Three Game Playoff

Rockettes Tie With Spearman for Crown

The Wellington Rockettes cinched a tie with Spearman for the district crown as they downed the Perryton Rangerettes 59 to 36 in the final game of regular conference play Tuesday evening. The same evening the Rockets hosted the Perryton Rangers 41 to 40 to wind up their season.

The game was must for the Wellington girls, as the Spearman girls were defeating Shamrock in their final game of regular conference play.

Coach E. W. Clement says this will necessitate a three-game playoff. The first two games will be played on a home and home basis and the third, if necessary, will be played on a neutral court. The dates for the games had not been set Wednesday morning.

In the girls game, the Rockettes drew away to a lead in the first quarter and maintained it throughout the contest.

The boys game was a thriller with neither team leading by more than three points at any time from the start to the final whistle.

Betty Sanders with 24 points and Sharon Campbell with 20 led the scoring for the Rockettes in Tuesday's game. In the boys game Butch White with 15 led for Wellington and Benny Witt with 12 was high scorer for Perryton.

Mrs. Eddie Smith Dies Here on Friday Night

Mrs. Eddie Smith, widely known business and farm woman of the Wellington area, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 11 p.m. Friday, Feb. 3. She had been in ill health several months, nevertheless her death came unexpectedly to her many friends.

She had lived in Collingsworth county since 1928, and through the decade of the 1930s, she was associated with her husband in the training of fine rodeo horses, and for this they received recognition throughout the country.

In more recent years, Mrs. Smith had engaged in business enterprises in Wellington, operating furniture shops and rental property. During the time, however, she and Mr. Smith continued making their home on the family farm south of town.

City Gets 200-Bed Package Complete Disaster Hospital Unit

Wellington has been approved for a 200-bed "packaged" emergency hospital by the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization, Mayor Hiram Cudd was notified Friday, Feb. 3. Approval of the hospital came from Len Rhodes, training officer under Jim Gardner, state Civil Defense director.

"This packaged hospital can be set up and used at any point in this area for any type disaster requiring hospital facilities on this scale," Mayor Cudd said. "It is not only for use in event of nuclear attack, but it is also for natural disaster, such as tornado, or in case of an epidemic."

Final arrangements for the hospital unit were made by Mayor Cudd and City Manager Bura Handley during a trip to Austin last week.

The disaster unit will come packaged in waterproof wrapping and sealed. It will be stored in the basement of the community building, and in case it is needed the hospital unit can be set up in the auditorium, according to the Mayor. It was issued to Mayor Cudd by the State Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization and the City Council Monday night appointed Johnny Cagle as city employee custodian.

Each hospital, which is to remain sealed and crated until needed in a stricken area, is a complete 200-bed affair, with facilities for three operating rooms, a pharmacy, x-ray service, clinical laboratory, sterilizing room, central supply room and electrical power supply, according to information from the Civil Defense office.

Each unit contains 8,000 individual pieces of equipment, including a 1500-gallon water tank and pump for emergency water supply. There are also complete medical supplies from surgical caps and gowns to inflammable items such as ether and alcohol which are separately packaged and marked to avoid fire hazards.

Any items which become out of date will be replaced, Mayor Cudd said.

Lifelong Resident

Alex Coleman, Farm Leader, Dies Feb. 4

Alex Coleman, member of a leading family in Panhandle agriculture, and a distinguished farm leader in his own right, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 1:40 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 4, a few hours after he was stricken with a heart attack at his home at Dozier.

He had suffered a heart ailment for some months, but he worked throughout Friday with other members of the ASC county committee in Wellington and his death came as a shock to the community.

Few men here ever gave so much time to agricultural and community activities without thought of recompense or recognition, and in recent years he overcame the handicap of injury to continue these valuable contributions. His leadership extended into the field of education and the church.

He was born July 4, 1894, in a half dugout at Dozier, on the farm where he was to spend his entire life. His parents were the late John Scott and Sarah Leon Coleman, who came to Dozier in the early 1890s and filed on the farm. The former had been a cattle man in the Chickasaw country of the Indian Territory.

Alex Coleman received his education in the rural schools of the county, Dozier, Plymouth, Enterprise and Marel.

Norwood Lions Plan Community Auction

The Samnorwood Lions Club is sponsoring a community auction sale to be held at Dozier on Tuesday, Feb. 14, when machinery, tractors, livestock, and a wide variety of other items, both large and small, will be sold.

The sale will begin at 10 a.m. and anyone having an item to sell is invited to bring it and it will go on the auction block.

This is a fund-raising event for the club, officers explained, and proceeds will go to finance projects the club has under way.

Among these is the improvement of Lions Club Park at Samnorwood, where a general improvement program is under way, barbecue pits and tables have been built. The club also has donated the trophy cases for Samnorwood school and assisted in getting the time clock for the gymnasium. PTA Asks Legislature

Teachers for Spanish Speaking Sought in Elementary School

Members of Wellington Elementary Parent-Teacher Association are requesting the state legislature to include in the Gilmer Aiken program provisions that will enable schools such as this to have Spanish-speaking teachers to work with small Mexican children who enter school with no knowledge of the English language.

Mrs. J. B. King, PTA president, said this week that members and other parents are signing a petition, copies of which will be presented to Governor Price Daniel, Senator Andy Rogers, and Representative Grainger McIlhenny.

In recent years, more children are entering the first grade, and some the higher grades, who speak no English, and their families are now remaining in this area, Mrs. King said.

"The regular teachers do not have the extra time to teach these children English,"

Mrs. King said. "We are asking for these special teachers to teach the Latin American children until they can speak English, then they would go in the regular classes. Both the Mexicans and Anglos would benefit."

J. D. Wilson, county school supervisor, said that this problem exists in Wellington, Samnorwood and Quail in this county, but that it is also present in most other schools of the area.

County Iced Over During Week End

An inch of snow over a half inch of ice left Collingsworth roads in the most hazardous condition of the winter, and although there were no major accidents, traffic moved at a creeping pace through the week end.

