Beautiful Complexions

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at Overton Drug Co.

Color Line in Hill.

Last Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock as Edgar McDaniel was driving across the railroad, having just left the livery stable, he met two negro men, one of whom was Charlie Smith, living near here in the Navasota bottom. The negroes were driving a mule, Mr. McDaniel his mare, which is sometimes easily excited, so he told them to let him have more of the road; that he had as much right to it as any white man, whereupon the negro replied hat. The negro, who has the name of being "bad," got out of his buggy and run, while Ed went in the bank for his gun. Mounting a horse, the chase begun, but he only got one shot at his man, doing no damage. By this time several had joined in the chase and soon the negro was caught and brought in by McDaniel and Marshal Stirmon and locked in the calaboose. The next day he paid his fine and skipped.—Mt. Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger; absolutely safe; acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal"—Overton Drug Co.

Local Cotton Market.

Cotton sold in Dublin yesterday from 7.75 to 8.02½, at about which price it has remained all of the week.

The receipts last year to the same date were 3,559.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billiousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work.' They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, rundown people. Try them. Only 50c at Overton Drug Co.

One mile from union schoolhouse. 110 acres in fine state of cultivation, including 16 acres of new ground not stumped, balance pasture and timber land all fenced with 4 wires. New 5-room frame house, painted and well finished inside. One log house 1 1-2 story, 3 rooms well built. Good tank of water and 3 wells. Good ground for apple orchard, price $3900—$580 in 3 notes $150 each, $300 due next year and $150 next, or enough cash to make notes good.

140-acre farm located 3-4 mile east Morgan Mill, 80 acres in fine state of cultivation; about 60 is Paluxy valley land, balance is all tillable, but about 8 acres; fenced with 4-wire fence. Two-story frame house, 6 rooms, hall and gallery. Living creek water, 2 good dug wells, one at house and one at barn. Log crib or barn, shedded on three sides, with plenty of room for feed. 2 acres fenced old orchard, and about 30 young trees—some bearing; farm runs up to within 350 yards of Morgan mill. Fine school and churches. Price $2200—$1500 cash, balance 1 and 2 years. Interest 10 per cent.

410 acres of grass land fenced with 3 and 4 wires, 3-4 mile from above farm, and about same distance from Morgan mill. Sage and mesquite grass mixed; plenty of living water. Price $5 per acre.

371 acres pasture land 6 miles of Stephenville, fenced all around, 1-2 of fence belongs to place, about 85 acres tillable. 1-2 mesquite and 1-2 sage grass. Good grass land. Price $4.50 per acre. 1-3 cash, balance 1, 2 and 3 years. Interest 10 per cent. New tank on place.

About 550 acres located 21 miles north of Stephenville—7 miles south of Thurber, on Stephenville and Thurber road. All under fence and fair tenantable house, with 3 or 4 rooms. About 100 acres in cultivation, 150 more fine Bartons creek valley land. Price $10 per acre, 1-4 cash, balance 1, 2 and 3 years.

200 acres of B. Frey survey, all tillable land, located 3 miles northwest from Victor. Price $5 per acre, 1-4 cash, balance 1, 2 and 3 years.

320 acres of Wm. Cornett survey, unimproved, 2 miles northwest of Topaz; by actual survey, found to contain about 400 acres; part fine tillable land, balance good grass land, located on public road, about 2 miles of good school and gin. Will be sold as 320 acres at $10.50 per acre, 1-3 cash, balance on long time. Interest 8 per cent.

I also have several large ranches for sale at reasonable price and terms. Now is the time to buy your grass lands, and avoid the rush sure to come. I have some choice tracts in West Texas. Come and see my list of farms, ranches, etc.

Shaw Is to Release Thirty Millions and He Will Also Accept Other Securities Besides Government Bonds.

New York, Sept. 30.— Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, who was in New York Monday night, has issued a statement that the banks will hereafter not be required to carry a reserve against government deposits secured by government bonds. This will make available over $30,000,000.

Secretary Shaw declined to discuss the financial situation further than to say that the treasury would co-operate as far as possible with the banks, both east and west, in their effort to supply the necessary credit to do the unprecedented amount of business that is taxing railroads and steamship lines as well as banks to the utmost.

Mr. Shaw said he had never seen any good reason why banks holding a government deposit, secured by government bonds should be required to carry a reserve against it. First, it is a deposit not likely to be called in a time of stringency, and, second, if called, the collateral will always sell for cash and in excess of the deposits. He has, since he took control of the treasury, contemplated relieving the banks of this burden.

THE MARKETS.

Following were some of Monday's market quotations:

St. Louis—Grain: Wheat, No. 2, red, cash, elevator, 66 1-8c; track, 67@68c. Corn, 56c. Oats, No. 2, cash, 30c. Cattle: Receipts, 12,200, including 10,000 Texans; Texas and Indian steers, $2.50@4.60; cows and heifers, $2.45@3.50. Sheep, receipts, 3500; Texans, $3.20@3.70.

Chicago—Cattle: Receipts, 22,000, including 500 Texans; Texas fed steers, $3@4.50.

Dallas—Cotton: Receipts, 35 bales; middling, 7.82 1-2c. Grain: Wheat, No. 2, 70c. Corn, shelled, 85c. Oats, 42c. Hay: Johnson grass, $7.50@8.50; prairie hay, $8@9.

Fresh Storm.

Syracuse, Sicily: A fresh storm burst over the district of Santa Maria Sunday and many houses were destroyed. The stormy weather continued generally throughout Sicily.

It is believed that 200 persons perished at Modica during the tornado. The village of Sortino has been practically destroyed and forty-three persons were dronwed. The water rose in the church to a height of twelve feet.

Said to Have Married.

London: A special dispatch from Madrid says it is reported there that Queen Marie Christiana, mother of King Alfonso, married her master of the horse, Count de la Escoursa, while in Austria recently.

Slain as She Slept.

Mobile, Ala.: In a little cattage on the south side of Savannah between Broad and Marine streets, about 2:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, Mrs. Helen Dickson was foully murdered by some unknown person supposed to be a negro fiend bent on criminal assault. Death was due to strangulation. Miss Helen Robertson, her niece, and her three-year-old son, Albert, were in the bed with her at the time. The murderer climbed in a window.

Leaders Slain.

Colon: News was received here that a small government force defeated a band of guerillas at Santa Catalin near Carthagena, killing the leaders, Wattas and Amador.

Information has also been received here to the effect that 1000 government troops have safely descended the Magdalena river and reached Zambranao, whence they made an overland march and joined the government forces to attack Gen. Uribe at Teneriffe.

Accidentally Shot.

Oklahoma City: Howard Boyd, a city fireman, may die. While taking a shotgun from a buggy the hammer caught and the weapon was accidentally discharged. The shot severed a rib, passed over his heart, and penetrated the lung. His home is at Paris, Tex.

The Republican congressional convention of the Eighth district, in session at Hempstead, nominated Lock McDaniel of Houston for congress.

Nacogdoches Shooting.

Nacogdoches, Tex.: A shooting occurred here Sunday in a negro resort, in which Will Dixon and Will Smith were involved and both were wounded by a pistol ball in the hip. Will Abrams was also wounded and may die. He was not in the quarrel, but was trying to get out of danger. A pistol ball hit him low in the back and passed out in front, going through the lower part of his abdomen.

Two pistols were used and about eleven shots fired. A fourth man, a bystander, was slightly wounded. All are negroes.

Two Suits Against Cotton Belt.

Austin: The attorney general filed two suits in the district court Monday afternoon against the Cotton Belt to recover $5000 in penalties in each case on a charge of freight rate discriminations on shipments of ice out of Waco to McGregor and Gatesville billed for Adolphus Bush. These are the suits in which it is reported that a plea of guilty will be entered by the road when they are called for trial.

Indicates Disturbed Condition.

Washington: Secretary Moody Monday sent the following cablegram to Commander Patch of the Montgomery at Cape Haitien:

"Proceed to Port au Paix. Use discretion about length of visit there before proceeding to Santa Marta."

The orders to the Montgomery were a result of reports received at the state department indicating disturbed conditions at that place.

Ravages of Cholera.

Manila: Cholera threatens to depopulate the island of Samar. The populations of many of the towns have been heavily reduced through death and the flight of panic-striken people. Many of the dead are unburied and the government is sending surgeons and medicine to fight the disease. The epidemic also continues its ravages at Iloilo.

It is said the total for the islands is 48,402 deaths.

Cards Requisite.

St. Paul, Minn.: The young women of the Clerks' union have completed arrangements for the organization of a girls' league, in which every member will pledge herself to marry none but a union man and to refuse absolutely to receive attentions from any but men with their "cards."

The members will be single girls who are willing to marry if they find the right man, and if he is a member of a labor organization.

BURNED AT STAKE

A Foul Crime Avenged Sunday at Corinth, Miss.

NEGRO CONFESSED HIS MISDEED

Tom Clark Roasted to Death, the Husband and Brother of His Assaulted and Murdered Victim Applying Torch.

Corinth, Miss., Sept. 29.—On Aug. 19 last Mrs. Carey Whitfield, wife of a well known citizen, was found dead in her home. Investigation showed that the lady had been assaulted and her head was practically severed from her body, a razor having been used in the bloody work. Both Whitfield and his wife were related to several of the most prominent families in the south and the indignation of the people knew no bounds.

A committee of twelve citizens were named to continue the search for the murderer, and these men have been very active in their work.

