Bombs, Blazes Plague Riot-Torn Jersey City

RADAR COMES TO SNYDER—Police Chief Chester Simons shows city councilman Guy Sullivan the radar set which was purchased by the city council Monday night. The antenna, in the chif's hand, transmits the speed of the passing car to the transistorized unit shown on top of the car, where the speed is read directly in a speedometer-type dial. Considerable use of the unit is expected to be made around school areas, Chief Simons said.

Snyder Approves Sale Of Water To Ira And Dunn

Citizens of Ira and Dunn may someday receive water from Snyder.

The Snyder city council last night passed a resolution which would make it possible for the Ira Water Supply Corporation to purchase Snyder water, thus making it possible for the Ira group to negotiate a loan for the purpose of constructing a water system.

Some 125 people in Ira and Dunn have signed up as potential users. The corporation there will be a non-profit group, and will apply for a $173,000 loan from the Federal Farm and Home Administration.

The Snyder city council said that when the group became incorporated, the council would sign a 40-year contract, 40 years being the length of the FHA loan. Water will be furnished at the Snyder city limits at a cost of 10 per cent over Snyder's cost for raw water. The contract will also guarantee up to 30 million gallons per year.

Presenting their request to the city council were a group of seven citizens, including Pat Moore, who had served as the chairman of the steering committee at Ira, and Leon Decker, an Abilene engineer who had been employed to develop the proposal up the point where it would be acceptable for the government loan.

Decker estimated that when the system went into effect the useage would be about 10 million gallons per year.

Also concerning water the council heard a report from Lyle Deffebach, a Snyder representative on the Colorado River Municipal Water District board of directors.

Deffebach told the council that competition for the available dam sites was quite intense, but that the CRMWD was in a good position regarding their selected site for a new dam near Robert Lee. He said that the application for the site was on the calendar of the state water board, and should be heard within about 60 days.

He said he believed the state agency would approve the site, even though Colorado City and the Upper Colorado River Authority which furnishes San Angelo water, are opposing it. Colorado City's opposition, Deffebach said, was based largely, he thought, on their desire to have the Mitchell County site chosen so that a large lake could be near Colorado City.

Also concerning water, the council passed on first reading an ordinance repealing an old ordinance prohibiting those outside the city limits from tieing on to city water and sewer. The new ordinance would permit those outside the city to run their own lines to the city's existing lines.

Water sold to non-city residents is billed at a higher rate than to city customers.

In other business at their regular meeting Monday the council approved the 1964-65 budget which had been presented for their study at a special meeting last week. The only change in the proposed budget was a $50 a month increase in the city manager's salary, making his monthly salary $800. The council was unanimous in their approval of this action.

The public hearing and final passage of the budget will be held Sept. 14.

Money was allocated in the new budget for the purchase of three new patrol cars for the police department.

City manager George Patterson said that the fire department also needed a new car, but that the plan was to retain one old police car for use in the fire department, and to trade the 1958 model car which is being used at the fire chief's car. The council approved the plan, and authorized the advertising of bids for the new cars.

Woody Forrester, manager of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, made a report to the council on the Christmas decoration problem faced by the chamber. The chamber has yearly payments of $1,900 on the decorations, and they also have to pay some $1,400 for erection of the decorations downtown plus $475 for the courthouse erection and $285 in the Highland Shopping Center each year.

Forrester said he was not asking for money, but rather help in getting the decorations put up.

The city council authorized the city manager to work with the Chamber of Commerce, Texas Electric Service Co., and the county commissioners in seeing what could be done in getting the decorations erected. The councilmen said that while it was not necessarily a function of city government to erect the decorations, they felt they wanted to do their part in making the city attractive during the Christmas season.

In other business, the council approved the request of the Joe W. Seatell Insuracne Agency that they participate along with the other Snyder insurance agencies in the city's insurance program.

The council also appointed the accounting firm of Deffebach and Yorgesen to make the audit of the city's accounts.

Floyd Allmand, a member of the Snyder volunteer fire department, reported to the council that the volunteers had voted a change into their by-laws, and since they were a part of the city's force, they needed the approval of the council before the changes could become effective.

The new requirements for membership in the volunteer fire department are that a person wishing to become a fireman must receive a 90 per cent vote from the members rather than a simple majority as before. Also that a new member be on probation for six months, after which another vote will be taken before he becomes a permanent member of the organization.

The council gave their approval to the requested changes.

Police Give Monthly Report

The Snyder police department's monthly report for the month of July shows that the total amount of fines assessed during the month totaled $4359.50, of which 4080.50 was collected in cash, and $279 credited for time served in jail.

Of the total, $1,895 was for non-traffic offenses, with $1,754 collected in fines and $141 credited for jail time.

During the month of July 62 arrests were made by the department, including one case of drunken driving which was transferred to the county for prosecution.

Leading the list of offenses were, as usual, overparking citations with 425 tickets issued. In traffic offenses speeding led the list with 45 tickets being issued, followed by traffic light violations with 31 citations issued.

In non-traffic violations, the largest number of arrests were made for drunkenness with 40.

During the month 19 traffic accidents were investigated, including three personal injury accidents.

Police department vehicles covered 21,267 miles during the month.

New York Officers Observe Riot Scenes

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York City Police Department sent observers to scenes of racial rioting in Rochester, N.Y., and in Jersey City N.J., to watch for individuals involved in earlier rioting here.

Police Commissioner Michel J. Murphy confirmed this through a spokesman today but refused to comment about what the observers had learned.

The spokesman said the police wanted to learn whether traveling agitators had been involved in the outbreaks of rioting in sections of this city, in Rochester and in Jersey City.

First Of Trapped Men Is Freed

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (AP) — The first of nine miners trapped since July 27 in a limestone mine was brought safely to the surface today.

A metal rescue capsule rose slowly to the surface from a depth about 250 feet where the miners have waited to be freed.

They were trapped by a fall of rock, and rescue teams worked day and night to free them.

The first man out was Andre Jacques, 28.

A hot sun blazed down on the tree - studded mountainside where the lift derrick towered above the escape hatch drilled into the rocky ground.

Dark glasses were fitted over Jacques' eyes as he stepped from the rescue capsule into the sunlight after a week of gloom with only artificial lighting.

He was taken to a military ambulance which sped off toward a hospital.

He appeared to be in good health but seemed dazed and for a moment held his hands over his eyes until the dark glasses were fitted over his eyes.

Lumpa Sect Outlawed In N. Rhodesia

By JOHN MCCAUSLAND

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia (AP) — Soldiers were airlifted today to Lundazi, where rampaging Lumpa warriors have massacred 150 persons. The troops were ordered to capture, dead or alive, the Lumpa leader, Prophetess Alice Lenshina.

Reports said the death toll from Monday's trail of terror and death through 18 villages might be higher because soldiers had not returned with information from Chinsali, one of the trouble spots.

The Northern Rhodesian government issued the "dead or alive" order as it temporarily outlawed the fanatic sect, whose rampages in the past 12 days have cost at least 270 lives.

In a nationwide broadcast Monday night after the Lumpa massacre of 150 persons at Lundazi, Prime Minister Kenneth Kaunda threatened anyone attending meetings of the cult with seven years in prison.

Kaunda said he does not dispute the right of the Lumpas to their religious beliefs — a hodgepodge of African superstition, paganism and Church of Scotland theology — but he insisted on the restoration of order. He said he would lift the ban in about a month if the carnage ends.

Kaunda is trying desperately to bring peace to the central African country before it receives independence from Britain in 12 weeks.

Some 2,200 native troops under white officers are combing the bush for Lumpa prophetess Alice Lenshina, who founded the sect 11 years ago, claiming she had died and returned from Heaven.

Officials believe the terror at Lundazi, a market center 400 miles northeast of Lusaka, was in retaliation for the slaying of 75 Lumpas at the sect's headquarters at Sione Thursday. The Lumpas died in a suicidal charge with spears and muzzle loaders against government riflemen.

Texas Crops, Pastures In Critical Stage

By The Associated Press

Crops and pastures were in the critical stage in Texas today as the long, dry hot spell continued.

In other areas, stifling heat and choking humidity added up to high temperature records for the date.

Municipal water supplies dwindled in parts of Texas and Louisiana. The only spots escaping the long dry spell and the blistering hot weather were around the Texas coastal bend.

Wichita, Kan., reported a high temperature of 108 degrees for a record for Aug. 3. Chicago also experienced the hottest Aug. 3 on record with an average temperature of 87 degrees. Chicago's high of 98 equalled the record for the date set Aug. 3, 1944.

The mercury climbed to 110 degrees in Hutchinson, Kan., and Hennessey, Okla., as the central part of the nation remained in the grip of the heat wave.

New high temperature records for Aug. 3 included:

St. Louis, 104; Springfield, Mo., 102; Louisville, Ky., 101; Grand Rapids, Mich., 100, and Muskegon, Mich., 99.

44 Injured In Rioting

JERSEY CITY N.J. (AP) — Two gasoline bombs were thrown — one of them at a police car — today in this racially troubled city. It was the first daytime violence after two nights of rioting, but police considered it an isolated incident.

The Fire Department also reported six separate fires set in an abandoned building in the area of Negro rioting the last two nights. The department said it also was being plagued by false alarms from the area.

A total of 20 persons have been arrested and 44 injured — including two Negroes who were shot — in the rioting.

Monday night, windows were smashed in 23 stores and a number of them were looted.

More than 100 policemen, who during the night had been the target of the gasoline bottles, bricks and rocks hurled by hit-and-run bands of Negro youths, patrolled a wide area in the predominantly Negro section today.

