One Man Killed In Jobs Battle

OVER SCORE WOUNDED IN FIGHTS; HEAVY GUARD PLACED

(By The Associated Press)

MARSEILLES, Ill., July 20—A battle for jobs with guns and fists in which one man was killed and more than a score wounded resulted in placing a heavy guard today over the government dam under construction here.

The half hour of sharp fighting yesterday began when unemployed Illinois union members entered Marseilles to protest employment of out-of-state non-union laborers on the state waterway project.

Steve Sutton of Joliet, Ill., a leader of the unionists, was fatally shot and officers held Dwight Wallace of New Orleans, La., as his assailant. The battle broke when workers charged from behind their barbed wire barricade to rescue their superintendent, Herbert W. Miller, from a beating at the hands of the invaders.

Representatives of the law with 128 alleged participants in the rioting in jail at Ottawa, feared more trouble. All night angry wives of the non-union workers, mostly from Louisiana, kept vigil outside the La Salle county jail there, spurning orders from the construction companies, which employed their husbands, to leave town. They picketed the place awaiting outcome of the inquest today into the slaying.

Ashes Of Holmes Sent To North

SEATTLE, July 20 (AP)—W. H. (Doc) Holmes, Texas oil man and old time Alaska prospector, never lost his love of the north and as he was dying four months ago in Texas asked his ashes be scattered over majestic Mount McKinley, the highest peak of the North American continent, near Fairbanks, Alaska.

Yesterday Walter Holmes, a brother, arrived from Amarillo, Texas, en route to Alaska to fulfill that last request.

Holmes planned to leave here today by airplane for the north.

GRANDI QUITS AS MINISTER

MUSSOLINI INCREASES POWER WITH SHAKEUP OF HIS CABINET

By The Associated Press

ROME, July 20—Dino Grandi, Italian foreign minister resigned today in a far-reaching cabinet shakeup ordered by Premier Mussolini.

Dino Grandi

Five ministers and eleven undersecretaries were displaced in the shakeup. These constituted the first changes in the cabinet since September, 1929.

The shakeup was regarded as another "rotation" to bring new blood into the government without any change in policy.

The five ministers who resigned were Grandi; Alfredo Rocco, minister of justice; Antonio Mosconi, minister of finance; Prof. Balbino Giuliano, minister of education and Giuseppe Bottai, minister of corporations.

Adds To Power

Mussolini, who already was minister of interior as well as premier, kept for himself the ministries of foreign affairs and corporations and also took over all relations with the Vatican and all religious affairs, by detaching the department of cults from the ministry of justice and adding it to the ministry of interior under himself.

NEGRO HELD FOR LOCAL BURGLARY

A negro was arrested by police this morning in connection with burglary last night or early today of M-System grocery No. 1, 1704 Broadway, and loot, consisting of groceries from the store, was recovered. Another negro, arrested earlier by policemen from whom the suspect subsequently arrested had escaped, also was in city jail this morning.

Police expressed a hope that arrest of the second negro, who they said had served a sentence in the state penitentiary for burglary of a tire company's quarters here, also would solve several other recent burglaries. George Eubank, police identifications officer, and T. D. Whitehorn, police detective, arrested him.

A city fireman, Virgil Scott, saw a negro emerge from an alley and notified a policeman and a search for the negro started. He was seen twice and escaped, jumping through a window in a garage in the 1600-block of Fifteenth street the second time. A negro clad only in underclothing was arrested at a servants house on the same premises, however, after a sack of groceries and other articles was found in the garage. The second negro arrested this morning at an automobile service station at which he worked, lived in a nearby servants quarters. Policemen Bill Mabray, P. C. McCoy, and Grady Hairrist participated in the chases.

Dr. John C. Granbery, storm center at Texas Technological college as one of several faculty members not re-employed by the board of directors, filed an application for a passport with Mrs. Olive Fluke, deputy United States clerk here, this morning.

The application asked for a pass necessary to sail August 13 from New Orleans on the Del Mundo for Brazil, where a sister of Doctor Granbery lives. Doctor Granbery, head of the history department at the college, indicated he would be in foreign lands about a year, and intended to enter other countries in addition to Brazil.

PRESIDENT TO SELECT NEW OFFICIALS

OVER THIRTY STATES ALREADY ASKING FOR RELIEF FUNDS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 20.—So there would be time for everybody to get set, including the thirty-odd states that already had shown they wanted some of the money, President Hoover has delayed his signing of the $2,122,000,000 relief bill.

The White House announced the postponed pen work—tentatively set for yesterday—would let the president finish plans for reorganization of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, which will handle the huge emergency fund.

To Appoint Heads

This reorganization was to include appointment of successors to Governor Eugene Meyer of the federal reserve board and Paul Bestor, farm loan commissioner, whose retirements as directors of the corporation the bill made mandator, at the president's request.

Mr. Hoover had given no advance indication as to whom he would select for these posts. Owen D. Young, industrialist, and Wilson W. Mills, Detroit banker, had been discussed by others.

The corporation itself had decided to discard red tape to expedite loans from the $300,000,000 for state relief of destitution and and $322,000,000 for public works, the latter including $132,000,000 which can be used to match state highway expenditures.

There were indications that states might apply very soon for more than $200,000,000 of the $300,000,000 sum as follows:

Arizona, Illinois, New York and Pennsylvania, $45,000,000 each; Michigan $11,800,000, Indiana $8,000,000, Kansas $2,750,000, Missouri and Utah $2,000,000, Idaho $1,500,000, West Virginia $500,000.

Wisconsin was trying to decide on how much to borrow. Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Texas and others were deciding what to do about destitution loans.

BERLIN UNDER MARTIAL LAW

DICTATORSHIP FORMED OVER PRUSSIA TO HALT RIOTING

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, July 20.—The German government with old-time military precision, moved swiftly this morning to establish a virtual dictatorship over the huge state of Prussia and to clamp down martial law on the city of Berlin and the province of Brandenburg.

The first action was taken under an emergency decree issued by President Paul Von Hindenburg this morning. It followed critical pressure on the government to stop the political riots which have taken a toll of more than 100 dead and 1200 injured the last three weeks.

Papen Appointed

Chancellor Franz Von Papen was appointed commissioner of Prussia and Lord Mayor Franz Bracht of Essen was named the chancellor's assistant and given the dictatorial power, in Von Papen's name.

The decree of martial law was issued when Karl Severing, Prussian minister of interior, declined to accept the president's first emergency decree as binding and declared he would yield only to force. General Gerd Von Rundstedt, commander of the third Reichswehr army, was placed in charge of Berlin and Brandenburg under the martial law order.

Letting Of Kress Contract Deferred

Letting of a contract for a two-story building costing about $60,000 by the S. H. Kress Co. at 1107-09 Broadway has been deferred because of difficulty in adjusting labor conditions on another Kress building project, and the 5-10-15-and-25-cent store company expects to make "a definite decision" regarding the contract here within the next two weeks, a Lubbock contractor has been informed.

The contract was to have been let in New York City, July 13, last Wednesday. The letter reporting delay in letting the contract was from New York City Kress headquarters and dated July 16. Several local contractors have submitted bids.

FOUR MISSING, THREE DEAD IN BLAST

EIGHT OTHERS ARE IN HOSPITALS AFTER BOAT EXPLOSION

(By The Associated Press)

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 20—The toll of the explosion of the drill boat "America" in the St. Lawrence river near here yesterday reached three known dead, four missing and eight men in hospitals today.

Eight other men were injured when a ton and a half of dynamite planted on the rocky bottom of the St. Lawrence river exploded under the hull of the 150-foot boat. A second explosion occurred within the boat immediately afterward.

Recover Two Bodies

Two bodies were brought from the wreckage of the sunken drill boat last night before a diver found it necessary to abandon his search.

"Conditions down there are unbelievable," the diver, George Fisher, said after recovering the bodies of Ivan Rush, 32, of La Salle, Ill., who had been in charge of the America, and Joe Slusariack, 24, a "dynamite man," also from La Salle.

The explosion occurred as the America was preparing to blast rock from the American channel near Chippewa bay, a few miles from here and less than ten miles from Brockville, Ont., where a Canadian drill boat blew up in 1930 with the loss of 31 lives.

CANADA TRADE BREAK SEEN

NEW POLICY AT COST OF U. S. RELATIONS OFFERED BY BRUCE

(By The Associated Press)

OTTAWA, Ont., July 20—An inference that the British empire trade conference, which opens tomorrow, might prove a means for Canada to "break away from the influence of the United States" was plumped into the laps of the empire delegates today.

