MISS NANCY FRIEND of Ozona, one of three finalists seeking the title of Miss Mohair of 1963, gets the feel of the fancy fiber on the back of a prize winning Angora goat at the recent registered Angora billy show and sale at Junction.

Miss Friend was in Junction for the three-day evening August 10-12 soliciting votes in her campaign for the Miss Mohair title. She has a busy schedule out-of-town for the balance of August.

Mrs. W. D. Jones, 97, Mother Of Ozonans, Buried In Angelo

Was Pioneer Crockett Resident, On Ranch East Of Ozona

Funeral services were held at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Robert Massie Funeral chapel in Angelo for Mrs. William D. Jones, 97, one of Tom Green county's oldest citizens, who died at her home in San Angelo at 6:30 p. m. Thursday.

Mrs. Jones, mother of Ralph and Lemper Jones, both of Ozona, formerly lived in Crockett county, and her husband ranching east of Ozona early in the century.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Harold Odum, pastor of the First Presbyterian church U. S. in San Angelo. Burial was in Fairmont Cemetery.

Mrs. Jones was born Malvina Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris of Gay Hill (Washington County). She attended Live Oak Seminary in Gay Hill, one of the first girl's schools in the state.

The school was organized in 1853 and continued until 1875, when it became Stuart Seminary and was moved to Austin. Mrs. Jones and her aunt were among the early students at the seminary and Mrs. Jones was a member of the last class to enroll there.

Later she received a teaching certificate from Sam Houston State Teachers College. She taught school at Brenham for a while. She met her husband-to-be, William D. Jones, at a ranch near Paint Rock while visiting friends. They married Feb. 1, 1897, in the home of the bride's sister in Brenham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones lived on the ranch near Paint Rock four years, and then moved to a ranch near Ozona. Mr. Jones died in (Continued on Page Three)

Funeral Services Here Friday For Ralph D. Eversole

Gulf Employee Dead Of Heart Attack; Burial To Be In Iraan

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Ozona First Baptist church for Ralph D. Eversole, 33, a resident of Ozona for the past seven years.

Mr. Eversole died in the Crockett County Hospital about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning a short time after he had been admitted to the hospital suffering from a heart attack.

Funeral services will be conducted here by the Rev. Harry Trulove pastor, First Baptist Church, of which Mr. Eversole was a member. Burial will be at 4:30 Friday afternoon in Restland Cemetery at Iraan, where the family lived before coming to Ozona. James Funeral Home of Ozona is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Eversole was employed as a pumper with Gulf Oil Corporation in Crockett county fields. He had been with Gulf for the past ten years.

Surviving are the widow and two step children, Wesley and Deeney Eversole of Ozona; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dill A. Eversole of Iraan and two sisters, Mrs. W. C. McDaniel of San Angelo and Mrs. Herbert Schneider of Iraan.

No Parking Area To Be Marked Off In Front Of Davy Crockett Monument So That Tourist Photographers May Have an Unobstructed Shot

Although the days of extreme popularity for Davy Crockett, as "King of the Wild Frontier," are past, the granite statue of the Alamo hero still attracts a lot of attention from tourists passing through Ozona.

In fact, the Davy Crockett monument is one of the most photographed objects in all West Texas. Every day dozens of tourists stop in front of the monument and take pictures, often posing children on the base of the statue.

Since parallel parking is enforced by State Highway Department request on the south side of Highway 290, on which the statue fronts, many cars are parked through the day against the park stone fence in front of Davy's likeness, thus, sometimes making it difficult for tourist photographers to get the shot they want of Davy.

Taking note of this situation the Ozona Lions Club has requested the county and State Highway Department to mark off a no-parking area directly in front of the statue so that tourists may have a free shot at Davy resting on "Old Betsy."

The red-marked no parking zone was expected to be painted this week and the cooperation of citizens is asked in keeping the spot open in front of the Davy Crockett monument.

Four Ozona Students To Summer Workshop For Student Councils

San Antonio — Four Ozona High School students were among the more than 250 student council members from throughout Texas attending the fifth annual summer workshop last week at Trinity University today.

Meeting for the fifth consecutive year on Trinity's campus, the conference is under the auspices of the Texas Association of Student Councils. Workshop director was Joe Schuchardt, organizer and sponsor of the student council, Sweeny High School, Sweeny, Tex.

