JAPANESE AND CHINESE MASS FOR BIG FIGHT

Students Protest Tokyo's Aggression; Another Statesman Ill

SHANGHAI, Thursday, Feb. 11. (UP)—Five Chinese were killed today and 16 wounded when a bomb from a Japanese airplane struck the Chinese owned wing on No. 3 cotton mill in the United States defense sector of the international settlement.

Lieut. J. S. Cook and 18 United States marines stationed in the mill escaped injured. Three thousand women were working in the mill at the time.

The dead included one man, a girl and three women. All of the injured are women.

The bombing plane was attempting to dislodge Chinese troops across the settlement line in the Markham bridge sector.

(By The Associated Press)

Guns, men and ammunition were massed by China and Japan at the Woosung forts today in preparation for a finish fight.

The greatest concentration of man power and munitions of the whole Shanghai-Woosung action was carried out by the two forces under cover of darkness last night and early this morning.

A dozen Japanese troop ships were reported en route to the Shanghai-Woosung area. A code message received from Japan in Shanghai said two army divisions, numbering about 20,000 men had embarked for the front.

Chinese Move Reserves

Reserve troops were drained out of the Chapei sector by the Chinese to strengthen their lines at Woosung.

The Japanese brought up field pieces and moved in bales of American cotton to be used as barricades.

Wooden beams and iron were carted into the Woosung area by the Chinese for use in strengthening their defensive positions.

A wave of patriotism swept through China and additional support—in the form of men, munitions and money—was promised to defenders of Shanghai.

Hundreds Wounded

Wounded poured in from the battle area to Chinese Red Cross hospitals in Shanghai where more than 1,000 persons, half of them civilians, were treated.

The first public demonstration by Japanese against Japan's course in Shanghai and Manchuria occurred in Tokyo. Eight hundred students attended a protest meeting at which handbills urging the people to "stop this imperialistic war" were distributed. Twenty-five students were arrested.

Liberal political elements in Japan suffered another blow when it was learned Baron Kijuro Shidehara, former foreign minister, was seriously ill. The assassination Tuesday of Junnosuke Inouye, leader of the opposition party, left the Baron the sole survivor of the triumvirate of Japanese statesmen especially identified with friendly relations with the United States.

Consider New Plan

The Japanese foreign minister announced he was considering sending special envoys to the United States, Great Britain and France for the purpose of clarifying the Tokyo policy.

The death of the former Empress Yi of China was reported in Peiping, where she had lived in comparative obscurity since the imperial family was expelled from the "forbidden city" in 1924.

Kong Kong and other Chinese coast ports were quiet but at Canton sand bag barricades were erected around the electric light plant and similar buildings as a precaution against disorders.

The state department at Washington anxiously awaited a reply from the American consul general at Shanghai to a request for a full report on peace overtures made by the Japanese.

The opinion grew in Washington that China and Japan must fight out their differences in the Shanghai area and reach a military decision before foreign governments can make additional peace moves.

Deadly Rattle Of Machine Guns Heralds New Chapei Offensive

(Copyt., 1932, by Universal Service, Inc.)
By DIXON HOSTE

SHANGHAI, Feb. 11. (Thursday, 6 a. m.)—Sharp machine gun fire broke out on the Chapei sector of the Woosung-Shanghai front at dawn today and Chinese anti-aircraft batteries were munitioned when the clear skies brought the added periol of an expected Japanese air attack.

Chinese defense lines in the Kiangwan area between Shanghai and Woosung were withdrawn a quarter of a mile today after a Chinese attack on Japanese positions had been repulsed with horrible effectiveness by Japanese machine gunners.

The Chinese assault was made late yesterday after an all-day bombardment of the Japanese entrenchments, which the Japanese answered by laying down a heavy barrage of shells from five-inch field pieces.

Charge after charge the Chinese made against the heavily-wired, well-barricaded Japanese front line, only to have their ranks decimated by the rattling Japanese machine gun fire.

China's attackers were rallied after each rush for a fresh storming of the Japanese positions, only to be beaten back until they were forced to retreat over a wide area to dig in for defense against the threatened new Japanese offensive.

No one was willing to estimate the casualties suffered by the brave but foolhardy battalions of the 19th Chinese route army, which occupies the Kiangwan area along the 16-mile front between here and the ruined Woosung forts, where Chinese garrisons are still in control.

Wichitan Asks Supreme Court To Force Leasing Of State Oil Land

Two Important Drilling Problems Submitted; City Victor in Damage Suit for Injuries

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (AP)—East Texas oil drilling problems were added to litigation before the supreme court for determination today with submission of two cases involving claims to the Sabine river bed and one case on right of a railroad to bore on its right of way.

District Judge Harry Dolan of Georgetown and F. B. Jackson Jr., of Wichita Falls asked mandamuses to compel J. H. Walker, commissioner of the general land office, to award them leases to explore for oil in the Sabine river, which winds through the big field of East Texas.

State's Plan Involved

Added interest in the outcome was given because of the effect it will have on the state's plan to negotiate for leases to develop the river bed or contract to drill it on its own responsibility. The second called session of the Texas legislature enacted a law setting up a board of mineral development comprising the governor, chairman of the railroad commission, and land commissioner and empowering it to explore or arrange for exploration for oil of state-owned river beds.

Those opposing the mandamuses asked by Dolan and Jackson claim the new law superseded the statutes under which they are trying to obtain leases.

Dolan applied to lease the river bed as unsurveyed school land, while Jackson's application was based on a proposal that the area is state land and not school land.

Rail Claim Opposed

Plan of the International-Great Northern railway to drill on its right of way is opposed by parties who claim the railroad received easement to its right of way for railroad purposes only. A district court at Palestine refused an injunction, holding the railroad possessed fee simple title to the right of way area. This finding was affirmed by the court of civil appeals at Galveston, but the supreme court granted a writ of error and will review the litigation.

The court held in deciding for the city of Wichita Falls in a suit for personal injuries that a city is not liable for the negligence of its officers engaged in the performance of a governmental function.

Blindness Claimed

An employe of the sanitary department sought damages on an allegation that he had been furnished by the city with a disinfectant powder which he was required to use in the discharge of his duty and that he finally was totally blinded through the powder coming in contact with his eyes.

A mandamus plea brought by heirs of John L. Wortham in an effort to compel the general land office to award them title to 28,500 acres on the Texas-Oklahoma boundary line, recovered by Texas from Oklahoma after a long dispute between the commonwealths which finally was adjudicated by the supreme court of the United States, was set for hearing on Feb. 24.

The Wortham family alleges the area belonged to Texas 20 years ago and that they had asserted their claim to it. The land commissioner refused to recognize their claim.

HIGHWAY FUND DECISION NEAR

Arguments to Go to Judge At Lubbock This Week

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 10. (AP)—Attorneys in a controversy over expenditure of moneys on Childress county highways, transferred to 72nd district court here from 100th district court in Childress county, late Wednesday presented an agreed statement of facts to Judge Homer L. Pharr.

Written briefs and arguments will be given to the judge the last of this week and Judge Pharr hopes to return judgment early next week, he said tonight. Agreement on the statement of facts eliminated necessity of a jury trial.

The hearing is to determine whether to make permanent an injunction granted, after reversal by the state supreme court of the 100th district court's decision, to keep the Childress county judge, members of the commissioners court, and the state highway commission from spending portions of a $650,000 bond issue on roads other than state highways No. 4 and No. 5.

Conviction On Bet Slaying Reversed

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (AP)—A five-year conviction against W. H. Stroud, Childress county, for the slaying of Wayne Lawson in a fight over an election bet was reversed and remanded by the court of criminal appeals today.

The appellate court originally had affirmed the jury's verdict, but its new action was taken on the defendant's motion for a rehearing.

Stroud and Lawson made a wager on outcome of a sheriff's race and posted checks, which were placed in an envelope and deposited in Stroud's office. Stroud testified at the trial that later he told Lawson he had withdrawn from the bet. The homicide occurred on Sept. 1, 1928, when Lawson demanded both checks. Stroud said Lawson threatened his (Stroud's) life and struck him with a knife.

Henry Ford Suggests Observance for Edison

DETROIT, Feb. 10. (US)—Henry Ford today suggested that Thomas A. Edison's birthday tomorrow be celebrated with "work"—a real "do-the-best-you-can-day," this making the anniversary "the date of economic revival all over the land."

Hard Shower Soaks Wichita Falls Area

A heavy shower of rain, accompanied by thunder and flashes of lightning, fell in Wichita Falls shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday night.

The downpour was confined to a comparatively small locality, according to information obtained from railroad dispatchers here, who said that the rain extended west to Vernon and north to Altus, Okla. Skies beyond these points, it was said, were cloudy, although no rain had fallen.

Temperatures over the entire section of Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma continued high. Temperatures dropped somewhat here during and after the rain.

Dreyfuss Estate Goes To Wife and Family

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 10. (US)—Under the terms of the will of the late Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, his entire estate of $400,000 will be divided among his family, with the bulk of the fortune given outright to Mrs. Dreyfuss, also named executor along with a bank. Contents of the will, revealed today, made no mention of how the Pittsburgh baseball club was to be operated.

DODGE CITY, Kan., Feb. 10. (UP)—A carpenter, W. D. Hawkins, was arrested and charged late today with murdering his 25-year-old wife, Mary, with a hammer.

CALIFORNIANS TELL HOOVER OF OIL NEEDS

Representative Swing Leads Group in Conference At White House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—The appeal of independent oil producers for protection from the flow of foreign pertoleum they contend is stifling them was taken to the White House today by spokesmen for their campaign.

Representative Phil D. Swing, Republican, California, and a group of other house members from President Hoover's home state, urged the chief executive to intervene in behalf of the domestic industry. They advocate an excise tax on imports.

New Jersey Opposes

Meanwhile, unqualified opposition to a petroleum tariff was set forth by Representative Sitphin, Democrat, New Jersey. The independents, headed by their president, Wirt Franklin, of Tulsa, Okla., launched a drive for a tariff early in the session.

Most of the congressional advocates of an oil tariff look upon the excise tax of two cents a gallon on crude proposed before the house ways and means committe as equivalent in effect, to a tariff.

Swing was accompanied to the White House by Representatives Barbour, Evans and Crail, all California Republicans.

Swing Does Talking

He was the spokesman, and told the president the domestic industry was in a critical condition and if "the individual oil companies are not given aid quickly, we will be in the hands of the huge oil companies alone."

Swing estimated the two-cent tax on crude and four cents on gasoline would raise more than $85,000,000 in revenue, raise domestic wholesale prices while the spread would permit absorption of the increased prices to consumers.

New York Markets Will Close to Honor Lincoln

NEW YORK, Feb. 10. (AP)—There will be a general cessation of business throughout the financial district on Friday, Lincoln's birthday. All security and commodity markets as well as banks will be closed.

Governors of the New York stock exchange were scheduled to meet today to decide on the question of closing the exchange Saturday, Feb. 13. Most of the commodity exchanges will be open Saturday.

Taxi Driver Averts Robbery With Wrench

HOUSTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—A. W. Bang, taxicab driver, threw a monkey wrench in the machine of two supposed holdup men last night.

Bang told police two men in a green coupe attempted to force his cab to the curb.

He said he threw a monkey wrench into the windshield of the robbers' car and they fled.

Former Prison Warden Tried on Theft Charge

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (UP)—A jury was impaneled here tonight to try Sheriff N. L. Speer of Walker county, former warden of the state penitentiary, on a charge of theft of $1,000.

The charge is based on alleged failure to return an overpayment made to him by the state. Conviction carried a possible sentence to the Huntsville penitentiary over which he was warden for years.

TAMMANY HALL SPLIT 3 WAYS ON CANDIDATES

Just Who Will Receive Aid Of the Tiger This Year Is Big Mystery

WALKER HAS FORCE

Roosevelt and Smith Hold Equal Strength Among Powerful Group

By ROBERT ST. JOHN
(Copyt., 1932, by The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Tammany hall, which traditionally goes into political battles with a united front, is at present split three ways as the Democratic national convention approaches.

New York state will cast 94 votes when the balloting for a presidential nominee begins in Chicago, and 48 of these delegates will be from New York City.

Normally Tammany controls most of these 48, but political observers believe as things now stand, that no one candidate can count on even a majority of this bloc on the first ballot.

F. D. Has Backers

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt has aroused the ire of many Tammany leaders by not squelching the Hofstadter legislative committee's investigation into the Tammany municipal government. Nevertheless, he has a sizable following in the organization.

His campaign manager, James A. Farley, chairman of the Democratic state committee, is a Tammany man and has his own supporters within the organization.

John F. Curry, Tammany leader, is a personal friend of the governor, but he has not an organized bloc. So far not a Tammany chieftain has publicly commented upon the 1928 standard bearer's announcement he would run again if nominated.

Bloc Backs Walker

Smith three years ago opposed Curry's election as successor to Judge George W. Olvany, Tammany leader.

The third bloc is the one which swears allegiance to Mayor James J. Walker.

The mayor looms large on the Tammany horizon. He heads an army of 130,000 city employes and controls extensive Tammany patronage. He will have much to say about which presidential aspirant is to get a large percentage of New York City's votes in the convention.

Walker and Roosevelt have been at swords' points since investigation of the Walker government began. Some indication of the feeling between them was seen in the mayor's failure to greet the governor as he filed past him at the funeral of John R. Voorhis, Tammany grand sachem, Monday.

Close Bond Broken

Likewise, it is no secret that Walker and Smith are no longer close political friends. An intimate acquaintance of the mayor said the only thing Smith and Walker have had in common recently has been their mutual desire to keep Roosevelt from "sewing up" the nomination before the convention.

It is considered unlikely Walker will throw the support of his Tammany followers to Smith. But whom he will back still is as uncertain

Famed Writer Dies At Beverly Hills

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Feb. 10. (UP)—Edgar Wallace, world's most prolific writer whose works appealed to kings and newsboys alike, died of double pneumonia today.

His death came as suddenly and unexpectedly as the high points of his mystery stories that brought him fame as an author and playwright. A few days ago, he was hard at work, turning out a scenario for a motion picture studio. He contracted a cold; it developed into pneumonia; he died shortly.

His passing marked the end of one of the most dramatic careers ever boasted by a single man. Born in squalor and poverty, Wallace rose through various trades and intimate contact with the world to become one of the most widely read writers in the English language. His quantity of production rivaled Dumas and Balzac.

Will Rogers Calls On Jack Garner And Passes Around Speaker's Cigars

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Will Rogers, the humorist, today called on his old friend, Speaker Garner, at the capitol.

Entering the Texan's office, he invited a troop of congressmen trailing him to have some of the speaker's cigars.

Passing the box around, he said: "All are invited, but the Republicans."

Speaker Garner came in, hailed the Oklahoman and submitted to the photographers.

After a few exchanges, Garner went about his business and Rogers held a reception in the outer office, where he was greeted by many members of the house.

Among some of the things he told them were:

Keep your ships and soldiers out of China.

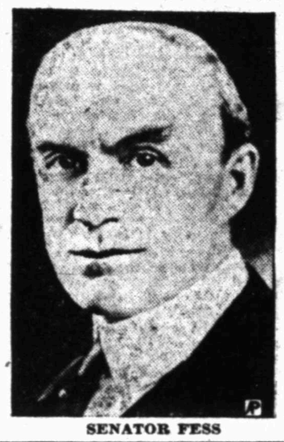

"The more you send, the more trouble you will likely have.

"I don't think we ought to get into that mess over there."

Legislative Drive Planned To Free Securities For Active Credit Use

Emergency Measure to Be Given Right of Way in Both House and Senate; Bill Will Loose Gold Supply

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Congressional leaders agreed with President Hoover today on a new legislative drive for better times directed at freeing billions of sound securities for active credit use.

The new emergency measure which will be pushed simultaneously and immediately in the senate and house also proposed to make serviceable nearly one billion dollars of the treasury's gold supply not now needed for reserve.

Glass to Sponsor

Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, will sponsor the bill in the senate. Chairman Steagall of the Democratic house banking committee will father it in the house. Republican and Democratic leaders of the senate and house agreed to give it right of way.

The bill, almost drafted, opens the doors of the federal reserve system to new securities held by the banks which are not now eligible for rediscounting, and by this step frozen credits may be loosened at once. The legislation is supplementing the two billion dollar Reconstruction Finance corporation, now going into operation.

Dawes Confers

Charles G. Dawes, president of the corporation, and Acting Secretary Mills of the treasury joined President Hoover at the White House conferences with the legislators.

A joint statement issued tonight by the legislators said:

"This proposed amendment would, when the federal reserve board deems it desirable in the public interest, have the effect of making all the assets acquired by the reserve banks under the present provisions of the law available for not to exceed one year as collateral for federal reserve notes in addition to the 40 per cent gold reserve, thus making the excess gold serviceable.

Increase Free Gold

"This provision will have the effect of giving greater flexibility to the federal reserve operations. It will make the system's large supply of gold more useful as a basis for credit. It will at once increase the system's free gold by nearly one billion dollars."

Senator Walcott, Republican, Connecticut, and Representative Strong, Republican, Kansas, joined with Glass and Steagall tonight in perfecting the draft of the bill. They also consulted with Governor Meyer and experts of the federal reserve board.

Senators Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, and Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic pilot, attended the senatorial conference at breakfast at the White House and agreed upon the action. Speaker Garner and Representative Snell, of New York, the Republican leader, went later with the house group to the White House and also gave their support.

Prohibition Agent Tells Of Fatal Gun Battle

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 10. (AP)—Prohibition Agent Pat Murphy, who weathered a rain of bullets in a gun fight near Mitchell lake on a September night in 1929, which took the life of Capt. Charles Stevens, recounted details of the shooting in federal district court this morning.

Appearing as government witness in the trial of 35 defendants on conspiracy charges growing out of the fatal shooting and workings of the Lynn Stephens rum ring, Murphy simply told of the raid on the huge liquor plant in Atascosa county and the subsequent shooting.

Technicalities Tangle Allred's Ouster Suit

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (AP)—Attorneys in the oil trust ouster suit wove their way through a maze of legal entanglements and technicalities today as arguments continued on the state's motion for default judgment against three major companies for failure to answer allegations they participated in a conspiracy to control marketing of gasoline and other refined products.