Two radio patrolmen reported seeing a gasoline bomb ignited in front of a building.

Sgt. Thomas Clougher and Patrolman John Eggers said that when they drove to the scene to investigate, another lighted gasoline bomb was thrown at their car.

The fire bomb hit a pole and bounced off, the policemen said.

Also during the morning, five Negroes arrested while driving through the area Monday night were cleared of disorderly persons charges.

Police arrested seven Negroes on disorderly persons charges, bringing to 20 the number of arrests since the fighting broke out Sunday night.

Early today, the hit-and-run bands retreated from the streets, but more than 100 policemen still patrolled a wide area of the predominantly Negro section in the southern part of the city.

Windows in a score of stores were smashed and some businesses looted in the latest outbreak.

At a midnight press conference more than three hours after the riot began, Mayor Thomas J. Whelan said he believed the violence had "passed its peak."

But he reiterated his warning: "We will use all the force and power at our disposal to see that law and order is maintained."

He said he was prepared to sit down with civil rights leaders "anytime, anywhere" but the first problem was maintaining order.

Whelan said the situation in Jersey City, across the Hudson River from New York City, was one of "hooliganism versus law and order." The city has 275,000 residents, 17 per cent of whom are Negroes.

P. A. Mebane Dies; Rites Wednesday

P. A. (Jim) Mebane, 79, of Route 4, Snyder, died at 4 p.m. Monday at Cogdell Hospital where he had been a patient for about a week.

Mr. Mebane came to Scurry County in 1905 when he was 21 years old from McKinzie, Tenn. where he was born on Mar. 11, 1885. His home here was just west of Union on the Lamesa Highway.

The funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Union Methodist Church of which Mr. Mebane was a member. The Rev. Marvin Rouark, pastor of the church will officiate. He will be assisted by the Rev. Leroy Baker of the Sunray Methodist Church.

Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

Mr. Mebane was married on July 23, 1916 in Snyder to the former Miss Nellie Wilson. Mrs. Mebane survives.

Also surviving are four sons, Nuell and Thayne of Snyder, Doyle F. of Hawthorne, Calif., and James Odell of Dumas; and 11 grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Howard Hogue, Murray Jackson, Leverett Lewis, Preston Wilson, Kenneth Wilson and Troy Bentley.

Offer Was Naive Claims Gonzalez

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep Henry B. Gonzalez, D-Tex., says he refused an offer of $14,000 worth of bank stock but he feels it was the idea of a "naive businessman" and a local matter.

"I cannot truthfully say it appeared to be part of any national lobbying attempt," Gonzalez told the House Monday, interrupting a speech by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., describing the purported incident without giving any names.

Patman is chairman of the House Banking Committee, and Gonzalez is a committee member.

Patman, praising "a member of my committee," told the story after saying that "anti-public action by the bankers' lobby" sometimes "takes the form of offering a congressman bank stock either free or at a cost greatly under the market value."

Gonzalez said "a very distinguished gentleman", from his San Antonio district called on him in Washington and suggested he become director of a bank. Gonzalez said he told the man that directors are usually stockholders "and I didn't have any money."

He said his caller told him that $14,000 worth of stock would be available "and I didn't have to have any money."

"I stopped him at that point," Gonzalez said. "I told him I would consider this an outright conflict of interest. I reminded him I was a member of the banking committee. He said he did not know this."

Gonzalez said that "one of the troubles with businessmen is that they often can't tell the difference between the private and the public sector."

After Gonzalez finished, Patman and several other congressmen congratulated him.

"I think it is a fine example that the gentleman from Texas has set," Patman said. "I know a lot of people wouldn't be so courageous."

Rep. Fred Schwengel, R-Iowa, asked, "ought not more of us when we are tempted in public life make known our experience?"

Drowns In Lake

FORT WORTH (AP)—Frankie Wilson, 8, became the 23rd drowning of the year in Tarrant County Monday when he sank in nearby Lake Arlington during a family outing.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a grandmother who believes that the people on television can see and hear her? We have tried to explain to her that they can't — that it is only a talking picture, but it doesn't do any good. She gets all dolled up to watch television every day because she says she would hate to have Art Linkletter see her looking a fright. How can we convince her she's wrong?

SUE AND CINDY

DEAR GIRLS: Why try? Besides, ask Art Linkletter. I'll bet he thinks she looks real nice!

* * *

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my husband and my best friend came to me and confessed that they had had an affair, but it was all over. They said they told me in order to cleanse their consciences. The woman is also married and the four of us had been friendly for years. As I look back I now realize that she cultivated my friendship so she could get next to my husband. She even used the children. I told my husband that I would forgive him, and I have really tried, Abby, but the hurt is so deep I don't think I'll ever get over it. I now refuse to be in this woman's company, but my husband says there is no reason why we can't all be friends. I get sick when I see her car on the street. Was I wrong to end our friendship or not?

WRONGED

DEAR WRONGED: You were right to end the friendship, and your husband is lucky you didn't choose to end the marriage as well. Stick to your guns!

DEAR ABBY: My bridge club (two tables) met at my house last week. One of the members brought along an out-of-town guest who was visiting her. This guest presented me with a one-pound box of candy. I thanked her for it, and then I set it on the piano. I intentionally did not open the box because the candy would have been eaten up in no time by the other women. The next day one of the women called me up and told me that several of the members had severely criticized me for not opening the candy, and offering it to the ladies. Did I commit a social error, or not?

NOT SURE

DEAR NOT: Unless the woman who brought the candy indicated that it was for the "club," you had a right to assume it was for you alone. You committed no social error by not opening the candy, but since you didn't intend to serve it, you'd have been wise to put it out of sight.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "THE WOMAN WHO WROTE A VOLUME": Of course I've heard only YOUR side of it, but if only half of what you wrote is true, you are married to the most selfish, egotistical hypocrite who ever drew a breath. I rarely say a case is hopeless, but it would take a miracle to straighten him out.

Housewives Make Plea For Trees

ELMONT, N.Y. (AP)—Housewives pushing baby carriages have routed the tree choppers in the first skirmish over the shade trees of Evans Avenue.

Town officials of this Long Island community want to widen the streets, lined with oaks and elms that stand between the sidewalks and the pavement.

The women of Elmont, many of them refugees from the concrete canyons of New York City, want to preserve the greenery.

They moved out in force Monday.

Mrs. Charles Spanier stationed herself under a condemned tree, looked up at a workman and said:

"If you cut off one more branch, you'll have to drop it on my head to get rid of it."

The workman climbed down.

Pushing their infants in front of them, a dozen housewives led by Mrs. Hope Fox surrounded a truck that was to haul away the dismembered trees. They clogged Evans Avenue and, after an hour, forced the workmen to give up for the day.

Town officials were not available for comment.

"I have nothing against drainage pipes or new curbing," said Mrs. Fox. "It's just that we moved out to the suburbs because we like the country atmosphere, which is rapidly disappearing.

"This whole thing started months ago, when we first heard that the streets in a 22-block area south of the Hempstead Turnpike were going to be widened.

"We understood then that some of the trees would have to go, but there would be enough room between the sidewalk and the curb to plant new ones if we wanted to. But when the man came around last Friday to mark the trees that were to be cut, he marked all but four in the whole area and told us that the curbs would be right next to the sidewalk.

"Solid cement! Imagine that!"

Viet Reds Given Stern Warning

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States warned Communist North Viet Nam today of "grave consequences" if any further unprovoked attacks are made against U. S. military forces.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said the American protest was sent to the American Embassy in Saigon for "transmittal to the North Viet Nam regime through appropriate channels."

It is the first such U.S. communication directly to the Red regime, with which this country has no diplomatic ties.

Communication channels exist at the Saigon headquarters of the International Control Commission — composed of India, Canada and Poland — which has authority to supervise the 1954 Geneva agreement which partitioned Viet Nam.

The protest was a sternly worded follow-up to the orders Monday from President Johnson to beef up U.S. naval forces off Viet Nam and to destroy any forces attacking them. A U.S. destroyer fought off three PT boats in the Gulf of Tonkin Sunday.

In the wake of Johnson's orders, the Giant U.S. aircraft carrier Constellation and three other vessels sailed hurriedly from Hong Kong today.

Old-Timer Pedals From Sea To Sea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — It took Lyman Frain Sr. 86 days to pedal his bicycle from New York's Times Square to San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, and he was a little off schedule.

"I figured to make it a little faster," said the 80-year-old Philadelphian, "but I was bucking those west winds all the way."

The aging but hearty cyclist finished his trip Monday. He said he pedaled 3,244 miles on his 12-speed French bicycle, equipped with an extra-low gear for mountains.

"I feel pretty proud of what I've just done," he said. "I'm the first man my age to ever ride a bike from ocean to ocean. I just wanted to prove an old guy still had something left."

Frain was met at the bridge—which he wasn't allowed to cross on the bicycle—by bridge officials and his son, Donald, 35, an electronics designer of San Jose.

He said he made the trip, on a diet of orange juice and steaks, because cycling was good for his health.

"Most men of 60 sit down in the old rocking chair and rock themselves into the grave," he said. "But they'd live 10 or 20 years longer if they'd take up bicycling. If it wasn't for this bicycle, I wouldn't be alive today."

Frain said he averaged 40 miles a day, but clocked 109 miles one day down the western slope of the Continental Divide toward Salt Lake City.

Red Cross To Help United Fund

The board of directors of the United Fund set Sept. 14 and 15 as the dates for the initial kick-off of the 1964 drive.