The week-long conference was a training session at which plans were made for the fall by Council members, officers and leaders from junior and senior high schools. A new concept in council work was discussed by Miss Julia McKemie, executive secretary of the Arkansas Association of Student Councils.

Representing Ozona High School were Johnny Childress, Vicki Applewhite, Bobby Tabb and Paul Perner.

Doyle Elmore Wins Gulf Award

Doyle Elmore Wins Top Gulf Honors For Operating Top Station

Doyle Elmore, who owns and operates his own service station at Broadway and Ave. G, Ozona has been honored by the Gulf Oil Corporation. In ceremonies at Ozona early this week, Mr. Elmore was presented a $50 U. S. Savings Bond and a laminated certificate in commemoration of the award by Gulf Area Manager, K. D. Wright.

The honor is reserved for those Gulf dealers who, in the opinion of local Gulf management, are providing superior service to the motorists; who are giving valuable time and effort to various community interests and projects; and who are maintaining clean and efficient service stations.

A Gulf dealer since 1957, Mr. Elmore through determination and hard work, has established himself as one of the leading retail businessmen in this area.

Experience Lack Is Greatest Worry Of Lion Coaches

Small Squad With Little Experience Faces 1961 Schedule

By Ernie Boyd

One of the smallest and greenest squads to take the field for Ozona high school since 1954 turned out for fall practice Monday but even at that, things appeared much brighter by the end of the first several sessions than had been expected.

Twenty boys, including two who are ineligible this fall, answered the call Monday morning and three more showed up before the second session.

Illness and at least one who is still out of town has delayed at least three or four others who are expected soon to join the group.

Those who have reported for practice thus far are: Joel Huff, freshman; Pete Garza, freshman; Richard Vargas, freshman; Aaron Shackelford, freshman; Jimmy Sammler, freshman; Bobby Tabb, senior; Morgan Tool, freshman; Robert Cox, junior; Scott Mahon, soph; Gerry Studdard, senior; Pete Montgomery, junior; Ronnie Houston, junior; Brent Moore, junior; Penn Baggett, junior; Phil Carnes, Senior; Carl Montgomery, senior; Charlie Bingham, senior; Frank Childress, junior; Darrel Rasberry, senior; Dude Melton, freshman; Cookie Zamarripa, junior; Billy Sanchez, junior.

Sessions this week and next week will continue at the rate of two a day but will go to one a day as soon as school begins.

The Lions, as they will probably lineup by the first game this fall, will not be light nor small but will be extremely short of experience as it now appears several boys will be playing who did not even play Junior High ball and who have not been on the squad prior to this fall.

Pleas Childress Is Named to FHA County Committee Membership

Pleas L. Childress, Crockett County rancher, has been named to the Farmers Home Administration County Committee, according to Frank M. Barnett, the agency's county supervisor here. The appointment is for three years beginning July 1.

The purpose of the County Committee is to review applications for FHA loans in Crockett County. Composed of three members, the committee is set up on a rotation basis with one new member appointed each year.

Mr. Childress succeeds Vic Montgomery, Ozona, who has served on the committee the past three years. Other committee members are W. R. Clegg, Jr., chairman, and Joe Tom Davidson, both of Crockett County.

Story Book Hour At 9:30 Friday Morning At North Elementary

This week's story tellers at the Woman's League sponsored Story Book Hour at the North Elementary auditorium will be Mrs. John Lee Henderson and Mrs. Buddy Russell.

The story hour is at 9:30 a. m. and all children 4 through 7 years of age are cordially invited.

Ozona Girl Models In Austin Store's Fall Style Show

Miss Ann Davidson, who has been attending the University of Texas summer session, modeled in the Mademoiselle Style Show at Scarbroughs in Austin, Tuesday, August 15.

Ann, who has been taking English and costume designing in the University summer session, is one of twelve students on Scarbrough's "College Board." These twelve girls served as models and hostesses at the style show. They are making sales in the store's junior department this week. The group was entertained at a luncheon on August 1 to prepare for the style show.

Ann, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tom Davidson of Ozona, is expected to return this week-end for a brief vacation before returning for the long session at the University opening in September.

