Home Town Talk

By B. D. D.

The Musicians club is giving an open program at the Junior college auditorium tonight to which the public is invited. Admission will be free. Local musicians will be presented on this program and the Musicians club is extending the invitation to the public in order that others may enjoy the program with its membership.

Here's something that those of us who can no longer be considered young can think about. "The older generation," writes Dr. Ralph W. Sockman on "Mistakes of Moralists" in the December Harper's, "almost invariably assumes that youth presents a problem of wildness to be tamed and forgets that age, on the other hand, presents a tameness to be disturbed. Adult minds need the continuous infusion of youth's fresh idealism. Moral education must be a cooperation of tion of younger fellow seekers."

"Tameness to be disturbed . . . youth's fresh idealism . . . cooperation of younger fello wseekers."

And here's some more from the same article for preachers and congregations and especially for congregations about to call or be assigned a new preacher:

"The word preach carries most unpleasant connotations. It implies moral superiority on the one side and mental weakness on the other. Speakers seeking to win the favor of an audience always disclaim any intention of preaching. Churches, like colleges, must aim to teach their members how to think rather than what to think. Persons trained in the laboratory technic of progressive schools are not going to sit supinely on Sundays and be exhorted by sermons which show little sign of experimental study and offer no opportunity for refutation. The minister of religion must be a partner of his people in the progressive enterprise of moral enlightenment. His specialized training and spiritualized purpose should fit him to be a teacher and interpreter. His parish activities should be a combination of the lecture and laboratory methods in the proper proportions to encourage free inquiry and firsthand discovery. He will have attained true artistry as a moralist only when his parishioners shall say, 'Our minister does not preach to us.'"

Ten million two hundred thousand of the members of the 232,154 churches in the country are under 13. The White House conference on child health and protection is told. It is recommended that parents make fuller use of the church, not alone for spiritual values, but also as a needed educational measure.

In addition to the church, the committee reports that other organized agencies which influence boys and girls in the 40 per cent of their time which is spent outside the home and school include the girl agencies which touch 1,500,000; the boy agencies which enroll 2,100,000, and the neighborhood agencies which attract 1,400,000. The committee estimates that from one-fourteenth to one-twelfth of the total time of the 45,590,341 young people in the United States under 18 is spent in school. One-third of their time is spent in sleep.

We hope our chamber of commerce agitates this proposal to permit the payment of taxes in installments until something is done about it. The plan seems to have much merit and little objection. It appears to be in the interest of the individual and in the interest of the public corporation to which the tax is paid as well. It would make it easier and more convenient for the taxpayer to pay his taxes. It would assure a fuller collection of taxes. It works in other states. Why not adopt the plan in Texas?

We were talking the other night about failure and success; about the accidents that influence our lives and how narrow is the margin between what is adjudged as failure and what is acclaimed as success. My friend and I agreed that anyone who had won a measure of success ought not to be puffed up over it.

In the current issue of the American Magazine Edgar A. Guest, who writes better prose than he does poetry, tells of an instance where a large newspaper organization was rendered impotent for hours because of the absence of a janitor. Guest says it was the most forcible lesson against "high-hatting" he had ever seen.

"The trouble with us when we become high-hat and believe that we are indispensable is that we forget to realize that we are making ourselves ridiculously small," observes Guest. "The high hat's handicap is that it is an uncomfortable piece of headgear at the best. It makes most folks ridiculous. It frightens away friends and it fails to frighten away a single enemy. If a man had been intended to strut, the Lord would have fashioned him as He fashioned the peacock. I've seen arrogance ruin any number of brilliant careers. It is the spoiler of personality. Conceit is a deadly virus and once it gets into the human system, the victim is done for. In the first place, a truly great man knows life and understands it. He must have that wisdom to achieve greatness. He has a proper sense of values. He knows how little he has done compared to the sum of things he would like to do. He knows how much he owes to good fortune."

500 AT MASS MEETING

Enthusiastic Crowds Hear Plans for Revival of Business

NOCONA, Nov. 20.—Nocona is in the fight for better business.

Thursday evening a meeting was held in the high school athletic auditorium and after addresses by President J. S. Bridwell of the chamber of commerce, W. B. Hamilton, John Boswell, J. C. Mytinger and Fred L. Haskett, all of Wichita Falls, the citizens voted to start the campaign at once.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor True Strong. T. B. Wilks was elected permanent chairman and F. L. Perry, secretary. The following general committee was named: C. M. McCall, Gould Whaley, Robert Flint, John R. Miller and G. W. Humphrey. The committee will meet Friday morning and assign each as a chairman of a committee and select other workers.

The work to be taken up will be agriculture, home improvements, employment and retail trade. The attendance at the meeting was excellent, over 100 men and women being present.

The general chairman, T. B. Wilks, extended thanks in behalf of the citizenship to the Wichita Falls delegation for coming to their assistance and pledged their cooperation to Wichita Falls in any movements that are for the upbuilding of this section of the state.

ELECTRA OPENS OPPORTUNITY CAMPAIGN

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, Texas, Nov. 20.—Electra's Opportunity campaign for future business properitty, under the combined leadership of the city's civic bodies, got off to a flying start here Thursday night when 500 enthusiastic citizens gathered in a mass meeting held at the First Methodist church. Steps in the drive for business betterment took concrete form with the announcement that a house-to-house canvass, petitioning householders to make necessary purchases and repairs at once was announced for Friday, and the opening of an employment registry at the chamber of commerce was made known.

Parrot 'Cusses' Himself Into Brand New Home

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20. (INS)—The nameless red-headed parrot at the St. Louis zoo, with the vocabulary of a mule-driver has "cussed" himself right out of one home and into another.

The bird which was donated to the zoo by an owner whose name is not even recalled during the late parrot disease epidemic, has been sold to Jasper Bayne of New York for $140, the zoo announced today.

Bayne's bid was the highest offered by 619 persons who wrote in from all parts of the United States and Canada concerning the bird with the bad tongue.

Four Killed as Car Crashes Into Train

DETROIT, Nov. 20. (UP)—Four persons, three unidentified, were killed tonight when their automobile crashed into a Michigan Central passenger train at Ecorse, a suburb.

The automobile was carried half a block, wrecked completely and the bodies all were mangled badly.

One was identified as that of H. E. Van Conneyt, 50, of Ecorse. The other bodies were those of a woman and two children.

Unmasked Pair Makes Official Give Up $2,000

BORGER, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—Two unmasked and armed men forced Postmaster Harold Rothchild to leave his home, shortly after 8 p. m., tonight, and open the postoffice safe for them, taking money estimated at between $2,000 to $4,000. One man remained at the house and guarded Mrs. Rothchild while the other took Rothchild to the postoffice.

The exact amount obtained was unknown but postal officials and Inspector Johnson from Amarillo were checking records to ascertain the loss.

The postoffice is on the main street of Borger and the postmaster's office, where the safe is kept, is in full view of the sidewalk. Window curtains were drawn by the robber as he entered and as the public lobby of the building was open the postmaster was warned to keep quiet.

At the point of a pistol, the robber compelled Rothchild to open the safe.

After about 30 minutes, he and Rothchild returned to the Rothchild home, where the other robber had compelled Mrs. Rothchild and Mannie Brumbach, Rothchild's nephew, to enter a bathroom and stand facing a wall. Rothchild was commanded to enter the room with them as the robbers departed, they shut the door, although they did not lock it. They warned Rothchild not to seek help until they were gone.

GERMANY MAY DELAY DEBTS

Curtius Points to Young Plan Provisions

BERLIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—Foreign Minister Julius Curtius tonight told the nation and the world that Germany might be compelled to invoke the safeguard measures of the Young plan.

These safeguard measures refer to a moratorium and the convocation of a special advisory committee to bring about alleviations permissible under the plan. The foreign minister's speech constituted Germany's first official intimation she is likely to invoke her right under the plan to declare a moratorium.

Herr Curtius chose an opportune moment for his speech, after the Reichsrat had passed virtually all legislation connected with the government's financial program.

At the same time he expressed sharp criticism of Europe's sluggish attitude toward disarmament and, in connection with a recent speech on that issue by Premier Tardieu of France, he declared Germany would demand an early disarmament conference, "where each nation must show its colors and its real intentions."

This is a time, he said, to exercise firmness coupled with prudence. He assured the world Germany had no intention of scrapping the Young plan, that the government realized how far-reaching invocation of the Young plan alleviatory measures would be, and that therefore Germany would not resort to them until its burdens became dangerously oppressive to its people.

Details of Stokes Divorce Kept Secret

RENO, Nev., Nov. 20. (UP)—Details of his suit for divorce kept secret to the last, W. E. D. Stokes Jr., scion of a family that has been in the headlines for many years, won the decree he sought here late today.

The wealthy New Yorker was granted a divorce from Florence Crittenden Stokes on the allegation of insanity and Judge Bartlett ruled that his complaint be put on the secret file.

DEATH TOLL MOUNTS

Mid-West Blizzards Halt Rail and Wire Traffic

BETHANY, Okla., Nov. 20. (AP)—Helped generously by a sympathetic public, this little Nazarene colony was recovering rapidly tonight from the effects of yesterday's tornado.

The death list continued to mount through the day, however. The deaths of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiet, an aged couple, brought fatalities to 20.

Two brothers, named Griffin, were reported to Red Cross headquarters as missing. Several injured victims still were in a critical condition.

A call by the American Red Cross and Gov. W. J. Holloway for $30,000, broadcast by newspaper and radio, had met with pledges and cash totaling more than $25,000 early tonight.

Contractors Help

Contractors, insurance companies and building and loan organizations volunteered their assistance in rebuilding the wind-torn area, a section occupied chiefly by the homes of working men.

A spokesman for the State Contractors' association said rebuilding work would be undertaken without thought of profit as soon as the bare cost of materials was provided.

Insurance companies said claims would be paid off within 48 hours. Building and loan company officers said leniency would be shown in the collection of outstanding loans and in the granting of new ones.

National guardsmen who have patroled the district were to be withdrawn tonight.

WINTER STORM HITS MID-WEST

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 20. (AP)—A winter storm riding east from the Rocky mountains tied knots in wire communication and hampered rail and highway traffic through the West today in the wake of tornadoes that took 21 lives and injured about 100 persons in Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas yesterday.

Snow, sleet, rain and sharp drops in temperature were the accompaniments of the storm's sally into the Mid-West.

Oil Tariff Move Wins Wichitans

Wichita Falls' oildom will fight for a tariff on foreign crude.

Dramatically, three leading operators here who heretofore have been opposed to the idea of protection against incoming petroleum, Thursday made public their "conversion" to the tariff forces.

At a meeting of the North Texas Oil and Gas association to discuss proration matters, the three leaders were applauded by 125 independent operators after they had announced their change of heart.

W. S. Bridwell took the floor and said:

"Gentlemen, I have a confession to make. In the past I have been 'agin' an oil tariff. I want it to be known that from now on I am 'fur' it."

J. F. O'Donohoe next took the floor and announced his conversion to the protection theory.

Then W. B. Hamilton arose:

"I may be out of order but I, too, favor a tariff on oil."

The applause gauged the sentiment of the other operators present. Wichita Falls operators took little part in the battle for an oil duty several months ago when the measure was defeated in the senate by a single vote. At that time Mr. Bridwell and Mr. O'Donohoe said they believed the best method of remedying the oil situation was to cut production, after they had conferred with W. S. Farish, president of the Humble Oil and Refining company at Houston.

LARCENY CASE GOES TO JURY

34 Liquor Bills Returned in Grand Jury Report

Trial of Forrest Lawson, Drannen Lawson, I. H. Steed, G. D. Steed and J. D. (Buck) Steed before Judge William H. Atwell in federal court here on charges of larceny of an inter-state shipment and conspiracy consumed almost the entire day Thursday, the case reaching the jury shortly before 6 p. m.

The five defendants, all Wichita Falls men, were charged by the government with having taken two cases of cigarets from a box car in the local railroad yards and placing the contraband property one sale in the grocery store owned by I. H. Steed, father of the other pair of the same name listed as defendants.

Officer Chief Witness

Practically all of the prosecution's case consisted of testimony given by a railroad officer, who told of coming to this city, winning the confidence of Forrest Lawson, and participating in both the robbery and disposition of the stolen goods. The government contended that the cigarets were taken from the car by Forrest Lawson, transferred to the Lawson home by Drannen Lawson, removed on the following morning, April 17, to the Steed grocery by Forrest Lawson and J. D. (Buck) Steed, having been purchased by the elder Steed with the aid and consent of his two sons.

Each of the defendants took the stand during Thursday afternoon for questioning by Earl Kuntz, defense counsel. Forrest Lawson gave a prolonged description of his participation in the affair, and said that of the $55 alleged to have been received from the sale of the merchandise to Steed he received $1 for his help. From the testimony introduced by the defense, it appeared that all of Lawson's activities throughout the entire transaction were in direct compliance with

Triangle Slayer Gets Suspended Sentence

EL PASO, Nov. 20. (UP)—A jury in district court here today found A. M. Hancock, 35, guilty of murdering his best friend, Henry Harris, 45, after one hour and 20 minutes deliberation.

On Hancock's plea of the unwritten law, the jury recommended leniency and he was given a suspended sentence of two years in the state penitentiary.

Hancock killed Harris here two months ago when he returned from Los Angeles, where he had been hunting work, after receiving a letter from his son, Eugene, 16, advising him of his wife's alleged associations with Harris.

Delegates from Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas will meet here. The money will be used to establish scholarships, professorships and to erect a new building.

FOUR BARREL BASIS ASKED IN NORTH TEXAS

Rail Board Urged to Place Six-Barrel Wells on Proration

NEW STATE SCHEDULE

Leaders Seek to Reconcile Views of Interior and Coast Operators

North Texas oil men voted Thursday to ask the state to prorate the production of all wells in this district making four barrels daily or more. Under the present state regulations wells making less than six barrels are not included in the general proration order.

Extend Restrictions

It was estimated this move, if brought into effect, will place approximately 9,000 barrels of oil under restricted yield. The decision was made in the form of a resolution passed at a meeting of the North Texas Oil and Gas association at the Wichita club. About 125 producers, refiners and pipe line operators attended.

The request will be laid before the Texas railroad commission at a general hearing Friday in Austin. A number of Wichita Falls men left Thursday night for the capital to attend the hearing.

Detailed discussions of various plans to make proration more effective in North Texas were held before the resolution finally was adopted. Some operators proposed reducing the minimum marginal wells to three barrels and the four-barrel figures was adopted as a minimum.

Committee Named

On a motion by T. F. Hunter, President Barney Flynn appointed a committee to work with organizations in other sections of the state in the interest of keeping the yield of oil down to a figure already agreed upon. Members of this committee are Roy B. Jones, Lee Underwood, T. O. Shappell, T. F. Hunter and Fred Sehmann.

During the meeting short talks were made by T. F. Hunter, W. M. Priddy, Merrill Blair, J. F. O'Donohoe, Roy B. Jones, C. B. Long and W. B. Hamilton. L. T. Burns also made a stirring address.

STATE MAY CHANGE BASIS OF PRORATION ORDERS

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—New difficulties in the way of an equitable distribution of the oil production of Texas may lead the state railroad commission to base its state proration order for the next 60 days on the "common purchaser" act, it developed on the eve of a state wide hearing today.

Whether this law should be utilized, rather than the conservation law under which the order of Aug. 26 was issued, undoubtedly will be one of the subjects discussed among operators at two preliminary hearings here tomorrow preceding the commission hearing, set for Saturday.

Although the previous 90-day order was promulgated under the conservation statute, in effect the common purchaser act has been resorted to in enforcement of proration. The common purchaser act provided pipe lines should purchase equitably from all operators.

Belief that a discussion of this subject would form a large part of the hearing arose from announcement of pipe line nominations by Dave Donoghue, technical adviser for the central proration committee.

Schedules Revised

Donoghue reported total nominations and nomination estimates were 718,000 barrels daily as compared to the allowable production of 75,000 barrels and the actual production of 780,000 barrels daily under the present order.

The nominations disclosed cuts ranging from about 1500 barrels in the Panhandle to nearly 35,000 barrels in West Texas. Conversely, the Gulf coast, which was allowed 150,000 barrels during the last 90 days, and produced 165,000 barrels, would be allowed 171,000 barrels under Donoghue's tabulation.

Present actual production and nominations for the next 60 days as reported by Donoghue follow:

Panhandle, present production 81,150, against nominations 79,816; North Texas 63,100 against 57,847; West Central Texas 47,400 against 24,304; West Texas 283,550 against 249,877; East Central, 41,500 against 38,355; Southwest Texas 98,350 against 87,258; and Gulf Coast 165,200 against 171,448.

This shows the Gulf coast, already on a 90-day probation period, the only field in Texas where the demand for the next period will be

Standard-Shell Combine Drafts Blockade To Halt Price-Cutting Of Soviet

By T. C. WATSON
Universal Service Staff

LONDON, Nov. 20.—An international oil war on the grand scale to "cure" Soviet dumping and underselling is being planned today by the petroleum titans—Standard Oil, Shell and Anglo-Persian groups.

Although this announcement might at present bring a denial, Universal Service is able to present on the highest authority certain anti-Soviet aspects of a combine which in itself may finally give birth to a world-wide war among the Titans themselves.

Monopoly of Tankers

Standard Oil, Shell and Anglo-Persian magnates, in their war against Russian Oil Products, the Soviet gasoline-selling organization, have prepared a program which will make the Soviets gasp for breath because of its magnitude.

The chief stragetic move in opposition to Russia is the creation of a monopoly of all available oil tankers, on which the Soviet petroleum organization relied to flood Great Britain with Soviet gasoline selling far under the standard price.

Standard Oil and Shell possess an ample fleet of tankers, and these they intend to intern in harbors and rivers, chartering at the same time all available independent oil transports.

This move leaves the Soviet without adequate sea transport facilities. Although it may be an expensive maneuver that will freeze out many smaller concerns, the big groups intend definitely and finally to flatten the price-cutting Soviet group. A high authority characterized the move:

'Flatten' Soviet

"It's like a poker game. Russia may hold the cards but she lacks the chips for bluffing."

Heretofore in Britain, there has been a tacit understanding among the Soviet representatives and the Standard Oil and Shell concerns. But the Russian government is recalling its oil men because this association with the "capitalist oil group has brought the situation to a climax."

Although R. G. Terkopeff and Dr. L. B. Rabinovitch have been ordered to return to Russia, it is most doubtful that they will obey. They openly admit they fear punishment because, during their stay in England, they realized the power of the big oil concerns and were content to play ball with them regarding prices.

Gasoline today is selling in England at 32 and one-half cent an imperial gallon which, after deducting the eight-cent tax, represents a 10 per cent loss to the producers. Russia threatens to undersell this figure, but at the moment is thwarted because of the first effects of the lack of transport.

Port Arthur Sea Wall Funds in Question

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—Officials of the city of Port Arthur conferred today with Attorney General R. L. Robbitt, relative to a mandamus suit to determine what use funds for the construction of the Port Arthur retaining wall could be put.

Question arose in connection with use of the funds for other than actual construction of the sea wall. While advising the officials, Bobbitt did not promise to intervene in the suit as asked.

Texas Worker Smothered Under Flood of Grain

GALVESTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Otto Sawagski, 40, employed at a wharf front grain elevator, was smothered to death today when he was buried under a flood of grain coming down a chute. Sawagski was working in the chute on the second floor of the elevator and the grain came down from several stories above. Employes uncovered him 15 minutes later. He was taken to a hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Mothers Congress Urges Instruction in Thrift

SAN ANGELO, Texas, Nov. 20. (UP)—Courses in thrift were advocated for Texas schools in a resolution adopted by the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers in annual convention today.

Courses in systematic saving, wise spending and judicious use of time and money will be sought.

The congress today reaffirmed its stand for having county superintendents appoint school boards rather than the present system of having the boards elected.

18-Year-Old Otto Dons Royal Robes to Play at Being King

By KATHRYN STOFFREGEN

BRUSSELS, Nov. 20. (US)—Otto Hapsburg-Lorraine didn't go to the classes at Louvan university today. Instead of playing sick—as most boys might to miss school on an 18th birthday—Otto crawled into a couple of ermine robes and played that he was king of Hungary.

Otto's mother didn't try to chase her offspring out of Castle Steenockersell to the rooms where frowning pedants dispense history, economics and philosophy. No, indeed. It was no secret that mother, ex former Empress Zita of Austro-Hungary, ordered those ermine robes thoroughly cleaned for Otto.

The robes are relics of Otto's father, former Emperor Karl I of Austria who was also king IX of Hungary. Emperor Karl stepped down off the dual throne in November, 1918, and five months later was told by the Austrian people that he needn't ever come back into the country.

Since that time, Mother Zita and Son Otto, together with a few others of the eight children of the royal house of Hapsburg-Lorraine, wandered over the continent.

But today, with relatives and Hungarian nobility gathered at Steenockersell, Otto no longer was referred to as archduke, prince imperial and heir to the throne of Austro-Hungary. Under the aegis of Ex-Empress Zita and Count Albert Apponyi, leader of Hungarian legitimists, young Otto having attained his 18th birthday became king of Hungary—with his capital in Belgium.

Bank Bookkeeper Held On Misapplication Charge

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 20. (INS)—William A. Rogers, bookkeeper of the First National bank at Kenedy, was held under a federal warrant here today charged with misapplication of $6,000 of the bank's funds.

Charges against Rogers were filed with United States Commissioner Paul Lockhart. Bond was set at $3,000.

Rogers was arrested at Campbellton by Deputy Marshal Willis Johnson and charges were filed against him by the department of justice.

Life expectation has been increased from 48 to 58 years in the last two decades, according to the U. S. public health service.

U. D. C. ROBBED OF JEWELRY

Thieves Take $10,000 From Delegates' Rooms

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 20. (INS)—Theft of jewelry valued at more than $10,000 from the rooms of delegates to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was reported to police today.

Two women who were rooming together suffered the heaviest loss. Mrs. W. Herbert Wiley, Greenwich, Conn., reported that a string of pearls valued at $5,000 and a diamond brooch of the same value had been stolen. Her roommate, Mrs. L. D. Lewis of Greenwich, said a valuable pair of nose glasses had been stolen from her.

A diamond-studded wrist, watch valued at $750 was stolen from the room of Mrs. J. T. Medlin of Jacksonville, Fla., she reported.

Brighter Days!

You need not punish a sluggish system with purgatives that do violence. Just chew a pleasant Cascaret before bedtime. Next morning you'll be a new person. Candy Cascarets are made from cascara—which doctors say actually strengthens the bowel muscles. So their action is always beneficial. They clear up a stubborn, bilious, headachy and constipated condition every time. You awake with coating gone from tongue; with eyes brightened; breath sweetened; appetite on edge. For a bright morning, try a Cascaret tonight. Then you'll know why 20 million boxes are used every year.

HOWARD AFTER ROAD BONDS

$900,000 Issue Sought by Highway Group

Special to The Record News.

BIG SPRING, Texas, Nov. 20.—M. H. Morrison, Big Spring attorney and pioneer good roads worker of Howard county was elected chairman of the Howard Good Roads association formed at a meeting of Big Spring and Howard county citizens here. Fifteen rural communities of the county were represented by one or more of their citizens who were guests of the Business Men's Luncheon club at the noon hour.

