City applies for $300,000 grant

The Colorado City Council Thursday agreed to apply for a $300,000 Texas Community Development Program grant with which to construct a 16-inch water line on Cherry Street from 2nd to 17th streets.

In addition, the council agreed to pledge $46,000 in local funds and in-kind services in order to put the city "in the running" with other cities applying for the same grant funds.

Gary Smith of Ahlens, grant consultant, explained that the maximum amount for which to apply this year is $300,000 and that cities are graded on a point system to determine which applications are approved. He said titles that use local funds over $45,000 get an extra 100 points. He said the local funds can be a combination of in-kind services, equipment and cash.

The council voted to spend $23,000 in cash and $23,000 in in-kind services. The city applied for the same grant last year except in the amount of $400,000, but was turned down.

Council members agreed that the new water line is needed.

"We've got the water, we just need a better distribution system," said Don Webb.

In other business, the council approved a request from Marion Baasham to use some of the furnishings from the Colorado

City Museum in the Heritage House which she is restoring as a sesquicentennial project.

Mrs. Baasham said the house, located on Chestnut Street, is being renovated and is nearing completion. She said furnishings from the early 1900s is needed.

She said the museum has furniture from that era and the Heritage House "would show off the furniture in a proper atmosphere."

Mrs. Baasham said the house will be open to the public free of charge and that a meeting room will be available at a nominal cost for club meetings.

She said she plans to give the house to the city following the sesquicentennial year. The house was built in 1933.

Mayor Elmer Martin said a committee will be appointed to help select the furnishings needed for the house.

No action was taken on a proposed new animal control ordinance until the council members can meet in workshop session with the city attorney, Pete McKinney, Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The council has been studying a proposed new ordinance for several weeks, but members are divided on portions of the proposal.

Dee Hearn said that non-domestic animals being kept as pets is not addressed at all in the ordinance.

She also took issue with Tom Lovell about the wording of one clause concerning the ability of the animal control warden to enter private property to pick up an animal.

Lovell says he thinks the clause should read "vicious" animal because he doesn't believe the animal warden should have the right to enter private property without the owner's consent unless it's an emergency such as trying to capture a vicious animal.

Mrs. Hearn and Webb said

THE NEW swimming pool at Ruddick Park was filled with water Thursday in anticipation of the pool's opening July 4th. City officials say the pool and the wading pool are complete, but that a fence needs to be constructed and the old bath house finished before the pool can be opened to the public. The new pool was financed with a $125,000 matching grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission. Other park improvements are also planned.

Pair jailed on robbery charge

Two men were jailed on charges of aggravated robbery Friday following their arrest early Tuesday morning.

Colorado City Police Chief Bobby Sparks said the pair was arrested following a robbery attempt at Sav-M, a convenience store located at Hickory and 12th streets.

According to police reports, a clerk at the store said the pair entered the store about 12:10 a.m. Tuesday. While one suspect was at a video game, the other suspect placed a sharp object into the clerk's side and demanded her car keys, purse and money.

The clerk managed to run out the front door. A Mitchell County sheriff's Department patrol car, occupied by deputy Tony Pantoja and constable Jerry Hammond, was stopped at the intersection and responded to the clerk's cries for help.

The law officers radioed for police backup before entering the store and arrested the pair of suspects.

Arrested were James Earl Tuthill, 34, and a 23-year-old man whose identity is unknown. Both listed their addresses as the Come as You Are Mission at Third and Elmer streets. Sparks said the younger man has given a number of aliases, but officials still aren't sure of his real name.

Bond was set at $10,000 on each man. They remain jailed in Mitchell County Jail.

Sparks said a piece of broken glass was the apparent weapon used in the robbery.

Officers Billy Ray Williamson and Jerry Rutherford assisted in the case.

Activities to offer old-fashioned 4th

Mitchell County residents can enjoy an old-fashioned Fourth of July this year on July 5, thanks to the Colorado City volunteer Fire Department.

The fire department is again sponsoring its fireworks display, but this year it will be on July 5 and in Ruddick Park instead of at the football stadium.

The fireworks display is set to begin after dark on Saturday.

However, prior to the fireworks, the firemen will be selling hot dogs, soft drinks and snacks in the park beginning at 1 p.m.

"We hope everyone will come out and enjoy a day in the park," said Fire Chief Jerry Hammond.

Park visitors will also have a chance to use the new swimming pool at the park this holiday weekend. The new pool, built with donations and a state grant, is scheduled to open Friday, July 4.

