Need $300 More for Red Cross Drive

The Ochiltree Red Cross drive is still $300 short of the $2,128 quota, with only one more week left to complete the drive. Approximately $1,828 has been contributed thus far,
and the drive closes on March 31. Large billboards have been placed on highways 83 and 117
promoting the fund drive.
These signs were installed by the national Red Cross office.
Contributions to the Red Cross drive may be made at the Perryton National Bank, First National Bank, Stewart Printing Co., or the Ochiltree Red Cross chapter.

LaMaster Gives Statements On National Issues

LeRoy LaMaster, candidate for U. S. Congressman, 18th Congressional District, has presented his stand on national issues to newspapers in the 28-county district. The statements were presented in a question-and-answer form and show how he stands on these issues.

1. Do you favor the Taft-Hartley Act? I feel there is a definite need for adequate labor laws to protect both labor and management and that the Taft-Hartley Act to date is the best law for both interests. I will favor repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act only when a more acceptable plan,
both by labor and management,
is drawn up. I would favor government control of coal mines
when the economy of the nation is endangered and being operated by government forces and not by forced labor of men on strike.

2. Would you favor President Truman's Civil rights program?
No.

3. Do you favor compulsory National Health Insurance (socialized medicine)? No.

4. Do you approve the present federal farm program in general? The basic idea of the farm program is good.

Last Minute Rush Is Expected for Plate Purchasing

It appears that Ochiltree county residents will not violate tradition by buying their license plates before the last day.

As of Tuesday of this week,
there had been 965 sets of 1950
license plates sold at the tax collector's office, while passenger car registration last year were 1,625.

This leave 659 sets yet to be sold and the deadline is but eight days away.

Last year the state changed
the regulations in order that motorists could put the new plates on their automobiles any time after February 1, hoping to encourage earlier buying. This has helped some, but just like income tax payments and poll tax payments, the final day before the deadline seems to be the most popular date for shelling out the cash.

JUST ANOTHER JOB—John Jobe, expert oil well fighter from Houston, stands at the base of a wild gas well at Tyler. The dangerous job of capping the well is just another job to him, Jobe said. Early efforts to cap the well failed because of the strong pressure. The spray of gas caused officials to evacuate the surrounding area, hoping to avoid a serious fire. (AP Photo)

p. m.

sold and those with children are not to be sold.

A wide assortment of prizes has been secured for the give-away quiz program to be conducted by W. H. Lance. Family will compete against family for these valuable gifts.

Coffee and lemonade will be served free.

Golf Club Aims At 100 Members By This Spring

Letters have been sent out to all golfers and prospective golfers in a membership drive conducted by the Perryton Golf Club.
It is hoped to enroll 100 members

provements on the course.

At the recent meeting, it was decided to eliminate quarterly dues payments. Dues now are payable annually for semi-annually from July 1, 1950. Annual dues are $24, and semi-annual dues are $12.

Several club tournaments are planned for this spring, stated Keith Lane, president of the club.

Local Wheat Growers Attend State Meeting In Amarillo

A group of Ochiltree county wheat growers attended the meeting of the Texas Wheat Producers Association in Amarillo Monday, where plans were made to apply for a state charter under which to operate.

One important change was made in the by-laws of the association. This change allows 40 per cent of the amount collected in the county, with 60 per cent going to the state and national organization. This was the change advocated by local wheat growers at the organizational meeting held in Perryton last week.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

By TEX EASLEY
(P) Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Admission of Alaska to the union, as provided in a bill passed by the House, would demote Texas to second place in size among the states.

This fact, according to Capitol Hill jesters, accounted for opposition of most Texans to the measure.

Be that as it may, both the Alaska and Hawaii statehood bills got through the House over the protests of a majority of the congressmen from Texas and the South. Their position was that the government could more speedily and effectively defend these areas if they remained under direct federal control.

A trio of Texas House members, Reps. Lindley Beekworth of Gladewater, J. M. Combs of Beaumont and Clark Thompson of Galveston, voted for both bills. Rep. Bob Poage of Waco voted for the Hawaiian bill, but against Alaska; Rep. Wright Patman voted for Alaska but against Hawaii. Rep. Lloyd Bentsen of McAllen voted for Hawaii, but was absent when the Alaska bill came up.

The Lone Star flag of Texas, probably the best known among all the state banners, will have a rival if Alaska becomes a state.

The Alaska flag is composed of eight stars on a field of blue—seven stars forming the Great Dipper and one representing the North Star.

The possibility of a 49th and 50th state has started a lot of guessing as to how the new flag of the United States would be made up.

As of this moment, your guess is as good as anyone's. The final determination would be made by a 5-member commission named by the President. When the last two states came into the Union—New Mexico and Arizona, in 1912—the matter was decided jointly by the secretaries of war and navy.

If only one of the two territories is admitted it would be easy to arrange the stars in seven vertical and seven horizontal rows. Arranging 50 would be more difficult, unless you came up with a long rectangle.

Throughout the history of the country the appearance of Old Glory was changed many times. The law provides only that it shall have 13 stripes and a star for each state. In some periods they have been arranged in a circle.

Don't worry about your present flag being outmoded for some time. Once legislation admitting a state has finally become law it usually takes a year or so for a local government to be set up and the territory actually taken into the Union.

Around the Capitol:

The Defense Department invited executives of large industrial plants which would fill military orders in event of a conflict to witness war games in the Caribbean Sea.

Bryan Henderson, formerly of Beaumont and Sherman, was with the group invited to see Operation Caribbea.

He went as a representative of a large venetian blind company which has its California plant ready to turn out millions of ammunition boxes on short notice.

An unusual tribute to Rep. Olin E. (Tiger) Teague of College Station was voiced on the House floor recently by Mrs. Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio).

"Mr. Speaker," she said, "There is among the younger men of this House one of whom we as a Congress can well be proud."

There is probably none amongst us whose war record was more heroic—certainly none whose life hung longer in that strange halfway house between the carnage and the disfigurement where so much knowledge lies.

"Out of this deep experience he brought a conviction he must still serve his country. He had found this need under fire and during the more than two years in hospital beds."

"Out of the depths—and heights—of those years came a need to give the life that was given back to him to the widest service he could find to do."

"So we have him amongst us—we can talk and laugh and counsel with him daily—we can be quietly grateful for the deep gentleness that lies in his eyes, for the sweet strength that smiles upon his lips."

"Texas, Mr. Speaker, is fortunate that among its representatives in Washington is Olin Teague."

Mrs. Bolton, who is the mother of three sons and is a grandmother, said she was prompted to pay the tribute by a letter she received from one of Teague's constituents.

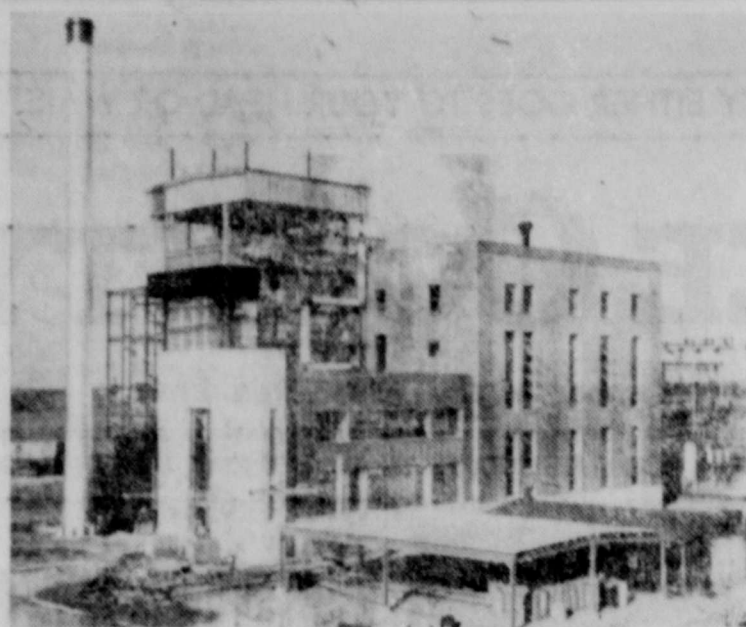

The letter was from Travis Bryan, banker at Bryan, and asked support for selection of Bryan as the site for the proposed Air Force Academy. In a letter the writer referred to Teague as "a good citizen, a good husband and father."

Large Crowd at Legion Party

A large crowd attended the American Legion potluck supper and 31st birthday observance Monday night at the Legion Hall. In the games tournament, Omar Truax won first prize in pitch. Marvin Walton and Mrs. B. F. Jackson won in Canasta, Roy Orrill and Mrs. John Stubblefield won in bridge.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. John Stubblefield, Mrs. Mattie Allen, Mrs. Vera Vaughn, Mrs. L. C. Case and Mrs. Harry Stumpf.

Birds Skip Vacations

CHICAGO (AP)—Some of the birds skipped their southern vacations this year. Members of the Chicago Ornithological Society say they have seen a number of birds which usually go south in the winter. The reasons: the weather has been milder and feed has been available.