The directors met with A. W. Voight, field representative of the American Red Cross. Voight offered his services and those of Ralph Husted, state relations director from Austin.

The Red Cross representatives will conduct evening sessions on those days in a two-day workshop designed to aid the United Fund officers and workers in setting up this year's program.

The Red Cross provides this free service to community campaigns, because, as Voight said, "As a member of the United Fund, we feel we have a responsibility to the fund as a whole."

Considerable planning and setting up of committees will, of course, be done prior to the workshop meetings in September.

Mrs. Woodard's Rites Set For Wednesday

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Eastside Church of Christ for Mrs. Josephine Woodard, 98, of Highland, Tex. Mrs. Woodard died Sunday at Baytown.

She had been a resident of Snyder for 70 years before moving to Highlands three years ago to make her home with a daughter.

Raymond Kelsey will officiate at the services. He will be assisted by Don Browning, minister of the church. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Mrs. Woodard is survived by five daughters and two sons.

Local Boy Going To Post Rodeo

Kinney Hart, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hart of Snyder will be competing in the Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo at Post Wednesday through Saturday.

In competition last weekend at the San Angelo Junior Rodeo, young Hart posted the best time of any contestant in the tie down event. His time was 17.1 seconds.

Sen. Morse Pushes Cut In Foreign Aid Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse said the Senate may begin voting today on his proposals to cut over $500 million from the $3,466,700,000 foreign aid authorization bill.

The Oregon Democrat, leading off the fight against the House-passed measure, called the foreign aid program "a colossal failure as a deterrent to communism" in a 2½-hour speech Monday.

He told newsmen he planned a batch of other amendments aimed at "reforming" foreign aid policies and would seek roll-call votes on them later in the week. But he said he was ready for voting on his money-cutting proposals.

Whether voting could start apparently depends on the speed with which the Senate acts on an interest equalizing tax measure which temporarily sidetracked the foreign aid bill Monday.

The tax measure would levy an excise on purchases of foreign securities by Americans. It is designed to reduce the drain of U.S. funds to overseas countries.

Morse accused foreign aid administrators of "shocking inefficiency."

He condemned "handing out money and weapons with the idea they will promote political stability, or keep friendly governments in power, or prop up a bloated military establishment in a foreign country."

The Senate Foreign Relations Committe recommended the $3,516,700,000 authorization requested by President Johnson be reduced by only $50 million.

LBJ Supporter Due Stiff Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three states hold primary elections today, with Rep. Richard Bollins, a strong supporter of the Johnson administration on the powerful House Rules Committee, facing a stiff fight in Missouri.

Bolling's battle and primary contests for gubernatorial nominations in Missouri and Kansas hold the limelight.

Idaho also has a primary, with Democratic incumbent Reps. Ralph Harding and Compton I. White unopposed for renomination.

Bolling, a liberal who for many years was the late Speaker Sam Rayburn's spokesman on the Rules Committee, is opposed by a conservative, Judge Hunter Phillips of the Jackson County Court. The district is in Kansas City.

Phillips has called Bolling "wild-eyed and left-wing in character." Former President Harry S. Truman has endorsed Bolling, and a close friend of Truman's, Tom L. Evans, is the congressman's campaign manager. Bolling has solid support from organized labor.

Phillips is backed by five splinter groups of the old Kansas City Democratic machine of Tom Pendergast.

Missouri Lt. Gov. Hilary A. Bush and Secretary of State Warren E. Hearnes head a five-man field seeking the Democratic nomination for governor. Ethan Shepley of St. Louis and William B. Ewald of Kirkwood are among four Republican hopefuls.

Retiring Gov. John M. Dalton is ineligible for re-election.

Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., has two little-known opponents, while Republicans are picking between Jean Paul Bradshaw and Morris D. Duncan.

Two Republican congressmen are unopposed for renomination, while seven incumbent Democrats have opposition.

In Kansas, eight Republicans are running for governor, including Rep. William H. Avery, who resigned as a member of the House Rules Committee. Other GOP hopefuls include McDill Boyd, a close runnerup in 1960; Lt. Gov. Harold Chase, Atty. Gen. William M. Ferguson, and State Senate President Paul Wunsch.

Former State Treasurer George Hart and Corporation Commissioner Harry G. Wiles are among six Democratic candidates.

Two-term Republican Gov. John Anderson is not seeking re-election.

In House contests in Kansas, four men are trying for the GOP nomination to succeed Avery, while Rep. Garner Shriver has one Republican primary opponent. The other three Republican incumbents are unopposed.

US Soldier Killed In Frankfurt

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Army announced today that Pfc. William E. Mann, 32, of Little Rock, Ark., was stabbed to death in a sidewalk attack Sunday night.

The stabbing occurred in nearby Hanau outside a bar which Mann and a friend, Pfc. Robert L. Martin, had visited with two girls.

An Army spokesman said Mann and another soldier had an argument in the bar and the other soldier rounded up a group of six or seven friends who attacked Mann and Martin as they left the building.

Mann died in an Army hospital early Monday. Martin was bruised in the face, back and stomach.

The Army spokesman said a soldier has been arrested in connection with the attack. But no charges have been filed yet.

He was Pfc. Edward E. Bonney, a Puerto Rican. The spokesman said there was no evidence that racial conflict was involved in the case except in the sense that any interracial incident has some racial overtone.

The Army identified Mann as the son of Mrs. Joann Mann of Little Rock.

Not Much Change In Fashion News

By LOUISE HICKMAN

PARIS (AP)— Midcalf-length dresses for dinner wear were the biggest fashion news from Yves Saint-Laurent's fall and winters collection today.

Saint-Laurent's presentation matched midcalf theater coats shown earlier by Pierre Cardin.

Viewers also were startled to see a similarity to fashions shown by Chanel without the pants. Both featured simple suits with a "sweatery" look and tiered skirts with wraps and panels.

Sain: Laurent even put a flower in the hair, as Chanel did.

Except for the midcalf dinner dresses, Saint-Laurent had absolutely no surprises. Evening gowns were standard shifts in jeweled satin or lame.

Suit jackets had soft natural shoulders, with set-in sleeves. Sleeves were slashed and buttoned at the wrist.

The jackets were soft and supple like a cardigan sweater, and fit in much the same way — rather straight, but flowing along the body in front. They were hip-length. Sweater-like, the bottom button was often left undone.

Dark print silk scarves often filled in the fairly buttoned-up necklines. There were lots of close-spaced, double-breasted buttonings.

Slim suit skirts were most often double-tiered, with the top tier also wrapped or paneled.

Saint-Laurent used many smoky colors and dark bias plaids. Soft wool boucles were featured.

Coats were slim, buttoned-up and had thin leather ribbon belts.

Since The Last Fair, Art Has Gone Pop

BY MILES A. SMITH
AP Arts Editor

NEW YORK, (AP) — The last quarter-century of American art is given a splendid summary in a show at the Whitney Museum, running through Sept. 23. It is a summary of considerable diversities and contrasts.

The show's title is "Between the Fairs—25 Years of American Art, 1939-1964."

The terminal point is Pop Art, that curious concoction using signs, billboards, comic strips and everyday corn, which the current gang of hipsters has used to turn traditional realism into bizarre satire.

As John I. H. Baur, associate director of the museum, says in his introduction to the catalog, this Pop Art movement is "Today's Ash Can school, the impolite, genre painting of our time."

The contrast between Pop Art and the earlier generation — some of whom still are active— is sharp. This show contains major examples from Grant Wood, Thomas Hart Benton and other regional realists; John Sloan of the older Ash Can school; and such romantic idealists as Edward Hopper and Raphael Soyer, as well as the social commentators Jack Levine, Ben Shahn and Philip Evergood.

There are reminders of surrealism's American influence— Yves Tanguy, Kay Sage and the highly individualistic Charles Burchfield. Among the precisionists to be seen here are Joseph Stella, Georgia O'Keefe and Charles Sheeler.

In the field of geometrical abstraction there are such names as Rothko, Newman, Albers and Reinhard.

Of course, one of the major movements of the period was abstract expressionism —represented here by significant works from Hofmann, Tobey, Pollock, de Kooning, Guston, Kline, Motherwell, Tworkov, Gottlieb and others.

There is one artist whose works serve as an oddly ironic, prophetic note at a time when Pop Art is fashionable—Stuart Davis, who died June 24 at the age of 69. His career began about the time of World War I and he was a real individualist.

As early as 1921 (with a picture titled "Lucky Strike") he was incorporating signs and city scenes into his paintings. He liked jazz, neon blinkers, kitchen utensils (he once did a whole series based on an egg beater) and other commonplace but potentially significant items.

He is represented in this show with "Colonial Cubism (1954)" and "Combination Concrete Number 2 (1958)," which continue his use of letters and symbols.

Fo years Davis was a loner. His early paintings put him into the category of a precursor, or forerunner, of Pop Art. Not a founder, for no one became a disciple. It wasn't until the 1950s that a few artists — such as Jasper Johns — began putting common words and symbols into their paintings.

Then in the 1960s came such figures as Robert Rauschenburg, who combined splatter - dash with word - soup. This artist, who recently won the top prize at the Venice Biennials, appears in the Whitney show with "Summer Rental Number 2 (1960)."

The Pop School also counts among its major figures James Rosenquist, whose interest seems to run toward billboard realism, chopped into segments —as exemplified by an untitled work in this show, depicting a truck.

If there are any omissions, they might be among such commotion-makers as Robert Indiana (geometrical road - signs) and such sculptors as Claes Oldenburg (plastic hamburgers and other garish representations of cafeteria fare). Nor does the show go beyond Albers' overlapping squares into the newer field of dizzying optical tricks.