Also on Friday, the annual Colorado City Fly-In is scheduled at the Northwest Jet Strip Airport. The event will begin with a tree breakfast to all fly-ins starting at 7 a.m.

Featured at the fly-in will be antique, homebuilt and World War II-era airplanes, said J. O. Dockrey, chairman. Awards will be given for the longest distance, oldest airplane and the most unusual airplane.

Dockrey said it is hoped to have ultra-light and parachute jump demonstrations at the Fly-In as well.

Sell-out performances cited Play held over

"Colorado Goes West," the sesquicentennial production of the Colorado City Playhouse, has been held over for two more nights because of sell-out performances.

Saturday had originally been scheduled as the last performance night, but the production will be presented again Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Opera House, 327 Walnut. The box office will be open from 1 p.m. each day until curtain time.

Call 726-3483 for reservations. Tickets are $5 each.

Written by Jim Baum and directed by Baum and Carl Moore, the production is based on the history of Mitchell County and features re-enactments of historical scenes. Some of the re-enactments include the first sermon, the gunfights, city council meeting, black history, courtroom trial, prohibition and reincorporation.

Slides of historical photos are also shown.

that they think the animal control warden should have the right to enter private property without property owner's consent if the animal control warden feels it is necessary.

In final business, the council was informed that it will cost about $6,000 to have the two overhead storage water towers repaired. The large tower needs to be repainted inside and the smaller tower needs to have work done on the roof since there are only four bolts holding the roof, City Manager Brenda Tarter said.

Both towers were inspected this past week and the large tower has been drained in order to be repainted inside.

Extradition awaited following arrest

Ifrain Molina, 30, is awaiting extradition from Surprise, Ariz., after his arrest there Tuesday on four Mitchell County warrants for delivery of a controlled substance and on four warrants for bail jumping.

Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant said that Molina was arrested by Surprise police officers with information obtained from the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department.

Molina was indicted in 1985 for delivery of a controlled substance. He was indicted during the last grand jury session for bail jumping.

Man, five more arrested

A 43-year-old man remains in Mitchell County Jail under a $7,500 bond after he was arrested Tuesday on a 1983 warrant for delivery of marijuana.

In addition, five other persons were arrested for hindering apprehension, said Mitchell County Sheriff Wendell Bryant.

Bryant said Simon Medrano was arrested about 5:35 p.m. Tuesday at a residence at 17th and Plum streets after his department received information that the suspect was at that location.

Medrano had been sought after a Mitchell County grand jury indictment in 1983.

Also arrested and charged with hindering apprehension were Jose Luis Medrano, 31, Alfredo Diaz, 21, Eddie Diaz, 17, Rudy Medrano, 29, and Donna Diaz, 24, all of Colorado City. They were each released on $1,000 bond.

Assisting in the arrests was the Colorado City Police Department.

RIBBON CUTTING ceremonies were held Wednesday for the Outpost located at FM 1229 and Interstate 20, west of Colorado City. Cutting the ribbon were owners Robert and Jean Little and "manager" Jeremy Little.

Conservation can reduce water bill

COLLEGE STATION—When the weather turns dry, don't just turn on your lawn sprinkler and then gripe about your high water bill.

By watering, fertilizing and mowing your lawn properly, you can reduce your water bill as much as 40 percent, says a turfgrass specialist.

"Conservation by the homeowner provides the only solution to high water bills and excessive water demands during our hot and usually dry Texas summers," says Dr. Richard Doble with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

In small cities where industrial demand for water is low, lawn watering may account for as much as half of all the water used during summer months. Even in larger cities, lawns get 30 to 40 percent of all the water supplied by municipalities.

"Most Texas lawns use about 2 inches of water per week during the summer, and most of this usually comes from irrigation," Doble says. "However, as little as 1 inch of water per week can keep lawns alive and green."

Exactly what can a homeowner do to reduce his summer water bill?

"First, water your lawn only when grass starts to show signs of drought stress," explains Doble. "Look for discoloration and wilting. If leaves roll up in the late afternoon and footprints remain after walking across the lawn, then water within 24 hours."

"Once you've decided that your lawn needs watering, do it right," he emphasizes. "Most homeowners don't water their lawns properly. They either water too often, causing grass to develop shallow roots and making it a prime target for insects, diseases and temperature extremes, or they water too infrequently and apply too much water at one time, resulting in a lot of runoff."

"When watering, soak the soil to a depth of 4 to 6 inches," recommends the specialist. In heavy clay soils, watering for 15- to 20-minute periods may be necessary to prevent excessive runoff.

