ASSASSIN'S BULLET FATAL TO LONG

Twinkles

Our standing out at the house is somewhat better since he journeyed to Mexico and came home without one of those quick and easy divorces.

But many divorces are not easy on the recipient. They open the way to greater and graver mistakes!

Russia rejects notes with all the skill that Mrs. Gushaway spurns bill collectors.

Today's temperance objective is to put a brake on hating. Hating is a waste of energy; it seldom gets anything done, and certainly little that is worthwhile. A little hating can be a righteous thing, but much of it is corroding.

Well, in voting for repeal and old age pensions, the state has at least assured that there will be fewer living to the pension age, grows the West Foster grouch.

Musing of the moment: More and more are physicians recommending rest in bed for many ailments. The body has marvelous curative and corrective powers if it is allowed to give virtually its whole attention to them.

It follows that plenty of rest is the best preventive of diseases. If you do not have comfortable bed and the inclination to use it for restful recuperation of your body defenses, some little bug will probably get you.

Brevitorials

UNCLE SAM'S army regulars are not the hard-boiled men you may have imagined them to be. Although they are ready to charge with fixed bayonets on any enemy of this country, and twist the blade in his innards, they have hearts that are tender.

Or at least we deduce as much from a new release from Camp Perry, Ohio. Privates were lined up on the big rifle range, awaiting orders to fire at an imaginary enemy. Then a carrier pigeon gracefully wheeled aloft, side-slipped into a gentle landing, and stopped in front of the rifles, which had begun firing. A whistle shrieked. Firing ceased. The pigeon was gently removed and placed in a point of safety, where water and food were furnished.

Then Uncle Sam's men continued their attack on the "enemy."

LAST WEEK we talked to National Guardsmen attending the Confederate reunion, in uniform and full equipment. These boys and men are watching the war clouds with much interest, knowing that in any national crisis they would be among the first to see service.

All of them had read of the congressional investigation of munitions makers. Most of them appear to believe that if war comes big business will be back of it. In the heat of a national war fever, these men would be as eager to fight as any others, perhaps, but right now they are far from eager to protect property of American corporations abroad.

They feel, as must the public generally, that the boys of many nations have been playthings, that the munitions makers have toyed with war with little respect for taxpayers and the welfare of nations.

NEWSREEL PICTURES of the bare-footed, ignorant Ethiopians do little Selassie's cause no harm, as contrasted with the swaggering men of Mussolini who lack no implement of war. It is obvious that the weather will be the greatest weapon in the hands of Ethiopia. The black warriors, though brave, would be annihilated in any orthodox engagement. They have never met any army of the caliber which Il Duce plans to throw at them.

Newspaper men entering the torrid zone are being incited against numerous tropical diseases. The A. P. staff is headed by Jim Mills, whose brilliant correspondence has often appeared in THE NEWS. All he asks is a pocket full of money, his camera, toothbrush and razor. The world is his beat. Getting the news in such a country is hard, but getting it out is the often almost impossible task.

THE CONFEDERATE reunion last week called attention again to the fact that Texas has had experience with old age pensions for her civil war veterans. The original constitutional amendment provided pensions only for indigent veterans. Several years later the legislature ignored this provision and gave pensions to all veterans, with liberalized pensions for widows of veterans. The result today is

FARLEY HURLS BOOMERANG AT GOP LEADERS

ASKS WHICH OF NEW DEAL LAWS THEY WOULD REPEAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—James A. Farley, democratic national committee chairman, says newspaper headlines reflecting the trend of business "answer most completely the partisan assaults on the Roosevelt administration."

In a statement devoted to observations on republican criticism of the president's statement assuring business a "breathing spell," Farley said:

"What I think the country would like to hear from the republicans is a mention of even one of the president's policies which they would repeal.

"All hands and the cook, including such minor figures as Senator Dickinson of Iowa and Col. Teddy Roosevelt the little," he said, "dwell on the spending of money by the administration on his dictatorship in legislation, on the constitutionality of the measures passed by congress, on the tax program, etc.

"Assuming they are on the level in these declarations, it might be presumed the G. O. P. proposed, in the absurd attempt to fulfill the president's fantastic hopes for next year, to repeal all these enactments which excite them to such vehemence. Curiously enough, no such threat or promise appears in any of the statements."

Farley declared the republicans "complain" about relief expenditures, and asked: "Which of them would advocate the cancelling of the relief appropriations and the restoration of freedom to starve unhampered to the millions of people without employment or other resource?"

Farley asked if Senator Dickinson would favor dropping the AAA program, and said "the voters of Iowa will, if I am anything of a political prophet, take care of the Dickinson senatorship, not to speak of his presidential aspirations."

He also said it would be "equally interesting" if Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the G. O. P. national committee "who has occasionally been accused of an ambition to be senator from Pennsylvania, should demand repeal of the Cley coal bill," which has been hailed by the miners of his state as the magna charta of labor in the coal industry.

Asphalt To Be Placed on 33

Fourteen miles of seal coat of asphalt will be placed on highway 33 east from here. This will reinstate the single coat laid two years ago.

Bids for doing the work will be opened by the highway department Sept. 24.

Work on highway 88 was suspended Saturday for lack of funds. There will be money for about a week's work on that road after Sept. 15.

Application has been made by the highway department to make it a federal-state project, using relief labor.

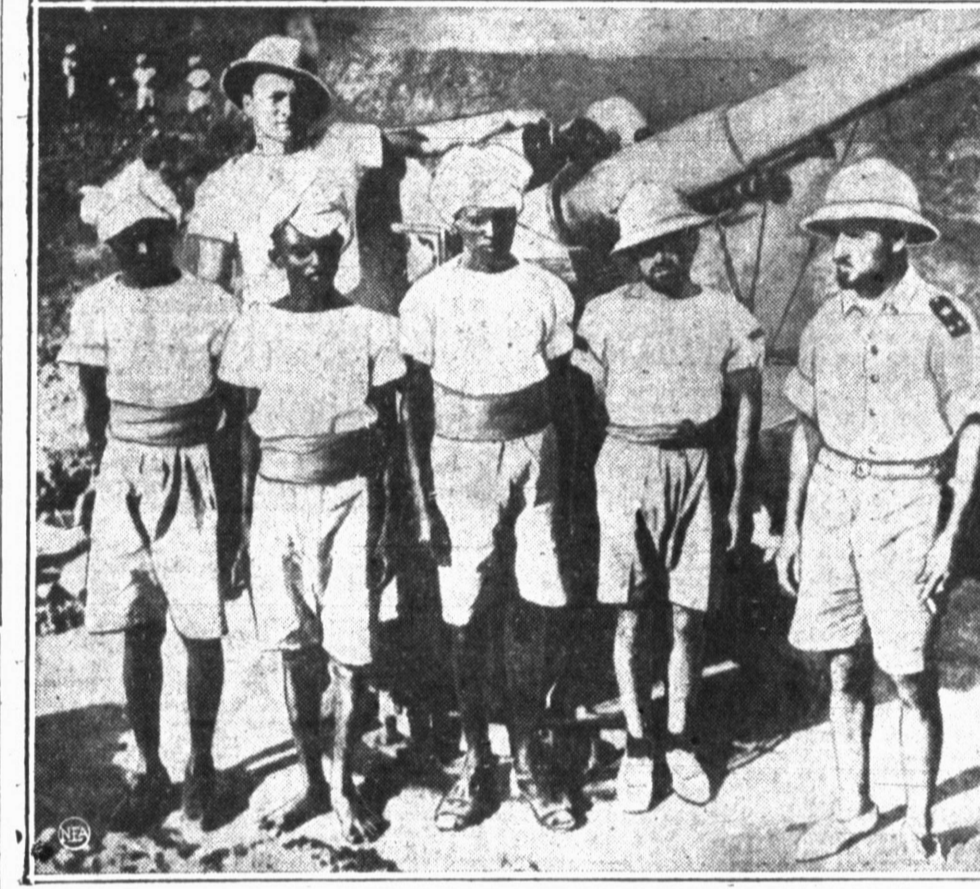

Approved grants on 47 PWA projects in Texas for $10,218,880 has been received at the state office.

With that information came a notice to Julian Montgomery, acting state director, that 128 applications for loans and grants and grants only for Texas had been approved by the works progress administration.

Thirty of the applications approved were for grants for $4,762,073. Grants on loan and grant applications were approved for 17 projects for $5,456,817.

An application for school additions and a stadium for a $1,719,450 grant for Houston was the largest approved project in the list received by Montgomery.

Natives Join Italians in Manning Front Line Guns

Aiding the Italian forces sent to Africa by Premier Mussolini for his projected war against Ethiopia will be thousands of native soldiers, inured to the tropical conditions under which fighting will be conducted. Shown at the front line on the Eritrean border are Italian officers and a native crew who man a long-range gun that points Ethiopia-ward.

Nation-Wide Mobilization Day Announced By Il Duce

Emperor of Ethiopia Rejects Request Of Italy

GENEVA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Salvador de Madariaga of Spain, chairman of the League of Nations' Italo-Ethiopian committee, was understood tonight to have informed that body there was no definite common ground whatsoever for a solution of the conflict between Italy and Ethiopia.

By ANDRUE BERDING
ROME, Sept. 10 (AP)—Premier Mussolini today ordered a nationwide one-day mobilization of all the fascist forces of Italy. The mobilization will test the nation's ability to spring to arms at a moment's notice.

The order involves 2,000,000 members of the fascist party and 850,000 young fascists between 18 and 21. They will be accompanied by 4,000,000 fascist boys.

The order set no date of the mobilization, but announced that it would be proclaimed by sirens and church bells.

Fascists living abroad are required to telegraph the secretary of the party for instructions. Mobilizations will be held in Italy's colonies.

Il Duce today reviewed several approved grants on 47 PWA projects in Texas for $10,218,880 has been received at the state office.

A $1,141,742 grant application made by Jefferson county for construction of Neches river bridges was the second largest approved project.

