Clothing Collection Points and Committees Named

Final plans were drafted Monday evening at the American Legion Hall for conducting the Victory Clothing Collection in Ochiltree county Jan. 7-31, according to A. N. Dowers, post commander, and Mrs. S. L. Brillhart, Auxiliary president. Committees were appointed by both groups to aid in the handling of clothing obtained and collecting points were designated.

The following places were named as collecting points and the public is being urged to bring their contributions there where they will be collected by members of the Legion collecting committee: City Hall, any church, or to the Stewart Printing Company in the event the City Hall is closed. A program will be worked out whereby school children may bring clothes to the school house for pooling, it was said.

Committees appointed by Mr. Dowers were as follows: Mark Boehning, collection superintendent; Morris M. Payne, publicity director; E. W. Thomas, educational director; A. P. Spicer, reporting secretary; Roy Orrill, clothing security officer.

Named to aid Mr. Boehning in making collections were Ernest Gyger, Robert Barlow, Arch Talley, Walter LaMaster, Sidney Jines, Oliver Graves, Elmer Harryman and Knute Dowers. On the committee appointed by Mrs. Brillhart to aid as Auxiliary representatives in the drive were Mesdames A. S. Brillhart, chairman, Carl Sword, Bud Barnes, Jack Allen, O. P. Graves, Ernest Gyger.

During last year's collection approximately 3,600 pounds of clothing was obtained for overseas relief. It is hoped that this amount can be doubled during the current collection.

Clothing is vitally necessary to combat epidemics in Europe, China and the Philippines according to cabled advice from relief workers in all liberated areas, Mr. Dowers said.

The nation-wide clothing drive for overseas relief is being conducted on behalf of UNRRA (the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration) from Jan. 7-31. President Truman said the campaign is imperative and called on Henry J. Kaiser, West Coast industrialist, to be its national chairman.

Cities, the reports state, have been suffering serious epidemics of pulmonary tuberculosis, bacillary dysentery, typhoid fever, diphtheria, pneumonia, scabies and various skin diseases caused by exposure and malnutrition.

In France where the war left two million people homeless, the infant death rate has climbed to 75 per cent of the country's birth rate. The bombed-out people of Holland are living in chicken runs and leaky shacks, and are suffering from skin ailments. From Greece come letters of thousands living in mountain caves.

All in all it is hoped by local sponsors of the Victory Clothing Collection that Ochiltree county citizens will go all out in an effort to, in some measure, alleviate this untold suffering.

Call of Dec. 31, 1945 Found $8,338,465.39 on Deposit; One-Third Increase is Shown Perryton's two banks closed the year with $8,338,465.39 on deposit or an increase of $2,315,033.60 over Dec. 30, 1944. This was an increase of approximately one-third over last year, which was an all-time high in deposits for this county. According to the statements of the two banks prepared at the call of the treasury Dec. 31, this also compared most favorably with total deposits of $8,193,718.16 at the June 30 call. The First National Bank reported deposits of $6,181,721.22 and the Perryton National Bank reported deposits of $2,156,744.13.

In the statement of the First National Bank, published this week, resources showed a similar increase, going from $4,576,310.37 in 1945 to $6,330,452.19, or an increase of $1,754,141.82.

Total loans of the First National showed considerable decrease with $549,187.13 shown as compared with $665,451.48 regular loans. However, at the close of business in 1944 total loans included an additional $2,192,057.05 in CCC loans.

The Perryton National Bank's statement will be published in next week's Herald.

Home Demonstration Summary In Ochiltree County Given by H. D. Agent During Past Year

During the past year, according to Virdie P. Wheeler, County Home Demonstration Agent, extension work went forward in training schools, through cooperative purchasing of fruit, in a program of production and sanitation, culminating in Dairy Day, and in Achievement days in two of the clubs, namely, Lonetree and Black. There were 93 demonstrations given to about 900 women. These included demonstrations on clothing, food production, consumer education, improvements of home products to sell, and interior home improvement.

In January 1945, the home demonstration agent and county agent worked with the Perryton Chamber of Commerce, in having the county represented at Amarillo, in the first Industrial Exhibit ever to be held in this part of the state. Only three other agriculture counties in the State of Texas had this honor.

Mrs. Wheeler sponsored a training school, on food production and preparation, for club women and others in the county, at which time Miss Jennie Camp, Production Specialist, and Miss Edith Lawrence, Food Preparation Specialist both of College Station, brought to those who attended the latest information on food production and preparation.

The Perryton Chamber of Commerce gave $50 in prizes to winners in the Dairy Day contest at which time a program on sanitation and production was discussed.

Miss Myrtle Murray, Home Industries Specialist, gave a day and night of time to work in the county, on improvement and marketing eggs.

Mrs. O. C. Rogers, Mrs. J. A. Morris, Mrs. Albert Ackley, Mrs. Julius Pshigoda and Mrs. Harold Kershaw, as clothing demonstrators, gave an interesting account of their work in meeting the needs of their families through sewing, and purchasing, and through careful spending in order to have money to purchase savings bonds.

Food demonstrators who wrote interesting stories of their work were, Mrs. Carl Phillip, Mrs. Willis Hardy, and Mrs. H. N. Elledge. About 20 demonstrations were given by club women to other club members. The home agent planned with some of the women how to present a short demonstration, while other women figured out their own.

Four picnic tables were paid for from council funds of the county. County wide Recreation night was held in November with about 170 persons present. In conclusion, Mrs. Wheeler states that despite the fact that Ochiltree Club alone lost the McCarters, the Crouches, and the Grahams to Wheeler County, that the county as a whole has gained in members.

New members on the rolls of various clubs in the county are, Mrs. Martin McCartor, Mrs. Leon Brown, Mrs. Bob Kile, Mrs W. H. Bagley, Mrs. Sid L. Beck Jr., and Mrs. E. Deck, Mrs. O. C. Crane, Mrs. Dan Pierson, Mrs. Sam Powell, Mrs. W. A. Simmons, Mrs. Carl Scroogs, Mrs. George Graves, Mrs. Frank Gipson, Mrs. Herman Ball, and Mrs. Clyde Herring.

JUST HERE and THERE

What is America's largest industry? Agriculture, by far. It has an investment totaling $82 billion. Last year its gross income was approximately $28 billion. More than 65 per cent of our annual wealth comes from raw material produced by agriculture.

"Self-interest alone should impel local and national labor officials to leave management's functions to management."—The American Machinist.

At the end of the third week of the auto union's strike against General Motors, statisticians figured that the workers had lost a total of $23,884,432.00 in wages. The average auto worker had lost $152.40, at the average individual wage of $50.80 a week.

Ochiltree county exceeded its overall quota in the Victory Loan drive with total sales of $373,165.25 against an assigned quota of $265,000. The E bond quota was $195,000 and sales were $195,218.75, just over the top.

E, F and G Savings Bonds and Stamps will be on continuous sale although no organized drives as such will be made. The peace time set-up will be known as the U. S. Savings Bond Division of the United States Treasury.

Winter Wheat Outlook in Southwest

Forecasters now have two factors to use in speculating on the 1946 winter wheat crop—acreage and the condition in which the crop entered the winter, the latter somewhat unfavorable.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the total acreage seeded last fall is estimated at 51,940,000 acres, an increase of 3.6 per cent over the acreage planted for 1945.