On Monday last it became known that Tom Clark, a negro living near here, had had trouble with his wife and the latter threatened to disclose the secret of a crime. Officers apprehended the woman and she told enough to warrant the belief that Clark had murdered Mrs. Whitfield. Clark was arrested and was brought before the committee of twelve in Corinth. The negro finally confessed to the murder and also told of other crimes that he had committed. He said that several years ago he killed two men on an excursion train in Mississippi. He told of an outrage perpetrated by himself upon a negro woman and also of the theft of $1500 from a physician at French Camp.

At 3 o'clock Sunday the prisoner, heavily manacled, was taken from the jail by a posse of armed men and, followed by a large and excited crowd of men and boys, he was led to the east gate of the negro cemetery, which is situated in the western part of the city. Fagots of wood had been piled high around the stake and the negro was securely fastened to an iron rod.

The husband and brother of Clark's victim stepped forward and applied torches and in a moment the flames leaped upward, enveloping the trembling negro in smoke and fire. The clothing of the doomed man was soon ignited and as the flames grew hotter the skin began to parch. The negro moaned piteously at this juncture and the agonizing look upon his face told of the awful torture he was undergoing. Finally his head fell forward upon his breast and in a few minutes all was over. The flames were fed by the crowd until the body was burned to a crisp. Then the gathering dispersed in an orderly manner and the town soon assumed its normal condition.

More than 5000 people witnessed the grewsome tragedy, among them being many women and children.

Crushed to Death.

Ennis, Tex.: News was received here that Fred Jackson, aged 17 years, formerly of Ennis, was crushed to death in the boilermakers' department of the railroad shops at Houston, by some heavy material falling on him.

All shopmen of Choctaw road at Shawnee, Ok., walked out.

Murdered in His Own Yard.

Mobile, Ala.: William Godeau, a cotton handler, living at Cottage Hill, ten miles west of Mobile, was killed by some unknown person. Godeau, becoming aware of a disturbance in his yard, went out of his house to investigate, taking a shotgun with him. Directly afterward two reports of a gun were heard and neighbors found Godeau dead with two bullet holes in his head. Suspicion points toward a negro.

One Participant Killed.

Paris: A fatal duel with pistols was fought at Virofiay, near Versailles, between two Poles named Niecergiewicz and Betkiewicz. They were both 20 years of age.

At the first fire the latter was shot through the head. He was removed to a hospital, where he died. Both duelists were sons of wealthy merchants in Warsaw and came to Paris to study French. The cause of the duel was trivial, one of the young men having refused to shake hands with the other after a quarrel.

Boston, Mass.: Col. Duncan Hood, a noted Texas cavalryman, has become engaged to a New England Conservatory student, daughter of a wealthy Arizona ranchman.

Connecticut Democratic convention did not indorse last national platform.

SEVENTEENTH OPENING.

The Texas State Fair Commences With Large Attendance.

Dallas: The seventeenth annual Texas State fair was opened Saturday in Music hall. Mayor Cabell commenced proceedings by welcoming everybody and introduced Gov. Sayers. The governor spoke of the great advantages that the state has enjoyed through this enterprise and closed by declaring the fair open.

Hon. John M. Allen of Mississippi, one of the World's fair commissioners, was next introduced, and during his plea for Texans to visit the Louisiana Purchase expoition to be held at St. Louis in 1904 related several witty anecdotes.

President Kirby of the Texas World's fair commission followed Allen and stated committees would at once be organized for the work of preparing an exhibit.

Secretary Flory of the World's fair commission, a Missourian, spoke of the vast resources of the Lone Star state and urged a grand exhibit.

A letter of regret at not being able to attend was read by Director Frederick of the Louisiana Purchase exposition company from President Francis. The letter urged a grand exhibit from Texas.

The members of the Texas Press association were the guests of the Dallas Commercial club and passed an enjoyable day. They were presented with cards entitling them for ten days to all the privileges of the club. The editors and their ladies were entertained at dinner in the booth of the Ladies' Free Kindergarten. The executive committee of the Press association held a meeting on the ground and selected Waxahachie as the place and May 21 and 22 as the dates for next year's meeting of the association.

Dropped Dead.

Waco: Robert J. Brooks, a noted and street contractor, fell dead in a northbound Katy Sunday before the train reached Milford, and was brought back here for burial.

Mr. Brooks was on his way to Dallas to take charge of work there. He was for several years secretary of the Central Texas Humane society, and became distinguished for efficiency in that service. His death is attributed by physicians to heart disease.

Another Operation.

Washington: Another operation was performed Sunday on the abscess on the left leg of President Roosevelt. As the former operation a simple method was used, but this time the surgeon with a knife made an incision into the small cavity, exposing the bone, which was found to be slightly affected. The president's case has been progressing satisfactorily, but it is believed by the physicians that the further operation made Sunday will hasten his complete recovery.

Importing Welsh Coal.

New York: Four thousand tons of Welsh coal, chiefly large-sized anthracite, reached here. None was offered for sale, as all had been contracted for before the order was placed with the local company which made the importation. Thursday the office of the company was beseiged by coal dealers eager to obtain some of the coal and to place orders for shipments to be made hereafter. The price at which the Welsh coal is quoted could not be learned.

It is alleged 60 per cent of southern cotton mills will combine.

Deluge at Rock Island.

Rock Island, Tex.: Rain began falling Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and it has rained almost without a break until 11:30 o'clock Saturday. Everything is flooded and some uneasiness is expressed by the rice farmers who have their crops in shock. The Colorado river near here rose at 9 o'clock Saturday morning was within one foot of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass bridge.

Ten-Foot Cotton Stalk.

Marshall, Tex.: W. B. Anderson, a farmer living five miles west of here, brought to this city a cotton stalk measuring 10 feet 6 1-2 inches in height. This is the tallest stalk ever seen here. It has no matured bolls.

Fell Under a Freight Train.

Ardmore, I. T.: At Russet Station, Cashion, aged 17 years, while attempting to board a freight train, fell beneath the cars and sustained injuries which resulted in his death a few hours later.

President Mitchell of the United Mine workers says wages paid bituminous miners are from 20 to 40 per cent higher than those received by anthracite workers.

No more marines are needed on the Isthmus of Panama.

EXPLOSION AT GREENVILLE.

The Wife and Daughter of Engineer Keith Instantly Killed.

Greenville, Tex.: An explosion which was heard all over the city occurred at the electric light plant Friday night, by which Engineer Keith's wife and 10-year-old daughter were instantly killed. They were blown a distance of twenty feet and fell among the wheels and belts in the dynamo room.

Mr. Keith was badly scalded, but, thinking that only one of the boilers had exploded and that the other one would probably explode, he ran out of the engine room and warned the people who gathered at the scene not to go inside of the engine room until the steam had cleared away.

The accident was caused by a section of six-inch pipe connecting the boilers with the engine blowing out. The fireman was sitting in the window of the boiler room and was not injured. The escaping steam made a distressing noise for several minutes after the accident occurred.

RIGGINS WINS.

Waco's Mayor Successful Before Austin Civil Court of Appeals.

Austin: In the court of civil appeals Friday the motion to vacate the restraining order recently granted by this court was heard on oral argument by attorneys on both sides. This is the case wherein the court of civil appeals recently upon the application of Mayor J. W. Riggins of Waco issued an order to restrain the city council of Waco from further proceeding with his impeachment.

The argument in behalf of the city council was made by City Attorney Sanford of Waco, E. Brooks and Shelley and T. B. Cochrane of Austin, while Judge Scarborough and Hon. Waller S. Baker of Waco represented Mayor Riggins.

The argument occupied all day, and at its conclusion the court announced that the motion was overruled.

NO RACE TROUBLE.

Citizens of Frisco, Tex., Deny that Negroes Have Been Molested.

Frisco, Tex.: The article that appeared in the Dallas News on the 23d from here headed "Trouble with Negroes" is absolutely without foundation. We have had no trouble with negroes, neither do we intend to. We want the negro, for we can get no other help, and will protect him as long as he stays in his place. Nobody is armed, neither do we expect any trouble along that line.

The following signatures are all business men and property holders of Frisco. We do not want such reports to go out about our town. Signed by T. J. Campbell & Son, E. C. Allen, W. G. Wolfe, Work & Wiggins, W. B. Atkins, C. T. Hill, Ed Rodgers, H. W. Gee, I. S. Rogers, J. S. McDonald, E. T. Rouch, M. J. Carter, F. P. Shrader, C. W. Hinkle, R. C. Fisher, K. H. Anderson, J. M. Record Price for Cotton.

Clarksville, Tex.: Thursday Capt. J. B. Donoho marketed upon the streets of Clarksville seven bales of cotton, for which he received 13¼c per pound. The staple of this cotton was claimed to be an inch and three-quarters in length.

Confessed His Crime.

Newport, Ark.: Wallace Grant, the negro who murdered Essex Powell in 1901, was hanged at 9:29 o'clock Friday. He confessed on the scaffold to having committed the crime. He professed religion and was baptized in a bath tub in jail. His neck was broken and his life was pronounced to be extinct in three minutes.

An unsuccessful attempt was made this week to secure a commutation of his death sentence.

HOTEL DYNAMITED

Golden Eagle House at the National Capital Badly Wrecked.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS MATTER

Frank McKie, Accused of Doing the Deed, Shortly After It Happened Put an End to His Own Existence.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The Golden Eagle hotel, on the corner of New Jersey avenue and D. street, was dynamited at 4:30 Thursday morning by Frank McKie, who subsequently committed suicide. Louis Brandt, the proprietor, and his wife, were injured, and between twenty and thirty guests were thrown from their beds by the explosion, though none were hurt.

The roof of the building was blown off and the wreckage crashed through to the basement. Every pane of glass in the building and in the adjoining structure was broken.

