Young Farmers To Sponsor Minimum Tillage Program

A program on minimum tillage practices will be presented by Dennis Mooney of the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway.

SPAG Board To Meet In Lubbock Tuesday

The South Plains Association of Governments Board of Directors will be holding its monthly meeting Tuesday, March 14, at 9:30 a.m. in the training room of Lubbock City Hall. Of prime concern to the directors at this monthly meeting will be discussions centering on Manpower Planning, Health Planning, and the recently adopted statement of policy on membership, dues and services.

During the February meeting in Muleshoe, the board postponed action on making Manpower Planning a SPAG program until revisions could be made in a contract with the city of Lubbock. The contract has been modified and will be on the agenda for Tuesday's meeting.

Also at the February meeting, the SPAG directors authorized applying for a $10,000 grant from the state to develop a comprehensive health planning program under SPAG sponsorship. Tuesday, the directors will discuss a detailed budget for the health planning program totalling $12,500.

In other business, the board will examine the compatibility of four governmental projects to the development of the region and the consistency of those projects to existing regional plans. The board will also meet with county judges and commissioners of non-member counties to discuss the recent policy on dues, membership and services as adopted by the board during the meeting held in Muleshoe.

The meeting is open to the public.

Judges Named For April 1 Is Deadline For Local Spelling Bee License Tags

The annual Bailey County Spelling Bee will be held in the Muleshoe High School Auditorium Wednesday, March 29, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Students in these schools are now in the process of spelling eliminations which will determine the top students from each school. Around 30 students are expected to spell in the finals.

The Bailey County Spelling Bee is co-sponsored by the Muleshoe Journals and the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

All finalists will receive white ribbons from the sponsors.

Last year's winner was Daria Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Duncan. She was a sixth grader in Muleshoe Junior High School.

To purchase license plates, the purchaser must bring the three part slip, mailed to him by the state, to the county tax office in Lubbock.

This year's green and white plates for passenger cars will run from CBX50 to CCB824. Truck tags will go from IM2600 to IM4099 and farm tags will be from 8D1450 to 8D2599.

W. Kenneth Carlberg, Vice-President for Real Estate for Rasco Stores, reported by telephone to the Journal Friday that it would probably be 60-90 days before the store would be ready to open in Muleshoe.

Carlberg stated that he had been in Muleshoe three weeks ago to complete arrangements with Higginbotham-Bartlett on the lease.

"Rasco Stores are the western division for Gamble-Skogmo, Inc. of Minneapolis, Minn. The 150 Rasco Stores are a part of a national as well as Canadian organization of about 4,000 stores," reported Carlberg from his Burbank, California office.

Rasco Stores are variety-department stores, specializing in clothing and "soft-goods."

Carlberg also told the Journal that this is the first venture by Rasco Stores into Texas. They have numerous stores in New Mexico, including stores at Tucuman, Albuquerque, Hobbs and Carlsbad, and throughout the western states.

Easter Seals Offer Services To Disabled

"Do you know a handicapped person who needs help and isn't getting it?", is the question being asked by Mr. Jimmie Crawford who is Bailey County's Easter Seal Representative, and the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

The Easter Seal Society offers rehabilitation services to help disabled persons and the families to find and make the most effective use of resources which will be helpful to them in developing their abilities and living more purposeful lives, he said.

This is accomplished through direct treatments, services, education, research, and cooperative efforts with all other health agencies, private, state and federal. The Easter Seal Society does not duplicate services, but strives to fill all unmet needs of the disabled, he added.

The Easter Seal Society is carrying out its forty-second annual Easter Seal Appeal from February 28-April 2, to finance a program of rehabilitation services for crippled children and adults. The Texas Easter Seal Society helps support 19 treatment facilities where children and adults are treated regardless of ability to pay.

Physical therapy and speech and hearing programs are offered to help the disabled make their lives fuller, despite their handicaps.