Only the slightest hope was held for revival of some of the PWA applications recommended for disapproval by the WPA. The WPA recommendation of PWA projects, officials indicated means rejection of the projects as they stand. Some of the applications, it was pointed out, might be rewritten to meet new requirements.

Huey Talks Of Football Boys, Desire To Live

(Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)
BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10—Senator Huey P. Long, builder of a political empire unique in American history, died today.

An assassin's bullet, fired Sunday night, ended his "dictatorship" in Louisiana at 4:06 a. m. (Central Standard Time).

The political control of the state hung in the balance. The senator's foes sought unity in their fight to sweep out the organization he created. The senator's lieutenants, leaderless for the first time, sought to keep peace among themselves and preserve the power they inherited.

Governor Oscar K. Allen, titular head of Long's organization, said: "We are going to follow the principles of Huey P. Long."

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—The senate finance committee, acting with quiet precision, gave speedy approval today to the bills approved by Senator Huey P. Long before his assassination.

Funeral services for Long—whose influence spread far beyond the borders of his native state, and who was frequently discussed as a presidential possibility—were being planned.

His body, however, will lie in the new $5,000,000 skyscraper state capital—a symbol of his political greatness.

The senator, in a coma, died quietly. He was 42 years old. For thirty-one hours, he and his physicians fought to stave off death from the bullet wound inflicted by Dr. C. A. Weiss, Jr., 30-year-old Baton Rouge physician.

Weiss, kinsman of a political foe of Long, was shot to death by bodyguards immediately after his pistol fired a bullet through the senator's abdomen.

Senator Long when shot had just stepped from the house chamber where he was engaged in pushing to completion a number of special session measures aimed at the federal administration and toward furthering his already-powerful control of the state's affairs.

In their fight to save Long, the physicians performed one operation, normally the high man would be Governor O. K. Allen but during his entire political career he has leaned heavily on Huey Long, who was a friend from the barefoot boy stage in Winn parish. Today Gov. Allen was so broken up over his friend's death that he was unapproachable.

Before Long's death, but after it was known that he would die, his political lieutenants held conferences on what steps to take. In them were Gov. Allen, Seymour Weiss, Long political treasurer; Abe Shushan, director of the Orleans levee board; Lieutenant Governor James A. Noe, Allen's legislative speaker of the house; George Wallace, Long's legislative adviser and others.

On one of these six chances are the toga of Long will fall but that will be determined in faction caucus later. Whether any one of these can hold the gigantic and all embracing ricks laid down by the redoubtable Huey remains to be seen. There was only one Huey Long.

The death of Long also aroused the anti-Long politicians. They are out to catch up any political material that may drift away from the Long faction camp.

Long's death may reunite the old regulars in the city of New Orleans headed by Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley, most of whose followers deserted to the ranks of Huey Long.

Both Sides Are Granted Writs On Gas Statute

Court tests of new Texas gas legislation included injunctions granted "both sides" yesterday.

Texhoma National Gas company was granted an injunction at San Antonio, restraining the railroad commission from enforcing a sweet gas prorotation order.

Two hours later, the Cargray corporation obtained an injunction from Judge Bryant at Sherman, halting enforcement of the gas stripping orders. The Carson county plant resumed operations today under protection of the injunction, and was said to be popping a total of 284,000,000 cubic feet of stripped gas into the air daily.

FRIENDS AND FOES OF LONG REGRET DEATH

'Detestable,' Says Norris
Assassination of Senator
Denounced by Leaders.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Both friends and opponents of Senator Huey P. Long today expressed regret at his passing and joined in denouncing the assassination.

His death removed one of the largest question marks from the 1936 presidential race. Official Washington expected he would be an independent candidate.

Calls for law and order in governmental affairs were widespread. "It is seriously disturbing to learn of a resort to unlawful violence as a political weapon anywhere in America," said Secretary Morgenthau.

"Detestable" was the word used by Senator Norris (R-Neb) to describe the slaying.

There will be some bad effects from it," he said. "There's less of good in Huey Long. His heart was right although his method wasn't."

"It is seriously disturbing to learn and outrages all decency when people have the ballot and could have given the senator a supreme test by that means within a few weeks with out resorting to taking up instruments of murder," Senator Bope (D-Wash.) said.

Expressing the same thought, Father Charles E. Coughlin, Detroit priest, said at Albany that "our motto must always be 'ballots, not bullets'."

"The most colorful member of the United States senate has passed on," said Senator Donahay (D-Ohio). "He was brilliant... every fast-minded man must deplore."

Shock, sorrow and wonder about the political affect of his death mingled in varying degrees in the

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 10 (AP)—The death of Senator Huey P. Long at the hands of an assassin has left his powerful political machine rudderless. Politically, Louisiana was in a whirlpool today, it has no direction.

The king is dead but there was no king left to longlive. When Huey Long passed from the political stage he left a half dozen political leaders of about the same stripe. None overshadowed the other. If one tried to step ahead of the other there was danger of internecine warfare.

Normally the high man would be Governor O. K. Allen but during his entire political career he has leaned heavily on Huey Long, who was a friend from the barefoot boy stage in Winn parish. Today Gov. Allen was so broken up over his friend's death that he was unapproachable.

Canadian Relief Client Is Killed Under Dirt Truck

CANADIAN, Sept. 10 (AP)—Lee Reno, 49, Canadian relief client, was crushed to death near here Monday when he fell under the double wheels of a highway truck loaded with several tons of dirt.

Reno apparently misjudged the distance in trying to swing onto the running board of the truck. His widow and five children survive.

Reno's death marked the second week-end fatality near here. Murl Bridwell, 18, of Canadian, was killed late Saturday night in a head-on automobile collision.

Polo Meeting Is Postponed Until Thursday Evening

A meeting of polo enthusiasts, scheduled for this evening at The News building, has been postponed to Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Rather wide interest is being shown in the plans. Conflict of tonight's meeting with other events led to postponement of the meeting.

If plans materialize, Pampa, Amarillo, and Lubbock will have polo teams.

WILL APPEAL TO PRESIDENT ON WEDNESDAY

SECRETARY MAKES NO ATTEMPT TO HIDE OPEN BREAK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Secretary Ickes and Harry L. Hopkins will present their opposing views on administration of the $4,000,000,000 work relief program to President Roosevelt for a final settlement.

Shortly after Ickes said he would demand a show-down on Hopkins' rejection of 2,000 PWA projects, the relief expert told reporters he expected to go to Hyde Park "soon."

He refused to amplify his statement, except to say that he would not precede Ickes, who will go there tomorrow.

"I haven't any quarrel with Mr. Ickes," Hopkins said smilingly. "I have altogether too much to do to quarrel with anybody. You know I have."

Observers recalled that he used almost exactly the same language two months ago in scolding Ickes' denial of the slightest difference of opinion between them.

Declaring he had no intention of modifying his requirements for approval of PWA projects, Hopkins said he had been in "constant communication with the president."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Secretary Ickes will appeal tomorrow to President Roosevelt in an attempt to have a final showdown with Harry L. Hopkins on conduct of the $4,000,000,000 work relief program.

He said at his press conference today that he would go to Hyde Park tomorrow morning with Charles West, under-secretary of the interior.

"The president called me last night and asked me to come up and I thought I'd go."

Ickes said he had scheduled a meeting of the work relief allotment committee would not be held today and that he did not know when another meeting would be held.

Reminded that a deadline fixed by the president calls for the last meeting of the committee a week from today, Ickes said: "I'll know more about that when I get back from Hyde Park."

Making no attempt to conceal his opposition to Hopkins, Ickes disputed the works progress administrator's recent statement that projects rejected by WPA would not reach the allotment committee.

"There is nothing," Ickes said grimly, "in the executive order of the president setting up the tripartite administration of the program which gives anybody the right to veto anybody's projects. The intention was simply to supply certain information, and any member of the allotment committee can bring up any project at any time."

Referring to "an avalanche of PWA applications over the week end," Ickes said Hopkins' rejections "leaves them in a state of suspended animation until there is a decision."

He said that the applications involved $1,218,000,000 in loans and grants in addition to $1,500,000,000 in additional contributions by states and communities.

Asked to comment on renewed reports of his differences with Hopkins, Ickes would say only "I haven't seen or talked with Mr. Hopkins since I came back to Washington."

Ickes was caustic in describing rejection of projects on the ground that the expenditure per man given work was too high. He said he understood the program allowed $1,143 per man given work, the quotient from dividing 3,500,000 persons into the $4,000,000,000 fund.

"According to the figures of our experts," he said, $958 was the average cost per man given work in the 2,000 applications rejected by Hopkins.

"I never was very much at figures myself, but I don't think I'm the only one in the government."

Asked if the 2,000 projects were "necessary to complete the PWA program," Ickes said, "they are all good projects, all essential from the point of view of getting people to work."

PWA applications at the close of business Saturday, totaled 5,833 involving expenditures of $1,094,193,383.

They included: Oklahoma 75, $7,917,185; Texas 603, $91,207,000.

Cooking School Hints Are Given

Always sift flour and K C baking powder together at least three times. The more sifting, the lighter, finer texture the cakes, biscuits, etc., will be.

To mix a cake, first cream butter and sugar thoroughly, then add yolks. If used, then to this mixture, alternately add moisture and the flour that has been sifted with baking powder and stir until smooth and glossy, adding beaten egg whites after thoroughly mixing.

For cakes, have your oven slow to moderate at first, until the cake is fully risen; then increase the heat, so as to just brown lightly.

Here are a few choice recipes. You will like them.

K C Everyday White Cake.

- 1/2 cup butter (4 ozs.)
- 1 cup granulated sugar (8 ozs.)
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 cups flour (8 ozs.)
- 2 level teaspoons K C baking powder
- Whites 3 eggs.
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract.

K C Bran Muffins.