Clearfork Discovery Fined On University Acreage West of Ozona

Southland Royalty Co., et al, Midland, No. 1-23 University, Crockett County Clearfork discovery, 14 miles west-northwest of Ozona, has been completed for a daily calculated flowing potential of 242.4 barrels of 34.4 gravity oil no water, with gas-oil ratio of 430-1.

Potential was based on an actual 19-hour flow of 192 barrels of oil through a 14-64-inch choke and perforations between 3,410-20 feet, which had been washed with 500 gallons of mud acid.

Tubing pressure was 245 pounds, with packer on casing.

Total depth is 3,494 feet, with 4 1/2-inch casing set at 3,482 feet. A re-entry operation, it originally was drilled by Southland and abandoned May 2, 1958, at 2,200 feet. It had been re-entered for deepening to 8,500 feet for tests of the Ellenburger.

When drill reached 3,444 feet, an oil flow developed, making 84 barrels of 34.4 gravity oil in 12 hours on a 3/4-inch choke and then flowing 167 barrels of oil in the next 18 hours.

Location is 660 feet from the north and 1,980 feet from the west lines of 23-31 University.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church entertained their dates with a weiner roast at the park last Saturday. Present were Vicki Carroll, Ronald Carnes, Kay Pitts, Clay Hamilton, Jo Good, Jane Hardberger, Janie Everett, Ora Mae Sparks, Helen McCaleb and the sponsor, Mrs. Harold Shaw.

Lie Detector Test Given 15-Year-Old Slayer Of Husband

Hearing Being Held In Juvenile Court For Lara Girl Today

A lie detector test was given Gloria Gomez Lara, 15-year-old wife who is charged with the pistol slaying of her 18-year-old husband, Reynaldo Lara, Jr., on the Early Baggett ranch 12 miles south of Ozona Monday night of last week, Sheriff Billy Mills reported here this week.

The test, given at the Department of Public Safety center in Midland, indicated that the girls' story as told to investigating officers immediately after the shooting was in all details essentially the truth, the Crockett sheriff said.

The 15-year-old bride of a few months told officers that the shooting followed an argument in which the young husband removed and stomped her wedding rings. She said she did not intend to kill her husband when she fired at his back at close range. Lara died instantly of a 32-calibre pistol bullet in his back which penetrated the heart.

A hearing in juvenile court was to have gotten under way here this morning at 10 o'clock before County Judge Houston S. Smith. Trial of the 15-year-old as a juvenile offender will place in the hands of the judge the duty of determining disposition of the charge.

The teenage bride can be sent to the state school for girls at Gainesville where she will spend a minimum of 16 months and will be under the school's jurisdiction and subject to return to its confinement until she is 21 years of age. The other alternative is to hold the girl until she is 18 and try her as an adult for murder or probate her sentence and remand her to the custody of her parents or other responsible adult.

Testimony concerning the details of the shooting and of the girls background was being taken in juvenile court hearing here this morning.

Fall Roundup For Boys Ranch Here To Be August 21

Joe Clayton Is Wagon Boss; Asks Donation Of Livestock

Monday, August 21, has been designated as round-up day in Ozona for the annual Fall Round for Boys Ranch of West Texas, Joe Clayton, Crockett County Wagon Boss, announced this week.

Livestock of any kind which ranchmen of Crockett and surrounding counties might wish to donate as a benefit for Boys Ranch may be left on that day at the Williams livestock pens at the north edge of Ozona. There will be somebody on hand at the pen all day Monday to receive the donated stock.

All livestock donated will be shipped to the San Angelo auction rings for sale, the proceeds to go to Boys Ranch. The San Angelo auction companies are all cooperating in the Fall Roundup and charge no commission on the sales.

Any class or kind of livestock will be accepted if it is salable. Mr. Clayton said. A milk pen or dogie calf, cutback lambs, kids, muttons, aged nannies, cows, bulls, calves, — anything in the way of livestock that will sell is acceptable, the Wagon Boss declared.

Ranchmen who can not have livestock here on the designated date may make a donation to Boys Ranch any time they ship stock to the San Angelo auctions. If the owner will designate which animal or animals are to be sold for Boys Ranch, the auction firm will make the sale and send the money to the Ranch and charge no commission on the sale, Clayton said.

