TECH HEAD TO BE TALKED

BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO MEET SATURDAY AT FORT WORTH

Members of the board of directors of Texas Technological college will meet in Fort Worth Saturday to discuss, among other matters, selection of a successor to the late Dr. Paul W. Horn as president of the local school.

Roscoe Wilson, local member of the board, is leaving tonight for Fort Worth. "I hope that we can select a president in the near future," he said. He added that he had not counted the number of applicants for the place, although he had seen the list.

When questioned regarding rumors in wide circulation over the city concerning alleged wholesale dismissal of members of the faculty, Mr. Wilson said, "There is nothing to it." He added that when an announcement regarding faculty members would be made, it would be by the chairman of the board, Clifford B. Jones, of Spur.

Members of the board besides Mr.

BITTER WORDS ARE HURLED BY LEADER

DRY BATTLE WITHOUT COMPROMISE LOOMS IN SOLID SOUTH

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—With bitter words upon his lips, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., turned his back once again today upon the Democratic party, calling for repudiation in the south of the leadership which has espoused repeal, promising the drys will war without compromise.

His sentences rang with echoes of the call the bishop sent out, right after the 1928 Democratic convention at Houston, gathering the prohibition leaders to chart a course against Alfred E. Smith. That led to the rending apart of the solid south, as under Cannon leadership Virginia and North Carolina went for Hoover, along with Florida and Texas.

Last night he announced:

"Representatives of a large majority of the people of the nation who believe and insist that the Eighteenth amendment remain unchanged, will shortly meet in conference and will determine what they consider to be the best method of proceedure."

He set this meeting up against both national conventions, saying both were largely made up of delegates picked by political leaders, no further reference to the Republicans was made, but he asserted:

"It goes without saying that there is not the slightest idea of yielding to this present day whisky rebellion against the 18th amendment. The war with the traffic in intoxicating liquors is an irrepressible conflict. These are simple battles in the war, in which there will be no retreat. No surrender, no compromise."

Dr S. C. Dinwiddie, secretary of the National Prohibition Board of Strategy, also said today the leaders present at the convention would meet right after it is over and lay

TWO THUGS LOOT BANK AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, July 1 (AP)—The suburban Harrisburg National bank here was robbed at noon today by two men. President W. J. Stoner estimated the loss at $5,000.

Stoner, and two bank employes and a customer were locked in the vault. The robbers fled in a small sedan.

Cashier M. P. Longley and his brother, William Longley, were able after working at the vault combination for nearly ten minutes to effect their release and the release of Stoner and L. F. Smith, a customer.

In a police bulletin sent out to substations over the city both bandits were described as being in their twenties.

Police Exonerate Willie Lancaster

"White Pants Willie" Lancaster, former moving picture projectionist here, released from county jail Thursday by order of the Lubbock police department, was exonerated of complicity in the Memorial day bombings of the Lindsey and Palace theaters here, T. D. Whitehorn, police detective here, said this morning.

Lancaster was brought here late Wednesday from Greenville by Whitehorn and Ranger Edgar T. Neal of Lubbock. Police Chief Wiley L. Metcalfe, on announcing Lancaster's release, confirmed a report that Lancaster was here.

Two other men, charged jointly with Lancaster in justice court here June 13 in connection with the theater blasts, have not been apprehended. Police Chief Metcalfe said this morning.

Hoover Signs Bill For Expenses Cut

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—President Hoover today signed without comment the $982,000,000 independent offices appropriation bill, under which the expenses of his own office and the White House must be drastically reduced.

The chief executive must reduce his traveling expenses from $25,000 to $20,000 and only $35,000 will be allowed for contingent expenses, a reduction of $8,500. A cut of $17,000 was approved for upkeep of the executive mansion and grounds.

DIVER IS INJURED

Vaughn Story, a hotel employe here suffered concussion of the brain and severe lacerations of the face and scalp when he dived into a concrete tank near Lubbock last night. He was taken to West Texas hospital, treated, and regained consciousness at about 3 o'clock this morning. He was released this morning.