- 2 cups uncooked bran (3 1/2 ozs.)
- 2 cups flour (8 ozs.)
- 1 1/2 teaspoonfuls salt
- 2 eggs
- 1 3/4 cups milk

COLTEXO AND ROAD RUNNERS TO CLASH IN FINAL GAME TOMORROW NIGHT

LEFORS TEAM BEATS PAMPA IN 1-0 GAME

GAME PLAYED IN HOUR AND 14 MINUTES FOR RECORD

The Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament, in progress more than two weeks, lingers on. Coltexo of LeFors last night played faultless baseball to defeat the Pampa Road Runners, 1 to 0, to tie the play-off series. It was a pitchers' battle all the way, with big Jim Parker having the better of the argument with Lee Daney, although each pitcher allowed only six hits and neither team made an error.

The game was played in one hour and 14 minutes for a local record. The major league record is 51 minutes for a game played in 1928. Smith from Burger replaced Neely Vaught of Burger behind the plate when the veteran had to leave for his home Sunday afternoon.

The two teams will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock to decide the tournament winner and the resting place of the $1,000 guaranteed by the Pampa Jaycees. The tournament has been a long time in reaching its close, but it has been worth the delay to see such a game as was played last night.

Another treat is in store for fans tomorrow night. Carthers, slender portlander, is expected to be Manager Sammy Hale's selection for mound duty. He will probably be opposed by John Clowers, stocky Road Runner portlander. Lee Daney may be Manager Fred Brickell's selection, however.

Great pitching, thrilling plays, and airtight baseball were handed a packed grand stand. Coltexo won the battle in the first inning after two men had gone out. Manager Hale open the way for the single score when he hit a beautiful double to the right field fence. Beason, playing his first game in a Coltexo uniform, came through with another double to near the same spot. Hale crossing the plate.

Both teams had several opportunities to score, but sensational defensive work cut off possible runs. Grover Seitz, Road Runner center fielder, prevented another Coltexo score in the sixth when he took Hale's long fly off the right center-field fence and caught Huffman at the plate on a relay from Daney.

Parker pitched himself out of a hole in the third inning when the Road Runners had three men on base, one out, and the big end of the batting order coming up. Parker forced Nell to hit to Hale at third, forcing Daney at the plate. Patton grounded to second to end the threat. From then until the ninth inning, the Road Runners failed to get a hit off Parker.

Wilson opened the fifth for Coltexo by getting a clean single. Dingman sacrificed him to second. Daney tightened and fanned Sedbrook and Parker to end the rally. Again in the sixth Daney was in trouble, but Seitz's great throw from center field saved the day. Polvogt started the seventh with a single. Wilson bunted down the first base line to sacrifice, but Nell came in fast and made a pretty play to get Polvogt at second.

Great defensive work by Coltexo in the ninth inning kept them lead from being overcome. Sealing walked. Bulla ran for Sealing who had been hit on the knee earlier in the game. Nell hit a hot grounder to Hale who forced Bulla at second and Sedbrook caught Nell going to first. Patton singled. Seitz made the last out.

Hale, with a single and double, led the stock work of the evening. Sedbrook and Brickell also hit doubles. The other hits were divided. Besides winning the ball game, Hale and Beason gave sparkling exhibitions of fielding. Hale handled seven chances without a bobble. Beason, in left field, took three hard flies. Sedbrook handled five chances faultlessly at second base.

Vic George had another big night at shortstop for the Road Runners, making four nice stops and quick throws to first. Patton in right field also saved several hits with long runs.

LeFors Pirates To Play Sayre

The LeFors football season will open on Friday night at 8 o'clock when the Pirates engage the crack Sayre high school team, Class B champions of Oklahoma last year. The game will be played under the lights at Shaw park.

Season reserve seat tickets are now on sale at Fatheree Drug in LeFors. Additional seats are being installed on both sides of the playing field. The Pirates looked stronger than at any time last season in a scrimmage with Miami last night.

Coaches Bill Bronson and Francis Smith are well pleased with their prospects. The boys are heavier and more interested in their work than in the past.

Galveston Fired On Bus, Shippers Report to Police

BEAUMONT, Sept. 10 (AP)—Charges of Beaumont players that their bus was fired on after a Texas league game at Galveston Sunday night led police to make plans today to prevent any abuse of players or umpires at a play-off game between the teams at Galveston tomorrow night.

Jack Zeller, Exporter official, said he had talked with L. B. Maddox, chief of police at Beaumont, and that Maddox had communicated with Galveston police in regard to extra precautions.

The report by Beaumont players that a bullet crashed through a glass in the bus after the Sunday night game was denied by John Hime, police officer at Galveston. Hime said the glass apparently was broken by a missile from a boy's sling shot.

LITTLE COMES BACK TO ROUT TEXAS YOUTH

'FRISCO SEIGE GUN TO FACE BILL LAIN TODAY

BY PAUL MICKELSON, CLEVELAND, Sept. 10 (AP)—Bill Lain of Chicago, an undertaker in white, today undertook the big job of burying the National Amateur golf championship hopes of Lawson Little—a task that 24 other men in England and America have failed to accomplish during the last two years.

One of Chicago's leading amateurs, Lain, a tall blond with a flare for white toggery, challenged the march of the human siege gun from San Francisco in the second round, but his hope of success in his venture was rather gloomy.

Little was believed to have been shot down and buried in his first 18-hole start over the soggy clay terrain of the Cleveland Country club yesterday, but he proved to be a lively "corpse" that could rise again and still win.

It was the third round, five holes against Rufus King, 19-year-old trap shooter from Wichita Falls, St. Louis, that Lain conclusively proved his class and became a greater favorite than ever over his field by coming back to crush his youthful opponent, 3 and 1.

It was the hardest fight he has had to wage since he started out on his great march—a march that has won the British amateur title twice in succession and the American amateur one—but he had the fight and the weapons to repel the attack of the "kid" who dazzled him by scoring four birdies in succession over the first five holes.

Little, down only once before in 23 matches and that only once by an amateur, was probably more amazed yesterday than was the black-haired "kid" who won his first renew five years ago by winning the grand American handicap, trap shooting blue ribbon title over.

Putting like a wizard and banging dead niblicks against the pin, he halved the first two holes with par and a birdie, and then shot 3-3-2, three straight birdies, to win—many holes. It took a 20-foot putt for Little to stop him on the sixth, but he stopped his "kid" challenger so completely that he squared the match on the ninth hole, went ahead with a bold iron shot and a beautiful explosion on the 18th—twelfth and never was headed thereafter, although King tossed away chances to win holes by over-putting the fast drying greens.

Little, two under par for the front nine, finished up even with par for 17 holes, losing strokes on the way back to reckless shots that nestled in traps. But he had to play recklessly in spots.

Lain survived by defeating Bayard Mitchell of Pine Valley, N. J., 3 and 2, but he was five over par for 16 holes.

Except for the defeat of Francis Ouimet, twice champion, who was eliminated by Levi Yoder, 24-year-old caterer worker of Washington, D. C., the big field went through 75 opening matches yesterday, most of them in a driving rain, without a distinct upset. Ouimet was beaten in his first round match for the second successive year, 2 and 1, his usually straight woods getting him into trouble from start to finish and finally beating him after a fine comeback.

DELUGE SAVES DONALD BUDGE FROM BEATING 'BITSY' GRANT WHIPS 'DARLING' UNTIL IT RAINS

BY BOB CAVANAGHO, Associated Press Sports Writer.
 FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Bill Grant was back in his accustomed role of the "giant killer" of American tennis today.

For weeks the sports pages carried columns about the Wimbledon achievements of Donald Budge of California. Budge's victories over Bunny Austin and Baron Gottfried von Cramm earned him a rating among the five leading players of the world.

Bitsy read the papers—that's one of his chief diversions when he isn't wielding a racket. To him, Budge was just another tennis player though a sort of special one because he took a trimming from him last year when Grant was the favorite.

They squared off across the net yesterday in a quarter-final match of the fifty-fourth men's national singles championship. This time Budge was the red-hot favorite. He was the one American player conceded a chance to dethrone Fred Perry of England.

Budge came back from England with the sobriquet, "the new darling of Wimbledon." Against Grant he was a darling in distress saved only by a drenching downpour of rain which interrupted the contest at the time Grant was leading 6-4, 6-4, 2-1.

After the first three games Budge's spirit appeared to be broken. Grant handled his famous cannon-ball service with impressive ease.

More trouble than that, however, were Grant's soft, spinning forehand and backhand shots. Budge seldom could get set to slam across thunderbolt returns and had to content himself with keeping the ball in play and trying to place it out of the reach of his small adversary. But Grant was virtually "all over the lot."

They are scheduled to resume their match at 1 p. m. (CST) today.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ, Associated Press Sports Writer.
 NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP)—That red hot internal row at Madison Square Garden may come to a head late this month. The dope is the directors will carefully read Col. John S. Hammond's charges of waste and mismanagement and just as carefully bury them in a pigeon-hole. Then Col. John Reed Kilpatrick and his friend, Jimmy Johnston, will arm-and-arm it on the board rooms with their flag still there.

Here is a vote for "Black Mike" Cochrane as the most valuable player in the American league. Eddie Casey, coach of the Boston Redskins, is all smiles at the performance of Bill Shepherd, his prize rookie, gave in the Chicago All-Star game. The testimonial dinner for Steven O'Neill was cancelled at the last minute.

Since 1929 Tulane football teams have won 50 games while losing only eight and tying two. Three cheers for the Texas pitcher who got out of a sick bed to turn in a no-hitter.

If Gil Doole can scrape up a center, teams on the Cornell football schedule had better watch out.

Louis Soredi, Primo Carnera's No. 1 manager, is an Italian banker.

Take a tip from Helen Jacobs and don't count Sidney Wood out as a future Davis Cup performer. She has an idea that, like Bill Tilden, Wood may not "arrive" until he's 28 or so.

Dazy Vance, who had a goal of 200 major league victories, was only three shy when the Dodgers came him recently. Although he's hitting .335 Bill Terry has had in only 60 runs for the Giants.