Sleet fell through Saturday, with enough melting to cause a hard glaze to form when the temperature dropped. Snow followed in the late afternoon and there was no thawing until Tuesday afternoon.

Ed Haynes, maintenance superintendent for the State Highway Department, said the highways south and southeast of Wellington were open Tuesday morning.

Most of the ice on highways melted Tuesday afternoon, then froze again that night.

Haynes said highway department employees spread three tons of salt on bridges and hills during this icy spell, about as much as they had put down up to this time. Both approaches to Elm Creek bridge were salted down for their entire length.

School was dismissed at Wellington and Dodson Monday, but classes were resumed Tuesday.

Castro's Early Fall is by No Means Likely

In the past few months, both before and after the United States was forced to sever relations with Castro's regime in Cuba, there has appeared an underlying theme—a leitmotif—expression of hope for the future in developments in that torn island domain. From political observers, from interpretive journalists and even from officials in our own government we have read repeated expressions of conviction that the Castro regime will topple from within, that, because of its very excesses, it cannot survive.

This is plain wishful thinking, at best. The situation in Cuba is not to be compared with that in Guatemala when, in 1954, the communist government of Arbenz Guzman was overthrown by Castillo Armas (who was later to lose his life by assassination.) In dealing with Cuba we are facing the Soviet Union and Red China, both now directly involved in the Cuban revolution and, through the puppet Castro brothers and Che Guevara, calling the moves.

For anyone who doubts Cuba is already in control of the conspiracy of international communism, we have only to turn to the words of Spruille Braden, former Latin-American affairs and ex-United States ambassador to Cuba: "I defy anyone in government or out to offer a single valid example of any policy or calculated act of the present Cuban regime which is not customary Communist practice and designed to forward Fidel Castro's and the Kremlin's plan for Red revolution throughout the hemisphere."

The Kremlin, having gained its foothold in our hemisphere, has no intention of giving it up. It presumably will back to the utmost any move by Castro to put down insurrection from within and we can only guess what would result if an effort were made to invade the island from outside. It is true that Cuba's economic situation is growing worse rapidly but a Communist state has ways and means of repressing popular revolt. Therefore, this talk forecasting that the Castro regime will fall within a few months, or a year or even two years, completely ignores the realities. To believe this is to lose our eyes to real danger which confronts us. This situation poses perhaps the gravest problem for our new administration.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where the new President says this is a time of great national peril.

My taxable neighbor says he thought all the time that things were just sort of normally fouled up, but since the new administration has let out the facts, every day seems as grim as the count-down on another car payment.

On account of he lives in dread, just waiting for the President's next message, to see what new crisis has been uncovered, which can only be cured with another big money poultice.

I see where a young mathematical genius and an electronic brain have been busy for two years and are now the parents of a foolproof system for winning at blackjack.

My gambous neighbor says it's a pity they wasted so much time, as Las Vegas casino operators already know how to make this game pay off.

Says the flesh and tin figure wizards ought to put in their time on some worthwhile project, such as a sure-fire system a man can use to play the credit card game without losing his shirt.

It seems from his State of the Union speech that President Kennedy is dismayed to find said Union in a much worse State than advertised by the Republicans when he decided to apply for the job.

Could be that he has got room to sue somebody for fraud, on the grounds that this was represented as being a job that could be handled from a golf cart.

My sympathetic neighbor says he was once status-dazzled into running for mayor, and it does kind of scare a fellow, to be standing there with an armload of hot bucks and nobody else to pass them to.

I see where a big college ran a survey and found 47% of its liberal arts seniors don't believe in a Supreme Being.

My preaching neighbor says it's probably not that these young folks are so highly educated that nothing looks supreme to them; says more likely the Lord's salesmen are just not as persuasive as Mr. Khrushchev's.

Or maybe they figure that Divine favor is not needed any more, now that the government is getting set up to spend away all of our problems.

Production per man-hour has increased almost four times as fast (90%) on farms as in industrial employment (24%) in the past 11 years.

VEGETABLE CROP LESS

Based on Jan. 1 conditions, the Crop Reporting Board forecasts the winter vegetable crop for fresh market will be 4% less than last winter, but 6% above average.

National Electrical Week

February 5-11, 1961

MAKE

WORK FOR YOU

ELECTRICITY, probably more than any other source of energy, has been responsible for the high standards of living enjoyed by millions of Americans today. The nation is more productive, healthier, wealthier, and more secure—thanks in large part to the number of tasks electricity performs.

Today's people live longer because electricity accomplishes the labor that formerly drained their strength and impaired their health. Mass production would be impossible without electricity. At the touch of a button or switch, electricity goes to work in factories, homes, on farms, on the land, in the air, and under the sea—doing the work of millions of people and enabling millions more to enjoy more ease and convenience than ever before. In medicine and in science, electricity enables man to study areas as yet unexplored. Today's children can look forward to a future in which electricity will make even greater contributions to their health, comfort and security.

Electricity stands ready to do even more in the way of improving the world in which we live, whether it is the world of business, science, medicine, research, entertainment. Electricity is ready to create more jobs and whole new industries. It is ready to take on increased tasks on the job, in homes, on farms and in factories. Electricity and its abilities are boundless—they need only to be called upon to serve. This is the electrical industry's message during National Electrical Week, a message to its own employees and to the public: MAKE ELECTRICITY WORK FOR YOU.

Boys throughout the council will be attending churches of their choice in full uniform where recognition will be given the Boy Scout movement. Many of the sermons will be especially for the young men of the Scouting groups. Scouts who have qualified will receive religious awards presented by their respective churches.

Explorer Post 51 at Spearman is celebrating this anniversary week by sponsoring an Explorer Ball for all Explorers of the council. This gala event will be held Feb. 11 in the school gymnasium at Spearman.

There are many activities planned throughout the council by various units. Many Cub Scout Packs will be celebrating with their Blue and Gold Banquets, and many troops are holding Parents' Night meetings and Open House celebrations of Boy Scout Week.

