

TEXAS GAINS THREE CONGRESSMEN

MAY QUIT BOARD

Washington looks for the early resignation of at least three members of the federal farm board. Chairman Alexander Legge of Chicago, below top, desires to return to the International Harvester Co. C. C. Teague, center, fruit member from California, probably will return to his post as president of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, in July, 1931, and Samuel R. McKelvie, bottom, of Nebraska, wheat member, has seen wheat prices steadily decline, despite his efforts, to the lowest mark in 30 years.

LEGGES STRIKES AT OPPOSITION

BOARD CHAIRMAN SAYS UNIT IS DOING ONLY WHAT IT SHOULD

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Alexander Legge, chairman of the federal farm board, told the American acceptance council last night his organization was only doing what congress created it to do.

Asserting that only through organization can the American farmer find prosperity, Mr. Legge struck sharply at critics who say the farm board is putting "the government in business" and object because government money is loaned to aid "the agricultural producer carrying through the marketing of the product of his own soil."

"A peculiar feature of this bill and cry," he said, "is that those who hold the loudest are far from being heavy tax-payers, and in justice to the heavy taxpayers of the nation it must be said that they have offered little objection to efforts being made to improve the agricultural situation."

"One might go further and assert..."

TURKEYS BRING $134,679.45 ON FT. WORTH MART

FORT WORTH, Nov. 18 (AP)—That thousands of Texas farmers will have ample cause for Thanksgiving, even if the turkeys they raised don't, is proven by a check received today by the Fort Worth Poultry and Egg company for $134,679.45, in payment for 39 carloads of turkeys shipped to eastern markets Saturday and Sunday.

These 39 carloads have been shipped for the Thanksgiving market and have been collected by agents and the 19 branch houses of the local company the past two or three weeks. The farmers have been paid for the birds and the more than an eighth of a million dollars has been placed in circulation, it was explained by E. P. Furking, connected with the dairy department of the company.

Poincare Attacked By Soviet Press

'IMPERIALISM' IS CITED IN NOTICES

FORMER PRESIDENT OF FRANCE IS VICTIM OF MANY WORDS

MOSCOW, Nov. 18.—The government-inspired Soviet press today launched a bitter double-barreled attack on Raymond Poincare, former French president and premier, and "French imperialism."

The attack apparently is an aftermath of indictment last week of eight alleged counter-revolutionary leaders and publication of their "confessions" of negotiations with Mm. Poincare, Briand and other European political figures for foreign intervention in the U. S. S. R.

Practically the entire space in today's issue of Izvestia and Pravda, official organs, is devoted to a scathing denunciation of M. Poincare by him appearing in the Paris Excelsior of Oct. 30 and Nov. 13.

Point to Hatred

The Russian paper's editorials point to the first article as proving M. Poincare's hatred of the Soviet government and to the second article, which appeared after the counter-revolutionary indictments as revealing a "change of tone in order to conceal his leading role in the preparation for intervention in the U. S. S. R."

Both newspapers refer to Poincare as "Poincare-war" and, it would appear, exhaust their vocabularies in describing the French statesman, whom both accuse not only of planning intervention in Russia, but of being the principal...

PERMITS SOAR OVER MILLION AND HALF

ELLIS BUILDING WORK TOTALS $250,000; CITY CLIMBS UP

Laying further stress to the feeling of a rise in business conditions in this section, announcement was made this morning of issuance of a permit which sends Lubbock's building valuations sky-rocketing well beyond the million and a half mark for the year and which will place this city among the building leaders of the state this week.

Today's permit was issued to T. H. Ellis for reconstruction of the Temple Ellis office building, corner of Broadway and Texas avenue, which was gutted by fire on the night of August 23. Construction is estimated at $250,000 with J. J. Clements as contractor.

The structure, formerly but four stories in height, will be increased to six floors, according to plans, and will be entirely fireproof throughout, materials used being brick, concrete and steel. The building is 114 feet 11 3/4 inches by 75 feet 1 1/2 inches. Completion of the project is expected about June 1, 1931.

With issuance of the permit valuations for the year now total $1,561,976 for 240 permits, while those of the month are $268,450 for 10 permits.

FIGHTING TO SAVE TEXAS LIFER

On the basis of a confession made by Joyce Shepard, around whose short criminal career one of the characters in 'The Last Mile,' stage play of prison life, was built, parents and friends of Lloyd Conaster, who is serving a life sentence for the crime which Shepard paid with his life, are hoping to obtain a pardon for Conaster. Just before Shepard died in the electric chair for the murder of two Jones county officers, he exonerated Conaster, who is shown, below, with his young wife who says she will fight for him to the last. Inset is of C. J. Conaster of Levelland, the father, who declares he will present the governor the longest petition ever offered for a similar purpose.

TOTAL LARGEST EVER GIVEN TO COUNTY

INSPECTOR HAS PRAISE FOR LUBBOCK RURAL SCHOOL SYSTEM

Rural schools in Lubbock county are to be awarded $17,940, the highest total the county can get legally from the state, G. L. Huckaby, state inspector, announced here today following his inspection of the schools. This is the largest amount ever given Lubbock county schools from the state aid allotment.

Mr. Huckaby declared Lubbock county schools were in unusually good condition physically and above the average financially in comparison to those of other areas of Texas. He was sent to this section earlier than usual at the request of early visitations by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"Lubbock county's schools are larger than any of those I have visited thus far," Mr. Huckaby declared. He also stated that they were better organized than most of those he had visited.

"Owing to the high property valuations of the West Texas lands, the schools do not get the limit," Mr. Huckaby said, explaining that local taxes made up for the amount not given by the state. This time, allowance being made for the delinquent taxes in the districts and larger amounts of state aid given.

The amount to be given the various schools in the county averages between $800 and $900 per school, Mr. Huckaby said.

ATTACK VICTIM WORSE TODAY

TURN FOR THE WORSE NOTED IN CHILD'S CONDITION

A turn for the worse, heralded by a sharp rise in temperature and a continued loss of strength, today caused physicians to speak gravely of the condition of James Evelyn, from near-old Littlefield youth, who last Saturday was victim of an attack by a supposedly pet leopard.

The child, a son of J. D. Evans, Littlefield tailor, has been in the Lubbock sanitarium since Saturday afternoon and attendants have watched with anxious eyes each new development in his condition. He is suffering from severe scalp wounds, inflicted by the sharp claws and teeth of the leopard upon its attack in a Littlefield drug store.

Owner, Animal Held

The animal and its owner were lodged in jail at Littlefield shortly after the occurrence and reports from that city today stated that they are still being held awaiting developments in the case.

CENSUS REPORT SHOWS CHANGE IN SEATS

CALIFORNIA GAINS 9, MICHIGAN FOUR IN REAPPORTIONMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. President Hoover announced the reapportionment of the house under the 1930 census would show that California gains nine seats, Michigan four and Texas three.

The census bureau figures, which will be transmitted for congressional action, give other added representation in the house as follows: Connecticut, one; Florida, one; New Jersey, two; New York, two; North Carolina, one; Ohio, two, and Washington one.

On the basis of the figures, Missouri will lose 3 seats, Georgia two, Iowa two, Kentucky two, Pennsylvania two, and the following states one each: Alabama, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia and Wisconsin.

The report will be transmitted to congress in the imminent short session. It was based on a total population of 122,092,455. The total house membership of 435 will not be changed.

Twenty-seven Senate seats are affected by the changes.

The census bureau in determining whether a state would gain, lose or keep its present membership in the house used two methods of statistical determination. The result was the same in each case.

The total population used for the figuring excluded the counts made last April in the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, Panama, Puerto Rico, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands, which also excluded Indians not taxed.

AUCTION ORDER IS PROPOSED

MERCHANTS MOVE TO REGULATE SALES IN LUBBOCK

Directors of the Lubbock Retail Merchants Association, in a regular meeting this morning, adopted a resolution endorsing a proposed city ordinance regulating jewelry auctions, voted to again sponsor a Christmas yard decorations contest and a Santa Claus stunt to stimulate early Christmas shopping, and authorized appointment of committees to advance a radio broadcasting station, to handle the annual meeting of the association and the annual convention of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas, and other matters.