There is some mystery surrounding the deed. The proprietor gave a banquet in honor of his wife, who had just returned from Germany. McKie had boarded at the hotel four years and had been treated as a member of the Brandt family, which included a daughter, Sophie, with whom McKie is said to have been in love.

McKie remarked Wednesday night that he was going to wait until Sophie returned from Germany with her mother and then was going to his old home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Brandt and her daughter returned about 8 o'clock Wednesday night. The attempt at wholesale murder followed Thursday morning. McKie with a pistol in his hand was seen by an employe of a lunch room opposite the hotel just before the shots were fired. When the explosion occurred a slight blaze sprung up from the debris, but it was quickly extinguished by the firemen. Brandt and his wife were rescued before many of the thirty guests of the establishment had reached the part of the building in which McKie's room was located.

McKie, with revolver clutched in his hand, was found lying on the floor with his head in a pool of blood. A bullet hole near the right ear had caused instant death.

Brandt was bruised about the body and shaken up badly and received a severe cut on the left leg. Mrs. Brandt sustained bruises about the body and a cut hand.

When the wrecked building was searched Thursday enough dynamite was found in McKie's trunk to blow up a block of buildings. There were six whole sticks and parts of two or three broken sticks, together with a box of caps and a quantity of wire for long distance explosion. He had at least nine sticks of dynamite in his possession.

McKie was about 28 years old. He was formerly of Philadelphia. He was a machinist in the navy yard here, but resigned on inheriting upwards of $20,000 about four years ago. This amount he is said to have lost on the races, and his act is accredited by some to this loss. Detectives are investigating the case.

London Was Excited.

London: Great excitement was created in London Thursday by a story sent out by the Dalziel News agency under a New York date, saying it was reported that an anarchist made an attempt on the life of President Roosevelt, involving the wreckage of the Golden Eagle hotel at Washington by dynamite and the subsequent suicide of the perpetrator of the outrage. The newspapers here got out "specials" and flaming placards, and boys were bawling the startling news through the streets, with the result that half of the population of London went home believing that the assination of the president ha bdeen attempted.

Lawyer Kills Editor.

Winchester, Tenn.: S. E. Robinson, editor of Winchester News-Journal, was shot by a prominent lawyer named Banks. The cause of the trouble was a political speech made by Banks, attacking Robinson, who replied in an editorial denouncing the attorney. The men met on the street, and after an exchange of a few words Banks drew his pistol and fired once. The ball penetrated the abdomen and Robinson died from the effects of his injuries. Banks has been committed to jail.

Fatal to Four.

Princeton, Ill.: Four stockmen were killed and two seriously injured in a collision on the Burlington road near Malden Thursday. The Burlington passenger train crashed into the stock train, telescoping the caboose.

A farmer named Smedley was drowned in Little Elm creek, Denton county.

TWO OUTLAWS SLAIN.

Deputy United States Marshals Also Capture a Couple of Others.

Muskogee, I. T.: Deputy United States Marshal Fike and posse killed two outlaws whose names are unknown at Henryetta after a desperate fight, and captured two others whose ammunition was exhausted before they surrendered. One of the captured men is Jim Halbrook, who is a member of Ben Casey's band. Both men refuse to divulge names of men killed.

The five men in the gang were surrounded by the officers near Henryetta. In the fight which followed two men were killed in the house, two were captured and one escaped. Officers are now persuing him near Eufavia.

Orders have been issued from the United States marshal's office here to all field men that the gang of desperadoes that have infested the Territory for years must be wiped out.

TREATY RATIFIED.

Majority of Chickasaw and Choctaw Vote for Measure.

Ardmore, I. T.: The vote on the supplementary agreement passed off without special incident in the Chickasaw nation Thursday. Full voting strength was out. Ninety per cent of the intermarried citizens supported the agreement. The results surprise even the most sanguine agreement supporters.

Official returns show Tishomingo county 281 for, 83 against; Panola county 41 for, 6 against; Pickens 100 for, 15 against; semi-official, Pontotoc 60 for, 6 against; majority for, 377.

Large Sale Reported.

Dallas: If information obtained Thursday from a reliable source is to be believed, the traction properties in this city owned or controlled by the Dallas Consolidated Electric Street Railway company and A. K. Bonta and associates and the holdings of the Dallas Electric company were sold that day in New York city to Stone & Webster, electrical engineers of Boston, Mass., for about $2,250,000.

Birdsall Nominated.

Hampton, Ia.: Judge B. P. Birdsall of Clarion, was nominated for congress by the Third district Republican convention. The nomination was made on the second ballot by a vote of 88 to 26 for C. E. Ransor of Buchanan. The Third district is as present represented by the speaker of the national house, Hon. David B. Henderson, who recently declined a renomination.

Platform indorses the administration of President Roosevelt.

O'Donnell Arrested.

Dublin: John O'Donnell, Irish Nationalist, M. P. for South Sligo, was arrested on a warrant at Clare Morris for refusing to obey a summons issued under the crimes act, charging him with intimidating shopkeepers into joining the Irish league.

The convention of the league is in session at Clare Morris and the arrest of Mr. O'Donnell caused the greatest excitement. An attempt at rescue was threatened, but the police shut Mr. O'Donnell in the waiting room of the railroad station.

The October St. Nicholas presents "Slushy the Roustabout," by Howard E. Ames, as the long story. It is the fascinating record of a real boy who served in the United States navy. In this same number appear a couple of capital articles on home amusements and an unusually long list of good stories and pictures.

The Century for October has for its frontispiece the full-length portrait of Andrew Carnegie recently painted by John W. Alexander, and Mr. Carnegie is the subject of an appreciation by Hamilton W. Mable.

Hundreds Lose Their Lives.

Berlin: A dispatch received here from Tashkent, capital of Russian Turkestan, reports a terrible earthquake Aug. 22, the shocks continuing until Sept. 3. One hundred persons were killed at Kashgar, in eastern Turkestan, 400 in the village of Astyn, twenty at Jangi, while the town of Aksukitche was completely destroyed.

Pleaded Guilty.

Temple, Tex.: Last March a rural mail box belonging to W. W. Garrett of Temple was shot into and damaged by unknown parties. In the Federal court at Waco Wednesday Mike Keeney, a young farmer residing near Temple, pleaded guilty to the offense and was fined $100.

Caused by a Collision.

Greenville, Pa.: In a collision between freight trains on the Pittsburg, Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad near Pardoe Thursday four men were killed and two fatally injured.

One of the two Republican conventions held at Dallas nominated S. H. Lumpkin of Bosque county for congress.

DUBLIN, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCT. 3, 1902.

The prohibitionists have won in the first step of the legal contest on the Hill county prohibition election. Judge Poindexter has dissolved and dismissed the temporary injunction to prevent the law from going into effect.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottie of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy. For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Minister Conger reports that another Boxer uprising seems imminent in China. There were several riots recently near Cheu Tu in which several chapels were burned and some native Christians massacred. Mr. Conger caused a cessation of the pillage by procuring an imperial edict removing the officials who allowed the riots, but more trouble is feared.

England's great coal industry is filled with alarm by late reports of the growth of cotton manufacturing in the Southern commonwealths of the United States. The announcement that no less than half a million looms are to be built, and that under a single roof are to be placed more looms than the entire South possessed twenty years ago, presents the evidence necessary to convince Lancashire that its long monopoly has been effectively broken.

The Proctor and Gamble company of Cincinnatti have made a contract for a full page in each issue of the Ladies' Home Journal for three years, with option of two additional years. The price agreed is the Journal's full rate, $4000 per page, making an expenditure of $48,000 per year, or $144,000 for the three years absolutely contracted for and $96,000 for the two optional years, representing a contract for $240,000. This is said to be the largest contract ever made with a magazine.—Houston Post.

"It Goes Right to the Spot"

When pain or irritatiom exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, Propr. Smith House, Tenaha, Tex., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years and have found it to be a fine remedy, for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest." 25c, 50c and $1, at Overton Drug Co.

A succinct and unbiased statement of the points at issue in the famous "Pious Fund" case now before the Hague arbitrators will be found in Mr. W. T. Stead's article, entitled "The United States and Mexico at the Opening of The Hague Court," in the October Review of Reviews. It is an interesting fact that the first case to be arbitrated by the Hague tribunal should be brought to it by two American nations and that the matter involved should be the disposition of church funds. Portraits of the arbitrators accompany Mr. Stead's article.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

We will send you a little free.

The impeachment proceedings against Mayor J. W. Riggins of Waco, has been brought to a sudden halt by an order from the court of civil appeals at Austin to restrain the council from further action in the premises until the case can be tried before that court upon its merits instead of by the city council of Waco, which appears to be actuated in their action altogether by personal and political animosity. The only count in the proceedings which is said to be worthy of public investigation was the charge of his paying a "large sum of money out of the city treasury without warrant of law" and this sum has been ascertained to have been $117 paid for typewriter services authorized by an act of the council on April 24th of this year, in connection with the proposition to install a municipal water plant in the city. No town in Texas has ever been honored by the selection of a more energetic and faithful official than Mayor Riggins has always proven to be and as his private character has always been above blemish, he will doubtless come out of this apparent persecution a stronger and more popular man than ever.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Floating Button Factory.

Taking the factory to the raw material instead of bringing the material to the factory, is an innovation just put in operation on the Mississippi river by a button factory, and it is a plan that has many practical advantages.

This factory is about forty-two feet long and twelve feet wide, fitted with all the necessary machinery for the manufacture of buttons, and provided with a three horsepower engine for its work.

