Polling locations listed for runoff

Fifteen locations for the Democratic runoff and the single precinct for Republican balloting will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Saturday as local residents go to the polls.

Residents voting the Democratic ticket must vote according to which of the 15 voting precincts they reside in. That precinct number is listed on the front of the voter registration card.

All Republican voters will cast ballots at West Elementary.

The following lists each Democratic polling location:

—Voting Pct. 5 (Fluvanna: at the Fluvanna Community Center.

—Voting Pct. 6 (Union): at the Union Community Center.

—Voting Pct. 7 (Knapp): at the Knapp Community Center.

—Voting Pct. 8: at the school administration building.

—Voting Pct. 9 (Ira): at the Ira Community Center.

—Voting Pct. 10 (Dunn): at the Dunn Community Center.

—Voting Pct. 11: at the Scurry County Senior Citizens Center.

—Voting Pct. 12 (Southeast Snyder): at the southside of the Races head for runoff

Saturday will decide Democratic party nominations for two seats on the Scurry County commissioners court — sending residents who reside in Pcts. 1 and 2 to the polls again.

Runoff elections will be conducted by both the Republican and Democratic parties, but only the Democrats have locally contested elections.

There are statewide elections for both parties, and all registered voters in the county are eligible to vote in the runoff.

There is one other runoff qualification, however. Individuals who voted in the Republican primary must again vote Republcian, and those voting in the Democratic primary may only vote for Democrats.

In Pct. 1, Democrats must decide between incumbent Duaine Davis and challenger Fred Cross. For Pct. 2, the race is between Tommy Pate and Jerry House.

The polls Saturday will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. (see related story).

The Pct. 1 race between Davis and Cross will effectively decide that commissioner's seat since there is no Republican opponent in the November General Election.

In the May 3 primary, Davis gained some 49 percent of the total vote in a three-man race. Cross polled some 29 percent.

Only residents of Pct. 1 may vote in this race. This includes voting precincts 14, 15 and 16.

In Pct. 2, Tommy Pate almost avoided a runoff in May from a field of four candidates.

Pate was initially declared the outright winner, but during the ballot canvass it was determined a poorly printed number on the Box 18 tally sheet had incorrectly shifted the percentage of votes.

In that voting box, it was determined 80 rather than 60 votes had

Morning rain is to west

An early morning thunderstorm skirted the western half of Scurry County Friday morning, dropping a small amount of rain in Snyder but dousing Fluvanna to the north and Lake J.B. Thomas to the south with amounts from 1½ to 2 inches.

Snyder only received .10 of an inch, however, as the main cell of clouds passed to the west.

At noon, the National Weather Service was predicting a second

Building still down in Snyder

New building in Snyder continued to be substantially slower than recent years during May, according to figures released by the city building inspector's office.

The current total for estimated new construction equaled just over $97,000, bringing the year to some $2.6 million. The same period last year produced totals near $5.3 million.

New commercial and residential construction plus mobile home move-ins, traditionally large contributors to the monthly totals, equaled only one permit each with a combined value of some $41,500.

Otherwise, carports, residential additions, storage buildings and patio covers comprised the majority of the building activity.

The month did include three applications for new sno-cone stands, seasonal operations tied to the start of summer.

These have been located on the parking lot of the Varsity Square shopping center, at 3409 College Ave. and at 3601 College Ave.

For the year to date, there have been 15 new residences applied for in the city; 36 mobile home move-ins; and 11 commercial building applications.

FIFTY-YEAR REUNION — Eleven members of the Snyder High School Class of 1936 celebrated their 50-year reunion Thursday evening with an informal dinner at K-Bob's. On hand for the event were (standing from left) Vic Baze, J.R. Watkins, W.B. Career ladder list will increase to 98

Some 27 teachers will be added to those receiving career ladder bonus monies from the Snyder school district this year, bringing the total to 98.

Seventy-one teachers were chosen last year with the first selection of career ladder teachers.

Following a state mandated formula based upon the number of students enrolled in the district, Snyder ISD must now add 24 more teachers to this list.

In addition, three of the teachers rewarded last year have since retired, upping the total to 27 new teachers who will be granted "Level 2" career ladder status.

Each of the 98 will receive a bonus payment equaling $1,500.

The selection of career ladder teachers is part of measures mandated by House Bill 72. The supplemental payment is viewed as a means of rewarding classroom teachers for their teaching abilities.

Selection for career ladder status is limited to classroom teachers. In Snyder, this selection cannot include any teachers currently employed under a "probationary" status.

This includes all teachers employed by the district for two years or less. Until a teacher is approved for their third year of employment, they are under probationary contract terms here.

Under district policy, advanced degrees are also considerations used to determine career ladder status. Earning a masters degree does not guarantee career ladder selection, but it is used as one of the criteria for the final choices.

The list of teachers chosen this year is expected to be approved by the Snyder school board at its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

The career ladder supplements are expected to be mailed to those chosen following this approval.

Last year's allocation of career ladder bonuses equaled some $107,000 and this year's payments will equal some $147,000.

Since Snyder is carried by the state as a budget-balanced school district, all career ladder monies are borne by the district.

Karate class studio opens

The Texas Karate Studios has relocated to a new building and is now open and forming classes for both children and adults.

The operation, which has previously offered classes through the college and a local church, is now located at 2701 25th St. It is open from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Owner and instructor for the business is Gene Gross.

Classes for youngsters age 6 and up are now forming. Also planned are ladies self defense classes.

Private classes are available as well as lessons for small and large groups. Family rates are offered also.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Tact is the ability to make a point without stabbing someone with it."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors:

Danny Hukel, in the Gatesville Messenger, told about a preacher from his area whose seven-year-old daughter always identified herself as "Preacher Jones' daughter."

The girl's mother decided that sounded too snobbish and instructed her, "From now on, just say you are Phyllis Jones."

A few days later, the mother and daughter were in a shopping mall and were recognized by someone who asked, "Say, are you Preacher Jones' little daughter?"

Then came the innocent answer of the minister's daughter, "I always thought I was, but now my mother isn't sure."

There's nothing like honesty in children. Hukel also told about a woman who was keeping her neighbor's young son while the mother went to the doctor.

"Are you sure you can cut your own meat?" the neighbor asked.

"Sure," said the youngster, "I've often had it as tough as this at home."

Everyone is talking about "getting back to the basics." Walter Buckel, in the Lamesa Press-Reporter said:

Did you know that America produces more toilet paper than writing paper...what does that say for back to the basics?"

George Dolan, in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, told about two male co-workers who were discussing their long marriages.

"The only problem is, over the years, my wife has become more and more historical."

"Historical? Are you sure you don't mean hysterical."

"No, I mean historical," said the man. "She reminds me of everything I've done wrong the past 30 years."

Diet Center slates move

The Diet Center, now located in the Varsity Square shopping center, will be moving its location later this month.

The local business, owned by David and Mary Woodall, will be relocating to 2310 25th St.

A 24 ft. by 48 ft. building has now been moved on site and is now in the process of being bricked.

The Diet Center has been at its current location since June of 1983. It offers a weight control program based upon diet, counseling and vitamin and protein supplements.

Classes are offered also to help individuals stay on their diet.

The hours of operation will continue to be from 7:30 until 12:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

In Brief

Mattox rules

AUSTIN (AP) — A 1985 law allowing banks to operate "drive-in-walk up" facilities almost four miles from a bank's central building is unconstitutional, Attorney General Jim Mattox held today.

Mattox said the amendment to the Texas banking code violates the Texas constitutional prohibition against branch banking.

His opinion was sought by Sen. Chet Brooks, D-Pasadena, who said his request was directed at banks that have pushed the law by merging two banks and declaring one a detached facility.

Sam Kimberlin, executive vice president of the Texas Bankers Asssociation, said last month that his group had surveyed 614 of its member banks and found that a negative ruling by Mattox would eliminate 32 detached facilities with an investment value of $26 million.

Jobless up

DALLAS (AP) — The number of Texans looking for jobs soared to 779,000 in May — an increase of 14 percent from the 685,000 out of work the month before and a leap of 39 percent from the same month in 1985 — the U.S. Department of Labor announced today.

The department's Bureau of Labor Statistics in Dallas said that, at the same time, the number of people holding jobs in Texas fell slightly to 7.3 million.

Expressed as a percent of the potential workforce, the state's unemployment rate stood at an all-time high of 9.6 percent in May, compared with 8.5 percent in April and 6.9 percent in May of 1985.

Shuttle news

WASHINGTON (AP) — The thousands of pages of records produced by the Challenger investigation commission, including testimony delivered in closed-door sessions, will soon be available to the public.

All 15,000 pages of public and secret testimony, along with more than 100,000 documents, will be bestowed on the National Archives days after the commission report is released Monday, a commission staff member who asked not to be identified said Thursday.

The aide said the investigation by the 13-member commission, headed by former Secretary of State William P. Rogers, cost "in the $2 million to $4 million range, half of it for computerization."