The jewelry ordinance that has been suggested by Lubbock jewelry dealers and endorsed by the city attorney, is similar to ordinances that have been in effect in a large number of towns for several years.

Notice Must Be Given

The ordinance provides that notice of an auction must be given thirty days in advance of the sale and that merchandise to be auctioned off must be labeled, giving the price, all the goods to be checked by the City Tax Collector to make sure that shipped in merchandise has not been substituted or added.

The proposed ordinance is the endorsement of the larger jewelry concerns here. The directors of the Retail Merchants association passed a resolution endorsing the proposed ordinance and asking the City Commission to pass the ordinance.

OPERATIONS OF AERIAL SMUGGLING SYNDICATE ACROSS CANADIAN BORDER REVEALED IN CHARGES AGAINST TEN

(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Nov. 18.—Operations of ten aerial smuggling syndicates whose air fleets brought liquor and aliens from Canada to the United States were revealed today with the indictment of ten men by the federal grand jury.

According to information held by the government, the syndicates operated 30 planes for smuggling liquor and aliens from Canada to remote landing fields in the United States.

Although operations of the syndicates were confined for the most part to the Detroit area, government investigators said that planes landed contraband in the vicinity of cities in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

Evidence on which the indictments were based was obtained by undercover agents who joined the syndicates and worked with the smugglers for weeks.

Investigators reported that 1,800 cases of liquor cleared a single Canadian airport in one month at the height of the operations while contraband was being transported even sent into the air from other fields across the international line. The planes operated by the smugglers were capable of carrying from 15 to 40 cases of liquor on a single hop.

EARTH COLLIDES WITH SWARM OF CELESTIAL FIREFLIES IN BRILLIANT DISPLAY; AUGURS GREAT 1933 METEORIC DISPLAY

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—The earth's collision with a swarm of celestial fireflies streaked early morning skies today with a brilliant display.

Astronomers said the earth had entered the path of the Leonids, a large group of meteors, and waxed happy over the splendor which they said augured well for November, 1933, when they expect another meteoric display rivaling that of 1833.

The Leonids appear every 33 years. Astronomers found atmospheric conditions last night ideal for observing them and Dr. C. C. Crump, secretary of Yerkes observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., said that much of the night was spent photographing and counting the fiery particles which result when the meteors hit the earth's protective atmosphere and burn themselves up in the friction producing a harmless glow. They counted 170 meteors each hour, Dr. Crump said.

Where Mark Twain breakfasted at 3 P. M.!

WHEN Mark Twain, the American humorist, lived in New York, he used to wander out of his home on Ninth Street and Fifth Avenue at mid-afternoon for his BREAKFAST. This he ate in a certain French hotel nearby which is even now a gathering place for epicures.

His dining room, still beaurtained in Nottingham lace, has looked out over the avenue for more than 80 years. Not long ago I, too, had breakfast there—but not at 3 in the afternoon! And, my dear good reader, if the immortal Mark Twain had ever eaten such pineapple fritters and bacon, I don't believe he would ever have waited so long for them. Those slivers of pineapple simply succored in a delicate batter fried to a honey-brown crunchiness.

I've found the recipe for you. You can deep-fry them in the French fashion, in your own apartment for Sunday morning breakfast, if you like. Crisco is so fresh-tasting and non-smoking that no frying odors ever linger around to offend early afternoon guests. They can be used, too, as an accompaniment for other meat courses for other meals, or as a dessert by themselves.

Other fruit than pineapple can be substituted in the batter I'm giving you but I wouldn't risk substituting another fat. For Crisco is the only fat I know of that allows the real flavor of any food cooked with it, or in it, to assert its individuality. If you taste Crisco, yourself, just as it comes from the can, you can readily see how a fat so fresh flavored will preserve the delicacy of your most subtle foods.

WINIFRED A. CARTER

- PINEAPPLE FRITTERS

Dust with powdered sugar to serve as dessert. Serve plain with meat.
- SUNDAY SUPPER CREAMED EGGS
- 6 hard cooked eggs 8 slices of toast
- Save out 4 egg yolks. Slice remainder of eggs thin and add gently to thin cream sauce (made with 2 tablespoons Crisco with 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped onion). Then add gradually 2 cups hot milk and stir over a slow fire. Cook till thick. Then add 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Arrange toast on hot platter. Pour creamed eggs over toast. Press 2 egg yolks through a sieve and sprinkle over top for a garnish.
- ALL MEASUREMENTS LEVEL. Recipes tested and approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Crisco is the registered trade-mark of a shortening manufactured by The Procter & Gamble Co. Q. 1007 P. 4-0-30

Taste Crisco—then any other shortening. Crisco's sweet, fresh flavor will tell you why things made with Crisco taste so much better.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says just now she's a fireman's sweetheart but she has other flames on the side.

An admirable way to keep from growing old is to believe the men who say he'd like to have some honest criticism.

ONE of the hundreds of readers of this column in Boone, Iowa, send in a clipping from the Boone News-Republican which is the best thing The Plainsman can ever remember seeing in a Republican paper.

The Old Testament tells us that baby chicks should be raised one mile south of Salina and listen to the words of the prophets. Be careful in the selection of your eggs and you will find hard-surfaced roads on to Garden City.

After passing through Leavenworth turn south to Jerico. Three wise men bought a large incubator and on account of a bad detour the baby chicks were trouble with the pip and a bond issue is being talked of in the Holy City.

Many are called but few have any luck unless the gravel road between Topeka and Lawrence is mixed with the feed. Out of 500 eggs one should get three from Coffeyville to Tulsa and the Lord commandeth Noah to build an Ark just one mile west of Wichita.

Now there's a good radio feature for you! Incidentally, The Plainsman was only kidding about the "hundred of readers in Boone, Iowa," and is flattered plumb to death that at least one customer in the frozen north has taken a fair for this column.

That Man on Avenue Q says it may be impossible to make a mountain out of a mole-hill but any beauty culturist can make one out of a mole-spot.

Among the folks in history is the executive who caught sleeping sickness from going into so many conferences.

It's a peculiar thing, but the fellows who get a raw deal are the same ones whose resignations are accepted with the least amount of argument on the part of the boss.

ALONG with the cheering news that war debts owed United States by foreign nations cannot be collected any time soon comes the further hilarious announcement that income taxes for the coming year will likely be hiked one per cent. Hey hey—and a couple groans.

Germany can't pay her installment and if Uncle Sam accommodates Germany he'll have also to accommodate Belgium, France and the rest of the pack. Two easier to fight in 1915 than it is to pay in 1930—and how!

But Jones, good old Jones, will pay the freight. He has the habit of digging down into his worn jeans and pulling out a few more pennies each time he is called upon to "ante-up." What would we do without us—us common folks, who somehow always manage to keep the wheels turning?

Nations fail to heed. Nations fail to pay. Businessmen fail to figure and fail to press claims as they should be pressed. But, thank Heaven, Jones is still on the job and Jones, bless his soul, will pay the freight!

Speaking of Europe reminds us that some royal families, boasting coats-of-arms, have only one pair of pants to go with the coat!

A metropolitan any man who thinks a distasteful law was forced on him by a bunch of Hicks.

A seat on the stock exchange, at least, is as good a place as any to watch the bulls fight.

If You Like Your Politics Hot And Furious Don't Fret Over Promises Of Major Parties To Co-Operate—Dutcher

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The unusual proposal that the two major parties in Congress co-operate in every measure that conduces to the welfare of the country, offered by the Democrats and accepted by the Republicans, does not mean that there will be any general cessation of hostilities between the parties.

Those who like their politics hot and furious need not feel disappointed at a disappointment, even though both Democrats and Republicans have promised that they will devote primary attention to pulling the country out of its hole. Republicans and Democrats have differed for many decades as to just what's best for this country and they continue to differ right up to the present moment.

Obviously the Democrats want stand for the blocking of their own relief measures in favor of similar Republican measures if they can help it, as was suggested in a statement by Senator Walsh of Montana when he said that co-operation would have to work both ways.

