GREATER ERA OF PROGRESS AHEAD; BUSINESS HOLDING UP WELL; FINANCIAL STATUS IS GOOD

(By Staff Correspondent)

BROWNFIELD, April 30—Approximately 25 per cent of the farmers of Terry county are tenants and the remainder own and operate their own farms, J. E. Shelton, secretary of the chamber of commerce, reports.

Late surveys show 1,387 farmers in the county. There are about 180,000 acres under cultivation and three large ranches, the East Brownfield ranch, the West Brownfield ranch and the Poole Brothers and Goodman ranch.

"Many of our farmers bought their places during the high price of cotton around 1919," Mr. Shelton explained. "They were thus able to pay for the place with a couple of good cotton crops at high prices."

Explains Condition
 "I think this explains why Terry county farmers at this time are in such good financial condition. They do not have any heavy interest charges to pay at the banks."

Merchants report their cash sales are holding up exceptionally well and that in the main dry goods and groceries are sold for cash to farmers.

"There is a reason for this," the chamber of commerce secretary said when his attention was called to what business men reported. "Our farmers sell butter, eggs and poultry all the year round. This brings them in about $250,000 a year so they can pay cash for what they need."

Much in Cultivation
 A recent survey made by the chamber of commerce shows 80,000 acres in cotton land, 60,000 acres in corn and 20,000 acres in grain sorghums.

Only a small amount of wheat land is in the crop this year. Not to exceed 400 acres according to best estimates.

There are five gins in Brownfield that were operating last year and that are expected to operate this year. One gin did not run during the 1929 season.

Terry county has twelve gins in all, the rural gins numbering six.

Gin 23,500 Bales
 During the 1929 season approximately 23,500 bales of cotton were ginned in the county. The Brownfield gins handled some 14,000 bales.

The compress at Brownfield has on hand at this time around 600 bales of cotton according to R. L. Harris, Santa Fe agent. Most of these belong to one man.

Corn Crop Short
 "Last year the corn crop was short," Mr. Shelton said. "We only raised around 700,000 bushels. The railroad company handled a lot but the farmers shipped by truck to a considerable extent."

Corn Crop Short
 "We estimated our crop was short half a million bushels of corn as the normal crop is 1,250,000 bushels." The A. M. Brownfield ranch west

Plans Arranged For Ince-Herbert Affair

LOS ANGELES, April 30—Plans for the wedding May 15 of Mrs. Elinor Kerzhaw Ince, 45, widow of the late Thomas Ince, motion picture producer, and Holmes Herbert, 47, screen player, were being made here today.

Mrs. Ince's marriage to Herbert will deprive her of her share of the $1,600,000 Ince estate, as under the terms of her late husband's will she is to receive only the interest from her share in the event of her remarriage.

of town has about 10,000 acres while the east ranch is the largest, 30,000 acres. Poole Brothers and Goodman own a 10,000-acre ranch.

On these ranches are about 7,000 cattle. The Brownfield ranches have about 5,000 head, most of them on the west ranch. The Poole Brothers and Goodman ranch has 2,000 head. There are some scattered herds around the county.

Dairy cattle number 3,500 the chamber of commerce has found. Most of the cream is shipped by local stations to Lubbock. Something like 75 to 100 cans a week go out by train.

Lubbock, Denver, Kansas City and Amarillo get the cream. Four big shippers are in Brownfield, Armour and Co., Swift and Co., Titman Egg and Cream Corporation and the Lubbock Poultry and Egg Co.

Many farmers have hogs and feed them grain sorghums. The hog shipments now are averaging four or five cars a week, according to the Santa Fe agent. The chamber of commerce estimates 150 cars of hogs averaging 80 to a car, were shipped between April 1, 1929 and April 1, 1930.

SUICIDE PACT IS HINTED IN WOMEN'S CASE

ATTORNEY DECLARES LETTER INDICATES AGREEMENT

(By Associated Press)
LAGUNA BEACH, Calif., April 30—Discovery among personal effects of Adele Ritchie, erstwhile stage star, of a code telegram and a letter indicating the possible existence of a suicide pact with her friend, Mrs. Doris Murray Palmer, wealthy divorcee, today formed the basis for a renewed investigation into the deaths of the two women.

Moresby White, attorney for Miss Ritchie, divorced wife of Guy Bates Post, noted actor, said the letter, addressed to him, indicated his client contemplated taking her own life and she was to be joined in the death plan by Mrs. Palmer.

Friends of the women admitted the possibility that a suicide agreement had been discussed, but discounted the theory that Thursday's tragedy resulted from such a pact. They cited that Mrs. Palmer was shot first in the back, indicating she was attempting to escape death. The verdict rendered by a coroner's jury was that Mrs. Post shot Mrs. Palmer in a jealous rage and later turned the gun on herself.

White said he had hundreds of letters and notes that had passed between the two women over a period of several months. The communications all were of a personal nature, he said, and revealed a strong bond of affection between the couple.

"The bright child in the London elementary schools has now all forms of higher education, up to the university, open to him," said Sir John Gilbert, chairman of the London Education Committee, recently.

Railroad Group To Hear Plea On Rates

AUSTIN, April 30

(AP)—The railroad commission announced today that at its regular session beginning May 15, it would hear the petition of the Fort Worth Freight Bureau and Texas Chemical company for revision of rates on crude sulphur from Freeport to Fort Worth and Hodge. It was alleged the present rate was "excessive, unjust, unreasonable and discriminatory in and to the extent to which it exceeds a rate of 19 cents per 100 pounds, minimum weight 80,000 pounds," the rate on crude sulphur from Freeport to Shreveport, La.

Suits Filed On Gasoline Taxes

AUSTIN, April 30—Assistant Attorney General Rice M. Tilley today filed suit in Travis county district court against E. T. Anderson and son of El Paso and Wichita Tractor company of Wichita Falls, alleging they were delinquent in payment of occupation taxes on gasoline and had not obtained permits to sell gasoline as distributors. The Andersons were restrained from selling gasoline and also from disposing of any of their property.

World's Fastest Freezing — proved in nation-wide test —

In a country-wide test on March 18, Kelvinator dealers in 48 states and the District of Columbia, reported that Kelvinator's wonderful Super-Fast Freezing froze water to solid ice in from 45 to 155 minutes.

The average of all freezing tests was 80 minutes. Even the outside figure—155 minutes—is far faster than any other automatic freezing known to domestic electric refrigeration.

Only Kelvinator domestic models have the famous Iso-Thermic Tubes, without which automatic super-fast freezing is impossible.

These tubes, acting as a cold plate, give amazingly fast freezing, automatically. No regulation is needed. Nothing to tax the memory.

Only with Kelvinator can you freeze ice rapidly without lowering the temperature in main food compartment. Foods can never be spoiled through too low a degree of cold.

4-WAY COLD

- 1 Automatic Fast Freezing—Remarkably fast freezing in all ice and dessert trays. The de luxe Kelvinator gives you far more ice, size for size, than any other domestic refrigerator.
- 2 Super-Fast Automatic Freezing—automatically speeds the freezing of ice cubes and desserts in a special compartment—without attention or regulation.
- 3 Cold Storage—A large compartment with below-freezing cold, for storage of extra ice cubes, frozen salads, desserts, or those new frozen meats, fish and fruits you now find at many stores.
- 4 Automatically Controlled Cold—Constant, scientific refrigeration in all food compartments—always below 50 degrees.

The model Kelvinator you require may be purchased on easy terms through Kelvinator's attractive RadioCo monthly budget plan.

BROWNFIELD UP IN ARMS OVER CENSUS

FEDERAL COUNT SAID TO BE 211 LOWER THAN POPULATION

(By Staff Correspondent) BROWNFIELD, April 30.—Residents of Brownfield are all worked up over the wide disparity between the federal census figures and those secured by a special census made by W. B. Toome, superintendent of schools.

In his special census, taken just before the federal enumerator began her work, Mr. Toome found 2,103 people living within the corporate limits of the town. The school man spent considerable time checking and rechecking his figures and information.

U. S. Total Is 1,892 When Dr. I. E. Barr in Lubbock announced his totals they were 211 fewer than those of the Brownfield man. The federal figures were 1,892.

"I am inclined to believe that Mr. Toome's figures are more nearly correct," J. E. Shelton, secretary of the chamber of commerce, said. "We went over them with him very carefully and we are satisfied that he has just about as near the actual figures as it is possible to secure."

"Also, we have found numerous people who say they have not been enumerated, Mr. Toome, by the way, was not counted in the federal census. There are many others."

Others Reported Uncounted "The linotype operator in our office here and her husband were not counted in the government census," A. J. Strickland, editor of the Brownfield Herald, declared. "I have heard myself of a number of other people who were not counted."

Formal protest against considering the government figures as final will be made by the chamber of commerce and by others, Mr. Shelton said.

"FOUR HORSES"

Man Gets Proof Of Farmer's Property

DODGE CITY, April 30.—(AP)—Ed Virts wasn't expecting a snap exactly when he took the job as census enumerator. Still, he was hardly prepared to become a principal in an act combining all that was fine about Ben Hur with the charge of the light brigade.

Finding A. D. Long working in a field, Virts boarded his disc and, sitting about the beam, unfurled a farm schedule which the Kansas breeder instantly snapped shut, then whipped it to the eyes of the lead team.