It was anticipated the arguments on this question would extend through tomorrow and Friday.

LONDON, Feb. 10. (US)—John Drinkwater, British poet, playwright and biographer, was seriously ill today at his home in Highgate. He is suffering from bronchial pneumonia.

BUSHY HAIRED IDAHOAN RIPS SENATOR FESS

Republican Chairman Reddens Under Sharp Thrusts Of Adversary

CLAIMS FLAG SOILED

Borah Demands Same Care For Citizen as Given Corporations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (US)—A tempestuous debate over federal unemployment relief rocked the senate today.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, his resonant voice ranging from a low whisper to a shout, made an impassioned plea for direct federal aid to save millions from hunger and distress.

It was a masterpiece of oratory. As a result of Borah's demand, the La Follette $375,000,000 bill for federal aid for the unemployed now is expected to pass the senate.

Borah Hops On Fess

Borah jumped into the battle after Senator Fess, Republican of Ohio, speaking the viewpoint of administration forces, denounced the various federal relief plans, and said the cities and states should care for their own citizens.

With rapier thrusts, Borah jagged at Fess, whose face reddened into a deep hue. When Fess defended congress' action in establishing the $2,000,000,000 Reconstruction Finance corporation, Borah shouted:

"I challenge any man to find authority for that bill under the constitution. The government has no authority to negotiate private loans for private business.

Demands Food

"I don't complain about that bill as an emergency measure. I do complain that the men who voted to take money out of the treasury to revive private business are now not willing to take money out of the treasury to take care of starving humanity.

"I want to place the individual human being upon a level with the corporations. I'd save human life.

"You may call it a dole, but the hungry people call it something to eat.

"Would you let the people die?

"A government which does not protect its people is flying a flag which is a dirty rag and contaminates the air."

Declaring that the evidence is overwhelming that local relief agencies have broken down, and relief can only come through federal aid, Borah added:

"I don't think it is the duty of the national government to wait until people are dying before it acts.

Widespread Suffering

"There is widespread and terrible suffering. Thousands of people are without sufficient food, sufficient clothing. Disease is visiting the home and taking away the little children whose health has been undermined by malnutrition. Unemployment is not local. It comes from national and international conditions over which none has control."

Fess broke in freqently to say there was no comparison between relief bills and the Reconstruction Finance corporation, as private business was being accorded loans, not gifts. Borah said there was no assurance the money loaned would ever be paid back. Borah added:

"If it's unconstitutional tyranny to take money from the treasury to keep people from starving, how can you justify taking money from the treasury to hand over to business men to resuscitate their private affairs?"

SENATE VOTES CONFIRM MILLS

Norris Blocks Unanimous Approval of Selection

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (US)—Without a record vote, the senate today confirmed the nominations of Ogden L. Mills as secretary of the treasury to succeed Andrew W. Mellon and of Arthur A. Ballantine to succeed Mills as undersecretary.

Only one voice was raised in objection. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois announced that Senator Huey Long of Louisiana, who was absent, desired to be recorded in opposition to the Mills nomination.

Norris Objects

Following confirmation Senator Smoot of Utah asked unanimous consent that the three-day rule be waived and President Hoover notified of the confirmations immediately. This failed when Senator Norris of Nebraska objected.

Meanwhile the house judiciary committee voted unanimously to drop the impeachment proceedings instituted against Secretary Mellon by Representative Wright Patman, Democrat of Texas. Patman sought Mellon's removal on the ground that he had violated an ancient law prohibiting a cabinet member from engaging in trade and commerce.

Andy Says Farewell

Mr. Mellon, who becomes ambassador to Great Britain, said farewell to his cabinet colleagues at a luncheon in his honor at the home of Secretary of State Stimson today.

President Hoover, Vice President Curtis and the cabinet attended. It was the first time President Hoover had attended a luncheon out of the White House since he came into office, except when he was traveling.

Designation Sought For 700-Mile Route

WHEELER, Texas, Feb. 10. (AP)—Petitions will be presented to Texas and Oklahoma highway commissions for designations on a 700-mile route from Denver to Oklahoma City, delegates to the Oilfield Highway 41 association meeting here today decided.

Much of the route, which traverses the Texas Panhandle oil fields, is not now designated and the association hopes to trade successful paving bond issues for designation of the various stretches of the route needing it.

Dallam county's $360,000 road election Thursday will include highway 41 through that county.

The next association session will be at Lamar, Colo., on May 16. E. P. Reid of Pampa is president of the organization.

Bandits Get $2,000 in Oklahoma Bank Robbery

HAILEYVILLE, Okla., Feb. 10. (AP)—The Bank of Haileyville was robbed shortly after noon today by three men who escaped with approximately $2,000.

Two men entered the bank, held up the officials and customers and scooped up all the money in sight. The third man awaited outside in an automobile.

BORAH LOOSES FURY ON FESS

Idaho Senator Demands Aid For Hungry

its relief problem. Only as a final resort would he extend federal aid. He said federal relief would become permanent if congress started a precedent now. Moreover, he asserted, relief would undermine the character of American workers.

Borah called that a most remarkable statement coming from the chairman of the Republican party, adding:

"I denounce it as a libel on the American people."

Senator Lewis, Democrat, of Illinois today introduced a substitute bill to create a $500,000,000 fund to be credited to employers of labor, industrial and agricultural, to enable the unemployed to resume their jobs.

Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska offered the road building provision of the Democratic substitute bill as an amendment to the La Follette-Costigan bill for direct federal aid.

Replies on Precedent

In reply to Fess' assertion that there was no precedent or no constitutional authority for a federal dole, Borah said:

"I challenge any man on the floor of this senate to cite the precedent or constitutional authority for the creation of the Reconstruction Finance corporation. I challenge the senator from Ohio to tell me by what precedent we tax all the people of the United States for the benefit of the few as we have done in appropriating $500,000,000 from the treasury to finance the Reconstruction corporation.

"The government is empowered to issue bonds for any purpose which will serve the general welfare," Fess replied.

"Oh, the senator from Ohio takes the position that it is not in the general welfare to keep women and children from starving," Borah shouted.

Fess Takes Seat

Borah kept lashing at Fess' argument until the latter finally took his seat. Borah then made one of the most impassioned speeches ever heard in the senate for direct relief of the hungry. He declared men, women and children were starving and dying. He appealed for passage of the La Follette-Costigan bill, with its $375,000,000 appropriation to be distributed among the states in providing food, clothing and shelter for the unemployed.

Borah flayed Fess for declaring the character of the American people would be impaired if they were given the "dole."

"This unemployment situation is national," said Borah. "It comes from national and international causes. It was superimposed on the people of the United States by forces over which they had no control. It is pushing the citizenship of the United States to a point where they are being depleted in physical and moral standards.

"Remarkable" Statement

"It is a most remarkable statement coming from the Republican national chairman that our people cannot be trusted to be fed when hungry because they wouldn't go back to work afterwards. He says if we keep them from starving we will undermine their character.

"I denounce that as a libel of American citizenship. Ninety per cent of our people would return to work tomorrow. They would scorn your charity. They would refuse your gifts if you would give them the opportunity to get to work.

"It doesn't become a Republican senator to say in the senate of the United States that American citizens cannot stand to be fed unless their character is undermined."

Borah impassionately demanded of the senate: "Will you let these unemployed die?" He waited a moment in silence for a reply.

"Gentlemen, theory disappears when the people are hungry. You may call it a dole but they call it something to eat.

"I am interested in saving the lives of our people."

In one clash with Fess, Borah demanded:

"The senator has just said that these loans were made to enable corporations to employ labor. Then do you believe the government should act to aid the unemployed?"

"Yes, within proper bounds," said Fess.

"There are 9,000,000 citizens, as good citizens as ever trod the soil, now out of employment!" Borah exclaimed. "What would you do with them?"

Fess countered: "The senator wants to make government loans to individuals the same as to corporations."

"I am contending," Borah shot back, "that we should place the individual on the same basis as the corporation.

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes, your head aches and you feel down and whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Aspirin Gargle in Sore Throat or Tonsilitis

Prepare a harmless and effective gargle by dissolving three to five Bayer Aspirin tablets in one-third glassful of water. Gargle thoroughly, allowing a little to trickle down throat. Repeat in two hours as necessary.

Be sure you use only the genuine Bayer Aspirin, marked with the Bayer cross; beware of substitutes. —Adv.

INJURIES FATAL TO BYERS MAN

Services Thursday at 2:30 For J. B. Snodgrass

Injuries sustained in a truck accident Monday evening near Byers proved fatal for J. B. Snodgrass, 30, well known farmer of that community, at 4:45 o'clock Wednesday morning. He died at a Wichita Falls hospital after sustaining fractures of the skull and lower jaw when pinned beneath the cab of a truck he was driving.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the First Methodist church of Byers with the Rev Thomas, pastor, officiating assisted by the Rev. C. H. Russell of Electra. Burial, directed by the Hines mortuary, will be in Riverside cemetery at Byers.

Mr. Snodgrass had lived in the Byers community all of his life and was farming near there at the time of his death. He did not regain consciousness after the accident at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening, and it was believed the truck slipped from the road, throwing him beneath it as it overturned. Nearby residents freed him and first aid was given at his residence before he was brought to the hospital here.

Survivors include his widow and an infant son; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. D. Snodgrass of Byers; three brothers, Bob Snodgrass of Oklahoma City, Flem and David Snodgrass, both of Byers; and a sister, Mrs. Finis Wilson of Oklahoma City.

Pallbearers will be Billy Fleming, N. F. Norman, M. D. Vineyard, W. M. Fleming, K. M. Fleming and T. F. Hunt.

Open-Work Hose Aid To Cribbers

CHICAGO, Feb. 10. (AP)—These new open-work stockings the girls are wearing—

Prof. Norman Bradish of Northwestern university said today have caused an outbreak of cribbing in examinations.

The girls write out before examinations answers to the questions they think may be asked, Professor Bradish said. The answers, he said, are on small pieces of paper and the paper is placed under the stocking.

All that remains is for the co-ed to move her skirt during the test and copy the answer from the paper.

"And," the professor concluded, "what is a professor going to do about it?"

Bridge Company Drops Claim for $165,000

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (AP)—Withdrawal by the Red River Bridge company of its appeal from a district court judgement that it take nothing by its suit for $165,000 damages against the Texas highway commission was announced today by Judge W. F. Robertson, who heard the case.

James V. Allred, Texas attorney general, who resisted the suit, expressed surprise at the plaintiff's action and said it was possible attorneys for the company planned an effort to prosecute the litigation in some other channel, likely through the United States district court.

Oklahoma Will Celebrate Quarter Century of Statehood This Year

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 10. (UP)—Oklahoma will celebrate its 25th anniversary of statehood in 1932.

Elaborate plans have been made for the greatest celebration in Oklahoma history, for Nov. 16, its birthday. Carrier pigeons will be released on that day to carry messages of good will to the world.

Parades, ceremonies and fetes will retell Oklahoma history from the day, in 1837, when Allen Wright, governor of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians, selected the name "Oklahoma" for that plot of prairie land eventually to become a state. Oklahoma is a Choctaw Indian word, meaning "red people."

Step by step, the glowing chapters of the state's history will be relived. Indian wars, the mad land rush in '89, and the wild days of the first oil booms that started Oklahoma on a turbulent political future in 1907, when it was admitted to the union.

Seven governors have been elected since 1907. Two have been impeached and impeachment movements started against a third.

Despite political disturbances, the state has grown from a territory of 258,657 people in 1890, one-third of which were Indians and negroes, to 2,396,040 in 1930.

From an Indian reservation, believed virtually worthless except for agriculture, it has become one of the wealthiest states. Its entire mineral wealth in 1928, last available official figure, was $406,634,347, surpassed only by Pennsylvania.

The value of its oil output alone in 1928, when oil prices were stable, was $347,600,000. To this it adds an annual crop worth more than $200,000,000.

The first governor, G. N. Haskell, will be present at the celebration. He still is active in state affairs.

Invitations will be sent to President Hoover, Vice President Curtis, cabinet members, all congressmen and the governors of all states.

CAPITOL GETS BATH

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 10. (UP)—The Oklahoma capitol is getting its first bath—in preparation for the 25th anniversary of the state's birth, Nov. 16.

The first use made of the capitol by a special session legislature in 1916 nearly proved disastrous. The building was unfinished and an improvised heating system, consisting of a boiler on the lawn, from which pipes led into the building, was used.

Nearly all the legislators caught colds and for a time a premature adjournment was threatened.

The building was finished in 1917, at a cost of $5,000,000. When it was erected, it was far out in the country, surrounded by unpaved roads.

Farmers Discuss Balanced Crops

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Feb. 10.—About 100 farmers attended a mass meeting here this afternoon, held to determine the attitude of the agricultural interests of this section toward a program of balanced farming.

The several speakers who appeared on the program urged the farmer to solve his own individual problem for his own betterment and to the advantage of his community.

All speakers vigorously advocated the "live-at-home" plan for every farmer. Diversification of crops, with care being given to the raising of enough food and feedstuffs, was pointed out as the surest and most satisfactory route of the farmer to his economic independence.

Speakers urged voluntary limitation as a means of meeting present overproduction and low prices of cotton.

W. N. Martin, chamber of commerce agricultural chairman, called the meeting.

Speakers on the program included L. T. Hunter, county agent of Hardeman; R. E. L. Patillo, county agent of Wilbarger; George Sager, Quanah Chamber of Commerce secretary; W. M. Morris, Kirkland; T. M. Haney, Thalia.

NO WASTE

These are days when everyone is seeking to keep from wasting a single penny. That's why people everywhere are turning to St.Joseph's Genuine Pure Aspirin. They realize it is neither sensible nor necessary to spend more than 10c for 12 tablets of genuine pure aspirin. When you buy St.Joseph's you do not have to pay the penalty of high price for the precaution of safety and efficiency because St.Joseph's is as pure as any amount of money can buy. St.Joseph's is also the original cellophane wrapped aspirin and this exclusive feature assures you of always getting fresh, full strength aspirin. Always demand the largest selling aspirin in the world for 10c —St.Joseph's. Why pay more?

Tammany Splits Over Candidates

as whom Smith favors, if he fails to win support for himself.

The mayor refused to comment today on a report that in the event of a Smith-Roosevelt deadlock at the convention, the Tammany delegates would advance him as a vice presidential candidate, to run with a presidential aspirant from the West or South.

Davis Dark Horse

The speculation was given little credence in political circles here.

Another report was that John W. Davis might be put up as a compromise New York candidate if the convention should become deadlocked.

Meanwhile, Tammany is in the unusual position of being a divided house, but the Tammany Tiger is an astute political animal and old time observers have said that while its fur may bristle now, June may find it purring.

Senator Fess Forgets Number of Fair Senators

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Senator Fess, of Ohio, inadvertently began a sentence in a senate speech with "Ladies and gentlemen." The customary senate phrase is "Mr. President."

Norris of Nebraska rescued him, however, by pointing to Mrs. Hattie Caraway, the senator from Arkansas, and saying the phrase would be correct if used in the singular.

Fess took the hint and started again: "Lady and gentlemen."

Mrs. Caraway, reading, took no notice.

Mrs. Taylor was called from home and returned the youngster there for medical treatment for bruises to his head, shoulders and face.

CHAPEI BATTLE STARTS AGAIN

Rattle of Machine Guns Herald Offensive

bombardment of Chinese positions in the Chapei sector cleared no man's land last night of an entire block of dwellings in the North station area, 150 yards from the boundary of international settlement.

Communist pamphlets were being distributed among the 19th route army's men, urging them to continue their strong resistance to Japan and also to direct their efforts against other foreign soldiers on Chinese soil as an answer to foreign imperialism.

With a second battalion of the American 31st infantry already in a quiet sector of the international defense line, more of America's newly-arrived troops will be thrown today into half a sector on the north station front, hitherto garrisoned by Shanghai's volunteers. The volunteers will patrol the banking area.

With the international settlement fearing a Chinese rush to the concession for safety, everything now points to a major drive on Woosung today. Admiral Shimada, chief of staff, declared:

"The Japanese will not move until they are fully prepared. But when our forces do move, they will move quickly."

Two more boatloads of Japanese soldiers were landed between Woosung and Shanghai from the Taifu Maru in the Whangpoo river today. Japanese authorities have demanded that the steamship pilots' association authorize 16 pilots to use Japanese vessels for the next few days, a move foreshadowing the arrival of Tokyo's fresh division of 10,000 men.

Admiral Nomura, commenting on Chinese diplomatic measures to appease Japanese wrath for the slaying of Captain Takahashi opposite the Lunghua arsenal yesterday, said that Japanese seamen do not need diplomatic protection but will take definite measures when necessary.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Japanese heavy land guns suddenly opened a heavy cannonade of Chinese positions along northern Chapei, and continuous machine-gun fire crackled over both trenches, staving off any precipitate advance by either invaders or defenders.

The resumption of the bombardment and the machine-gun strafing resulted in many fires behind the north station and Chapei, already a ruin, blazed again.

It was said here by foreign observers that although the Japanese seem to be awaiting the arrival of 20,000 reinforcements from Tokyo, part of the Japanese delay in their large-scale offensive may be that their modern equipment is not suited to the marshy, boggy ground north of Shanghai.

In response to the municipal council's request that Chinese anti-aircraft guns cease firing over the settlement, Mayor Wu Te-Chen refused to accept responsibility, pointing out that the council had not forced Admiral Koichi Shiosawa to keep his promise about not sending Japanese planes over the international colony.

PILES

Piles are swollen veins which are sometimes broken in the lower end of your bowels. They may cause fistula, abscesses, ulcers and infection in the rectum. Don't let your piles run on until you must have a surgical operation. But do not treat them with harsh patent medicines, some of which require the use of hard rubber or metal tubes. For hard things should never be put into the tender rectum except upon the advice of a physician. Ask your druggist for Unguentine Rectal Cones. They bring the same blessed comfort to piles that Unguentine brings to burns and cuts. They are soft, pleasant and easy to put in. They quickly relieve the burning, bleeding, paining, itching, swelling, bulging piles and help to prevent infection in the rectum. Ask your druggist for Unguentine Rectal Cones by name and get what you ask for.