REV. BILL HART
Rev. Bill Hart Joins First Baptist Staff

Rev. Bill Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Hart of Muleshoe, joined the staff of the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe this past week. Rev. Hart is a 1966 graduate of Muleshoe High School. While working in Amarillo, a little over a year ago, he was converted, joined the Hillcrest Baptist Church and started working for Christ. He soon felt the call to preach, gave up his job, and got busy in the ministry. He has enjoyed unusual results as a young preacher.

Rev. Hart will be serving the First Baptist Church in the capacity of assistant to the pastor, Rev. Doug DuBose. He will be directing the work of the young people and exploring new ways and methods of communicating the Gospel to them. He will seek to involve them in an "outreach ministry."

The program hopes to minister to several hundred high school students who are not reported on Page 3, col. 3

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.--Leaders of both Democratic and Republican state parties will meet March 13 for major decisions as well as routine housekeeping duties.

Texas law requires executive committees of political parties on that date to certify statewide candidates, set ratios for state convention delegate selection, fix hours and sites for June 13 and September 19 state conventions and select a place to canvass May 6 primary returns.

National GOP Committeeman Peter O'Donnell Jr. gave Republicans something else to think about when he unexpectedly submitted his resignation, the Democrats are expected to make a choice at the March 13 meeting between a set of reform rules drawn under direction of William R. Anderson Jr. of Corpus Christi and a watered-down draft which opponents claim perpetuates the winner-take-all system of convention operations.

Supporters of the Anderson rules claim a majority of the State Democratic Executive Committee will adopt them in preference to the alternative which has SDEC rules subcommittee approval.

Rumors persist that SDEC Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto may resign his post at the Austin meeting. Gov. Preston Smith is backing Anderson to succeed him. Orr early this year became a Dallas County commissioner, and questions have been raised about his holding both positions.

COURTS SPEAK--Texas Supreme Court has agreed to decide whether party primary election costs can be paid from state funds without special legislative authorization.

The High Court heard arguments in the historic case Monday (March 6). Secretary of State Bob Bullock claims he has power to make rules for conduct and financing of the May and June primaries. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin maintains only the legislature can provide the money -- in this case via special session. Martin tried unsuccessfully to prevent Bullock from bringing the mandamus action against Comptroller Robert S. Calvert to force payment of two minor preliminary election bills.

Court of Criminal Appeals has held that probation cannot be revoked for association with disreputable persons unless it can be shown the probationer knew of the reputations of his friends.

MUSTANG CONTROVERSY REVIVED--Parks and Wildlife Commissioners postponed for 60 days a showdown on a proposed purchase of 3,965 acres on Mustang Island for a park development after earlier voting to forget the whole thing.

Commissioners voted two-to-one to kill the $4.2 million island purchase, with three members abstaining. They agreed to hold off on a firm decision, however, following legal advice that a majority -- at least four of six members -- had to vote to make action binding.

Former Commission Chairman Pearce Johnson blocked the Mustang purchase early last year with a federal court suit. A higher court reversed the lower court decision, throwing the decision back to the Commission.

SALES TAX LOSS TOLD--A Senate committee's staff report that at least $12 million a year is being lost by the state in uncollected sales taxes due to alleged faulty administration by the state comptroller's office is figuring in three campaigns.

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, chairman of the senate committee, is talking about it in his race for lieutenant governor. Randy Pendleton of Andrews, a candidate for comptroller, blames the loss on Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and Attorney General candidate John Hill of Houston claims Attorney General Martin should be more diligent in filing tax collections suits.

AG OPINIONS--A public school district can permit neighboring parochial school students to participate in its music (band) program, Attorney General Martin held.

In a flood of other recent opinions, Martin concluded: *Parks and Wildlife Department is not authorized to appoint any game wardens, salaried or non-salaried, other than those permitted under the current state appropriations act. PWD further has no appropriation to buy a white-winged dove habitat.

*Wichita Falls city officials can collect Wichita Falls Independent School District delinquent taxes at a penalty rate of 10 per cent.