Facts and figures regarding the road bond issue were discussed. A bond issue of $900,000 will be asked to pave both highways leading out of Big Spring as well as to take care of some lateral roads in the county.

Woodmen Circles To Convene Nov. 25

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., Nov. 20.—Altus grove number 28 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen circle will act as hostess for a district meeting of the society to be held Tuesday in the Odd Fellows hall in this city.

Arrangements for this convention are being made under the direction of Mrs. Fannie B. Goff, district manager.

Mrs. A. Burris of Tulsa, assistant state manager, will be one of the principal speakers and a guest of honor.

A large delegation of out-of-town persons are expected for this convention including members from Hollis, Mangum, Frederick, Eldorado, Duke and Roosevelt.

Sessions will open at 10:30 a. m. and continue throughout the afternoon and evening, including a luncheon at noon and banquet in the evening.

Plans are being completed for the Hollis degree team, consisting of 12 women, to exemplify the ritualistic work, as will the junior drill team of Altus.

The afternoon session will consist of seating of officers from various visiting groves and initiation of a class of 75 candidates by the Altus degree team.

Election of officers and designation of a meeting place for another year will close the session.

Stricter Budgeting By States Urged

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (UP)—State and local governments need more business like methods in planning their budgets, Ogden Mills, under-secretary of the treasury, said in a talk on government finance before the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers, here today.

Mills explained the federal budget system and declared that high taxes and high cost of government do not necessarily imply uneconomic expenditures.

"It is unquestionably true that the people want and, theoretically at least, are willing to pay for more and better service from their government," he said. "In the field of government we must look to the setting up of public accounts in such a way that the public can readily grasp not only what the routine administration of the government is costing, but what is involved in the way of expenditure by new policies suggested for their approval."

Dead Trapper's Former Wife Found in Okla.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20. (UP)—State authorities reported today they had located the former wife of Frank Munday, Canadian trapper who died recently in the province of Alberta.

She is Mrs. S. L. Baker of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Baker was located after Gov. W. J. Holloway, at the request of Secretary of State Stimson, asked officials to find a son of Munday who was believed living in Oklahoma. Mrs. Baker said the son is now in California.

Secretary Stimson advised Governor Holloway officials desired to give the son an old watch and chain, which was treasured by Munday as a keepsake.

Tax Assessors Hear Comptroller Sheppard

LAREDO, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, said today in an address before the opening session of the tax assessors of Texas that there was need of legislation to equalize taxes.

More than 100 assessors and assistants were in attendance.

Most of the initial session was given over to routine business.

EMPLOYMENT REPORT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20. (UP)—The federal-state labor bureaus in Oklahoma found employment for 584 men and 204 women the past week, State Labor Commissioner W. A. Murphy reported today. A total of 2,629 men and 382 women applied during the week.

Says She'll Tell

The row between Clara Bow and her ex-secretary, Daisy Devoe (above) took a new turn—or several new turns — in Los Angeles when District Attorney Fitts announced that the grand jury would hear charges that Miss Devoe took $35,000 worth of Clara's jewelry. Miss Devoe, meanwhile, says she is going to sue Clara, and threatens to "reveal a lot of her secrets."

Departing Minister Addresses Lions at Iowa Park Luncheon

IOWA PARK, Texas, Nov. 20.—Iowa Park Lions were addressed at their weekly luncheon by the Rev. Paul E. Martin, pastor of the Methodist church, who leaves this week to fill his new appointment at the Kavanaugh church at Greenville. The Rev. Mr. Martin was the guest of Curtis Sewell.

During a brief business session the farmer's short course, which will be held at Iowa Park in January, under the leadership of County Agent G. C. McGown, was endorsed and support pledged.

J. G. O'Donohoe, president, was selected to represent the organization on the welfare committee which will disburse the funds recently collected for needy of Iowa Park and vicinity. This completes the total membership of eight, who will represent the different organizations of the city. The personnel of the committee was selected one from the five churches in Iowa Park, one from the Parent-Teachers association and one from the chamber of commerce and Lions club.

Woman Lecturer Dies At Minneapolis Home

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 20. (AP)—An illness contracted while traveling in Switzerland several years ago has caused the death of Dr. Cora Johnstone Best, noted lecturer, mountain climber and huntress.

Dr. Best, 36, died yesterday at her home. She was a member of the Canadian Alpine club, the Japanese Alpine club and the Swiss Alpine club. She was known throughout the United States as a conservationist and leading exponent of outdoor life.

L. S. U. STUDENT GETS REPRIEVE

Scandal Sheet Editor Wins Governor's Mercy

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20. (AP)—Gov. Huey P. Long today reprieved K. K. Kennedy, the Louisiana State university student recently sentenced to one year in prison for publishing the Whangdoodle, a scandal sheet.

In issuing the reprieve, Governor Long said:

"Public opinion, I am convinced, demands this action on my part. Ever since his sentence to prison, my telephone and my mail have been bringing statewide requests for the reprieving of Mr. Kennedy. He is now in prison with a broken arm, bandaged and under medical treatment. His release seemed imperative."

Kennedy was expected to leave prison some time today.

Altus Post Invites Legion Reunion

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., Nov. 20.—Eight hundred ex-service men in Jackson county are requested to be guests of the James Monroe Roach post of the American Legion at the annual banquet and get-to-gether to be held in Altus Monday evening, Nov. 24.

Moody Nicholson, the department commander of Frederick, and Milt Phillips, department adjutant of Oklahoma City, will be guests of honor and chief speakers.

Plans were formulated at a meeting this week for the banquet and program.

Alvin Kindel has been appointed chairman of the program committee; Henry Robinson, chairman of the banquet committee; Marvin Peterson, decorations and arrangements; and Everett Sharpe, publicity.

Henry Robinson will be assisted by Knox Austin, Lee Harrison, A. Pelfrey and Ed Whatley on kitchen police duty.

Childress Farmers Buy Winter Feed

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, Nov. 20.—During the period of freight reduction on feeds shipped to drouth sections, the farmers of Childress county have purchased and shipped to the county 151 cars of feed, according to the records in the office of the secretary of the local chamber of commerce Thursday morning.

Two months ago it was not believed the farmers would be able to secure enough feed to run them through the winter, but the above figures are sufficient to show that the great majority of the farmers will be supplied. The date for the regular freight rates to again apply is Nov. 30. It is expected that another 100 cars of feed will have been shipped in.

Stubborn Coughs Ended by Recipe, Mixed at Home

Here is the famous old recipe which millions of housewives have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn, lingering cough. It takes but a moment to prepare and costs little, but it gives real relief even for those dreaded coughs that follow severe cold epidemics.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. Thus you make a full pint of better remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times the cost. It never spoils and tastes so good that even children like it.

Not only does this simple mixture soothe and heal the inflamed throat membranes with surprising ease, but also it is absorbed into the blood, and acts directly upon the bronchial tubes, thus aiding the whole system in throwing off the cough. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm and eases chest soreness in a way that is really astonishing.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of distressing coughs, chest colds, and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

OIL MEN URGE NEW MINIMUM

Prairie Halts Purchases

Obviously, the Gulf fields have the advantage of being nearest the ports, while many of the other sections, remote from ports and in some cases from rail lines, must depend entirely upon the pipe lines.

The situation was further complicated today by the decision of Prairie Oil and Gas to discontinue its purchases in the Panhandle, cutting down the potential allowable of that field another 13,000 barels.

The aim of proration, it is generally admitted, is to provide for an equitable production, an average withdrawal of oil from all fields; prevention of storage, held to result in waste; and prevention of other forms of waste to the end that natural resources might properly be conserved.

But if one field is allowed to produce at near the peak of its potential, by reason of having a ready market, while another field is forced to close in entirely because of lack of a market, waste would result.

Panhandle operators claimed, before Prairie's announcement, that they were operating on a minimum margin of profit.

This all leads to the possibility that the commission might exercise the authority delegated to it, under the common purchaser act, of preventing discrimination in the purchase of oil.

Discrimination Clause

The law says without equivocation that common purchasers must operate "without unjust or unreasonable discrimination between fields."

Seeking the possibilities of the law, pipe line carriers which concurred in the waste theory of proration, have consistenly denied they were "common carriers" under the law. It has never had the test of court action and the railroad commission has not enforced the law except with the consent of all interested parties.

The central executive committee will meet tomorrow morning, and a general meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon. It was hoped to iron out differences at these meetings so that the hearing before the railroad commission might be expedited Saturday.

FRIENDLY SUIT TESTS GAS CONSERVATION LAW

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—A friendly suit to determine validity of state statutes which have as their purpose the utmost conservation of natural gas was instituted in district court here today in a suit for injunction by the T. M. Deal Oil and Gas company of Hutchinson county.

Thecompany attacked constitutionality of all the laws relating to gas conservation as undue interference with the business of a private corporation, and on other constitutional grounds.

State laws provide that in drilling a well, either for oil or gas, and a gas strata is found, this strata must be shut off in its pocket and conserved until there is a market for the gas as fuel for heat, light or power. The company has been processing the gas into gasoline, a process requiring a high ratio of gas to each gallon of gasoline produced.

It was claimed that the company produces sulphur or "sour" gas, unfit for fuel. To this the state probably will answer that regardless of its sulphur content, the gas should be conserved until it is sufficiently valuable to be purified and the sulphur removed, making it fit for use as fuel. The company claimed the sweet gas in the territory more than served all the market and the pipe line companies refused to buy the sour gas.

At one time the state had contemplated entering a suit to test the laws, and the fact that the company instituted it merely reversed the process.

PROGRESS MADE IN TUBING BIG LAKE WELLS

AUSTIN, Nov. 20. (AP)—Apparent satisfactory progress of the work of tubing deep wells in the Big Lake field in West Texas was reported today by Leslie McKay, deputy supervisor for the oil and gas division of the State Railroad commission, after an inspection trip to Texon.

McKay reported to R. D. Parker, chief supervisor, that tubing was going into two of the wells and that tubing either was on the ground or in transit for four others. Tubing of 1-B, the discovery well, will be deferred until the others have been completed.

Continental started running the tubing on 3-B this week and expected to have it completed within a week. The Big Lake company had 6,000 feet of tubing in 2-C and completion was expected tomorrow.

The material for 2-B and 3-C had arrived and was being prepared for installation.

Operators reported they had not hit upon a feasible way of tubing 1-C casing in which is bad shape. A contractor with experience in deep wells at Oklahoma City was given the job and as he had only two crews available, the work was somewhat slow. However, operators feel the impeded progress will be compensated by the knowledge that the tubing is being efficiently done, McKay reported.

Decision was expected Saturday from the railroad commission regarding an extension to the companies in which to complete the tubing as a gas waste preventive.

directions given by his companion, said to have been the railroad officer who participated in the robbery.

The defense also stressed the custom of the Steed grocery of buying slightly damaged goods regularly for the demands of a particular trade available in its territory.

The prosecution of the case was in the hands of Miss Sarah Menezes, assistant federal district attorney.

Thirty-four indictments charging violations of the national prohibition act were returned by the federal grand jury in its final report to the court about 4:30 p. m. Thursday. The jurymen were dismissed after Judge Atwell had commended them for their work.

Seven convictions were obtained by the government before the court recessed Thursday evening on indictments returned earlier in the day. All were preceded by pleas of guilty, and in most cases, requests for the court's mercy.

Sentences Assessed

The following sentences were imposed on liquor charges just before the court recessed:

Margaret Pickering, $100 fine, 35 days in jail.

Mike Schenck, $100 fine, 50 days in jail.

Mary Schneck, $100 fine, 1 hour in jail.

Al Smith, $125 fine, 35 days in jail.

George Simms, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

R. N. Norris, $50 fine, 10 days in jail.

Ray R. Maxwell, $100 fine, 10 days in jail.

Night Session

In a night session of the court Thursday night, 23 liquor cases were heard.

The charge of possession and sale against Press Mitchell was dismissed because of the death of the defendant. Charges also were dismissed against Lorissa Hembry, Letie Frazier and Mrs. Annie Miller after each had pleaded not guilty.

Jerome Hoepfner forfeited $500 bond on a charge of possession, manufacture and possession of property to manufacture. New bond was set at $1,000. A new bond of $1,250 was set for Jack Garrett who forfeited $1,000 bond on a charge of possession and sale of whisky and beer.

A jury acquitted Thurman Cossey of possession and sale.

Sentences assessed were:

Mrs. Sam Hadley, $35 fine, 3 days in jail.

Cecil M. Miller, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

George H. Guerin, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

J. J. Furl, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

J. T. Duncan, alias Jim Duncan, $100 fine, 60 days in jail from Nov. 1.

Frank H. Clisbee, $150 fine, 70 days in jail.

S. M. Madison, $100 fine, 75 days in jail.

Furnie M. Johnson, sentence deferred.

Buster Mitchell, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

Leon J. Wallace, $125 fine, 65 days in jail.

Will Hembry, $100 fine, 60 days in jail.

Annie Houser, $150 fine, 70 days in jail from Nov. 10.

George M. Frazier, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

Lee W. Dilley, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

Mrs. Martha A. Dilley, $1 fine, 1 hour in jail.

S. M. Debusk, $125 fine, 35 days in jail.

Horace F. Cosart, $100 fine, 30 days in jail.

John Cossey, sentence deferred.

Mattie Jackson, sentence deferred.

W. E. Black, $250 fine, 75 days in jail.

Decision Voids Fifty Indian Land Sales

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Nov. 20. (AP)—A decision today by Federal Judge R. L. Williams in a test case voided the interests of more than 50 speculators who have purchased lands from restricted Indians, giving the Indians possession until April 26, 1931, when all restrictions are to be lifted.

Judge Williams decided in favor of the government in its suit to cancel a deed held by A. P. Martin. More than 50 other suits of almost identical nature are pending.

The court ruled such sales were "against public policy and the purpose of the government in the exercise of its wardship over Indians."

Communism Declared Foe to Missionaries

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Christianity is finding Communism a more and more formidable foe in foreign missionary fields, and especially in Mexico, the Methodist Episcopal board of foreign missions was told today by John R. Edwards, its secretary.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Nocona, Electra Open Campaigns

measures advocated in a concerted drive against depression. The meeting brought out leaders in all phases of Electra activities, with the united support of the city behind their proposals.

The meeting was opened by popular and school selections from the high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Ruth Smith. At intervals the pep squad from the school, directed by Miss Ethel Varnell, added its enthusiastic antics to the entertainment of the crowd. W. P. Slaton led in the singing of "America."

E. V. Haltom, chairman of the better business committee who presided and introduced the speakers, explained the purpose of the meeting as not so much to find out the cause of the depression as to discover the way out.

He presented Burton Stayton of Wichita Falls, who gave the Electra group the benefit of that city's experience in organizing to meet the situation, suggesting that Electra follow the example along two major lines.

"Promotion and betterment of retail trade and improvement in unemployment conditions will do much to change the aspect of the community," he asserted.

Mr. Stayton offered the cooperation of Wichita Falls and pledged every possible assistance, a message repeated by Lester Jones, the second speaker from Wichita Falls.

Jones Tells of Work Here

Mr. Jones discussed the means by which retail trade in Wichita Falls was improved during the recent campaign there, giving concrete examples of how the "Buy Now" movement has increased sales over the 1929 record.

"Over a 14-day period, a shoe store recorded a 33 1-3 per cent increase; a department store 20 per cent; an automobile agency 19 per cent; and furniture and grocery stores were similarly stimulated," the speaker said.

He urged citizens to patronize their local stores and predicted success for the Electra drive.

"Out of great emergencies and great trouble, great people and souls are born. It is wonderful to be in the fight," he concluded.

Mrs. Jodie D. Smith represented the women of Electra on the program and addressed her remarks, entitled "Secrets" to the feminine half of the audience. She discussed methods by which women can increase their incomes and can shop pleasantly, conveniently, and safely at home.

Dr. C. C. Klingman, of the First Christian church offered "Echoes" from the sermon delivered from the pulpit Sunday.

"There is no Christian right to buy luxuries until bills are paid," he declared. "The condition can not be bettered until we stop gambling on football games, races and the like, and meet our obligations. If we stopped buying luxuries elsewhere, patronized local stores and paid our bills, we would not have business depression. Pay up or shut up."

E. R. Brown of the Electra News was the final speaker on the program.

"The American people have always come through every crisis a better people with higher standards of living," he began. "It is the duty of each one of us to help cure the present business ailment. There is just as much money now as there was when we were prosperous but its tied up out of circulation."

The better business movement in Electra originated with the Lions club, enlisting the support of Rotarians and chamber of commerce leaders who are together backing the drive.

Itching Ends When Zemo Touches Skin

—thousands say. It's wonderful the way soothing, cooling Zemo brings relief to skin which itches and burns. Even in most severe cases, itching disappears almost as soon as Zemo touches the tender and inflamed surface. To draw out local infection and help to clear away unsightly blemishes, we know of nothing better than invisible Zemo. Always keep this family antiseptic on hand. Use it freely. It's safe as can be. 35c, 60c and $1.00. All dealers.—Adv.

BLIZZARDS HIT MANY SECTIONS

Winter Comes to Stay in Middle West

Trains Blocked

Passenger trains from the West were running several hours behind schedules and highways were blocked in many sections.

Another fatality was added to the list of several lives claimed since the blizzard broke over the Rocky mountain section. Guy D. Miner, 47, druggist of Des Moines, N. M., was found frozen to death near Mount Dora, N. M. He succumbed to exposure while going for aid after his automobile became stuck in a snowdrift. An aged man named Whitehead from Amarillo, Texas, who was left in Miner's car, was found unconscious and may die.

Hundreds of motorists were marooned in towns and farm houses along the snow blocked highways.

Children Trapped

Twenty school children were forced to spend last night in a country school near Pueblo, Colo., when huge drifts isolated the building.

Snow ranging from two inches to drifts 20 feet deep were left through the moutain states as the weather cleared.

A blizzard in northeast Colorado near Hugo buried the Union Pacific railroad tracks under 20 feet of snow. Probably 1,000 head of cattle were reported frozen to death in this area.

Through Northwestern Kansas and the central and western portions of Nebraska and the Dakota sleet and snow tore down wires and disrupted travel.

BLIZZARD SWEEPS THROUGH NEBRASKA

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 20. (AP)—A blizzard swept the plains of Western Nebraska today while rain soaked the dry fields of the eastern part of the state.

At the same time, sleet frose on the telegraph wires in central and northern portions of the state and broke down miles of line.

Snowdrifts plied by a gale to the eaves of houses brought business to a standstill in some western localities. Near Sidney a dozen automobiles were stalled on the Lincoln highway. Drivers sought refuge in nearby farm houses.

SNOW AND ICE BREAK LINES

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 20. (AP)—Sleet, snow and rain today interrupted communication in North Dakota.

Burdened with snow and ice, telephone poles toppled over, 72 of them going down six miles east of Valley City.

The Associated Press news report, which is sent from St. Paul, today came out of Denver to most of the North Dakota daily papers.

Rites Held for Victim Of Carnival Leopard

LITTLEFIELD, Texas, Nov. 20. (UP)—Funeral services were held today for 4-year-old James Elvins, mangled by a carnival leopard on exhibition in a drug store here.

Wrath of citizens caused officials to be alert for any attempts to reprisal tonight. The leopard was rushed from the state and confined in a zoo at Clovis, N. M. and its owner, Charles Howard, was removed to Plainview and lodged in jail. Charges of negligent homicide were filed against him today.

SEATTLE GETS W. C. T. U. MEET

Drys Select Washington City for 1932

HOUSTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Officials of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union today selected Seattle, Wash., as the 1932 national convention city, and discussed the possibility of counteracting "wet propaganda" the union believed designed particularly to injure or hamper President Hoover in his administration program.

President Ella A. Boole and her executive committee remained over from last night, when the 56th annual convention of the union was ended. No national convention will be held next year, but two score or more regional "campaign conferences," the first to be held in Washington, D. C., probably in December of 1931, will replace the usual general gathering. The conferences will be designed to crystalize dry sentiment in all sections of the country.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Omaha, Neb., and Indianapolis, Ind., lost to Seattle in bidding for the 1932 convention.

No definite action was taken by the committee, an official said, concerning the matter of defending President Hoover, but it was agreed that some step might be taken. The details of the discussion were unavailable, as the meeting was executive.

The date for the Seattle convention was not determined, but the committee decided to hold it some time prior to the next presidential election.

AUDITORS ELECT

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—S. H. Blan, state auditor of Alabama, was elected president today of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers. Biloxi, Miss., was chosen for the 1931 meeting.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves or cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To end Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation and strengthen the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1,000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 960 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

Dr. Leonhardt's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and Allison's Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if it does not end all Pile misery.—Adv.

Mrs. Bohmfalk Honored At Lovely Farewell Shower

Mrs. Erwin F. Bhomfalk was honoree at a lovely farewell shower given by Mesdames P. P. Langford and Robert L. Underwood at the home of Mrs. Langford, 1300 Tilden street Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Langford's lovely home was a profusion of colored chrysanthemums and roses with bronze and orchid chrysanthemums predominating.

The program consisted of a piano number by Mrs. H. M. Evans, two vocal numbers by Mrs. Stanley M. Raub, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. W. Akin Jr., and two readings by Mrs. Ella Merle Mathis Bristol.

Mrs. Underwood presented the honoree with a gift of salad plates and sherbet dishes in the rose colored glassware from the teachers, officers and members of the primary department of the First Methodist church. In making the presentation, Mrs. Underwood paid a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Bohmfalk as a teacher, children's story teller and as a neighbor. Mrs. Langford presented the guest of honor with a set of goblets to match the glassware as a gift from her hostesses with a tribute to her character, which she compared with the virgin Mary. The two hostesses shared in the presentation of other gifts.

Mrs. S. S. McKenney presided at the tea table which was covered with an exquisite hand embroidered cloth which Mrs. Langford designed and made herself. Tea was poured from a handsome silver tea service.

Refreshment plates carrying out the Thanksgiving motif were served to Mesdames W. D. Cline, C. B. Christie, Oneal Taylor, H. M. Evans, George Dobson, Horace Downing, Jessie Laue, P. P. Langford, R. L. Underwood, J. R. Ogle, T. D. Moore, C. E. Basham, Robert Stinson, E. F. Bohmfalk, Stanley M. Raub, J. W. Akin Jr., W. P. Bolding, S. S. McKenney, Thompson, J. D. Barron, J. D. Carithers, E. D. Owner of Swimming Pool Sued for $11,200

Damages amounting to $11,200 are asked by James Jarrell of W. H. Kiel, proprietor of the Sand Beach Swimming pool on the Iowa Park road, in a suit filed Thursday in district court here.

Injuries said to have been received by the plaintiff, a youth of 20 years, while sliding down a chute at the pool are made the basis for the action. One of his arms, it is set out in the petition, was badly torn by a bolt-head which protruded from the device, resulting in alleged permanent disability.

Scotland Society Observes Day In Week of Prayer

Members of the Scotland W. M. S. met at the church Wednesday at 10:30 o'clock to observe a day in the national week of prayer program. The meeting was opened with a song which was followed with a devotional by Mrs. W. P. Prichard. Mrs. W. D. Cook gave a prayer.