Since the acreage is smaller than that of a year ago in the eastern half of the United States, the gain in Santa Fe states is such as to reflect the long standing importance of this territory as the greatest producer of winter wheat in the world.

Official figures recently announced, show that the winter wheat acreage in the Santa Fe states for 1946, is 36,991,000 acres, or 71.22 per cent of the country's total. This compares with 31,703,000 acres, or 68.67 per cent, for 1944, and 34,985,000 acres, or 69.80 per cent, for 1945.

Based on the acreage planted, the Department of Agriculture predicts for this year a winter wheat crop of 750,739,000 bushels, of which the Santa Fe's share is 455,474,000 bushels. This compares with 823,177,000 and 500,421,000 bushels, respectively, in 1945 and 758,930,000 and 462,624,000 bushels in 1944.

Although the seeded acreage is definitely fixed, being subject to only slight revision later on, the acreage that will go into harvest to spell production is a different matter. Right now, the crop in Santa Fe territory, taking 455,474,000 bushels as something to shoot at, has at least one strike against it and still must face the usual hazards of the dormant period.

After some delay, wheat generally was planted under favorable con-

Dave Shanks Announces For Reelection

County Judge Dave Shanks, now serving his sixth term, 12th year, in that capacity, authorized the Herald this week to place his name before the voters of Ochiltree county for reelection, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic primary to be held in July.

Judge Shanks, prior to the position he now holds, served with distinction for four years as mayor of Perryton during the years 1931-34 inclusive; and six terms, 12 year as Ochiltree county and district clerk. He was a school teacher before taking up a public office career, a field in which he has won wide recognition as a faithful and conscientious worker for the interests of the people whom he served.

He is well versed in Ochiltree county public affairs and in addition to his duties as county judge, also operates the Ochiltree County Abstract Company. He served as wartime chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter, a position which required untiring effort during those critical years to keep this important phase of home front activity on the productive scale required.

Ochiltree County Exceeds Final War Loan Sales Quota

Final figures on the Victory War Loan released January 5 by the United States Treasury, show that Ochiltree county exceeded it $265,000 over-all quota with total sales of $373,165.25. The most gratifying feature of the Ochiltree county sales was the final tabulation of Series "E" bond sales of $195,218.75 against an assigned quota of $195,000.

Judson S. James, Jr., executive manager of the War Finance Committee of Texas had the following to say concerning the Victory Loan:

"This last drive has been tough for everyone, but thanks to individuals, organizations and workers, Texas, on the final tabulation, made its Series E quota. Series E sales for the state were $92,399,838.70 or 103.7 percent of the quota. Over-all sales were 221.7 percent of the state quota."

It was pointed out that the E, F and G Savings Bonds and Stamps will still be on continuous sale although no organized drives will be made. Under the peace time set-up the program will be directed by what will be known as the U. S. Savings Bond Division.

Several days more will be required before the War Finance Committee of Texas can prepare for distribution the detailed sales report showing sales of all issue for all counties, however the final official figures for Series E and over-all sales are released at this time in order for the public to be informed immediately of the over-all results in the Victory Drive.

Loans Available For Financing 1946 Ochiltree Crop Production

Loans are now being made to finance 1946 crop production in Ochiltree County, according to Chas. C. Bishop, local Field Supervisor ofr the Dallas Emergency Crop Loan Office of the Farm Credit Administration.

Applications for these loans are being taken in Perryton at the County Attorney's Office each Thursday. The security required is a first lien on the crops to be financed. The loans are available only to those farmers unable to secure loans from banks or other sources.

These loans, generally known as "The Seed Loans", have been made in Texas since 1931 and have proven of great benefit to farmers whose cash requirments are small. Repayment of the loans has been high. Borrowers are required to plant large gardens for home use and a balanced program of feed, food and cash crops is encouraged.

A loan to finance the purchase or production of feed is also made on livestock by this Agency.

The maximum loan to an individual is $400.00.

The seed and feed loans are administered in Texas under the direction of W. E. Farwell, manager of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office, 405 U. S. Terminal Annex Building, Dallas 2, Texas.

Somebody's Forgotten

One trouble with the theory that buying power can be increased merely by boosting wages is that it forgets the people who do not live by wages.

The only effect they feel in the higher prices that sudden wage boosts help brings about.

A large portion of Americans do not live by wages. Farmers are a good example. So are doctors, dentists, lawyers, and those who run small shops and stores.

Even more seriously affected are such people as ministers, teachers, and government employees of all kinds—and the millions of men and women who live on insurance benefits, pensions, or life savings.

Their buying power does not go up. It goes down.

The fact is, the rising prices that follow general wage increases tend to eat up even the gains that wage earners seem to have made.

There are about a dozen sides to these wage-demand strikes—and they should not be forgotten.

BABSON DISCUSSES NEW IDEAS

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

Babson Park Mass., Jan. 4. At the close of each year I like to go through the various interesting inventions of the preceding year. They always give me inspiration and make me certain that there are opportunities enough for those who will use their heads and legs. I will not discuss atomic bombs or radar or electronics or plastics or other things which have been discussed in the papers and magazines Rather, I take the apparently insignificant things in the belief that they, in the aggregate, may do much more for individual readers of my column.

Suggestions For G. I. Men

One of the simplest, and yet may be revolutionary, is the development of confections, cakes and other food products by the use of starch sponge. To jump to the other side of the spectrum, we find the use of fog to put out fires. May I continue without comment: Non-breakable incandescent lamp bulbs . . . ice boxes with revolving interiors . . . electric switches which work with a delayed action of three minutes—windows made of glass strips like venetian blinds . . . new "smoke screens" to protect orchards and groves against frosts and insects . . . paint mixed with D. D. T. to kill flies and mosquitoes . . .

A year ago I mentioned the new art of recording music, messages, etc. on magnetized wire; well this is now on the market. A new one that hasn't yet been marketed is truly hole-proof stockings made out of ramie instead of cotton or rayon . . . a machine for projecting reading matter on the ceiling so you can read actually lying down . . . new methods of home heating where the heat radiates through the plaster, eliminating registers, radiators, etc. . . . a new "packaged kitchen" whereby the refrigerator, stove, incinerator and dish washer will be a part of the same machine . . . a new flooring known as stonoleum which can be applied directly over concrete floors avoiding dust and cracking—a new machine to automatically figure dividends, pay rolls and do billing at the speed of 4,000 per hour.

As the vacuum cleaner put grandma's whisk broom out of business, the new electric dust collector destroys the dust so that even a bug is unnecessary . . . A new type of oil coating housewives can use to prevent fruits and vegetables from getting dry and prevent ham and other meats from getting moldy is being sold. To offset this, the vacuum cleaner salesman will offer a new electric clothes brush! We will no longer need to telephone our telegrams but simply write them and drop them in a slot and they will be delivered by facsimile television.

Some G. I. men will be selling fountain pens which need filling only once in ten years, and new dry-cell batteries which will outlast two hundred of the old-fashioned kind. The bedroom windows will rise and fall automatically by pushing a button under your pillow (I already have one); while old-fashioned window screens will be seen only in museums. I could write a column on new plans for the frozen food industry and also forecast that your grandchildren will break no dishes or glassware,—why? because they can't be broken! The best opportunities, however, will come to those who SELL these things rather than to the inventors.

