Holland's index finger was almost severed, the bones of the other fingers were broken, his wrist was broken and he was pulled off his horse.

His calls for help were heard by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parker, who were at nearby Fairview Cemetery, and who brought him into town.

Skyrocket Band Gives Pops Concert May 19

Dawning of Sounds for the 70's will be signaled when the combined bands of the Wellington Schools will be presented in the annual Pops Concert Tuesday evening, May 19 in Bura Handley Community Center. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m.

One hundred and thirty-three boys and girls will play in the three bands, Elementary School, Junior High, and That Skyrocket Band.

The program will follow the familiar pops concert format, said Miss Carol Blain, director.

Tables will be set up in the auditorium so that those attending may eat. Sandwiches, pop, coffee and cake will be sold, and a cake auction will be held.

The 72-piece high school band will present its most elaborate, varied and difficult program of the year.

It will open with "Aquarius," to be followed by the title song from "Hair".

Turning to more traditional numbers, the band will then present "Charter Oak," Slavonic Folk Suite; and "Festive," all of which helped it become That Sweepstakes Band.

Selections from "Camelot" will follow, then "The Green Leaves of Summer", and the Carmen Dragon arrangement of "America the Beautiful."

The pops concert will end with the traditional "Blue and Gray".

The Junior High Band will play "The Caissons Go Rolling Along," "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," and "By the Time I Get to Phoenix." There are 45 members of this band.

Its number will be an Irish Folk song, "Cockles and Mussels."

The public is invited to attend.

The newly-elected president will be a senior next year. He is a member of the Future Farmers of America, Beta Club, Future Teachers of America and the Skyrocket Youth Conference.

July 1 Completion

Methodist Parsonage Construction Begins

Construction on the new parsonage for First United Methodist Church is under way with walls of the building up and the roof finished.

It is located in the 900 block of Childress Street, immediately west of the new Educational building.

Henry Sullivan, chairman of the church building program, said it is expected the building will be finished by July 1.

Lawrence Glenn of Amarillo is the contractor.

Built in contemporary style, it will have a light brick exterior finish. Plans call for a living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms and two baths.

The cost will be about $21,000 Mr. Sullivan said.

The parsonage is the second phase of the First United Methodist Church building program which, when completed, is expected to amount to around a quarter of a million dollars.

First phase of the program was construction of the educational building immediately south of the sanctuary.

Completion of the new pastor's home will make way for removal of the old parsonage and use of that land for construction of the third unit.

A new sanctuary will be the final phase of construction, according to plans.

Democrats Name Three Delegates to State Meet

Members of the County Democratic Convention met Saturday, May 9, to elect three delegates and four alternates to the State Convention.

Delegates are Mrs. John Coleman, county Democratic chairman; Paul Spillman, a former chairman; and Ralph Owens, chairman of Precinct 1.

Alternates are Robert Dwight of Samnorwood, Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. Clyde Drake and John Coleman.

Three resolutions were approved and will be presented to the chairman of the Texas Democratic Executive Committee.

The group pledged their "full support to the elected and/or appointed officers of our county in their enforcement and support of the Constitution and laws of local, state and national governments."

They also passed a resolution expressing their appreciation to Robert S. Strauss for outstanding service to the party, state and nation as National Committeeman from Texas and Treasurer of the National Democratic Committee.

The third resolution pledged overwhelming support to secure a sweeping victory for all Democratic candidates in the General Election in November 1970.

Attending the county convention were Raymond Horton, Mrs. B. M. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Drake, Mrs. Cortez Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Parker, Leon Hartman, Ralph Owens, Paul Spillman, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Neeley, Dudley Phipps, Donald Coleman, Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. W. A. Allen, Louis Patterson, Mrs. Rudie Tate, Robert Dwight, Mrs. A. J. Fires and Virgil Estes.

Child Hurt by Fall in Cellar

Michelle Black, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Black, received a broken jaw when she fell into the cellar at the family home Sunday morning, May 10.

The little girl's lower jaw is broken at center front.

She may be able to return home Thursday, relatives here have learned.

County Bank Assets at 11.5 Million Dollars

Assets of Wellington's two banks at the close of business April 30 reached $11,523,863.48, according to figures revealed in the call by the Federal Reserve Bank for that date.

This represents a continued upward swing in the financial strength of the two banks.

A comparison with figures of a year ago cannot be made, since the Dodson bank was in the process of going into receivership, but today's assets are a million and a quarter dollars above the assets at this time two years ago.

Demand deposits account for $5,710,073.97. This is the working money of the people of the Collingsworth trade area.

An additional $4,743,834.56 is in time deposits, money that depositors have at work, drawing interest. It also represents the financial strength of these depositors and a backlog of money with which to work.

The remainder of the deposits includes those of states and county governments, political subdivisions and other deposits from other miscellaneous sources.

Loans and discounts at this time amount to $6,707,544.72. This is considered in all financial circles a sound proportion of loans to deposits.

Undivided profits of the two banks totals $404,843.11, and the capital accounts total $1,004,843.11.

New Directors of C of C

New C of C Direetors To Be Elected in June

Three new directors of the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce will be selected in June by mail balloting among the members. Old directors whose terms will expire in July are George Shadid, Jimmie Kelso and Paul Hawkins.

A nominating committee consisting of Bill Hatch, Alvin Horton and Bobo Castleberry, was named by Deskins Wells, president, at the last regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce May 11. They will select six nominees, three of whom will be elected for two-year terms.

Lynn Jenkins, president of the Wellington Rotary Club, made a report on the sale of the Rotary stickers—"Wellington, Little Town, Big People"—and said that they still had about 300 of these left and urged people to buy them since the money goes for a scholarship for some deserving Wellington boy or girl.