Stanley M. Bruce, former premier of Australia, stabbed through the maze of predictions of success that resound through the corridors where the conference is talked to place in blunt words a question which was uppermost in all minds.

"Will a cohesive trade policy within the units of the British empire be purchased," he asked, "at the cost of American commercial relations with Canada?"

Referring to the United States, Canada's best customer, as a "major problem," Bruce said:

Chance For Break

"There is always that tendency to be absorbed by a bigger country. This ought to be Canada's chance to break away."

The Canadians, although prepared to open the conference tomorrow with a proposal for an economic alignment of one-third of the earth's population and one-fourth of its known land surface against the remainder, seemed unprepared for the bluntness of Bruce.

FIFTEEN KILLED

MEXICO CITY, July 20 (AP)—Fifteen persons were killed and a score or more were injured today when a train inbound from Laredo struck a crowded street car in the suburb of Tacuba.

(By The Associated Press)

HIGH POINT, N. C., July 20.—Industry in the high point area was near paralysis today with 12,000 idle and an estimated 150 factories closed because of a general walkout.

The strike started Monday with 400 boarding room operatives in hosiery mills quitting in protest against wage cuts.

Employes of four hosiery mills, in which the scale of pay had not been reduced, indicated they were willing to return to their jobs today. It was understood employes of a number of other mills also were ready to resume work.

Adjutant General J. Van D. Metts was here as a representative of Governor Gardner. He said he saw no necessity for calling out national guard troops.

"HOLD GRAIN FOR $1 PER BUSHEL" IS CRY OF NORTH DAKOTA WHEAT RAISERS

(By The Associated Press)

TOLNA, N. D., July 20—Across the fertile prairies of North Dakota, expected to produce one-sixth of the nation's wheat output this year, today is heard a crescendo chorus—"hold the grain for one dollar a bushel."

And if sponsors are successful, the cry will be taken up throughout the United States.

Dell Willis, Tolna farmer, is chairman of the organization which has stirred the farmers in more than 400 North Dakota townships to pledges holding their wheat, effective Aug. 1, unless and until the dollar level is reached.

"This period of low prices finally has brought us to a position where it is either sink or swim," Willis said. "Now let us get together and put a fair price on our product. We will set the price and hold our wheat until we get our price."

Organizations are perfected along township lines. As producers sign an agreement, it is deposited with the township board. Certain farmers are designated to see the pledge is adhered to.

"We will hold our wheat until there is a demand for it at the set price of one dollar per bushel, and then we will sell only ten per cent in one month," Willis continued. "This will make an orderly marketing system."

ARREST BONUS SEEKERS

GUARD PLACED ABOUT WHITE HOUSE AREA

THREE CHARGED WITH DISORDER; PICKET IS THREATENED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 20—Three members of the bonus seeking army were taken into custody today as the aftermath of an unsuccessful attempt by a large group of veterans to approach the White House.

John Pace, a leader of the radical group of ex-service men, was one of those arrested after a scuffle with police. He was charged with parading without a permit and disorderly conduct.

A companion, whose name was given as Beckworth Johnson, and Walter F. Eiker, the third man taken by police, also were booked on charges of disorderly conduct and parading without a permit. Bond for all three was set at $125.

Shunted away from the executive mansion by a heavy screen of guards, the arrests came after Pace again attempted to lead his group toward it.

There were several hundred in the group which started toward the White House but most of the veterans dispersed good naturedly after police intervened. They told authorities they were on a "sight seeing tour" but the former took no chances.

Mansion Surrounded

Officers completely surrounded the area about the executive mansion and the space they guarded was cleared of spectators. It was the second time in two days that extra guards had been rushed to the White House on reports of an impending demonstration.

Meantime, President Hoover, apparently unaware of the flurry, worked steadily at his desk and a line of ex-service men again formed at the veterans bureau seeking transportation home.

Hoover faced a threat that he must call a special session of congress within 24 hours to pay the bonus or the White House will be picketed.

The warning came from Urban Ledoux, "Mr. Zero," just before Major General Smedley D. Butler advised a ragged crowd of veterans

SWEETWATER, July 20 (AP)—L. M. Parks was held without bond today after a preliminary hearing on a charge of murder for the drowning of his wife at Lake Trammell July 8. Counsel for the accused man said he would institute habeas corpus proceedings.

Dismiss Suit To Allow Negro Vote

HOUSTON, July 20 (AP)—A suit seeking to force the county Democratic executive committee to allow negroes to vote in party primaries failed today in federal court. Judge T. M. Kennerly dismissing it for want of jurisdiction.

The suit was brought by Julius White, negro, who sought injunction. The suit, pointing out the county committee had acted to bar negroes on the authority of a resolution passed unanimously by the state Democratic convention here in May, contended the convention's action was in contravention of the 14th and 15th amendments to the federal constitution.

CAMPAIGNS IN TEXAS NEAR TO CLIMAX

CANDIDATES HARD AT WORK OVER STATE IN VOTE APPEALS

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, July 20.—The Texas gubernatorial campaign, with but three days to go before the voters sort out the candidates, was at its height today.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, aided and abetted by her husband, James E. Ferguson, planned to resume her speaking tour and the other bidders for favor also were hard at it.

Sterling Speaks Twice

Governor R. S. Sterling, seeking a second term, was booked for an appearance at Ennis and Hillsboro today, after having pleaded with a crowd at Houston last night to return him office on the promise he had given Texas an efficient, business-like administration during his first term which ends next January. The governor was supported by former Governor Dan Moody, his immediate predecessor, in exhorting Sterling's home town audience.

The Fergusons planned to resume their speaking tour at Arlington. Already having served the state as governors three times, twice in the name of James E. Ferguson and once under the tenure of Mrs. Ferguson, they were telling the voters they were the best bet to defeat Sterling and return the state to an economic administration.

Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls, who claims support of persons opposed to both Sterling and the Fergusons, was booked for a speech at Galveston, having spoken at Port Arthur and Beaumont yesterday.

M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, the prohibitionist candidate, was expected to speak in Houston and Roger Q. Evans of San Antonio was due in Eagle Pass and Uvalde.

Answers Liquor Charge

Governor Sterling had replaced to Wolfe's accusation that he (Sterling) had been engaged in the wholesale liquor business at one time.

"This old charge made by Jim Ferguson in 1930 is, of course, without foundation in fact, and I regret that anyone connected with M. H. Wolfe should have been imposed upon to disseminate it again this year," he said.

"I have been lifelong prohibitionist and teetotaler and was never engaged in the liquor business in my life.

"When M. H. Wolfe was chairman of the Democratic state executive committeee I was a member of that.

RATES ON COTTON TO BE DISCUSSED

Rail rates on cotton for the season are to be discussed at a meeting of shippers, rail tariff bodies and railroad men in Dallas Thursday, according to word received here from Dallas. The meeting follows one in Galveston last week.

The railroad rate plan involves retaining the present quantity rates but would make allowances to shippers for heavy loadings in several classifications. Rail executives, according to word here, would be willing to abandon the compression in transit rates in favor of a carriers' privilege arrangements, under which the carriers would select the place for compressing cotton. No change in the present rate system except those necessary to put this plan into effect, are contemplated. Railroad men are opposed to making carload rates.

Interior cotton and compress interests asked for time to consider the proposals. Port men were reported favorable to the new plan.

Tentative proposals by railroad interests included five cent reduction on loading of 32,500 pounds, to the car; nine cents reduction on 50,000 pound loading and 12-cent reduction on 65,000 pound loading.

Poll tax payments by 13,360 voters this year shattered all previous records in Palm Beach county.

"B.C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B.C.", in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

EARLY VOTING, CAREFUL STUDY OF BALLOT ASKED BY WESTER

CHAIRMAN OF COUNTY INSTRUCTS VOTERS AND JUDGES

Careful study of the ballot before going to the polls and early voting were urged today by County Democratic Chairman J. K. Wester, who announced instructions to voters and election judges for the first emocratic primary of 1932, Saturday.

"Voters will find a copy of the official ballot published in Wednesday afternoon's Journal," the chairman said, "just as it will be at the election, and we would suggest that voters get a copy of the paper, select the candidates for whom they will vote before they go to the polls. Please vote early so that election officers will not be so overtaxed in the afternoon."

Polls on Saturday will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

Mr. Wester has prepared election supplies for all election judges and they are being distributed through the county clerk's office today and tomorrow.

Must Leave Pledge

"No one shall serve as a judge, clerk or supervisor at a primary election unless he paid his poll tax, hence, if any of the judges are disqualified, the qualified voters will elect one from among their number to act as judge and then proceed," Mr. Wester said.