The apparently somnolent steeds galvanized. Enumerator Virts found himself asking Farmer Long what language he spoke, while being given a splendid opportunity to judge for himself.

The horses wheeled the disc around the field like a war chariot at a Roman circus, farm and unemployment schedules fluttering down like confetti at Mardi Gras.

Finally the tide of battle turned and the dashing steeds were quieted.

"That's one bit of census information I can vouch for," muttered Enumerator Virts as he retrieved a farm schedule from beneath a clod and opposite the name of A. D. Long, wrote "four horses."

In 1874 a law was passed in France ordering the manufacturers of handkerchiefs to make them square.

(By Staff Correspondent) BROWNFIELD, April 30.—Carl Benson, former army pilot and veteran of the world war, is now engaged in training several Brownfield men in the art of flying.

Benson has been making his headquarters here for the past month. He has a pretty fair sized field on the Brownfield ranch where he works. He also uses the field north of town and keeps his plane there.

One of his students is Dick Brownfield, who has the field on his ranch. He owns a plane and has almost completed enough hours to pass the pilot's test. Dick is a man in middle life, son of the late A. M. Brownfield for whom the town was named.

According to Benson, Dick is a first class mechanic and is fast picking up the rudiments of flying. Benson's home is in Lamesa where he has lived for years. He has been in business there and also gives instruction in flying.

Since coming to Brownfield Mr. Benson has secured three or four regular students besides a number of others who have taken a few lessons and who plan to finish their courses later.

One of his stunts is to do airplane advertising. He will distribute handbills over the town, from the plane. Benson will fly low and toss out a bunch of handbills as he passes over the business section.

Two Children Burn To Death In Fire

MINNEAPOLIS, April 30.—Two children were burned to death and five other persons were burned or injured seriously in a fire that swept the Washburn apartment building here Tuesday.

More than 100 persons were driven into the streets by the fire, which firemen estimated caused about $50,000 damage.

FARM PRICES SHOWING GAIN

ALL PRODUCTS EXCEPT MEAT AND WOOL ADVANCE

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 30.—The department of agriculture, in a bulletin issued Tuesday, said the prices of all farm products except meat animals and wool advanced from March 15 to April 15. This is regarded by the bureau of agricultural economics as "some evidence that the downward course of farm prices the last seven months has been checked."

The bureau's index of farm prices is reported at 127 per cent of the pre-war level April 15, which is one point higher than March 15, but 11 points below a year ago.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND HIGHWAY SESSION

J. H. Hankins, president of the Carlsbad Cavern Highway association, and A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, are in Santa Fe, N. M., today for the purpose of conferring with members of the New Mexico Highway commission in regard to federal designation of Carlsbad Highway in that State.

The two Lubbock men accompanied a delegation of Lovington, N. M. citizens to the capital city.

Efforts will be made at this meeting to ascertain what position the State commission is planning with reference to the proposal for federal designation of the route.

Cuba bought nearly 129,000,000 worth of American goods last year.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH TEXAS INDIANS OF EARLY TEXAS HISTORY PRACTICED CANNIBALISM, PROFESSOR DECLARES

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, April 30.—Cannibalism was commonly practiced by Indians of Central and South Texas, Prof. J. E. Pearce of the University of Texas told the Texas State Historical association which opened its two-day convention here Tuesday.

Proof of the cannibalistic tendencies is furnished in the discovery of human bones, split open to permit the marrow to be eaten, Prof. Pearce stated. The discovery was made among the Indian kitchen middens of Central and South Texas, he said.

The Tonkawas and Caranuas were the two greatest offenders, the former eating human flesh as a ceremonial rite and the latter eating it for food.

Members of the Tonkawa tribe ate the soles of the feet and the palms of the hands of their enemies of war, he said, adding that the soles were eaten to gain greater fleetness of foot while the palms were devoured in order to become more adept with instruments of warfare.

Postal Receipts Given Increase BROWNFIELD, April 30 (Special)—Postoffice receipts for the Brownfield office have grown from $3,146.13 in 1920 to $10,353.04 for 1929, James H. Carpenter, postmaster, reports.

The increase in ten years represents 229 percent. Brownfield is a second class office and the postoffice department is prepared to give second class delivery of mail within the city limits whenever it is asked for.

As yet there is no general movement for free delivery. The city has sufficient paving and sidewalks to come within the department's requirements in that respect.

LUBBOCK SENDING TEN TO AUSTIN

Led by two coaches, ten students of Lubbock High school left today for Austin where they will participate in the Texas Interscholastic League meet Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

TAT-MADDUX Coast to Coast FLIGHT!

WHEN Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, with Mrs. Lindbergh as navigator, flew his Wasp-motored Lockheed plane from Glendale, California to New York City on a special test flight for T. A. T.-Maddux and Pennsylvania Railroad interests, Pennzoil furnished Safe Lubrication.

Successful in every respect, this 2700-mile speed test was made in 14 hrs. 45 min. 32 sec. including stop at Wichita—hours faster than the best previous time! And it opened up new possibilities in high altitude transport flying.

Again Colonel Lindbergh has contributed greatly to the progress of aviation. Again regular, everyday Pennzoil, familiar for its outstanding quality to motorists throughout the nation, has proven its complete dependability under the most exacting requirements.

Pennzoil of the same, identical quality is available to motorists from 13,000 independent dealers in the West.

Home Demonstration Clubs Of Lubbock County Observe Better Homes Week

Special Programs Are Given; Efforts Made To Improve Conditions Of Farms

DO OUR HOMES meet the necessary requirements for the present high standards of living? This question is being given special consideration this week, known as Better Homes Week, by the various communities in Lubbock county. Interesting programs are being given by the county Home Demonstration clubs, and efforts are being made to add to the comfort, convenience, and beauty of the homes.

Chairman of the Lubbock county Home Demonstration clubs in charge are as follows: Mrs. Herbert Cade, Union; Mrs. O'Neal, Carlisle; Mrs. E. T. Bryant, New Hope; Mrs. J. R. Carter, Harby; Mrs. D. S. Rucker, McClung; Mrs. Eugene Payne, Beeson; Mrs. J. N. Montgomery, Acuff; Mrs. W. H. Arms, County Line; Mrs. Ed Schoeder, Wolfarth; Mrs. L. A. Armstrong, Foster.

"The thousands of local Better Home committees," says Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Better Homes in America, "command the best information and aid that various national organizations and bureaus of the government can furnish. By means of their practical local demonstrations, they reach not only families who are meeting problems for the first time, but others who are striving to improve their home environment and to bring up healthy, happy children, well fitted to carry on the tasks that lie ahead in our national life."

A remarkable yard improvement has been made by Mrs. L. A. Armstrong of the Foster Home Demonstration club. She has planted 187 trees, has filled in the front yard and sodded it, and has piped water into her kitchen as well as to the front yard.

Mrs. Armstrong is a firm believer that beautiful surroundings are an important factor in home-making and she believes that the farm family must grow its own fruit and vegetables.

Evergreens Planted
One hundred and five evergreens were planted around two sides of the garden to form a windbreak and to furnish a background for the home, and 40 shade trees were used for the same purpose. Twelve evergreens were planted in the front yard.

Thirty fruit trees, including apple, peach, plum, and cherry, were planted in the orchard.

Forty-Two Played By TNT Members

Mrs. Sam Parkinson, 2005 8th street, was hostess to members of the T. N. T. club Tuesday afternoon at her home. Games of forty-two were played and at the close of the afternoon lovely plates of nut salad, cold tea and date cake were passed. Those present were Mesdames J. B. Hale, George Rayburn, Ira Wilson, Clyde G. Tatum, T. L. Lam and Edna Payne.

WASHINGTON.—While Mrs. Hoover attends few social functions outside the White House her three girl secretaries are often seen at various affairs.

"It Gave Me Health," Says Plainview Farmer

"After Two Years Suffering, One Bottle Of Argotane Relieved Me"

"I have been relieved of two years' awful suffering and feel stronger and have more energy than I have had in several months and all this is due to Argotane," said T. H. Hammonds, living on rural route 1, Plainview, Texas, while talking with the Argotane agent.

"I had a number of troubles," continued Mr. Hammonds, "but my worst troubles were my stomach and liver. I hardly had an appetite at all and if I would eat anything, I would suffer from indigestion and gas would form and at times I felt as if I would burst and would be very uncomfortable. I would have severe pains in my back which was caused from my liver and had a very bad case of constipation. I had an awful tired feeling and would wake up in the morning feeling so no-account that I would not want to get out of bed.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Allen have returned to their home in Plainview after a business visit here today.

R. J. Mallory of Amarillo is transacting business here today.

Rev. W. A. Nicholas of Abilene, superintendent of the West Texas Children's Aid and Welfare association, is visiting here today.

Mrs. F. W. Osborn, 2404 15th street, is ill at the Lubbock sanitarium.

Betty Sue Crites, 2117 9th street, is recuperating from a minor operation.

L. A. Daniel of Hobbs, New Mexico, spent Tuesday in Lubbock.

Forrest Wicker of Snyder is a visitor in Lubbock.

Doyle Wheeler of Ralls spent Tuesday in this city.

Large Crowds Hear Methodist Minister

Dr. L. L. Evans, visiting Methodist minister from Waco, addressed an audience this morning at the First Methodist church on the subject "How to Live Life Contentedly."