Ralph Owens made a report on the progress of the Collingsworth Fair and said plans were going smoothly and that everyone seemed pleased with the dates of Sept. 14 through 19. Agricultural leaders think they can collect better exhibits in September than they could in October which was the month of the fair in 1969.

C. T. Hubbard reported on the operation of Wellington Travelers as of May 5 and said seven trailers had been completed up to that time and that the efficiency of construction had been increasing.

At the suggestion of Lynn Jenkins, a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of making additional awards at the annual banquet for such things as business improvement, residential improvement and other desirable achievements. This committee consists of Bobo Castleberry, chairman, Lynn Jenkins, Paul Hawkins, C. T. Hubbard and John Coleman.

Some Lose Property

None from County Hurt In Lubbock Tornado

Tornado-devastated Lubbock has drawn many of its residents from Collingsworth, but none of these was among the casualties of the storm that struck just before 10:00 p.m. Monday, May 11, insofar as can be determined at this time.

Several had close brushes with death and others lost cars and possessions.

Some Wellington families were able to contact Lubbock relatives within hours after the tornado passed; others had to make the trip to Lubbock.

Lubbock residents trying to contact famiiles here sometimes had to phone other relatives in cities hundreds of miles away and ask them to relay the message.

Mrs. John Rainey, wife of the Collingsworth County sheriff, worked all night on the police band radio establishing contacts.

Here are the Lubbock resident on whom information could be secured:

Jan Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Glenn, barely missed the tornado. Debris blew around her car as she went to her job as weather girl at a TV station. Her roommate, Wynona Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hezze Jones, was at home. Their apartment house was so badly damaged that the fathers of the two girls had to help them locate another apartment Tuesday.

Don Sweat, Texas Tech student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sweat, was sitting with friends in a car outside his apartment house when the storm struck. Cars on each side were heavily damaged. His had only broken glass.

Mrs. Elvis Lee Thomas, whose husband died in a car accident last year, with her three small children, moved to Lubbock about three weeks ago and was living in a trailer park. Along with other trailers, hers was demolished and her car damaged but usable.

Her sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Throne, lived with her. They, too, lost their possessions. The group was at a service station a short distance away and with others sought refuge in a small room. This, they believe, saved their lives.

They could not phone Wellington, but instead had to call relatives in Bartlesville, Okla., according to Mrs. Sam Thomas, mother of Mrs. Throne and mother-in-law of Mrs. Thomas. The latter's mother and brother, Mrs. Leonard Throne and Clifford Throne, went for them Tuesday.

Another of Mrs. Sam Thompas' daughters is in Lubbock, Mrs. Paul Sugg, and her two small children. They had no word of her late Tuesday.

Mrs. Sugg will be remembered as Merita Don Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomas were in Lubbock for him to see a heart specialist, according to his sister-in-law. As far as could be determined, they were safe.

Andy Lowe had checked into Methodist Hospital for knee surgery to be performed Tuesday morning. His mother, Mrs. Bill Lowe, was with him. When she started to leave, shortly before 10:00 p.m., hospital personnel would not let her and other visitors go. She stayed there through the storm.

The motel where she checked in was heavily damaged.

Mr. Lowe left Wellington Monday evening to be in Lubbock for his son's surgery and was caught in what he believes was a tornado that did not reach the ground between South Plains and Floydada. He was delayed more than an hour.

The couple spent the remainder of the night with Mr. Lowe's niece, Mr. and Mrs. Sambo Morris, who live outside the damaged area.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Campbell had time to get to a cellar near their apartment and their car was not damaged, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Campbell, learned when they got to Lubbock Tuesday.

Mr. Campbell's brother, Mr.

Summer Youth Baseball to Start May 18

Wellington's summer youth baseball program gets under way Monday, May 18, when practice will begin for two groups, according to Raymond Hodges, chairman.

Boys 10 through 12 years will meet at Marian Airpark baseball diamond at 6 p.m. for practice, and the younger boys, 7 through 9 years, will meet for practice at the same time at Ellison Park.

Both groups will meet again for practice Thursday, May 21.

Older boys, 13, 14 and 15 years, will practice at the airpark diamond at 6 p.m. Tuesday and Friday, May 19 and 22, Mr. Hodges said.

Teams will be organized on these dates.

Boys who have not signed up for the summer program, but who want to play, should come out at that time, he added.

Scheduled games will begin immediately after the Wellington schools are out and will run through mid-July.

More coaches are needed for the program, Mr. Hodges said.

Olin C. Cook Longtime Area Resident, Dies

Olin C. Cook, 76, of 1704 East Avenue, died in an Amarillo hospital at 4:10 p.m. Wednesday, May 6. He had been a patient there six weeks.

Mr. Cook was a retired custom combine operator, who for a number of years followed the wheat harvests northward through the Plains states. Prior to that, he farmed for many years in the Wellington area.

She and the baby will remain in Wellington.

Kathy Ann Cox

Outstanding honors have come to Kathy Ann Cox, but most important of these was awarded at the end of her high school career when she was named salutatorian of her class.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cox, Jr., 1703 South Haskell St., Kathy was born July 30, 1952 in Wellington and she has attended only Wellington Schools.

This year, Kathy was editor of the annual, a Pep Squad officer and Beta Club secretary. She was chosen Best All Around Girl and received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award. She represented Wellington in the University Interscholastic League Contest in ready-writing, she was a member of the Student Council, and worked in the school office.

Kathy played basketball three years. She previously served on the Student Council, and was in Who's Who, and was class treasurer. She was named Outstanding Student in English three years, world history, Spanish I, general business and American history.

She was winner of the Collingsworth County Illustrated History contest sponsored by the Domestic Science Club and she was in the top five beauties of the Miss Wellington contest this spring.

She will attend Texas Tech.

James Howard Jones

"Who is this James Howard Jones they are talking about?" someone asked recently. "Why, it's Hotrod."

The owner of both the name and the nick-name tells this true anecdote.

