Steve Vest Scampers

Steve Vest, Wolf quarterback, rolls out for a gain as Ricky Parks, guard, wearing number 62, and Skip Maines, fullback, 33, on the ground hunt Tigers. Steve Dilliha, Tiger number 70 dives for Vest as Joe Hale and Barry Welsh, Tiger tackles approach the ball carrier.

Wolves Trim Tigers By 20-14 In Third Victory

Colorado High Wolves whopped Snyder Tigers by 20-14 here Friday night to make it three straight Wolf wins in District AAA.

Picked by area sports writers to lose to the touted Tigers, Wolves did a masterful job on both defense and offense to trim the Tiger stripes into polka dots.

David Garcia, halfback, Steve Vest, quarterback, and Larry Holder at split end had the overflow crowd in Wolf Stadium howling with glee with touchdowns in first, second, and third stanzas of the game.

Hard-working defense and team effort held the Tigers to 6 points through the first half even when the invaders came un-caged too often for comfort. Game was tense from kickoff to final gun.

Snyder scored first after a flashy run by their fullback, Eddie McClain. Tigers received on the first kickoff but the strong Wolf defense forced Snyder to punt on the first series of downs. In the only Wolf fumble of the whole match, Steve Dilliha recovered for the Tigers.

Tigers swept down the field in two Nays. Then a penalty set Snyder back on its heels at the Wolf 49. Tiger Lee McNair, at quarterback, sent McClain off tackle to zoom into the end zone with 9:03 minutes left in first quarter. Extra point kick was no good but Snyder had 6 points on the scoreboard and had it first.

Determined Wolves took the kickoff which followed with Skip Maines carrying to the 46. Garcia and Maines took time about gaining yards for a 54 yard drive in nine plays.

Vest crossed up Tiger defense by a pass to Larry Holder, split end, who was downed at the one to set up the first Wolf TD. Vest then did a double-cross and sneaked the ball over himself for the first Wolf score.

Cary May made the kick good with 6:32 in the first verse, and the score stood 7-6 in favor of the home team.

Fired-up Wolves never lost the lead again. C-City forced Snyder's Stewart Sims to punt twice more, then took over and in three plays scored again.

Garcia was ball-carrier for all three plays of the 56 yard drive. It was Garcia who went over for the second tally from the Tiger eight. May's kick off to the left and the score stood 13-6 at half time.

Statistics at the half showed Snyder with 123 yards gained. 121 yards gained by McClain. C-City stood 120 yards gained, 97 made rushing. Garcia had 102 yards to his credit at the half on his 13 carries.

After the Wolf kickoff with the wind to sturt third quarter Alfredo Guerrero intercepted a Tiger pass on hird play called and ran 17 yards to the Snyder 33. Tortured Tigers got mad and got tough on defense and it took Wolves 10 hard-fought tries before they scored again.

Same beautiful pattern of Maines and Grcia carrying before Vest threw telling passes brought victory or the Wolves.

Fourth down ith five yards to go at the Snyder 28 Vest connected with Larry Holder smack over the middle for a first down at the 0.

Six plays later est hit Holder again with third down goal to go at the 13 and Holder hit the end zone. May's kick was good to move the score up to 20-6 with 7:15 to go in third quarter.

Tigers died hard. Fight continued until the clock ran down. Forced to punt after the first series of downs, the Tigers took over on their own 20 when Wolves attempted a field goal from the 41. Try for 3 failed.

Snyder's offense, in the face of their clipping penalty which set them back 15 yards, marched 80 yards on 13 plays and Tiger Randy Levens came up with a 35 yard run for Snyder.

Lone Star Asks For Rate Increase

Lone Star Gas Co. has asked the city of Colorado City to increase local residential and commercial natural gas rates.

Application for the higher rate was filed at City Hall at 3:30 p.m. Friday.

Lone Star spokesman said the rate increase was requested "To enable the company to earn a reasonable rate of return on the fair value of properties used in rendering public service."