But of course, the up-to-the-minute fashions are only a small part of this quarter - century review.

The basic impression of the show is that aside from the now waning tide of abstract expressionism, there has been a curiously mixed scramble during recent years on the American artistic scene.

Brunch Can Be Great In Summer

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

SUCH GOOD dishes to serve for summer brunches!

Choose first from the season's fruit. One offering, popular at our house for this enjoyable weekend meal, is a fresh fruit compote. In putting this together, use fruit of contrasting color and flavor. Peaches and nectarines contrast well with strawberries and sweet cherries, oranges and pinepple with blueberries and seedless grapes. And melon balls seem to go with every other fruit. Instead of adding sugar to the fruit, pour on some orange juice.

For a mian course you might like to try a Brunch Scramble made with eggs, potatoes and bacon. In testing this recipe, we used our electric skillet so that we could serve from it. We think you'll like this dish because it's made with real, honest-to-goodness raw potatoes!

Something crisp is needed with the Brunch Scramble. We suggest Southern Toast. For this use thinly sliced enriched bread and cut each slice in half. Place the half - slices on a large sheet of aluminum foil; spread generously with soft butter; turn over slices and spread the other sides with butter. Bake in a very slow (250 degrees) oven until crisp and lightly browned; at our house we find the toasting takes from 25 to 35 minutes, but breads and ovens vary, so watch the timing.

BRUNCH SCRAMBLE

6 slices bacon
2 cups thinly sliced pared potatoes
Salt and pepper to taste
6 eggs
1-3 cup milk
Crisp toast

In a 10-inch skillet, cook the bacon until crisp; crumble and reserve. To the bacon fat (about ¼ cup) left in the skillet, add the potatoes; fry until well browned on both sides. Add salt and pepper. Cook over low heat, tightly covered, until potatoes are done through —about 5 minutes.

Beat eggs enough to blend yolks and whites; add milk, salt and pepper; beat to blend. Pour over cooked potatoes in skillet. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally until eggs are set.

Sprinkle reserved bacon over eggs and potatoes. Serve at once with crisp toast. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

SUMMER BRUNCH—Eggs, potatoes and bacon are cooked together to make a delicious scramble and are served with crisp toast.

US Naval Reinforcements Leave Hong Kong Harbor

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the wake of President Johnson's order beefing up U.S. naval forces off Communist North Viet Nam, the giant U.S. aircraft carrier Consfellation and three other American warships set sail from Hong Kong today.

A U.S. spokesman in Hong Kong said the four ships left according to schedule. He declined to give their destination or to say if the move was connected with Johnson's announcement that followed Sunday's attack on the U.S. destroyer Maddox by three North Vietnamese torpedo boats.

In advance of the departure of the four vessels, shore leave was canceled for officers and crew, and the ships apparently were placed on alert.

Besides the Constellation, they included the guided missile frigate Gridley, and the destroyers Preston and Fechteler.

Meanwhile, U.S. officials here were watching to see if the Sunday attack was an isolated incident or part of a hazardous new Communist strategy.

They said it was difficult to determine whether the sudden attack Sunday, which left one of the three Red boats burning, was an accident, a misjudgment or a deliberate provocation.

If similar Red assaults are launched, bolstered American naval units in the Gulf of Tonkin were prepared to carry out President Johnson's orders to destroy any attacking force.

The President announced to newsmen Monday his shoot-to-kill orders to the Navy. Previously orders had been for the naval units to defend themselves but not necessarily to destroy the attacker.

In Sunday's clash, the Navy disclosed Monday, the destroyer Maddox scored a direct hit on one of the PT boats with a five-inch gun. The Communist craft later was strafed by aircraft from the carrier U.S.S. Ticonderoga and left burning in the water. The Maddox was not damaged and no American sailors were hurt.

U.S. Defense and State Department officials believe the PT boat sank. A reconnaissance flight over the area, in international waters 3 miles off North Viet Nam, found no trace of the craft.

Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, top U.S. military commander in the Pacific, said today, "The last time we saw it, it was in flames. I don't know if it sank but the chances are pretty good it did." He said there were no North Vietnamese casualties "that we know of, but there is no way of telling."

The State Department described the engagement as an "unprovoked attack" and said it was sending a protest to the Communist North Vietnamese government.

Department spokesmen rejected North Vietnamese charges that American planes and ships had attacked its territory in recent days.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara traveled to Capitol Hill to bring senate leaders up to date on the developments.

After the closed meeting Rusk was asked by newsmen if he still thought the attack was an isolated incident. He replied:

"That remains to be seen. But we are all deadly serious about this."

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, told newsmen both Rusk and McNamara seemed to think the clash was an isolated incident.

South Viet Nam's premier, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, declared in Saigon the United States should follow up the PT boat attack with firm steps against North Viet Nam.

The Navy said the Maddox opened fire on the patrol boats only after the Reds ignored three warning shots and continued sweeping in on their torpedo runs.

The PT boats launched three torpedoes and several 37-millimeter cannon shells at the Maddox but missed.

"The other side got a sting out of this" Rusk said. "If they do it again they'll get another sting."

Sen. Hall Favors Blanket Sales Tax

DALLAS (AP) — State Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall says he favors an across-the-board sales tax to provide more government cash.

Hall said Monday he agrees with Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, who said the legislature should remove exemptions, mainly groceries and prescription drugs, from the 1961 sales tax, first in Texas.

Hall said removing exemptions would be more equitable than raising the tax rate.

"It would spread the tax over a broader base and simplify collection and bookkeeping procedures," he said.

Sen. Don Kennard of Fort Worth said removing the exemptions would put an unfair burden on the poor.

Colorado's nickname, Centennial, comes from the fact that the state was admitted to the union in 1876, 100 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Newsman Played Key Role In '62 Cuban Crisis

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S.-Soviet messages relayed by an American newsman and a Soviet agent helped score a breakthrough in the darkest hours of the Cuban missile crisis, according to a former U.S. intelligence official.

Roger Hilsman, State Department intelligence chief at the time of the October 1962 confrontation, discloses in an article for the Aug. 25 issue of Look magazine that American Broadcasting Company correspondent John A. Scali was the American in the unofficial communications link.

The Russian was identified only as "Mr. X," a senior Soviet official who headed Soviet intelligence in the United States. Other sources said "Mr. X" since has left the Russian embassy here.

Hilsman, now teaching at Columbia University, reported:

By Friday, Oct. 26, of the fateful week the nuclear antagonists were eyeball-to-eyeball. President Kennedy had demanded a pullout of the Soviet missiles from Cuba and ordered a naval blockade. The Kremlin had publicly rejected Kennedy's proclamation. Some Soviet ships at sea had altered course, but the missile site building in Cuba was continuing full speed.

Mr. X, one of Scali's news contacts at the Soviet embassy, telephoned the correspondent asking for an immediate luncheon date. Over a luncheon table in a downtown restaurant he quickly got to the point.

The Russian asked Scali to find out at once from his friends in the State Department whether the U.S. government would be interested in a solution to the crisis in which the Soviets removed the missiles: they allowed U.N. inspectors to supervise the pullout; they pledged not to reintroduce the missiles and America publicly pledged not to invade Cuba.

Scali promptly reported this to Hilsman and Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Rusk said this was the first direct word that the Soviets might be thinking of a deal.

Rusk asked Scali to tell Mr. X that the U.S. government "sees real possibilities" in the proposition and to suggest that government representatives could work the matter out at the United Nations. "Time is very urgent," Rusk emphasized.

While Scali was relaying this word to Mr. X in a coffee shop that evening, a secret cable from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to Kennedy also indicating a willingness to negotiate was arriving at the White House.

The next day the Kremlin reversed its line and broadcast a Khrushchev note reneging on its proposals of the night before. Rusk asked Scali to see Mr. X again to find out what happened. The Soviet official had changed his tune, too. Scali accused him of a "stinking double cross" and said the United States was absolutely determined to get the missiles out of Cuba.

Again the Russian presumably sent back word to the Kremlin while Kennedy was making a formal public reply to the Friday proposition.

Sunday morning Khrushchev announced he had ordered the offensive arms withdrawn. The eventual settlement followed much of the formula set forth in the first Scali-Mr. X meeting.

That evening with the back of the crisis broken, Mr. X met Scali for the last time. "The information you supplied," he told the newsman, "was very valuable to the chairman in helping him make up his mind quickly."

Scali was an Associated Press newsman before joining ABC in 1962, prior to the missile showdown.

Leaves Oil Industry For Religious Work

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An oil industry executive leaves behind a successful business career today to embark on a life of religion.

O. Henry Hoversten, supervisor of gas and oil taxes for Gulf Oil Corp. for 14 years, was scheduled to leave his suburban Mount Lebanon home to begin three years of study at a Lutheran seminary in Columbus, Ohio, in preparation for the ministry.

"I have always wanted to do something like this all my life," he said. "My wife and I would talk about it, and although it was easy to try to ignore it, the voice kept coming back."

In avoiding the stumps, the helmsman cut the motor but struck the bank. The boat hit once and bounced 30 feet across the beach, overturning.

Terrys body was found under the boat. Walker suffered minor injuries.

Bonus Baby Pays Off For Pirates

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Bailey, hightly touted youngster who dragged through a poor rookie season under the pressure of a whopping bonus, is beginning to pay off.

A $150,000 bonus baby who batted a dismal .228 last season, Bailey continued his heavy hitting Monday night by slamming a key triple in the eighth inning and a game-winning single in the ninth that gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The two hits lifted Bailey's average to .304 and boosted the Pirates into third place in the tight National League pennant struggle, 4½ games behind the front-running Philadelphia Phillies and 2½ lengths behind the Giants.

