Hospital Has Increase in Patient Days

Members of the board of directors of the Collingsworth County Hospital District expressed their pleasure at the financial condition of the hospital and the reports of operation in their meeting Monday, May 29.

The detailed financial statements for March and April, on both accrual and cash basis were discussed at length.

Garner Altom, administrator, reported 414 patient days for March, 371 patient days for April and 441 patient days for May, which was by far the best month.

He also told the board that the May Laboratory procedures were the largest so far, which indicates a greater use of this hospital facility.

The laboratory work is done by Mrs. Ernest Harwell and Gaylord Cook under the direction of Dr. Bill Brooks of Abilene, pathologist.

The board then authorized the hospital to enter into and participate in group and hospital insurance contract with Blue Cross for group hospitalization for hospital employees.

Mr. Altom also announced Collingsworth General is participating in the summer NYC program, with two boys and a girl now working. These are Ramiro Bueno, Jr., Thomas Sterling, and Ester Mejia. In addition, Trinidad Cantu, Jr., is working under the college-work-study program with Clarendon College.

The boys are shaping up the ground, removing tree stumps, scraping paint, and doing general conditioning work. Miss Mejia is being given training in hospital dietetics under the direction of Mrs. Charles Darter, dietitian.

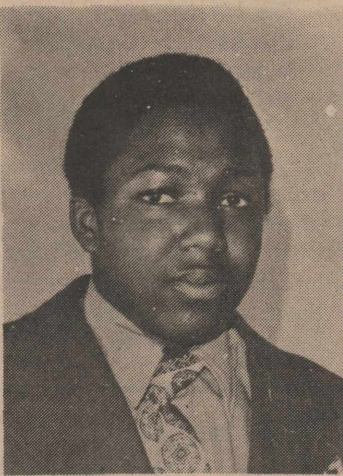

Police Will Check Homes Of Vacationers

"This is now vacation time and if you are leaving on vacation, please call the police department and we will try to keep an eye on your property as much as we can," Police Chief Jim King announced this week.

City residents wishing this service can contact either Mr. King or Patrolman Jim Reed by phoning 447-2642.

Chief King also suggested that vacationers have their newspapers stopped while they are out of town, and have mail deliveries held at the post office until they return.

"And it doesn't hurt to leave a light on inside the house," he said.

Delinquent Tax Collection Gets City Approval

The City Council moved Monday night, June 5, to collect delinquent taxes on city property and instructed City Secretary Russell Yates to contact Howard Pardue, Amarillo tax attorney, and County Judge Zook Thomas relative to getting collections started.

The City and County earlier entered in an agreement with the law firm of Pardue and Brandon to collect delinquent taxes for both units of government.

This was but one action of a variety of business that kept council members busy until the stroke of midnight.

The council tabled further action on the Lone Star Gas request for a rate increase pending the receipt of additional information it has requested Mayor John Coleman said.

Jake Leach reported to the council that 97 loads of trash have been hauled off by city trucks since the clean-up campaign started. This does not include the regular runs of the city garbage truck.

Street repair has become more urgent, however, and this will be the next order of business for city employees, the council decided.

A new water loading dock will be installed at the side of the community building.

Police Chief Jim King gave his official report which included 48 cases, including 5 accidents reported, no fatalities and one injury.

The council also decided that the venerable La France Fire Truck is to be put under shelter at the City Barn, in place of an unused maintainer which can take the weather better.

Miss Willis Has Surgery Friday

Miss Bonnie Willis is reported in satisfactory condition after undergoing hip surgery Friday, June 2, in Amarillo. She is in Northwest Texas Hospital.

Her sister, Mrs. Deskins Wells, is staying with her.

ATTEND BOYS AND GIRLS STATE

These seven Collingsworth teen-agers were selected to attend American Legion Boys State, now under way, and Bluebonnet Girls State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. At top left is Leslie Bailey. In

Mrs. Williams, Deaver Choice of County Voters

Collingsworth County voters in the Second Democratic Primary, Saturday, June 3, elected Mrs. Frances Williams the next county tax assessor-collector, then favored John M. Deaver for 100th District Attorney. Both are first time candidates. In the state races, county Democrats followed both the Panhandle and the state in favoring Barefoot Sanders over Ralph Yarborough for United States Senator; Dolph Briscoe over Mrs. Frances Farenthold for governor; and Robert W. Calvert over James (Jim) Wilson for comptroller.

In the remaining race, that for lieutenant governor, this county followed the remainder of the Panhandle in favoring Wayne Connally over Bill Hobby, although this was counter to the state-wide results.

Republicans, voting only on a nominee for governor, polled 6 votes, giving Albert Fay 4 and Henry Grover two.

In the only local race, Mrs. Williams received 871 votes for

Three County Youths Attending Boys State

Two boys from Wellington and one from Quail are attending the thirty-second annual American Legion Boys State sponsored by the Department of Texas and held on the Campus of the University of Texas.

It got under way Wednesday, June 7, as 840 high school boys from all parts of Texas and one from Mexico began registration.

Going from here are Terry Ray Canada of Quail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Canada; Earl Wren Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hartman; and Leslie Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Bailey. They are sponsored by the Frank King Post of the American Legion and the Samnorwood Lions Club.

Following registration, each citizen was assigned to one of two political parties - the Nationalist or Federalist. Each citizen then functions as a member of his party, he attends its precinct, county and state conventions and votes in its primary.

Boys State helps to develop civic leadership and pride in American citizenship. This program arouses a keen interest in the detailed study of our government. These civic workshops stress the importance of maintaining our form of government and bring better understanding of our national traditions and beliefs to the more

Community Action Gets Funding for Next Year

Governor Preston Smith today announced his approval of a community action grant of $550,675 in federal funds to Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation in Amarillo for operation of the agency's programs.

The grant is funded under Title II of the Economic Opportunity Act, and is effective June 1, 1972, through May 31, 1973.

Dynamite Caps Taken Sunday

Burglars took several dynamite caps from a tool house on the road construction job north-west of Abilene, Sheriff John Rainey has said.

The burglary was reported to the sheriff's office Monday morning by Jake Meadows of the Wellington office of the Texas Highway Department. It apparently took place Sunday night, June 4, and entry was gained by prying off a lock.

Sheriff Rainey warned that dynamite caps are dangerous to handle by one who does not know how to use explosives and their detonation could result in the loss of a hand or other injuries.

Grand Jury to Meet Thursday

A 100th District Court Grand Jury will convene in Wellington Thursday, June 8, at 10:00 a.m. Sheriff John Rainey said.

Judge Robert Montgomery will preside, with District Attorney Jack Boone representing the state.

Sheriff Rainey said ten cases probably would come before the grand jury for investigation.

Highway Improvement Reaches $3.6 Million

Two area highway projects are slated for completion this summer and preliminary work is well under way on the third. Taken together, they represent $3,615,000 in highway improvement for the area.

First of these is construction of a four lane divided highway for a distance of two miles, at the Y intersection of US 83 and US 62 toward Hollis, 12 miles south of Wellington.

Linked with this is improvement of US 62 from the intersection eastward to the state line.

Cost of this project is around $1,600,000, according to district office of the Texas Highway Department. Completion is expected in July or early August.

Second of the projects due for completion is FM 1036, from Abilene community west and north toward McLean for a little more than 5 miles.

The grade and base work, as well as culverts and bridges, are now almost completed on Abilene road, designated as FM 3143. Application of the asphalt and topping is expected to be completed later in the summer.

This is a $415,386.99 project with Pitt Construction Company, an East Texas firm, doing the work.

Still upcoming is the expansion of US 83 to four lanes between Wellington and Lutie. Plans on this project are almost completed, according to Glenn McLain, engineer in the Highway Department Office.

Four Arrested for Forgery Here Monday

Four Shamrock residents were arrested Monday, June 5, on complaints of passing forged checks to 6 Wellington businesses Friday, June 3, then returning Saturday and passing more checks to the same firms, Sheriff John Rainey has reported.

Three of those arrested were identified by the sheriff as Dale Wayne Bast, 19, formerly of Dozier; Connie Lucille Harrison, 19, and her husband, Terry Lee Harrison, 23, who allegedly came to Shamrock several weeks ago from Dallas.

The fourth member is a juvenile girl, whose case is being handled by County Judge Zook Thomas, acting as juvenile judge.

Terry Lee Harrison is wanted by federal authorities in Kansas City for federal parole violation, according to Sheriff Rainey.

He said the Wellington firms where checks were passed included Gibson's, Owens & Scott Thriftway, City Grocery, Lewis Grocery, Saied's Department Store and Town and Country. He estimated that when all checks are in the amount will exceed $200.

Complaints were filed after banks opened Monday morning. Bast, Mrs. Harrison and the juvenile were picked up in Shamrock about noon and brought to Wellington. Harrison walked into the sheriff's office about 5:00 p.m. to see about his wife, Mr. Rainey reported.

The three adults were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Claude McKinney Monday evening. Bond for Bast and Mrs. Harrison were set at $3,000 each and federal officers at Kansas City notified Rainey that Harrison was not eligible for release on bond. They are being held in county jail.

According to the sheriff, Bast is on probation after being convicted on a forgery charge last year.

Deputy Alvin Minatrea, who handled the case for this county, was at Dozier investigating a burglary at the Bill Woods place when word came the three had been located. Mr. Woods was identified by Sheriff Rainey as Bast's step-father.

Lynn Bourland Joins Extension Service Staff

COLLEGE STATION --- Miss Lynn Bourland will join the Texas Agricultural Extension Service staff June 5 as a home management specialist, reported Dr. John E. Hutchison, director.

A native of Quail, Miss Bourland studied at Clarendon Junior College and Texas Tech University, where she received her bachelor's and Master's degrees in home economics education. She taught high school home economics in Clarendon for three years.