The principal material used by this factory is mussell shells, which are found at nearly all points along the river, and one of the great expenses in conducting the business heretofore has been the cost of transporting the shells. Now the factory has reversed the operation and will go to the mussels.

When a bed of shells is found the boat will drop its anchor and go to work. When the bed is exhausted it will move on to a new location. In this fashion it will go from state to state, from Minnesota to Louisiana., passing along with the seasons, and always enjoying the most desirable weather of the Mississippi valley.

"Kourageous Kusses."

The Galena (Kansas) Republican thinks the editor of a country paper is a "kourageous kuss" and expresses his ideas this way:

"The editor of a country paper may not be the braniest man in the town but he is the most courageous when it comes to taking sides on questions of importance to his burg. For instance, the subject is presented at 10 a. m. on the day of publication. In less than an hour the editor has written his opinion—has taken sides—and two hours later is expressing it to a multitude of people. What is the merchant, banker, lawyer, doctor, et al doing in the meantime? Keeping still and looking wise. Waiting to get the drift of public opinion—to ascertain which is the popular side. What if he were compelled, in an hour after any subject was proposed to address a crowd in front of his place of business, expressing his opinion, taking his stand, do you think he would be any more popular than the editor after being compelled to show his colors for ten or fifteen years? We can understand as a rule, why country editors are unpopular and don't think much of the ability of one who is not."

Word has been received here of a disastrous fire at Mineral Wells last Tuesday night in which Dr. W. O. Thomas of this city was loser to the extent of all the medical instruments he had with him, together with his clothing. He was officing with Dr. O. R. Braswell, whose practice he intended to take charge of during an absence of that gentleman which was to begin on the following day. Comparatively nothing was saved from the burn, the complete extent of which we have not learned.

Several suits have recently been filed against the Texas Central railroad by Dublin parties, among them one by M. A. Brown for $800 damages to his place by reason of overflow, another for $257 by O. D. Parker and one by Mrs. J A. Adams for $200, both also for water damage. Dr. R. A. Miller is also suing for $215 services rendered to employees of the road.

The local option injunction suits in Hood county have been compromised. The antis have agreed to make motion to dissolve the in junction suit at the district court term in December, which will put local option in effect about the first of January, at which time all of the saloon licenses taken out will expire.

A reception was given last Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. H. K. Brewer at which the approaching marriage of Miss Bessie Herndon of this city to Mr. J. H. Baker of Brownwood, was announced to occur November 12th.

Charley Jones and lady request us to tender in their behalf, their thanks to friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the recent fatal illness of their little son Lorean.

WANDERERS

Travel Thousands of Miles and Find it at Home.

We go about from one place to another in search of something we desire, without success and finally find it right at home awaiting us. A mining engineer out in Mansfield, Mo., tells of his experience with coffee.

He says, "Up to the year 1898 I had always been accustomed to drinking coffee with my breakfast each morning. In the summer of that year I developed a severe case of nervous prostration and I took several courses of treatment for it in Toronto, Buffalo and New York City without obtaining any permanent benefit.

"One of the most trying manifestations of the malady was a condition of nervous excitement in which I found myself every day during the forenoon. It never occurred to me to attribute this to coffee until I read an advertisement of yours last fall describing a case similar to my own which had received benefit from the use of Postum Cereal Food Coffee. I at once changed my breakfast beverage from Java and Mocha to Postum and the effect was nothing short of marvelous. After using it less than a week I was free from morning attacks and in six months all my nervous symptoms had disappeared.

"I have demonstrated the fact that by following your directions in making Postum Food Coffee any one can obtain as rich a cup of coffee from Postum as from any of the imported brands and may rest assured that they will escape the injurious effects of coffee and experience much benefit from the use of Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The Annual Railroad Slaughter.

In the first three months of this year 813 persons were killed and 9,958 wounded by railroad collisions and accidents of all kinds. Of this total 53 passengers only were killed and 826 injured; all the rest were railroad employees.

This large crop of deaths and wounds was the fruit of 1,220 collisions and 838 derailments. These figures are just made public by the Interstate Commerce Commission. They cover only a quarter of a year. Multiplied by four, we get these as the probable totals for the full year: Killed, 3,252; wounded, 39,832.

That is to say, a larger number of persons are killed every year on our railroads than were killed in the war with Great Britain from 1812 to 1815 and the war with Mexico from 1846 to 1848 added together, and five times as many as were wounded in both those historic conflicts. Yet if these figures for 1902 are not exceeded they will be a marked improvement over those for 1900, in which year 7,855 persons were killed and 50,320 wounded on United States railroads, which exceeded the combined totals of the Union soldiers killed and wounded in the terrific battles of Antietam, Gettysburg and the Wilderness.

Surely peace hath her sacrifices no less shocking than war. Is it not possible to make railroad operation less destructive of human life and limb?

We never tire of showing our shoes—Jordan-St. Clair Co.

We have received a copy of the catalog of the Christian College at Lingleville, the session of which will this year open on next Monday, October 6th. The board of directors is composed of the following gentlemen: Ed S. Whitacre, president; C. D. Nichols, secretary; J. W. Carr, treasurer; W. J. Parker and J. W. Moss. And on the faculty are Norman E. Hearn, professor of language, history and mathematics; H. L. Hearn, preparatory department; N. E. Hearn, collegiate department; Coleman D. Nichols, bible department and Mrs. Georgie Hearn, matron and superintendent of the department of music. The catalog is neatly arranged and creditably printed, the only objection to be found to it is owing to its being printed in Mongomery county instead of Erath, where there are so many good printing concerns, all of which are constantly having some good word of encouragement to say for the school. The present years enrollment is fifty-two.

Rev. Father O'Hara, pastor of the Catholic church of this diocese, was here Wednesday. He reports excitement at fever heat at Brownwood over the oil prospects in a number of wells that are now being bored there and which are hourly expected to develop into something equal if not altogether superior to Beaumont. For many years it has been known that a fine quality of oil could be found in the earth about Brownwood and in a desultory and primitive way two or three wells have been worked there for several years back, but the operations of last year at Beaumont and the result that came from them naturally put the Brownwood people to surmising that they might be able to duplicate such an outcome if they only tried and since that time several oil companies have been formed there and have been proceeding along lines that now promise to be amazingly profitable.

The Haddock-Stanley revival at the Christian church is still in progress with great interest at each service. There were sixty-five additions last week. There have been one hundred and eleven up to date. The evangelist was unable, by reason of sickness, to appear in his pulpit from Wednesday night until Sunday night but the interest did not lag under the preaching of Pastor Holmes of Stephenville. Evangelist Haddock is doing some of his best preaching this week. The evangelist is very earnest in his manner of presenting his views but withall he manifests a warm heart and speaks kindly of those who differ from him. He is careful to avoid charging any with being dishonest. The large audiences that attend nightly attest the evangelist's ability to hold the attention to the study of Biblical themes. There will be a reception given to the new members Tuesday night next week. —G. H. Morrison.

Sheriff J. L. Sandlin of Hood county was here last Friday in search of a criminal who gives his name as Johnson, but who is believed to be one Jim Patilla. The man wanted is about twenty-five years of age, five feet and six inches high, weight one hundred and twenty-five pounds, dark hair and mustache, red looking face, slight defect in eye lids; had about ten days growth of beard on face when seen early last week and was wearing a pair of blue jumpers. He is wanted for stealing a mule at Granbury and $50 reward is offered by the sheriff for his arrest. It is thought he may go to San Saba county.

A. B. Baxley of Talladega, Alabama, who misteriously disappeared from his home at that place last March, mention of which was made in these columns at the time, has been located at Lincoln, Arkansas, where he had entered the mercantile business. His relatives, some of whom reside in Dublin, have believed that he had been murdered and we are glad to know their fears have been allayed. The cause of his disappearance was due to trouble though not of a criminal nature, as he has always been one of the foremost and most highly respected citizens of the community.

The fine rain which fell throughout Wednesday night in this section will to a great extent revive the hopes for the coming fall plantings besides for a time abating the dust nuisance. Because of the absence of wind and the manner in which the rain fell, it is not probable that open cotton was damaged to any material extent. The rainfall at Dublin measured 2.05 inches.

E. A. Powell is having large improvements, additions and alterations made on his livery building on Black Jack street, a part of which is to be an extension of thirty-five feet on the rear of the stable building. When it is all completed he expects to have one of the handsomest and most convenient stables in west Texas.

Seventh Birthday Party.

"Hortense Farmer, hale and hearty,
Invites you to her birthday party.
Saturday evening between 3 and 5
You are expected to arrive."

Little Miss Hortense Farmer entertained last Saturday evening over forty little folks who assembled to celebrate her seventh birthday. Dainty little billets lettered with the above had been sent to as many wee lads and lassies who were to be participants in this party. It was an event of much importance to Miss Hortense and the occasion of much delight to her little guests. Delicious refreshments were served and all manner of good things crowded into the two short hours. Those who enjoyed the evening were, Ellen Hartgrove, Nina Brown, Lillie Mae Hogsett, Azalee Hogsett, Genevieve Latham, Francis Smith, Grace Woods, Irvin Hall, Mercer Woods, Strauss Woods, Lovie Andrew, Ruth Latham, Katherine Day, Carroll Davis, Walter Higginbotham, John Waldo, Edwin McCarty, Ethel Hall, Louis Latham, Bennie Sones, Virginia Maloney, Rufus Clay, Carl Daley, Charlie Green, Grace Prim, Hazel Spencer, Kate Foust, Preston Lafferty, Royal Neel, Vivienne Daley, Raymond Lafferty, Hugh Brewer, L. H. Wilder, Willie Fritz, Frank Harris, Joe Perkins, Tourjee Daniel, Adele Andruss, Beaulah Cole, Catherine Spencer.