*The state treasurer may accept mortgage-backed serial notes as collateral for state deposits if payment is unconditionally guaranteed.

*Where three districts vote on school consolidation and the proposition fails in the third, but the first two subsequently consolidate, another election cannot be held for at least a year on consolidating the third district with the others.

*A court has discretion whether criminal case judgments and sentences will be announced orally and subsequently entered by the clerk or prepared in writing by the clerk and signed before being entered.

*A county is not required to pay out of its funds any portion of court costs due the criminal justice planning fund which are served out in jail by a convicted defendant. If a defendant pays part of the total court costs and serves out the remainder in jail, money collected is to be pro-rated among various costs including that due the Criminal Justice Planning Fund. No cost has priority over another.

*Accrued vacation time of state employees is a vested right of those employees and of their estates.

*There is no statutory authority for disannexing Midland Independent School District from the Odessa Junior College District by resolution of the board of regents. Creation of a new district would have to be under general law.

*An act providing for treatment of cars left too long at parking garages as abandoned does not prohibit enforcement of mechanics' liens on the vehicles.

*An active or retired judge appointed as a master in proceedings before the judicial qualifications commission draws $25 a day from a $28,380 commission appropriation.

*Harris County Commissioners Court may enter into contract with the county's Pre-Trial Release Agency for background information to be used in determining the amount of bond in cases.

*A citizen member of the State Banking Board may not be compensated for services rendered to the board but may receive expenses.

*A non-licensed accountant who lists on his letterhead that he is a member of accounting organizations is in violation of the public accountancy act.

*Combination of a "port-a-lift" (towing device) coupled to a vehicle and towed by a passenger car falls within the statutory ban on a passenger car's being coupled with more than one other vehicle.

*Only minors who have been granted adult status legally may receive blind and disabled welfare payments directly from the welfare department.

*Kilgore College District trustees do not have authority to provide for internal redistricting of the Kilgore Junior College district.

HORSE OWNERS WARNED--Horse owners have been warned to have their animals immunized for protection against another Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis (VEE) outbreak this spring and summer.

A Texas Veterinary Medical Association spokesman said foals born since the 1971 epidemic and horses vaccinated under six months of age during the epidemic or afterwards are prime targets for exposure.

CROP INSURANCE CHANGED--New changes in the crop hail insurance program aimed at savings on premium costs to farmers were reported by the State Board on Insurance last week.

The new "stepladder policy" will enable cotton growers, for example, to buy insurance after July 1 at a drastically-reduced rate. Value of the coverage increases as the crop grows in value. Policies are cheaper after July 1 because hail usually ends with May and June.

SHORT SNORTS--

A qualified 18-year-old voter can run for municipal office in Midland where there is no statutory or legal barrier, Secretary of State Bullock held.

*****

Former State Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo is campaigning for tougher parole eligibility regulations in the prison system.

*****

Texas Highway Commission approved a $240 million, two year program for development of almost 2,000 miles of highways.

*****

The first early childhood development program under the Texas Department of Community Affairs began operations last week in Corpus Christi.

A Democratic Senate candidate, Thomas M. Cartledge, plans a 300-mile walking tour to dramatize the high cost of campaigning.

*****

The Texas oil pumping output is 100,000 barrels a day less than a year ago, according to Railroad Commission Chairman Byron Tunnell.

STRAIGHT FACTS ABOUT ARTHRITIS

I. It Can Be Helped

By JACK PICKERING

Of all common disease, arthritis is most misunderstood. It is repeatedly dismissed as "just rheumatism," yet it can rob victims of the ability to earn a living, condemn them to life in a wheelchair or in bed, make their days and nights a constant misery.

An enormous folklore has grown up around arthritis, full of false notions about what causes it and what will cure it--beliefs that it can be "cured" by diet, pills, climate, charms such as metal bracelets, or sitting in abandoned mine shafts.