As home management specialist, she will provide leadership.

Judge Montgomery Attends State Judiciary Course

Judge Robert E. Montgomery of the District Court of Memphis, has been accepted for enrollment in an intensive four-week course in post graduate legal education conducted by the National College of the State Judiciary, an activity of the Section of Judicial Administration of the American Bar Association.

The College, located at the University of Nevada in Reno, is dedicated not only to providing continuing education for judges regardless of their length of time on the bench, but also to bringing modern court management techniques to trial courts nationwide.

Judge Montgomery will be attending Session I from June 18 through July 14, 1972, and will study proceedings before trial, new developments in evidence, civil, family and criminal law as well as advanced concepts in court management and administration.

Rev. Collins Takes Pastorate At Houston

The Rev. Roy Collins has accepted the pastorate of the West End Baptist Church, 806 Shepherd Road, Houston, and he and his family left Tuesday, June 6, to begin his work.

He was pastor of First Baptist Church almost two years, and told the congregation of his decision at Prayer Meeting Wednesday, May 31.

"We have enjoyed our stay in Wellington and we want to keep in contact with our friends here," Rev. Collins said.

West End Baptist is about the same size as this church, with approximately 1,000 resident members. Now an inner-city church, it is one of the oldest in Houston, Rev. Collins continued.

It presently has facilities for about 1,200 and his will be an evangelistic ministry, aimed at rebuilding the church membership.

The family will live at 6554

One Injured In Collision

Mrs. John Gollighugh was admitted to Collingsworth General Hospital Friday, June 2, for treatment of injuries received in a motor vehicle accident.

While traveling east on 15th Street, Mrs. Gollighugh attempted a U turn and collided with a pickup driven by Leamon Bawcom, according to Police Chief Jim King.

The accident occurred in front of Thomas Nursing Home.

Damage to the pickup was reported light, although damage to the car was heavy.

Phone Line Goes To Panfork Camp

Completion of a telephone line to Panfork Baptist Encampment this month climaxes efforts that were begun in the early years of the camp's existence.

The Rev. Roy Collins, pastor of First Baptist Church, said that the line, 5.3 miles in length, was built by the Panfork Encampment at a cost of about $2,400, and that it will be dedicated to General Telephone Company, which will take over the maintenance.

There will be two other phones on the line, one serving Larry Henard at the Henard Ranch and the other to Guy Bumpas. Both men furnished equipment and work to get the line through. There will be two telephones at the encampment for the present, Rev. Collins said.

All that remains for service to begin is inspection and final phone installation by General Telephone.

The line begins at the Marvin Seal place just off Highway 83, eight miles north of Wellington, extends eastward along the Henard Ranch, through the Guy Bumpas place, then south to Panfork Encampment. Rev. Collins said he has worked to get this line since coming here two years ago.

It is hoped the line will be in service by the time the summer camps open in early June, Rev. Collins continued.

Mr. and Mrs. O.T. Hook lives at the encampment and are in charge there.

Business Changes Phone Number to Help Hospital

To meet the emergency telephone needs of Collingsworth General Hospital, Mrs. John Ingram of Fabric and Ready-to-Wear has given her present telephone number, Hospital Administrator Garner Altom has announced.

The new telephone number of Fabric and Ready-to-Wear is 447-2949.

It was explained that this change was made too late for the new number of Fabric and Ready-to-Wear to be included in the 1972 Telephone Directory which will be out within a few days.

Mr. Altom said that the rotary phone system being installed at the hospital requires three consecutive numbers. Mrs. Ingram's action makes this possible.

The administrator explained that the additional line was necessary.

Those calling the hospital will still dial the same number.

Sen. Sherman Speaks At TSTI Career Day

AMARILLO -- June has been proclaimed "Vocational Careers Opportunity for Youth" month, by Texas Governor Preston Smith. Career Day programs in honor of the occasion have been scheduled for June 8 and 9 at the Mid-Continent Campus of Texas State Technical Institute of Amarillo.

Hosts for the programs will be the Governor's Youth Secretariat, TSTI and the Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation. The Career Day activities will be open to any interested youth who is in doubt about his post-high school education.

Guest speakers for the program will be State Senator Max Sherman and Texas Representatives Bryan Poff and Ben Bynum. Sherman will speak at 9 a.m. Thursday (June 8), Poff at 1 p.m. Thursday (June 8), and Bynum at 9 a.m. Friday (June 9).

Also participating in the programs will be Richard Ratliff, youth specialist with the Governor's Youth Secretariat; Noel Walton with the Texas Panhandle

Party Honors Church Youth

Around the World -- an all-night party following graduation Friday, May 26, entertained youth of First Baptist Church and their guests.

Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rogers, twenty two young people, many of them newly graduated, were given a progressive dinner with four stops, each featuring decorations of a different country or state.

Holland was represented at First Baptist Church, with Mrs. Roy Collins and Mrs. Bill Wilkerson as hosts; Hawaii, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Owens; Italy, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harwell; and Mexico, Mrs. Elmer Feemster, Mrs. C.T. Hubbard and Mrs. Mickey Kendrick, entertaining at the Heritage Room.

Recreation included a trip to Memphis for skating, then a return trip to the Wellington High School Gym at 4:00 a.m., where the young people played volleyball and basketball until breakfast.

For this, they returned to the Church for Breakfast USA, which final event of the night, long, church sponsored entertainment.

A PLEASANT DISTRACTION

Amid the hot sun and Texas dust, Dallas model Neil Farmer provides a pleasant distraction to the men of the 72nd Infantry Brigade (Mechanized) of the Texas National Guard. The guardsmen are now engaged in their two-week Annual Training at North Fort Hood, Texas. Over 5,000 guardsmen and Army Reservists are participating in the field training that will run through June 11.

Janey Cummings Dies May 29 of Lengthy Illness

Funeral services for Miss Mary Jane Cummings, 24, of 8805 Silverhill Cove, Austin, Texas, were held Monday, May 29, from the Weed-Corley Funeral Home, 1001 E. 11th St., of Truth & Consequences, New Mexico, a long-time friend of the family, officiating assisted by the Rev. Ray Burchette of Austin. Private burial services were in Capital Memorial Park, Austin.

She died Saturday, May 27, in a Houston Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Janey Cummings was born at Pampa, while the family lived in McLean. When she was small, they returned to Wellington and later moved to Austin so that she could enter the Texas School for the Blind.

She was graduated from the Texas School for the Blind as valedictorian in 1966, and received a BA degree from the University of Texas in music with highest honors. Prior to her illness she was a teaching assistant at the University of Texas, and was working on her MA degree. A gifted pianist, Miss Cummings was the recipient of a special award given to three outstanding blind students by Mrs. Richard M. Nixon in White House ceremonies in 1970.

Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L.O. Cummings of Austin, and a sister, Mrs. Roger Hooper of San Antonio.

Relatives living here are an aunt and uncle, Mrs. W.W. Neeley and Palo Cummings, and cousins, Mrs. Robert Lacy and Palo F. Cummings.

Powell Begins Duties With SCS Office

Tommy Powell transferred to the Wellington office of Soil Conservation Service from Miami, began work last week. He and his family are living at 1701 East Avenue. Mr. Powell succeeds Gary Reed, who transferred to Keytesville, Mo.

A graduate of Texas Tech University in 1965 with a major in range management, Mr. Powell joined the Soil Conservation Service that same year. He was stationed at Snyder, Stinnett and Clarendon before going to Miami as district conservationist.

He grew up on a farm at Seymour, and that is also the home town of his wife, Linda. They have two children, Lisa, 6, and Jeffrey, three.

They belong to First Christian Church and both taught a Sunday School class. He was a director of the Chamber of Commerce in Miami and his sports are hunting and golf.

Mrs. Powell, who also attended Tech, belonged to a study club at Miami.

Large Number Of Boll Weevils Seen This Spring

An exceptionally large and potentially damaging number of boll weevils are emerging from hibernation this Spring in Cottle, King, Stonewall and other counties just East of the area covered by the High Plains Boll Weevil Control Program, according to Dr. Don Rummel, research entomologist at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Lubbock.

"There is every indication now that these weevils will require intensive and costly control efforts later in the season," Rummel says.

Inside the control zone of the High Plains program, weevil numbers also appear higher than in recent years, but are only 5 percent or less as great as in areas not subjected to programmed control measures, TAES reports.

And, according to Ed Dean, Field Service Director of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the coordinating organization for the control program, "There is no reason to believe weevils this year will pose more of a problem in PCG counties than in previous years."

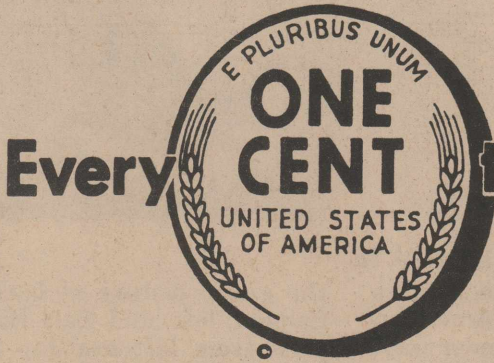

The High Plains program, initiated in 1964, consists of insecticide applications in the Fall each year on all weevil infested acreage along the Eastern Plains border. This breaks the weevil's reproductive cycle in September, helping to control population buildups, complete preregistration, take tours, meet with other current students and faculty members complete testing programs and participate in special events and entertainment.

Potential for Pheasants in Panhandle Area

SAN ANGELO -- Can a beautiful bird which has found acceptance elsewhere overcome apathy in the Texas Panhandle?

This is what Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists are wondering about the ringneck pheasant.