Hon. Lee Young was in yesterday morning from his ranch and dairy east of town en route to his home at Stephenville. He reports a heavy rain in the territory east of Dublin Wednesday night.

W. C. Redman of Hazel Dell, was in town Wednesday and reported a very heavy wind and rain storm in his locality last Monday. The damage of the storm, he says, was confined to the cotton crop which was open.

COLONY LIFE.

Effect of Climate Overcome by Proper Food.

The necessity of pleasant nutritive and proper food is highly appreciated in the Philippines, particularly by Americans unused to climate and native custom in cooking.

One of our soldier boys writes: "In this land of bad food and disordered stomachs, a nearly fatal attack of malaria left my digestion for many months in such a state that food of any kind distressed me terribly. I suffered from the effect of drugs but dared not eat. It was simply misery to live. The so-called remedies only seemed to aggravate my sufferings.

"Some friend suggested Grape-Nuts Food, and I gave it a trial. To my surprise and pleasure it did all and more than was claimed for it. I am now, after using the food for eighteen months in good health; my digestive apparatus in perfect order and I have long lost all feeling of pain or discomfort after eating. In fact, I live again. I would not be without Grape-Nuts for the world. It is not only the excellent effect of your food that rends it valuable, it is also delicious to the taste, possessing flavor of its own and can be prepared in many ways to suit many palates." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The Dallas News of last Tuesday had the following item relative to the productiveness of Erath's soil: "J. R. Ellis, who has a fine apple orchard three miles from Stephenville, Erath county, has exploded the old and erroneous theory that good apples can not be raised in Texas. He sent up a small exhibit to the fair by Messrs. McD Reil and J. S. Watson, who left specimens of Ben Davis, Missouri Pippin, Arkansas Black and Winesap of as fine appearance and as toothsome qualities as have ever been sent into Texas from other states. Mr Ellis has shown that Texas can produce fine apples."

A small sized wreck occurred on the Santa Fé on the curve just south of town Tuesday afternoon. A special train of the Cotton Belt road, consisting of a private car and two other coaches, and carrying some officials of that road, was going over the Santa Fe line to McGregor. On the curve just south of town they ran into the rear of a Santa Fe freight that had got stuck on the grade, wrecking one or two cars. No lives were lost and no one was hurt. The Cotton Belt special backed down to the depot and went to Waco over the Texas Central.—Morgan News.

Capt. M. B. Davis and lady passed through Dublin yesterday en route to Stamford where the captain was to deliver a benefit lecture last night. Capt. Davis is a most interesting speaker and is gifted with a command of language and a manner of delivery that attracts the hearer. Superintendent E. I. Hall of the Dublin city schools has been tendered a position as a member of the board of school examiners for Erath county, which position he at first declined for the reason that its acceptance would necessitate his absence from the school one day in each month. The offer has been repeated however and it is probable that he will accept.

Venezuelan Warship Flings Old Glory to the Breeze

AND ATTACKS A BOLIVIAN PORT

Uncle Sam's Representatives Calls for and Receives a Prompt Apology, Including Saluting of Flag.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The singular circumstance reported by a German merchant in a cablegram from Port of Spain was explained by the reception of two cablegrams from United States Minister Bowen at Caracas at the state department Wednesday afternoon.

The first dispatch stated that the Venezuelan gunboat Restaurador had approached Ciudad Bolivar flying the American flag. She did not lower the flag until she was very close to the shore, when she opened fire upon the insurgents from her position, creating great consternation. When the Restaurador returned to La Guaya the fact was reported to Minister Bowen, who indignantly demanded a complete apology from the Venezuelan government, and also that the flag of the United States be saluted by the offending ship.

The second cablegram from Mr. Bowen reports that the Venezuelan government promptly acceded to these terms, made a suitable apology and the commander of the Restaurador hoisted the American flag and fired a national salute. The matter is still under consideration by the state and navy departments.

ODELL RENOMINATED.

New York Republicans Endorse National Administration.

Saratoga, N. Y.: Completing Wednesday in three hours a state ticket and promulgating a platform of principles, without the least indication of friction and amidst much enthusiasm, the State Republican convention adjourned sine die. Candidates, with three exceptions, are at present state officers. The planks in the platform which attracted most attention were those protesting against combinations and trusts and the declaration for improved canals. The ticket nominated was:

For Governor—B. B. Odell, Jr., of Orange.

Lieutenant Governor—F. W. Higgins of Cattaraugus.

Secretary of State—John F. O'Brien of Clinton.

Treasurer—John G. Wickser of Erie.

Attorney General—Henry B. Coman of Madison.

Controller—N. B. Miller of Cortland.

Engineer—E. A. Bond of Jefferson.

Judge of the Court of Appeals—W. E. Werner of Monroe.

The platform also indorsed the administrations of President Roosevelt and Gov. Odell.

Boies Accepts.

Waterloo, Ia.: Former Gov. Boies made public his letter accepting the Democratic nomination for congress in the Third Iowa district, now represented by Speaker Henderson. The letter is devoted entirely to the trusts and the tariff, and the only adequate remedy for the evil with which trusts are charged is declared to be the removal of the tariff on trust-made products. He declares the trust question to be the most important issue before the people.

Off for Panama.

Norfolk, Va.: The United States cruiser San Francisco, which arrived at the Norfolk navy yard a week ago, sailed Wednesday morning for Panama, where she goes to protect American interests on the isthmus.

Besides her regular complement of marines and sailors, the San Francisco carries thirty-five marines from the barracks at the navy yard, who will be detailed for garrison duty on the isthmus.

Wilson the Nominee.

Montgomery, Ala.: The state Democratic executive committee met here and declared Massey Wilson of Clarke county the nominee for attorney general. It was rumored that Alexander Garber of Talladega, who opposed Mr. Wilson in the primary of Sept. 15, would make a contest before the committee, but no contest was filed. Wilson's official majority was 2496.

Acquittal and Conviction.

Shreveport, La.: In the case of Lee and Mack Burke, charged with the murder of M. O. Threlkield, the jury returned a verdict acquitting Mack Burke and finding Lee Burke guilty of manslaughter, with a recommendation to the extreme mercy of the court.

Charges of inefficiency have been made against Fire Chief Croker of New York.

DEPUTY MARSHAL SLAIN.

The Tragedy Causes Strong Feeling Against Mexican Laborers.

Port Arthur, Tex: While attempting to arrest one of a party of disorderly Mexicans in the railroad yards Tuesday night, Deputy Marshal Ed Smith was fatally wounded and one of the Mexicans, Joe Barrotias, a dishwasher employed at the Sabine hotel here, was killed.

During the evening a number of Mexicans belonging to the section gang were drinking heavily and about 8 o'clock were firing their revolvers in the vicinity of the boarding cars in the railroad yards. City Marshal Moran and Deputy Smith went to the scene to quell the disturbance and found the Mexicans standing about the cars. Officer Smith stepped up to one who had a revolver in his hand and placed him under arrest. The man suddenly turned and fired at the officer, the bullet entering his abdomen. Smith reeled back and fired, at the same time calling to Marshall Moran that he was shot. The marshal fired four shots at Smith's assailant and at Barrotias, who appeared at that time from between the cars with a revolver in his hand.

After the shooting the Mexicans escaped in the darkness. An examination showed that the dead Mexican had been instantly killed, the officer's bullet having passed through his heart. The surgeons who were called to the scene held out no hope for Officer Smith's recovery. He lived until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and before he became unconscious gave a description of the man who shot him.

When the story of the shooting became known several armed parties visited the scene and every Mexican who could be found was placed under arrest. Over sixty of them were brought in Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, but none of them answered the description of the man who shot the officer, and they were released.

When Open Season Begins.

Wichita, Kan.: The National Association of Sanitary Boards adjourned after electing W. E. Bolton of Oklahoma, president; D. F. Tucky of Missouri, vice president, and W. B. Smith of Illinois, secretary and treasurer.

The quarantine line was not changed, except Moore and Bledsoe counties in Tennessee were placed north of the line.

The open season in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas will be from Nov. 1 to Jan. 1; for all other states from Nov. 1 to Feb. 1, except for the two northern tiers of Arkansas counties, where the open season extends from Nov. 1 to April 1.

Will Wed at Seattle.

Paris, Tex.: A young lady of this city left Wednesday for Seattle, Wash. A young man who left Paris a few years ago for the Klondike region to make his fortune in the gold fields is on the way from Alaska to meet her, and upon the arrival of both of them in Seattle an attachment formed in childhood will culminate in a romantic wedding. They will make their home on the Yukon.

Discharged From Custody.

Muskogee, I. T.,: At a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Marshall at Eufaula Wednesday Alonzo Riddle and Jim and Joe McFarland, charged with killing Cliff and Willis Brooks at Spokokee in a feud fight, was discharged. The men refused to testify and there was no one else to testify against them.

John Brooks, who was shot through with a Winchester, is still alive.

Prisoner Badly Beaten.

Texarkana, Tex.: W. J. Wilkerson, a white man confined in the east side county jail, was set upon and beaten in a terrible manner by a negro prisoner named Bat Wilson. One of Wilkerson's arms is broken, several ribs are fractured and he is thought to have also received internal injuries.

It is said the negro became angered at Wilkerson because he refused to join in a scheme with the other prisoners for breaking out of jail.

Double Drop to Death.

Oxford, Miss.: From the same scaffold and in the presence of 7000 spectators, Will Mathis, a white man, and Orlando Lester, a negro, were hanged here Wednesday for the murder of John A. and Hugh Montgomery, two deputy United States marshals.