MUZZLES FOR ALL US "DOGS"

The bug-a-boo of all Americans today — if we are to accept the threats of California's Representative Chet Holifield and New Mexico's Senator Clinton Anderson at face value — is the Government-knows-best philosophy now flourishing in Washington.

Both of these public servants
take the position that the investor-owned, tax-paying power industry must accept the proposed Government-owned Hanford atomic electricity plant (which will be the largest in the world) and stop crying out against it — or else. Even though killed in the House, this measure was passed by the Senate and a Senate-House conference committee is expected to bring forth a compromise to the same effect.

Representative Holifield, who is chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, flayed these utilities in a recent House speech as "dogs-in-the-manger" and warned darkly that unless they cease their opposition to the huge Government power project they may forfeit the privilege of doing business.

Previously, and more specifically, Senator Anderson confirmed reports that full-scale Congressional investigation threatened the industry if it persisted in sounding off against the proposed $95 million conversion of part of the Hanford project into a 700,000 to 800-000 kw generating plant.

This, in plain terms, is political blackmail. What these spokesmen of Big Government are saying is:
"You cannot express opposition to our views without risking reprisals."
And what they say today to the electric industry and the millions of taxpayers whose savings are involved, they may be expected to say to any group or individual who maintains a contrary opinion tomorrow.

Expression of such a high-handed attitude in the halls of Congress — which is traditionally our shield against bureaucratic despotism — is frightening. And this particular assault on our freedom and dignity is especially alarming when it comes on the heels of last year's ruling of the Internal Revenue Service that we cannot defend our rights, our opinions and our bread-and-butter in advertising against threatening legislation
without being taxed for this display of independence.

Before they "investigate" others,
our public servants might well examine themselves — and reflect upon the oath of office to which they swore with upraised hands.
Defense of the Constitution — and the spirit of the Constitution — is a daily chore, not a Fourth of July forensic exercise.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baggett and Betty enjoyed some deep sea fishing off Port Aransas over the week end.

ANTI - SOCIAL SECURITY

If freedom-loving Americans are determined as a body to commit national suicide, we don't suppose there is much that can be done to prevent it.

And among the various avenues beckoning us to limbo is that of the President's medicare program
as an adjunct to Social Security.
Hearings on this measure have now been completed by the House Ways and Means Committee — and, barring a storm of protest from a public that no longer seems capable of righteous wrath — the fate of a hitherto self-respecting people and the most advanced system of medicine in the world hang on the susceptibilities of Congressmen to political pressures.

The terrible significance of this White House proposal was made clear for the first time on the very last day of the hearing. John E.
Carroll, president of the American Hoist & Derrick Co., of St. Paul, Minn. pointed out that as the Social Security system stands now — without adding the incalculable medicare burden — it is saddling young workers, beginning their careers, and these who will follow, with a $300 billion obligation to their elders!

This sum — if you have not been completely numbed by the constant discussion of more and more billions of spending — is slightly more than the national debt which amounts to about $1-500 for every man, woman and child in the country. Social Security is, in effect; adding a second national debt to the shoulders of just a portion of our work force. This is not something that may happen. This is an accomplished fact. This obligation must be met — through ever-increasing payroll taxes "that are fast approaching the breaking point" for both employers and workers.

Mr. Carroll reminded the House Committee that new entrants into Social Security must pay two-thirds more in taxes than any possible benefits they may receive.
The problem of medical care for the aged needy, he said, can be solved "without establishing a vast, compulsory, Federal health insurance program" covering those who don't need it and don't want it — and inevitably inflicting socialized medicine on the nation.

The Ways and Means Committee has indicated that it will not act on this proposed extension of Social Security until next year. Perhaps this is just as well since the issues, as Mr. Carroll pointed out, are actually national solvency and socialized medicine. We should not pushed over such a precipice until we have had time to take a good look at what is before us — and time to fight back.

Home of Mrs. Clay Adams Friday Evening

Home of Mrs. Clay Adams Friday Evening

Miss Genelle Childress, bride-elect of Ronald Lewis Berry of Grand Prairie, was honored at a gift tea Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Clay Adams.