Druggist Gives New Formula to Stop Headaches

Realizing that no one drug can conquer even ordinary headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, used by many physicians, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time.

You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B.C." 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B.C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes.

"B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs.—Adv.

HAITIAN LOANS ARE ASSAILED

State Department Quick To Defend Acts

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—A denunciation by a Haitain citizen of the American government's relations with Haital brought defense quickly today from the state department.

George Leger, a brother of the Haitain foreign minister, told the senate finance committee the state department had forced loans on Haiti "for purely political purposes" so that it might continue financial supervision of the country.

Shortly afterward a memorandum came from the state department saying Haiti was never on such a sound financial basis as now. It went into considerable detail and concluded:

"When its financial position is compared with that of other governments in the post-war era, the result of its finances under the administration of the American financial adviser is shown to be unique in strength and soundess of its position."

Oklahoma Crop Outlook Best in 30 Years, Says Cordell

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 10. (UP)—Crop prospects are the best in 30 years, Harry B. Cordell, president of the state board of agriculture, announced today.

Wheat crops throughout the state are in excellent shape with the exception of a small portion of the Panhandle, Cordell said. There is now sufficient moisture in the ground to bring up cotton, even though no more rain falls.

LABOR BALKS AT WILKERSON

Chicago Judge Opposed By Union Men

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Additional testimony by orgahized labor against elevation of Judge James H. Wilkerson of Chicago to the circuit court bench was presented today to a senate judiciary subcommittee.

Donald R. Richberg of Chicago, attorney for 21 unions of railway workers, said an injunction issued by Wilkerson in the railway shopmen's strike in 1922 was more sweeping in its effect than injunctions issued elsewhere.

"It flatly forbids all picketing, for example," he said. Richberg said the injunction was without limitation as to territorial application and was so broad as to apply to causes outside the judge's district.

He cited a United States supreme court decision which he said held a district court cannot issue a process beyond its own district.

Sunset News

Special to The Record News.

SUNSET, Texas, Feb. 10.—Monday morning many farmers in this section began the preparation of their land for the planting of the 1932 crop. Farm land was too wet for plowing here most of December and January, but the deep season put into the ground by the rains will likely be of greater benefit to spring crops.

Rev. John Raymond of Saint Jo filled his appointment at the Sunset Church of Christ Sunday morning, but was called away to conduct a funeral Sunday afternoon, and Rev. J. M. Childress of Bowie occupied the pulpit here Sunday evening.

Many people here have been afflicted with influenza during the past two weeks. Only a few of the cases were serious, and most all of them are recovering as rapidly as should be expected.

Rev. W. C. Nichols will fill his pastoral appointment at the Turkey Creek Baptist church, west of Sunset, Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Caswell of Hastings, Okla., visited relatives here last week-end.

Quarterly conference will be held at the Sunset Methodist Protestant church Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13. Rev. Mr. McMillion of Tehuacana, president of the North Texas Methodist Protestant conference district, will preside at the meeting. The pastor, Rev. G. N. Stone, of Nocona, will preach Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark of Bomarton spent the past several days here as guests in the homes of relatives.

Rev. C. D. Mullins of Burkburnett will occupy the pulpit at the Union Hill Baptist church, southeast from here, Sunday morning and evening.

A regular monthly song service will be held at Turkey Creek, four miles west of Sunset, Sunday afternoon. Many visiting singers are expected from several surrounding communities.

Jess Glasscoe Retrial Continued at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Texas, Feb. 10. (AP)—The retrial of Jess Glasscoe for robbery with firearms in connection with the kidnaping of R. W. Hanks, Redwater banker, was continued in district court at Boston today until the May term of court when several important witnesses failed to appear.

Glasscoe was convicted at his first trial and sentenced to 25 years imprisonment but was granted a new trial when Roy Towles, state witness, repudiated testimony he had given. Towles was one of the witnesses who failed to appear today.

Vinson to Push Huge Naval Building Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Chairman Vinson of the house naval committee said today congress will be asked to approve his $616,250,000 warship construction bill before the present session ends.

The measure, which would authorize 120 new vessels, already has been approved by the committee. A request for house action, however, was delayed because of the depleted condition of the treasury.

ELECTRA FIRE CREW FEASTS

Volunteer Department Has Annual Banquet

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Electra volunteer fire department held its annual banquet Tuesday night at the Armilda hotel. Covers were laid for 47 people from this community and from Childress, Lawton, Okla., Vernon, Burkburnett and Iowa Park.

Out-of-town visitors were Jim Shepherd, fire chief and Ross Hines, assistant fire chief, Lawton, Okla; J. J. Blackstone, fire chief of Burkburnett; E. B. Rolland, chief, Vernon; R. P. Reagan, city manager of Burkburnett; Jack Jeffries, fire chief, Childress; John Ballew and R. E. Hughes, Childress; Bill Wallace, Vernon; A. W. Scarborough and R. B. Carlton, Iowa Park.

A. B. Rippy served as toastmaster. Principal speakers were B. M. Dinsmore, superintendent of Electra public schools; Rev. Clark Russell, pastor of the First Methodist church; E. B. Rolland and Bill Wallace, Vernon; and E. R. Brown, president of the Electra Chamber of Commerce. Talks were made by the other out-of-town guests. Music was furnished by Elliott's orchestra.

Officers of the fire department were recently re-elected. Ben Twomey is chief; O. J. Dietz and O. D. Green, assistant chiefs. T. E. (Red) Lewis was re-elected secretary for the seventh consecutive year. It was announced that O. D. Green and J. W. Malone were members of the local department who had been active in the work for 15 years.

Influenza at Electra Cuts School Attendance

ELECTRA, Texas, Feb. 10.—The influenza has caused a great decrease in school attendance the past few days, according to principals of the schools. E. E. Rogers, principal of the high school, stated that approximately 100 students were absent Tuesday. C. M. Harvey, principal of the Thompson Ward school, estimated that 20 per cent of the children were absent during last week, but the absentees are not so numerous this week. Miss Ida Lee Falls, principal of Waggoner Ward, also stated that a number of children from that school had been absent.

LOVED TO EAT, AND NOW SHE CAN!

Much of the suffering from so-called "indigestion" or acid-dyspepsia could be avoided if everyone could know what thousands like Miss Lillian Ralston have learned. This New York City business woman, who lives at 1160 Park Avenue, says:

"I suffered from headaches and heartburn after meals; couldn't sleep like I should; never felt right.

"For five years I experimented with medicines and treatments, until I learned about Pape's Diapepsin. I have used three packages now; have gained five pounds, and feel fine."

If you, too, suffer from sourness, gas, belching, nausea, headaches, dizziness, or pain after eating—either regularly or just at times, get a box of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist. Then you need never worry again about what you eat.

"I've smoked LUCKIES for three years"

A TINY LITTLE FOX

Sidney Fox is just a fraction of an inch under five feet and weighs all of ninety-four pounds. In her first mo'om pitcher, Sidney occupied the star's dressing room. She clicked immediately in UNIVERSAL'S "Strictly Dishonorable "and slays 'em in "MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE." Sidney has smoked LUCKIES three years. She's not only been kind to her throat, but also kind to the makers of LUCKY STRIKE in donating that friendly statement.

"I've smoked LUCKIES for three years. I've tried almost every other brand and found that LUCKIES are truly the only cigarettes that do not hurt my throat. Talking pictures make it even more important for an actress to keep her throat in excellent condition. And I think the new Cellophane tab is slick."

Wednesday Study Clubs Hold Regular Meetings

Mrs. Joe D. Harris was hostess to the members of the Sorosis club at her home Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. W. E. Timblin had charge of the program on India. Mrs. Timblin read an interesting paper on "India's Mystery Superman," and Mrs. W. C. Hamilton read one on "American Opinion and India." Mrs. Burke Taylor read a paper on "India—a British Point of View."

Young People Lead Henrietta Services

HENRIETTA, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Wednesday evening midweek service at the Christian church marked the beginning of the youth's week to be observed by the young people of the Henrietta church through Sunday. Miss Lola Gates was leader at the meeting, and all talks, prayer, and music were taken in charge by the young people of the church.

During this week all church activities and all positions in the Sunday school and auxiliary divisions will be filled by young people. The girls will be in charge of the weekly luncheon served at the church Thursday, and the boys will take over the duties of the church board.

Services Sunday morning will be conducted by George Twyman, acting as pastor, and Harold Twyman, as superintendent of the Sunday school. The subject of Mr. Twyman's talk will be "Modern Youth and the Church." Special music will be given by the young people's choir, with Nell Powell as director and Helen Prewitt as accompanist. Claude McKinney Jr., will play the offertory, and David Merrill and Weldon Warren will sing a duet. Elders will be Vernon Woods and Pierce Stine; deacons will be Norman Alsen, Harold Twyman, Elwood Perkins, George Kegley, John Dodd, and Varrs Bates.

Sunday night the principal talk will be given by Joe Witherspoon, of Wichita Falls. The young people's choir will sing, and special sacred music will be played by the high school orchestra, directed by E. N. Smith, and Ralph Boyd and Arthur Bragg. Short talks will be given by Mayor F. O. Moore and W. J. Glasgow. Arrangements for the young people's week were made by Dorothy McKinney.

Following a short business session refreshments were served to Mesdames Pearl Blair, C. M. Smith, C. W. Stovall, Edward Brown, T. L. Wheeler, G. F. Berry, Homer McGregor, W. H. McDonald, Thomas R. Wynn, the hostess and Miss Sybil Moore.

Youth Acquitted in Theft of Dresses

Two convictions and one acquittal resulted in three misdemeanor cases brought before Judge Irvin J. Vogel in the county court at law Wednesday by County Attorney L. V. Abernathy.

Two young men were fined $1 and costs each on a charge of tampering with a motor vehicle. One entered a plea of guilty after a jury had returned a prompt verdict against his companion.

A man charged with the theft of four dresses "from an unknown party," was acquitted by a jury. The dresses were found in a package discarded by the youth early one morning about two weeks ago when he was pursued by city officers.

No Need To Stay FAT

There are millions of people, slender and active, who can testify that excess fat and sluggish vigor need no longer be endured. You can see for yourself if you look about. Abnormal figures are nowhere near so common as they were.

Medical science has made a great discovery. It is the fact that excess fat is largely due to a scanty gland secretion. Food that should supply fuel and energy goes to piled-up fat. The remedy is not starvation, but correction of that fault.

Now doctors, the world over, feed this lacking factor. They combat this cause. And excess weight, by millions of pounds, has been wiped out in this way.

Marmola prescription tablets are based on this modern factor. They are prepared by a world-famous medical laboratory to present you this right treatment at small cost. People have used them for 24 years —millions of boxes of them. Multitudes of users have told others the amazing and delightful results. Thus Marmola holds the pinnacle place in this field of reduction helps.

Don't wait longer. Don't cling to methods hard or futile. Do the right thing now. All druggists supply Marmola at $1 a box. A book in each box gives the formula, and explains why the fat disappears. Start today on reduction by Marmola. You will always be glad.

Mrs. M. E. Slack of Henrietta, and daughter, Dorothy Jane, are visiting this week at the home of Mrs. J. T. Highsmith.

First Christian Completes Plans For Meeting Here

Plans for the world fellowship meeting to be held in Wichita Falls at the First Christian church, Feb. 19-21, were completed at a called meeting held Tuesday evening, Mrs. H. T. Wood, general chairman, presided, and expressed appreciation for the progress so far made.

Mrs. A. D. Harrison, chairman of the committee on registration and homes, reported that information had been received that delegates from Breckenridge, McKinney, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, Greenville and Cleburne, had already registered, and that homes for at least 100 out-of-town delegates were needed, with only reservation for 40 having been secured.

Plans were completed for flying squadron groups to visit Olney, Seymour, Archer City, Electra, Graham next Sunday to give wide publicity to the meeting. Young people from the Highland Heights and First Christian churches will make these visits. A large attendance from these places close to Wichita Falls is expected.

Mrs. W. C. Duncan, chairman of the banquet committee, stated that plans had been completed for the opening banquet Friday, Feb. 19, and for the dinner and banquet Saturday noon and Saturday evening. These banquets are to be feature events of the program. The hostesses for the lunch to be served complimentary to visiting delegates are Dorothy Terrell and Barbara Huckabee.

Frank B. Creighton stated that the program of recreation had been completed. He also stated that cars for transportation of the visiting delegates were practically assured, only a few yet to be secured.

The world fellowship meeting is an annual affair, calling together the young people of the Christian churches of Texas for discussion of the problems pertaining to the missionary activities of the church at home and abroad. On the program at Wichita Falls several of the leaders of the Disciples of Christ will speak, chief among them Mrs. Ora B. Shepherd of Indianapolis, and a returned missionary whose name is to be announced later.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. H. T. Wood, Mrs. A. D. Harrison, Mrs. O. H. Karr, Frank B. Creighton, Barbara Huckabee, Mrs. W. H. Weaver, Mrs. Harley Snyder, Orville Malone, Phyllis Creighton, Elta Rose Franklin, Dorothy Terrill, Loretta Nichols, Earlene Longan, Pauline Williams, O. H. Karr, Mrs. W. C. Duncan, E. F. Huppertz.

To improve Any child's

APPETITE

If you want your child to eat more to gain and grow strong, begin this very night with the famous "California treatment!"

A sluggish appetite means a sluggish colon. Correct this condition called stasis, and see how quickly a listless, drooping boy or girl begins to eat—and gain! The only "medicine" such children need is pure, unadulterated fig syrup.

California fig syrup is doing wonderful things for ailing, sickly children all over the United States.

The one way to conquer constipation If your baby, boy, or girl is bilious—pale-faced and dull-eyed from constipation—breath bad mornings, tongue coated all the time—don't give cathartics that weaken twenty feet of bowels! Instead, a little fig syrup that doesn't disturb either stomach or bowels, but does act on the lower colon—where the trouble lies.

Nature never made a finer laxative for children; and they all love the wholesome, fruity flavor of the real California fig syrup. It's purely vegetable, but every druggist has it all bottled, with directions. Begin with it at once. Your child will soon be eating better and feeling better. Keep on with the fig syrup a few days and see amazing improvement in appetite, color, weight, and spirits.

Children who get fig syrup, now and then, keep well and avoid colds.

NOTICE: The bottlers of California Fig Syrup respectfully warn mothers that the promises made here apply only to the genuine product in bottles plainly marked CALIFORNIA.

SPECIAL AID GIVEN SCHOOLS

State to Distribute $6,239 In Wichita County

Rural schools of Wichita county are to receive a total of $6,239 as special aid from the state, according to reports forwarded to the state board of education at Austin by G. L. Huckaby of that department and County Superintendent Jeff A. Hood at the conclusions of their three-day inspection.

Financial aid recommended by Mr. Huckaby will be forthcoming soon, it was said, and will be in addition to the regular state apportionment. The inspection conducted by Mr. Huckaby and Mr. Hood applied to all physical property of the schools, sanitary equipment, enrollment, budget, curriculum, etc., and is designed to obtain for each school such aid as may be required to make it thoroughly modern and efficient.

The following allotments were recommended in the reports completed Wednesday: Pleasant Valley, $31; City View, $290; Fowlkes, $145; Weeth, $217; Allendale, $397; Friberg, $420; Cashion, $1,585; Enterprise, $407; County Line, $736; Barwise, $267; Clara, $1,109; and Cobb, $353. The report upon the Deep Creek school had not yet been completed Wednesday evening, it was said.

Some of the county schools may receive additional state aid later for transportation, and for home economics, it was stated.

Possibilities Of Wichita Valley Outlined By Civic Club Speakers

Development of the Wichita irrigated valley as a small-farm tract with owners cultivating their land will prove the solution of tax problems in Wichita Falls and Wichita county, B. B. Greever told members of the Optimist club Wednesday noon at the Kemp hotel.

Mr. Greever, president of the Wichita Valley Development association, pointed out briefly that the irrigation project was launched to give Wichita county a large resource other than oil.

"The land in the irrigated valley," he said, "will grow 80 varieties of produce. With 1,500 to 2,000 farmers located on 40-acre tracts, the valley will prove to be the biggest thing ever known to Wichita Falls. It will act as a stabilizer for our high and low periods, preventing depressions, and aiding 'boom' periods."

Mr. Greever declared that Wichita Falls is advantageously located to get early fruits and vegetables on the market in advance of produce from other points of origin. Encouragement also is to be given, he said, to the expansion of the Wichita Valley Growers' association, which gave its attention during the past year to the growth and sale of canteloupes.

The speaker urged that a united citizenship support the program now being launched for the valley development.

A singsong was conducted by Ralph Pond, with Miss Mildred Anderson at the piano.

LIONS HEAR TALK BY HARRY GRAY

Financial conditions now prevalent in the affairs of the Wichita County Water Improvement district No. 1, and plans for the small-farm development of the irrigated district as planned by the Wichita Valley Development association, were discussed by Harry Gray Jr., before members of the Lions club at the Wichita club Wednesday.

Mr. Gray, chairman of the board for district No. 1, stressed the need for taxes now due, pointing out that a $90,000 payment on the principal must be made in April. The district defaulted in the payment of $120,000 in interest last fall, he said. The two irrigation districts, he said, have a bonded indebtedness of $6,000,000.

Mr. Gray outlined the program now being formulated by the development association, under which farmers will be financed in the purchase and improvement of 40-acre tracts in the irrigated valley.

R. E. Shepherd and William E. Young sang "Song of Love," the Mitzi-Schubert duet from "Blossom Time," accompanied by Mrs. Shepherd, and Mr. Shepherd sang several solos.

L. V. Abernathy, first vice president of the club, presided in the absence of President Roy J. Mann.

Last Rites Held for Billy Clark Morrison

Funeral services for Billy Clark Morrison, 11, son of Mrs. D. C. Morrison, 1004 Seventeenth, were held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the First Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. H. J. Hart, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Rosemont directed by the Hines mortuary. The child succumbed to an attack of pneumonia Tuesday afternoon.