Stockmen Plan For Livestock Day On May 20

A group of county stockmen met Wednesday, March 15, at county agent Hood Wills' office to make further plans for the Better Livestock Day to be held at the rodeo grounds on May 20.

Representatives have been invited from the American Hereford Association, the American Aberdeen-Angus Association and American Quarter Horse Association. There will be judges and specialists from Texas A & M College present, also.

It is planned to show the various animals in front of the grandstand, have type demonstrations, also lectures on parasite control, grass and pastures. Local chairmen of each division are: Hereford cattle—C. J. Frantz, Jr., and C. A. Hoover; Angus cattle—Roger Pearson and Percy Powers; Shorthorn cattle—LeRoy LaMaster; Swine—Jake Boese and Earl Schwalk; Sheep—Herman Hargrove and Ivan Day; Dairy Cattle—Emmitt Hummer and Harry Reimer; Horses—R. H. Holland and H. B. Freeman.

No More Lost Balls?

NEW YORK (AP)—Some scientists are working on the problem of lost golf balls and may have hit a solution. "If manufacturers inserted a pellet of radioactive material, with life-long radiation, in golf balls, inexpensive Geiger counters would locate all balls hit into the rough," says one scientist. He calls the counters "atomic caddies."

selection are: Hereford cattle—C. J. Frantz, Jr., and C. A. Hoover; Angus cattle—Roger Pearson and Percy Powers; Shorthorn cattle—LeRoy LaMaster; Swine—Jake Boese and Earl Schwalk; Sheep—Herman Hargrove and Ivan Day; Dairy Cattle—Emmitt Hummer and Harry Reimer; Horses—R. H. Holland and H. B. Freeman.

Ranger Band Wins Trophy

The Ranger Band brought back an attractive trophy from the St. Patrick's Day celebration at Shamrock last Friday, placing third in class B band competition.

The award was made on the basis of both musical proficiency and marching ability. Other bands in the same class were Wellington, Dalhart, Memphis, McLean, Sayre, Lefors and Panhandle.

It costs an average of 4.5 cents per pound to cut and wrap meat for self-service counters, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Bob Wills Hears Folks Tell Of Hadacol's Many Blessings

Hundreds of folks, who are benefiting every day from taking HADACOL meet at the Trianon Building in Oklahoma City where Bob Wills, famous band leader, and his Texas Playboys broadcast each noon for HADACOL.

"It looks like all my fans are getting wonderful benefits from HADACOL," said Wills. "It is a real pleasure to broadcast for HADACOL because the folks taking HADACOL are so enthusiastic that I feel like I am performing a real service for mankind."

Hundreds have told Wills of the blessed benefits of HADACOL and the following statement by Miss Carol Jean White, 3636 West Park St., Oklahoma City, is a good example:

"One of the luckiest days of my life was when I heard Bob Wills tell about the wonderful blessings of HADACOL. I had lost my appetite, my energy was down. I suffered with gastric disturbances and indigestion. I took the advice of Bob Wills and took HADACOL. I felt better right off and have felt better and better as I have continued to take HADACOL. I now recommend HADACOL to my friends."

Miss White suffered with a deficiency of B Vitamins and important Minerals which HADACOL contains.

A lack of only a small amount of the B Vitamins and certain Minerals will cause digestive disturbances. . . . Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heartburns, gas pains, and your food will sour on your stomach, and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of the lack of the B Vitamins and Minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the Vitamins and the Minerals which your system lacks.

Bob Wills Hears About HADACOL'S Blessings

Bob Wills, famous western music band leader, loves to talk with his fans at the Trianon Building auditorium in Oklahoma City about the blessings of HADACOL. In the picture above Miss Carol Jean White, 3636 West Park St., Oklahoma City, tells Bob how much HADACOL has helped her. Hundreds of folks who are obtaining rich blessings from the precious B Vitamins and Minerals in HADACOL visit Wills each week for his network broadcast, which is originated from KBYE, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma's western music station, and sent over a leased wire to stations, KRMG, Tulsa; KWHN, Fort Smith; KGLC, Miami, Oklahoma; KLYN, Amarillo, and KWFT, Wichita Falls.

HADACOL contains not only one, but 5 of the B Vitamins HADACOL contains not only one, but 4 of the necessary Minerals. It comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have already been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL. So, it matters not who you are . . . it matters not where you live . . . or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives again because HADACOL supplied the Vitamins and Minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Give HADACOL a trial. Demand the genuine HADACOL. Accept no substitutes.

Women Enter Century's Better Half

Gals Will Reach New Heights In 2000

By VIVIAN BROWN
Ochiltree Features Writer

In the year 2000 people will talk about the Gibson girl as if she'd been a pygmy. Six-foot-two Dianias will hide those family albums revealing their "mid-get ancestry" and little Sister's favorite doll will wear Granny's wedding dress.

Since 1900 women have been growing by leaps and bounds. In that year the average woman was about 5 feet tall, wore a size three shoe and was as dainty as a Dresden figurine. Today 36 per cent of the female population is between 5 ft. 4 in. and 5 ft. 10 in.—and at age 18 the average shoe size is seven. By the year 2000, experts figure that the ratio should have crept up to a height of between 5 ft. 10 in. and 6 ft. 2 in.—and shoes will look like violin cases.

Today's modest little gaintesses do not know their own strength. But any year now they should, and just wait until they do, says beauty expert Ann Delafield who explains:

"Nature seems bent on producing a new race of Amazons. Within the next 50 years you'll find the emancipated woman engaging actively in such sports as football, baseball and soccer. She'll think nothing of chopping the wood and acting as family car mechanic."

Miss Delafield has found that the shoulders of girls in her beauty success school are two to three inches wider than their mother's, their gloves are several sizes larger than Mom's, and many a gal stoops down to kiss her teen age boy friend. Says Miss Delafield:

"Goodness knows what will happen if they continue to soak up vitamins and sunshine and just keep sprouting. Girls from the sunshine states, California, Texas and New Mexico can dwarf the girls from the Northeast."

That's one thing our future Paula Bunyons must guard against—the danger of the sun. The average girl bakes her face and just develops a large batch of wrinkles—three months in the sun can age her three years, says Miss Delafield, and at this rate in the 2,000, young girls will look older and wrinkled, she believes. Sunshine should be absorbed by the teaspoon than the table-spoon, she says.

Apparently women are going to be hard to distinguish from their brothers according to hair-dresser Victor Vito who says:

"By the year 2000, women will be wearing completely masculine hair styles. They will be doing a man's work, in many instances, so it will be a question of wearing a regular boy's bob for most of their activities."

Victor believes that the boyish bob will bring the wearing of wigs into great prominence. His "crystal ball" says women will have wigs in every color in many different hairstyles to wear at home, for parties, and for particular occasions . . . or perhaps to distinguish them from their brothers and husbands.

Her hairdo in general for every day work and play will be cut like a man's with the possibility of a few straight bangs across the front, says Victor, who adds:

"At this point I wouldn't even guess what men will look like."

The state association plans to start an intensive marketing and research program to find new markets and new uses for wheat. Kuper told of gasoline being made with a 10 per cent alcoholic blend processed from wheat. A movement to make this possible already is afoot in Nebraska.

Kenneth Kendrick, Stratford farmer and secretary of the association, reported that 14 counties have formed associations, elected officers and agreed to contribute a quarter of a cent a bushel on their crops to help finance the state association.

The counties are Armstrong, Carson, Collingsworth, Dallam, Donley, Gray, Hansford, Hartley, Hutchinson, Ochiltree, Randall, Sherman, Moore and Deaf Smith.

Those present from Ochiltree county were Audie Conley, H. C. Brillhart, Aldon Bell, L. R. Conner, B. H. Peckenpaugh, W. C. Herndon, W. H. Lance and Hood Willis.

Suicide Is Verdict In Green Death

A verdict of suicide was returned Thursday night by justice of the peace Dewey Allen in the death of Arthur Green, Perryton resident found dead in the county jail at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

The body was found by night watchman Leonard Robertson. Green was arrested and put into jail about 6 o'clock Thursday by deputy sheriff Clyde Tarbox on a charge of being drunk. Tarbox said Green was placed in a cell by himself. The cell was furnished only with a double decker bunk bed.

At the inquest, it was determined that Green had hanged himself by wrapping his own belt around his neck, fastening the belt to the iron frame of the bunk above him, then leaning back in his bunk with his head hanging over the side.

Other prisoners told officers they heard him, but thought he was snoring.

Tarbox said that he was called to the Green house, located on Main street north of the railroad tracks, by members of his family after Green had been "causing a little trouble."

Green was found talking to another man about a half block from the house, and offered no resistance when arrested.

He was employed at the Russell Wrecking Yard, and had lived in Perryton for 24 years.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the Boxwell Bros. chapel, with Doyle Banta, minister of the Church of Christ officiating. Pallbearers were Clarence Waggoner, Henry Balzer, Arthur Townsend, Arthur Pearson, Charlie Atchison and Arvie Hale.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Ivan Gilbert, a granddaughter, Judy Pearl Gilbert and a grandson, Arthur Earl Gilbert, all of Perryton; three brothers, Will and Bert, both of Denton, and Lou of Montrose, Colo.