Other hostesses with Mrs. Adams were Mrs. Gary Garlitz, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, Mrs. Vic Montgomery, Mrs. N. D. Blackstone, II, Mrs. Sidney Millsbaugh, Jr., Mrs. Joe Bean, Mrs. Evert White, Mrs. W. T. Stokes, Mrs. J. B. Miller, Mrs. C. O. Walker, Mrs. Fred Halgeson and Mrs. Roy Thompson.

Taking turns greeting the guests were Mrs. Gary Garlitz, Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Mrs. Marshall Montgomery, Mrs. Evert White and Mrs. Roy Thompson.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Adams, Miss Childress, Mrs. Pless L. Childress, the honoree's mother, Mrs. R. E. Hardberger, her grandmother, and Mrs. Lowell Littleton, her aunt.

Guests were served and entertained on the terrace. The tea table was laid with a cutwork and lace linen cloth. It was centered with an arrangement of white and yellow chrysanthemums around a white-bird cage in which were two white turtle doves.

White and yellow mums, white dahlias, clematis, helleborus and artemisia and white and yellow daisies were used in floral arrangements through the party rooms and on the terrace. A tall arrangement of magnolia leaves and spider mums was used in the foyer and dahlias and spider mums in arrangements and flowering plants in pots were used on the terrace.

Others in the houseparty were Mrs. Joe Clayton, Mrs. John Childress, Mrs. Grady Mitcham of San Angelo, Mrs. Homer Hardberger and Miss Jan Hardberger, both of O'Donnell, Mrs. John Hemphill of San Angelo, Mrs. R. E. Hardberger, Jr., Miss Katherine Ann Hardberger of Beaver, Okla., and Mrs. Morty Mertz of San Angelo.

Also, Mrs. Billy Hardberger of Lamesa, Mrs. Irving Lee Bush of Waco, Mrs. Lee Childress, Mrs. A. W. Clayton, Mrs. Hugh Childress, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. Paul Perner, Mrs. N. W. Graham, Mrs. Floyd Henderson, Mrs. Roy Henderson, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. A. T. Carleton of Midland, Mrs. Sid Moughon of Gilmer, Mrs. Alex Ogilby of Odessa.

Also, Miss Frances Childress, Miss Camille Adams, Miss Linda Miller, Miss Peggy Hagelstein, Miss Marilyn Millsbaugh, Miss Lucille Childress, Miss June Phillips, Miss Linda Millsbaugh, Miss Gwynne Walker, Miss Diane Phillips and Miss Janice Walker.

Miss Cheryl Clayton and Miss Jan Hardberger furnished music during the tea hours.

Mrs. Joe Pierce, Jr., Mrs. Joe Pierce, III, and Mrs. Dempster Jones complimented Miss Genelle Childress with an apron and recipe shower in the Joe Pierce, Jr., home Wednesday morning.

A South American motif was used in the dining room where the refreshment table was decorated with a Carmen Miranda figure centered in a myriad of fresh fruits.

The hostesses presented the honoree with an album of their favorite recipes in plastic covers. One hilarious recipe outlined the proper procedure for "cooking" a husband.

Present were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Pless Childress, Mrs. John Childress, Mrs. Lowell Littleton, Mrs. R. E. Hardberger, Mrs. Bobby Halydier, Mrs. Dick Henderson, Mrs. Joe Pierce, IV, and Misses Lucille Childress, Frances Childress, Cheryl Clayton and Shelley Jones.

The party line golden rule

People on telephone party lines have a daily opportunity to practice the principle of the golden rule.

Sometimes, when you pick up the receiver, you expect the party line to be in use. But your call is delayed only when the party line is tied up for an excessive length of time.

So the best rule for party line users is the golden rule. To put it simply "Do unto your party line neighbor as you would have your party line neighbor do unto you."

The News Reel

A re-run of "The Ozona Story" as gleaned from the files of The Ozona Stockman

From The Stockman, Aug. 18, 1932

State Highway Dept. maintenance crews were on the job here this week making temporary repairs on north Powell street. The maintenance superintendent with headquarters at Big Lake was ordered to make the repairs at the request of the Ozona Lions Club filed with A. W. Moursund, district engineer, at San Angelo.

No clues to the identity of thieves who stole $45 from the Ozona Hardware Co. last week have been unearthed by local officers.