J. C. Wilkerson, manager of the Colorado City distribution office, told a Colorado City Record reporter that the company has "Used every means available to avoid a request for rate increases."

News release from the company pointed out that "inflationary pressures not under the company's control necessitated the application to the city."

"Obviously our wish to keep gas rates low must be in balance with the economic pressures we face," said the release.

"These pressures can no longer be offset in any other way," added Wilkerson.

Approval of the company's application would increase the average monthly residential gas bill by $1.43, Wilkerson said.

Lone Star serves approximately 2,100 customers in Colorado City.

Increased cost of gas, higher property and equipment costs, increased wages and salaries, higher interest rates on borrowed money, and increased taxes as primary reasons for what the company terms, "income deficiency," were listed.

Two Burglars Caught Hunt For One Still On

Early morning hours Thursday were on the wild side for Colorado City police.

Two men from Sweetwater wound up in Mitchell County jail charged with burglary of the local Safeway Store.

A third man got away in spite of road blocks and a wide search by law officers from Colorado City and Sweetwater, aided by a helicopter from the Department of Public Safety at Midland, after daylight.

R. J. Self, 39, was arrested fast by Assistant Police Chief Bill Henderson who grabbed Self as he dashed out the front door of Safeway. That was about 12:10 a.m.

Armed with a .22 caliber magnum pistol, Self pulled his gun on Henderson and had it taken away from him by the assistant chief who had drawn his service revoler an instant before when preparing to enter and arrest the intruders. No shots were fired by burglar or Henderson.

Entry to the store was accomplished by prying open the store's front door.

Eldon Veal, 22, one of the two companions to Self who were spotted in the store by Henderson, was arrested about 8:30 a.m. near Truck Town Cafe.

Texas Ranger Gene Graves of Sweetwater caught Veal as the Ranger returned to Colorado City to re-join the search after a 7:30 a.m. meeting he had on his calendar at Roscoe.

Both Self and Veal were jailed. Bond, set at $10,000 each, had not been made Saturday morning.

Self is said by Colorado City Police Department to be the step-father-in-law of Veal. Identity of the third man has not been fully established.

Alertness on the part of Henderson is credited with the interruption of the get-away following the break.

Henderson, said chief Jesse Browning, saw a speed automobile with no occupants and an out-of-county license plate. The blue Mustang was parked at a vacant house the sixth block of Oak St., late Wednesday night. Safeway Store in the 5th block of Oak here.

Check-out with Setwater officers proved the car to be registered to Veal.

Veal, Sweetwater officers told local law enforcement officers, is an ex-convict convicted in New Mexico, Oct. 1, 68, on

Included in the collection, to be used only in the library, are magazines dated as early as 1934 and as late as 1968.

Various interests are representative in the group. CONVERSATION CORNER

AS AN OLD tried and true believer in "time about is fair play," took time to consult the little borrowed quotations volume to see what the great wits had to say about woman—or women.

Mark Twain said, "What, sir, would be people of the earth be without woman? They would be scarce, sir, almighty scarce.'

Phooey to the memory of that Frenchman Alexandre Dumas, the son, who wrote "According to the Bible, woman was the last thing God made. It must have been a Saturday night. Clearly, He was tired."

English writer George Eliot, who happened to be woman, admitted "I'm not denying that women are foolish. God Almighty made them to match men."

THAT coiner of all the funniest and most of the wisest things ever said, the one called Anonymous, gave us this jewel—"If you want to change a woman's mind, agree with her.'

Sharp-tongued Oscar Wilde asked "How can a woman be expected to be happy with a man who treats her as if she were a perfectly natural being?"

How indeed?

John Barrymore, that handsome actor, ladies' man, is said to have opined, "The way to fight a woman is with your hat. Grab your hat and run.'

Anonymous came back with "There's only one way to handle a woman, but nobody knows what it is.'

Michael Arlen, novelist from the 'twenties, took a dim light of woman. "She not only expects the worst, but makes the worst of it when it happens," he wrote, just to get even with some women.