"If the pledge printed at the top of the ticket is marked out, the ballot will not be counted," Mr. Wester told judges and also gave out as a caution to voters.

Only Enter Totals

Tickets and supplies for holding the election on the prohibition referendum are included with the other election supplies, Mr. Wester said. In the referendum ballot, he said that judges will only have to count the votes. No tally list on the provote will be required. Judges only have to enter totals on blanks provided for that purpose.

Voters will be handed two ballots, one the regular party ticket and the other the referendum ballot.

Judges Announced

Judges of the election are:

W. O. Stevens, J. J. Dillard, J. C. Burns, G. V. Pardue, W. M. Ross and C. B. Powell, Lubbock; J. H. Brewer, E. C. Foster, A. C. Hanna, J. W. Buchanan, Slaton; G. E. Adams, Caldwell; J. F. Goodnight, Canyon; Douglas Pounds, Acuff; J. W. Reid, Bledsoe; N. A. Myers, Center; Chester Wright, Shallowater; N. A. Payne, Carlisle; Otto Sims, Wolffarth; R. T. Dopson, Foster; Lonnie Williams, Slide; T. J. Richardson, New Hope; A. R. Shopp, Hardy; W. B. Shelton, Idalou; Ward Crim, Monroe; C. M. Doyle, Grovesville; George Eubanks, Woodrow; C. C. Shelton, McClung; Bob Brown, Estacado; Fritz Fuchs, Abernathy; McDuff Gamble, Union; J. L. Benton, Posey and Floyd Jackson, Hurlwood.

Between the hours of 10 a. m. and 10 p. m. Saturday, the voters in each precinct will meet and elect delegates to the county convention which meets in the courthouse, July 30. Each precinct is entitled to one delegate for every 25 votes or major fraction thereof cast for the party's candidate for governor at the last preceeding election.

Meeting Is Called

The Democratic executive committee has been called into a meeting at the courthouse at 1 a. m., Saturday, July 30, to canvass the votes, Mr. Wester said.

Mr. Wester is requesting all election judges to report the totals of their boxes as early as possible next Saturday. He asks that they telephone the secretary of the Democratic County executive committee, C. W. Ratliff at the Avalanche-Journal, 13 or 14, as soon as they total their ballots.

The judges have four days in which to return the ballot boxes to the county chairman and they must be left with the county clerk, Mr. Wester said.

Man Lost 26 Pounds Looks 100% Better

Feels Stronger Than Ever

Just to prove to any doubtful man or woman that Kruschen Salts is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mr. F. J. Fritz of Cincinnati, Ohio, recently received.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the results from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100 per cent better."

Bear in mind, you fat man, that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at Mark Halsey Drug Store, City Drug Store or any drugstore in the world. (Adv.)

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTER GIVEN

To be a qualified voter in Texas, a person must:

1. Be a citizen of the United States.
2. Be 21 years old.
3. Be a resident of the state 12 months and of the county, in which he offers to vote, six months.
4. Have paid a poll tax, if subject thereto, prior to February 1.

One must be twenty-one years of age at the time he offers to vote. Therefore, you cannot vote in the primaries if you are not twenty-one years of age, even though you will be twenty-one before the general election.

Every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty, not excepted by article 2959, who resided in this state on January 1 of the year preceeding its levy, is subject to a poll tax. For example: if you were twenty-one years of age and not more than sixty years of age on January 1, 1931, unless otherwise exempt you must have a poll tax receipt for 1931 in order to vote in July, 1932, but if you were twenty-one years of age after January 1, 1931, you may vote in the primaries of July, 1932, for the reason no poll tax has been assessed against you.

Voters over sixty years of age may vote in the county and in towns with fewer than 10,000 population without an exemption certificate.

As the referendum vote on prohibition is to ascertain the sentiment of the people on the question, any qualified voter may vote regardless of political affiliation.

PEDDLERS' UNION

TIENTSIN, China,—In unions there is strength, or so the Chinese believe. The latest group to organize a labor movement, following the example of Chinese mechanics, waiters, sailors and other workers, are the "shouting peddlers." More than 100 street peddlers, sweet fruit sellers, walking barbers, soup venders and movable restaurants have formed a union "to protect their interests."

WOMEN PREFER HOME

DENVER, Colo.—Despite the greatly increased number of women entering the business world, "they still prefer home, husband and babies to a business career," according to Rev. L. McMenamin. The majority of women have not deserted home for office through preference, he claims, but because of an unjust economic system which prevents men from earning enough to support their homes and womenfolk comfortably.

JUST BOOKKEEPING

BOSTON.—A report came to police headquarters that a woman was found dead slumped under the steering wheel of an auto. Patrolman William Twomey was sent to investigate. He found the woman to be very much alive. Here's his report: "She was figuring up her accounts and had her head down close to the wheel where the ledger was resting."

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Maybe so all the "great" coaches are that way. . . like Pop Warner and Hunk Anderson, we mean. . . straightforward and matter of fact. . . only Hunk is more so. . . a bit seriously inclined. . . . the lesser lights—as age and experience and position but probably not ability goes—have a tendency toward the lighter and funnier side. . . which is a welcome tendency under present economic and social circumstances . . . Remember Wallace Wade, here last year. . . no fun in his makeup. . . Phelan spread it on a little too thick. . . .

* * *

Phog Allen is an exception to the rule. . . wize crax come freely and frequent. . . that's one reason his classes are so well attended. . . . another reason he is popular everywhere. . . a good fellow. . . brilliant mind. . . . but note the absence of ego. . . .

* * *

Don't misunderstand us about Pop and Hunk. . . both fine men, smart and sincere. . . . Anderson the best talker, more open, coherent, vigorous, vital, forceful. . . . little or no humor. . . serious business with him. . . . Warner taught a lot of good stuff, as coaches who took notes will discover when the training season starts. . . . but not a forceful nor a witty speaker . . . dry humor, hard to catch, throughout his remarks. . . but he leaves it to your choice. . . . take it or leave it. . . "I think this idea is a good idea. . . you might try it," says Pop. . . "It's done this way, and only this way," implies Hunk. . . well, every man to his own conviction. . . no criticism for standing up for what one thinks is right. . . and the way to teach it.

* * *

Dr. Allen uses a lot of big words in his treatment of injuries lectures . . . but not to show off. . . doesn't expect you to remember 'em but observes that if you made a study of anatomy you'd have fewer serious injury complications. . . knows his stuff and wants to put it out . . . he'll do a lot of sprained ankles and chronic charley horses considerable good before he leaves. . . . his "doctor" talks, thinks we, an outstanding feature of the school.

* * *

Good picture show, that Notre Dame-U. S. C. film. . . just as thrilling—with Marchmont Schwartz the accepted hero—as the better run of football thrillers. . . The favorite team, mayhe, gets beat. . . but we all knew that before the picture was shown. . . didn't that shot send a shiver up and down your spine? . . . we mean when little Johnny Baker, the Trojan left guard, pulled back to kick, seemed to pause several minutes while he studied the goal posts. . . . boiling clouds showing above. . . . as if they would burst out in torential anger if he missed that kick. . . less than a minute to play. . . And Notre Dame's mighty fortress, impregnable against twenty-six successive onslaughts. . . broke for the first time since 1928. . . But if ever a team deserved to win it was Howard Jones' smashing Trojans, who passed and slashed their way to two touchdowns in four minutes and came within a point of deadlocking the score. . . .

* * *

The picture served only to bring back the memory of that day. . . . pretty cold here. . . Notre Dame was the pet favorite. . . hoping Hunk could "carry on" with the Irish. . . . 14 to 0 at the third quarter. . . . in the bag. . . . how's the Kansas-Missouri game coming along. . . and the Stanford-California? . . . what's that? Southern Cal score a touchdown? Oh, well, plenty of room. . . they didn't kick the goal. . . What? Again? And kicked goal? One point will win the game. Jones sends in a sub? Too late. . . . well, what d'ya know about that! That devilish little guard actually did it. . . with a minute to go. The score was announced before the crowd shivvering at the game at Matador Field (the press box had been swarming with fans wanting to know after that second touchdown) and what a groan went up. . . also a few joyous shouts.

CAWTHON ANNOUNCES INSTRUCTORS AT NEXT YEAR'S COACHING SCHOOL WILL BE AS FINE AS THIS YEAR'S STAFF

As fine a staff of instructors as the present school offers will have charge of Texas Technological college's third summer coaching school the first two weeks of August, 1933, Pete Cawthon, Matador mentor and director of this year's school, told 315 coaches and Lubbock business men at a banquet Tuesday night at Hotel Hilton. The banquet was a courtesy of Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Geo. A. Simmons was toastmaster.