A vital offensive weapon in the Pirates' bid to duplicate their 1960 pennant, Bailey has always spoken freely about the pressure applied by the gigantic bonus and his meager accomplishments as a rookie last year when the Pirates nosedived to eighth place.

Bailey's key hits dropped the Giants two games behind the Phillies, who were rained out of a game against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Only two other games were scheduled, both in the American League. Baltimore rode Milt Pappas' shutout pitching to a 7-0 victory over the Los Angeles Angels and to within one percentage point of the first-place New York Yankees. And Cleveland defeated Washington 4-2.

Jose Pagan was involved in both San Francisco runs as the Giants built a 2-0 lead. He beat out a bunt in the fifth inning and eventually scored on Duke Snider's single. In the sixth he drove in Tom Haller, who had doubled, with a sacrifice fly.

Bailey then got the Pirates rolling against Bob Bolin, who had a five-hit shutout through seven innings. After Manny Mota stroked a pinch-hit double with one out in the eighth, Bailey slammed his triple and came home with the tying run on Bill Virdon's single.

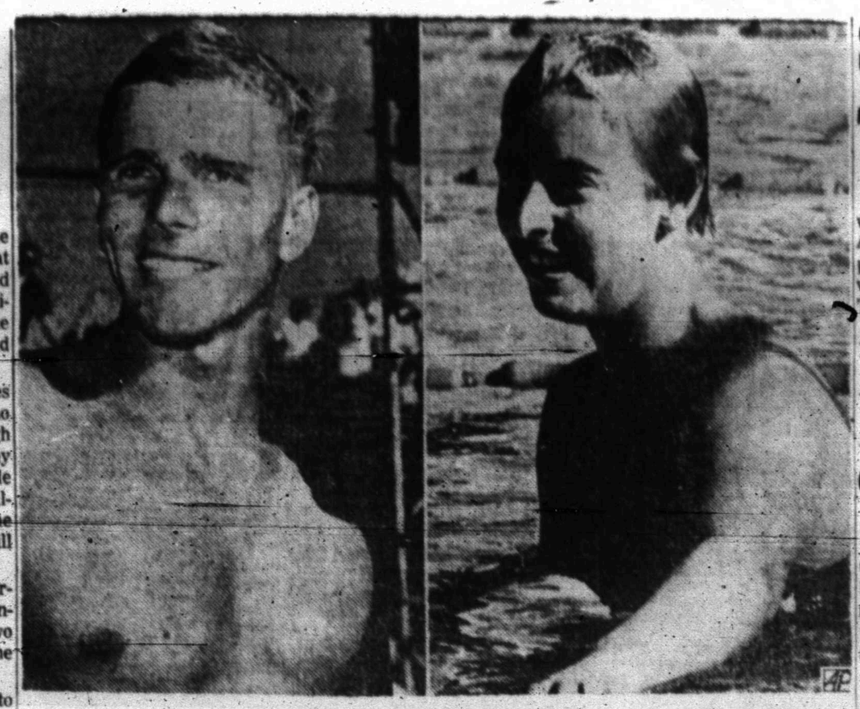

In the ninth, after Bill Mazeroski and Dick Schofield had singled, Bailey came up with two out and poked a grounder up the middle for the clincher.

Pappas, bringing his record to 10-5, blanked the Angels on eight hits and did not allow a runner past second base. While he was shutting out Los Angeles for the third time this season, the Orioles pounded Bo Belinsky and four successors for 13 hits.

Dick Brown collected three hits for Baltimore while Brooks Robinson and Sam Bowens each drove in two runs with a pair of hits.

The Indians broke a 2-2 tie against the Senators in the fourth when Chico Salmon doubled, Vic Davalillo beat out an infield hit and Billy Moran followed with a sacrifice fly. Davalillo and Dick Howser each collected three hits in a 14-hit attack.

Dick Donovan, 6-7, got the victory with Luis Tiant's relief help.

RECORD BREAKERS—Australian Murray Rose, left, set a new world mark in the 1,500-meter freestyle event of the National AAU Outdoor Swimming championships with a time of 17:1.8. A world mark was also set by Sharon Stouder, 15, right, of Los Angeles County, who won the 200-meter butterfly event in 2:26.4. Both are shown after their wins at Los Altos Hills, California. Snyder Chosen To Win District

FORT WORTH (AP)—Garland was selected to repeat as Class AAAA schoolboy football champion and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo was picked for Class AAA at the Texas Coaching School Monday.

It would be the end of three year's frustration should Pharr-San Juan-Alamo come through. The valley team went to the finals the past two years, losing to Dumas the first time and to Corsicana last fall.

Coaches interviewed at the coaching school put the favorite's tag on Garland and figured its foe in the finals would be Spring Branch.

Corsicana was placed second in its district and not given much chance of again gaining the playoffs.

Pharr-San Juan-Alamo was expected to meet Palestine or McKinney in the finals.

District champions were predicted as follows:

Class AAAA—1, El Paso; 2, Odessa; 3, Borger; 4, Irving; 5, Fort Worth Arlington Heights; 6, Dallas Hillcrest; 7, Garland; 8, Tyler; 9, Houston Lee; 10, Spring Branch; 11, Port Neches; 12, Galena Park; 13, Austin McCallum; 14, Victoria; 15, San Antonio Lee; 6, San Antonio Brackenridge.

Class AAA—1, Dumas; 2, Andrews; 3, Snyder; 4, Brownwood; 5, Stephenville; 6, McKinney; 7, Palestine; 8, Athens; 9, Vidor; 10, Conroe; 11, El Campo; 12, La Porte; 13, Austin Lanier; 14, New Braunfels; 15 Kerrville; 16 Pharr-San Juan-Alamo.

Australians Are Back In Good Graces

By The Associated Press

Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle, tagged with a "bad boy" label by the Australian tennis brass, now are back in favor: solidly, thoroughly and completely back in the good graces.

Winning does it.

The duo swept Mexico's best 4-1 in Davis Cup American Zone semifinals Monday and have only two more steps to take before meeting the United States in the Challenge Round, climax to the Aussies' drive to recapture the cup they had considered private property until the U.S. upset last year.

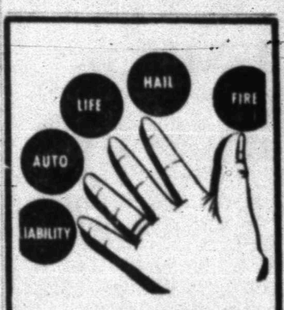

Emerson and Stolle, among the players suspended by Australia after they had bolted a tourney there to play abroad, won the final singles matches in Mexico City in straight set Monday, beating Antonio Palafox and Rafael Osuna.

Stolle, who lost to Osuna in a singles match Saturday, clinched the meet for Australia when he scored a surprisingly easy 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 triumph over Mexican national champion Palafox.

That made the best of five series 3-1 and Emerson's match with Osuna was academic. Emerson won 6-3, 6-4, 11-9.

The victory puts the Australians into the American Zone finals against Chile, considered a much weaker opponent than Mexico. The match is scheduled in Minneapolis Aug. 14-16.

Sisler Ready For Hutch To Return

By DON BANDY

CINCINNATI (AP) — Coach Dick Sisler is enjoying running the Cincinnati Reds but "I hope and pray" that Manager Fred Hutchinson recovers and he "can take over again."

Hutchinson, stricken with a chest cancer, was released Monday from Christ Hospital where he was confined for a week of tests. But it was not announced if the 44-year-old manager would rejoin the team Tuesday night for a doubleheader with the Milwaukee Braves.

The decision apparently will be left to Hutchinson. A club spokesman said Hutch will return when "he says he feels up to it." Hutchinson went from the hospital to his suburban home to relax.

Sisler, who has guided the Reds since July 27, also said he didn't know when Hutch will return.

"As far as I know I'll still be in charge until he comes back actively," Sisler said Monday night.

Sisler said he met with Hutchinson after his release and the manager told him he's "feeling a little better." The Reds have refused to comment on the results of Hutchinson's examination.

Sisler, 43, in his first role as manager of a major league club, said he was surprised when told he would be in charge during Hutch's absence.

"But as soon as Hutch is ready, it's his ball club," said Sisler, who managed four years in the minors and joined the Reds in 1960.

Specialist May Win For All-Stars

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — During the College All-Star drills when big strong men battered each other in preparation for Friday night's game against the Chicago Bears, one big, strong man played a relatively lonely role.

Dick Van Raaphorst of Ohio State took no part in the muscle vs. muscle scrimmages. If it hadn't been for his football uniform, Van Raaphorst would have appeared to be a stranger to the practice sessions.

Over and over again Van Raaphorst practiced what he does best — kicking field goals. And if the All-Stars defeat the Bears in Soldier Field, the booting Buckeye might provide the margin of victory.

Van Raaphorst, a 21-year-old 6-1 220 pounder, was one of the top field goal kickers in collegiate ranks last season. He set a Big Ten record with six goals in conference competition and eight for the year. He boots them long and he boots them short.

Because of the tremendous defense the Bears are expected to throw at the All-Stars, Van Raaphorst should have plenty of chances to try his specialty.

The All-Stars will find the going rough when they get into Bear territory and the Bears' secondary has no intention of allowing All-Star quarterbacks to throw touchdown bombs. More often than not, Van Raaphorst will be called upon to attempt field goals.

If the big guy is reasonably successful, he could provide the All-Stars with the necessary points to upset the Bears.