FAVORITE little sayings showed up in old proverbs. "No woman is too bashful to talk scandal," says a proverb from the Dutch.

"The only secrets women keep are those they don't know," says an old proverb credited to the Yugo-Slavic people.

"No mirror ever reflected an ugly woman," an old French proverb goes.

"When a woman has no answer, the sea is empty of water," according to an old German proverb.

"When a beautiful woman smiles, somebody's purse weeps,' says a proverb from the Italian people.

And no matter what you've been led to believe about the humility of Oriental women, a Japanese proverb laments "A woman's tongue is only three inches long, but it can kill a man six feet high."

THAT Japanese proverb may be known to one young man about town who is a husband, and a father.

Seems he got all mixed up. A little girl from his neighborhood was wearing fancy new boots. One of the young man's sons whispered ' She's having a birthday, Dad," and our man about town lost his cool.

He looked at the calendar, saw that it was the 29th, exploded from his easy chair and drove frantically to the drug store. ("She' to any married man usually means the wife.)

Our man bought gift-wrapped presents just before closing time and headed home. He stopped on the way to remind his mother that "She" was having a birthday. "It's the 29th," he urged guiltily and in a hurry.

His mother, being a woman, brought him back to earth. "Her birthday is on the 29th , all right," his mother said, "the 29th of October."

Guess who had to hide the birthday presents at his mother's house when there was yet a month to go?

OH WELL, the little book shows a newspaper, The Arkansas Gazette, as having duly reported "Probably no man ever got so much out of a surgical operation as Adam did."

And that's as good a short editorial as ever came from a printing press.

SEEN LATELYS included Jo Tiller, wife of Johnny, getting beautified for the Wolf-Tiger game. . .Dr. Virginia Berkman and her husband Dr. Elton Berkman hosting the buffet luncheon hour at the Villa for Crickett Hrbacek who moved to Midland. Crickett was here visiting C-City friends for the day.

The beautiful high school girl with long dark hair turned out to be Patti Pattillo, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Pattillo.

Saw Melinda McCloud on East 6th St., too. . .Don Banta on the downtown scene. . .Carl Guelker in the Marshall St. neighborhood.

FAMILIAR FACES various places belonged to Melba Mikle taking her football guesses to the Record. . .Dorothy Jeffrey wearing a becoming beige frock.

Helen and Robert Chambers were a twosome again at the Colorado Drug counter. There, too, was Jackie Coffee Hickman of Loraine and C-City.

Hank Gladdish, now of Abilene, was with an Abilene neighbor named Earl Russell while visiting Walnut St.

Josie (Mrs. Bill) Randle and Mrs. Jess Craddock were spied in a two-way conversation.

HEAR TELL that the Hulls, James, Mary Sue, and son Mike, made a quick trip to C-City from their home at Hereford, Sunday.

After dinner at the B. B. Lee home they visited old friends and neighbors here.

Hear, too, that Mrs. L. D. McKinney received a letter from her nephew Robert Paul Clay, in US Navy training for two weeks now at Orlando, Florida.

Bobby writes his aunt that he was one of four Navy recruits out of 80 permitted time in the writing room. He won that distinction through the simple art of "folding my clothes right."

He is a former Colorado High School student, son of Mrs. Edith Clay of Abilene.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought a chat with Selma Landau, elegant in a blue fall suit. . .and with Danny Fisher here from Odessa.

Wendell Thomas came in with the nice new pastor for Oak Street Baptists, the Rev. Don Timberlake who moved to C-City from Rising Star.

Also looked up to see Mrs. Orvel Griffith. . .Mrs. H. C. Blassingame. . .Don DeLaney. . .and Barbara (Mrs. Carroll) Gray of the public school superintendent's office as secretary to Lloyd McKee.

DID YOU KNOW that Helen Reeves and her husband John, plus son Johnny, went to Lubbock Saturday night?

They were part of the Johnny Carson stage show audience in the Lubbock Coliseum and heard Phyllis McGuire sing, too.