Through a typographical error, little Chris Doty Perner, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Perner, was given more than his share of a good start in last week's Stockman. Chris Doty weighed in at 7 pounds but in recording the event in the Stockman, the linotype operator struck a pair of numbers and the result was a hefty 17-pound Chris.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adkins are the parents of a boy born Friday, Aug. 12, in San Angelo. He has been named Burton Edwin Adkins.

Mrs. Bert Couch is among the first to proffer her services in the meat canning program proposed for the Crockett County Chapter of the American Red Cross for the relief of the poor this winter. Mrs. Couch pledged 15 fat kids for canning.

The hike in sheep and wool prices was echoed here again Friday with the reported sale of mixed lambs at 3½ cents per pound and of 35,000 pounds of wool at 12 cents a pound. Roy Hildreth of Bush, Colo., bought from Cox Bros. of Ozona 4,300 mixed lambs at 3 cents for Oct. 1 to 15 delivery. Another sale at 3½ cents was unconfirmed.

Crockett county schools will get under way Monday morning, Sept. 12, the school board ruled in a special meeting Saturday night. The date is considerably later than schools usually start here, near Sept. 1 being the usual starting date.

Mrs. L. J. Kittle underwent an operation for removal of her tonsils in the office of Dr. F. T. McIntire Saturday morning. She is recovering nicely.

Mrs. J. J. North, who has been ill for several weeks, is reported improved.

Glyn Cates, linotype operator for the Stockman, left Saturday for a week's vacation which he will spend with his parents in Wolfe City.

Mrs. C. W. Taliaferro and son, Clifton, have gone to Corpus Christi to visit Mrs. Taliaferro's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schneider.

H. O. Word was here from his ranch in Burnet county the first of the week.

DOG DAYS

J. Troy Hickman

Note — Having come in possession of a copy of the beautiful and meaningful reverie, written by the Ozona Methodist Church member of Grace Methodist in Austin, we can not reproduce it in full benefit of friends of the here, for its insight into the Hickmans, and for the presentation by the essayist. It's from his "The Pulpit and the Dog Days."

"THE DOG DAYS"

Adma used to call this time year The Dog Days. She believed that dogs went from the heat. Rabies was called The Hydrophobia. All lost their energy in August, wanted only to lie around in a shady place, their tongues out.

ust could just as well be The Human Days, because we are affected too. We tire easily, we catch pesky summertime colds that stick like grass to us, regardless. Public show that crimes of temp-violence take a sharp climb just. So those who can take it. Those who can't get try to slow down a little. think we should.

has made the world so there is an opportunity on her side of every necessity. and the Dog Days can be of spiritual growth. As the pace for the dollar slows, are moments for long about what it all means. everyone likes to meditate this life and God. But it can be in the shade of a tree on bank of a stream or in a ham- under a tarp, or lying on back by night on a cloth cot, up at the stars.

herine and I have been en- Lake Travis this summer. decided there is little use in the usual long drive for a on when we have one of the y's prime recreation spots a thirty minutes of our door, clock. What we used to for gas, motels and meals on ad now invested in a small and motor. At least once a we spend a morning or af- on a different part of the and Lakes. We've pretty well ed Lake Austin and are now ing on Travis. Travis is big and sometimes you get the ag of being at sea. Yesterday ut in from the LCRA penin- and ran slowly along the line by the mouth of the males, working in close. less little springs trickle out limestone masses down fern- ed falls. Fish jump out of water as the motor disturbs. We flush waterbirds with their grotesque necks and long bills; and under an overhang cliff mud swallows build nests and hatch their young. Turtles roll off logs as we pass and we saw some venturesome goats picking their ways along a narrow ledge on a bluff above the lake. In the shady bower made by a dense grapevine growing over an old tree stood a doe deer, gravely regarding our passage by her sanctuary.

"At night when no duties or meetings take us abroad, we like to sit in reclining chairs on the front lawn, escaping for a while the whir of fans and watch the last faint rays of pink and purple sundown touch little clouds at theopposite part of the sky with a momentary glory as the darkening night creeps up and cool air moves in from the neighboring vines.

"Bye and bye, like a big he-got, comes the evening star followed by his twinkling flock that presently graze the whole sky pasture. Traffic slows to a murmur. Noise dies, movement subsides. And somehow the feeling grows that this may be pretty close to the real meaning of life, — just to be conscious of being happy, humble and grateful for the bigness and beauty of it. Far behind one leaves the fevers of the day; and a kind of healing peace comes creeping in.

