Rioting Prisoners 'Set Up' To Kill 17

DEER LODGE, Mont. (AP)—A hostage freed for eight minutes by rioting convicts at Montana Prison said today 17 other hostages are all set up to be killed.

Walter Jones, prison psychologist, was released for an eight-minute talk with newsmen.

"It's tighter than hell in there," Jones said. He said the situation "is touchy." He said guards who are among the hostages "are all set up to be killed, some will be hanged. I am going back in. I don't know for how long. The inmates are touchy. Any little thing will set it off."

Jones said he and other hostages were sent coffee and sandwiches. He said all are being treated well.

Earlier a prison chaplain had said an agreement to end the riot appeared near.

"Everything is going to be all right," Father Gerald Lyman, Catholic chaplain, told newsmen after he left a conference of prison officials and spokesmen for the rioting prisoners.

The negotiations started after the convicts threatened to burn the 18 hostages with gasoline. That warning stopped plans of officers to storm the prison in an effort to rescue the hostages.

Father Lyman had participated in a 2 hour 45 minute meeting at a prison gate between convict spokesmen and prison officials. The priest said a formal announcement of an agreement would be made shortly.

He said three out-of-state newsmen would be permitted to attend the announcement of the agreement. They are Keith Fuller, chief of bureau for the Associated Press at Denver who is in Deer Lodge; Arthur McDonald of KREM-TV of Spokane, Wash., and another newsman, not identified.

Deputy Warden Theodore Rothe, 38, formerly of Waupun, Wis., was shot to death and Guard William Cox was stabbed in the arm during the early hours of the uprising.

Warden Floyd Powell, 46, held at knife point for nearly three hours, escaped unharmed with the aid of a convicted burglar wielding a meat cleaver.

Powell, Maj. Gen. S. H. Mitchell, commander of the Montana National Guard, and Father Lyman were talking through a prison gate with spokesmen for the rioters.

Until the prisoners shouted threats to burn their hostages, authorities had planned to send 150 officers storming the 90-year-old turreted, castle-like prison. There are 435 prisoners inside.

A prisoner, identified by others as Jerry Myles, a burglar from Butte, shouted to newsmen that the riot started over poor medical facilities, filthy sanitation, and dissatisfaction with Montana Parole Board policies.

Convicts took control of the prison Thursday afternoon.

"It started about 4:30 p.m.," said the prison business manager, Elmer Erickson.

"Someone—it could have been an inmate or an officer—called on the prison's telephone to the warden's office," Erickson said. "He and I were in there. They said there had been a knifing inside. They talked to Powell.

"He and I started across the street. We went into the main entrance. Tower 7. We let ourselves in.

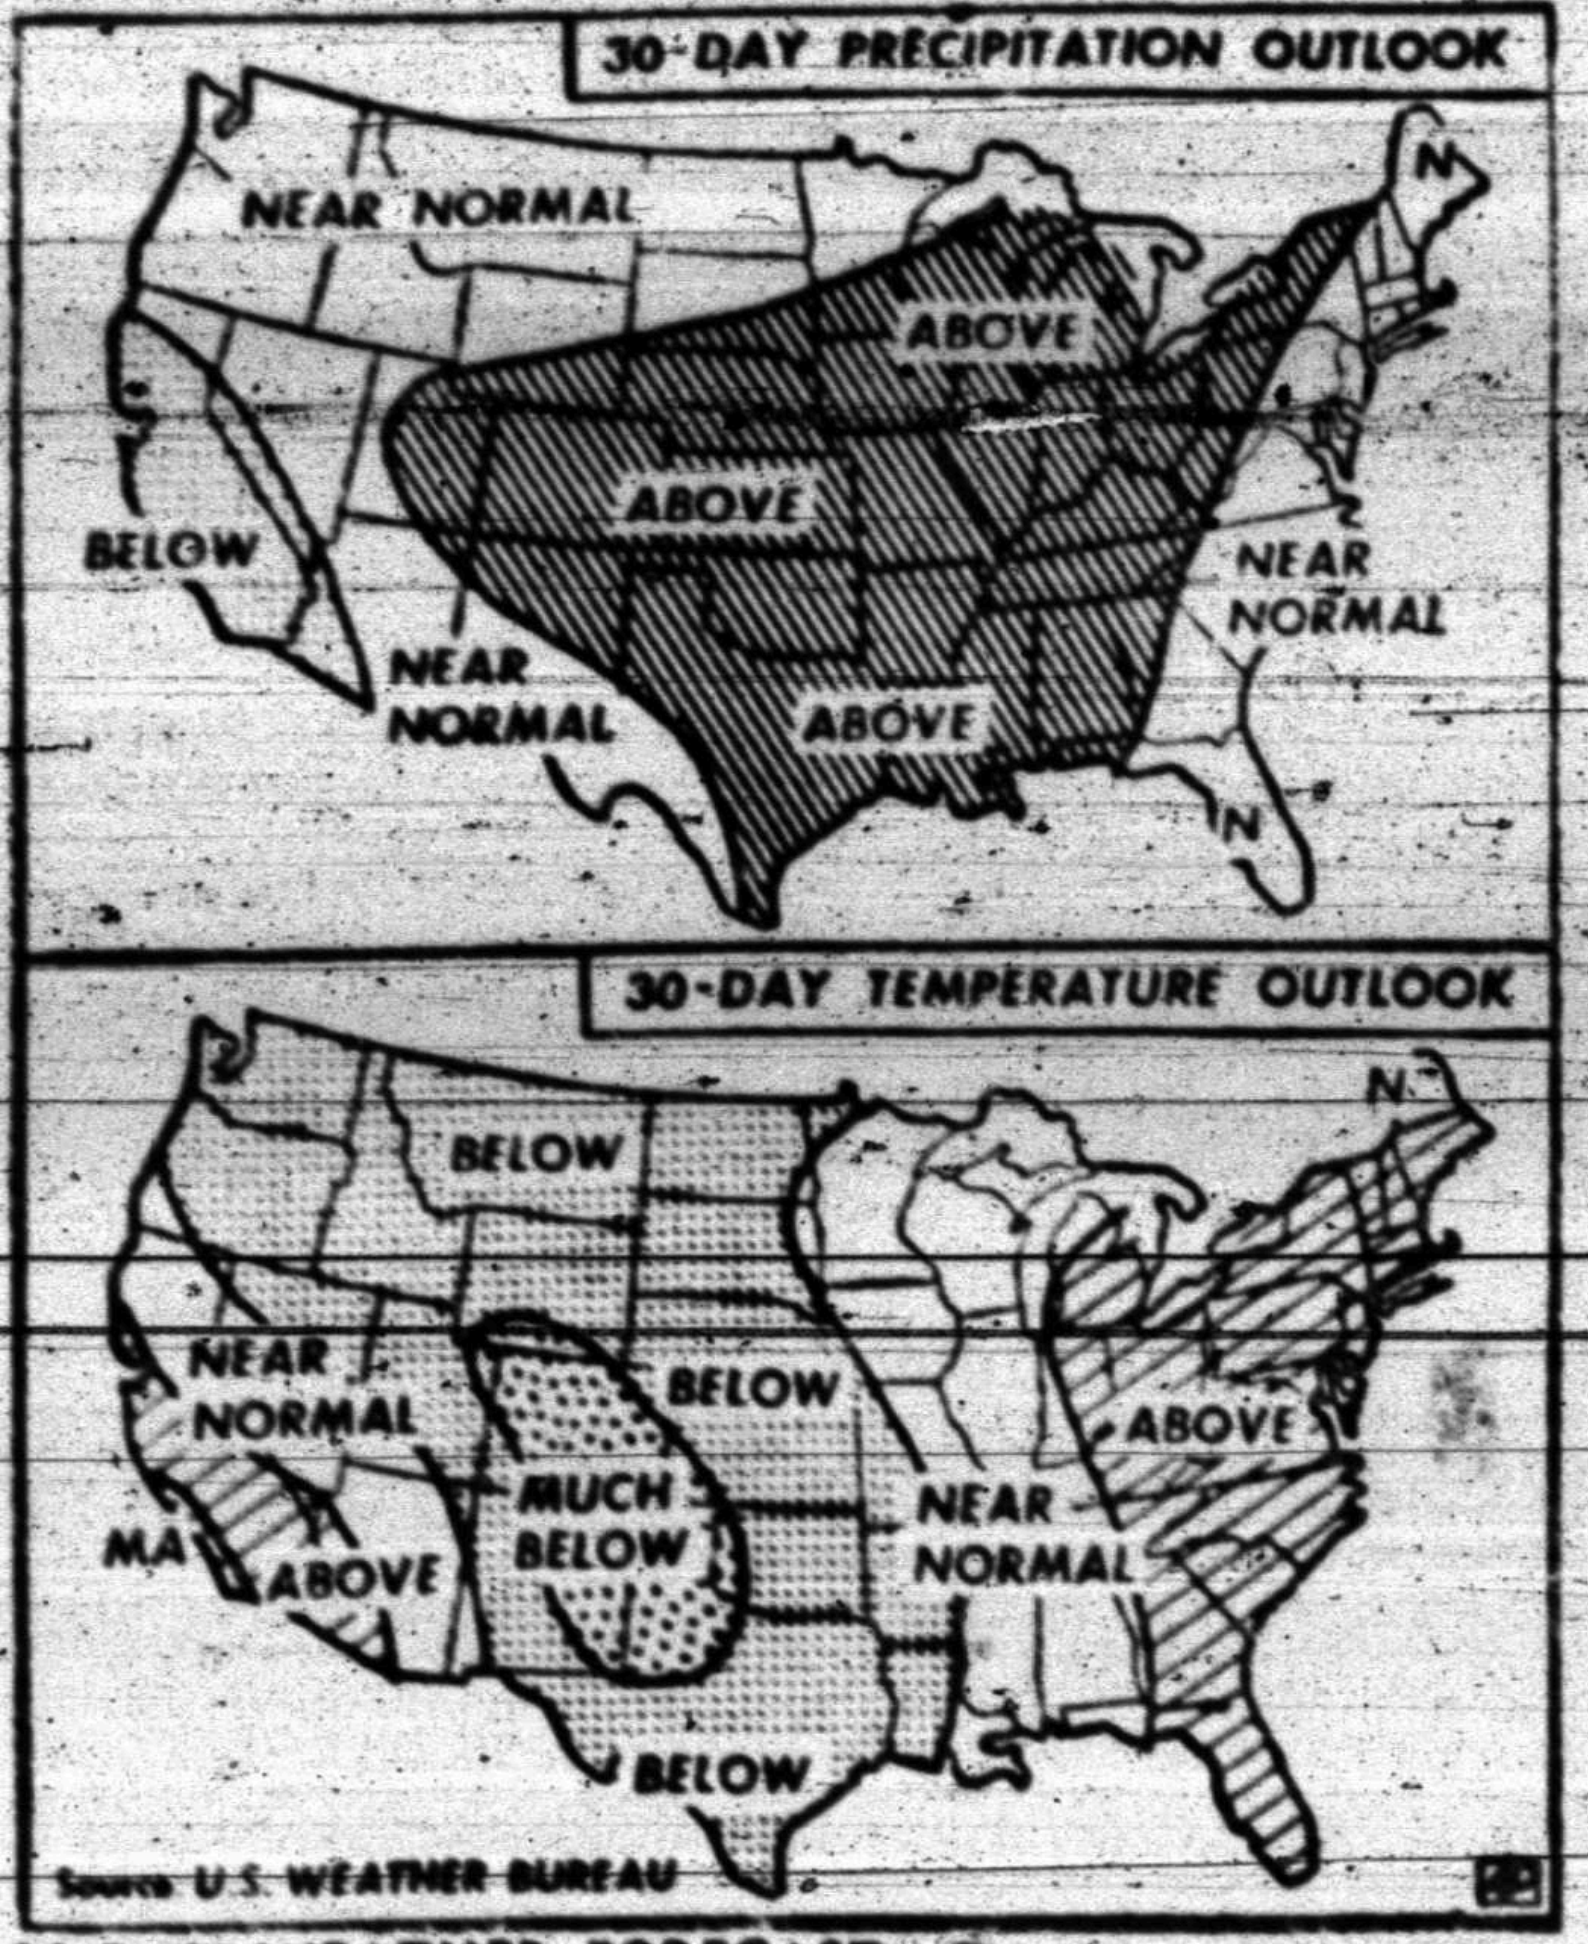
"They grabbed the warden."