Throughout his school years, his friends and the community at large have called him Hotrod. Now that he is a young man, more and more people call him James Howard.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Hezze Jones, 1507 Dalhart, he was born in Wellington June 21, 1952 and has attended only Wellington Schools.

His persistence and determination is revealed in the fact that although he is not of gridster physical build, James Howard has played football four years, most of it as a starting player. He also played basketball a year.

A member of FFA four years he is chapter president this year, and was on the junior and senior chapter conducting teams two years, the radio broadcast team two and the grass judging team three. He participated in chapter trips to the Amarillo Fat Stock Show and Houston Fat Stock Show. He also has been an FFA vice president.

Interested in drama, he was in the junior-senior plays two years and one-act plays.

Classmates named him Most Mischievous two years and wittiest one year.

For a number of years James Howard has worked as a member of his father's custom combine crew that goes north with the harvest each summer.

He says he enjoys sports most about school, and hunting is his hobby. He will attend college, but he has not decided where.

Bill Ferguson

Golf, hunting and fishing are the hobbies of Bill Ferguson of the 1970 graduating class.

The son of Mrs. Tom Ferguson and the late Mr. Ferguson, he was born in Wellington Oct. 13, 1951 and has attended only the Wellington schools.

History is Bill's favorite study. He has assisted in many activities of Wellington high school, although he lists none specifically.

Bill says he will attend a trade school.

Mike Davis

Few members of this year's graduating class have shown leadership in such a wide field of activities as Mike Davis. Many of these he does not even mention.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Davis, 1412 Childress St., Mike was born at Lubbock Oct. 1, 1951. He attended Farmer, Lubbock and Cone elementary schools before coming to Wellington.

The community as well as the school will remember Mike for the fine calves he has exhibited—in the County Fair, the Fat Stock Show here, and in Fat Stock Shows at Amarillo and Houston.

A Future Farmer, he received the Star Chapter Award in 1968 and Lone Star Farmer degree, highest on the state level, in 1969. He was Greenbelt District secretary.

In 4-H, Mike received the Gold Star Award, highest on the county level a boy can receive.

Mike also played in the band one year, lettered in football three, was a member of Future Teachers of America, the Beta Club, and was on the Student Council two years. He was president of the Skyrocket Youth Conference and assisted in the Texas Youth Conference at Austin. He also attended the State Beta convention two years and the state FTA convention.

Mike was chosen Best All Around Boy this year.

Vocational agriculture, accounting and history are his favorite studies, and showing calves, fishing and hunting his hobbies.

He will attend Texas A&M University.

Wayne Reynolds, Jr.

An activity in which Wayne Reynolds, Jr., takes pride, and in which he is outstanding, is That Skyrocket Band.

He helped the band to win its Sweepstakes Awards in 1967, 1968 and 1970; he was a member of the Six Flags Festival Band in 1968.

Also, he was a member of the Wellington High School Stage Band and participated in the Brownwood Stage Band Festival in 1969.

He is a member of the Future Farmers of America.

Outside of school, Wayne is secretary-treasurer of the Rolling Plains Citizens Band Radio Club this year.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Reynolds, Route 1, Wellington, he was born Sept. 13, 1949, in Wellington, and he has attended only the Wellington Schools.

Band and vocational agriculture are his favorite studies, and radios are his hobby.

Wayne will attend Tarleton State College in Stephenville.

Truitt Holton

Truitt Holton is brief when he describes his activities in Wellington High School, but this hides considerably more hard work and accomplishment than he talks about.

Truitt represented WHS this year in the University Interscholastic League golf competition on the district level.

He also lettered several years as a member of the Skyrocket Basketball team.

He ranked in the upper percentile of his class scholastically and therefore was eligible for membership in the Beta Club.

Truitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holton, 1610 Graham Street.

He was born Nov. 13, 1951 in Wellington and has attended only the Wellington schools.

Next year he will enroll in Baylor University.

REALLY BIG SHOE provides a home for this baby brush-tailed opossum. The tiny creature was adopted by the children's section of a Sydney, Australia, zoo.

Danny Wayne Brooks

Athletics and agriculture have been the activities in which Danny Wayne Brooks was most active during his high school years.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brooks, 1707 Park Lane, and was born at Midland July 31, 1952.

He attended Quitaque schools through the sixth grade, and Wellington Junior High and High School since then.

Danny played football three years and basketball two. He was an active member of the Future Farmers of America four years.

Next year he plans to attend Clarendon Junior College.

Mayor John Coleman Stresses Love of Country for 1954 Study Club

The 1954 Study Club met on Thursday, May 7 in the home of Mrs. L. M. Bartlett with Mrs. Virgil Patterson as hostess.

After the business meeting, presided over by the club president Mrs. E. W. Clement, Mrs. Harold Caldwell, program director, introduced a guest speaker, Mayor John Coleman.

His topic of discussion was "What Happened to Patriotism?"

"Freedom is not free. somebody has paid the price for it," said Mr. Coleman. He spoke of the sacrifices that people have made to secure and preserve the freedom of this nation, from the signers of the Declaration of Independence to the present time.

Mr. Coleman related some of the things he and others experienced while prisoners of the Japanese during World War II.

In spite of all their suffering and hardships he never heard one man criticize his country or complain about his government's policies.

"They did all they could as long as they could with whatever means available to them," Mr. Coleman said.

He stressed that each one should teach and emphasize patriotism and love of country to children.

"They must learn that sacrifice and responsibility go hand in hand with freedom and personal rights," he continued, "and that when it comes to kindness and generosity, to lending a helping hand to people who need it, what nation in the world can hold a candle to the United States of America?"

Tea Sunday to Honor Mrs. Tippie, Chosen Dodson Mother of the Year

Members of the Dodson Civic Club will entertain with a tea Sunday, May 17, to honor Mrs. Purl Tippie, who was chosen Dodson's Mother of the Year.