STAND PAT FOR GARNER

TEXAS GROUPS, CALIFORNIA HOLD LINE

INCREASED OPTIMISM IS EXPRESSED BY DELEGATIONS

BY FRED DYE
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—As the wee small hours of July 1 changed into those of decidedly greater numerical value, Texas and California held fast to the standard of John N. Garner at the Democratic national convention and leaders of both delegations expressed increased optimism.

A combined caucus of the Texas and California delegations was called for 6 p. m., today by State Senator Woodul of Texas, one of the Garner leaders.

On the first roll call, started at 4:28 a. m. and reported tallied at 6:15 a. m., Garner got his instructed 90 votes, 44 from California and 46 from Texas, and picked up one-fourth vote from Illinois.

No Compromise Seen

While the clerks and the chairman dallied with the figures, Missouri changed twelve of her votes to F. D. Roosevelt and the Missourians began shouting at the Texans to "come on over." The Texans squelched that appeal by a similar invitation. During the calling of the second ballot, visitors from numerous delegations were at the Texans' section but there was no offer of compromise from Texas or California.

It was 4:02 o'clock this morning when William Gibbs McAdoo got in the final say in behalf of Garner, making a resounding five-minute seconding speech. At 2:35 Senator Tom Connally of Marlin moved an adjournment but was howled down by those anxious to lock horns in the first test of strength. He tried it again at 2:45 a. m. but got nowhere and the roll call of states for nominations and seconding

Ernest Becker To Speak Here Today

DALLAS, July 1 (AP)—Ernest Becker of Dallas, candidate for attorney general, announced he would begin an active speaking campaign in West Texas, speaking at Lamesa, Slaton and Lubbock.

Tomorrow he planned to speak at Plainview at 9 a. m., Floydada at 11:30 a. m., Matador at 2 p. m., Paducah at 4 p. m., at Crowell at 6 p. m. and Vernon at 8:30 p. m.

PLAINVIEW MAN BURNS TO DEATH

PLAINVIEW, July 1. (AP)—D. M. Thompson, 49, farmer, died last night of burns suffered when gasoline he was pouring on ant beds exploded, igniting his clothes. Thompson at one time served as a member of the Plainview city commission. He was superintendent of a large farm near here and also was active in business circles.

THREE BALLOTS FAIL TO NAME PARTY PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE AFTER NIGHTLONG MEETING

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT OF NEW YORK FAR AHEAD OF NEAREST RIVAL WITH SMITH HOLDING TO SECOND PLACE; GARNER INCREASES VOTE

BY BYRON PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO STADIUM, July 1. (AP)—After a tumultuous nightlong session, the Democratic national convention fell into the tightening grip of a deadlock at dawn today, took three fruitless ballots for a presidential nominee, and then adjourned until tonight, to think it over.

Governor Roosevelt of New York, far ahead of his nearest rival, mustered a slowly-rising majority on each succeeding ballot, but was unable to make the real progress which his managers had predicted toward the two-thirds needed to nominate.

Nine Candidates Still In Race

On the third ballot, the official count showed 682 for Roosevelt, 190 for Alfred E. Smith, 101 for Speaker Garner, 52 for Governor George White of Ohio, 40 for Melvin Traylor, 27 for James A. Reed, 24 for Harry

HERE'S RESULT OF THREE VOTES

CHICAGO STADIUM, July 1 (AP)—Here's how they stood on the three ballots:

Roosevelt	666 1-4	677 3-4	682 79-100
Smith	201 3-4	194 1-4	190 1-4
Garner	90 1-4	99 1-4	101 1-4
White	52	50 1-2	52 1-2
Traylor	42 1-4	40 1-4	40 1-4
Reed	24	18	27 1-2
Byrd	25	24	24 96-100
Murray	23
Ritchie	21	23 1-2	23 1-2
Baker	8 1-2	8	8 1-2
Rogers	--	22	--

Byrd, 23 for Governor Ritchie of Maryland, and 8 for Newton D. Baker. It would have required, on this ballot, 768 to nominate.

The Roosevelt managers, working like beavers among the weary delegates, had made inroads here and there, picking up votes by driblets. At the same time some of the Roosevelt states were showing signs of wavering under the pounding counter-attack of the bloc of favorite sons.