Following the opening talk by Mrs. Prichard, sentence prayers were given after which Mesdames J. T. Richey and Clarence Gum gave a vocal duet, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Papers were given by Mesdames W. R. Coker who discussed "Practical Prayers"; T. D. Whittaker, whose subject was "History of Prayer" and W. S. Martin who talked on "Jesus and His Disciples Pray." The feature of the program was a dialogue, "Want a New Building" given by a group of members after which Mrs. Richey talked on "The Eliza Bowman School Hymns." Following the closing hymn a love offering was taken.

Those present were Mesdames H. T. Sharp, J. A. Bigley, L. L. McCowan, Mae McDonald, W. D. Cook, W. R. Coker, W. S. Martin, F. E. Johnson, T. J. Richey, W. P. Prichard and Clarence Gum.

Ladies Golf Association Entertains Electra Group

Members of the Ladies Golf association of the country club were hostesses Thursday to members of the Electra Women's Golf association at games and luncheon at the clubhouse.

In the games Mrs. Mary Jewell of Electra won low score and was presented with a golf trophy and Mrs. James Jarboe won the low score ball among the local members.

Luncheon was served in the dining room when the tables were arranged in the form of a U and were centered with bowls of yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow lighted tapers in green crystal holders were also used, and a green crystal dining service assisted in carrying out the green and yellow color scheme.

A two-ball foursome was played in the afternoon after which tea was served in the parlors. A group picture was taken in front of the building by Mrs. Fred T. Couper.

Out-of-town guests included Mesdames Mary Jewell, J. H. Marriott Jr., B. B. Williams, George LeBus, Ray B. Dickey, Grace Jennings and W. G. White. Local members present were Mesdames Roscoe Davis, Adam Seitz, Fred Couper, Harold Rhule, W. P. Bolding, James Jarboe, R. L. Hargrave, C. O. Davis, L. O. Landon, James McKanna, H. W. Lee, J. B. Alathean Group Entertains Class At Colorful Party

The reception room of the First Baptist church, attractively decorated with yellow leaves and red berries, made a lovely setting for the party given by members of circle one of the Alathean class for the remainder of the group Thursday afternoon.

Mesdames Thomas Holcombe, H. Clay McBride, Ray Riley, A. L. Parker, Borden Morris and W. C. Reeves, dressed in Pilgrim and Indian costumes, formed a receiving line at the door and presented guests with a piece of paper bearing a Pilgrim or savage name which they responded to during the party.

The meeting was opened with the class song, "Have Thine Own Way" which was followed with a prayer by Mrs. Howard Weaver. In a short business session, Mrs. Reeves read an interesting article from the Literary Digest and plans were made for distributing Thanksgiving baskets among the poor.

The feature of the entertainment was Pilgrim and Indian contests in which prizes were awarded to Mesdames Weaver, John Finch and C. W. Stovall.

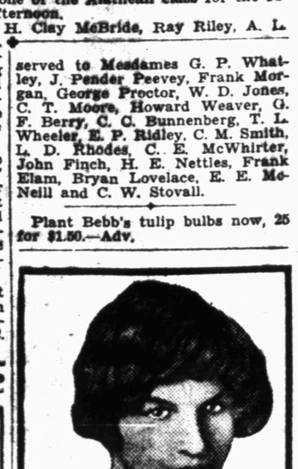

Dainty refreshment plates bearing Thanksgiving favors were served to Mesdames G. P. Whatley, J. Pender Peevey, Frank Morgan, George Proctor, W. D. Jones, C. T. Moore, Howard Weaver, G. F. Berry, C. C. Bunnenberg, T. L. Wheeler, E. P. Ridley, C. M. Smith, L. D. Rhodes, C. E. McWhirter, John Finch, H. E. Nettles, Frank Elam, Bryan Lovelace, E. E. McNeill and C. W. Stovall.

How To Bathe Baby

Many babies develop a fear of the bath because they are not started in right. It is well to lay a bath towel in the bottom of the tub and put only a small amount of water in first, so as not to frighten the baby. If baby is plunged immediately into a tub of water, it becomes startled and may never enjoy a tub bath; whereas if the water is added gradually, the baby's attention in the meantime being attracted to something else, he soon learns to enjoy the morning dip.

After drying baby thoroughly always dust a good baby powder in the creases and folds of the skin, under the arms and around the buttocks. A highly perfumed powder or "rough" powder should not be used. The finer the powder, the better. Probably the best for the purpose is McKesson's Baby Powder. It contains a very fine and high-grade talc with other refreshing and soothing ingredients. It is a real medicinal powder—entirely different from any other. It absorbs moisture, prevents friction, chafing, "urine-burn" and redness and keeps baby's skin in that smooth, white state that betokens wholesomeness and comfort. It is deodorizing to the point where it keeps baby smelling sweet and fresh without the use of a perfume that has no relation to baby innocence. All McKesson Service Druggists and other independent drug stores sell and guarantee McKesson's Baby Powder. (A McKesson and Robbins product.—Adv.

For Normal Girlhood

"My daughter Magdalen did not seem to develop as she should. At times she had no pep at all and couldn't get her school work very easily. For four years we doctored her off and on. Then a friend told us how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her years ago, so I got a bottle for Magdalen. Her nerves are quieting, her general health is better and she is now as normal as other girls."—Mrs. J. Bartholdi, Thompson's Addition, The Dalles, Oregon.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

I'm a "punkin" myself over May's new pumpkin pie!

MAY'S PUMPKIN NUT PIE

CRISCO PASTRY (a single crust)
1½ cups flour ½ teaspoon salt
⅓ cup Crisco cold water

FILLING—
2 eggs beaten light
1⅓ cups stewed pumpkin (not strained)
¾ cup sugar 1½ cups milk
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger
1 teaspoon grated orange peel
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped walnuts
1 cup sweetened whipped cream

To make pastry—Sift flour and salt. Cut Crisco in with two knives until the size of small peas. Add water (4 to 6 tablespoons) enough to hold dry ingredients together. Line pie plate and build up the edge.

To make filling—Mix together sugar, spices, orange peel and salt. Mix thoroughly with pumpkin. Add eggs and mix well. Last add milk. Put in filling and bake in very hot oven (450° F.) until pie-crust begins to brown, about 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake until filling has set, or about 30 minutes. Sprinkle with nut meats and cover with sweetened whipped cream.

Have you ever discovered that good baker's cakes and pies don't only look home-made—they taste that way, too! That's because good bakers use fine ingredients—fresh eggs, fine flavorings and sweet tasting Crisco.

ALL MEASUREMENTS LEVEL—Recipes tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Crisco is the registered trade-mark of a shortening manufactured by the Procter & Gamble Co.

When I was in pigtails, May was the girl who always made fluffy Lady Baltimore cakes for our surprise parties. She was the one who made the rich, crumbly Crisco pie-crusts that were such a hit with the boys.

When I saw her in Oklahoma City, she was the same old May ... still clipping recipes ... and dying to tell me about a new glorified pumpkin pie filling to put into a crispy, flaky Crisco pie-crust!

May puts grated orange peel inside the filling to bring out its sweet spiciness. And when the pie is baked, she gives it new-fashioned airs by spreading it with chopped nuts and sweetened whipped cream!

I'm giving you her recipe and her reason why she always uses Crisco.

"I won't have any of these Crisco substitutes," she told me, "they don't look as good and they don't taste as good. I wouldn't use a fat that smells strong, any more than I'd use a suspicious egg."

Isn't there good common sense in her reasoning? A cake or a pie or a hot bread can't be good if the shortening is slightly "off"—streaky, grainy or rancid or tallowy-smelling when you pry the lid off of a pail.

Crisco puts its own sweet delicacy into the heart of your cooking. It's fine enough for your fanciest cakes because it looks and acts like pure whipped cream. In your pie-crust it will bring out all the filling's true flavor, because it tastes as sweet and fresh as new-churned butter. And Crisco stays sweet—right on your kitchen shelf. You don't need to find room for Crisco in a crowded ice-box!

LOW PRICES MAKE JOBS

Increased Buying Speeds Wheels of Industry

All authorities agree that the best way to help business is to speed up consumption of goods. That sets idle wheels turning, increases employment of labor, and so adds to buying power. These same authorities agree that the best way to speed up consumption is to keep retail prices as low as possible. A&P does this in good times as well as in bad times. How this policy has worked in the present circumstances is shown by the fact that A&P is steadily adding to its payroll.

Today A&P is giving employment to 3,085 more wage earners than it did a year ago.

During the last year, because of the general slowing up of business, increases in salaries have been rare.

A&P has increased the average wage of all its employees by more than $50 a year.

The fact that A&P has been able to hire more workers and raise wages during hard times is due directly to its policy of cutting the retail price of food as fast as growers and producers reduce their prices to A&P.

Business Man Is Best Husband In World, Says Dix

Dear Miss Dix—I am in love with a business man, but my aunt advises me not to marry him because she says business men do not make good husbands. She says that they all have for secretaries young and pretty girls with whom they flirt and to whom they complain of their wives, and who try to take them away from their wives. Do you think this is true and that I will be risking my happiness to marry a business man?

—WORRIED SICK.

Answer—I never heard such nonsense in my life. Look around you and see the refutation of your aunt's theory in the hundreds and thousands of men going to work every morning and coming home every night so regularly you could set your watch by their movements, and whose chief interests in life are their homes and their wives and their children. They are business men who work like dray horses to give their wives nice homes and pretty clothes and good cars, and send their children to school and give them advantages they never had. Wild parties and vamps and illicit love affairs are as foreign to them as if they existed in Mars.

Why, the business man makes the best husband in the world because he is seldom temperamental, he has learned how to control his temper and get along with people through dealing with customers, and he is used to striking a balance between what he would like to have and what he gets, so he doesn't expect too much of his wife, and sets her little faults and weaknesses over against her virtues and charges it off to profit and loss.

As for the danger that a wife runs from her husband's secretary, nothing is more exaggerated. To begin with, a business office is not a love nest, and in these days of fierce competition during business hours a man is not chasing skirts, he is chasing the dollar, 99 business men out of 100 never even think of their secretaries as women. They look upon them solely as part of the office equipment and are much more interested in their accuracy and ability to spell than they are in what color eyes they have.

Of course, there are some few philanderers who make love to their secretaries and tell them that they are not understood at home and that their wives do not appreciate them, but that type of man would never be true to his wife under any circumstances. He would always find some woman to flirt with. The world is full of good looking girls and there is no way to keep a husband with a roving eye from seeing them.

Still and all, a man's occupation does have some effect on his desirability as a husband, which perhaps it is well for a woman to consider. A curious woman, for instance, should never marry a lawyer because he is bound to have secrets from her and she will torment herself to death trying to worm them out of him.

A jealous woman should never marry a doctor because much of his prosperity will depend upon his holding the hands of neurotic ladies in pink negligees who imagine themselves sick and pick out their physcians by their looks rather than by their medical knowledge. A green-eyed woman can eat her own heart out and ruin her husband's practice by imagining things about his lady patients.

A plain-spoken woman should never marry a preacher, because no men are so run after and flattered by women as are clergymen, and to hold her own she has to make her home brew sweeter and stronger and more ready than that concocted by the ladies of the congregation.

No woman who wants a quiet home life and to be sure that she is it with her husband should marry a traveling man or a politician or an army or a navy officer, because such men always belong to the public more than they do to their wives and their homes are mostly places where they come to rest up and have their laundry done.

So, by and large, the business man makes the best husband.

—DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—Do you think it unfair for a wife to take a vacation without her husband? I have numerous opportunities to take trips where it would cost me very little, but I do not know whether it is right for me to go without my husband or not. I do all of my own work, even washing the clothes on a washboard, because my husband does not think that an electric machine is necessary. I am not strong and many nights I cannot sleep because I am too tired.

—A WONDERING WIFE.

Answer—I think it is a life-saver for husbands and wives to take little vacations away from each other, because no two people can be together all of the time without getting on each other's nerves.

Especially it is desirable that a woman like yourself, who is not strong and husky, should have as many little trips as she can get. Because there is no tonic like change, nothing that soothes and rests one like seeing new places and new people. Women who are not robust physically and who are overworked at home, as you certainly are if you have to do your own housework without modern equipment, are sure to get fretful and peevish and irritable and they are far easier to live with after they have come home from a little visit than they were before they went away.

Women are often criticised for leaving their husbands to go off to Europe or California or to a winter or a summer resort, but the truth of the matter is that in the great majority of cases it gives the husband just as much of a vacation as it does the wife. He can't leave his business, but when the wife is away the cat can play and he can vary his daily routine by going to restaurants or going out with his men friends and going to bed when he likes and indulging a thousand personal little tastes that he cannot do when his wife is at home.

And then when the wife's vacation is over they are both glad to go back to the old routine and they are better companions and more fond of each other because of the little change.—DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix—Does courtship end at the altar or does it last a lifetime?—A. X.

Answer—Courtship ends at the altar because the man and woman have won each other. You don't chase a street car after you have caught it.

But real love and the desire to please each other never ends. It lasts a lifetime.—DOROTHY DIX.

GREATER ROAD FUND PLANNED

Early Voting of $125,000,000 Appropriation Asked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Word that congress would be asked to make available $125,000,000 of federal aid highway funds immediately after passage of the agriculture department supply bill greeted representatives of state drouth relief committees today as they met with the national committee to consider steps for alleviating distress this winter.

Favorable action on the request would make the money available probably before March 4, when the short session ends, rather than July 1, the beginning of the next fiscal year. This would aid those drouth states that have speeded highway construction to provide employment for farmers affected by the 1930 drouth. Funds were allocated to the states early this year to permit them to make contracts in anticipation of the amounts they would receive.

Dr. C. W. Warburton, secretary of the national drouth committee, estimated today that by Jan. 1, approximately $13,000,000 will be allocated on approved plans, most of which will be under contract.

Following an all-day session behind closed doors, at which representatives of the several states outlined conditions and heard reports from national committee members, a resolutions committee was elected to draft recommendations for necessary relief measures.

The necessity of preventing human suffering from hunger and cold this winter was emphasized by attending chairmen. Next in importance was placed the problem of supplying livestock feed.

Terracing School Scheduled Today

The second of four terracing schools to be conducted in this county by G. C. McGown, county farm agent, will be held all day Friday on the H. R. Overbey farm near Iowa Park, it was announced Thursday.

Members of the Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration club will serve lunch to those present Friday, it was said. The session will open at 9:30 a. m., and continue until 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Low Freight Rates On Feed to Close Nov. 30

Lower than standard rates on feed shipments, provided during the past few weeks by the government as a measure of drouth relief, will not be available after Nov. 30, according to information received by G. C. McGown, county agricultural agent.

Those desiring to ship feed for winter and spring needs on the present reduced schedule of rates should get in touch with Mr. McGown immediately, he said, in order that forms for that purpose may be prepared.

The Skidding Bill of America Is Bigger than the Tire Bill

The Blowout-Proof Tire

Reduces the terrific Annual toll of ACCIDENTS

Lets you run on the worlds' only true LOW AIR PRESSURE

The one positive assurance of SKID SAFETY

362,000 people hurt and killed annually in accidents caused by skidding! An incalculable loss in human life—lost time—permanent injuries. Untold added cost in hospital bills, wrecked cars, repairs and liabilities. What a terrific toll to pay when skid-safety costs so little!

Now—with the new General Dual Balloon—every motorist can be safe from skidding. This is skid-safety with a new meaning! True, low air pressure makes the difference.

See the accompanying chart. This tremendously reduced pressure, permitted by Blowout-Proof patented construction, fulfills the highest purpose of pneumatic tires—to be soft—and safe! For softness is the thing that prevents skidding. It has far more to do with sure, safe traction than any tread design.

Make a tire soft enough and you have that greatest of all road-gripping principles—flexibility inside and out that lets the whole tire "give" and cling on any road, regardless of wet, slippery pavements.

That is why the General Dual Balloon—with the world's lowest recommended air pressure—gives you skid-safety you will never know with stiff, unyielding tires.

Let us equip your car now. Be prepared for the greatest security you have ever known in slippery weather. Enjoy, too, the surpassing comfort of the tire that puts a buffer between you and the roughest roads—keeps your car quiet and new thousands of miles longer—makes broken roads and detours endurable and good roads perfect. The Blowout-Proof Dual Balloon challenges any comparison—Blowout-Proof, skid-safe, easy riding that higher pressure tires can never give!

Safe Winter Driving Demands This New General Dual Balloon Low Air Pressure

The Record News Offers A Booklet on Care Of the Car

The purpose of this booklet is to help the average owner of an automobile to get more service and greater enjoyment out of it. It is not intended that every owner will at all times be interested in every fact contained in the booklet. Everyone today recognizes that the modern motor car comes closely as is possible to taking care of itself. It does not require constant adjustment and tinkering. It does, however, require constant care in cleaning, lubricating and proper driving, and its perfection of operation and lasting qualities will be enhanced by reasonable attention to its upkeep.

Care of the Car will help make American motorists better car owners and better and safer drivers. Send for a copy today, using this coupon.

The Record News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C.

I enclose herewith 10 cents in coin or stamps for a copy of the booklet on Care of the Car.

A miniature golf course, says a news item, has been set up in a church. Many have doubtless felt that nothing short of a prayer would help their score.

Maybe the expression, "burning the candle at both ends," was meant to apply to the fellow who is always lighted up.

A Sign of the Times

IN SOME ways this is a funny world. Al Capone, who has horns and cloven hoofs as far as most of us are concerned, now steps forward as a great humanitarian, providing free meals for some thousands of jobless Chicagoans daily. The spectacle is both confusing and diverting.

Just what may lie back of this sudden transformation is obscure. It is perfectly possible, of course, that even a millionaire gangster can be bothered by the thought that his city contains a great many men who cannot get anything to eat; and probably a hungry man is just as glad to get soup and coffee from Al Capone as from anyone else. Nevertheless, human nature is prone to dark suspicions, and one's most lasting reaction to the whole business is to wonder just what devious and subterranean scheme Capone can possibly be up to now.

However, let the background of this affair be what it may, the fact remains and we have been singularly slow in realizing it—that Al Capone is, quite unintentionally, a rather valuable feature of the American landscape. He is valuable, not as a racketeer or as a business man, or as a feeder of the hungry, but as an indicator—a sign post, so to speak, or a weather gauge.

For this man, by his existence, serves to call our attention very forcibly to the things that are wrong with our form of human society. His latest stunt merely adds emphasis to this function.

Al Capone is a rich and powerful gangster. His doings are a matter of common knowledge from one end of America to the other. And the man's career is, in itself, a warning and a sermon. It ought to jar us into realization of the fact that our whole big city system is a grotesque and tragic failure. The bare fact that such a man, with such a record, can exist and can go about his business unmolested is the most terrific indictment that anyone has yet brought against metropolitan life in America.

It is the same way with this new venture of his.

Here we have a huge city, typifying the best and the worst aspects of America; a city that is market town and cross-roads, distributor and manufacturer, center of industry and home for some 3,000,000 people. Somewhere something goes amiss, so that a percentage of the 3,000,000 cannot get work and hence cannot buy food.

And then what happens? It falls to the lot of the arch-villain of the age—the man who is branded as a "public enemy" by every newspaper in the city, and who is blamed for, literally, hundreds of murders—it falls to the lot of that man to provide meals for these hungry men!

Sooner or later, without at all intending to, this man Capone will wake us up. This soup kitchen of his pretty nearly ought to do it.

The W. C. T. U. Chooses a Perilous Path

A CAMPAIGN of temperance education in the public schools of the United States has been decided upon by the Women's Christian Temperance Union as the chief means of stamping out the "non-commercial" violator of the prohibition laws. The women drys adopted this plan after Amos W. Woodcock, federal director of prohibition, told them he held little hope of routing the big, "commercial" violators until the private violators were taken care of through public education.

The principal purpose of the instruction given children in our public schools, in The Record News opinion, is to equip them with the ability to think independently. Certainly it is not to mold opinion in the minds of future citizens who someday probably will be called upon to settle the most controversial problem before the American people.

Real temperance is one thing; our prohibition is quite another. Despite the W. C. T. U. claim that "every grand rascal" is on the "other side," thinking men and women know the growing demand that something be done about prohibition is due almost entirely to a reaction in the sentiment of true advocates of temperance.

The W. C. T. U. may lose the ground it has gained if its activities are carried into the school room. It appears such a move might epitomize the developments which have hurt rather than helped the cause of prohibition. The W. C. T. U. would be treading on dangerous ground.

Legge in the Market Buying Wheat

ALEXANDER W. LEGGE is in the market buying wheat and his buying is said to have placed wheat 15 to 20 cents above the world price level. Now it is said that the wheat holding of the government relief corporation has been added to by 20,000,000 bushels owing to recent purchase or a total of 104,000,000 bushels since the farm relief board began to function.

There is going to be a very interesting closing session of a dying congress. Hoover is up in the air; all his cabinet officers are up in the air; most of the congressional leaders are up in the air. Borah isn't up in the air. He has a program and he is going to fight for it. He is the wild bull in the Republican crockery shop.

John Bull and His Sea Lanes

GREAT BRITAIN has 80,000 miles of communication by sea and Rear Admiral Mark Kerr, noted British naval veteran, is certain that his country would starve in two months if sea communications were cut off. This is the evidence he submitted: "At any time we have only seven weeks food for the people of this country. We never grow more or raise more food in one month than would feed the people one week. That means if our sea communications are cut in two months we are starved." And John Bull is going to do his level best to retain his mastery of the seven seas. It is a matter of self-preservation.

Madonna and Child

"Who's that horrid looking man? Oh, tell me quickly, haw. He's been throwing lots of paper all around the floor. How he scares me, mother darling, when he pulls his hair; watch him, mother, watch him, how he fidgets in his chair. Where's his collar, mother dearest, and his shirt and tie? Mother, look! Oh, mother, see that wild look in his eye! Do you think he's suffering, or do you think he's ill? Shall I phone the doctor, mother; shall I fetch a pill?" . . . "Hush, my darling, don't you cry; that man's your daddy, dear. He is busy colyuming, so do not have a fear. Come, my loved one, come away, before he starts to curse. Follow mother, baby darling, papa's making verse. Every day and night poor mamma has to read his jokes. Goodness knows, my loved one, I won't weep the day he chokes! Mamma's forced to grin or smile at the things that daddy makes. Some of which he writes himself—and others that he takes! Daddy is a member of the leading paper's staff; he is writing paragraphs to make his readers laugh. Come, my sweetheart, come let mother wash your pretty face; papa must have quiet so that he can fill his space. Run along, my darling, and remember—make no noise—for daddy's writing poetry on 'How to Keep Your Poise'!—Man About Town.

Add Sillies

One of the stay-up-late patrons was groaning to La Guinan how difficult it was for him to get sleep. "Maybe you like your insomnia young?" kidded Broadway's best known femme kidder, "why don't you try counting sheep?"

"Do you?" he asked.

"No," replied Texas, "I count elephants—I'm so nearsighted."

A Form of Criticism

Take it from Neal O'Hara who answered a magazine's query: "What is radio's greatest need?" O'Hara snapped: "A trap door in front of every microphone!"

Observation

Far be it from this upstart to take it all too seriously, but it is to groan. When Lindbergh comes to the capital countless thousands risk pneumonia in the rain to ogle him.