Margaret Easterwood, one of our part-time citizens, was on the spot in a way, all week. Margaret lives in Snyder but works in the Colorado City office for Lone Star Gas Co.

What with the Wolves-Tiger war she was still torn between her two towns. Case of honest divided loyalty.

GONE with the WIN faces at the football game belonged to the Leonard Hendersons, the J. B. Marshalls, the Johnny Tillers, Ann Randle Davis and Lew Shaw.

Saw the Robert Bracys, family of Wolf Stanley Bracy. . . the W. K. Cowans. . .Doyle Kiker. . .Luke Thomas. . .J. A. Sadler, Jr. . .Joe and Gene Coldewey. . .Lena Baumann, son Alan and daughter Anne.

Ida and Maurice Kirschbaum were there yelling for grandson Joe Kirschbaum, fine center for the Wolves, along with Philip and Minna Berman. . .Eddie Piland.

C-City Trio At Cisco

Colorado City is represented by three students among the record 1,040 enrolled at Cisco Junior College in Cisco.

They are Lyneal James, Kerry Campbell and Loner B. Russell.

Announcement of the record enrollment for the current semester was made Wednesday by CJC Registrar, Carroll Scott.

Cisco has the highest total number of students at CJC, Scott said, but Abilene has the highest number of full-time students. Some fifth of Cisco's 159 students are night students taking only one or two courses.

Abilene has 152 enrolled and Eastland is third with 65.

Breckenridge is represented with 64 students.

Twenty-two students from foreign countries attend the junior college.

'Look To The Stars' Theme For Zetagathian Club Study

"Look to the Stars," year's theme for Zetagathian Study Club, was also theme for the group's president's dinner and officer installation in the home of Mrs. Curtis Latimer.

Mrs. L. S. Girvin Jr., outgoing president, welcomed members with symbols of their individual zodiac signs and told humorous influences their signs have each according to birth dates.

She also installed officers presenting each with a book mark of her sign.

Favors were ceramic coffee mugs inscribed with names, individual zodiac signs and symbols.

Installed were Mrs. Latimer, president; Mrs. Billy Wilkinson, vice president; Mrs. Bob Reily, recording secretary; Mrs. John Martin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ann Davis, treasurer; Mrs. Girvin, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Raymond Fuller, reporter.

Following the installation ceremony Mrs. Latimer discussed the club's chosen theme of study and read a poem.

During a business session club members voted to assist with clippings for vertical file at Mitchell County Public Library.

Dinner table was covered with a red cloth and marked by a fall centerpiece, a basket of overturned apples.

At Tupperware Meet

Mrs. Elsa Freeman of Loraine recently attended a Tupperware Assembly meeting in Abilene.

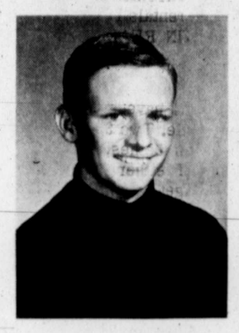

Mrs. Fuller was co-hostess for the evening.

Attending the first meeting of the club this fall were Mrs. Warren Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Craddock Jr., Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Girvin, Mrs. James Jeffrey, Mrs. Larry Kinard, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Wallace Price, Mrs. O. B. Trulock Jr., Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Latimer.

Westbrook NHS Installs Officers

WESTBROOK - Officers for Westbrook National Honor Society were installed in a formal candle lighted ceremony Thursday in Westbrook High School.

Gary Matlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Matlock and a senior at WHS, was installed at 1969-70 president.

GARY MATLOCK

Other chapter officers for the school year are Vickie Hogue, vice president; Sandy Anderson, secretary; Judy Chambers, treasurer; Cindy Richardson, historian, and John Ritchey, reporter.

Carl Kuykendall, high school business teacher, spoke the invocation.

L. M. Dawson, superintendent of schools, was chairman of installation service.

Clyde Hines led the Pledge of Allegiance. The new president presented purpose and aims of NHS chapter and Maxey Ware, school principal, explained methods of new member selection based on scholarship, character, service and leadership.