JANICE RINEHART

Rinehart Off To Olympic Tryouts

Janice Rinehart, Snyder's hope for the 1964 Olympics, left at 1:30 this afternoon by bus for Abilene, where she will catch a plane tomorrow evening for Randall Island, New York. There she will compete in the final Olympic tryouts Friday and Saturday.

Leaving Abilene with Janice will be a number of hopefuls from Texas who will also take part in the tryouts.

Janice will compete in the 100 and 200 meter dashes. The top three in each event will be named to the Olympic team, and the next one will be named as an alternate. Thus, the top four in each event will make the trip to Tokyo.

Friends of Janice are planning on sending her a telegram of encouragement while she is in New York. Those interested in having their name on the telegram may do so by calling Guy Sullivan.

While in New York Janice will be staying at the Manhattan Hotel.

Dallas Cowboys May Have To Go Without Buddy Dial

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Buddy Dial, a prize addition to the Dallas Cowboys' pass-receiving corps, rested today after a successful operation, but the former Pittsburgh Steelers star will be a big question mark when his new club opens the National Football League season next month.

Dial, acquired from the Steelers last December, underwent surgery in Dallas Monday to correct a tear in the middle muscle of his right thigh. The Rice alumnus was hurt last week during a workout at the Cowboys' training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif.

"We are very pleased with the results," said General Manager Tex Schramm. But, according to team doctors, Dial won't be able to run at full speed for about six weeks. The Cowboys and St. Louis Cardinals kick off the regular NFL schedule at Dallas Sept. 12.

Another pass-catching standout, Chris Burford of the Kansas City Chiefs, underwent a knee operation today in Dallas. The American Football League star had a similar operation two years ago. He injured the knee two weeks ago and will be sidelined for six more weeks. KC Coach Hank Stramm said halfback Abner Haynes will replace Burford at split end in the Chiefs' exhibition opener with the Oakland Raiders Sunday.

The NFL champion Chicago Bears, prepping for their Friday night date with the College All-Stars at Chicago, went through stiff offensive and defensive drills after Coach George Halas said scouting reports show the current All-Star squad is stronger than the one which upset Green Bay last year.

The Packers, who meet St. Louis Saturday night at New Orleans, examined pictures of the club's first introsquad game and Coac Vince Lombardi lauded the performances of rookie tackles Steve Wright, Alabama, and John McDowell, St. John's, Minn.

The Cardinals held a 90-minute workout in 95-degree weather, stressing offensive patterns to be employed against the Packers.

The Baltimore Colts will play their intrasquad charity game, rained out Monday night, tonight. The Municipal Stadium game is expected to draw 40,000 fans.

Ronnie Jones Moves Up In Pro Baseball

Snyderite Ronnie Jones, who has been playing professional baseball for the Houston Colts in the Class B Florida Rookie League, has been sent to Statesville, North Carolina, where he is now playing in a Class A Rookie League.

Ronnie is the son of Elwood Jones, 1901 Gilmore Avenue in Snyder. Mr. and Mrs. Jones returned home Saturday night from a two-week trip to Cocoa, Florida, where Ronnie has been playing ball until his move to Statesville. While at Cocoa, Ronnie batted over .300, and was reported by one of the scouts as the fastest player in the league.

It was rumored that Ronnie may be sent back to Cocoa about the first of September when the season ends for all the rookie leagues. Winter baseball will begin there in October.

Every play a player makes in the rookie league is recorded by scouts. There are from 9 to 15 scouts from practically all the major league teams at Cocoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones also reported on two other Snyder Boys who are playing in the Florida Rookie League. They are Abe Gonzales, who plays for the Colt team, and Steve Free, who plays for the Melbourne Twins, rookie team of the Minnesota Twins.

Abe, who is a pitcher, was reported to be doing real well until he hurt his arm. It is hoped that his sore arm will heal shortly.

Steve, who was a starter for the University of Houston this past year, is now a starter for the Twins, and has been a leading hitter for the rookie team. In one game recently with the Cocoa Beach Mets he was the leading hitter of the game, going 3 for 3, batting in 3 runs and scoring once.

Qualifying Underway For City Tourney

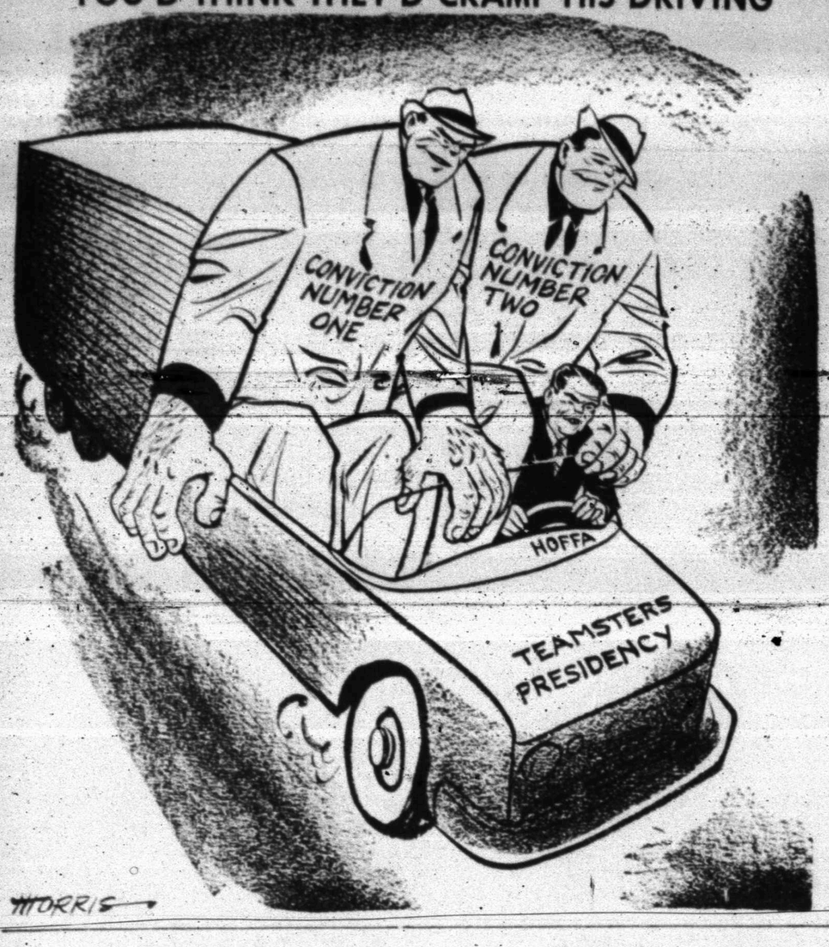

The Snyder City Golf Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, August 8-9, at the Snyder Country Club. Qualifying may be done through Friday, August 7, according to Charlie Bruce, Country Club manager and golf pro.

YOU'D THINK THEY'D CRAMP HIS DRIVING

Lyndon Evidently Planning Extensive Campaign Travel

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson dropped the "if" in talking of his own presidential nomination when he dropped Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and some others as vice presidential possibilities. So—

It can be accepted now, in case there was any doubt, that come September President Johnson probably will be out pounding the campaign trail for President Johnson all around the country, by plane, train, helicopter and motorcade.

Johnson may not acknowledge this, or even know it for sure yet. Some of his lieutenants think he may want to turn over the bulk of the campaigning to his running mate. They suggest the President might touch base in most of the big cities and the states with big votes, but on political sorties of a couple or three days.

The spirit of the old political firehorse may prevail, however, once the campaign gong starts clanging.

By tradition, Democrats start the gong going at an appearance of their presidential nominee at a Labor Day rally in Detroit's Cadillac Square. When Johnson was in Detroit in June he said that "if events work out, I'll be there."

The President hasn't ridden a train since he became president. This may change.

California Democrats reportedly want Johnson out there at least twice before election day. It's a big, long state, with a big electoral vote, and one of the classic campaign routes is by special train down the valleys.

In 1960, Johnson got in some effective licks from the back porch of a train tooting through the South. The son of the Confederacy may want to go back again, with his folksy stories about the kinfolk plus another appeal "not as a Southerner to Southerners but as an American to Americans" — as he put it four years ago.

The Democrats are going to hit hard in the Midwest. Some areas there, such as "Little Egypt," in Southern Illinois, can be worked easily by train and car.

In any event:

Johnson may campaign in half the states or more. He says, "I expect to appear in various parts of the country."

It looks as if he won't debate Republican nominee Barry Goldwater on television.

Parts of the South look shaky, but Johnson isn't writing off any region.

He counts on prosperity as the top vote getting issue, an issue that may help offset some of a "white backlash" against racial demonstrations.

He says he will talk about all the issues, "foreign policy is an appropriate subject."

"Most campaigns are rough campaigns," Johnson says. This one probably will be no exception.

Garrison To Address Meet

GALVESTON (AP) — Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, speaks today before the 27th annual convention of the Texas division, International Association of Identification.

The convention ends Wednesday night.

Forrest Keene, police chief of University Park, Dallas suburb, called Monday for legislation to strengthen the Texas Criminal Code of Procedures.

He blamed "complacency on the part of law enforcement and our citizens" for the increasing crime rate.

Results, he said, are "handicapped policemen losing interest in their jobs and citizens losing respect for the law officer."

Film Star Marks 53rd Birthday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) —"I've seen them all come and go, and I'm still hanging around," cheerfully remarked Spangler Arlington Brugh, the famous movie star, who will be 53 Wednesday.

"I feel pretty good about life. There's nothing much that bugs me. I've always successfully avoided anything that bored me too much.