After invocation by Rev. Walter P. Jennings, a short address of welcome was given by Durwood Bradley, district attorney and director of the chamber of commerce. Response was given by Jack Meagher, coach at Rice Institute, Houston.

"Lubbock is known as the Hub of the Plains," Meagher said, "but I can say in behalf of these visiting coaches that it will be known in the future as the Hub of Hospitality."

Walter S. Posey, Lubbock banker, followed Meagher on the program, giving an informal talk on early life in this area and comparing the training to that given the boys on the football fields of today.

Visiting coaches were then introduced and short talks were given by: "Clipper" Smith, coach at Santa Clara university, Santa Clara, Calif.; Dr. Forrest Allen, Kansas university, Lawrence, Kas.; Wm. Thornton, Newark, N. J.; Coach Harder, Pullman, Wash..; Capt. R. R. Brown, New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell; 'Chuck' Taylor, Indianapolis, Ind.; Heartly "Hunk" Anderson, head coach at Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.; and W. L. Stangel of the Tech athletic staff.

Amon G. Carter of Fort Worth was introduced at the beginning of the banquet and spoke briefly.

An inventors' club, composed chiefly of miners and colliery workers, has been formed in Durham county, England, to aid poor inventors to place their work on the market and to protect their rights.

ANDERSON DRILLS COACHES ON WORK OF TACKLES AND ENDS

KANSAS COACH LECTURES ON BASKETBALL

DR. ALLEN DISCUSSES INJURY TREATMENT AT SCHOOL TODAY

Proceeding further into detail on his line play courses, Heartly "Hunk" Anderson of Notre Dame discussed the work of tackles and ends at this morning's lecture hour at the Tech coaching school. He is to follow up with demonstrations of his pointers on the field this afternoon.

The visiting coaches were treated this morning to a sidelight amusing as well as instructive when Chuck Taylor, former professional basketball player and famous trick shot artist, appeared for an hour's talk and demonstrations. His fancy goal shots, passes and pivoting were received with applause.

Allen To Lecture

One of the most interesting series of lectures of the entire school was pursued this afternoon when Dr. Forrest Allen, athletic director at University of Kansas, talked for the third day on treatment of athletes' injuries. Dr. Allen is to talk on basketball tonight at 8 o'clock.

As one of the special features of the coaching school, a full length, complete moving picture of the 1931 Notre Dame-University of Southern California football game was shown to a packed house yesterday and this morning at the Lindsey theater.

Dr. Allen, for the second time in two days, held a big majority of the coaches spell bound with his oratory, wit and serious information in his talk on the prevention and treatment of injuries. Allen illustrated his talk with charts and blackboard explanations and demonstrated the application of treatment with the aid of ailing athletes and coaches. Structure of bone and muscle, their place and the emphasis on them under certain conditions common with football and basketball players, was well outlined and discussed.

Following Anderson's field demonstration yesterday afternoon on the Tech gridiron, Allen gave his second lecture and demonstration on basketball. About 200 coaches attended the lecture and watched the demonstrations in which athletes took part. Allen emphasized the fundamentals of the game, confining his remarks to defensive play by guards for the most part. He will go further into detail later this week, and probably will show actual plays which have resulted in more than a few conference championships for his Bix Six teams.

Anderson appeared to get more into the spirit of the thing at yesterday's field class. Blocking and tackling tactics which he teaches his Notre Dame linemen were stressed. He emphasized the play of guards and the importance of "every man knowing his assignment and what to do about it."

A West Texas rodeo and barbecue for visiting coaches is on the entertainment schedule for this evening. The program starts at 6:30 o'clock.

FERRARA'S TITLE FACES CHALLENGE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20 (AP)—Charles Ferrara, San Francisco youth who won the national public links title a year ago, found his throne challenged today by four other youngsters from widely separated states.

The quartet had 71 each, one better than par on Shawnee Park's course, and right behind them came two others with par each as compared to the 76 Ferrara carded.

Ralph Lacey, 22-year-old Little Rock insurance salesman, who holds all the public links titles Little Rock and Arkansas have; Ralph Strafaci, Brooklyn's 18-year-old high school threat; Joe Coria of St. Paul whose occupation is a ranger on a home golf course and who was medalist and runner-up in his state public links tourney, and Joe Nichols of Long Beach, Calif., who went to the finals last year with Ferrara, were among the 203 entrants who pressed hardest at Ferrara's title.

CANAL ZONE PORT

WASHINGTON.—Albrook Field, Panama Canal Zone airport, has been officially opened as headquarters of the 44th Observation Squadron from France Field. It is expected that work will continue for a year and a half before the field is finally completed. Surfaced runways are to be installed for rainy season operation.

RAJAH IS OUT OF LINEUP

HORNSBY WILL LEAVE JOB OF WINNING TO HIS YOUNGSTERS

BY GAYLE TALBOT

Having made what many predict was his valedictory as an active player, Rogers Hornsby, one of the greatest infielders of all time, has turned the job of winning the National league flag over to his youngsters.

The Rajah, dissatisfied with Stanley Hack's play at third after Bill Jurges was laid up with gunshot wounds, stepped in to plug the hole, but after listening to the Chicago fans five days decided to return to the dugout. In the last four games he played, the once peerless batsman collected only two hits, and his fielding was a thing of the past.

With the youthful Hack back in the lineup yesterday and the batting order juggled, the Cubs took a close one from the Giants, 5 to 4, and gained a half-game on the leading Pittsburgh Pirates, who were splitting even with the Phillies.

Bill Swift pitched the Pirates to a 5 to 2 victory in the opener, but the eastern delegates came back to take the nightcap, 6 to 5, in 11 innings.

Ed Brandt was in top form and Boston knocked Cincinnati a little deeper into the cellar, 2 to 0. St. Louis, after being held to one hit for five innings, drove Dazzy Vance from the box in the seventh and defeated Brooklyn 5 to 3.

The Yankees took their fourth straight from the Chicago Sox, 6 to 3, with Lefty Gomes hanging up his 16th victory. Washington celebrated "Sam Rice day" by dropping their third in a row to Detroit, 3 to 2. Wes Ferrell yielded only four scattered hits as Cleveland blanked Boston, 7 to 0. Philadelphia slugged out two decisions over St. Louis, 9 to 8 and 16 to 6.

STEERS BOOST LEAD OVER BEAUMONT

DALLAS TEAM CHECKS IN EIGHT VICTORIES WITHOUT A LOSS

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Manager Happ Morse of the Dallas Steers is really happy these days of the second half of the Texas league pennant chase. His players checked in with their eighth consecutive victory last night by beating Beaumont, 9 to 3. It gave the Steers a three-game lead over the Exporters.

Last night saw two leading pitchers as opponents. George Murray, ace right-hander for Dallas, and Linwood "Schoolboy" Rowe, the sensational youngster who was a powerful factor in Beaumont winning the first half pennant, started what was advertised as a mound duel. Dallas got to Rowe in the first inning for six runs. Sullivan finished the game. Murray stuck to his guns and pitched a commendable two-hit game. Newsome and Holley got the pair of bingles. Beaumont did not get an earned run.

Houston slipped again at Longview, the Cannibals winning 4 to 2. Hal Wiltse beat Ralph Judd in a pitching duel. Triples by Garms Euller and a home run by Kloza aided Longview's victory.

Galveston bombarded Tyler pitchers for seven runs in the eighth and ninth innings to win, 10 to 3. Eddie Carroll limited Tyler to 7 hits.

The Fort Worth and San Antonio game was postponed because of inclement weather.

ATHLETES ASK FOR MORE COVER AT OLYMPICS

LOS ANGELES, July 20 (AP)—Athletes of the world are getting a cold reception at the olympic village, but it is the climate, not American hospitality.

One of the first worries displayed by team managers on arrival here has been the question of the heat, but now they are asking for extra blankets and the village supply is getting low.

More than 700 athletes from the far reaches of the world are picking themselves up a good tan of days, only to pull the covers up to their ears at night.

The population of the olympic village was almost doubled the first three days of the current week, as many of the larger teams moved in on the pending international athletic carnival. France, Finland, Sweden and Poland came yesterday, raising the total number of flags at the athletes' sanctuary to 24. Forty-nine nations are expected to compete, but only about 45 are entered in the sports events. The others are participating only in the art exhibits.

The village hospital, modern in every respect, is doing a big business. Most injuries are minor.