"Cutting back on lawn fertilization can also reduce watering," says Doble. Applying fertilizer in the spring and fall will generally keep your lawn healthy. Fertilizing during the summer, especially with nitrogen fertilizer, will green up your lawn, but it will also increase grass growth and water use.

"Mowing less often and cutting your grass at taller heights also will help keep your lawn in better shape during hot, dry weather," adds Doble. "St. Augustine grass lawns do well when mowed at a 3-inch height, and bermuda grass lawns can be cut at a 2-inch height."

Richard becomes reader consultant

A Loraine United Methodist minister is among the 900 lay and clergy persons across the United States who serve as reader consultants for the denomination's Hymnal Revision Committee, which is currently formulating recommendations for the compilation of the new United Methodist hymnal.

Rev. Rita Richards, pastor of Westbrook and Loraine United Methodist Churches, is one of the reader consultants for the Northwest Texas Conference. Other reader consultants for the conference include: Robert Wert, Dr. Key Ray Chong, Weldon McCormick, Rev. William Williams, and Gordon McMillan, all of Lubbock; and Mary Parks of Plainview.

Seven United Methodists from each annual conference were named by their bishops after the General Conference mandated the revision of the hymnal in 1984. Seminary professors, church musicians, representatives from boards and agencies, the Council of Bishops and other key people in the church are among those serving as reader consultants.

The consultants represent grass-roots concerns and continually have the opportunity to provide input into the revision project. In the last year, the Hymnal Revision Committee has sent approximately six surveys to the reader consultants asking their opinions on a number of topics, such as which hymns to include or delete, the numbering of hymns and which rituals, Psalters and worship aids to include in the worship section of the hymnal. The surveys also solicit opinions and suggestions on the revision process.

The reader consultants convened forums during Annual Conferences for discussion of the proposed hymnal. At the Northwest Texas Annual Conference, a summary of the suggestions and issues raised at the June 5 forum was sent to the revision committee in Nashville.

The committee also keeps the consultants informed of hymns proposed to be retained or eliminated from the new hymnal. Packets on the hymnal revision process are also sent to pastors of local churches.

The committee will meet in Nashville July 2 to reconsider two hymns, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "The Battle Hymn of Republic," which the committee deleted earlier for "unrelenting use of military image."

The committee's last meeting is scheduled for October of 1987. In January of 1988, their report will be mailed to the 1988 General Conference delegates.

All committee recommendations are subject to approval by the 1,000-member 1988 General Conference to be held in the spring of 1988.

December of 1988 is the projected publication date of the revised hymnal.

Stress - a common problem

By Debbie Christian County Extension Agent

In the recent Lunch-n-Learn series, perhaps the topic attracting the most attention was stress. And rightly so, because it is something that we all have in common—dealing with day to day pressures and stresses. The information in this column for the next couple of weeks will be devoted to this topic.

What is stress? Stress, like success, failure, or happiness means different things to different people. Stress is a major consequence of effort, fatigue, pain, fear, the need for concentration, the loss of blood, or even unexpected gland successes. Stress is the nonspecific response of the body to any demand.

Pressure or stress comes from coping with demands of family, maintaining a household, and meeting work deadlines. Usually our response is feeling overworked, frustrated, and fatigued.

Pressures also stem from the unplanned realities of life—sudden expenses, unemployment, sickness, and death. The unexpected can produce a high level of stress.

All pressure is not bad. Some pressure motivates us to get things done. If stress is too intense or lasts too long, it then becomes destructive. Stress affects us physically, mentally, and emotionally.

If the problem creating stress is not solved, a person may develop backaches, migraines, headaches, asthma, emphysema, ulcers, and hypertension. Persons subject to high pressure events, or long term stress situations, may even suffer a coronary attack in the prime of life. Those under stress also seem to have a higher incidence of accidents. Stress does not affect everyone in the same way. Each person has his own tolerance level for stress. (Adapted from an article "Everyday Stress, Everyday Living" by Family Life Education Specialist, Dorothy Taylor, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.)

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service serves people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion, handicap, or national origin.

FINDING FORGIVENESS

I John 1:8-9

Travis Monday - Pastor

Calvary Baptist Church-City

I like the little boy in Sunday School I heard about. His teacher had just finished her lesson, and wanted to make sure she had made her point. So she asked: "Can anyone tell me what you must be before you can obtain forgiveness for sin?"

The little boy's hand shot up: "You've got to sin first," he said.

We don't have to worry about meeting that first qualification for forgiveness because we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God.