The other day, however, when Rickenbacker, a world war ace, with many enemy planes to his credit, received a medal at the hands of the president, only 250 persons were present.

Save your stamps.

Why Ray Goetz Gray

Ray E. Goetz, sponsor of "Fifty Million Frenchmen," and now preparing "The New Yorkers," instructed his property man in Philadelphia to get six lorgnettes for the new show. Three hours later the property man returned dejected.

"Where are those lorgnettes?" asked Goetz.

Nifty

The Postal Telegraph Co.'s theater ticket service idea has inspired the gagsters, already. The Telegraph offers this: A woman playgoer ankled up to a box office tressurer and asked for two seats in the balcony.

"You'll have to go to Leblang's for those, madam," he politely replied.

"All right then," she responded, "how about two in the orchestra?"

"Sorry, but you'll have to go to the Postal Telegraph for those."

"What on earth do you do?" she snapped.

"I sell standing room, madam, merely standing room."

Gosh, Yes!

Izzy Elinson entitles it "Embarrassing Moment"—when a critic will want to send a review of a play via Postal Telegraph saying a show that the Postal is handling is terrible.

A Ripley

Her initials are J. L. The legend has it that her mammy told her that her pappy died when she was an infant. Three years ago when she appeared in one of Mr. Carroll's "Vanities" a man called back stage and invited her out. She accepted his orchids and invitation to step. They went to a night club to sup and sip, and after a dance or two he asked her to roll down the stocking on her left leg.

"I want to see if you have a mole below your knee," he said. The startled gal waited to catch her breath and said: "How do you know that?" When she revealed the mole he told her he was her father, and later he proved it.

She hasn't appeared in a show since, accepting his bargain of $100 weekly for life if she would shelve the stage.

Add Merciless Truths

Lou Holtz is said to be writing a new ditty entitled: "Don't Blame Your Wife's Relations. Remember You Selected Them."

Imagine

Con Conrad, the songwriter, was still moaning about it last night. Last summer Lew Seiler, a Fox flicker director, urged Conrad to sleep in the same house with him one night near Venice, Calif. "I can buy the house for $12,000," said the director, "and I want to see if I like it."

Conrad agreed, but complained of the chug-chug-chug of a machine across the way. "That's awful," said Con. "You'll never sleep comfortably with that incessant chug-chug-chug." Seiler decided not to purchase the house.

That dwelling is now worth a million dollars. The chug-chug-chug across the way, it appears, was a drill, which discovered oil on the surrounding property—to the tune of 200 million gallons since last summer.

Simile

Quicker than Floyd Gibbons can say Jack Robinson.

Raising Kane

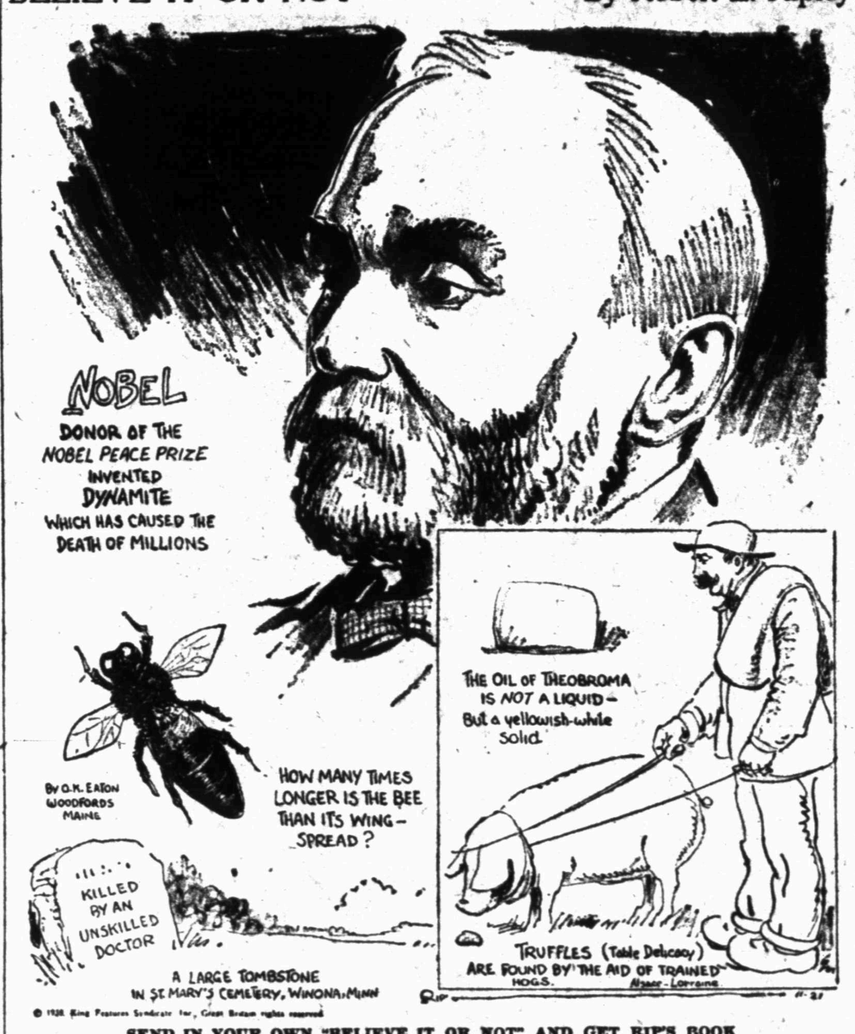

Jeanne Kane, 18-year-old daughter of Hugh Kane, managing editor of the Sunday Cleveland News, was mussed up rather badly recently in a motor crash. For a few days it appeared that it would be necessary for her face to undergo a bit of plastic surgery. The surgeon remarked, within her hearing, that he would like a photograph of Jeanne.

"Don't give him one of mine," nifted the lassie, "give him one of Billie Dove."

Quitsee, Quitsee

HEARTBREAK GIRL
By ROB EDEN . . .

Gail Stuart, befriended by Nick Walther after hiking to Hollywood, fails in pictures. She becomes secretary to Carla Ross, the star. By a subterfuge she gets her fiance, Ross Hardy, a job as Carla's leading man. Gail breaks their engagement when he falls for Carla. Carla discharges her for dining with Walther, whom she hopes to marry. Hardy, "gone Hollywood," begs Gail to borrow from Walther to pay his debts. Nick, seeking to throw Gail and Ross together, knowing she still loves him, stages a house party. It results tragically. Norman Frame, a discarded lover of Carla's, committing suicide. Tod Janson, press agent, rushes to the scene and tells them what to say. The police arrive. Gail suddenly remembers a note Frame gave her for Carla. Reporters swarm in.

CHAPTER XXXIX

Gail knew that Lieutenant Murphy had come back into the room. Knew it by the strained silence around her. The hush that settled after she had heard the footsteps. She opened her eyes. Nick was still holding her hand. She didn't want him to let go. She wanted him to go on holding it. His touch comforted her—

Murphy was holding the note gingerly.

"Hm, still sealed. Is this the way Frame gave it to you, Miss Stuart?"

"Yes." She saw Carla's name again on the envelope, which was crumpled a little from her pocket. How could she have forgotten it? Then she remembered that just as Norman had handed it to her, Ross turned up the porch steps. All her thoughts after that had been for Ross.

"You haven't any idea about the contents?"

"No, I didn't open it, of course."

"This Frame's handwriting?" She had to admit she didn't know. She had never seen his handwriting. Sarah identified it, however, at a glance.

Three reporters burst into the room then, and Tod sank into a chair, and started biting his nails. His usually pale face was crimson with anger. Carla kept looking at him pleadingly, but his eyes never met hers.

The room was a bedlam of noise, as Murphy carefully slit the envelope with his penknife, and then took out the single sheet of paper within it.

It must concern Carla, else Murphy would not be looking at her. He read the note again, and then again, and gave a little grunt the last time.

"Suicide note, boys," and he handed the bit of paper to a reporter with a defiant gesture.

Tod was up in an instant. "You can't do that, Murphy."

"Dame" to Blame

"I can, can't I? Well, I want to know why not?, I thought your stories were pretty pat. You being here, too, when you weren't one of the party, feeding me full of hop about Frame being despondent about a job, and his future. Rot!

"Thought all the time some dame was mixed up in it. Sort of suspected Carla Cross, because I knew she went out with Frame in the past."

Tod reached for the note, but the reporter was too quick for him.

"Boy, this is hot!" he cried as he went to the far end of the room to copy the note. When he returned it to Murphy a minute later, he was smiling broadly. "Thanks, old man. I'll do you a favor some day."

"Let me see the note!" Carla commanded. The hand she held out was shaking, and her eyes were glassy blue.

"I'll read it to you, Miss Cross. I don't trust you with the original. Would you like to hear it aloud?"

"No!" A determined scream from the actress.

Murphy paid no attention to the scream. In a quiet, measured voice he read the contents of the note. His eyes were glittering, and now and then he wet his lips with his tongue.

"As sure as if you had held the trigger of the gun, Carla, you have killed me. In your heartless, ruthless way, you are not even sorry I suppose, Norman."

A shocked silence. The room was as still as if it had been empty, not peopled with 10 persons. A slight rustle of the paper, as Murphy folded the note and put it in his pocket.

"Nice little souvenir, Miss Cross? Suppose you tell me about your last convention with Norman?"

"Suppose, Murphy, you forget the note," Tod said vehemently. "Suppose you forget it. I'll make it worth your while—"

The reporter who had copied the note laughed. "Forget it yourself, Janson. The Register is going to print it in the morning!"

"Rot!"

Tod glared at him savagely. "It's a question of Miss Cross, gentlemen. It isn't right for her to have this note get out. Her future, her public, her fans—"

"Rot," Murphy exclaimed. "Are you trying to bribe me, Janson?"

"Certainly not. I'm thinking of Carla—how hard it will be if this note reaches the papers—"

"I already have it, Janson, so don't worry," the reporter interrupted.

Gail felt sick all over. This was all her fault. If she had kept still, as she should have, nothing like this would have happened. Yet, how could she know that the note was damning? When she had remembered it, she thought it might be only a tender farewell, from Norman to Carla. He had been smiling, on the porch.

If she hadn't been so blind, she would have known what he meant to do. But she wasn't thinking of him. She was thinking of Ross. She knew now what Ross must have had in his pocket. A pipe, which she, in her fear, had imagined a gun.

"Tod!" Carla cried. She hadn't spoken since the note had been read. She had stood staring at Murphy, as if she could believe what she had heard. "Tod! Get it away from him! I'm gone, if it gets in the papers! You've got to do something—"

A rosy dawn was tinging the east when Gail walked up the steps of Mrs. Green's house.

"I'm doing all I can, Carla."

Nick asked if there was any need for the rest of them to stay. Murphy said no. He had all the town addresses.

Tod and Carla were still arguing with Murphy, when Nick hurried Sarah and Gail into his car. Ross had disappeared, and Gail noticed when she went outside that his car had gone, too. He had been like a man in a dream toward the last in the room that was so hateful to Gail now. She hadn't noticed him leave. Her mind had been too occupied with Tod and his anger, with Carla's wrath.

"I didn't mean to do it—" she murmured as she seated her self next to Nick. Sarah was on the other side.

New Scandal

"Don't worry, Gail. You had no idea what the consequences would be. You did absolutely right. You mentioned the note, which you had every right in the world to do. You had no idea what was in it. We'll let Tod and Carla worry about it. After all, it's their trouble, not yours."

Nick spoke kindly, tenderly, but still Gail was worried.

"My little party was a failure, that's all—" he continued. "A tragedy—"

"Like a lot of other Hollywood parties," Sarah broke in. "Carla's contract tomorrow—the one she was to sign—"

"The papers may not print the letter. We can hope for that."

"And then again, Nick they might. Carla will make grand copy. She'll have to talk fast to get out of the mess she's in now. And she's been in messes before. A lot of them."

Gail thought of the collision, and Mrs. Mendenhall. She had gotten Carla out of that, only to plunge her into something worse. Something more terrible.

"Maybe it'll teach Carla 'not to play—with fire,'" Sarah said, shaking her head. "By this time she ought to know, but she doesn't. She's had her fingers burned a doz-

GENEVA ADOPTS DISARM PLAN

American Delegate Objects To Budgetary System

GENEVA, Nov. 20. (AP)—Over opposition of the Americans, French and Japanese, the disarmament commission today approved employment of the budgetary method for limiting naval armaments.

This principle had previously been adopted for land war materials, although Hugh S. Gibson, the American delegate, made clear that the United States could not accept this system for itself.

Lord Cecil of Great Britain who championed today's action recognized the impossibility of concluding a general convention providing budgetary limitation for fleets unless some way of accommodating the American and Japanese position could be found.

He declared this scheme of fixing a maximum figure for naval expenditures was regarded by the British as purely supplementary to the direct method embodied in the Washington and London treaties.

The vote for the budget limit for navies was: For—Great Britain, Canada, Russia, Ireland, Norway, Persia, Finland, Italy, Rumania, Holland. Against—United States, France, Japan.

The commission also concluded adoption of the naval limitation draft which transfers the principles of the Washington and London treaties into a general convention formula for all nations.

The commission moved rapidly today under a fire of amendments from Maxim Litvinoff, the Russian delegate, all aiming at radical reduction. The commission, however, declined to insert any figures except those already in force among the great naval powers.

Completing the naval draft, the commission arrived at air armaments but decided to reserve this for discussion on third and final reading.

Seymour Markets 17,716 Turkey Crop

Special to The Record News.

SEYMOUR, Texas, Nov. 20.—According to figures obtained by P. C. Colgin, county agent of Baylor county, 14,716 turkeys were marketed through Seymour for Thanksgiving, and were handled by the Western Produce company of this place, which has recently installed a dressing plant here for the birds.

Of this number, 8,436 head, totaling 109,960 pounds and equivalent to five carloads, were dressed locally, the balance being shipped by truck to the plants at Knox City and Stamford, due to the number exceeding the expected local supply.

A pool was formed which handled 4,779 head. The pooled turkeys brought a price of 17c per pound. The turkey crop this year has meant more to many Baylor county farmer than their 10c cotton.

Livestock Inspector Ends Jefferson County Tour

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.(UP)—Livestock Inspection Superintendent Sam Nelson of the state agriculture department returned today from an inspection trip of registered Hereford herds in Carter and Jefferson county.

Nelson headed a delegation of 32 McCurtain county stockmen who contemplate purchasing additional animals for their dairy herds.

Dr. L. J. Allen and Dr. W. A. Hiate of the bureau of animal husbandry of the U. S. department of agriculture also made the trip.

McCurtain stockmen have purchased 91 registered Herefords the last two years in an effort to improve their herds, Nelson said.

Juarez Court to Free American Held in Murder

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—Mexican judicial authorities at Juarez today announced it had been agreed to release W. J. (Jeff) Meers, El Paso youth held in the Chihuahua jail, charged with slaying Antonio Visconti at Juarez last spring, on bond.

Meers said he shot Visconti under the impression he was Manuel Villareal, who killed Meers' father in an attempted pay roll robbery several years ago. Villareal, known as a border country "bad man," was killed a few weeks ago by police in an attempted escape from prison in Chihuahua City.

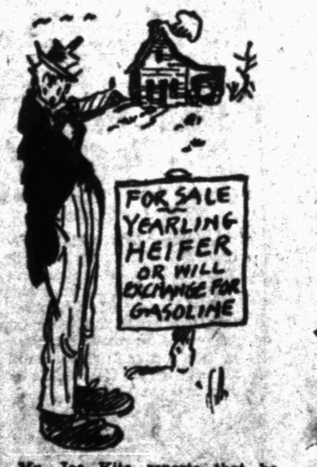

Refinery Fireman Hurt In Explosion of Still

PORT ARTHUR, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—M. A. Payne, a fireman at the Gulf refinery, is in a hospital in a critical condition as a result of the explosion of a high pressure still today.

Cause of the explosion is unknown, Charles W. Stevenson, plant manager, said.

NEW PAVING STRIP OPENED

17 Miles Added to Anson-Abilene Highway

Special to The Record News.

ANSON, Texas, Nov. 20.—Fifteen miles, or all except the Anson sector, of the concrete pavement on highway 4-30, between Anson and Abilene, has been opened to traffic, furnishing 17 miles from the heart of Abilene toward this city. Traffic can now follow the pavement and highway grade all the way until near Anson where the contractors are working. To date about one mile of concrete has been poured out of Anson, leaving nearly six miles more to close the gap between this place and Abilene.

The Anson road committee, consisting of Knox Pittard, J. J. Steele, County Judge Owen Thomas and Commissioner L. N. Glaze, in a conference a few days ago with W. R. Ely of Abilene, chairman of the highway commission, were assured that there was a good probability of highway No. 83 in this county being widened to 18 feet in the event the county would see that the present right of way is widened to 100 feet, which is now considered standard. It is contemplated that two feet of asphalt topping would be used, super-imposed upon a caliche base, similar to the construction of the present roadbed. The caliche can be secured locally, which means that the cost of construction would be reduced to the minimum.

Stamford Club Hears Study of Texas Music

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, Nov. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans of Simmons university of Abilene were guest-artists of the Pierian club in their study of Texas music in an outstanding program under the direction of Mrs. Jack Booth at the club room on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans were introduced by the club president, Mrs. George Zachary, and delighted their hearers with their interpretation of Texas musical numbers, presenting several original compositions of Mr. Evans'. The club program was opened with the singing of "Texas, Our Texas," by club members. Mrs. R. E. McDonald then read the "Music Collect," Miss Margaret Crockett read Van Dyke's "My Symphony," and Mrs. Booth talked of music and folk songs of Texas. Roll call was answered with names of Texas composers with their compositions.

Members of the Music club of this city were invited guests of the club for the afternoon and light refreshments were served to about 75 present.

Names of all individuals and families of that community who will need help this winter will be obtained and relief will be extended as far as funds are available. Donations of money, clothing and food are sought. Ira Finley and H. B. Stephenson have been named to work on the committee with the pastor.

Heartbreak Girl

en times. Now they're—" she did not finish.

It was after they dropped Sarah at her apartment that Nick spoke again about the party.

"I thought I was doing you a favor, Gail. That's why I gave the party. Did you guess?"

"Yes—"

"I'm sorry now. I thought I was doing my best for you. You wanted Ross and I thought the best way to get him back was for you to be thrown with him a lot. So I took Carla out yesterday and today. Tried to please her—"

"I know—"

A rosy dawn was thinging the east when Gail walked up the steps of Mrs. Green's house. Silently Nick handed her her bag, and she went into the hall.

Eyes on Fire

In her room, she dropped the bag, and sat down on the bed. The events of the evening were too fresh in her mind for her to even think of sleep. She was wide awake, her head throbbing, her eyes on fire.

She knew now what she should have done about the note. She should have told Tod about it, alone, given it to him to do with it as he wanted. Probably after reading, he would have torn it up.

Instead, with her blunder, she had wrought a catastrophe. Tomorrow—no, today, for it was day already, all the world would read the note. Would know the extent of Carla's heartlessness.

How could Norman have written the note in the first place? It was for Carla's eyes, of course, accusing. He must have been very, very bitter.

The smile on his face when she had last seen him, haunted her. Mocked her. She shivered and looked toward the window, with its ivy wreath. The vine seemed reddish in the dawn, and the homely trashy backyard was not so ugly tinted with the pink of early morning.

The cheap alarm clock on her dresser pointed hands to five. Ross' picture was smiling into it. For the first time she looked at it unfeelingly, stunned by the tragedy of the night.

Again she heard Lieutenant Murphy's voice reading the note, "As sure as if you had held the trigger of the gun, Carla, you have killed me—"

For all the world to read . . .

Then she went to the closet and looked at the boy's suit hanging on a hook, the khaki shirt limp, the trousers, travel stained, creased. The shoe on the floor.

She wanted to go home. To Fairview.

She hated—Hollywood—

Clarendon Optimistic On Business Prospect

Special to The Record News.

CLARENDON, Texas, Nov. 20.—Signs of approaching confidence in business were revealed by a local banker here at the last Rotary luncheon when the statement was made that all Clarendon banks were in the best of shape, did not owe anything, were not over-extended and had more money on savings accounts than in several years past. The speaker went on to say that he wished for a revival of confidence as the only requisite lacking to bring things back to normal in this country. Dr. B. L. Jenkins is president of the local Rotary club.

POSSE'S SHOT KILLS BANKER

Hasty Shooting Blamed for Man's Death

MARATHON, N. Y., Nov. 20. (AP)—The fatal shooting of Clayton W. Seeber, banker and merchant, in the office of his store last Tuesday night was described today by the county sheriff as the blunder of a burglar hunting posse.

Sworn statements in hands of District Attorney Coon said Seeber was killed and Mrs. Myra Mudge, 57-year-old widow, wounded by a posse of which Seeber's own son, Carter, was a member.

The posse was assembled when Carter Seeber reported that he heard noises in his father's feed store, which had been burglarized twice before.

As the posse neared the store the lights were extinguished and presently a shot was fired from the store window.

Statements from the participants today averred that when fired upon the posse was convinced it confronted burglars, and one member fired through the window.

Iowa Park Students Visit Wichita Library

Special to The Record News.

IOWA PARK, Texas, Nov. 20.—Iowa Park ward school pupils are observing national good book week by making projects and posters, which will be on display at the next meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, held at the W. F. George High school auditorium, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 26, at 3 o'clock. High school pupils are observing this period by studying the works of well known authors and recognized literature.

The fourth and fifth grades visited the Kemp library in Wichita Falls Thursday afternoon accompanied by their teachers, Miss Maurine McDonald and Mesdames Bratton Reaves, Carl Hoffman and Orren Freeman. Cars for this trip were furnished by the parents.

Prizes for the best posters and projects have been donated by the P.-T. A. president, Mrs. T. M. Clark, the 23 Study club, the chairman of work service committee, Mrs. R. L. Turner, and Lovelace Book store, Wichita Falls.

Faculty at Stamford Holds First Meeting

Special to The Record News.

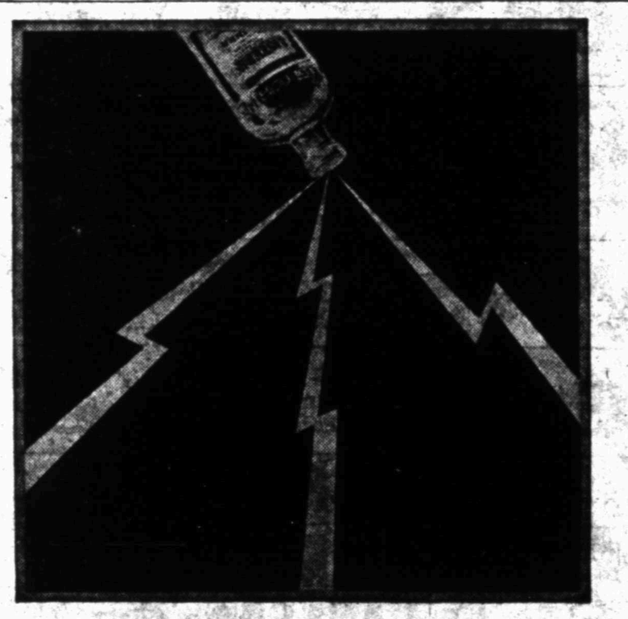

STAMFORD, Texas, Nov. 20.—The local faculty club held its initial meeting of the year as a gala Thanksgiving party at the Home Economics cottage with about 50 in attendance.