Proper agricultural techniques could turn much of the Texas Panhandle into prime pheasant habitat, but so far only a few landowners are making an effort to follow biologist's suggestions on how to provide for pheasants.

The biologists think part of the apathy is due to the fact that pheasant leases, of yet, do not bring in a lot of dollars. But they believe there is a potential for landowners to make some money on their leases if they will just provide the habitat to insure the birds can survive.

A few pheasants were in the Texas Panhandle 20 years ago, and they increased their range as crop irrigation increased. Pheasant habitat crested as a result of the tapping of the Ogallala formation for irrigation and the subsequent expansion of croplands. Birds from Kansas, Colorado and Oklahoma were attracted, and populations were given added boost by private releases.

Because of the irrigated wheat, corn, grain sorghum, sugar beets and other crops which provided a patchwork of food and cover, there were enough pheasants for a limited 1958 season.

Later, all Panhandle counties along the northern tier had a population to interest hunters. By 1971, the high plains had an open season on cock birds only.

Populations are considered moderate to light, but biologists say there could be a much larger population if landowners would leave food and cover instead of plowing it under.

Hunters killed approximately 12,000 pheasants in 1970, but the number dropped to around 7,000 in 1971.

Collingsworth County FARM NEWS

By Don Reeves
County Agricultural Agent

A record-breaking 1,563 screw worm cases were confirmed in Texas for the week ending Saturday (May 27). This compares to 780 cases the previous week and 600 two weeks earlier.

According to officials of the Mission Screwworm Eradication Program, the outbreak spread to 16 new counties during the past week, upping the infestation area to 109 Texas counties. Newest counties hit by the flesh-eating livestock pest include Concho, Lampasas, Nolan, Stonewall, Howard, Jack, Knox, Comanche, Runnels, Brown, Coke, Grimes, San Saba, Wilbarger, Young and Reeves.

Dr. M.E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., eradication program director, said Arizona also recorded nine new cases, pushing the tally for the week to 1,574 cases in the United States. Large numbers of new cases also were reported in many portions of Mexico near the U.S. border.

Total case count for the year thus far is 4,447, compared to 444 for all of last year. Texas cases; Arizona, 57; New Mexico, 5; California, 2; and Oklahoma, 1.

All areas where cases are confirmed are being treated with sterile flies. This involves "hot-spotting" or dropping about 100,000 sterile flies at each location. In addition, 1,600 flies are dropped per square mile each week in the southern part of the state that has heavy infestations.

Certain other areas receive sterile fly drops at the rate of 500 to 800 per square mile each week. When cases are confirmed in scattered western and northern counties, routine fly drops are made along rivers and streams in addition to the "hot-spotting."

All producers are urged to check their animals frequently, collect any worm samples from wounds and treat the wounds with a recommended product.

Worm samples should be sent to the Screwworm Laboratory, Box 969, Mission, Texas for identification. Mailing containers are available at the County Agent's Office.

Producers are cautioned to delay such operations as branding, dehorning and castrating. These operations leave a wound and that's an open invitation for the screwworm fly to lay her eggs. Almost 90 percent of all confirmed screwworm cases come from man-made wounds and from the navels of young calves.

Scour Vaccine Shows Promise

COLLEGE STATION -- The possibility of a vaccine or vaccines to control calf scours may soon be a reality.

Scours, an intestinal ailment characterized by severe diarrhea, is a costly problem in the cattle industry as it causes high death losses in calves, says Dr. James Armstrong, veterinarian with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Many infected calves which do not die suffer retarded gains in weight and often weigh as much as 100 pounds less than normal at weaning time.

Regarding a vaccine for scours, Armstrong alludes to research conducted in Nebraska. During the past two years, some 13,000 calves on 30 Nebraska ranches with a history of severe scouring were checked. Orally administered scour vaccines were given to pregnant cows 60 to 90 days before calving. Later research proved that only one vaccination was needed.

Scouts Fish at Camp M.K. Brown

Sixteen Wellington Boy Scouts of Troop 32 were at Camp M.K. Brown near Mobeetie Saturday and Sunday morning, May 19 and 20, for their monthly camping trip.

They did "quite a bit of fishing with quite a bit of luck," reported Scoutmaster Lynn McLain.

There was also swimming, canoeing and row boating. This was the last outing with the Scouts for Gary Reed, Assistant Scoutmaster, who since then has moved to Keytesville, Mo.

"He has been of outstanding help to us," Scoutmaster McLain declared.

Sam Adams was the third sponsor for the trip.

MRS. RANDY CHARLES MOTSENBOCKER

Wedding Saturday Evening Unites Beth Peters Randy Motsenbocker

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Nora Beth Peters and Randy Charles Motsenbocker of Amarillo in the Church of Christ at six-thirty Saturday evening, June 3. Gaylord Cook, minister of the church, officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. David Peters of 1211 Fort Worth Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Sammy A. Motsenbocker of Dodson.

Decorating the altar were branched candelabras and between them the three wedding candles, with the center taper lighted by the couple at the end of the ceremony. Satin streamers into which flowers were knotted linked the three candle arrangements.

Recorded organ music was played during the ceremony. Mr. Peters escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride and her attendants wore dresses reminiscent of the Victorian era.

Her wedding gown of slipper satin with lace trim had chiffon overlay with a high band collar and bishop sleeves. The floor length chiffon skirt had back fullness which swept to a chapel length train. A tiara of pearls held her illusion veil. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white gladiolas and stephanotis, tied with bridal streamers, on a white Bible.

The attendants were her cousin, Miss Susanne Peters of Amarillo, maid of honor, and her sisters, Mrs. Ronnie Ressel of Dickens and Mrs. David Kendall of Amarillo, bridesmaids.

Their dresses had high-neck bodices of pink rosebud print and carpet length hot-pink gathered skirts. Pink bows with streamers, into which dainty flowerlets were tied formed their headpieces. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of gladiolas in two shades of pink, while the bridesmaids flowers were cascades of pink gladiolas.

Mike Peters, cousin of the bride, was the best man, and groomsmen were Albert Motsenbocker of the bridegroom, and David Kendall of Amarillo, the bride's brother-in-law. Ushers were Johnny Masten of Canyon, and the brother and brother-in-law of the bride, Fred Peters of Collinsville, Oklahoma and Ronnie Ressel of Dickens.

Children in the wedding party were Lisa Hartman and Sammy Motsenbocker of Gould, who lighted the candles, Janeen Peters of Collinsville and Lynn Motsenbocker of Gould, the flower girl and ring bearer.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Peters entertained with a reception in the Heritage Room.

Members of the house party included Mrs. Raymond Fike, Mrs. Christine Scott and Mrs. Fred Peters of Collinsville, Oklahoma, Miss Becky Burba of Amarillo and Mrs. Albert Motsenbocker of Gould.

Mrs. Larry Phipps of Arlington registered the wedding and reception guests.

Covering the bride's table was a white satin cloth, with a net overlay caught up by pink bows. Bouquets of the bride and her attendants formed the centerpiece with six-branched candelabras at the side. Appointments were silver and crystal.

The bridegroom's table had a white cloth with a bronze net overlay, and silver appointments. Flowers of the bride's attendants formed the centerpiece.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live at the bridegroom's address, 2112 South Washington, Amarillo.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Motsenbocker were graduated from Wellington High School in 1971. She is presently a sophomore in Amarillo College, while he attended Clarendon Junior College and is now employed by the City of Amarillo.

Dinner Honors Wedding Party

Mr. and Mrs. David Peters and Mr. and Mrs. S.A. Motsenbocker were hosts Friday evening, June 2, at the rehearsal dinner honoring the wedding party of their daughter and son, Miss Beth Peters and Randy Motsenbocker.

The entertainment was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Cook.

An arrangement of pink and white spring flowers and candles formed the centerpiece for the buffet table.

Later gifts were exchanged by the guests of honor, Miss Peters and Mr. Motsenbocker.

Others attending were Miss Susanne Peters and Mr. and Mrs. David Kendall of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Ressel of Dickens, Mrs. Leon Hartman, Lisa Hartman, Mike Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Motsenbocker, Lynn and Sammy, of Gould, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Masten of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peters and Janeen of Collinsville, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Cook, and the hosts.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

When raveling any hand-knit garment, wind the crinkly yarn on a wire coat hanger with the curved ends pushed in. Then suds the wood (still on the hanger) and hang by the hook to dry. Rewind and reknit. Wool so washed has no tangles and is like new.

If you like to knit socks, knit the toe with a different color yarn. When a hole appears, it is quite simple to ravel these stitches and re-knit a new toe instead of darning.

If you like to embroider and your thread has a tendency to tangle, try this: Wind each color in a little ball and put each ball into an empty pill bottle. Punch a hole in each plastic lid, put the thread's end through it and you can pull out the length needed.

Put the leftovers from balls of knitting wool in glass jars and store in the basement. This method keeps the moths out and you can easily see the colors at hand.

Hundred and Fifty Guests Call at Coffee Honoring Trio of Nurses

People from all parts of the county called Saturday morning, June 3, to welcome three young nurses who have come from the Philippine Islands to the staff of Collingsworth General Hospital.

The coffee was given in the Heritage Room by five clubs, Wellington Young Homemakers, with Mrs. Benson Long president; Business and Professional Women's Club with Mrs. Jack Lowry as president; Quail Homemakers, headed by Mrs. Raymond Ross; Dodson American Legion Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Dennis Holland is president; and Samnorwood Young Matrons, under the direction of Mrs. Rudie Tate.

Mrs. Dan Langford of the Hospital business staff welcomed the guests and introduced them to the newcomers, Miss Myrna De Venecia, Miss Lilian Quimbao, and Miss Rebecca Reyes.