Weather

Snyder Temperatures: High Thursday, 84 degrees; low, 64 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Friday, 70 degrees; .07 of an inch precipitation; total precipitation for 1986 to date, 8.30 inches.

Snyder Area Forecast: Tonight: partly cloudy with isolated evening thunderstorms. A low in the upper 60s. Light southeast wind. Chance of rain less than 20 percent.

Saturday: partly cloudy with a high in the lower 90s. South wind 10 to 15 mph.

More legroom on new Air Force 1

WASHINGTON (AP) — During his first ride on Air Force One five years ago, President Reagan surveyed the posh interior of the Boeing 707 and, with a broad grin, declared: "Rather small. But it will do."

According to the Pentagon, he won't lack for legroom — or much else — when he makes his last presidential flight. The Air Force announced Thursday it intends to buy, pending congressional approval, two Boeing 747-200B jumbo jets as flagships of the White House fleet.

Acting Air Force Secretary Edward C. Aldridge Jr. selected the four-engine 747 in competition between Boeing and McDonnell Douglas, which had hoped its three-engine DC-10 would become the new Air Force One.

Maj. Mike Perini, an Air Force spokesman, said the exact price for the two new jumbo jets could not be disclosed until a contract is signed, but the total cost would be under the $280 million figure contained in an appropriations bill already passed by Congress.

A separate authorization measure, however, has so far failed to win approval of the House, despite Senate blessing. Opposition surfaced in the House in the wake of some estimates that the planes could cost up to $500 million. The issue likely will be resolved in a House-Senate conference committee.

Dear Abby

Daughters Expect More Out of Mom's Moving In

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1986 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: When Dad died 20 years ago, he left Mom some money and a pension. She moved in with me and has divided her time between my family and my sister's family ever since.

We have cleaned for her, cooked for her, washed for her and chauffeured her everywhere she wanted to go.

Mom has never bought a bar of soap, a sack of groceries or a tank of gas. We've taken her on vacation with us and paid her way. Consequently she has saved her pension and Social Security, and now has over $300,000 in savings.

Last week she told us that she recently made a will, and is leaving her money divided equally among her eight children!

The other six have not spent a dime on her. They each have sent her a plant or flowers once a year on Mother's Day.

My sister and I opened our homes to her, sacrificing a certain amount of privacy, but we never complained. We are hurt and disappointed and are ready to kick her out on her ear and let her try to make her home with one of her other children for free. What would you do?

UNAPPRECIATED IN OHIO

DEAR UNAPPRECIATED: For openers, I wouldn't kick my mother out on her ear — or any other part of her anatomy. I would keep my mouth shut and continue to provide her with a home with no thought of what's in it for me, which is the reason I would have taken her in, in the first place.

DEAR ABBY: We have only one child. Our newly made friends have several, but please don't print the number as we do not want to identify them. Well, last Christmas they sent our child an expensive (by our standards) Christmas present. Last week, they sent our child another expensive present for his birthday.

Now, how do we handle gift-giving for Christmas and birthdays for all of their children? We cannot afford to give each one the kind of gifts they have given ours twice a year.

Is there a tactful way to tell them not to send our child any more gifts because we can't reciprocate?

A DILEMMA

DEAR DILEMMA: Honesty is the best policy. Tell them you would feel more comfortable if they would limit their gifts to your child to a "token" inexpensive one because that is all you can afford to send their children. And what's wrong with sending cards?

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I'm nearly 15 and my boyfriend is 16. I've been going out with him for over a year and he asked me to go to bed with him. My mother knows about my relationship with him, but I'm afraid to tell her about this because I don't know what her reaction will be. I told him I wasn't sure if I was ready yet. He told me that he won't rush me into anything I don't want to do. How do I know when I'm ready? I hope you print this because I think you will be helping other girls with the same problem.

AFRAID OF LOVE

DEAR AFRAID: It is not "love" you fear — it's sex, which is not surprising, since we fear the unknown. How will you know you are ready? When you are so sure, you will not have to ask anyone. But one thing is certain: A girl of your age is definitely not ready.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am a young woman completely bald due to alopecia, so I wear a wig. I have adjusted to this condition fairly well, but I need a clever remark to say when I remove my wig for the first time in the presence of a man.

P. IN COLUMBUS, OHIO

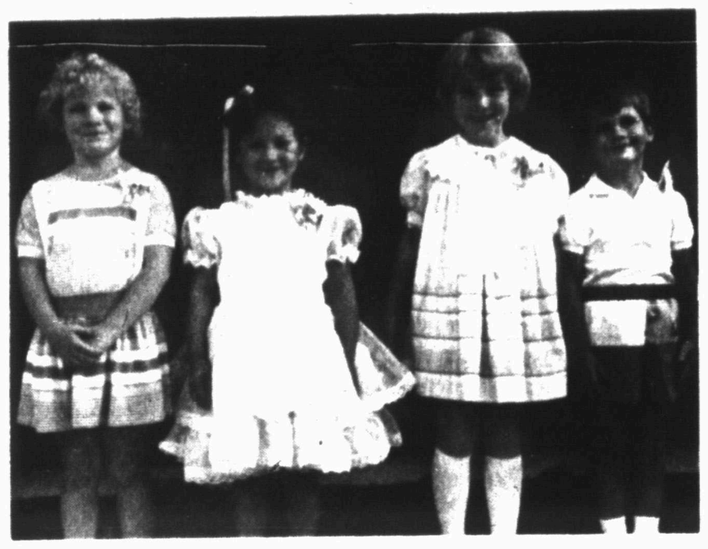

DEAR P.: Don't surprise him. Tell him that you are wearing a wig and why.

If you feel you need a "clever" remark while removing your wig, you could say, "Look, I've flipped my wig over you!"

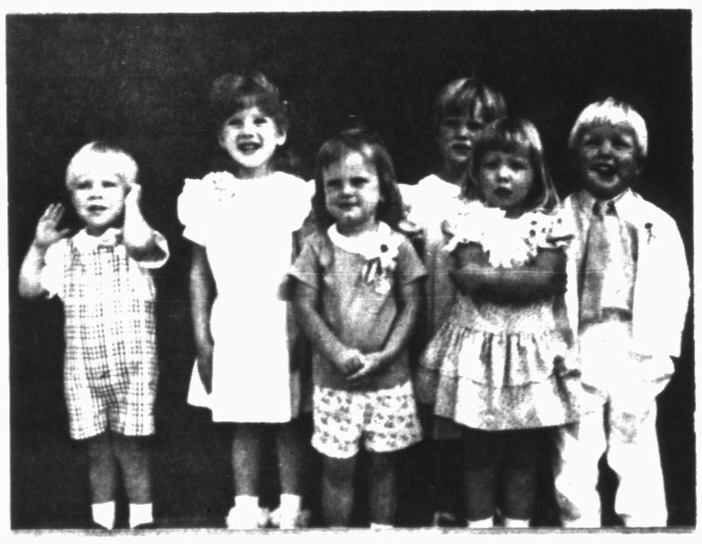

David Harlin on Dean's List

ABILENE--David Harlin of Snyder has been named to the Dean's list for the spring semester at McMurry College.

The 450,000 tons of shattered rock that lay at the base of Mount Rushmore after four American presidents' faces were carved was too much to be hauled away, and there it remains.

GRADUATION EXERCISES–Shirley Pavlik's "The Lollipop House" had its graduation May 22 with diplomas given to pre-school and nursery school children. Following the program, a pot luck supper was held with approximately 50 family members and friends attending. Teachers are Pavlik and Glenda Mueller. Pre-schoolers in photo one are left to right, Shannon Hall, Loretta Rios, Veronica Williams, Seth Rosson. Nursery school children in photo two are Brooks Nunley, Andrea Pavlik, Audra Reneau, Kristine Murray, Kimberly Key and Cody Clark. Will Davis is not pictured. (Lollipop House Photos)

Do not be reluctant to accept material favors that will be offered you in the year ahead. You'll have opportunities to reciprocate later.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Left to your own devices today, you're quite capable of feathering your nest. But if you start bringing others into the act, no one is likely to make out. Career advantages and problems are discussed in your Gemini Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead. Get yours by mailing $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, Box 1846, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Directives imposed upon you by others today are not necessarily in your best interest. Don't be indifferent in situations where you should be protecting No. 1.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Be selective regarding your companions and activities today. If you aren't, you could get locked in with a crowd doing things that displease you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) This is not the right day to promote business to people you are socializing with. You'll get resentment rather than support.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your motives will be open and honorable today, but a guy who likes to make waves may try to twist them and distort your intent.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If you want friends to treat you generously today, you'll have to first put some of what you're holding back in the kitty as well.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Collective ventures might not work as well as all parties hope today. The lines could get knotted from everyone pulling in a different direction.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) At a social gathering today, be careful not to be overly attentive to a member of the opposite sex who is one of your mate's least favorite people.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Usually you can rely upon Lady Luck to bail you out of tight corners, but today she won't be that dependable, especially where financial risks are concerned.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Just to be on the safe side, keep your house in reasonably good order today. You may be visited by a someone who always gives your place the white glove inspection.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Verbal claims you make today will be challenged by your listeners. Be sure you have the facts to back up everything you say.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Continue to be disciplined and prudent at managing your resources. There will be better bargains later than the ones you pass up today.