Chemical Products Enticing

Great steps are being taken in colored photography for amateurs. I expect soon to have an electronic bread toaster on my table requiring no cord connection with the wall. During 1945 one of the leading investment houses sold stock for an entirely new process of marketing powdered fruit juices. 1945 showed great strides in flourescent lighting. All our garden seeds may soon be immunized so that no bugs will attack the plants. New developments in x-ray read like fairy tales.

Hundreds of new uses for rubber are in the offing while micro-photography has some surprises. We must also remember the possibilities in ply-wood and super-rayon. Electronic eye-glasses may do for the nearly blind what hearing-aids are doing for the deaf. New synthetic foods, flavors and aromas have great possibilities and the rayon factories may soon be turning out candies, cookies and other food products. PLEASE DON'T WRITE ME FOR FURTHER PARTICULARS REGARDING ANY OF THE ABOVE THINGS. I AM NEITHER AN INVENTOR NOR CHEMIST BUT AM MERELY PASSING ALONG NEWS AND DREAMS.

Immunization Is Child's Safeguard

Austin, Texas — All children should be immunized against diphtheria at a very early age, according to a statement on the subject released this week by the Texas State Department of Health, explaining that toxoid which can be administered easily and without danger can safeguard youngsters against this serious and killing disease of childhood.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges all Texas parents to have their children, who are not already protected, immunized at once.

"The administration of toxoid can save a child from serious illness or even death and those who have not been safeguarded against this danger should be inoculated immediately," Dr. Cox said.

"Babies should be immunized by the age of eight or nine months," Dr. Cox advised. "A first dose of toxoid is recommended by authorities on the care of infants by the age of eight or nine months, and sometimes as early as six months. A second dose is usually given later."

To maintain immunity at a high level, Dr. Cox emphasized that a reinforcing dose of toxoid is advised when a child is old enough to enter school or have a Schick test made. Children who enter school or kindergarten this year without this additional safeguard or without having been immunized certainly should be protected without further delay, the State Health Officer declared.

LEAVES ARMY—Sgt. Edward W. Janzen was awarded a discharge from the U. S. Army at Camp Chafee, Ark., Jan. 5 and arrived in Perryton the following day enroute to Waka where he will resume arming interests. Sgt. Janzen entered the military service at Ft. Goal of the Victory Clothing Collection is 100,000,000 garments, plus shoes and bedding. If your contribution seems negligible, bear this in mind: Every garment you give means one more human being saved from cold or sickness or possibly death. Your spare clothing will be distributed free, without discrimination, to victims of Nazi and Jap oppression in Europe, the Philippines, and the Far East.

Dig into your attics, trunks, and closets today . . . dig out all the clothing you can spare . . . take it to your local collection depot now.

What YOU Can Do!

1. Get together all the clothing you can spare.
2. Take it to your local collection depot immediately.
3. Volunteer some spare time to your local committee.

Lavish Musicomedy, "Stork Club" Plays This Sunday and Monday

"The Stork Club"—a name synonymous with glamour and gaiety, is no longer the name of the most exclusive night spot in the world, but also the name of Paramount's newest Betty Hutton starrer, which plays next Sunday and Monday at the Ellis.

"The Story Club" tells a super-Cinderella story, spiked with many hilarious situations. It concerns the amazing things that happen following Betty's rescue from drowning of an eccentric millionaire, played by Barry Fitzgerald. Betty, a hat-check girl in the Stork Club, finds herself the recipient of anonymous gifts that include accounts in all the best New York shops, a sumptuous suite in one of the finest hotels, a limousine and chauffeur always at her disposal and other such insignificant trifles. The plot reaches riotus proportions when her Marine boy friend, Lt. DeFore, returns from the war, looks around at Betty's set-up and raises a suspicious eyebrow.

Fitzgerald, highly amused at first because Betty, thinking him just a poor, sweet thing, gets him a job as a bus-boy at the Stork Club, finally tells her it is he who has given her the bounty—but Betty poohpoohs the idea as a ridiculous attempt to help her.

How it all works out in the end is said to make "The Stork Club" one of the most delightful comedies seen in a long time. Add to that four melodic tunes swung by Betty and Andy Russell, and what amounts to a visit to the world-famous spot where every night is as gay as New Year's Eve— plus a fashion show that will make the distaff side of the audience sit up and take notice, and it looks as if Paramount's "Stork Club" is a movie treat no fan should miss.

Watkins Plays On Army Team

"Another basketball league within the division has begun operations with the opening of the 369th Field Artillery circuit. Five batteries are fighting it out for the Redleg title won last year by "A" Battery under a blazing Hawiian sun at Fort Hase, Oahu.

"The tall, experienced quintet of "B" Battery, runner-up last year jumped off to a quick lead in the race by crushing Hq. Btry. in the loop opener by a 27-8 count. The Baker contingent won as they pleased, cruising to a 22-1 half-time lead and toyed with their opponents thereafter. Bernard dropped nine points through the rim to lead the scorers. Gilmore and Watkins each chipped in with a half dozen markers to help pile up the lopsided score.

"A few nights later, the Baker cagers strengthened their hold on the top spot by defeating a stubborn band of "A" Battery cannoneers, 36-18, running up a 22-11 lead at intermission. Russell and Watkins hit the cords for 11 points apiece to pace the winners, while George Litwinsky, the only holdover from last years championship club, tallied eight counters on long set shots to keep his team in the running."

BIG-HEARTED SAM

If it weren't for war, I think a nation should have a little surplus money in the bank, instead of a national debt. Lock me up in the booby hatch!

But how can a nation which borrows its head off and which throws money around like water expect its people to have any sense or character in money matters?

Take these big loans we are making to other countries. They may be a good idea, but how can we lend billions to other countries, when we ourselves, are already over 300 billions in debt?

The government borrows money from you at almost 2 per cent and lends it for 2 per cent, and taxes you to pay the difference!

It's a crazy world, and I guess you'd better lock me up.

More Sugar Is Due For 1946

COLLEGE STATION — United States civilians will have slightly more sugar to back their ration stamps in the first quarter of 1946 than in the last three months of 1945.

On the basis of the allocation for the January-March period of 1946, announced by the Production and Marketing Administration, USDA, civilians are alloted 1,100,000 of the total 1,183,854 tons. That amount will be divided between homes, and institutional and industrial users. Of the remainder, the U. S. Military and war services will receive 70,263 tons, and 13,591 tons will go into commercial exports and shipments.

The civilian allotment compares with 982,000 tons during the last quarter of 1945, the PMA said. It it estimated, however, that the tonnage earmarked for civilians will be sufficient to maintain present rationing rates for both home and industrial use, allowing for seasonal variations in total use. For the calendar year 1945, on the basis of allocations and distribution so far, civilians consumption will average about 72 pounds per person, compared with 89 pounds in 1944.

The Production and Marketing Administration explains in a statement accompanying the announcement of allocations that the world supply of sugar in 1946 is expected to be about the same as in 1945. Production may increase a little, but carry-over stocks have been reduced to a minimum. Consequently, officials explain, it would not be possible to draw upon stocks again in 1946.

Continuing, the statement said sugar shipments arriving from the Carribbean in January and February are expected to be roughly one half of the amount expected in the three-months period since year-end stocks are extremely low and the new crop will not begin to move in volume before March. Domestic beet sugar will be distributed farther east this year to help ease the expected shortage in that area which is more dependent upon offshore sources. But the mainland crops of cane and beet sugar must be used locally during the entire year ahead.