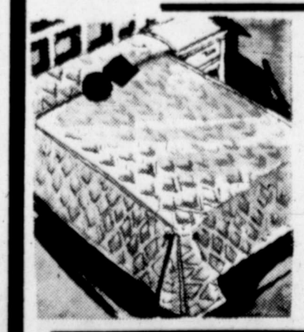

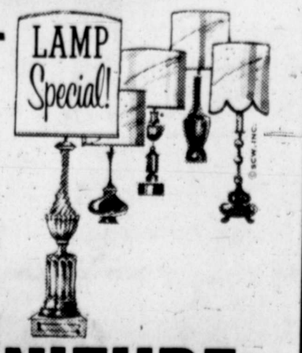

John Ritchey was scholarship speaker; Cindy Richardson, character; John Sweatt, service, and Matlock, leadership.

Three new members, all sophomores, inducted into the chapter were Clyde Hines, Jean Matlock and Roxann Moore.

WOLVES

Harrison, Tiger halfback, gave Snyder first down at the Wolf 46. After three more plays a pass to Merce Hernandez, end, gave Snyder another first at the Wolf 33.

Tiger quarter McNair clicked with a pass to Tony Breedlove, end, downed at the Wolf six. Harrison swept around right end to score for Snyder. McNair kept it fancy by passing to Harrison for two extra points, making the score 20-14 with 11:10 minutes to play.

It was a defensive battle for the Wolves from then on. Wolves hemmed in McClain, Tiger ace runner, in the second half stopping him time and again. McClain ran 23 times with the ball to net zero yards for the visitors, second half.

Colorado City doggedly ran the clock out, staying on the ground in the Wolf end of the field, after repeated Tiger threats.

Garcia, alive on both offense and defense, picked up a game total of 123 yards for the Wolves 138 yards total made rushing. Snyder's game total for rushing was not far behind with 129 yards.

Game statistics kept for the Colorado City Record by Don DeLaney showed 13 dirst downs for Wolves and 13 for the Tigers.

Wolves completed 3 of 9 passes for 42 yards. Tigers got 7 of 9 pass tries for a total of 104 yards. Both Wolves and Tigers had 1 interception each. Wolves lost one fumble, Tigers lost none.

Punting average was in favor of the Wolves with 2 punts and a 49 yard average while Snyder punted 5 times for 23.9 average.

Penalty record shows C-City lost 20 yards on penalties to 55 yards scrificed on penalties by Snyder.

Coach Truman Nix, hospitalized all week, was on leave from the hospital here to see the game from a chair next to Wolf bench. Illness of their head coach had to be a strong Wolf incentive to take the Tigers apart.

Wolf standing for the season is looking up with 3 wins, 1 loss. Colorado City faces Levelland at Levelland next Friday night, Oct 11. Next home game is against Lake View here Friday, Oct. 24. Other home games on the Wolf calendar are Stanton and Estacado of Lubbock.

Wolves will be looking for Lamesa's mighty Tornadoes Friday Oct. 17 at Lamesa. Lamesa still stands on top of the ratings after walloping Sweetwater Mustangs to the tune of 38-0 at Lamesa Friday night.

BURGLARS

charges of larcency. He served one year in New Mexico State penitentiary on a one to five year sentence and began his four-year probation July 4, 1969.

Continuing to patrol the neighborhood, officers Henderson and Andrew Rivera, Jr. spotted the men inside the store.

Short minutes before the local police had been called by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keeling, 545 Oak St. when Keeling saw two of the three men carrying loads of cigarettes to the parked automobile.

The Keelings were first awakened by their dog, "Sugar Bear," who was barking loud and long. "Sugar Bear" is a small pet dog of the couple.

Shortly after Henderson grabbed Self and took away the pistol being aimed at him, Patrolmen Dan Pfeuffer of the night patrol arrived at the scene. Chief Browning followed in short order. Jim Latham came on duty and joined the search force at 6 a.m.