The statement signed by Chairman Haskob, Executive Chairman Shoup, Senate Leader Robinson, House Leader Garner and the last three Democratic presidential candidates is regarded here as an utterance both statesmanlike and politically strategic. It tended to reassure the country that the party would not delay improvement of economic conditions by a policy of harassing the administration.

The leaders who framed the statement felt that the country badly needed more confidence in its government. They believed that repeated "polymanna" statements from the administration had reduced the confidence of business men to a very low ebb and that the ebb might go lower than ever with the uncertain prospects of who would control the next Congress and the specter of legislative chaos afflicting many imaginations.

G. O. P. Shrewd, Too Politically, the Democrats stood only to lose by adding to all that worryment. On the other hand, any time a group of politicians can do or say anything really statesmanlike, it represents a net gain. Naturally, the Republicans were quick on the uptake and accepted the offer through Senator Jim Watson, the Republican floor leader.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Editor of "THE HUMAN BODY"
EDITORIAL NOTE: A pamphlet on "Hygiene of Women," by Dr. Leta Stetter Tilton, revised by Dr. Logan Clendening, can be obtained by mailing 15 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of The Lubbock Daily Journal.

COLD SHOWER IS NOT GOOD FOR EVERYONE
Everyone supposedly has a few friends who buttonhole them, fix them with a fishy glare and begin to describe the benefits of a cold shower. Like the seducing guest in "The Ancient Mariner," you cannot choose but hear.

Dr. Clendening
The doctors, as well as the public, have not thought enough of the benefits to be derived from the use of water in treatment. We think of drugs and diet and vitamins and ductless glands and psychoanalyzing and electricity and sometimes massage. But the very valuable use of water seems to be neglected.

Any American home, not by any means, every British home, or French or German or Italian or Spanish home. The American bathroom deserves a line in "The Star Spangled Banner." Recently Mr. A. Edward Newton published a book called "A Tourist in Spite of Himself." It is an amusing book and makes it evident that Mr. Newton likes to live abroad.

So let us study for a few days how much good we can do ourselves with just plain old aqua pura.

Some chimes ought to realize that beauty is its own excuse for being—quiet.

In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—These are not pleasant nights for rambling abroad in the nether belts of New York. Here are pictures of misery, such as can be framed only by the backbones of a great city at times when need stalks the streets as an unwelcome companion.

One has a weak fire burning at the doorway of his box house. A mulligan, or possibly some coffee, boils in a large tin can. According to the other standard, this fellow is "sitting pretty." Hungry men gather about to sniff the steaming aroma of the "jungle stew."

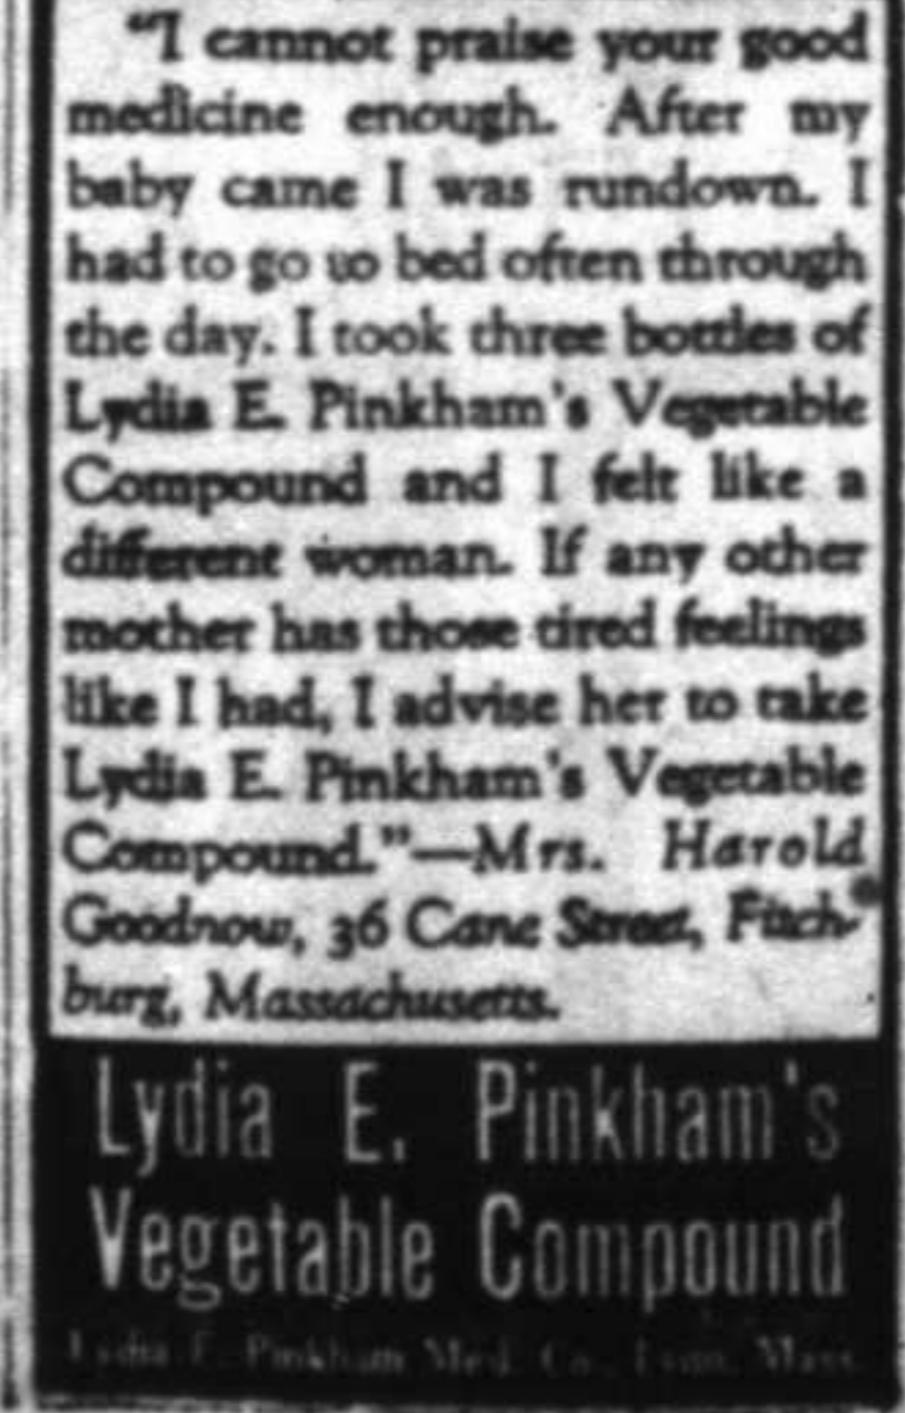

WEST TEXAS: Cloudy, rain in north and east portions, colder tonight except in extreme southeast portion, probably freezing in the Panhandle. Wednesday cloudy, colder.

EAST TEXAS: Cloudy, occasional rains tonight and Wednesday; colder in northwest portion tonight and west and northern portions Wednesday. Fresh southerly winds on the coast, probably increasing.

OKLAHOMA: Cloudy, occasional rains, colder tonight; freezing in northwest portion by Wednesday morning; Wednesday mostly cloudy, rain in southeast portion, colder. Strong shifting winds.

ARKANSAS: Rain, warmer in southeast portion tonight, Wednesday rain, colder.

I cannot praise your good medicine enough. After my baby came I was rundown. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman.

The peasants were a kindly sort and one cried out, "Let's have some sport. We'll sing a merry song for you and all you lads can dance. Now, do not be afraid because, if you are good, you'll get applause." "All right," replied wee Scotty, "we'll gladly take a chance. 'I'll be the one to lead the way. Come, ye peasants, start to play and make it rather snappy. I am just chock full of pep.' 'Then to the Tinymites he cried, 'Form in a line right by my side. We all will dance together and please try to keep in step.'"

The music shortly filled the air. The music the Tines did was sore. It pleased the band of peasants. One said, "Now we'll dance for you." Their swaying was real nice but to see and just as graceful as could be. In just about ten minutes they all stopped and cried, "We're through!"