Erickson then ran back to the prison office and summoned help.

An unidentified convict shouted from the prison at 5 a.m. to newsmen that the hostages would be burned with gasoline if an attempt was made to storm the prison.

THE SCURRY COUNTY TIMES

VOL. 74 NO. 3 SNYDER, TEXAS, FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1959 EIGHT PAGES—PRICE 5c



30-DAY WEATHER FORECAST—These maps, based on those supplied by the U. S. Weather Bureau, predict temperatures and precipitation for the next 30 days (AP Wirephoto Map)

Showers Dot Scurry Area

Many farmers were wanting another shower or two before planting time, and the weather is coming close to filling their needs.

Showers in the Snyder area late yesterday and last night were somewhat scattered but put a quarter of an inch or more of moisture on a large portion of the area.

The southern part of the county got the heaviest showers. Reports ranged from .3 to .5 across most of the south half of Scurry.

There were a few reports of hail, but it was light and lasted only a short time. One of these reports was of hail for about five minutes at the Diamond M Ranch southwest of Snyder, but there was not enough to do any damage. There was some hail in Borden County.

In the northernmost parts of the county, there were only light showers. Mrs. Mozell Roggenstein reported only enough rain to settle the dust in the Lloyd Mountain-Cottonwood Flat area in norheast Scurry. In northwest Scurry, there was also only a light shower, up to .1 at the most, according to J. D. Patterson of Fluvanna. Due North of Snyder, at the Pasotex Pipe Line Camp, there was .47.

Snyder had .13 at the official gauge of David Strayhorn, weather observer. Parts of Snyder got slightly more, however.

The heaviest showers reported were in the Camp Springs area in east Scurry County. Jim Beavers at Camp Springs said there were reports in that area ranging from .4 to .6.

It was almost as heavy in the Hermleigh area, with reports of half an inch in Hermleigh and south of there and .4 at Inadale. Half an inch was reported in the China Grove-Dunn area.

In southwest Scurry, .3 of an inch was reported at Ira by A. H. Kruse, .3 in the Canyon area by J. D. Hooker, and .2 at the Snyder pump station at Lake J. B. Thomas by Jack Dunn.

County Judge C. C. Nunnally at Gail said there were only light showers in most of Borden County, it was believed. Heaviest rain in Borden apparently was that in the Plains area of northwest Borden, where .3 to .7 fell.

Rains Cover Wide Areas Of State

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers "danced" across parts of North and East Texas early Friday, and more were in prospect throughout the state.

Moisture had dampened nearly every section of the state in the past 24 hours as still another cool front headed into Texas. Five traffic deaths were attributed to rain-slicked roads.

Just before dawn a band of thundershowers extended southward from Tulsa, in Oklahoma, through the Dallas-Fort Worth area to Waco. A short time later a line of showers stretched from 10 miles south of Cleburne through Fort Worth to 5 miles north of Whitewright, and there also was light rain near Ennis and Kaufman.

Within an hour, Weather Bureau radar tracked scattered showers and thunderstorms from Paris to Dallas to Corsicana.

Forecasters looked for more showers in all parts of the state through Friday night along with cooler weather. They predicted readings down to 35 degrees in the Panhandle early Saturday.

Rain reported to the Weather Bureau in the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. included Weatherford 1.52, Ennis and Rosser 1.05, Washington 1.02, Crandall .67, College Station .72, Beeville .57, Mineral Wells .54, Electra .71, Tyler .31, Longview .26, Riverside .37, Sherman .30, Fort Worth .27, Waco .45, Dallas .09, Austin .33, San Antonio .30, Corpus Christi .25, Victoria .13, Texarkana .14, Lufkin .15 and Big Spring .13. Scores of places had lesser amounts.

Mock Attack Tests Defenses Of Nation

By W. JOYNES MACFARLAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A make-believe nuclear attack today will test civil defense preparedness in hundreds of communities across the nation.

Here's what is slated for varying periods in some areas:

New York City — All but emergency traffic stops.

Chicago — Mayor and other officials fly by helicopter to alternate government site.

Washington — Thousands of government employes head for shelter areas.

Kodiak Island, Alaska — Residents take cover in caves.

Savannah, Ga. — School youngsters go by leased vehicles to rail loading points.

New Orleans — Squadron of 50 boats takes part in evacuation from waterfront.

The activity will be the first phase of Operation Alert 1959—the sixth annual nationwide civil defense training drill. The alert will last two days.

Federal civil defense officials figured millions of people in more than 500 communities were taking part.

The various programs were to be triggered by alerts sent over the attack warning system manned by the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization.

The phase affecting most Americans involves an emergency broadcasting test.

From 11:30 a.m. EST until noon, all the nation's FM radio and TV stations go off the air as well as more than 2,600 AM radio stations which are not members of the Conelrad system. Conelrad stands for control of electromagnetic radiation to deny navigation guidance to enemy weapons.

Some 1,200 AM stations which are members of the system sign off their regular programs at 11:30 and immediately return to the air on the Conelrad frequencies of 640 and 1240 with special programs.

Air Force, Navy Feud Stage Set

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The ammunition was at hand today for another rousing feud between the Navy and the Air Force.

Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy disclosed that the Joint Chiefs of Staff are thinking about putting the Navy's Polaris submarine-missile weapon system under operational control of the Air Force's Strategic Air Command.

McElroy told a news conference Thursday he had not yet been notified of a decision by the chiefs of the armed services.

Strategic warfare is at the heart of the controversy.

In the past the Navy and Air Force have wrangled over strategic warfare, as distinguished from tactical operations against ships, planes or troops of an enemy. A decade ago they argued over big carriers and B36 heavy bombers. That issue was settled by building both.

The Polaris missile, to be launched from nuclear-powered submarines, is a strategic weapon. Its warhead will be hydrogen explosive designed to destroy enemy industrial regions and other targets far inland.

Cogdell Hospital Has Record Month

Scurry County's Cogdell Memorial Hospital had a record month of business during March, Bill Newsom, hospital superintendent, reported to the county hospital board in its monthly meeting last night.

Newsom pointed out that his reference was to the hospital's business, not to earnings. March business totaled $41,738.92, the biggest month since the hospital opened in February, 1954.

Previous high was set in January, with $39,880.65.

Newsom reported collections were also better than usual for March. The hospital collected 95 per cent of its March billings. The collections ran 82 per cent for the entire year in 1958.

April has been spasmodic so far, Newsom said, but the hospital is usually close to full. Last night's count showed there were 48 patients in the 50-bed hospital.

Occupancy ratio during the month of March was 86 per cent. The hospital had 312 admissions and 36 new babies born during March. There was a total of 1,463 patient days.

In the monthly meeting, the board discussed progress on plans for the 50-bed addition to the hospital authorized last year in a bond election.

Latest reports from the architect, Leonard Crockett of Odessa, are that the plans will probably be in the board's hands by the end of this month, ready for the board to submit to the county commissioners court for approval. After the commissioners court approves plans, the court will call for bids for construction of the two-story wing on the hospital.

Cities Make Progress In Solving Problem

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Municipal League said today Texas cities are making progress in solving the problem of automobile parking.

A league survey said 42 per cent of the cities over 10,000 population now have Municipal parking lots.

Most larger cities follow the standards that minimum offstreet parking for retail establishments are based upon the square feet of the customer floor area. Several cities also require one parking space for each four hospital beds, four theater seats and for each 500 square feet of rental floor area in an office building.

First GI Home Loan Paid Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first GI home loan has been paid off.

Miles E. Myers of Washington, an Air Force captain in World War II, received the $7,500 loan in 1944 on certificate No. 1 of the Veterans Administration. First Federal Savings & Loan Assn. of Washington announced today he completed payments on the 20-year loan in 14½ years.