Help in tracking the two fugitives from the burglary came when Buddy Hertenberger, Jim Mauldin, and George Lee, of the Texas Highway Patrol, joined Colorado City police.

All three members of the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department, Sheriff Lewis Claxton and Deputies George Ramage and Forrest Smith were quickly added.

Sweetwater Chief of Police Walter Eubanks and Nolan County Sheriff Joe Slater were here to assist in the man-hunt. Officers spread out in the Colorado River banks and erected road blocks in every direction.

Veal, the younger man, was believed to have hidden, possibly in high weeds near the vacant house, until officers scattered for the chase.

District Attorney Weldon Kirk of Sweetwater was in Colorado City Thursday to file criminal charges against the two men apprehended.

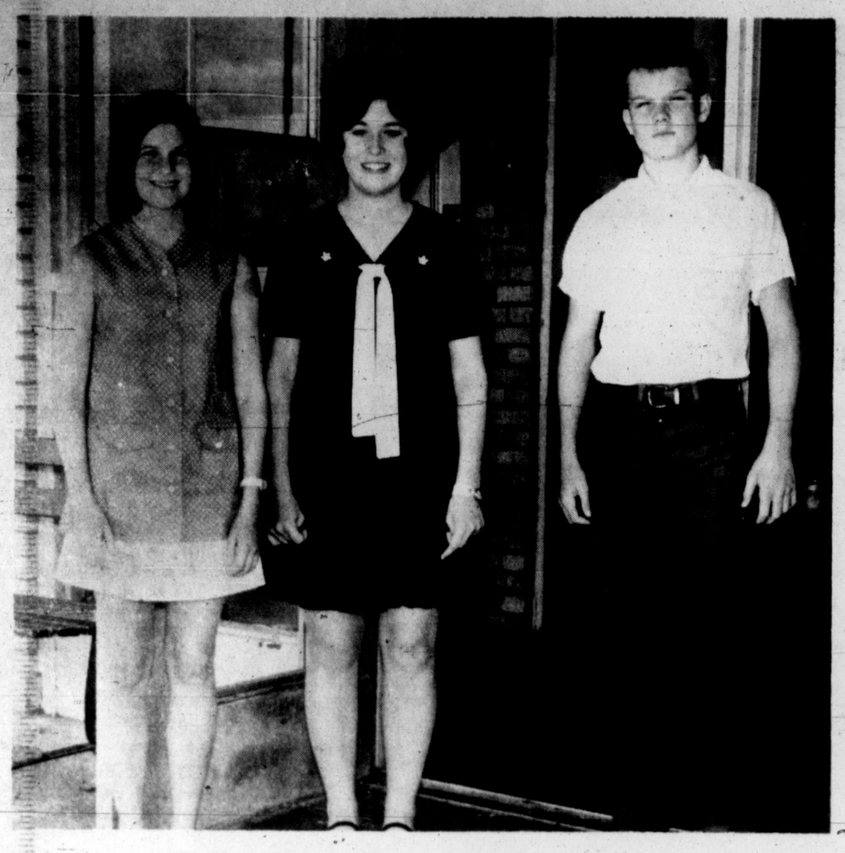

Preliminary hearing before Leonard Henderson, justice of the peace precinct one, was held at 11:45 a.m. Thursday when bond was set and they were remanded to jail.

Manager of Safeway Store here, Lynn Burkes, reported to officers that loss to the store was "In the neighborhood of $500." Front door pried open will have to be replaced, he said.

Also ruined was a soft drink machine, a mechanical horse coin box, and the door to the manager's office. Attempts to take money from the drink machine and horse ride were futile. Safe also showed signs of having been attacked by use of a screw driver found beside the intact safe.

The night burglary which fizzled included 15 cartons of cigarettes. About 40 pounds of meat packages from the market were found in store aisle, apparently ready to be carted to the get-away car.

Search for the third suspect in the burglary, the one who got away, is continuing, said Chief Browning.