AMERICAN MIGHT, SOVIET MYTH

Jameson G. Campaigne, distinguished editor of the Indianapolis Star, has written a book worthy of the attention of every American. It is entitled "American Might and Soviet Myth" (Regency $3.95). It is a powerful contribution to the enlightenment of the American people on the facts of the war for survival in which our nation is engaged.

Mr. Campaigne is convinced we are losing the war and the Communists are winning it. He documents a powerful indictment of our U. S. foreign policy—its lack of traditional American character, its continuing aid to the enemy.

"In the earliest years of our existence," writes Mr. Campaigne, "we established certain principles in dealing with other governments. While history has made the application of these principles different in technique, it has not outmoded the principles themselves, nor can it permanently alienate them from our national character, without damaging that character beyond recovery or repair."

George Washington's Code

He cites the character of foreign policy enumerated by President George Washington: "Observe good faith and justice toward all nations. Cultivate peace and harmony with all. Religion and morality enjoin this conduct. . . It will be worthy of a free, enlightened and, at no distant period, a great nation, to give to mankind the magnanimous and too novel example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence. Who can doubt that in the course of time and things the fruits of such a plan would richly repay any temporary advantage which might be lost by a steady adherence to it. . ."

Mr. Campaigne says "Until the United States begins again to operate its own foreign policy in the interests of its own people, and to follow its own historic principles and to re-establish its authentic national character, it will continue to fail. The Soviet Union will continue to win the cold war. Until our policy becomes a United States policy, no United States government can hope to succeed in matching the determination and ruthlessness of the Soviet masters."

U.S. Is Mighty

Mr. Campaigne's book, as the title suggests, assesses the "myth" of Soviet might which has seemingly caused the United States to retreat, to give ground, to complain but finally accept the continuing advances of Communism in nation after nation—at a time, he contends, when a determination on our part and a show of our unmatched power would have halted the Reds.

"Too many people in the United States," he says, "have surrendered weakly to the Soviet psychological offensive. Only twice in recent years have we actually called a Soviet bluff—once in Quemoy and once in Lebanon. On both occasions the enemy backed down. He will back down every time—in Berlin, the Middle East, the Far East, anywhere. We have only to knock the chip off his shoulder, and he is suddenly quiet."

Reds Run from Fight

Khrushchev and the other Communist leaders, Mr. Campaigne says "know who has the stronger force: economic, political, ethical, military, and every other. It is we who are not sure. With great cunning (Khrushchev) has exploited our growing weakness of character to create in us this dangerous uncertainty. It is time we saw ourselves as the enemy sees us, formidable and in fact unbeatable."

He says in the conclusion of his provocative book: "As long as we seek 'peace' in the Soviet sense more than we seek freedom and liberty, we will remain on the defensive and the Communists will keep on winning. If we wanted that sort of peace at Quemoy, we could have had it at the price of surrender. We can have peace in Berlin at the price of surrender. We can end the whole cold war at the price of surrender. There is only one reason for carrying on the cold war. That is to preserve our liberty and extend all human liberty. If liberty is important, nothing should deter us. Our foreign policy must be based on this concept. Until it is, we will not even begin to succeed."

One of the novelties of Robert Fulton's team-powered warship Demologos, constructed in 1815, was that it could discharge 100 gallons of boiling water a minute at an oncoming enemy.

Hints Offered on Storing Cotton Planting Seed

College Station. — Do you store your own cotton planting seed? If you do, it would be a good idea to check the seed for stored grain pests. Fred Elliott, extension cotton specialist, and C. F. Garner, extension entomologist, say these pests occasionally infest stored cottonseed. This is especially true if a large percentage of the seed are cracked or if the seed is stored in infested bins.

Cottonseed should only be stored in bins that have been thoroughly cleaned of waste material such as old grain, trash or feed sacks, the specialists say. Sometimes it is necessary to sweep the ceiling and walls and clean the floor to remove hidden waste. It is also a good practice to cover cracks with builder's molding to prevent seed from collecting in them. Waste grain, seed and other materials beneath and near the bins should be destroyed.

After the bin and surrounding area have been thoroughly cleaned, they should be sprayed with a 2½% solution of either Methoxychlor, TDE or premium grade Malathion. Methoxychlor and TDE are also available as wettable powders and emulsion concentrates.

Dusts can also give satisfactory protection against insect pests. Toxaphene (20%), DDT (5%) or malathion (4-5%) should be mixed with the seed at the rate of 2 oz. per bushel.

Elliott and Garner warn that treated seed should never be crushed or used for feed. For further information on treating stored cottonseed contact the county agent.

Hospital Auxiliary Installs New Type Beds in Two Patient Rooms

A hospital stay with the feeling of home is the direction of room furnishing now, and in keeping with this, St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary recently bought the new low-type hospital beds for two rooms.

The beds are now in use, Mrs. L. C. Hill, Auxiliary president, has reported. To go with them, the hospital is buying the remainder of the furniture for the two rooms.

Mrs. Barton Club Hostess

Mrs. Raymond Barton was hostess to members of the Wellington Homemakers Club in her home recently.

Miss Kathryn Potter gave a program on "Good Grooming for Hair and Makeup," stressing beauty of character as well as beauty of appearance.

During the business meeting Mrs. David Peters presided, and a sack sale was held.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jack Colson Friday, Feb. 17, when Mrs. David Peters will demonstrate the painting of fabric pictures.

New Date Set for Exhibit

The new date for the showing of paintings by Harold Bugbee in Clarendon is Sunday, Feb. 12. The event is sponsored by Les Beaux Arts Club in Clarendon, and a number of Wellington people received invitations.

The event, set originally for Sunday, Feb. 5, was postponed due to the icy condition of the roads. The hours of the exhibit are unchanged.

Since World War II, the idea is to get a patient up as soon as possible," Sister Teresa of the hospital staff explained. "This is much easier with a low bed, for the patient can get up or lie down as he wishes. You need a high bed only for bathing a patient or nursing care, and the beds the Auxiliary has given us can be raised for that purpose."

They can be adjusted with a lowered head to give the position needed by patients in shock or at other needed times.