GLIDING POPULARITY

MOSCOW.—Along with the increasing popularity of powered flying in the Soviet, gliding, too, is getting its share of experimentation. A glider factory is being built here to turn out 1800 sailplanes annually, and the Friends of Aviation, a Russian aeronautics club, plans to organize gliding chapters all over the country. Schools for this type of flying have been set up here in the Crimea, and Siberia.

BOMBING "TEACHER"

HONOLULU.—Bombing teachers of the VP Squadron 1, at Pearl Harbor, have rigged up a clever contrivance to teach the fine art of bombing. It is composed of a platform on an old electric truck about 14 feet high. The top of the platform is rigged like the bow of a PK-1 seaplane and a regular bomb sight is installed. A target is pulled along the floor and the pupil pilots his "plane" at the direction of the direction of the bomber.

The Truth about WHITE OWL CIGARS

[If you enjoy a good cigar, read this frank statement of facts]

THE executives of the General Cigar Co., Inc., early in 1931 met to consider what was the most important step the company had ever been asked to take.

It was proposed to reduce the price of the White Owl cigar, which for fourteen years had sold at 7 cents, and up, to 5 cents.

The price reduction was to be made without decreasing the size of the cigar, or changing the tobacco in it. In blunt terms, the proposal meant selling at 5 cents the identical cigar which was then being bought by millions at a higher price.

TO speak frankly, there were misgivings among the executives of the company—justifiable and logical misgivings.

The White Owl was a long invincible shape. It was a long filler cigar; not made of scraps and broken leaves, typical of oversize 5-cent cigars.

Furthermore, the tobacco in it was the most expensive long filler leaf that this country grows.

To market the White Owl exactly as it was, at 5 cents, seemed a manufacturing impossibility.

To reduce the size, or take anything out of the quality of the cigar, was not for a minute considered.

If this were done, White Owl would become merely another 5-cent cigar, trading for a limited time on the name, popularity, and prestige it enjoyed at higher prices.

IN the face of facts and figures of production which said "No", the executives continued to study the proposal because the underlying principle of the General Cigar Co., Inc., argued for the reduction.

Giving the consumer the utmost which can be delivered at a price, and still make a profit for dealer, distributor, and manufacturer is the basic policy of the company. Its progress and its success have been written in adherence to this principle.

After days of analysis of costs of production, and a far-seeing forecast of results, the executives decided to reduce White Owl to 5 cents, and still manufacture it exactly as it was being made.

No economy in buying tobacco aided them. White Owl long filler tobacco had been purchased two and three years before they took this critical step.

But costs of production, of merchandising, and of distributing, were cut by many ingenious efficiencies.

The margins of profit of manufacturer and distributor were narrowed. The dealer was to pay more for White Owl than standard 5-cent brands. All were to net less on the sale of one cigar, and gain increased profit through the rapid turnover of multiplied sales.

But basing the decision most of all on vast output, the executives of the General Cigar Co., Inc., in June, 1931, ordered the reduction of White Owl to 5 cents.

THE mathematical results of White Owl at 5 cents were amazing. Within a month it broke all cigar records for rapid increase of consumption. In one year the White Owls smoked have passed the 425,000,000 mark.

Smokers who smoked White Owl at higher prices at once knew it for unmatched smoking value. Smokers of higher priced cigars, turning to it as a real economy, found no let-down in smoking satisfaction. Smokers of standard 5-cent brands flocked to its generous size and fine appearance.

Better tobacco will tell, and White Owl told quickly to discriminating smokers. In turn the world saw it in the vast consumption of White Owls.

HERE and there a skeptic could not believe that it was the same 7-cent White Owl being sold at 5 cents, and his skepticism was not so surprising.

Though the cigar looked the same, and smoked the same, some men could not but distrust a value which seemed impossible.

All the time the guarantee of the General Cigar Co., Inc., backed up their statement that it was the same identical White Owl. Doubt cannot stand up in the face of quality. White Owl at 5 cents established itself at the cigar case as the same cigar which sold 14 years at 7 cents, and up.

If one seeks the secret of how the General Cigar Co., Inc., can manufacture a cigar and sell it at 5 cents, which sold for 14 years at higher prices, the answer lies in organized production and vast output. It is explained by the fact that manufacturer, distributor, and dealer all net smaller profit on the sale of one cigar.

In the last analysis, the consumers, through their spontaneous co-operative buying, make themselves the beneficiaries of White Owl's price and vast consumption.

SMOKE White Owl because it is top value in a 5-cent cigar, but never expect your dealer to sell it for less than a nickel.

He cannot afford it. He pays more for White Owl than for ordinary 5-cent cigars. It is sold without premiums or prize contests. Big buyer or little buyer, the dealer should get a full nickel for White Owl. The price to the consumer is all in the cigar.

Purchase a few of this unique 5-cent cigar, and smoke out the truth of White Owl.

Livestock Prices

The current rise in livestock prices at Chicago, which produced an accompanying upswing in the prices of wheat and corn, may eventually turn out to be one of the most important bits of news of the whole summer.

No really healthy national prosperity is possible without sound agricultural prosperity. The one glaring defect of the boom days of 1928 and 1929 was the fact that the farmer was not getting his due share of profits. If, at last, agriculture is going to return to a decent level of financial health, the effects throughout the nation should be profound.

It is perhaps too early to hail the upward movement at Chicago as the beginning of a lasting, nation-wide revival. But if it endures throughout the summer, there is little doubt that it will mark the beginning of the end of the depression.

"IN the time of Alexander the Great", comments a wise-cracker, "they were looking for more worlds to conquer. Today they are looking for more laws to break".

While that may or may not be far-fetched, we have in Texas another bright and shining example of the fact that people dislike to obey statutes that they believe are unfair, unjust or inequitable.

We refer to the inane piece of class legislation, passed by a tax-crazed legislature, known and referred to as 'the cigaret tax'.

* * *

Ever since the cigaret tax went into effect a sizeable group of Texans have been lying awake nights figuring out ways and means of beating the rap.

Tobacconists in Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico are reaping nice profits by mailing into Texas cartons of cigarets, tax-free—and of course the Texas tobacco merchant is footing the bill in lost business.

Other smokers are 'rolling their own', have gone over to cigars or pipes and there may be a few who have quit smoking altogether, rather than pay the unjust tax.

But the newest wrinkle, which has popped up in Ft. Worth, beats even the Dutch. From the standpoint of those who are seeking new laws to sidestep, it's a peach!

* * *

TOBACCONISTS in Cowtown have hit upon the idea of paying small boys to search the highways and byways, the streets and the alleys for discarded cigaret packages.

They gather these packages and extract therefrom the cancelled tax stamps which they save until they have 100 or more.

Then the kids take their cancelled stamps to their employers who stick 'em on packages of cigarets and retail them at the old price, unhampered by tax.

Now ain't that sumpin'?

* * *

It just goes to prove that while you may tax some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time, you're a humdinger if you can make every tax stick on everybody!

* * *

IN another part of today's Journal, if you search real diligently, you'll find the rules and regulations governing voting in Saturday's primary, as set forth by the county Democratic chairman, Prof. J. K. Wester.

And you'll also find a reproduction of the official ballot for your careful consideration.

* * *

The Journal is printing this information for two distinct reasons.

In the first place, we feel that the material is essential to public information.

In the second place, we feel that it will enable the voters of these parts to make up their minds in advance of Saturday and thus be able to mark their ballots more quickly, lessening the congestion on election day.

* * *

THE ballot in this first primary is well nigh criminal in its length. It is at least twice as long as it ordinarily is. And the voter who waits until he gets to his polling place before thinking about how he's going to vote will find himself in a pickle as well as hold up the parade for hundreds of other sweating citizens, anxious to "get it over with."

Thumb your way to the ticket in today's paper, get the wife in a corner and go over the serious business of voting now and then you won't have to do anything Saturday but make some nice black marks.

(P. S. Less congestion on election day also means that The Plainsman will get to bed earlier on Sunday morning, but don't tell anybody!).

THE information that the Capone brothers will buy the 101 ranch and move to Oklahoma gives rise to a number of thoughts. We wonder, in the first place, if they've asked 'Pretty Boy' Floyd if they can come to his country, and then how these lads will get along together in the same neck of the woods.

Although The Plainsman left Oklahoma for reasons best known to himself, he learned a good deal about that country before having to leave.

And basing his opinion on what he knows, he opines that the Capone boys better figure on being quiet and docile if and when they take up residence in the Sooner state.

Because if they don't some of those sure enough hard birds up there are liable to pick 'em up, spank 'em and send 'em back to Chicargo!