"It tires one out to dance like that," said one. "I thought that I'd fall flat." The Travel Man roared in and said, "We must be on our way." They climbed into their car and then were on their merry way again. The Travel Man said, "M'laga's the place we'll reach today." And, sure enough, they reached the town and cloudy, like a funny clown, said, "Let's find grapes that we can eat. They're noted for them here. I see some women right near by. Maybe they'll give us some. Let's try! They're swaying hard at sorting them, and yet they're full of cheer."

They watched the women sort the best, then calmly throw away the rest. The Tines turned right in to help, which they thought only fair. And then they ate all that they could. Said Coppy, "Oce, but they are good. Be careful, all you lads and do not eat more than your share."

(The Tinymites see some more fine fruit in the next story.)

Tea in Vacuum just like coffee?

It is just as necessary for one as for the other, to prevent the evaporation of the fragrant volatile oils that give them both their flavor. The West discovered how to preserve coffee flavor in vacuum. And the West has found the proper process for tea, but it still remains exclusive to the originator—Schilling. It is literally the only fresh tea you can buy.

"The Public Appreciates"

Says
EMIL E. FUCHS
President Boston National League Baseball Club
Former Deputy Attorney General of the State of New York

"The trend of modern industry is towards taking the public into its confidence. That is why I know you are wise to state frankly to the public the facts of the use of the Ultra Violet Ray in Toasting the LUCKY STRIKE. I have found the public appreciates confidence."

Emil E. Fuchs

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why TOASTING includes the use of the Ultra Violet Ray. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so TOASTING removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing. No wonder 20,679 physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating!

Consistent with its policy of laying the facts before the public, The American Tobacco Company has invited Mr. Emil E. Fuchs to review the reports of the distinguished men who have witnessed LUCKY STRIKE'S famous Toasting Process. The statement of Mr. Fuchs appears on this page.

BEN GREET TO STAGE PLAY ON FRIDAY

NOTED ENGLISH ACTOR BRINGS COMPANY TO TECH GYMNASIUM

Scheduled as an extra attraction, Sir Philip Ben Greet and his company of English players, will appear at the Texas Technological college gymnasium Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock, offering the first quarto version of "Hamlet."

Sir Philip returns to the United States by insistent demand of leading universities and cities which heard him last season and by those who sought his appearance but failed to secure it.

1929 Tour Success
The 1929-30 transcontinental tour of the company was a success. Universities such as Columbia, Brown, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Indiana, and cities such as Brooklyn, Boston, Richmond, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle acclaimed them. As far as is known, the first quarto version of "Hamlet" was never given in America until last season when it was presented by the Ben Greet players.

Ben Greet is an international figure, recognized as one of the outstanding producers and actors of the stage. His popularity is largely due to the possession of a charming personality and a winning smile. For fifty years he has been presenting Shakespeare and the Classics to the public. The zenith of his career was reached a year ago last June when His Majesty, King George V, conferred the honor of Knighthood upon him for his splendid public service.

Dazzling Society Pageant Marks Opening Of New York Opera

Scenes from smart society's colorful annual pageant of gleaming gowns and glittering jewels—the opening of the Metropolitan opera season in New York—are pictured above. The two lower tiers of boxes in the picture at the left are a part of the famous "golden horseshoe," always reserved for New York's "first families" since the opening of the Metropolitan in 1883. At the right are Mme. Gatti-Casazza, bride of the noted director of the Metropolitan Opera, and Don Orestes Ferrara, Cuban Ambassador to the United States. Other prominent folk pictured on their arrival are, upper center, Miss Anne Storr; (left) and Miss Florence Welcker; center, Grover Whalen, former police commissioner, and Mrs. Whalen; and lower center, Samuel Wagstaff and Mrs. Amory L. Haskell. The opening production was Verdi's "Aida."

Of the two trips offered in grain sorghum work, Knox County won one. The two trips offered by Armour and Company for beef cattle club work were won by Swisher with only the inadequate facilities offered.

SHERIFF IS PROUD
Sheriff Newt McCleskey of Gaines county is feeling his oats. Armistice Day the Seminole high school football team got into its stride and swamped the Lovington high school team 51 to 0. It was the first victory for the Seminole bunch who are playing their first gridiron series this year. The sheriff is pleased because his son is a member of the team. "He weighs more than I do, tips the beam at 194 pounds and he sure likes to play football," the sheriff added with a smile. "Our boys are getting into their stride now."

PLANS INCORPORATION
Doc Powell, president of the Brownfield Sons of Rest, is reported planning to incorporate the organization so as to sell stock to old and new members. The club is growing in membership and there have been some members placed on the inactive roll as well. Doc issued three permits to members who wanted to pick cotton. He declined to give their names to the secretary, C. Bond, K. B. McWilliams and T. L. Brown have been nominated for membership, to come in after cotton season is over.

Lady Who Had Been Run-Down Tells How Cardui Helped Her Get Well.

Mayo, Fla.—"I was greatly benefited after I took the Cardui Home Treatment," says Mrs. W. H. Trawick, of this place. "For several months I had been in bad health. I was run-down and weak. I dragged around from day to day, not feeling fit for anything. My back ached and often my sides hurt all night long. I could not sleep, and my nerves gave me a good deal of trouble. I had used Cardui several years before for a similar spell, so I got some for my trouble. I soon recovered and felt better than I had in a long time. After taking Cardui for several weeks, I began to feel stronger and to rest better. It is a fine medicine, and I have recommended it to friends. Cardui is a purely vegetable reconstructive medicine which thousands of women praise for the benefits they have felt after taking it. Try Cardui for your troubles. Get a bottle, today."

HALE TO STAGE BIRD SHOW

EVENT IS SCHEDULED FOR WEEK BEFORE REGIONAL SHOW

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 18—That this part of the Plains country has sufficient pure-bred poultry stock to supply the demands for the breeding of better-producing poultry flocks is the contention of a number of poultry breeders, County Agent Roy E. Davis, County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Julia Kelley, and others who launched plans Thursday morning for staging the Hale County Poultry Breeders' Exhibit in Plainview December 5th and 6th, which will prove their contention.

County Agent Davis of Plainview called the meeting of interested poultrymen in this county, and pointed out that thousands of dollars are being spent annually to bring in outside poultry stock that should be spent locally among local breeders who have just as good poultry blood as is to be found. He recommended that a breeders' exhibit be staged this winter to bring together this stock and prove to the public that it is able to get what it needs for pure bred foundation flocks right here in this locality.

As a result of the conference the Hale County Poultry Breeders' Exhibit will be staged at Plainview, Tex., on December 5 and 6, and will be received from all neighboring Plains counties, and the cooperation of the county agents and home demonstration agents of Swisher, Lubbock, Castro, Briscoe, Lamb, and Floyd counties especially will be sought. The exhibit will be staged without premium awards, but ribbons will be given and the judging will be by a well recognized poultry authority possibly from the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College. Poultry, both hens and one cockle will be required. The exhibit will be primarily to aid those who have poultry stock for sale to find markets, and to aid those seeking poultry stock to find what they want here on the Plains.

R. E. Davis, Mrs. Julia Kelley, Noble Connor, J. E. Bowman, T. K. Morris, J. T. Hatch, and A. R. Roland were named as members of the Executive Committee which will have the exhibit in charge. This committee will direct all the activities and appoint such sub-committees as will be needed.

It was stressed at the conference that the exhibit is not intended to take the place in this locality of the Panhandle-Plains Poultry show which will be staged in Slaton the second week in December, but rather to prepare the poultry exhibit flocks of this section for the sectional show at Slaton. Many of those present said they would exhibit at the Slaton show, and much interest is being manifested in the Panhandle-Plains show among the poultry raisers of this county and vicinity.

MRS. PAULINE WELLER
"I suffered with stomach trouble for fifteen years," said Mrs. Pauline Weller, 113 Dillworth street, San Antonio. "I bloated terribly after meals and suffered for a long time with constipation. Heart palpitations and shortness of breath were common. I had a dull ache across my back all the time and frequently had sharp pains in my side. I was forced to take laxatives frequently."

"A friend suggested that I try Konjola and the first bottle brought about a change in my condition. The bloating began to disappear. I could eat what I wished and my appetite improved marvelously. Constipation left me and the pains across my back grew less and less. I gained in weight and I feel better than I have in a long time. I am telling all my friends about Konjola."