The PMA cautions that there is little likelihood of sugar becoming ration free for some time.

Rotary Club To Limit Membership

The Perryton Rotary club has placed a membership limit of fifty on the club. This action was taken by the club at the Wednesday night dinner.

Rotary Governor Charles Peyton, Cleburne, Texas, was scheduled to make his official visit to the club Wednesday night. The regular luncheon was advanced to Wednesday night for the visit of the Governor. At the last minute he had to cancel his visit due to the sudden death of a close relative.

The present membership of the Perryton Club is 39. With several members expected to soon return from the service, it is expected that the limit of fifty members will soon be reached.

The club has been divided into attendance teams of two members each. Under this plan, if a member of the two man buddy team is absent, the burden for the absence is placed on the other member of the team and he is fined one dollar, all fines going into the club's youth activities fund.

Knitters Are Needed By R. C.

Mrs. E. L. Whippo, production chairman of the Ochiltree Chapter of the American Red Cross, issued a plea Tuesday for volunteer knitters to assist the chapter in completing a total of ten sweaters for which yarn is available. Those wishing to volunteer services are asked to come to the Ochiltree building between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. Tuesday through Friday.

Difficulty has been encountered in securing workers for this phase of Red Cross work, Mrs. Whippo said. Now that the holiday season has passed it is hoped that the sweaters can be completed and sent in to area headquarters.

The coat type sweater which the volunteers are making is needed particularly for the convalescents in government hospitals, who in many cases have sacrificed so much. They are issued too, to servicemen on the hospital ships and trains. The National Red Cross has a request for 5,200 coat type sweaters from one of the larger hospitals alone. It is felt that by members of the local chapter that if the public is recognizant of these facts they will be more willing to take volunteer duties in aiding.

ditions and made a promising start. Ensuing dry weather, however, has caused considerable damage and given rise to a feeling of anxiety as to how the crop will fare during the winter. While snows have been helpful, especially in the eastern part of the territory, most of the wheat belt has been dry for more than two months, and an abundance of moisture will be required to insure a normal crop.

Summer fallow wheat in western Kansas and eastern Colorado is in fairly good condition, but that sown on stubble ground has suffered extensively and is regarded as below normal. Reports of fields blowing or otherwise dying out, some even failing to sprout, are common, and because of the shortage of surface moisture, which has left the soil dry and loose, further damage is feared. Wheat pasture has been limited and over grazing is another complaint at this time.

Not that it isn't confusing enough when the bells are in order what with remembering what class you have to go to next and thinking of how to get out of them and all—but when the bells suddenly go on strike, school life in PHS becomes twice as hard to live.

Bells ring everywhere but in high school. In the far distance of grade school when a bell rings, they know what it means. Oh, for the simple life.

But us, we never know what is to be next. If a bell does manage to ring in our building it may mean school's out, junior high is changing classes, someone wants the janitor, or they're just ringing on general principles. One sure way of knowing when we're to change classes is wait for the fire gong in the lower hall.

Of course the fire gong is a little inconvenient as it has to be beat upon by hand and clearly reflects the mood of its beater. Imagine Mr. Cox getting jivy and beating out boogie woogie at the end of music appreciation, or a waltz for the benefit of the cafeteria racers at noon. Then, too, the fire gong was originally intended to denote fire. Suppose a fire should break out and the gong was rung. Everyone would think it was noon or the end of a period or the end of school and quietly evacuate the building. Now I ask you, can you imagine anything more annoying than a fire without any excitement? What's this world coming to? It's getting to where a decent fire can't even be enjoyed.

Mid-Term Exams

Mid-term exams are scheduled for Thursday and Friday. The exams will be of two types. One day essay type tests will be given and objective type tests will be given the other day. All library records must be cleared before a student can take his exams.

Student Reveals Stair Obstacles

Did you ever casually walk down a flight of steps (four at a time) and suddenly find there was nothing but air there and then suddenly there are the steps again, but you are setting and not standing on them. Well I have! And my only remark is ohhhh ! ! ! Those steps at the north end of the PHS building are the hardest steps I know. Believe me, this is the voice of experience. Casually, as I said before, I was coming down the steps four at a time when it happened. I landed on a convenient spot. When I woke up my sole purpose was to find the creature that caused my catastrophe. I found a ladder, but I knew that wasn't it, because it was still standing and it was all in one place. My search continued alone, for no one would help me. It seems they hadn't fallen yet. Finally I found it, the creature I mean. I stopped, I looked, I stared, I screamed, I ran. Never again will I play with a marble. The moral is: Don't take four steps at a time, on either the south or north steps in PHS. Although you might not end up at the bottom of the south steps, Miss Rhine and her radiator are always waiting.

Meet the Seniors

Ruby Peterson was born July 4, 1929, at Perryton, Texas. She grew up to be 5' 3" tall with blonde hair and brown-green eyes.

Ruby is definitely the home type, her favorite subject being Home Ec and her hobby is sewing. Her pet peeve is high heels and anklets with slacks. Ruby chose chocolate pie as her favorite food. She prefers "Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo" in the literary realm.

Ruby has no definite plans after graduation from high school, but she wants to be a secretary.

Betty Jean Quick made her not so quiet entrance into the world on September 17, 1928 at Fairview Oklahoma. Betty Jean, as you have probably noticed, is 5' 4" with black hair, brown eyes and a perfect personality.

It didn't take Betty Jean long (about five years) to decide that mince pie was her favorite food. A few years later conceited people became her pet peeve—it still is.

John Wayne, Humphrey Bogart and Bette Davis are her favorites in the cinema world. "Kiss and Tell" ranks tops in the movies.

Betty Jean plans to go to college after she graduates from PHS. Her favorite subject now is journalism, though she doesn't know whether she will major in it when she goes to college or not.

El Toro

The Spearman Tournament and "Nut's" party have furnished us with plenty of "The Bull". Her's a fraction of the latest dope.

Everyone has been wondering who Ara Nell was with Friday night. It seems as if Bill S. was the lucky one.

Bob U., in case you'd like to know it, you have a secret admirer. She is that new redhead, Betty Jo P. and she has really been giving you the "once-over".

"Dago" seems to be getting in good with all the PHS girls before coming home. He seems to have plenty planned, eh Veva Jo, Pat, Norma etc.

We'd like to know why a certain five girls wanted to go to the Spearman tournament so bad. We believe they were Jane P., Gwen V., Janet R., Clara R., and Veva Jo.

Janet, why did you refuse to go to Spearman with Hotcher?

Could it have been because you thought Bruce was going too?

Camilla K.'s secret flame has just flamed. Since Wayne S. and Diane G. broke up, she has new hopes. That also brings new hopes for Marvin S. now that Diane is free.

We are sorry that we didn't mention Marianne McG. and Leslie D.'s name in the C. C. (couples column).

Promptly at midnight at Nettie Mac's party, everyone started kissing. No one could get to Beth, because Russell had a priority. By the way, the boys had everything planned, and went by three different watches.

Betty Sue and Jimmie Dick are doing better and better and better.

Although rumor tells us differently, Janet was with Delos at "Nut's" party. Delmar's mother says that he likes Janet, so we can understand when he says that it was only a rumor.