Seven-Foot Shark Caught.

Galveston: A man-eating shark seven feet long was caught by Mrs. D. J. Flintier of Beaumont, assisted by one of the shell sellers who has a booth at the foot of Tremont street. The shark was landed at the Fishing club's pier Wednesday.

Initial Rice Shipment.

Galveston: The initial shipment of rice was received by the Seaboard Rice Milling company Wednesday.

PEOPLE AND EVENTS

NEW YORK CHIEF HONORED

Edward F. Croker Chosen International President Fire Engineers.

Chief Edward F. Croker, of the New York fire department, who has just been elected to the presidency of the International Society of Fire Engineers, in session in New York, achieved another honor only a few days ago in his reinstatement as chief after having been suspended under charges. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Croker is a favorite nephew of the famous Tammany chief, he is said to have won his way from the foot of the ladder to his present high position on his merit as a fire fighter. He joined the department in 1884 and had steadily advanced, step by step, until 1890, when he was made chief by the retirement of Fire Chief Bonner. Mr. Croker is known as a brave, almost reckless, fire fighter, and has the saving of more than one life to his credit.

SISTER OF GREAT SINGER.

Vera Lawton, Actress, a Close Relative of Mme. Melba.

Vera Lawton, one of the Pingpong girls in "Sally in Our Alley," now running in New York, is a sister of Melba. Her real name is Vera von Derenberg. The mother of this young woman, of Melba, and of the third sister, Lucien Breval, was a sister of Parepa Rosa. The family are native to Brussels, but Melba was born in Melbourne, Australia, while her mother was on a visit there. Miss von Derenberg is only a half-sister, being the child of Melba's mother and her second husband, the Duke d'Arenberg. She is a pretty blonde with a fine soprano voice.

WILL LECTURE ON MINING.

John Hays Hammond Has Accepted Professorship at Yale.

John Hays Hammond, Yale, '67, who became famous as one of Dr. Jameson's raiders and later as one of the most intimate friends and business associates of the late Cecil Rhodes of South Africa, has accepted the position of professor of mining engineering in the scientific school of Yale university.

Mr. Hammond has begun his duties at Yale and will be at Yale during the greater part of each year. He will deliver an extended course of lectures on mining in the scientific department. Mr. Hammond has always been a loyal Yale man and has often expressed a desire to do something for his alma mater.

AS THE WORLD REVOLVES

KING SPURNS HIS DAUGHTER.

Leopold of Belgium, Manifests Most Unforgiving Disposition.

Yielding to King Leopold's intimation that her presence at the funeral of her mother would be undesirable, the former Princess Stephanie, now the countess of Lonyay, left Brussels after having given out a statement relative to the scandal that arose at King Leopold.

Spa when the king drove her from the bier of the late Queen Marie Henriette. The princess started for Calais, whence she will probably go to England with her husband. She did not attend the services for the queen and was not present at the official funeral.

Princess Stephanie had the sympathy of the people of Brussels when she drove to the railway station.

WILL SHOOT DOWN STRIKERS.

Gen. Gobin Reissues Famous Order to His Soldiers.

Gen. Gobin, in command of militia in the strike region of Pennsylvania, has reissued his famous order to his soldiers to shoot to kill. He had this to say in reference to his order:

"Fire discipline is requisite in a very high degree in troops engaged in riot service, as absolute accuracy of fire on the part of their leaders is essential.

"Troops should be trained to pay no attention to the firing by sharpshooters, and to fire only when and in such manner as directly ordered, and to cease firing immediately when ordered.

"The flanks of a column of troops passing through turbulent portions of a city should be protected by flankers selected, if possible, for their skill as marksmen."

SENT TO THE PHILIPPINES.

Rev. D. J. O'Mahoney, First of American Priests to Go.

Rev. D. J. O'Mahoney, who has been oredered to go to the Philippines as one of the Americans who will take the place of the Spanish friars, has been pastor of St. Augustine's church, Andover, Mass., for the past four years and has been one of the most popular men in charge of a parish in the Boston archdiocese.

He was born in Lawrence, and received his collegiate education at Villa Nova. After spending several years at various parishes in New York he returned to Lawrence and served as assistant at St. Mary's church. He succeeded Rev. Thomas A. Field when the latter was transferred from Andover to Cambridge, N. Y.

EATING TIME ON CAT FARM.

Dietary Table of an Up-to-Date Feline Boarding House.

The care of cats of absent mistresses and of those which are raised for sale has become a matter commanding great attention, and in its up-to-date features is sufficiently amusing. The dietary time-table and daily routine on one of these modern cat farms is described as follows: At 8:30 the cats have saucerfuls of food, prepared as for a baby, and given while warm at the consistency of cream. At 12:30 they dine either on a well-boiled sheep's head, cut up very fine, or by way of change they have a fish dinner. At 3 o'clock a drink of warm milk is provided. At 7 p. m. they have fish and rice, or biscuits soaked in milk. Clean boiled—they are emphatic about the boiling—water is always kept on hand, as cats suffer from thirst more than is generally realized.

A white cat should be cleaned exactly as you would clean the fashionable white neck fur. The hand of the cleaner should be dampened, not wet, in some water in which a few drops of ammonia have been poured. The cat should then be stroked. It should then be sprinkled generously with flour, which must be rubbed well into the fur. This must then be thoroughly brushed out, and the coat polished with a silk handkerchief. This ceremony should be rarely indulged in, as a healthy cat will keep itself clean in clean surroundings. The cats at the farm in question realize prices which frequently run into three figures, so the care bestowed on them is not altogether unreasonable.

CHURCH IN SPANISH STYLE.

Form of Architecture Popular in Pensacola as in Early Days.

It is noticeable that the vestry of Christ Church parish, Pensacola, Fla., has taken the Spanish architectural form, for a new church building for the parish. This is most appropriate. Pensacola was in all its early history a Spanish colonial city; its streets and public places are known by Spanish names; many of the people have Spanish blood in their veins; there is still the Spanish atmosphere there, as in St. Augustine, although modern Pensacola is truly American. Visitors to that city expect to see something recalling the ancient history of the place; but such is the force of innovation that, with the passage of time, all relics are likely to be obliterated, and no distinction be traceable between a town in Spanish Florida and a town in Oklahoma, says the Mobile (Ala.) Register. To counteract this tendency—at least in part—the new church building is to be a return to ancient forms. It will resemble a Spanish mission church in general style, with here and there the graceful ornamentation that is seen in the Seville cathedral. This much we deduce from seeing the picture of the new church. We assume that the design was selected with the object above stated.

Stories of Snake Bites.

An English traveler just returned from India says that the stories about the great number of deaths from snake bites in India are to a great extent unreliable as statistics when carefully analyzed. He accounts, moreover, for these extreme exaggerations in figures on very plausible grounds. In India, he says, the law requires that when there is a sudden death a detailed report of it must be made to the civil surgeons, and as there are many such deaths far from the civic offices where the report should be made, the under officers perform their duty with the least possible trouble. To save the annoyance of transporting dead bodies, or vital organs, and the loss of time in getting evidence on the facts of the cases—which may be plain murders, by poison or otherwise—a report of death by "snake bite" is made. This sort of report is very convenient and makes interesting statistics.

Bees and Rheumatism.

Our contemporaries seem to be elated over the bee cure for rheumatism and devote considerable space to this stringent remedy. For ourselves, we can see no reason for rejoicing. We have been set upon by a hive full of bees and we have been rendered helpless by a rheumatic onslaught. Of the two evils it's a toss of the penny which is the "wusser." The bees make up for the short duration of their infliction by the pungency of the pain; rheumatism isn't quite so severe as numerous bee stings, but it detains one from business more than a day and makes one feel like a walking barometer, twenty years older in damp weather. One thing is certain, however, an aggressive, able-bodied, active bee can make itself so business-like that the rheumatic not only forgets his rheumatism, but every other ill that flesh is heir to.—Centreville (Md.) Observer.

A Sacrilegious Expression.

This story is told of a Milwaukee boy: He came into the house one morning full of excitement. He had found a new family of kittens and described them to his mother. "There is a black one and a white one and a Maltese and two others, and they are just like Jesus."

"Why, what do you mean by that, Josiah? You should not say such things."

"But they are just like Jesus, anyway."

"How is that?" asked his mother, her curiosity aroused in spite of her desire to reprove the boy for what she thought was sacrilege.

"Why, they were born in a manger."

He said that when it with the idea of trying to make the body fit more easily into the trunk."

Young also admitted he had taken Mrs. Pulitzer's body to the Hackensack Meadows in the buggy hired from Evans' livery stable and had there sunk it in the Morris Canal feeder with the weight. He explained that when he realized that his act would bring disgrace upon his family if discovered he determined to do all in his power to cover the evidences of his crime.

Young's confession is practically as fonows:

"In justice to myself I want to make this confession of the part I played in the killing of Mrs. Pulitzer of which I am accused.

"I did not commit the crime alone. If I am guilty at all, it is only in part and that not the greater part. I had an accomplice. The man is Charles Simpson Eiling. The woman was dead when I found her.

"I inflicted the wound in the abdomen, but she was dead before I did it.

"It was I, also, who put the body in the closet and it was I who disposed of the body. But with all my connection with the crime, I solemnly protest that the woman was dead before I laid hands on her.

"Afterward we went away together —Eiling and I. Thursday we spent in Brewster's, having walked there. I do not care to say what we did after that. But I think Eiling is in Bridgeport now."