By NEA Service
NEW YORK CITY.—Nestled between towering buildings, The Little Church Around the Corner in New York is a haven of friendliness in the midst of a great city.

This church, probably the most famous in America, is located in 29th street, just off Fifth avenue, and its real name is "The Church of the Transfiguration."

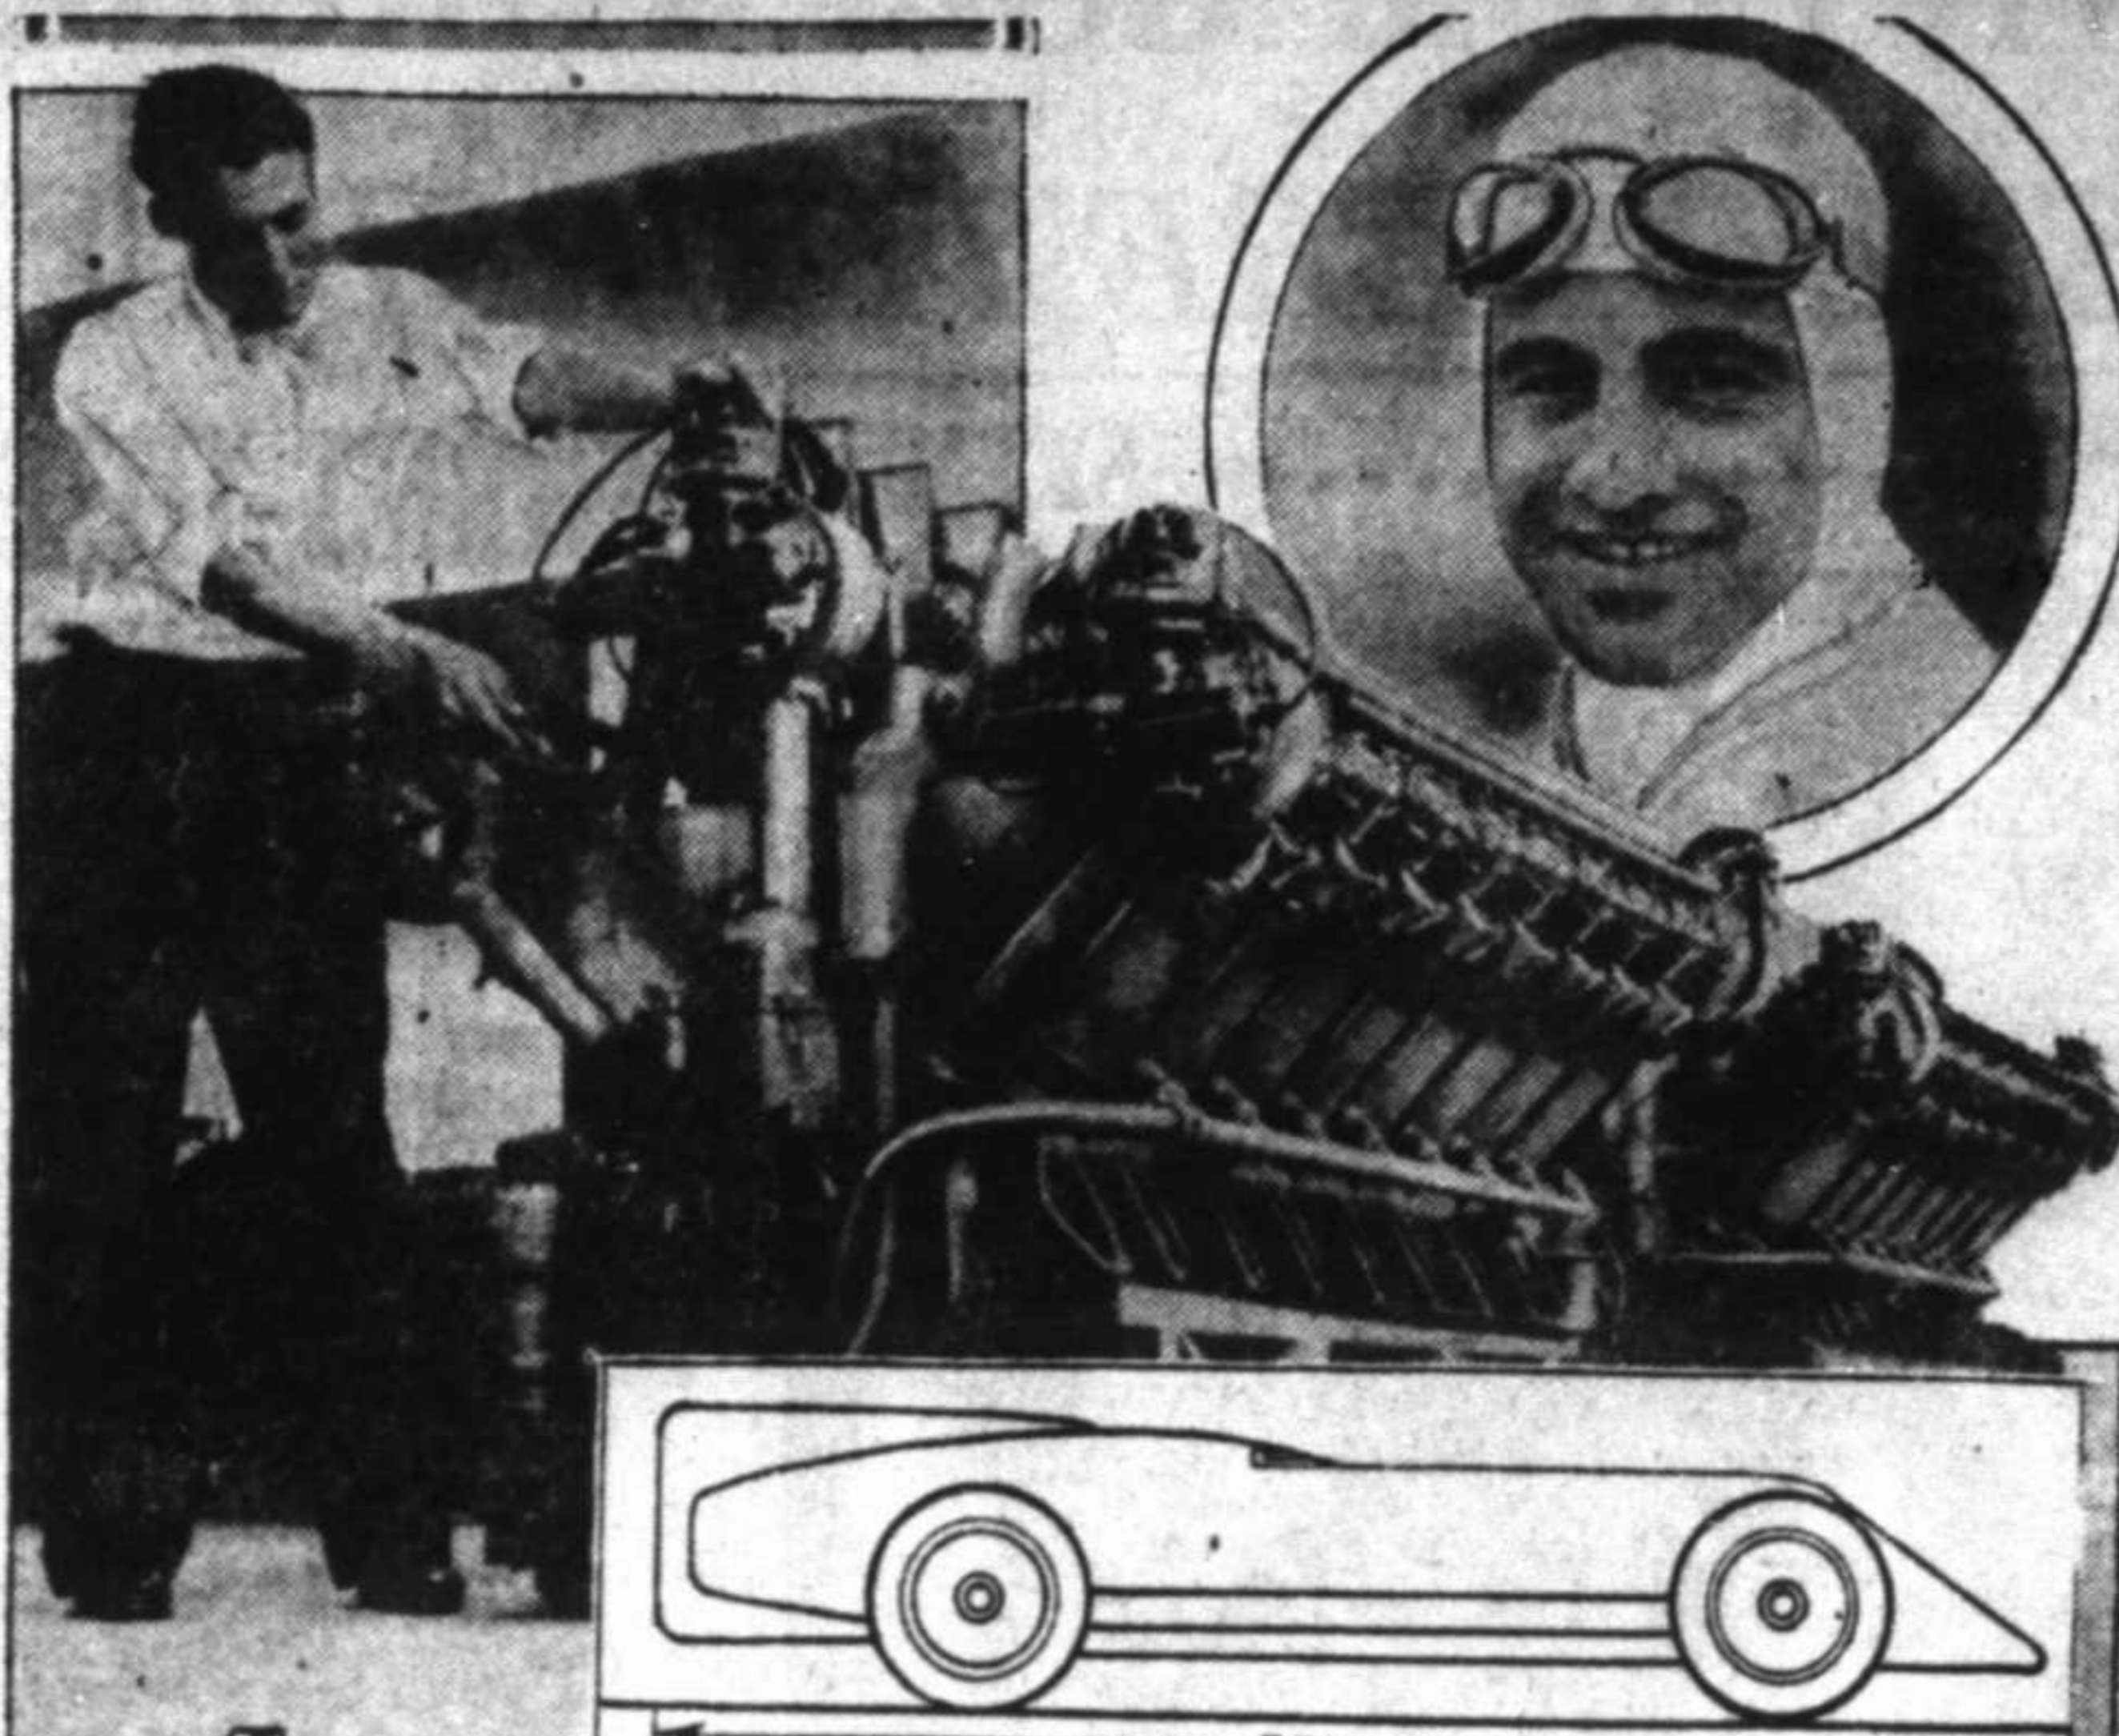

But that name has long since ceased to be used, except officially. One simple act of friendliness a half century ago gave the church its popular name. This incident occurred in 1871 when Joseph Jefferson went to the rector of a church on Madison avenue and asked him to read his burial service at the funeral of George Holland, a well known actor.

The clergyman apparently refused, regarded actors as outcasts and refused to officiate, saying: "There is a little church around the corner where they do such things."

Whereupon, Joe Jefferson exclaimed: "Then God bless the little church around the corner!"

Leading newspapers printed the episode and it immediately fired the imagination of the country. There were editorials on tolerance and songs dedicated to the little church. From that day The Little Church Around the Corner has been beloved, not only by everyone connected with the theater but by millions of others as well.

The church was founded in 1848 by Dr. George H. Houghton who served as rector for 49 years, being

The church is Episcopalian and, while not at all concerned with the creed of the applicants, it insists that they shall have had Christian Baptism. No secret or runaway marriages are performed. Records show that 85 per cent of the couples married there remain married.

Fees received from happy bridegrooms do not go to the clergyman, as is often the case, but to the church.

MEAT KILLING IS DEMONSTRATED

Meat killing demonstrations were being conducted yesterday and are being continued today in Heckley county by Sterling C. Evans, district agent of the Texas A & M extension service, and Roy Snyder, meat specialist of the college. All demonstrations held yesterday were attended by a large number of farmers and other interested parties, according to Mr. Evans.

All demonstrations Monday consisted of killing while today Mr. Snyder will demonstrate the best ways of cutting and packing.

While in the city last night Mr. Evans and Mr. Snyder conferred with officials of the local chamber of commerce and of the Panhandle South Plains fair association regarding the pig, baby beef and cured meat show to be held in Lubbock on March 27 and 28, 1931. Both men expressed confidence that the show will attract many entries and that a great deal of interest will be manifested throughout the section. The show will be staged under auspices of the fair association.