Beauty finalist advances to Miss National Pre-teen

Wendy Renee Miller, daughter of Robert and Barbara Miller, has been selected as a finalist in the 1986 Miss Texas National Pre-teen pageant. It will be held June 20-21 at Green Oaks Inn in Ft. Worth.

She is the granddaughter of Bill and Ruth Banks of Snyder and Sid and Mae Miller of Fluvanna.

Miller is being sponsored by Gary Harkins, agent for State Farm Insurance Company, and friends in Fluvanna.

Contestants will be competing for cash awards, tiara, banner and trophy. Winners will advance to the Miss National Pre-teen Pageant to be held in October in Florida.

Girls will participate in rehearsals and meet other contestants from around the state. They are judged on talent, appearance, poise-personality and personal interviews. A stage appearance will be presented with contestants escorted by their fathers.

Miller placed first alternate for the beauty title in the Duchess division of the "Imperial Miss Pageant" which was held in Lubbock May 18 at the Lubbock Civic Center.

My friend Richard Frey is the dean of bridge writers the world over. Recently his classic book, "How to Win at Contract Bridge in Ten Easy Lessons," was completely updated, and it is available in a paperback edition published by Fawcett. Here is what Frey has to say about a basic play that all bridge players should know.

The holdup play entails withholding a high card that could win a trick and using it to win a trick later on. It is essential when the lead against no-trump is a suit in which the declarer has only the ace. By holding up his ace until he is compelled to play it, declarer may break the line of communication between the defenders, preventing them from taking their established winners in that suit. Here is the play in today's deal.

Against three no-trump, West leads a spade to East's queen. If South holds up the ace, East will play back the 10. Again South should refuse to play his ace. Finally, on the third round he wins the trick and takes a diamond finesse. Although East has the diamond king, he has no more spades to lead, and declarer makes his contract without even having to guess the location of the heart queen.

There are more complicated variations of the play, but the premise remains the same — delay winning the trick until the communication between defenders' hands has been severed.

Find cause of prostate problem

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I am 66 and have been suffering periodically from prostate trouble. I was told that I have an extremely small prostate and probably will never require an operation. The discomfort is periodic, but is severe enough for me to want additional help. I am allergic to penicillin, take 50 milligrams of Macrodantin daily and use a hot whirlpool five times a week.

DEAR READER — The term "prostate trouble" could mean anything from repeated infection to urinary blockage. Since you are taking Macrodantin, an antibiotic, I assume that at least part of your problem may be due to infection. You probably need a cystoscopic exam so that the urologist can examine the inner prostate tissue. Even though you have a small gland, internal prostatic growth that is not diagnosable by means of a rectal examination could be causing interruption of urine flow with secondary infection.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report on THE PROSTATE GLAND. Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 plus their name and address to P.O. Box 2597, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I am lefthanded and have always turned my hand when writing. Now, when I start to write and the pen or pencil presses on my thumb, my hand starts to shake. Two doctors have not been able to give me satisfactory reasons as to why this happens. Can you?

DEAR READER — You seem to be describing an intention tremor. This may indicate the beginning of a neurological problem or it could just be an isolated event common to aging. See a neurologist.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I have had vaginal yeast infections ever since I became sexually active, although I've only had three partners. My mother-in-law keeps telling me that I should be tested for diabetes, but when I mentioned it to my doctor, he said he was sure I didn't have it and said there was no reason to test me for it. Now my mother-in-law says that I should be tested for chlamydia. I am getting recurring eye infections and lost a fetus at six weeks, cause unknown. What is your opinion?

DEAR READER — Chlamydia is certainly a possible cause of your problem. It is a sexually transmitted disease that can cause vaginal infections as well as miscarriages. I think you need a thorough evaluation, including smears and cultures of your vaginal secretions. If your doctor believes this approach is unwarranted, I suggest that you ask for a referral to a gynecologist or a clinic that specializes in diagnosing and treating sexually transmitted diseases.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I get tired of hearing my urologist say that I "have to live with" my bladder infections. I have gotten them three or four times a year for the past 10 years. I am allergic to sulfa and penicillin and now am getting sensitive to Macrodantin. What can I do?

DEAR READER — Bladder infections can be resistant to treatment until their causes are determined. If your urologist has been unable to diagnose the reason for your repeated infections, request a referral to another urologist — and even a third, if necessary. You should not "have to live with it."

Dr. Gott's new Health Report, WEIGHT CONTROL THROUGH CALORIE CONTROL, offers healthy tips on weight loss, diet and exercise. For your copy, send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 2597, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to mention the title.

Pelton verdict strengthens U.S. efforts against spies

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ronald W. Pelton's conviction of espionage for selling the Soviets secrets about U.S. electronic eavesdropping strengthens the FBI's ability to catch and jail spies, federal prosecutors say.

Pelton, 44, convicted Thursday of four counts but acquitted of a fifth, faces a maximum three life prison terms plus 10 years when he is sentenced July 28 in U.S. District Court.

Pelton sat slumped in his chair, holding his chin in his hand as the verdict was announced after 13 hours of deliberations over two days.

"He's disappointed," said defense attorney Fred Warren Bennett. "I saw some tears welling up in his eyes, and it was obviously a tough thing to stomach."

Bennett said he would appeal the conviction, vowing to carry to the Supreme Court, if necessary, his argument that the FBI tricked Pelton into confessing by making him think he was being recruited as a double agent.

Pelton was accused of receiving $35,000 from KGB agents for divulging secrets between 1980 and 1985 gained during his 14-year career as a technician at the National Security Agency.

The jury convicted him of conspiracy, espionage, attempted espionage and unauthorized disclosure of communications intelligence. Without explaining, it acquitted him of a count that charged he transferred "information relating to the national defense of the United States of America" to the KGB.

Vitaly Yurchenko, a KGB colonel who defected and later returned to Moscow, tipped off authorities to Pelton, the government has said.

Much of the prosecution's courtroom effort was aimed at countering the defense argument that Pelton's rights were violated when he was interrogated Nov. 24 by two FBI agents at an Annapolis hotel. The defense said Pelton was tricked into admitting he sold U.S. secrets. He was arrested the next day.

"The verdict vindicated the investigatory techniques of the FBI," said U.S. Attorney Breckinridge L. Willcox, who supervised the prosecution. Jurors "had to find his admissions voluntary because that was the signficant evidence," he said.

"They would have had to, otherwise they would not been able to reach the verdict they did," said Pelton's interrogator, FBI agent David E. Faulkner.

A jury in Alexandria, Va., accepted similar FBI techniques used against Larry Wu-tai Chin, convicted earlier this year of spying for China during his 30-year career as a translator and analyst for the CIA. Chin later committed suicide in his jail cell.

Juror Theresa Bednarczyk, 56, said only that the trial was "very difficult and very trying. I'm glad that it's over with."

Youth revival set June 8-11

The First United Methodist Church will conduct a youth revival Sunday through Wednesday. Services will begin at 7 p.m. and all ages are welcome to attend.

Planned events include 8th, Jerry Kunkel and the Harvesters (ice cream social and volleyball); 9th, David Dale (ping pong, pool tournament and scavenger hunt); 10th, David Dale (watermelon bust); 11th, Jerry Kunkel (wacky olympics).

Kunkel is the pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church in Amarillo. He was an All-State athlete from Lamesa High School and later attended the U. S. Naval Academy for two years. He was drafted to play professional football by the New Orleans Sanits but entered the ministry instead. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Kunkel has pastored several churches, one of which is the fastest growing church in the conference. He pastored it twice. He has spoken in over 500 different settings around Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Kunkel and his wife, Kathy, have three daughters.

Dale, a guitarist, singer, songwriter, and youth minister, will be sharing with song. He has been singing throughout the United States and in different countries for the past four years.

Dale started out in the secular part of the music world. since those years he has chosen to sing for the Lord.

Groundwork laid for possible law suits on shuttle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Aerospace legal experts are receiving inquiries about possibly seeking damages from NASA or contractors involved in the Challenger disaster, and they say release of a report on the January accident will set the stage for court action.

No relative of any of the seven crew members killed in the explosion has filed a lawsuit, but Houston attorney Ronald D. Krist said he has been contacted by "four or five" lawyers who claimed to represent surviving relatives of the astronauts and sought advice about filing a damage suit.

Krist, who sued on behalf of Betty Grissom after her husband, Virgil I. "Gus" Grissom, died in the 1967 Apollo spacecraft fire, said three of the lawyers contacted him a second time last month asking whether he would be available for a lawsuit. He answered: "You bet."

Arthur Dula, a Houston aerospace lawyer and law professor, said Thursday he has learned that one of the shuttle contractors, whom he would not identify, has been sent a letter seeking compensation, which he said could be a precursor to a suit.