Surivivors are the parents; a brother, R. C. Morrison; a sister, Audrey Nell Morrison; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones, of Abilene, Texas, and Mrs. W. A. Morrison of Wichita Falls.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the youngsters Sunday school and grade school classes, including Fielding Bland, Victor Conman, Newton Keyes, Leon Dreeden, Vennis Pratt, Clifton Robertson, and Heigh Kensey.

BOND VOTE IN DALLAM TODAY

Heavy Ballot Expected For $360,000 Issue

Special to The Record News.

DALHART, Texas, Feb. 10.—Voters of Dallam county will go to the polls here Thursday to determine whether or not the county shall issue $360,000 in bonds for the paving of highways 5, 56 and 41.

Proponents predict that the issue will carry. They have worked diligently in weeks that preceded the election to align voters of the county in favor of the bond issue.

With a 70 per cent increase in poll tax paymepts, indications point to one of the heaviest votes ever polled in Dallam county.

Road projects for which funds will be used if bonds are voted, call for paving of the three routes in the county. A 10-inch caliche base with asphalt topping is proposed. Estimates of engineers indicate that 75 per cent of expenditures will be used for local labor and materials.

Highway 5, the Colorado to Gulf route; highway 56, a link in the shortest route east and west across the United States; and highway 41, from Oklahoma City to points in eastern Colorado, are considered among the most important roads of the state.

Vernon Junior Council Names Officers Tonight

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Feb. 10.—R. E. Mason, temporary chairman, has called a meeting of the general membership of the Junior council of the Vernon Chamber of Commerce for election of officers, to be held Thursday evening, Feb. 11, in the district court room of the Wilbarger county courthouse. Directors will be elected and matters for the perfection of the organization will be discussed.

Electra Official Attacks Sidewalk Gossip in Plea for Lower Expenses

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Feb. 10.—A. B. Corder city commissioner, has written an article, "Along the Sidewalks," in which he explains the action of the city commissioners in reducing expenses of the city. His statement follows:

"One can hear many subjects discussed on the sidewalks. One subject that is being discussed now is the expenses of running the city. In the last 10 months there has been an effort on the part of the city commission to reduce expenses. It will be of interest to many to hear quotations from a letter received from the representative of the bondholders of the city. This letter was written to the city secretary last April 7. I quote from the following:

"'It is entirely evident that the expenses of the city are entirely beyond anything that can be borne by any town of your population during times like these, and I am greatly surprised that these expenses have not been greatly reduced, since it became evident a year or two ago that times are going to be different from what they were earlier.

Expenses Heavy

"'I really believe your expenses are practically twice as much in the city of Electra as they should be and unless the city commission can see fit to cut down expenses, there is no doubt but drastic action will have to be taken by those holding the past due obligations of the city. We have other towns the size of Electra that are operating their entire city on approximately $35,000 a year. Your total expenses during the last eight months has been approximately $42,000 or practically twice as much as a city like Electra should have or in all probability can stand.'

"From the above," Mr. Corder states, "it will be seen that something had to be done. Since last May there has been a steady reduction in expenses. It was a painful operation for all of us but I am sure we will be out of the hospital some day. Pay your taxes and do your part.

"There is a rumor on the sidewalks that three men may run for mayor and commissioners and raise the salaries which have been cut. Will they do it? It is up to the voters. They have a right to demand of each candidate a clear statement of his intentions.

"Next week I will discuss the advisory board and why it came into existence. There was a reason. It has greatly advanced the cause for which it was appointed. It is also being misunderstood and criticized along the sidewalks."

Iowa Park Lions Hear Wichita Man

Special to The Record News.

IOWA PARK, Texas, Feb. 10.—Iowa Park Lions were addressed at their weekly luncheon by W. H. Fillmore, attorney from Wichita Falls, who talked on "Court Expenditures and the Possibility of Reform." Mr. Fillmore was introduced by Joe Taugman, chairman of the program committee.

club songs were led by Miss Katherine Sue Ralston, accompanied by Miss Mary Emma Boyd. B. L. Bradford, secretary, read a bogus minutes of the last meeting, and was fined for the offense. He insisted that he copied the report from the Iowa Park Herald and the editor, C. C. Hudson, was also fined.

Each member also was fined in order to replace a window pane damaged during the last week's meeting, which was given over to an indoor baseball game.

TWO HELD FOR SLAYING COP

One of Pair Confesses To Carpenter Death

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 10. (AP)—Police announced the arrest today of John Mingari, 34, and a man known as Joe Levine as participants in the slaying of Detective O. P. Carpenter in the attempted robbery here Monday of the Mercantile Trust company. They said Mingari had confessed.

The man known as Levine denied the crime. He is said to have come to Kansas City from St. Louis.

Mingari's alleged confession said two other men participated in the attempted robbery. He said he was not acquainted with them and that they were induced to take a part in the holdup by Levine.

Police quoted Mingari as saying Levine was the machine gunner who killed Carpenter. Mingari, police said, acted as a lookout and fired several shots from a revolver when the police car in which Carpenter and Patrolman Ed Young were riding appeared in front of the bank.

Young, who was slugged, was said to have recognized Mingari before the officer was felled by a blow across the head. This led to Mingari's arrest.

Vernon Firms Will Vote On Manufacturers' Show

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Feb. 10.—L. A. Wilson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was authorized at the regular meeting of the board of directors to conduct a referendum among the firms of the city to determine whether or not a manufacturer's and jobbers show is to be held in the spring.

Details for the place and dates will be decided later, if the suggestion is accepted by the manufacturing and jobbing concerns.

Ed L. Gossett's resignation as a member of the board of directors was accepted.

Much time in the meeting was devoted to hearing reports from the committees and transacting routine business. The highway committee of the chamber of commerce was instructed to continue work in an effort to get the north end of highway 23 surfaced this year.

Quanah Women Will Have Seed Exchange

Special to The Record News.

QUANAH, Texas, Feb. 10.—The second annual seed and plant exchange sponsored by the home demonstration clubs of Hardeman county will be held at the courthouse Saturday, Feb. 13 from 1 to 5 o'clock. The general public has been invited to come and to bring any plants or seeds for exchange.

The first exchange was held last year, and nearly 100 women participated. Through exchanging seeds and plants they had surpluses that others lacked. Many yards and gardens were made more beautiful and productive from this exchange and no estimate of the value derived can be made, according to Miss Elsie Phillips, county home demonstration agent.

Many seeds were donated by club women and merchants of the county last year, and it is expected this same cooperation on a larger scale will be received this year.

Listerine gargle
checks the progress of colds..often prevents them entirely

Once again the power of full strength Listerine to ward off infection, by means of its swift, safe, germicidal action, is revealed by a series of unusual tests.

Bear the results of these tests in mind. They point to better health, greater vitality, and freedom from pain and discomfort.

Between November 15, 1930 and February 1, 1931, 102 persons in normal health were kept under medical observation. Thirty-four of them, designated as "controls," did not gargle Listerine. Thirty-four gargled with full strength Listerine twice a day. The remaining thirty-four gargled five times daily. Now see what happened:

One-half as many colds for garglers

The "controls" (those who did not use Listerine) contracted twice as many colds as those who gargled Listerine twice daily. Moreover, their colds lasted three times as long and were four times as severe.

Now let us compare the "controls" with those who gargled Listerine five times a day:

The "controls" had three times as many colds, which were four times as severe and lasted four times as long.

Results every time

Similar tests conducted over periods ranging from four weeks to four and one-half months show equally convincing results.

In a four-week test those who did not gargle Listerine contracted nine times as many colds as those who did gargle. In addition, the colds lasted eleven times as long. In a four and one-half month test those who did not gargle Listerine contracted three times as many colds as those who did gargle. And the colds lasted five times as long.

Kills germs, yet safe

What is the secret of Listerine's success used this way? The answer is its ability to kill germs in the fastest time without harm to the delicate tissues of the mouth. Used as a gargle, full strength Listerine reduces bacteria on the surfaces of the mouth, 98%. At the end of two hours, a reduction of between 75% and 80% is still evident. Ask for Listerine and see that you get it. Its results are certain and its action is safe. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U.S.A.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE SIMPSON

WASHINGTON.—With Japanese guns in Manchuria, at Shanghai and elsewhere in Chinese territory waking ominous echoes around the world, the great experiment in world-wide armaments curbing at Geneva hardly could have gotten started under less propitious circumstances.

ELIHU ROOT

Moral suasion as a substitute for force seemed to have been tried and found wanting. Yet the mission of the Geneva meeting is to ask the world to back its many pacific words with deeds, to entrust national security itself more to pacts and covenants than to defensive armament.

What a complete failure at Geneva might mean to the peace of Europe it would be difficult to forecast.

For Americans such an outcome would have especial significance.

"Made in U. S. A."

For the Geneva conference, historically speaking, is a culminating moment in a drive of American peace leadership that goes far back. Four successive American presidents, from Wilson to Hoover, have each sought to contribute to that movement.

The whole peace fabric of the world as it now stands bears a "Made in U. S. A." stamp—from the covenant of the League of Nations to the Washington nine-power Pacific treaty and the Briand-Kellogg antiwar pact.

And the fate of all that prolonged effort to substitute reason and justice for war in the arbitrament of disputes between nations may be hanging now in the balance in Geneva or in the orient.

What would be the possible effect in the United States of an utter breakdown at Geneva?

Aside from these multilateral peace commitments, this country is bound by bilateral conciliation and arbitration treaties with almost every nation of the world. They date back to the administrations of Secretaries Root and Bryan and have been revised and strengthened in recent years.

Parallel

If there is to be no general reduction of armaments under treaty, however, the question of the size of land forces maintained in peace times remains open for this country.

The Wilson administration in 1918-16 turned from a policy of restricted army and navy programs to the most elaborate peace time military policy the nation has ever known.

The Democratic house of the 72nd congress seems aiming at further armament curtailments for political and economic reasons. Developments in China or Geneva, however, may profoundly affect its final action.

Garner 'Too Busy' For Presidency

LORDSBURG, N. M., Feb. 10. (AP)—Speaker John N. Garner of Texas, mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate for president, in a personal letter to Willard E. Holt of Lordsburg says he has been too busy to consider the possibility of being a candidate for the nomination.

"In reference to the presidency," he writes Mr. Holt, "I have been too busy with details of the house organization and the duties and responsibilities of the speakership to give consideration to anything else."

Mr. Holt and the speaker of the the national house of representatives have been friends for many years. Mr. Holt is secretary of the Lordsburg Chamber of Commerce and governor for New Mexico of the National Aeronautic association.

A New Traffic Problem

AMONG the many improvements that automobile manufacturers have built into cars in the last few years is higher speed capacity. Rapid acceleration is the rule, now; so is the ability to cruise along an open road at a mile-a-minute clip without suffering from excessive noise and vibration.

But all of this, evidently, has been a gift to motorists who aren't ready for it yet. Our automobiles do their job better than we do ours. We aren't, on the whole, quite fit to be trusted with fast cars.

This becomes evident from figures on auto accidents recently compiled by the Travelers Insurance company.

In 1931 automobile registrations in the United States declined by about 2 per cent. The number of traffic accidents also fell off. Yet the number of severe but non-fatal injuries increased even more.

The insurance company's investigators conclude that increased speed was the factor chiefly responsible. It is hard to disagree with them.

The meaning of this new trend is clear. The odds of death in an auto accident have been shortened. In 1930 there was one death in every 26 accidents; last year there was one death in every 25.

Nor does the indictment against the motorist stop there. The pedestrian seems to be getting more cautious; accidents involving pedestrians fell off markedly last year. Deaths resulting from collisions between two automobiles, on the other hand, shot up 24 per cent, and deaths resulting from autos colliding with fixed objects—such, for instance, as lamp posts—also increased materially.

This makes extremely unpleasant reading. It indicates that the average motorist must realize more clearly than ever before the exact nature of the responsibility that rests on his shoulders when he starts out for a drive. It indicates that state and municipal supervision of driving is not nearly stringent enough. It indicates, in fact, that we still fail to appreciate the great seriousness of our automobile traffic death problem.

'Only Yesterday'

AMAZING developments which have made the past 14 years a period unparalleled in earlier history have occasioned the writing of an unique history of the United States by Frederick Lewis Allen.

"Only Yesterday" is unique because practically all Americans old enough (and young enough) to read it find its chronicled events contemporary with their own lives. It is surprising in revealing how much we have forgotten of 1918-1928, due to the unbelievable speed at which the world traveled during those years.

Because the past has receded so rapidly in the distance, it is difficult to realize that only 13 years ago no one ever had heard of a radio program, of a transatlantic Zeppelin flight, of a talking picture, of a bathing beauty pageant, or of American women appearing on the street in dresses which stopped above the shoe tops. One also must shake his head vigorously to recall that it was less than a decade ago when day laborers required brightly colored silk shirts to be properly clad for the street, eggs sold at 75 cents a dozen, and a pound of butter at about the same price.

There are other astonishing changes, too, revealed only by a careful survey of the early 1920's with modern perspective. The post-war hysteria which almost completely stifled freedom of speech and press seems strangely un-American.

The first Armistice day is not far away, in point of calendar yearr. Measured in terms of industry, science, finance, social conditions, religious practice, 1932 is a full century away from 1918.

Trucks and Railroads

THE Couzens bill to place motor buses and trucks under federal control, just as the railroads are controlled by the Interstate Commerce commission, seems to be drawing forth some interesting testimony.

For example: Leo J. Flynn, I. C. C. examiner, told a senate committee the other day that trucks displaced more than 150,000 freight cars in 1930 in the movement of livestock alone. Meditate on that figure for a moment and you can easily understand why the railroads have been having a hard time lately.

That, of course, does not mean that trucks and buses ought to be abolished for the sake of the railroads. It does seem to indicate, though, that the railroads' competitors ought to come under the same sort of regulation that applies to the railroads themselves. The present set-up is hardly fair.

WALTER WINCHELL
On Broadway

(Copyright, 1932, Daily Mirror, Inc.)

PORTRAIT OF MAN TALKING TO HIMSELF

Well, I had intended to jot down a few notes on the proceedings of the Sabbath night in one of the Central Park Zoos—but the papers scooped me on my own story and left little for me to ad...Only one flaw in their reports made mine boasts a little ill...And that was that their party was a "wild party"...Well, that's not so...It wasn't a wild party...And, so far as Mrs. Winchell's Walter is concerned, it was the nicest party he ever crashed...I thought I had run the gamut of Broadway emotions—until one of my betters, Mr. Earl Carroll, confronted me before the large assemblage—which included hundreds of acquaintances and a few of my freinds...Mr. Carroll, who has had sound cause for rebuke for a decade, encouraged by the egging-on of one who shall be nameless until after tomorrow evening, delivered himself of a cancer in his heart...He laid me out in what L. Holtz describes as "plain tukk!" and then broke down and cried until 5 that morning, when, still weeping over the A. C. Blumenthal's (Peggy Fears) phone connection, he expressed his regrets...To the Blumenthals, that is...Mr. Carroll said that I was not fit to associate with decent people, meaning, of course, decent people like himself.

I have been cussed and insulted before...And by better producers than Mr. Carroll...Several of them have even gone so far as to banish me from associating with nice people—and have restrained me by court order, too, from entering their temples of amusement...But that was because, as I was told, I had turned in sour reports, as a critic, on their plays...In the 10 years since I have gone to The Play as a deputy for the newspapers, I cannot recall jotting down a kind note about Mr. Carroll's pieces...And so—I am not fit, you see...Then, too, in the decade of reporting things for the gazettes I have singled out Earl Carroll—more than any other local—for joshing...He—as the Broadway expression that Holtz made more popular—Can't Take It—himself...He has complained loud and long at other gatherings about the abuse from this corner—and when on the Sabbath evening he made his feelings public he had good cause ...Oh, very good cause...But the papers exaggerated when they said that I Could Take It!...Because I had been completely disarmed by Mr. Carroll before he flung his barbs at me...He had asked me before the jury: "Can you take it? I wonder if you can—considering that you've made most of us in this room take it from your column"...Naturally I had to say, "Yes, go ahead" ...But what kind of a duel is that? ...It would have been more of an even argument had Mr. Carroll given me a choice of weapons: "Words" or "Bottles In Each Hand."

Then the one about the chap who asked a wag if Carroll's show, "Vanities," was any good . . . "I hate to say," was the retort awful, "I saw it under bad conditions—the curtain was up!" . . . I defended Carroll by calling his "Vanities" "The Profanities" and I reported that his attraction was an overpriced burlesk show (which it is) and that it had a lot of lovely scenery—but the actors get in front of it! . . . Mind you, for nearly 10 years, Earl Carroll has taken this form of criticism—and he never squawked until last Sunday evening . . . Whenever we'd meet in public, he'd never mention my statements in the paper . . . Instead, he would smile and affably say: "Hello, Walter. How are you?" . . . I knew he never was sincere with his howdys, but I didn't care . . . I am putting on a show, myself, or did you know that? . . . I mean, I have it more difficult than Carroll . . . I must change my show every day! . . . And keep my audience interested and often my star act is Earl Carroll.

No, I take that back...That's not fair, either...After all, I never asked Mr. Carroll or warned him—before I sat down at my machine-gun (Remington Arms) and mowed him down...His frail form is crowded with scars caused by me...Scars from First-Nights and gags I made up or gags relayed to me by the wits of the White Way...And what a grand target has been the Earl of Broadway's "$3 house"—where, as I have remarked, the sign over his stage-door, "Thru These Portals Pass the Most Beautiful Girls in the World," should be revised to read: "Thru These Portals the Most Beautiful Girls in the World Pass Out!" . . . And there have been numerous other merciless jokes such as "Earl Carroll in preparing another Intimate Revue—yeh, yeh—so intimate it can be produced in a patrol wagon!"

