WITH PARADES, MEMORIAL SERVICES, SPEECHES—

Texas Celebrates Armistice

By The Associated Press

Sprawling Texas is scattering its Armistice Day celebration over a three-day period with parades, speeches, barbecues, breakfasts, memorial services and closing of stores and government offices.

Observance of Armistice began Saturday in some areas.

A mammoth parade was held in Dallas despite chilly weather and a cool drizzle. Participating were thousands of men from military posts in the area, high school cadets, State Guardsmen, the Red Cross, many bands and various other organizations.

Keyed To Victory Loan

The first peacetime Armistice since Pearl Harbor was keyed to the current Victory Loan Drive.

Observances Sunday, which is actually Armistice Day, will be mild and in most instances solemn.

At Abilene, a memorial service will be held at the high school auditorium. Lt. Gov. John Lee Smith will speak. Families and friends of war dead of both World Wars are honor guests.

An annual Legion breakfast will be held Sunday morning at Lubbock. A dance was held there Saturday night for ex-service men at Legion Hall.

Shout Tribute At Berger

Berger Sunday has a parade to honor the 27th Armistice anniversary. It is to begin at 10 a. m. and will halt at 11 to pay respect to departed comrades. Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion disabled veterans, women's auxiliaries and veterans of World War II will participate.

Congressman Luther A. Johnson will be the main speaker at the American Legion breakfast at Corsicana. The annual homecoming observance at Frost, Navarro County, will be held Sunday and Monday. Rev. D. P. Cagle of Huntsville will conduct memorial services Sunday. A homecoming picnic is scheduled for Monday.

Memorial Services

Memorial services at Marshall churches are planned Sunday. An annual service conducted by Rev. Henry F. Selzer, of the Episcopal Church and chaplain of the American Legion, is set.

Lt. Gov. Smith also addresses Legion meetings at Rule and Breckenridge Sunday. He speaks at Rule at 11 a. m., Abilene at 3 p. m., and Breckenridge at 7:30 p. m.

Governor Coke Stevenson will speak at an Armistice Day celebration at Cuero. The program honors returning servicemen.

In most cities, state offices will be closed. They will close in Austin Monday.

Stores will close in Lubbock, Vernon, Brownwood, Midland, and Denison.

Rules Venezuela

Romulo Betancourt, above, 40-year-old lawyer and writer on economics, heads a provisional seven-man junta to govern Venezuela until elections can be held. He succeeds Isaias Medina Angarita, who was deposed in bloody revolt.

Soerabaja Devastated By Attack As Natives Ignore Ultimatum

BATAVIA, JAVA —(P)— Indonesian reports said Sunday that Soerabaja and vicinity had been "devastated" and "thousands" of Indonesian soldiers and civilians killed by "continued British attacks from the air, sea and land."

Reports telephoned here from a T. K. R. (Indonesian army) captain and released by officials of the unrecognized Indonesian Republic, said that "bodies are piling up in all Soerabaja and cannot be removed because of continuous British shelling from the sea."

No British reports have been issued since Saturday's announcement that Maj. Gen. E. C. Mansergh had ordered the attack to protect the advancing Fifth Indian Division which he said was suffering casualties in the face of growing Indonesian resistance.

The British order to blast away at the city of 500,000 inhabitants came after Indonesians rejected an ultimatum to surrender their weapons.

Many Weapons Used

The telephoned report said British troops were "moving into the city using the common people as a shield" and were employing "bombs, tanks, and heavy guns in a deliberate, indiscriminate attack on the people."

"Indonesians, their spirit aflame, fight on," the report added.

An Indonesian spokesman said civilians were fleeing the city, once a large Dutch naval base, and had set fire to compounds surrounding the British perimeter in carrying out a scorched earth withdrawal.

Strong Indonesian forces were reported marching on Soerabaja from inland Jogjakarta. Nationalist stronghold 175 miles to the south-west.

British declared their initial advance met only light sniping and machinegun fire. An official statement said the shelling and bombing were ordered because Indian troops had suffered casualties from stiff resistance, and "stronger measures were necessary."

Indonesians On March

Advices from Jogjakarta, where 100,000 armed Indonesians are reported concentrated, declared hot-headed Indonesian youths were already marching toward Soerabaja shouting "Fight for Freedom!"

Indonesian "President" Soekarno had gone to Jogjakarta to address a youth rally, which broke up when news of the British attack was received. Soekarno was expected to return to Batavia Sunday.

There were no relations yet that the Soerabaja battle had set off any widespread outbreaks throughout Java, as Indonesian leaders had predicted might result.

Late Saturday night Allied troops used mortars in a short but severe clash with Indonesians in the Kra-mat sector of Batavia.

Dewey Listed As Witness For Pearl Harbor Inquiry

WASHINGTON —(P)— Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, 1944 Republican Presidential candidate, was listed officially Saturday as a witness at the Pearl Harbor investigation which starts Thursday.

The list made public by Senator Alben W. Barkley, committee chairman, included:

Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff.

Admiral Richardson (presumably Admiral J. O. Richardson, who was relieved of command of the Pacific Fleet several months before the Japanese attack on the Hawaiian Islands).

Major General Walter C. Short and Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, respective commanders of the Army and Navy forces in the islands when the Japanese struck.

Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

Former Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles.

Ambassador Grew.

Joseph Grew, Ambassador to Japan at the time of the attack.

Admiral Harold Stark, who was Naval chief of staff in December, 1941.

Former Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson.

Miss Grace Tully, private secretary to the late President Roosevelt and now guardian of his official papers.

Forty-eight witnesses were listed in all. They included many whose names have been mentioned in preliminary investigations of events connected with the disaster blow that opened the war with Japan.

It was assumed that Dewey was included because of the disclosure several weeks ago that he had information bearing on the attack at the time he was campaigning for the Presidency last year. General Marshall at that time asked him not to divulge the knowledge for security reasons.

In making the list public Barkley gave his assurance that the committee will not "countenance any effort to keep from the public any fact material to the inquiry."

All the facts will be laid before the public he declared "no matter whom they may hurt in high or low places."

Odessa Woman Is Injured In Wreck

Mrs. Walter C. Quin of Odessa was injured seriously in a collision early Saturday near the Service Club at Midland Army Air Field.

An Army truck and a passenger car collided.

Her six-months old baby escaped injury. Mr. Quin, driver of the car, received head injuries.

Mrs. J. R. Wright, Odessa, riding in the automobile, was injured slightly by glass. She was cut about the mouth.

The driver of the Army vehicle was not hurt.

Army officials investigated the accident.

Mrs. Quin was carried to an Odessa hospital.

Artillery And Mortars Thunder In China War

By SPENCER MOOSA

CHUNGKING —(AP)— Artillery and mortars thundered Saturday along the coastal end of China's great wall, where the Chinese Communists' best divisions blocked the path of thousands of Nationalist troops into industrially-rich Manchuria.

The booming of heavy weapons first was heard during the night in the U. S. Marine-guarded port of Chinwangtao. Associated Press Correspondent Richard Bergholz reported, signalling the first heavy fighting in the undeclared civil war.

The action began near Shanhaikwan, coastal anchor of the wall north of Chinwangtao where the Reds' crack Eight Route Army is solidly entrenched.

The wounded had been trickling in from the front even before the big guns opened fire.

Intensified fighting was reported far inland, and also flared south of Chinwangtao along the road to Tientsin.

An unconfirmed Chinese report said one Nationalist platoon was annihilated near a first-aid station set up to care for wounded at Nationalist-held Peitaiho junction, 15 miles south of Chinwangtao.

Although almost encircled by the fighting which—until Saturday—has been sporadic, U. S. Marines had been involved in no new incidents, Bergholz said.

Yanks To Stay Neutral

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of American forces in China, said Saturday in his first Chungking news conference since his return from Washington that all American forces will be out of China by early spring, leaving only a 6,000-man military mission.

They will not, he emphasized, help the Nationalists reach vital Manchuria, from which the Russians are withdrawing and in which the Chinese Reds hope to build a vast, militarily and industrially powerful "base area."

Wedemeyer said Marines would remain "non-partisan," and would not make any further landings in North China or move to any other points from their present stations at Peiping, Tientsin, Tangku (near Tientsin), Chinwangtao and Tsingtao.

Truman Wants Foreign Policy From People

WASHINGTON —(P)— President Truman declared Saturday night he wants a foreign policy of the people and not of any political party.