"There are demands being made," he said. Asked if he was representing any astronaut relatives in the case, Dula replied, "I cannot answer that question."

In an interview last month, Krist said a lawsuit was "absolutely inevitable" and that "I fully anticipate I'll be employed in one or more cases."

Asked Wednesday whether he had been retained by any Challenger relatives, Krist said, "No comment," adding that acknowledging representation without a client's permission would violate attorney-client privilege.

PUC set to study Bell case

AUSTIN (AP) — Fifteen months after Southwestern Bell asked for a rate hike, the Public Utility Commission is ready to start making decisions in the case today.

The commission had planned to rule on the $277 million increase request in February, but postponed a decision after it learned that PUC staff memos had fallen into the hands of Southwestern Bell officials.

So the commission threw out an examiner's recommendation for a $14.4 million hike and spent 15 weeks reading the 17,267-page record in the case, which was filed in March 1985.

The telephone company agreed to the delay. Royce Caldwell, Southwestern Bell vice president for revenues and public affairs in Texas, said the additional review would remove any "cloud" from the deliberations.

The $277 million rate hike sought by Southwestern Bell includes residential service increases of $1.50 to $2 a month. The initial request sought $323 million. The company later pared the request to $277 million.

PUC spokesman Bo Byers said the commission today would begin making issue-by-issue decisions on the complex case. The meeting might continue Saturday, he said.

After the decisions are made, it will take several days to calculate the rate hike, according to Byers. The total amount of the hike should be known by the end of next week.

On June 16, the commissioners will decide which rates should go up to cover any approved hike. The final vote in the overall case is set for June 23.

The $14.4 million recommendation from the PUC hearing examiner called for a 15-cent monthly increase for basic home phone service.

Alien arrests total almost 500

FORT HOOD, Texas (AP) — Almost 500 illegal aliens have been taken into custody and sent on their way back to Mexico in raids this week by federal agents.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service arrested 65 undocumented workers in Killeen and at Fort Hood Thursday, INS spokesman Mario Ortiz said.

INS officials acknowledged many of the aliens may return to the area later, but the raids may discourage employers from hiring undocumented workers.

"We're trying to send a message — hire people from your own country, your own citizens," said Gary Renick, assistant INS district director for investigations in San Antonio.

On Thursday, 16 illegal aliens at Fort Hood were arrested between 7 and 11 a.m., fewer than immigration officials had expected.

Renick said many of the aliens may have stayed away because of publicity surrounding the earlier arrests. "They obviously knew we were in the area."

Apparently some Fort Hood contractors had been tipped off that the INS was coming to the military installation, he said.

Ortiz also attributed the poor Fort Hood roundup to the weather, saying recent rains have kept many construction workers off the job.

Later Thursday, agents arrested 49 more undocumented workers at small construction sites in Killeen. Many of the raids started with tips from the public, Ortiz said.

The Central Texas sweep was initiated by a request from Fort Hood military police, said Fort Hood spokesman Maj. George Creach.

Last month, military police arrested 16 illegal aliens.

May water usage up

Warm, dry weather the fore part of May outweighed a cool, wet latter part, and the Colorado River Municipal Water District delivered 12.35 percent more water than a year ago.

Total deliveries stood at 1,977,616,342 gallons, exceeded only by May 1974 when 2.134 billion gallons were used, but only 35 percent of it for oilfield purposes. Currently, only 10 percent of total deliveries are for oilfield purposes.

Municipalities drew 1,791,906,300 gallons, up 13.53 percent, largely due to San Angelo drawing 223,475,600 gallons as compared with 26,766,500 in May 1985. Deliveries to oilfields for secondary recovery amounted to 185,710,042 gallons, up 2.06 percent over May last year.

Big Spring took 289,453,000 gallons, up 18.37 percent despite taking no water at all for two days when pumps at its filtration plant went out May 27-28. Snyder showed 106,868,000 gallons, up 21.28 percent; and Stanton 11,417,000 gallons, up 5.17 percent. Midland dropped off to 396,355,000 gallons, or down 2.91 percent; and Odessa was at 464,347,700 gallons, down 4.43 percent.

Revenues of $2,171,841 for May were up 8.45 percent. Oilfield users paying $35,000 more or 30.53 percent; and municipalities $1,022,661, up 5.90 percent.

"about the 'synoptic' Gospels"

The synoptic Gospels are Matthew, Mark and Luke (not John).

Usually, we think of the Gospels as being the first four books of the New Testament, but this term, "the synoptic Gospels" is a specific term that refers only to the first THREE books.

Why?

Because these three Gospels have a great deal in common with each other. They have a lot of "parallel passages" and similar contents. They speak of the same events in many places.

In fact, the word "synoptic" (in Greek) means "seen together." That pretty well describes these three Gospels because they can be understood as being 3 accounts of the same events.

The Gospel of John, on the other hand, contains a good deal of material that is unique in scripture. John covers a lot of things the other 3 gospels leave out - thus it is not considered to be a "synoptic" gospel.

FINAL OUT – The ball and the runner arrive at the same time but Javier Solis never reached the bag and was tagged out by second baseman Chris Fryar for the final out of the contest as Snyder held on to defeat Pecos 6-5 in quarterfinal playoff action Thursday in Midland. Game Two of the best-of-three series will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday at Midland Lee Field. A third game, if necessary, will follow. See related article, below. (SDN Staff Photo)

Series continues Saturday...

Tigers survive scare, clip Pecos 6-5

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

MIDLAND – Quickly now. How was Snyder's last run scored in Thursday's game with Pecos?

Maybe you remember. Maybe you don't. But when Ricky Hunter's bloop single to centerfield drove in Mike McWilliams to give Snyder a five run lead in the bottom of the sixth inning it didn't seem to matter. It was just icing on the cake, extra insurance, an RBI for the record book - until Lance Windham's grand slam home run, that is.

Snyder built, as mentioned, a five-run lead here Thursday, then held on to edge the tough Pecos Eagles 6-5 in the first game of a best-of-three quarterfinal playoff series.

Game Two is scheduled for a 1 p.m. start at Midland Lee Field here. A Game Three, if necessary, will begin at approximately 3:30 p.m.

Because of Pecos' finish, a three-hit, four-run seventh inning, the Eagles left Angel Field in an upbeat mood for a team that had just lost a key playoff game. Snyder was restrained - happy for the victory, but with full understanding that the series isn't over yet.

"Oh, we're not going to worry about that," said Lewis of Windam's four-run shot over the left field fence. "We know they can hit the ball. We just have to be more careful."

In fact, if Lewis was biting his nails in this one, it wasn't because of Windham's homer. It was the 10 walks Snyder pitching allowed - three of which circled the bags and came in as Pecos runs.

"It scared me to death," said Lewis, who sounded more weary than a coach should who is one win away from a state tournament berth. "We've got to do better than that. Pecos walks a lot. We know that. But we've got to stop giving them so many."

Don Osborn had come in in relief of Jimmy Velasquez in the sixth inning and got three straight outs but the lanky senior right hander began to struggle in the seventh. He walked Israel Natividad and Ponchito Bafidis before getting Lupe Gabaldon to fly out to centerfield. Next-up Larry Avila cracked a single to right field that loaded the bases and Windham followed with his grand slammer that made the score 6-5.

"It was supposed to be a fastball low and away but it got up on him (Osborn)," said Lewis.

Oscar Mariscal then greeted Osborn with a single, but Snyder got a second out when Javier Solis hit into a fielder's choice. The ball went to short stop Brad Holcomb, and he flipped it to second baseman Chris Fryar in time to get Mariscal coming over from first.

The final out came moments later when Solis tried to steal second and catcher Ricky Hunter gunned him down with a fine throw to Fryar covering the bag.

"It was a team effort, everybody for everybody," said Hunter, who threw out two baserunners, caught another coming home on a long throw-in from right fielder Michael Long, and was three-for-three with a walk from the batter's box. "Whenever you get team faith behind you, you've got confidence. We didn't make it to the playoffs last year. This is our senior year and everybody is dedicating themselves to getting to state."

Snyder vs Pecos
Game Two
Saturday, 1 p.m.
Midland Lee Field

The victory put the 10th ranked Tigers at 23-8 on the season. Pecos fell to 20-9.

The game was scoreless until the bottom of the third inning when Justin Webb tripled to centerfield, scoring courtesy runner Brad Gartman. Gartman had come into the game after Hunter rapped a one-out single off of Pecos starter Tony Urquidi.

Snyder got another run when Holcomb singled in Webb. Still later, Velasquez singled down the third base line and sent Holcomb to third. He scored on Kenneth Pickering's basehit to left field.

The onslaught of Tiger hits prompted Pecos coaches to pull Urquidi in favor of Gabaldon. He responded by getting the Eagles out of the inning without further damage.

Snyder added more runs in the fourth when Hunter walked, Webb socked a two-out double and Holcomb followed with a two-run single.

Pecos answered with its first run in the top of the fifth though the Eagles were robbed by what may have been the biggest defensive play of the ballgame. Velasquez walked Urquidi and Natividad. Bafidis followed with a single to short centerfield. Urquidi was sent home on the play but a hustling Long caught the ball on the bounce and fired it to Hunter in time to get the runner at the plate.