Myers also is a veteran of World War I.

STILL IN SERIOUS CONDITION today was Ouida Weir, 33-year-old O'Donnell woman whose car, above, overturned four times at about 7 p.m. yesterday three miles south of Ira on State Highway 350. The woman lost control of her car on a curve. While overturning, it threw her out, and the car came to rest in a plowed field, heavily damaged. She had multiple lacerations and internal injuries and was taken by Bell ambulance to Cogdell Memorial Hospital, where she was being treated. Investigating the accident here are Sheriff Earl Abercrombie and Deputy Jim Farr. (Lee Watson photograph)

Farm Plan Is Proposed By Capehart

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind) proposed today a new farm program he said would both raise farm prices and cut costs to taxpayers.

Its principal features would:

1. Pay farmers a billion dollars a year to take out of production land that now produces costly farm surpluses. This idea, which Capehart called "acreage storage," is similar to the expired acreage reserve part of the soil bank program.

2. Raise the minimum price at which the government would be permitted to sell on the domestic market any of the nine billion dollars worth of surplus farm products it now holds.

3. Authorize a speeded-up research program to find new industrial uses for farm products.

Capehart offered his program—and invited changes—in the midst of a stalemate between the Eisenhower administration and the Democratic-controlled Congress. Each has called on the other to come up with a specific program.

While Democrats have demanded higher price supports, the administration has contended lower commodity prices are necessary to let farmers sell more of their crops.

Report Soil Temperatures

As planting time nears each year, farmers become interested in soil temperatures.

The temperatures are important since germination of seeds will not begin until the soil is warm enough.

Generally a 60-degree average soil temperature for 10 days is desired before cotton planting in this area.

The Snyder chapter of the Future Farmers of America this week began to supply farmers information on soil temperatures in this area.

The chapter is taking daily readings and recording 10-day averages. The temperature is taken in bedded land, eight inches deep in the bed.

Today's soil temperature is 59 and the 10-day average is 53.6.

The Daily News will carry the daily report from the FFA chapter in its front page weather column.

Tires, Tubes Are Taken By Burglars

A set of four new tires and tubes were taken from Mixon Tire & Supply Co., Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue I, sometime last night by burglars, police said.

The building was entered by breaking out the glass in an east window, and the burglar or burglars left the building through a rear door.

Police said nothing in the firm's office was disturbed, and that owner, Jim Mixon, said a preliminary check did not reveal anything else missing from the store.

Taxpayers Assured Higher Government

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP) —Texas taxpayers today were assured of bearing the cost to operate their state government at a rate five times higher in fiscal 1960 - 61 than in 1946 - 47.

A conference committee will be named next week to work out the differences in the House and Senate appropriations budgets. Senators voiced approval of their versions yesterday.

Legislators got a weekend with the homefolk after the House's major tax program was laid out this week.

The Senate's budget program is about 26 million dollars below the House budget and sets an overall spending budget of $2,390,000,000 for the next two years.

Sen. William Fly of Victoria ploted his Finance Committee's appropriation version virtually unscathed through the Senate. He predicted it would take at least two or three weeks to smooth out the differences in conference.

In addition to the major selective sales tax bill (HB727), legislators also will have an option in a gross receipts tax bill (HB-800) approved by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee yesterday. Rep. H. J. Blanchard's proposal would raise about 200 million dollars each year.

Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, subcommittee chairman, said that because the major bill was passed out, "we felt that some one else's should have a chance." Blanchard voted "no" on passing the bill to the House Floor.

A rousing debate in the Senate was ignited when Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas sent up an amendment to the appropriations bill. He sought to restore salaries of the Insurance Board members and commissioner to current levels. The committee had cut them from $15,000 to 5,000 for the three board members and from $20,000 to $11,000 for commissioner William A. Harrison.

Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, who asked the Senate two years ago not to confirm Harrison's appointment, said:

"There hasn't been a sorrier administration than the one that exists in that department."

"The commissioners have had the insurance companies working on the members of the Legislature to give them a big deal over there," Hardeman said.

Path Clear For Herter

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christian A. Herter apparently has cleared the last hurdle standing in the way of his appointment as new secretary of state.

A specially selected doctor is understood to have found that Herter's sometimes painful arthritis of the hips will not interfere with his being an active foreign policy chief.

Herter has long been considered the No. 1 prospect to succeed the ailing John Foster Dulles. But President Eisenhower is reported to have requested a confidential medical checkup of Herter by a "neutral" physician before making any appointment.

Dr. Theodore B. Bayles, Herter's personal physician, already had expressed firm confidence that Herter would be fully capable of shouldering such duties.

But Eisenhower apparently wanted an impartial verdict so that he could assure the American people that Herter, who frequently has been photographed leaning on his metal arm crutches, had a clean bill of health.

A top Republican official, who knew about the medical exam, said Thursday night that Eisenhower would announce Herter's formal nomination in a few days. Several senators have said the Senate was ready to confirm Herter promptly.

Accompanied by his wife, Herter left quietly by train for a weekend rest at a family farm outside Charleston, S.C. He had already boarded the train before the State Department told reporters.

Aides said that the former Republican governor of Massachusetts, an avid outdoor sportsman despite his ailment, wanted to relax for a few days before assuming the full load of running the State Department.

In 12 days, he must fly to Paris to attend a meeting with the British, French and West German foreign ministers at his side, then confronts the Soviet Union's Andrei Gromyko for what promises to be a tough bargaining conference in Geneva.

The Herters left the train at the town of Green Pond, about 30 miles from Charleston, and went to their nearby plantation. He remained in his private compartment throughout most of the train trip.

Tank Battery Fire Put Out

A five-tank oilfield tank battery was set fire by lightning about 9:45 o'clock last night near Ira, city [illegible]

It was one of a number of fire alarms, two of which were false, answered by the Snyder fire department last night.

The tank battery was on Hull "B" lease, one mile south and one-quarter mile east of Ira. Damage to the tank battery was not believed to have been heavy.

Earlier last night firemen answered a false alarm call to 1402 Avenue C at 7:45 o'clock, and a false alarm call to 420 Thirtieth Street at 8:15 o'clock.

A trash fire behind Central Tire Service, Twenty-fifth Street and Avenue T, was put out at 8:45 o'clock last night. There was no damage.

Junior Editors Quiz on SUPERSTITIONS

QUESTION: Why did our ancestors throw up their hands in horror at the idea of eating tomatoes?

• • •

ANSWER: The tomato is a native American vegetable. The first Europeans who saw the tomato were hesitant to eat it lest it be poisonous. They thought of it as we think of a flower—something pretty with which to decorate their gardens.

Gradually a superstition grew up about the tomato that eating it caused sinful passions among men and women. In fact, for a long time, the tomato was called the "love apple." People refused to eat it for fear it would make them do things against their will.

It is said that Thomas Jefferson, who was president of the United States more than 150 years ago, was one of the first to eat tomatoes. However, they did not come into general use as a food until about the time of the Civil War.

• • •

Big Ovation For Russian Dancers

By BARRY SCHWEID

NEW YORK (AP) — Eighteen minutes of unbroken, thunderous applause that rocked the Metropolitan Opera House late Thursday night tell the story: those attending fell in love at first sight with the Soviet Bolshoi ballet.

Bravos rolled with equal enthusiasm from young dance students who had waited up to 40 hours for a crack at standing room and from jeweled society women in $50 box seats.

Again and again the curtain parted, bringing out legendary Galina Ulanova, who led the celebrated Russian dancers in Sergei Prokofieff's "Romeo and Juliet," to another round of applause and bouquets.

Then the Soviet troupe applauded the audience, and the curtain closed on the premiere of the Bolshoi on these shores.

Soviet and American flags hung side by side from center boxes in the Diamond Horseshoe. The orchestra played the national anthems of the two countries.

Mikhail Menshikov, Soviet ambassador to the United States, shared a box with an American capitalist, Cyrus Eaton, Cleveland industrialist who has visited the Soviet Union.

They were joined by Van Cliburn, gangling American pianist who scored a smash in Moscow when he won the Tchaikovsky piano competition.

Society, world diplomacy and the entertainment field were heavily represented in the glittering audience that filled the 3,616 seats.

The ballet itself, particularly Mme. Ulanova, a slight but spectacular figure, appeared to please everyone.

W. G. Rogers, Associated Press arts editor, wrote that she "ranged through an exacting role with the mastery for which she is famous—innocent and girlish, awakening, maturing to the love of the handsome and impetuous stranger from the camp of her family's enemies, and committing herself to marriage and death for his sake."

The ballet will be at the Metropolitan for a 3-week repertory run. Then, after six performances at Madison Square Garden, the 100 dancers and 90 musicians will go on tour, returning here in May to end an eight-week U. S. visit.

Miners In Battle With Truck Driver

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP) — A gun fight between striking coal miners and 3 nonunion truck drivers left one man dead and another severely wounded Thursday night.

Three United Mine Workers members, including the wounded man, were arrested on murder charges in the second violent death since the UMW went on strike in eastern Kentucky March [illegible].

James Otis Adams, 41, of nearby Dangola, a truck driver who also worked as a guard at the nearby nonunion Little Shepherd Mining Co., was killed while exchanging shots with men who tried to drag him from his truck.

State police said the men charged with murder were Harrison Stidham, the wounded man, Verlin King and Delmer Holliman, all of Marlowe.

Stidham was placed under police observation at the hospital where he was taken with a severe stomach wound.

State troopers gave this account of the shooting near the Letcher County community of Cowan, five miles north of here:

The mine has had a full-time guard.

The guard and the nonunion truck drivers had worked out a headlight-blinking system for identification.

The unidentified guard on duty saw the lights of an approaching car blink and walked down to investigate.

When he reached the car, one of the men in it struck him with a gun and dragged him inside.

They told him he would be killed if he caused any trouble and added they had come looking for a truck driver.

Soon a truck began winding its way up the hill to the mine.

Stidham walked up to it, opened the door and told Adams to get out.

Then the shooting started.

The first man killed in the seven-county strike was Woodrow Smith, 42, a nonunion operator. Five UMW pickets have been indicted for murder and two other UMW members as accessories.