Mr. Snyder stated that meat killing demonstrations have been scheduled in Lubbock county during December and in Hale county in January.

BOBBY JONES STEPS DOWN FROM GOLF THRONE

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS
With Collier Parris
Journal Sports Editor

Now comes a week of football for Lubbock fans. No games were played here last week-end, and only one game during the entire week. Here it comes with a rush, starting Thursday afternoon and continuing daily through Saturday. They are important and interesting games, too, and many fans are due to flock from the recesses of the South Plains to the games. On Thursday afternoon the Spur High school Bulldogs will clash with the Slaton Tigers on the Tech field. A game between the freshmen teams of Texas Tech and Simmons University is carded for the Tech field on Friday afternoon, and on Saturday the Lubbock High Westerners face the Vernon Lions in the last game at home for the locals.

Considerable interest is being taken in the Class B high school grid race this section. So great is the fact, that those in charge of the leading teams have agreed to play the most important game in Lubbock. Local interest is unusually high, and fans from nearly every town on the South Plains will trek to Lubbock Thursday for the contest. The Spur team has passed an undefeated and untied season in their class, losing to two Class A teams, these teams being two of the strongest in District 1 and 2. Slaton has lost only one, and that to Spur earlier in the season. Since then, however, the Slaton team has become greatly improved, and will be able to put up a strong battle here Thursday.

Then on Friday comes the Picador game, and that is due to attract lots of attention. The local freshmen, minus the aid of six star players, four of whom compose the strength of the club, went down to a lop-sided defeat Saturday at the hands of the New Mexico Military Institute. But they have regulars back in the lineup Friday the Picadors will be able to give a good account of themselves. We expect them to win over the Simmons first year men, thereby registering their first victory of the season. In four previous games they have gone up against teams much more powerful, heavier, and more experienced, yet have never failed to give a good showing.

The Vernon Lions need little introduction to Lubbock fans. They have put up a stubborn front in the season's race for Class A honors in this district, and their record shows three games won and three lost. They lost to the strongest teams of the district, including Amarillo and Pampa, the games before which the Westerners bowed, and they were impressive in their victories. In several games with strong Class B outfits, the Lions have been victorious by overwhelming scores. They appear here Saturday afternoon against the Westerners in a game which will mark the end of Lubbock's home season.