The coffee table was laid with a gold cloth, with a deep lace border of matching color. The centerpiece was an arrangement of white daisies and chrysanthemums, and crystal appointments were used.

Mrs. Bobby Gronewald was at the punch service and Mrs.

A fourth nurse, Miss Louella Cabel, also from the Philippine Islands, is due to arrive Saturday.

Approximately 150 guests called between 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Larry Golliugh at the coffee urn.

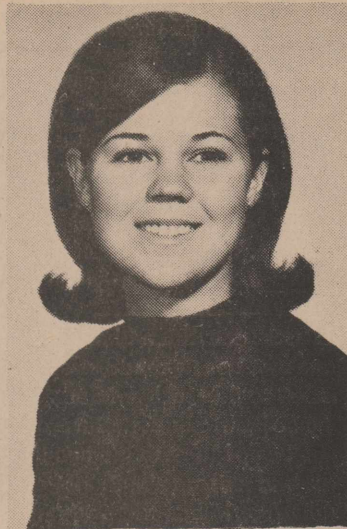

Breakfast Given Mrs. Don Nabors

Mrs. Edd Henard and her daughter, Mrs. Gail Henard Oswald, entertained with a breakfast and baby shower Monday, May 29, honoring Mrs. Don Nabors of Lubbock.

The event, with an out of doors theme, was at the boat house on the Henard ranch north of Wellington.

A western breakfast of ham and sausage, potatoes, scrambled eggs with avocado, sour dough biscuits, juice and coffee were served.

Attending were Mrs. Nabors her mother, Mrs. Wayne Cudd and her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Light, also Mrs. Dick Sweat, Mrs. E.L. Bartlett, Mrs. Richard Nall, Mrs. Sammy Ray of Amarillo, Mrs. Hug Bowen, Mrs. Henard, Mrs. Oswald and son, Le Ed.

MISS JANET LYNN GOYER

Goyer-Holman Wedding Set

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Goyer of Luther, Oklahoma, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Janet Lynn, to Bobby Dale Holman, son of Mrs. Lena Holman, also of Luther, but formerly of Wellington.

Miss Goyer graduated from Luther High School this year. Mr. Holman is a 1971 graduate of that school and is presently employed at Holman's Carpet Store in Luther.

The couple will be married Friday, June 9, at Luther United Methodist Church at eight in the evening.

They will make their home in Luther.

Mrs. Bonnie Gold and John Masten Marry in Church Ceremony May 27

Mrs. Bonnie Gold of Canyon and John Wilks Masten were married Saturday, May 27, at four in the afternoon, in First Baptist Church at Canyon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moore of Wheeler. Mr. Masten, a teacher in the Quail Schools, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Masten.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Larry Shillings of Amarillo, read a poem.

For her wedding, Mrs. Masten wore a light beige street length dress with fitted bodice, accented with a rolled collar and long sheer sleeves.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell had as guests Sunday their two sons, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Bell of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bell and children of Iowa Park, also Mrs. Bell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones of Tuscon, Arizona, along with several of Mrs. Jones relatives from Quanah. Mr. and Mrs. Jones plan to come back by and spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Bell before returning home.

Family Reunion Honors John Martin On His Eightieth Birthday Saturday

Honoring John Martin on his 80th birthday were a host of friends and relatives.

Mr. Martin moved here in 1928 and is a retired farmer. He formerly raised and sold minnows on a commercial basis and had the water flow gauge on Salt Fork River for the state. He is a long-time member of the Church of Christ.

These included were the hostess, his daughter, Mrs. L.A. Gilmore, and her two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gilmore of Pampa and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gilmore of Wellington; his two sons, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Martin of Crowell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Odessa.

Others attending included a nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Roy

Martin of Dallas; a niece, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Blacksher and daughter of Vinson; two cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dodson of Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Dodson of Oklahoma City; and Kerry Cash of Crowell and Mrs. Lena Miller of Wellington.

Here over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Parker and his mother, Mrs. Pearl Parker of Lubbock. They were visiting Mrs. Wayne Parker and sons. Both boys are home for the summer, Yates, who commutes to the regular session of West Texas State, and Stan, a student in Tech, and who is enrolled this summer at Clarendon Junior College.

Installation of Officers and Brunch Close Year for 1954 Study Club

The 1954 Study Club closed the year with a spring brunch in the home of Mrs. Lynn Courtney.

Members were welcomed by Mrs. Courtney and served fresh fruit juice upon arrival. Brunch, consisting of fresh fruits, coffee cake and sausages, was then served from a table decorated with the daisy theme being carried out at serving table and smaller tables where members were seated.

This was followed by the installation of the new officers. The wheel was the symbol used, the unbroken circle symbolizing inspiration for unity, friendship and community spirit. Each officer lighted a small candle on each spoke as she was installed.

Incoming officers are Mrs. Fred Cox, president; Mrs. Don Reeves, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Maxwell, second vice president; Mrs. R.L. Templeton, secretary; Mrs. Wayne Cudd, treasurer; Mrs. E.W. Clement, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Courtney, parliamentarian; Mrs. Cal Hurst, reporter; Mrs. Paul Spillman, historian; and Mrs. A.J. Fires, federation counselor.

Mrs. Cal Hurst was the installing officer.

Dodson WMU Hears Study

The Dodson Nazarene World Missionary Society continued its study of the Middle East Tuesday, May 30, when Mrs. Bill Holder was hostess.

Mrs. F.L. White opened the meeting with a devotional in which she read news excerpts of President and Mrs. Nixon's presence at services of the Baptist Church in Moscow the preceding Sunday.

Mrs. Sherrell Beanland, program chairman, gave the study, assisted by Mrs. Cora Lowry, who discussed "Population and Education," and Rev. Howard Smith, who closed the program with "Land of Many People."

Mrs. G.M. Lewis and Mrs. Charlie Owens told of the Nazarene Assembly in Lubbock, which they attended representing the Dodson Church and plans were made for the Vacation Bible School.

The opening prayer was by Mrs. Howard Smith, and special prayers for the sick and bereaved by Mrs. White and Mrs. Owens.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. G.M. Lewis, Mrs. Mayme Lewis, Mrs. Roy Tisdale, Mrs. Beanland, and children, Mitzi and Jon, Nancy Holder, Mrs. Elsie Carter, Mrs. Walter Camp, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. B.T. Webb, the Rev. and Mrs. Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. Holder.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Simpson over the week end were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Harrison and Denise of Muleshoe. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore and Melissa from Memphis and Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Wade and Brent.

Anjani Gold of Canyon spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Masten.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. S.B. Lowry of San Diego, Calif., are here for two-weeks visit with his brothers, C.L. Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Lowry and J.E. Lowry, and with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jack Lowry. From here they will go to Lubbock to visit another brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lowry.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. V.P. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Robertson were two daughters and one son, Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Squires and Cheryl, of Anaheim, California; Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Abernathy of Wymore, Nebraska; and Mr. and Mrs. D.G. Robertson of Amarillo.

Mrs. Tommy Murdock's sisters visited her over the holidays Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Downs of Stratford and Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Downs of Pampa.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McGill last week were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Boyett and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Boyett and Brian all of Amarillo. Other visitors were the McGill's daughter and son, Sandra of Dallas and Sydney of Odessa.

Mrs. Joe Birchfield has spent quite a bit of time out-of-town recently. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Beverly Patterson. At Fritch they stayed with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Langford and children. While there they attended her granddaughter, Sandra's graduation. In Amarillo, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart, and in Shamrock they were guests of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Seymour. He has suffered a stroke, but is now at home and reported to be doing better.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ball had as their guests this past week end, three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Johnson and Mickey of Fremont, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Lewis, Mark, Mary Lynn, and David of Dallas. Also Mr. and Mrs. Dave Browder of Goodnight, Mr. and Mrs. David Keith and Chris of Las Cruces, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rogers and Belinda of Amarillo, Mrs. Velma Myers of Meadow, Mrs. Otis Caswell of Brownfield, Mrs. Cecil Sanford from Lubbock and Miss Mira Sanford of Amarillo.

G. T. Austin Honored by Family Sunday on Eighty-sixth Birthday

The G.T. Austin family gathered Sunday, June 4, in Bura Handley Community Center to honor Mr. Austin on his 86th birthday.

Religious services were conducted in the afternoon by one of the sons, the Rev. Tommy Austin, pastor of Oak Ridge Baptist Church at Spring, just out of Austin.

Mrs. Tommy Austin, Mary Lois Ledbetter and Mrs. Boyd Williams of Shamrock had charge of the music.

Mr. Austin was presented a stereo unit. The remainder of the day was spent in visiting, with the noon meal served to the group.

"Everyone enjoyed the nice cool, clean center, and the good food prepared by Mrs. Aaron," said Mrs. Austin. "They plan to come back next year on June 3.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Austin, X.A. Austin, and Allen Austin of Dalhart; Rev. and Mrs. Tommy Austin of Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Austin, Carrol Linda and Terry of Ft. Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Austin and Mrs. Myrtle Austin of Lubbock; Judge and Mrs. M.C. Ledbetter and Mrs. Todd Fields of Morton;

Mrs. Margie Slatten, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Bailey of Olton; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bynum, Dena, Dee and Dawn, Mr. and Mrs. Guyle Cavin, and Kelly Mike of Amarillo;

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bennett, Mrs. Avis Broughton, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson and Mrs. Burnice King of Childress; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams of Shamrock; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cason, Mrs. Charles Cason, Sr., Guy Clement, Claude Savage and the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Collins and son.

Charm and Food Classes Taught

Summer sessions of home economics are being taught by Mrs. P.M. Scott and Mrs. Don Friemel. Housing, charm and figure workshops, and foods for figure control are being conducted.