"Godliness with contentment is a pearl of great price," Dr. Evans said in part. "By contentment, I do not mean possession of riches which is thought by the average person to bring contentment, but instead I speak of ease, quietude, and a ceasing from strife and struggle."

Paul, the apostle, was mentioned as an example of a man of this type, since he declared of himself, "I have learned whatever state I am therein to be content."

In his dissertation on contentment the minister outlined well-known philosophies of history, but declared that they lacked the essential of love that Christ brought in his teachings.

"When our lives become controlled by the love of Jesus Christ we have learned the great lesson of living contentedly," concluded the speaker.

Speaks on Tuesday
"Three Lost Souls" was the theme of a sermon delivered last night before approximately 700 persons.

Dr. Evans listed in the beginning of his discourse the three parables told by Jesus, as recorded in Luke 15, concerning the lost sheep, the lost coin and the prodigal son.

The speaker brought out that the sheep was lost through no intention of its own and pointed out that "a river becomes crooked by following the line of least resistance and just so will people lose their lives by drifting along with no particular purpose."

Tells of Lost Coin
He spoke of the coin being lost through carelessness, and declared that the attitude of an individual greatly affects his companion, and that "boys and girls seem to have very little chance to be religious in the average American home today." Money and pleasure were mentioned as taking the place of a regard for spiritual welfare.

Speaking on the prodigal son, the minister stated that he was lost by his own decision but the fine thing about his life was that he resolved to go home and begin again.

The sermon as announced for this morning at 9 o'clock is "How to Live Contentedly."

"When God Measures a Man" is the subject for the sermon tonight.

ULTRA-SOPHISTICATED FROCKS

Ultra-sophisticated is Tollman's glamorous, gleaming white party gown (at left) for romantic evenings. It is made of white tulle tiers below a fitted bodice and panels of lace embroidered heavily in tubular beads, strass and silver. Each flounce of the tiers has a line of silver around the edge. Ropes of pearls are worn for necklace and bracelets and a shining silver lame turban adds its stunning touch.

Post-Lenten party frocks are exquisitely made so they are wickedly frivolous or wickedly demure. Worth achieves a youthful note of demureness in his very pretty evening gown (at right) of gray lace and tulle. Short sleeves and veiled tiers of the lace for side panels are quaint and twice effective for the very low rear décolletage and spray of vivid red roses across the back of the waistline.

Social Hour Follows Program Tuesday When Daleth Delphians Hold Meeting

Members of Daleth Delphian chapter met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Arthur L. Brown, 2123 23rd street, for a program and social hour. Restoration drama furnished the theme for the various talks.

Opening the meeting was a preliminary survey of the subject for discussion by Mrs. David S. Martin, and Mrs. R. I. Tubbs was leader for the afternoon.

Reports were made on the following topics: "Relation of Drama to Political and Social Life," Mrs. Harby Hall; "General Character of Late Stuart Drama," Mrs. John R. Hall; "Later Stuart Tragedy," Mrs. Ed O'Sullivan; "Types of Later Stuart Drama," Mrs. Lee Ragland.

Talks also were made on "Congreve" by Mrs. J. C. Orr, "Love for Love" by Mrs. L. B. Sliester, and "The Country Wife" by Mrs. C. E. Macgovern.

Interest was shown in a round-table discussion of the wit involved in Restoration comedy.

Reviews of four recent drama from the Delphian quarterly were given by Mrs. O. R. Copeland, and Miss Lillah Boone reviewed a current drama which she saw at Oxford.

Mrs. W. S. McDonald, president, gave an account of the district meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs held recently in Pampa, and stated the talk by Mrs. William Dingus of this city, who used as her subject "Higher Education for Women" was especially good.

Featuring the social hour was a "tea" contest led by Mrs. Arthur L. Brown. Mrs. Frank Owen Jones and Mrs. C. M. Chandler led for first place and were presented with leopards in ornamental designs.

A lovely salad course was passed at the close of the afternoon. Thirty-two members, including Mrs. W. C. Wood and Mrs. C. A. Buckley, who attended for the first time, were present. Two visitors, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Leland Maat, also attended.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon April 6 in the home of Mrs. L. B. Sliester, 2013 10th street.

Prof. Waghorne Will Present Students

Three poetic impressions, "Sunday Morning in Brittany," "Gloom on the Moray Firth" and "The Soul of Vienna," piano numbers composed by Prof. W. R. Waghorne, head of the department of music at Texas Technological college, will be played by Miss Pauline Holland, a senior at the college, tomorrow at Abilene.

A quartet for violin, clarinet, French horn and piano also composed by Mr. Waghorne will be played. The occasion is the annual meeting Texas Federation of Music clubs.

"April—A Pastoral Fantasy," the quartet number, will be played by Fred Farly, violin; Alene Houston, clarinet; Lynn Gray Gordon, French horn, and the composer will preside at the piano.

The three orchestral instrumentalists are Tech students, and according to Mr. Waghorne, performers at Texas composers concerts are generally mature artists who are well known throughout the state. A single honor has thus been conferred on these Tech students in being invited to play at this Thursday evening program.

Early Thursday morning, May baskets will be left on the doors of shut-ins by members of the Wakshaki Camp Fire group. These baskets were made by the girls themselves, and each will contain a gift as well as spring flowers.

FAST SERVICE TO SOUTHWEST TO BE GIVEN

COMPLETE DAY SERVICE LESS THAN USUAL COST OFFERED

(By Associated Press)
 ST. LOUIS, April 29.—Twenty-four hour air-mail passenger service between New York City and the southwest, at less than the rail and pullman fares, will be inaugurated May 1 over a combined schedule of the Pennsylvania Railroad, T. A. T.-Maddux lines and Southwest Air Fast Express. It was announced here today by T. A. T.-Maddux.

The combined schedule calls for travel on the Airway limited of the Pennsylvania railroad between New York and Columbus, Ohio, T. A. T.-Maddux lines to St. Louis and a transfer at St. Louis to planes of the Southwest Air Fast Express. The traveler leaves New York at 6:05 p. m. and arrives at Dallas, at 6:15 p. m. the next day. Service eastbound is over the same route, leaving Dallas at 7:55 a. m. and arriving in New York at 9:25 o'clock the next morning.

The air-rail fare from Dallas to New York City will be $6.24 less than the rail and pullman fare and the saving in time will be eighteen hours.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

Not far away the Tinsles found a very pretty eating ground. It was an open garden where the tables all were free. Course Clowry then began to tease. Said he, "On gee, now can't we please sit down and eat right here. 'Twill be as comfy as can be."

The Travel Man just smiled a bit. "Sure! 'Tis a dandy place to sit," said he. "I'll buy you all a glass of milk. That will taste great. And then, with cheese and crackers too, that ought to tickle all of you." "You bet it will," one Tiny cried. "Oh, I can hardly wait!"

A waiter waited on the bunch and helped them have a dandy lunch. Wee Scouty cut the Edam cheese and passed big shares around. They all made sandwiches real quick with crackers that were crisp and sleek. Soon birds flew down and ate the crumbs that fell upon the ground.

"Oh, I am going to find a pet," cried Clowry. "Watch, now! I'll just bet that I can get a little bird to eat out of my hand." He filled his hand with crumbs and then a little bird flew down again and sat on Clowry's thumb. "Oh, my, cried Scouty. "That is grand!"

The air until it made them light and then went to a stream nearby. The Travel Man explained it was a fine canal. Said he, "These flow all through the countryside and on them big canal boats ride. Now, if you want to see a funny sight, just come with me."

LAND SALES ARE ACTIVE

TERRY COUNTY SELLS 120 FARMS; 35 NEW FARMERS

BROWNFIELD, April 30 (Special)—Approximately 120 land sales for Terry county farms have been recorded since September 1, J. E. Shelton, secretary of the chamber of commerce said today. The sales were up to April 1.

"We checked over these sales and found that there were 35 sales of farms of from 100 to 640 acres to non-residents of Terry county," Mr. Shelton said. "This means that we have 35 more farmers in the county now than we had last year."

The rest of the sales were trades for the most part, either farmers exchanging their property for another one or a farmer selling to a town resident who decided to move back to the farm.

Refuses Vow

NEW YORK.—A Canadian nurse who attended American soldiers in France, but who refuses to promise to take up arms for the country, is appealing to the courts from rejection as a citizen by naturalization examiners. Miss Averil Bland, born in Ingersoll, Ont., the daughter of an English clergyman, told Federal Judge Donohy that religious beliefs forbade her personally to bear arms but that she would nurse wounded in the event of war. The court reversed decision.

X-Ray Makes Things Hard For Oysters, Runners

CHICAGO, April 30 (AP)—There simply isn't any privacy any more—not even for a hard working, pearl producing oyster.

This was revealed today by R. E. Landauer, physicist, who spoke at the opening session of the American Society of radiological technicians. X-ray is to blame.

With modern X-ray apparatus one can tell whether an oyster contains a pearl, without bothering to open the oyster, Landauer said.

The hazards of carrying contraband liquor also have been greatly increased by the rapid development of X-ray and the government is contemplating the use of X-ray by its prohibition and customs agents to detect contraband bottles and the like, Landauer declared.

Marriage Licenses Decline In Terry

BROWNFIELD, April 30 (Special)—Marriage licenses in 1930 have fallen off more than 50 per cent over the first four months of last year, Rex Headstream, county clerk, reported today.