"I guess it was on an August night that the Hebrew psalmist from atop his mud house where the hills met the desert's edge, wrote, "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth, who hast set thy glory above the heavens! When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars which thou hast ordained, what is man that thou art mindful of him? For thou has made him a little lower than the angels and crowned him with glory and honor. (Psalm 8).

"And I think I know why Jesus "went up into the hills by himself to pray." And Matthew says (14:23), "He was there alone when evening came." It must have been out of his experience in the fields by day and hills by night that Jesus was able to say to us, "Be not anxious for your life. Look at the birds of the air. Your Father feedeth them. Are ye not worth more than they? And consider the lilies, how they grow. Not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. For if God so clothe the grass of the field, will he not more clothe you?" (Mtt. 6:25, etc.)

"Immanuel Kant, who spent his life trying to figure out the ways of God with man, said, "Two things fill me with awe: the starry heavens and the moral law." For us, as for him, the two go together.

"Our scientists are working on a perfect aircraft. It is looking more and more like a bird. They are seeking the ultimate under-water craft. It looks more and more like a fish. In fact, they study the live dolphin for ideas.

"If the Dog Days force us into leisure thoughts and cause us to feel with Maltbie B. Babcock, "This is my Father's World," then August could be for us Days of Fellowship With God and Days of The Celebration of Life."

Young-Babb Nuptial Plans Are Announced

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Young of Ysleta have announced the engagement of their daughter, Frances Kay, to Kent Babb, son of Mrs. Ward Grandy of Ozona, and W. L. Babb of Del Rio. The couple will exchange vows Nov. 21 in Ysleta Methodist Church.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Ysleta High School where she was Miss YHS, school beauty, football duchess, FFA sweetheart and cheerleader.

Miss Young will receive a BS degree in secondary education from Texas Western College this month. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority and was named homecoming queen. Miss TWC and school beauty. She was one of the ten best dressed co-eds and cheerleader. She was a finalist in the Miss Wool of Texas contest and a runner-up in the Miss El Paso contest. She will teach in the Ysleta schools in September.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from Ozona High School. He was captain of the football and track teams and was named to the all-district football team.

While attending San Angelo Junior College for two years, Babb was on the football team and was awarded honorable mention by the Texas Junior College football conference. He played football for the past two years. He will receive a BA degree in physical education from TWC this month and will teach in Ysleta.

Ozona Cheer Leaders Attend SMU School

Ozona High School cheer leaders will leave Ozona Sunday for Dallas where they will attend a school for cheer leaders to be held at S. M. U. next week.

The school will be under the direction of Lawrence Herkemer, well known authority on this type of school, and his staff will be composed of many of the better known College and University cheer leaders in the Southwest.

Ozona High School's 1961 cheer leading corp will be headed by Judy Black with Pam Perner, Janet North and Cathy Doran returning from last year's group with Betty Baggett the new member of the group. Alternate cheerleader for the coming year will be Jane Cole.

The cheer leaders will return to Ozona Saturday and school will begin Tuesday with the first football game scheduled at McCamey on Sept. 1.

Sonoran Sees Hopes For Strong Democratic Government In India

Robert Hargraves, a student of India, recently returned from a year of study in that nation under the sponsorship of the International Rotary movement and under the direct co-sponsorship of the Ozona Rotary Club, and the Sonora Rotary Club, spoke last Thursday to a small but interested group of Ozona citizens on India's culture and politics.

Hargraves, who is a native of Sonora, is a graduate of Texas University and will enter the University of Chicago this fall to get his Master's degree.

Ira Carson, president of the Ozona Rotary Club, introduced Mr. Hargraves who discussed India's social composition, its language, religion, family culture, political structure and background.

India has adopted much of the British democratic machinery in developing what seems to be well on its way to becoming one of the world's greatest democratic governments, Mr. Hargraves said.

In discussing his year in India Hargraves said that the Indian people have a great love for the American people and have been well aware of the aid given by this country both through our aid program and such agencies as the Ford foundation.