The Missouri delegation, pledged to Reed, collapsed and toppled most of its votes into the Roosevelt column. The candidacy of Gov. Murray of Oklahoma lasted but one ballot; but when the governor himself released his delegates, they divided among other favorite sons, and none of them went to the New Yorker.

There were definite signs of agitation in the Texas and California delegations, pledged to Speaker Garner, with Roosevelt figuring as the most likely beneficiary, should a real break come. The inside circle of convention leaders heard much talk of a combination involving the vice-presidential nomination. Both Garner and William G. McAdoo, chairman of the California delegation, were mentioned in convention floor gossip as possible vice-presidential nominees with Roosevelt.

Leaders Carry On

The adjournment was until 8:30 p. m., but even as they filed out of the coliseum the leaders were carrying on into private conferences their efforts to arrive at some breakdown which would avert anything like the long deadlock eight years ago in Madison Square Garden.

Roosevelt's gains had been steady, small as they were. On the first ballot he had 666, on the second 677, and on the third 682. The additions on the second roll call had come from Indiana, Missouri, New York, North Dakota, Ohio and Alaska. On the second ballot he took 2 1-2 from Reed in Missouri, 1 1-2 from Smith in New York, 2 from White in Ohio, and 1 from

ROOSEVELT IS CONFIDENT

NEW YORKER SURE OF WINNING NOMINATION FOR PRESIDENCY

(By The Associated Press)

EXECUTIVE MANSION, ALBANY, N. Y., July 1—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, after gaining slightly more than 16 votes in three ballots, was confident he would win the presidential nomination as the Democratic national convention adjourned its all-night session today.

Asked if he was still confident that he would win the nomination, the governor replied emphatically:

"I am."

He added:

"The boys in Chicago are pleased and confident."

After his all-night vigil by the radio, Governor Roosevelt appeared fresh and in high spirits. He looked less fatigued than his sons, Elliott and John. His linen suit was hardly wrinkled.

"I expect to take a nap for a couple of hours," he said.

"After that, I expect I shall be pretty busy on the telephone."

He indicated he would be hard at work with James A. Farley and his other lieutenants in Chicago, trying to break down the opposition in which he made slight but constantly increasing inroads as the ballots proceeded today.

Governor Roosevelt was highly pleased that his lines had held as well as they had.

The third presidential ballot found Governor Roosevelt still stood by the two loud speakers in the rambling old executive mansion, where on a mantle still stands large framed photographs of former Governor and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith.

The governor was seated in his study in a big arm chair where he spent the night listening to the proceedings in Chicago. A table, strewn with bits of paper, was drawn up before him, and at the table sat his sons busily figuring away.

While the second ballot was being taken, Governor Roosevelt's breakfast was sent in to him on a tray.

Government Ends Fiscal Year Nearly Three Billion In Hole

MAN AGREES TO PAY RANSOM

FATHER OF KIDNAPED BOY IS WILLING TO GIVE $35,000

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 1—Willingness to pay $35,000 ransom for the return of his kidnaped son, Haskell Bohn, 20, was expressed today by Debhard C. Bohn, wealthy refrigerator manufacturer of St. Paul.

Young Bohn was seized by two men yesterday at the garage of his home. He was blindfolded, and thrust into an automobile by the men, who had pistols. The kidnapers left a note demanding $35,000.

"I will pay the $35,000 ransom demanded for my son," said Mr. Bohn. "I will keep lanes open to encourage the kidnapers to begin negotiations.

"The return of my son is what I want. It is all I have in mind."

Police expressed belief the kidnaping was planned by St. Paul gangsters, who brought in two outsiders to do the actual abducting.

RECEIPTS DECLINE AS EXPENDITURES SHOW HEAVY INCREASE

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The government ended the fiscal year last night with a $2,885,000,000 deficit, compared with one of $903,000,000 for 1931.

In making the announcement today, Secretary Mills of the treasury said total receipts for the year amounted to $2,121,000,000, a decline of $1,196,000,000 from 1931, while expenditures were $5,006,000,000, a gain of $786,000,000 over the previous year.