Clara has a secret love. Although we really don't know, it could be E. R. She also has a secret love she knows nothing about.

That could be Wayland C.

Billy, you got over being mad pretty fast didn't you? Anyway you were seen at the show with Pat Sunday night.

Meet the Teachers

Miss Evelyn Milam, black-haired brown-eyed new teacher of PHS, came here frim Hereford. She taught math, Spanish and commercial work at Hereford High School. Miss Milam has no definite subject to teach in Perryton; but will be assigned one by mid-term. Miss Milam graduated from West Texas State Teacher's College at Canyon in 1942. There she majored in Spanish and speech, minored in math and English. After graduation, she worked at San Antonio in the government censorship office. In 1943 she began teaching at Hereford.

"White Christmas" is Miss Milam's favorite song. Bing Crosby and Spencer Tracy are the actors she favors. When it comes to food, she'll take "all of it". Tennis and horseback riding are the best sports, according to Miss Milam. Her pet peeve, like many other people's is snobbish people.

Dignified Senior Falls

On January the first at approximately 11:01 a. m. Carmen Keith fell while attempting to go up the south stairs. Not less than eighty three minutes later she fell on a different flight when doing down stairs.

Miss Keith attributes this unusual occurence to the simple fact that she fell asleep while changing classes.

The first time was a mere matter of missing a step, the second being due to an optical illusion.

When asked the reason for such a catastrophe, Carmen stated, "Entirely too much merriment the night before." Miss Keith may be reached at her home, 721 S. W. 2nd St., or by phoning 24.

School Day Pictures Are Handed Out Friday

All was quiet in the PHS halls last Friday, when suddenly the silence was broken by cries of "Ahh!" Who was being murdered? had someone fallen down the steps?—had the wolfman come to life? No, the teachers were just handing out the school pictures. It's a good thing it was Friday, for it took two days to recuperate. I can just imagine what the loving parents said. There's one thing I'd like to know; was anyone satisfied? Perhaps you wonder why this article is being written. Well, it's an explanation for the ugly mugs in the pictures. It took quite a lot of talk to convince the photographer we weren't convicts, although we did look like it.

Lyceum

Students of PHS were entertained Thursday, January 3 at 1:45 by a lyceum number, John Solan, experimenter with liquid air, performed many feats with the 312 degrees below zero liquid. Mr. Sloaned showed the students the effect of liquid air on grapes, a banana, steel, lettuce mercury. He made many mixtures of liquid air and various rocks and minerals and burned them.

Teen Town News

A tacky party will be held January 18 by the senior class. Everyone is urged to dress as tacky as possible. A prize will be given to the tackiest. Refreshments will be sold and games will be played.

Membership cards for teen town will expire February 1. Everyone is urged to buy one because this quarter the cards will be checked at the door.

Quirks by Quick

Now it can be told, at the first of school no, but at the risk of making a medium sized fool of myself, I shall now now relate to you another of my woes.

In PHS anything can happen and usually does, but little did I dream that birds and beasts actually abided in the halls, so when I found I had left one of my books in my locker, I thought nothing of returning after school to retrieve it from the dim and empty building.

It was my first day of the new school year and I had forgotten a little about the school building. Nevertheless, I remembered the one window that was always unlocked and I decided to gain my entrance through this means. It was a little difficult to reach the unlatched window though, as it was on the second floor.

A near-by tree seemed the solution to my pressing problem of how to reach the second floor so, assuming the characteristics of the apeman, I soon was pearched on a limb near the window. Darn limb, it wasn't strong as I thought it was, however, it didn't take me over five minutes to pull my head out of the open man-hole below and as soon as I had emptied the sewer water out of my ears, I dimissed the help of the tree and looked for safer means of reaching the window.

The roof now seemed a practical escape and started on my way to the roof. Of course it is a little harder to go up this particular fire escape than most, as it was a slide. For every step forward I slid backward two, but I soon remedied this by running. But when thirty minutes had passed and I had not yet reached the top I gave up. There was absolutely no way to reach the interior of the building.

I then collected myself, pieced my brain together and thought about how other people entered buildings, maybe, yes maybe that was what doors were for, to my great amusement sure enough it was.

By this time the hall was so dark I couldn't see my hand before my face. Perhaps if I had put my hand before my face I could have. I was stumbling along in a fantastic manner when I glanced up and saw two eyes beaming down on me. What could it be I asked myself, but I was too cared to answer so I decided not to worry. The eyes kept looking down on me; at last I could stand it no more, I threw my shoe at them. Careless me, I forgot to take my foot out.

So I found myself upon a limb with the two eyes. Oddly enough, they came equipped with a body. It was fuzzy, or were they feathers. I didn't stop to see. A streak of light shot from the limb, made a new door and found itself safely locked in its room, that streak of light was none other than me.

The next morning I emerged from under my bed, still a little scared, but determined to go to school and see in daylight what kind of monster I had encountered the night before. I returned that evening in an amazed, embarrassed state, the monster was nothing more than a stuffed eagle which has retained its place on a small limb by the clock for years.

Who Done It?

Come on kids, fess' up which one of you did it? It'll do you no good to hide—some one had to do it. Ladders are much to heavy for gremlins to lug around—especially upstairs. And since ghosts can supposedly walk right through walls, they surely couldn't have broken the window glass out of the front door.

But to get on with our story—it seems a ladder mysteriously found its way up the north stairs and leaned very comfortably and very unconveniently (for superstitious people) across the landing. Who done it? That's what everyone wants to know.

And then it seems that some not so bright individual, apparently having nothing else to do, kicked the glass out of the front door. Cox, the super sleuth, with his junior G-man set, has found evidence that the guilty person could be a blonde—could be!

The case of the car tracks on the football field is a mystery that has even our super sleuth stumped.

Perhaps it's an enemy football team trying to ruin our chances for next year. Who done it?

A new attraction has been added to the auditorium—a bat! If the speaker gets dull, you can always depend upon Baxter, the brainless bat to entertain you. But the question is—Who put Baxter? Who done it? Who done it? Somebody, please tell me who done it?

"Lucky Thirteen" Club Is Tradition

"Lucky Thirteen Club" is said to be an organization as old as the Perryton schools. Its membership is composed entirely of the single women teachers of the faculty. This club is an outgrowth of several entertainments Mrs. D. D. Shanks gave for the teachers when the Perryton Schools were first organized. There happened to be thirteen single women teachers then, so they called themselves "The Lucky Thirteen Club". Now the "lucky thirteen" has grown to nineteen. They are Misses Kemp, Franz, Gary, Rhine, Moore, Floyd, Gowin, Dozier, Jane Rogers, Moorehead, Turner, Essex, Cooper, Wetsel, Colbert, Nicholson, Cox, Martha Rogers, and Milam. On the thirteenth of every month they exchange gifts. Names are drawn twice a year to determine each "horseshoe" friend. They have a social as near the thirteen of each month as possible. Mrs. Shanks entertains 'her girls" every year. New single female teachers are automatically considered members. If a member gets married she loses her membership and receives a rolling pin from the "Lucky Thirteen Club" as a wedding present.

Mr. and Mrs. Virtle Faries and Mrs. Frank Gipson and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schwalk and family.

A "Look at the Books" OR "A Finger in the Pie"?