Tech's Matadors left today at noon for Brownwood where they meet the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets tomorrow. Before they left the Tech coaches and players went into a huddle and determined to put forth every effort to win, yet to take the game as a matter of course and not of life and death. They are going up against one of the strongest teams in the state, regardless of conference or school and they are not going to kill themselves against a stronger outfit. The Matadors are thinking these days of Thanksgiving and Homecoming day next Thursday week when they meet the Simmons University Cowboys traditional rivals on the local field.

The Cowhorns will be the third of the Abilene teams to meet the Matadors this season, and that reminds us of a statement of the Abilene scribe made early in the year. "We do not remember the exact words, but the remark was to the effect that Tech was the doormat of Abilene's college teams. Then when we think of how the Matadors poked two of Abilene's college teams for considerable losses, we know that we have never seen nor heard of a more active doormat. The Abilene scribe may not know it, but that very remark he made has helped the Matadors to lick McMurry College and Abilene Christian College eleven times this year more than any other outside influence, and for that we offer our thanks to Mr. Anderson. Some of the mottoes adorning the walls of dormitory and dressing room at Tech are built around the "doormat proposition," and before next game with the Abilene crews the matter was brought up in the dressing room. Just how much that helped to win the games is not known, but we could not help but think of doormats when Tech licked McMurry, 10 to 0, and then sent the Wildcats home bearing a 31 to 7 humiliation. Now the third of Abilene's college teams comes to Lubbock in the outstanding game of the season.

CHAMPION IS TO APPEAR IN MOVIES

RETIREMENT IS SEEN AS NATURAL; IS TO AID ON FILMS

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 18. (AP)—Bobby Jones, master golfer of all times, who has retired from competition in order to make sound films, has left as a heritage a wide-open battle for the four American and British national championships he holds.

Nowhere on the horizon at present does there loom any amateur with the golfing gifts needed to duplicate Bobby's unprecedented feat of winning all four national titles in a single year, perhaps there never will be another Jones.

Has Beaten 'em All
The stocky Atlanta lawyer, alone among amateurs, consistently has beaten the professionals at their own game. Four times he won the American open against the best pros and amateurs in the game and thrice the British open fell to his amazing skill.

With his retirement, it seems certain that the pros again will dominate both open tournaments, but certainly amateur ranks contain no figure even approaching Jones in shot-making ability or in steadiness under fire.

Press Comment Favorable
Press comment on Jones' decision to renounce his amateur status was almost uniformly favorable.

The New York Herald Tribune called Jones' decision "most understandable, most natural."

"Who in his position would not welcome the profitable opportunity to teach golf through motion pictures?" the editor continued.

"For the Atlanta lawyer's frank facing of the amateur problem there can be nothing but praise. He prefers not to be in any twilight zone but recognizes fully the commercial application of the motion picture contract. It is a straightforward, unequivocal decision and certainly neither the motives nor the attitude of Mr. Jones toward golf in its commercial phase, can be criticized."

Herbert H. Ramsay, president-elect of the United States Golf association, through whom Jones' statement was made, paid this tribute to the champion:

"He has unquestionably during his career made the greatest competitive record in the history of the game. Aside from that, though, his character and personality are such that he has become a popular world figure. His withdrawal from competition will be greatly regretted by everyone."

There were similar expressions of regret in England.

ALL GRID TEAMS OF CITY ARE TO PLAY THIS WEEK
The Matadors, the Picadors, the Westerners, Lubbock's leading football teams all are in action this week, playing in the order named. And if that is not enough football to satisfy the Lubbock fans, they may see yet another game on a local field this week.

Coaches Pete Cawthon and Del Morgan and about 20 Texas Tech Matadors left at noon today for Brownwood where they tangle with the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets tomorrow in their annual game. Every man who made the trip was in good condition when the train pulled out for the west central Texas city where traditional rivals meet tomorrow, and every man possessed a desire to show his best in the game, the last one of town game for the varsity and next to the last on the season's schedule.

NEW RULE ON NUMBER OF GAMES MATCHED IN SOUTHWEST IS PREDICTED; FROGS HAVE EDGE OVER STEERS BY ONE GAME

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associate Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, Nov. 18. (AP)—There might be a new rule in the Southwest conference books next fall, stipulating that the seven member schools play the same number of championship engagements, say, five apiece. At present the matter is left entirely to the individual schools, and the result just now is not a happy one.

The Texas Christian Horned Frogs stand a very good chance of winning their second straight title though it is generally conceded they are not the strongest eleven in the circuit this season. It is conceded, at least, by some 18,000 fans who set the Frogs chased to cover by the Texas Longhorns Saturday at Fort Worth.

As it happens, the Christians had the foresight to book the limit of six conference titles, while the Longhorns signed only for five. If the Frogs can come back after Saturday's trimming and take both Baylor and Southern Methodist, they will be official conference champions, no matter what the big Texas team does to the Aggies on Thanksgiving Day.

It would be rather a hollow honor for the Christians after last year's clean-cut drive to the championship. They would have to listen to much talk about the Longhorns being "unofficial champs."

The fact that the Texas eleven has made a practice of looking very ordinary for a half and then suddenly turning on the heat in the third quarter has given rise to a widespread belief that Coach Littlefield has his boys playing "possum." But, take it from Bill James, Longhorn line coach, there's nothing to it. He was quoted in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram:

"Not a chance" or words to that effect. "We would be foolish to send them in there with orders to take it easy against a strong team. There would be too much chance of getting slipped up on."

James says frankly he doesn't know why it takes the Steers thirty minutes to get warmed up and play at top stride.

Southwest Teachers Win From Hillbillies
BROWNWOOD, Nov. 18. (AP)—The Southwest Texas State Teachers college eleven defeated the Daniel Baker college football team 6-0 here last night. In the first quarter, Plyland passed to Sanders for 25 yards and a touchdown. Thereafter both teams drove inside each other's 20-yard line, but were unable to overcome strong defenses. Daniel Baker came near scoring in the final period.

Cochran Leading In Billiards Contest

NEW YORK, Nov. 18. (AP)—Walker Cochran's spectacular play in the first two blocks of his 3600 point match with Willie Hoppe for the world's 181 ballroom billiards title found the Hollywood star leading his veteran rival by nearly 350 points.

Cochran won both afternoon and evening blocks yesterday. In the first block a high run of 118 enabled him to win 300 to 213, while last night his margin was 300 to 42 giving him an advantage of 600 to 253 with ten more blocks to go.

DISTRICT TITLE IS AT STAKE IN BATTLE

INTEREST IN OUTCOME IS HIGH; SPUR IS POWERFUL

Something different in the way of football for Lubbock fans and something of intense interest to fans of surrounding communities will be offered Thursday when the grid teams of Spur and Slaton high schools clash on the Texas Tech field for the championship of the southern half of Class B District 2. This semi-final game in the district title series was brought to Lubbock after a joint confab here yesterday in which officials of the Spur, Slaton and Lubbock high schools and Texas Tech participated.

The winner of Thursday's game is very likely to be named the champion of the district, since both clubs represent the strongest sub-districts of the loop. Of the two teams involved, Spur appears to have considerable edge, but previous results and dope is not to be considered as criteria of the possible outcome of the contest. The Spur team has long since been recognized as the cream of the district, but the recent uprise of the Slaton team is to be considered. Earlier in the season these teams clashed and the result was a 40 to 0 victory by Spur. Since then, however, the Slaton team has been materially strengthened by the return of half a dozen regulars who were out with injuries at the time of the first game and the natural impetus that follows winning a sub-district title.

Both Lead Districts
Both teams have passed an undefeated season in their own districts, though Slaton has one tie to its record. After tying Brownfield early in the season the Tigers were impressive in a 31 to 0 victory over the same club last week, showing a decided improvement in the ranks. The game here Thursday is due to draw the best of both teams.

...able record so far, having gone through undefeated and untied by any team in its own class, though losing two games to two of the most powerful Class A teams of Districts 1 and 2. In eleven games, the Spur Bulldogs have amassed a total score of 871 points, against 46 for their opponents. Only three teams have scored on them, and those were Pampa, Cisco, and Ralls. In their last three games, the Bulldogs have run up a total score of 419 points, registering 186 in one game and 142 in another. Jim Hahn, quarterback, and leading scorer for Spur, has scored 205 points so far this season, and his running mate, Captain Brode Puckett, fullback, has scored 177 points.