The Bible tells us what we must do to find forgiveness; "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (I John 1:9 RSV).

If there were only records, Lord,
Of all I've said and done;
If there were only records, Lord,
I'd be a doomed man.
But forgiveness will always be
Your antidote to records of sins;
Your Christ-kept file on me.

Kristi Lee holds Father's Day party

The residents of Kristi Lee Manor enjoyed the month of June by having a Father's Day party. The oldest father was Wiley James, 91, who has three sons. The youngest was Thomas Rodriguez, 61, who has a son and a daughter.

The residents also enjoyed their monthly birthday party. Having birthdays in June were Clara Lively, Anglene McGee, Eva Gilstrap and Bonnie Burt. They also enjoyed the cakes that the VFW 9178 Ladies Auxiliary brought for the residents June 18.

Two residents, Mack Doss and Clarence Taylor, participated in the Westbrook parade Saturday, June 21. They enjoyed the parade and barbecue dinner.

The residents of Kristi Lee want to invite everyone to our garage sale July 18. All proceeds will go to the activity department.

Our newest resident is Theresa Jackson of Colorado City.

We also want to remind everyone that we will not be having a monthly musical in July due to the first Friday of the month being a holiday. We will be having our next musical the first Friday in August.

Wikes attend conference

Rev. and Mrs. Monte Wike have returned from Tulsa after attending the founding conference of the Charismatic Bible Ministries at Oral Roberts University. This is not a new denomination, but the strengthening of the independent churches with fellowship, annuity tax plans, and a united voice for collective action in places where a need must be met.

There were about 7,000 registered in attendance, with several nationally famous evangelists bringing greetings or messages. Educational facilities at ORU and health-care at City of Faith are being made available to the ministers on a special basis, as a result of the new organization. Many of the highlights of the conference have been nationally televised on the Richard Roberts program.

NOW ON THIS!

You, Me And The President

As we think of July 4th and the history of our country, would you like to know what many of us have in common with U.S. Presidents?

Vision problems - that's what. George Washington was nearsighted and couldn't see well even with his glasses. Abraham Lincoln was farsighted, had crossed eyes, eye coordination problems and was embarrassed to wear his glasses. And then there was James Buchanan who was nearsighted and had crossed eyes. In the cabinet of President John Adams, John Quincy Adams, James Madison and Andrew Jackson, Theodore Roosevelt and Harry Truman could not see with their glasses. Eisenhower's glasses never fit well. He was once counted pushing them up 35 times during one press conference. James Buchanan suffered eye muscle paralysis. Thomas Jefferson wrote his own eyeglass prescriptions and liked to have several pairs handy as did Teddy Roosevelt who took 12 pairs of prism-nose with him to the Spanish American War. Lyndon Johnson was the first president to wear contact lenses. He had difficulty with them but Presidents Carter and Reagan have both worn contacts successfully. Today, U.S. Presidents receive their vision care and eyeglasses or contact lenses from the government as a job benefit. SHUCKS! I know there was something you, me and the Presidents DIDN'T have in common.

MATHEMATICS

MULTIPLICATION OF FRACTIONS
When multiplying fractions, multiply the numerators, then multiply denominators.

Example: $\frac{2}{3} \times \frac{1}{5} = \frac{2 \times 1}{3 \times 5} = \frac{2}{15}$

PROBLEM 1. $\frac{1}{3} \times \frac{1}{2} =$ PROBLEM 2. $\frac{3}{5} \times \frac{1}{4} =$

CANCELLATION

There is a short cut in multiplication called cancellation. Cancellation allows for easier multiplication of large numbers. When you cancel, divide the numerator of one fraction and denominator of the other fraction by the same number. Then multiply.

Example: $\frac{3}{4} \times \frac{1}{3} = \frac{3}{4} \times \frac{1}{3} = \frac{1}{4}$

1. Divide 3 and 3 by 3

2. Multiply as usual.

PROBLEM 1. $\frac{2}{3} \times \frac{6}{7} =$ PROBLEM 2. $\frac{3}{10} \times \frac{5}{6} =$

MULTIPLYING WHOLE AND MIXED NUMBERS

When multiplying a fraction by a whole number, put the whole number over one, and multiply. Reduce the final answer if necessary.