This club is opening its fourth year's activities. Meetings are held monthly during which all school subjects are strictly taboo as topics of conversation. Faculty members and their families as well as members of the board of education and their families comprise the membership of the club.

The entertainment committee arranging the clever party of this week were Mesdames D. K. Lyons, E. A. Gardner, Misses Katherine Addis, Estelle Cadle, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Ramey and Messrs. T. R. Tinsley and G. E. Myrick.

PAINTER SUES

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Christine Lumdson, portrait painter, sued Carnegie hall today for $150,000 for injuries sustained, she said, when she fell down a stairway in the building in 1926.

Instant death to germs of disease!

Think of it!—a non-poisonous mouth wash absolutely harmless, pleasant to taste, healing to tissue; yet with power to destroy germs by the millions.

Such is Listerine, for fifty years the outstanding antiseptic and germicide for oral hygiene.

Every type of dangerous germs swiftly succumbs to it. Among them are the Streptococcus Hemolyticus, the organism associated with sore throat, Micrococcus Catarrhalis (catarrh) found frequently with colds, and the Pneumococcus (pneumonia).

Enemy of infection

Even Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid), germs specified for test purposes because of their resistance to germicides, yield to it. Listerine kills them in counts ranging to 200,000,000 in 15 seconds (fastest killing time science has accurately recorded).

Now you can understand why full strength Listerine is so successful in guarding against colds, sore throat, and other infections. Why also, it combats these diseases once they have gained a foothold.

Reduces mouth germs 99%

The moment Listerine enters the mouth it attacks the millions of bacteria breeding there—kills them outright. The number of bacteria on the surfaces of the mucous membrane is actually reduced 99%. This has been clearly demonstrated by repeated tests made under methods employed at great Universities.

Gargle every 2 hours

Make a habit of using full strength Listerine as a mouth wash and gargle every night and morning. This treatment under normal conditions of health is considered sufficient to keep mouth germs under control and maintain a clean and healthy condition in the oral tract.

When, however, you have a cold or sore throat consult your doctor and increase the frequency of the gargle to once every two hours.

Thus you give nature an extra attacking force needed when body resistance is low, to keep disease germs under control. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

COURT HEARS ARISTOCRACY

Testimony Given in Duke's Trial Over Necklace

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (INS)—Pre-war Austrian aristocracy faced each other today on opposite sides of a court room fence, all on account of a diamond necklace which once belonged to Napoleon.

His Highness Leopold Hapsburg, archduke of Austria, who might have been king if Europe hadn't a convulsion, sat wistfully listening to the legal attempts to send him to a Democratic jail.

The Baroness Anna Eisenmenger of Vienna, testified against her royal blooded compatriot today. The baroness, a friend of the archduchess Marie Theresa of Austria, owner of the controversial necklace, told of arrangements for selling the bauble in America for $450,000. Leo, as his American pals call him, is charged with selling the historic necklace for only $60,000 and getting $20,000 commisison for the deal.

Hapsburgh, as the court clerk calls the defendant, sat with his hand beneath his Hapsburg chin as Baroness Eisenmenger testified against him.

It all sounded like a lesson in heraldry. The baroness said that she was "a very good friend" of the 74-year-old archduchess whose late husband was Archduke Charles Louis. Her own husband, the baroness said, was in the court of the Emporer Charles. The baroness testified about seeing the Napoleonic necklace frequently in the palace of the archduchesss in Vienna.

Dawson County School Swaps Its Radio for Water Well

Special to The Record News.

LAMESA, Texas, Nov. 20.—Liberty school, in Dawson county, has traded a radio for a well of water, and piping, according to W. T. Webb, county school superintendent. Last summer in a contest with other rural schools in the county, Liberty won the radio, which was an electric machine. Not having electricity available at the school the radio became useless to them. In previous years water has been piped to the school building from a farm house. A trade was made with a contractor, to swap him the radio for drilling a well at the school, and installing piping in the building, thus turning their winnings in the contest to a lasting benefit for the school.

Rail Leaders Vote To Provide Work

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)——The Association of Railway Executives voted unanimously today that it is their policy "to carry on as far as is practicable work which may provide employment to the greatest possible number of men during the coming winter."

The association, representing more than 90 per cent of the mileage of the country, announced that the railroads "have practically carried out" a program of construction and equipment building undertaken at the request of President Hoover late last year to offset the threat "of a substantial suspension of business activities."

Floyd Farmers Extend Terracing

Special to The Record News.

FLOYDADA, Texas, Nov. 20.—Unusual interest is being displayed in this section of Floyd county in terracing farm lands. O. T. Williams, vocational agriculture teacher of the Floydada high school has a long list of applications waiting for demonstrations. Last year several thousand acres of farm lands were terraced under the direction of Mr. Williams and a check on the results show that on those farms where terracing has been done the increase in production over lands that were not terraced was marked. Indications are that many more thousands of acres will be terraced in Floyd county this year.

JENNY... eminent creator of Paris fashions says:

"The sheerest lingerie is safe if laundered with Palmolive Beads"

Agreeing with the Committee of 17 . . . Jenny and 32 famous French designers declare Palmolive Beads "Ideal for washing fine fabrics"

JENNY! The name calls up visions of garmentries of chic and elegance.

Mme. Jenny has the rare distinction of having been awarded the ribbon of the Legion d'Honneur, in recognition of her "eminent services" in the creation and inspiration of a French art.

Her name ranks among the real leaders of the great French dressmaking houses. In her workrooms are silks and chiffons worth thousands of dollars. Lingerie—fine as sheer veiling! Laces of incomparable beauty.

You may be sure Jenny has given the most serious attention to the care of these exquisite garments . . . and especially to their proper cleansing. She says:

"Lingerie safe if washed with Palmolive Beads"

"Coarse, harsh soaps—scalding hot water—bits of soap left after washing—all these are fatal risks for delicate fabrics.

"But the sheerest lingerie is safe if laundered with Palmolive Beads. They dissolve completely in lukewarm or cool water, and leave no soap to dry in the fabric and rot or break the threads.

"I recommend Palmolive Beads for washing even the daintiest lingerie and sheerest fabrics."

So different from other soaps

Many women are unable to believe a soap can be radically different from all others. Madam — we ask you to try just one box of Palmolive Beads, if that is your view!

Palmolive Beads are really beads of soap . . . hollow . . . tissue thin. They dissolved at 80 to 83 degrees, the safe temperature for washing fine silks . . . and full 20 degrees lower than most soaps require.

Palmolive Beads are made of olive and palm oils. For more than 40 years silk makers have trusted their precious skeins to no other type of soap. It is the finest you could use. And never before available for everyone. Try Palmolive Beads today. Begin now to give your delicate garments the care they should have. Your dealer has Palmolive Beads.

MME. JENNY, whose rare instinct for chic has made her a leader among great French dressmaking houses.

Famous Silk Manufacturers

RITES SAID FOR JESSE ROGERS

Archer County Veteran Dies At Cisco

Special to The Record News.

ARCHER CITY, Texas, Nov. 20.—Funeral services for Jesse Rogers, 83, for many years commander of the Stonewall Jackson camp of the Confederate veterans and a resident of Archer county for almost half a century, were held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Archer City Baptist church. "Uncle Jesse" died Wednesday afternoon at Cisco.

Rev. N. B. Moon, pastor of the Archer City church, assisted by Rev. J. T. Johnson of Cisco, conducted the services.

The funeral was attended by scores of Northwest Texas pioneers, comrades of the veteran through many colorful years.

Mr. Rogers was one of the organizers of the Stonewall Jackson camp and was its commander at the time of his death. Only five members of the camp survive him and he was the last of the Archer county members to go. The five who remain, all of them present when the camp was formed at Holliday, are John Ground and John T. Woodhouse, Wichita Falls; Ben Ferguson, Iowa Park; Mat Wicker, Oklahoma; and George Norwood.

Early Settler

One of the earliest settlers in Northwest Texas, Mr. Rogers was the first cowboy on the T. I. T. ranch, owned by Bill Mann, Archer county's first sheriff. During the past six years he has served as justice of the peace in Archer City and was named again for the post in the last election.

Mr. Rogers never married and the only relatives in this section of the country were several nieces and nephews who attended the services Thursday. From Wichita Falls at the funeral were Judge Edgar Scurry, John T. Woodhouse, Miss Mary Jane Nelson and Miss Reva Rae Brown.

Pallbearers Listed

Active pallbearers were Judge H. V. Pearston, Eugene Hooper and the four members of the commissioners court, Arthur Carter, A. L. Abercrombie, A. J. Cross and J. H. Rayborn.

Honorary pallbearers were John Ground, J. T. Young, John Mann, R. V. Gwinn, Edgar Scurry, R. E. Taylor, John C. Kay, H. F. Weldon, and Allan Montgomery, all of Wichita Falls; N. J. Jones, J. D. Powell, W. L. Andrews, John Purcell, J. H. Turbeville, H. A. Powell, T. B. Wilson, J. S. Melugin, C. R. Conner, J. A. Fudge, Joe Eichler, J. F. Hayes, J. B. Harrell, C. A. Goodwin, Oscar Morris, R. T. Morrison, B. Smittum, T. L. Rollett, Joseph Sidwell, Edward Weldon, Mrs. Maude Izard and Mrs. C. A. Montgomery, all of Archer City; S. R. Crawford and Fred Arnold of Graham, and John Richardson and Joy Graham of Olney.

Child Aid Conclave In Turmoil

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—President Hoover's child conference rode its first tempest today and was steered, by proclamation, into peaceful waters.

Declaring its child health and protection objective important enough "to justify any amount of time and effort to harmonize varying points of view," the procedure committee tonight issued a statement that "points on which agreement cannot be reached will be taken up by the president's continuation committee.

The statement was precipitated by a clash between the public health service and the Children's bureau, over an old dispute first broached in the conference proceedings by Secretary Davis in his morning address when he championed the Children's bureau, in his department.

His speech emphatically declared against subtracting any functions from the Children's bureau or limiting its scope. It gained significance by developments in a tempestuous session of a public health sub-committee.

A recommendation that the maternity, infancy and child health activities of the Children's bureau be transferred to the public health service was read by Dr. Haven Emerson of Columbia university, presiding, and was protested by Miss Grace Abbott, Children's bureau chief, backed by representatives of women's organizations.

The women demanded a reconsideration of the committee's findings, and the inclusion of Miss Abbott's minority report against such a transfer.

A special meeting of the entire public health service and administration section was called tonight to consider three motions adopted at the end of the stormy session. The motions sought reconsideration of the preliminary report, and dissemination of Miss Abbott's statement of her views.

Turmoil broke in today's meeting as soon as Dr. Emerson began to read the preliminary report of the committee. Shouts for "Miss Abbott, Miss Abbott!" came from the back of the room.

Emerson insisted on reading the report, then turned to Miss Abbott's statement. She had prepared it for publication after an executive meeting of the committee yesterday rejected it as a minority report.

As the reading concluded Miss Lillian Wald, of the Henry Street Nursing service, New York, interrupted to read a group of telegrams supporting the Childre's bureau.

There was an instant flare of retorts from women in the room when Dr. Emerson referred to the telegrams as representing "organized opposition."

A meeting of the procedure committee was held later in the day from which came the statement that all matters which might not be settled by the conference would go into the hands of a continuing committee.

The Khyber Pass, in Afghanistan, is the principal pass into that country from India. It is about 30 miles long.

CLUB TOLD OF TAILOR'S ART

Emold Makes Talk at Rotary Luncheon

Professional technique of tailoring was discussed before members of the Rotary club Thursday noon in a classification talk by Joe Emold, and Walter S. Curlee, representing the better business committee, reported on the progress being made in its campaign.

Type patterns into which all men are classified were revealed by Mr. Emold, and he explained how the rules of proportion enter upon the designing of every garment. Quoting from John Lord, he said:

"Tailoring is as any other art. It gives nations culture, refinement, and enjoyment of the beautiful. It diverts the mind from low and commonplace pursuits, exalts the imagination, and makes its votary indifferent to the evils of life. It raises the soul into regions of peace and bliss."

Insistence upon the need for more local work for men here who must have jobs featured Mr. Curlee's talk. Business has increased noticeably for almost every local concern, he said, but declared that there are still several hundred men here who are out of money, out of food, and out of work. The speaker urged the completion of all repair and alteration work possible at this time, as a means of providing further employment.

Tribute to the memory of J. A. Kemp, an honorary member of the Rotary club, was paid by John Kilgore. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Wayne J. Holmes and Evan Rives, KGKO staff entertainers, accompanied by Miss Lorene Tucker. They were introduced by Darrold Kahn.

Next week's scheduled meeting of the club will be cancelled because of Thanksgiving, President Herbert C. Voelcker announced.

Wichitan's Father Claimed by Death

News of the death in Waxahachie of J. T. Wray, 84, father of Jim Wray of Wichita Falls, was received here late Thursday afternoon. The aged man had been in good health until a few months prior to his death which came at 5:25 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The elder Mr. Wray came to Texas from Tennessee in 1870, and had been a resident of Ellis county since that time. He is survived by five sons and one daughter. The daughter is Mrs. L. L. Wilkes of Arlington. The sons are Judge W. L. Wray of Hillsboro, L. T. and George H. Wray of Waxahachie, F. H. Wray of Granbury, and Jim Wray of Wichita Falls, who has been telegraph editor of The Wichita Daily Times for several years. A niece, Mrs. W. C. Heath, 1008 Travis street, also survives.

The body will be sent to Milford at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, and services will be held there. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wray left Wichita Falls Thursday night to attend the services.

Paderewski Booked for Concert in Wichita Falls Feb. 19

Wichita Falls music lovers will hear the world's most famous pianist on Feb. 19 when Ignace Jan Paderewski appears in a concert at the Memorial auditorium.

Announcement that contract for the appearance of the noted artist had been signed was made Thursday night by H. C. Cheshire, Wichita Falls agent. Paderewski will give only three Texas concerts, one at Fort Worth on Feb. 18, one at Wichita Falls on Feb. 19 and one at Amarillo on Feb. 20.

C.-C. Heads Seek Quick Action On Proposed Wichita Underpass

J. S. Bridwell, president of the chamber of commerce, and W. B. Hamilton, chairman of the highway division of the organization, left Thursday night for Austin, where they will attend meetings Friday of the state highway commission and the oil division of the state railroad commission.

They are to take up several important matters with both commissions. One is relative to getting work started on highway No. 5 through Cook and Montague counties. Another with the highway commission is relative to immediate construction of an underpass on highway 5 just east of the city limits of Wichita Falls.

This highway crosses both the Denver and Katy railroads. It is said that plans have been worked out for an underpass and it is believed that now is the proper time to start the work. In event immediate action is taken it will mean employment to a large number of men for several months.

J. C. Mytinger, general chairman of the Better Business campaign committee, conferred with President Bridwell relative to the construction of the underpass, pledging cooperation of his committee in getting the job under way.

300 Attend Benefit Show at College

A large and appreciative audience attended the fourth performance of "Kick In," Little Theater play presented under the auspices of Temple Israel at the Junior college auditorium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Each character acted the assigned part with the smoothness of a professional and held the audience in rapt attention throughout the performance.

Paul Seeds band gave a short concert preceding the play and also entertained at the three intermissions. About 300 persons were in attendance.

Modern Woodmen To Hold Meeting Tonight

Members of the Modern Woodmen of America will hold a class adoption of 20 candidates at their hall, 706½ Austin street, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced Thursday.

R. J. Vidler, state deputy of Dallas, will be the principal speaker at the affair and will instruct the candidates. Refreshments will be served following the business meeting.

Nitro Shot Snuffs Out Fire in Graham Well

A shot of 20 quarts of nitroglycerin was sufficient to extinguish a blazing gas well on the Kissinger property, 12 miles south of Graham Thursday, T. W. Mendenhall, general manager of the Morrisey Torpedo company, who supervised the operation, reported here Thursday night. The well had been burning several days. Cause of the fire was not known by the well owners.

DEATHS

CLOYD PRESTON FARMER

Funeral services for Cloyd Preston Farmer, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farmer, 1406 North Second street, who died at the home Tuesday, were held from the chapel of the Hines mortuary Thursday afternoon with the Rev. L. S. White, pastor of the First Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Riverside.

Surviving are the parents, a 6-year-old brother, James Arthur, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Blanchard. Out-of-town relatives attending the services were three uncles, T. L., W. W. and L. P. Farmer of Fort Worth; two aunts, Mrs. Georgia Hines of Henrietta and Miss Sue Farmer of Fort Worth.

Sailor Acquitted Of Houston Murder Charge

HOUSTON, Nov. 20. (UP)—A jury late today acquitted Clinton Kenney, New Orleans sailor, of the roadside slaying of his companion, H. M. Myhre, 48, seaman.

Myher's body was found on the roadside near here two months ago. Kenney pleaded self-defense.

Kill The Cause Of Skin Trouble

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ringworm, eczema, etc., a pleasant odored ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective parasite germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

Tetterine, by its cooling, soothing antiseptic effect, kills the parasites that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c a box, or sent direct, postpaid, upon receipt of price. Shuptrine Co., Savannah, Ga.—Adv.

HOTEL EXTENDS ROOM OFFER

Visitors Welcomed Free on Saturdays

Each Saturday out-of-town shoppers may use rooms in the Kemp hotel without charge during the hours of 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. The courtesy has been extended by Clark S. Cade, manager of the hotel, it was announced by A. T. Dickson, president, Wichita Falls Retail Credit Grantors association, which met in regular weekly dinner-meeting Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the hotel.

Much of the meeting was given over to discussion of hot check artists, who have made appearances in Wichita Falls. It was agreed during the meeting that checks returned marked "no account" should be sufficient reason for notification to all merchants to be careful of the checks made by persons writing checks without funds.

Dormant accounts more than six months old will be discussed at an early meeting of the grantors, and plans for payment outlined, according to Mr. Dickson.

Accounts "O" and "N" were discussed, as well as returned checks and repossession of merchandise.

To complete the anniversary celebration, Bebb's flowers!—Adv.

THIS IS THE EIGHTEENTH PUZZLE IN TIMES-RECORD NEWS "SCRAMBLED LETTER CONTEST"

This Is The Letter

K

The Times-Record News is conducting one of the most absorbing contests ever designed for the entertainment of its readers. To stimulate interest in it, and to make it a profitable as well as an enjoyable pastime for the next few weeks, a grand total of 39 prizes aggregating $100 will be awarded for the winning solutions.

Every other day there will be printed a letter of the alphabet in scrambled form, similar to the "K" above. These scrambled sections, when cut apart and properly assembled, will form the accompanying letter indicated. Each letter will be printed once in The Times and Record News.

This new game is extremely fascinating. It requires a high degree of skill to arrange these apparently simple sections in such forms as to make a perfect capital letter. "Scrambled Letters" has swept the country like a storm. Big business executives have taken it up as a genuine test of their ingenuity. Parties are formed in hundreds of communities to work out the puzzle in interested groups.

Each letter will appear in both papers. Full details about entering the contest are published herewith. Remember, 39 prizes make it well worth your time in matching your wits against this brand new intelligence test.

PRIZES ARE AS FOLLOWS

First prize	$25.00
Second prize	15.00
Third prize	10.00
Fourth prize	5.00
Ten prizes at $2 each	20.00
Twenty-five prizes at $1 each	25.00
Grand total	$100.00

Read These Rules

The Times-Record News Nu-Way alphabet puzzles include the 26 letters of the alphabet. The publication of the various letters of the alphabet will cover a period of several weeks. These letters appearing in the paper are cut into pieces of varying shapes, the object being to place these parts together so they will form the respective letters as illustrated in outline accompanying the pieces.

An outline and its entire parts will be published in the Times and Record News every other day, a different letter of the alphabet being presented. The publication of all letters of the alphabet will cover a period of several weeks.

Anyone who is a resident of Wichita Falls or this section may participate in this profitable fun, except employes of the Times and Record News or their families. You pay nothing to enter. Each letter, as it appears in the Times and Record News may be traced or copied free of charge from the files at the office of this newspaper.

The Times and Record News will pay $100 in cash prizes to the persons who send in the nearest correctly solved complete set of puzzles in accordanee with the rules. This does not necessarily mean that you have to solve all the puzzles to win. The prizes will be paid to the persons whose entries rank the highest. Neatness, accuracy and simplicity are the prime requisites. Accurate cutting and correct assembling of the pieces to form each respective letter. Entries that are elaborate will receive no more consideration than the simplest ones. Young and old thus have an equal chance to win.

Take the page of the Times or Record News wherein the puzzles are published. Cut the pieces along the outside of the black border and paste the pieces neatly on cardboard or a piece of paper to form the letter indicated. Repeat this operation every week with the new letters in the Nu-Way alphabet puzzles published in the Times and Record News until you complete the full alphabet. Letters previously worked by pasting on the large letters we formerly published may be submitted in that way.

Puzzle solutions are to be submitted only in complete sets five days after all letters of the alphabet have been published in the Times and Record News. Do not send in each puzzle separately. When you have the complete set of 26 puzzles, or parts thereof, mail first class, postage prepaid, or bring them to the Times and Record News alphabet puzzle department. All entries must be in by midnight five days after the last puzzle has been published in the Times and Record News. The winners will be announced as soon thereafter as possible. Be sure that mailed entries have name and address of sender and sufficient postage is used.

In addition to your entry, you must send an advertisement of one of the advertisers shown on any of the letters clipped from the Times or Record News during this contest period, and a letter not exceeding 50 words in length telling why you can profitably deal with this concern.

The Times and Record News will appoint judges, and their decision will be final. In the event of a tie for any of the prizes offered, the full amount of the prize tied for will be awarded each tying contestant.

The fragrance of these BEANS brought the town flocking

On Saturday nights, when Uncle William served his famous beans in his Western eating house, the whole camp came flocking. They liked the teasing, different taste of these mountain beans, cooked to rich and flaky tenderness in a wonderful sauce.

Today those mountain beans are famous far beyond the confines of that Western camp. Brown Beauty Beans are on your grocer's shelves, ready for tonight's supper. There are no other beans like them—they are different in variety from the lowland beans—different in color—different in their hearty, mellow, delectable flavor.