While not so impressive in scoring the Slaton Tigers, coached by Paul Wright, have hung up a good record. The absence of five or six players, regulars on the team since early in the season has kept the team from running a heavy score.

FRENCH GOSSIP HUMS AS PRESIDENT'S TERM WANES; HE'S STILL A BACHELOR

By T. T. TOPPING

PARIS (AP)—Gaston Doumergue, greatly amused by various reports purporting to relate his plans, after he retires from the presidency of France next year, only smiles and keeps his peace.

From some quarters M. Doumergue hears that he intends becoming a senator and there are at least three members of the Upper House ready to abandon their seats in his favor.

Recently he received the visit of the manager of a large publishing house bidding for an opportunity to publish the President's memoirs, which he had been quoted as preparing.

Some say that M. Doumergue's plans are drawn up for a trip around the world.

The president has heard that he proposed getting married. At the age of 87 the President of France remains a confirmed bachelor.

M. Doumergue's intention to become a Catholic has been discussed in certain portions of the press. The present position of France is the first Protestant to be elevated to that dignity since the advent of the Third Republic.

"MUD AND GLORY"

Written for the Lubbock Daily Journal and King Features Syndicate by James M. Neville. Copyright by King Features Syndicate. All rights reserved.

SYNOPSIS
Terry Malone and Red Thomas, freshmen, both aspire to Princeton's football crown and the love of Margot Blair, young society girl. Red, a bully, breaks Terry's arm causing him to leave college. A year later he returns: Red, now a sophomore, is Princeton's hope. He is suspended for six months and Terry is substituted on the team. His playing makes him a national hero. Margot loves Terry, but realizes he is no matrimonial catch from a financial standpoint. She decides to give him up.

Terry and Red, striving for the captaincy of the Junior team, control their dislike for one another.
Terry wonders why he does not hear from Margot. He becomes depressed and loses interest in football.

CHAPTER XXII

But it wasn't that sort of thing. He felt differently about Margot, attracting him with a strength that he could not comprehend. The memory of her surged up and drowned him in loneliness Saturday after the game. When he was dressed, he returned to his club and sat down, wearied with the pleasant fatigue of triumph, and received the usual congratulations from clubmates and alumni. He had played very well. The game on the field run he had made. Yale would have to watch their step!

Terry nodded with almost childish humility to his own praise, but with pretty girls fluttering around on the arms of non-athletic club mates, a dark head, with a mouth curved up in the corners and big, deep blue eyes looking at him with affection came between him and the interminable verbiage of football conversations. He suddenly wearied of talk about the afternoon's game, about the merits of individual players and debatable plays. He would better sit in the club, "bulling" with football enthusiasts than going back to his deserted room and staring at the picture of Margot over the fireplace. Oh, if Margot only came down for one of the games! What was the use of playing football, of drawing cheers from the crowd and press headlines? Margot didn't see him in action, if she did not care for him? What was the use of anything?

One afternoon, as he put on shoulder pads and pulled an orange and black jersey down over his head before starting practice, the voice of Red Thomas, just beyond the partition of lockers, stopped him.

"Looks as though I've got my old girl back, Buck," whispered Red to Merritt. "Just got a special delivery from Margot Blair to meet me at the Ambassador Saturday night. We're going to bend all over that town."

"Thought she was keen for Terry Malone," inquired Buck, Merritt whose amorous adventures were restricted with marked success to Trenton girls.

"Said she just went with him because he was such a nice boy, for an athlete," chuckled Red. "I told her that reminded me of the guy who wanted to marry Greta Garbo for her money. These girls can certainly pull it over your eyes. But I don't care. Love them as you find them and leave them where they are."

While Red talked, there shook Terry Malone from head to foot such a burst of passion, such a storm of outraged sensibilities, as to cause the dressing room, players, lockers, rubbing tables, to vibrate in haste before his eyes. Suddenly tired and weary, he sank down on a bench, distractedly pulled over his jersey and covered his throbbing head in his hands.

Slowly he recovered the use of his faculties and his first impulse was to turn in his uniform and resign from the eleven. His racial pride struggled against the shame and deceit in which he lived by posing as a loyal teammate of a man he was growing to hate.

Then he thought of his mother, of Margot, of his attachment to Princeton and love of the game.

Quit? Because of Red? Not on your life! Indignant at his lack of courage, he hurriedly finished dressing, picked up his helmet, and walked out on the field.

"All right, Terry. Step on it. Get going!"

With football came forgetfulness. One night after a game, Terry tossed on his bed, unable to sleep with a sense of futility, of emptiness fretting his heart. Weighed down with the monastic duties of an athlete, he was going through one of those periods of doubt and pessimism which settled down on his spirit periodically since early boyhood and made him dissatisfied with whatever he was doing.

The game that afternoon had been marked by hard and brilliant playing, with the famous passing combination of Terry and Red carrying the Princeton team to a one-sided victory in the hands of the Duke Blair, accompanied by a stocky, village.

Neither will the President write his memoirs. He is said to have deemed "useless, indecent and even dangerous" the bitter discussions raised through the publication of memoirs published after the death of recent great Frenchmen.

M. Doumergue did not mention any names. All of France rememembers, however, the acrimonious polemics which followed the death of Marshal Foch and that of "the Tiger of France," George Clemenceau.

But in the little town of Aiguas-Vives, near the shores of the Mediterranean, workmen are installing what the French call "modern comfort," in a little house which has been uninhabited for seven years. There Gaston Doumergue was born.

shabbily dressed man in the thirties, hurried toward him.
"I say, Terry," cried Mr. Blair, "splendid work, my boy. Splendid! Never saw a better forward passing combination than you and Red, even if modern football is nothing but a glorified basketball game. By the way, Terry, I'd like you to meet Flash Carr, who was something of a football player here ten years ago."

Terry looked at the flabby face the old battered felt hat, the waistline that overflowed in layers of fat, and remembered the famous Flash Carr he had read about in his early school days, one of his admired heroes of the sporting page; lithe and gallant and dashing, favored by the crowds, a hero. And so would he also be; shabby and forgotten when his athletic days were over.

Terry talked for a few minutes about football. Flash, like all forgotten athletes, was embittered by the passing of "the good old days when football players were men." He criticized the line play, the running plays and all changes in rules.

Terry soon wearied of Flash Carr's opinions about the eleven; nothing was right with him. Excusing himself, Terry walked toward the dressing room, his head down in meditation, his mind clearing with the stunning realization of his own limitations.

After all, he was very much like Flash Carr—just a good football player. Their only difference was in years, it seemed, for Flash Carr was typical of the former players he had met at the training house. Terry always avoided old players back for the big games who looked longingly at the varsity men. Many were seedy and careworn. Others had risen in the world to high positions. Some showed the ravages of time, hard living and responsibilities; yet all had a childish, wistful expression as they stared at the rugged, bright-eyed lads in football togs.

In a flash Terry saw himself as others would some day see him back for the big games, pathetic by seeking the lost trail of glory. No use kidding himself. After college, football would be over. His bubble of popularity would burst and once again he was to be plain.

Terry Malone, bond salesman, or something like that.
Where was he going to end up? He seemed to be getting nothing out of college, other than making a name for himself as an athlete. But with the glamour of the game rubbed off by Flash Carr and his kind, that sort of thing seemed superficial and scarcely worth the effort. Fame and glory were at best fleeting things and football was just a schoolboy's recreation. But it was perfectly obvious that he was chained to athletics, that all his aptitude were, so to speak, mere accidental overtones of biologically necessary impulses given expression in competitive sports.

Tahoka Has All Residences Filled

TAHOKA, Nov. 18.—(Special)—There is not a single vacant residence in Tahoka, according to C. C. Williams, secretary of the chamber of commerce.

"We have only one business place vacant and it has been vacant for several months," Mr. Williams said. "I know of but one place of business that has closed out this year. This is the one that was in the new vacant building."

"I know of no vacant residence in town. They are all full."

Business conditions in Tahoka and Lynn county are in splendid shape at the present time. Farmers are diversifying more than ever and this fact is helping to keep conditions in better shape than in a great many other counties, especially those off the cap rock, according to Mr. Williams.