The sessions are from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon daily. This week is housing, next week charm and figure workshops and the week of June 12-16 is foods for figure control.

"Any high school girl is invited to come," said Mrs. Scott.

Dinner Honors New Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gronewald were hosts at a barbecue Sunday evening, June 4, at their home to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Powell, who have moved here from Miami.

Mr. Powell is district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service.

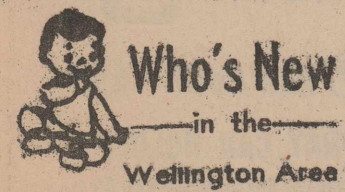

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Lisa and Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Langford and Carrie, and Mr. and Mrs. Gronewald and Scott.

NO-EGG MUFFINS

1½ cups unsifted flour
3 tbsps. sugar
½ tsp. baking soda
½ tsp. salt
1 cup buttermilk
3 tbsps. margarine, melted

In a bowl, thoroughly mix flour, sugar, baking soda and salt. Add buttermilk and melted margarine and stir just until dry ingredients are moistened. Fill greased medium-sized muffin cups about ¾ full. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 25 minutes, or until done. Immediately remove from muffin cups; serve hot.

Capt. and Mrs. L.B. Don Hendrix are the parents of a daughter, Angell Dennee, born in Collingsworth General Hospital at 5:15 p.m. Monday, June 5. She weighed seven pounds, six ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shanks are the maternal grandparents.

Kelleys Hold Family Reunion

Members of one of the first families to settle in Collingsworth County held a reunion in Childress Saturday, June 3.

These were the descendants of Thomas Jefferson Kelley -- known to even those who were not relatives as Uncle Jeff.

Only one of his surviving children could attend, Mrs. Guy Clement. Other relatives going from here were Mr. Clement, Horton Kutch, Mrs. Truett Holland and Mrs. Carl Shumate and daughter Pam.

Altogether, 23 attended. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kutch and children of Rule, formerly of Kelley.

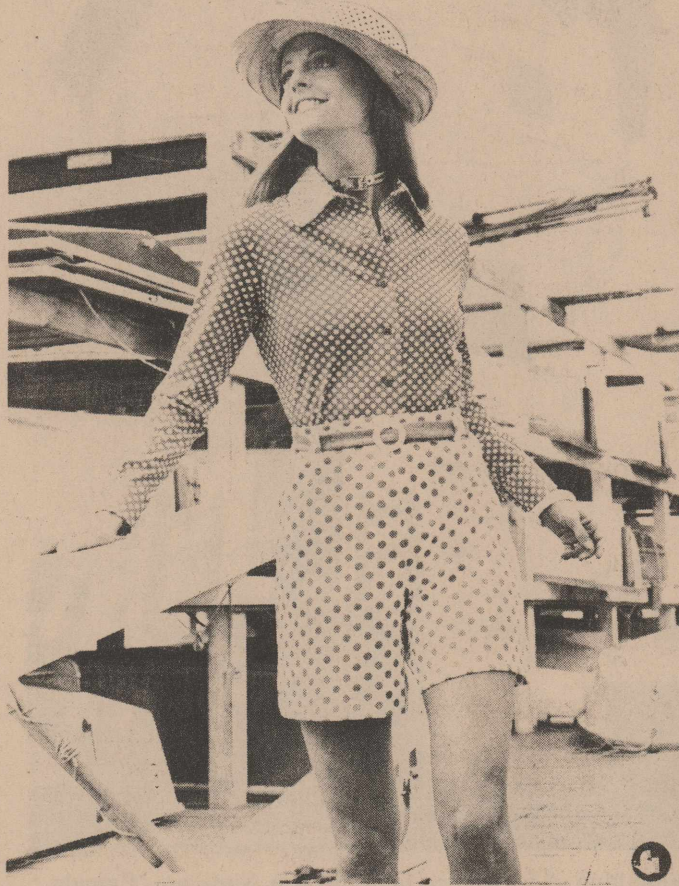

Mrs. Clement has three surviving brothers, none of whom could come to the reunion. All reared in the Kelley community, they are Robert W. Kelley of Corpus Christi; Thomas Floyd Kelley of Dove Creek, Colorado; and Clayton Kelley of Canyon.

Jeff Kelley came to the county when he was 18, Mrs. Clement said. His father had died in a Civil War prison camp and his mother then brought her children to Texas from Georgia.

Fish in Chips A Texas Dish

If you have never tried any fish recipe other than fried fish you're in for a treat.

Fried fish is delicious and a real American tradition -- but don't stop there. Fish is suitable for baking, broiling, poaching and even barbecuing.

The cardinal rule to remember when cooking fish is never overcook it. Think in terms of minutes, not hours, when cooking.

Fish is already tender, so cook just long enough to heat it throughout. The flesh will turn from a translucent or watery look to an opaque milky white.

Cooking fish develops the flavor. Overcooking destroys much of the flavor because it becomes dried out and tough.

Try the following recipe, then write for more free recipes from the test kitchens of the Parks and Wildlife Department. Send your name and address to: Seafood Recipes, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas, 78701.

FISH IN CHIPS

2 pounds fresh fish fillets
¼ cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons Italian Salad dressing
2 cups (4-5 oz.) crushed potato chips
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¼ cup chopped parsley
1½ teaspoons paprika
½ teaspoon thyme
2 tablespoons salad oil

Cut fillets into serving size

The hostesses were Mrs. Johnny Carson (Jo Farmer) Mrs. Delbert White, (Avyrella) Clay) Mrs. Johnny Barnett (Adelle Ward) of Amarillo; Jenny Ann Kennedy Davis of Amarillo; Mrs. Bill Lindsey (Nancy Thomas); Mrs. Dan Hiett (Sherri McGuire), Mrs. Benton Wauer (Ann Messer) Mrs. Van Schooner (Fredda Bourland) and Ladean Harrison Taylor of Hedley.

They alternated at receiving the guests with Mrs. Lowe, her husband and daughter, Mrs. Jon Kidwell of San Antonio.

The reception table was laid with a cloth right out of a first grade classroom. There were simulated flash cards with such words and phrases as "This is Spot," "Dick and Jane," "2+2=4," drawings such as a first grader would do and displayed prominently, "I love Miz Lowe." The centerpiece was a doll dressed as a teacher, her pockets filled with pencils, erasers, chalk and paper clips.

Mrs. Lindsey served the guest and Mrs. Davis was at the register.

Out of town guests attending were Mrs. Kidwell, the former Billye Evelyn Lowe, and her daughter, Kristi, and Miss Dawn Shepard of San Antonio; State Representative and Mrs. Tom Christian and children of Claude; Mrs. W.F. Howard, Jr. of Mobeetie and the Rev. and Mrs. John H. Stout of Clarendon.

pieces. Combine lemon juice and dressing. Combine potato chips, cheese, parsley, and seasonings. Dip fish in juice mixture and roll in chip mixture. Place fish, skin side down, on a well-greased baking sheet, approximately 15 x 12 inches. Drizzle fat over fish. Bake in an extremely hot oven, 500 degrees F., for 10 to 15 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Serve with lemon wedges. Serves six.

My Sincere Thanks

I want to thank my good friends who voted for me last Saturday. Your confidence and your friendship are greatly appreciated.

I also want to thank all of you for the courtesy and understanding shown me during the recent campaign.

I especially want to thank the people of this county for the privilege of serving as your county assessor-collector of taxes during those years I have had the opportunity of serving you.

Sincerely

Vo Ag-FFA Program Goes On in Summer

The Vocational Agriculture program of Wellington High School is a twelve-month program and many phases of the work and activities of the members of the Future Farmers of America will continue during the summer months. Directing the work and activities is Rodney Myrick, vocational agriculture instructor and FFA Advisor.

Supervising students with their crop and livestock projects and making plans and securing livestock for prospective students is a very important part of Vocational Agriculture Education's summer program.

Other summer activities include collecting and filing teaching material, developing teaching plans, developing department and FFA budget, securing new tools and shop equipment, re-arranging classrooms and making necessary local and state reports. Also, work with adult and young farmers of the community will continue, placing emphasis on conducting disease and insect control practices. New and improved farming and livestock practices will be instituted. Meetings and plans of the local Advisory Council on Vocational Agriculture Education will also be conducted.

The Wellington Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will conduct monthly summer meetings and will take part in the State FFA Convention on July 12-14, in Dallas, Texas. Activities and accomplishments of the Chapter will be released to the news media. The Vocational Agriculture Teachers Conference, sponsored by the Texas Education Agency, will be held in Fort Worth, Texas, August 1-4.

Group Plans Nevada Visit

By Mrs. G.T. Stephens

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Blevins met their granddaughter, Mrs. Gary Holliman and great granddaughter, Paula Kay and Paige Elaine, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Holliman all of Fort Worth in Memphis Monday afternoon for a short visit.

The group was en route to Las Vegas, Nevada, to spend the summer with Gary Holliman, who is employed there. They expect to tour various places of interest on week ends. These will include Disneyland in California, Boulder Dam, and other points.

All formerly lived here.

Good Turkey Hatch Due

AUSTIN -- Good spring rains throughout Central Texas have created ideal conditions for turkey nesting and hatching, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife biologists.

In contrast, last year's drought kept the number of turkey poults to a minimum. The biologists said that some of the hens in the Texas Hill Country have already hatched their broods.

San Francisco Area Interests Visitor

Mrs. Russell Hill has returned from a trip to Seaside, Calif., where she visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. U.S. Bolton. Mrs. Bolton is the former Charlesene Mosenbaker.

From their home on the Monterey Peninsula, they went to San Francisco sight seeing. Among the best remembered spots were the Golden Gate Bridge, a Japanese tea garden, and the Mission Dolores.