The UMW is striking for a $2-a-day pay boost to $24.25 and a protective wage clause prohibiting handling or purchasing of nonunion coal by union operations.

The strike had idled 7,000 miners.

Nixon Will Visit Moscow In July

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon will visit Moscow in late July. His expected talks with high Soviet officials may help to set the stage for a summit conference.

His designation by President Eisenhower to make the trip also could promote Nixon's chances for the Republican presidential nomination next year.

A White House announcement at Augusta, Ga., said Nixon will make the trip to open an American exhibition in Moscow July 25. No other details were given but diplomatic officials were sure he would meet with Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The six-week exhibition is designed to show Soviet citizens how Americans live. The Soviets will stage a similar exhibition in New York City.

Eisenhower said in a statement that the purpose of the exhibition is to develop broader understanding between the American and Soviet peoples—"the kind of mutual understanding upon which our peaceful future depends."

If Nixon demonstrates a capacity to deal effectively with Soviet leaders it could give him a boost in his unannounced quest for the presidency in 1960. At a minimum it will focus attention on him in the months leading up to selection of the Republican nominee.

Internationally, the trip means a new round of high-level contacts, following up the January visit here of Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.

Presumably one of Nixon's purposes will be to demonstrate to the Soviet peoples a friendly American interest in them. He is expected to emphasize a United States desire for better relations.

Nixon now plans to remain in Moscow three or four days. He seems assured of red carpet treatment. His time in the country might be extended.

Presumably also he may visit other capitals.

His trip is timed to fall between the scheduled Big Four foreign ministers meeting at Geneva and a portable summit conference in late summer, perhaps in August. He will have an opportunity to discuss pending questions in advance of the summit gathering.

Nixon will be the first high-ranking U.S. official to visit the Soviet Union in many years.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall was there for a foreign ministers meeting on German and Austrian problems in 1947.

3 Brothers Die In Fire

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Three young brothers suffocated in an apartment fire Thursday. Police said they may have barred their rescue by slamming shut a door which locked.

A neighbor had to take time to kick down the locked door of the second-floor apartment. Then he was forced back by heat and smoke.

A passer-by and Supt. of Police James Slusser went to the rear of the two-story frame house and climbed to the second-floor bedroom where the children had taken refuge.

Pulled unconscious from the building, the youngsters were dead on arrival at Pittsburgh Hospital. They were Norvalle, 3, Charles, 2, and Vincent, 1, the children of Mrs. Marlene Jones.

Mrs. Jones, who was not home at the time, said she had asked a neighbor, Mrs. Esther Perkins, 77, to look in on the children while Mrs. Jones went to pay a bill. Mrs. Perkins said later the door had been slammed shut.

Wayward Car Takes Spree

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Here's what police said happened to Thomas Jacomella when he started to drive his car out the driveway at his home:

He backed the car 29 feet until he saw he was going to hit his house. Then he shifted into forward, hit a tree and clothes pole, started backing again, scraped the side of the house and struck two more trees.

The car continued backing until it ran into a car across the street, then the driver shifted into forward, traveled 84 feet, smashed a small wall, drove into a field, tore down a bush, traveled through a wooden fence, over a pine tree and steel wire fence and then hit a house.

Then Jacomella put the car into reverse, backed across the two fences and a pine tree, hit another house and finally came to a stop against a tree.

Deputy Sheriff Cliff Gunn said Jacomella was 82.

Negro Teen-Agers Held In Shooting

DALLAS (AP) — Four teenage Negro girls were in custody today after gunshots sent pedestrians scurrying for cover. No one was hurt.

The pistol shots rang out after six girls ran across a street from a drug store and entered a car. Witnesses said one girl fired at the drug store. A second shot was fired into the air.

A witness took down the auto license number. The girls admitted arguing with another teenage group in the drug store but denied firing the shots.

Floods Begin To Ease In South America

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Flood waters ravaging parts of Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil receded today, and aid was rushed to an estimated 100,000 persons left destitute.

At least 12 persons were believed drowned—7 in Uruguay, 3 in Entre Rios province of Argentina and 2 in southern Brazil. There were no official casualty figures for the hardest-hit areas were cut off.

The sun shone after two days of steady rains. Relief missions headed for the stricken regions by land, water and air.

U.S. Ambassador Willard Beaulac called on President Arturo Frondizi to offer American aid. Frondizi told him that his government had the situation in hand.

However, Argentine radio stations and newspapers broadcast government appeals for blankets, food and medicine.

The situation was worst along the Argentine-Uruguay border, where the Uruguay River rose 55 feet above its normal level.

About 25,000 persons were driven from their homes in Concordia, a city of 80,000 in the east Argentine province of Entre Rios. Food was flown into the isolated city and the navy sent ships to evacuate the entire population if necessary. There was one unconfirmed report that 5,000 persons were stranded on a hill.

The flood waters swept into Buenos Aires when the River Plata overflowed and drove 20,000 persons in the capital from their homes. About 200 homeless children were given refuge in the presidential mansion.

Sect Awaits Major War

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Members of the Davidians, a religious sect, gathered in force today with the expectation a major war will flare in the Middle East by April 22.

Mrs. V. T. Houteff, who serves on the order's ruling council, said 400 had registered, "representing nearly every state and parts of Canada."

The Davidians are an estranged offshoot of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. Their leaders have advised them to sever earthly ties and sell all property they can't bring to national headquarters here in central Texas.

The Symbolic Code, a publication of the sect, has stated that war in the Middle East "will pit nation against nation and Christian against non-Christian . . . after which the way will be open for those Christians who survive to establish the kingdom" of God in Jerusalem.

Condition Of Dulles Serious

BERLIN (AP)—The condition of John Foster Dulles, stricken with cancer, has become "very, very serious," his sister said today.

Eleanor Lansing Dulles is a special assistant in the U.S. State Department's office of German affairs.

"I saw my brother last on Tuesday. His condition has become very, very serious, but he always works," she said on arrival here.

"My brother especially asked me to go to Berlin because he believes that the German problem is now so important that it is very necessary to be in Germany and in Berlin."

She will confer with officials here concerning U.S. air programs and other economic problems affecting this isolated city.

Upturn Noted In Steel Production

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government says steel industry productivity has been declining but now is on an upturn. The announcement armed both steel management and steel labor with bargaining ammunition for contract talks next month.

The Labor Department reported the industry's output per man-hour declined nearly 6 per cent in the three years 1955-58 [illegible]

That time closely parallels duration of expiring three-year labor contracts.

On the other hand, Ewan Clague, the department's statistics commissioner, said steel productivity started climbing steeply late last year and is still rising. This hasn't been officially measured yet.

The figures announced Thursday [illegible] from the study [illegible] by President Eisenhower. He has repeatedly recommended that any wage increases be held to productivity gains to avoid inflation.

On that basis, the steel industry could argue that a three-year decline in productivity warrants a wage cut rather than a pay raise the United Steelworkers Union has said it will demand.

The union already has indicated that currently rising output per man and rising steel profits should be the basis on which labor contracts are negotiated.

Present contracts run out June 30. Negotiations are scheduled to start in New York on May 18 but the union recently suggested advancing them to May 4. The industry responded it is ready any time.

Proposals by the industry for a wage freeze and then by the union for a price freeze both have been rejected.

Productivity is the relation of production to the work hours needed in achieving it. It varies widely. In steel, productivity has increased as much as 28 per cent in one year and declined as much as 9 per cent in another.