There is the opposite misconception that "nothing can be done for it; you just have to live with it." This is also false and dangerous.

There is a somewhat similar belief, which oversimplifies the problem, and is often heard expressed in the words, "Why go to the doctor? It's arthritis and all he'll do is tell you to take aspirin."

There is a grain of truth in some of these remarks and none at all in others.

The facts are these:

- * Dismissing it as "just rheumatism" can be disastrous. "Arthritis" isn't just one disease. It is a group of many. The most common arthritic diseases are rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis, rheumatic fever and gout. Bursitis is also a form of arthritis.
- * Some arthritic diseases and conditions are relatively innocuous.
- * Others progress rapidly and explosively. When unchecked, these account for most of the crippling of patients.
- * Still other types now can be so effectively treated, once correctly diagnosed, that a treatment can usually put a permanent end to the trouble. So find out what kind of arthritis, and protect yourself. It can keep people out of wheelchairs.

No Miracle Cure

- * Patent medicines, "secret remedies," jewelry charms, diet, eating certain things or not eating certain things, none of these will cure arthritis. Some of the old "home remedies" are harmless--except that they delay patients in getting really useful help.
- * Unfortunately, a vast business has grown up of preying on the hopes of arthritis sufferers, abetted by theories, unscientific "science," and come-ons in print. The "take" from such quackery now is approximating $1,000,000 a day in the United States. None of it reduces the amount of arthritis.
- * It is just as misleading to believe that "nothing can be done for arthritis." Something can be done for every arthritis patient. Cases that used to progress inexorably to crippling now can be halted. A growing number of disabled patients now are being restored so effectively that they go back to work. Pain can be eliminated in many instances; sometimes all symptoms can be suppressed. But everyone can be helped to some degree.
- * William E. Reynolds, M.D., medical director of The Arthritis Foundation, asserts without qualification: "No case is hopeless. Something can be done for arthritis now."
- * Refusing to go to the doctor "because all he'll do is tell you to take aspirin" is a defeatist attitude.

According to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., at least three changes in 1972 farm program regulations should be made, each of which would be of benefit to High Plains farmers and to the accomplishment of program objectives.

Following action taken by the 52-man PCG Board of Directors, Johnson has requested that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (1) move the final date for certification of cotton and feed grain acreage from July 15 to August 1, (2) require producers of wheat and barley to designate cotton and feed grain set-aside acreage at the same time as non-producers of wheat and barley, and (3) separate minimum planting requirements for feed grain and barley allotments, thereby allowing barley allotment holders to underplant that crop without losing feed grain planting history.

Allowing an extra 15 days for certification of planted cotton and feed grain acreage is necessary, Johnson says, because County ASCS offices will be hard pressed to supply measuring service to all producers between the time crops are planted and July 15. Under some Spring conditions many producers may be unable to plant feed grains until near the first of July. To a lesser extent, the same situation could exist for cotton. And should this happen over all or a significant portion of a county, ASCS office managers

Even so, the premature designation of set-aside acreage for cotton and feed grains will cause inconvenience and delays in farming operations and place an unnecessary work load on County ASCS personnel. USDA's reasons for wanting the early set-aside designation have not been made public, and PCG directors fail to see that the requirement will further the program's operation in any way.

The third regulation which needs revision is explained by Johnson as one which will force producers with both barley and feed grain allotments to plant more feed grains and less cotton -- precisely what USDA does not want. The rule is that farmers with an allotment of both crops will have to plant to either feed grain or barley state it will be "next to impossible" to get all acreage measured, notify farmers of measured acreage and get them "certified" by July 15.

The certification deadline in previous years has been August 1, and USDA changed to July 15 this year "so we can get payment checks out earlier." But it stands to reason that producers are going to certify acreage as soon as practical, whatever the deadline, Johnson says.