Natividad later stole home when the Tigers tried unsuccessfully to get Bafidis out at second base.

Snyder's final run came in the sixth as McWilliams led off with a double to right field and Hunter followed with his single. The Tigers wanted to inflict more damage, but Pecos' defense rose to the challenge on a single from Velasquez when left fielder David Vejil made a good throw to get Webb coming home. Webb had reached base on an error.

In all, Snyder got 11 hits and Pecos five - three in the final inning.

Velasquez took the victory to raise his record to 12-4 for the season. Urquidi, 6-2, was the loser.

'Stupid' move costs Boston possible win

by The Associated Press

Milwaukee Manager George Bamberger was surprised. Surprise wasn't the word to describe Boston Manager John McNamara.

The Red Sox trailed Milwaukee by two runs with two out in the top of the ninth inning. Steve Lyons was at second, Marty Barrett at first and the American League's leading hitter, Wade Boggs, was at bat representing the winning run.

Rich Gedman and Dwight Evans already had hit solo homers off former teammate Mark Clear in the inning when Lyons tried to steal third. Brewers' catcher Rick Cerone threw him out for the final out of the game.

"Things went our way a little bit," Bamberger said ruefully.

McNamara was livid, and there was no pity in his remark.

"He did go on his own," McNamara said of Lyons' steal attempt. "That's twice he's done that. That's one of the stupidest things I've ever seen. There's no reason for that."

McNamara said Lyons would not play center field Friday night for Boston, which had won five in a row.

Lyons had no satisfactory explanation for his baserunning goof. "I was running on my own," he said. "I don't know what I can say that can make it better."

In the rest of the American League, Kansas City beat Minnesota 8-2, Chicago defeated Oakland 9-5 and Baltimore beat Seattle 7-1.

Royals 8, Twins 2

Kansas City won for the sixth time in seven games to move two games over .500, at 27-25, for the first time since April 20. George Brett homered and drove in four runs, and Scott Bankhead pitched 5 1-3 innings of scoreless ball in relief of Mark Gubicza.

The Twins have lost five of six.

Gubicza threw 13 straight balls and walked in two runs in the second inning before leaving in favor of Bankhead, who scattered five hits and struck out four.

White Sox 9, A's 5

Harold Baines drove in four runs with a sacrifice fly and two singles, and Neil Allen came within two outs of pitching his first shutout since 1983, when he was with St. Louis. Allen was wracked for five runs with one out in the ninth inning and left after giving up 11 hits.

Greg Walker homered for the White Sox, who had lost three in a row and have won only two of their last 12.

Orioles 7, Mariners 1

Lee Lacy had two RBI, including one with a single in a five-run fifth inning, to lead Baltimore over the Mariners. The Orioles have won 18 of their last 24 games.

Brawl motivates Rockets to 111-96 win over Boston

HOUSTON (AP) - The Boston Celtics have learned what Denver and Los Angeles already know - fight with one of the Houston Rockets' Twin Towers and the other one is likely to deliver a knockout punch.

Enraged by the ejection of 7-foot-4 Ralph Sampson for fighting in the second quarter, the Rockets rallied around 7-0 Akeem Olajuwon and roared to a 111-96 victory Thursday night, keeping the Rockets alive in the NBA title series.

The victory narrowed Boston's lead in the series to 3-2, and returned the best-of-7 series to Boston on Sunday afternoon. Game 7 also would be in Boston, on Wednesday night.

The Celtics easily won the first two games of the series in Boston Garden, where they have lost only once this season under their 15 championship flags that hang from the ceiling.

Houston, which lost in six games to Boston in the 1981 title series, also is marked by history - no team has ever come back from a 3-1 deficit in the championship series.

Thursday's victory marked the third time in the 1986 NBA playoffs that the Rockets have gathered around one Tower when the other was ejected from a game.

Sampson was sent to the dressing room with 9:40 to go in the second quarter following a bench-clearing fight that started between Sampson and Celtics guard Jerry Sichting.

With Sampson gone, the Rockets banded together as they have in the past.

Houston eliminated the Denver Nuggets in the sixth game of their second-round series and the Los Angeles Lakers in the fifth game of the Western Conference championship after Olajuwon had been thrown out of both games for fighting.

"That was the turning point, with Sampson out. The Rockets really stepped up to another level," Boston Coach K.C. Jones said. "When Sampson went out we lost our intensity and the Rockets gained more intensity and took it to us."

Houston led 34-33 when a scuffle broke out.

Sampson battled first with Sichting, then guard Dennis Johnson and finally Celtic center Bill Walton before order was restored.

With Sampson in the dressing room and reserve Jim Petersen in his place on the court, the Rockets outscored the Celtics 20-8 and never trailed again as a deafening capacity crowd of 16,016 roared its approval over Houston's last home game.

"We were not going to lose in front of our fans," said guard Robert Reid, who had 17 assists and 13 points. "I sat right here in 80-81 and heard that team celebrate the championship. I couldn't let that happen here again."

The halftime score was 58-47 and the Rockets stretched that to 86-65 entering the fourth quarter, as Houston outscored Boston in the third quarter for the first time in the series.

What did Rockets Coach Bill Fitch tell the Rockets after the fight?

"The speech was, 'There goes 25 points walking to the dressing room and everyone has to pick it up,' " Fitch said. "For the first time we turned up the meter and got the running game going. We played like there was no tomorrow."

And now there is.

Sampson declined to answer questions about the fight, but in a statement, said he was sorry it happened.

"I'm very emotional and will continue to play emotional," he said. "Somebody jumped at me and I reacted to protect myself."

With Sampson gone, Olajuwon picked up the slack. He had 10 points before the fight, 22 afterward. He also finished with 14 rebounds and eight blocked shots, which tied Walton's nine-year-old championship series record.

Petersen had six points and 12 rebounds as Houston outrebounded the Celtics 56-37, Wiggins had 16 points and seven rebounds and Leavell had seven points and four assists.