CHICAGO CUBS TRAIL CARDS BY ONE GAME

GAS HOUSE GANG GOES SISSY ON FRISCH BIRTHDAY

BY ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer.
 The Cubs have lit the fuse and who knows but that they will rocket right out through the roof, right into the blue heaven of the world series.

Most of the baseball seers who forgot Charley Grimm and his boys in their early season calculations, are making ready to take to the storm cellars. In fourth place, nine games behind the Giants, on July 6, the Cubs today are two games ahead of the balloon that busted and only one game behind the leading Cardinals.

The Cubs ran their current winning streak to six straight games yesterday, defeating the Boston Braves 5-1 and 2-1 as the world champions were dropping one to the Phillies.

Tex Carleton allowed only four hits in the first game, and Larry French came back to take a decision from Fred Frankhouse in a mound duel in the nightcap.

Manager Frankie Frisch had a hitless birthday and he probably would have swapped all the candles on his cake for a reversal of that 4-3 defeat the Phillies hung on his team.

Philadelphia hopped on Phil Collins for three runs in the fifth inning and scored the deciding tally off Ed Heusser in the eighth. Curt Davis pitched seven-hit ball.

Before the game the gas house gang went a little sissy, presenting Frisch with a bouquet of flowers and then singing a birthday song as Dizzy Dean tossed aside the bat for the baton.

The Detroit Tigers retained their 8½-game lead in the American league, coming from behind to down the Washington Senators, 5-4. Rain and darkness limited the game to seven innings.

The Yankees defeated Cleveland 5-3. Jack Saltzger connected with four hits for a perfect day at bat. He drove in three runs, one with a double and two with a homer.

The St. Louis Browns, fresh from the cellar themselves, had no com-

Dennard Issues Call For Gorillas and Horde Reports

The Harvester football squad was cut to 29 players yesterday when Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan announced that the squad would get down to straight, hard football during long practice sessions, followed by scrimmages.

Coach E. N. "Dick" Dennard issued a call for "the Gorillas and Horde" yesterday. He had so many youngsters on hand that he will probably have to call for an assistant. Dennard, graduate of Trinity university where he was a star football player, hopes to throw a strong Gorilla eleven at the Harvesters in scrimmage sessions and at some good class B teams in this section.

Practice session will be called at 4 o'clock this week. Next week the passion for the team that replaced them there. The Athletics went down, 5-1, before the pitching of Earl Caldwell, righthander from San Antonio in the Texas league.

EDITORIALS IN ENGLAND FLAY SENATOR LONG

POINT OUT HIS FOES WERE DRIVEN INTO MADNESS

LONDON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Urgent messages from Baton Rouge, La., stating Huey Long died this morning, created a sensation in Great Britain, where political murders in the present age are unknown.

Morning newspapers were filled with columns of comment, news dispatches and sketches of the Louisiana senator.

"Political murder is always to be chronicled. But so is the abuse of democratic methods to suppress liberty and establish a dictatorship of one man."

"If men like Huey Long aspire to be dictators they must take the risk attaching to the job."

The Manchester Guardian, which illustrated its news account with a map of Louisiana showing the location of New Orleans and Baton Rouge, said editorially before receiving news of his death:

"It is a small wonder if those who were against him (Long) were driven into something like madness. What use is there left for sanity?"

"The tragedy of Huey Long is that he might have been a great democrat."

"He won and could have kept the support of the people of fair means—at least by means which count as fair in American politics."

"He has sacrificed discretion to revenge. In his unrestrained lust for power—derived no doubt from his early struggles and poverty—he has done his best to make it impossible for anyone to oppose him by lawful and peaceful means. He has left them the obvious alternative."

"Only American state politics could produce such a fantastic figure as Huey Long," said the Daily Mail in its comment on the "play-boy dictator."

At Conference
C. A. Clark, executive of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council, is in Mineral Wells attending the annual conference of region 9. The session, directed by high officials, will open today and close Sept. 14. Mr. Clark accompanied Marvin J. Paul, executive of the Amarillo council. An intensive study course is annually provided for the executives.

Receive Appointments
J. W. Garman was named divisional junior vice-commander of the Ninth Division, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at a recent meeting in Amarillo. Charlie Maisel was selected divisional chief of staff at the same meeting. Maisel is also deputy chief of staff of the Pampa district. Both men are members of the Pampa post.

New Pampa Resident
Bob Miller has arrived from Big Spring to make Pampa his home. Mr. Miller will be in the shoe department at Murfrees' Inc. He has had several years experience in the men's furnishing business.

Injured in Fall
John McVeigh received emergency treatment at Worley hospital yesterday afternoon after falling from a scaffold to the cement drive way at his residence on East Twelfth street. He suffered sprains of both wrists and a badly bruised nose.

Enrols in College
Lawrence Stalcup, for the last two years assistant pressman for the Pampa Daily News, had resigned and entered Oklahoma City university. He graduated from Pampa high school with the class of 1933.

Dead Dogs Numerous
The police department is busy receiving complaints and the sanitation department is kept busy answering them. The complaints are about dead dogs. Never a day passes that the police department doesn't get calls about dead dogs lying in Pampa streets. Some of the animals are car victims while others—police believe most of them—are victims of poison.

Return from Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Russell McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson have returned from a vacation in South Texas and the Rio Grande valley. They went into Old Mexico, where they attended a bull fight, and visited points on the Gulf.

Birthday Dinner Is Given as Surprise
Mrs. H. C. Jones entertained with a surprise birthday dinner for Mr. Jones at her home Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lofland, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Doty, Mrs. Polle Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brady Swept by $100,000 Flood

Torrents poured through the center section of Brady, Tex., swirling into stores, covering the public square, and pounding at the house steps, when Brady creek, which runs through the center of town, went on a rampage. This picture shows a flooded downtown street after the water had broken a levee and forced hundreds to flee from their island homes. Damage is estimated at $100,000. A previous flood, in 1930, took $300,000 toll in Brady.

"My dear fellow, how dreadful!" said Albery. "You appal me! I'm all in a tremble. Forgive me, if I don't sound quite reasonable. What an escape! We must go into this at once. Why, you might have been killed! You would have been, but for your parachute."

"And think that Laurie was going up with you! It's like a bad dream. I can't take in it. You must go thoroughly into it at once. I'm bound to go to Berlin tonight. I can't be able to see you, though I'd give anything to stay."

"I guess it would take a lot to kill me," said Rex Moore. "And again that ghastly grin distorted Albery's face. He went on talking for several minutes, but afterwards he could not remember a word that he had said."

Laurie spent four days of almost complete solitude. Albery was detained in Berlin. She did her routine work at the office. Albery had deputed her to look after his correspondence, and she communicated with him by telephone twice every day.

"Please don't tell Laurie, Mr. Albery. I've kept it absolutely dark here. We mustn't let anything come out—on account of the new fuel, you know. Of course, it must have been a mistake."

Laurie said quietly, "I know there's something wrong. You've been helping Glad to keep things from me. Where's Glad?"
"I don't know," whimpered Nelly in a last frantic effort of loyalty. "You do know and you're going to tell me. You're a very wicked girl."

Laurie learns the truth about Gladys tomorrow.

Jesse James' Visits in City; Exhibits Proof

Jesse W. James, 88, who claims to be the original middle western outlaw band leader, was here today. Last night he entertained at the Hoover ranch near Canadian, where he has been a guest. He tells the story of his life and draws morals from it.

The "pretender," as newspapers have called him during several trials caused by his claims, has a book of clippings which recounts incidents tending to support his claims. He has unearthen pistols and other articles claimed to have been buried by him while an outlaw.

The real Jesse James is supposed to have been dead many years. The old gentlemen here today bears a remarkable physical resemblance to photographs of the outlaw.

Huey Didn't Like 'Kingfish' Title
Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—The sobriquet "Kingfish" slipped upon Huey Long.

He deplored it as a joke from a radio program and immediately his friends seized upon it and labelled him "Kingfish Long."

Long never did like the title and at one time was heard to remark: "Kingfish, hell, I'm no fish. I'm gonna get me a title with something like lion and tiger in it."

But he never succeeded in escaping the title "Kingfish."

Friends Argue About Where to Bury Huey Long

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—Funeral arrangements for Senator Huey P. Long had not been completed today.

Friends urged his family to permit the construction of an elaborate mausoleum on the grounds of the state capital to hold his body. They argued that the tall state house, erected during the governorship of Long, would serve as a fitting monument to his memory.

Others sought to have him buried at the scene of his boyhood in Winn parish, while still others thought he should be laid to rest in New Orleans, the state's largest city.

But wherever Huey Long is buried there will be monuments galore to his memory. Several buildings and structures, fisheries, and other public institutions bear the name, cut in granite, Huey P. Long.

Ballots Instead Of Bullets Urged

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Father Charles E. Coughlin was quoted by the Albany Evening News today as saying Senator Huey P. Long's death was "the most regrettable thing in modern history."

Father Coughlin learned of Long's death when he transferred from an early morning train to an automobile to be driven to Barington, Conn.

"No matter how bitter our animosity may be, in a democracy such as ours we should never have recourse to bullets to settle political disputes," the Michigan priest was quoted as saying.

"Our motto must always be 'ballot, not bullets.'"

Father Coughlin was said to be on his way to visit Joseph E. Kennedy, head of the Securities and Exchange commission, and Frank Keeton, a former schoolmate.

Even my laundress admits that MAYTAG washed clothes are cleaner

In the Maytag, flushing currents of hot suds take the place of hand mauling, rubbing, scrubbing and back work. It makes harsh bleaching agents unnecessary. Yet it washes so gently that the clothes last longer.

That's why millions prefer the Maytag way—clothes washed at home—safe from rough handling and dangerous contacts.

The Maytag is so simple and convenient that it is fun to use...so fast that washday becomes wash-hour. Investigate the Maytag. Find out why it is different from other washers.