"One of the great things of the British Empire," the President said, "is that when they have a foreign policy—and they always have one—the British people are behind that foreign policy no matter which government is in power."

Truman spoke after toasts at a state dinner in the White House, the first social event in connection with the American-British-Canadian discussions which opened Saturday. Prime Ministers Clement R. Attlee of Great Britain and W. L. MacKenzie King of Canada attended, together with 50 other

Citizens May Buy A Share Of Victory

Midland citizens bought a share of "Victory" last week and overall sale of bonds amounted to $241,340.25 with $64,743.75 for the E series.

"Midland still is short of its quota and citizens must rally to maintain our 100 per cent over-the-top record," John P. Butler, chairman, said.

Midland Blacked Out Four Hours

By TANNER LAINE

Midland was blacked out three hours and 48 minutes Saturday night.

The city was without electric light and power for the longest period in years when a main transformer went out at 7:07 p. m.

A spare transformer, which weighs 22,500 pounds, was installed.

The city is served by a set of three transformers which reduce power of 66,000 volts to 12,500 volts.

An investigation by the Texas Electric Service Company will be made to determine the exact cause of the trouble.

The blackout produced a variety of "activity" throughout this West Texas city on a busy Fall Saturday night.

There was a rush for candles and flashlights.

Continental Air Lines brought in an air liner with auxiliary power borrowed from the Army and by automobile lights from hastily-summoned vehicles as a small group watched.

Ann Miller, movie actress, was a passenger on the air liner, which landed four passengers; took on four others, and then took off again "without a bobble."

A wedding was performed as scheduled "by candlelight." It originally had been planned as a candlelight event.

Theaters gave customers "rain-check" stubs good for another admission. They were showing to crowded houses when the power failed.

A football game was postponed. The two teams were in pre-game workouts when the lights of the stadium sputtered out. The players continued practicing in the dark and used footballs.

Stanton Also In Dark

Midland Army Air Field was without power for only a few minutes. It was fed power from another direction soon after the transformer broke.

Stanton and Midland Municipal Municipal Airport were blacked out.

A large crowd at an American Legion jamboree in the Civic Auditorium celebrating Armistice Day was interrupted but tickets will be good for the event rescheduled for Monday night.

Some citizens used automobile lights to finish the evening meal. They parked cars in position to shine lights into dining rooms.

No operation was in progress at a Midland hospital. Emergency lights were available.

Most retail stores were closed when the lights went out. Some proprietors cleared their stores. Drug stores kept open longer and did business by candlelight.

Telephone service, which can be operated on auxiliary power in an emergency, went on uninterrupted.

The Reporter-Telegram answered many inquiries made by person and by telephone. Its Associated Press news wire was dead. Editorial and mechanical staffs "worked" by candlelight.

City bus service was not interrupted.

Police were dead.

Citizens joked about the situation. As one person on the street said to another person: "The main thing the matter with the lights in Midland is that they are out."

They whooped with delight when the lights came on brightly at 10:55.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

LONDON—(AP)—Reliable sources said Saturday night that Great Britain and the United States had agreed upon creation of a joint committee to deal with the questions of Jewish immigration into Palestine, and displaced European Jews.

BRUSSELS—(AP)—Tempers flared and the corridors rang with accusations Saturday when Catholic Party members in Parliamentary debate attacked the Belgian government for opposing the return of King Leopold to his throne.

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The third day of conferences attempting to settle the six-day-old strike of Southwestern Greyhound bus line employees ended Saturday with both union and management announcing that negotiations will be postponed indefinitely.

Opponents Claim Strength To Kill Universal Service

WASHINGTON —(P)— President Truman's request for universal military training legislation skated on thin Congressional ice Saturday as opponents claimed enough strength to kill it off quickly.

The test may come next Tuesday when the House Military Committee resumes hearings interrupted last week by a surprise move of opponents to block consideration until next year.

When Patterson returns for further questioning Tuesday, Rep. Dewey Short (R-Mo) told reporters, he will renew his motion for deferment of consideration until 1946, or until after the Senate acts.

"We have the votes to do it," he said.

Reporters who polled committee sentiment found the line-up 13 to 12 for postponing action, with two doubtfuls.

Weather

Cloudy Saturday night and Sunday. Temperature expected to rise slightly Sunday. The temperature was below 50 degrees all day Friday but climbed slowly Saturday.

Truman, Attlee, King Open Atom Meeting

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON —(AP)— While Russian leaders watched from afar, President Truman and Prime Ministers Attlee of Britain and MacKenzie King of Canada pulled up easy chairs in the White House Saturday afternoon and began discussing what to do about the atomic bomb.

This presented a speed-up in the schedule. As late as Friday night it had called for the talks to start Sunday.

But Attlee arrived early Saturday morning by plane from London. MacKenzie King came in from the same capital ship and train and the decision was made to start the conference at once.

Diplomatic officials were inclined to agree, in private talks to reporters, with a Russian newspaper assertion that relations between the Western Powers and Russia would be under serious test until the Russians find out (1) Anglo-American plans for international handling of the bomb, and (2) what part—if any—Russia has in them.

Course Not Specific

Truman has called for "outlawing" the bomb and Attlee has talked about putting it in the custody of the United Nations. But neither has outlined yet a specific course.

There were suggestions that the President and prime ministers would provide seriously proposals to share the knowledge with other countries, provided all agree to submit to United Nations inspection to keep bomb manufacture under control.

This immediately raised a question whether Russia, with her tight system of secrecy, would agree to any inspection or to any extension of the authority of the United Nations.

Police Reported To Have Cornered Escaped Convicts Near Childress

CHILDRESS —(AP)—

Four convicts who escaped the main state prison at Huntsville about dusk on Oct. 17 by crashing a truck through a gate were believed bottled up in the Memphis area Saturday.

The State Highway Patrol threw cordons around the West Texas town after receiving a report that the fugitives entered Memphis early Saturday.

An Army plane from the Childress field joined in the watch at the request of the highway patrol.

One of the fugitives was Daniel Webster Mitchell, sentenced to life on a rape conviction from Donley County.

The others were Jack Hudspeth, Ardmore, Okla., serving five years for burglary from Anderson County; Roy Williford, serving 15 years for robbery from Grayson County; and Walter Vincent Valley, Ardmore, serving five years for burglary from Anderson and Cherokee counties.

Relief And A Free Press

Action of the House of Representatives in tying a "free press" provision to the $550,000,000 appropriation for relief in liberated countries was an untimely, though well-intentioned move.

Secretary of State James Byrnes, in a letter to House Appropriations Committee Chairman Clarence Cannon, stated the objection to this action very plainly when he said:

"We cannot put ourselves in the position of denying promised relief to millions of human beings because we have failed to secure our other objectives in advance."

The willingness to grant relief money should not be tied to irrelevant "ifs." Either we are willing to aid the suffering peoples of the world, or we are not, and there should be no political questions involved.

The motive behind the House action is apparent. It aims directly at Russia, where tight censorship continues despite the fact that wartime need for such secrecy no longer exists. Naturally, if we are going to send huge sums abroad for relief, we will want to know how that money is being administered, whether the goods which that money buys are being used for political purposes.

More than that, we want to know what is going on inside the other nations of the world. We can trust the officers of UNRRA to keep a sharp eye on the administration of its funds, and to report to UNRRA members honestly, but there is more to it than that.

There has been much talk of "one world," and international co-operation as the guarantees of lasting peace.

But can there be "one world" in the true sense if any country prohibits free reporting to the rest of the world of conditions within that country? Is that international co-operation? Is that the sort of attitude that will promote the trust and confidence that is necessary to peace?

There must be a free press in every corner of the world, if there is to be mutual sympathy and understanding among nations. We are wholeheartedly in favor of the U. S. pressing for free reporting in all nations, but it should not be a restriction on any move to alleviate suffering.

'Native Fascists' At Work

The discontent of unemployed workers is fertile ground for all the un-American propaganda of the try-something-different "isms."

We learn that, again and again, in every depression, when soapbox orators thrive upon the audience of jobless men grown bitter against a system which permits idleness and hunger in the midst of abundance.

Now the pamphleteers are at work again. The American Veterans Committee, an organization of World War II veterans with headquarters in New York City, disturbed by activities of what it calls "native Fascists," has written to Rep. John S. Wood, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, asking an investigation of certain organizations.