Interment was in the Tyrone Okla., cemetery.

Local Balloons Soar 600 Miles

Lynn Hulsey's general science class conducted a sort of "flying saucer" experiment earlier this month and had very gratifying results.

On March 14, the class, in conjunction with their study of lighter-than-air aircraft, launched 50 hydrogen filled balloons. On each balloon was tied a slip with the student's name and address.

On March 16, a George Meyers of Joplin, Mo., found two of the balloons, lodged in a tree near his house. He brought them down, then wrote a card to Pearl Logan and Wanda Kile, who had launched the balloons together.

The class estimated that the balloons traveled nearly 600 miles. When they left Perryton, they headed due north, but eventually changed course before they reached Joplin.

reporter who cannot is mind quickly is not ed. Nature just does not work on percentages, estimates or what man thinks. Nature acts quickly and sometimes with terrible results. Sometimes the rewards are pleasing but usually that is a more gradual build up than the tearing down process.

It takes 20 minutes to wreck
a crop in a hail storm. It takes 60 seconds to destroy a small city and kill 150 people and also destroy some crops. It usually takes from 6 to 60 hours from a cold blast and late spring frost period to prevent hundreds of millions of bushels of grain from developing.

I have seen all of these in my days as a crop reporter. I have also seen grasshoppers devastate
a region in ten to 15 days.

I have seen north central Texas literally eaten up by green bugs and I have seen Kansas produce 41 million bushels of wheat because of drouth and winter kill. I have seen all of these and could not forecast one of them very far ahead. Usually when I tell you what is happening today (if I can do it accurately) becomes a fulfilled forecast six weeks to two months latter. Most of mankind including your crop reporter is prone to shy away from bald unpleasant facts.

We like to be optimistic.

The weather records tell us
this was a mild winter which means an insect year.

The bugs were here last fall and not all of them died. They live in the soil and I reported that the soil was full of them in places last fall. That was not forecast. That was reporting observations. Every or almost every daily sheet I have mailed showed greenbug notations between towns and yet the foot notes were optimistic.

Here is what happened:

The last 72 and soon it will be 96 hours have been very favorable for greenbug development.
The bugs became numerous enough to begin "burning" spots in the wheat. They do not burn the plant, they puncture it sucking the sap out of the stalk. The plant becomes sick and begins to die. Even if it is green and lives it has lost its stooing and growing power. It stands still or heads a single straw.

I began to drive and check back where I had been and the score began to go down. The spots began to appear more and more in some areas. I went back into Texas and covered the same ground. I began to see the hand writing on the wall. On the evening of March 1st at Olney, Texas I mailed the first alarming daily report. On the evening of March 3 a telegram was sent to all telegraphic subscribers:

"Last 72 hours unusually favorable for greenbug propagation.
From Olney, Texas, north through a good part of southern wheat belt to Guthrie, Kingfisher, Watonga, Oklahoma latitude, greenbug population increasing at an alarming rate.

Small areas west of Hitchcock-Okeene 75% loss now. Actual damage to date reduce prospect 5 bu. on million acres Oklahoma;
half million acres Texas. Nothing but rain and warm weather can stop deterioration. Potential loss very much greater. See Bulletins 8, 9, and 10. Over half the acreage outlined infested to some extent now."

I am still urging caution in looking upon this as an exceptionally bullish situation because after all we have only 5 to 5½ million acres south of this

HEADY PLAY—This unusual basketball photo was made by Bill Godspeed of the San Antonio Express and was a prize winner in the recent Associated Press contest.

latitude and from 28 to 29 million acres north of this line to the Platte river. Only a smaller part of the 5½ million are out today. Yet, it is also safe to say that Oklahoma "is full" of green bugs from the Red river to the Kansas line.

Controllers

We will have to wait and see when the parasite wasp and the lady bug beetle develop in controlling numbers. And the lady bug beetle gets the credit because you can see it and the parasite wasp does all the work.
The two control the greenbug.

Natives Interested

In making these observations, lying face down on the ground watching the insects to see if the wasps and beetles are coming out I spend 10 to 15 minutes in making one observation. I learned something that makes me think all the more of the "natives" in Oklahoma and Texas.

I do not lie there long until some man stops, comes over to me and pats me on the shoulder and wants to know if I am in trouble. One with perhaps a past experience asked "Are you sick, drunk or dying?"

When I explain what I am doing I put the glass on bugs and tell them to get down and take a look.

The reaction is funny; first perfectly still, then the feet begin to wiggle, finally some ejaculations such as, "Well, I be darned! Confound 'em! Look at that S. O. B.! Sometimes they get so interested I have to pat them on the shoulder and tell them
"we have to get going."

Someway it is comfortable to know that a total stranger is interested in knowing if I am sick, drunk or dying. And they're alike on both sides of the Red river.

Public Rejects Critics

NEW YORK (AP)—The art-viewing public, snubbed the art critics in choosing its favorite painting from an exhibit of 100
French and American canvases
here.

Nine eminent American art authorities named Fred Conway of St. Louis, the winner of the Hallmark Art competition, but a popular vote of 8,000 visitors to the exhibit relegated Conway to tenth place. The people's choice was a painting by Laurence Sis-

been ranked in the fourth-to-tenth-place category by the judges.

CITY THAT LIVES IN THE PAST—Perugia, Italy, is a city which lives in the past and is proud of it. This quaint city of 90,000 high amid the hills of central Italy is like a living chapter from a history book of the Middle Ages. The buildings, as well as the way of life, is that of centuries past.

"Rarity" is the subject of the Lesson Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 26. The Golden Text is: "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him" (Isaiah 64:4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness" (Ephesians 6:14).

The Lesson Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Nothing is real and eternal—nothing is Spirit,—but God and His idea. Evil has no reality" (page 71).

Even the COLORS sing of Spring!

Too bad a newspaper has to be printed in black and white.

For here we can show you only half the picture you can make this spring, this summer and for a long time to come.

True, you can see the lines of this tidy 1950 SUPER Convertible.

You can, perhaps, imagine the top-of-the-world feeling you'd know with the wind combing your hair, a great valve-in-head straight-eight filling your ears with its song, these spinning wheels cradling each mile of your going in soft, coil-spring comfort.

What we can't show you here are the bright, gay colors we have made ready just for you and just for this year.

We can't show you how they dress you up, clothe you in the very spirit of the season, add their own special plus to that unmatchable I-drive-a-Buick feeling.

Best we can say is they won't cost you one cent extra.

They are part and parcel of this gorgeous Buick package, like the Fireballing power of our new F-263 engine—the level going of all-coil springing—the steady roadability of Buick's solid structure—the handy controls for top, windows and front seat, the satiny smoothness of Dynaflo Drive.*

City Manager Plan Grows

NEW YORK (AP)—Seventy-nine American municipalities adopted the council-manager form of government during 1949, it is reported by the National Municipal League, clearing house of information for local civic groups. This brings the total number of places in which the city manager plan is in effect to 958.

The league predicted that, at the present rate, the council-manager plan will become the prevailing form of local government within the next decade.

Tall Gorillas Called Myth

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—David P. Willoughby was intrigued by tall tales told by African hunters about 9-foot gorillas that inhabited certain sections of the Belgian Congo. So the California Institute of Technology paleontologist went to work, measuring hundreds of gorilla bones, checking photographs and reports by expeditions.

His conclusion: Gorillas are no taller than people. In a report to the American Association for the Advancement of Science Willoughby said the tallest reliably reported height for a gorilla is 6 feet 2 inches, although the animals often weigh more than 500 pounds.

Court Backs Berlin Blockade Smuggling

BERLIN (AP)—A German court has ruled that men who smuggled food into west Berlin during the Russian blockade are innocent of any law breaking. The case involved two butchers who were sneaking meat through the Russian blockade.

But the butchers were fined $10 for failing to put their meat at public disposal—at rationed prices. The men sold their meat to the black market.

Money for the Doorman . . .

At a time when income taxes have frayed nerves of many to the danger point, a quick glance at the way this money is spent after it gets into government hands can be exasperating.

The mammoth organization of our bureaucratic national administration reaches out to inhale in one deep breath the hard-earned dollar of the American Farmer and businessman, then, in a dribble, comparatively speaking, doles out benefits in the form of subsidies, public improvement projects and security (?)

We vote for continued government spending at each election. Why not? We see the benefits of such spending, heaped lavishly with publicity and painted with rose colored tints of promises of more to come. Government news releases always hasten to tell the story of the tax dollar and what it has accomplished. But the unpleasant job of collection and the penalties for failure to pay receive a minimum of the limelight.