Chief Citizens Attend Funeral Of Long Slayer

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—A flower-banked grave today marked the resting place of Dr. Carl A. Weiss, mild-mannered physician who turned assassin and mortally wounded Senator Huey P. Long.

The 30-year-old eye specialist, in turn shot down by Long's bodyguards, was buried yesterday following services attended by thousands of persons representing every strata of society.

The physician's parents, his wife of two years and his associates could give no reason beyond a passive political opposition to Long for shooting the senator.

His bullet-torn body was lowered into the grave while the throng at the services stood in a heavy rain.

Six physicians, his associates, served as pallbearers. The office of the dead was chanted by the Rev. E. L. Gessier. Interment was in Roselawn cemetery.

Wreaths from the Kiwanis club and the Young Business Men's club decked the casket and large delegations of each organization attended the funeral. Others present were former Gov. John M. Parker, Congressman J. Y. Sanders Jr., Dean R. L. Tullis and District Attorney John Fred Odum.

"I am convinced beyond any doubt," Dr. Weiss' father said, "that my son did not go into the capital Sunday night to kill Long. Whatever happened there between him and the senator and those who killed him, I do not think I shall ever know. That is something we'll never know. And what happened there, what brought him there, will always be between him and his maker."

KING

After the Long controlled legislature had driven the city into virtual bankruptcy, Long died just as he was driving through measures that would restore revenue to New Orleans after the old regulars had capitulated.

Long's death came at an embarrassing time for his machine as he was greasing the mechanism for an election in January that would include his candidacy for re-election to the United States senate, the election of national representatives, the governor and other state officers. He had announced he would defeat his opponents for reelection to the house of representatives and that he would sweep his entire slate into office.

Maybe Long would have, as he had done before, but there is no leader left in his organization who can drive as swiftly and as cunningly as Huey could in the saddle. His death gave great courage to his political opponents, who were split into several factions, one reason for Long's ascent to power.

There was talk Governor Allen would resign the governorship and accept appointment from Noe as United States senator in succession to Long but Allen said last night that when his term as governor expired next spring he would retire to private life and never accept public office.

Nothing in the direction of reorganization of the Long machine was expected until after Long's funeral. However, there was one thing certain—there will not be another dictator of Louisiana of the Long ilk. There was only one Huey. After him, they broke the mould.

NOT RELATED

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—Dr. Claude Austin Weiss Jr., who fatally wounded Senator Huey P. Long, was not related to Seymour Weiss, the senator's close friend. They are of entirely different families.

Three Powerful Leaders Seek Philippine Presidency

Manuel Quezon

Emilio Aguinaldo

Bishop Gregorio Aglipay

Three long-time leaders of the Filipino people are candidates for the presidency of the islands, to be decided at an election Sept. 17. Favored by most observers to win is the coalition candidate, Manuel Quezon, dominant political figure in the islands for 20 years. He now is Senate president and was Philippine commissioner in Washington. Emilio Aguinaldo, who led insurrections against both Spain and the U. S., is a strong contender. He was president of the first Philippine republic, his government later collapsing. The third aspirant is Bishop Gregorio Aglipay, leader of the Independent Catholic church of the islands, with 1,500,000 members.

Death Bed of Huey Reunites His 4 Brothers

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—The death bed of Huey P. Long brought together for the first time in years the four Long brothers, who at times bitterly quarrel over politics and personal affairs.
Most noticeable among the bed was Julius Long, the eldest brother, who learned from his father the law education and became his law partner in Huey's early days.
In recent years Julius and Huey broke off all relations, Julius branding Huey a "rotten" "rotten" man. Julius even investigated the senate investigation committee against his brother. But when Huey was dying in the hospital, Julius came and mingled his tears with those of the brothers.

Earl Long, the youngest brother, in recent months had been reunited with Huey in his office after several years' separation. Before the reconciliation Earl worked with Huey's most bitter political opponents, but the death bed brought him into the fold of sorrowful relatives.

Dr. George S. Long, a second brother, journeyed from Oklahoma for a farewell to Huey. George had been an admirer of his brother although Huey had refused to aid him in his campaigns for office in Oklahoma. Huey's death sorely affected him.

administered oxygen and made five blood transfusions.

Dr. E. L. Sanderson said officially a "gunshot wound in the abdomen" was the cause of Long's death.

Even before Senator Long died, there was a demand for a full investigation of the fatal shooting.

Rep. Fenerty (R-Pa.) said: "The congressional committee which is about to investigate Senator's activities in Louisiana might also investigate who it was who instigated his attempted murder."

Rep. Lewis (D-Colo.) a member of this committee, expressed doubt, however, the house body would investigate the assassination.

In Baton Rouge, no move by the legislature for an investigation had been made. A coroner's inquest was already underway.

At the senator's bedside when he died was the widow, whom he married 22 years ago.

Became Delirious

Senator Long became delirious at midnight last night, and soon lost consciousness, Earl J. Christenberry, his secretary, said he exclaimed: "Where are my children?"

His children, Rose, Russell and Palmer Reid were rushed to his side, but too late for the senator to recognize them.

The secretary said there were last wishes expressed by the senator. He would not divulge them because he said they concerned the family and were private.

Mrs. Jack Docournaul, a niece, gave another version of the senator's last act before he lost consciousness. He sent for Mrs. Long, who had left the room, she said, and as she walked in, he exclaimed:

"Here comes my sweetheart. Where are all the children? I love all of you."

Governor O. K. Allen, who was tearful as he emerged from the death chamber, said the senator wondered "what will happen to my poor university boys." The senator made himself the particular patron of the football team of the University of Louisiana.

Fighting determinedly, Long also told Seymour Weiss, a close friend and treasurer of the Long organization, at the bedside:

"I want to live."

The body was sent to a funeral home.

Christenberry said the body of the senator would lie in state in the five million dollar capitol which was erected when he was governor and in which he was shot. Other arrangements awaited a conference in the office of Governor Allen.

HUEY P. LONG

At the bedside besides Mrs. Long and the children, Governor Allen and Christenberry, were the senator's sisters, Mrs. W. M. Knott and Mrs. Stewart Hunt, and their husbands; his brothers, Dr. G. S. Long, Julius and Earl and the latter's wife, his father, Dr. Roy Long, and several cousins.

Fifth Transfusion

The fifth blood transfusion which the physicians attempted to administer to Senator Long never was completed. At 3 a. m. Dr. Sanderson announced there no longer was any hope.

"He is dying," he said.

"The end was only little more than an hour away then and the physicians had abandoned their battle against death."

"We have done everything in the world we could for him," Dr. Sanderson said.

Governor Allen made the official death announcement. His voice was husky and barely audible.

"This marks the death of Huey P. Long the passing of the greatest builder of economies in the history of Louisiana in 225 years," he said.

"It also marks with the death of Huey P. Long the passing of the greatest hero for the common right of all the people of America."

The marriage of Long and the former Rose McConnell followed a courtship typical of the speed of the senator's life.

They met in Memphis. Long, traveling agent for a packing firm, was promoting a cooking contest. Mrs. Long won the prize. A few months later, during a visit to Shreveport, she was instrumental in converting Long, who was charged with participating in a minor shooting scrape. She pro-

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 10 (AP)—Officials announced today that the body of the assassinated Huey Long would lie in state in the rotunda of the magnificent state-house he built, from 1 p. m. (C. S. T.) tomorrow until 4 p. m. Thursday. It was not announced when the funeral would be held pending probable adoption of a concurrent resolution by the legislature for the burial of the senator's body on the statehouse grounds. It was explained the resolution would provide for interment of Long on the capital grounds only in the event Mrs. Long agreed.

Frank Monroe, B. S., W. T. S. T. C., teaches commerce. He taught in the Junior high school last year.

Harry Kelley, W. T. S. T. C., has charge of boy's physical education. Miss Kathleen Milam, B. A., Baylor, supervises physical education for girls. She has done work toward her M. A.

J. L. Lester, B. S., Sam Houston State Teachers college, Huntsville, is head of the department of vocational agriculture.

Murals Given to School Portray Notable Scenes

Murals of scenes significant in Texas history are being placed on corridor walls in school buildings throughout the city. They are the gift of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce to the city schools.

The pictures, fifteen in number were painted for the parade which featured the Texas Pre-Centennial celebration held here last spring. They are the work of Tom Simms, graduate of Panhandle, a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, who teaches art classes in Pampa. Mr. Simms is a brother of Mrs. Frances Alexander, of the high school faculty.

Four of the murals will be placed in the senior high school, three in the junior high school, and two in each of the ward schools.

LOOKING AHEAD

Now, before it is too late to do anything about it, we should ask ourselves why we are taking the subjects we are and where they will lead us.

The courses offered by Pampa high school are intended to meet the needs of all students, regardless of their future aims. It is our own place to decide which will be of most value to us. School officials do not attempt to dictate to any great extent what we shall study. The choice is largely ours.

And just here we need a bit of warning. Colleges are strict about what they accept for entrance. Only a small percentage of our high school graduates go to college, and the curriculum is intended to meet the needs of all. If we are planning to go to college, it is up to us to see that we choose the right things for admission.

It is not unusual for a graduate of P. H. S. to blame the school when he fails to get admission to a certain college, when a glance over his record will show that the fault is his own. He has 16 units of credit all right, but he has not selected those subjects which will be accepted for admission to the college of his choice.

Perhaps he has taken no foreign language and his college requires it, or he may have only one year of a language, when colleges demand two years or none. Perhaps he has not enough science. Or perhaps he has too many credits in social studies, or more likely, too many vocational subjects. Colleges vary greatly in the amounts they will accredit in these fields.

Perhaps he has some unaffiliated credits. Although Pampa high school has as high a ranking as any school in the state, some of the courses which she offers and will count toward graduation are not affiliated but are intended especially to meet the needs of students not planning further education.

Take for example typewriting, undoubtedly one of the most valuable subjects offered in our high school. P. H. S., like most other high schools, offers a full year's work in typing with a unit of credit toward graduation, realizing that a student needs that much training to become a good typist. Yet few colleges will count more than half a unit in typewriting for admission.