"The plan of American Fascists is obviously to create disunity and seize power through the political support of jobless, discontented veterans," writes Edward J. McHale, secretary of AVC.

Signs of "native Fascists" activities can be seen in lineups of jobless in front of USES offices throughout the country, where the unemployed are being propagandized with the most revolutionary type of pamphlets.

There should be an investigation of this activity, no doubt. But there is a greater job for Congress. The best way to defeat these "native Fascists" is to eliminate the factors that provide them with sympathetic listeners. Speedy action on legislation to encourage employment and help those who cannot find jobs, will harm the "native Fascists" cause more than any investigations.

President Studies Traffic Toll

President Truman is becoming increasingly concerned over the problems of traffic safety.

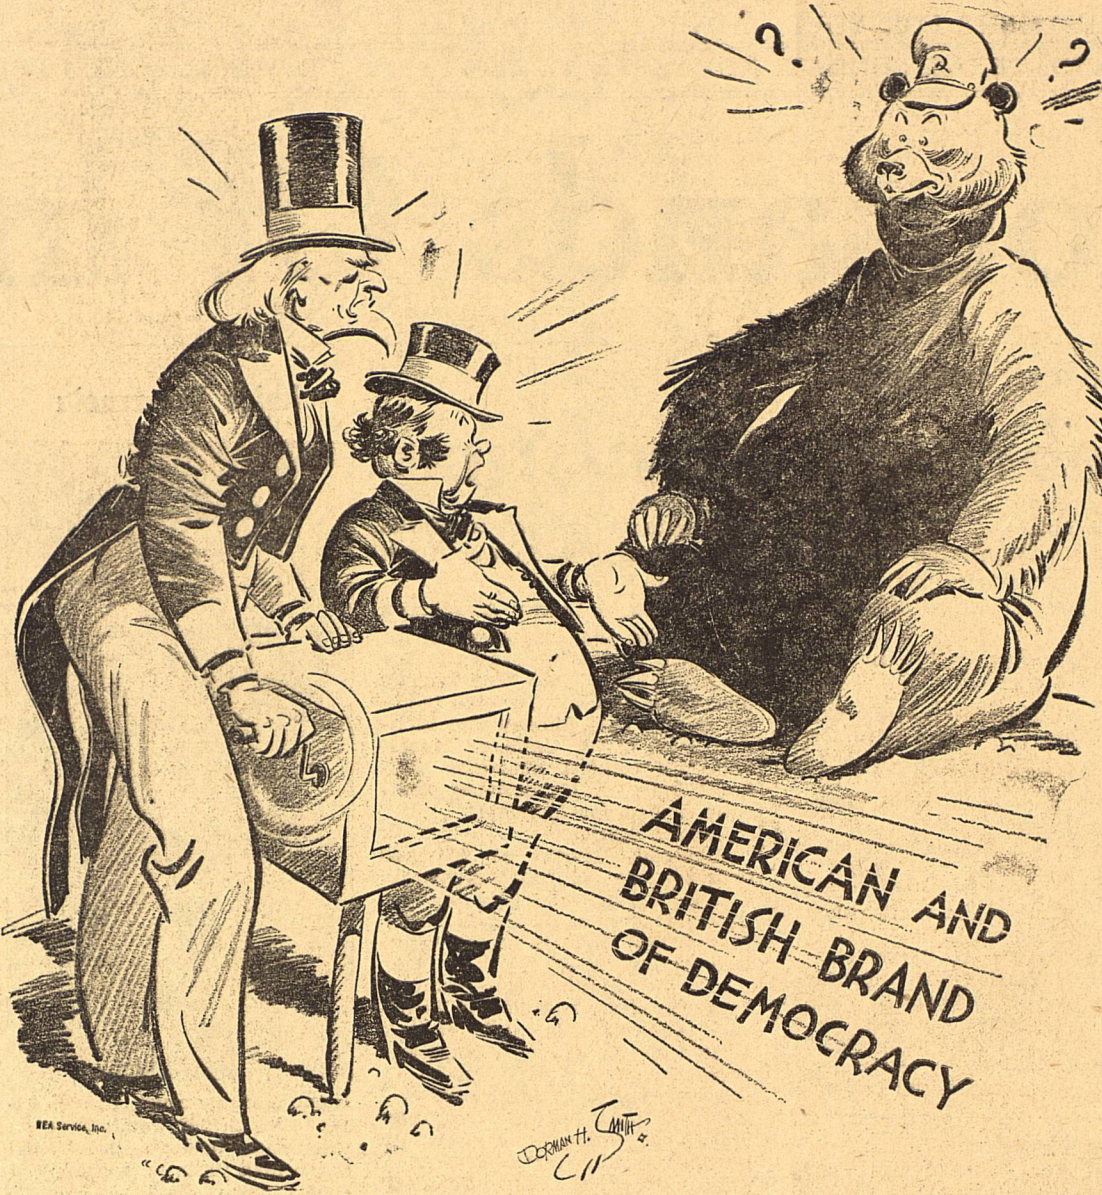

During the first 15 days after gas rationing went off, the traffic toll jumped 27 per cent over the same period last year. After the President heard this he called on the National Safety Council to intensify its studies of auto accidents. He was impressed with the job the council had done on industrial safety during the war.

Since then, friends who have driven from Missouri and other parts of the country to see him have remarked that driving seems to be more hazardous than before the war. Another circumstance that set the President to thinking seriously about this problem was a report that there were more than three times as many traffic casualties in the U. S. during the war than there were battle casualties on all fronts.

To speed up a national program aimed at nipping the growing traffic toll in the bud, as desired by the President, the National Committee for Traffic Safety has been organized. It is composed of experts from the National Safety Council, Automotive Safety Foundation, AAA and other interested organizations.

One of the first aims of the committee is to try to get uniform traffic laws established throughout the nation. In one state the driver must stick his hand up to signify one kind of a turn and straight out to signal something else. In another state an arm straight out is the only signal used. Other differences concern speed, left-hand turns, etc. It is hard to launch a national campaign to educate drivers unless there is uniformity of the laws.

Tots Play With Gun, One Shot In Chest

PORT WORTH —(AP)— A rainy morning indoor game of toy guns sent 3-year-old Tamie Dane Miller to a hospital here Saturday for treatment of a critical gunshot wound in the right chest.

The bullet, from a .22 caliber rifle, emerged from the child's back. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Miller.

Tamie Dane was playing in a bedroom of the next-door home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Morgeson, with two Morgeson children, Donnie, 6, and Edwin, 2. The game was guns. One of them found the .22 rifle in a closet.

Detectives have not determined definitely how the rifle was discharged. They said, however, that the shooting was accidental.

MAAF Clothing Drive Will End Thursday

The clothing drive at Midland Army Air Field will be closed Thursday, according to Mrs. Howard E. Watkins, chairman of the committee in charge of collections. This clothing will be sent to the French people.

This nation-wide drive has been sponsored by the National Association of Air Force Women of which the MAAF Ladies Club is an affiliate. Women of the local club will sort, label and pack the clothing collected for shipment to the national headquarters of the NAAF.

A list of names of French persons who aided American airmen to escape from enemy territory has been compiled and locations are known. Arrangements have been made for direct transportation and distribution of the clothing collected in order that there may be no delay in providing for the 30,000 or more people who face a winter of suffering unless help is received.

MAAF personnel who have clothing to contribute may put it in one of the boxes at the field before Thursday. These boxes are in convenient locations on the field and are decorated with the French colors.

Sabotage Breaks Out In Saigon

By CHARLES GRUMICH
SAIGON, INDO-CHINA — (P)— Sniping and sabotage broke out anew in the Saigon area Saturday as strong French forces, armed with American lend-lease equipment, continued to clean up nearly captured Tay Ninh, Annamese resistance center 58 miles northwest of here.

Although the French were known to be using U. S.-made equipment, including tanks, Army officials refused to furnish details or estimate the amount of American arms used.

The re-opening of a land route to Cambodia will expedite the movement of food supplies to Saigon.

The new route also will be used for the movement of two divisions of Japanese troops from Phnom Penh, capital of Cambodia, to Saigon for disarmament.

Letter Shows Division Between Army And Navy

WASHINGTON — (P)— Members of the Senate Naval and Military Affairs Committees Saturday added fuel to the flaming Army-Navy controversy over the proposed merger of the armed forces.