Accepting a rather naive sort of interpretation, taxes, as paid by the American people, are collected for services rendered in the form of government. The public should (and probably does in a small way) get a return on every tax dollar. The taxpayer gains security as provided by the most powerful nation in the world. He gets law enforcement and the opportunity to live without fear of his fellowman. He gets roads and highways and public improvement projects. He gets subsidized, and in the satisfaction of receiving a government hand-out, the opportunity to stop and consider the fact that he is probably paying out a certain amount toward the cost of subsidizing his neighbor. Whether the amount he pays exceeds what he receives depends on his own particular circumstances.

In this modified pattern of redistribution of the wealth, regardless of what we believe about the propriety of such an administration, the cost of administering the tax benefits is a major factor. A recent estimate by a Michigan congressman shows President Truman to be one of the best, if not the best paid man in the world. As the leader of the greatest nation in the world, perhaps he should be, even if he was a business failure and unable to contribute much to the public welfare before he got into politics.

The president, we believe, however, typifies one of the many inefficiencies of current administration which shut off the tax dollar before any benefit can be returned to the man who sweats for his cash.

Says the Michigan congressman:

A private citizen to match the standard of living now enjoyed by the president would need an income of between three or three and one-half million dollars a year.

Besides $110,000 take home pay the presidential services were listed as:

Forty-two "facilities" for travel, vacationing and entertaining, including 35 White House automobiles, the yacht Williamsburg, private pullman and vacation retreats in Key West and Maryland.

An estimated staff of 655 persons to run them at an annual cost of $1,491,540. A White House travel allowance of between $33,896 and $40,000, exclusive of air travel which is charged to the Air Force.

White House salary costs are $998,254 per year for a staff of 225 (By comparison, according to the congressman, even Roosevelt in 1945 had only a staff of 53, costing $255,431. Hoover had 37 with a salary bill of $127,200.)

We won't argue whether these expenses are necessary for THE PRESIDENT of the United States. But it must be gratifying to know that your tax dollar may have paid for the shoes of the man who takes the hat and coat of the president as he enters the door to retire from a days work as the best paid man in the world.—Hockley County Herald.

TB Vaccination Lags

SINGAPORE (AP)—The Singapore Anti-Tuberculosis Association's B. C. G. service, with sufficient vaccine for 500 people monthly, could only touch on the fringe of this colony's tuberculosis problem, an official of the S.A.T.A. said.

More than 3,000 children and adults have been vaccinated with B. C. G. by the association with extraordinary good results. No unpleasant reactions have been noted and protection against the disease has been 100 per cent on the people vaccinated, the official said.

African Snakes Earn Dollars

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—Snakes are big dollar-earners for South Africa. Collected from all parts of the Union, Rhodesia and South West Africa, the live reptiles are flown from Johannesburg to United States zoos and laboratories. Orders for thousands more puff adders, mambas and cobras worth $8.40 each are rolling in.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

Wants A Rain Making Job Like New Yorker

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher won't get anywhere with his proposal this week, but you can't blame him for trying.)

Dear editor:

I was wandering around out here the other afternoon enjoyin' the Spring weather—ain't nothin' that'll give a man a lift like Spring weather, outside of a government check in the mail box or a good rain—when I picked up a copy of the Amarillo News which somebody had wrapped a lunch in and which, don't make no difference if it is a big paper, ain't no more ant-proof than yours, but anyway I shook the ants out of it—sat down and read where the city of New York has hired a man for $50,000 to produce rain to relieve the water shortage up there.

I notice the scientist who got this rain-making job says he can't guarantee to make rain every day, there'll be some days when he fails, some when he succeeds.

This seemed to suit those New York officials and they handed over their $50,000.

I been thinkin'. I believe I would be willing to undertake a rain-makin' job on that basis, not only for one city but for the whole country, and will do it for less money.

Of course like the New York scientist I can't be expected to succeed every time, and when it doesn't rain, the country doesn't owe me anything, but when I do succeed and it does rain, I collect. Figure if I get the rain making franchise for the whole country I ought to collect something from some part of the nation nearly every month, maybe even every week.

The way this looks to me, it'll beat farmin' all to pieces. If those New Yorkers have got that kind of money to spend I'd sure like to get in on it.

Yours faithfully,

CAMERA NEWS

By AARON J. EZICKSON
(For Irving Dester)

AP Newsfeatures

It often pays to carry that camera, and I mean literally pays, wherever you go or whatever you might do.

Many an amateur photographer has swelled his pocketbook because he has got into the habit of having his camera on hand, whether he went to his shop, to the movies or just took a stroll in the park. The big news story might be breaking just around the corner, and you and yours might make the front pages and the headlines.

What are the news possibilities for the amateur camera later? Newspaper syndicate picture files have numerous evidences of the amateur's handiwork. One of the top prizes some years ago went to Fred Hansen, a member of the crew of the ill-fated S. S. Vestris when the ship went down in the Atlantic.

The ship was sinking fast. Hansen grabbed his camera on the run from his cabin, turned to make some shots of the slanting deck and of others dashing for the boats, before he himself managed to squeeze in among the survivors. At the New York pier, an enterprising reporter snared him and promised him ample compensation. He got it, too—more than $1,000 and the paper scored one of the grandest scoops in years.

MORE FAMILIAR to present-day readers were the pictures of a Atlanta, Ga., hotel fire, where guests plummeted to their death amid flames and smoke. One victim was photographed by Arnold Hardy, a Georgia Tech student who lived several blocks away.

Of course, these are rare and isolated instances, but the work of amateurs on less sensational news goes on day after day. Though every newspaper and news syndicate has its own staff photographers, it is usually impossible to cover every part of a city and its environs.

The car wreckage may be cleaned up, the victims taken away, or the fire put out long before the paper's cameraman arrives on the scene. It may pay you, as a camera fan, to make a dash for the sudden grinding crash when cars collide.

SO THE MORAL is: keep your camera always loaded and within easy reach. Then when you have shot your roll, phone the newspaper immediately and report that you have pictures of such-and-such an accident. No doubt, they'll tell you to come in pronto after giving them some details of the story. They'll develop your negatives and will pay you well for each shot used.

If you're living in the country, you may be first on the spot to get pictures of a big fire, train or plane wreck. In that case, phone the nearest city where news pictures syndicates have their representatives, or stringers, as they are called. You will be told to rush the pictures by auto, plane or train, and you will be paid for the trouble. By all means, lose no time to develop your negatives.

The job isn't really more a thrill than a job—of covering a news story will not mean a steady income—but at least, it may give you a few extra dollars and a few spine-tingling moments, as well.

Police Whistle In Vain

DIJON (AP)—When Claude Jacquemin, farm laborer, rode his bicycle home without a red rear light he really started something. The policeman, who whistled at him in vain, hailed him into court as being in control of a vehicle which failed to stop. The magistrate, ruling that "a bicycle is not a vehicle because it has no axle," released him.

The public prosecutor appealed against the decision and Jacquemin found himself in the Appeal Court here, listening while learned lawyers argued it out. In the end Jacquemin won. The Dijon Appeal Court decided that after all a bicycle was not a vehicle.

Killing Insects Is Not Easy, Says Health Officer

AUSTIN—There is no easy road to the abatement of insects and rodents, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Frequently people get enthusiastic about the destruction of the insects and believe that, if an airplane flies over the town, or if a huge fogging machine rolls through town spreading an insecticide, the insects will be killed instantly and peace from the insect nuisance will remain forever. This is an erroneous and, unfortunately, bad practice, because it creates an unwarranted sense of security.

Before any killing is anticipated, a thorough clean-up of the community should be carried on. This means cleaning up the rubbish and garbage and eliminating all insect feeding and breeding places. It might mean the draining or filling in of wet areas for destruction of the mosquito larvae. When this is done, one will be surprised how few insects are left to become a nuisance, and, perhaps a public health problem.

Following this, it is suggested that insecticides be sprayed manually to those places inhabited by the insects. Experience has shown that a 2 per cent to 5 per cent solution of DDT is still the most effective insecticide to use for general sanitation. This is spread to form a thin coat on the surface, where it can remain for future destruction. A spray that will just moisten the surface is sufficient to be effective. Spray only those areas where you know the insects gather.

Chicago Gives Windows a Break

CHICAGO (AP)—The taxpayer is getting a better break. The cost of replacing shattered windows in Chicago's public schools is going down. Broken panes numbered 33,916 last year. In 1946, when a campaign to keep windows in one piece began, 60,799 panes were broken.

Sen. Morris Of Greenville to Run For Lt. Governor

AUSTIN—State Senator G. C. Morris, Greenville, Thursday announced his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor. He was in Austin for a meeting of the Legislative Council, an agency he helped organize last year and then headed as first chairman.

Sen. Morris, 37-year-old Greenville attorney, promised an active, fighting campaign carried to every community in Texas. He said he would go to the people with the proposal of taking stock, reorganizing and simplifying state government as the way to continue needed services without levying new taxes.

As Senate President last summer, Sen. Morris became Acting Lieutenant Governor, succeeding Allan Shivers. He served seven months in this office.