So you see, Mr. and Mrs. America—Mr. Carroll let me off easy . . . If I were in Mr. Carroll's sandals and you persisted to distress me for 10 years, when I met you, whether you were my size or not—I would break your head with a loaded mineral water bottle or break the bottle on your conk! . . . I am like that—a temper when released that goes screwy like Mr. S. Solomon's—who, by the way, is just as unpopular with the newspapers at the moment as Walter Winchell is with, let's say, Mr. Earl Carroll—and millions of others, who also have darn good reasons . . . But I have nothing personal against Mr. Carroll—and I know I can't prove that! . . . And what bothers me most now, with all this expose in the papers, is that when I hear or think of a good joke about him, when I publish it, people will say: "Oh, Winchell once was bawled out beautifully by Carroll—so he prints things about him to get even!" . . . However, I won't let that stop me. I must print quips on people and Earl Carroll will be a good boy and keep Taking His Share . . . Carroll, if he includes himself among the decents with whom I should not associate, will be decent then, and admit this fact . . . That I was the only reporter at his bathtub incident who didn't write about it!

And my editor, whom he was suing for a million dollars at the time, assailed me before the staff with: "You do a pretty fair column, but you're the lousiest reporter in the world! Why didn't you turn in a story on the Carroll bathtub orgy?" . . . I alibied that I was Carroll's guest, and as his guest, I could not violate that distinction, etc....And Mr. Carroll never knew, too, that when the federal government subpoenaed me before the Grand Jury I told the quizzers that I couldn't think of one name of a person who was there—and that I didn't see any hooch there, either. ..."That's very amusing," sarcastically cried the prosecutor, "He calls his column His Broadway, gentlemen, and he admits that there were about 400 people there, and he is an authority of Broadway, yet, he can't think of one name!"...I didn't wither or wilt at that...No one was ever going to say of me that my testimony helped send Carroll to Atlanta...So I said: "Now, gentlemen, if you ask me what sort of a party it was, I could tell you that it wasn't a 'typical' Broadway party. I never met those West Point officials or Congressmen or Senators before—" At which some one suddenly handed me my hat and shoved me out of a door to the street... You see, I am not fit to associate with decent people like—Earl Carroll.

A GRAVE DIGGER WHO NEVER DUG A GRAVE—Michael Norris has been listed in the city record of Boston as grave digger at the old Granary burying ground. The grounds are the final resting place of such famous people as John Hancock, the parents of Benjamin Franklin, Paul Revere, while a bronze tablet on the entrance gate commemorates the victims of the Boston massacre, but are no longer used for burial. Norris, the "grave digger," spends his time grooming the grass plots and caring for the trees.

Lois Corbin, a pretty working girl, falls in love with Bruce Durand, the nephew of Charles Durand, one of Chicago's wealthiest men. Ashamed to have Bruce know where she lives, Lois leaves her family and goes to share an apartment with Arlene and Margaret, two girl friends. She finally becomes engaged to Bruce, but one night at his country club she is accused by a woman of having stolen the dress she is wearing from her home. Bruce is angry, and Lois is forced to explain that she purchased the dress at a second-hand store on Clark street. She is embarrassed beyond words. She keeps waiting all day to hear from Bruce, and when she gets home that night Arlene tells her that he has called to say he would be too busy to come down tonight. Lois and Margaret go to a movie, and return just in time to see Bruce drive away, with Arlene on the seat beside him.

When Bruce arrives at the apartment he fully expects to see Lois, but Arlene has arranged things to suit herself. She tells him that Lois has gone out with another man. Bruce becomes angry, and asks Arlene if she would like to go out with him. They go to the Edgemere hotel to dance, because Arlene tells Bruce that is where Lois is going to spend the evening.

Arlene orders a big dinner, but Bruce only drinks a mint julep. He keeps watching the door for some signs of Lois, but she does not show up. When Bruce takes Arlene home he is so jealous that he makes another date with her for the following Friday.

Now Go on With the Story

CHAPTER XXI

Arlene walked into the dining room of the Edgemore hotel on the arm of Bruce Durand, her nose tilted into the air, and feeling assured that all eyes were focused on her. She had the impression that everybody in town knew Bruce. Secretly she hoped that there was at least one person there who knew her, so that the one could see that she got around, as she called it. But she was reasonably sure that there would be no one there who would recognize her.

Arlene craved to be noticed. Her only ambition was to make a good match for herself. Somebody like Bruce, for instance, with enough social prestige and money to put her just a head above the majority of people. She had been eager enough to give Bruce every little attention when they had been at the apartment but now that they were out the tables were turned. She made every demand possible.

She didn't fancy having him sit across the table from her. She wanted him next to her where she could talk without having to scream to him. At least that was the excuse she gave him. In reality, she wanted him there so that she could use her eyes to better advantage and also be able to pat his hand whenever she felt like it.

Although it was past dinner time, Arlene had not eaten. She told Bruce that she was hungry. He was busy when she told him. He was busy looking the entire dining room over for Lois. So he didn't answer.

She said again, "I didn't have any dinner tonight, Bruce, did you?"

He turned around then to face her. "What? What's that? Oh, yes. Yes, I had my dinner. Go ahead. Get anything you want."

Arlene beamed. She took the long menu card and scanned it carefully. All the while Bruce was looking anxiously for a glimpse of Lois. Arlene was looking for something she had always wanted to order but had never been able to get because the boys with whom she went ordered for her. They took no chances.

There was a dinner for two dollars and a half a plate. That sounded good to Arlene. It simply must be good because it cost so much money. After the waiter had stood patiently with his pad and pencil for at least 10 minutes, Arlene ordered. She tried to do it with the air of one who was used to such things. She ordered filet mignon. She didn't know exactly what it was but she had read about it and she knew it was some kind of meat.

The waiter repeated after her, "Filay minon!" Arlene looked up at him quickly. What was he trying to do? Embarrass her? It was spelled with "t," wasn't it? Why shouldn't it be pronounced the way it was spelled. Luckily Bruce was not listening to her. She was sure the waiter must be right after all.

Bruce ordered a mint julep. It was terrible when the waiter brought the food, so obviously a case of a girl getting a dinner out of a man. Bruce didn't mind, though. He didn't think about it. He noticed it, of course, but his mind was on only one thing, Lois Corbin. After he had made sure that she was not in the dining room he turned his eyes to the doorway and kept them there.

Arlene didn't talk so much when her dinner came. She was hungry and she decided to enjoy the dinner first and Bruce afterward. When the orchestra played Bruce watched the floor like a hawk, thinking perhaps that, after all, he might have slipped up on seeing Lois, and that he would be sure to catch her on the dance floor if she were there.

"Want to dance?" he asked Arlene out of politeness.

Arlene smiled her most engaging smile.

"Yes, let's," she agreed.

She was awfully disappointed because there didn't happen to be any one there that night who spoke to Bruce. She wanted his friends to see that he had broken off with Lois.

The music was simply divine, Arlene thought. When they were dancing a dreamy waltz she managed to let her hand slip upward so that it touched Bruce's neck. Then she pressed it against him slightly. She looked up at him expecting a smile. But he apparently hadn't even noticed it, for he did not even look at her. Instead he said, "I haven't seen Lois here. Are you sure they were coming to the Edgemore?"

Arlene said lazily, "I'm not sure. No. They talked of two different places. Lois said she wanted to come here, but Mack said that they had a new orchestra down at the Cotton club that he wanted to hear.

"That's where they went, then," Bruce said. "Let's go down there and see. Want to?"

Arlene didn't exactly like the way Bruce was chasing after Lois, but she thought she had better humor him tonight. So she told him "yes," that she had been simply dying to get down there.

Bruce hurried her through with her dinner. That is, he didn't tell her to hurry but he called the waiter for the check and paid hastily. Then he sat there drumming his fingers on the smooth, white tablecloth.

"Ought to get down there," he said. "They're likely to leave before we arrive."

Arlene said, "No, oh, no. She always stays out late with Mack."

She saw Bruce's jaw harden. Perhaps she had better not say any more about Lois. No doubt she had said enough for one evening to put her scheme over successfully. Arlene was stupid, as a matter of fact. She didn't look any further ahead than the moment. If she could say something that would help her along for the evening, that was as far as she considered. She never once dreamed that Bruce might call Lois, that Lois might call Bruce and demand an explanation from him. She merely went along her smooth and easy course and let things occur as they might.

Of course, she had no idea but that everything would turn out in her favor. She had the utmost confidence in her personality and also in her ways of getting her man.

Arlene did not enjoy herself much at the Cotton club. It was the first time she ever had been down there and she got a "kick" out of that. But then after the novelty of being in a new place wore off she had to be content to sit there with Bruce and ask questions that were either not answered at all or else were answered in such a vague manner that Arlene wished she hadn't asked them.

Bruce was concerned solely with finding Lois. Arlene wondered what his plans were after he found her. Of course, she knew there was no danger of that, but she would like to know what would happen if he did see here there with another man.

"What did she wear?" he asked her.

Arlene paused a moment and then said, "I think she wore her suit. I'm not sure though. They were only up in the apartment a few moments."

When Bruce had satisfied himself that Lois was not at the Cotton club, he was ready to depart. He had only one object in being out with Arlene Kennedy and that was to have Lois see him with her. Aside from that, Arlene was a total blank, so far as he was concerned.

He wasn't even going upstairs with Arlene when they got home, pleading a headache and the lateness of the hour, although it was really early. Arlene would not let him off on that. He was going to see her upstairs.

She said, "I'm not used to having gentlemen leave me at the door."

Bruce winced. He knew he should have taken her up. "I'm sorry," he apologized. He got out and helped her to the walk. Once inside the hotel his jealousy stormed within him with a greater fury than previously. Thus it was that when he said, "Good night," he also made an engagement with Arlene to take her to his country club on the following Friday.

Q.—In playing winter rules at golf is it permissible to improve the lie of the ball everywhere, even on the green?—F. G. H.

A.—Under the rules, the lie may be improved only through the fairway and on the green. Under local rules, or by agreement among the players, sometimes lies are improved everywhere save in the hazards.

Q.—What was the first play presented by the Theater Guild?—G. E. L.

A.—In its first season, the spring of 1919, it presented two plays, "Bonds of Interest" and "John Ferguson." "Bonds of Interest" was produced first but was not a success. The guild had its beginning in the earlier Washington Square Players, and the guild project originated with Lawrence Langner, who called the initial meeting, Dec. 10, 1918.

Q.—How much money has been refunded by the internal revenue department because too large an income tax has been paid in the last four years?—E. B.

A.—The following are the total refunds, including principal and interest, that have been made since 1927. These figures are for the fiscal years, 1928, $42,393,567.17; 1929, $190,164,359.48; 1930, $126,836,333.22; 1931, $69,476,920.26, making a total of almost $529,000,000.

Q.—What animals are considered beasts of burden?—E. M.

A.—A beast of burden is any animal domesticated for use in transportation, draft, or agriculture. The outstanding species which have been used for this purpose are the ox and the horse in practically all parts of the world; the camel in the desert countries of North Africa and southwestern Asia; the dog in countries where larger draft-animals do not exist; the reindeer in the arctic regions, and the alpaca and llama in the mountainous countries in western South America.

Q.—When were the first occasions upon which Romans lent large sums to the state?—M. M.

A.—In 215 B. C. and in 214 B. C. the treasury of Rome was almost empty. Private individuals came to the rescue. This was, so far as is known, the first time that, in a financial crisis, money was, in this way, lent to the treasury.

Q.—Why were the horse latitudes given this name?—T. O.

A.—This is the name given to the belt of calms in the north Atlantic ocean between the region of westerly winds of the higher latitudes and the region of trade winds of the torrid zone. Authorities differ in regard to the origin of the name, some claiming that it was derived from the fact that vessels with a cargo of horses were often so delayed on account of the calms that the animals perished from lack of water.

Q.—What is the longest telephone hookup now in use?—H. D.

A.—It is from San Francisco by way of New York to Australia, more than half way around the world.

Q.—How much ground is contained in an arpen of land?—M. J.

A.—An arpen was an old French measure of land roughly equivalent to an acre.

Q.—When James M. Beck referred to the four major catastrophes of the world, what were the events?—C. C. P.

A.—They were: Fall of the Roman empire requiring eight centuries before Europe was restored to an appearance of stability; 30 years war requiring a full century before civilization was enabled to resume its former functions; the period of the Napoleonic wars lasting for 30 years; the present economic situation.

Q.—Who were the free soilers?—W. B.

A.—This was a political party opposed to slavery. It became a part of the Republican party in 1854.

Q.—How long a time elapsed between the birth of the present Prince of Wales, and the birth of a royal prince in direct succession to the throne whose parents were British-born?—W. W.

A.—The birth of Edward VI (1537) son of Henry VIII and Jane Seymour was the latest instance.

Q.—Where should the title esquire be used?—S. N.

A.—Sarah Tainter says: The title esquire is used with the following government officials: Chief clerks and chiefs of bureaus of the executive departments, the district commissioners, mayors, American diplomats below the rank of minister, American consuls, clients of the supreme court.

ATHEISM PROBE IS UNDER WAY

Pastor Adheres to Charge At Texas Tech College

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 10. (AP)—After conferences with Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Tech, the Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church who charged atheism and infidelity were being taught in the college, declared tonight that no evidence had been offered him which refuted the allegations hurled Sunday from his pulpit.

Investigation by President Horn of the alleged teachings got under way Wednesday afternoon soon after the president had terminated a conference with the Rev. Mr. Campbell. The probe, which is to consist of questioning of students and the accused men named by the minister, is expected to be concluded either Thursday or Friday.

The college president and the minister conferred Wednesday morning concerning the charges after it was announced by Dr. Horn that "we both have agreed to withhold names of the men for the present and will issue a joint statement on the case in the immediate future. The names of the accused professors will be withheld from publication by both myself and the Rev. Mr. Campbell until a full investigation of the charges has been made and hearings held."

Approval Of U. S. Highway Routes Assures All-Weather Road To Lawton

Highway enthusiasts of Wichita Falls and vicinity were gratified Wednesday with the assurance that an all-weather route to Lawton, Okla., would in all probability be completed in 1932. Announcement of approval of the state highway commission of Oklahoma and federal bureaus for routing U. S. highways Nos. 277 and 70 from Red river north to Emerson, Okla., in Cotton county was made Tuesday in Oklahoma City. The contract will be let at an early date.

The announcement means that an important gap between Burkburnett, Texas, and Lawton will be closed, according to J. S. Bridwell, chairman of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce highway committee. Closing of this gap of approximately 50 miles will bring the all-weather route to within 15 miles of Lawton. Plans for closing the 15-mile gap remaining are expected to be approved at an early date, as soon as survey details are worked out.

The improvement of this route increases the importance of a fine route into Wichita Falls from Lawton, Fort Sill, and surrounding area, Mr. Bridwell said. In addition closing of the 50-mile gap will leave only a short distance of about six miles from Emerson east to Walters, Okla., on an all-weather routing to Lawton.

'Bush Crazy' Trapper of Northern Wasteland Escapes Fifth Manhunt

By Royal Canadian Signals Radio-Telegraph Service.

ARLAVIK, Northwest Territories, Feb. 10. (US)—For a fifth time, Albert Johnson, mad trapper of the arctic, has eluded one of the most desperate man-hunts in the colorful history of the Royal Canadian mounted police.

With its propeller chanting a funeral dirge as it swam out of the western haze, a blue and gold monoplane brought back here the body of a dead "redcoat" who had mushed out two weeks ago with his comrades to capture the "bush crazy" trapper.

Trapper Fled

The plane, a Canadian Airways Fokker, was piloted by W. R. "Wop" May, a world war ace. It landed here with the body of "Neut" Millen, shot dead in the last skirmish with Johnson, lone outlaw of the Mackenzie mountains, Saturday, Jan. 30.

May reported today that the trapper had fled his improvised barricade, although besieged by officers who had been left there to guard him.

Reverent hands of residents of the Mackenzie delta outpost helped lift out the toboggan on which the dead mountie had been lashed and hauled by huskies to the lowlands after the battle at the barricade on that bleak arctic hillside.

Downed by Fire

It was there Millen had fallen face forward in a desperate charge against the blazing rifle. Johnson already had shot down a comrade of Millen on a former occasion.

Circling above the barricade which had been the scene of Johnson's fourth and fatal encounter with the posse headed by Millen, May nosed his machine down lower and lower while ready riflemen and bombers waited at windows with weapons ready to blast or riddle the desperado.

Lower and lower swooped the circling plane with the sunlight glinting on its wing, May and the riflemen peering intently at the spot in which the gunman was thought to be lurking.

Then May's eagle eye, trained through many years of war and peacetime aerial observation, caught sight of a faint, feathery trail in the snow heading deeper into the wild hills.

May wagged his wings and drifted slowly over the deserted barricade, to show that the bird had flown.

Former Dragon of Klan Files New Statements

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 10. (AP)—D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana who is serving a life sentence for murder, today filed additional statements with the Indiana supreme court in support of his contention that he was denied a fair trial in his murder trial at Noblesville in 1925.

He asked the court to grant him a new trial on a writ of error coram nobis, the agency through which he could be retired if he convinced the court that through fear of personal violence he was unable to testify and prove his own innocence.

Stephenson, whose appeal from a life sentence was denied by the supreme court recently, reiterated many of the charges contained in his other court actions, blaming Hiram Wesley Evans, former head of the Ku Klux Klan, with "framing" him.

CONSERVATION LAW IS UPHELD

Three-Judge Court Renders Against Gas Wastage

AUSTIN, Feb. 10. (AP)—Another of Texas' statutes designed to conserve natural resources was upheld today, when a three-judge United States district court sustained validity of a law authorizing the state railroad commission to act to prevent the wastage of natural gas.

The holding was handed down in a case brought by F. C. Henderson, Inc., who asked that the railroad commission be restrained from interfering with the utilization of gas in a plant operated in the Panhandle field for the extraction of gasoline from natural gas.

The opinion, rendered by J. C. judge; Dual West, of the United States district court for the western district of Texas, and W. I. Grubbs of the United States district court at Birmingham, Ala., refused application of Henderson for temporary and permanent injunctions and granted the state's plea for a restraining order to prevent wasteful use of gas in the gasoline extraction plant.

Terms of the injunction stated that plaintiff "must desist from using gas at its plant unless and until provision has been made for the utilization of the residue gas without waste."

Although the court held valid the statute, passed at the special oil session of the Texas legislature last summer in order to strengthen conservation powers of the railroad commission, it criticised the penalty clause as drastic. The opinion said "$1,000 per day penalty is so drastic and so excessive and extreme as to appear plainly to be designed to affright those subject to the act into abject and incontinent subjection."