Which is the UAW-CIO really after? Is it seeking facts—or new economic power? Does it want to know things—or run things?

These questions concern you as well as General Motors.

For years the facts about General Motors have been made public.

In spite of this, the UAW-CIO demands a chance to look at our books, with the hint that we could meet Union demands "if the truth were really known."

We have firmly declined to recognize this as a basis for bargaining:

1. The Full Facts are Published

How much General Motors takes in each year—how much it pays employes—how much it pays to stockholders—how much it pays in taxes—how much net profit we make—and many other facts are plainly stated in annual reports and quarterly reports.

These are broadcast to 425,000 stockholders from coast to coast—sent to newspapers and libraries. Additional copies are free for the asking.

2. All Figures are Thoroughly Checked

Every General Motors annual statement is audited by outside auditors. Similar figures are filed with the Securities & Exchange Commission.

Does the UAW-CIO honestly believe that General Motors would or could deceive these experts?

3. Basis of Collective Bargaining is Defined

The Wagner Act lays down the rules for collective bargaining. These cover such areas as rates of pay, hours of work, working conditions.

No mention is made of earnings, prices, sales volume, taxes and the like. These are recognized as the problems of management.

4. Something New has been Added

The obvious fact is that the UAW-CIO has gone beyond its rights under the law—and is reaching not for information but for new power—not for a look at past figures, but for the power to sit in on forecasting and planning the future.

A "look at the books" is a clever catch phrase intended as an opening wedge whereby Unions hope to pry their way into the whole field of management.

It leads surely to the day when Union bosses, under threat of strike, will demand the right to tell what we can make, when we can make it, where we can make it, and how much we must charge you—all with an eye on what labor can take out of the business, rather than on the value that goes into the product.

5. This Threatens All Business

If the Union can do this in the case of General Motors, it can do it to every business in this land of ours.

Is this just imagination? Union spokesmen have said, "The Union has stated time after time that this issue is bigger than just an ordinary wage argument, that it is bigger than the Corporation and bigger than the Union."

For Labor Unions to use the monopolistic power of their vast membership to extend the scope of wage negotiations to include more than wages, hours and working conditions is the first step toward handing the management of business over to the Union bosses.

We therefore reject the idea of a "look at the books" not because we have anything to hide but because the idea itself hides a threat to GM, to all business, and to you, the public.

Pearl Harbor
28 December 1945

Dear Horace, Laura and family—

Well, how is everyone tonight and how was Christmas? I am fine and after so long a time I have settled down. Although, I didn't want to be stationed here in the beautiful Hawaiian Islands that is just what I got. Anyway, it is civilized here and hardly any different from the States except it is awfully hot, even in December. One good thing about it is that it does get cool at night.

I have a pretty good job here and it fits right in with my education. I am a ship superintendent or to be more specific, I am a mechanical supervisor for the repairing of damaged ships that come in. I supervise the repairing of the machinery which includes the engines, electric motors, generators, turbins, boilers, air conditioning and refregeration units, and hundreds of other things that you find on the ships. For about four weeks I will work under other ship superintendents until I learn the ropes a little better. It is very interesting work and will also be very good experience for me. After about four or five months of this duty I am going to get a change of duty. This time I am going to try again only a little harder to get sea duty on a large transport.

Well, I must bring this to a close as it is getting late. Write soon. Will you drop by the Herald office and give them my new address?

CIVILIAN — Cpl. John C. Schroeder writes from Hickory, N. C., that he is a civilian again having received a discharge at Ft. Douglas, Utah, Dec. 4. He had just completed four years with the Air Corps and is making his home with his wife at 903 21st Street, Hickory, N. C. Entering service Dec. 24, 1941, he received basic training at Ft. Sill, Okla., and Sheppard Field, Texas. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder of Perryton.

Mannheim, Germnay
December 20, 1945

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Stewart:

Got two papers today. Glad to get them and thanks to all of you.

I was transferred into this company awhile back. It is an M. P. company. Don't think I was made for a cop but am getting along pretty well. We guard a jail here and the work is all guard duty. The place has been a German jail and is pretty nice as far as jails go, I guess.

Seems rather funny to be guarding our own men and see the Germans free.

A German civilian walked across the bridge last night with me and started talking to me. He spoke pretty good English, and asked me where I was from. I told him, then he went on to say he was or had been a P. W. in Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, North Carolina, and Rhode Island. Had studied English and American history while over there. Seemed to have done all right. Was a first sergeant in the German Army, had been captured in Brest, France. I wondered what was happening to the PW's over there. I talked a while to see what he would say and what he thought but never learned much except how nice it was in America and how much he had had to eat. I happened to know that already.

Not much news. We have houses to stay in and have about all we could hope for. Nice houses—some of them. The weather so far has not been bad here. A few days back tried to snow but didn't. Is raining out now.

Thanks again for the paper.

As ever,

Germany
17 Nov. 45

Dear Van and Jessie:

We have had a snow here, and this morning we had quite a hard freeze. Now I can add the new worry about having sufficient anti-freeze in the vehicles.

Contrary to the oft repeated statement, the Army does not always provite—it is often necessary to get out and "manage" for certain items. We had our mouths all set for turkey this Thanksgiving, but was informed at the ration dump that the Army wasn't going to put out any turkey for Thanksgiving. So the word was passed around that we needed a couple of turkeys—no questions asked. Yesterday, two turkeys walked right into the back yard in response to our appeal and are being fattened for the great day. There's a rumor to the effect that Pvt. Billy Wells, the Arkansas Traveler, had something to do with their sudden appearance, but no one has asked any questions about it. Very queer.

Our detachment was to have pulled out of here on the 15th of November, but you know how these things go. The colonel in charge of this Regierungsbezirk decided that it wouldn't do just now to reduce the personnel, so pulled a few strings and got the time extended. Now we find that the time has been extended to April 30th, at the earliest, and so I have settled down here for the winter. To tell the truth, our landkreis is running quite satisfactorily, and there isn't need for a full strength detachment here. But we are an unusual team, having the best record in the district of 33 landkreise (counties) for kicking out Nazis. There are no Nazis engaged in any position of trust or influence in this kreis, and that is the main thing we started out to do. Now we are working on political parties, as I told you before, and are not having much success along that line. However, as long as we are not supposed to take any more active course of action than to talk it up about the kraute will remain in their present apathetic state. That is, all except the communists who are organized and rarin' to go. We are holding them in check until the Social Democrats or People's Party or some other parties get on the ball. An election just now would result in a communist sweep, even with a minority of individual electors. The Germans still don't realize that an election is anything more than a rubber stamp affair. I suppose after they have been told for so long and so frequently about the evils of the decadent democracies, they find it quite hard to do an about face and try it out. Oh well, time will tell. And time seems to be what I, for one, will have a lot of over here.

It is good to read about the boys from home who are getting those discharges. And a glance at the advertisements tell the story that the day of the seller's market is about to change. Imagine actually asking people to buy automobiles and gasoline! Peace, it's wonderful!

Neustadt, 8 Dec. 45

Well, things are beginning to perk up a bit over here. The Germans have gotten over their period of behaving in a servile manner and now are beginning to show their old arrogance. In this town we have several incidents of written threats to fraulein who have been going with Americans, a bit of theft from American installations, and cases of Germans shoving Americans off the sidewalk.