Sen. Morris served 16 years in the Texas Legislature, eight in the House and eight in the Senate. His legislative record, which began when he was only 21, includes: REA co-op law, funds for rural roads, education for crippled children, and all proposals to improve the public school system. For 16 years he has been the recognized leader of anti-sales tax forces.

Sen. Morris was author of the 1941 legislation which provides Texas' share of old age assistance, aid to the adult blind and aid to dependent children.

Look what BREAD would cost you today

... if it had come down from its 1939 price like the unit cost of ELECTRICITY

No one needs to tell you how inflation has hiked the price of bread since 1939. What you may not realize is that the unit cost of electricity has come down in the same period.

Your electric rates have not been increased, and as use has gone up the average price per kilowatt-hour has come down. It is now 30% less than in 1939.

If bread had followed the same price trend, the pound loaf that cost 8¢ in 1939 would cost 6¢ today, instead of the 14¢ or so you are now paying.

True, your electric bill may be higher, because if yours is the average household you're using 68% more electricity than in 1939. But the price you pay per kilowatt-hour was never lower than it is today.

Mule Trader Becomes Top Horse Trainer

By KEITH FULLER

(P) Newsfeatures

NEW ORLEANS — If modern self-propelled artillery hadn't replaced the Army mule, W. H. (Hal) Bishop would never have tied for the national race horse training title last year.

The stocky full-faced Bishop owned one of the finest horse and mule markets in the country at Anna, Ill., and the Army was his best customer. In this setup he'd never considered racing.

But when this market played out he simply moved over to the long oval and set up shop with a few haybarners that collectively weren't worth the smallest truck purse.

Bishop, with shrewdness gained from his horse and mule dealing, decided he wouldn't wait for a Man of War or a Seabiscuit but do what he could with what he had. It paid off.

Seven years around the nation's tracks have added a lot of knowhow to Bishop's innate sense of judging horses.

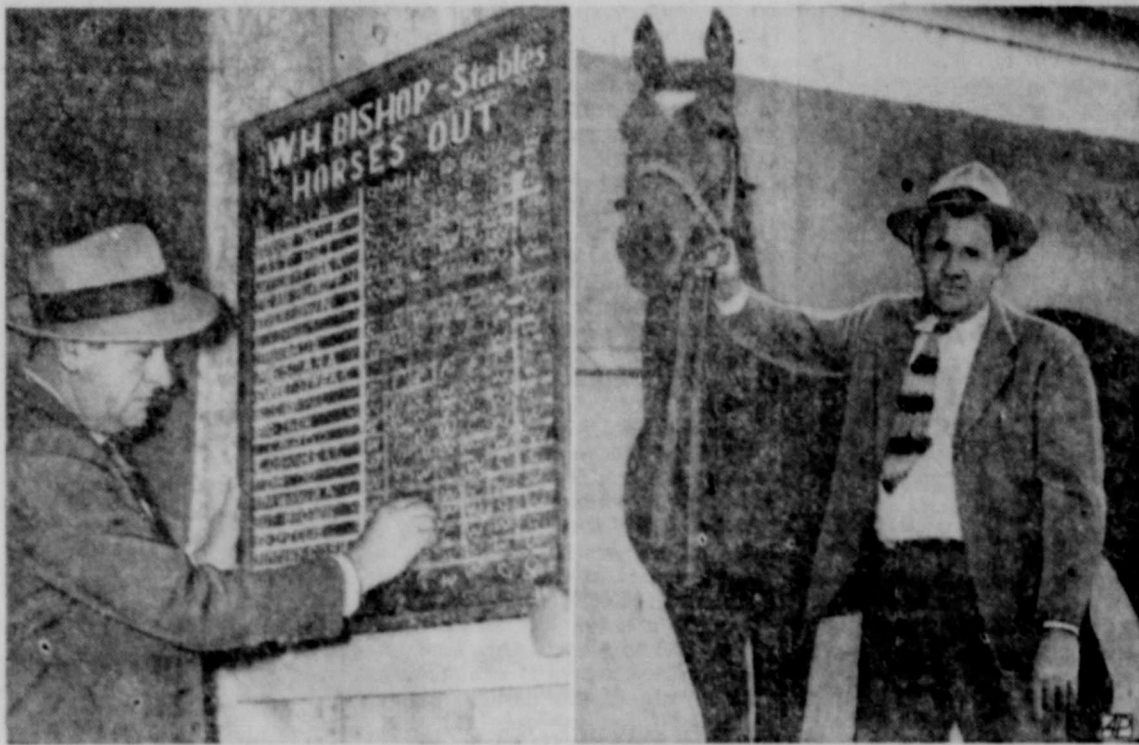

From 1946 to 1950 he has been the leading trainer in Illinois. He pays out about $2,000 weekly on his 21-horse string. Since he trains only his own horses,

Bishop keeps a good percentage of their earnings.

He's pretty shy when it comes to betting and always pokes his small wagers through a partition window rather than with a bookie—where bookies are legal.

Bishop's system for owning a racing string includes this advice: "Don't fall in love with your horses—if they can't run, get rid of them at any price so you can get one that can."

That's why, whatever the race, if one of Bishop's nags is entered you can usually find it pounding up front, paying for its keep.

Hal Bishop checks a scoreboard he keeps on his horse (left) and at right he holds the reins of Sergeant Brown, the horse that won the last race on Dec. 31, 1949, to give him 129 winners and a tie with Willie Molter for the national trainer's title.

Under Cover Men Get Terrorists

IPOH, Malaya (P)—Malayan security forces are now using "undercover" men who join up with the terrorists to secure valuable information. Yap Hong Heng, a detective attached to the Federal Police, was awarded the Perak Distinguished Conduct Medal for killing four terrorists with whom he lived.

Yap and the four insurgents were ordered to carry out the murder of two police officers and an agent. While the four men slept on their way to the mission, Yap disarmed them and shot them dead. He then returned to headquarters. He had been living with the terrorists since 1948 without their knowing his identity.

City Poacher

MISSOULA, Mont. (P)—Game poaching reached a new high in brazenness here recently when a deer was killed, dressed and skinned on a city street. It was done at night and reported by City Councilman Fred W. English.

SLAIN SHERIFF—Sheriff O. W. (Blackie) Morrow, 43, (above), of Presidio County, Tex., was slain on a lonely mountain road 11 miles north of Presidio, Tex., on the Mexican border under mysterious circumstances. State and local officers of the Big Bend country have organized search parties to seek the trail of the unidentified slayer. Morrow was shot and left dying on a lonely road. The sheriff, blood pouring from a hole thru the left side of his body, managed to get into his car and drive a mile toward Presidio before he died. (P) Wirephoto

Dear Editor:

I read with a great deal of interest a newspaper account of the "grounding of the big MO" and a recent story that officers of the Missouri would be court martialled.

I just can't keep from wondering if "our ship of state" (on a national basis) has not "gone ground" and perhaps those in charge of "steering" should be court martialled.

Maybe our reprimand could be at the ballot boxes this year.

Just wondering.

Smoke Danger

WASHINGTON (P)—Phineas J. Walker, retiring after 44 years as a stoker in government buildings, recalled the day President Theodore Roosevelt almost had him fired.

The District of Columbia had an anti-smoke ordinance even in those days. One day T. R. looked out of his White House office window and saw billows of smoke coming out of the Treasury Department chimney next door. He ordered his aides to tell the Secretary of the Treasury he would fire the man with the shovel if the secretary couldn't keep him from making smoke.

It turned out the Treasury Department was using soft instead of hard coal, contrary to regulations. It quickly shifted to hard coal, but Walker says he "could picture the President out on the White House lawn every day looking for smoke."

scale census of the district is a gigantic undertaking. Supervisor of the Congressional District, Walter S. Shaller, said today that the census of the district, which is being conducted by census crews, is a task of great magnitude.

seats in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

This is in accordance with Article I, Section 2, of the Constitution of the United States. This section provides that representation in the House "shall be apportioned among the several states . . . according to their respective numbers" to be determined by an enumeration of the population. This section provided that the first census was to be taken within three years after the first meeting of the First Congress and within each subsequent 10 years. Under this provision, the First Decennial Census was conducted in 1790 and the years ending in "0" have thus become recognized as the decennial census years.

The Constitution provides that each State shall have at least one seat in the House of Representatives. After the 1790 census seats in the House were apportioned to the States at the rate of one per 33,000 population. If this basis still prevailed, the House would today have more than 4,000 members instead of the present fixed 435. After 1850, the Congress first determined its total membership and then divided the seats among the states in proportion to their respective populations. In recent decades,

American Denied Citizenship

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal Judge Burnita S. Matthews denied citizenship to a woman who was born in the United States. The woman, a native of Cleveland, married a Hungarian in 1925 and went to Hungary to live. She remained there through the war, although she testified she always represented herself as an American national.