Let us try to consider what we need and select our course accordingly—and not blame our high school afterwards if some college fails to grant us admission because we have not chosen well.

Incidentally, the wise student will

FOOTBALL MEN ARE GREEN BUT WORKING HARD

Harvesters Will Meet Exes Again on Friday

"Green, but big and willing to learn," fully describes this season's prospective Harvester football players. The charges of Coaches Mitchell and Prejean have a bright outlook for the season despite the fact that the squad is made up largely of green material.

The Harvesters will get a fine chance to show their strength Friday when they again tangle with the Exes. The squad should be whipped into fair shape by that time, and an excellent showing may be expected.

The Harvesters will open the season Friday, September 20, when they meet the strong Lawton, Okla., team here in a night game. This game should be a decisive test of Harvester strength, for Lawton has almost its entire squad returning from last season and four of its men were last year given honorable mention for the Oklahoma all-state team.

Guill Will Head New Department

Public speaking work in Pampa high school has been reorganized by the creation of a department of public speaking with Ben Guill as list head. Mr. Guill has taught public speaking here in the past and was the director of the Pampa cast which won state honors in the one-act play contest in 1934.

Courses offered include dramatics, public speaking, and debate. A room has been prepared for use in speech work. It is equipped with a stage and has tables and chairs instead of desks.

All students who win honors in dramatics or in public speaking will have their pictures hung on the walls of this "P. H. S. Hall of Fame."

High School Band Prospect Is Good

Prospects for the 1935 high school band seem very favorable in spite of the fact that 75 per cent of last year's bandmen were lost through graduation.

Winston Savage, new high school music director, has been working with his green material all summer, and he believes that he will have a fine band on the field for the first football game.

Leaders are selected by the group and are passed upon by a faculty committee. To be eligible for leadership, the girls must have passed all their courses the previous term and must have been members of the organization at least a year. Leaders may serve only one term.

Girls, which are bought by individuals, members are worn during the fall term at all school assemblies, rallies, parades, and ball games. Several trips will be made to out of town football games. Transportation is furnished by the school, the only cost to the girls being their personal expenditure.

Sponsorship For 1935-36 Announced

Principal L. L. Sone announced yesterday the sponsors and coaches who will guide high school students in their various activities this year.

In the field of physical education and athletics, Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean will coach the Harvesters, while E. N. Dennard and W. N. Anderson will tutor the Gorillas; B. G. Gordon and Miss Kathleen Milam will be in charge of the boys' and girls' tennis; J. L. Lester will coach volleyball; Harry Kelley will supervise boys' physical education classes; and Miss Milam will teach physical education classes for girls.

Mrs. Hol Wagner will be faculty sponsor for the annual, and Delmer Ashworth will supervise work on "The Little Harvester" and sponsor the Journalism Club.

Miss Angela Strnad and Mrs. E. L. Norman will be in charge of the pep squad.

Winston Savage will supervise band and orchestra work.

J. L. Lester and A. E. Frasier will sponsor Hi-Y work and stock judging team.

Ben Guill will be in charge of work in dramatics.

Miss Zenobia McFarlin will handle school banking, and Ben Guill and B. G. Gordon will be in charge of the advertising of athletic contests and other activities during the first semester.

GRADE-POINT SYSTEM RAISES SCHOLASTIC AVERAGE NEEDED FOR GRADUATION FROM P. H. S.

Arithmetic Will Be Required for Graduation Here

Half a credit in arithmetic will be required hereafter for graduation from Pampa high school, according to E. G. Gordon, head of the mathematics department. This is in addition to one unit in algebra and one in plane geometry.

Either commercial or advanced arithmetic will be acceptable. The revised handbook recommends commercial arithmetic for freshmen and sophomores and advanced arithmetic for juniors and seniors.

Other requirements for graduation will remain the same as those published in the handbook last year, according to Principal L. L. Sone. A minimum of 16 units is necessary, with the following required:

- English—4.
- Algebra—1.
- Plane geometry—1.
- Arithmetic—1/2.
- Science—1 with a foreign language or 2 without.

Foreign language—2 in the same language if language is elected.

History and civics—2, one of which must be American history or civics.

Electives sufficient to make a total of 16 units.

Each student is required to have a major—three credits—in some field besides English. Majors can be chosen from the following fields:

- Social science—History, civics, economics, sociology.
- Mathematics—Algebra, plane and solid geometry, trigonometry, commercial and advanced arithmetic.
- Commercial work—Typewriting, bookkeeping, stenography, commercial law, commercial arithmetic, commercial geography.
- Foreign languages—Latin and Spanish.
- Science—General science, biology, physiology, physics, chemistry.
- Vocational agriculture.
- Home economics.

Sponsors Expect Large Number in Pep Squad Work

Ex-students who have pep squad suits for sale have been asked either to bring them to the gymnasium Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock or else to get into communication with Miss Angela Strnad or Mrs. E. L. Norman, sponsors of the organization.

The pep squad, one of Pampa high school's most colorful organizations, is expected to have a larger personnel this year than in any preceding term, according to the sponsors.

The purposes of this group are to add color and enthusiasm to school activities and to train girls in good sportsmanship, leadership, and good fellowship. Attendance at all meetings, rallies, and games is compulsory. The squad will meet for one hour daily during the fall term, and this activity counts as a fourth unit of credit in physical education.

Leaders are selected by the group and are passed upon by a faculty committee. To be eligible for leadership, the girls must have passed all their courses the previous term and must have been members of the organization at least a year. Leaders may serve only one term.

Girls, which are bought by individuals, members are worn during the fall term at all school assemblies, rallies, parades, and ball games. Several trips will be made to out of town football games. Transportation is furnished by the school, the only cost to the girls being their personal expenditure.

Library Will Open Monday, Sept. 16

Miss Grace Fern Latimer, high school librarian, announced yesterday that the library will be open to students Monday, September 16.

Miss Latimer added that those students who are interested in assisting in the library for a period each day should see her at once. At least two students can be used each period. The work helps to further the student's knowledge of books, both inside and out, and offer an opportunity for service to the school, Miss Latimer said.

New books and magazines will be ordered immediately, and every effort will be made to link the library with each department in school.

Quality of Work Will Decide Value Of Unit

A total of 96 grade-points with a minimum of 16 units of credit will be required hereafter for graduation from Pampa high school, according to L. L. Sone, principal. In addition to four points in extra-curricular activities will be necessary.

The grade-point value of a unit of credit will depend upon the quality of work done by the student.

Under the new grade-point system, which has the endorsement of Supt. R. B. Fisher and the entire high school faculty, the scholastic average required for graduation will be raised. Although the grade of 70 will still be passing, a student must have a grade-point value of 75 in order to graduate with the minimum of 16 units of credit.

If upon completion of 16 units of credit a student's grades have not been high enough to earn 96 grade-points, he will be required to take additional courses to earn the necessary grade-points before being granted a diploma.

70 Minimum Passing Grade

A grade below 70 indicates that the student's work is of too poor a quality to merit recognition. A mark of 70-74 is regarded as poor and has a grade-point value of 5. A grade of 75-79 is considered average and has a grade-point value of 6. A mark of 80-84 is average and has a grade-point value of 7. A grade of 85-89 is above average and has a grade-point value of 8. A mark of 90-94 is excellent and has a grade-point value of 9. A grade of 95-100 is superior and has a grade-point value of 10.

In other words, 16 units of credit with grades averaging between 75 and 79 will make the minimum required number of grade-points. The strong student of course, will have more than 96 grade-points upon the completion of 16 units.

75 Average Required

A student can still pass a course with a grade as low as 70, but for every grade he receives below 75, he will have to make another 75 to maintain the necessary average. A total of 720 units will be necessary for a student whose scholastic average is below 75. This will necessitate spending five years in high school.

Extra-curricular activities count one point each. During his four years in high school, each student is required to earn a minimum of four activity-points.

The general tendency of the new grade-point system will be to raise the scholastic requirements of the school. For several years the high school has refused to recommend grades below 75 for college entrance. The grade-point system is widely used among colleges and the larger high schools.

DID YOU KNOW -

High school classes will meet for forty-minute periods Wednesday morning, September 18, at 8 o'clock.

A half-year course in sociology is being offered for the first time this year. It will be followed by a course in Texas history the second semester. Ernest Cabe will teach the courses.

There will be a regular class period for tennis training this year, according to B. G. Gordon, the tennis coach. This work will come at the sixth period and will replace the recreational period. Those students who wish to enroll for the course must have the permission of the coach to do so.

Wonder if things are changing when we see our old campus sweethearts together again—none other than "Our Janice and Don."

You'd better see the buttons on your vests and take good care of the waves in your hair—Mr. Guill and Mr. Dennard—because now you've got some real competition now that Mr. Monroe is teaching in high school—let alone all the other new teachers.

The old saying goes that redheads are the smartest. If this be true, we should have a very remarkable football record this year.

We wonder who "Dorothy" is—maybe we'd better ask Chubby Stewart.

Pampa high school's prospects for a championship golf team this year are better than they have been in any previous season, according to L. L. Sone, golf coach.

Mr. Sone reports that three of last year's third, Red Watkins, two of these, John Austin and Elmer Watkins, won district honors last year. The third, Red Watkins, played in most of last season's matches, and his experience should prove valuable this year.

There are also many new golf prospects. With last year's regulars and this new material, Mr. Sone has an excellent chance of turning out a winning team.

Sone Announces New Rulings on Student Affairs

Principal L. L. Sone yesterday announced new rules governing high school affairs which have been adopted since the "Handbook" was published last year.

Rules covering the grade point system, the arithmetic requirement, and journalistic work are explained in other stories in this issue of "The Little Harvester." Other new rules adopted follow.

Graduation

All pupils must complete the full sixteen units of credit to receive a diploma from Pampa high school. However, a pupil who lacks only one-half unit may go through the graduation exercises. In May with the assurance that he will complete that one-half unit in summer school.