The furniture is of walnut, with metal trim. Chairs are the wall-saver type—no more pushing one back to scar the wall! Everything is scaled to the new low beds—a hospital addition sure to make a hit with the patient and his family. Auxiliary members are confident.

The next meeting of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary will be Friday, Feb. 10 at 4 p.m.

HD Council Meets Feb. 13

All club presidents and council delegates are urged to attend, as well as chairmen of the standing council committees. These latter are to have their committee members named and ready to turn in, Miss Potter said. These chairmen also will give plans for the year.

There were 20 new couples in attendance, with several more scheduled for this Saturday night. They were assisted in their classes by members of the regular club, who also served coffee and refreshments to the crowd.

Much enthusiasm is shown for the lessons. Milton Beasley, instructor from Lakeview, was unable to make it, due to the icy road conditions, but will be on hand Saturday night, at which time 28 couples are expected. This will be the last night that new members will be able to register for classes, as Mr. Beasley will be unable to hold back an entire group to start a new couple.

Several Wellington high school couples were on hand as well as a number of people from the Dodson area. It is expected that some will attend from the Quail and Samnorwood areas also.

Mrs. Wesson Dies Wednesday at Hollis

Mrs. W. H. Wesson, long-time Harmon county resident who was well known in the Dodson area, died at her home in Hollis at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 1. She was the mother of Mrs. J. C. Howell of Dodson.

Mrs. Wesson was 91 years of age.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Hollis Church of Christ by Minister Earl Bracheen and Minister John Cannon. Burial was in Fairmont Cemetery by Tims Funeral Home.

Born at Florence, Ala., Oct. 2, 1869, she was the former Mattie G. Olive. In 1886 when she was 17 years of age, she and Mr. Wesson were married in Tennessee and they lived there and again in Alabama for a time before moving to Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesson built the Arlie store in 1926, but later that year they moved to the Dryden community, where they opened and operated a store until 1941. He then operated a store at Ron and at Hollis before retiring about 1942. Mr. Wesson preceded her in death in 1946.

Surviving Mrs. Wesson are seven children: Mrs. Howell; Mrs. Mary Guest of Hollis; Mrs. J. N. Turner of Ada, Okla.; C. W. Wesson of Odell; N. L. Wesson of Plainview; G. R. Wesson of Oklahoma City; and J. P. Wesson of Borger. There are 25 grandchildren, 43 great grandchildren and 15 great great grandchildren.

Mrs. R. B. Johnson and children of Cactus visited here over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ball and other relatives. Her husband, who had been working here for the past two weeks returned home with her Sunday.

County Tops 1960 Bond Drive

Collingsworth county citizens bought $147,823 in savings bonds during 1960, Jay Taylor of Amarillo, area chairman, announced this week.

This is 113.7% of the $130,000 bond quota for the year, according to John Forbis, county chairman.

Percentage-wise Collingsworth ranked second in meeting its quota, exceeded only by Roberts county, with 220%.

During December, Collingsworth accounted for $18,962 in bond purchases, Forbis said. Purchases for the month in other area counties were:

Donley $3,546.

Gray $41,858.

Wheeler $20,449.

Childress $7,523.

Hall $23,704.

Cottle $19,432.

Paper Pickup February 10

Friday, February 10, will again be old newspaper pickup day, according to Mrs. Jake Leach, chairman.

Those having papers to be picked up may tie them in bundles or place them in boxes or sacks where they may be easily seen.

The state of Vermont got its name from the French words "vert" and "mont," meaning green mountain.

15 Per Cent of Votes Lost in General Election

314 Collingsworth county citizens failed to have their vote counted in the presidential election Nov. 8. The votes were disqualified mainly because the voters failed to scratch out the Constitution and Prohibition party candidates.

This figure, representing some 15% of the total vote of the county, and other statistical information pertaining to voting in this area, were released today from Republican state headquarters in Houston. The results of the study have been revealed in an effort to apprise Texans of the dangers of careless voting, and to point up the peculiarities in our state election laws which have contributed to an abnormally high vote disqualification.

The report states that there are two election laws which contradict one another. Art. 6.06 of the Election Code provides that the voter shall mark out the names of all candidates he does not wish to vote for, but that the failure to do so shall not invalidate the ballot if the intention of the voter is clear in the opinion of the election judge. Art. 8.21, however, provides that no ballot shall be counted if the candidates for more than one party are left unscratched.

Since, apparently, both laws cannot be applied, the individual Precinct Judge is left with the burden of deciding which law is just. This inconsistency in the law has contributed to the irregular pattern of vote disqualifications between not only counties, but between precincts within counties.

For instance, within this county, returns from Precinct 5 showed one voter disqualified from a total of 115 votes cast, for a low rate of less than 1%. Precinct 7, on the other hand had 24 votes "thrown out" of a total of 130 cast, or about 18% disqualified.

Other illustrative figures in this county include Precinct 11 with no votes not counted; Precinct 1-S with 18% not counted; Precinct 3-N with 15% not counted; and absentee votes with 21% disqualified.

The votes counted and not counted in each voting precinct, according to information from the Republican state headquarters, were:

Voting Box	Counted	Not Counted	% Not Counted
Absentee	84	23	21.44%
S. Welngtn	860	186	17.78%

2,000 Farmers in Great Plains Conservation

College Station.—More than 2,000 farmers and ranchers in 352 counties in the 10 Great Plains States made contracts with the U.S. Department of Agriculture to develop soil and water conservation plans for their lands during the fiscal year of 1960. These contracts covered more than 5½ million acres, the USDA said.

This brought the number of plans and contracts to almost 4,900 covering over 13 million acres at the end of the fiscal year. An additional 3,084 applications covering nearly 2 million acres, had been filed at year's end.

The program is designed to speed-up soil and water conservation measures, through a complete farm or ranch plan of operations, that will bring about a greater degree of agricultural stability in the Great Plains where drought, high winds, blizzards, hail and hard rains are not infrequent. It applies to designated counties in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wyoming.