The event will be given in the home of Mrs. T. E. Lennon from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. An invitation has been extended to all federated clubs in Wellington and the public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Tippie teaches first and second grades in Dodson School. She began her career more than 35 years ago, in a one-teacher school in Beaver County, Oklahoma.

She has the distinction of having taught in three Collingsworth County schoos, as well as at Vinson. Almost all of her life has been spent in the Southeast Panhandle-Southwest Oklahoma area.

The former Effie Warlick, she was born at Bethel, southeast of Hollis. She taught near Weatherford, Oklahoma, at Lake Creek in Greer County, Ozark, east of Altus, and at Vinson, before coming to Samnorwood in 1948.

Mr. Tippie's tenure as a teacher was almost as long as her own, and after nine years at Norwood, they went to Lazbuddie on the South Plains. They returned to Quail for a year, then in 1960 moved to Dodson. He taught there until his death.

Rural Development More Than Farmers

The rural development program is not essentially a farm program. Of the 65 million Americans who live in non-metropolitan areas, only 9 million, or 13.8%, are actually farmers.

"This is not to say that rural development could possibly be undertaken without farmers, for their income may well form the only economic base in many communities and certainly is an important factor in any rural community. Let there be no doubt then that a good farm income is part of rural development which involves the total community," said Asst. Sey of Agriculture Thomas K. Cowden.

Mrs. Ray Richards of Amarillo, spent several days last week with her mother, Mrs. Doshia Dix.

Amateur Treasure Hunters Not Under Antiquities Code

AUSTIN.—Contrary to a national news service story, the Antiquities Code of Texas is not spoiling the fun of amateur treasure hunters, collectors and beachcombers.

Dr. Fred Wendorf, chairman of the Antiquities Committee, said, "Informal collecting involving no excavation does relatively little damage to our archeological and historical resources. Thus, to prohibit it would be an unnecessary infringement on a popular activity. In addition, a regulation of this type would probably be unenforceable."

Sgt. and Mrs. William Bouldin and son of Abilene were here over the week end visiting with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Jesse and family. They spent Saturday at Greenbelt Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jesse and family.

Miss Debbie Lewis of Texas Tech spent spent Mothers Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Carey and Don.

Arnett Teacher Is Model for Painting Given Vice-President

An Arnett Junior High teacher, Ann Elliott Hays, was the model for "Oklahoma Hills", the Fred Olds painting presented to Vice President Spiro Agnew when he spoke at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla., recently.

In the painting, Mrs. Hays is shown as a pioneer woman, standing on a wind-swept Oklahoma hill, her hair streaming over her shoulders and a bouquet of wild flowers in one hand.

Prof. Olds is an instructor in the Art Department at Southwestern State College.

He asked Mrs. Hays to be the model for this portrait during her senior year in college, assuring her that she had all the qualities of the pioneer woman.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Elliott of Arnett community, she was graduated from the school where she now teaches.

One of the outstanding girl rodeo performers of the southeast Panhandle-southwest Oklahoma area, she has appeared many times in competition here.

Screwworm Alert Sounded for '70

Officials of the Screwworm Eradication Program are concerned over the small number of larvae samples being submitted for identification to the Mission Laboratory. Stockmen are urged to keep up their guards and when larvae are found in animal wounds, it is extremely important that positive identification be obtained. The spring fly season is just ahead and could mean trouble if screwworm cases are permitted to go undetected.

ORIGIN OF MONEY

It is common knowledge that people used a eystem of barter or direct trade before money came into use. The obvious supposition is that money evolved directly from these barter transactions after people finally realized that a better system was needed for determining values and exchanging wealth.

This is not entirely correct since monetary systems were already in use while barter was going on. The earliest money really originated in religious and social customs. It was used for ransom, purchasing brides, ceremonial offerings, and showing-off with various forms of ornamentation. Used originally to discharge religious, legal and ritualistic obligations, its value as a medium of commercial exchange eventually became apparent to the tradespeople who then began to adapt it to the uses of the marketplace.

Landowners Should Speak Out at Game Hearing Here June 3

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has announced its annual hearing in Wellington for June 3.

Every person interested in the conservation of this county's wildlife should plan now to be at that meeting. It is where the recommendation of county residents are heard and from this information, the hunting seasons are set.

Last year a county-court room full of ranchers and farmers attended and spoke out strongly in favor of shortening the quail season to conform with the season in surrounding counties.

The season was not shortened.

There were sound and valid reasons for the disappointment among land owners, especially those with with livestock. Too many of them have had experience of hunters who without regard to posting of land or securing permission of the owners have shot his cattle, set fire to his grass, left his gates open and scattered his quail coveys.

Yet if this uninvited hunter steps in an old prairie dog hole and hurts himself, he can sue, according to area ranchers who feel they must protect themselves with expensive liability insurance.

The Parks and Wildlife Department has done an outstanding job in conserving Texas wildlife. On June 3, Collingsworth residents can express themselves on conserving their own rich wild game resources.

Bums and Students

President Nixon is reported even more concerned about the "third front" — the campus explosion — than the effort of Senate liberals to snap shut the Southeast Asia war purse.

After meeting with representatives of the American Association of Universities, Nixon indicated that Vice-President Agnew will be a little less provocative in his remarks about students; that he, himself, will make an effort to conciliate moderate student opinion.

He needs to retreat somewhat from his description of student demonstrators as "bums" by making some fresh affirmation of the right of protest—but without courting the radicals or giving ammunition to the disloyalists who thrive on university disorders.

It is probably too much to hope that Nixon can isolate these people. But considering their potential for evil, he is well advised to recoup, if he can, some of the popularity he enjoyed among the young in last year's polls. He can use a few friends on the campus.