War Debts Will Creep In As An Issue In 1932 Campaign When Anyone Thinks They Can Be Properly Capitalized

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 20.—War debts will creep in as an issue of the 1932 campaign whenever anyone thinks they can be profitably capitalized.

The general attitude of the politicians will be to assert that the nations of Europe must pay to the red cent despite the rather general belief that some considerable reductions are going to be made after the elections.

Dutcher

Although the allies have agreed virtually to wipe out German reparations if they can make satisfactory debt readjustment with the United States, all progress on this important international issues, with its enormous economic implications, will be held up until we get that election over with.

The European countries, recognizing the difficulties of the Hoover administration, apparently will be discreet enough to make us no propositions for readjustment negotiations until the voters have done their stuff at the polls.

* * *

The Administration's Stand

The Republicans avoided any mention of the debts in their platform as devised at Chicago with the aid of Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, but they are in a position to reiterate the administration's expressed opposition to cancellation in case the Democrats press them on the issue.

And if the European debtors hold off with their inevitable requests for reconsideration, they will be able to say that the question hasn't even arisen and that the situation, as far as the government is concerned, consequently remains the same.

The same thing goes for the future of the Hoover moratorium, which will in all probability be extended before the first 1932-33 payments come due on Dec. 15.

* * *

No Big-Hearted Mood

There will be plenty of time to arrange that after the election and the European debtors stand to gain rather than lose if they wait. Informal understandings may be reached in the meantime.

The big point now is that this country, whose views are reflected in the overwhelming anti-cancellation sentiment in Congress, is in no mood at this time to be big-hearted about debts and the administration therefore doesn't want to monkey with the issue unless it can do so in a way which would strike a popular chord.

Payments due us in 1932-33 amount to $270,000,000, of which $195,000,000 is chargeable to interest. Most of the debt agreements provide that the debtors, on giving 90 days' notice, may postpone the payments on account of principal for from two to three years. The interest payments amount to so much more than the principal payments that there is some doubt how extensively this provision will be utilized this year.

* * *

Congress' Hostile Attitude

Europe has been advised that this government would be emphatically opposed to any 'united front' debt settlement, although during the Hoover-Laval conferences here she was assured of revisions if she could get straightened out on reparations.

The extreme hostility of Congress and its refusal to revive the debt funding commission have made the situation tougher for the administration and it is certain that the debtor nations which want their debts scaled down will have to apply one by one and not in a group. The only apparent chance of a general agreement would occur from Hoover's well known position that there should be substantial armament reductions whenever debt reductions are made.

Reduction of the American tax burden corresponding to debt reduction would be one way to make the latter more palatable.

* * *

Little Talk of Repudiation

Any movement toward repudiation will come from a "united front" position such as the allies appear to have reached at Lausanne, since no nation would dare repudiate alone because of the danger to its credit.

But there is thus far little talk of repudiation and this country remains on record, as announced by former Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, to the effect that "capacity to pay" is still our basic debt policy and that whereas it would be an injustice for us to demand more from an individual nation than it could pay without "undue sacrifice," it would be an injustice to the American people to demand any less.

DIET BRINGS RELIEF

The number of letters and inquiries received by this department on the subject of the skin eruption named psoriasis is equal to, if not greater than about any other single disease. There are two reasons for this—one is that the disease is very chronic and prone to recurrence, the patient therefore is constantly reminded of its existence; and the other is that when the patient consults a physician, the latter's report is likely to be very discouraging.

Dr. Clendening

It is a pleasure, therefore, to call attention to a remonstrance about this attitude from one of the best known of American dermatologists. He protests, first, against the universal note of pessimism that pervades medical discussion of the subject, and second, against the indifference to the established value of diet in the control of the disease.

Research performed 20 years ago indicated very definitely that there was a nutritional factor in psoriasis and that this could be controlled by diet. Yet this research has largely gone unnoticed and its lessons unheeded.

An instance is afforded by the case of a patient with psoriasis, who consulted a dermatologist in Paris, two in London, and five eminent American specialists in skin diseases, without any benefit. After all of this discouraging experience a fairly simple change in diet resulted in such striking changes for the better, that local treatment which could not before be tolerated was administered without discomfort. All of the dermatologists previously consulted had ignored the possibility of dietary control.

Most patients who have lived with the disease any length of time will, I believe, heartily endorse this attitude. They know by countless observations that dietary indiscretions will influence the severity of the eruption. Alcohol in any form they cannot tolerate. And, in general, they are most comfortable on a vegetable regimen.

Diet, alone, is not claimed to be completely curative for psoriasis. But it is claimed that diet will bring the skin to such a state of quiescence that methods of treatment previously too severe to be tolerated can be used to accomplish the clearing up of the eruption.

The nature of the fundamental nutritional change in psoriasis which points the way to the logic of the diet is an unbalanced protein metabolism.

For this reason, the diet should be rigidly restricted in the matter of proteins. In many cases the elimination of meat, fish, fowl, eggs, soups with meat stocks, and especially visceral food, such as kidneys and liver, is sufficient to keep the disease within bounds. In severe and selected cases, a weighed diet keeping the nitrogen intake below 5 grams a day and the total calories below 2,000, is necessary.

EVEN GYPSIES GOING MODERN

DETROIT, July 20 (AP)—Even gypsies are going modern.

Turning back on tradition, they have elected as their king a commoner, Steve Stanley, a graduate of New York City college, over the heir apparent, Joseph Marks, son of the late King Steve.

Upon his coronation yesterday, the New King Steve served notice of drastic changes in the customs of his people. He will encourage education in American trades and professions to take the place of fortune-telling, horse-trading and coppersmithing as means of livelihood. Women will be encouraged to discard their flashy tribal garb for the dress of other American women. Sale of daughters in marriage to the highest bidder is taboo and dishonesty will not be tolerated.

Equally as drastic was King Steve's announcement that after he has ruled ten years, his subjects will be given opportunity to vote again on a ruler.

MOST OF FEED CROPS MADE

MOISTURE SUFFICIENT TO PROVIDE LATE CROPS A START

Most of Lubbock county's early feed crops appear to have been made, moisture in most of the county is sufficient to give late crops a good start, and weather the last three weeks has enabled farmers to clean their fields of weeds resulting from excessive rains of May and June, according to Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment sub-station near here.

Development of cotton on plots he supervises has been delayed from 10 days to two weeks, and although cotton there should bloom by July 20 he does not expect it that early this season, Mr. Jones said.

D. F. Eaton, county farm agent, said nearly all of the fields were fairly clean, and most of the weeding would be completed this week if weather did not interfere.

A number of farmers are pasturing cattle on sudan in the east and north sections of the county, some of the early planted row crops, especially maize and sudan, having headed out.

Spotted sections of the county hailed out in June have seen replanting completed and crops away to a good start. Cotton planted late in June is making rapid progress.

W. J. Martin, who lives about ten miles south of Lubbock, reported his cotton had blooms on the stalks on July 7. This cotton was planted late in April and has had a good growth. "I have some half formed bolls," Mr. Martin added. As far as is known this is the first cotton to have blooms and bolls reported.

Wheat harvest is nearly all finished. There is some threshing to be done. A few combines have not finished their season's run.

Native pastures are holding up well, although the grass is beginning to show dry in some sections. Most dairymen are now running cattle on sudan or other pasture crops.

Holder Will Talk For Clem Calhoun

A former member of the state legislature, Ray Holder, Lancaster newspaper editor, will speak at 8:30 o'clock tonight on the courthouse lawn here in the interest of the candidacy of Clem Calhoun, Amarillo attorney, for the nomination for the attorney generalship.

J. E. Cook, local oil man, will introduce Mr. Holder.

Mr. Holder served as a member of the Texas legislature from Dallas county for a number of years. He is editor of the Lancaster News, a weekly paper in Dallas county.

Calhoun, for whom Holder is speaking, is a brother-in-law of Rev. J. O. Haymes, pastor of the First M. E. church. He has served as district and county attorney in the state and had made a reputation as a prosecutor before being sent to Borger by Governor Dan Moody.

The candidate, who spoke here recently, has been practicing in Amarillo since he resigned from his Borger post. He was a partner of Col. Ernest O. Thompson, former mayor and now member of the Railroad Commission of Texas.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady 1 to 6 points lower in response to lower Liverpool cables than expected and on fairly favorable weather reports.

The comparatively light offerings were readily taken by covering combined and trade buying. There also was a little buying through houses with Liverpool connections but the market worked off to 5.81 for October and 6.06 for January, making net losses of about 3 to 7 points. Liverpool cables reported covering had been supplied by hedge selling and said there was an improved business in cotton cloths for shipment to Egypt and the near east.