"We issued but 15 licenses since the first day of January, up to the close of this month," he said. "Last year for the same period we issued 27 licenses."

Most of the young people who go out of the state to get married go to Roswell, although some prefer Lovington. Roswell is generally the choice, Mr. Headstream said, because it was a larger town than Lovington.

ROVING THE SPORTS WORLD

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
JOURNAL SPORTS EDITOR

Lubbock baseball fans have some- what of a treat in store for them here Friday afternoon when the long-whiskered House of David aggregation unloads its bats at Merrill Park for a skirmish with the Hubbers nine. The Lubbies slugging boast one of the strongest traveling baseball clubs outside of the majors and those who have seen the long-haired boys in action declare the team is everything that the press agents say it is.

In addition to a full lineup of fence busters, the Benton Harbor colony nine has a flashy fielding combination, featuring Walter Faust at shortstop and the elongated John Tucker at the initial sack. Tucker is the team's leading comedy artist, taking a lead in the club's well-advertised pepper game before each exhibition.

Ray Morrison, S. M. U. gridiron mentor, is leading the Methodist institution along the path that extends into national collegiate prominence. The Mustangs take on Notre Dame and the Navy next fall in two of the season's outstanding inter-sectional engagements. The Pony leader is also the central figure in a mid-summer coaching school to be conducted in Dallas, July 1 to 14. The assembly of coaching experts helping Morrison will include Howard Jones, Southern California's famous coach, and Ward Lambert, Purdue's basketball tutor and winner of the recent Big Ten championship.

Indications are the Mustangs will have another powerful football machine next fall, thanks to a promising array of recruits from the freshman squad. T. C. U. can hardly expect to have a club that compares favorably with the championship team of 1929. When Coach Schmidt lost Howard Grubb, just about fifty per cent of his football eleven was missing. Cy Leland, of course, will be the main thrust on the T. C. U. entry—that is, if the "Blond Blizzard" chooses to play football next fall. For the first time in many seasons, the Rice Owls are due to come out of the Southwest Conference circle. Jack Meagher starting things moving at the Institute last season and with a wealth of great freshman stars scheduled for varsity competition this year, the outlook is anything but dark.

IDEA OF ONE BIG INNING SEEMS TO BE TAKING IN MAJORS; GIANTS AND BROOKLYN CARRY IT TOO FAR TUESDAY

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

The idea of having one big inning to win a baseball game seems to be coming more and more into vogue in the major leagues, either by accident or intent. The sluggers of the big leagues, now finding their batting eyes rapidly after a slow start, are becoming a group of opportunists, pounding out enough runs to gain the victory at the moment the opposing pitcher weakens.

The seven big league games played yesterday gave just one set of illustrations of this fact out of the many that have turned up lately. Three of these seven were decided directly by the one big inning, while the same factor had an important bearing on the result of the Brooklyn-New York Giant slugging match in which most of the innings were big ones. The Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals had no chance to hit, due to wet grounds.

Carried To Last
The Robins and the Giants carried the idea to its limit as Brooklyn won for the second time in a row by a score of 19 to 15. Brooklyn scored eleven runs off four Giant pitchers in the second frame only to have the Manhattan warriors come back with a nine run third frame.

Philadelphia's National league club likewise won a game in one inning with the Boston Braves as their victims. After seven scoreless innings of a duel between Ray Senge of the Phillies and Bob Smith of Boston, Philadelphia suddenly are watching the last-place Yankees play in New York. The only explanation we can dig up for this is that in Manhattan they've become so used to pennants they think last place is something to be proud of.

A glimpse at the baseball stand-column at this writing is enough to join to the ancestors of the average sports page reader and baseball fan. With the Washington Senators perched upon the top roost, the Chicago White Sox in the second hole and the once-powertful New York Yankees in the cellar, we are once more reminded of that classic—Take nothing for granted in baseball.

At the beginning of the current campaign, the Senators of Walter Johnson were not rated as having an outside chance to finish higher than seventh place. Maybe they haven't but in recent games the Nationals have beat what is supposed to be their strongest competition consistently. Three straight from the Athletics and now two in a row from the New Yorkers. Bob Shawkey, the new Yankee pilot, is finding himself in a troublesome place, picking up the job that the late Miller Huggins handled and attempting to fill a number of vital spots with rookie talent. On top of this Bob the Gob must rely upon a number of declining stars, such as Ruth, Pennock, Hoyt and Phipps who have indicated a tendency to start downhill.

Lacking anything like the class of the World's Champion Athletics, the Yankees also face the recent challenge of such up-and-coming teams as the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland Indians and now it's the Washington Senators.

Quite a few experts picked the New York Giants as the team to beat out in the National League pennant before the season started and now it appears that these predictors must have been on the inside. Away to a good start, the McGraw Clan seem to have found their stride. Jack Meagher starting things in Marshall at second base and Rothermel in the outfield. Looks like the Gotham fans will have to look to the Polo Grounds for their championship, if such is brought to the big city this year. Early season predictions, however, hold little weight.

started hitting in the eighth to score all its runs in an 8 to 2 triumph.
The Pittsburgh Pirates gave the Chicago Cubs seven runs in the first three innings and got them all back in one to beat the National league champions 13 to 9. The Pirates picked up a few runs first, but it was the seven counters in the sixth that gave them their ninth victory in eleven games and put them at the top of the National league standing.

The Washington Senators produced the only big inning in the four American league games to win their eighth in a row and make their winning streak the longest either major league has seen this year. They also gave away seven runs in three innings, then tied the score in the third as they pounded Tom Zachary and Roy Sheridan from the mound and went on to defeat the New York Yankees 11 to 8.

Athletics Win
The Philadelphia Athletics were content to get their runs in pairs, but led by Al Simmons and Mickey Cochrane, they got four twosomes and a single to beat the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 5.

Old Red Faber of the Chicago White Sox brought forth one of the day's two good pitching feats as Chicago downed the Detroit Tigers, 8 to 6. Faber went the full nine innings, and, although he gave 14 hits, he fanned seven and had the backing of two home runs by Carl Reynolds and one by Bill Cassel. Cleveland's 6 to 4 victory over the

DALLAS CONTINUES TO LOSE; CUBS POUND CATS TO WIN

(By Associated Press)
About the biggest news in the Texas league today was Beaumont's fall from the seats of the mighty, brought about by the 10 to 8 trimming from the Wichita Falls Spudders coupled with Shreveport's 4 to 2 win over San Antonio.

Shreveport mounted to the top of the percentage column as a result of Beaumont's disaster, with Beaumont, Houston and Wichita Falls the other three ranking teams in that order.

Dallas Fans Uninterested
The fall from grace of Dallas to the tune of three straight losses to Houston—yesterday's by the score of 5 to 2—was emphasized by the size of the crowd on the home field generously estimated at around 400 cash paying customers. Skipper Jackie Atz will send his Steers against the exporters today and tomorrow. Hoping to bolster up the weak support accorded by home town fans, the gates will be thrown open by the new owner, Ed Dreyfus.

Dallas' loss threw the Steers into a tie for sixth and seventh with the Cubs of Waco. The Cubs did themselves proud at Fort Worth, taking the second straight game 4 to 1 from the Cats, who are but a jump ahead in the percentage sheets.

Statistics on yesterday's games credit Shreveport's win to the excellent hurling of spital artist Oscar Turo; Wichita Falls' victory to taking advantage of the breaks; Waco's to a home run by Piet with two on board, and Houston's to better ball playing in a closely contested game.

A man is made of certain chemicals, positive protons and negative electrons.
St. Louis Browns had the 1,101st appearance of Joe Sewell as its feature although he had nothing to do with the triumph. Joe was in no shape to play as he has been running a high temperature for two days, but he has missed but one game since he joined the Indians ten years ago and wanted to preserve his record. Johnny Hodapp's home run in the third, the first ever hit by a Cleveland player this season, was the leading factor in the overthrow of the Browns.

BATSMEN SET RECORD TUESDAY, APPARENTLY
NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—Major league batsmen must have set some sort of a slugging record yesterday although comparative figures are not available to prove it.

In the seven major league games played, the batsmen pounded out 186 hits good for 290 bases and scored 123 runs. Twenty-five errors were made and 39 pitchers saw service.

Slugging honors for the day, of course, went to the Brooklyn Robins and New York Giants, who pounded out 41 hits good for 62 bases, scored 34 runs and used up eight pitchers.

Brooklyn compiled a batting average of .488 for the day while the Giants satisfied themselves with an average of .404.

HOUSE-DAVID PLAYERS TO PLAY IN CITY

PUCKETT SELECTS MEN FOR GAME FRIDAY AT MERRILL PARK

A formidable diamond aggregation will trot out on the field for Lubbock Friday afternoon when the House of David club from Benton Harbor, Mich., stops off here for a single combat with the Hubbers nine.

Announcement of a tentative lineup for the locals this morning indicates the visiting Whiskered forces will encounter something more than passive competition in their skirmish here. Manager De Puckett has assembled a hard hitting and strong defensive outfit, drawing baseball stars from various sections of West Texas for the fray.

Pitchers Uncertain
It remains uncertain who will be on the firing line for the Hubbers Friday afternoon but the management is negotiating with several outsiders who are expected to be on hand for hurling service. Lefty Gregory, the Southland chucker, is likely to get first call and Zip Lee, of San Angelo, a West Texas league pitcher who has faced the House of David sluggers on two previous occasions, is the alternate. T. J. Wallace, a Tech student who bats from San Benito, will also be in line for a crack at the long-haired boys.