Increase Explained

The increase, Mills said, may be accounted for by expanded governmental construction activities and payments under the settlement of war claims act, the postal deficiency and payment for the capital stock of the Reconstruction Finance corporation and the federal land banks.

Mills said retirements of United States obligations to meet sinking fund requisements chargeable against ordinary receipts total $412,000,000, so that the deficit, exclusive of debt retirement, amounted to $2,473,000,000.

THIRD DEGREE CLAIM MADE

PROSECUTION NEARING END IN TRIAL OF JOHN H. CURTIS

(By The Associated Press)

FLEMINGTON, N. J., July 1—Inspector Harry Walsh, who obtained John Hughes Curtis' "hoax confession," testified today that after the kidnaped Lindbergh baby's body was found Curtis may have been "put in the cellar" of the Lindbergh home to sleep.

Testifying as the prosecution neared the end of its case in the Curtis trial for hindering capture of the baby's kidnapers, Walsh was questioned on cross examination as to treatment Curtis received after it was discovered the baby had been murdered.

"You have no actual knowledge of the treatment of Curtis?" Lloyd Fisher of defense counsel asked.

"I was away most of the time," Walsh replied, "and when there usually spent the time sleeping. I understand Curtis' treatment was of the highest."

"During your trips and numerous snoozes at the estate," Fisher persisted, "Curtis may have been put in the cellar to sleep."

"I don't know," Walsh said, "but if he was it was no hardship. I slept in the cellar. He's no better than I am."

Fisher's questions were a part of the defense attempt to prove that Curtis was mistreated by police between the time the baby's body was found and the time when Curtis made his confession, which he has since repudiated.

TEN OR MORE PLANES EXPECTED TO ARRIVE TODAY FOR AIRCRAFT SHOW

Ten or more airplanes of a variety of types and sizes were expected to arrive at Lubbock municipal airport this afternoon and tonight for an aircraft show, the first attempted here. The planes will be exhibited in the hangar, demonstrated in the air by their respective pilots, and will be flown in formation, as a part of the show, which began officially today and is expected to be well under way by Saturday morning.

The hangar has been decorated for the show. Flags hang or flutter from staves on top of the hangar and at other vantage points, and hang from beams inside the hangar. A cold drink stand was being erected this morning. A radio was on, a sound box in the hangar being attached.

A type of ship never before to visit the local field arrived at 7:40 p. m. Thursday with T. M. Vaughn of Tucson, Ariz., at the stick. The plane is a tri-motored Air Transport, said by Airport Manager W. C. Breedlove to be a type used considerably on the west coast. The Air Transport is a six-place monoplane powered with three LeBlond motors.

R. M. (Duke) Ressler, flying a NB8, arrived Wednesday from Marshall, Mo., for the display. Four

CONVENTION PARADES JUST A LOT OF SORE FEET; MILEAGE IS IMPRESSIVE

BY BRIAN BELL

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—When all the parades in the Chicago stadium were laid end to end there were a lot of sore feet. Many Democrats have done more walking in the last 24 hours than they had done in 24 days. The mileage was impressive.

The unencumbered paraders, unarmed and simply going for the walk, were the amateurs. The men and women carrying a flag or standard in one hand and a rattle, tambourine or bell in the other were the pros. They lost their amateur standing at some other convention, many years ago.

The Chicago stadium, with a sparse few thousand occupants no doubt is a comfortable place in which to watch a sporting event, especially a hockey game. Pack 25,000 to 30,000 persons around and above the arena and it is something else. It is hot enough sitting still with a fan on each side. Only the rugged can parade under such conditions.

The veterans of other conventions loomed above their

MUNDAY MAN IS SHOT TO DEATH

HASKELL, July 1 (AP)—C. E. Bolt, 51, of Munday, was shot to death about 4 a. m. today at a barn on the farm of C. R. Elliott, sheriff of Knox county. Sheriff Elliott surrendered to Haskell county officers whom he called to the scene.