Lynn Pittard, soil and water specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said that currently 915 farmers or ranchmen in 85 Texas counties have applications on file and that active contracts total 2,157. These contracts cover approximately 4.1 million acres, Pittard said.

Included in the contracts and plans, developed with assistance from the Soil Conservation Service are such practices as converting cropland to grass, planned range re-seeding and many other permanent-type conservation practices.

In carrying out their conservation plans, under contracts ranging from 3 to 10 years, participants established one or more of 24 practices eligible for cost sharing, Pittard said. The Great Plains Conservation Program, Public Law 1021, became law Aug. 7, 1956. First contracts and plans were signed in December 1957.

PTA Has 64th Anniversary on February 17

Parent-Teachers Associations throughout the nation will observe the 64th anniversary of the organization's founding, and units of the 19th district will be among them. Mrs. A. J. Fires, publicity chairman for the district, announced this week.

The efforts of two far-sighted women, Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst, who insisted that the future of the nation must depend on the health of all the people, resulted in the organization that became known as the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, known to most people as the P.T.A.

Objectives of the first meeting in Washington, D.C., remarkably modern in their content, were: (1) to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, church and community; (2) to raise the standards of home life; (3) to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth; (4) to bring into closer relation the home and school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the child; (5) to develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education. These objectives are still the aim of more than 11½ million members today.

On this 64th anniversary of Founders Day, birthday cakes with candles, gifts, pageants, and other special programs will be in evidence as local units pause to pay homage to pioneer workers in the local Parent-Teacher Associations.

Norwood Wins District 14-B First Round

Samnorwood's Eagles, with Joel Lowry hitting 20 points and Bill Bentley 17, downed the Claude Mustangs 62-47 at Samnorwood Monday night, Feb. 6 in the first round of the District 14-B playoff series. The teams will meet again Thursday at Claude in the best two-of-three series.

Samnorwood won the eastern half of the district and Claude finished second in the western section. The winner of their play-off series will play the winner of the Hedley-Dodson series. Hedley finished first in the west and Dodson second in the east.

The Eagles canned 24 of 30 free shots and this was the difference in the game. Harry Wood paced Claude with 19 points.

Samnorwood led 19-9 at the quarter; 35-24 at the half; and 45-35 at three quarters. The Eagles now have a 22-8 record.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jenkins of Stinnett were guests over the week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hiett. Also visiting in the Hiett home was her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Coleman of Oklahoma City, who was here for the funeral of Alex Coleman on Monday.

FORMER RESIDENT TELLS OF LIFE IN ALAMOGORDO, N. M.

By John Lee

Faye and I are very happy here at Alamogordo, N.M. The weather is very mild in the winter. Of course it is hot in the summer, but air conditioning works so effectively that we don't suffer any then. We miss the greenness of good farming areas. At some future date, perhaps sufficient water will be conserved from the mountains to our east to make this a green valley. Anything will grow if enough water is supplied.

As this is a season between government contracts the research at Holloman AFB is below normal. We expect a return to business as usual just as soon as the new administration gets established. This would be the biggest ghost town in history if Holloman AFB ever is abandoned. We have a town of young families. Math and science is very strong in our schools due to the fact that so many engineers are here. We have quite a cosmopolitan population. Teaching children from such families is very interesting.

I am still teaching junior high school math and coaching. I am head wrestling coach and am assisting with the high school varsity football team. Faye is teaching junior English in high school. The school has a 99 percentile rating.

Sally Beth is transferring from North Texas State to Texas Western at mid-term. She is majoring in speech and drama. North Texas isn't equipped to give training in radio and television productions, and since that is the area that Sally is interested in having, she is making the move to Texas Western. They have a very fine association with the radio and television stations in El Paso for giving on the job training. She has made the Dean's list at North Texas each semester; we are hoping the transfer will not throw her off stride.

John Scott is a junior this year. He was first string quarterback on our football team. We insist that he maintain high academic grades. So far he is the only member of his class of over 300 to maintain a 4.0 average for the three years in high school. At present he is making the varsity wrestling team even though this is his first year for the sport.

Martha Ann is a freshman. She is head cheerleader and a true politician. She makes the honor roll, but if it were a choice between being a good student and a good cheerleader, I'm afraid the student would be the one to go. She is a miniature of Sally.

I am pioneering a new sport here. We needed one to supplement the program for the benefit of all the boys, big or small, and to support the other sports. Wrestling seemed a natural as far as qualifications. I started the sport last year. Of course we took a beating from the schools which had established teams. We fared well against those teams who were beginners. This is our second season, and we are getting our pound of flesh. We have been beaten only by the team from the New Mexico School for the Visually Handicapped, which is located here in Alamogordo. They are national champions in the blind school competition. We beat two of the schools from Albuquerque this season. They both beat us soundly last year. Last night we beat Las Cruces for the second time this year. Earlier we beat them in a match in which we got 12 pins (A and B squads combined). We took 10 pins last night. Although our hopes for winning state have been dimmed by two injuries in vital weights, we are hoping to win some individual championships.

Faye's mother spent Christmas with us. She gave us some news from Wellington. She had a Wellington Leader with her. We read it from cover to cover. It is surprising how quickly the population changes in an area. Those children who were in Faye's Camp Fire Girls group are grown and those that I taught are married and have children in school. If I were to have a reunion of all those boys whom I coached there, you would have to have the civic clubs get busy to accommodate the

McIlhenny on 5 Committees

Representative Grainger McIlhenny of Wheeler was named recently by Speaker James A. Turman as chairman of the Committee on Agriculture of the House of Representatives of the 57th Texas Legislature.

Representative McIlhenny was also named as vice chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Amendments, and as a member of the following committees: (1) Conservation and Reclamation; (2) Oil, Gas and Mining; (3) State Affairs.

"Representative McIlhenny will occupy a position of responsibility and leadership during this session," Speaker Turman said. "As chairman of one of the most important committees, and as a member of several others, he will carry a heavy burden of work and will exert a vital influence on legislative policy. I know he will conduct himself in a manner that will reflect credit on himself and will benefit the people of Texas."