Example: $\frac{1}{2} \times 5 = \frac{1}{2} \times \frac{5}{1} = \frac{5}{2} = 2\frac{1}{2}$

PROBLEM 1. $4 \times \frac{3}{5} =$ PROBLEM 2. $2\frac{1}{2} \times 9 =$

When multiplying a mixed number by a fraction or another mixed number, change the mixed number to an improper fraction. In this problem, $2\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{3}$, first change the $2\frac{1}{2}$ to the improper fraction $\frac{5}{2}$ by following these steps:

1. Multiply the denominator (2) by the whole number (3). $5 \times 3 = 15$
2. Add the numerator (1) to 15. $15 + 1 = 16$
3. Put the 16 over the denominator (2). $\frac{16}{2}$

You can check to see that $\frac{16}{2}$ does equal 8 by dividing 16 by 2.

$$2\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{3} = \frac{5}{2} \times \frac{1}{3} = \frac{5}{6}$$

PROBLEM 3. $1\frac{1}{5} \times \frac{2}{3} =$ PROBLEM 4. $\frac{1}{2} \times 3\frac{3}{4} =$

DIVISION OF FRACTIONS

When dividing fractions, turn the right hand fraction upside down (invert) and multiply as usual. Example: $\frac{1}{4} \div \frac{1}{3} = \frac{1}{4} \times \frac{3}{1} = \frac{3}{4}$

PROBLEM 1. $\frac{1}{3} \div \frac{3}{8} =$ PROBLEM 2. $\frac{1}{3} \div \frac{8}{3} =$

PROBLEM 2. $\frac{3}{5} \div \frac{7}{11} =$

DIVIDING WHOLE AND MIXED NUMBERS

When dividing whole or mixed numbers, be sure to change them to improper fractions before dividing. Reduce answer if necessary.

PROBLEM 1. $1\frac{1}{2} \div 2\frac{3}{4} =$ PROBLEM 2. $4 \div \frac{2}{3} =$

WORD PROBLEMS

Word problems are not difficult if you learn to identify key words. Most word problems contain lots of information that is not needed. Look for the key words that will tell you what mathematical process is necessary to arrive at the correct answer. Here is a list of the more common key words and the mathematical processes they imply.

- Words that imply addition: total, sum, add, together, and.
- Words that imply subtraction: deduct, off, take away, left, from, minus, subtract, less.
- Words that imply multiplication: multiply, times, of.
- Words that imply division: divide, divided by, by, into.

STEPS IN SOLVING WORD PROBLEMS

1. Read the whole problem for the general meaning.
2. Determine what it is you are asked to find.
3. Look for the key words to show what mathematical process or processes should be employed.
4. If necessary, make sure that all measurements are expressed in the same unit of measurement.
5. Do the mathematics.
6. Make certain that your answer is the solution you were asked to find.

Example 1: Martha bought a ham weighing $12\frac{7}{8}$ pounds. She had the butcher cut off one slice. The slice weighed $\frac{1}{2}$ pound. How many pounds of ham were left?

1. General meaning: $12\frac{7}{8}$ pounds has $\frac{1}{2}$ pound taken away.

2. Problem asks for the pounds left.

3. Key words: off, left.

4. Measurements are all in pounds.

5. Do the mathematics.

$$12\frac{7}{8} - \frac{1}{2} = 12\frac{6}{8} = 12\frac{3}{4}$$

6. $12\frac{3}{4}$ pounds of ham are left after $\frac{1}{2}$ pound was taken away. $12\frac{3}{4}$ pounds is the answer.

Example 2: For a gardening project, a 4 acre lot was divided into 1 acre plots. How many garden plots were there?

1. 4 acres were divided into 1 acre plots.

2. How many fourths are there in 4?

3. Key words: divided

4. Measurements are all the same.

5. Do the mathematics.

$$4 \div \frac{1}{4} = 4 \times \frac{4}{1} = 16$$

16 plots

6. There are sixteen fourths in 4. 16 plots is the answer.

WORD PROBLEM PRACTICE

PROBLEM 1.
Florentino has a $1\frac{1}{2}$ acre garden. He planted $\frac{1}{3}$ of it in carrots. How many acres are planted in carrots?

PROBLEM 2.
Esmond bought a 12 pound case of formula for his baby. The formula was in $\frac{1}{2}$ pound cans. How many cans were there in the case?

PROBLEM 3.
A highway crew completed resurfacing $\frac{1}{9}$ of the highway one week, $\frac{3}{9}$ the second week, and $\frac{2}{9}$ the third week. How much highway was completed?

PROBLEM 4.
Theresa has $\frac{3}{4}$ gallon of milk. She used one half gal. of the milk to make pies for the bazaar. How much milk does she have left?

If you would like more fraction problems for practice, send a self-addressed, stamped, business-sized envelope to the address below.