Elliott told investigating officers he had been guarding his barn, five miles north of Weinert in Haskell county, several nights. He said a car occupied by two men stopped near the barn this morning. One went into the barn and carried out several sets of harness, throwing them over a fence on the other side of which the car had been parked.

The sheriff said he commanded the man, who was Bolt, to halt. When Bolt failed to comply with his order, the officer fired four times with a shotgun. A court of inquiry was planned today at Haskell.

Picnics And Other Informalities Feature Society In Lubbock This Week-End

Extend Courtesies For Visitors Here

Chief among the diversions for the week-end have been picnics and swimming parties and these informalities will continue through July the Fourth, a holiday for numbers in the city.

Other events during the last week have included a number of informal dinners and gatherings complimenting Mrs. Shelby Robbins of Colton, Calif., a former Lubbock resident and the house guest of Mrs. H. A. Davidson.

Intermediates at Asbury Methodist church attended a picnic at City Park Thursday evening. About twenty children attended, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Williamson, Mrs. B. H. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brewer, Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Carter. Boys in the group played baseball at the church before going to the park.

Young people in the church are to attend a picnic this evening at the park at Twenty-Third street and Avenue K.

About 25 First Baptist young people who are members of the Big Chief B. Y. P. U. expect to go to Lake Kemp near Wichita Falls for this week-end, it was announced this morning. The sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robertson, will accompany him.

Thirty-five members of the senior department at First Methodist church attended an outing at Shannon park Thursday evening. Miss Maxine Burrus directed games and a picnic supper was served.

Misses Mary Emma and Betty Simmons of Sweetwater, who are guests in the home of their uncle, George Simmons, 2124 Broadway, are to be complimented with an afternoon party today when Mrs. E. J. Parsons entertains in her home, 2523 19th street.

The Misses Simmons will leave for their home Saturday afternoon.

Members of the Wednesday Needle club are to attend a picnic at the Country club at 6:45 o'clock this evening. Mrs. Shelby Robbins of Colton, Calif., will be the honor guest.

A group of the younger set is to go to Buffalo Springs tonight for a swim and picnic supper.

Several young people attended a picnic supper at Shannon park Thursday evening. These included Misses Mary Cammack, Carolyn Whitworth, Josephine Powell, Eva Russell, Dinaween Bridgeman and John Henry Vaughan, David Smith, Harold Humphries, Padgett Maddox, and Dawson Bridgeman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bridgeman and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Vaughan were chaperones.

Members of the Trailers club are to dance at the Hilton hotel beginning at 8:30 o'clock this evening.

The host committee is composed of Messrs. and Mesdames W. O. Stevens, Johnnie Robinson of Plains, E. J. Parsons, W. C. Pryor, J. L. Quicksall, Fred Snyder, W. F. Schenck, Edgar Shelton, B. O. McWhorter, W. G. Murray, C. D. Swift, Dr. and Mrs. Jerome Smith and Mrs. L. D. Stevens.

Interest of women who are members of the Country club is centered in the benefit party which is to be given at the club house Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Homer Grant is chairman of the committee which is composed of Mesdames W. H. Meador, Fred W. Standefer, E. L. Klett, Jerome Smith, Lee Quillen and A. W. Evans. Tickets are on sale at 35 cents and anyone wishing to play is to call one of the committee members.

Piano Recital Given By Two Girls

Miss Margaret Huff presented her nieces, Dofia and Olive Huff, in piano recital Thursday afternoon at the R. A. Holland home, 1311 14th street, as an honor to Mrs. T. B. Russell and daughters, Geraldine and Virginia, who are visiting here from Cuero.

Mrs. Russell is the sister of Mrs. M. W. Huff, mother of the two young girls, and is visiting in her home.

Dona's program consisted of "Sonatina" (Allegro and Rondo), Clementi; "Moment Musicale," Schubert; "Columbine," Delahaye and "Second Mazurka" by Godard.

Olive Huff played "Sonatina in G" (Allegro and Romance.) Beethoven; "On the Mountain," Rogers; "The Spinning Wheel" and "Rondo a la Turk", by Burgmuller.

A number of friends attended.