McIlhenny is now serving his seventh term in the legislature and is recognized by his colleagues for his outstanding ability and his conscientious devotion to duty.

Singers to Meet February 12

The Second Sunday Singing will be held at the Trinity Methodist Church Sunday, Feb. 12.

Singing will begin at 2 o'clock. A number of singers from the surrounding area are expected, including special quartet groups.

Mrs. W. A. Morrow is president and George Brewer is reporter.

Curtis Clement, who is principal of a school up in the northern part of the state, came to see us during the Christmas holidays. Dr. and Mrs. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil stopped by to see us last fall. Tell our friends that we are the only John Lees listed in the Alamogordo telephone directory, and that we certainly would welcome seeing the people from our home town.

Your friend,
John F. Lee.

Lone Star to Invest $9.3 Million in 1961

Dallas.—Lone Star Gas Co. and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Lone Star Producing Co. plan to invest more than $9.3 million in the West Texas area during 1961 to maintain and strengthen natural gas service.

This expenditure is part of a record $33.6 million initial investment budget approved for Lone Star's service area during the year. The company now serves more than 857,000 residential, commercial and industrial natural gas customers in and around 462 cities, towns and communities in Texas and Southern Oklahoma.

Of the $9.3 million expenditure planned for West Texas, some $1.8 million will go for service lines, meters and regulators; extensions, fortifications and replacement of distribution mains; warehouse and office building improvements and numerous other service facilities.

This money will be applied in Lone Star's West Texas Region of Distribution consisting of some 100 towns and cities comprising the Abilene, Ballinger, Brownwood, Childress, Colorado City, Cisco, Eastland, San Angelo, Seymour, Snyder, Stamford, Sweetwater, Vernon and Wichita Falls districts.

About $4.5 million will be spent on extension and replacement of transmission and gathering pipelines, construction of and additions to gasoline plants, compressor stations and dehydration plants. An estimated $3 million of this money will be used on construction of a 52-mile 18-inch natural gas transmission pipeline, dehydration plant and compressor station in the West Texas area.

Company records show that during the past five years Lone Star purchased 276.5 billion cubic feet of gas from producers and gasoline plants in the West and West Central Texas areas.

Expenditures for drilling new wells in the West and West Central Texas areas by Lone Star's Exploration and Gas Supply division will exceed $2.5 million. In addition, some half million dollars will be invested in leasing, seismograph work and other exploration costs.

At the end of 1960 Lone Star listed 137,443 residential, commercial and industrial customers in its West Texas Region of Distribution, representing an increase of 3,253 over the total customers served at the end of 1959.

Funeral Thurs. at Memphis for Mrs. McIntush

Mrs. J. F. McIntush, who lived for many years west of Quail before moving with her family to Memphis six years ago, died unexpectedly at her home Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 2:30 a.m. after suffering a heart attack.

She was x-ray technician for Odom Clinic Hospital in Memphis.

Funeral services for Mrs. McIntush were conducted on Thursday at Travis Baptist Church, Memphis, with the Rev. L. E. Barrett, pastor, officiating, and burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Mrs. McIntush was the former Dora Neomi Reeves, and was born at Seymour October 13, 1909. She and Mr. McIntush were married July 25, 1926 at Amarillo.

During the time they lived on their farm at Quail, Mr. and Mrs. McIntush developed it into one of the leading Grade A dairies of the area before turning to beef cattle raising. She shared with her husband the recognition he received two years ago when he was honored by the Save the Soils program of Texas for outstanding work.

Mrs. McIntush had been x-ray technician of the Odom Clinic Hospital for a number of years, driving to and from town before the family moved to Memphis.

PRESS HONORED—The George Washington Medal for accomplishment in the field of advertising dedicated to preserving the American Way of Life, was presented the Texas Press Association at its January convention in San Antonio by Associate Justice Meade Griffin of the Texas Supreme Court. Judge Griffin presented the plaque, pictured above, on behalf of the Freedom Foundation of Valley Forge, Pa. Receiving the national award for TPA, on behalf of the daily and weekly newspapers of Texas, was L. B. Smith, publisher of the Brady Standard-Herald, president of the press group.

Surviving are her husband and one son, Carl McIntush of Memphis; four sisters and two half brothers: Mrs. A. A. Wilson and Benny Roy Reeves of Amarillo; Mrs. Jesse York and Mrs. J. C. Parker of Beaumont; Mrs. Illa Lae Morgan of Jacksonville, Fla., and Clifford S. Reeves.

The commission plan of city government was first used in Galveston as an emergency measure after the 1900 flood.

LETTERS from the People

Honolulu, Hawaii
Hickam Air Force Base
Jan. 30, 1961

Dear Mr. Wells:

I'm sure you don't remember me personally, but I grew up in Wellington and it was my home until I married and went to live as an Air Force wife. Since then we have traveled to many places.

Last September, ten years ago, we moved to Anchorage, Alaska and that was our home for two years. Alaska was the most beautiful place I have ever seen and we really enjoyed it. In 1952 we came back to the States and were in Alabama, Georgia and Texas. After staying in Wichita Falls, Texas for five years we were sent to Honolulu, Hawaii.

I only wish everyone in Wellington could come over and visit us and see what a lovely place this is. The climate is the most wonderful I have ever seen. The average is around 75 to 85 degrees and very seldom varies. In December and January the evenings are a little cooler, consequently flowers and grass are pretty the year round.

There are many, many varieties of flowers, some of which I had never heard of. Even the trees bloom. The most common of course are coconut and palm. Some others are banana, of which we have in our back yard, poinciana, alvaco, bread fruit, jackfruit, and ever so many more. Some of the fruits are very good, and some you have to acquire a taste for. There are such fruit as banana, guava, passion fruit, pineapple, sweet and sour sap, and mango.

The most beautiful flower of course is the orchid. Others grown here are poinsettia, antherium, oleander, ginger and bird of paradise.

The majority of lawns are bermuda grass.

There are seven main islands in the Hawaiian group, consisting of the big island, Hawaii; the one we live on, Oahu, Kauai, Maui, Lanai, Molokai, and Nuhua.