Three crack diamond stars from Littlefield will be included in the Hubbers' inner works but the remainder of the team has been picked from local talent. Dick Ratliff, former West Texas league batsman, will catch; Del Morgan will hold down first base; Mickey Ratliff will be on the keystone bag; Al Mueller will be on shortstop and Clarence Hodges, of Tech, will cover the hot corner.

In the outfield are three fly chasers from Tech. Evo Marshall will cavort in the sun field; Orville Brothers will be in center and Curtis Allen in right.

Following is the club roster of the House of David club: Manager Francis Thorpe; Atherton, 3b; Hipp, cf; Tucker, 1b; Tally, lf; Pederson, rf; Fause, ss; McCafferty, 2b; Fleming, c; Heckman, Tallis, Base, Caddy; New-pitchers and Anderson, utility.

CONTEST IS INVITED HERE

STATE CLOTHING WORK MAY BE HELD IN CITY NEXT YEAR

With an ambition to seek the 1931 contest for Lubbock, four students of Lubbock High School, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Watson, clothing teacher, left today for Houston, where they will appear at the State Clothing Contest Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Telegrams of invitation for the next meeting to be held in this city will be sent by civic clubs and the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Students competing from this city are Ethel Green, president of the home economics club, representing her organization; Anna Bird Spalding, afternoon dress; Florence Barrett, traveling costume; and Pauline Yeager, ideal school dress.

Lubbock was winner of the grand total prize last year.

Dolly Stark Quits As National Umpire

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—The National league has lost one of its best umpires, Albert (Dolly) Stark, because he couldn't stand the nervous strain.

In turning in his resignation to President John A. Heydler, Stark said he had come to the conclusion that the "nervous strain of umpiring was too much for him" and that he had decided that he should not try to make umpiring his life work.

Stark, who coaches baseball at Dartmouth in the winter, played considerable professional baseball in his younger days. He umpired his first big league game at Cincinnati on the opening day of the 1928 season.

Six Pairs Off In Texas Women's Play

TEXARKANA, April 30 (AP)—Six pairs of women golfers were matched today in the second round of the fourteenth annual Texas Women's Golf association tournament here.

The defending champion, Mrs. F. E. Phary of Texarkana, who yesterday defeated Mrs. F. C. Roebson, Wichita Falls, 6 and 5, was to meet Mrs. C. O. Collins, Fort Worth.

Other pairings were: Anna B. Thompson, Fort Worth, 16-year-old star, and Mrs. Charles Hunter, San Antonio; Kathryn Allen, Clarksville, and Mrs. L. B. Seagriff, Dallas; Mrs. C. C. Cary, Dallas, and Mrs. R. R. Mizell, Dallas; Mrs. Harry Munn, Texarkana, and Mrs. G. B. Stuart, Texarkana; Mrs. L. W. Magruder, Waco, and Mrs. George Thompson, jr., Fort Worth; Mrs. Thompson, incidentally, is the mother of Anna and should both win today, they would clash in the quarter-finals.

Mrs. W. E. Loomer, Dallas, yesterday won 5 and 4 over her sister, Mrs. A. M. Rhodes, also of Dallas.

Lamesa's New Golf Course Near Ready

LAMESA, April 30—(Special)—Workmen have been busy all this week getting Lamesa's nine-hole golf course in shape for spring play.

The fairways have been mowed and work on the greens is expected to begin sometime this week. The course will probably be ready within two weeks, according to A. G. Barnard, president of the Lamesa Golf club. A small banquet is being planned for the opening day, Barnard states. Invitations to golfers in other lower South Plains cities will be mailed soon for the opening celebration.

Tentative plans are for an inter-city golf tournament here during the fall. Players from Snyder, Big Spring, Midland, Lubbock, Tahoka and O'Donnell will be invited.

Thought For Today

Blessed is the man that endures temptation, for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life.—James 1:12.

He who has no mind to trade with the devil should be so wise as to keep from his shop.—South.

Doers

This country of ours has some funny customs, when you stop to think about it. During the last few years Americans have been doing material things on a bigger scale, probably than ever before in all history.

Hand-in-hand with this, however, has come the rise of a determined spirit of criticism. Never before have we had so many writers of reputation busily engaged in maintaining that these material accomplishments of ours are things of no account whatever.

A word—"Babbit"—has been invented. It is applied freely to all men and all business men—to all men, in fact, except those who think that making marks on paper is the chief end of man and the noblest exercise of the human spirit.

Now all of this, we submit, is a funny sort of development. In an era that is, presently, an era in which things are being done, we are indulging in an orgy of talking that goes beyond anything in our national experience. We are glorifying the writer—the talker, in other words—the man who says much and does little.

To be sure, every nation needs self-criticism. But haven't we a bit of an over-supply? Is all of this ink-slinging really necessary? Vast, some day, a really large-scale construction job in some American city. The experience is worth while, not only for its inherent interest but because it puts you in closer touch with the American spirit than a whole five-foot shelf of books.

Below you is an excavation big enough to hide the pyramids of Egypt—gouged out, casually enough, in a month's time. Above rises an enormous mass of masonry and steel, more stupendous than any of the breath-taking works of proud old Rome, flung sky-ward by a miraculous combination of human skill and mechanical ingenuity.

Thousands of tons of steel and stone are in place, each piece cut to shape and marked for its own peculiar spot before ever it left the factory or quarry. The sheer immensity of the job is over-powering, breath-taking.

Here you have action—things done that will help to shape the conditions of life for millions of men and women yet unborn. It is all the work of Babbit—men who read very little and write not at all. And it happens that it is precisely this sort of work which the present age will be remembered.

Of course, it is easy enough for the scribbler to maintain that it is all futile. But it is hard to give the scribbler a very high rating when you stand by the front of the doer's finished product.

"Isolation"?

Business Conditions Weekly, issued by the Alexander Hamilton Institute, points out that Great Britain's unemployment situation seems to be getting worse instead of better, and that signs of an improvement are not as yet very clear.

That, of course, is already known. But the publication points out that it is more of our concern in the United States than we ordinarily think.

"Great Britain," it remarks, "is exceeded only by Canada as a market for exports from the United States. Last year Great Britain bought goods from the United States amounting to nearly $500,000,000 or 16 per cent of the United States' total exports. A business revival in the United States depends to a certain extent upon improvement in Great Britain. This helps to explain the unreasonable optimism of expecting a quick recovery in business as a result of effects by the United States to revive, domestically, a business international in scope."

What, in view of such a fact, becomes of our "splendid isolation" that some politicians seem to prize so highly?

THE PLAINSMAN

Says:
That girl on Broadway says a so-called columnist such as the original Plainsman must have lots of imagination. He has to keep on imagining someone is reading his hooey.

When The Plainsman so graciously agreed to allow members of the editorial staff to write his pet brain storm for one day, he felt it was a great concession on his part—a favor to the "young smarties" who daily grovel under his harsh commands. Fact is, it was the answering of an ever-increasing demand for something bigger and better in the way of "wit and humor."

Says One—
As the "young smarties" undertook their task—if it may be called that—a deluge of "get-even" caustic criticisms poured in. Most of these verbal potshots will not be used. For, after all, The Plainsman is the boss. And, too, he has the final comeback. But if the followers (both of them) of this column are pleased with this column's pinchhitters, let us hear from you. The Plainsman is the boss. And, too, he has the final comeback. But if the followers (both of them) of this column are pleased with this column's pinchhitters, let us hear from you.

Says another—
This is the easiest job we ever had. It is just like a first nighter making wise cracks before an empty house. In this case we are concerned with delighting three persons: The Plainsman, The man on Avenue Q and That girl on Broadway. Writing is not far different from being on the stage. If the audience is large, the actor might become nervous in his efforts. But in this column a writer need not fear the scrutiny of his public. It's just like locking all doors and telling a few secrets in a "bull session" with three friends.

There is only one thought we would like to stress upon the minds of Journal readers. For ages The Plainsman has been the title of a column which has appeared daily in this paper. It may be found on the editorial page at the top of which is a smiling Westerner, peak hatted and smoking a cigarette. He is the subject of that book "The Man Nobody Reads."

AND AGAIN—
Well folks, no foolin', these here gawd pants 've heaped till many a column on dreamy days. The Plainsman yet, however, hath not acquired the nerve to don em. Predictions as he never will, what some dope to spring labor gas rates and et cetera, and coupled onto the fact there remaineth no room in them there gawd togs wherein he might put his broad and widespread and ever-present office-chair cushion.

Another one—
While The Plainsman is temporarily off his beat, we "the young smarties" take this opportunity to follow the bright and shining light (meaning The Plainsman himself) and stand up for all that's good and holy. We're not agin' extending the current Clean Up campaign to include the attic, for last year's brew bottles have long ago come out of their spring campaign.

THINGS we wonder if other people know about the Plainsman: That he sneezes every morning at 9 o'clock. That he has a son two years old named Mike who has red, curly hair and lives in Tulsa with his grandparents.

That he is not the elderly, kind old gentleman many folks who read his column imagine him to be, but is still in his twenties. That he does not like to eat by himself and will take someone to lunch rather than eat alone and that he never mixes his foods but eats bread before starting on meat and etc.