The weekly report of the weather bureau made a favorable impression on sentiment as to the recent progress of the crop and while it brought in no active or aggressive selling prices sagged another point or two later in the morning October worked down to about 5.75, active months generally showing let losses of about 6 to 12 points at midday.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 20 (AP)—Cotton opened fairly steady today although Liverpool cables were not as good as due owing to firmer sterling. First trades here showed gains of one point. The market soon eased slightly, however, on lack of support and to some evening up in advance of the weekly weather and crop report due this morning. October dropped to 5.82 and December to 5.94, or 2 to 8 points down from the opening and one to four points under yesterday's close.

Near the end of the first hour prices were steadier and had recovered one point from the lowest.

The market ruled quiet and rather easy nearly all morning owing to a bearish construction of the weather map showing lack of rain and to a favorable weekly weather and crop summary. There was also a lack of buying support. October eased to 5.73 and December to 5.87, down 11 to 12 points from the early highs and 10 to 11 points under yesterday's close.

Around mid-session the market was quiet and steady and a shade above the lows.

Near noon the insolvency of Louis C. Sonnenthell of Dallas, Texas, member of the New Orleans exchange, was formally announced on the floor, but it appeared to have no effect on the market.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—Crop damage complaints resulting from extreme heat and drouth in spring wheat and corn territory gave an early lift today to grain values here. Material upturns in Liverpool wheat quotations also were a bullish factor. Opening unchanged to 1-2 higher, Chicago wheat futures showed subsequent additional gains. Corn started 1-2 to 3-4 up and later held near the initial limits.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 20 (AP)—The advance in the stock market was quietly resumed today as traders took courage from the continued steadiness of the bond market and the quiet drying up of liquidation in shares which appeared Monday.

Shorts seeking to retire their commitments found nearby offerings scarce and prices quickly rose a point or more in several of the leaders. There was some recession from the best in the middle of the day, but the list stiffened again in the early afternoon.

Shares rising a point or more included American Can, American Telephone, Allied Chemical, Consolidated Gas, Borden, Case, American Tobacco B, Liggett and Myers B, Brooklyn Manhattan, Public Service of N. J., Auburn, Santa Fe and Union Pacific. U. S. Steel was up a fraction. Penney and McKesport were off more than a point.

PROSPECTIVE HOME BUILDERS OFFERED BARGAIN PRICES IN DESERTED VILLAGES OF EASTERN OHIO MINING AREA

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio, (AP) — The ill economic winds which have made deserted villages of once thriving mining communities in parts of eastern Ohio have brought bargain prices to prospective home builders.

For new homes are being built from the ruins of these towns, abandoned in the wake of boom times in an industry now torn by labor troubles in Ohio, West Virginia and elsewhere.

Two story houses can be bought for $10 apiece. The deserted villages of Lamira and Glencoe have been robbed of at least a score of houses in recent weeks. These have been carted away to other locations.

Ten dollars, a truck, a few neighbors and some degree of carpentry skill and there is a new bungalow.

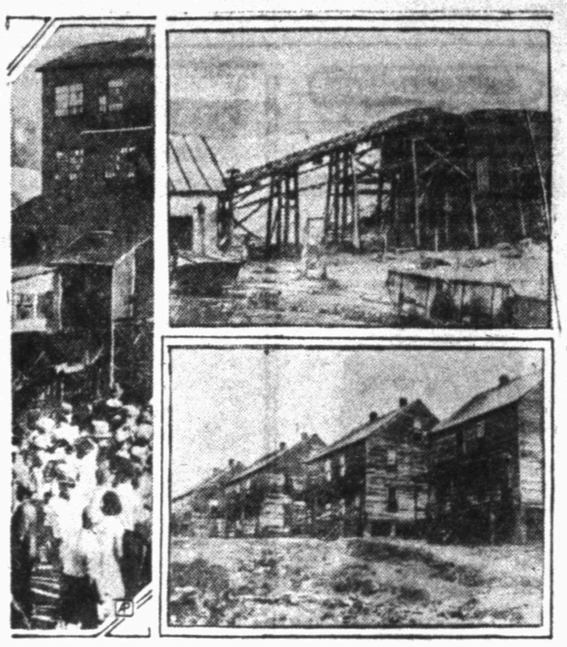

Persons who never believed they would be blessed with a shelter of their own, now have their own homes in process of construction.

At Fairpoint, near here, there once was a village of 500 persons, with stores, dance hall, theater and shops. Just one family lives there now—a family of five. Soon, probably, they, too, will move away.

Within the past decade delinquent taxes totaling nearly a million dollars have accumulated on coal property, lands and equipment in Belmont county.

A surplus of coal mines, born during the war boom, and their accompanying villages and houses, brought about in part the conditions existing today.

Modern mines and modern mining villages have survived usually, but in Belmont county, greatest coal producing county in Ohio, whole villages will have disappeared in a few months or a year.

Thirteen Policemen Charged In Death

MINEOLA, N. Y., July 20 (AP)—Warrants were issued for 13 county policemen today in connection with the death of Hyman Stark, a prisoner, after lengthy police "questioning." Four of the warrants charged second degree murder.

All thirteen were charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice and seven were charged with second degree assault. Deputy Police Chief Frank Tappen was named in two warrants, once for neglect of duty and again as having been an accessory to the third degree beating of Stark which caused his death.

Court Refuses To Enjoin Proration

SHERMAN, July 20 (AP)—A special three-judge federal court has refused to enjoin proration in the East Texas oil field.

United States Judge Randolph Bryant handed down the order here yesterday. It refused the petition of E. Constantin and others for the injunction, holding they had failed to prove that orders of the railway commission setting allowable production were unnecessarily restrictive.

Estelline Youth Is Killed Under Train

CHILDRESS, July 20 (AP)—Orville Stribling, 18, was killed early today by a freight train which struck him as he sat on a railroad track two miles west of Carey. The track curved at that point and the engineer was unable to see Stribling until it was too late to stop the train. Apparently Stribling had fallen asleep sitting on the track. His home was at Estelline. He had been working in the cotton fields near Estelline. Last night he was reported to have started for Memphis, Texas.

All members of an Atlanta Boy Scout troop advanced simultaneously to the rank of first class.

His Alternatives

HOUSE-CAR MADE OF HUGE TREE VISITS LUBBOCK

A unique house-car, made of a part of a trunk of an enormous Douglass fir tree felled at Seattle, Wash., in 1924, is in Lubbock today. The part of the log hollowed out and transformed into a home is eight feet in diameter and was cut 64 feet above the earth, said Mrs. L. ("Doc") Carter, who with her husband stopped in the house-car here. They live at Waco.

The stump of the tree, which was estimated to be 2,100 years old and which was 308 feet tall, was 12 feet in diameter. A year was required to hollow out that part of the tree placed on a truck bed. The bark, veneered and canvas-covered, still is on the cut of fir trunk.

The truck, pulled by an 80-horsepower motor, weighs 15,700 pounds, Mr. Carter said. Total cost of building the house-car was $12,500, his wife said.

Inside are virtually all modern conveniences, including duofolds, a kitchenet, breakfast nook, and bathroom. Hot and cold water can be made available, being forced upward from a 30-gallon tank by compressed air. Utilization of virtually all space is exemplified in placing of a medicine cabinet behind a mirror over a dresser, and a sink beneath a work table top.

The house-car was parked in the 900-block of Broadway.

Graves, who denied he provoked the altercation, said he, too, had been engaged to the girl.

CROPS REPLANTED

Crops replanted in Lynn and Dawson county after being hailed out in mid-June are showing a good growth, row crops appear to be in good condition, and conditions in that territory generally seem improved slightly, E. W. Hester, a Dawson county farmer living south of O'Donnell, said here yesterday.

HOUSTON, July 20, (AP)—W. O. Huggins, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, today said there was "no reasonable excuse" for any county in Texas to fail to hold the prohibition referendum ordered by the committee coincident with the party primary election Saturday.

Report Is Given On Rotary Confab

Don L. Jones, Lubbock delegate to the International Rotary convention in Seattle in June, gave a detailed and interesting report of the convention proceedings in the luncheon program of the Lubbock Rotary club at Hotel Lubbock today noon. Jed Rix was chairman for the day.

International goodwill was the theme carried out in the convention programs, Mr. Jones said, emphasis being placed on strengthening of this phase of Rotary International.