Oahu is the most popular because of the city of Honolulu and Waikiki. I'm sure most everyone has heard of the famous Waikiki Beach. It is a most fascinating place. The big island of Hawaii of course is where the volcano erupted and left so many homeless.

The most popular sport is surf board and swimming. The most of our time is spent on the beach. The island is almost completely surrounded by beaches.

There are many races of people here; all of which are very friendly. The majority are Chinese, Japanese and Hawaiian. The lesser are Samoan, Portuguese, Negro and Caucasian. There is no racial segregation here. All races go to the same schools, churches, and they get along beautifully.

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, February 9, 1961

There are many religions here too. The leading two are Buddhist and Catholic.

There is every branch of service people here, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Army and Coast Guard. The island is well protected as far as military.

You may not find this interesting enough to publish but if you do I've tried to summarize it so the people of Wellington can visualize this wonderful place. I only wish everyone could see it.

Thank you.
Mrs. J. B. Stratton
(formerly Donnie Armstrong)

P. S. I'm sure you remember Ola B. Tice (Killingsworth), she is over here too and only lives two blocks from us. I see her frequently.

Six on CJC Honor Roll

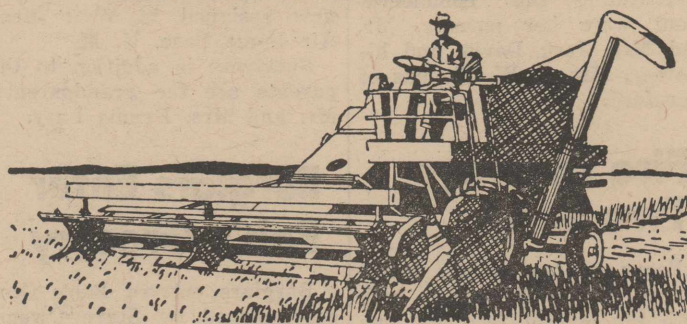

Six Collingsworth county students were listed on the semester honor roll for Clarendon Junior College, Dean Oliver Abel has announced.

They are Margaret Oldham, Gerard Darrow, and Alice Johnson of Samnorwood, Albert Mosenbocker of Dodson, Neal White of Quail and Mrs. Pauline Masten of Wellington. Mrs. Masten is a special student.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Estes and Bill and Mr. and Mrs. John Eron Forbis and Rommie attended the Fat Stock Show and Rodeo in Fort Worth over the week end.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

My horoscope sign for Wednesday said: "Look at the positive side to counteract tendency to worry."

The City of Wellington has obtained 200 portable hospital beds through Civil Defense. These will be stored in the basement of the Community Building for use in case of disaster such as a tornado or epidemic or they could be taken to surrounding communities and towns in case of need. Congratulations—that is positive precaution.

Not long after the gin fire at Quail, N. E. Childers was in The Leader office talking about the need of a fire truck at Quail. He was impressed with the work of the fire trucks from Wellington and Hedley. One was about to start from Memphis, but it was called to fight a fire at Alaska. He says that the Hedley truck is one that Donley County secured through Civil Defense and keeps stationed at Hedley. He says that the people of Quail would take care of such a truck and bear the expense of its maintenance if the county will get it for them.

Well, if they will take care of it, why not a truck for Quail and one for Samnorwood and Dodson also? It takes fifteen minutes or more to get a truck from Wellington to any of these places and any fireman will tell you that the first five minutes are the most important in fighting a fire. Contrary to the general opinion that everybody and his dogs and horses has moved to town, there are still a lot of fine homes in the country in each of these communities.

People of this county bought $18,962 worth of savings bonds in December, according to Jay Taylor of Amarillo. Childress bought $7,523 and Donley $3,546. Percentage-wise, Collingsworth ranked second in the Panhandle in meeting its quota, being exceeded only by Roberts. That's good. Somebody must be saving some money.

Both the boys and girls basketball teams of Wellington defeated Perryton in conference play Tuesday night. It is beginning to look like Coach Clements' Rockettes might win another district championship. They are in a three-game playoff with Spearman.

I wish I could be as firm and steadfast in my convictions as David Baumgardner.

Father of Mrs. Allen Graves Dies at McLean

Funeral services for William Edward Green, 84, were conducted at First Methodist Church, McLean, Monday, Feb. 6. Mr. Green, who died at his home Saturday after a long illness, was the father of Mrs. Allen Graves.

Conducting the funeral were the Rev. L. R. Green, pastor of the Assembly of God, and the Rev. Dan Beltz, pastor of First Baptist Church in McLean. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Mr. Green moved to McLean from Aspermont in 1926. He had visited his daughter's family here many times.

Surviving are his wife and six children: Joe of McLean, Walt of Denver, Earl of Roseville, Calif., Mrs. Ethel Webb of Hot Springs, N.M., Mrs. Viola Kunkle of McLean and Mrs. Graves. There are three sisters surviving, along with 20 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves and Miss Virginia Graves attended the funeral from here.

Saunders 5th at Stock Show

J. C. Saunders, Quail Future Farmer, won fifth place with his hog at the Port Worth Fat Stock Show.

The animal, a Chester-Pol and cross, was entered in the open class, any breed.

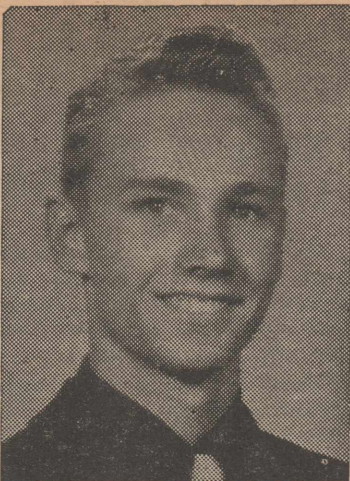

Boys from that chapter attending the show were Saunders, Billy Wilson, Rudell White, Buford Wheeler, Tommy Haralson, James Boen and Jimmy Finley. They were accompanied by Frank Kennedy, advisor.