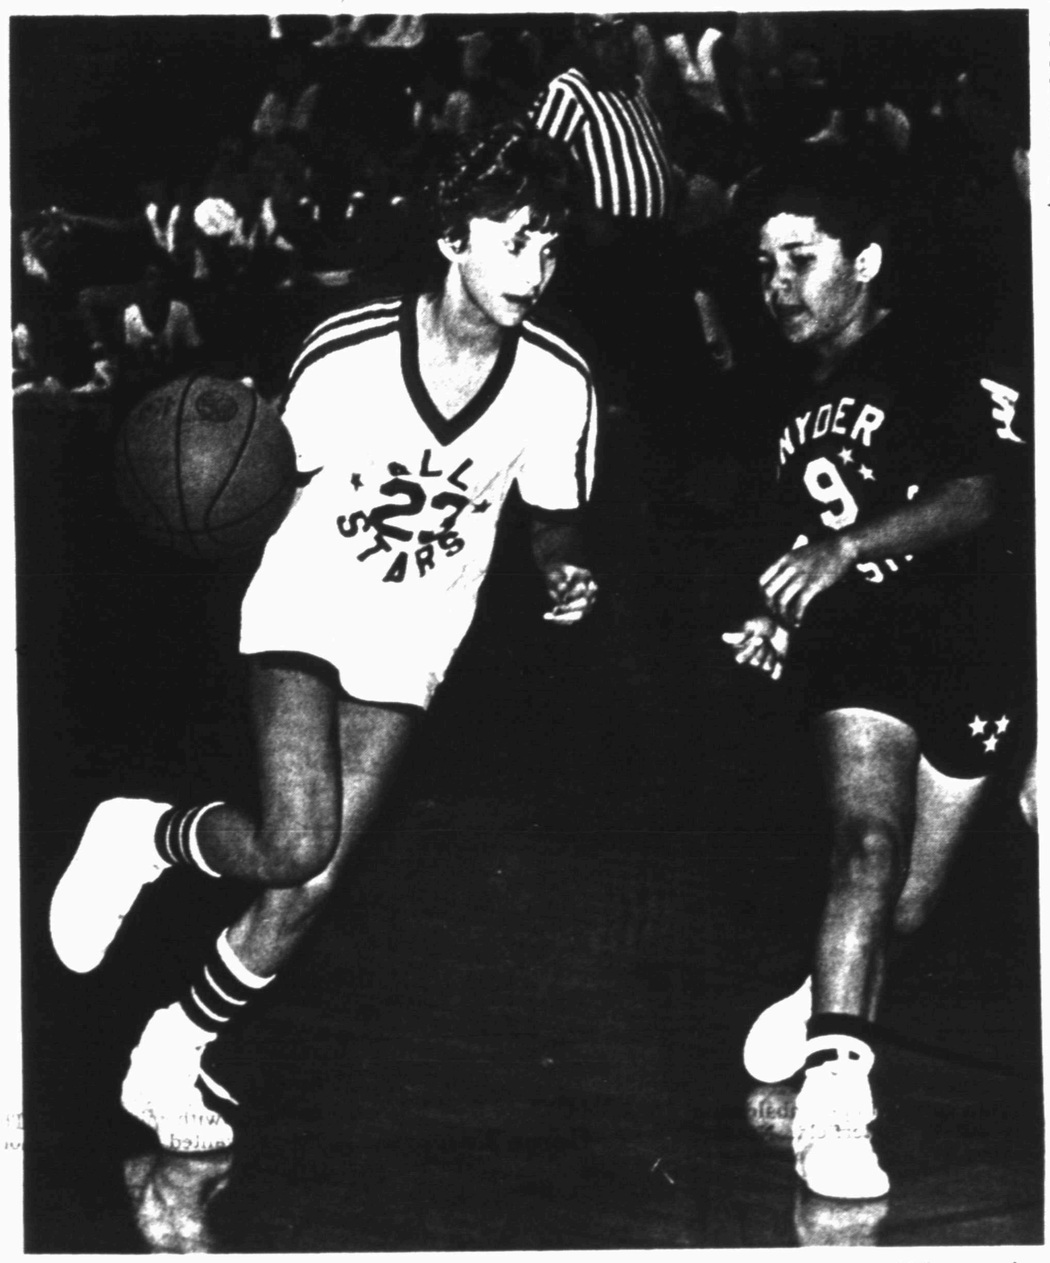

Kevin McHale led the Celtics with 33 points and Larry Bird finished with 17, a series low and eight under his average.

USFL-NFL trial continues with Walker taking stand

NEW YORK (AP) - New Jersey Generals' star running back Herschel Walker has a souvenir many football fans would treasure - a Dallas Cowboys' jersey the NFL team sent to Walker in one of "over 10" contacts the NFL club had with the former Georgia University star.

Displaying the No. 34 Cowboys' shirt with his name emblazoned across the shoulders, the 1982 Heisman Trophy winner testified Thursday in the United States Football League's $1.5 billion antitrust suit against the NFL. He said Dallas' director of player personnel, Gil Brandt, sent the jersey which was unsolicited.

Walker was questioned by USFL attorney Harvey Myerson for about 15 minutes before the trial was recessed until Monday, when Walker is expected to resume his testimony.

Walker, who wore No. 34 with the Georgia Bulldogs and with the USFL's Generals since joining the club after his junior year, said he spoke with a representative of the Cowboys "over 10 times" after he signed with New Jersey before the 1983 season.

The Cowboys selected Walker in the 1985 draft, the first year he was eligible to NFL clubs. NFL regulations prohibit clubs from drafting a player, if he leaves school early, until a year after his class would have graduated.

Walker took the stand and was questioned by USFL attorney Harvey Myerson for about 15 minutes. During that time, the jersey was displayed to the jury and Walker praised Generals' owner Donald Trump.

He also boasted that the Generals could beat "the Giants and the Jets (of the NFL)."

Another development in Thursday's proceedings may aid the NFL's lawyers.

U.S. District Judge Peter K. Leisure previously had restricted the evidence allowed concerning the USFL's rumored merger motive with the NFL.

USFL Commissioner Harry Usher testified earlier in the week, saying the NFL was trying to put the younger league out of business.

Usher cited reasons why USFL owners moved out of primary television markets. Leisure said Thursday's disclosure should enable the "NFL to present evidence that there were other reasons for the move."

Amarillo teams tough; to battle this evening

Amarillo is scheduled against Amarillo in the semifinals of the National League Seniors Girl's Little Dribbler Tournament tonight at Scurry County Coliseum.

Amarillo's Shooters defeated Brownfield 29-26 while Southwest Amarillo tripped up Levelland A, 34-15, in National League action Thursday. Also, Hobbs, N.M., eliminated Snyder's team from the tournament, 32-30.

Amarillo Shooters and Southwest Amarillo are scheduled to go head-to-head tonight at 7:15. Meanwhile, Hobbs was to play Levelland in an 11:45 ballgame this morning. The winner of the morning contest will play Brownfield at 8:30 tonight.

In American League Senior play Thursday, New Baden, Ill., clipped Levelland B team 25-19 while Twin County edged North Zulch, 30-28.

Cenla (Central Louisiana) tagged New Baden 43-20 in another outing and Dalhart crushed Kermit, 49-19.

In American Senior action today, Twin County was to play Kermit at 9:45 this morning with the winner to take on New Baden at 6 this evening.

Dalhart will challenge Cenla, La., at 4:45 this afternoon, also.

The tournaments, Senior League, Major League and Junior League, will continue through Saturday.

FINAL OUT – The ball and the runner arrive at the same time but Javier Solis never reached the bag and was tagged out by second baseman Chris Fryar for the final out of the contest as Snyder held on to defeat Pecos 6-5 in quarterfinal playoff action Thursday in Midland. Game Two of the best-of-three series will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday at Midland Lee Field. A third game, if necessary, will follow. See related article, below. (SDN Staff Photo)

Series continues Saturday...

Tigers survive scare, clip Pecos 6-5

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

MIDLAND – Quickly now. How was Snyder's last run scored in Thursday's game with Pecos?

Maybe you remember. Maybe you don't. But when Ricky Hunter's bloop single to centerfield drove in Mike McWilliams to give Snyder a five run lead in the bottom of the sixth inning it didn't seem to matter. It was just icing on the cake, extra insurance, an RBI for the record book - until Lance Windham's grand slam home run, that is.

Snyder built, as mentioned, a five-run lead, here Thursday, then held on to edge the tough Pecos Eagles 6-5 in the first game of a best-of-three quarterfinal playoff series.

Game Two is scheduled for a 1 p.m. start at Midland Lee Field here. A Game Three, if necessary, will begin at approximately 3:30 p.m.

Because of Pecos' finish, a three-hit, four-run seventh inning, the Eagles left Angel Field in an upbeat mood for a team that had just lost a key playoff game. Snyder was restrained - happy for the victory, but with full understanding that the series isn't over yet.

"Oh, we're not going to worry about that," said Lewis of Windam's four-run shot over the left field fence. "We know they can hit the ball. We just have to be more careful."

In fact, if Lewis was biting his nails in this one, it wasn't because of Windham's homer. It was the 10 walks Snyder pitching allowed - three of which circled the bags and came in as Pecos runs.

"It scared me to death," said Lewis, who sounded more weary than a coach should who is one win away from a state tournament berth. "We've got to do better than that. Pecos walks a lot. We know that. But we've got to stop giving them so many."

Don Osborn had come in in relief of Jimmy Velasquez in the sixth inning and got three straight outs but the lanky senior right hander began to struggle in the seventh. He walked Israel Natividad and Ponchito Bafidis before getting Lupe Gabaldon to fly out to centerfield. Next-up Larry Avila cracked a single to right field that loaded the bases and Windham followed with his grand slammer that made the score 6-5.

"It was supposed to be a fastball low and away but it got up on him (Osborn)," said Lewis.

Oscar Mariscal then greeted Osborn with a single, but Snyder got a second out when Javier Solis hit into a fielder's choice. The ball went to short stop Brad Holcomb, and he flipped it to second baseman Chris Fryar in time to get Mariscal coming over from first.

The final out came moments later when Solis tried to steal second and catcher Ricky Hunter gunned him down with a fine throw to Fryar covering the bag.

"It was a team effort, everybody for everybody," said Hunter, who threw out two baserunners, caught another coming home on a long throw-in from right fielder Michael Long, and was three-for-three with a walk from the batter's box. "Whenever you get team faith behind you, you've got confidence. We didn't make it to the playoffs last year. This is our senior year and everybody is dedicating themselves to getting to state."

Snyder vs Pecos
Game Two
Saturday, 1 p.m.
Midland Lee Field

The victory put the 10th ranked Tigers at 23-8 on the season. Pecos fell to 20-9.

The game was scoreless until the bottom of the third inning when Justin Webb tripled to centerfield, scoring courtesy runner Brad Gartman. Gartman had come into the game after Hunter rapped a one-out single off of Pecos starter Tony Urquidi.

Snyder got another run when Holcomb singled in Webb. Still later, Velasquez singled down the third base line and sent Holcomb to third. He scored on Kenneth Pickering's basehit to left field.

The onslaught of Tiger hits prompted Pecos coaches to pull Urquidi in favor of Gabaldon. He responded by getting the Eagles out of the inning without further damage.

Snyder added more runs in the fourth when Hunter walked, Webb socked a two-out double and Holcomb followed with a two-run single.

Pecos answered with its first run in the top of the fifth though the Eagles were robbed by what may have been the biggest defensive play of the ballgame. Velasquez walked Urquidi and Natividad. Bafidis followed with a single to short centerfield. Urquidi was sent home on the play but a hustling Long caught the ball on the bounce and fired it to Hunter in time to get the runner at the plate.

Natividad later stole home when the Tigers tried unsuccessfully to get Bafidis out at second base.