But there were other things of interest closer to home. They visited the local Fishermen's Wharf and Cannery Row, made famous by John Steinbeck's book of that name.

Mrs. Hill explained that with the decline of sardine, albacore and tuna fishing, the canneries closed. The old buildings, left picturesquely unchanged outside, have been converted into an area for artists, antique shops, and other businesses of similar nature. Another visit was to Al

Capone's Restaurant, the name given a popular eating place which is highly reminiscent of the 1920's, even to showing motion pictures from the silent era each evening.

Mr. Bolton is a landscape gardener at Pebble Beach, one of the exclusive private residential areas of the San Francisco vicinity. Although entry to the area is by permit only, his being there enabled Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Bolton to

Parish Has Pacific Flavor

Father Pat Burke of Our Mother of Mercy Church reports a distinctly Pacific flavor in his parish with the advent of so many new parishioners from the Philippines in the past few weeks.

Two nurses and a doctor have been attending his Shamrock church from the hospital in Wheeler during the past two months. The girls are Natalia Enriquez and Cecelia Villarino, while the young doctor's name is Louie Mendiola.

The three nurses who arrived from the distant islands in Wellington this past week are also members of Father Pat's internationally-mixed parish. They are Lillian Quiambao, Rebecca Reyes, and Myrna De Venecia.

In the midst of this influx, Summer School is in full swing at the two churches this week, being taught by two Franciscan Sisters from Amarillo, who are sharing a house with the young Filipino nurses.

After a hectic year, Father Pat is looking forward to flying home to England for a vacation on July 23rd. His place will be taken by Father Bruce Riski, formerly of Perryton and Borger.

En route to California Mrs. Hill visited a cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson at Riverside. Mr. Johnson lived here until the late 1930's.

FFA Chapter Hosts Friends At Barbecue

Wellington Future Farmers said "Thank you" to their supporters in a way that counts -- with a barbecue given just before the end of school.

The event was held in Ellison Park. Beef was donated to the chapter by Sagebrush Feed Lot, and John Robert and Ed Henard and their sons.

The evening was informal -- eating and visiting.

Approximately 170 attended, including Future Farmers, the school board, administrators, high school teachers, honorary chapter farmers, parents of FFA members and other guests.

Lanmans Here Over Holiday

Visiting in Wellington over the Memorial Day week end were Mr. and Mrs. John Lanman of Oklahoma City. They were en route home from the races at Raton, N.M.

Mrs. Lanman operated a photographic studio here and her husband has now joined her in this work. Together they operate Mother Goose Children's Studio in Portland Plaza Shopping Center, working only with young children.

They were overnight guests of Mrs. Barbara Williamson and Miss Vikki Saunders.

Church Group Visits 6 Flags

Members of the One-Way Believers, youth group of First Baptist Church, had a full day of fun at Six Flags Over Texas recently, then were overnight guests of a former Wellington resident.

Leaving the church at 2:00 a.m., The boys and girls had almost a full day at the Arlington entertainment center.

They went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Earp at Denton for the night. Mrs. Earp is the former Mary Graham.

Sponsoring the trip were Clifford Rogers, Music and youth director of First Baptist, Mrs. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. John Barton.

Boys and girls attending were Nancy Graham, Dian Brooks, Beth Derryberry, Connie Bear-den, Kathy Daniel, Lynn Pence, Harold Lowe, Brent Wade, Darrell Feemster, Sharon Pence, Jenny Earnest, Betty Burba, Scott Gassiot, Della Shumate, Nancy Shumate and Aaron Barton.

Verna Benson Dies Sunday

Verna Dean Benson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odas Benson of Hershey, Nebraska, died Sunday evening, June 4, after an illness of several months. The family moved to Hershey about 9 months ago.

Funeral services and burial were at Hershey Wednesday. Attending from here were Mrs. Arthur Belew and several members of her family from here and Oklahoma City.

Verna Dean took part in youth activities of First Baptist Church when the family lived here. She is survived by her parents.

Gosnells Here From Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Gosnell of Stanwood, Washington, were here recently to visit his mother, Mrs. Cora Gosnell.

Mr. Gosnell retired a short time ago after a 25-year Army career and has selected Washington as a home. His wife, Ruth, an Army career woman, has completed 20 years service.

He lived here in the 1920's then moved to Texola, Oklahoma. He had 8 years duty in Japan after World War II and also was in Germany, at Fort Bliss and in South Carolina.

Accompanying them were Ruth Gosnell's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith. The group returned home by Portales, N.M., where the Smiths are sending an Indian girl through Eastern New Mexico University, and from there they went to California to visit Gosnell's sister, Mrs. Treva Jones.

WHS Graduates Lose No Time Finding Jobs

Some of the 1972 graduating class have already joined the work force, attending college summer school or are preparing for entering college this fall.

In the work force we have Benny Stallings and Mike Belew harvesting with Mike's Dad, Herman Belew, Jerry Maxwell at harvest with his Dad, Earnest Maxwell, Ronnie Pennon, Teddy Sango, and Ray Shrubs at harvest with Don Lacy in Arizona.

Continuing their work at The City Grocery are Joey Manuel, Dale Thomas, and Don Judd.

Louis Gonzales is working at the Wellington Lumber Company; Coszette Seitz at Gibson's; Jerry Bowen of the Texas Highway Department, and Eddie Lee at Scott & Lee Grocery.

Charles Arnett is a life guard at the Memphis Swimming Pool, and Johnny Holton works at Holton's Enco Station.

On the Work-Study Program are Ann Smith employed at the County Attorney's Office, and Karen Maxwell at the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office.

Farm work is the job of each of these, Paula Kiker, who will attend Clarendon Junior College next fall, Kenneth Porter, Bill Henard, Denny Carter, and Charles Taylor.

Those attending summer school include Carole Cochran at Texas Tech, University, Kathryn Scott and Judy Jones at West Texas State University, and Leigh Nall in Amarillo and working part time at Verden-Perma Built.

Rose Mary Popwell and Danny Waters are working with their fathers.

Others who have not as yet fully decided include these: Zanna Jenkins, Sue McCutcheon, Marcia King, Kenny Stallings, Dickie Judd, Doris Tingle, Mary Saied, Trinidad Cantu, and Randy Amonett who will attend Texas Tech in the fall.

Vickie McAdams Montgomery, who is the wife of Joe Montgomery, will be taking care of her home.

AUSTIN, Tex.--Forecast for the State Democratic Convention at San Antonio June 13 grows steadily stormier.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, who already had announced as a candidate for convention chairman against Roy Orr of De Soto, the state Democratic executive committee chairman, received backing of National Committeewoman Mrs. Carrin Patman, Ganado.

Mrs. Patman accused Orr of "wrecking the party" and predicted a "disastrous blood-letting" at San Antonio if he presides. She said Orr won't abide by the party rules he helped write himself, and that giving him the convention gavel would "sabotage chances of the Texas delegation's being seated at the July 10 national convention."

Supporters of Sen. George McGovern for president agreed Orr should not be chairman and that White is a "fair man". However, they contended, an endorsement on their part would be "premature."

Also under fire is makeup of the convention credentials committee named by Orr. Critics claim it isn't representative of presidential preferences and age and ethnic groups.

Orr earlier fired back that "liberals" are trying to take over and run the show, and he isn't going to permit it if he can help it.

Some observers have calculated the convention delegate spread is actually pretty close, with backers of McGovern, Gov.

George Wallace and Sen. Hubert Humphrey all claiming a sizeable chunk of the votes. To gain as much strength as McGovern and Wallace on the 130-vote Texas delegation to the national convention, Humphrey would have to pick up most of the uncommitted delegates.

Republicans see only harmony for their state convention in Galveston June 13. They are even scheduling beach parties. AUTO RATE CUT SEEN-- The State Board of Insurance will meet July 24 for its annual hearing on auto insurance rates, and Chairman Larry Teaver thinks a reduction is in order.

A 2.8 percent increase approved last year was blocked by a presidential wage-price freeze. Rates have been in effect since Jan. 1, 1971, when a 14 percent boost was approved. There has been no reduction since a fractional cut in 1967.

Teaver said profits from underwriting nationally are at an all-time high, as are investment profits of auto insurance companies. He plans to submit a "personal injury protection" proposal to the Board as a substitute for no-fault auto insurance. The Teaver recommendation includes liberalized medical benefits on a no-fault basis, income replacement and life insurance instead of uninsured motorists and medical payments coverage.

Conceivable, Teaver could be out of a job before the July hearing. The Legislature convenes in special session June 14, and Teaver's appointment to the Board is pending in the Senate. DRAFT PLANS TOLD--

About 400 men from Texas are expected to be inducted into military service during the month of July, although no quota yet has been assigned the state.

State Selective Service Headquarters has announced that young men with lottery numbers of 50 or lower may get pre-induction physical examinations during July.

Col. Melvin Glantz, state director of Selective Service, said 30 days' notice is planned for all induction orders.

COURTS SPEAK--

Farmers can sue cattle feedlot operators for damages due to offensive odors even if they don't live on their land, the Supreme Court held.

To properly assess whether movies are obscene, judges, and juries must see the entire films, the Court of Criminal Appeals ruled.

A 300-year prison sentence assessed a Wichita County man for selling heroin was reversed

Learning to Swim Will Give You That Margin of Safety

More than half of the 7,000 drowning victims in the U.S. each year couldn't swim the 20 feet that would have saved their lives. This is perhaps the best of a number of reasons to learn to swim.

No town in the lower Panhandle offers a better opportunity for learning to swim this summer than does Wellington. Our pool remains unexcelled in the Panhandle, and capable management has been provided. There will be swimming lessons if people of the area want them.