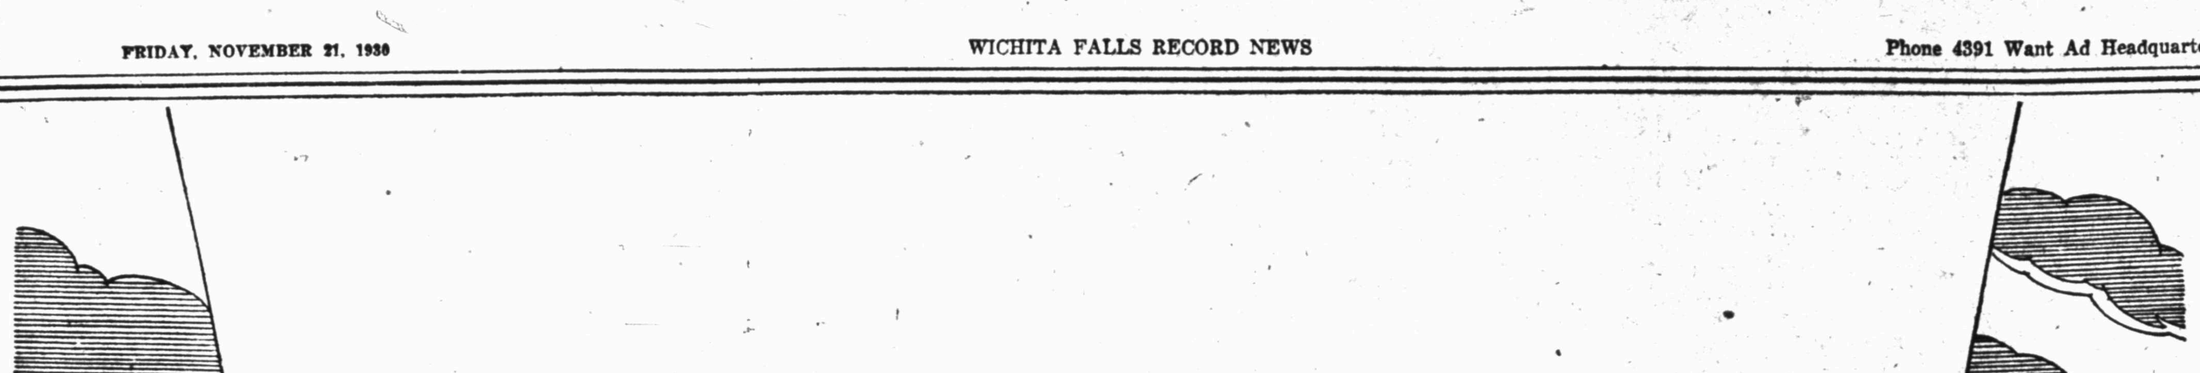

Serve them hot in their own delicate sauce. Make them into chile con carne—salads—or combine with other ingredients in wonderful dishes that are different and satisfying. Ask your grocer for recipes when you order a can of Brown Beauty Beans today.

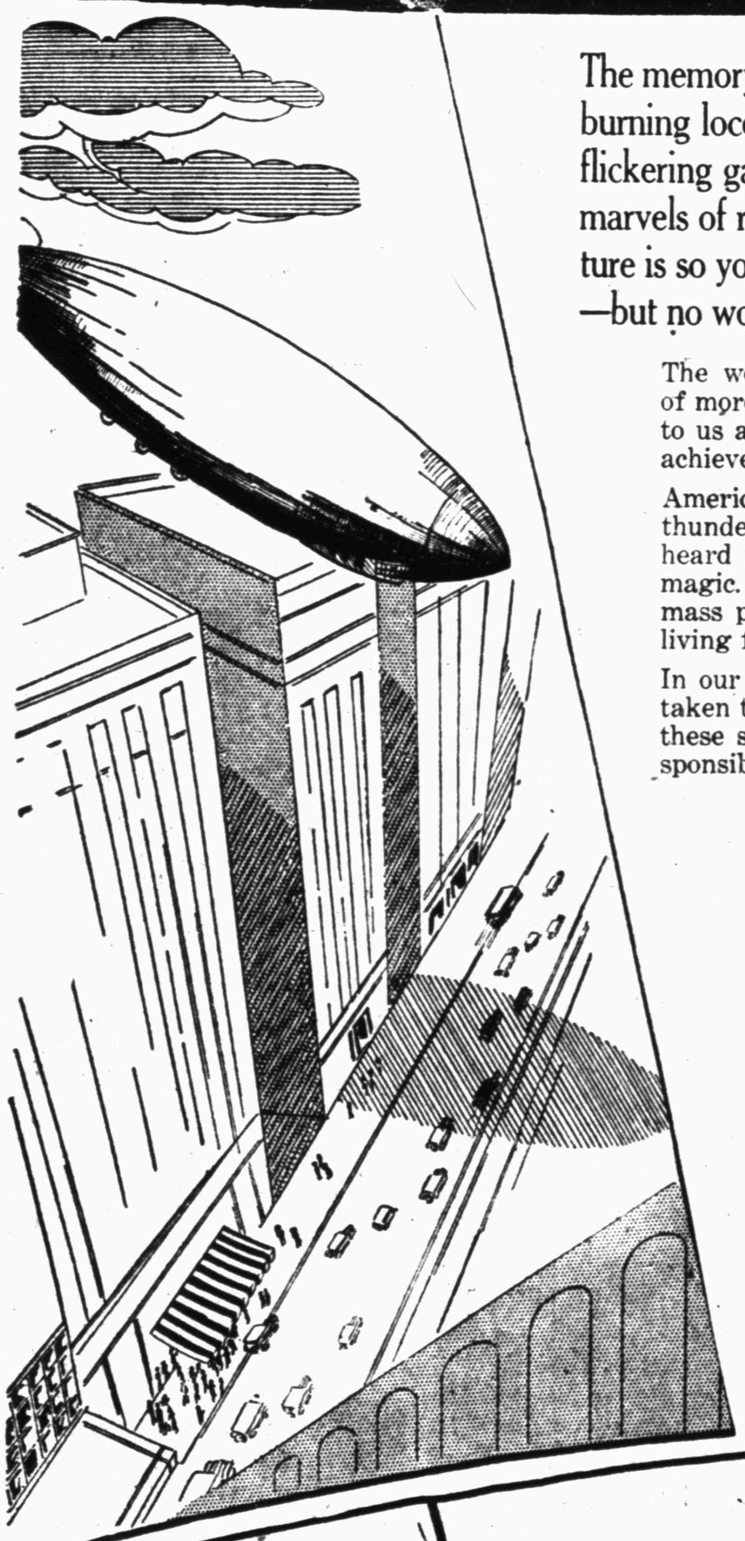

Order, too, some Dairy Maid Korn Kernels. The very hearts of Pearl corn, with all their full food values retained. Light, fluffy, and snow-white kernels. Steam creamed and appetizing. May be served either as a breakfast cereal or as a vegetable with lunch or dinner. Your grocer has them. Ask for free recipe folder.

A WORLD RE-MADE IN OUR TIME

The memory of many people now living encompasses the sailing ship, the wood-burning locomotive, the horse-drawn street car, the rubber tired barouche, the flickering gas-jet. Folks in their early thirties have witnessed the arrival of the marvels of radio, aircraft, automobiles and motion pictures. And the talking picture is so young that the children can remember when lips moved on the screen —but no words issued from them.

The world has been literally re-made in our time. From the safe distance of more than ten years, we can think of the Great War as having bequeathed to us at least one good thing—a re-kindled spirit of human enterprise and achievement.

America has been in the forefront of this breath-taking progress. The thunder of the excavator and the staccato rattle of the riveter has been heard in every city and town—and new and greater buildings arise as by magic. A sounder financial system, backing an industrial machine built for mass production, has stabilized our business life, and raised standards of living for all.

In our own city we have seen the effects of all these things — perchance taken them for granted. This announcement is published as a reminder that these significant happenings affect us individually, and that we have a responsibility for their continuance.

Wichita Falls Will Be the City YOU Make It

Progress is built on faith and courage—and the future of our city and country will be in direct ratio to our personal faith and courage.

Do Your Own Face-Lifting

A face-lifting operation is often resorted to by those who wish to conceal the effects of age. In this type of operation a portion of the skin or underlying tissue is removed near the eyes, forehead, ears or jaws, and the remaining skin is then drawn together, stretching it and smoothing out any nearby wrinkles. The results which can be achieved by beauty surgeons are sometimes astounding, at least, temporarily.

The chief defects in this face-lifting operation lie in the facts that all people's skin does not react the same; those who perform the operations are not always skilful; and since the skin is not given more life by the operation, the sagging and crows' feet often recur in time. Sometimes, also, the effect is to give the face a strained, drawn appearance, with the eyes slanting upward at the corners.

I do not say that a face-lifting operation should never be resorted to, but I do believe that it would be a better plan for those with wrinkles to try to tone up the skin and improve the appearance by natural methods which are much more permanent, and the effect is never strained, but natural.

Almost anyone past middle age can look much younger by applying a few simple methods for improving the tone of the skin, developing the underlying muscles, and removing the surplus fatty deposits. Wrinkles are formed because of regular creases where the skin folds and shuts off the local blood supply. The blood, too, with the advancing years, does not seem to be as nourishing to the skin, nor does it remove the toxins of the tissues as readily as they are formed. Often, toxic deposits actually form under the skin.

One who is trying to do his own face-lifting should first endeavor to cleanse the blood stream of accumulated impurities which may be clogging the circulation or poisoning the tissues. Nothing is quite as effective for this purpose as a short fruit juice fast accompanied by drinking large quantities of water to flush out the system. After about five days of this regime a well balanced diet, rich in all of the nourishing elements required by the body, should be used. During this time it is a good plan to exercise the muscles of the face and neck, for there is no method of improving the circulation as well as by exercise. The muscles can also be built up to produce a smoother outline.

Another good method of improving the circulation is to apply hot applications to the skin morning and evening after the exercises. This should then be followed with an ice rub or washing in very cold water. Wrinkles can then be rubbed lengthwise with a clean toothbrush which has been dipped in sweet almond oil.

Do your facial exercise in front of a mirror and you can undoubtedly discover just what muscles need to be exercised the most. Try to make your face expressive. Some people laugh only with their lips, others only with the eyes, but you should learn to laugh with both. Looking on the bright side of things is a constructive mental habit which will improve the appearance of the face. A person whose mind is upset, and who is gloomy and anxious, looks as though a smile would crack his face.

Watch how your cheeks become rounded out when you smile or laugh. Laughing is nature's way of giving you a face-lifting treatment. Laughing is a splendid tonic. It youthifies the face as well.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Length of Fruit Diet

Question—Mrs. E. L. asks: "How long must one take the fruit juice diet and what must one eat directly after leaving off the fruit juices? Can the pulp of the orange be eaten, or just the juice?"

Answer—Your question about the length of the fruit juice diet is too general for me to give you a very good answer through this column. Anyone will profit a great deal by taking an exclusive fruit diet for a few days, and the length of time would depend on just what one is trying to accomplish in the cure of disease. It is usually all right to use the pulp of the orange when on an orange fruit-diet.

Reducing Salts

Question—Mrs. Overweight asks: "Will you kindly advise if the various reducing soaps and salts on the market are injurious?"

Answer—Most of these salts and soaps are not injurious but very expensive for the results received from their use. If the treatment consists of lying in a tub of hot water for an hour, it is very exhausting. Reducing through dieting and exercising are the only sane, sensible ways.

Excessive Perspiration

Question—A. W. writes: "I would like to know what causes profuse perspiration under the arms and if there is anything I can do to stop it. I am 21 years old and very healthy. I would be glad to have your advice."

Answer—Excessive perspiration is caused by some deep-seated toxemia. If there is a strong odor there has been an invasion to the skin of certain bacteria. A cure may be accomplished by following a well balanced diet and the use of cold shower baths. I do not advocate the use of perspiration preventives.

Legion Urged to Help Find Jobs

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 20. (AP)—American Legion department commanders and adjutants at the close yesterday of their annual three-day session recommended that the legion organize an employment system in every state.

It was proposed that each state department establish an organization not only to register applicants for jobs but also to find and create employment.

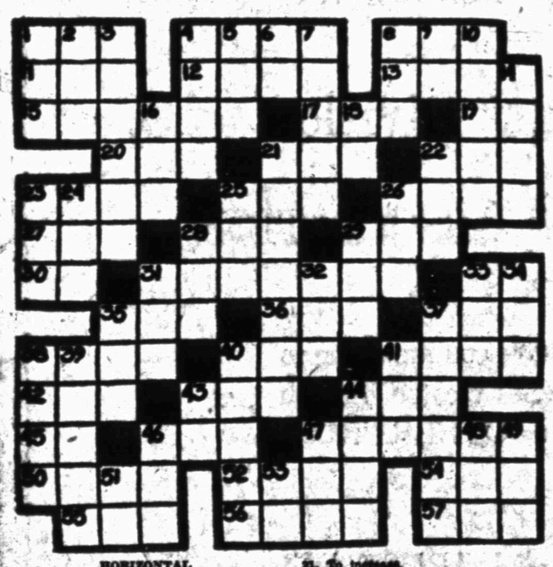

An offer from the department of Pennsylvania to donate a trophy to the legion department that accomplished the most in solving the unemployment problem was accepted. The trophy will be awarded at the 1931 convention in Detroit.

Textbooks Bids Scanned By Sooner Commission

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 20.(UP)—Totals on bids submitted on textbooks to be used in Oklahoma elementary and high schools were being prepared today by the state textbook commission.

The commission will purchase penmanship, reading, and agricultural books for the grade schools and texts on science, economics, and sociology for high schools.

HARVESTERS OVERPOWER GAMELY FIGHTING PACK, 71 TO 7

The Rambler's Corner

By FRED THOMPSON

President Bill Huff of the Spudders, to whom dear old Baylor is like the family hearth and smoking stand, will watch the Varsity of his alma mater play the T. C. U. Horned Frogs at Fort Worth Saturday.

He prophesied the score would be 14 to 7 in favor of Baylor. Substitute the Frogs for the last word in that sentence and you've got the Rambler's prediction. On second thought, it might be 21 to 7. Anyway the Frogs will win. It's not time for their defeat yet. When they play the Mustangs—then watch 'em go under!

Mr. President also revealed that he will attend the famous charity game between Army and Navy. He will be returning from the baseball meeting at Montreal, Canada, and will drop off to see this scrap. Incidentally, he is considerably worried about the tickets. He wired a West Point friend to purchase the admission slips for him. Then a news story appeared saying the tickets would be sold "by yardage," that is, a seat on the 10-yard line will cost $10, one on the 20-yard line $20, and so on, until the midfield seats are reached, these selling for $50.

Mr. President frankly is hoping and praying that his West Point friend uses discretion in selecting the position of his seats. Since the tickets are being sold on yardage, Mr. President announced he would be quite content with a seat in the end zone.

H. M. Chambers, coach of the Megargel High school football team, writes as follows:

"Since we played Henrietta to a scoreless tie on Oct. 3, 1930, you have been putting it in your paper that they (Henrietta) won the game by virtue of first downs. If you will read the constitution and rules of the interscholastic league, bulletin No. 2822, I think you will find that first downs are not used to determine the winner of an interscholastic league game except when the 20-yard penetrations are a tie. If I am not mistaken we penetrated their 20-yard mark twice and they only penetrated ours once.

"We had no official score keepers and I cannot see why the game is not a tie pure and simple. Further, I think that this district has been requiring the coaches of the teams to agree before the game begins as to how it will be decided in case of a tie. If they agree that it shall be a tie regardless of penetrations or first downs then it is a tie. And if the coaches say nothing, in regard to this, it is a tie.

"Therefore, I contend that the aforesaid game is a tie."

The entire situation results, we think, from the fact that the Henrietta and Megargel coaches did not have official score keepers. It has been the custom, as Mr. Chambers writes, for coaches to agree before a game starts, as to how the contest will be decided in case of a tie, and for the coaches to make provisions for scorers, so that they kill know where they stand if a tie results. There certainly is no use agreeing that the decision will be given to the team making the most 20-yard penetrations or the most first downs, if no one is appointed to keep records of these achievements.

The reason The Record News carried the fact that Henrietta won the game on first downs was because news dispatch to that effect was filed to us from Henrietta. We had no reason to doubt the story, and so printed it, presuming that the coaches had made this agreement. It was easy to assume that the 20-yard penetrations had, like the score, been tied up, and that a decision on first downs was necessary. If that story was inaccurate, and if Mr. Chambers' claim that Megargel made the most 20-yard penetrations is true, then we will be glad to make the correction.

However, Mr. Chambers admits there were no official score keepers at the game. In that case, it seems the Henrietta team would have just as much right to claim it made the most penetrations. Neither team, in the end, would have anything official on which to prove its claims. The whole affair is a muddle that could have been prevented by a pre-game agreement of the coaches, and the assigning of official score keepers.

B. C. Shulkey, director of class B, district No. 3 to which both Megargel and Henrietta belong, was in town the other day, and I referred this matter to him. He said the only way in which an official decision could be made was to refer the matter to the district directors for settlement.

But this course seems unwise. The season is about over, and the question of who won the scoreless game matters not at all to the district championship. In fact, nobody cares much, except the respective teams. Each, of course, would feel chagrined if knocked out of a victory. Especially Henrietta, for that scoreless game, awarded them by a newspaper report of greater number of first downs, is the only—the one and only victory that Henrietta can boast of so far this season. If the decision affected Olney's claim to the title, it would command more attention. As it is, the contentions of both teams would be over relatively nothing. So, let's call it off, Mr. Chambers. Let Henrietta win at least one game!

PAMPA BACKS RUN AT WILL

Coyotes' Only Score Results From Fumbled Punt

Staff Correspondent

PAMPA, Texas, Nov. 20.—Fighting gamely and at times brilliantly, the Coyotes nevertheless went down today before Pampa by the most decisive defeat a Wichita Falls team has ever suffered, 71 to 7.

Lard, Saulsbury and the rest of the Pampa team are as good as the advance notices said they would be. Lard, in particular, was hard to get along with. The Coyotes were overpowered.

Pampa's favorite play was an end run with a super-abundance of interference that boxed the ends and spilled the secondary defensive with heart-breaking efficiency. They tried little passing and completed no attempts. They used some deceptive line plays, such as the spinner, but it was their ability to circle ends that spelled the Coyotes' doom.

Harvester fans said during the first half that the team wasn't going as it should. It was a bit lucky, at that, to score four touchdowns, while the Coyotes took full advantage of a mishandled punt to push their lone tally over.

They Really Get Started

But in that third quarter, Pampa really got started. They made six touchdowns in 15 minutes, with Lard figuring prominently in several of them. The Coyotes seemed helpless before the Harvester running attack.

In the fourth quarter, with Pampa's second string team in the field, only one touchdown was added to the already appalling total. The Coyotes, let it said to their everlasting credit, never quit trying.

Withrow played a great game and Greenwood gave a good account of himself. Cox' 40-yard return of a Pampa kickoff, near the end of the game, was a sparkling piece of work.

Pampa gained a total of 539 yards from scrimmage to 92 for the Coyotes. The first downs were 22 to 8 in Pampa's favor.

Small Crowd Attends

The game was played in a wintry wind that held the crowd to a few hundred, and that gave the side defending the north goal a marked advantage. The Coyotes as usual lost the toss and had to buck the norther in the first quarter.

The first half ended with Pampa leading, 27 to 7, the Harvesters having power and to spare to push over their four touchdowns. The Coyotes made one scoring threat that was halted on the 19-yard line. In the second quarter, Martindale's failure to handle Holden's long punt gave Greenwood the ball on the Pampa 28-yard line. On the next play Withrow passed to Greenwood who caught the ball on the five-yard line and went across untouched.

Saulsbury and Lard, of whose prowess the Coyotes had heard much, lived up to their advance notices quite fully. Lard was all over the field in the first half, his 80-yard return of a kickoff being the most spectacular of several brilliant gains he made.

The Harvesters lost little time in putting over their first touchdown. Unable to gain after receiving the initial kickoff, Saulsbury punted to the Coyote 30-yard line. Aided by a penalty for offside, the Coyotes promptly registered first down on a nice gain by Withrow. He got away shortly for a 15-yard gain, but it was called back and the Coyotes were penalized. Martindale returned Withrow's punt to midfield and fumbled, Ray recovering for the Coyotes. On the second play following, Ray returned the favor, his fumble being recovered by Lard.

March to Goal

In just five plays the Harvesters marched from midfield to a touchdown. Ten-yard gains by Martindale and Chastain put the ball on the 30-yard line. A gain by Lard and a penalty gave a first down on the 20-yard line whence Martindale swung around his own left end for a touchdown. Lard place kicked for the extra point.

Two 15-yard penalties for illegal use of hands set Pampa back to its 10-yard line after the second kickoff. Saulsbury punted to the Coyote 40-yard line and Withrow's return punt, after he and Parrish had made small gains, gave Pampa the ball on its own 40-yard line. Consistent gains of four to seven yards by the Pampa backfield, and 20 yards in penalties pushed the Coyotes back to their own 13-yard line. The line play netted six yards, as the quarter ended.

On the first play of the second quarter, with the ball on the Coyote seven-yard line, Pampa registered a first down and on the second play following Saulsbury went through the line for Pampa's second touchdown. The try for point was missed.

Ray received the next kick-off and returned to the 40-yard line. White replaced Parrish and Gough went in for Daniels. Ray and Withrow, alternating in line plays, clicked off two first downs taking the ball to the Pampa 35-yard line. It took four plays to produce another first down on the Pampa 22-yard line. A 5-yard penalty for backfield in motion hurt the Coyotes' cause at this point. Three plays gained only six yards and a short forward pass to Greenwood missed its mark, the ball going over to Pampa on its 19-yard line. Lard broke through for a 30-yard run, Withrow dropping him in midfield. Almost immediately Lard was loose again, this time for 25 yards, bringing the ball to the Coyote 20-yard line. Martindale accounted for 14 yards of the remaining distance.

Saulsbury went over the left side of the Coyote line for the third Pampa touchdown. Chastain plunged for the extra point.

Coyote Backs Gain

Ray, White and Withrow hit the line for gains enough to register a first down in mid-field after Greenwood had made a smart return of Pampa's first kick-off. Rugely went in as quarter at this point and his first attempt at a forward pass was recovered by Martindale who dodged and sprinted 60 yards through the Coyotes to take the ball to the 10-yard line. Maulden recovered a Pampa fumble at this point. Harbes replaced Gough and Decker replaced Kelly.

Withrow's long punt hit Martindale's leg and Greenwood recovered on the Pampa 28-yard line. On the next play Greenwood took Withrow's pass and trotted five yards to the goal line. Withrow place-kicked the extra point.

Whatever joy this brought to the Coyote supporters was promptly annulled by one, Chester Lard, who after fumbling the kick-off, recovered and dashed through the Coyote team 82 yards for a touchdown. His interference was marvelous. Saulsbury place-kicked the extra point.

The Coyotes took to the air after receiving the next kick-off, but two attempts missed their receivers, and Holden punted 50 yards to Benton who had replaced Martindale. Benton got away for a 20-yard run as the half ended.

Lard opened his second half performance by returning the kick-off to his own 48-yard line, nearly getting away. Martindale made 25 yards around his left end, but 15 yards of it was erased by a penalty that put the ball on the Coyote 33-yard line. Chastain rain to the 7-yard line on the next play and then Lard carried the ball across, before the half was two minutes old. They try for point was blocked.

Lard's 30-yard run, soon after the next kick-off, put the ball on the Coyote 20-yard line. King threw Benton for a loss, but Chastain spun through for nine yards, and then in two plays plunged over for Pampa's sixth touchdown. A line plunge failed to give the extra point.

Score on Fumble

Ray received the next kickoff and then fumbled, the ball rolling back across the goal line where there was a scramble and then an argument. Referee Fillinghim finally called it a touchdown, after first ruling it a touchback. The extra point was place-kicked.