Sen. Lister Hill, the Democratic whip, told a reporter the Navy Secretary's letter "tends to show that division between the Army and Navy about which we heard so much at the time of Pearl Harbor. It emphasizes the need for putting the Army and Navy on the same team under a single department of the armed forces."

Truman Opens Labor - Management Conference

President Truman officially opens the Labor-Management conference being held at the Labor Department in Washington. He declared that industry and the working people must get together and end the current industrial strife, as the government's wartime controls over industrial relations will soon end. Pickets, surrounding the entrance to the conference, halted to let the President enter. At the speakers table are Bishop Henry St. George Tucker, left, and Chairman of the Conference, Judge Walter P. Stacy.

FHA Homes With No Down Payment Proposed

WASHINGTON — (P)— Legislation to permit low-income families to purchase FHA-financed homes without a down payment was drafted Saturday by Rep. De Lacy (D-Wash.).

De Lacy proposed that instead of providing a down payment, usually 20 per cent of the cost of a house, low-income families be permitted to acquire an equity in a home through monthly rental payments over a 48-month period.

The monthly rental would be limited to one per cent of the sales price of the property and would include mortgage payments and an amount sufficient to accumulate a 10 per cent down payment over the 48 months.

Patman Would Set Up Housing Problem Czar

WASHINGTON — (P)— A plan for a national "czar" to handle housing problems was advocated Saturday by Rep. Patman (D-Texas).

He said in a statement he will introduce legislation soon giving the President broad authority "to meet the housing crisis," including power to appoint a "czar."

Patman's statement said that the Chief Executive should be given "the same emergency authority to deal with housing that he had to meet similar problems, such as the rubber shortage, during the war."

Pretense Disguises Extreme Poverty In Dutch Capital City

By TOM WOLF
NEA Staff Correspondent

AMSTERDAM—Six months after VE Day, this is Europe's most deceptive city.

More than any other metropolis of a belligerent nation, Amsterdam outwardly appears normal. Houses and streets are clean and well cared for. There is none of the gray, tired aspect of London or Paris. Flowers in the parks and for sale on every street corner lend color and gaiety lacking elsewhere in Allied Europe. Store windows are bulging full.

Yet behind this prewar atmosphere which veils conditions today, lurks the fact that Amsterdam, like all Holland, is in desperate need of everything in the economic dictionary. Of all Allied countries, excepting only Poland, Holland is in the most dire need.

It is a shock to come to Amsterdam, having heard countless stories of its extreme poverty, and then to see windows of candy stores, food shops, and tobacconists overflowing with multicolored cartons and cans and boxes. It is then a double shock to find all these containers are empty. The Germans made the Dutch merchants keep up the pretense of plenty. Today the merchants are too proud to show less than they did during the occupation.

Conditions in Holland when the Allies marched in right after VE Day were, again excepting Poland, the worst in Allied Europe. All last winter Amsterdam had no coal, no gas, no electricity, no transportation and no food. During the last weeks before the liberation most people here lived exclusively on frozen potatoes and decayed cattle fodder. Thousands died of starvation. Life was at ebb tide.

Today, on the verge of another winter of want, the Dutch have accomplished comparative wonders. There is a subsistence diet—high in bread and vegetables, low in fats and meats. The meat and butter shortage is another study in contrasts, for here you see tens of thousands of cows on the marshy plains surrounding the city. But they are last spring's calves, too young for milking or slaughtering.

Holland's two greatest shortages this winter will be clothes and transportation. You see plenty of clothes in the windows of the fashionable shops lining the city's stately canals. But if you look closely, you also see a sign "decoration." There's no clothes rationing in Holland. That's because there are no clothes to be rationed.

Need Permits
To buy clothes or shoes requires a governmental permit for each purchase. A friend of mine has had his application in for one shirt for four months. He still has had no reply. It's going to be a hard, cold winter—even if every one gets the half ton of coal that is promised.

The transportation situation is frightful. The Germans literally stripped the country. They took not only locomotives and freight cars but the equipment and tools from the railroad shops. They even took down the copper wire from the overhead electrification which was the pride of the Dutch railroads.

The Nazis wrecked the cranes and sheds of Amsterdam's great port. Only the fact that Liberty ships carry their own heavy cranes has restored port capacity to something approaching normal. As for land transport, the Germans blew up most of the great bridges spanning the lower reaches of the Rhine which multi-sect the country.

There are some cars and trucks but no tires. Most of the thousands of bicycles on Amsterdam's cobbled streets are tire-less, or have tires made of thin strips of solid, tubeless rubber. They are almost all girls' bicycles, too, for the Germans took men's bicycles for the Wehrmacht. The Dutch think they will just manage to squeeze through the winter. No one will even guess how long it may be before there is a semblance of normality in the domestic economy. Superimposed on the destructions and pillaging of the war is the shadow of the loss of raw materials in the East Indies. And the loss of the great prewar market next door in Germany.

Horse-And-Buggy Days Over In Paris As Cars Snarl Main Boulevards

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS—Paris is trading in its wartime bike for the less arduous automobile. The throngs of furiously peddling cyclists that skimmed its broad avenues during the war years thin daily as increasing numbers of motor cars appear. Traffic snarls, almost equal to those of pre-war days, occur at peak transportation hours.

While bicycles and horse-drawn vehicles are still much in evidence, motorists are returning in ever-growing numbers. They tangle with slower-moving vehicles that simply can't get out of the way.

It's something of a risk to own and run a car in Paris right now. Recently a correspondent, returning from Germany, left his car outside his hotel for exactly 15 minutes. On returning he found the door had been wrenched open and all his kit stolen.

There's a flourishing black market in spare parts, as there is in gasoline. Spare wheels or easily removable gadgets are whisked off almost while the driver's back is turned. A spare wheel will bring $300 a sweet profit for a few minutes' work plus a bit of risk.

Work In Gang
Automobile thieving here has developed into a highly specialized racket. Car thefts reported to the police now average 225 monthly. The thieves work in well organized gangs. Reports of their exploits contain all the ingredients for a good gangster thriller.

But trailing and catching the actual thieves is not the only problem confronting Paris police. They must also track down the not-particular garage owners who take cars for complete camouflage or overnight repaint jobs on a no-questions-asked basis.

Another racket the police here are trying to crack is the traffic in fraudulent auto licenses or licenses obtained by graft. Hundreds of people are driving cars with illegally obtained papers. If the papers are forged, the penalty may be a heavy prison sentence. Most of the offenders are caught outside luxury restaurants or Monmartre nightclubs. During the last three months, in the Paris region alone, more than 100 vehicles have been confiscated, 80 drivers arrested and 300 licenses cancelled.

BANDITS PUT VICTIM ON HONOR NOT TO TELL

SALT LAKE CITY — (P)— Two bandits who kidnapped 63-year-old Jake Beckel and stole his car after stranding him in the mountains put him on his honor not to call police.

The pair returned to Beckel his bowling ball and shoes and told him the car could be found in good shape, in Las Vegas, Nev., in a few days.

Humble's Andrews Discovery Flows 32.4 BOPH, Natural, During Start Of Official RRC Completion Gauge

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 J. E. Parker, South Andrews County discovery for flowing production from the McKee section of the Simpson, middle Ordovician, produced 162 barrels of pipe line oil in five hours of flowing, natural, during first part of a 24-hour potential test for official completion.

The oil was from perforations in 7-inch casing at 8,700-50 feet. Testing was through a one-half inch tubing choke.

Pressures Reported
Tubing pressure ranged from 750 pounds to 120 pounds, and casing pressure was between 900 pounds and 720 pounds. Operator was continuing to flow the well Saturday to complete the day-long test.

The project is 660 feet from north and 1,380 feet from east lines of section 21, block 4-A, psi survey, and is one-quarter of a mile south and same distance west of Sun Oil Company No. 1 Martin, which found flowing production in the lower Permian several months ago.

Average oil yield during the five hours was 32.4 barrels per hour, and if that rate were to continue for the full 24 hours the well would show for 777.6 barrels per day, natural.

Standard Oil & Gas Company has acquired leases on 1,840 acres in East-Central Midland County for a consideration unofficially reported as high as $15.00 per acre cash, on some of the tracts, and with annual rentals of $3.00 per acre. The deals were on 10-year commercial basis.

Midland County Deals
Included were section 12 in block 38, TP survey, T-3-S; section 34, block 38, TP survey, T-2-S; west half of section 22, block 38, TP survey, T-2-S; the F. Spearman pre-emption, the F. V. Allen pre-emption, the J. H. Andrews pre-emption, and the east 30 acres of the J. A. Andrews pre-emption.