Snyder's final run came in the sixth as McWilliams led off with a double to right field and Hunter followed with his single. The Tigers wanted to inflict more damage, but Pecos' defense rose to the challenge on a single from Velasquez when left fielder David Vejil made a good throw to get Webb coming home. Webb had reached base on an error.

In all, Snyder got 11 hits and Pecos five - three in the final inning.

Velasquez took the victory to raise his record to 12-4 for the season. Urquidi, 6-2, was the loser.

'Stupid' move costs Boston possible win

by The Associated Press

Milwaukee Manager George Bamberger was surprised. Surprise wasn't the word to describe Boston Manager John McNamara.

The Red Sox trailed Milwaukee by two runs with two out in the top of the ninth inning. Steve Lyons was at second, Marty Barrett at first and the American League's leading hitter, Wade Boggs, was at bat representing the winning run.

Rich Gedman and Dwight Evans already had hit solo homers off former teammate Mark Clear in the inning when Lyons tried to steal third. Brewers' catcher Rick Cerone threw him out for the final out of the game.

"Things went our way a little bit," Bamberger said ruefully.

McNamara was livid, and there was no pity in his remark.

"He did go on his own," McNamara said of Lyons' steal attempt. "That's twice he's done that. That's one of the stupidest things I've ever seen. There's no reason for that."

McNamara said Lyons would not play center field Friday night for Boston, which had won five in a row.

Lyons had no satisfactory explanation for his baserunning goof. "I was running on my own," he said. "I don't know what I can say that can make it better."

In the rest of the American League, Kansas City beat Minnesota 8-2, Chicago defeated Oakland 9-5 and Baltimore beat Seattle 7-1.

Royals 8, Twins 2

Kansas City won for the sixth time in seven games to move two games over .500, at 27-25, for the first time since April 20. George Brett homered and drove in four runs, and Scott Bankhead pitched 5 1-3 innings of scoreless ball in relief of Mark Gubicza.

The Twins have lost five of six.

Gubicza threw 13 straight balls and walked in two runs in the second inning before leaving in favor of Bankhead, who scattered five hits and struck out four.

White Sox 9, A's 5

Harold Baines drove in four runs with a sacrifice fly and two singles, and Neil Allen came within two outs of pitching his first shutout since 1983, when he was with St. Louis. Allen was wracked for five runs with one out in the ninth inning and left after giving up 11 hits.

Greg Walker homered for the White Sox, who had lost three in a row and have won only two of their last 12.

Orioles 7, Mariners 1

Lee Lacy had two RBI, including one with a single in a five-run fifth inning, to lead Baltimore over the Mariners. The Orioles have won 18 of their last 24 games.

Brawl motivates Rockets to 111-96 win over Boston

HOUSTON (AP) - The Boston Celtics have learned what Denver and Los Angeles already know - fight with one of the Houston Rockets' Twin Towers and the other one is likely to deliver a knockout punch.

Enraged by the ejection of 7-foot-4 Ralph Sampson for fighting in the second quarter, the Rockets rallied around 7-0 Akeem Olajuwon and roared to a 111-96 victory Thursday night, keeping the Rockets alive in the NBA title series.

The victory narrowed Boston's lead in the series to 3-2, and returned the best-of-7 series to Boston on Sunday afternoon. Game 7 also would be in Boston, on Wednesday night.

The Celtics easily won the first two games of the series in Boston Garden, where they have lost only once this season under their 15 championship flags that hang from the ceiling.

Houston, which lost in six games to Boston in the 1981 title series, also is marked by history - no team has ever come back from a 3-1 deficit in the championship series.

Thursday's victory marked the third time in the 1986 NBA playoffs that the Rockets have gathered around one Tower when the other was ejected from a game.

Sampson was sent to the dressing room with 9:40 to go in the second quarter following a bench-clearing fight that started between Sampson and Celtics guard Jerry Sichting.

With Sampson gone, the Rockets banded together as they have in the past.

Houston eliminated the Denver Nuggets in the sixth game of their second-round series and the Los Angeles Lakers in the fifth game of the Western Conference championship after Olajuwon had been thrown out of both games for fighting.

"That was the turning point, with Sampson out. The Rockets really stepped up to another level," Boston Coach K.C. Jones said. "When Sampson went out we lost our intensity and the Rockets gained more intensity and took it to us."

Houston led 34-33 when a scuffle broke out.

Sampson battled first with Sichting, then guard Dennis Johnson and finally Celtic center Bill Walton before order was restored.

With Sampson in the dressing room and reserve Jim Petersen in his place on the court, the Rockets outscored the Celtics 20-8 and never trailed again as a deafening capacity crowd of 16,016 roared its approval over Houston's last home game.

"We were not going to lose in front of our fans," said guard Robert Reid, who had 17 assists and 13 points. "I sat right here in 80-81 and heard that team celebrate the championship. I couldn't let that happen here again."

The halftime score was 58-47 and the Rockets stretched that to 86-65 entering the fourth quarter, as Houston outscored Boston in the third quarter for the first time in the series.

What did Rockets Coach Bill Fitch tell the Rockets after the fight?

"The speech was, 'There goes 25 points walking to the dressing room and everyone has to pick it up,' " Fitch said. "For the first time we turned up the meter and got the running game going. We played like there was no tomorrow."

And now there is.

Sampson declined to answer questions about the fight, but in a statement, said he was sorry it happened.

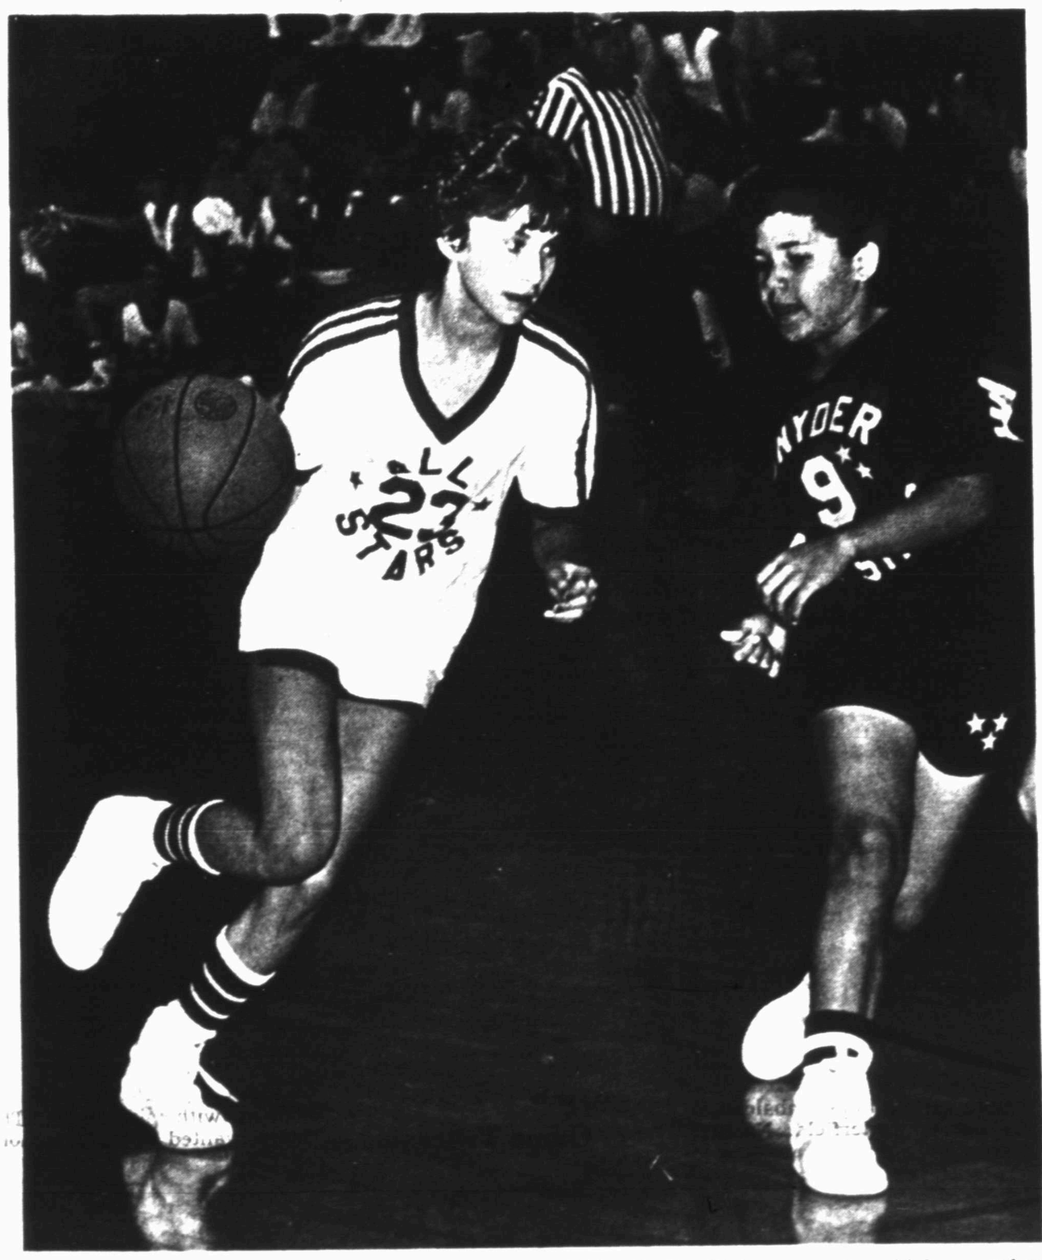

"I'm very emotional and will continue to play emotional," he said. "Somebody jumped at me and I reacted to protect myself."

