Don't forget that Saturday, June 1, is the day on which we choose the man we want for Governor of Texas. Exercise your choice by going to the polls and voting. In Mitchell County, the Loraine precinct in particular, will have only the candidates for Governor, Preston Smith and Don Yarborough, on the ballot so it won't take but a minute to vote but your vote might be of utmost importance in naming the Governor of Texas.

The City has just completed the job of putting caliche on four blocks of an east to west street, running from Lightfoot Street at the Virgil Walker home west. Other streets will be treated in the same manner as fast as possible. Some people object to caliche being on the street in front of their home but since the City does not own a loader, it has to depend upon the commissioner to load its truck and the commissioner is hauling caliche for country roads. At the present the City takes caliche or nothing.

Many crops throughout our territory are up to a good stand, some are just coming up and some will have to be planted over because it came a hard shower before they got out of the ground. So far, the area has been fortunate in not having severe storms. Only a small area has been damaged by hail if our information is correct.

COTTON ALLOTMENT TRANSFERS FOR 69 DISAPPROVED

Cotton growers of Mitchell County have failed to approve transfer of 1969 Upland Cotton Allotments out of the County, Curtis Latimer, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, has announced.

Voting on the question took place in a mail referendum during the period May 13 through 17. The transfers were approved by 31 percent of the producers voting. A two-thirds affirmative vote was required to make the provision effective.

This means that the transfer of 1969 Upland Cotton Allotments in Mitchell County - by sale or lease - may be made from one farm to another only within the County. Allotments may be transferred into this County by sale or lease from other counties in the State where growers have voted to permit such transfers.

The Chairman explained that the transfer of allotments within a county is not affected by the recent vote; this is already authorized by law. Neither does the vote affect transfers of allotments from one farm to another owned by the same person, which can be made across county lines within the State. In no case, however, may transfers be made outside the State.

Mr. Latimer reminded growers that applications for all transfers of cotton allotments for the 1969 upland cotton crop will need to be filed with the ASC County Committee not later than a deadline to be announced later.

AUSTIN — Your Capitol is bursting with life on the eve of the most significant political and governmental events -- the June 1 runoff election, the June 4 beginning of a special session of the Legislature, and the June 11 conventions of State Democratic and Republican parties.

Although there are 15 runoffs in legislative races to be decided Saturday, the main bout, of course, is that between Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Houston Attorney Don Yarborough.

Probably no more than a million voters will decide whether moderate - conservative Smith or liberal Yarborough will be the Democratic nominee for governor.

Each is reaching for the other's voter potential. Smith boasts of his 18 years' governmental experience; Yarborough, without governmental experience, urges his own "fresh approach" and "constructive programs" including lower auto insurance rates and consumer protection.

Even name identification -- usually considered the well-spring of political success -- won't be the deciding factor between these two. Both men have been in statewide races nearly a decade and are well-known names on the ballot.

Incidentally, the winner may find surprisingly tough opposition in November from Republican nominee Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls.

Regardless of whether Smith, Yarborough -- or Eggers -- is the next governor, the battle-wise Democratic legislative presiding officers, Lt. Gov. nominee Ben Barnes in the Senate and Speaker-to-be Gus Mutscher of Brenham in the House, will be powerful figures to be reckoned with. Barnes admittedly aspires to higher office and Mutscher reportedly is interested in a long tenure in the House.

LEGISLATIVE RACES — There are few district races on the June 1 ballot and no other statewide contests. However, as far as professional politics go, the legislative races are very significant -- especially where incumbents are concerned. This because "lame ducks" often vote differently from those re-elected.

Many eyes will be on the races between Sen. Bruce Reagan and Rep. Ronald Bridges of Corpus Christi. for the State Senate seat for that area; Rep. John E. Blaine versus Ramon Ramos of El Paso; Rep. J. E. Miller of Burkeville versus Don Adams; Rep. Bob Hendricks versus former Rep. Bill Dungan of McKinney.

Other runoffs involve top vote getters in local races where incumbents lost altogether or were not running for re-election.

LIQUOR LEGISLATION DUE — Gov. John Connally's June 4 special session of the Legislature almost certainly will come to grips with important liquor legislation, probably including a mixed-drinks bill.

A House study committee's report on how to improve present statutes has been promised before the special session begins. Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, chairman of the panel, and House Speaker Ben Barnes have indicated the report will contain major, controversial recommendations.

Results of the investigation made by Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin -- and his recommendations -- also are due by June 4.

Connally has strongly indicated he will urge the lawmakers to come up with a mixed-drinks bill as a part of his tax program. Observers believe that, instead of a straight booze over the bar measure, he will ask for legislation permitting the sale of liquor in small, one drink-sized bottles on a local option basis. This would mean that, if the bill passes, Texans still will have to mix their own but at least they won't have to bring their own bottles.

STATE CONVENTIONS — Every even-numbered year state political parties hold two conventions. In presidential election years the June convention, customarily, is called "the presidential convention," and the September convention is known as "the governor's convention."

This year since the big issue in the State Democratic convention in Dallas on June 11 will be whether Governor is picked as the "favorite son," both Democratic party conventions will be "governor's conventions." If Connally is chosen as "favorite son," the first vote of the Texas delegation at the national convention in Chicago will go to Connally, the second to whomever he likes of the major candidates -- probably Hubert Humphrey.

Republicans, who will hold their convention in Corpus Christi on June 11, doubtfully will pick US Sen. John Tower as their "favorite son." State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell of Dallas, and other southern GOP chairmen, met in New Orleans with hopefuls Gov. Ronald Reagan and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. But O'Donnell is not expected to talk about a second-ballot alternative to Senator Tower until he has conferred with Richard Nixon, and considered results of talks with all three.

Kenneth Brame, student at Texas Tech came in last week and left Tuesday for Houston where he will work this summer after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Brame.

Mike McDaniel is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar McDaniel between terms at Hardin-Simmons University but will return next week for the first 6 week summer term.

PRESTON SMITH for GOVERNOR

VOTE
SATURDAY
JUNE 1

TO: The Citizens and Voters of Texas
FROM: Preston Smith, Candidate for Governor

The purpose of this message is to ask for your support and vote in the Second Democratic Primary Saturday, June 1.

As your Lieutenant Governor for the last six years, I believe I have qualified myself to seek the high office of Governor. You know I finished second among 10 candidates in the First Primary, about 29,000 votes behind the leader with 1,750,000 votes cast.

With your help we can win this runoff against an opponent who has no public record of any kind . . . one who is aligned with groups that want to reject the progressive, constructive programs built by John Connally and his predecessors and replace them with so-called "liberal" ideas of their own.

I want to continue and improve on the start we have made in education, pollution control, law enforcement, highways, water conservation, promotion of industry and tourism, and many other vital areas.

I am proud to have been a part of Texas government for 18 years. Opponents may harp about what is wrong in Texas; I happen to think there are a lot of things RIGHT in Texas. I am proud of my state and its people.

Things can be even better, and I want to work with you in that direction.

It's more or less in the political tradition to lambast your opponent and say a lot of ugly and cutting things about him. I don't want to engage in personalities; my opponent has no public record to criticize. Therefore I am running for Governor on my own merits.

It may be pretty ambitious for a farm-born, farm-raised Texas boy, who worked his way through Texas Tech and spent his adult years in business activities in Lubbock, to aspire to be Governor. You will be the judges as to whether my experience and proven qualifications entitle me to be elected. I will accept your judgment with real gratitude for your past support and friendship.

Please remember that if I am elected, my door will always be open to any Texan who has any problem whatever that the Governor can help with. I will always be interested in good government. I will always be interested in you.

Preston Smith