Owners of the tracts included in the deals are William Bryant, Lula Elkin, and A. Estes.
The nearest lease is about three miles west of the Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Buchanan, completed during the week for a daily flowing production of 270 barrels of oil, plus 10.6 per cent water, from 10,370-380 feet.

The Texas Company filed application with the Railroad Commission to drill No. 30 W. E. Connell, as an outpost to production on the northwest side of the Connell field, in Southwest Ector County.

The test will be 1,194 feet from west and 330 feet from north lines of southwest quarter of section 12, block B-16, psi survey. It is one-quarter of a mile north and same distance west of closest production. It will drill to the Connell field pay round 3,400 feet, starting at once.

Gets San Andres Shows
Placid Oil Company (H. L. Hunt), and Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Thornberry, another wildcat in South Andrews County, was due to run 9 5/8-inch casing to about 4,600 feet, in San Andres-Permian, to protect oil saturated sections between 4,905 feet and the 4,600-foot level, before drilling ahead to 9,000 feet, and possibly deeper, to test for pay in the Ordovician.

This exploration is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 5, block A-42, psi survey, and is some distance west of the closest producing area from the San Andres.

The Texas Company No. 29 Connell, Southwest Ector County prospect in section 9, block B-16, psi survey, had reached 8,228 feet, in the Silurian lime and chert, and was slated to run a drillstem test over the weekend.

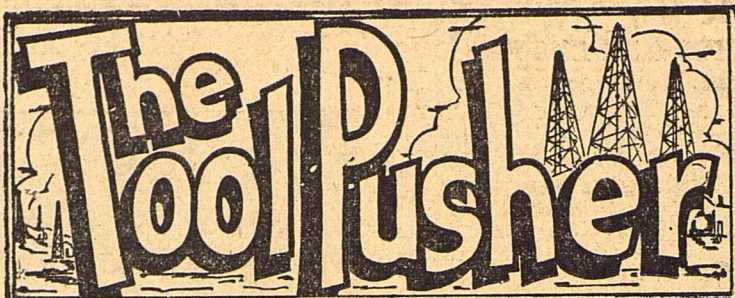

Operator representatives said no noticeable indications of production had been indicated in the formation—and that the test was mainly for checking purposes.

More Simpson Shows
Texaco No. 1 Thomas, in northwest corner of east half of section 8, block 45, TP survey, T-1-S, one location east of initial Ellenburger producer in the TXL area of West Ector, was to cut a core from 9,309 feet, in the Wadell horizon of the lower Simpson, when it was due to run a drillstem test.

A core at 9,294-9,309 feet, recovered 15 feet of brown, limey sand, showing signs of oil. The material was tight. Operator is hoping to encounter a more porous zone in the formation.

Humble No. 1-B Humble fee, South Gaines County development, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east of section 8, block A-24, psi survey, one location north and same distance west of discovery well for Clear Fork production in the Doss field, cored from 7,045 feet to 7,077 feet, and recovered considerable oil-bearing lime. The project was coring ahead.

INDEPENDENT PLEASED

BY SUMAN SPEECH

—C. V. (Cap) Lyman, Midland oil operator who attended the annual directors' meeting of the Texas Midcontinent Petroleum Association in Fort Worth Friday, is rather "pepped-up" over the speech of John R. Suman, of New York, a vice president and director of Standard Oil Company (N.J.).

—Suman, a former executive of the Humble Oil & Refining Company, was regarded as the keynote at Fort Worth. His address was construed as a sort of a platform for the operation of the importing companies for the immediate future.

—Suman declared, Lyman reports, that imports of petroleum should be used to supplement, and not replace domestic oils. The Standard representative asserted the domestic industry must remain "strong and virile, for a healthy domestic industry is our best possible insurance against future, and sudden military demands for oil."

—The Texas Midcontinent Association's annual award to the independent who has given the most outstanding service to the industry during last year, was given to Judge J. C. Hunter, of Abilene. Hunter was not present—as he is ill in a hospital in Altoona, Pa.

—Joe H. Russell, of Houston, a vice president of Gulf Oil Corporation, received the award of the year for major company executives in Texas, who made the greatest contribution to the industry.

—Lyman, Lester Grant, and A. N. Hendrickson, all of Midland, were named new directors of the TM-CO&GA.

ALL IS CONFUSION ABOUT HOLIDAY

—Some oil company executives and employees in Midland will work all day Monday—some will work in the morning, and have a holiday in the afternoon—and some will not report for duty at all.

—At least that was the status in the oil industry at noon Saturday, with regard to observance of Armistice Day.

—A few offices will be closed all day, several were to close half a day, and unless orders are changed, a majority of the offices will be open all day.

WILLIS TO SPEAK TO GEOLOGISTS TUESDAY
—Dr. Bailey Willis, emeritus professor at Stanford University, and one of the foremost authorities on structural geology in America, will address the West Texas Geological Society at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the District Courtroom in Midland.

—Willis' address will deal with revised geological theories regarding the structure of the earth.

—He has written a number of textbooks which are standard in geological courses and his appearance here is under the auspices of the Distinguished Lecture Committee of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

BASIN WELL REPRESENTED AT NOSALA ASSOCIATION

—The Permian Basin area was well represented at a meeting of officers of the National Oil Scouts and Landmen's Association in Austin, Nov. 3.

—Among those from this area who attended were Joe R. Sims, of Stanclind Oil & Gas Company; Fred Goodman of Magnolia Petroleum Company; Jack Lively of Standard Oil Company of Texas; and W. M. (Dub) Fitzgerald of American Trading & Production Corporation, all of Midland; Earl Dietering, of George P. Livermore, Inc., of Lubbock, and R. M. Knoepfel, of The Atlantic Refining Company, of Carlsbad, N. M.

—Plans for intensifying the work of the national association were discussed and it was decided to hold the 1946 annual convention at Jackson, Miss., May 16, 17, and 18. H. F.

(Tax) King, of the Continental Oil Company, of Ardmore, Okla., president of the organization, was in charge of the Austin meeting.

DALTON COBB IS UP AFTER OPERATION

—Dalton H. Cobb, scout in The Texas Company's Midland land department, is up and around after recently undergoing an emergency appendectomy.

—He will be able to be at work soon, Earle W. Statton, Texas district landman, reports.

HARWIT IS NEW SCOUT FOR THE TEXAS COMPANY

—Ben Harwit is a new scout for the Midland office of The Texas Company. He will work with Dalton H. Cobb and Thomas J. Murphy, Jr., and try to help them get all of their assignments completed.

—Harwit was transferred to Midland from the company's division office in Fort Worth. He has been with the concern a number of years.

—Soon after reaching Midland, Harwit inserted a "house wanted" ad in The Reporter-Telegram, to turn three days. He made a trade to rent a place to live the first day the ad ran. He was elated.

J. W. HUNT BACK FROM ARMY SERVICE

—J. W. (Wilmont) Hunt, a landman with the Midland office of The Texas Company, prior to going into the Army in 1942, has been released, and is temporarily assigned to the company's district office in Wichita Falls.

—He served as a lieutenant with the Third Army in the ETO.

ARCHIE ESTES RETURNS TO STANOTEX JOB

—Archie Estes is back with Standard Oil Company of Texas after serving during the war in Army Air Forces.

W. W. BEATTY HAS RETURNED TO UNION

—Woodrow W. Beatty, who entered the Army in June, 1942, and served with the Eighth Air Forces in the ETO 25 months, is back on his job at Union Oil Company of California.

GEORGE SHELTON, JR. HOME FROM PACIFIC

—George M. Shelton, Jr., son of George M. Shelton, Midland oil operator, and Mrs. Shelton, is out of the Army Air Forces, and back in Midland, after being in service since January, 1941, including a year in China.

New Pays Found By Two Lea County Tests; Another Has Possibilities

HOBBS, N. M.—A four-mile north extension for the Andrews-lower Permian producing zone, in the Paddock-Drinkard area of Southeast Lea County, New Mexico—or a new discovery from that zone—has been proven by Neville G. Penrose, Inc., No. 1 L. B. Jones at center of southwest quarter of southwest quarter of section 6-22s-38e.