If you can't swim, much of the world of outdoor recreation is closed to you. With three-fourths of the earth's surface covered by water, most of our mobile population, especially our youth, will come in contact with it some time.

As the number of lakes in this part of the state increase, more of us will have greater contact with water, if no more than sitting in a boat fishing. The dangers from water remain, but by learning to swim, fear is turned to healthy respect, and knowledge and skill add immeasurably to our survival capability.

There is no better opportunity to acquire that skill than this summer at Marian Airpark Pool.

Pandora's Box

"A mythical Pandora has lived in history for having opened the lid on a box she was warned to leave closed. Despite the fact that Pandora won no awards or popularity contests, she may have contributed to the public good for she, according to mythology, opened the lid on the box that contained the sins of the world and exposed them to public view. Government today -- even in small countries -- is big business and is getting bigger and more complex. The official actions of elected officers are recorded in the minute books and other public documents and not in Pandora's box. No one should be permitted to sit on the lid or keep the records under cover."

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

It is said by some that the so-called "work-fare" program under discussion in Congress whereby able-bodied citizens may be required to do some work to get a welfare check, is "slave-fare".

But this is not quite right. Nobody will be forced to work. If he prefers, he can starve, which has long been an option with free men.

Actually it's a sort of back-handed slavery when government taxes away money a man has worked for and gives it to somebody who won't work.

A federal district court ordered the State to make payments to Wichita County for aid to families with dependent children, even though it lacks control over welfare personnel employment there.

SMITH SEEKS FUNDS-- Gov. Preston Smith went to Washington in search of federal matching funds for social services to welfare beneficiaries.

He said the federal government now pays states $3 for every $1 they spend on social services but the White House's proposed new rules would prevent Texas and other states from considering work by some agencies.

An aid to the governor said the state is not getting federal matching money for counseling family planning and homemaking assistance to the needy.

Texas a Land Of Museums with Strange Names

AUSTIN -- Where else but in Texas could you find museums with names like Medicine Mound Trading Post, the Live Steam Museum, Confederate Air Force Flying Museum, Jay Gould Railroad Car, or the Bishop's Palace?

These and 281 other nostalgic-sounding museums are listed in an intriguing pocket book entitled the Texas Museums Directory. Published by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, the latest edition of the 61-page booklet is available free from Texas Highway Department visitor centers around the state or from the Survey Committee office, P.O. Box 12276, Austin, 78711.

Skimming the pages of the Museums Directory is like embarking on a time machine journey through the history of Texas. The trip begins at the Odessa Meteorite Museum, where the second largest meteor in the United States slammed into the earth more than 20,000 years ago, gouging out a gigantic crater five miles west of present Odessa. Displays at the site include meteor fragments, documents, and photographs.

Hopping forward several thousand years, one arrives at the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Museum, located 17 miles east of Livingston. Situated on Texas' only Indian reservation, the museum surveys the history of the Alabama and Coushatta tribes as well as other Texas Indians. Natural history dioramas of Tupelo Gum Swamp and Big Thicket, a continuous slide show, an arts and crafts shop, and a restaurant comprise some of the other attractions.

Claiming to be the only known operating steam museum in the world, the Live Steam Museum in the town of Alamo has amassed a collection of all sorts of steam engines and pumps, among them an old cotton gin engine and an oil field engine.

In Harlingen, the Confederate Air Force Flying Museum has admittedly fudged on its name, because it actually exhibits 22 combat airplanes from the World War II era. All are in flying condition and perform at patriotic and educational events throughout the area.

Another mode of transportation has been enshrined in Jefferson, where railroad magnate Jay Gould's sumptuous railroad car is on exhibit. This 88-foot, four-stateroom coach was transported in style across Texas during the 19th century on the Jay Gould Lines. A veritable palace on wheels, it is equipped with a lounge, dining room, kitchen, butler's pantry, and bath.

Still another relic of the Gilded Age, the Bishop's Palace Museum in Galveston has been called one of the most opulent houses in the United States. The towering four-story Victorian mansion was built in 1886 by attorney Col. Walter Gresham, who was brought to the brink of bankruptcy by the project. The structure became known as the Bishop's Palace in 1923 when the Catholic Diocese bought it and, in keeping with its new religious purpose, had demure veils painted over the naked cherubs adorning the palace's painted ceilings.

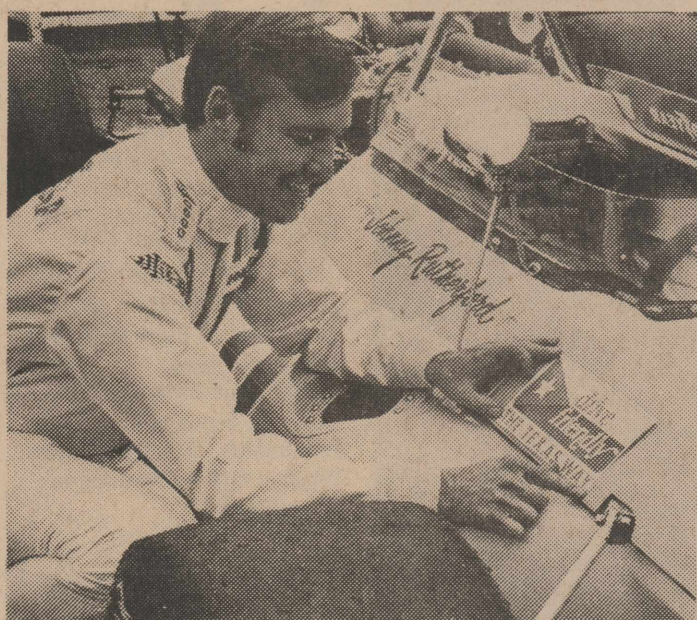

Medicine Mound Trading Post in Quanah, Texas, is a vintage Santa Fe depot which was moved from Medicine Mound in 1964. Chief among its exhibits are railroad equipment and assorted pioneer memorabilia.

Alexander Home After Surgery

Clyde Alexander of Dodson, who underwent major surgery in St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, is now convalescing in his home and doing well, Mrs. Alexander said.

His son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Alexander of Amarillo, brought him home Sunday. Their son, Mark, remained with his grandparents to help them for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. Alexander was hospitalized 15 days.

VETERAN DRIVER ADOPTS "DRIVE FRIENDLY"

United States Auto Club driver Johnny Rutherford affixes a "Drive Friendly" sticker to the Offenhauser powered Formula 1 car he will drive in this year's Memorial Day Indy 500. The Fort Worth resident says he is displaying the theme of the Texas Governor's Committee on Traffic Safety because "just hearing 'drive friendly' automatically makes people watch their driving habits."

Alfred Barton Dies at Matador

A heart attack on Friday, May 26, took the life of Alfred Barton, Sr., 80, of Matador, the father of Mrs. Claude Groves and a native of Motley County.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday, May 28, at First Baptist Church in Matador, of which he was a member.

Mr. Barton was the son of a pioneer Motley couple, Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Barton. He grew up on the Barton community and was married to Miss Josephine Rebecca Barton February 9, 1911. They have made their home on their farm in Matador.

Mr. Barton had visited in his daughter's home many times and had a number of friends here.

Survivors are his wife, Mr. Alfred Barton, Jr., his daughter, Mrs. Groves; 5 brothers, three sisters, 5 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Attending the services from here were Mr. and Mrs. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sweat, and Mr. and Mrs. O.V. Johnson, along with David Groves and Miss Carla Bohannon of Canyon.

WELL-OILED PLANT

The Linder Benzoin spice bush produces oil from its bark that is similar to oil of wintergreen; the oil from the fruit of the plant is like the oil of camphor. Not to be outdone, the leaves of this bush yield an oil like that of oil of lavender.

Harold Lockhart Dies on June 3

Harold J. Lockhart of Ft. Worth, a nephew of Edgar Lockhart, died of a heart attack Saturday, June 3.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Lockhart of Riverbank, Calif.

Former local residents attending the service included his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Herling of Parhandle, Mrs. Buck Judd of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brown of Bethany.

State to Save Texas Red Wolf

AUSTIN -- The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has taken a step toward saving the rare Texas red wolf from extinction.

The commission also designated the six-county area as a "voluntary red wolf management area." The management area concept was suggested to the commission by an official of the Lone Star Chapter of the Sierra Club.

The red wolf (Canis rufus) once ranged over much of the eastern half of the state, but now has dwindled to a small pocket of only about 100 animals. Guns, traps and poisons combined with habitat destruction to exterminate all but this tiny group of animals, biologists say.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

CRIME is moving into the small towns. For decades people in the county seat towns and rural communities have read about organized crime in the metropolitan area until they became convinced in a smug sort of way that syndicated crime was all in the big cities. Growing reports from reliable magazines and newspapers indicate that organized crime is taking root in smaller cities.

ORIGINALLY gangland was a phenomena of the big cities. Then the better salaried people began moving to suburbia and organized crime moved with them in part. It didn't leave the place of its birth, it simply spread out. Harassed by the Federal government and tighter enforcement by the city police the gangsters found it more convenient to move to the suburbs where enforcement was not so strict.

NOW the stories indicate it is moving to smaller towns. For that reason it troubles me when I hear people asking why we need two policemen in Wellington when we have a sheriff and deputy living here and the assistance of the Highway Patrol. In the first place the duties of these men are more extensive. The DPS men patrol miles of highway each day and one of their main duties is the welfare of the travelers on those highways. They assist ten people for every arrest they make in protecting people against themselves and other safety violators. The sheriff and his deputy must cover the whole county and not just this town. We need two policemen all right, one for the day and one for the night. I am of the opinion that we should have had two before now.