I asked him if he had decided who he would vote for in the senate race. "Sure, John Tower." No explanation, no argument, no discussion—just a big smile and three words. That's positive enough.

I had been thinking about voting for that lady who designs clothes and manufactures diapers. She is by far the best looking candidate and, if she ever got on TV would be a whiz of a runner.

Do you know there are 25 candidates already in that race. I have not decided which one I will vote for, but I have already selected three that I am going to vote against.

Speaking of diapers, the Dee Burbas are the parents of twins—and you guessed it—they live on El Paso street. Still more ammunition for Dr. Holcomb in his campaign to get the street renamed Fertility Avenue.

John G. Thomas

Thomas Gets A&M Degrees

Two degrees were conferred on John Gordon Thomas, formerly of Wellington, at the commencement exercise of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College Jan. 21.

Thomas was granted a bachelor of science degree in agricultural economics and a master of science degree in entomology. Last year he received the bachelor of science degree in agricultural education.

He has joined the Extension Service and is stationed at Lubbock as an assistant entomologist. He and his wife, the former Janice Davis, have moved there. She formerly worked as an assistant in the bio-chemistry laboratory at A&M.

Attending the commencement were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis, and his mother, Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Hereford.

Fire Destroys Two Barns

Barns on two county farms burned during the week, both with the loss of feed and one with loss of livestock.

Fire broke out in a large barn at the A. D. Holliman farm at Rolla Monday, Feb. 6, at mid-afternoon, with the loss of four sows and 20 pigs and approximately 400 bales of hay.

Holliman, with a small group who were able to reach the farm, saved a tractor and a horse.

Origin of the fire is undetermined. The farm is owned by Mrs. A. N. Wiseman of Albuquerque, N.M.

The other fire occurred on Wednesday, Feb. 1 on the Harris Royal farm in the Kelley community, when a wooden barn caught while near-by fence rows were being burned out.

Visit Elementary School Here

Two Tulia school administrators visited Wellington elementary school to get information on this school's membership in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, and to study the curriculum, subject offerings, and how the school was evaluated.

They were Miss Wilkins, supervisor of schools in Tulia, and Mr. Mitchell, elementary principal.

They praised highly the work of Principal Jack Davis and his teaching personnel, and were especially interested in the accelerated reading program the school offers. J. D. Wilson, county school supervisor, reported.

Services for Delisle Infant

Graveside services for Monique Delisle, the infant daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Marc Delisle, were conducted at West Wellington cemetery by the Rev. Kevin Hand, pastor of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church on Thursday, Feb. 2.

Local arrangements were by Kelso Funeral Home. The baby was born Jan. 21 in Weisbaden, Germany, and died a few hours later. The parents returned to the United States after a tour of duty in Germany, reaching here Jan. 28, and Sgt. Delisle is now assigned to West Mesa Air Force Base, N. M.

Survivors in addition to the parents are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lacy.

Burglars Enter Bob's Grocery

Burglars entered Bob's Grocery, owned by Steve Owens, on Highway 83 Sunday night, Feb. 5, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

As far as could be determined, only two cartons of pop were missing. Sheriff Rainey said entry was gained by breaking out a back window.

200 Beds

000, was provided by the federal Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization as part of a nationwide stockpile program.

State Civil Defense and health authorities estimate that emergency hospitals will have to provide at least half the total available hospital beds following a major emergency, since the bulk of existing conventional hospitals are located in metropolitan centers which may be targets for enemy action in case of nuclear attack.

Texas now has 63 of the "packaged" disaster hospitals such as Wellington will receive. Ninety per cent are located at least 15 miles from assumed strategic target areas.

Mrs. Boright

she had shared the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Petersen. Before coming here, they lived at Chickasha, Okla., and prior to that at Duncan.

Mrs. Boright is survived by her sister, and one brother, Robert Dan Proffitt of Elmore, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Belew and Joe Paul, moved this week to Troy, Kan., to make their home.

Don Crawford Gets Degree

Don Crawford was graduated from Central Technical Institute in Kansas City on Jan. 29, and has begun work in the electronic engineering section of Convair in Fort Worth.

Upon completing the two-year course of study, Crawford received an associate degree in science.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Crawford, attended the graduation.

While in Kansas City, Mrs. Don Crawford, the former Betty Elliott, was employed at the Kansas City Title Insurance Co., and Crawford also worked at Village TV Co.

Alex Coleman

Upon reaching manhood, Mr. Coleman entered farming and livestock raising and over a number of years built up his holdings in the Dozier area.

He was elected county commissioner in 1925, serving three terms, to 1931, and this began the busy years of community service.

He was a member of the county ASC committee, and the predecessor programs, the PMA and AAA, for 15 years and served much of that time as chairman. He was a member of the committee at the time of his death. At one time, while working with the 7-point cotton program, it was estimated that he gave two days of every week to it.

Alex Coleman was president of the board of directors of Greenbelt Electric Co-operative Inc., and president of the Farm Bureau, holding each office several years.

He was one of the first to grow alfalfa here and was the chairman of Northwest Texas Alfalfa Growers Association.

During World War II he was a member of the rationing board.

For 30 years he was a member of the school board, first at Dozier, then of the Samnorwood rural high school district, which he helped to organize.

He was a member of the Samnorwood Lions Club.

In 1959 Alex Coleman and five of his brothers won recognition for their work in agriculture when they were named the Outstanding Conservationist Group in Texas under the Save the Soil and Save Texas Awards program.

On Sept. 9, 1914 he was married to Miss Lettie Hooten at Dozier.

He had been a member of the Church of Christ since he was 14 years of age.

Funeral services for Mr. Coleman were conducted at the Dozier Church of Christ Monday at 1:30 p.m. by Minister Truman Teel of Dill City, Oklahoma, as friends from every walk of life came over icy

Youths Kill Large Bobcat

By Mrs. Alex Coleman

Rickey DeLeon and his brother, two Spanish-American boys who live in the Dozier community, killed a 47-pound bobcat Monday in the pasture on the Pat Bradley farm.

The boys were out hunting with their .22 rifle when they came upon the bobcat asleep in a ravine.