An incident of the latter variety happened the other night, and the man concerned was thrown in the clink within thirty minutes of the report. Of course, he made all sorts of excuses, but I don't think he'll get away with it.

The most important case lately was one in which our gasoline storehouse was broken into and three cans of gasoline were stolen. Since the theft occured shortly after closing hours, and while people were still in the office, it was really a bold move, one which spoke contempt for military Gov. Since I am in charge of the gasoline, I felt especially mad over the deal, and was determined to catch the culprit. At first I suspected our drivers, but could pin nothing on them. Questioning revealed that a German had spoken to the drivers that day, stating that he needed gasoline to get to Munich. Then I remembered that a German had been into my office that day, wanting some gasoline. The interpreter remembered this guy's name, Hager. Then I found out that the owner of a local garage had helped a man start his car that afternoon, a short time after the theft. One of our officers had seen the man carrying a can of gasoline from our yard, and had fired two shots at him when he didn't answer a challenge. Because it was dark, both shots missed. This looked like the man we wanted, because he made his escape through back yards and down alleys, it looked as if a local man must have done it. Anyway, I took off for Munich to find the guilty party. At Munich, I checked the roster of employees for two Military Government detachments, finding no trace of Hager. At the third detachment, they had no trace of a man by that name, either. However, a GI remembered something about a civilian who had some connection with MG and who had something about running out of gas on the way from Frankfurt. I checked on this, and found that he drove a BMW car. The owner of the car wasn't the man, but his driver was named Hager, curiously enough. With this information, I went after Hager, who was supposed to be fixing his car at his home. As we drove down the street toward's the man's home, my driver and I noticed a familiar face in a car approaching us. It was brother Hager, the man who had been to Neustadt on the day of the theft. We wheeled around, chased after him, finally coming upon his automobile parked beside the curb. He was standing beside it, with his head stuck under the hood. We pulled up beside him, and I grabbed him by the collar, lifting him out from under the hood. He immediately shouted "Vas ist los!" but I put him into the car before he had time to do any more shouting. You should have seen his face when he recognized me! He was probably the most surprised man in Germany at that particular instant.

To make a long story short, I secured clearance from the MG detachment, and brought brother Hager home with me, putting him in the local gefengis upon arrival here. He denies having stolen the gasoline, but so many people have identified him, that I think he'll change his tune before he come up for trial next week. This makes a batting average of five for five for the week on offenses and arrests, which makes us feel that we'll convince the Germans that the Americans are not quite as dumb as they believe. The road is going to get more rocky as the months roll along, I believe.

By the way, since I've left out some important details of the famous gasoline case, I'd better explain that Hager admitted running out of gasoline here, but said he traded a wrist watch to a soldier for one can of gasoline. Since he further says that he got no more gasoline on the way, and no car can go from here to Munich on five gallons of gasoline, and since he can't give any description of the soldier, we all feel that he stole the gas. At least, he'll get a fair trial, with American defense counsel. If the situation were reversed, and the Germans were in charge of such an offense in their occupied countries, you know there would have been a speedy execution without trial.

Speaking of trials, I have a reserved seat at the Nurnberg trials the second week in January, and shall be able to give you a country boy's impressions of hobnobbing with the big wigs, I hope. The seat is with the French prosecution table, right up front, and I should have a good view. By that time, perhaps the defense will have started, which should be much better than the prosecution.

I guess I told you that Clinton Hearn came over the other week from Nurnberg for a visit. I gave all the copies of the Herald I had, which tickled him no end, naturally. I'd better cut off now, or run the risk of boring you still stiffer.

Yours,
W/O Harold R. Hudson,

Fast Way to Kill Orchard Larvae

Dr. Dwight Powell, U. of Illinois horticulturist, demonstrates his plan of using water at 500-600 pounds pressure with regular spraying equipment to remove rough bark and thus kill codling moth larvae in winter quarters on orchard trees. This is much faster than the conventional method of hand-scraping the trees and catching and burning the bark. John King, orchard owner, watches.

Japan Finished As World Power

PAUL MANNING (standing before the Imperial Palace, Tokio in above photo), widely-known commentator and magazine writer, and the only correspondent to witness and broadcast both the German and Japanese surrender ceremonies, declares in the current issue of the internationally-circulated "Sperryscope" magazine, that the kind of peace administered by General of the Army Douglas MacArthur is a guarantee that Japan will "never again be a world power."

Manning, whose human interest broadcasts from Europe and the Pacific over a nation-wide network gained him a large following, during the last five years, predicted Tojo's suicide attempt ten days before the event.

In the "Sperryscope" article, Manning quoted from an interview with Gen. Yoshijiro Umezo, chief of the Japanese Imperial Staff, that the Nipponese "could have continued to fight" with 9,000 Kamikaze pilots and 2,500,000 soldiers in the home islands. "I believed the General," Manning says, "when I traveled through Japan. Civilian economy had been virtually paralyzed but the Japanese army was sufficiently well equipped for at least another year of war."

January 15 Tax Quiz

W. A. Thomas, Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas 1, Texas

1. What Federal tax form must be filed by January 15th? Your 1945 Declaration of Estimated Tax (or an amendment of your 1945 Declaration).

2. Does everyone have to file a Declaration? No. This filing should not be confused with the regular time for filing annual income tax returns, which must be filed not later than March 15th.

3. Who does have to file January 15? Three groups as follows: (a) farmers, (b) persons who filed a 1945 Declaration of Estimated Tax but wish to change their estimates, (c) persons who should have filed a 1945 Declaration but have failed to do so.

4. Did everyone have to file a 1945 Declaration? No, only single persons whose last year's wages exceeded $5000 and married couples whose wages exceeded $10,000, plus $500 for every exemption except their own and persons who had over $100 income outside of wages from which tax was withheld (assuming their overall income was at least $500 for single persons, $1000 for married couples). The above applies only to residents of community property law states.

5. What some examples? A wage earner with a wife and one child has one exemption besides their own, and if wages exceeded $10,500 ($10,000 plus $500), he had to file a 1945 Declaration. Also required to file were merchants, landlords, lawyers, doctors, and others who received income from which tax was not withheld.

6. Why is January 15 a special date for farmers? Other taxpayers were required to file declarations last March, but the law specifically permitted to wait until the next January 15.

Bird's Eye View Of Ochiltree County Related

In commenting on what was seen from the air, he said:

"For one thing the farmsteds are well laid out and the houses and improvements are freshly painted. And since Ochiltree county is one of the leading wheat producing counties in the country, the design of the fields is neat and colorful. There are occasional tanks, good cattle in the pastures, and sometimes ducks will take off in a cloud as your plane come in low.

We flew over and photographed nearly a dozen farmsteads. All of the photogenic places were selected for us by the county Extension agents, Hood Wills and Mrs. Virdie Wheeler.

One landmark near Farnsworth you couldn't fail to see is a new elevator with a capacity of 300,000 bushels just being completed by the Batman Grain Company. The elevator, including the head house, is 177 feet high. It has accepted its first load of grain.

The Perryton Equity Elevator, a co-op, is another huge structure, and east of town is a settlement of more than a hundred Commodity Credit Corporation grain bins with a capacity of about 200,000 bushels. All this and a great deal more storage was needed in 1944 when the county had a 34 bushel wheat average on 305,000 acres. With a little quick arithmetic you'll see the aggregate exceeded 10 million bushels, much of which was piled on the ground for a time.