THE presidential preference elections this week indicate that the Democrats may be getting their house in a bigger mess each week. The fading Hubert Humphrey lashed out at McGovern for being a radical. Coming from a liberal, populist or what have you of the first rank, these tactics won't restore any harmony or bind up any wounds.

THERE will be plenty of tension in our own state Democratic convention. The coming fight between Orr and White may produce a divided party and result in one Texas delegation not being seated at the National Convention. I am glad that I am not going as a delegate to the precinct conventions because Bill Henard asked me to go. But second I went to make sure I was not selected as a delegate to the county convention.

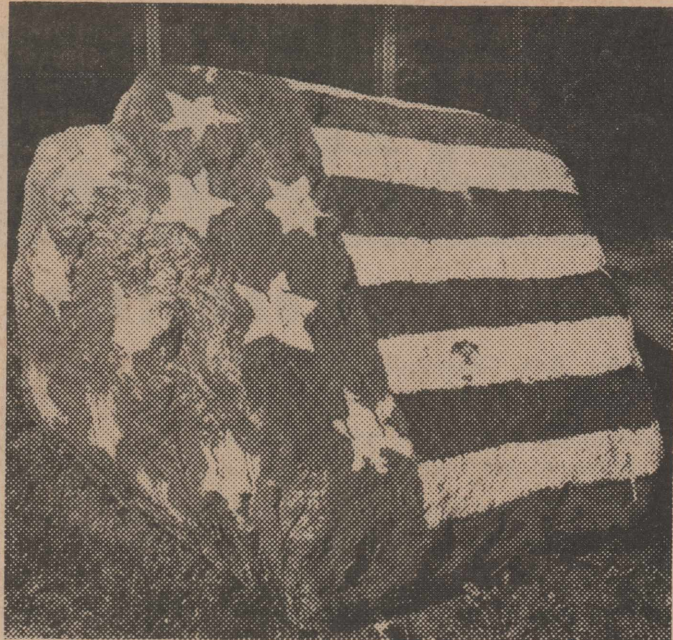

LAST SUNDAY our son loaded the old red wrinkle of a car to the top of the trunk to the right hand side of the front seat to set forth for Washington. The car contained clothing, books and manuscripts. Other items included a record player, barbecue grill, 10 gear bicycle, tennis rackets, cooking utensils and two large potted plants.

HE HAD LEFT many times before with the car loaded to return to Austin or go on trips. There were no real farewells for we knew he would be back still all our own son. This time it was different. As we stood talking in the yard as a faint light began to show in the east, each one of the three of us knew it was real. The young eagle was leaving the nest for the last time.

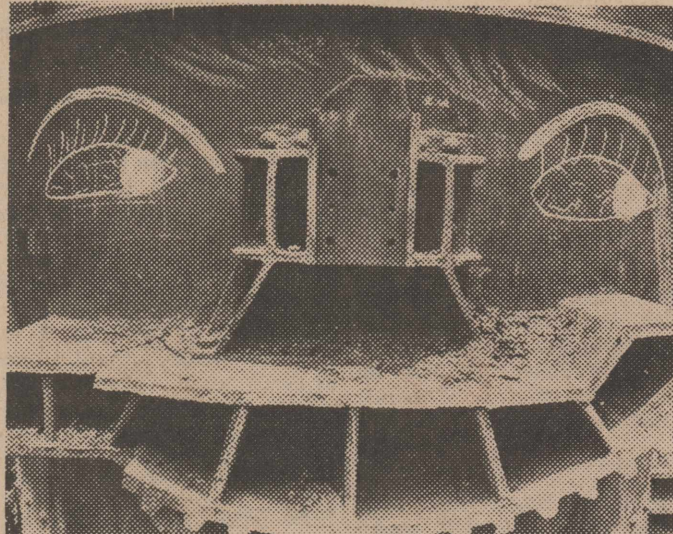

Carey Lewis on Christian Staff

Miss Carey Lewis has joined the staff of Representative Tom Christian in Austin for the summer months. Her duties will be assigned when she reports for work.

Miss Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, attends West Texas State University during the regular session.

SOLID PATRIOTISM one might say of this beflagged rock at Appleton, Wis. Students at Lawrence University did the decorating.

Little League, Pee Wee Suits Badly Needed

Parents of present and former youth baseball players are asked to look in their closets for any Little League or Pee Wee uniforms their children are not now using. Charles Darter has requested.

Mr. Darter, who heads the baseball program this summer, said suits are badly needed for both PeeWees and Little Leaguers.

They can be turned in when players come to practice or brought to Mr. Darter at his office or home, or to Mrs. John Coleman.

There are now approximately 40 PeeWees signed up in the program and 37 in Little League. They will be divided into teams later.

Little Leaguers play each Monday and Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. at Marian Airpark Diamond and the PeeWees each Tuesday and Thursday at 5:00 p.m. at their Ellison Park Diamond.

In answer to inquiries, Rev. Collins said there will definitely be a kindergarten at First Baptist Church this fall. There has been one enrollment period and there will be another in August.

Under Rev. Collins leadership, First Baptist Church has developed its television ministry, established the kindergarten, and called a music and youth director, with the resulting expansion of the church music program. This is in addition to his personal work with the youth of the church.

Okemah, Oklahoma, is the home of both Rev. and Mrs. Collins. This spring, she was selected for inclusion in the volume of Outstanding Young Women of America.

The couple has three children, Lori, 12; Jim Bob, 8; and Timmy, almost three.

Family at Historic New Mexico Area

Over the Memorial Day week end, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Askew and their small daughter, Norma, visited the Sky City, traditional home of her people, the Acoma Indians, in New Mexico. Here they had the opportunity to meet one of the leaders of the Roman Catholic faith, the Archbishop Luigi Raimondi, Apostolic Delegate from the Vatican to the United States.

He was at Acoma to visit the historic church of San Estevan Rey, on which construction was begun in 1629. Except for a few years, it has been used continuously since it was completed and is regarded by many as the oldest church in the United States.

The Askews visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Valley. Mr. Valley is a war chief of the Acoma tribe, and with other leaders of the Acomas, he and his family live at the Sky City during his term of office.

The Sky City, they explain, gets its name from its location on top of a rock mesa which rises abruptly more than 350 feet out of the plains near Grants. It has been inhabited since prehistoric days.

The Askews visited other relatives at nearby Acomita, where most of the Acoma Indians now live, and where Mrs. Askew was born.

Mr. Askew is a member of the Choctaw tribe and grew up in Southeast Oklahoma. They formerly lived in Wellington and were here Sunday to visit friends.

UT Studies Small Farm Prospects

AUSTIN, (Spl.) -- Prospects for small farmers in Southern agriculture are one of many aspects of rural labor markets being studied under a new research project at The University of Texas.

The study on rural labor markets is being made by UT's Center for the Study of Human Resources, under a grant from the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity.

In Boys State, The American Legion provides the type of program where the young citizen has the opportunity to learn for himself that his government is just what he makes of it. The boy "learns to do by doing."

The program takes an added significance this year as the vote is extended to 18 year olds. Most Boys Staters are in the 16 to 17 age category.

Highlight of Boys State will be a trip to the Capitol on Tuesday morning where each elected Boys State Official will be given an opportunity to serve in his respective office for a day.

Boys State enrollment this year is 28,000 boys who have attended since 1940, when Boys State was first inaugurated in Texas.

Department Commander of the American Legion is a Wellington native, Gil Moody of Lubbock.

Lacy Injured in Arizona Accident Thursday Night

Don Lacy is in a Casa Grande, Arizona hospital for treatment of injuries received in a one-vehicle accident about 40 miles from that town Thursday night, June 1.

Mr. Lacy, Wellington High School basketball coach, and his brother, Denzil Lacy, are operating their custom combine equipment in that area. Several Wellington youths are with them.

Ray Shrubs, who was riding with Lacy, was not injured, according to information received by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Nunneley.

Details of the accident were not learned.

Mrs. Don Lacy and their two older children, Lana Kay and Clay Don, and Mrs. Denzil Lacy, left for Casa Grande upon receiving word of the accident.

The pickup driven by Mr. Lacy was reported as a total loss.

BEE-SY, BEE-SY is the word for farmer Saiyoo Yengai of Thailand. His living beard consists of bees, which he coaxed into clustering by taking one from a hive and placing it on his face. The rest followed the leader. The 36-year-old Thai says he took up the odd hobby after reading in a newspaper of an Indian man who had trained bees similarly.

county tax assessor-collector, while Mrs. Owens, the incumbent, polled 612.

In the 100th District Attorney's race, John M. Deaver received 947 votes in Collingsworth County to 515 for Jack Boone.

In the 5-county district, Mr. Deaver received 3,701 votes to 3,105 for his opponent. In a further break-down, the winner took Collingsworth, Donley and Hall counties, while Mr. Boone led in Carson and Childress counties.

ies. His largest lead was in Carson, where the vote was 759 to 564. The Collingsworth vote was Deaver's biggest victory. He also won 601 to 474 in Donley and 876 to 614 in Hall. Mr. Boone carried Childress County 743 to 713.

Mr. Deaver was elected county attorney for Hall County in 1964 and Mr. Boone was appointed district attorney following the July 22, 1968 shooting death of John R. Gillham of Clarendon, who then held the post. Mr. Boone was elected district attorney in the fall of that year.

Ralph Yarborough's loss surprised many in Collingsworth, for during his years in the Senate he had visited here a number of times. Mr. Sanders led 844 to 611.

Dolph Briscoe rounded up the largest number of local votes of any candidate in the second primary, with 1,170 to 301 for his opponent.

Mr. Connolly polled 932 votes to 508 for Bill Hobby.

Robert W. Calvert received 843 votes to 543 for James Wilson.

The Collingsworth County vote by boxes is given on another page of this issue.