Differences in language, religion and even racial background are among the major drawbacks to a unified country while its normally conservative and traditional attitudes toward family, cast, etc. lend considerable momentum to a national unity and a sense of belonging and owning something, the speaker said.

Fig trees are often killed by root knot wherever figs are planted. Root knot is apt to be more of a problem in sandy or loam soils. Fig trees are damaged by the microscopic worms, leaves yellow and fall off. A die-off of the twigs and branches occurs. Trees gradually die over a period of years. To check for root knot nematodes, dig a few small roots carefully with a shovel. When soil is washed away with water, knots or swellings are observed on the roots. Nematodes are reduced by occasional applications of Nema X, Nemacide or Fumazone on trees that are already infested. For a few days dilute 1/2 to 2 teaspoonsful of the chemical in a gallon of water. Soak the ground with a hose of this diluted material. Each square yard of root area should be treated. This should extend beyond the spread of the limbs of the fig trees for several feet. The trees will probably need one treatment in the spring and one in the fall. For larger areas, the chemicals should be used at the rate of 1/2 gallon per square yard as a water drench or in the soil. When establishing new trees, care should be taken to select nematode-free soil or thoroughly fumigated soil with the nematode prior to planting. Avoid planting infected trees. Protection from cuttings. Nematodes are controlled. They will respond with more and more fruit. Trees will require less food nutrients and water and many cases will live longer.

Lumber Firm Reports Enthusiastic Response To Home Building Plan

Foxworth - Galbraith Lumber Company officials have reported an enthusiastic public response to the firm's Reliance Homes program.

Reliance Homes, a new innovation in economical primary and vacation housing, were introduced by Foxworth-Galbraith in 41 north and West Texas communities on July 25.

"We have learned from the many inquiries, that the Reliance Homes' appeal lies in the fact that they are built by the purchaser's own hometown lumber dealer," said J. L. Foxworth, Dallas, president of Foxworth-Galbraith. "People realize the many advantages of dealing with a long-established, local firm. For example, the Reliance Home purchaser receives Foxworth - Galbraith's written warranty against defective materials and workmanship."

Reliance Homes, ranging in price from $1,495.00 to $6,480.00, are built on the owner's lot for no down payment, no closing costs and as little as $29.50 per month. There are many different basic designs which can be built to any stage of completion, from semi-finished to finished. Additional designs are in the planning stage and will be offered to the public from time to time, according to Mr. Foxworth.

Anglers Warned About Fishing License Need By State Department

Austin, Texas — Fishing without a license brought 235 arrests in the month of June, according to Capt. E. M. Sprott, director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

In all, there were 331 arrests during the month, with $6,054.18 collected in fines and court costs. Hunting in a closed season brought 11 arrests, and hunting at night the same number. Another man was arrested for "telephoning" fish.

It was pointed out that a 1960-61 fishing license still is required for persons between the ages of 17 and 65, fishing with a winding device or fishing outside their home county. The 1961-62 license will become available late in August, to be effective September 1. One violation that received widespread publicity last month was the arrest of three men at Cleveland, who paid a total of $380 for shooting a 10-pound fawn with a shotgun.

Dual Production In West Crockett Gasser

Texas Gulf Producing Co., Midland, No. 1-AA University, in 4-33-University, Crockett County Strawn discovery and detrital prospect 21 miles west of Ozona and five miles east and slightly south of the Ingham (Devonian) gas field, was flowing gas at the approximate rate of 500,000 cubic feet daily from both zones.

Testing continued through detrital perforations between 8,526-64 feet and Strawn perforations between 8,470-95 feet.

Strawn production earlier was assured when the well flowed gas at the maximum daily rate of 1,065,000 cubic feet.

Accurate and Complete

RANCH RECORD

Are More Important
Today Than Ever

Government regulations and heavy tax programs are destined to be a part of the American way of doing business for a long time. For that reason, it is more important today that every business keep accurate records of its operations.

The ranch business is no exception. With the stiff federal taxes, you will want to take advantage of every saving item in your expense account and at the same time have clear and convincing records available for inspection by tax agents to prove up any item on your income tax return.

Start now to keep a complete record covering all operations in your business with the Stockman's RANCH RECORD BOOK. Your cancelled checks or your present records can be transcribed to this handy record book, together with your income and inventory records and you can have your entire record in a simplified form contained in one volume.