He can certainly make useful distinctions between nonideological sensation-seekers and genuine objectors and those whom Dr. Nathan Pusey, president of Harvard, says "are less interested in their studies than in promoting revolution."

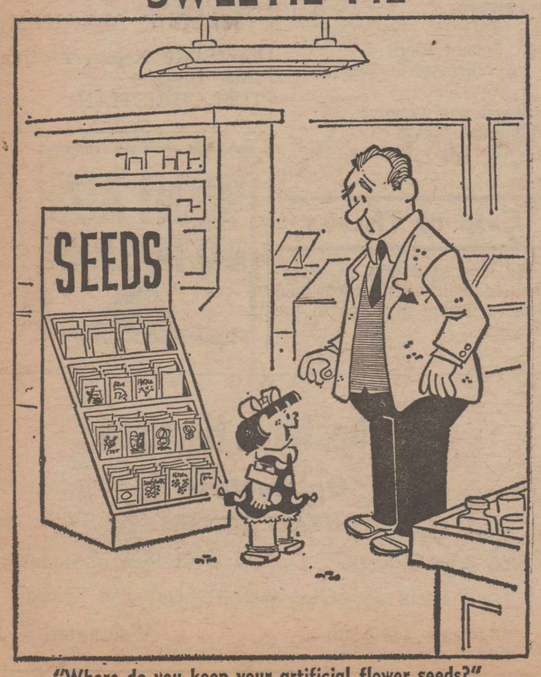

There is no point in helping them by sniping at students in the mass—however immature or unthinking some of their protests are.

Nixon pledged to Dr. Pusey and others his efforts to "save and strengthen our academic institutions as citadels of reason, sanity and civility in a deeply troubled world."

Having to cope simultaneously with the almost total politicalization of the war by his dovish foes doesn't make Nixon's task of student conciliation an easy one. The war is central to both opposing groups.

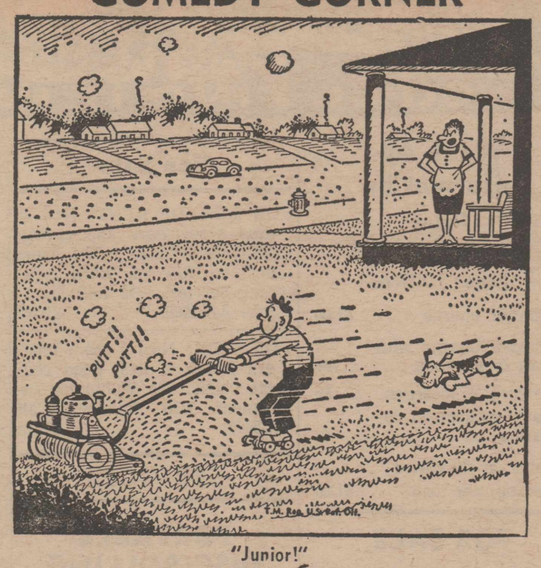

What the President needs least of all right now is a "third front" created in part by a failure, when discussing the campus, to separate the "bums" from the students. —The Dallas Morning News

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN.—U.S. Senator Ralph Yarborough and State Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler were upset victims in the May 2 Democratic primary to Lloyd Bentsen and State Rep. Robert L. (Bob) Armstrong.

Scene of political action now shifts to the general election where Bentsen faces Republican Senate candidate George Bush. Gov. Preston Smith, unopposed in the Democratic primary, is confronted with GOP Paul Eggers. Bush and Eggers won nominations easily over Robert Morris and Roger Martin in the Republican primary.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin won third term nomination handily over Judge David H. Brown and faces Edward M. Yturri, GOP, in November. Democrat Ben Ramsey had no difficulty with Connie Lawson and is unopopsed in November. Truman Roberts defeated Earl W. Smith for Court of Criminal Appeals. James G. Denton appeared to be the Supreme Court contest winner over Matt Davis and Hawthorne Phillips. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, unopposed in the Democratic primary, is challenged by Byron Fullerton, GOP, in November. Four other GOP candidates will wage token campaigns for statewide office against Democrats.

Capitol Precautions

Tighter security measures may be ordered for the historic state capitol—always wide open to visitors—in the wake of a violent anti-war demonstration there last week.

Three 82-year-old etched glass door panels were smashed when a mob of 200 obscenity-shouting youths stormed through the rotunda. A tear gas grenade was tossed into the north corridor as police chased the demonstrators back through the building and onto the University of Texas campus.

Twice within the next two days, the capitol was evacuated due to telephone bomb threats. Riot equipped Department of Public Safety officers took up stations inside or patrolled the grounds as demonstrations continued on the UT campus.

Gov. Preston Smith said the damage and disrespect may force tougher security, though the capitol has been the scene of many undisturbed peaceful demonstrations in the past.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court agreed with lower courts that 6,972 acres of Victoria County oil land belong to private owners, not the state, in a prolonged land vacancy dispute. Had the plaintiff in the vacancy action been right, Texas might have recovered up to $100 million in mineral rights.

Dallas grocery chain stores were rejected by the High Court in their effort to obtain a sales tax break due to trading stamps given their customers. Chain wanted to deduct the cost of stamps before figuring the sales tax owed the state.

Third Court of Civil Appeals affirmed $40,813 in damages to a Temple brakeman injured in Atcheson, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad braking accident, but cut the award $38,650 below the trial court verdict.

Education Policy Approved

State Board of Education adopted the policy that contributions of ethnic and racial groups should be taught.

Board also proclaimed that literature books must be free of offensive language and that life science texts will present evolution as a theory rather than a fact.

Per capita state aid to local districts was increased from $114.40 to $117.65 per student for the current school year. Board authorized application for $1.8 million in federal anti-poverty funds to help train 900 migrant workers for city jobs, approved a $2 million special vocational program for poor students and empowered the Texas Education Agency to seek a $50,000 federal grant to continue technical assistance to school districts with desegregation and other ethnic problems.