Republican State Senate Calls Quiz Of F. D. Roosevelt's Administration

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 10. (AP)—The Republican majority of the New York state senate, in a surprise move tonight, introduced and passed a resolution calling for a legislative investigation of all departments of the Democratic administration of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The resolution was introduced in the senate within a few minutes after that house had adopted the governor's budget bill from which the Republican finance committees had sheared $21,000,000 of expenditures. The resolution declared the investigation justified in that it "might reveal that further reductions could be made in the cost of government."

Under its provisions, the head of the 18 state departments operating under the administration of the governor, together with any employe of a department or any other person believed to have information, could be brought before the committee. The investigating body would consist of five members, including the chairmen of the finance committees of the two houses.

Since the committee would not be required to report until the next session of the legislature, its inquiry could be continued through the summer and fall.

This fact would allow for the conduct of the investigation during the time when the move to nominate Governor Roosevelt for the presidency would be progressing toward the convention stage. Coincidentally, it would run into the preconvention campaigns to select a state ticket.

The committee would be charged with the duty of inquiring into the functions, financial requirements, general condition and management of each department "for the purpose of determining whether or not the said departments, boards, bureaus, commissions, offices, institutions and agencies are overmanned, necessary and are operated and conducted upon an economical basis."

Roosevelt Drive Gets Under Way In New Hampshire

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 10. (AP)—Roosevelt-pledged candidates for delegates to the Democratic national convention prepared themselves for battle and sacrifice at a harmony meeting today.

Under the guiding hand of Robert Jackson, Democratic national committeeman and supporter of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, the candidates mapped out an arraignment whereby they hope to wage a victorious fight against a slate of candidates pledged to Alfred E. Smith at the state primary, March 8.

The 18 candidates agreed, Jackson said, to submerge themselves and arranged a plan whereby six of their number would withdraw from the contests next week and enter a slate of only 12 candidates Feb. 18, the day on which the time for filing expires.

Radio Board Member Denies 'Interest' Aid

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. (AP)—Thad H. Brown, Columbus, Ohio, denied today before a senate committee considering his nomination to the Radio commission, that he was backed by interests wishing to obtain certain broadcasting licenses.

Brown, who is a present general counsel of the commission, told the senate interstate commerce committee he believed in settling all radio cases on their merits after careful study by an examiner.

New Inquiry Launched In Hawaiian Attack

HONOLULU, Feb. 10. (AP)—Public interest aroused by the slaying of Joseph Kahahawai, Hawaiian, has resulted in a new inquiry into the attack by five men upon Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of a naval lieutenant, last September.

The attorney general's department is pursuing the investigation quietly at the request of Gov. Lawrence M. Judd, while four white persons, including Mrs. Granville Fortescue, mother of Mrs. Massie, and Lluet. Thomas Massie, her husband, are held for trial on charges of killing the alleged attacker.

Unofficial sources reveal private police detectives have questioned more than 50 gangsters and underworld characters in connection with the assault.

Baylor Pioneer Drops Dead in Courthouse

Special to The Record News.

SEYMOUR, Texas, Feb. 10.—E. A. Haynes, 76, pioneer resident of Baylor county, dropped dead of apoplexy in the courthouse here early this afternoon.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete Wednesday, although services will be held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, probably from the First Baptist church.

Mr. Haynes was a retired farmer and resided in Seymour. He had been a resident of the county for 30 years, moving here from Collins county. He was a native of Kentucky.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by several children, all of whom but one resides out of the county.

Electra Girls Win From Clara in Volley Ball

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Electra High school girls team won the volley ball round robin here tonight from the Clara girls' team. Clara won the first game of the three, but dropped the latter two to the locals.

The Electra team came back strong in the final game to play spectacular ball. However, the contest was nip-and-tuck through the latter half with score being tied the greater part of the time.

Clara won the first game 15-7, and Electra the other two 15-8 and 16-14. These two teams will meet again Friday night on the court here to determine the Wichita county volley ball championship.

Improving the Appetite

A healthy appetite is rightfully regarded as a good indication, but many people make the mistake of trying to eat heavily when they have no desire for food. Those with poor appetites usually resort to highly seasoned or spiced foods and appetizers in order to create an artificial food hunger. This misuse of appetizers causes one to eat whether one has a need for food or not. This leads to an excess of food which accumulates in the body and clogs it up so that a soil is formed upon which disease may develop. The use of too much food or the wrong kind of food is the cause of a toxic condition in the body and is one of the main causes of disease. A poor appetite is always an indication that the powers of assimilation are low.

We all realize that, when a human being or an animal will not eat, there must be something wrong. The animal often shows more sense than the human-being in this respect for it will not eat until the desire for food returns, whereas a human being will often force himself to swallow food with the mistaken idea that it will keep up his strength. A loss of appetite is an instinct which nature has provided for the purpose of lessening the amount of food which enters the digestive tract whenever the powers of digestion are impaired. A lessened appetite is common in catarrhal troubles, biliousness, gall bladder disorders, indigestion and stomach ailments, constipation, fevers, headaches, colds, tuberculosis, autointoxication and many other conditions.

If your appetite is not as keen as it used to be and if you do not have a hearty desire for plain, wholesome food, you should begin right now to regain a normal appetite for a reasonable amount of food. A good appetite is usually easy to regain. To regain your appetite take a lesson from the wild animals who know enough to stop eating when they are not hungry. Beginning tomorrow morning start on a short fast. Either take plain water and nothing else or an eight-ounce glass of orange juice or tomato juice canned, every two hours during the day. Cleanse the bowels once a day with a plain warm water enema. After a few days of this regimen you will find that your appetite has greatly improved. Even the plainest, simplest foods have suddenly acquired a flavor which is unbelievably good. One of the most noticeable rewards of this type of fast is the normal hunger which asserts itself and gives every meal an excellent flavor. Not only, this, but you will find that your digestion has become much improved and many minor aches and ailments may disappear at the same time.

After finishing the fast, start out on a well-balanced diet of good combinations and be careful not to nibble between meals. A good way to keep your appetitie and your health is to get up from the table feeling as though you could eat a little more. Never eat until you have a stuffed uncomfortable feeling.

You will notice an even more permanent improvement in your appetite if you will begin to take walks and regular exercises. Open air exercise has a splendid tonic effect upon the appetite and stimulates the power of digestion and elimination. Follow the instructions which I have given you and you will learn the truth of the saying, "Hunger is the best sauce."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Overcoming Arthritis Deformans

Question: Mr. Chad S. writes—"I have been dieting for the last five years trying to overcome arthritis deformans but my joints are still painful even though I exercise them regularly and can put my feet almost over my head. I would appreciate your advice."

Answer—You should not exercise the sore joints until the arthritic condition has been overcome. Many people with arthritis fail to get rid of the trouble simply because they try to exercise the sore joints, thus only causing additional irritation. Hot applications from a deep therapy lamp or diathermy is the best method of improving the circulation through the affected joints. A series of short fruit fasts at intervals of a month or two apart should prove helpful if you are careful of your food combinations in between and avoid the use of starches and sugars almost entirely for a time. Be sure to keep the elimination free by taking daily enemas if necessary.

Bone Building Foods

Question: M. M. asks—"What foods could be called bone building; that is which will actually assist in the growth of bone in children?"

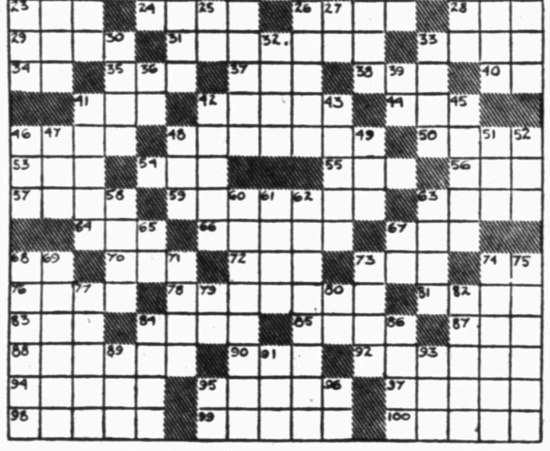

Answer—The organic minerals out of which bones are formed are found principally in the following foods: Spinach, lettuce, cabbage, Swiss chard, turnips, asparagus, tomatoes, celery, cucumbers, beet greens, figs, lemons, oranges, milk and egg yolks.

Removing Hardened Ear Wax

Question: Mrs. J. asks—"Will you please tell me what is the safest way to remove hardened ear wax from my little boy's ears?"

Answer—The safest way is to have the ear wax removed by an ear specialist as almost any method you can use at home holds the danger of producing infection in the ear. The ear wax may be softened by mixing equal amounts of glycerine and olive oil, putting a few drops in the ear, and closing the opening with a cotton plug.

ELECTRA DEFEATS CASHION TO FORCE PLAYOFF IN RACE

TIGERS DOWN CATS 26-17

Harrold and Vernon Win In Wilbarger Tourney

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Electra Tigers defeated the favored Cashion Cats here tonight 27 to 17 to win the Wichita county basket ball tournament.

The Tigers and Cats will tangle again on the court here Friday night, opening a series for the county championship. Cahion, having emerged victorious in a series of round robin play, was given the odds to win Wednesday night's contest from Electra, which was not a member of the round robin league.

In the tourney play, the Tigers took the contest with comparative ease and maintained a scoring lead throughout. Cashion's attack was weakened heavily by the recent illness of Rutledge, star forward, who played but half of the game. The game of both teams, however, suffered from illness of members.

McDannald, Electra guard, gathered in the largest accumulation of points. He managed to drop four field goals through the basket and made good one free toss. His closest competitor for honors was D. Neely, Cat guard, who counted up eight points with four field goals.

The Cat offensive gained as the contest progressed, but failed to overcome a first-quarter lead of the Tigers. Electra stayed in the clear throughout. Scores by quarters were: first, 8 to 2; second, 17 to 7; third, 20 to 15, and fourth, 26 to 17.

TOURNEY OPENS IN WILBARGER COUNTY

Special to The Record News.

OKLAUNION, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Harrold Hornets and Vernon Lions were winners in the first round of the Wilbarger county class A basket ball tournament played at the Oklaunion High school gymnasium Wednesday night. The Harrold quintet defeated the Five-in-One cagers, 43 to 6, in the first game and Vernon defeated Oklaunion, 45 to 24, in the second game. The class A title will be decided in a game at Oklaunion Friday night, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

The Oklaunion gymnasium was packed by more than 900 fans for the two games with the aisles and all available room filled.

H. Neilson, forward, and Nixon, guard, of the Harrold Hornets dominated the court during a slow game with Five-in-One. The Vernon-Oklaunion clash created greater interest but fans were impressed with the possibilities for the Vernon-Harrold championship game on Friday night.

The Odell and Fargo High schools are tied for first place as a result of round robin play in the class B division, and are scheduled to play this week, probably Friday, to decide the title. The winner of the Fargo-Odell match will meet the Vernon-Harrold winner to decide the county title for both class A and B. This game is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 13, by interscholastic league rules.

Freshmen Down Sophs In Game at College

The Junior college freshmen followed up their 6 to 0 victory in Wednesday afternoon on the Junior college court by trouncing the Sophomores 37 to 17 in the first game of the series between the two teams. The second game of the series will be played early next week.

Brandenberry, Freshman guard, was the high point man of the day with six field goals and two charity tosses for a total of 14 points. Second place scoring honors went to Bridges of the same team, who ecored five times from the court for 10 points. Allen, Freshman center, accounted for eight more of the points. Red Massey, Sophomore forward, scored seven points to lead the scoring for that team.

Coyotes Swamp Henrietta Five 55-8 to Annex 16th Victory

At the expense of the scrappy little Henrietta high school Bearcats the Wichita Falls Coyote basketeers registered their 16th win in a row Wednesday night on the Junior college gym floor by the impressive score of 55 to 8. The team never clicked better than it did in its wild third quarter when no less than 28 points were registered in machine gun fashion.

Captain Bob Brandon was the outstanding scorer of the night with eight goals from the court and one charity pitch. Oran Janeway and Norvin Presley with nine points ranked second while Harold Reeves ranked next with eight points. Bragg, Henrietta forward, was the only man to score more than once on the Coyotes, he registered two field goals for half the Bearcat score.

The Coyotes broke away to an early lead and at the end of the quarter the score was 12 to 2 with Reeves registering half the scores and Brandon taking care of four more.

The second quarter proved to be more of a rapid session of floor play with the two Coyote guards, Ed Greenwood and Oran Janeway, playing some sensational defensive ball. In this quarter the Coyotes could score only five points and Henrietta scored twice for four points.

After the intermission at the half, the Coyotes started their furious march to victory and piled up 28 points to two for Henrietta in this session. The Coyotes shot goals with regularity with Brandon accounting for 10 of the 28 points. Norvan Presley scored three times for six points, Janeway and Greenwood scored twice and Reeves and Thompson each scored once. The score at the end of the quarter was 45 to 8.

Playing second and third stringers in the last quarter, the Coyotes scored only 10 points, but Henrietta was never able to hit the basket in this closing period. In this quarter Janeway looped one of his several long shots and a free throw while Brandon did the same, and Larry Mundy put the finishing touches to the scoring of the evening by tossing in two from the floor.

VOLLEYBALL TITLE

MANKINS, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Archer county round robin schedule was won by the Mankins girls in the volley ball race and the tournament will be held Thursday evening at Megargel beginning at 5 o'clock. Only four teams are to compete in the games. They are Mankins, Holliday, Geraldine and Megargel.

Army Poloists Ride To Victory Over Wichitans

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 10. (AP)—Three polo matches this afternoon sent the elimination 2-goal event of the ninth annual southwestern midwinter tournament into the semifinals.

Fort Sam Houston rode down a six goal handicap to defeat Wichita Falls 12-11 on Harbord field.

Air corps training center of Kelly field, favored with a gift goal by handicap, defeated the Houston Huisaches 6-5 in the first game of a double-header on Brackenridge park field. In the second game Austin overcame a one-goal handicap to defeat San Antonio 7-5.

In the semifinals the Air Corps will play the Austin four in the upper bracket while Fort Sam Houston and the San Angelo Rainbows will play in the lower bracket, the Rainbow previously having defeated the Fort Sam Houston Freebooters 11-4.

Jean Places Second In Olney Playoff

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Feb. 10.—Jean assumed undisputed right to second place in the north half interscholastic basket ball race of Young county here tonight by virtue of a 29 to 21 win over Bitter Creek.

The two teams were tied for second place and by agreement played the game Wednesday to settle the position on the basket ball scale.

Olney High school quintet will play Murray Thursday night at Eliasville in the first of two out of three games for the county championship. The second game will be played Friday at Olney. If a third game is necessary selection of the court will be determined by a toss up.

Gibens, Jean center, was high point man of the game tonight.

JACK IS NOT KIDDING JACK

Mauler Admits He's Not At Top Speed

CLEVELAND, Feb. 10. (AP)—Jack Dempsey is having a lot of fun on the comeback trail but he "isn't kidding himself."

Arriving here today for his bout tomorrow night with K. O. Christner, the former heavyweight champion is hopeful but not seriously concerned about regaining the throne he lost to Gene Tunney in 1926.

He could go 10 rounds, "but not at top speed," he admitted. "I'm hoping that I'll be able to challenge the best of them by summer but I'm not kidding myself or the public until I'm sure I'll be able to go the distance without breathing spells."

The old adventure is gone but he's getting a new thrill.

"One-night stands, taking on all comers and building for something bigger," he said, "it's fun. Hopping about from place to place. That's the life I like."

Fidgety as always, the old mauler appeared a little proud of a slight cut over his eye, received Monday night at Milwaukee in bouts with two opponents.

"That's my badge," he grinned. "If you're a fighter you got to have something to show for it."

Invitation Tourney on At Goree Thursday

Special to The Record News.

GOREE, Texas, Feb. 10.—An invitation basket ball tournament that promises the most exciting games of the season to be played in this section of the state, will be played in Goree Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Teams of the Brazos Valley league and Roby from Fisher county and Rochester from Haskell county will enter the contest.

The first round to be played Thursday show the following games: Benjamin vs. Sunset; Munday vs. O'Brien; Rochester vs. Weinert; Goree vs. Roby.

Trophies for the first and second team will be awarded and a trophy for the best team in the consolation match.

Burk Cagers to Meet Highland Hts. Baptists

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Feb. 10.—The Highland Heights Baptist basket ball team of Wichita Falls will play the Burk Independent cagers on the Fairview High school court next Wednesday night. The independent team has been unusually successful this year in games with both high school and other teams. They overturned the Petrolia Gassers in a return game at Fairview Monday night by a score of 35-10, after being badly defeated by them last month.

Pratt Counts 16 Vets On Buccaneer Club And Looks For Smooth Sailing

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

GALVESTON, Feb. 10.—The Galveston baseball ship, with 16 veteran Buccaneers on deck, hopes for smoother sailing on its 1932 Texas league pennant voyage.

Manager Del Pratt is far from being moody as he plans this year's campaign at Moody stadium. He listed 30 players when his roster was requested. Some are inexperienced sandlotters without a ghost of a chance. Others are spring prospects from smaller minor leagues. Others are veterans of Texas league baseball summers.

Del believes this is his "up there" year.

Galveston's returning pitchers are Edgar Carroll, Russell Cromer, Jas. J. Ryan, Art Seydler, C. O. Thurman, and Henry Thormahlen.

Fair Mound Staff

Right quick you will probably agree that Pratt's pitching outlay isn't half bad. Some of these holdovers won the majority of their 1931 games. Seydler won 8 and lost 6; Cromer won 6 and lost 5; Thurman won 11 and lost 11; Thormahlen won 9 and lost 9; Carroll won 2 and lost 12.

Pratt expects to land another good southpaw in addition to Thormahlen and perhaps another good right hander from some major league club spring camp.

Other returning veterans include Harvey Ballew, infield and outfield; R. C. Bell, outfield; Larmon Cox, outfield; William McGhee, infield; Gene Rye, outfield; John Rizzo, outfield; Ed Speer, outfield; Jake Wilson, third base, and Keith Molesworth, shortstop.