That he had just as soon witness an electrocution as to see a woman chewing gum. That he nicknames almost every one on his editorial staff and they answer to the call of "Ellen" and "Landy," "Blossom" and "Junior," "Maggie," "Precious" and "Wes," "Famous Feet," "The Port Arthur Fat Boy," and "Azel."

That his hair is cut like a pug-dog and he foams at the mouth when he finds his favorite barber on the golf links instead of on the job.

That Man on Avenue Q wants to have the calendar changed so that January the first will come about August 15, because on New Year's day you don't want to sleep and on any night in August you can't.

Some of our leading political party leaders remind us of the conning male actor in the modern-day talkies who caresses the sobbing beauty with that ultra-original expression, "Everything's gonna be all right." The Republican properly hoots and hollers much better if sung to the tune of "Singing in the Rain." After months and months of diligent investigating, we have been unable to find a Coolidge admirer who can point out one bit of constructive work the "Silent One" accomplished during his administration. The "versatile" Herbert Hoover has done little better than his "talkative" predecessor.

THE chance that comes once in a lifetime—writing a line or so in the famous Plainsman column is not going to be wasted by talking about the Plainsman himself. Some one should say something of interest to the women of the city.

Listen, Ladies, here's a hint for you personally. Why don't we build a club house here? Smaller places than Lubbock point with pride to their women's club houses, and this city has just the enthusiasm and cooperative spirit to put the thing over. Furthermore, there is no other enterprise now being attempted that would stand in the way of making the club house a real success.

Senate Debate On Unemployment Due To Break Soon In Spite Of April Improvement, Correspondent Dutcher Says

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two articles by Rodney Dutcher, Washington correspondent for this newspaper and NEA Service, discussing the unemployment situation.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Unemployment doubtless has decreased in April. During the first three months of this year the number of jobless persons did nothing but mount. That is the fact shown by the government's own figures. It is a fact, despite persistent optimistic assertions by government officials.

Assuming that the government's own figures are correct, the worst period of idleness is now possible to look back upon with such arduous labor finding some hope to spring anent gas rates and et cetera, and coupled onto the fact there remaineth no room in them there gawd togs wherein he might put his broad and widespread and ever-present office-chair cushion.

There is no assurance that anything of permanent importance will be done about unemployment in the near future, despite various proposals. But there has been an increasing national awareness both of the problem and its tendency to more frequent recurrence.

No Preparation for It
The recent employment slump showed that there was no machinery to measure the amount of enforced idleness and no machinery to deal with unemployment itself. It showed that administrations are unwilling to admit the real facts during severe unemployment and are even willing to misrepresent them. It showed that Congress could be too busy taking millions from American pockets for tariff-grabbers to worry about the matter of several million people being out of work.

Right from the first of this year the administration claimed a gradual decrease in unemployment. But the government's own figures—at least the only ones it had—crept right behind and indicated a steady increase. For each week in January and improvement was announced and then the Bureau of Labor Statistics' regular monthly survey showed that January unemployment had increased over December.

President Hoover and Secretary of Labor Davis differed by a million or so in their public guesses as to the number of unemployed—until Davis guessed again to square with his chief. Early in March Mr. Hoover announced that employment had gradually increased since early January—and a week later the hard cold figures and decimal points of the Bureau of Labor Statistics said the work the "Silent One" accomplished during his administration. The "versatile" Herbert Hoover has done little better than his "talkative" predecessor.

THE chance that comes once in a lifetime—writing a line or so in the famous Plainsman column is not going to be wasted by talking about the Plainsman himself. Some one should say something of interest to the women of the city.

Listen, Ladies, here's a hint for you personally. Why don't we build a club house here? Smaller places than Lubbock point with pride to their women's club houses, and this city has just the enthusiasm and cooperative spirit to put the thing over. Furthermore, there is no other enterprise now being attempted that would stand in the way of making the club house a real success.

What the Figures Show
If you wonder how much unemployment there was last March as compared with March in 1929 you might look at the bureau's index figures. These show that for every 100 persons employed in nearly 13,000 manufacturing plants in 1926 there were 89.8 in March, 1930, 90.3 in February and 90.2 in January as compared with 98.5 for March 1929. These figures don't come from the Communists; they're the government's own.

The most comforting thought is that, as usual, better conditions were anticipated for the present month. Also, there are those in Congress who think something ought to be done to prepare against the next large slump in employment. A subsequent article will tell about proposed remedies.

In New York With Swab
Gibert Swan

NEW YORK, April 30.—Much myth and mystery have been built over a period of years, around the titans of finance and business whose thrones-rove in Manhattan. They have been pictured as almost legendary figures, lurve in their entrances and exits, guarded by secretaries and detectives, hiding about like so many eremites. But a certain democratic unrestraint has gradually crept into the behavior of these giants of industrial and financial affairs. Not only have they come more and more into the open, but the entente cordiale established by their "public relations counsels" has opened their offices and some sections of their lives to the eyes of the press.

The vogue for biography has helped, since the candor and honesty of the modern biography have swept away a great deal of fog and hokum.

Thus, for instance, Clarence Mackay, the telegraph king, is to be seen regularly at the opera in his accustomed box, and has even appeared in the light of one who would take swords against Otto Kahn, the banker, for the spot of Metropolitan opera director. Kahn, himself, a busy financial king, is to be seen at any first night and many a less important occasion.

Vincent Astor is not only wide out in the open at premieres, but his latest appearances and side remarks have drawn fire from cash customers, critics and columnists.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., not only is to be found parading unattended, on "the avenue," but during certain seasons of the year he is one of the most famous of New York's commuters. He sits in the smoking car of a commuter's train, seeming interested in the newspapers and magazines he peruses en route. To be sure, he does not enter into the small details of the five-fifteeners, but his presence is taken for granted.

The sanctum sanctorum of the mighty, having been entered by the gentlemen of the press, take on a far more human complexion. I recall, a year or so ago, being offered the opportunity of visiting the offices of the J. Pierpont Morgan concern, only to find the office boy solving a crossword puzzle and another engaged in following a detective story. The various directors' personal offices were, for the most part, empty, and one gathered the impression that there was a great deal of activity covered by the efforts of efficient subordinates.

The vigorous activities of their earlier years almost invariably teach the financial kings to engage in a greater amount of play and recreation.

One of the most "old-fashioned" of the wards of millions is George P. Baker, whose name appears among the five richest men in America. He is, indeed, one of the few remaining mysterious figures. A man of 90, he remains active but is seldom seen except by his associates. It is said that he still appears at his Wall Street offices, but in the winter season he disappears in the general direction of Jersey Island, Georgia. Unlike other bankers, such as the Morgan interests, his immense transactions seldom creep into the prints. He has not organized vast corporations and thus plunged into the limelight, but he has influenced the lives of many of them. He is on the board of U. S. Steel, American Telegraph and Telephone, New York Central and many others. And while John D. Rockefeller still plays golf, he has discarded the game which he first learned at the age of 70.

It should be remembered that alcohol may be a very irritant to all organs, especially to the heart and blood vessels, kidney, stomach and liver, and that it has been proved to harm the germ plasma so that children born of drunkards may be defective.

Mrs. S. Our pamphlet on Kidney and Bladder Disorders answers your questions on the urine. See column rules.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose nor give personal advice. Your questions, if of general interest, will be answered in the column in their turn. Requests for articles or pamphlets on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope, plus the following small charge to help cover cost of printing and handling: for each article wanted, two cents in coin; for each pamphlet ten cents in coin. The pamphlets are Reducing and Gaining, Hygiene of Women, Kidney and Bladder Disorders. Address: Dr. Peters, in care of this paper. Write legibly, and not over 200 words.

Eight Hurt As Car Goes Wild

LONG IS OUT FOR CONGRESS PLACE

ABILENE, April 30. (AP)—Milburn S. Long, serving his fourth year as judge of the 42nd district court, last night announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for representative in congress from the 17th district in the July primary.

He will not be a candidate at the special election for a successor to Congressman R. Q. Lee, declaring he did not wish to oppose Mrs. Lee. Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, whom Lee succeeded, is the only other candidate now in the race.

Nebraska Woman To Demand Raskob Oust

LINCOLN, Nebr., April 30.—Entering the Nebraska senatorial campaign today as the first democratic candidate to file, Dr. Jennie Callias, Omaha, announced she would demand the removal of John J. Raskob, democratic chief, in her Nebraska campaign.

"He's certainly out of place there," Dr. Callias observed, explaining her withdrawal in 1928 as a national committeewoman, was partly because of Raskob's appointment.

Resolution On U. S. Tariff Is Passed
BERNE, Switzerland, April 30.—A resolution threatening reprisals against American goods if an "unduly" high tariff should be adopted by the United States, was voted by an assemblage of 13,000 persons at Bienna, the center of the watch industry in Switzerland.

Henry Ford claims that the automobile has raised the average intelligence of the people. The only one you can't tell that to is the traffic cop.

Woman's Husband Sought For Murder

SEATTLE, April 30.—Finding of the mutilated body of Mrs. Elizabeth Audrey Lindsay, 30, buried in the garden of her former home here, today resulted in an intensified search for her husband, Frank, 46-years-old, who disappeared several weeks ago in company with his adopted daughter, Pearl, 19—years old.

He will not be a candidate at the special election for a successor to Congressman R. Q. Lee, declaring he did not wish to oppose Mrs. Lee. Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene, whom Lee succeeded, is the only other candidate now in the race.