Salesmen and peddlers are not permitted to show their wares to or use high-powered sales talk on employes at the Montana capitol.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

BOOKS ARE COMMENDED

Frequently in this column I have suggested books designed to help parents improve more or less directly their parenthood. I have also said that some parents who take their parental responsibilities too seriously might do well to avoid such books, the implication being that other books might prove more profitable to them and, indirectly, to their children.

We owe it to our children to enrich our intellectual interests, to bring to the dinner table and the fireside worthwhile things to talk about. Our older children also wish to do their best at self-improvement.

The Cleveland Public Library has just issued a folder, the contents of which I am taking the liberty to give, hoping that my readers will be helped thereby. Most or all these books should be found in your public library.

YOURSELF: "About Ourselves," Overstreet (help in understanding human nature); "Charm," McBride and Williams (a book about it and those who have it, for those who want it); "Energizing Personality," Brown (how to translate being into doing). YOUR LOOKS: "Beauty and Health," Leeds and Kaji; "Individuality and Clothes," Story (the blue book of personal attire); "Secrets of Charm," Huddleston (self-treatment in beauty). YOUR MANNERS: "Etiquete," Post (the blue book of social usage); "Manners," Hathaway (rules for all occasions); "Log Cabin Lady" (from backwoods to diplomatic circles). YOUR HEALTH: "Eat, Drink and Be Healthy," Lieb (diet suggestions by an authority on nutrition); "Sleep; Why We Need It and How to Get It," Laird. YOUR MIND: "Mastering Your Own Mind," Alexander (how to control your thoughts); "Self-Direction and Adjustment," Fenton (helpful hints for brain workers); "Mental Efficiency," Bennett (adventuring through one's mind).

YOUR EMOTIONS: "The Conquest of Happiness," Russell; "The Inferiority Feeling," Walsh (causes and remedies); "Outwitting Our Nerves," Jackson and Salsbury (how to harness your motive power). YOUR CHARACTER: "Solving Life's Everyday Problems," Gilky (ways we sometimes miss); "What Men Live By," Cabot (working plan for a rounded life); "Twelve Tests of Character," Fosdick (practical religion and right living). YOUR VITAL POWERS: "Love's Coming-of-Age," Carpenter; "Little Essays of Love and Virtue," Ellis. Our problems come these days "by the dozens in assorted varieties" and sometimes the brightness of the sun seems dimmed by the clouds of depression. But if we but stop for a minute and think of others we will find we are not so bad off after all—the clouds roll away and we find we have much to be thankful for.

Any troubles we may have are banished by the pleasure we get in proving to you day by day that

KEEP COOL WITH HILLS BROS

COFFEE—iced

TO A FROSTY GOODNESS

HERE'S one drink that never fails to freshen a thirsty throat . . . to bolster you up and help you through a hard, hot day . . . Hills Bros. Coffee, iced to a cheering, chilling goodness.

What relief and new life you find, as you drink it slowly—savoring each sip—making the most of that rich, exquisite flavor! For here is coffee at the height of flavor-perfection. Coffee with the taste that Nature intends—developed by perfect roasting! Lift a golden-brown, icy glass to your lips, and meet a taste and refreshment you never dreamed of. What a drink it is! For Hills Bros.' exclusive Controlled Roasting process roasts the coffee-berries to flavor-protection . . . never under-roasts nor over-roasts.

Really, you haven't any idea how delightful iced coffee is, unless you've tasted Hills Bros. Order some today, by name, and look for the Arab trademark on the can.

HOW TO MAKE A MARVELOUS GLASS OF HILLS BROS COFFEE—Iced

Prepare Hills Bros. Coffee in your regular way. Then instead of adding ice to the hot coffee, cool it in a pitcher or dish—and chill in your refrigerator. Do not add ice until ready to serve—for ice dilutes the delightful, bracing flavor. Serve with cream, if desired, and sweeten to taste.

The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness—the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh. No can of Hills Bros. Coffee will ever "go stale." The vacuum can keeps it

WOMENFOLK OF SIX CONTENDERS FOR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION STARRED IN DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION DRAMA

BY MARGUERITE YOUNG

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—The womenfolk of six contenders starred in the Democratic nomination drama—a drama in which official feminine participation was more spectacular than ever before in a political convention.