"I've always just been a guy who tried to keep my nose clean, do my job and avoid conflict as much as possible. I've tried to do things that would make me happy and not hurt others.

"The only thing I worry about is what's my next picture going to be."

Tanned, blue-eyed and still strikingly handsome, Spangler Arlington Brugh can look back on a career that has few if any parallels in filmdom.

As a boy back in Beatrice, Neb., he wanted to be a doctor like his father. As a youth he lugged a battered cello to California and hoped to become a musician.

But a talent scout saw him in a college play and he went to work for MGM in 1934 at $35 a week. He stayed there 26 years, the longest period any top star has ever worked for any one studio.

And Spangler Arlington Brugh did become a top star.

He was mobbed by crowds of up to 5,000 people. A newsmagazine once described him as "the most admired matinee idol since the late Rudolph Valentino."

One poll in 1936 rated him as more popular than Clark Gable. His weekly salary climbed that year to $3,000, his weekly fan mail to 7,000 letters.

A list of the leading ladies he played opposite makes a roll call of Hollywood's most beauteous stars, past and present.

In 30 years Spangler Arlington Brugh earned millions of dollars, appeared in nearly 70 films and starred in a television series.

During all that time he avoided public scandals, was well-liked by his fellow workers — and never won an Academy Award. Today he and his second wife, actress Ursula Thiess, live quietly with their two young children on a 113-acre farm near Beverly Hills where they are raising 17 quarter horses, 52 hens and two roosters.

"We're not trying to corner the poultry market," he said. "We do like outdoor life, and we're not very socially inclined."

Looking back across the years, he said he felt most grateful to two people: MGM studio boss Louis B. Mayer who built him into a star, and to his former wife, Barbara Stanwyck.

"She had been in the theater all her life. She knew all the pitfalls an actor could run into in Hollywood," he said.

At 53, Spangler Arlington Brugh has a special reason for feeling grateful to studio tycoon Mayer.

"It was he who changed my name to Robert Taylor," he said.

QUESTION: What makes your skin get sunburned?

* * *

ANSWER: As light rays pour down on us from the sun, only a small fraction of them affect or change our skin. These rays are invisible, and lie just beyond the violet end of the visible spectrum. They are part of the group called "ultra violet rays." But even if you can't see them, your skin feels these ultra violet rays most definitely. Fifteen minutes of exposing an untanned skin to bright sunlight will cause tan to start forming. Twenty minutes may cause sunburn.

Look at the diagram. In the outermost of the skin's two layers, the epidermis, are networks of special cells called "melanocytes." These can produce particles of the brownish pigment melanin. When the ultra violet rays pour down, this starts the melanocytes working and the melanin they turn out (right) makes the skin tan. Melanin absorbs the ultra violet rays and so a tan is a protection—up to a point. Stay in the sun too long and a chemical is released which works down into the skin's lower level, and makes the blood vessels swell. Then your skin gets red and uncomfortable. A light sunburn will do little damage, but too much may cause great discomfort and even serious illness. 8-4

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: The next time you start sunning with a untanned skin, remember these hints: Tan gradually—no more than 15 minutes in the sun at first. Use a suntan lotion. And wear sunglasses.

Pay Boost Now Seen As Certain

WASHINGTON (AP) — Practically all of Uncle Sam's employes — from Congress members to postmen and servicemen — are assured of fatter pay checks.

Congress approved Monday, and President Johnson is expected to sign quickly, a $207 million pay raise for the military.

And Senate and House conferees reached agreement on a $556 million increase for the 1.7 million classified civil service and postal workers, and top government officials, Congress members and federal judges.

The House plans to act today on the civil pay bill, which carries annual raises of $7,500 for congressmen and $10,000 for Cabinet officials. The Senate was expected to act later in the day or Wednesday.

The increases for the armed forces, to take effect the first of next month, will be their second in a year as part of the new policy of reviewing servicemen's pay scales every year.

The House Armed Services Committee told the House it had omitted boosts for draftees and newly enlisted men because they are in training status and because they will receive three or four increases in their first 11 months of service due to promotions.

The pay bill agreed on by Senate and House conferees would be retroactive to the first pay period after July 1 for all but the members of Congress and high-level congressional employes. They must wait until next January for their raises.

The President has strongly backed this measure, contending it is essential to retain key personnel in government.

The bill carries these annual increases:

$8,000 for the vice president and speaker of the House, which would raise them to $43,000.

$7,500 for members of Congress, to $30,000.

10,000 for Cabinet officers, to $35,000.

Up to $7,000 for other government executives, with a scale of $26,000 to $30,000.

$4,500 for the nine Supreme Court justices, to $40,000 for the chief justice and $39,500 for the others, and $7,500 for all other federal judges, including a scale of $30,000 for district judges and $33,000 for those on the Court of Appeals.

An average 4.3 per cent for $11 million classified workers, with a range of 2.7 to 22.5 per cent. The top level in civil service would go from $20,000 to $24,500.

An average of 5.6 per cent for 600,000 postal employes.

Salinger Apt To Finish Engle's Term

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)— Pierre Salinger appeared certain to be named today to fill out the U.S. Senate term of the late Clair Engle of California.

The appointment of the former White House press secretary was expected at the regular Tuesday morning news conference of Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

They returned together Monday from funeral services in Red Bluff, Calif., for Engle, who died Thursday. The popular Democrat had five months remaining to serve of his first Senate term.

Reports circulated that Salinger would be sworn in Wednesday in Washington, D.C. Brown is to fly to the nation's capitol the same day for a dinner with President Johnson.

Engle's illness propelled Salinger into the June California primary on the last possible day. The 39-year-old one-time San Francisco newspaper reporter toppled State Controller Alan Cranston to win a bitterly contested Democratic nomination for Engle's seat.

Salinger's Republican foe in November, former movie actor George Murphy, urged Brown Monday night to appoint someone other than the former press secretary to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

Murphy contended Salinger isn't legally qualified to serve for an interim appointment. It took a battle that went to the U.S. Supreme Court to get Salinger onto the primary ballot.

Consumer's Extra Dollars Building Savings Accounts

By SAM DAWSON
AP-Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A build-up in savings is reported this summer. This reverses the trend earlier in the year. And it adds a new chapter, however brief it may prove to be, to the business and government's hardy whodunit: What will the American consumer do with his money?

Retail sales are still rising. The American consumer isn't pinching pennies yet. The total of personal incomes keeps growing and collectively he has more to spend. So he is spending a little more. Also, federal income tax rates are lower and he has more to spend. So he's spending a little more of that.

But in the first weeks after the tax cut, his extra dollars seemed to be going largely toward trimming his debt load. This is a kind of savings in itself. Charge accounts and other forms of personal short-term debt shrunk a bit. And while the consumer was paying his bills, his savings accounts in various institutions either were not growing at all or at a noticeably reduced rate.

Then sales of many big-ticket items, like autos and household appliances, were healthier than in recent years. The taking on of new installment credit to finance such sales was noted.

From this, government and some corporate economists decided that the tax cut was achieving its avowed purpose, spurring economic growth. People were buying, so industry could produce, and expand to produce more.

But now the savings institutions report that the savings rate is increasing again — and this time without the stimulus of any new increase in interest rates on savings. Having settled their more nagging bills, some Americans apparently are putting away more of their increased take-home pay.

That still leaves money enough in the country to raise the total of retail sales. And the outlook for fall business is good, most merchants agree.

Manufacturers have been more inspired by the tax cuts and depreciation allowances. Their spending for expansion and modernization increases with each new report. And most of them have the sales and profits gains to back up their optimism for the future.

Savings by consumers, so long as total spending isn't cut, is no drag in itself on the economy.

The funds pouring into the institutions are available for the financing of the growth which industry is starting or planning.

Cubans Hold US Newsman

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Al Burt, Latin America editor of the Miami Herald, said today in a copyrighted dispatch from Havana he was arrested and held for three hours for taking pictures of the Mexican Consulate.

Burt, one of a group of U.S. newsmen who went to Cuba to report on Fidel Castro's ceremonies July 26, wrote that a man saw him take the pictures and called a militiaman.

He said that after being questioned, he was released with an apology from a foreign office representative. His films were confiscated.

Burt said there were lines outside the Mexican Consulate waiting to apply for permission to leave Cuba. Mexico is the only western hemisphere country maintaining airline service with Cuba.

The name Idaho comes from the Shoshone Indian greeting, "We-dah-how," which means "Look, the sun is coming down the mountains." It was a greeting for morning.

Wallace Attacks Capitol's 'Stench'

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace coupled a plea for congressional redistricting today with an angry attack on what he called "the repulsive stench" in Washington.

He told members of the Alabama Legislature meeting in special session that it is their duty to divide the state into new congressional districts. But he emphasized that his call for the session was not prompted by "fear of the federal court system."

A three-judge federal court has said it will redistrict the state unless the legislature does it before the 1966 elections.

Wallace, in a prepared speech, made no mention of the fact that he summoned the legislature at this time to consider redistricting legislation in the face of a growing Republican threat to unseat some of the Democratic congressmen in the state-at-large election in November.

But there was hope within the congressional delegation that passage of a redistricting bill would lessen GOP chances.

No redistricting bill has been enacted since Alabama lost one House seat because of the 1960 census. In the absence of district lines, the congressmen are elected statewide.

Wallace urged the legislature to join other states in petitioning for a constitutional amendment to nullify the Supreme Court's population-only decision affecting legislative apportionment.

Wallace reviewed his recently abandoned presidential campaign and what he called his battle for "the preservation of constitutional government, our Judeo-Christian moral and ethical values, and our Anglo-Saxon tradition of justice and jurisprudence."