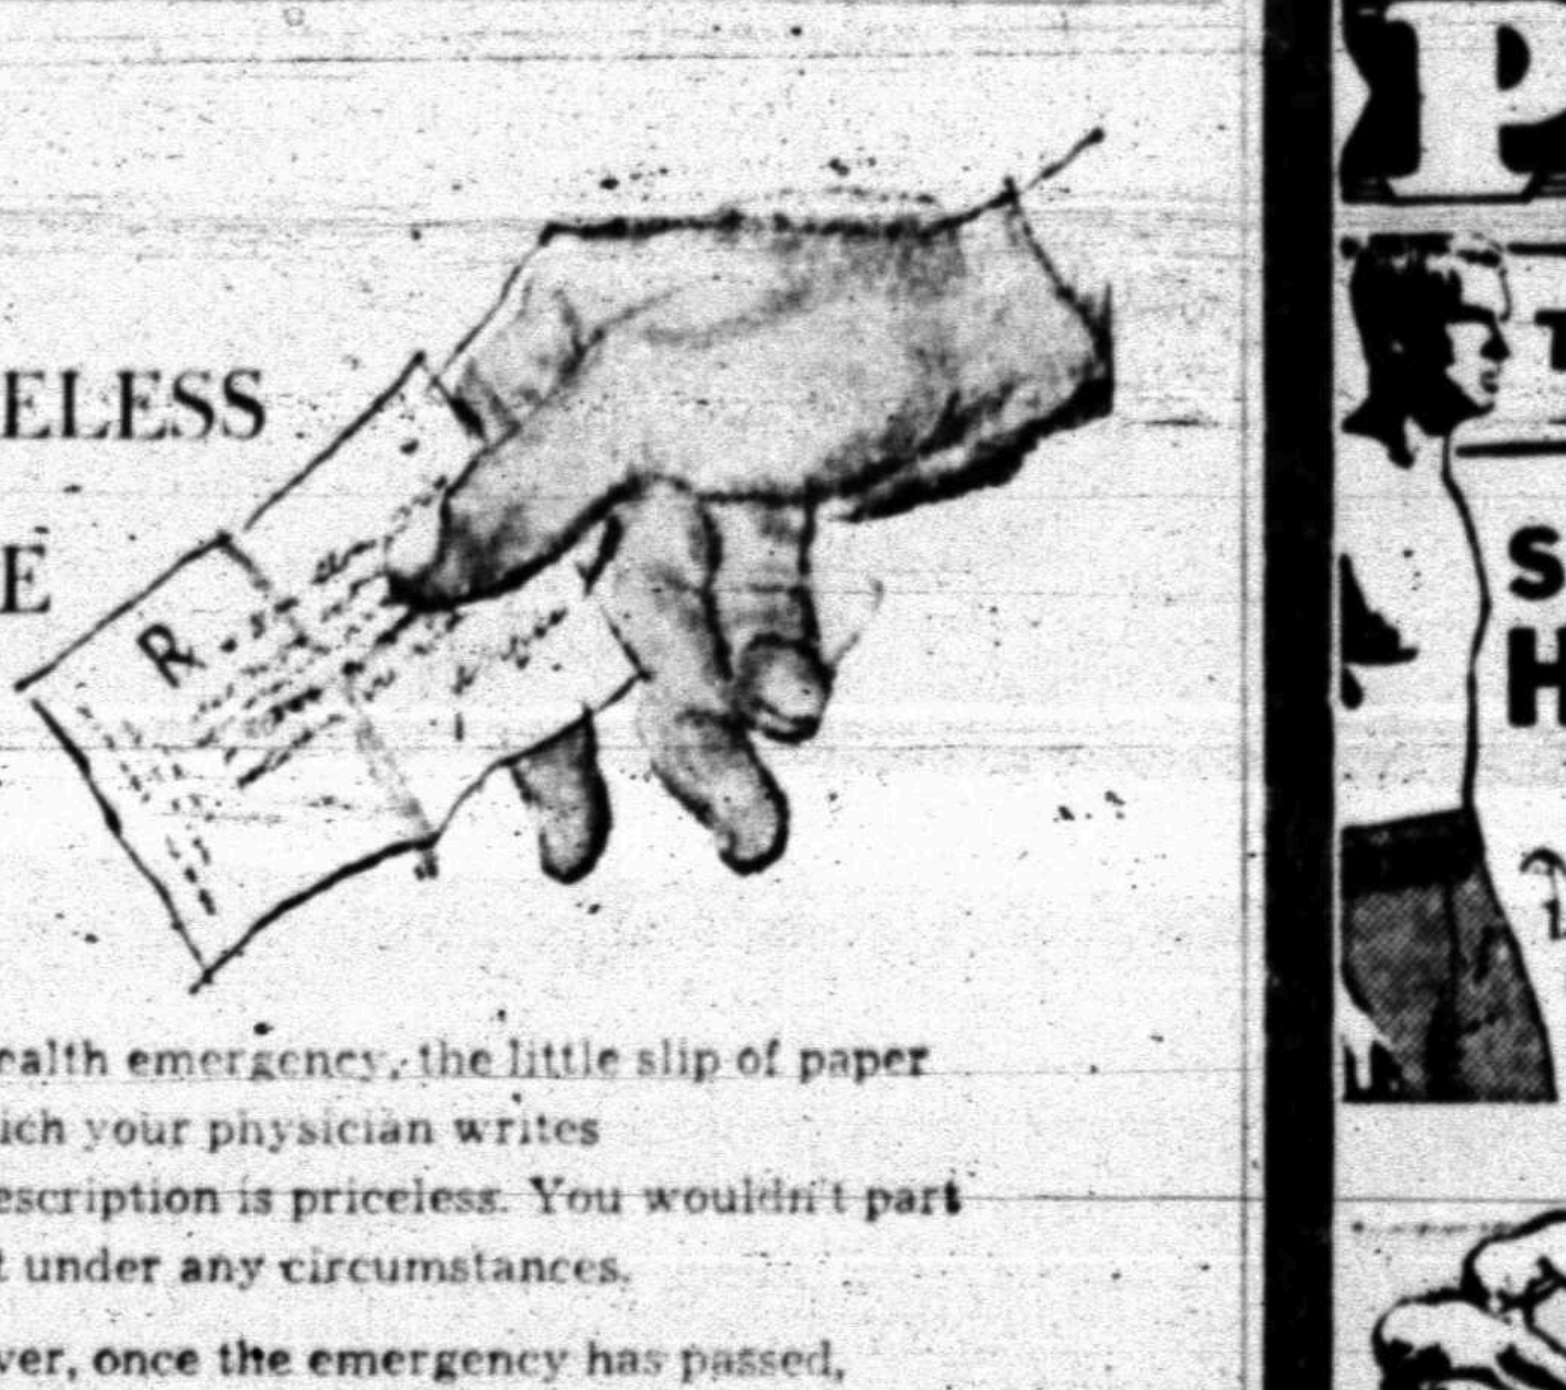
A PRICELESS RECIPE



In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

It's Easy To Dye New Bath Decor

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

IF YOU ARE BORED with your bathroom accessories, why not give them a dye bath right in the washing machine? It's been done successfully by many women, who say that it is a cinch if directions are followed.

You can dye everything from the shag rug to the plastic shower curtain, if the curtain is vinyl and sewed. If it is glued or heat sealed do not try to dye it.

Clear or white vinyl plastics can be tinted any shade except black or navy blue. Pastels can be tinted a darker or covering color. Patterns may change color if the background is clear or light, as usually only the background will take the tint bath.

You must start with an absolutely clean article when you are doing a dye job. Stains and dirt should be removed by washing the article with soap or detergent and rinsing it thoroughly. A nail brush is helpful in removing film that sometimes collects around the bottom hem.

Fill your laundry tub or washing machine with the hottest tap water available, add your dye solution, mix well by letting the machine run for a moment or so, then shut it off and immerse the shower curtain. Now run the machine for a few minutes or until the curtain gets to the desired color. Let the curtain go through the normal run of rinses, stopping it short of the big spin.

Bathroom shag rugs and seat covers may be dyed in the washing machine, also. Terry cloth towels that have faded may be refreshed in an all-purpose dye bath.

Names of those being honored with the life memberships are known only by the Life Membership Committee, and will be withheld until their presentation at the joint installation of officers May 7, at Central Elementary School.

Antheneum Club Hears Program On Cosmetology

The Antheneum Study Club met at Martha Ann Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Miller as hostess.

Mrs. Bill Zimmerman president, called the meeting to order, and gave a report on the District TFWC convention which she attended in Borger.

Mrs. Mel Zane Gilbert was in charge of the program and introduced Miss Mantha Landfried, who spoke on cosmetology. She said in part:

"Cosmetology is a big word and is an art which includes hair styling, make up and manicuring. Hair stylist create new and different hair styles. They take into consideration the type patron, profile and the direction the hair grows.

"Cosmetician, or a make-up artist is one who analyzes the skin and is able to select the correct make-up for the patron and give pointers on make-up. Health plays a very important part in beauty, after all beauty comes from within. Happiness also plays a big role in beauty. When you are happy, you feel good, look good and have a sparkle in your eye.

"Personality is important. Tolerance, interest in others and courtesy makes anyone a more charming person. Posture plays a great factor in a beautiful body. The posture can make or mar a figure, even a perfect one.

"The charming woman or person takes time to cultivate health, beauty, poise, good posture and good grooming — all this adds up to beauty loveliness and charm.

"The new look for 1959 is the Sweetheart coiffure. In make-up natural skin colors are back to give the sweet natural look."

In September of 1957 Miss Landfried went to Europe. Her trip was sponsored by Texas Cosmetologists. Her first stop was London, England. She and her group toured Windsor Castle, Buckingham Palace, Tower of London and there they saw the crown jewels and St. Pauls Cathedral. They visited the most famous beauty salon in London, "Raymonds". In Holland they toured the museum Royal Palace and by motor boat to Valendarm [illegible] island of Marken. There they visited a cheese factory where the famous Edam cheese is made.

In Germany they boarded a steamer for the beautiful trip on River Rhine. They visited beautiful Switzerland and in France they attended the Festival of Paris. The program of activities was under the sponsorship of the International Federation of Hair Styling.

In closing Miss Landfried's thought was her daily prayer, — "that I may grow old gracefully, beautifully, and creatively and come to maturity majestically that I may so fill my mind and soul with thoughts of God, that spiritual beauty may be my achievement though constant companionship with him."

The president extened a welcome to six new members, Mrs. Pat Brackeen, Mrs. T. M. Bray, Mrs. Jurden Brunken, Mrs. L. T. Vaughn, Mrs. Frank Taylor, and Mrs. Melvin Dozier.

The hostess served refreshments to twenty members and five guests.

Texas Tech Gives Data On Chrysanthemums

LUBBOCK — April — Gardeners on the South Plains with a penchant for chrysanthemums have a choice of some 20 varieties and seven colors suggested for West Texas this year by Texas Tech horticulturists.

Results of chrysanthemum trials on varieties furnished by Yoder Brothers of Barberton, Ohio, have been reported by Edward Zukauckas, assistant professor of horticulture.

"We have found the variety Resolute to have exceptional vigor and excellent color — a bright russet bronze," Zukauckas said. "Its high quality and good-sized flowers in mid-October make this variety a must for the average South Plains garden."

The trials also served to recommend Andante — a good quality, flesh-bronze flower that is moderately tall; Candytuft — a light lavender pink, well-shaped plant and Larry — a medium to large white flower, borne on relatively short plant.

Other general variety recommendations for 1959 include flowers in the following colors: White — Ostosa; Yellow — Astoria, Gold Lobe, Honeycomb, Bright Forecast and Sunstone; Bronze — Resolute, Huntsman, Andante and Toronto; Red — Remembrance; Pink — Allegro; Lavender and Purple — Fuchsia Fairy, Orchid Helen and Candytuft.

Large flowered exhibition types include White Pink Chief, Pink Chief, Major Bowes, Peggy Ann Hoover and Kathleen Storer.

Because many garden chrysanthemums have a tendency to overgrow when planted too early from cuttings or division, many gardeners want to know when is the latest possible date the garden mums may be pinched, Zukauckas said.

"Favorable growing conditions last year produced plants by the end of August that would be too tall for normal garden usage. Many of these plants were then sheared or cut back approximately one-half their height," he said.

Only a very slight delay in flowering resulted and the plant forms were not unattractive or affected by wind and rain, he said.

Some slight delay was evidenced in flowering, but his amounted to one or two days' delay in initial blossoming and a similar delay in peak bloom, the Tech horticulturist reported.

[illegible]old cutbacks or extremely woody on actively growing plants.