She asked the court to reassert her U. S. citizenship. This was denied because it was established the woman voted in an Hungarian election in 1946. Judge Matthews rejected her plea that she had to vote on pain of being jailed and losing a ration card—and that she voted anti-Communist.

because of the shifting population, some States have gained seats in the House and others have lost. No reapportionment of House seats was made after the 1920 census, the only decade since 1790 in which this was not done, while after the 1930 and 1940 censuses the present fixed number of 435 seats was distributed among the states under what the Congressional Apportionment Statute defines as the "method of equal proportions."

Another Mansion Wrecked

CHICAGO (AP)—The tide of time is washing away an old Chicago landmark.

The Potter almer mansion on Lake Shore Drive, once the citadel of the city's society, will be torn down soon. Two 22-story apartment buildings will be erected on the site.

Russia Is Old Story in Bulgaria

SOFIA (AP)—The Russian influence is nothing new in Bulgaria. Anybody who walks six blocks through the center of Sofia has that brought home to him by the names of landmarks along the way. The pedestrian can start at the blocklike white limestone mausoleum of George Dimitrov, who came home from Moscow after 22 years in exile to become Communist premier of postwar Bulgaria.

The way leads along a boulevard named for Alexander II of Russia. He warred on the Turks for Bulgaria's freedom. Four blocks down stands St. Alexander Nevsky Bulgarian Orthodox cathedral, named for a thirteenth-century Russian warrior. Ahead is a statue of Alexander on horseback. Beyond that is Marshal Tolbukhin street, honoring the Russian leader whose troops were on Bulgarian soil at the time of the 1944 revolt.

Miss Johnnie Johnson, who attends McMurry College in Abilene, visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Johnson.

ALL THE KING'S MEN—Broderick Crawford slaps his son, John Derek, in this scene from "All the King's Men," movie based on the Pulitzer Prize novel by Robert Penn Warren. The picture, which portrays a politician turned corrupt, comes to the Ellis on Tues.-Thurs., March 28-30.

'All the King's Men' Based On Pulitzer Prize Winning Novel

"All the King's Men," Robert Penn Warren's Pulitzer Prize winning novel, has been forged into a forceful motion picture which pitilessly etches a portrait of a political big shot who causes a ferment in the lives of everyone in his state.

The picture comes to the Ellis on Tuesday-Wednesday, March 28-30.

Broderick Crawford is cast as the ruthless big shot. As Willie Stark, who thought he had the world by the tail, till it exploded in his face with a bullet attached, Crawford, exudes a magnificent animal vitality, a swaggering confidence in the star of his destiny that carried everything and everyone before him. Building his power as Governor, humbling his enemies—and his friends—Willie literally was destiny's favorite son. Even lovely and aristocratic Anne Stanton (Dru) was swept off her feet by the irresistible Willie, forsaking her true love, newspaperman Jack Burden (Ireland).

Virtually the whole state ultimately worked for Willie Stark, in "All the King's Men" at the current wages of sin. But Willie's very ruthlessness awakened the spirit of a few who risked ruin and sought to destroy him.

Post-War Comedy of GI Education Is Coming Soon

"Yes, Sir, That's My Baby," is a story of GI education, mixed with marriage, football and other complications on the campus. The film, starring Donald O'Connor, Charles Coburn and Gloria De Haven, the picture comes to the Ellis on Fri.-Sat., March 24-25.

Filmed in Technicolor, the film concerns the troubles of a young war veteran and his wife who live with their baby on a college campus while completing their education.

Everyone can look back on post-war headaches that have a chuckle in retrospect. O'Connor and Miss De Haven, as the young couple, stumble on just about every trial and tribulation in the book before bringing the picture to a happy ending.

As the mighty but modest war hero, Donald occupies a quonset hut with his wife, Gloria, and their baby, Boopkins, on the campus of Granger College where Donald wants to play football with his four vet pals under Charles Coburn's tutelage.

However, Gloria and the other players' wives stage a revolt. Fate smiles at last, and with Donald and his pals playing, Granger College manages to come through, thus quelling the wives' rebellion and making a happy ending for everyone.

Besides the laugh-provoking situations offered by the film, there also are three new song hits done by Donald and Gloria. These are "Just Look At Me," "They've Never Figured Out a Woman" and "Men Are Little Children." Also, Donald, Gloria and Coburn team up for a rendition of the film's theme song, the popular "Yes Sir, That's My Baby."

Ferret Strings Wire

RAPID City, S. D. (AP)—A ferret became the one-day hero of the air force at the Rapid City air-base, key northern B-36 bomber outpost. A special harness rigged on the weasel-like animal, named "Pete," permitted him to string an important telephone wire six feet under the huge reinforced concrete runway. Puzzled engineers feared they would have to tear up the costly runway to lay the wire.

Finn Timmons, owner of the ferret, sicked him on the job of traversing the 2,210-foot conduit with an order, "Take it through, Pete." Pulling a string, etc made it in 20 minutes the first run. On the fourth and final trip, it took the tired, 18-ounce ferret three and one-half hours.

The slim, slinky ferrets usually are used for rabbit and rodent hunting.

Singapore Loses China Trade

SINGAPORE (AP)—Three hundred business firms failed in Singapore during the year owing to curtailment of trade with China and strict currency regulations in Indonesia.

Import and export traders who deal with Indonesia and shops dealing in merchandise from China are the sufferers. Total losses are estimated to amount to several million dollars.

New 'Playing Coach' Coming Up at SMU

(AP) Newsfeatures

DALLAS — Doak Walker has completed his football eligibility at Southern Methodist and thus passes from the scene the fellow the fans called "the playing coach."

The Doaker, three times All-America, was a smart cookie. When some one criticized Walker in a game last fall for passing on fourth down, Assistant Coach H. N. (Rusty) Russell observed:

"Walker is doing all right out there and I don't aim to get in his way."

The Doaker was a gambler in football. Just let SMU get behind and he'd try anything. It usually worked.

But the Southern Methodist-Notre Dame game indicated he'll be a "playing coach" on the team again next fall. He's H. N. Russell, Jr., son of the assistant coach.

Little Rusty quarterbacked Southern Methodist flawlessly in its great showing against Notre Dame.

With Walker out with injuries, it had been figured that big Kyle Rote would do the quarterbacking. But coach Matty Bell, used little Rusty, saying it helped make Rote a better runner.

"We found that when Rote had to call the plays it impaired his efficiency as a runner," Bell said. "So in the game against Notre Dame, Rote didn't have to do the thinking."

Rote had his greatest day in football against the Fighting Irish.

Little Rusty has a great football background. He played the game from the day he could hold a football because his dad had been coaching a long time. And Russell, Sr., is known as one of the greatest offensive coaches in football. Little Rusty just naturally absorbed about all there was to know about it from hanging around his father. He played at Highland Park (Dallas) High School and now he has been at Southern Methodist two years. His father came to SMU as a coach in 1945.

NEW YORK (AP)—In home television reception, one annoying type of interference results in fluttering pictures. This is caused by airplanes flying in the path of the received signal. The only remedy is to wait the passing of the plane.

This fluttering effect is the one that makes possible plane detection in the radar system.

The Jennie June Club, Junior

by member and guests.

The club was organized as a civic organization and a member of both Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation which includes clubs from all over the world. As a member of the federation they have met the standards set up by that organization.

The first club project was the sponsoring of the Ochiltree County Cancer Drive in 1949. The county quota of $400 was met.
The club will sponsor the drive
again this year and the county quota will be considerably more.

The most recent and outstandsyle show which netted $500 for the Veterans Memorial Building Fund.

Members and guests present for the dinner dance were Mr.

Locust Grove Club Hears Discussion On Clothing

"Wide collars and round necklines tend to broaden shoulders and shorten the neck while those people who have broad shoulders find V-necklines and small collars more becoming. Long or slender necks are flattered by high or frilly trimming at the neckline."

The foregoing suggestions were given members of the Locusc Grove home demonstration club at their meeting held March 15 in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pundt.

Vertical lines, as well as horizontal lines for trimming on skirts and blouses were also discussed and illustrated by Mrs.
Pugh.

Recipes and advertising for a cookbook to be sponsored by the Lipscomb county home demonstration council were discussed at the meeting.

Mrs. Lawrence Pundt and Mrs.
George Robbins were elected clothing demonstrators for the year.

Mrs. Harry Haines showed members of the club the best methods of darning and patching clothing.

Plans were made at the meeting for a party and supper to be held for members and their families at the community house on March 24.

The next meeting of the Locusc Grove club will be April 5 with Mrs. George Robbins as hostess.

Preston Smith, Lubbock Solon, Announces for Lt. Governor

PRESTON SMITH

Preston Smith, 38-year-old Lubbock business man, entered the political arena this week by announcing his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor.

Smith is a three-term veteran of the Texas House of Representatives. He was first elected in 1944 to represent District 119. During his service in the House, Smith has been for four years a member of the appropriations committee. He has also served as chairman of the subcommittee on higher education. He is a firm believer in the application of sound business methods in the operation of the state government.

Born on a Williamson County farm, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Smith, he stayed with farm life until 1931. He is the seventh child in a family of 13 and has six brothers and six sisters.