As regulations now stand, farmers with wheat planted are required to designate all set-aside acreage, including cotton and feed grain set-aside, by May 1. In almost all instances this date will fall ahead of cotton planting and in many cases before grain sorghum or corn is planted. Unless changed the requirement will force producers of all three crops to make untimely land use decisions on cotton and feed grains, and these could prove expensive. There is provision for "substitution" of set-aside acreage after the initial designation if it can be shown that the need for substitution was the result of conditions beyond the producer's control.

Even so, the premature designation of set-aside acreage for cotton and feed grains will cause inconvenience and delays in farming operations and place an unnecessary work load on County ASCS personnel. USDA's reasons for wanting the early set-aside designation have not been made public, and PCG directors fail to see that the requirement will further the program's operation in any way.

The third regulation which needs revision is explained by Johnson as one which will force producers with both barley and feed grain allotments to plant more feed grains and less cotton -- precisely what USDA does not want. The rule is that farmers with an allotment of both crops will have to plant to either feed grain or barley

Greenbug Resistant Sorghum

LUBBOCK--The greenbug, arch enemy of High Plains sorghum producers, may not be a problem in a few years because of work being done by Texas Agricultural Experiment Station researchers at Lubbock.

Dr. Jerry Johnson and Dr. George Teetes experimented this past season with the comparisons of resistant and susceptible types of sorghum, with some interesting results.

"The most striking characteristic of the greenbug resistant types is their tolerance, their ability to support large green populations without significant death of leaf tissue," Johnson says.

The studies this past year indicated that greenbugs prefer to feed on the common commercial sorghums if possible. If they were forced to move to the resistant varieties, the rate of reproduction dropped sharply. The main problem with these resistant varieties is that they are inferior to the susceptible varieties from a commercial production standpoint. Naturally, the best methods of insect control, because the pest populations are reduced without the extra cost of insecticides or possible damage to the environment.

Under a grant from the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board, Johnson and Teetes are transferring greenbug resistance to sorghum varieties that are suitable for commercial production. But the scientists emphasize that breeding work of this type is time-consuming. They say the resistant varieties may not be ready for general use for at least four to five more years.

"When this time arrives, these improved varieties can help solve a problem that has been costing High Plains producers millions of dollars in chemicals and yield losses per year since 1968," Johnson concludes.

Baker Art Gallery Announces Receptions

Opening with a reception on Friday evening and again next Tuesday afternoon, The Baker Gallery of Fine Art will be showing the works of two distinguished artists, Ronald Thomason, of Weatherford, Texas, and Una Hanbury, formerly of Washington, D.C. and presently residing in Santa Fe. Both artists will be present Friday, March 17, 5 to 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, March 19, 1 to 5 p.m.

Ronald Thomason has been called "one of the Southwest's leading realists." He started his art career at an early age at the Art Center in Fort Worth. Later Thomason was awarded a two year scholarship to the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Among his instructors have been such noted artists as John McCoy and John Chumley. Since 1963 his work has been widely exhibited in numerous regional and national exhibitions. His awards have been many which include the Toppin Prize, Pennsylvania Academy, and Obrig Prize for watercolor at The National Academy of Design.

Regarding Ronald Thomason, a featured article in American Artist magazine said: "He is one of the most fantastic technicians in the United States." The application of this skill with either watercolor or egg tempera is drawing considerable interest in knowledgeable art circles across the country. He has a story to tell and the explicit strokes of his brush are creating a clearness of expression soon to establish him among American realist painters.

Una Hanbury, is widely known for her sculpture with public buildings and offices of Washington, and two bronze sculptures - busts of writer Rachel Carson and artist Georgia O'Keefe - in the Smithsonian Institution's new National Portrait Gallery. A native of England and graduate of the Royal Academy of Fine Art in London, she has lived in Washington for a number of years. Recently she moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico where she now has her studio and home.

Her early studies were with Frank Calderon, the Distinguished animal painter. She has exhibited at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts in London, al-

Horses are internationally known. Included in these is the famous quarter horse, Tonto Bars Hank.