They tended to shear those plants that were mid-October blooming types, or later, and had narrow branching tendencies — plants or those showing much budding at this time, he advised. It would probably be desirable not to cut back later than Aug. 15-20.

Complete data on the Tech chrysanthemum trials and shearing practices are available from the Tech horticulture department.

Put odds and ends of cooked vegetables together so that you have about two cups; heat them in a cup of medium white sauce. Add a topping of grated cheddar cheese and place under the broiler until cheese melts and begins to turn golden brown.

OUR VIEW

Conflicting Defense Views

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE

In the wake of the meeting of the N.A.T.O. foreign ministers at which a highly encouraging show of unanimity and determination was exhibited, comes another flare-up of the continuing clamor for more defense forces.

Gen. Lauris Norstad, supreme commander, tells the nation that what he needs is the 30 divisions he has been promised.

Increasing his command from 21 1-3 divisions to 30 won't be easy. The general had just as well not look in this direction. Our five divisions in Europe are more than our share. They will be if the goal of 30 is reached.

The Germans are increasing their forces, but the French have not been pulling their weight for five years because they had to send so many divisions to North Africa. And the British have reduced their forces on the continent substantially.

As to air and long-range missile power — departments of defense in which this country necessarily supplies by far the greater part — recent statements are highly confusing. Several days ago it was testified that the United States has the capability of "destroying Russia many times over." Now it is learned that on Feb. 13 Gen. Thomas S. Power, commander of the Strategic Air Force, testified that we could "lose the deterrent posture tomorrow" unless he gets some more B-52s, B-58s, and Atlas I.C.B.M.s soon. Asked about that, Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff, said that in his opinion the strategic air forces are "adequate, but not excessive, at this time."

This backing and filling on defense needs keeps the nation upset. Americans want adequate defense but don't want to be propagandized. They get tired of hearing about Soviet submarines off our coasts every time a defense appropriation is before Congress. On the other hand they don't want to be given a picture that may be in fact too rosy, just because the N.A.T.O. council is about to hold a meeting and we want to make our allies happy.

Incidentally, while it is heartening to see that the alliance is determined "to maintain the freedom of the people of West Berlin," it is annoying to see little Iceland again vetoing membership for Spain, whose adherence to the pact could strengthen it greatly.

Castro's Career Similar To Nasser

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Some striking parallels between the two careers and personalities might well make one wonder: Is Fidel Castro a sort of Nasser of the Antilles?

The question is likely to occur to many who have the opportunity to see and hear the Cuban revolutionary leader on his current visit to the United States.

To suggest this casts no aspersion on the man who toppled an entrenched Latin American dictatorship against almost impossible odds. Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser, like Castro, is, to say the least, a remarkable man.

The following is true both of Cuba and Egypt. Before the revolution, the country was in the grip of a corrupt and often brutal regime. The revolution's victory was welcomed by a great preponderance of the thinking people in the Western world. It was considered a hopeful development, a chance that the lowly citizens so long abused and neglected at last could look forward to a decent break.

Like Nasser's, Castro's postrevolution approach to his monumental problems sometimes has seemed more emotional than practical. Indeed, even in his mannerisms, his gestures, his way of rolling his eyes heavenward, his eloquence and his personal charm, Castro inevitably reminds one strongly of Nasser.

Even Castro's stoutest supporters in the United States will admit he has a Nasser-like inclination to pout if the slightest doubt is cast upon his pronouncements or intentions.

Like Nasser, Castro came to power as a young man — very young for the job of coping with the vast complexities inherited from the corrupt old regime. As in Nasser's case, there is a suggestion of political immaturity in Castro's approach.

Castro even has sounded like Nasser when he spoke loudly of neutralism in world affairs and of the "United States imperialists" whom he accused of profiting in his country at the expense of the population. Like Nasser, Castro even has hinted that if the United States annoys him sufficiently, he knows where to turn.

Nasser was not satisfied to develop his own revolution. He diverted and halted its more hopeful programs for the sake of interfering in the affairs of other Arab countries. He seemed to picture himself the liberator of a great area, much of which did not particularly want to be liberated.

It is to be hoped Castro will want to develop his own revolution. It has a great deal of promise. It may be interrupted, perhaps set back many years if he chooses to encourage Cuban adventuring in the Caribbean and elsewhere in Latin America for the purpose of "liberating" areas which may not long for his own particular brand of liberation.

Dulles Encountered Series Of Crises

WASHINGTON (AP) — When John Foster Dulles took office as secretary of state six years ago his avowed purpose was to "wrest the initiative" from the Soviet Union and put the United States and its allies on the offensive in the cold war. He never succeeded in achieving this major objective.

Soon after he was sworn in, he found himself caught up in a tide of crises that ran throughout his crowded years in the State Department. His major contributions to the development of U.S. foreign policy have been, with few exceptions, on the defensive side of cold war strategy.

Foremost among his accomplishments perhaps is the vast expansion he engineered in United States alliances and military commitments over the world. He inherited the North Atlantic Alliance, which he hoped to create, from his predecessor, Dean Acheson. But building on the coalition pattern thus established, he extended U.S. commitments in the Far East, Communist Asia and the Middle East to such a degree that Soviet-Chinese communism can hardly thrust out in any direction now without risking U.S. retaliation.

In the course of making the new commitments Dulles developed a technique which solved a difficult problem in the conduct of U.S. foreign policy.

By getting advance authority from Congress he eliminated a potential weakness which, in a moment of crisis, might have prevented the President from taking effective action.

Such a crisis arose last year when revolution overthrew the pro-Western government of Iraq. Dulles and Eisenhower feared that other friendly regimes would topple like a row of blocks, beginning with Lebanon and Jordan. Against threats of Soviet counteraction the President dispatched U.S. troops to Lebanon and British forces went into Jordan to save falling into unfriendly hands.

The Lebanese action was another in a long list of moves dramatized under Dulles' policy of brinkmanship which has been bitterly controversial.

Dulles was in international hot water for a time last year with his insistence on supporting Nationalist China in its defense of the Chinese coastal islands, Quemoy and Matsu, against Red attack. Britain was especially fearful that Dulles might lead the United States into an unwanted war in the Far East. He was confident, however, that if American determination was clear to the Chinese Reds they would not attempt to invade the islands. In the end his judgment seemed to be borne out by their failure to press their campaign.

To him, in this as in other crises, the important thing has not been the real estate involved but the principle that it is dangerous to try to buy peace by yielding to the threats of a potential aggressor.

His theory of brinkmanship holds that it is necessary for the United States again and again to face up to a Communist challenge in some vulnerable area of the non-Communist world and to go to the brink of war to defend a free country against conquest.

In 1956 Dulles found himself faced with perhaps the worst and most dangerous crisis of his State Department years. It involved the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egypt.

The British and French governments then in power grew tired of what they considered his defeatist attitude on the Suez issue. They attacked Egypt after an attack by Israel.

Dulles was caught in the dreadful dilemma, as he saw it, of having to back this country's chief allies in an adventure of which he thoroughly disapproved or having to denounce their action and see the Atlantic coalition split wide open.

He chose the latter course and was immediately put into the unenviable position of siding with the Soviet Union in the United Nations against Britian and France.

Sad Time At End Of Kindergarten

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The hour of tragedy has come.

The moment of eternal separation is at hand.

It is the last day of kindergarten. We are at a final tumultuous meeting. Some of our parents are there and they nervously show each other some of the prize drawings we have made.

The best drawing shows a wavery white lamb against an eternally waving green pasture. The outline of the lamb is hysterical. The acclaim is hysterical.

All the grownups are hysterically confident nobody else in history ever drew a lamb so well before.

It is a nervous moment of class acclaim. Then Mrs. Steele, the teacher, sits down at the piano and begins to play.

The notes she strikes induce a welcome and familiar group hypnosis. Each child becomes a rampant example of true culture afoot.

Like slow, methodical horses each child begins to prance around the room in time with the tune.

You are exhilarated. The melody grows wilder.

Dew sprinkles Mrs. Steele's spectales as she pounds the piano harder. The pace grows faster.

This is the class united together for the last time. The parents are forgotten in the magic of Mrs. Steele's music.

You are going around in a circle at full gallop. No child in kindergarten history has galloped quite so well.

This moment is immortal. Mrs. Steele is nodding her head vigorously.

You are swept by a sense of power. Mrs. Steele has never yet had a horse in kindergarten who can gallop quite like you.

You feel your feet flinging clear in a freedom you never have enjoyed before.

Then suddenly Mrs. Steele begins to slow down the pace of her music, and the dancing kindergarten children slow down too.

But you know in your heart you galloped in a classic way, and Mrs. Steele will never again have a student who danced it so boldly and well.

Goodby kindergarten. Hello first grade!

Gout May Signal Great Intellect

By FRANK CAREY

Associated Press Science Writer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Take heart, all you sufferers from gout: there's new scientific evidence that your affliction may be a hallmark of intellectual greatness.

Two government researchers came up today with a report of laboratory evidence—culled from tests of American soldiers — suggesting that gout might be associated with higher than normal intelligence.

Dr. Dewitt Stetten Jr. and Dr. John Hearson, of the National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases, told a scientific meeting here that their research was an attempt to confirm this impression long held by various scientists.

Scientifically, gout is associated with increased amounts of uric acid in the blood and with periodic attacks of extreme pain and swelling in one of the joints of the body, often in the feet.

The research project described today to the closing session of the 43rd annual meeting of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology ran this way:

The scientists measured the uric acid concentrations of blood samples which had been routinely taken from a group of 817 successive inductees at Ft. Dix, N.J. Then they obtained the scores achieved by the same men on the Army Classification Battery (ACB)—a group of tests designed to measure general intelligence as well as special aptitudes of interest to the armed forces.

The upshot:

There was a "small but definite correlation" between the scores achieved on the intelligence test and the concentration of uric acid in the blood. That is, the higher the uric acid, the more likely it was that the individual had achieved a higher-than-normal score on the ACB.

The researchers said there were two alternative conclusions that could be drawn:

1. That increased amounts of uric acid in the blood tend to promote intelligence, or

2. That successful people are prone to eat a diet richer than usual in certain chemicals that are uric acid producers.

The latter alternative, of course, would rule out intellectual functioning as regards gout.