Candidates' kin last night contributed political as well as human interest. Mrs. Melvin A. Traylor declared a "personal-second choice of darkhorse Newton Baker" even as she watched a demonstration for her own husband.

Relatives Watch

Mrs. "Alfalfa Bill" Murray apparently stayed away. But the Smiths, the Roosevelts, a Byrd, a Reed and a White were watching all night long in Chicago stadium.

It was the approach of a climax for women. Feminine delegates, seconders and enthusiasts—taking possession of the platform; joining and leading in the wild, parading, howling demonstrations; stilling the throng with formal speeches—these had given more than their proportionate share to the day's activities.

The preliminary jockeying in which they couldn't lead was done, and the women on the floor seemed to realize this was their day. They made the most of it.

In a box directly across from the speakers, Anna Roosevelt Dall followed her father's progress with so much rooting she actually lost her voice.

With this blonde, vivacious leading contestant's daughter sat her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Roosevelt. They glowed with confidence.

"Of course, he'll get it," Anna called out. "what ballot it'll be I don't know. But I hope it's soon."

Later, when an Iowa Roosevelt-pledged delegate rose and seconded Alfred E. Smith, however, she gazed over the carpet of human heads with a very sober visage.

"Peculiar Speech"

"What a peculiar speech!" she exclaimed, putting down and forgetting her lemonade.

The moment was one of triumph in a box on the same side of the stadium—from which the Smiths looked on. Emily Smith Warner exulted: "There! And there'll be more of such, I believe, tonight."

Her mother looked on in evident suspense.

Between the mother and daughter sat Mrs. Daniel Mooney, wife of their man's long-time friend. They were joined later by Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of New York, reiterating "he's going over, way way over."

Between Roosevelt and Smith groups the Traylors watched—Mrs. Traylor, a patrician dark beauty perfectly garbed in pink and brown, her sub-deb daughter, blonde and 17, and Melvin Traylor, jr., 16.

It was, Mrs. Traylor said, "a great honor for Mr. Traylor, to be mentioned."

"But It's Nice"

"They promised me they'd omit this"—she gestured to the strutting Traylorites, "but at that it's nice to know we have so many friends."

It was then Mrs. Traylor, asked if she had a second choice, swiftly responded, "personally I'd like very much to see Baker nominated."

At the rim of the noise-making throng sat Mrs. James A. Reed of Missouri, white-haired, gracious and calm. She received a call from Genevieve Clark Thomson, who saw her own father, Champ Clark, lose the nomination under the two-thirds rule in 1912.

The rangy Oklahoma candidate himself didn't know whether Mrs. Murray was there. She stayed out of the fray, though she had attended all previous sessions, making picturesque comment.

Famed Film Name To Shine Again

Wallace Reid, jr., shown here with his mother, Dorothy Davenport Reid, wants the first picture in which he appears to be a racing story—like the kind in which his father, the late Wallace Reid (below), starred. Mrs. Reid is planning his film debut, but will let Wally shape his own career after that.

MORE ROAD JOBS WILL BE AWARDED

AUSTIN, July 1. (AP) (AP)—Highway construction bids for projects in fifteen counties, estimated to cost in excess of $500,000, were received by the Texas Highway commission today. It planned to make awards for about 175 miles of improvements, most of the work to be in the nature of maintenance jobs.

The commission yesterday contracted for $1,559,714 worth of improvements, including sixty miles of concrete pavement. A number of bridge projects were contracted.

Today's bids were for work in Culberson, Pecos, Crockett, Runnels, Coleman, Bailey, Lamb, Crosby, Karnes, Wheeler, Dewitt, Wilbarger, Andrews, Jefferson, and Orange counties.

Yesterday's contracts were for projects in Wheeler, Panola, Houston, Trinity, Calhoun, Jackson, Matagorda, Washington, Madison, Childress, Tyler, Val Verde, Harrison, Erath, Wood, Caldwell, Gray, Delta, Lamar, Coke, Harrison counties.