TRIAL HONEYMOON

SEATTLE, Wash.—Just before their marriage, Marianne Elizabeth Carter and her fiance, Jack Moffett, decided that theirs would be a three-day honeymoon, after which they would part for several months before deciding whether they would join each other again. If, after this remarkable exhibition of will power, the two decide to reunite, they will go to Hong Kong to complete their honeymoon.

PAYS FOR WORK

BELLEVILLE, Ontario, Canada.—Many men would like employment, but few to the extent of paying for it. After asking several farmers for work, a local young man offered one $7 a week and was given a job on those terms. He explained that he was in receipt of a small pension and would find it cheaper to live on that basis.

CARTER PRAISES STERLING IN CAMPAIGN TALK IN LUBBOCK

FT. WORTH PUBLISHER SPEAKS TO 1,000 HERE TUESDAY

An audience of more than 1,000 persons Tuesday night at Broadway and Avenue K heard Dr. Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher, champion Governor Ross S. Sterling's administration and direct a series of broadsides at the Fergusons.

In his 60-minute speech, Doctor Carter challenged the most common Ferguson attacks, and answered them. Having cited instances of alleged corruption, graft, and misrepresentation in the regimes of James E. and Miriam A. Ferguson, the publisher declared that never before has Texas had a governor who took the reins of state when it was "so deeply in the red," as when Ross Sterling became its chief executive, and erased it completely from the debit side of the ledger.

Governor Sterling cut the operating expenses of the state $3,900,000 without jeopardizing proper execution of affairs, vetoed appropriations totaling $3,600,000, and in individual departments effected substantial savings, Dr. Carter said.

Heavily In Debt

When the Houstonian became governor, the state was $4,448,009 in debt, and $6,900,000 more had been appropriated which taxes were incapable of producing, Dr. Carter continued in his approximations.

Alterations, adjustments, and realignments in the state penitentiary system, the highway department, school funds, and the fees system were cited. The East Texas oil situation was discussed.

From $500,000 to $1,000,000 was saved after Governor Sterling uncovered and stopped illegal practices growing out of the fees system, Dr. Carter said.

In the midst of one of his characteristic volleys at the Ferguson pair, the speaker termed Governor Sterling "a man who has had the good sense to differentiate between his money and the state's money."

Penal System Pays

Under Sterling, the state penal system has netted more than $600,000 to be turned back into funds, as compared to appropriations of about $875,000 during Ferguson administrations to pay debts of the system, Dr. Carter said. The penitentiary farm now raises 88 per cent of the foods used at the prison, 12 per cent being bought, the ratio was reversed when the Fergusons were governors, he added.

Governor Sterling's most bitter enemies when he declared pro-ration in the East Texas oil fields now are his staunchest supporters, independent and other minor producing companies favor him, and contrary to statements of opponents, Sterling is opposed by the major oil syndicates most of whom wanted an open field, according to Dr. Carter.

Saves Oil Industry

"Governor Sterling deserves the credit for absolutely saving an industry that would have been wrecked," Dr. Carter opined in discussing the oil situation.

Unrestricted drilling in the new field was a major factor in continuous dropping of oil prices until the product was selling for as low as 10 cents a barrel, and the governor's restriction of production was chiefly responsible for a climb to the present price of nearly $1 a barrel in Texas, the Fort Worth man said.

Heavy Oil Producer

Dr. Carter reminded that Texas produces six times as much oil as it consumes, that business generally benefits from good prices in oil, and that the oil industry pays about 57 per cent of the total taxes in Texas.

The governor's restriction of oil field activities resulted in some current unemployment, but had drilling not been regulated unemployment generally would have become much more widespread in both numbers and length of time asserted the Fort Worth man.

Of Ferguson, Dr. Carter remarked:

"His keen political way of answering any fact or accusation is to let it alone."

Cites Differences

Citing marked differences between income tax returns by the Fergusons and amounts claimed by the government, and on which it collected, Dr. Carter remarked that "if Jim just carries wood and water, it has turned into one of the most lucrative propositions I know of."

Re-election of Sterling is just as important to Texans as election of Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Garner, the speaker opined.

Slaton And Guy Speak

O. L. Slaton, Lubbock banker, spoke briefly before Charles A. Guy, editor and publisher of the Avalanche-Journal newspapers, introduced Mr. Carter.

Both Mr. Slaton and Mr. Guy praised the Star-Telegram publisher as a friend of West Texas.

The Fort Worth group arrived at Municipal airport at about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and took off at 6 o'clock this morning in the first amphibian airplane ever to visit this section of the South Plains.

The craft, a bi-motored Sirius, was piloted by a crew of three United States coast guardsmen, one of whom was Commander C. C. Von Paulsen. Commander Paulsen explained that he and C. T. Salt, Washington, D. C., and F. F. Crump, Cape May, N. J., both coast guard members, are enroute to St. Louis in connection with inland radio tests for the department of commerce system. For the past three days the amphibian has been making Fort Worth its base.

Besides Doctor Carter, other members of the party was Wyatt C. Hedrick, Fort Worth architect. The hop to Lubbock in the "mudhen," as Airport Manager W. C. Breedlove called the ship, was made in less than three hours.

Tennessee Has A New Kind Of Club

Tennessee has a new kind of four H club, L. S. Honaker, athletic coach at Marysville college, Marysville, Tenn., said here.

"The membership is growing all the time and proving popular among all classes," Coach Honaker told the Lubbock Lions Tuesday.

As Coach Honaker explained, the four H's are "Hoover, Horton, hard times and hell."

For information, Horton is the governor of Tennessee.

Scientific tests upset claims of rival brands.

Give verdict to Old Gold, as coolest, throat-easiest cigarette.

CLUB WOMEN INTERESTED IN CIGARETTE PURITY WITNESS OLD GOLD SCIENTIFIC VICTORY

Mrs. Oliver C. Harriman, Mrs. Julian Gerard, and Mrs. William Thaw III, keen spectators of the Calorimeter test showing the greater coolness of OLD GOLD, in comparison with 3 other leading brands.

PROOF! . . . that's what you want in a cigarette advertisement. You can't smoke claims. You're entitled to evidence.

But do you get it . . . when an ad simply says: "My cigarette is better?"

OLD GOLD doesn't expect to win you by unsupported adjectives alone. But it does ask you to consider the findings of a great testing laboratory . . . as checked by scientists of two leading universities . . . then draw your own conclusions!

These laboratories made a "cool" test of 4 leading cigarette brands . . . an accurate, impartial scientific test. They repeated it 75 times. And consistently, the smoke of an OLD GOLD was shown to be the coolest, and hence the throat-easiest.

Coolness is the clue to quality in a cigarette. Only the finest, smoothest, purest tobacco burns "cool." Only PURE tobacco burns cool. In establishing itself as the coolest smoke, OLD GOLD proves itself the cigarette of purest and choicest tobacco quality; utterly free of hot-burning artificial flavorings.

NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

The Verdict of Science

This is to certify that in 75 repeated cool tests made of the 4 leading cigarette brands . . . measuring the heat content of each cigarette in B.T.Us. with the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter, it was shown that:

Old Gold averages 112 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand X
Old Gold averages 155 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand Y
Old Gold averages 156 B.T.Us. Cooler than Brand Z

The Thermometer test (Fahrenheit) showed Old Gold smoke definitely cooler than that of the other brands.

ALUMNI ARE TO STAGE DRIVE

TECH GRADUATES MAP OUT PROGRAM FOR ENSUING YEAR

A dues drive to support activities designed to aid Texas Technological college planned for the ensuing year will be conducted today and Thurday in Lubbock by members of the college alumni association. The drive is to begin at 4 o'clock this afternoon, the dues committee meeting to arrange details.

Tentative program of the association calls for a weekly column in the Toreador, the college newspaper, an alumni edition of the paper, news letters to members, purchase of office equipment and sponsorship of the annual homecoming, Nov. 11, date of the Tech-Baylor football game.

With more than 300 graduates of the college living in Lubbock at the present time, leaders believe enough $1 annual dues can be secured to give the association funds to carry out the program. Out of town members will be solicited for dues later.

W. E. Street, Lubbock, is association president; and other officers are James Harley Dallas, Brownfield, first vice president; Mrs. Anna Belle Collier, second vice president, Amarillo; C. W. Ratliff, athletic council, Lubbock; Mamie Wolffarth, secretary-treasurer, Lubbock.

Stiles are having a lot of profitable sport in the sandhill dunes of western Nebraska, southwestern South Dakota and eastern Wyoming. Last winter they flew over many miles of this section hunting coyotes from the air. They bagged 50 of the animals in one month and sold the pelts for $350.