STOCKS TURN HEAVY TODAY

UTIL, AMUSEMENTS AND UTILITY SHARES ARE STRONG

NEW YORK, April 30 (AP)—The stock market turned heavy in late afternoon trading after an outburst of buying at the opening. The initial strength was in the oil, amusement and utility shares, which ran up two to four points in the first hour of trading on purchases of large blocks.

U. S. Steel was freely offered, despite favorable earnings report, slipping from 184 7/8, the opening, to 181 7/8. Further realising in the Copper shares, notably Magna, Ferro, De Pasco, Magna, Granby and Green Canadas, as well as in investment rails, tended to depress the general list. Southern Railway, Atchafalaya, Norfolk and Western and Canadian Pacific lost 3 to 5 points.

New Chute Works VALLEY STREAM, N. Y. (AP)—John Rungler has dropped 2,000 feet with his hands tied behind him. He used a new automatic parachute.

AUTOMOBILES

USED CAR PRICES Because we are very careful yet reasonably liberal—in our trade-in allowance—our Used Cars are never overpriced. That is probably why our business is growing constantly.

RE-POSSESSED CARS These cars are extreme bargains and can be bought with small payment down. See—

TWO ARE HELD FOR SLAYING

JOHN L. WIKE AND P. G. SEELEY GUARDED; SPOTS STUDIED

(By The Associated Press) MUSKOGEE, Okla., April 30.—Philip K. Oldham, assistant county attorney, said last night that three criminals, spots on the coat of John L. Wike, held with P. G. Seeley in the slaying of David and George Smith, Connecticut brokers, in a hotel here Saturday night, have been analyzed by a chemist, who declared they were made by human blood.

Wike, Oldham said, was unable to account for the spots. "Closely Guarded" Wike and Seeley, also from Conn., who occupied a room adjoining that in which the Smith brothers were staying, were held under close guard. They were expected to be given a preliminary hearing sometime today on murder charges, growing out of the double killing.

"Officers revealed last night that Wike had continued insisting that he had not been in the room in which the Smiths were slain. The brothers occupied adjoining rooms, with a connecting door, and Wike told his questioners that he was in one room, with the Smiths, when two men entered.

"A fight started immediately upon the entrance of the pair, he said, and the four men fought into the adjoining room, while he remained in the other, immediately after he heard shots. Wike's story continued, the two men came from the room in which the Smiths had been shot, and carried him into the room where the slain men, where officers found him.

Officers pointed out that if Wike had not been in the room at the time of the fight, it was improbable that his coat would have been struck by blood which, they believe, came from the throat of David Smith after he was shot.

RIX FUNERAL

(Continued From Page 1) 31, 1929, and one year from that date the fatal illness occurred. Mrs. Rix and her husband have figured prominently in the development of West Texas. Mrs. Rix in the early days was a sheep rancher at Big Spring and later entered the furniture business. In the latter enterprise he has been followed by his sons.

Palbearers at the funeral services this afternoon are: Mr. Rix, Walter Williams, E. L. Robertson, H. H. Griffith and W. P. Jennings. Honorary: W. Reagan, Fox Stripling, Frank Pool, W. R. Dawes, J. D. Biles, Wm. Fisher, J. M. Morgan, and E. F. Fabian, all of Big Spring; A. E. Pool, of Abilene; J. D. Roderick, of El Paso; A. B. Davis, L. H. Quinn, R. J. Murray, F. R. Friend, T. B. Duggan, W. S. Posey, S. A. Wells, A. V. Weaver, Ray W. Allen, C. H. McQueen, all of Big Spring; J. N. Mendenhall, J. J. Clements, M. J. Gordon, W. A. Myrick, Jr., and R. H. Martin, all of this city.

Mrs. Rix is the mother of Jed and Wallace Rix, of Lubbock, and Harvey Rix, of Big Spring, all of whom were identified with the "Big Texas" progress for more than a decade. A daughter, Miss Ruth Rix, and her husband also reside in Lubbock. She also is survived by a sister, Mrs. A. Templeton, Fish Creek, Wisconsin, and a brother, C. W. Harding, Tins, Mo., together with several grand children, Miss Alice Ann Rix, of Lubbock; Ralph, Paul, Lewis, Lucille, Eleanor Rix, and Mrs. Randal Pickle, all of Big Spring.

LEGGE CHALLENGE

(Continued From Page One) "I am sorry to say that there has been considerable evidence in the past several months that entirely too many of our members were for the principle of cooperation only so long as it didn't work.

"When it became apparent that a means had been provided that really would help the farmer get organized cooperatively so that he, like other producers, would have some voice in determining the sale price of his commodity, the effort was branded as government price fixing, putting the government in business, etc. And all of this notwithstanding the fact they had declared unmistakably for the principle of cooperative marketing only a year previously.

"I do not recall in years gone by of hearing just complaint against government aid that was extended to the manufacturing industry, to transportation and to finance."

'Better Homes' Week Is To Be Observed

The "Better Homes" program will be observed by home demonstration clubs in four communities of Lubbock county this week. Miss Louise Baird, county home demonstration agent, announced this morning. During the observance interhome visits will be made in each community. The program is being observed today at Azuli.

Clubs of McClung and Section will devote time to the campaign Thursday, and Hardy will observe the program Friday.

In a stock company playing at a theater at Dundee, Scotland, recently, Mrs. Tom Florence, aged 74, her daughter and her two granddaughters.

HE'S BETTER COOK THAN CHAUFFEUR; DEVIL-WAGON PROVES PUZZLE TO HIM

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, April 30.—Mr. Ka Mori, late of Japan, and his devil-wagon, late of Detroit, Mich., F. O. B., have come to grief.

Ka Mori never had driven an automobile; so he got a book of instructions. He read it, then threw it away, for he assimilated information rapidly.

He crawled behind the steering wheel, stepped on the starter, pulled out the choke, yanked a few dinges and he was off. At all places, he picked Lake Shore drive for his chariot ride.

The devil-wagon moved along with increasing speed. It pursued a miscellaneous course without regard to stop lights or anything else. Pedestrians who knew what was good for themselves got out of the way.

PASSION PLAY TICKETS SELL

Advance ticket sales for the Passion Play, coming here for performances on Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night, took a spurt this morning. Joe H. White, advance representative of the company, reported.

Out-of-town mail orders, several in blocks of 20, have reached a brisk stage. Mr. White said, in advising both local and territorial people to make their ticket reservations early. The Tech Gymnasium revamped to stage the great German spectacle, will have but 1,562 available seats each performance and already enough tickets have been sold to fill the hall during any one of the three showings.

Miss Olive Bates is in charge of tickets and reservations. Her headquarters are in the lobby of Hotel Lubbock.

connect with the switchboard and provide the power necessary for the lighting effects for which the play is famous.

Thursday morning workmen will begin building the stage and rigging an overhead stage, which, though improvised, will be adequate because of the 50 feet of space between floor and roof in the gymnasium.

Fear was expressed by Major Joe R. White, business representative for Mr. Fassnacht, last night that the reduced seating capacity of the house would be insufficient to accommodate the people who would desire to attend the play here. "Already many of the choice seats are gone for every presentation," said Major White. "Mail orders are coming in in large quantities from surrounding towns and are being filled in the order received. The coming of the Passion Play to Lubbock is an unusual opportunity for people of this community. And they are taking early advantage of it."

Seats for the presentation of the Passion Play are on sale in the east lobby of the Hotel Lubbock. All seats will be reserved for every presentation. There will be no general admission as there is no place in the house provided for it.

ROTARY CLUB

An added feature of the program was a salutation to Dr. Paul W. Birchard, present upon his 60th birthday. Presented for the club by Chas. A. Guy, Doctor Horn was roundly cheered upon his anniversary.

Death Is Reported President Clements reported the death of Mrs. B. C. Rix, mother of Jed and Wallace Rix, of the Lubbock Rotary club and of Harvey Rix, Big Spring Rotarian. He ordered resolutions of sympathy and respect from the club and at the conclusion of the meeting a dozen members visited the Rix family.

Youth Is Killed On Way To Fire

PATCHOGUE, N. Y., April 30 (AP)—A 17-year-old boy on his way to help fight a forest fire, was burned to death Tuesday. Another car which he was driving was overturned.

COURT DECISIONS

(Continued From Page One) a writ of coram nobis in the case of Joe Minor, Hopkins county, given 69 years for murder in Jim Beckley. Attorneys alleged in their motion that Minor was insane at the time the crime was committed.

The state's motion for rehearing was overruled in the case of Verne Donohoe, Wilbarger county, whose 25 years conviction for the murder of Herman Walden, previously had been reversed and remanded.

The motion of Frank Williams, Tom Green county, for rehearing was denied, the court previously having affirmed his conviction, carrying sentence of 70 years for the murder of Robert Thomas.

PRISON TURMOIL

Pending repair of the idle house cell locks, broken during the disorders, the inmates will be placed in a barred wire stockade in the prison yard. Guards started erecting the stockade last night to have it ready for the convicts this morning. Within the enclosure the men will have a steel building in which to sleep. Deadlines will be established and guarded by the troops.

It was indicated the soldiers will remain on duty until the convicts return to the cell block and are brought under discipline.

Milling about with other prisoners in "White City" yesterday were four men under death sentence who were released by the revolvers. All were rounded up, however, and today were in city jail. Three others who declined to leave death row also were taken to the jail.