At the commencement exercises the program shall contain the names of those who graduate at the regular time and another list designated as those who will graduate at the completion of summer school.

Junior-Senior Banquet

All pupils must have completed as many as 7 units of credit by the beginning of the second semester if they attend the junior-senior banquet. A pupil in his junior year pays for his banquet ticket and one other ticket. Graduating seniors only are guests, for no pupil is allowed to attend more than one banquet free of charge.

Carlsbad Trip

All pupils must have completed as many as 11 units of credit by the beginning of the second semester to go on the Carlsbad trip. Post-graduates, attending school, and pupils who have gone before, must have special permission to go.

Junior Play

All pupils who have completed as many as 7 units of credit by the beginning of the second semester, and not so many as 11, may try out for the junior play; however, no pupil may be in more than one junior play.

Eligibility Rule

All pupils must have passed in at least three subjects the previous semester and must be passing in at least three subjects at the time in order to be eligible for any activity.

Harry Kelley is making a special rate of fifteen cents to all school children who want to see the spot from which his tonsils were removed. His regular fee is twenty-five cents. He will appreciate your patronage.

Ask Snooper where he saw Dan Foster's truck every morning last summer.

Mr. Dennard and Mr. Savage had to force Frank Monroe to move out of the doorway of the registration room so they might get some girls in their classes.

It seems as if some of our high school girls are slipping since the swimming pool closed.

Mr. Savage's initials are F. W. S., which—according to Ben Guill—means "Few Women Survive."

Just ask Evelyn Bicknell to sigh real big for you...

Snooper notices that Garvin Ekins and Cleo Benton are getting an early start this year.

Some of our high school boys can drive for years without ever getting hurt, but the minute they get riding with certain girls, it seems to put a jinx on them.

Snooper hears that several of our high school boys have been cradled-snatching again. Tch, tch!

Journalism Work Draws Students

Unusual interest in the journalism course is being evinced by students during registration. This course, open only to juniors and seniors, aims to provide an advanced composition course with newspaper motivation, to develop newspaper appreciation, and to arouse interest in current events. "The Little Harvester," the school paper is the chief project of the class.

Any high school student may serve as a reporter on the school paper; however, to be eligible for a position on the staff, a pupil must either be enrolled in this course or already have credit for it. A full unit of credit is given in journalism; one semester's work alone cannot be accredited.

This issue of "The Little Harvester" was published through the efforts of Mrs. Hol Wagner, and Delmer Ashworth, of the faculty, and George Lane and John Martin, seniors. It is expected that regular student reporters will produce all material for next week's issue.

Gym Classes Will Alternate Weekly

High school physical education classes this year will be given three days for boys and two days for girls one week while girls will meet three times and boys twice the following week.

Activities in these classes will not be strenuous. Those students who do not go out for some sport are expected to enroll for physical education work unless they have a physician's order not to do so.

In connection with the regular activities of the department, intramural contests will be fostered.

AFTER A DICTATOR, WHAT?

Vast academic conjectures may be tested in Louisiana following the death of Senator Huey P. Long, a dictator in every sense of the word. Who can follow Senator Long and, through sheer leadership or force of arms, prevent chaos in that turbulent state? The results will be watched closely for their interest in connection with dictatorships everywhere. For no dictator is immortal and many will die short of their natural spans under assassins' bullets. Dictatorships, while often necessary in crises, defeat their own ends when they continue to the point of destroying capacity for self-government.

Dictators in this modern day, as in ancient times, live much by the sword. And the Biblical prophecy that such men often die by the sword is often illustrated. Senator Long was a violent man, in a violent political situation. His ever-present bodyguard was often the subject of derision, but his death proves that his fears were well grounded. Whether the slaying grew out of a plot, or his gerrymandering tactics may be shown in the congressional investigation which shortly will begin.

Senator Long was hated and adored with equal fervency. His audacious attacks on President Roosevelt, his swashbuckling manner, his cock-sure and profane boasts, and his cutting remarks about political rivals made him a feared and despised foe. He was unpredictable in minor matters. Reporters never knew whether to expect a warm welcome or a pummeling at the hands of his guards. Photographers expected the worst, but sometimes found a willing subject. The senator was alternately warm-hearted and bullying.

But with all his faults, Senator Long—in the language of his speeches—"had something on the ball". He was a master of invective and emotional appeals on stump. He voiced the aspirations of the underprivileged as well as any man in America, despite the fact that he was the demagog in many matters pertaining to taxation and distribution of wealth. He exposed the littleness, the corruption, and the demagoguery of professional politicians. It was said that he diligently delved into the secret sins of his enemies and had the nerve to use this information when pressed. This fact explained why his colleagues in Washington tolerated his insurgency as much as they did.

Senator Long was typical of an era, of the depression and the attitudes it brewed. But he was more than a product of opportunism; he was a product of Louisiana. New Orleans and its political machine deserved an enemy. Louisiana was over-ripe for many of the reforms which Mr. Long pushed through. The man left a record of good deeds as well as unfortunate ones. But he did not know when to use moderation.

He stirred up hatreds which went beyond the limits of reform. He asked for powers which made him supreme over friends as well as enemies. His policy invited violence. His death arouses, in Pampa as well as Louisiana, a surprising mixture of regret and satisfaction. He was that kind of a man. We doubt that many persons living outside of Louisiana are in a position adequately to judge his weird career.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Displays of genuine emotion, as distinguished from the simulated variety, are so rare in Congress that they shouldn't pass without mention.

Nor is it every day that a president of the United States clambers rapidly and awkwardly down from a high perch.

Those two phenomena, however, acted respectively as cause and effect in the sequence of events leading up to passage of the first piece of neutrality legislation to go on the law books. It was the red-hot indignation of certain members, conspicuously Senator Homer Bone of Washington and Representative Maury Maverick of Texas, which impressed and infected others to the extent of wrecking a neat plan to bury the proposals designed to keep us out of war.

Bone rushed onto the Senate floor and held it most of the day with as passionate, forceful, and effective a delivery as one has heard since Costigan of Colorado spoke for unemployment relief in the ruggedly individualistic Hoover period.

Tracing the 1914-17 "road-to-war" through State Department documents recently unearthed, ably seconded by Nye, Clark, and Vandenberg, Bone poured out a scorn for bureaucrats and plutocrats who might again bungle us into war which was equaled only by his contempt for a Congress which would ignore European war clouds and toddle home without action to insure this country against participation.

Senators and gallerites sat tense. When Bone had finished, it was obvious that neutrality legislation would pass the Senate. It quickly did, almost unanimously.

The House Foreign Relations Committee was framing a relatively innocuous bill and few believed even that would reach the House floor. The Senators went to House members and demanded strong action. Bone demanded of Rules Chairman John O'Connor that his committee let the neutrality proposals onto the floor, "in the name of your mother and every other mother..." and O'Connor caved in.

Meanwhile, Maverick and eight other Congressmen went to the White House about it. Roosevelt at once complained to them about the mandatory provision of the Senate resolution.

"I want the power to exercise executive discretion," he said.

"But you're not going to get it!" blurted Maverick, who is still badly crippled from wound received in the last war, in what was probably an unprecedented outburst at the White House. "There's no reason why you—as president—should have the power to steer us toward war. That kind of legislation will never go thru the House or the Senate."

The other eight supported Maverick and threatened a filibuster.

Within half an hour, the White House had sent word to the hill that it would consent to a mandatory embargo on munitions until March, and to the rest of the Senate bill.

The law Congress passed imposes the arms embargo, licenses munitions experts, and lets the president lay down minor restrictions. It falls short of the Nye-Clark resolutions because it doesn't say anything about the loans or ordinary exports to warring nations—two major routes to the last war. The Senate munitions group

ETHIOPIA HAS FOUGHT ALMOST CONTINUOUSLY FOR CENTURIES

BY CHARLES NORMAN (Associated Press Staff Writer)

Ethiopia, with "one foot in the Middle Ages and the other in the League of Nations," present a vivid contrast to the rest of Africa.

Elsewhere on the Dark Continent the white man is respected as conqueror and modernizer; in the land of Emperor Haile Selassie the white man is neither conqueror nor builder, for he has been defeated there.

The history of Ethiopia, a chronicle of constant warfare, best explains its seemingly anomalous position in the twentieth century. A country almost continuously busy on the field of battle has found little time for progress and modernization.

Wars Were Many
 It has fought and defeated the Arabians, Egyptians, Turks, Derivishes and neighboring races and tribes of every description—the Adels, Danakils, Galls and others—and in modern times inflicted severe defeats on the Sudanese and Italians.

The Ethiopians have lived surrounded by enemies. They have seen a combination of great European powers take their ports and their coastline away and have been cut off in this and other ways from the world and progress.

Their ships which centuries ago ploughed through the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean with their country's products, are now dim memories in the minds of the people.

Glory In Battle
 But they have lost nothing of their pride in their independence.

Aerial Circus Of S.M.U. Has An Ideal Cast

BY FELIX R. McKNIGHT, DALLAS, Sept. 10 (AP)—The big tent went up today and Southern Methodist's aerial circus—bigger and better than ever, they say—took its opening workout under a brand new ringmaster.

Madsion (Matly) Bell, starting on the first of a three-year term with the daring young men of the flying footballs, can't get excited about reports he is "on the spot." He points to a sparkling squad of 42 men, 22 of them lettermen, and laughs it off.

The aerial antics Ray Morrison created at Southern Methodist will live on, despite the fact he has switched to Vanderbilt university. Bell had a personal hand in the sky tricks last year while handling the linemen. He knows passing and will serve it up aplenty this fall.

Stily he admits "we could slip under the wire in the Southwest conference race." For his "slipping" act he has very near the ideal squad—16 seniors, nine juniors, and 17 sophomores, including eight ends, seven tackles, seven guards, three centers, and 17 backs.