An intercepted pass gave Pampa the ball on the Coyote 20-yard line after the next kick-off. Kelly went in for Decker and Holton for Ray. One of these substitutes talked too soon so that Pampa got back the 15 yards lost on a penalty for holding, Benton then circled his left end for a touchdown. Goal was missed.

An exchange of punts gave Pampa the ball on the Coyote 25-yard line after the next kickoff. Lard promptly dashed around his right end for a touchdown. Goal was missed.

Chastain returned the next kick-off 45 yards to the Coyote 38-yard line, nearly getting past Withrow, if took Pampa four plays to make a first down on the 26-yard line. Then Lard pounded his right end for the remaining distance. Goal was kicked. The Harvesters had scored 38 points in this quarter.

Parrish replaced Kelly at tackle.

Wichita Falls received the next kickoff and kicked, after three plays lost 11 yards, to their 32-yard line. Three penalties set the Harvesters back 25 yards and a pass, Pampa's first of the game was grounded. Lard then punted over the goal line. From the 20-yard line Holton registered a 5-yard gain as the quarter ended.

Whatta Team!

Pampa gained 234 yards from scrimmage in the third quarter, Wichita Falls only eight yards.

Holton kicked 45 yards to Lard who was downed in his tracks by Mauldin. Benton got away for 40 yards taking the ball to the Coyote 30-yard line. Brandon replaced Greenwood at end. Coach Michell of Pampa began sending in his reserves at this point. White intercepted a Pampa pass on the Coyote 11-yard line. A pass, Withrow to White gained 25 yards, giving the Coyote's their initial first down of the second half. The next pass attempt was intercepted by Lard who ran it back to the Coyote 38-yard line. Cox went in for Rugeley and nine Pampa substitutes entered the game. One of them talked too soon, for a 15-yard penalty.

White intercepted a pass on the Coyote 40-yard line. Two Coyote passes failed and a third was intercepted by James who returned to the Coyote 40-yard line. He followed it with a 14-yard sprint around his right end. Hudgins replaced Parrish. Two plays produced a first down on the Coyote 10-yard line, a fumble checked this scoring threat, the Coyotes taking the ball on their five-yard line. Three line plays produced a first down. Lewter intercepted a pass on the 11-yard line. Daugherty replaced White. In four plays the Harvesters went over for another score. Try for point was missed.

Cox turned in a brilliant play, returning the next kickoff 40 yards to midfield. A pass, Withrow to Mauldin gained eight yards, but the Pampa subs held for downs. It was Pampa's ball in midfield as the game ended.

Reagan And Zundy Await Starting Whistle Of Title Tilt

RECORD CROWD DUE AT GAME

Teams Clash Today at 3 P. M. for City Crown

On their respective training fields, the Reagan and Zundelowitz Junior High school elevens looked tame enough yesterday as they went through light signal drills. But today it will be different when the two outfits meet at Athletic park for the city championship. The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock, coaches announced.

The teams took it easy Thursday, having completed a strenuous three-day workout in preparation for the annual set-to. Coach A. D. Beck of Reagan, and Coach Roy Golden announced they would send teams to the field that were eager for the battle, physically and every other way in the best of condiiton.

Ideal Weather Promised

Ideal weather for the classic seemed assured, and a record crowd was expected to turn out to see the contest.

A touch of color will be added in that Coach Beck has perfected a system of calling signals on the defense as well as on the offense.

PLEDGED TO WIN

After a drill behind closed doors at Athletic park Thursday afternoon, the Reagan Junior High school football team, which plays Zundelowitz today for the city championship, presented their coach, A. D. Beck, with a note signed by each member of the team.

The note pledged every man to "never quit fighting," and wound up with the declaration that "we owe a victory to our school and our coach and we will do our best."

Captain J. Z. Powell will call defensive signals to get his team into formations most likely to stop the onrush of the Zundymen. Powell also carries the load of signal barker on the offense, calling the numbers from his position at center. Needless to say, this youngster is one of the outstanding men on the Reagan squad.

Cleo Creecy, fleet Reagan back, is expected to do the lion's share of leather-lugging, as usual, though Ballard, Hill and Fletcher will be right there to assist him.

The old reliable of the Zundy team is expected to be Quarterback Burns McKinney, star of the Zundymen in last week's game with Denton. This youngster, who joined the squad late in the season, has proven to be no mean addition to his team, his ability as a punter, passer, blocker and lugger making him occupy a position of ever-growing importance.

Zundy Is Favored

At the outset Zundy ranks as favorite to carry off the city crown, but such is the enthusiasm evoked at the prospect of this traditional clash each year that the dope certainly wouldn't be surprised to find itself badly shaken. A rich, colorful game may be expected, regardless of who is the favorite.

H. A. Glass, principal of Zundelowitz Junior High, announced Thursday only 50 cent tickets would be sold at the gate. Students desiring 25 cent tickets are urged to get them today at school.

The starting lineups announced were as follows:

ZUNDELOWITZ	Position	REAGAN
Hurd	L.E.	Robinson
Rice	L.T.	Ruby
Tarkenton	L.G.	West
Merchant	C.	Powell (c)
Johnson (c)	R.G.	Foster
McFaden	R.T.	Decker
Hunn	R.E.	J. Creecy
McKinney	Q.B.	Fletcher
Williams	L.H.	Hill
Hines	R.H.	C. Creecy
Rusk	F.B.	Ballard

Officials: Dayvault (Texas), referee; Martin (Grandfield High school), umpire; Francis (W. F. H. S.), linesman.

Daniels' Leopards Will Be at It Again

Team Faces Corsicana Eleven Saturday

The Booker T. Washington High school Leopards will be at it again Saturday afternoon on the school field, with Jackson High school of Corsicana as its opponent in what promises to be one of the great games of the season.

The negro invaders have been state champions for four years, and are romping away in quest of another title, having been defeated but once this year, at the hands of the Fort Worth team. The latter was held to a scoreless tie two weeks ago by the local eleven. Jackson high later defeated the Fort Worth aggregation, but its first defeat rather indicates that the Leopards will be favorites in Saturday's classic.

The Jackson High school team was expected to arrive here today in order that the team may be well rested for the Saturday contest. The game will start at 3 p. m. A large number of Corsicana fans is expected to accompany Coach Pendleton and his Jackson team.

Coach Daniels of the Leopards has been pushing his charges all week in preparation for the event. Those days when the field was too muddy for use, the players were put through skull sessions. Several workouts were held on the slippery training ground nevertheless. Three stars will return to the lineup Saturday, the mentor announced. These are Payne, center, and Pointer and Bazy, tackles.

Reagan of Temple Turns Back Denton Junior High Team, 19-14

TEMPLE, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Reagan Junior High football team of Temple, claimant of the state junior title, turned back a brilliant Denton Junior High school eleven here today, 19 to 14.

Temple was behind, 14 to 6, near the end of the quarter, but a and a fourth quarter drive pulled the local team to victory.

VERNON JUNIOR HIGH DEFEATS ELECTRANS, 31-0

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Nov. 20.—Displaying a smashing running attack, led by Capt. Kenny Bowden and Westfall, the Vernon Junior High school Cubs crushed Electra Junior High here at the City park today by a 31-0 score. The score, large as it was, was no indication of the superiority of the Cubs over the invading team, as the Vernon eleven continually threatened the Electrans' goal while the Electra offense failed to advance the ball into Vernon territory.

A "dark horse" in the person of Westfall, halfback, was uncovered in Thursday's game as this heretofore unheralded back teamed with Bowden to continually rip the Electra line and circle the visitors' ends for long gains. Bowden scored the first touchdown with a 25-yard run around end, and tallied the third on a run of about the same distance. Westfall carried the pigskin over for Vernon for the second and fourth touchdowns on short line plunges. Bob Phillips added the fifth counter on a line plunge.

VERNON-DENTON GAME IS PLANNED

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Nov. 20.—J. H. Dobbins, principal of the Vernon Junior high school, has written Denton stating that Vernon would play them at Denton on Wednesday before Thanksgiving, if arrangements could be made for the game. Vernon and Denton have been unable to agree on a game due to a misunderstanding of the rules of the Junior league.

W. T. Lofland, superintendent of city schools, stated that when Vernon went into the league they had not planned on games as far away as Denton. He said they would play Wichita Falls, Electra and Frederick, but due to the cost of bringing a team from Denton to Vernon they deemed it unwise to try such a venture.

Longhorn Cagers To Play Saturday

Special to The Record News.

AUSTIN, Nov. 20.—Crowding into the limelight left vacant for a weekend by the Texas football team, the University of Texas basket ball team will inaugurate their 1930-1931 season with a practice scrimmage against the Laurel Heights Methodist church team from San Antonio at Austin, Saturday, Nov. 22. The Longhorn gridsters are idle for the day, resting for their ancient Thanksgiving day game with the Texas Aggies the following Thursday.

Earliest Opening

The November game, which will be only one of several tentatively arranged for this month, represents the earliest encounter for a conference team in the last several years, and is the first time that Texas has opened the cage season prior to the Thanksgiving date. This game will be the first one played in the new $500,000 Longhorn gymnasium.

Coach Fred Walker has been working with the Longhorns since Nov. 1, seeking to mold his green squad into a smooth working team that will be ready to compete with the more experienced teams from other schools by the time of the first conference game. The conference schedule brings Arkansas, preseason favorites, to Austin for the opening series that counts in the percentage column and for what will probably be the first "crucial" series of the season.

Has Strong Team

Although several basket ball candidates, including two lettermen, are working out for football now, Walker will be able to put a strong lineup on the floor against the San Antonio team. There is still some uncertainty about the starting lineup, but the opening whistle will probably find Capt. Jimmy Fomby at center, Wyatt Taylor and Allan Ingram at guards, and Earl Taylor and Minton White at forwards. In practice so far this combination has shown much power, and has consistently vanquished a strong freshman team by easy scores.

Other men who will see service in the game are McCreary and Kubrecht, centers; Alexander and Gordon Sullivan, guards, and Tullis, Miller, Joe Sullivan and Harrison, forwards.

JONES' STATUS IS STILL 'QUO'

U. S. G. A. Committee Silent About Golf King

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Although Robert T. Jones Jr., was not in attendance, his status as a member of the executive committee of the United States Golf association remained unchanged today at a meeting of this governing group.

The brief statement issued on the committee's behalf by Prescott S. Bush, secretary, contained no reference to Jones nor would any of the committeemen answer a question as to whether the world's champion, having renounced his amateur standing for the talking motion pictures, would serve as a member in 1931.

Indications were that Jones would fill out his term of office, with the likelihood he would not serve with the new executive committee, functioning after the annual meeting, Jan. 9 and 10, in New York City.

Women's championship at the Country club, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 21 to 26.

Men's amateur championship at the Beverly Country club, Chicago, Aug. 31 to Sept. 5.

No action was taken on the "sand wedge," the new concave faced instrument developed for the special purpose of getting the ball out of sand traps. Its use has been the subject of some controversy, both here and abroad.

Olney Cubs Upset Simmons University Freshmen Team by Score of 55 to 0

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Nov. 20.—Featuring a running and passing game that wouldn't be denied, Albert Acker's Cubs buried the Simmons university freshmen here today under a 55 to 0 score, and upset the dope that they would lose.

The Cubs lost no time breaking into the scoring column. Two plunges by Groves made a first down on the 50-yard line and a 25-yard pass, Goode to W. Gilmore, halved the distance from where Goode, Duckworth and Goldsmith carried the ball to the five-yard mark for Groves to carry over.

From then on, it was a question of time. The Simmons crew fought valiantly but the perfect execution of plays by the Cubs that bordered on the sensational gradually pulled the Olney team so far in the lead that kicks and first downs were employed late in the game.

The first downs were 17 to 7 for the Cubs. Elmore, a susbstitute, distinguished himself by running 60 yards for a touchdown the first time he carried the ball. Practically every man on the Simmons team made an attempt to stop him. For the regulars, Duckworth gained the most ground. Time and again he would race 20, 30 and 40 yards. He had plenty of assistance from a fast charging line and a corps of clever blockers in Goode, Goldsmith, Groves, G. Gilmore and Rue.

In the Cub line the play of Gus Kuehn was a stand-out. Alsup at end on defense and W. and B. Gilmore at ends on offense were brilliant in their play.

For Simmons Captain Williams, Milan and Lowe were the stars.

Olney attempted 20 passes and completed 12 for 205 yards. Simmons attempted 12 and completed four for 75 yards. Olney punted five times for 38-yard average. Simmons punted eight times for 29-yard average.

Scoring: Elmore (2), Groves (2), Duckworth (2), W. Gilmore, B. Gilmore. Points after touchdown: Duckworth (4), Goode, B. Gilmore, W. Gilmore.

TERRELL AND T. C. U. FRESHMEN TIE

Special to The Record News.

DALLAS, Nov. 20.—Terrell school Tigers and Texas Christian university freshmen fought a terrific offensive game here today. The final score was 0 to 0. Both teams swept to within striking distance of goal several times, bringing spectators screaming to their feet but stellar line play prevented scoring. Both teams tackled and charged particularly hard. The Tiger backs pounded the Frog line unmercifully and were pounded in return.

Bully Price, Tiger quarter back, turned in a brilliant exhibition as did the T. C. U. fullback. Kitchens Gump, Weatherford, Tiger end, played the greatest game of his career and unquestionably is one of the best in Southwest. Joe Young, Bill Schely and Captain Eudy played well for Terrell. Taylor Kinzy and Black look good for the Polly Wogs. The Frog backs failed to keep pace with their great line.

Puterbaugh, Tiger tackle, broke his leg, making the second serious injury Terrell school has received this season.

Both teams registered 21 first downs but the Polly Wogs outkicked the Tigers on the last play of the game. Callahan intercepted a T. C. U. pass and ran 40 yards to Christian university five-yard line. Both teams are still undefeated.

NOCONA-GRAHAM SKIRMISH HEADS CHAMPIONSHIP CARD

WHITE DEER TO PLAY MEMPHIS

Thrilling Week of Crucial Contests Opens

By FRED THOMPSON

Last week two championships were decided in football clashes of this region. Denton cinched the North Texas Junior High school conference title by defeating Zundelowitz, and Memphis won the title in section D, class B, district No. 1, by defeating Clarendon. This Friday there will be more interscholastic league championships at stake, and in addition a battle will be waged here for the city championship.

In the interscholastic league title contests, Nocona will journey to Graham to fight it out for the championship of the north half of class B, district No. 4; and Memphis will journey to White Deer seeking possession of the bi-sectional crown. White Deer conquered everything in sight in section C of the district, and will stubbornly oppose Memphis' efforts to win the bi-sectional title.

Reagan and Zundelowitz will clash here Friday afternoon in their traditional grid classic, and the city title will be at stake.

It Won't Last Long

These feature games, and several other good scraps in the class B realm, will precede what promises to be a resumption of bitter battles in class A, district No. 1 Saturday. In all, a good week-end of football is promised, one of the best, in fact, that fans will be treated to this year for the season rapidly nears its close. The other class B games Friday include Jacksboro at Bowie and Bellevue at Newcastle, all of the teams being in the north half of district No. 4; and the following district No. 3 games: Fairview at Megargel, Chillicothe at Archer City, and Burkburnett at Seymour.

Pampa and Wichita Falls having had their first set-to at Pampa yesterday, three games remain to be played Saturday in the class A group. Electra will journey to Quanah for the feature game in this division, and Plainview will go to Childress for another battle that should be full of interest. Lubbock is expected to do the usual thing to Vernon when the Lions invade the lair of the Westerners.

Electra and Quanah, with equal records and with the same classification in the standings—sixth place—no doubt will struggle hard to be the sole occupant of even so lowly a berth. Electra's superior fighting qualities will be pitted against the wily cleverness of the spinning Quanah Indians, and a good afternoon should be had by all. Childress is a heavy favorite to trounce Plainview, but life is too uncertain you never can tell.

The Main Battle

Nocona's clash with Graham will overshadow anything else that happens in the frigid genesis district four, but the remaining teams will do considerable striving nevertheless. Bowie and Jacksboro will fight it out for fourth place in the standings, and Bellevue, the team that hasn't scored a single point all season, will be given ample opportunity to do so against Newcastle, a team that has scored but nine points and which, also, never has won a game. But Newcastle scored its nine points against Graham, co-leaders so far, and Bellevue will have to show some hustle to beat them.

Burkburnett and Seymour, both evenly matched, hard-fighting teams, will provide the biggest interest in the district three games. Seymour's showing will give dopesters something to work on in trying to figure out how long they will last against Olney Thanksgiving day in the last of the season.

Megargel should have little trouble defeating Fairview, and a defeat of Chillicothe Eagles would require more opposition, we fear, than Bill Cooper's Archer City Wildcats can muster.

As to the title skirmishes, picking the winners seems an easy job. Indeed, picking any kind of winner is very, very simple. It's the alibis after you've been proved wrong that are hard to think of.

Place Your Bets, Men

Anyway, here goes: Nocona will defeat Graham, after many a heave and sigh; Memphis will defeat White Deer after exhibiting the same symptoms; and Zundy will whip Reagan in a walk.

Now let's change the subject right quick.

And a good way to do it is to list some other good football games that will be played in this section of Texas and in southern Oklahoma today. Here are a few:

Munday at Crowell.
Quitaque at Matador.
Lawton, Okla., at Altus, Okla.
Ryan, Okla., at Waurika, Okla.
Elk City, Okla., at Hollis, Okla.
Tipton, Okla., at Duke, Okla.
Mangum, Okla., at Frederick, Okla.
Stamford at Haskell.
Rails at Floydada.
Healdton, Okla., at Duncan, Okla.
Perryton at Dalhart.
Tulia at Turkey.
Eldorado, Okla., at Olustee, Okla.

Dartmouth to Contribute To Unemployment Fund

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 20. (UP)—Dartmouth expects to contribute one-half of its share of all tickets in excess of 25,000 and all its share in excess of 50,000 for the Stanford game to unemployment relief, President Ernest M. Hopkins announced today. The big Green team plays the Cardinals Nov. 29 at Palo Alto.

GRAHAM, Texas, Nov. 20.—Coaches Byrom Rhome and Connor Robinson today announced their Steers in perfect shape for Friday's championship clash with the Nocona High school Indians, and Graham prepared to welcome at least 4,000 fans to its football park before activities start on the gridiron at 3:30 p. m.

Tomorrow's game will decide the championship of the northern half of district 4, class B, of the interscholastic league. By a coincidence, Weatherford and Masonic Home of Fort Worth will be battling at Weatherford for the championship of the southern half of the district at the same time the Nocona and Graham teams are fighting here for the northern half title. Winners of both games will meet Thanksgiving day to decide the championship of the entire district.

Graham and Nocona have not been defeated in their schedules this season. The Steers and Indians have both defeated the following teams: Bellevue, Bridgeport, Jacksboro, Bowie, Decatur and Newcastle, the Steers having piled up 262 points to the opponents' 23 in their conference games.

According to dope based on comparative scores, the Graham Steers will enter the game as the underdogs. The Steers defeated their rivals, Jacksboro, on their home field, 6-0, while Nocona won from the same team on the Jacksboro soil 34 to 0. In addition, Nocona won from Bowie 14 to 0, while Graham barely won from Bowie by the close score of 12 to 8. Then Graham defeated Decatur 31-0, and Nocona beat them 97 to 0. The Steers are a lighter team, averaging only 153 pounds, while the Indians are much heavier, averaging around 165 pounds.

The game is expected to be sensational as the Steers are a passing team while the Indians depend upon their speed and their power off-tackle to advance the ball.

Coaches Rhome and Robinson, former teammates at Trinity university, have been driving their charges through a strenuous practice in preparation for the contest. Both express the feeling that the game will be the hardest one of the year.

The probable line-up for the game has been announced as: L. E. Starbuck, L. T. Lisle, L. C. Bingham, C. Jarnagin, R. G. Kimbrell, R. T. Gibbs, R. E. Nicklas, Q. B. Wignall, L. H. Harley, R. H. Wheeler, Full Parsley.

Referee: Barry Holton, Notre Dame.
Umpire: C. P. Mosley, Baylor.
Head linesman: Jack Williams, Texas A. & M.

Bearcats and Mangum to Scrap It Out

Both Seek Championship of Oklahoma Loop

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., Nov. 20.—The Frederick Bearcats tomorrow will play the Mangum High school team for the championship of the Southwest Oklahoma conference. Hundreds of fans are expected to attend the game here, and practically all stores in the city will close for the event. About 1,000 fans are expected to come here from Mangum, and surrounding cities will send their quotas of admirers of both elevens.

"Friday's game will be a hard one and if the weather proves favorable there ought to be the greatest crowd in several years," said Coach Paul Allen of the Bearcats. "Mangum has played 10 games, getting 225 points, while is opponents obtained but 49, and Frederick in its eight games made 222 points and our opponents got 48. Neither Mangum nor Frederick has lost a game."

Substitutes: Fondren and Moore, half backs; Hoyle, full back; Max Krause, center; Raymond Miller, Delmar Holloman and Simpson, guards; Ray Hope and Kyle Taylor, tackles; Banker and Lafon Quaid, ends.

Captain Clarke was confined to his bed from Saturday until Wednesday with a cold, but was able to be at school Wednesday. Allen thinks he will be able to play Friday.

Frank Earp, substitute center, is scholastically ineligible.

Officials will be: Lloyd Chambers, Olustee, head referee; Roy Norton, Lawton, umpire; Dee Dowdy, Duke, head linesman. The game will start at 3 p. m.

The Bearcat squad attended Thursday's luncheon of the Lion's club where the young athletes were given encouragement for the battle.

The grounds Friday will be policed by members of the American Legion and Lions club. This will be the last home game for these seniors: Stanfield Clarke, Pritchard, Byrns, Caldwell, Pope, Steinbock, Holloman and Schrimscher.

Giant Backs Carry Altus' Hopes Today

Bulldogs Meet Lawton in Annual Classic

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., Nov. 20.—Heavy scrimmage practice with second team men has occupied the practice hours of the Altus Bulldogs preliminary to the classic game with Lawton Friday afternoon.

Scouted by Altus men at the recent Duncan-Lawton game, a complete set of favorite Wolverine plays were worked out by athletic officials, and second team men spent the week in practice against the regulars using Wolverine tactics.

One of the most feared plays by Bulldog members is the Wolverine cut-back over tackles. The play when begun appears to be a long end run, but is completed by an attempted cut over either tackle.

If the Altus line is unsuccessful in warding off this play, much of the Altus hope will rest with its heavy backfield.

Altus' bid for the game will probably be made by an attempt to smash the Lawton line with the heavy Bulldog backfield, which aggregates a total weight of 703 pounds.

The Bulldog backfield at the beginning of the Friday fray will probably be composed of J. W. Stacey, halfback, 203 pounds; Taylor Fail, halfback, 135 pounds; Kenneth Little, quarterback, 185 pounds and Harry Ellis, fullback, 180 pounds.

The Wolverine defense, however, is strengthened by greater experience, and more speed than that of the Bulldogs.

Bulldogs Will Be After Haskell Today

Stamford Game to Decide Section's Champs

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, Nov. 20.—Coach Lee Walker and his Bulldogs will play the Haskell Indians at Haskell Friday afternoon to determine the champions of section A of district 9, class B. Each team has been the victor in three previous conference games, but the Stamford team has a slightly higher percentage.