Although the New York police are unanimous in saying that William Hooper Young's story of a man namer Eiling is a falsehood, nevertheless they keep up their investigations on that line.

The police have discovered the place where Young or some one else bought the trunk in which Mrs. Pulitzer's body was taken to New Jersey, and in which her clothing was sent to Chicago.

The fact that the son of the trunk dealer described the purchaser as a man without a mustache led some to believe that Young, after all, did have an accomplice, as numerous witnesses had declared that Young still had his mustache after the trunk reached the Clarence apartment house.

It can be stated on the best of authority that Young's defense will be insanity. The trial will be a battle of alienists. The elder Young has given Lawyer Hart instructions to spare no expense in proving his son either innocent or irresponsible.

YOUNG'S BIBLICAL TEXTS.

In Young's room was found the cover of a small memorandum book on which he had written six Scripture references. These texts are as follows:

Genesis ix., 6.—Whoso sheddeth a man's blood by man shall be shed; for in the image of God made he man.

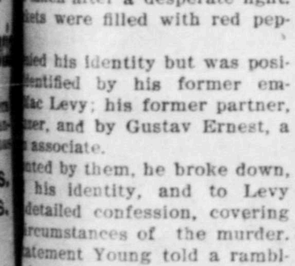

Leviticus xvii., 11.—For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls; for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

St. Matthew xxvi., 56.—But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Revelations xiii., 10.—He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity; he that killeth with the sword must be killed with sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

Romans i., 32.—Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

I. Corinthians v., 5.—To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

The Wayfarer

He had no crown upon his head
When he first met me by the way,
His feet upon the thorns had bled,
His gown was sodden gray;
But in his eyes, stars, moon and sun
Were one.

He came, his empty hands outheld;
I gave to him with glad good-will,
And since my pitying heart rebelled
That he should fare so ill,
I took his gold head to my breast
For rest.

When lo! his empty hands were piled
With all gifts craved in dreams of mine,
And over me the pilgrim child
Spilled benefits divine;
Joy, Heart's-Desire and Peace most fair
Fell there.

For my great pity in his stress
Because that sad and bare he went,
I now am clad with happiness
And rich in sweet content;
'Twas Love, the King, who crossed my way,
To-day.

A Modern Love Story.

BY VICTOR H. SMALLEY.
(Copyright, 1902, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

It was on the broad, cool veranda of the spacious Grand Hotel at Mackinac Island. Scores of fashionably costumed guests were enjoying the cool, invigorating breezes wafted from that big body of water in front of them, Lake Michigan. The orchestra was in the midst of a dreamy waltz from Strauss, and the environment was one of peaceful languor.

Occasionally the quiet serenity of the place would be happily interrupted by a burst of laughter from a group of young men and women lounging on the steps leading up to the porch from the driveway below. A trap or two, laden with pretty, fresh-looking girls in white, and lazy, lolling fellows in blue serge, rattled by, and a few horsemen and equestriennes ambled past.

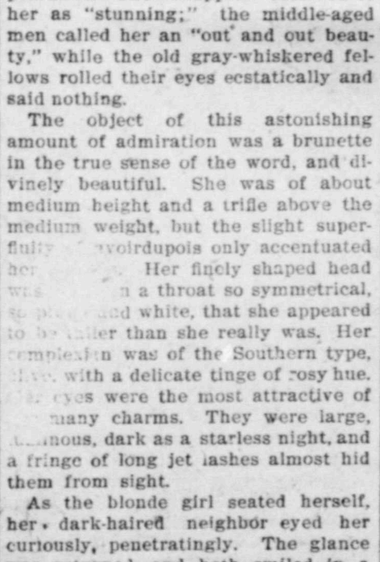

A girl stepped out from the office and walked slowly down the veranda, glancing from right to left in search of a vacant chair. She appeared to be about twenty years of age, was about medium height and very fair. Her face was decidedly pretty, with almost "Gibsonian" features. Her hair was almost golden—Titian, some would call it. She walked gracefully, and attracted considerable attention as she passed along the piazza.

An unoccupied rocker finally caught the girl's eye, and she settled down into it with a little sigh of contentment. Seated directly at the right of the girl was a women of striking appearance. The "chappies" referred to her as "stunning;" the middle-aged men called her an "out and out beauty," while the old gray-whiskered fellows rolled their eyes ecstatically and said nothing.

The object of this astonishing amount of admiration was a brunette in the true sense of the word, and divinely beautiful. She was of about medium height and a trifle above the medium weight, but the slight superfluity of avoirdupois only accentuated her [illegible]. Her finely shaped head was [illegible] on a throat so symmetrical, so [illegible] and white, that she appeared to be taller than she really was. Her complexion was of the Southern type, clear with a delicate tinge of rosy hue. Her eyes were the most attractive of her many charms. They were large, luminous, dark as a starless night, and a fringe of long jet lashes almost hid them from sight.

As the blonde girl seated herself, her dark-haired neighbor eyed her curiously, penetratingly. The glance was returned, and both smiled in a friendly manner. Soon they were in the midst of an animated tete-a-tete, the girl doing most of the talking, while her companion proved to be a good listener.

The girl said she was from the North. She was the only daughter of rich parents, and had just arrived at Mackinac. No, she hardly knew anyone, and did feel a trine lonely. Her parents were ardent golfists, and were at that moment deeply engrossed in the popular game.

They made a striking couple, these two women of such different types of beauty, and they were freely commented upon by the passers-by. The girl chatted away volubly, and was surprised to find herself making a confident of her new friend. The large black eyes seemed so friendly and sympathizing that the girl opened her heart in a way that all girls do. She had been away from home so long, and had been [illegible] happy in the possession of a new friend who seemed so interested in her girlish adventures and confidences. At first she spoke only of her schooldays at Smith, but was soon telling of her love-affairs, an ample amount always being the property of every winsome miss who has passed her twentieth birthday.

"But I am really and truly in love, now," she went on, coloring prettily. "I met him on the 'Manitou' on our way here from Chicago. He is very handsome and is quite a good deal older than I. I first saw him in the dining saloon; he sat opposite me, and was so polite and courteous in handing such things that were out of my reach. He looked at me rather persistently, I should think. Once, when he passed me the salad, our hands touched, and I fancied that he tried to squeeze mine.

"That evening our folks played cards in the cabin, and I went out on the deck to enjoy the beautiful night. It is simply glorious on Lake Michigan after dark! I drew up my chair at the stern of the boat, behind a big wheel which is never used, and began to doze and dream of—well, I thought of him.

"Suddenly I felt a thrill shoot through me, and I actually believe my heart stood still. I knew he was near. It was so dark I could scarcely see my hand in front of my face, yet I was positive he was approaching. Presently I heard his voice, and he said:

"'Pardon me, little friend, if I seem rude; but I am lonely, and you do not appear to be very well entertained, either. May I sit down and chat with you. Misery loves company, you know.'

"Oh, I know I should have sent him away, but I didn't, and we talked for over an hour. He was so interesting, and seemed to be very cultured and a great traveler. He spoke of Paris and Calcutta in the same breath, and entertained me greatly with his reminiscences. How I did hate to go in! But I knew that I had already broken too many rules of propriety, so I bade him good-night and went to my stateroom.

"Did he kiss me?" The girl averted her face and her lips trembled as she answered frankly, "Yes, and I am not sorry, either."

"Well," she continued, "I did not see much of him next day, as I was with my parents almost all of the time. I caught a glimpse of him at the dock when we landed here, and he raised his hat as he shook hands with me and said:

"'Good-by, little friend; we shall meet again.'

"I saw him a few minutes later as he jumped into a carriage, and——"

The girl stopped suddenly. Her hands, clasped together, trembled perceptibly, and her face was suffused with a carmine blush. She was looking towards the driveway, where a horse and his rider came slowly up the path. The rider was a man of about forty. His brown, curly hair was streaked about the temples with gray. He was tall, looked every inch an athlete, and rode with the grace and ease of a trained trooper.

The dark-eyed woman followed the gaze of her companion, and when she caught sight of the handsome rider her face lighted up with an amused smile, and she waved her hand familiarly. The rider touched his whip to his hat, and smiled.

"There," faltered the girl; "that is he."

the man I love," returned the girl impetuously.

"Ah, my dear," said the brunette, smiling compassionately, "you mustn't mind him, you know."

"Then you know him?"

"Slightly; he's my husband."

NO POUND WEIGHTS IN TROY.

Measure Exists Only in the School Books and Not With Jewelers.

"Did it ever occur to you," said a college professor to a Chicago goldsmith, "that you have no such thing as a pound weight?"

It had, but the professor is willing to bet that not one graduate of a high school out of twenty has an idea that there is not a metal weight of twelve ounces to represent the Troy pound.

But there is no such thing. Twelve Troy ounces make a pound, but there is no such material unit of measurement. There are the grain, the scruple, the drachm, and the ounce weights, but nothing more. The man who has ten pounds of gold in reality has only 120 ounces, and for him to go into the gold market and speak of gold by the pound would be for him to be laughed at.

Incidentally these units of measurement in the Troy scale look a good deal more like Greek or Chinese coins than they look like weights. For the average high school graduate to pick up a set of these weights would be to bewilder him.

It is the contemplation of such absurdities of the English tables of weights and measures that bring the student to the metric system as the sane solution of it all.

FUTURE OF NAVAL WARFARE

English Periodical Tells How Battles Will Be Fought.