Fashion Projects Return To Nature

COLLEGE STATION--"Fashion projects the times, solet's return to nature," suggested Becky Dunlap, clothing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The acceptance of fashion depends upon, and directly relates to, our current society.

"Ecology is the key work in spring fashion predictions and actual garments shown to retail buyers at the Dallas Apparel Mart," she noted. "Through various combinations of patterns, colors and fabrics, a natural spring fashion evolves."

Shapes and patterns conform to those of nature, whether through the use of accessories, prints, or appliques. Landscape florals, country gardens, mixed bouquets, animal forms and fruit and vegetable motifs abound.

"Fabrics are returning to the honest-to-goodness homespun look," she explained. Fresh gingham, seersuckers, denims and piques are gaining dominance. Fabrics seem to come alive with soft and flowing movement.

Clear, bright and natural colors such as sand, grass green, sun yellow and poppy red dominate the spring fashion scene.

"The influence of nature and ecology now moves into fashion, restoring a cleaner, clearer and purer look than seen in recent years," the specialist said. "Designers have joined the bandwagon in support of the belief in preserving nature."

Today's look is natural. Do you project the times?

"My boat wasn't insured?"

Don't neglect to have adequate insurance on your boat, motor, trailer, and accessories. More important, is liability insurance for personal injury to others-both available at the Pool Insurance Agency.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

My husband died when I was rather young and left me with four small children to support. I was a college graduate so I got a job and hired a housekeeper and got along very well for four years when I married the superintendent of my school. All of the children were married ten years later when he was offered a better job and we moved to another city. I have made many friends here and like it very much.

Now my problem is this. My husband died several months ago and all of my children, who live in the place where they grew up, want me to move back to this former town, so that I will be close to the family. All four of my children have young children of their own and are very social minded so I am afraid I would end my days as a baby sitter if I went back. I love my grand children but I am also interested in many projects and I like concerts and plays. I would love to be near the children but I would have to give up my good friends, the church and clubs here that I love. What am I to do about this?

Mother--Ind.

Answer:
Delay making a decision for a while. It may be that after a time you will find life very different where you are, lacking a husband. And bear in mind, that if you get sick or need help of any kind it is wonderful to have the family to call on. If you do decide to go back to your first home, let your children know that you will baby-sit in an emergency but will not be on call.

Louisa.

Auxiliary Plans Day Room For Muleshoe Nursing Home

The present Day Room in the Muleshoe Nursing Home is 15 X 19 ft., including the hall and only four or five people can sit here without crowding too much. For the last six months this has been the only room available to the residents for visiting with their families or just getting away from the four walls of their rooms. The resident need a larger Day Room and the Muleshoe Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary have accepted the challenge to raise the money to build one. It is the plan of the Auxiliary to expand the present TV room (or Day Room) by taking in the store room on the North and then take out the outside wall on the patio, extending the room out onto the patio and glassing it in, making it into a sunny room with an outside view. There is a plan, too, to convert a bathroom into a small kitchenette. This would be used for special parties and other occasions where refreshments are served. Mrs. J.E. McVicker, Auxiliary president, reports that "the Auxiliary has raised a considerable amount toward the total cost, but they still lack some having the required amount. The Auxiliary is informing the public of their plans in the hope that someone just might like to have a part in this very much needed and worthwhile project. For anyone interested, there is a Memorial Fund in the Auxiliary. Anyone desiring may make their gift in the form of a memorial to honor one living or to memorialize one deceased, may do so. Gifts, of any amount, to the Muleshoe and Nursing Home Auxiliary are tax-deductible."

DAY ROOM...The present day room at the Muleshoe Nursing Home will accommodate only four or five people comfortably. The Muleshoe Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary is in the process of raising funds for expansion of this day room for the benefit of the Nursing Home residents.

In Fashion

Skirts are definitely down, somewhat, this season. We still see the very young in short skirts and pants but the mature woman is not smart in skirts above the knees.