Appointments

Governor Smith named Preston H. Dial Jr., judge of the vacant 175th district court in San Antonio after Dial was nominated for that post in the Democratic primary.

Randall B. Wood, native of Edom, is new director of elections in the secretary of state's office, succeeding Mrs. Mary K. Wall, who retired.

Gov. Smith has named R. L. Thornton, Jr., of Dallas to the board of regents of Texas Woman's University and Dr. Paul C. Witt of Abilene to State Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences.

Robert A. Hansen of Sioux City, Iowa, will become superintendent of Texas School for Blind on June 1.

Fifteen-member state textbook committee has been picked and held its first meeting May 8 to begin a five-month series of hearings on new textbooks.

Attorney General Rules

State Credit Union Commissioner cannot enter a proposed truth in lending liaison agreement with the Federal Trade Commission, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held in a recent opinion.

In other rulings, Martin concluded that:

—State Comptroller can write rules by which Texas Tech University art works can be temporarily exchanged with other universities and museums.

—Texas Tort Claims Act does not cover school districts except as to motor vehicles, but limitation does not apply to Junior College districts.

—Penal code article pertaining to seizure and confiscation of devices prohibited in Espiritu Santo Bay and other waters pending trial, and destruction of the prohibited devices on conviction for possession or use, is constitutional.

Nursing Homes Ask Raise

Nursing home operators, claiming they face financial crisis, want authority to levy a $25 a month supplemental charge for welfare patients in addition to the state allocation.

Plan seeks a 6% increase in state payments for patients requiring skilled care or a total of $381 a month. State costs in other categories would decline if families pay the supplemental charge.

Meanwhile, State Board of Public Welfare, which took the request under study, heard new federal family assistance legislation backed by the president would cost Texas $57 million a year more than present programs.

Welfare

State Board of Public Welfare announced that only 12 counties have not decided on a course of action on the Dallas federal court order that 90 Texas counties must begin the food-aid programs for the poor.

These include Archer, Bailey, Blanco, Castro, Gregg, Kendall, Llano, Mills, Oldham, San Saba, Parmer, and Presidio counties. However, Blanco, Llano, Mills and San Saba county officials reportedly were working actively on the problem.

Another 31 counties had refused to operate food programs so the State Department of Public Welfare planned to operate commodity programs at federal expense in Aransas, Baylor, Bosque, Bowie, Clay, Collin, Colorado, Coryell, Deaf Smith, Denton, Edwards, Ellis, Fort Bend, Gillespie, Gray, Grayson, Hood, Jack, Johnson, Kaufman, Kerr, Lamar, Randall, Refugio, Roberts, Rockwall, Rusk, Uvalde, Wheeler, Wise and Wood counties.

Short Snorts

• Texas Animal Health Commission reversed its policy and voted to inspect spayed heifers imported from Mexico.

• Lubbock received a $218,972 child development grant and Laredo $71,894 for migrant rural action demonstration project.

• Texas Turkey Federation has petitioned Agriculture Commissioner John C. White for a May 21 hearing on a statewide referendum for self assessment to promote research, promotion and consumer education.

• Governor requested federal disaster aid for tornado-hit Cochran, Hockley, Lamb, Hale, Briscoe, Donley, Gray, Swisher and Parmer counties.

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where numerous legislators have gone into orbit about Mr. Nixon's sending some armed forces in Cambodia to knock out enemy bases.

This is the usual politician's reaction when the military's commander in chief gambles on a bold move to get the country off a hook.

And being a standard fence-mending, precautionary exercise, it shouldn't be taken too seriously. If the move flops the congressmen can holler "I told you so", and if it succeeds the electorate will be so happy they will forget that anybody squawked about it.

Fly-In Stresses Dilemma of Low Income, Rising Farm Costs

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Nearly 200 farm and rural community leaders, taking part here recently in the 1970 National Farmers Union Ladies' Fly-In, emphasized the need to retain farm parity and to make improvements in farm programs which will lead to improved net farm income.

Calling at the office of every U. S. Senate and House member, the Farmers Union ladies from ten states posed the question, "How are we to survive with lower farm prices and higher farm costs?"

The Ladies Fly-In had converged on Washington at the time that a comprehensive farm bill is in its final developmental stages in the Agriculture Committee of the House.

The Fly-In participants heard a somber warning from Rep. Graham Purcell, author of the Coalition Farm Bill and chairman of the House Agriculture Subcommittee on Grains and Livestock, that the farm programs are in greater danger than at any time in the last 30 years.

Rep. George Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, told the women at a House breakfast session that "this is the year of decision for agriculture."

Also speaking at the breakfast, Erma Angevine, executive director of the Consumer Federation of America, praised the Fly-In members for their efforts and urged them to speak up in simple terms of how the various farm and food programs affect them and their rural communities.

At a meeting with Senators from the participating states, the Farmers Union ladies heard from North Dakota Senators Milton Young and Quentin Burdick, Minnesota Senator Walter F. Mondale, South Dakota Senator George McGovern, Wisconsin Senator William Proxmire and Gaylord Nelson, Colorado Senator Peter Dominick, and from Gene Godley, administrative aide to Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas.

Among the Ladies Fly-In participants were Mrs. Delbert White and Mrs. D. R. Langley of Quail, Collingsworth County Farmers Union.

At their opening session Sunday evening, National Farmers Union President Tony T. Dechant told the rural leaders that "agriculture is the only major group being asked to volunteer to accept lower prices and income in the face of steadily and inexorably rising costs."

One of the major highlights of the four-day schedule in Washington was a panel discussion, moderated by President Dechant, and including three urban and three rural spokesmen.

Agricultural specialists included Rep. Purcell, Congressman John Melcher of Montana and Congressman John Zwach of Minnesota. Urban representatives included Rep. Donald M. Fraser of Minnesota, Rep. Allard K. Lowenstein of New York City and Rep. Henry Reuss of Milwaukee.