In the next naval battle the ships engaged will be arranged in three categories. Nearest to the enemy's array will be the battleships, drawn up in one line in close order as of old; they will, as a rule, follow each other, just in the same way as did the ships of a century ago, but at a high speed in lieu of a low one. Unlike the old timers, the modern battleships will not come to close quarters. They will use their guns, not at musket-shot range, or, say 200 yards, but at ranges approaching 3,000 to 4,000 yards. They will not come within 2,000 yards of their opponent, lest they be torpedoed. Farther from the enemy than the battle line will be the cruisers, trusting mainly to guns, as do their heavy consorts, but keeping at a greater range, in order to get the protection which distance will always give. If a favorable chance offers, they might support the torpedo craft in a dash at the enemy's battle line. Out of range altogether will be the torpedo craft, ready to dash in if a favorable opportunity offers, but taking no risks early in the action lest their usefulness should be lost when their services are required.—Blackwood's Magazine.

A MASTER OF LANGUAGES.

Kansas City Man Can Boast of Wonderful Attainments.

Few cities in this country or even in the word can boast of possessing a man of linguistic acquirements and versatility like to those of Prof. Edmund De Vemie of Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. De Vemie is a teacher of modern languages. He came to this country and to that city in 1879. This many tongued Kansas Cityan speaks and reads English, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Portuguese, Roumanian, Provencal, Romansch, Flemish, Dutch, Friesian, Plattduetsch, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian and Icelandic. He reads, but does not speak Greek, Romaic or modern Greek, Latin, Old French, Old Provencal, Anglo-Saxon, Old English, Old Saxon, old and Middle High German, Nordic, Bohemian, Polish, Russian, Hebrew, Breton, Basque and Hindustani. Moreover he has a general knowledge of the grammatical construction of several more representatives of the different branches of human speech, such as Irish, Welsh, Hungarian, Finnish, Japanese and some more.

All He Was Paid For.

The leader of the band frowned as he brought the music to a standstill in the middle of a bar.

"Say, Pumperickel," he demanded, in a loud whisper, "what do you mean by playing a lot of half notes where there should be whole?"

Pumpernickel took the horn off his neck.

"Vell," said he, "I make explanationings by you. You remember dot you cut down my vages to halluf, don't you?"

The leader stared in amazement. He had done so, but——

"Und so I gontinuings to make der nodes out mid dis horn, halluf nodes, until der vages vos restoreded unto whole vages. Ain't it, yes?"

Sometimes a comedian can produce a grave crisis.

History Rewritten.

Queen Elizabeth had refused to reconsider the death warrant of Mary Queen of Scots. "No," she insisted, "my mind is made up." "I think your face is, too," instantly retorted the captive sovereign.

Richard, having done his turn at Bosworth Field, was wildly applauded. "How nobly he carried himself!" exclaimed Norfolk. "No wonder," replied Catesby, with a grin, "he had a horseless carriage."

Diogenes had been taking baths for his complexion. "But why," asked his friends, "do you carry the tub on your shoulder?"

Corn Fed Preachers.

If crops are short and times hard in the more thickly populated parts of the state and the preachers need money worse than any time in the world, the members bring him a load of weevil-eaten corn and he is all smiles as he accepts the present, and at the end of the year it is charged up on his salary at the price of the best corn on the market. Hams get too strong to use at home and are donated to the minister, and if he mentions the strength of the article he is called an ungrateful wretch. Now we sometimes think that people do not realize these things is why they are as they are. If you, reader, could sit in the preacher's place and realize that you could make this salary and add sixty per cent to it at another business and feel all the time that you were donating more money to your own salary than any member of your congregation; if you were separated from friends and loved ones and the people made you feel that you were merely an object of charity and were kept up just because of your position and not on merit, you would, not many of you, preach twenty sermons. Yet here is a man just like you, flesh and blood, with the same natural affections, the same love of home and family, the same need of money, the same feeling of independence that he throttles and downs for the sake of the cause he represents, and yet, with your income of from $1,000 to $5,000 per year, you give to the salary of this man representing your church eighteen to fifty dollars per year and you feel you have made a great sacrifice for the Lord and his cause. Some of these same church members spend more for tobacco, beer and whiskey than they give the church. You don't believe this, but it is because you don't want to. These are facts that nearly any minister can back up. We believe in supporting a minister in any church or closing its doors and marking over them "busted."—Childress Post.

This is startling information and the preachers are to be congratulated upon having such an earnest advocate as the Post; but there is reason to believe that next month, when the fall wedding season opens, the preachers will reap a harvest. Until that time the Post can be depended upon to stir up the brethern and bring them to taw. A weevil-eaten corn-fed preacher can not fight well against a devil that lives on the cream of of land.—Dallas News.

Good Health

and pure blood are inseparable. If your blood is bad, your health must suffer. Poor blood allows the body to lose vitality just as a poor fire under the boiler allows the steam to run down. From poor blood to impure blood is but a step, and impure blood is mother to a large percentage of human ills. Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic is an antidote for both poor and impure blood, for it is both a builder and purifier—a food and a medicine. It is the best combination of the kind known to medical science, and its success for nearly half a century has led to its endorsement by thousands of medical men who have been unable to find a substitute.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic

will insure you against the many evils resulting from impure blood. Scrofula, pimples, blotches, kidney disorders, rheumatism, gout, dyspepsia, female weakness, anæmia, chlorosis, etc., are a few of them; but the greatest evil, the greatest danger, is the general weakening of the whole system, which affords an opening for every passing disease.

The following is only one of the thousands of testimonials we have received:

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 10, 1901.

"I commenced using Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic when prostrate from a severe attack of rheumatism. After using three bottles all traces of this disease were completely eradicated from my system, and my general health was restored. As a blood purifier Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has no equal, and I most sincerely recommend it to all persons suffering from indigestion, fatigue, rheumatism, and the many weakened conditions of the system produced by impoverished blood." Margarite F. Yeazell, No. 640 Second Ave.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill of Troy, I. T., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with digestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals; it digests what you eat. —Overton Drug Co.

Do You Want To Yawn?

Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 50c at Overton Drug Co.

Ringling Bros. employ over a thousand men, women and children. To feed this great company of people it requires a daily average of 900 pounds of bread, 1,000 pounds of meat, 420 gallons of coffee and everything else in proportion. These supplies as well as ten tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats and 25 bushels of corn for the horses, have to be secured daily in the city where the show is exhibiting.

Pay Your Debts.

"No, sir," declared Gazzen as he warmed up to his subject, "you'll never be happy so long as you are in debt. Pay your debts, Swayback, pay your debts."

"But I have no money," said Swayback.

"Then borrow it."—Detroit Free Press.

Apple Trees For Beauty and Fruit.

Apple trees are so beautiful, even when bare of bloom and fruit, that they should be grown in pleasure gardens, like lilacs and laburnums. Tennyson speaks of orchard lawns, and there is no reason except bad taste why they should not have a real existence. The gloom of the fir tree, magnificent no doubt in its own northern forest, is mere incongruous dreariness when it is dotted about a suburban lawn. Nothing will thrive under it, and often it will not thrive itself, but the apple, with all the associated beauty of the countryside, gives us fruit and blossom and grateful shade. In the grass under it will grow daffodils, columbines, irises and many other plants, or it may be trained as a hedge to divide one part of the garden from another and with all these uses may still produce great crops of fruit. It would be a pleasant task for the suburban gardener with his half acre of ground to grow three or four choice apple trees with the care that others give to roses.—London Speaker.

BIG ARENIC EVENT.

Ringling Brothers' Famous Circus to Exhibit Here Shortly.

Ringling Brothers' World's greatest show will exhibit in Dublin, Saturday, Oct. 11th. Readers of this paper do not need to be reminded of the magnitude and high character of this great show, for its reputation as the largest, most complete and best conducted circus, menagerie and hippodrome in the world is universal. Its thousands of admirers in this vicinity will, however, be interested in learning that the management has not only kept up the former high standard of the show but has also organized for the present season the largest and most comprehensive traveling exhibition ever known. The great show has been entirely reconstructed, while the list of proformers, in every department, has been so completely changed as to make this year's program new in every essential particular. There are new acts, new artists and new spectacular displays and every civilized land the world over has been placed under tribute to secure the latest and most novel arenic features. The exhibition opens with the most gorgeous and unique display of horsemanship ever seen in America. Perhaps the most fitting way to describe this beautiful act is to call it a military horse ballet. It is given under the immediate direction of John O'Brien, the greatest of all great horse trainers. A splendid triple-ring circus performance follows. Among the artists are many who have never before been seen in this country but whose names and achievements are known throughout the world. In the list of famous acrobats are the Nelson family of ten unequalled artists; the Roberts family, the Pettits, the Dibolian brothers, the Leon sisters and the great contortionists, Genero and Theol and Ethardo. The aerialists are lead by the latest novelty, especially imported by Ringling Brothers for this season. The wonderful Dunbar trio, direct from Australia; the Holloway trio, high-wire acrobats; the Banvards, the Tybell sisters, Nettie Carroll and the Mikado's own troupe of Japanese equilibrists from Jeddo. The riding surpasses anything in the equestrian line ever before attempted. Among the great riders are the Hobsons, the Schadels, John and Michael Rooney, Albert and Madame Davenport, Reno McCree, May Davenport, Julia Lowande and Albert Crandall. The trained animal section of the show presents Capt. Webb's juggling seals. Prof. Wood's dog and pony circus and Pearl Souder's famous comedy elephants. Forty funny clowns contribute a wealth of comedy to the performance. The menagerie presents the only living giraffe and hundreds of other interesting and curious animals, including thirty elephants. The hippodrome races skillfully reproduce the exciting scenes of the old Roman amphitheatre, on a scale of magnitude not surpassed even in the days of Nero. The show will be given here in its entirety and that means the biggest, best and most convincing circus