This year production wasn't nearly so good . . . slightly more than 10 bushels to the acre on 315,000 acres. Incidently Ochiltree county usually vies with Deaf Smith for the top record in Texas wheat acreage.

Hood Wills says most of the acreage is planted to the Tenmarq, Cheyenne, Comanche, Standard Blackhull, and Turkey varieties. Several new ones did well in 1945, however . . . Wichita, Westar, Pawnee and Danne's Early Triumph. Wichita, bred by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, yielded 23 bushels per acre. An Oklahoma man bred Danne's Early Triumph which offers milling quality and a good straw. It's four days earlier than any other variety tried so far and a good yielder.

If you're a flying farmer or a plane passenger in the vicinity of Ochiltree County, chart your course so that you can see good fences, excellent improvements, pleasing farm lay-outs, and thriving windbreaks at homes of the Grahams, Georges, Swinks, LaMasters, Hummers, Slaughters, Conners, and Rogers. You can tell by looking down on their places that here are folks you'd like to meet."

Mr. and Mrs. Val McLanahan have been in Fort Worth the past two weeks for medical attention.

PHS Wins Three Of Five Games

Perryton High's basketball team won three games out of five played this week. The results of the Spearman tournament were: Perryton won over Miami; Perryton 24, Gruver 44.

The first game with Miami was played at 3:30 p. m. Friday. The second game was played at 10 a. m. Saturday. The Spearman team won the tournament by beating Startford.

The freshman, coached by Mr. Lewis Emerick, made a good first showing Tuesday night when they met in the Perryton High gymnasium. The final score was Perryton 17, Gruver 12.

The B or second string of the Ranger team, under Coach Murry, was defeated the same night with a score of 19 to 32. The first team won their game with Gruver with a score of 36 to 34. At the end of playing time the score was tied 33 to 33. The teams had to play 2 extra minutes. This game was the most exciting of the year, and the large crowd attending the game became wildly excited.

Faulty Dicharges May Be Corrected

Lieutenant Colonel Robert I. Hardy, West Texas District Recruiting Officer, today announced that information has been received whereby discharged veterans may have corrections made on incorrect discharges received.

To have a discharge corrected the original discharge certificate should be sent in a registered letter to:

Demobilized Personnel Records Branch
Records Administration Center, AGO
4300 Goodfellow Blvd.,
St. Louis 20, Missouri.

A letter and documentary evidence should accompany the Discharge Certificate to prove that it is in error. It i recommended that photostatic copies of birth certificates, orders, etc. be sent if there are no duplicates available.

Since the certificate may remain with the Records Administration Center office for sometime, it is recommended that it be recorded at the County Clerk's office in the county in which the veteran resides even though it contain error—since the Veterans Administration or other agencies may request the original or certificate copy. When the corrected discharge is returned, it is well to have it recorded again with the County Clerk.

The individual is not permitted to correct his own discharge certificate no matter how small or unimportant the change. Any erasure insertion or correction other than by The Adjutant General is unauthorized, and such a discharge will not be considered official.

Veterans who want information of any kind are urged to contact local Recruiting Officers. Recruiting Stations are located throughout the West Texas Area. Permanent Army Recruiting Stations are in the Post Office Buildings in Amarillo, Abilene, San Angelo, Lubbock, and Big Springs, Texas. Temporary Army Recruiting Stations are located in Dalhart, Pampa, Borger, Wellington, Childress, Plainview, Lamesa, Odessa, Sweetwater and Bellinger, Texas.

Telephones Soon Available to Farm Served REA

COLLEGE STATION—There are 337,816 farms in Texas which are not reached by telephone service—more than in any other state.

Thus Texas may well be the biggest customer for use of the carrier telephone when the system has proved itself suitable for commercial use, M. C. Gaynes, cooperative organization specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has predicted.

The new equipment, devised by federal and commercial engineers and now being tested in several Arkansas farm homes, may be the means of providing telephone service to thousands of Texas homes now served by rural electric lines, but out of reach of telephone lines.

Under the new system, Jaynes explained, speech is transmitted on power lines along with power supply by means of a carrier wave of radio frequency. The transmitting and receiving equipment is installed at the switchboard of the telephone exchange and at the subscriber's end of the line. The dial telephone is used in the same way as in regular service.

If, as REA Administrator Claude R. Wickard expects, the system will work under commercial conditions, any home served by electricity could also have telephone service.

Texas' 93 REA cooperatives now have 42,556 miles of rural power lines which service 106,839 consumers. It is believed that many of these consumers are outside areas reached by rural telephone lines.

Trailer Houses Vogue at WTSC

CANYON, Texas.—A trailer house "town" is springing up on the West Texas State College campus as these units are moved here for the use of World War II veterans in the spring semester opening January 29.

Forty-five of the expansible units will be brought from Amarillo and Borger under an arrangement with the Federal Housing Administration. Lights and water will be furnished. Heating and cooking will be by use of gasoline stoves already installed in the units. Married couples will have first claim to the houses.

Reservations in the trailer units are being received by Virgil Henson, business manager of the College. He is working on plans to add other housing units for veterans coming here for work under the provisions of the G. I. Bill. More than fifty veterans already are enrolled here.

West Texas State has been able to meet the needs of nearly all veterans who have investigated offerings here. Subject to approval of individual instructors concerned, veterans may enter at any time and receive credits for work accomplished. Because of their seriousness and willingness to work hard, most of the veterans are making good grades despite the interruption of their studies by the war.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Moses, the Great Deliverer, Sets Example for Today

The International Sunday School Lesson for Jan. 13
Scripture: Exodus, Chapters 6-18, especially 6:6-8; 13:17-22

• • •

THERE is always something thrilling about stories of deliverance.

There ought to be in all our hearts a deep place of sympathy and helpfulness for the Jewish people who have borne, with the Chinese and the Poles, the heaviest burden.

For these, too, no Moses has arisen. With doors closed against them by immigration laws, the less fortunate refugees have not even a wilderness to wander in, or the hope of a Promised Land.

From this modern tragedy we turn to that ancient story, which the devout of Israel have immortalized in the Feast of the Passover, a solemn but joyful feast that has become a feast of sorrow. The plight of the people in Egypt after Joseph's death is set before us with a vividness that makes the blood run cold, though the oppression and suffering was of long ago. But from the dark scene arises a great and courageous leader, devoted to his people and their deliverance.

The babe cast upon the waters by his mother, in the little basket of bulrushes, rescued and adopted by Pharaoh's daughter, had grown to manhood. The palace offered him security, luxury, wealth and power. No doubt it offered him, too, the affection of the kindly princess, his foster mother. But he was a Jew at heart. He saw the suffering of his people.

As the writer of Hebrews puts it (Hebrews 11:24), "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season."

Moses was a great liberator and deliverer; and every one of us today has a chance to follow in his footsteps. We cannot lead peoples out of the wilderness into which war has plunged them; but we can give our support to all the movements for the aid that may help the stricken.

Christian Science

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 13.

The Golden Text is: "What Shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord" (Psalms 116:12, 13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth" (Matthew 5:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "What we most need is the prayer of fervent desire for growth in grace, expressed in patience, meekness, love, and good deeds" (page 4).

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cook were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cook, Chester and Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCarty, Willie Ray and Estelle, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kerns and son, Larry Dale.