With Sampson gone, Olajuwon picked up the slack. He had 10 points before the fight, 22 afterward. He also finished with 14 rebounds and eight blocked shots, which tied Walton's nine-year-old championship series record.

'Red' Adair might help put out blaze in Soviet oil field

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston oil-well firefighter Paul "Red" Adair is awaiting word on whether he will be hired to put out a large oil field fire that has raged for months in the Soviet Union, Adair said Thursday.

Soviet officials contacted Adair in January after having no luck in extinguishing the flames, he said.

Adair has submitted a proposal to the Soviets, he said.

Adair, the subject of a movie starring John Wayne in the late 1960s, said he had offered his help after two trips to the site in Kazakhstan, a Soviet Central Asian republic.

He said he didn't know how long the fire had burned or how it started.

He said he was reluctant to talk about the fire because he was waiting for the Soviets to sign a contract.

"Something like this is pretty touchy," he said. "It is a pretty big fire."

It is in a pressure field with sulphur gas that is "dangerous to fool with," according to a U.S. Embassy official in Moscow.

Adair said he had to receive permission from Washington to accept the Soviet offer.

If the Soviets accept the 71-year-old Adair's proposal, he said, it will not be the biggest fire he has experienced. Some oil well fires in South Texas and Saudi Arabia have raged for more than 25 years, he said.

He said he and six of his workers are now working on a big fire in the Venezuelan oil fields.

He said he has already put out fires in Hungary, China, Mayalsia and the United States this year.

"In Hungary, they had worked on the fire for two months," he said. "It took me three days."

Adair is a native of Houston, where he based his business after starting out fighting fires in Texas oil fields during the 1930s.

Saudi arms sale narrowly approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan narrowly saved his plan to sell weapons to Saudi Arabia from a Senate defeat by dropping Stinger missiles from the package and then appealing to Congress to not embarrass him before the world.

Some senators said those two factors were the major reasons why the Senate barely failed Thursday to override Reagan's veto of a congressional resolution blocking the sale. The override vote was 66-34, one short of the two-thirds required for a successful veto override.

The vote means Reagan can go ahead with the reduced package of $265 million worth of Sidewinder air-to-air missiles and Harpoon anti-ship missiles. The weapons will be delivered starting in 1989.

The Saudis originally wanted $1.1 billion worth of planes, tanks and missiles, but the request was scaled back to a package of missiles when congressional opposition arose.

Last month, the package was reduced again, with the Stinger anti-aircraft weapons dropped from the deal after both the Republican-controlled Senate and Democratic-run House voted by overwhelming margins to bar the sale. Congress has never blocked a major arms sale.

Reagan vetoed the disapproval resolution and then lobbied hard to sustain his veto, capping his effort with a breakfast meeting at the White House hours before the vote Thursday. About 75 senators attended.

Needing to win in only one chamber, he concentrated on the Senate. The House will not vote now.

Eight senators switched from opposing Reagan last month to support. Reagan also picked up the votes of four senators who were absent last month. On the override motion, 42 Democrats and 24 Republicans supported it, while 29 Republicans and five Democrats stood with Reagan.

One of the eight switches was Sen. William Armstrong, R-Colo., who said he voted with Reagan because the Stingers were taken out of the package.

"I felt that was enough of a concession to make it a close call on my vote," Armstrong said. "It was a fairly close decision for me, but unless there is a clear-cut reason to vote against the president on a foreign policy issue, I tend to give him the benefit of the doubt. The prestige of the presidency is important."

Similar sentiments were voiced by Sens. J. James Exon, D-Neb., and Chic Hecht, R-Nev., two other switches who noted that Reagan's image abroad was on the line.

been cast. The 20 vote gain dropped Tommy Pate's share of the vote below 50 percent and forced the runoff.

He now faces Jerry House, who finished second in the field of four.

The winner of this race will face Republican W.A. (Bill) Jones in November.

Only voters residing in Pct. 2 are eligible to vote in this runoff race. This includes voting boxes 5, 6, 17 and 18.

Statewide for Democrats, five races are in runoffs. For Republicans, four statewide races ended in runoffs last May.

In statewide balloting, the five Democratic races involved in runoffs (listed as they appear on the ballot) include:

—Railroad Commissioner: John Sharp vs. P.S. Ervin.

—Justice, Supreme Court, Place 1: Shirley Butts vs. Oscar H. Mauzy.

—Justice, Supreme Court, Place 2: Jim Brady vs. Robert M. Campbell.

—Justice, Supreme Court, Place 4: Jay Gibson vs. Raul A. Gonzalez.

—Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 1: George "Jorge" Martinez vs. Rusty Duncan.

The statewide balloting for four Republican runoffs (listed as they appear on the ballot) include:

—Lieutenant Governor: David Davidson vs. Aaron Bullock.

—Attorney General: Ed Walsh vs. Roy R. Barrera Jr.

—Commissioner of the General Land Office: M.D. Anderson Jr. vs. Grady T. Yarbrough.

—Railroad Commissioner: John Thomas Henderson vs. Milton E. Fox.

Bike theft noted

Police are investigating a bicycle theft reported Thursday afternoon.

Andrew Garza of 905 27th St. reported a 20-inch girls bike had been taken from outside the 3-D Motel on 25th St. around 4:15 p.m.

In other action, city officers jailed one man for driving with no license and no liability insurance Thursday afternoon.

Driver flees following four-vehicle accident

Two traffic mishaps — one a four-vehicle incident called a major hit-and-run — were reported in Snyder Thursday.

Ronald Brown and a passenger in his 1980 Mercury sustained minor injuries in that accident in the 400 Block of 37th St. at 4:23 p.m.

According to police reports, an unidentified non-contact vehicle which fled the scene was involved in the mishap in which the Brown car was in collision with a 1983 Chevrolet driven by Richard Ewing Paris of Amarillo and a 1984 GMC driven by Julia Romero Rodriquez of 315 34th St.

No other injuries resulted from that accident.

Also Thursday, a minor two-vehicle mishap was reported at 1:24 p.m. in the 1900 Block of 43rd St.

Involved in it was a 1977 White tractor-trailer rig owned by the McLane Food Service company of Abilene — driven by Stephen Gomer Richards of Abilene — and a 1981 Ford driven by James Weldon Wesson of 2201 45th St.

There were no injuries reported on that accident.

Rains Friday mainly to west

storm would move into the Fluvanna area around 2 p.m. The possibily of rising waters in Deep Creek were forecast.

In Fluvanna Friday morning, rainfall from the slow moving storm began around 8:30 a.m. It rained for more than one hour with totals of from 1.40 to 2 inches reported.

The system moved southward during the morning and Lake J.B. Thomas reportedly started receiving heavy showers around 10 a.m.

These ended shortly before 11 a.m. and similar rain amounts of up to 2 inches were estimated.

The National Weather Service has advised of the possibility of rising waters in Deep Creek due to the early morning rains, but as of 11:30 a.m. the creek had not begun to rise.

Bull Creek, which directs water to Lake Thomas, was reported flowing Friday morning, however.

Scurry County sheriff's deputies reported all roads and highways in the western part of the county were open shortly before noon.

Obituaries

Buck Hodges

LITTLEFIELD–Services for V. D. (Buck) Hodges, 77, were set for 4 p.m. Friday at the Parkway Drive Baptist Church with burial to follow in the Littlefield Memorial Park.

Hodges, the brother of Lois Skaggs of Snyder, died at 3 p.m. Wednesday at his home after a sudden illness.

A native of Comanche County, he was a farmer and had been a resident of the Whitharral community for 45 years. He was a past board member of the Whitharral Co-op Gin and the Littlefield Electric Co-op.

Survivors include; his wife, Nellie; three sons, J. C. of Anton; Norman of Richardson, and Otis of Culver City, Calif.; a brother, Floyd of Post; 11 grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

Billie Stokes

LUBBOCK–Memorial services were scheduled for 3 p.m. Friday at the St. John's United Methodist Church for Billie Joy Stokes who died Thursday in Brentwood Manor Nursing home.

A native of Glen Rose, she was a housewife and had lived in Lubbock since 1959, moving from Snyder. She married Edwin D. Stokes on Dec. 22, 1947 in Snyder. He survives.

Other survivors include two sons, Carl Kent of Lubbock and Larry Edwin of Plainview; a daughter, Letha Hughes of Lamesa; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sawyer of Lubbock; a brother, Bob Sawyer of Bella Vista, Ark.; and five grandchildren.