Much of his career in the House has been devoted to championing the cause of Texas' rural people. He was author of the rural hospital bill and co-author of the rural telephone bill and also has been active in the fight for farm-to-market roads and soil conservation. Smith has been a supporter of all veteran legislation.

Of his hospital plan, Smith says, "This measure will go a long way toward solving the doctor shortage in small communities. If the counties will vote bonds for hospitals and then lease them to some of the young doctors just out of college who have no financial means to build their own hospitals, the younger men will not be so inclined to go into the large towns where facilities are available."

Commenting on his race for Lieutenant Governor, Smith said, "Much of Texas' population is centered in rural areas and small communities. Unless you have lived on a farm or in one of the very small towns, of which there are many in the state, you can't realize how much is needed in the way of worthwhile legislation for the rural areas. Texas needs the services which the rural population provides. The rural population needs better facilities for day-to-day living. As Lieutenant Governor, I will continue my efforts to see that this important segment of our population receives as many needed improvements as possible, along with other necessary and important legislation."

Smith also authored the bill, in the House, which would require all boards, bureaus and state agencies that spend state tax money to hold open meetings and to advise the press in writing in advance of such meetings. The measure passed the House but did not get through the Senate.

Smith has been a Lubbock resident for 18 years. He has been in the theater business since 1936.

His schooling includes a diploma from the Lamesa High School and a degree from Texas Technological College in Lubbock where he studied auditing and accounting.

In 1935 Smith joined forces with another Smith—Miss Ima Smith by name—who is now Mrs. Preston Smith. She also is a Texas Tech graduate, born and reared in the state. The Smiths have two children, Preston Michael, 9, and Jan Lauren, 5.

A member of the Methodist Church, Smith is also active in the Kiwanis Club and is a 32nd Degree Mason.

Candidate Burk Gets Response To Advertising

E. T. Burk, candidate for congress in the 18th district, offered through newspaper advertising to send any voter who wanted it, a copy of his platform. And the mail has poured in.

"It seems to me," he said this week, "that the newspapers of this district are extremely effective. During the remainder of the congressional campaign, I intend to use as much newspaper space as possible to discuss the problems of this district. I intend to tell the voters that honest and efficient representation is what they need. So often I have heard people say, in pleading tones, that they wish they had public officials who didn't play selfish politics all the time. I will be in position to represent all the people of this district. When I go to Congress, there won't be a single citizen in this district who doesn't have a ready and reliable friend in Washington. As often as possible, I will use newspaper space to tell the truth of the congressional campaign."

"I appreciate the response I have had to my advertising. Hundreds of citizens have become voluntary workers for the Burk for Congress."

Radio Replaces Fire Gong

PITTSBURG (AP)—The resounding clang of the fire gong in district stations of the Pittsburg fire department will be a thing of the past soon.

A new system to be installed at a cost of $40,000 will depend entirely on radio. Receivers are to be placed in each station. Firemen will be alerted by a siren. Then they'll listen to the radio to get their calls.

Burk said that within the next few weeks he would visit all parts of the 28-county district.

Hank Hopes Gordon Will Hit Harder

OF Newsfeatures

TUCSON, Ariz.—Hank Greenburg has a formula for keeping valuable Second Basemen Joe Gordon on the Cleveland Indians' squad. He plans to take the load off Gordon's shoulders.

The Tribes' general manager watched Gordon closely last summer. He claims that Gordon slipped below his lifetime batting average because there was too much pressure on him. "And when you've played as long as Joe you can get tired when such pressure is on you."

That's Greenburg's analysis of why Gordon hit only .251 last year after clouting .280 in 1948. Here's Greenburg's formula for keeping Gordon on the Tribe roster.

"The pressure should be off of Gordon this year. Larry Doby and Easter are both long-ball hitters and should have great seasons. With help, Gordon won't have the strain on him and his hitting should go up again."

"This isn't the last year in the majors for Joe. I think he'll be with us again next year."

As far as continuing his major league career after 1950, Joe says: "I don't know. I just don't know."

Less Traffic Deaths In Texas During 1949 Than In 1948

AUSTIN, March 17 (Sp)—One hundred and two less persons died in Traffic accidents in Texas during 1949 than in 1948. The Traffic Death Book for last year officially closed on March 15th, according to a statement released today by Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, and the final toll stands at 1,957 fatalities. This figure is 9 more than the prediction made a year ago by N. W. Woerner, Chief of the Safety Department's Statistical Division, Garrison said.

In forecasting the fatalities for 1949, Chief Woerner went against many existing indications of certain increases in the death rate and said that the figure would drop. It did by the 102 margin.

Gayle Ferguson, who attends Kemper Military Institute, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferguson last week during the school's spring vacation.

Kenneth LaMaster and Don Rogers, students at Texas Tech, visited at home over the week end.

Woerner released for the first time today his prediction for 1950. He says that this year will be the most costly and tragic in the history of the State. He predicts an all-time high of 2,068 traffic fatalities. Basing his gloomy forecast on increasing individual apathy toward the traffic problem, he solemnly declares that he hopes he is wrong.

Powell Makes Tying Score In OU Game

Raymond Powell, Jr., former Ranger great, scored the tying touchdown at Norman Saturday afternoon as the Oklahoma University freshman football team played the varsity to a 24-24 tie in an intra-squad game.

Performing for 300 high school coaches who were attending a clinic on the campus, vicious line play and brilliant running by both squads gave the 1,500 fans an idea of what to expect in 1950.

The varsity scored first, but the freshmen held a two-touchdown margin in the game before big Leon Heath scored twice to make it 24-18 late in the game. Powell tied it up on an off-tackle scoring smash just before assistant coach Gomer Jones called a halt to the session.

Powell is currently running at a second team halfback slot and is certain to see much action this fall as a sophomore.

Booker Cagers Play in Grade Tournament

BOOKER—The Booker grade school boys and girls basketball teams returned home with one win and two losses from the annual Bethany Invitational Grade School tournament held last week end.

The Booker boys won their first game defeating the Turpin B team 38 to 7. The girls lost their opener to the powerful Eureka girls by a score of 12 to 1.

The boys lost their next encounter to the unbeaten Darrouzett grade team 15 to 14. The game was heatedly contested all the way through with Booker out front during most of the first three periods. It was not until the last 20 seconds that Clarence Helfenbein of the winners, dropped in a crisp shot to tie the score 14-all. He was fouled on the play, and scored from the foul line to give his club the one-point margin.

The Booker boys rosters includes: Donald Joe Kerns, Bernard Meyer, Gene Keeney, Archie Reynolds, Roy Lee Rodgers, Gerald Cates, Conrad Bremner, Jr., Theron Meyers, Eugene Mills, and Jimmie Sullivan.

Where Are They Now? Ted (Kid) Lewis Still in Fight Game

By BEN F. PHLEGAR
AP Newsfeatures

LONDON—Ted (Kid) Lewis, the ex-welterweight champ who barnstormed America 30 years ago, still is hanging on in the fight game as a manager and talent scout.

Lewis entered the professional boxing wars in 1910 as a skinny little 14-year-old featherweight of about 120 pounds. He quit the ring 15 years and 230 fights later as a full grown light-heavyweight at 170 pounds. Now, at 53, he weighs just over 200. His thick blond hair has disappeared and what's left is silver but his blue eyes are still bright.

Although he held the welterweight title for two years during the first World War, Lewis is best remembered by American fight fans for his marathon series with Jack Briton.

The 18-year-old Englishman met the 30-year-old Briton for the first time in New York in March, 1915. In the next six years they fought 20 times, thoroughly covering the eastern United States.

Lewis won three of the fights; Briton four. The rest were "No Decision" bouts, usually because of local laws. All in all, Lewis won 140 fights, lost 22, fought six draws and 62 no-decision fights.

"I love the States," he says. "I was married over there and my son was born there."

He's managed various English boxers—none of them very successful—and still has a stable of "a couple of kids. Nothing much, but I'm still looking."

He also scouts for talent for a pair of London fight promoters who specialize in showing new faces.

Money? Well, definitely not the lush days of three decades ago, but, says Lewis: "I'm getting along. Just tell 'em I still love 'em in the States."

College baseball coaches are burning because pro baseball is signing players with eligibility remaining.

Bibb Falk, the University of Texas diamond mentor, is really hopping mad.

"I've had my ball team ruined," Falk said when Tom Hamilton decided to turn pro recently. Hamilton was the third Longhorn player to mix cheers of boo boo for pro baseball's pro ball.

"Something is going to have to be done," Falk said and 599 other college baseball coaches are in hearty agreement. In fact, the College Baseball Coaches Association has a plan—details secret for now—that may put a crimp in the practice.

"It isn't as if these boys were getting fabulous sums," Falk said. "I wouldn't begrudge any boy the chance of making a lot of money."

Most of them, however, are signing for the minimum $5,000. That includes bonus and salary for the first year. If they played out their college careers they certainly wouldn't be losing anything. The education would be worth that much. And they still would be able to get that much when they had completed their eligibility."