Frank Tubbs from the Oklahoma City team of the Western league is expected to iron out catching difficulties. Edgar C. Skelton from Shawnee, Okla., and E. L. Hoffman from Kingsville, Texas, are other catching prospects. Hoffman is a sandlotter.

Sidney Cohen, a southpaw first-baseman of several years minor league experience, has been purchased to play first. Cohen is a nice fielder and a timely hitter. He once had a tryout with Wichita Falls.

Harvey Ballew, who can play infield or outfield, is due to be the regular second baseman. Ballew was a Galveston mainstay in 155 games last season. He batted .284 and fielded .958.

The shortstop position is cut and dried unless a sensation is uncovered in spring training. Galveston fans like the way Keith Molesworth takes care of the shortfield position.

He played in 161 games last year. He batted .272 and fileded .920.

Test for Jake Wilson

Jake Wilson, who revealed promise of developing into a brilliant fielder but left a lot to be desired at the plate, is to get another chance as the regular third baseman. If he can start whamming the ball, Pratt's third base worries will be in the past. Jake fielded .934 and batted .198 in 89 games last season. Pratt played third a few games last season and can step in at the hot corner when ever necessary.

Ed Speer, who has been with Pratt since the old Waco days, is slated for centerfield. Speer is a great ball hawk but batted only .232 last year. Pratt thinks Speer will eventually develop into a major leaguer.

R. C. Bell is another outfield fixture and a good one.

Bell played 104 games last year, batted .273 and fielded .982.

Larmon Cox, hard clouting lefthander, will be the other pasture guardian if he reports. He batted .276 last season as a member of Fort Worth and Galveston clubs.

Cox is conducting a hat store at San Antonio and is not anxious to report. He has requested Pratt to trade him to some other team.

If Cox proves a holdout, John Rizzo will probably be the other outfielder. Rizzo finished with a batting average of .278.

Grovo Makes Bow As Promoter In Week's Mat Card

Whitey Grovo, one of the most popular wrestlers ever brought to Wichita Falls, starts out this week in the new role of promoter, by bringing to Wichita Falls one of the top notchers in the business in Paul Orth, the Toledo Terror. Grovo said it was his desire to bring to this city some of the best in the business and the signing of Orth for the feature match this week is an impressive start.

The new promoter has another reason for bringing in Orth this week, and that is to find a man to beat Russian George Ligosky, a task which the promoter himself failed to do last week in their grudge battle of fists.

Orth has a reputation for being a tough one to beat, and one Grovo assures the fans will be "double tough" for the Russian.

On the semifinal bout Grovo will present Silent Condell, the deaf and dumb Scotchman, who in his several matches here has proven popular. Condell's opponent will be another newcomer to Wichita Falls fans, Eddie Kanthe, who has been gaining quite a name for himself of late in other wrestling centers.

There will also be a preliminary match between Curly Pink, the Electra middleweight, and Cyclone Clemmons of Denver, Colo.

U. S. BOB SLED TAKES TITLE

Stevens Grabs Honors in Record Run

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 10. (AP)—A flash of almost unbelievable speed, gave Hubert Stevens, brawny iron-armed woodsman, the Olympic bob sled championship today, the United States its fifth Olympic triumph, and 12,000 persons strewn about the rocky sides of Mount Van Hoevenberg the thrill of a lifetime.

Eclipsing everything that ever has been done before on a bob run, accomplished what he thought himself was impossible, Stevens twice flashed down the vertical curves and lightning straightways of the mile and a half chute under two minutes, to make up the 4.28 seconds he spotted Reto Capadrutt yesterday and beat the Swiss youngster for the title by 1.54 seconds.

Stevens' total time for the four runs was 8 minutes, 14.74 seconds and Capadrutt's 8:15.28. Jack Heaton and Robert Minton, defending the Olympic title for the United States, were third with 8:29.15, almost 15 seconds back of the winner. Lieutenant Papana's Roumanian team finished fourth. Hans Kilian of Germany, fifth; Count Rossi di Montelera of Italy, sixth; Wrner Huth of Germany, seventh; Agostino Lafranchi, Italy, eighth; Max Houben, Belgium, ninth; Christian Hansez, Belgium, tenth; Louis Balsan, France, 11th and Hugo Weinstengel, Austria, 12th.

Stevens' conquest completely overshadowed the triumph of Sweden in the 18 milometers ski running race, which also formed half of the combined running and jumping event that ends tomorrow on the tall intervals Olympic jump. Sven Uttestrom, world champion at 50 kilometers, raced home first in one hour, 23 minutes, 7 seconds, dethroning Johann Grottumsbraaten of Norway, 1928 Olympic title holder.

Today's victories added to the already large margin the United States holds in the unofficial point score, lifting the total to 72. Canada has 33 points, Sweden 20, Norway 17, Austria 10, Finland 10, Switzerland 5, Germany 4, Rumania 3 and Italy 1.

Mankins Takes Title In Archer Schedule

MANKINS, Texas, Feb. 10.—In a fast and furious contest, the Megargel Bluebirds bested the Mankins Owls Tuesday night on the Valley View court by the score of 25 to 24. The victory gave Megargel the round robin crown for Archer county.

Both teams played a hard and fast game all the way with the score close from start to finish. A field goal for Megargel in the last 10 seconds of play provided the winning margin. Cockrell, of Megargel and Parks, fast Mankins forwards, tied for high point honors with 10 points. In the eight games played in the round robin contests, Parks has a total of 100 points to his credit. The finals of the Archer county tournament will be held on the Megargel court Feb. 12 and 13.

Quanah Sunday School Cage League Formed

QUANAH, Texas, Feb. 10.—Basket ball teams have been formed by the various Sunday schools in Quanah, the first game being scheduled for Thursday night, Feb. 11, at the Travis gym between the Baptist and Presbyterian quintets. The Baptists have two complete teams. Methodists will name positions soon. A round robin schedule will be drawn up in near future.

"He's trying to be fair"

MR. CARLTON is a straight-forward business man—never did an unfair thing in his life. He wants to give responsible people a real hearing—because he asks the same treatment for his own men. But in this interview his attention wanders. He can't give the salesman a "break." In a vague sort of way he's wondering why the visitor isn't a bit more careful about shaving. A straggly bit of stubble here and there has spoiled the caller's chances.

It is possibly a bit unfortunate that a clean shave is considered so important. Many men avoid close, frequent shaving because of discomfort. They don't know that the blade Gillette offers today makes shaving easy and agreeable. Beyond question—this is the sharpest blade we have ever produced. Prove this on our guarantee. Buy a package of Gillette blades and try one. If they don't measure up to your expectations—if every shave isn't amazingly clean and pleasant—return the package to your dealer and he'll refund the entire purchase price.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Feb. 10. (AP)—Cotton was lower today under selling attributed largely to liquidation of old long accounts which were thought to have been discouraged by the recent action of securities and some of the other commodity markets.

After selling off to 6.63 for May, or about 10 points net lower, the market rallied slightly on covering, but weakened again in the late trading under a renewal of liquidation and a little southern selling. May closed at 6.63 with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 10@12 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 3@7 points under a renewal of the liquidation which made its initial appearance late yesterday. Combined with this was local and southern selling which may have been promoted by the relatively easy Liverpool cables.

Prices eased off to 6.45 for March and 7.02 for October or about 9@12 points net lower, after which the pressure subsided. There was further trade buying on the decline. October made a new low for the day on the decline, closing at 7.01.

Liverpool cables reported hedging and local liquidation with speculation dormant in that market, and said there were fair sales of cotton cloths to the British home trade and the continent. Exports today 45,471 making 5,362,821 so far this season. Port receipts 35,405. U. S. port stocks 4,819,950.

Futures closed barely steady, 10 to 12 points lower. Spot steady; middling, 6.55.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 10. (AP)—The cotton market was more active today and prices took a downward slant, reaching at one time levels nearly a dollar a bale below the previous close.

The opening was 9@10 points down in readjustment with the decline in New York yesterday while the market here was closed. Prices continued to ease off with weakness in stocks and at the lowest near noon, showed losses of 17@18 points.

There was a slight rally of 3@4 points at the end on covering and the market closed steady at net declines for the day of 13@14 points.

The market opened active but easier. Liverpool cables were about 2 penny points worse than due. Liverpool cables stated that there was hedging and local liquidation with speculation dormant. Manchester cabled fair cloth sales both to the home trade and the continent.

May closed at 6.65, down 1 point net for the day and July closed at 6.82 down 13 points net.

Liverpool is due tomorrow on New Orleans 1 penny point up.

Port receipts 24,395; for week 153,715; for season 7,894,450; last season 7,756,939. son 5,260,908; last season 4,550,041. Port Exports 45,471; for week 144,506; for season stock 4,847,587; last year 4,167,694. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 194,575. Last year 79,835. Spot sales at southern markets 20,225; last year 15,397.

Futures closed steady at net declines of 13 to 14 points:

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 10. (INS)—Spots cotton was in moderate demand at the opening today, with prices ruling easier. Receipts 11,000 bales.

At midday, middling fair was quoted at 6.55d; strictly good middling at 6.10d; good middling at 5.70d; strictly middling at 5.60d; middling at 5.55d; strictly low middling at 5.45d; low middling at 5.35; strictly good ordinary at 5.15d; good ordinary at 4.85d.

Futures were steady with March at 5.22d; May at 5.22d; July at 5.23d; October at 5.27d.

CHICAGO COTTON

CHICAGO, Feb. 10. (AP)—Chicago cotton market was easy today and final prices were 6 to 11 points net lower. With cables a shade lower than due and lower sterling exchange, opening prices at Chicago were unchanged to 5 points down. May broke to 6.73 and October to 7.04. Then a slight recovery was scored. The market weakened again in the afternoon and closed barely steady. The easiness was attributed to March liquidation and scattered commission house selling. Early irregularity in securities and a lower opening in the grain market likewise contributed to the decline. Trade advices indicate a slackening in demand for spots offset in part by light offerings. The buying basis remains steady.

Rail Shares Lead Stocks In Feeble And Futile Effort To Rally Market

By BROADAN WALL
Universal Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Stocks made a feeble effort to rally today, but only in the Rails was improvement sustained to the close.

At the same time, declines again were limited in the great majority of stocks to minor fractions.

Once during the session, one of the most popular "averages" for industrial stocks slumped to a brand new low, as did Utilities, but Rails held modestly above the former bottom.

Ability of the market to recover somewhat from the old lows in all three groups encouraged traders somewhat, but it is quite obvious that one day's test can hardly suffice. As a matter of fact, the best friends of the market are not anxious for any substantial rally from prevailing prices, especially if such rally must be predicated on purely professional basis. They are quite content to see, simultaneously with extreme dullness in trading, stability of quotations. This in itself will work to the advantage of the market, since it will demonstrate absence of pressing liquidation.

Yet, it will be possible during such a dull spell to eradicate whatever additional impediments to eventual recovery might still exist.

Net gain for the railroad division on the day may reflect nothing more than technical factors, but rallies in the rails did induce covering in various stocks. Such demand undoubtedly contributed to the irregular closing.

In the news of the day, lower car loadings, unfavorable January auto sales statistics, adverse dividend items, there was no occasion for optimism.

Prevailing dullness, while unwelcome to brokers, nevertheless is heartening to those interests who are chiefly concerned with stemming the tide of deflation and liquidation.

No sudden about-turn is to be experienced until the process of deflation first is halted. A lengthy convalescence may be necessary even after the downward swing is overcome.

During such an era of quietness genuine accumulation would be undertaken, on the theory that nervous selling has been discouraged and that the market truly had reached a "bottom."

For a period today, the market showed signs of entering a fair-sized recovery, but its improvement seemed checked with announcement that the Eastman Kodak directors had eliminated the extra dividend of 75 cents quarterly paid for some time.

This action seemingly inaugurated another light selling wave and caused cancellation of earlier gains in many stocks.

Consolidated Gas suffered particularly from this renewal of selling dropping to new low ground on questioning of safety of its $4 dividend rate. The company earned the dividend almost by 25 per cent margin last year, but because of "policy" the dividend may be lowered, according to the latest advices. This is the first time during the business depression that the safety of the gas dividend has been questioned.

Another important influence is growing knowledge that demand for lowered public utility rates is gaining ground, with the possibility of public campaigns. Public Service of New Jersey joined Consolidated Gas in its setback. North American lost more than a point.

Stocks which seemed favored by short covering included American Telephone, Steel, General Motors, and New York Central.

Auburn lost an additional three points.

Trans-America rallied a half-point. The major influence in the railroad group was the understanding that the Union Pacific directorate may pay the present quarterly dividend at today's meeting.

Union rallied several points on this report and helped stimulate other rails.

Official price of copper was established at six cents a pound, a new low price for all time.

Throughout the day, the report was heard that a "favorable statement" was impending from Washington. No details were forthcoming, but presumably reference was made to possible broadening of federal reserve eligibility regulations. This can mean only a degree of inflation.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 10. (AP)—Broadening of North American wheat export business, together with predictions of a new cold wave, had a bracing effect on the grain markets today.

Estimates of wheat bought from Canada and the United States for overseas shipment this week were placed at 3,500,000 bushels all but 600,000 of which were Canadian. Forecasts of much lower temperatures in northwestern states caused a return of anxiety that adverse conditions would develop over the winter wheat belt and bring about crop damage.

Wheat closed firm at the day's top level, ⅛@⅜c over yesterday's finish, corn ¼@⅜c up, oats unchanged to ⅛@¼c off, and provisions varying from 12 cents decline to 5 cents advance.

Corn and oats rallied with wheat, but not until corn had established a new low price record for the season.

Despite upturns in hog values, provisions touched the bottommost prices since 1897, a result of scattered selling and of laggard demand.

Closing indemnities—Wheat, May 57⅛@⅜c, 58⅛@⅜c; July 57⅞@58c, 59⅝@59¼c; Sept. 59½c, 60⅜@½c. Corn, May 37⅞@38c; 38½@⅝c; July 40¼c, 40¾c.

PIT NOTES

CHICAGO, Feb. 10. (US)—Although the oversold position in the wheat pit was chiefly responsible for the upturn today, bearish sentiment was not quite so pronounced at the close. The better foreign news and indications that buying was the best in nearly two weeks made shorts apprehensive, particularly in view of the holiday Friday.

Broomhall says: "There is talk in the trade that the United States will be obliged to compete with the southern hemisphere this season for the purpose of disposing of increasing quantities of wheat being carried on the farms and in elevators. It has been customary to allow Argentina and Australia to sell the bulk of their crops before America tried to enter the export market, but in this way the other countries are able to dispose of their wheat, although perhaps at lower prices, while the United States is often forced to carry a large balance into the new season. Some time or other this ever-accumulating surplus will have to be broken up and either exported or distributed amongst consumers at home."

The same authority says: "It is important to notice that Russia and Rumania are no longer offering wheat for prompt shipment as these countries were largely instrumental in causing the slump in grain prices."

NEW PRORATION PLAN ADOPTED

New Reduction Made For Flush Wells

At a meeting of Jack Elliott, deputy supervisor of the railroad commission, and the proration advisory committee of the North Texas Oil and Gas association, held in the offices of the Bridwell Oil company Wednesday a revision of the present method of proration of the wells in the district was announced.

The change was made in an effort to reduce the allowable of 45 per cent of the oil produced from the new flush production from the deeper wells and to protect the 10 barrel allowable takings from marginal wells, to conform with the rules of the railroad commission. Following is the new plan as received by the operators of the district:

"Under our present method of proration, which is not in conformity with the railroad commission's regulations, the operators in this district by mutual agreement are running the marginal allowance or 45 per cent of their production whichever is the highest. Mr. Elliot advises the correct application of the rule is to first deduct the marginal barrels then apply the proration factor to the result and add to that amount the marginal barrels in arriving at the total allowable. To illustrate: If a lease is making 100 barrels per day from four wells, first deduct the 40-barrel marginal allowance. If the factor is 20 per cent, the additional allowance would be 20 per cent of 60 barrels or 12 barrels, or a total allowable of 52 barrels, which in this particular instance would be more than under our present flat rate of 45 per cent allowable.

"We have 12,042 barrels of proratable production with room for only 2,983 barrels, or 24.7 per cent of the whole. Mr. Elliott proposes to use the 20 per cent factor on the above basis in his new schedule which becomes effective Feb. 16, and a resolution was unanimously adopted at the meeting approving this procedure. However, we will continue in addition to the above the present Sunday shutdown or a further reduction of one-seventh of our total monthly runs, marginal or otherwise. The above arrangement will place an additional burden on new or flush leases with a limited number of wells, representing, however, only five per cent of the total wells in the district.

"This program becomes necessary due to the fact that the pipe line companies will not take sufficient oil to permit an allowable in excess of that shown in attached statement, lease one-seventh. Some of the major purchasing companies represented at our meeting indicated that no further reductions are anticipated at this time and believed that within 60 or 90 days an improvement may be expected.

Phone Your Classified Ads to

Our courteous ad taker will receive your Classified Ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the next day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for the convenience of our patrons in transacting business over the telephone.

Classified Ad patrons desiring to have ads charged must have a telephone listed in their own name. No book record is made by the publishers on account of the great number of transactions, hence the necessity of collecting promptly.

Correction of errors in Classified Ads must be made before the second insertion. No allowance will be made for more than one incorrect insertion.

Cancellations and adjustments regarding errors should be telephoned to the Classified Ad department between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

Ads accepted for afternoon paper up until 11 a. m. same day.
Morning paper up to 6 p. m. for the following morning.
Sunday paper up to 7 o'clock Saturday night.
Same copy in both papers.

THE CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT IS OPEN ON SUNDAYS
from 4 to 6 p. m. and telephone orders for classified ads to be inserted or to be discontinued will be accepted.

Exceptions: Want Ads will be accepted over the telephone for all excepting the following classifications: Situations Wanted and Wanted to Rent. Ads for these classifications are cash with the order and will not be accepted over the telephone.

The Times reserves the right to classify all Classified Ads under the appropriate headlines and to revise or to withhold from publication any ads deemed objectionable.