Besides emphasizing the importance of the Coalition farm bill and insisting on the retention of parity as the basis for supports, the ladies group also urged:

—Retention of federal cost-sharing funds for the ACP program, as a major underpinning of the efforts to control soil erosion and water pollution.

—Continuation of the special milk programs in schools and camps with an increase in federal aid.

—Extension beyond 1970 of the authority for the Food-for-Peace program.

—Establishment of a comprehensive national health insurance program for all ages.

—Roll-back of the basic cost of money from the present 8% to 8½% levels to 6%.

—Repeal of the decision to increase Medicare Part B premium fees by 32%.

—Expansion of the food stamp program to all areas.

Collingsworth County FARM NEWS

By Don Reeves
County Agricultural Agent

With warmer weather insect pests will increase, and this means insecticide use will also become more widespread.

Since insecticides come in many forms, it is important to know some of the terms used to describe them. There are dusts, wettable powders, soluble powders, emulsified concentrates, oil solutions, granulated materials and aerosols and spray bombs.

Dusts don't mix with water and should never be used as sprays. They come as dry powders ready for use.

Wettable powders are for spray use. They contain a wetting agent and may contain up to 85% of the actual ingredient.

Soluble powders are chemicals which readily dissolve in water. They can be applied with low-pressure, low-volume sprayers.

Emulsified concentrates are liquids carrying the insecticide in a suitable solvent and emulsifier. They can be applied with low-pressure, low-volume sprayers.

Oil solutions are ready for use and may contain from a half to 10% active ingredients.

Granulated materials are ready for use as insecticides in or on particles of a carrier. They are useful for controlling soil insects.

Aerosols and spray bombs contain one or more insecticides, an oil solvent and a propellent gas. The bombs produce a fine mist or a coarse spray for leaving a residue of the insecticide.

In addition, baits, insecticide-fertilizer mixtures, insecticide-herbicide mixtures and moth-proofing agents are some of the special formulations available.

Regardless of the form of the insecticide used it is very important to follow label directions to the letter and use them only for the purpose stated on the label. All should be stored out of reach of children.

Farm Ponds

A properly managed farm pond can provide excellent fishing and serve as a source of recreation and income for the owner.

Most ponds, however, should be fertilized for maximum fish production. Fertilizer increases the supply of plankton which is the main food supply for small fish and water insects.

Early spring is the time to begin a fertilizer program. Water temperature should be 60 degrees F. when the first application of fertilizer is made.

Most Texas waters respond to an initial treatment of 100 pounds of 20-20-5 analysis fertilizer per surface acre, followed by successive treatments of 20 to 40 pounds per acre at 2-week intervals until a desirable bloom has been reached. Water surrounded by soils with ample potassium usually respond well to 16-20-0 fertilizer. Nitrogen and phosphorus seem to be essential for good plankton production, regardless of the surrounding soil type.

The plankton bloom is sufficient when a person's cupped hand is not visible when it is immersed in the water to elbow depth (about 18 inches). The bloom usually appears in one to five weeks after the beginning of the fertilization program. Subsequent applications should be made only as needed to maintain the bloom.

The invasion of Cambodia for the purpose of destroying Communist bases used as supply depots and troop camps that were established for easier infiltration of South Vietnam has caused demonstrations on campuses across the nation. Some of these were quiet and orderly and some were violent. The invasion also caused some thinking and considerable discussion around the coffee tables and on the streets. Some of it was based on information and some of it grew out of prejudice. You hear it said that Kennedy did this and Eisenhower did that and sometimes it is factual and sometimes it is not. So let us take a look at the history of U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

It was neither Eisenhower nor Kennedy who first sent aid to Vietnam. That was done by President Harry Truman in 1946 to try to save the colonial possessions of France in Indochina. Between 1946 and 1954, the United States provided over $2 billion in aid which was three-fourths of all the French spent trying to keep possession of Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

In 1954 the French were defeated at Dienbienpu disasterously. According to "Parade", the Sunday magazine distributed by The Fort Worth Star-Telegram and many other large papers, it was at that time Secretary of State John Foster Dulles tried to get President Eisenhower to send troops to Vietnam. Eisenhower refused. He agreed to continue to send money and materials as Truman had done; but he flatly refused to commit troops to fight on the mainland of Asia.

★ ★ ★

It was President John F. Kennedy who first sent troops into combat in Vietnam. It was President Johnson, still using Kennedy men as a Cabinet, who escalated the troops to over half a million men at as yet an untold cost in thousands of lives and billions of dollars. That was the situation inherited by President Nixon when he promised to get the troops out of Vietnam as quickly as possible in keeping with the safety of the men who were already there.

★ ★ ★

The miracle of the tornado at Lubbock is that no more people were killed. If that devastating storm had struck in the middle of the afternoon with the sidewalks crowded with pedestrians and the streets full of automobiles and trucks the ensuing loss of life and maiming of bodies would have been horrible.

★ ★ ★

The Great Plains Life building was damaged to the extent that it had to be condemned. It makes you wonder about spending millions of dollars to build a 27-story building in a region where there is as much land as there is on the Plains. Land is high in Lubbock; but not that high. However there is no man-made complete protection against natural disasters. Flooding was also one of the problems. A low building covering a lot of ground could have been prey to water.

★ ★ ★

People are learning more and more about what to do in case of a tornado. There are measures that will afford some degree of protection besides going to a storm cellar which remains the best. This protection is not always possible. One of the main precautions is negative. Do not panic and do not remain in the open where the danger from flying objects is greater. Get yourself a list of the do's and don'ts concerning a tornado.