This project missed the pay in the regular Paddock horizon, the Holt section of the middle Permian. It drilled ahead to 7,205 feet, and cemented 7-inch casing on bottom. The pipe was drilled out to 7,165 feet, and perforated at 7,040-7,160 feet. It was swabbed and kicked off and flowed at the rate of 10 barrels of oil per hour natural.

Operator treated perforated section with 2,000 gallons of acid, and flowed the well to pits to cleanout and then turned it to tanks—and in 200 minutes it flowed 116 barrels of 38 gravity oil—for an average production of around 35 barrels per hour. The new well was continuing to test at the end of the week.

Another discovery has been indicated in Southeast Lea County by Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1-B State, located in section 16-23s-37e, and in the Penrose-Skelly shallow field.

It drilled to a total depth of 5,075 feet, in middle Permian lime. Casing was cemented on bottom, and it was then drilled out to 5,068 feet, and was perforated with 48 shots at 5,058-65 feet.

After perforating, well was swabbed, and made 36 barrels of oil in 12 hours. At last report the operator was trying to recover a stuck packer, so the section at 5,015-58 feet, could be perforated and tested, along with the zone below, which had already shown production.

Carl B. King Drilling Company et al. No. 1 Santa Fe, extreme Northeast Lea County wildcat, in northwest quarter of section 29-9s-37e, was reported on a total depth of 4,965 feet, in San Andres dolomite, and was scheduled to swab to test.

Oil Signs in Core
The project core at 4,945-65 feet, and recovered eight feet of dolomite.

A Dry Wildcat
Olsen-Blount Drilling Company No. 1 Caprock-State, in section 29-11s-32e, in extreme Northwest Lea County, has been plugged and abandoned as a dry hole on total depth of 5,155 feet, in time.

After being dry at the bottom, it plugged back and tested in the San Andres, but failed to develop any possibilities of production.

Continental No. 1 Mullins, South Chaves County wildcat in section 21-15s-29e, had drilled below 4,036 feet, in time, and was going ahead.

Frank Phillips Says
Oil Companies Will
Cushion ReconversionBARTLESVILLE, OKLA. —(AP)—
The giant oil industry generally will be able to cushion the reconversion shock and retain its employees, Frank Phillips, head of the Phillips Petroleum Company, believes.Only possible stumbling blocks,
Phillips, one of the recognized leaders in the oil industry, said in an interview, would be "interruptions of operations, strikes and other major differences between labor and management.""Any reductions in needs for workers created by the shift from war to peacetime production probably can be compensated by the return to shorter working schedules," he continued."This assumes, of course, that all employee-veterans who should desire will be reinstated."Reconversion, Phillips believes, will not be hard for plants devoted to turning out high octane gasoline for airplanes during the war."Some of the high octane fuel plants in this country," he said,
"will continue in operation with suitable revisions to fit them into the motor fuel economy.""A few will probably continue to manufacture high octane aviation fuel."Few Changes To Synthetics
"It is doubtful if many will be converted to production of specialized synthetic materials since their capacities are disproportionately large.""A more likely development is that synthetic production will help support their continued operation on motor and aviation fuels.""The synthetic materials thus attainable run the entire gamut of organic chemicals."A trend toward postwar construction of marketing facilities for the industry was foreseen by Phillips."During the war period, production, manufacturing and transportation facilities were greatly expanded and all construction of distribution facilities was deferred," he explained."Consequently, there will be proportionately less of the former types of buildings and facilities constructed in the immediate postwar years and greater emphasis will be placed on marketing and distribution facilities.""Also, office and research buildings will need to be built to accommodate growth during the past four or five years."U. S. Bureau Of Mines

Our Pledge on Armistice Day

★ We, who faced the sacrifice and sufferings of war, now head into Peace with the same high courage. We have only to think of our martyred dead and their bereaved, we have only to be reminded of the single-hearted purpose for which these heroes bled. Victory has but deepened our responsibilities. Out of this memory of war's anguish and in a renewed declaration of our faith and pride in the World Peace for which all America fought, emerges our Pledge for this Armistice Day of 1945.

We pledge to Peace and to its principles, the same fervent devotion which fired our war aims.

We pledge continued dedication to our democracy and its preservation in Peace as in War . . . no matter how great the struggle.We pledge an unwavering vigilance against any possible forces of aggression and oppression, both at home and abroad.We pledge to Peace a fulfillment of the promises made in war . . . a safe, sound America where man can live in dignity . . . free from fear and want.We pledge to work and build as we never worked and built before, that Civilization may rise to new heights of glory.We pledge to invest in permanent World Peace by buying Victory
Bonds . . . regularly, gladly.

Study Shows Athletes Are Better Students

MIDDLETOWN, CON. —(AP)— Prof. Hugh G. McGurdy of Wesleyan

is so stimulating to the brains. That's a fact, and so is it a fact that Wesleyan, a member of the "Little Three" with Amherst and Williams, has a fine athletic record.

Managers and farmer-members of local electric co-ops from Texas, New Mexico and Arizona will attend. The statewide sessions will be held Nov. 27, and the regional meeting Nov. 28.

Problems of "area coverage," post-war uses of electricity on the farm, rural telephones, frozen food possibilities, and similar topics will be discussed, said G. W. Haggard of Austin, manager of the Texas Power Association of Rural Electric Co-ops.

The best marks are turned in by the cross-country and soccer boys, with golf, swimming, tennis, track, football, baseball, basketball and wrestling not too far behind.

Marriage Vows Repeated By Dorothy Sinex And Dan Edward Holland In Candlelight Ceremony At First Christian Church

In a candlelight ceremony performed at 4 p. m. Saturday at the First Christian Church, Miss Dorothy Sinex, daughter of Mrs. Alva Sinex, of Fort Worth, became the bride of Dan Edward Holland of Midland.

The Rev. Clyde Lindsley, minister, directed the rites for the double ring ceremony.

Decorating the altar were two large baskets of white chrysanthemums. Soft illumination was added to tall candelabra. Preceding the ceremony, the tapers were lighted by Rex L. McFall.

A bouquet of white chrysanthemums was placed on the piano. Wedding music was by Mrs. E. Yates Brown who presented traditional selections including "I Love You Truly," "Because," "Bridal March" from Lohengrin, "Meditation" and "Wedding March."

The bride was attired in an aqua wool suit designed along winged silhouette lines. The jacket was self-scruffed from shoulder to waist and across the back at the waist. She wore a fuchsia blouse, white gloves and other accessories of navy blue. Completing her attire was a white orchid corsage.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Joseph L. Renard, who chose a soft blue wool dressmaker suit. She wore a white blouse, accessories of black, and white gloves. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. E. J. Holland, mothers of the bride couple, wore gardenia corsages.

Rev. Harry Moffitt, pastor of the University Presbyterian Church, read the double ring ceremony before an altar arrangement of white chrysanthemums. Gleaming white cathedral tapers in floor standards provided soft illumination to the altar setting.

Mrs. Foy Proctor of Midland sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by Arthur Yeager, also of Midland. She wore a cocoa brown crepe afternoon dress, a small green feather hat and dark brown accessories. Her bridal bouquet was of tulle and roses.

If that's what you've been missing and mourning, thank the government ruling, M-3888, which grants priorities on fabrics for making so-called "essential" clothes with the idea of channeling more materials into the hands of producers of low-priced women's fashions.

Proof that these "fashions for everybody" are right up front in style is offered in the three dresses shown. These excellent examples were hand-picked from a parade of 110 priority fashions created by the New York markets and shown in a recent revue.

The bare-shouldered gown, left, of shocking pink jersey with a Grecian drape skirt and a strap lit up by silver-bead embroidery has all the high style of a custom-made model.

The one-piece black crepe dress, center, which yields half of its bodice to blue crepe, strikingly banded with crepe, is a style slant that's typical of fall 1945 fashion favorites.

The youthful green, red and gold plaid wool dress, right, with a scooped-out peasant neckline, miniature puff sleeves and gold buttons and belt will be a style leader on many a campus this fall.

Relates Experiences Where Nazis Tried To Recruit American Fliers

DOUGLAS ARMY AIR FIELD—The Nazis actually had the audacity to try and recruit men for their army from among the American prisoners of war by promising them better food and privileges," asserted Lt. Clyde H. Pate in an interview recently. The officer, a resident of Midland, Texas, was released on April 29 after nine and one-half months confinement in German prisoner of war camps. He wears the ETO ribbon with three Bronze Stars and the Air Medal for his part in the air offensive campaign in Italy and Germany. Lieutenant Pate was promoted to first lieutenant shortly after being assigned here to Douglas Army Air Base.