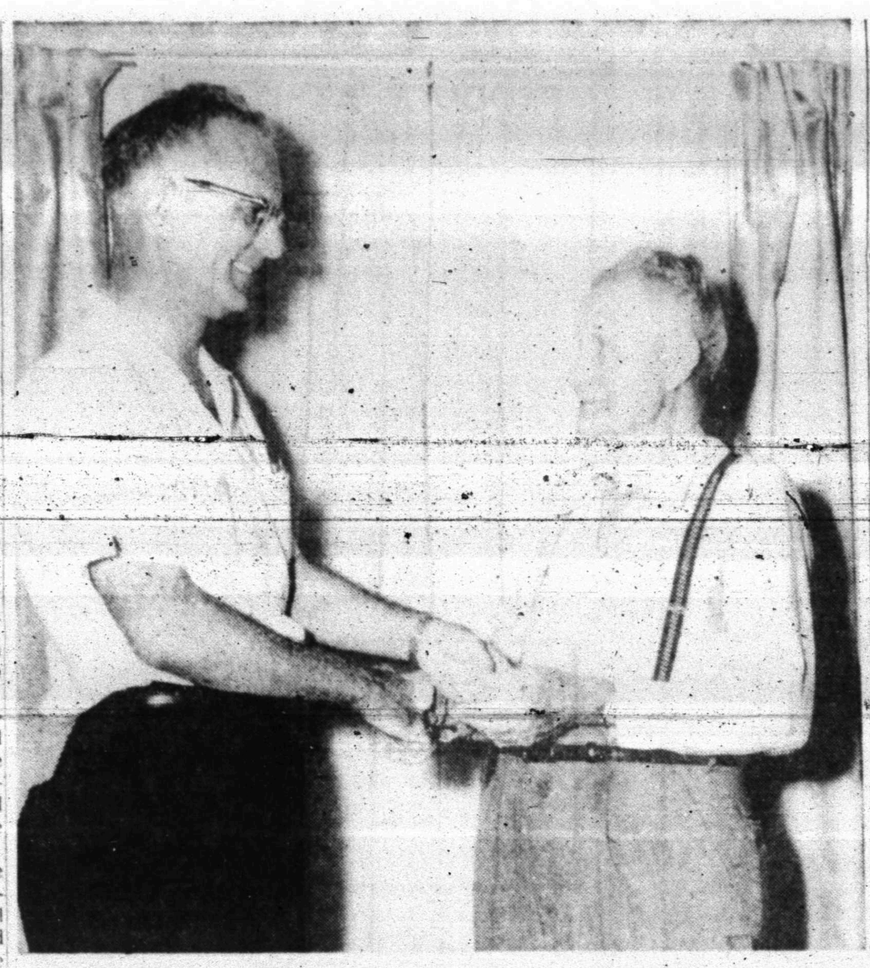

In bitter words, he declared: There is a repulsive stench rising from the shores of the Potomac. It is occasioned by the crime, the corruption, the moral decay, the debauchery, the drunken revelries, perversions, and moral degeneracy commonplace in the nation's capital.

"It shocks the sensibilities of decent god-fearing people from coast to coast and boundary to boundary."

But, he said, there is evidence of an increased spiritual awakening on the part of the American people, of an intention to return to fundamental virtues and values that made this nation great."

Wallace said the Supreme Court "must bear a large burden of the blame for the moral decay in Washington." He said the court has "set the example by its own callous disregard of the principles upon which this nation was founded."

The redistricting issue arose out of the past failure of the legislature to agree on congressional boundaries.

Scientists Eagerly Plan Soft Landing On Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Jet Propulsion Laboratory scientists, equipped with 4,316 close-up photographs of the moon, are thinking eagerly of the next major step in man's exploration of the lunar landscape.

It is the Surveyor, a soft-landing spacecraft with cameras that may function on the lunar surface for up to 30 days.

Two more Rangers are scheduled to be launched early next year. Plans call for them to have missions identical to picture-snapping Ranger 7.

Late next year the U.S. Space Agency will fire the first of seven Surveyors, which are three times heavier than the Rangers and have shock absorber legs.

The 806-pound Ranger 7 photographed craters as small as three feet in diameter before it crashed on the moon Friday.

The 2,300-pound Surveyor will be able to take pictures of objects the size of pinheads.

A shot in the arm for Surveyor's designers: A study of Ranger photographs indicates no major changes will be necessary in the planned model.

Surveyor's tripod legs should be able to survive a landing on terrain similar to Ranger's impact area — a crater-pocked plain in the Sea of Clouds.

Surveyor program manager W.E. Giberson says "we will use many of Ranger's technical people as they come off jobs such as testing and design, with the idea of cross-fertilization betwen the two projects.

"But we're already well along. We've been working on Surveyor since 1960 and we're quite proud of being able to anticipate some of Ranger's findings."

Ranger's pictures indicate the moon has a hard crust covered with a thin layer of dust.

Giberson believes Surveyor's pad-footed, 6-foot-long legs can settle down on such a surface with no damage to its scientific instruments.

Ranger was designed to crash into the moon and it did. Surveyor has a retro-rocket to break its descent and let it fall free to the surface from a height of no more than 10 or 15 feet.

Once it lands, its two television cameras should be able to swing full circule and up and down, giving earth scientists a "you are there" picture of the lunar landscape.

Surveyor also will have a claw on an extendable arm to pick up objects as far away as 10 feet and lift them up to the stereoscopic television eyes for three-dimension scrutiny.

Heart of Surveyor's soft-landing system is a 10,000-pound thrust, solid-fuel retro-rocket that will be turned on 60 miles from the moon.

This will slow Surveyor's 9,000-feet-per-second speed to 450-feet-per-second in less than a minute. By the time Surveyor has fallen to about 15 feet above the surface three small liquid-fuel rockets should cut the speed to zero.

Surveyor will drop the rest of the way at about the speed of a parachutist hitting the earth.

Delay Of Redistricting Is Sought

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen moved today for speedy committee action on a bill under which states could stave off for two years or more court-ordered legislative reapportionment.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, predicted quick approval of the measure by the Senate Judiciary Committee. Once he gets that, he said, he will try to attach to it a bill certain to reach President Johnson.

If it becomes law, the bill would permit states or citizens to obtain stays on court-directed reapportionments until the end of the second session of their next legislature.

Federal courts have ordered several states to reapportion both bodies of their legislatures on the basis of the one-man-one-vote rule laid down by the Supreme Court in a series of decisions June 15.

Most state senates are apportioned geographically. The effect of the high court's order would be to give cities greater representation in state legislatures and to reduce the influence of rural areas.

Dirksen said time is needed for Congress to consider a proposed constitutional amendment that would upset the court's order. Such an amendment would have to be approved by three-fourths of the state legislatures to become effective.

Dirksen told the Senate Monday he had served notice on President Johnson Thursday of his intentions. Asked by newsmen what Johnson's attitude was, Dirksen replied:

"I didn't try to commit him in any way. I just wanted him to know what I was planning to do."

The GOP leader said he believes he will have almost solid Republican support for his proposal and can attract enough Democratic support to attach it to some other legislation Johnson would find difficult to veto.

Wheat Supports Will Be Lowered

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government plans to reduce price supports for next year's wheat crop to try to increase the number of farmers participating in the wheat stabilization program.

This year's national average support price was $1.30 per bushel, and next year's will be $1.25. Farmers who do not plant within their acreage allotments must depend solely on market prices, while those who cooperate qualify for extra payments.

This year, fewer than half of the farmers cooperated with the program.

The 1965 program announced Monday by the Agriculture Department was spelled out now because growers of winter wheat are beginning to plan for fall seeding of the crop.

The decrease in price supports means that, unless there is a very short crop, market prices will drop correspondingly.

However, growers who plant within their 1965 allotments will get supplementary returns in the form of marketing certificates with the monetary value averaging 52.5 cents a bushel and land diversion payments.

Next year's program, like this year's, is designed to hold down production while surpluses exist and to bolster grower income. Both programs set the national wheat planting allotment at 49.5 million acres. For many years, the allotment had 55 million acres.

Next year, cooperating farmers will get—as they did this year—both domestic and export farmeting certificates financed by assessments on flour mills and wheat exporters.

Next year they will be eligible for domestic marketing certificates worth 75 cents a bushel—5 cents more than this year—on 45 per cent of the normal production of their allotments. Likewise, they will be eligible for export certificates worth 30 cents a bushel—also 5 cents more than this year—on 35 per cent of the normal production. This year the export certificates covered 45 per cent of normal production.

The land diversion benefit for 1965—paid out of the federal treasury—will be somewhat less attractive than this year.

Officials calculate that the 1965 program should cost the government less than this year's version.

Snyderite's Brother Dies

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 a.m. in Sweetwater for Paul Anthony Hudgins, 17, who died in Simmons Memorial Hospital from injuries suffered early Monday in an auto accident.

Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Hudgins of Sweetwater, was thrown from a car driven by David Smith when it hit a bridge railing a mile east of Sweetwater on Interstate 20 about 12:30 a.m. Smith suffered minor injuries.

Paul Rogers, minister of the 4th and Elm Church of Christ, officiated with burial in Sweetwater Cemetery.

Hudgins was born Jan. 11, 1947 in Roscoe.

Survivors include his parents; three brothers, L. B., Manley and Robert Lee, all of Sweetwater; and two sisters, Mrs. Ken Pierce, 2412 Twenty-ninth Street, Snyder, and Miss Inetha Hudgins of Sweetwater.