To Buy or Sell Farm Stock

THE prudent farmer transacts his sales through the Classified Columns of these TWO newspapers in the "FOR SALE" Classifications. He knows where his market place is (at least the WISE Farmer does), and that the cost to reach the entire reading audience of these TWO Daily newspapers is very small. Experience has taught the seller that a well written Classified WANT AD will bring him cash buyers for Poultry, Stock and Farm Equipment. Likewise, the seeker of stock DAILY watches the Classified WANT ADS, for he knows that the "BEST LIVESTOCK BUYS" are listed FIRST in these TWO newspapers, before it appears in any other newspaper in Northwest Texas or Southwestern Oklahoma.

Services Thursday For Dr. Rodda

Final rites for Dr. Fannie M. Rodda, 50, will be held at the family residence, 808 Brook avenue, at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The Rev. E. H. Coburn, pastor of the Petrolia Methodist church, will officiate and burial will follow at Riverside directed by the J. A. Tanner & Son Undertaking Co. of Iowa Park. Dr. Rodda died at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. Rodda had been a resident of Wichita Falls three years, coming here from Iowa Park where she resided for five years.

The Wichita Falls Order of the Eastern Star will be in charge of rites at the cemetery.

Survivors are her husband, Dr. H. J. Rodda; a son, Lewis Rodda of Galveston; and her mother, Mrs. Angie Honeyman of San Benito, Calif.

27 Stamford Students Make Honor Roll Grades

Special to The Record News.
STAMFORD, Texas, Feb. 10.—Through a new system of recognition, members of the high school student body with records of eight points during the semester, are considered honor pupils. Seven members of the senior class, two juniors, six sophomores and 12 freshmen qualified for this honor in the first semester.

According to this ranking, an "A" grade counts three points, B grade counts two points and a C grade one point. To be eligible for the honor roll, pupils carrying four subjects must earn a total of eight honor points during the period.

Seniors thus recognized this week for the past semester's work are Marie Freer, Maxine Rowland, Norma York, Claude Caudle, Viola Kennedy, Mary Louise Kinard, and Maxine Wheeler; juniors listed are Willie Cleone White and Charlie Frank Williams; sophomores are Glenna Mae Compton, Earline Waggoner, Denzil Davis, Doris Hattox, Theda Moore and Dorothy Rector; freshma nincluded are Mary Alice Abbott, Paul Dobyns, Tony Selmon, Lillian Yates, Joan Bailey, Elizabeth Cundiff, Raymond Austin, Margaret Mason, Ina Mae Rye, Theresa White, Neal Walton, and Christine Wells.

Jack County Hermit Eats Off Coffin

90-Year-Old War Veteran Awaits End

JACKSBORO, Texas, Feb. 10. (UP)—Albert Schnocke, eccentric Texas hermit, expects to eat his 90th birthday dinner soon, from dishes spread on his own coffin. The experience will not be new to him, however, for he has been using the coffin as a dining table now for eight years.

Schnocke, a Union veteran of the civil war, was born in Paris, France, in 1842, but has lived near Perrin, in Jack county, for nearly 60 years. Eight years ago he bought his own coffin in Perrin and rode back home upon it. Since then, it has reposed in its box in his one-room house, in a corner opposite his bed.

One end is stacked with canned goods and the other serves as a dining table. Schnocke displays no hesitation in explaining the coffin's ultimate use and appears to be rather proud of it.

"That's to put me in when I'm dead," he explains in his guttural, French-accented English. The coffin table is only one of his odd possessions. Until the infirmities of advancing age forced his retirement, he tended his cattle and farmed, clad only in a burlap sack with holes for his arms and neck.

He lived one winter on parched corn, prickly pear apples and milk, slept for 25 years on two cow skins before he bought a bed and until this day has never used artificial lights in his cabin. He goes to bed at sundown and rises at sunup.

Resignation Of Foard County Commissioners' Court Demanded

Special to The Record News.
CROWELL, Texas, Feb. 10.—One hundred citizens of Foard county demanded the resignation of the commissioners court in a resolution adopted at a meeting here Monday.

Resignation of commissioners were demanded after that court refused to comply with the citizenship group's request for a reduction of 33 per cent in tax renditions. The court bargained for a 25 per cent reduction, but the citizenship group refused this offer of mediation. In turn, taxpayers offered a compromise, in which it was asked that the court reduce renditions 20 per cent with no increase in tax rates. The court refused.

Demands were made of the court as the result of a series of earlier group meetings in various communities of the county. A meeting of the entire citizenship of the county is called for Feb. 27 at Crowell.

Members of the court thus far have taken no action and have made no statements in connection with the demand for their resignations.

HARDEMAN CITIZENS DEMAND CUT IN EXPENSES

Special to The Record News.
QUANAH, Texas, Feb. 10.—Demanding reductions in county expenses, a petition signed by 100 Hardeman county farmers was given the commissioners court at its meeting here Monday.

The petition sought the reduction of salaries of county officials, discontinuance of services of the county agent and county home demonstration agent, and the reduction of county expenses in a manner to meet with "condition of the times."

The signed request was presented the court by T. O. Kestersid, who also entered complaint against tax rates.

Commissioners point out that the petition was signed by men most of whom resided in one precinct, and action was delayed by the court until such a time as the viewpoint of the entire county can be obtained.

Election Judges Named at Vernon

Special to The Record News.
VERNON, Texas, Feb. 10.—When the commissioners court named election judges for the 23 precincts Tuesday, one of the first formal steps in the 1932 general election in Wilbarger county was taken.

To be in charge of the general elections for the next two years, they will not preside over the primaries, as officials for that purpose are named by the Democratic executive committee.

No requests from the Republican party organization in the county were received by the officials, although such requests were in order.

Friends of Iowa Park Man Give Farewell Party

Special to The Record News.
IOWA PARK, Texas, Feb. 10.—B. J. Seale, who is leaving this week for Henderson, Texas, where he is employed, was entertained with a leap year party at the home of Miss Faye McKinney Tuesday evening. Bridge and 42 were enjoyed and refreshments were served to the following couples: Marion Hayes and Albert May, Thea McMillan and Vernon Cowart, Chida Kildow and Hurley Seale; Thelma Morgan and Cleburne Maier, B. J. Seale and Mary Emma Boyd, Neal Monroe and the hostess, Alice Faye McKinney. A color scheme of red and white was featured in valentine motifs.

Traffic Experts to Attend Grain Meeting

J. B. Kocher, traffic manager of the Wichita Mill and Elevator company, and Dudley B. Foy, chamber of commerce traffic manager, plan to leave early Thursday morning for Fort Worth, where they will attend a meeting of Texas grain shippers. The meeting has been called to determine what steps the shippers will take in view of the reopening of the western grain rate case because of changed economic conditions. The Interstate Commerce commission announced the reopening of the case on Tuesday.

Weaver Home Burns With Loss of $3,500

A loss of $3,500 was reported following a blaze at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of Floyd D. Weaver, 2113 Fillmore street. Origin of the fire was attributed to defective wiring. Members of the household were asleep at the time and the youngest girl of the family gave the alarm. Some clothing was saved from the blaze. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

More than a score of former Florida athletes now hold coaching jobs in the state.

PETERSBURG C-C BANQUETS

Shipments of Farm Produce Heavy, Report Says

Special to The Record News.
PETERSBURG, Texas, Feb. 10.—About 200 members and guests of the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce attended that organization's annual banquet here Tuesday night.

Features of the event was a musical program, a report of the chamber's accomplishments in the past year by W. C. Foote, re-elected president, and adddresses by several speakers.

Attending the banquet were delegations from Lubbock, Plainview, Floydada, Abernathy and Ralls.

Mr. Foote in his report of activities said that Petersburg had figured largely as a center from which farm products of the county were shipped. Shipments, he said, included 343 cars of wheat, 2,929 bales of cotton, 1,170 tons of cottonseed, 21 cars of cattle, 18 cars of hogs, and about $50,000 in produce. He announced that the town's population in 1931 had increased with the birth of 39 new citizens.

He reported that the Petersburg High school had attained the ranking as a class 4-A school.

The Rev. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the principal speaker of the evening. His address was based on the subject, "Success." Other speakers were R. C. Roussey and Grady Shipp of Plainview; Ray Henson of Abernathy, Homer Stein of Floydada and Dean A. H. Leidigh of Texas Technological college.

Women of the Methodist church served the banquet, which had decorations in the valentine motif. Music was provided by the Abernathy orchestra.

Golf Committee to Hold Meeting Today

A meeting of the invitation golf tournament committee of the Junior chamber of commerce has been called for 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the junior chamber offices. H. G. Hughey Jr., chairman, will preside. A vice chairman and secretary will be elected and subcommittees will be named to work out details connected with the proposed tourney in May which is expected to bring 200 golf players to Wichita Falls.

SPIDER IN AN EGG

DUNCAN, B. C.—The spider that frightened little Miss Muffitt had nothing on the one that gave M. Talbot of Trunk Road a surprise recently. He sat down to his breakfast and topped his egg with a knife. There, inside a small air sack between the shell and meat of the egg, he found a small black spider, he says.

Special to The Record News.
TOLBERT, Texas, Feb. 10.—Announcement was made here recently of the marriage of J. H. Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cobb of Tolbert, to Miss Mary Lee Bryant of Chillicothe. The ceremony took place at Frederick, Okla. Lewis Emrick and Miss Lucille Clines accompanied the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will reside with his parents who live in Farmers Valley.

KEELING GIVEN 5-YEAR TERM

89th Court Hears Pleas in Robbery Cases

Five years in the state penitentiary were imposed by Judge P. A. Martin in the 89th district court Wednesday upon Darrell Lee Keeling in connection with the robbery of the J. C. Dupre grocery, 405 Broad street, last Dec. 4, to which the defendant pleaded guilty.

The court stipulated that the five-year sentence is to run concurrently with a 25-year sentence recently given Keeling in Dallas on a hijacking charge. According to evidence offered by the state, the defendant robbed Mrs. Dupre at the point of a pistol of about $75 cash. Keeling was identified Wednesday by Miss Anne Dupre as the man who committed the robbery.

H. P. Rich, who escaped from the Wichita county jail about four years ago with Tom Shook and three other men, entered pleas of guilty to charges of burglary and assault to murder, receiving a sentence of two years in each case to run concurrently. Rich was indicted for the robbery of a house near Lake Wichita, and for shooting at a city motorcycle officer who was pursuing the defendant in connection with an alleged theft of gasoline.

Willie Wright, Charles Membrey and Robert Porter, negroes charged with burglary about Dec. 10 at the J. B. Whitman grocery on Barwise street, entered pleas of guilty. Each received a suspended sentence of three years. Theft of food followed their going without food for several days, they testified.

A charge of burglary was filed Wednesday against Fred Patterson, negro, who was captured Tuesday night by three boys after his alleged robbery of the Brooks grocery on Avenue E near Harrison. A similar charge was lodged against Everett Bailey, accused of robbing a negro residence last Saturday night.

BOYS CAPTURE NEGRO IN STORE ROBBERY

Football tactics at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning in a dark alley resulted in the arrest of Fred Patterson, negro, on a charge of burglary after the J. H. Brooks grocery and market, 2104 Avenue E, had been entered. Keith and Herman Porterfield made the tackles, downed their man and held him until police arrived to find the boys sitting on top of a yelling negro.

Mrs. H. L. Porterfield, nearby resident, heard the sound of breaking glass as the grocery was entered and called her husband. Mr. Porterfield went to get a gun and left the boys to watch the grocery store. The negro left the store by the window he had entered with a sack of cigarets and about $2 in change. The boys followed and saw their father fall on striking a clothesline and thinking the negro had knocked their father down, they rushed to the attack. Officers said shouts of the negro could be heard some distance as they arrived on the scene.

Burglary charges also were filed Wednesday against Everett Bailey, negro, in connection with the loss of clothing from a negro residence last week.

Police Wednesday investigated two reports of burglaries Tuesday night. Mrs. Henry Hamilton, 1311 Taylor, reported the loss of 50 cents and a purse and Mrs. W. O. Kimmell, 1313 Taylor, reported the rifling of a purse without any loss. The Hamilton home was entered by an unlocked door and the Kimmell home by forcing a window. Occupants of both houses were at home at the time, police said.

Three players on South Carolina's freshman basket ball team were members of the Athens, Texas, high school champions last year.

MARIONETTES HERE TODAY

Two Performances Booked At Junior College

Tony Sarg's marionettes, coming here under the auspices of the Wichita Falls High school and Junior college public speaking departments Thursday, will present two plays, "Alice in Wonderland" in the afternoon and "The Rose and the Ring" in the evening at the college auditorium.

The marionettes give a presentation by a complete company of actors and actresses, eight people, who speak the lines of the plays, but do not appear before the public. Instead they operate the puppets behind the scenes.

The matinee will begin at 3 o'clock. Student admission will be 15 cents. Admission to the evening performance will be 25 and 50 cents. Tickets are now on sale at the main office of the college. Ticket sales are under the supervision of A. K. Presson, college registrar.

Senate Program

Herman Porterfield spoke to the members of the Junior College Senate at their regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening on "Governors of Texas." A brief discussion of current topics followed the talk.

Harry Daugnerty, outgoing president, read the installation services to the new elected officers. These officers, who will serve the remainder of the semester, are Harry Schram, president; S. C. Anthony, vice president; Ford Massey, secretary-treasurer, and Harry Daugherty, sergeant at arms.

Washington Program

A program commemorating the bicentennial anniversary of George Washington was presented at a special high school and college assembly Wednesday. Nann Campbell, student, made the principal talk on Washington.

A clever announcement of the marionette show to be given at the college Thursday was made by William Beeman and Ralph Carr, and Miss Juanita Kinsey, public speaking instructor, told of the history of the marionettes, and how the Tony Sarg company presents them.

Billie Leslie Stimson welcomed the new students to the high school and Junior college.

The earth is at least two thousand million years old, a National Research committee estimates.

RITES SAID FOR JOHN MEADOWS

Final Tributes Paid to Wichita Senior

Final rites for John W. Meadows, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Meadows, 2004 Roberts avenue, were held Wednesday afternoon at Rosemont. Dr. Nat F. Grafton, pastor of the Floral Heights Presbyterian church, and Dr. H. T. Wood, pastor, of the First Christian church, officiated. Burial was directed by the Merkle Undertaking company. The youth died Tuesday night after a short illness. He was a member of the midyear graduating class of the Wichita Falls High school.

Survivors are his parents; a brother, Art Meadows; and two sisters, Mrs. R. B. Havener and Mrs. H. H. Trotter, all of Wichita Falls.

W. T. C. C. Leaders Plan Membership Campaign

Discussions of plans for a 1932 membership campaign for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Wichita Falls were held Wednesday by Maury Hopkins of Plainview, assistant manager of the regional body, with regional directors here. Mr. Hopkins conferred with A. E. Kelly, local chamber of commerce president and regional director, regarding the membership plans and the 1932 program of work.

Mr. Hopkins arrived Tuesday afternoon and plans to remain here through Thursday. Discussions hinged closely on participation of Wichita Falls in the 1932 plans of the regional organization. Orville Bullington, member of the national affairs committee of the West Texas chamber, also conferred with Mr. Hopkins.

The body of Mrs. W. G. Lanier, 55, of Quanah, was sent to Amarillo at 1 o'clock Thursday morning by the Hines mortuary. Mrs. Lanier died Wednesday morning after a brief illness at a local hospital. Funeral arrangements were not available here.

BEEF CANNING

Persons interested in beef canning are invited to attend a demonstration to be conducted at the home of Clyde Blackman in the Ray-Massie addition on the Iowa Park road Thursday, according to Miss Ethel Luise Webb, county home demonstrator. Members of the City View Demonstration club will assist in the work, it was announced.

REGISTRATIONS OF AUTOS DROP

Declines Shown in Counties Of Wichita Area

Automobile registrations in the 26 counties of this section during 1931 fell far below registrations for the preceding year, 1930, according to statistics received here Wednesday. Not one of the 26 counties showed an increase in 1931 over 1930.

The report, however, showed that fully 80 per cent of all counties in the state registered less automobiles in 1931 than in 1930.

A table, showing a comparison of registrations in the 26 counties, follows:

County—	1930	1931	Decrease
Archer	2,588	2,341	247
Baylor	2,098	1,814	184

Spence To Speak At Mineral Wells Junior C-C Meet

Sam Spence of Wichita Falls will be the principal speaker on a program given by the Junior chamber of commerce at Mineral Wells Friday night. The local organization has been invited to attend the installation of officers of the Mineral Wells junior service group and will present discussions of the work of the Wichita Falls chamber by request.

Mr. Spence will discuss "Values Derived From Putting Young Men to Work." Several automobiles are expected to make the trip, Don T. Haynes, president, said Wednesday. The Wichita Falls delegation will be guests at a luncheon at the Baker hotel at 6:30 o'clock with the business meeting set for 8 o'clock.

Reception Committee Of Junior C.-C. Named

George Gardner was announced as chairman of the Junior chamber of commerce reception and convention committee Wednesday. Other members are Morgan Gillum, Larry Schwamb, J. Paul Montgomery, Renfro Lesley, Ewel F. Noe, Bub McKinnon, Irvin J. Vogel and Steve Ford.

JUNIOR C.-C. DIRECTORS

A regular semimonthly meeting of the Junior chamber of commerce directors will be held at noon Thursday at the Wichita club, Don T. Haynes, president, said Wednesday. Routine business is to be considered by the board.

Hot Rivets and Cool Smokes

A rivet missed . . .
And down it hissed
Red hot . . . a danger and a menace.
The foreman said
"Hey, listen, 'Red'—
This ain't no ping-pong game,
nor tennis!

"I seen you cough,
That put you off . . .
An' got yer throwin' hand to jerkin'—
OLD GOLD'S your bet.
A cigarette
You better learn to smoke
while workin'.

"You'll like 'em, sure!
OLD GOLDS are pure
The natural leaf that's smooth as honey.
A dozen packs
Won't cause no hacks
Nor coughs to make yer aim go funny!"

SMOKE PURE-TOBACCO OLD GOLDS
[No "artificial flavors" to scratch the throat or taint the breath . . . Not a cough in a carload!]