Don Watson, Ed Kneupper and Hamilton were the three Longhorns who signed pro contracts. But other Southwest Conference schools have lost players, too.

Falk has a pretty good argument for seniors to play their final season.

"Our college season ends in May. The pro League's are just barely started. No boy is going to lose anything by finishing the college season."

Falk said baseball was the only college sport that wasn't protected against outside leagues. He's of the opinion it should be. He and other members of the College Coaches Association will be.

'Blacky' Fatter, Faster in '50

scaled 175.

"I feel great at 198," says Blacky. "I would take on 10 or 15 pounds more if I could."

"I couldn't throw hard last year. Three or four innings was the best I could go following the removal of my right kidney in January, 1949. In only one game I went more than seven innings. That was against the Cardinals when I relieved Harry Porkowski in the first inning."

The game Blacky recalls as his best of last year didn't arrive until Sept. 11. He gave the Cards but two runs in 7 2/3 innings. After that he relieved in six more games, giving runs in only two.

The impressive thing to remember is that even then, as Blacky now admits, he wasn't throwing hard.

"That kidney operation left me in a weakened condition and while I felt fine last September I was afraid to throw hard."

"I just didn't have my stuff last year, either."

Blackwell split 10 decisions last season. The year before he won only seven while losing nine but that year he had shoulder trouble.

"I hurt my shoulder on the way north in '48," says Blacky. "I never did hurt my back as some fellows say. It was my shoulder."

Blacky is not the type to alibi, for even now his little left toe is infected and he can't bear down the way he'd like to. But nobody seems to know the difference. He looks like the Blackwell of '47.

Another veteran out to make amends for a poor season—poor for him, anyway—is Catcher Walker Cooper, who in prewar days was the best receiver in baseball. Cooper, whom the Giants bought from the Cards for $175,000 four years ago, hit only .258 last year. Yet he had 20 homers and 83 runs batted in.

"Cooper is in better shape than any time last year," says Manager Luke Sewell who is putting in his first year as a National League pilot. The catcher gained his greatest fame in leading the Browns to their only AL pennant in 1944. He does on Blackwell and Cooper.

"Cooper will catch regularly if he's as good as he looks right now," says Luke. "He had that knee operation a year ago and he wasn't the catcher we all knew. He looks like he is back in his prewar form after doing a lot of hunting."

"That's right," offers Cooper. "During the winter my wife was a bird dog widow."

Don R. Anderson Is New Follett Baptist Pastor

FOLLETT—Don R. Anderson, formerly pastor at Cheyenne, Oklahoma, Baptist Church, assumed his duties as pastor of the Follett Baptist Church last week. He succeeds T. B. Satter, white who has been pastor of the church during the last three years.

The Rev. Anderson served the Follett church as pastor before in 1942. He left the post in 1943 to attend the Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth. He was graduated in 1947 and became pastor at Cheyenne.

Mrs. Anderson is the former Belle Marie Wright, daughter of Mrs. T. M. Wright of 722 Colgate in Perryton. She attended Perryton schools and was graduated from Baylor University in 1945.

Rev. Anderson was reared at Panhandle and completed high school there. He was graduated from Howard Payne College at Brownwood in 1942.

Super-Onion

DAVIS, Calif. (AP)—A new kind of onion, the Yellow Bermuda 986, yields 35 per cent more high-quality onions than ordinary Bermudas, reports the College of Agriculture here. The 986 also matures 10 to 14 days earlier and produces fewer culls. It was developed in a 3-way experiment by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the experiment station of the University of California.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says "sap wood" used on the exterior of houses should be protected from moisture by flashing and gutters.

9,000 Chickens in One House

AMBOY, Ill. (AP)—John Klemm has figured a way to raise 9,000 chickens under one roof.

He constructed an improved version of the circular "hen house." His 150-foot diameter building is pie-cut into eight sections, each containing ultra-modern watering, feeding and nesting equipment. The floor slopes to the center drain for easy cleaning.

A 16-foot center circle serves as a work area. A feed carrier mounted on a circle monorail suspended from the ceiling enables one man to tend the flock.

BALKO News

Miss Geraldine Pugh

Balko grade school girls made a good showing for themselves in the Guymon tournament Mar. 16-17-18. They defeated Plainview in the first game by a score of 22 to 14. The second game found them pitted against the high-scoring Tyrone team, but the Balko lassies finally came through with a 25 to 22 victory. Minnie Fish took scoring honors for the game accounting for 16 points.

In the finals the superior height of the Goodwell girls, gave them a decided edge over the Balko team, and they captured the tournament championship trophy.

In a battle royal from the start to the finish, Bethany won a 39 to 37 victory over the Balko Independents last week.

Bethany rolled up a 10 to 2 lead in the first quarter, but Balko came to life in the second period and led by six points at the half.

The final half was close all the way with the lead alternating until the final whistle.

The Balko Independent team lost 34 to 28 against Guymon Monday, March 20.

Forest Roberson is in Enid this week on business.

The Beaver County Junior Farm Bureau held their regular meeting March 15 in the Balko school lunchroom with Lloyd Barby, president from Beaver, presiding. The next meeting is scheduled to be held at Greenough April 19 at 8 p. m.

Rev. Carlson of the Balko Apostolic Church spoke at the Balko school assembly Thursday afternoon. The Bethel men's quartet also sang on the program. Members of the quartet are Art Wiens, Milton Neufeld, Roy Karber, Ed Kliever and Caroleen Janzen, accompanist.

A benefit basketball game Tuesday night at the Balko gymnasium raised $37 toward the purchase of a new bass horn for the Balko band. Donations received at a meeting of the P. T. A. last week netted $60.14 for the purpose.

Truman Pledges Census Secrecy

KEY WEST, Fla., March 19 (AP)—President Truman assured all Americans today they need have "no fear" of disclosure of confidential information as he set machinery going for taking the 1950 census.

Taking cognizance of some criticism of questions dealing with incomes of individuals, the President declared that heavy penalties are provided against Census Bureau employees who disclose answers to confidential questions.

In a proclamation calling for the start of census taking April 1, Mr. Truman asserted: "No person can be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required."

"Individual information collected under . . . the census will not be used for purposes of taxation, investigation or regulation or in connection with military or jury service. The compulsion of school attendance, the regulation of immigration, or with the enforcement of any national, state, or local law, or ordinance."

Phantom Burglar Sought

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—Police Chief Walter M. Keim is looking for a "phantom bandit" who leaves no marks to show how he enters or leaves the scene of his burglary jobs.

The American Legion hall first was burglarized of $350. Then a few weeks later members of the Knights of Columbus lodge reported they had the same sum stolen. The "phantom's" return try at the Legion hall was less rewarding because little money was left in the building.

Chief Keim has a theory the burglar hides in the buildings until after the club rooms are closed.

As much as 30 per cent of the energy from the feed of swine may be given off as heat.

The annual school election will be held at Balko March 28 from 2 to 6 p. m. at the Balko school.

The Balko baseball team won 11 to 3 over Darrouzett March 14 in their first game of the season.

Berlin Smaller But It Smokes More

BERLIN (AP)—Berlin's population is about one million less than before the war, but its cigarette consumption has increased by two billion a year.

City statistics show that Berliners smoke eight billion cigarettes a year, compared with six billion in pre-war years. This makes an average of 7 to 8 cigarettes a day for each adult. Also more Berlin women have joined the smokers. Only eight per cent used to smoke 20 years ago. Today it's 36 per cent.

Women's Cross-Country Golf Tourney Planned

NEW YORK (AP)—Women's golf will hit the big time this spring with the $17,000 cross-country Weatherlane Open. Led by the big four of women's pro golf—Patty Berg, Betty Jameson, Louise Suggs and Babe Didrickson Zaharias—the girls will shoot at that total in four separate 36-hole competitions played on four consecutive week-ends in different states, California, Illinois, Ohio and New York.

The first competition for the crack pros, as well as the amateurs, will be staged at the Pebble Beach golf course on California's Monterey Peninsula on April 29-30. On May 6-7, the girls will play on Chicago's Skycrest course; May 13-14 competition will move to the Ridgewood Golf Club in Cleveland with the wind-up set for Knollwood Country Club, White Plains, N. Y., on May 20-21.

In each of the four tournaments, the girls will be shooting at $3,000 in prize money and the lowest score for the 144-holes will be worth $5,000.

Art, Rats Cat Cause Mixup

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—On the eve of his departure for London to take up the deputy directorship of the Tate Gallery, le Roux Smith le Roux has been presented with an official bill for $8.05—for cat's meat.

When le Roux was director of the Pretoria Art Center in 1944, rats began destroying valuable supplies and war-scarce art paper. A cat was appointed guardian, and waged such an efficient campaign against the rats that within six months the survivors had departed. As a reward for services rendered as insurance against further attacks, Tatiana was granted an allowance of meat by the center.

The Art Center's accountant was satisfied, but on the day Mr. le Roux's resignation became effective he received a letter from the Transvaal Education Department which disallowed the claim le Roux declares he will fight the claim.