Attorney General Gilbert Bettman's report on the investigation of the fire was in the hands of State Welfare Director Hal E. Griswold following its completion last night.

DEATH REVEALS INTERIOR DECORATOR MASQUERADING FOR LIFETIME AS MAN

(By Associated Press)
PHOENIX, Ariz., April 30.—Death revealed Tuesday that the life of William De Leggant, interior decorator known familiarly in St. Louis, Mo., Haskins, Ohio, and here as "Billy the Painter" for half a century, was a masquerade.
De Leggant died here Sunday at the age of 63 and it was discovered she was a woman. She had posed as a man since coming to New York from France as a girl.
H. A. Twining, Phoenix druggist, who knew the painter in Haskins sold investigators that "Billy" had mentioned an uncle in Lorraine, France, and that she had immigrated to this country with a sister, who died in St. Louis. The painter died penniless, but friends arranged for her burial. She will be buried in masculine clothing.
Among her effects was found a letter of recommendation from a Wilmington, Ohio, minister, who wrote "I have known the bearer of this letter, Mr. William De Leggant, for ten years and can say that he is an honest and upright man."
No reason had been found for the masquerade.

Cream Shipments Go By Trucks Also

BROWNFIELD, April 30 (Special)—Cream shipments by the Santa Fe are not as steady as last year or the year before, owing to the great increase in the number of shipments by truck. R. L. Harris, agent, reports.
"The price of cream also has something to do with the fewer number of cans we are handling," he said. "The price is considerably less than a year ago."
Between 75 and 100 cans of cream per week are handled by the railroad. "We used to often handle 100 cans alone on Monday morning," he added.

MICHIGAN TO PUT PRO LAW QUESTION UP

PLATFORM PLANKS TO BE SUBMITTED IN JULY

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, April 30.—An attempt to define the attitude of Michigan democrats on the prohibition question will be made at a pre-primary convention to be held at Jackson May 24.
Four platform planks on the subject will be submitted in numerical order, to the convention. They follow:
1. "The present prohibition situation is a nation-wide farce. The republican party has proven itself too cowardly to enforce the laws. On the other hand it has not the courage to advocate their repeal."
2. "The democratic party of the state of Michigan pledges itself to the repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution in order that each state of the union may again possess the right to regulate or prohibit the liquor within its boundaries in accordance with the traditional democratic doctrine of states rights."
3. "The eighteenth amendment to our national constitution and the laws enacted to support it by the nation and by the states represent the highest social idealism ever enacted into the laws of any nation."
4. "We recommend to the congress of the United States that the question of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution be submitted to the states and we pledge democratic candidates in Michigan for the United States congress to vote for such action. As a direction to congress and the states, we favor a nation-wide referendum on the repeal of the eighteenth amendment in a separate election dealing with this question alone."

POULTRY PROFITS GOOD, REPORTS OF TEN PEOPLE SHOW

An average net income of $150.50 per month has been made by ten poultry demonstrators of Lubbock county, according to D. P. Eaton, county agricultural agent.
Twelve flocks, figured in the report, the ten demonstrators being 322.2 birds.
Total number of hens in the 12 flocks was 3,282. Eggs produced totalled 56,821. Receipts from eggs sold amounted to 1,732.50, while total receipts from eggs and poultry was $1,964.81. There was a total feed cost of $458.41, leaving a net total income for the month of March of $1,505.90.
The highest producing flock was that of Glenn Blackmon of the Hardy community, whose 50 trap-nested White Leghorn hens averaged 22.8 eggs each, or a total of 1,142 eggs.
Next highest yield reported was the flock of 250 single comb White Leghorns owned by S. J. Paschal, living seven miles south of Lubbock. This flock averaged 21.1 eggs per hen, or a total of 5,285 eggs.
All flocks in the demonstration are standard-bred, culled regularly.
"If this bunch of eggs were going into cold storage and carried until next fall," remarks Mr. Eaton, "even though they should net the growers only 5 cents a dozen over the current local market price, would mean a great deal to Lubbock county and South Plains poultry raisers."
Supply Hatcheries
"Most of these flocks have been supplied local hatcheries. This means the aid in raising the standards of county flocks."
The purpose of these demonstration records is to get accurate information on flocks. All of the 10 poultry raisers have provided satisfactory equipment for their birds, Mr. Eaton reports. They are properly fed, are provided with green feed, water, balanced ration and housed well.
The good record made by these flocks will benefit all of the poultrymen here being feeding milk and home-grown feeds, thereby producing eggs at the lowest possible price, according to the county agent.
Besides Paschal and Blackmon, the demonstrators include C. D. Doyle of Grovesville community; R. S. Johnson of McClung; J. B. Potts, eight miles south of Lubbock; W. C. Beatty, eight miles north of Lubbock; R. L. Powell, County Line; J. E. Sneed, County Line; W. E. Connell, County Line and E. R. Evans, of Hardy.

Three Young Cuban Girls Take Lives

HAVANA, April 30. (P)—Three young Cuban girls who could no longer endure their disappointments in love committed suicide together Tuesday, dying in agony after having made flaming torches of their clothing and bodies.
Ramona Jimenez, 18; Maria Gonzalez, 17, both of Cardenas, and Elena Cordero, young Manicargua maiden, were the victims. All three saturated their clothing with alcohol and applied lighted matches after penning brief notes to their parents.
London police are still seeking the owner of a $1,500 earring found in a street last December.

LINDBERGH FLEW TOO SPEEDILY

WASHINGTON, April 30. (P)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh went so fast in establishing a new transcontinental speed mark east that he destroyed his official record.
A barograph installed in the plane and turned over to the bureau of standards by the National Aeronautic association for certification was found today to have been broken by excessive vibration.
Long before the flying colonel and his wife made their stop in Wichita, the instrument revealed, the bolts holding the drum on which is traced the time and altitude record of the flight became loosened.

VAN, April 30.—Three oil wells, all drilled by the Pure oil company, were brought in Tuesday in the Van oil field.
The producers were:
The J. T. Thompson No. 3, brought in from 2,850 feet for a daily estimated flow of 10,000 barrels; the School House No. 1, completed at 2,802 feet for an estimated production of between 5,000 and 7,000 barrels, and the Jarman No. 4, estimated good for 13,000 barrels from 2,880 feet. The Jarman well is one location north and three locations west of the discovery well.

New Yorker Dies On Witness Stand

NEW YORK, April 30. (P)—While testifying in his own defense in a civil action Tuesday Harry Garfunkel, 56, a furrier, slumped from witness chair and to the floor, dead. As he fell his wife who was present with their two sons, shouted, "She did it, she did it!" pointing to Mrs. Mabel Taormina, a motion picture actress, who was suing Garfunkel's firm for $50,000 for alleged false arrest and imprisonment.

The Socialist Town Council of West Ham, England, has just given permission for the exhibition of the Russian film, "Mother," which has been banned by the British Board of Film Censors, the Lord Chamberlain and the London County Council.

HARD EXPLAINING

Author Takes Ride On Bicycle, Breaks Toe

GREAT NECK, N. Y., April 30. (P)—Thyra Samter Winslow, short story writer, who hadn't been on a bicycle since her girlhood in Fort Smith, Ark., decided that, what with the birds singing and the buds bursting, nothing would be finer than a bicycle ride.
So she bought a bicycle and started out. It must have been that the wheels locked, she said, because was not an automobile in sight and not a bump on the road and yet she fell off.
"But if you don't believe that it is embarrassing to fall off a bicycle on a public road, you just attempt it," she said. "And then later try to tell your friends how you came to have a broken toe."

JOHN MASEFIELD IS MENTIONED AS NEXT POET-LAUREATE OF ENGLAND

LONDON, April 30. (P)—A man who has roamed the world in care-free hobo fashion, and once was even a porter in a New York saloon, may be the next poet-laureate of England.
Indications today were that Prime Minister MacDonald soon would appoint a successor to the late Robert Bridges, and the name of John Masefield is most prominently mentioned.
Masefield has been a seaman, ship's cook, farm hand and hobo. After a long struggle for success in writing he finally attained it with three poems, "The Everlasting Mercy," published in 1911, "The Widow in the Bye-Street," 1912, and "Dauber," 1913. His most famous novel is "Hard Harter."
Masefield is 55 years old and has a wife and two children.
Marshall Man 1.
New Rotary Head
MARSHALL, April 30. (P)—Frank Davis, former president of the Marshall club, was elected governor of the forty-eighth Rotary district at the final session of the annual convention Tuesday. Port Arthur was chosen as next year's meeting place. Davis succeeded Sam H. Whitley of Commerce.
John Hanby, of Parkfield, England, leader of the party of explorers who perished through starvation off Thelon River, Mackenzie, Canada, in 1927, left only $14,650 and made no will, according to a recent announcement.

Character.....

PLUS EARNING POWER

IS THE PROPER BASIS FOR CREDIT

"BUT YOU MUST BE PROMPT WHEN PAYING BILLS"

There is no substitute for "promptness" when paying bills. You may be a good fellow, you may have an excellent character, or you may be making the highest salary in Lubbock, but if you neglect payments when they are due, you are damaging yourself in a way that is difficult to mend. "Promptness" therefore, is necessarily the foundation of credit. Set a good record for this month by paying all bills promptly on Thursday, May 1