Lieutenant Pate entered the Army in May of 1942 as a flying cadet and received his wings at Stockton Field, Calif., in August of 1943. He completed his B-17 transition training at Hobbs, N. M., Alexandria, La., and Langley Field, Va., before going overseas to Italy in the spring of 1944. While returning from their tenth mission on July 2, 1944, Lieutenant Pate and his crew (10 men in all) were shot down in their B-17 after having successfully bombed the oil refineries near Budapest. Croats shot and killed the co-pilot as he parachuted to earth, but Lieutenant Pate and seven others of his crew landed safely and were immediately taken prisoner of war.

Thus began an almost unbelievable trek for the prisoners. From Sarajevo they went to Budapest. They then went through Vienna, Breslau, and thence to a Stalag Luft in Germany.

Due to the rapid advance across Poland by the Russians, the Germans decided to move the prisoners further west. Accordingly on January 27, despite a foot of snow and sub-zero weather, the inmates of the camp, with meager belongings, were forced to march to Spremberg.

"It was during this march from Sagan," Lieutenant Pate said, "that the Nazis used stump speeches and propaganda, delivered with typical German arrogance, attempted to enlist Americans in their armed forces."

The Americans were sifted about further in Germany and at one time at Nuremberg were located one and one-half miles from an Allied major air target. One bomb landed within 150 yards of Pate, but fortunately very few United Nations prisoners were injured.

On April 29, 1945, nine days after arriving in Moosberg, Lieutenant Pate and his comrades were liberated by the Third Army. And the lieutenant was with the first group to be returned to the States.

His wife is the former Miss Freddie Lou Barber. She and their two children, a daughter, Joanna, four, and a son, Walter Fred, nine months, are living in their home at 306 South E St.

Sugar Rationing May Last Through 1946

WASHINGTON — (AP) — There's little hope now that sugar rationing will end before 1947, Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has announced.

Rationing of butter, margarine, lard and shortening may have to continue into the spring, and possibly summer, of 1946, he added, but meat may go off the ration list early in 1946.

What's Back of My Gas Burners?

A thousand years ago, the Chinese used natural gas fuel for evaporating salt brine. They transported the gas in bamboo tubes. Thus, in those days, the gas business was simple. Now, however, it has become complicated and technical, utilizing many scientific devices and processes.

Since natural gas service so vitally affects your daily life, we believe you would enjoy knowing more about it. Therefore, we plan to publish a series of four advertisements which will attempt to explain how natural gas is brought from its deep-underground reservoir to the burners of your gas appliances. Due to space limitation, the story must be brief and over-simplified. The drawing at the left will help you follow the gas on its travels.

Most of our gas comes from Hutchinson, Moore, Carson and Potter Counties in the Panhandle Gas Field, one of the largest in the world. We purchase some gas in Ector County for use in the southern portion of our system. In the Panhandle Field gas wells are generally drilled by the "rotary" method, so named because of the rotating motion of the drill bit. A modern rotary drilling outfit costs from $100,000 to $200,000.

The hard steel drill bit is the cutting tool which drills down through successive strata of shale and rock. Screwed to the top of the bit is a string of hollow, round drill pipe which in turn is screwed into the bottom of a hollow, square pipe known as a "Kelly." The Kelly works through a square hole in the rotary turntable. Thus, when the engines spin the turntable, the Kelly, the drill pipe and the bit also spin, and the bit cuts its way downward. Heavy pumps force drilling mud down through the hollow Kelly and drill pipe, through perforations in the bit, then outside the pipe and back to the surface, carrying with it the cuttings from the bit.

As the bit moves downward, additional joints of drill pipe are added below the Kelly.

When the gas producing horizon is reached, a string of steel pipe, known as casing, is inserted in the hole from the surface of the ground to the top of the producing horizon. After running the casing, cement is run through the casing and forced out around the bottom in order to prevent the gas from escaping around the outside of the pipe. Then the well is drilled into the gas-producing horizon.

A steel derrick, capable of supporting weights of 200 tons or more, is used to support the drill pipe during drilling and the casing when casing is being installed. When the well is completed, the derrick is removed. In its place is installed a "Christmas Tree," an odd-looking assembly of valves and fittings necessary in producing, testing and maintaining the well.

EXPLANATION: 1—Drilling derrick. 2—Christmas tree. 3—Meter House. 4—Field gathering line. 5—Field compressor station. 6—Absorption tower at gasoline plant. 7—High-pressure main transmission line. 8—Town border station. 9—Intermediate pressure line. 10—District regulator station. 11—Low-pressure line. 12—Gas meter. 13—Your yard and house piping.

Volunteer Women Workers Program Inactivated

The Volunteer Utilization Section of the Personnel Affairs Branch of the Army Air Force was inactivated Nov. 1, according to announcement released by the Army Air Force Headquarters, Washington.

A local unit of volunteer workers was organized at Midland Army Air Field March 17 as an additional function of the MAAF Ladies Club. Since that time this group has taken part in many activities of the field.

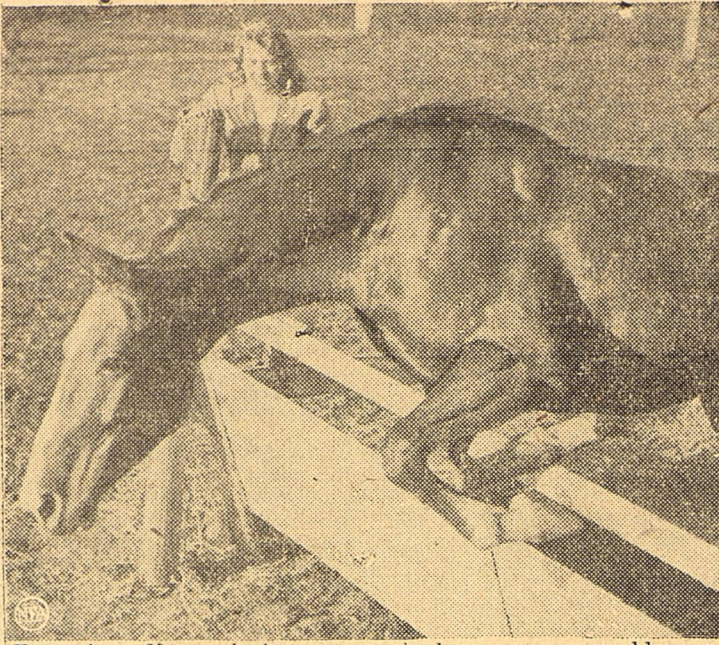

Volunteers have given many hours of time to maintain booths for the collection of funds in Red Cross and War Loan drives. They have assisted in solving housing problems for military personnel assigned to MAAF and have given aid to families of war casualties. They have been called upon to furnish office workers to various departments on the field when additional help was needed to tide over an emergency.

A day nursery was opened in the hospital through the sponsorship of the Ladies Club in March and was in operation until Sept. 8 when its continued operation became impractical due to changing conditions on the field. The group has furnished much equipment to make more comfortable and attractive the maternity ward at the hospital and the nursery connected with the ward.

These women also aided in the convalescent training program at the hospital and have worked with the Red Cross to furnish equipment for rehabilitation classes. Gen. H. H. Arnold, commanding general of the AAF, has expressed his appreciation of the services performed by the volunteer organizations throughout the country.

'Catoico' Favorites Of '46 Are Elected

In elections Friday, sponsored by the "Catoico" staff, the most representative girl and boy, most popular boy and girl, and class favorites were chosen by popular vote. Alma Faye Cowden and Wilbur Yeager were elected most popular girl and boy in Midland High School, and Ann Cleveland and Wilbur Yeager were elected most representative girl and boy. Class favorites are: Bitsy Vertrees, senior; Alma Faye Cowden, junior; Maurice Cox, sophomore; and Goss Yeager, freshman.

Who's Who - Audie

Audie Merrill, blonde-haired, blue-eyed, 5 foot 8 inch senior, was born Dec. 26, 1928, and has lived in Midland since that time. She is taking senior English, bookkeeping, shorthand, biology, band, and works as Miss Pyle's assistant in the office at fifth period.

As for teachers, she thinks Miss Margaret Stuart is tops. She is president of the band, in which she has played a cornet for four years. She serves as secretary of the Typing Club.