Perhaps the greatest backfield in years will twinkle this season. Little Robert Wilson, two years the leading scorer of the conference, will be out to make it a grand slam. Harry Shuford, all-Southwest conference fullback and 190 pounds of defensive genius, will play his last season. Shelley Burt, a pounding ball carrier and big Johnny Sprague, of "the football Spragues," complete the first string.

The reserve material is near perfect. J. C. (Cotton) Meyers, J. R.

(Jackrabbit) Smith, big Bob Finley, Charles (Jackie) Gore, James Russell, Bob Turner are tried veterans. Two sophomores, Laddie Labrusso and Henry Guynes, add to the wealth of reserve backfield material.

His line, Coach Bell thinks now, will stack up this way: Maco Stewart and Bill Tipton, ends; Maurice Orr and Truman Spain, tackles; J. C. (Iron Man) Wetzel and Billy Stamps, guards; Arthur Johnson, center.

Eleven lettermen could start any game, with 11 more ready on the bench.

The coaching staff presents an entirely new set-up. Besides Bell, elevated to head coach from his line duties of last season, are Vic Hurt and Charlie Trigg.

Hurt comes to Southern Methodist from Oklahoma Baptist university, where his football teams over a 10-year period won 75 per cent of their games. He will serve as head track coach.

Trigg returns to his alma mater as freshman coach after several years of successful coaching at Highland Park high school.

Three captains will lead the Mustangs—Stewart, Shuford, and Wetzel.

Matly thinks his Mustangs should rank with Rice, Texas Christian, and Texas as one of the four leaders in the conference race, with any one of these teams having "an outside chance of winning the title."

Southern Methodist finished in third place last year with three victories, one tie and two defeats—the latter at the hands of Rice and the lowly Baylor Bears.

Hell Riders' Nightmares! Death Takes a Holiday

2 CARS RACING AT LIGHTNING SPEED. MEET IN HEAD-ON COLLISION—TO SHOW YOU WHAT REALLY HAPPENS

A DARE-DEVIL MOTORCYCLE RIDER CRASHES THROUGH A SOLID FLAMING WALL TO MAKE A THRILL

DRIVING AT WILD SPEED HE WILL LOOP-THE-LOOP IN A NEW MODEL CAR, CAN IT TAKE IT?

Col. Reg Robbins and his "Hell Riders" will hold a flirtation with death tonight at Road Runner park, and a crowd of more than 4,000 is expected to be there when their show gets under way promptly at 8 p. m.

All is in readiness for the "Hell Riders" to duplicate for the edification of Pampans stunts with new cars, old cars and motorcycles that they have seen only in the movies—a head-on automobile collision, an automobile loop-the-loop, a motorcycle wall crash, motorcycle and automobile jumps of ten feet across a gap in the runway especially constructed for the show and distances of 50 to 60 feet.

Men who have performed in air circuses and get a bigger thrill out of their new feats, a woman motorcycle rider and amateur motorcycle stunt rider will perform. The cast includes Col. Robbins, who won his first fame when he took an airplane over Fort Worth and broke the endurance record of the Question Mark, army plane. The other performers are Juan Ruiz, Lucky Joe Fitzgerald, and Miss Jean Appleton.

In addition to the stunts that will be done by Robbins and his daring riders, there will be a contest to find the best trick and fancy amateur motorcycle rider in Pampa and the northeastern Panhandle. A cash prize will be offered by Robbins to the winner.

A sample of what Robbins and his performers will do:

Head-on automobile collision. Two cars will be completely wrecked as they are driven 25 to 30 miles an hour into each other. A man will be at the controls of each, as they are driven into the wreck.

In the jumping events, a 1935 model automobile will be driven at top speed up a board runway, which at its highest point is 36 to 40 inches above the ground. Attempts will be made to take the car over a 60-foot jump on one trial and over shorter jumps on others.

Lucky Joe Fitzgerald, so dubbed because of his many escapes from death, will drive the car on its long jumps and when it is made to loop the loop.

Juan Ruiz will perform with the motorcycle, giving an exhibition of fancy riding, then driving his machine at high speed through a burning board wall. The latter stunt was originated by Ruiz, who has been performing the feat weekly since joining Robbins' company.

Miss Appleton, the Wichita co-ed, will be making her debut as a professional motorcycle rider here tonight. Various stunts and trick riding will comprise her act.

Robbins will give a demonstration of trick and fancy automobile driving, and will be at the wheel of one of the cars that are driven into the head-on collision.

No one except attendants will be allowed to cross the track after the show starts.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Writer.

Salvage those late tomatoes before frost and make some good old-fashioned green tomato ketchup and picadillo.

Don't forget how good they are fried, either. Choose good sized tomatoes and cut them in slices about 3-8 of an inch thick. Sprinkle each slice lightly with sugar, salt and pepper and dip in fine cracker crumbs. Dip in egg lightly beaten with a little cold water and roll again in crumbs. Fry in butter until brown, first on one side and then on the other.

And then there's green tomato mince meat which many consider quite as good as regular mince meat. Any way, it's not as much trouble, and expensive to make.

Green Tomato Mince Meat.

One peck of green tomatoes, 3 lemons, 2 cups seeded raisins, 1 cup currants, 1/2 pound citron, 1 cup chopped suet, 4 pounds light brown sugar, 1 1/2 cups vinegar, 2 tablespoons powdered cinnamon, 1 tablespoon powdered cloves, 1 tablespoon allspice, 1 tablespoon salt.

Wash tomatoes and cut out stem ends and any blemishes. Put thru food chopper. Place in a large crock, sprinkling 1 cup salt through them. Let stand three hours. Drain over night through colander and discard juice. Squeeze juice from lemons and put rind through food chopper. Add juice, lemon rind, vinegar and suet to tomatoes in preserving kettle. Bring to the boiling point and cook 15 minutes. Add sugar, raisins and spices and bring again to the boiling point.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapes, cereal, cream, fried green tomatoes, cinnamon toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Green peppers sautéed with fish, rye bread, picadillo, orange rice pudding, milk, tea.

DINNER: Veal stew with dumplings, spinach with hard cooked eggs, Chinese cabbage and tomato salad, grape juice, Bavarian cream, milk, coffee.

Simmer until thick and seal in hot sterilized jars.

When pies are baked chopped apple and nuts can be added as liked.

Picadillo.

One peck green tomatoes, 3 sweet red peppers, 2 onions, 1 cup salt, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 quart vinegar, 2 tablespoons mustard seed, 1/2 teaspoon pepper.

Wash tomatoes and put through food chopper. Sprinkle with salt and let stand two hours. Add onions peeled and put through the food chopper and let mixture drain thru colander over night. Discard juice. In the morning add peppers seeded and chopped and remaining ingredients. Put in preserving kettle and bring to the boiling point. Boil 15 minutes and put into hot sterilized cans. Seal and store in a dark, cool place.

The blare of bands and the tolling of the callopes bring back memories when Pampans were kids.

OBSERVERS ARE NONPLUSSSED BY LATE ELECTION

Prophets Surprised By Returns of Balloting

AUSTIN, Sept. 9 (AP)—Observers generally are nonplussed over the recent constitutional election and still are pondering the results.

Speculation before the election centered on the repeal and old age pension amendments. It was generally agreed among the impartial that in the repeal election either side had an opportunity to win. The old age amendment was expected to carry by a small margin.

The prophets were greatly surprised when repeal rolled up a majority of about 55,000 and old age pensions carried by more than 250,000.

A novel situation existed in both prohibition and anti-prohibition camps a few days before the election. Leaders in each group privately expressed doubt as to the outcome and said they would not be surprised if either side won. Their public statements as to the balloting lacked the usual confidence although each side predicted victory by a small margin.

The effect of the weather on the vote was given weight but even here views were widely divided.

One group contended that rainy weather would cut down the prohibition vote because farmers in the dry rural areas would not trouble to drive through rain or over muddy roads to vote. Another asserted that if it rained the farmers would have nothing else to do and would come to town for the election.

Election day was bright and sunny and offered no hindrance to rural voters. Notwithstanding, the repeal majority mounted steadily as the heavy rural boxes came in. At ten p. m. repeal led by approximately 19,000 votes but politicians who usually watch the returns closely confidently expected late counts from rural areas to make sharp inroads. They were astonished to learn through morning pa-

TRACK STAR. (right) James Bausch reports: "Camels are so mild they don't get my wind or cut down my speed and endurance. And Camel is a better-tasting cigarette."

SLUGGER. (left) Lou Gehrig says: "Camels never get my wind or my nerves. I like their flavor. That famous saying, 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel!' goes for me too."

SWIMMER. (right) "One of my hard and fast rules in smoking," says Josephine McKim, "is always to choose a Camel. Camels are mild. They never bother my wind."

JANE FAUNTZ, Olympic Swimming and Diving Star. "Being both a swimmer and a diver," says Miss Fauntz, "I have to keep in perfect 'condition.' Since I started smoking, I have always smoked Camels. Camels are mild and made from naturally fine tobaccos. They do not get my wind or jangle my nerves. And as for taste—Camels have a most delightful and appealing flavor. They are so soothing and gentle to the throat."

Other champions agree with Miss Fauntz as to the mildness of Camels... their fragrance and flavor... their good taste. Athletes say Camels don't fray their nerves or get their wind.

SWIMMER. (right) Susan Vilas says: "I've discovered that Camels are mild. They don't cut down my wind or upset my nerves. And Camels are so full of delightful taste."

TENNIS ACE. (left) Bill Tilden: "I must keep in 'condition.' So I smoke Camels. They don't get my wind or upset my nerves. And I never tire of their smooth, rich taste."

STAR WOMAN GOLFER. (right) "There's a certain delicacy in the flavor of Camels," says Helen Hicks. "And Camels do not affect my nerves or cut down my wind."

GOLFER. (left) Tommy Armour: "Camels never bother my nerves or shorten my wind. And a Camel combines mildness with rich flavor in such a pleasing way."