But the scientists appeared to be placing their bets on the first alternative.

Bartok Ends Her Romance With Prince

LONDON (AP) — Eva Bartok says her romance with Indian Prince Shiv is over and she wants him to go home to his dad, the Maharaja of Palitana.

The four-times-married movie actress announced the end of their affair in two brisk telegrams.

One went to the 27-year-old playboy Hindu prince telling him: "Marriage impossible . . . Must concentrate on work . . . God bless you."

The other went to the maharaja who opposed his son's romance. She told him she had "begged Shiv return India not wishing come between you. Also other reasons. Please try to keep him there."

A month ago the prince told newsmen he intended to marry the Hungarian-born actress "and I don't care what my father thinks of it."

Eva said she last saw the prince in Rome three weeks ago.

"The reasons for our breakup only concern him really," she said. "I don't want to talk about them."

She took up with the handsome young prince last year after the breakup of her longtime romance with Marquess of Milford-Haven, who was best man at the wedding of his cousin, Prince Philip, to Queen Elizabeth II.

FFA Team In Contest

A team representing the Snyder High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America was to be in Brownfield this afternoon to compete in the area FFA land judging contest.

Going to the contest from Snyder were four chapter members, Jack Kea, Billy Tarter, Richard Smith, and Ronnie McNabb, all high school juniors, and their teacher-coach, Jake Greene.

There are more than 100 chapters in the area, and each is eligible to enter the contest.

In the land judging contest, the teams classify land according to wind erosion, permeability, texture, and capabilities.

Winning team in the area contest will be sent to the state contest at John Tarleton State College, Stephenville, next week. The state contest winner will go to the national contest in Oklahoma City in May.

Plants Sold By FFA Boys

The Snyder chapter of the Future Farmers of America will again sell tomato plants this year, according to Jake Greene, head of the Snyder High School agriculture department.

Greene said the department has the plants available at the greenhouse, which is located at the high school shop building.

Included in those being sold by the chapter are Porter, improved Porter, Rutgers, Texo No. 2 Hybrid, Homestead, and Pink Ponderosa beefsteak tomato plants.

Thousands of the plants are available at 25 cents per dozen, Greene said.

Greene asked that persons desiring the plants get them between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. on schooldays.

The chapter also has some pansies available at five cents each.

The tomato plant sale is held by the chapter to raise funds for its annual awards barbecue, held in May. Last year the chapter raised $130 in the sale.

Two Teachers Off To Convention

Two Snyder teachers, officers of the Snyder Classroom Teachers Association, were to leave this afternoon for Dallas to attend the annual meeting of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association.

They are Jiggs Falls, high school industrial arts teacher who is president of the local CTA, and Roger Gee, public school music teacher at Central Elementary School, who is president-elect for the 1959-60 school year.

At the Dallas meeting there will be an election of state officers, reports on the year's work, and resolutions adopted for the coming year.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough will be main speaker at the convention.

English Teachers Attend Conference

Two teachers from the Snyder schools will be among more than 200 English teachers from high schools, junior highs and colleges at the fourth annual conference of English teachers at the University of Texas today and tomorrow.

They are Virgil Joines, high school English teacher, and Bill Grimes, who teaches at the junior high.

Conference topic will be "The English Curriculum Recommended by the English Language Arts Commission." A 22-member commission appointed by the Texas Education Agency has spent more than a year studying ways to improve English teaching in the public schools.

Grimes will be one of recorders at the conference.

Three commission members were to speak today. Dr. F. L. Elder, Tyler Public Schools curriculum director, was to discuss "Reading in the Curriculum." S. E. Clark, Schulenburg High School English and journalism teacher, "Composition in the Curriculum," and Miss Gertrude Golladay, Polytechnic High School, Fort Worth, English teacher, "Mechanics, Usage and Grammar in the Curriculum."

Dr. J. Alton Burdine, University of Texas College of Arts and Sciences dean, was to welcome the teachers. Dr. J. W. Edgar, Texas education commissioner, was to explain "The Nature of the English Language Arts Commission."

"Implications of the Curriculum for the Classroom Teacher" will be discussed tonight by Miss Dorothy Davidson, Texas Education Agency curriculum development consultant.

Six discussion groups will meet Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon. Serving as chairmen will be Miss Agusta Bradley, Port Arthur, Miss Virginia Cutter, Austin; Mrs. Mary Wood Dawson, Waco; James Willis Posey, Abilene; Miss Betty Swogetinsky, Katy, and Dr. Grace E. Wilson, Dallas.

Serving as recorders will be Miss Nina Berkman, Round Rock; Bill Grimes, Snyder; Mrs. Katherine Gibson, Austin; Mrs. Ruth Reeves, Houston; Toby Rigby, Austin, and Marcus Twitty, Rockdale.

Hiett, Division of Extension associate dean; Mrs. Mary Bell James, assistant professor of curriculum and instruction, and Dr. W.O.S. Sutherland, associate professor of English.

Marching Feet Are Provided For Band

CHEBOYGAN, Mich. (AP)—The marching feet spectators hear when the Cheboygan High School band goes by aren't feet at all. Lee J. Uldrych, band director, has devised a machine which adds the sound of marching feet in the percussion section. It has 80 graduated pegs mounted on a sounding board and topped by a strip of leather.

Familiar Sayings Prompt Research

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Is a cucumber really cool? Does anyone actually get warm as toast? Are a redhead's lips as hot as song and fable tell us?

To find the answers to such questions a test-engineering team, with a newsman's help, applied scientific know-how to many a familiar saying and analogy.

It was done with devices for taking temperatures in all sorts of places.

Put to serious purposes, the tester is a boon to business and industry. It was developed by Leeds and Northrup Co., makers of electrical goods.

Tests showed a cucumber was anything but cool as the old saw suggests. Inside it tested at 68.9 degrees, its skin 71.6.

Nobody could be as warm as toast is at first — 167 degrees. Within a few minutes, the temperature drops to 78 or 79, but veteran countermen say that isn't what's meant by warm toast.

Ever wonder just how hot that news is rolling fresh and fragrant off the presses? Typical front page temperature was 82. This was 8 to 10 degrees above room temperature.

As for a redhead's lips, a sampling taken outdoors on a mild day fluttered to only 92 degrees. The cold shoulder that a model gave was 95.7, identical with the collar temperature of a taxi driver before he headed into traffic in a congested area. After about a half hour's driving, the cabbie was only slightly hot under the collar. His steam had gone to 95.9.

The hottest jazz that a radio station could play was somewhat less than a scorching 85. A cold chisel tested in an unheated hardware store was 74.3, a bit less than a degree warmer than straight vodka taken in a bar where the mercury averaged 76.

The hottest mustard going was 68, exactly what it was in a suburban cooler, or jail. A green pepper served as a relish was 67.1; a red one 68.9, evidently proving that red does attract and hold heat more than other colors except black. Both had been in the same place for the same time.

Demeter Filling In Nobly For Snider

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers have been a long time waiting on Don Demeter, a scrawny kid they didn't really want in the first place. Now it looks as if their patience had paid off.

Still a rather frail-looking guy although the Dodgers have fattened him up with liver oil and vitamins, Demeter, 23, has been a robust fill-in for the ailing Duke Snider in center field. With Duke nursing a knee, Demeter has figured in all three Los Angeles victories.

He did it again Thursday night, socking a two-run homer, a single and a fifth-inning double that brought home the winning run in a 7-6 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals at Los Angeles.

"We signed him," Dodger veep Fresco Thompson admits, "because we wanted two other kids. They were all buddies at an Oklahoma City high school back in 1952 and when we signed the two we wanted (I don't know exactly where they are now), they said couldn't we sign their buddy too?

"So the scout gave him $600 or something like that and that's how we got Demeter."

The Dodgers also have a share of fourth place at the moment in the National League, 1½ games behind Milwaukee's still undefeated first-place Braves, who beat Philadelphia 7-3. The Chicago Cubs, who share fourth, whipped San Francisco 11-3. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were idle.

Johnny Klippstein, third Dodger pitcher, was the winner with Clem Labine's help in a two-run ninth.

Lew Burdette gained his second victory and complete game with a six-hitter for the Braves, who won with four runs in the eighth off losing reliever Jack Meyer (0-1).

Five Giant errors, for a total of 17 in six games, gave the Cubs six unearned runs, five coming as they scored seven in the ninth. Dale Long's two-run homer was the clincher in the fifth off loser Sam Jones (1-1). Glen Hobbie (1-0) won it with relief help.

Yanks Finally Bow As Birds Win 1st

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

At 33, Ned Garver is perhaps the American League's No. 1 junkman, dealing in soft curves and brass. He makes the most of his nothing against the Chicago White Sox.

The stubby right-hander has a 116-133 record in 11 seasons of pitching for second division clubs. The White Sox have been tagged for 24 of those victories, the most Garver has taken from any club.

He got the latest Thursday, a five-hit shutout that included but one walk, as the Kansas City Athletics handed the White Sox second straight defeat 6-0.

The New York Yankees finally fell, losing 7-4 to Baltimore, which got its first victory. Washington whipped Boston 7-5. Cleveland and Detroit were idle.

Garver gave up nothing but singles and breezed home for the first complete game by the A's staff this season. He was helped along by two-run homers from Frank House and Bob Cerv off Early Wynn (1-1).

The Orioles broke through against the Yankees with a four-run eighth inning capped by Billy Gardner's bases-loaded triple. Starter Art Ditmar was the loser, but it was Ryne Duren, the champs' fire-balling relief ace, who gave up a tying single by Gene Woodling ahead of Gardner's clincher. Billy O'Dell won it.

Right-hander Pete Ramos beat the Red Sox although giving up 10 hits and weathering a three-run ninth. Rookie Bob Allison's first major league homer, a three-run swat, and Norm Zauchin's second of the year gave the Nats a four-run fourth inning against loser Herb Moford. It was Reno Bertoia's two-run single in the eighth that put it away, however.