★ ★ ★

The Plains region from Texas into Canada is often referred to as tornado alley due to the fact that tornados do strike in this area every year. Now that it is becoming more populous with each passing year, more damage is done and more lives are lost. As a result more notice is taken of the storms. However, tornados occur in the other states just as severely and about as frequently. Every state including Alaska experiences tornados except Hawaii and the islands state suffers from typhoons, tidal waves and earthquakes.

TEXAS SNAKES

Texas has only four species of poisonous snakes, although there are various varieties within the species. They are the rattlesnake, copperhead, water moccasin and coral snake.

About 225 species of trees grow in Texas.

ALL-SPORTS AWARDS

Farm Bureau to Open Blue Cross Drive May 11

A special opening for enrollment of Collingsworth County Farm Bureau members in Farm Bureau's Blue Cross - Blue Shield hospital-medical care protection from May 11 to May 25 was announced on Thursday by Ray Null, president of Collingsworth County Farm Bureau.

"Enrollment in our Blue Cross-Blue Shield program is one of the very greatest benefits the Texas Farm Bureau family can enjoy," said Mr. Null. "It provides, basically, just about all the hospital-medical protection the average farm or ranch family is apt to need; and was especially designed for the rural family. In fact, it is a prime reason for many to join up with Farm Bureau."

The effective date for those enrolled in this special county-wide enrollment is June 1.

To many, one plan of hospitalization "insurance" is the same as all others, Mr. Null said, but the fact is, Blue Cross is unique in the entire field of prepaid hospital-medical care. In the first place, Blue Cross started the entire industry back in 1929; and is today by far the largest in this field. There are more than 60 million enrolled in Blue Cross today; more than 1,850,000 in Texas alone; and the numbers increase, year after year.

Since the beginning of the Farm Bureau-Blue Cross-Blue Shield partnership in 1944, more than $38,494,367.00 in hospital-medical benefits for members has been paid.

Unlike all other such plans, however, Blue Cross provides benefits based on the actual services of the hospital, rather than a limited sum of money, which all too often proves to be all too small. And these charges are all agreed upon, with Blue Cross member hospitals, in advance. Blue Cross, then pays the hospital direct.

When the Blue Cross member enters the hospital, there is no red tape — the patient simply presents his Blue Cross-Blue Shield ID card at the admissions desk, and that's all.

"It's better than a credit card," said Mr. Null. "There certainly is nothing like Blue Cross."

Grand Opening of Fabric Shop to Be Held This Week in New Site

Mrs. John Ingram has moved her Fabric & Ready-to-Wear Shop to 811 West Avenue and is holding the Grand Opening of the business in its new location this week.

"I want the people of the Wellington area to come to see me in my new location. We have new merchandise in a new setting. There will be prizes, and many bargains," she said.

Mrs. Ingram started handling fabrics and sewing supplies in a small shop in 1961. Later she moved to a larger building on the east side of the square. In 1963 she moved to the west side of the square and renamed the shop Fabric & Ready-to-Wear.

Since then she has kept adding to her materials and in recent years has built into a shop that offers a wide variety of fine fabrics and attracts customers from other towns as well as Wellington.

Cottle-King Must Recertify for Brucellosis

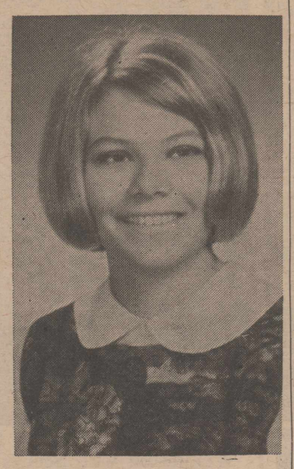

Cottle and King counties must be re-certified brucellosis-free, not later than June 7, 1970, according to L. M. McCarroll, county agent. He goes on to say that Boyce Hart, livestock inspector for the Texas Animal Health Commission is in charge of the work for this area. Re-certification must be done every three years through a percent of the cattle from which blood is drawn and tested. A part of this can be done, reports the agent, through back-tag cattle that have gone to slaughter.

Hart encourages any beef producer from the two-county area to volunteer his cattle for testing. There is no cost for the testing. If the required number of volunteers are not obtained, compulsory steps will be taken.

Anyone who will have cattle in their pens within the next few days are asked to contact Hart at Matador. His phone is 347-2438 and the P.O. Box is 207.

Lubbock Storm

and tenants of the Varsity Village complex were asked to stay out of their units until their safety can be determined.

This young couple sought refuge in their bathtub with a mattress over them, as did many others in the storm area.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorman Owens, her parents, went for them Tuesday.

The apartment in which Mary Helen Langford lived was heavily damaged, but she is all right, her mother, Mrs. Rosemary Langford learned. She and others living in the building were moved into another part of the complex.

Ysidra Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. China Smith of Iowa Park and granddaughter of Mrs. Lucy B. Wells, lives in the same complex but is fine, relatives learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Patton were able to contact their daughter, Mrs. Brock, about 6:30 a.m. Tuesday. She was at home during the first storm, but before the tornado struck, she took her children and with neighbors went to the basement of nearby Lubbock Christian College. Their house had only hail damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daves and their two small children moved to Lubbock only a few weeks ago, but live in an area the storm did not touch. The Firestone Store, where he works, had all windows blown out and Tuesday personnel got out tires only for the city. To contact them, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Henry had to phone a son, Ray Henry in Austin, who by direct dialing could call Mrs. Daves in Lubbock.

Mitzi Hartman, her studies at Tech completed, checked out of her dormitory and was to spend the night with a friend. Flying debris caused her to drive to the home of J. C. and Vickie Killian Saunders, where she spent the night. Her friend's apartment was damaged.

Many Wellington students at Tech lived in dormitories or campus area apartments and these were undamaged. Some of these were already home for the summer.

Many others are in southwest Lubbock and this section was untouched.

Because of communications difficulties, there has been no contact with many more former Wellington residents now in Lubbock.