Her cornet takes up a lot of her time; especially she likes playing the blues. (And by the way, if you have never heard Audie play that horn of hers, you have really missed something.) She has a collection of records, and "Rhapsody in Blue," "Stardust," and "Don't Fence Me In" are played the most.

Audie plans to attend McMurry College, majoring in business and minoring in music.

New Stores Are Built Near MHS

The familiar cry, "You goin' down town?" is slowly but surely becoming a thing of the past around M. H. S. Why? Because the business district is moving to us. With the addition of the new drug store east of the school, buildings in front of us, and others contemplated, Midland High promises some day to be in the heart of "downtown Midland."

Bulldogs Meet Lobos Friday On Local Field

The Bulldogs play the Cisco Lobos Friday night in a non-district contest. The Midlanders have had a two-week rest following the Bobcat battle in which they all but licked the last year's semi-finalists and stubbornly held the Concho boys to a 13-7 margin.

The only comparison between the Bulldogs and Lobos is that they both beat Big Spring. Midland triumphed 9-6, Cisco 12-0.

Here are the latest statistics on the Bulldogs who have won one game and lost six this season:

| Midland     | First Downs          | Opponents  |
|-------------|----------------------|------------|
| 933         | Yards Gained Rushing | 1853       |

| 46 for 1536 |                      | 30 for 939 |

Following is the scoring so far by the Bulldogs: touchdowns, safeties, and points after touchdowns.

Post War Education

Maybe it was no accident that Armistice Day and the beginning of National Education Week fall on the same day.

Twenty-five years ago Sunday America began to observe the second week in November as National Education Week. In 1921, after World War I, an Education Week was begun to help combat illiteracy and physical unfitness found. Now that the World War II is over the theme "Education to Promote the General Welfare" is fitting. The Allies won because we used a lot of energy, sacrifice, and money—and we must be willing to win the peace the same way. Need for education is greater than ever before.

Postwar America must provide education for all, to overcome the educational deficit the war caused, to provide employment, to lay a basis for understanding, and generally to raise civilian education. Let us never forget that education for humanity is one of the reasons we celebrate this Armistice Day.

Radio Plays Will Carry Theme Of Education Week

Midland High School will observe this week, November 11-17, the twenty-fifth anniversary of National Education Week.

One purpose of American Education Week is to urge people to visit the schools, see them in action, find out first hand what the schools are doing, learn about inadequacies and do something about them. Another purpose is to show the power of education—how education can be used as a force to end wars and secure peace.

Since 1921 American Education Week has been set aside to celebrate the ideals of free public education and to interpret education to the people.

The general theme, Education to Promote the General Welfare, will be carried on in Midland High School under the seven daily topics, November 11, Emphasizing Spiritual Values; November 12, Finishing the War; November 13, Securing the Peace; November 14, Improving Economic Well-Being; November 15, Strengthening Home Life; November 16, Developing Good Citizens; November 17, Building Sound Health.

Three student radio broadcasts under the direction of Miss Verna Harris will be presented over KCRS during the week. These 41/2-minute plays are on Strengthening Home Life, Improving Economic Well-Being, and Securing the Peace.

Teacher Possesses Supernatural Power — Miss Minnie Jackson, Spanish teacher, must be kin to the famous genius in "Thousand and One Nights."

She demonstrated her supernatural powers in fifth period class last week. The distracting sounds from the tractor across the street made her want to pull her hair out.

The internal machine had been running all afternoon. Then she uttered the magic words, "I wish something would happen to that tractor!" No sooner said than done. Smoke rose from the engine and it did not run again all day.

So fans on the west side of the field may better appreciate the Midland yells and music from the Bulldog Band, students will be seated in sections P and Q on the south end of the east grand stand for the remainder of the season.

Principal Harlan Howell points out that the new Midland seats extend to the 35-yard line instead of to the 30 as did the old student section in the northwestern part of the stadium.

Major Debnam, Who Fed France, Will Become Man Who Fed Defeated Nazis

Every day the French, under German occupation, said: "Oh, God, why don't the Americans come?" "My God, they're here!" said the French after D-Day.

This humorous comparison recently was given by Major Steve Debnam of Midland, who, on a visit here, addressed the Midland Rotary Club.

Debnam, an economist, is returning to Germany Dec. 2 as a member of American Military Government. He is internationally known as "the man who fed the French."

An article describing how Debnam, a former county agent of Midland County, set up a system to feed France when the Americans entered, appeared in Reader's Digest.

Soon he may become known as "the man who fed the de-Nazified Germans, as he will be assigned the same type of work in Germany as he performed so well in France. Understandably, the problem of transportation and food which conquered Germany is up against him. He established a food office in the Bavarian section of Germany and it was confronted with many ups and downs in dealing with displaced personnel (freed prisoners formerly under Germany's rule) as well as the at-home Germans.

Debnam knows the German will be hungry this winter. The German government knows it and so does the American Military Government, which is charged with establishing some system of rule and subsistence in the Reich.

Fed School Children

Major Debnam relates an interesting account of how he went deep into Germany to establish a system of feeding 45,000 school children in an area where four millions of German troops were quartered. The Germans saw that the American was well guarded for his mission of mercy.

"It was a sort of don't bite the hand which feeds you," he explained.

America will implement the German economic system in every instance it can as well as set up any new phases needed, according to Debnam. The Americans will administer and control and de-Nazify. The Midland officer will fly back to Germany after his visit here.

THE BULLDOG

Mrs. Magee Speaks With Son In Rome

Mrs. Elsie Magee received a long distance call Friday, Nov. 2, from her son, Lt. William T. Magee, who was in Rome, Italy, on leave. He is now stationed in Southern Austria with the 42nd Division of the Army of Occupation.

Mrs. Magee was notified at 3 p. m. that the call had been placed but connection was not established until 6 p. m.

This was the first time Mrs. Magee has heard her son's voice in a year.

The major already has experienced the problem of transportation and food which conquered Germany is up against him. He established a food office in the Bavarian section of Germany and it was confronted with many ups and downs in dealing with displaced personnel (freed prisoners formerly under Germany's rule) as well as the at-home Germans.

Major Debnam relates an interesting account of how he went deep into Germany to establish a system of feeding 45,000 school children in an area where four millions of German troops were quartered. The Germans saw that the American was well guarded for his mission of mercy.

"It was a sort of don't bite the hand which feeds you," he explained.

America will implement the German economic system in every instance it can as well as set up any new phases needed, according to Debnam. The Americans will administer and control and de-Nazify. The Midland officer will fly back to Germany after his visit here.

Served On Charger And Independence

After service on the U. S. S. Charger and U. S. S. Independence with the U. S. Navy, Allen Dee Hall, seaman first class, of Midland, has been honorably discharged.

Hall, who lives at 407 S. Fort Worth St., was a printer before entering the Navy.

He earned the Victory Medal, Philippine Liberation two Stars, American Theater Ribbon, and Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with eight Stars.

City Organizations To Help Seal Drive

Several organizations in the city are assisting the Midland County Tuberculosis Association in preparation for its annual Christmas Seal Sale.

Troop Eight of Midland Girl Scouts has been working several hours daily after school folding sheets of Seals preparatory to mailing.

Other organizations assisting include West Side Home Demonstration Club, Tuesday Sewing Club, Carver School children and negro kindergarten sponsors.

Civics Class Studies Passage Of Bill

"Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill pertaining to peacetime conscription be passed."

"Mr. Speaker, I move we pass the Surplus Property Bill proposed by the representative from Rhode Island."

No, the House of Representatives has not moved to the third floor of Midland High School. It is only Miss Josephine Weaver's Civics class learning how to pass a bill.

The class, with the use of imagination, turns itself in the twinkling of an eye from the House to the Committee of Foreign Affairs, back to the House and then into a Committee of the Whole.

Next week the class is to be the Senate and "filibuster" a bill.

Small Talk

Monday—Many students (?) went from class to class with an—"I'm-not-quite-all-here"—expression on their faces. They must have had their usual weekend.

Tuesday—Swoon! That Kentucky guy really knocked us for a loop. Maybe he should have worn shoes. Wednesday—Seniors were busy today reading the first and last chapters of their books. You don't really think they read the whole book, do you, teacher?

Thursday—The "mere children" of Junior High invaded the high school again blocking the doorway this afternoon. Tough little rascals, aren't they?

Friday—Hm-mm! What we heard in assembly! Our first holiday at last was announced.