Junior High Track Finals Here Tonight

The 4th annual Snyder Junior High Invitational track meet got underway this afternoon with finals slated for tonight.

Preliminaries began at 2 p.m. with the finals slated for 7 p.m. Both preliminaries and finals in all field events were to be held this afternoon while the finals in all running events will be held tonight.

Defending champions in all three divisions, Sweetwater in the 7th grade, Edison of San Angelo in the 8th grade and host Snyder in the 9th grade, are in the field.

The Snyder 9th graders, however, are heavily riddled with injuries and illness and their chances of repeating are rather slim.

Four of the mainstays on the Snyder 9th grade team are ailing. Mike Morris, who won the 50-yard dash and broad jump in the 3-AAA meet last week and ran on the winning 440-yard relay team has a pulled leg muscle. David Gan, another member of the 440-yard relay team, has a bad back. Joshua John, still another member of the sprint relay team and a dashman, has a pulled leg muscle, and Ronnie Merritt, weightman, is out with pneumonia.

San Angelo Edison will be favored in the 9th grade division, Sweetwater in the 8th grade and North Abilene in the 7th grade.

There will be no admission charge for the meet.

Following are the Snyder entries:

Tigers Host Abilene In Twinbill Tomorrow

An old baseball rivalry will be renewed here tomorrow afternoon when the Tigers and Abilene Eagles clash in a doubleheader at Towle Park.

First game of the twinbill will begin at 1 p.m. with the second game to follow immediately. The starting time of the first game had been previously announced as 2 p.m. but was moved up an hour at the request of Abilene.

Tim Roberts, sporting a 3-2 record for the season, will open on the mound in the first game for the Tigers with Norman Gladson, 4-3 scheduled to hurl the nightcap.

The Tigers and Eagles have met once previously this season, the Eagles winning 8-0 at Abilene March 17.

Tomorrow's doubleheader will be the first home twinbill for the Tigers this season. The Bengals have played two other bargain bills, splitting with Tom S. at Lubbock and sweeping both ends of a twinner at Big Spring.

Both the Tigers and Eagles have played San Angelo this week with the Warbirds bowing to the Bobcats, 10-9, Tuesday and the Tigers then tripping the Angeloans the following day, 10-5.

In another game this week, the Tigers dropped a 12-5 decision to the Midland Bulldogs.

The Tiger season record now stands at 7-7 while the Eagles are sporting a 12-4 mark. The Eagles, after winning 11 of 13 starts in pre-conference play, have dropped two of three decisions in 2-AAAA competition.

Saturday's twinbill will be the final warmup for the Tigers prior to the opening of their District 3-AAA schedule. The Tigers will go to Colorado City next Tuesday to open their 3-AAA slate.

Kenny Drake leads the Tigers at the plate with a .304 average. Kenny has banged out 14 hits in 46 trips. He also leads the Tigers in runs-batted-in with 13.

Shortstop Charles Harrison leads the Eagles offensively with a .420 average, coming on 21 hits in 50 trips. Harrison also has hit two of the three homers slammed by Abilene this season and he leads the Eagles in RBI's with 18.

Following are the probable starting lineups for the Eagles and Tigers tomorrow with batting averages:

By The Associated Press

St. Paul's Robert Dolan belted five hits in five at-bats, including a two-run homer, as the Saints whipped Dallas 10-0 Thursday night in a game played in light but steady rain.

Dolan accounted for five runs. His efforts pushed St. Paul 1½ games ahead of Dallas in the eastern division of the American Assn.

Tiger Tracksters To Hobbs, N.M.

The Tiger tracksters, fresh from winning their third straight District 3-AAA title, journey to Hobbs, N. M. tomorrow for the annual Hobbs Relays.

Coach Jim Stehley will carry 13 Tigers to the New Mexico meet. The Tigers have been established a slight favorite to capture the title with the host Hobbs Eagles and the Carlsbad Cavemen expected to offer the stiffest opposition to the invading Texans.

Snyder is one of two Texas schools entered in the meet. Lamesa is the other Lone Star State entry.

The Tigers will rely heavily on the hurdles, sprints, 440-yard relay and the shot put and high jump and discus for points in the meet.

Hobbs is extremely strong in the sprints featuring a Negro speedster, Bradford Murphy. Murphy holds the Hobbs Relay record in the 100 at 9.9. The Tigers' Jesse Crawford sped the century in 9.9 to win in the 3-AAA meet last week.

Stanley Woolever will be favored to win both hurdle events. Stehley plans to pull Crawford out of the lows which he won in the district meet last week to have him available for the 880 and 440 relays and the 100.

Preliminaries will commence at 1 p.m. tomorrow with the finals slated for 7 p.m.

Following are the probable Tiger entries in the Hobbs meet:

120-yard high hurdles — Stanley Woolever, Wayne Berry.

100-yard dash — Jesse Crawford.

440-yard dash — Alex Cross.

180-yard low hurdles — Woolever, Berry, Perry Culwell.

440-yard relay — Jimmy Maroney, Richard Mahan, Crawford, Larry Patterson.

220-yard dash — Maroney, Weaver.

Mile relay — Patterson, Bill Dubose, Berry, Cross.

High jump — Dubose, Mahan, Gene Roe.

Broad jump — Crawford, Maroney, Patterson.

Pole vault — Culwell.

Shot put — Mickey McGrew, Tommy Minton, Roe.

Discus — Ronnie Giles, Minton, Roe.

Javelin — Weaver, Mahan, Berry.

880-yard relay — Maroney, Mahan, Crawford, Woolever.

Children In Good Health

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Actor Sterling Hayden's four children are in excellent condition at Papeete, Tahiti, reports Dr. James Galvey, 28, medical officer of the Hayden schooner Wanderer.

Dr. Galvey appeared in Marin County Superior Court Thursday to answer charges of child stealing which Hayden's ex-wife Betty De Noon Hayden filed against the entire crew after Hayden sailed the Wanderer to Tahiti in defiance of a court order.

Dr. Garvey told Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich he was not aware of the court order when the Wanderer sailed from nearby Sausalito.

The charges against him were dismissed.

Plants collected will be identified by the students, who are members of a plant taxonomy class, and will ultimately be placed in the research herbarium of the Tech biology department for permanent reference material.

Manufacturing In Scurry Increases

Scurry County has had the biggest percentage increase in manufacturing employment in a wide West Texas area during the past eight years.

Figures released by the San Angelo district office of the Texas Employment Commission show that in the 33 counties in that district, Snyder has led in percentage gain in manufacturing employment with an increase of 280.1 per cent from 1950 to 1958.

There were 171 manufacturing employes in Scurry County in 1950, the TEC said, while it rose to 700 in 1956 and stood at 650 in 1958.

Scurry County's estimated manufacturing income during 1958, the figures covering only employers of four or more persons, was estimated at $183,309. Scurry ranks 12th among the 33 counties in manufacturing income. Leading county in that category was Taylor with $11,242,301, followed by Ector with $10,125,420. Among other top-ranking counties in manufacturing income were Tom Green with $7,203,772, Howard with $6,263,674, Nolan with $4,140,669, and Midland with $3,476,297.

Ranking behind Scurry in percentage gain in employes were Runnels County with 117.8 per cent, Martin with 150, Ector with 135.3, Crane with 109.3, McCulloch with 102.8, Winkler with 80.3, and Tom Green with 77.5.

The 33-county district showed a gain of 63.6 per cent in manufacturing employment during the eight-year period, jumping from 9,904 employes in 1950 to 16,200 in 1958.

The manufacturing income for the area was estimated at $50,924,644.

First Punch Is Important

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — A retired Air Force general says America [illegible] the enemy land the first punch in an atomic war.

Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker (ret.) told a United Service Organization awards dinner: "In the days of chivalry, it was all right to allow the adversary to strike his opponent across the face with his glove as a challenge to combat. I suspect, however, that such a custom never would have been popular if the glove knocked the knight's head off."

Eaker said he hopes the nation's retaliation policy includes launching our Strategic Air Force when Russian intent becomes clearly offensive, but before their nuclear bombs are launched and headed our way. The best, the safest place to destroy enemy atomic bomb carriers is on enemy bases before they are launched.

CALLED TO PREACH

(Question) "Do you believe in a divine call to Preach?"

(Answer) I believe that anything God does is divine yet they are not always connected with a miracle. How can a man affirm that the days of miraculous events have ceased and then allege that he received a miraculous call to preach? I do not believe that preachers are called today by some miraculous manifestation akin to the light and voice in Saul's conversion and call. Remember, Paul was called to be an apostle and miraculous events were essential to such. He was born out of due season, yet, when a gifted and devout man like Timothy has an earnest yearning in his heart for telling the old, old story that people may be turned to Christ—no higher call can be found. I am aware that the "effectual call" as told today by multitudes of preachers are exaggerated beyond comprehension. God does not call into his ministry those of a rebellious spirit. He called Moses, who felt his inability, but he did want to do God's will. He called Paul, who was a persecutor of Christians. Yet, he did it ignorantly in unbelief. It was zeal and love for God that Saul became a threat to the truth. He learned the truth however and quickly embraced it when he saw and heard. Let a man who loves God's word and has a passion for lost souls not wait for some miraculous event to take place in his life, but let him begin today to tell others of His saving grace. Many obsessed with a false idea; yet honest, never preached because their "call" never came according to some extradinary manner. Believing that the church would not be satisfied with their efforts, they died believing the Lord wouldn't either. Let us hear the Bible: "Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 Thess. 2:14)

"Never Man Spake

...like this Man." John 7:46. Jobe suffered tribulation but he never lost faith. He asked a great question, "If a man die, shall he live again?" The Bible is full of proof in the affirmative. Death must give way to life. In deepest reality there is no death, only transition... the changing from one form of life to another. Spring is the time when Christ arose. Spring is the earth beginning again. It is the time of challenge to women and men to step up their church attendance and support record. It is the time when God called the sun to send her warm rays to awaken the dead earth, to summon new beauty to come forth and cover her brow. It is certainly the time when man puts on new graces of the spirit...love, joy, peace, patience, faith and self-control. Here we hear Him as He welcomes all to a new life in Him...to a new resurrection.