The winner Friday will play Snyder at a later date to determine the district championship.

KOCH RECOVERS FROM ILLNESS

Ponies Crippled on Eve of Rice Contest

WACO, Texas, Nov. 20. (AP)—Bechey Koch, guard and captain of the Baylor Bears, said today he would be ready for the game Saturday with Texas Christian university.

That statement and a nod from Coach Jennings dismissed fear on the Baylor campus that an aggravated cold, from which the Bruin star has been suffering for more than two weeks, would keep him out of the T. C. U. game.

Things still looked gloomy, however, for Charley Morris, tackle, and Pat Parker, end and backfield man, whose charley horses have not shown improvement.

Red Harris, another Baylor end, also is suffering from a leg injury received last week against Arkansas.

PONIES TO ABANDON TWO-TEAM SYSTEM

DALLAS, Nov. 20. (AP)—Southern Methodist university football leaders indicated today that the two-team system used in some of this season's games would be abandoned by the Mustangs for their clash Saturday with the Rice institute Owls at Houston.

Since some of the Pony stars probably will be unable to play because of injuries, among these being Weldon Mason, the backfield flash, it was regarded as almost imperative that a one-team system be reinstated. Whether Bruce Kattman would get into the game was believed to be doubtful, and there was a possibility George Koontz would be unable to start.

The starting backfield promised to be Gilbert, Travis, Hopper and Sprague with Hearon and Hamiter certain to see service.

AGGIES POINT FOR BATTLE WITH TEXAS

Special to The Record News.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Nov. 20—With the knowledge that, no matter what their record has been to date, a victory over their arch rivals, the Texas Longhorns, will make for them a season far from being wholly unsuccessful, Coach Matty Bell's Texas Aggies during the remainder of this week and the first three days of next will be drilling hard with an eye toward upsetting the Steers, who now are riding at the crest of the conference wave with the T. C. U. Horned Frogs.

Barring injuries in practice before Thanksgiving day, Coach Bell will have virtually his entire squad intact for the game, although Capt. Bull Floyd, who was allowed only a few seconds in the game with Rice last week, has not yet fully recovered from injuries to his leg. The remaining days of practice for the Turkey day tilt are considered sufficient to allow the powerful A. & M. fullback to get in shape for the final game of his college career, however.

Slaton Defeats Spur, 26 to 6, And Enters Finals in District 2 Race

Special to The Record News.

LUBBOCK, Texas, Nov. 20.—Slaton won the right to go into the finals for class B football championship of district No. 2, today by defeating the Spur High school team by the one-sided score of 26 to 6.

There might have been another story had "Brode" Puckett and Jimmy Hahn, Spur backs, considered ineligible, been in the game but that's another story. The two athletes were held out of the game, pending ruling from the executive committee of class B, district No. 2 of the Interscholastic league, which is to be handed down Saturday.

As winner, Slaton will play the winner of the Littlefield-Paducah game that is to be played in Littlefield tomorrow, for the championship of this district. Slaton took the lead right at the start, blocking a punt on Spur's 10-yard line to get the ball on the one-yard line. With plenty of drive, the ball was pushed over the goal for the first touchdown.

With Nowell, stellar end for the Slaton team, playing a great game, making two touchdowns and with Cannon and Johnson, Slaton backs making good gains, throughout the game, Slaton held the edge throughout the contest.

The game was played before approximately 2,500 fans at the Tech field.

M'LARNIN BOUT CAUSES WONDER

Petrolle Is Favorite in Tonight's Bout

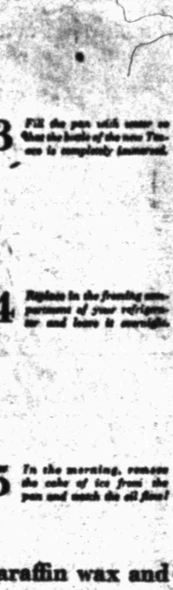

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—The Indian sign of the underdog, a powerful influence in recent matches in Madison Square garden, will hang over Jimmy McLarnin tomorrow night in the belting Irishman's 10-round battle with Billy Petrolle, "Fargo Express," now fighting out of Duluth.

Kid Chocolate, the battling bon bon, went to the post a four to one favorite over Fidel La Barba, dogged young Pacific coast featherweight, and wound up second, to the great disgust of the ringworms. Then a few days later Al Singer, the lightweight champion, carried his crown and a 3 to 1 advantage into the same ring with Tony Canzoneri and lost both in a single round. Now McLarnin is a hot 6 to 1 favorite to whip Petrolle and the superstitious ones are shaking their heads.

Gardner in Shreveport En Route to Montreal

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 20. (AP)—J. Alvin Gardner, president of Texas league and member of national board of arbitration, passed through Shreveport today en route to Montreal where he will attend a meeting of the board prior to the convention of minor leagues. He visited officials of the Shreveport club while here.

President William E. Huff and Secretary Guy Airey of the Wichita Falls Baseball club Thursday were making plans to attend the winter baseball meeting at Montreal, Canada. Date for their departure was not announced. They will join League President J. Alvin Gardner at the meeting. Mr. Gardner left here Wednesday.

FROZEN IN A CAKE OF ICE
TEXACO FLOWS FREELY
THOUGH you may never experience the extreme cold of northern winters—this is a convincing test of a motor oil that anyone can make in the freezing compartment of a refrigerator overnight. Try it. In the morning, watch the bubble rise as you turn the cake of ice from end to end. See the still unclouded golden color of this crack-proof, longer-lasting, new Texaco Motor Oil.
For Texaco is free from all impurities—free from the substances that form hard carbon in the engine—free from paraffin wax and the elements that thicken dangerously in the cold, hard as grease in many oils, bringing needless engine wear to every moving part.
Texaco flows instantly. It lubricates effectively in any climate, warm or cold—even when water freezes. You can depend on Texaco anywhere you go. Drain and refill with the correct grade of the new crack-proof Texaco Motor Oil today.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—An opening decline in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables was followed by rallies in cotton today, but prices weakened again under a renewal of liquidation in the late trading. March contracts, after selling off to 11.32 at the start, rallied to 11.49 but broke to 11.25 in the late trading and closed at that figure. The general market closed barely steady at net declines of 6 to 13 points.

Trading was quiet during the greater part of the day but became more active toward the close when the selling appeared to be a little more general. Some further buying of the later months presumable against sales of spot cotton in the South was reported during the day. Much of the business was in the way of switching from December to later deliveries, and some traders were more inclined to attribute the fluctuations to further readjustments of the technical position, than to any special feature in the day's news.

Port receipts today 36,719. U. S. port stocks 3,985,931. Exports today 13,860, making 2,938,812 so far this season.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20. (AP)—After having advanced during the morning to levels 9 to 11 points above the opening low due to poor cables, on rather active covering by December shorts, the cotton market turned weak in the late afternoon owing to a decline in stocks and to the reported closing of a number of banks in the northern portion of the South. Prices made the lows of the day right at the end and the close was steady practically at the bottom, the general market showing net losses for the day of 8 to 8 points. First December notice day will be Monday.

Liverpool cables were 1 to 2 penny points worse than due at the time of the start here and opening sales showed losses of 2 to 4 points. Private cables reported the continent bought against which there was local liquidation. The market soon rallied and for the rest of the morning prices were tending upward owing to liquidation by December shorts with considerable transferring to more distant positions. That month near noon trailed up to 11.00 and March advanced to 11.41 or 11 points up from the lows on the former and 9 points up on the later compared with the opening lows.

The market was some quieter in the early afternoon and there was less covering, which permitted prices to ease off 2 to 4 points from the highs.

The market broke sharply in the late trading in sympathy with a decline in stocks and owing to a number of bank failures reported in the South. All the active months made new lows 13 to 15 points below the previous high with December down to 10.85. The market closed at or near the bottom with December at 10.85 low for the day.

Port receipts 36,751, for week 284,653, for season 5,580,931. Last season 5,294,624. Exports 6,201, for week 233,605, for season 2,861,641. last season 2,896,742. Port stocks 4,024,592, last year 2,490,574. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 115,813, last year 124,759, spot sales at southern markets 30,461, last year 34,001.

Increased Offerings Halt Advance Of Stock Prices Into High Ground

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (US)—Stock prices today advanced into new high ground for the present recovery before meeting an increased volume of offerings which resulted in a generally irregular closing. Railroad stocks as a group recorded an average gain of almost a point, but this was offset by lower prices among industrials and utilities.

The selling which appeared in the afternoon appeared to result chiefly from profit-taking and from some renewal of offerings occasioned by additional bank failures. The wheat market at Chicago held firm, but the obviously artificial character of its support detracted from its possibly stimulating influence on stocks. Corn was up two to three cents a bushel.

Stocks acted about in line with expectations, although there was a revival of pessimism in speculative quarters when the late selling developed. This however is due almost entirely to the unwarranted notion that an abrupt and sustained advance is to be experienced, regardless of prevailing fundamental conditions. The fact is, and in this respect the market wins support from many skeptics, that it is not being unduly rushed into new highs until after it has had time to consolidate previous gains. Its progress, to be sustained, must be slow. However, the chief intent of the market's sponsors appears to be achievement of stabilization rather than any spectacular uprush which might be succeeded only by intensified disappointment.

The market appears to be at a stage where good news will meet immediate response; without such support from fundamentals, the market will be forced to wade through the anticipated barrage of unfavorable news, such as fourth quarter statements, and low operations.

For a period today the long-neglected motor shares assumed leadership and various stocks in this group attained new highs for several weeks. Chrysler was an outstanding performer, crossing 20. This stock seemingly was thoroughly liquidated prior to reduction in its dividend to $1 annually.

The management has publicly proclaimed its confidence in the outlook and the company is strongly intrenched financially to obtain its full share of any revival in automobile buying. Nash, Studabaker, General Motors and other motor shares likewise participated in the renewed interest in the group, which also extended into the auto accessory stocks such as Electric Auto-Lite, Timken, Briggs and others.

Copper shares continued in supply, as Custom Smelters were reported offering the metal at 10¼ cents. Public utility shares eased off with the industries, but without any decided change among the leaders.

Announcement after the close that brokers' loans had decreased $50,000,000 in the past week to a new low figure added confirmation to the already recognized strong position of the market in this direction.

The ability of the stock market to asborb "bad news" with only moderate reactions continues to impress speculators, although the "dynamite" in the market remains one of the few remaining sore spots in the general situation.

DRY GOODS MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 20. (AP)—Cotton goods were quiet today with prices barely steady. Large rayon producers were guaranteeing prices for 60 days. Rayon business has been held back by price uncertainty. Burlaps were in moderate demand. Wool goods were quiet. Silk was in moderate demand. Silk goods for spring were being bought steadily.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Nov. 20. (AP)—Trading continued slow on the cash grain market today with dealers reporting all classes hard selling. Light offerings helped matters but little. No. 1 hard wheat delivered Texas common points, freight paid, was probably worth 79½@80½c.

Corn—No. 2 mixed 81@82c; No. 3 white or yellow 87@88c.

Sorghums—No. 2 milo per 100 pounds $1.26@1.26. No. 2 kaffir $1.18@1.20. All prices nominal.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (AP)—Sudden brisk purchasing, together with sharply higher prices, gave the corn trade a star role today. Quick broadening out which was witnessed in the volume of corn market transactions went hand in hand with news that Chairman Legge of the federal farm board advocated 12½c a bushel increase of the United States import duty on corn. Besides, rough weather now overspreading the corn belt was unfavorable for completion of husking as well as for the movement of the new corn crop into distributing centers.

Closing quotations of corn were buoyant at virtually the day's topmost level, 2½@3¼c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Wheat closed unsettled at ⅛@1¼c net advance, oats ⅝@1¼c up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7c.

Giving particular zest to corn purchasing were reports that traders in the December delivery here were short about 19,000,000 bushels to meet outstanding contracts, and that there were only about 250,000 bushels of the requisite grade of corn now on hand in Chicago public elevators.

From the start to finish the corn market showed a pronounced upward trend. Some of the early strength of corn values was ascribed to the influence of an advance in wheat prices, but in the later dealings the wheat market was tagging after corn, although wheat encountered rather free selling on bulges.

Official reports said yellow rust had been responsible for 80,000,000 bushels shrinkage of the Argentine wheat crop, and that 14,800,000 acres out of a total grain acreage in Argentina were rust infected. With the damage varying according to district.

Although at times receding as a result of commission house selling, the provision market later developed firmness, responsive to upturns in both hog values and in grain.

Closing Indemnities: Wheat: Dec. 73¼@74c; March 74⅜@77⅛c; May 76⅛@78⅛c; July 72⅝@75⅝c.

PIT NOTES

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. (US)—Wheat traders await with considerable interest the action of the Winnipeg market tomorrow morning. Late reports were to the effect that a large export trade had been consummated in Canada, but that it was difficult to get a line on total volumes.

Corn bulls have increased their activity in corn not only on the strong cash and supplies situation, but on expectation that there will be increased speculative interest in the market, owing to the present wheat situation.

Rumors from New York were to the effect that political developments in Russia were of a counter-administration nature and might result in an overthrow of the present authority, which would logically result in an immediate falling off of wheat clearances.

While little, if any, Argentine corn is coming into the United States at present, advancing prices here would probably result in such imports hence, the interest on the part of speculators in the possibility of an increase in traffic.

Conditions Improve In Olney Business

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Nov. 20.—Business is not only improving here by an actual increase in sales and deposits in local banks, but the general attitude of business is one of optimism, according to reports of local business leaders.

"I feel that we have reached the bottom and that a gradual climb can be expected from now on," said George Roach, president Stephen-Roach company.

C. V. Morgan, president Morgan Chevrolet company, commented as follows: "Our business has not been any worse than we ordinarily expect at this time of the year. On the other hand, buyers no longer come to our store unsolicited. We must go after and follow up carefully and persistently each prospective buyer. The day is here when the retailer must go after his public. I personally believe the future for business is bright," Mr. Morgan said.

W. N. Lunn, furniture dealer; Earl Williamson, retail grocer; Henry Craig, geologist, and M. D. Wolverton, banker, all expressed confidence that American business would adjust itself in due time.

Air Collision Costs Doolittle $1,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Davis H. Doolittle, former army flier, was $100 poorer today because of an air collision Oct. 1 in Kansas City.

The department of commerce received Doolittle's check in payment of a fine "for acrobatically flying over an airport and for acrobatically flying elsewhere at a height under 1,500 feet."

Furniture Makers Protest on Tariff

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—Domestic manufacturers testified to the tariff commission today they could not meet foreign competition in Bentwood furniture except at a loss.

Bentwood furniture, made up largely of cheaper chairs, is imported chiefly from Poland and Czecho-Slovakia.

LEAGUE ASKS RATE CHANGE

Southwest May Be Placed In New Freight Zone

A proposal that the Southwest be included in zone No. 3, which is now the western part of the Western Trunk line territory, in order to harmonize freight rates in the Southwest with those recently prescribed by the Interstate Commerce commission for the Western Trunk line territory was introduced by the Texas Industrial Traffic league at the second session of the re-opened hearings in the consolidated Southwestern cases and the Texas differential case held in Dallas Nov. 17, 18, and 19, according to Dudley B. Foy, traffic manager of the chamber of commerce here, who returned from the hearings Thursday.

Zone No. 3 of the Western Trunk line territory now is bounded on the west through Sheridan, Wyo., Cheyenne, Denver and Trinidad and extends east to Joplin, Mo. The proposal submitted by the league provides for an extension of boundary south to El Paso, to include the entire Southwest in the territory being serviced by freight rates of the Western Trunk line area. The Interstate Commerce commission will not act on the proposal, it was said, until evidence in all of the several hearings involved has been received. The first hearing was held in St. Louis last week, the second in Dallas was adjourned Wednesday. A third hearing will open in Tulsa Monday and a final hearing will be held in New Orleans, opening Dec. 1.

The hearings were re-opened on the Interstate Commerce commission's own motion. The proposal of the Texas Industrial Traffic league, if accepted, will involve Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Kansas.

Texas Turkeys Posted By Talbot in Contest

Proving that he believes in the propoganda he spreads during the recent political campaign, Col. W. E. Talbot, agency manager of the Southland Life Insurance company, has announced that prizes in the production contest to be held by the Southland Life this month will be Texas-produced turkeys. Colonel Talbot based his entire campaign on the "Buy-made-in-Texas-products" idea.

Under the terms of the contest, each agent will be given a turkey for each $10,000 accepted business received between Nov. 15 and Dec. 20. The turkey will be purchased on an order authorizing the agent to buy a 20-pound turkey from his local merchant or farmer, billing the Southland Life direct for the cost.

Usually the difference between a profit and a loss to the Texas farmer on his products is caused by a surplus. Where this surplus is consumed, higher prices are bound to result. If other firms would follow this example and this surplus were eliminated, there is no question but that farmers would get an excellent profit on their turkeys this fall.

Local charities or churches in Texas will have an opportunity to profit from this contest since each eligible agent may receive the maximum number of turkeys allowed, five.

George H. Williams, C. D. Johnson, E. E. Ray, L. G. Greer, W. D. Taylor and Mrs. Mary Rugeley are agents for the Southland Life Insurance company in Wichita Falls.

Readers' Opinion

CORRECTS REPORT OF ARKANSAS ELECTION

Editor, The Record News:

I noticed in the editorial column in The Record News for Nov. 12 a very serious blunder under the heading: "Voice of the People in Two States," page 6.

You referred to an amendment to Arkansas' constitution concerning Bible reading in public school in the following way: "In Arkansas the voters gave their approval to a constitutional amendment calling for Bible teaching in public schools."

I can't understand why you want to reflect on the people of Arkansas by bringing such a false charge against them. They did not vote for Bible teaching in schools. I know you are better informed than that. They voted for Bible reading only in the opening exercises of the schools, and that without any comment. I don't see any reason why any one should object to that. No pupil is forced to remain in the school room during the reading of the Bible.

No sensible, liberty loving man would vote for Bible teaching in public schools when doubtless a large list of the teachers have no church affiliation whatever.

I hope you will be just as eager to correct this false impression concerning the amendment as you were to make it. It occurs to me that our newspaper men ought to be more careful about misrepresenting facts.

The 18th amendment is the most misrepresented law we have on our statutes. The antis get front, middle and back page notices and the pros scarcely are ever heard from in our dailies.

Yours for fairness,

STRAND: "The Big Trail" with John Wayne, Marguerite Churchill, El Brendel and Tully Marshall. Short subjects and sound news.

STATE: Carol Lombard, Miriam Hopkins and Frank Morgan in "Fast and Loose." Comedy, serial and news.

MAJESTIC: "The Sea Wolf" with Milton Sills. Comedy, cartoon and sound news.

GEM: Buffalo Bill Jr. in "South of Sonora." Chapter 10 of "The Indians Are Coming" and comedy.

"Fast and Loose" is just another saga of sophistication designed to include shocking revelations of faming youth, with liquor and police and parties all hectically mixed up.

On Friday, the Strand will again present a very new picture—"The Big Trail"—which is said to be the same type as "The Covered Wagon" except that in this version the sound camera follows the oxen across the United States.

The cast is said to include 20,000 people and 30,000 animals—one ring bigger than Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey combined. The cost has not been published, strange to say.

Apologies to both Raymond Hackett and Stanley Smith! Both are leading juveniles, except that Hackett has been so far ahead of Smith that it has been easy to distinguish them apart—until he took a role in "The Sea Wolf." Reference to Hackett as being Stanley Smith in a review of that picture was a mistake. His part was a poor one; consequently he looked more like Smith than like himself as he was in "The Trial of Mary Dugan" and "Madame X."

"The Sea Wolf" has the most enticing of fronts seen in several weeks—created, as have been all of the Majestic fronts for the past two months or so, by J. R. Derrenberger.

Mr. Derrenberger, who was in charge of the display art at many of the largest theaters on the West coast and also in the East, got the Texas urge not long ago and is now engaged in his first experience at building displays for a small theater. His studio, in a small room at the back of the old Wichita theater, is a fascinating place—a box with hundreds of delicate shadings in pastels, rows and rows of pictures, paint brushes and everything it takes.

Perhaps the most attractive display of all was the pastel arrangement for "Holiday" recently. Ann Harding lends herself to pastels, just as more vivid types demand bright colors, and Mrs. Derrenberger, experienced and intensely interested, catches the spirit of each star in a remarkable way.

UNCLE SAM IN WAR ON GANGS

U. S. Agents Concentrated At Chicago

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20. (AP)—A concerted drive by the federal government to break up activities of Chicago gangsters was made known today by Attorney General Mitchell.

Federal agents, dispatched from Washington, have been active in Chicago since early summer, the attorney general said, and recently there has been a "fortifying" of these forces in an effort to apply federal laws against underworld characters there.

"We intend to keep going indefinitely or at least until our aid is no longer needed," Mitchell said.

Exactly how large a concentration of government agents is intended in that area Mitchell would not say, but he made clear that one high agent of the department of justice has been dispatched to act as an assistant to the United States attorney in Chicago, coordinating various federal activities.

In addition, he said, the narcotics bureau and the bureau of internal revenue of the treasury department, together with the immigration authorities of the labor department were joining in the drive. He added that Assistant Attorney General Youngquist, in charge of prohibition, had "more than one" agent now operating in the Chicago district.

Officials of these departments, however, were reluctant to discuss how many men they had sent to fight the gangsters with federal laws. Speaking for the department of justice, Mitchell said the activity in Chicago was "only one of our numerous efforts," but added that "the gradual strengthening of the forces there" already has brought some fruit.

NEGRESS SENTENCED

School and College Notes

By MARGARET FLEMING

"A Bargain's a Bargain" according to the Junior college Blue Curtain players Thursday morning when they entertained the high school and Junior college students in the first pay program of the school year. The clever comedy skit was directed by Miss Juanita Kinsey, head of the dramatic department at the college. Proceeds from the performance will be donated to the Junior college yearbook, the Wai-Kun.

The cast for the play included Henry Will Barton, Mary Clare Burton, Aaron Kruger, Marjorie Vincent, Kay Cason, and Bryant Creighton.

Blue Curtain Play

Thursday, Dec. 4, will mark the beginning of Blue Curtain presentations for the school year when the club will present "What Ann Brought Home," a rollicking three-act comedy at the Junior college auditorium. The play is under the direction of Miss Juanita Kinsey, faculty sponsor of the club. The cast will include Henry Will Barton, Katherine Ashford, Aaron Kruger, Homer Donahoo, Gertrude Klass, Pearle Smyth, Druward Park, Marion Proctor and Lewis Haynes.

Girl Reserves

Jack Mount will feature the Girl Reserve program at the regular meeting of the club Friday morning when he will present his tryout play which he gave recently for membership in the Blue Curtain club, according to Margaret Bone, president. Several musical numbers will be included in the program Miss Bone said.

Conoco Pays County Taxes in $17,000 Check

County Tax Collector Guy Raley announced Thursday receipt of the largest single tax payment of the current year when the Continental Oil company's check for $17,469.30 came in for the payment of all that company's taxes in this county.

The amount will be distributed as follows, Mr. Raley said: State, $7,297.85; county, $7,932.45, and schools, $2,239.