Pitted coats are popular and the coal-dress combination continues to be a favorite of buyers. Many use the coat of such an outfit with other dresses and accessories.

HOSTESSES...Mrs. John Blackwell and Mrs. Corky Green were hostesses for the Epsilon Sigma Alpha meeting Tuesday evening. A St. Patrick's Day theme was used in the decorations.

Services Held Saturday For Mrs. Carter

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Elizabeth Carter, 86, were held Saturday, March 4, in the Stephenville Funeral Home Chapel at Stephenville. Sterling Bills and Robert Baldridge officiated. Burial was in the West End Cemetery.

Mrs. Carter died Thursday night at a Stephenville hospital. She was born February 26, 1886 in Eastland County and spent her life in Erath County. On August 18, 1902 she married Charlie A. Carter who preceded her in death in 1946.

Survivors include three sons, Kay Carter and Charlie A. Carter of Stephenville, and Temple Carter of Logan, N.M.; five daughters, Mrs. Pearl Crow of Stephenville, Mrs. Ruby Jones of Bluffdale, Mrs. Christine Durant of Granbury, Mrs. Beadie Harris of Waco, and Mrs. Juanita Busby of Muleshoe; two sisters, Mrs. Ludie Smith of Spokane, Washington and Mrs. Della Tharp of Odessa; 21 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren. Two sons and a daughter had preceded her in death.

Pallbearers were grandsons, Travis Price, Albert Lee Price, Rex Carter, Troy Don Jones, Charles Gene Parham, John T. Basham, Keith Boud and James McPherson.

Gentlemen: I thought you might find this mention of the faithful mule interesting. I am not sure, but I believe I found this article in an old issue of "Friends" magazine. Do you have many mules in your area?

Signed
Bob Poole

The article sent was entitled "The Beauty Queen" and is as follows: "Although the mule is rapidly disappearing from the rural scene, it remains very much in evidence in and around Beson, North Carolina, a town that takes time each fall to honor the animal. During Benson's Mule Day celebration, which runs three days, the lowly beast is the center of attraction for thousands of visitors who come to town for a mule beauty contest and a weight-pulling competition. According to Garland McLamb, founder of Mule Day (in 1950): "Our Mules made us what we are today. The small farm wouldn't have been possible without them."

All mules may look alike to most visitors, but not to the men who crown the beauty queen. Judges look for these qualifications in a "beautiful" mule: a well-proportioned figure - curved legs, small waist and shoulders, narrow hips, non-sagging back, shining, well-groomed hair, sound teeth, and sharp vision. The judges had no difficulty selecting Miss Mule Queen of 1962. Naturally, it was Pearl, Number 4. Bensonians point out that the beauty contest is for "no talent" mules. Talented mules enter the weight-pulling contest."

The forecast for Spring - Showers... yes, showers of good books at your public library, and as welcome and enjoyable as fresh spring shower are these picked at random:

Listen for the Whisperer - by Phyllis Whitney - must be included in your reading plans for this spring. This popular author has again shown her talent for romantic suspense in the Gothic manner, and is at the top of her form in this fast-paced, tautly plotted novel, filled with memorable characters, and set against the harsh beauty of Norway.

For these or other late books, come by the NEW MULESHOE PUBLIC LIBRARY - Same phone number - 272-4707.

HUSTLE AND BUSTLE

The big city throbs with business life, heavy traffic, and the comings and goings and doings of many people. Whether you live in the city or you just come to town occasionally from the small town or farm, you have experienced this hustle and bustle. It reminds you that all life sometimes gets too hurried, too frantic with all we must do. We need a time to stop and somewhere to go to find peace and respite from all this. Have you thought of trying God? Job 22:21 says, "Acquaint now thyself with God and be at peace."

How sweet it is to be in God's house, to feel close to Him, to listen to His word. Tension leaves. Peace of soul arrives. Won't you attend God's house this week and see what he can do for you?

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny. The truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The following business firms urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday and every Sunday