DOG EAT DOG

LOS ANGELES—Mrs. Edna Dennis asked $19.50 of C. W. Woodward owner of a dog which, she asserted, bit her pet Duke. Mrs. Dennis wanted the sum to pay for a beauty operation upon the nose of her shepherd dog. Judge Robert W. Kenny asserted that since the state's "one-bite" dog law was considered to apply to a human only, Woodward would not have to pay.

MATCH PLAY RESUMED IN CITY NET TOURNEY

PIRATES HOLD TO LEAD IN NATIONAL

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

In this alleged age of gin and jazz, dissipation and disapproval, tabloid and turbulence, it is refreshing to reflect on the physical progress at least, of the world at large and Americans in particular. The ancient Greeks and Romans expostulated at length upon their athletic prowess; history records it and early fiction writers have enlarged upon it much to the delight of our forefathers when the latter were young.

The records of ancient athletes is pooh-poohed by the present generation just as the first automobile and the first steamboat is pooh-poohed. It is an era of pooh-poohers. Ask Mr. John Average what the national bird is and he'll probably tell you it is that species hatched when breath is exhaled between lips and tongue in that peculiar fashion. What we're trying to get at is the comparison, or contrast, between present day athletes and their abilities and old time athletes and theirs. This Machine Age, designed to lessen physical effort in work, is complemented by this Athletic Age tending to increase physical effort in play.

Grantland Rice, another high powered scribe, draws a comparison of the times in a recent magazine article as follows:

"There is grave doubt today that the world at large can present a statesman who is in the same class with Pericles—that it can show a poet who can sing with 'deep-brow'd' Homer—hat it has a sculptor who ranks with Phidias—or any set of philosophers who can march on to immortality with Socrates, Plato and Aristotle.

"No one today seems to be starting another Golden Age. No one is writing another Iliad or another Odyssey. But when we compare runners and jumpers, discus and javelin throwers, the betting shows that the Olympic winners of Ancient Greece would be left far behind the coming record-breakers at Los Angeles in July and August of 1932. That may make Homer, Pericles, Phidias and other ancient heroes smile wanly in their Stygian retreats . . ."

Again Mr. John Average, whose creed is "On With the Show," pipes up to inquire who the heck wants another Iliad or Odyssey when there are plenty of mystery thrillers—a Homeric poet when there are so many crooners like Rudy Valee and lyric-writers like Irving Berlin—a philosopher like Plato when we've got wits like Will Rogers and Schnozzle Durante—or a Cleopatra when we've got Greta Garbo.

Record-equalling and record-breaking feats at the Olympiad in Los Angeles this summer will make the early Greek games on Mt. Olympus look like a chess tournament on the eve of the 500-mile speed classic at Indianapolis.

If you ask us, which you didn't, we'd say that the United States Golf association pulled a N. Y. State Boxing commission stunt when it made Gus Moreland give back the 12-cylindered sport job he won at the Trans-Mississippi tournament and failed to name him on the Walker Cup team.

That, brothers, was one of the most uncomplimentary deeds the U. S. G. A. has done since it was organized. It borders on the Schmeling-Sharkey mess for pure disloyalty to the winner. If the association forbade acceptance of the automobile as a trophy for winning a big tournament, why didn't it say so before the tournament was over? The Trans-Miss body had the foresight to inquire as to the legality of awarding the car and was under the impression everything was oke. Moreland played hard for that trophy and won it in one of the most sensational golf games of the season, then hhd it taken away from him rather than forfeit his amateur standing. To leave the Dallas youngster, as well as Johnny Goodman of Omaha, off the Walker Cup international team was a more than silly move.

So you'll excuse us while we go into the big shot's office and ask him to withhold our paychecks in the future on the grounds that it might injure our amateur standing.

WOMEN TENNIS STARS STILL MAY ENTER

NEARLY FIFTY ENTER ALL-CITY MEET ON THE FIRST DAY

Women netters of Lubbock who have not entered the all-city championships tennis tournament will have that opportunity at 2 o'clock this afternoon at a meeting in the Texas Tech gymnasium.

The entry list for women tennis players was held open another day in the hopes that a larger number would enter the tournament.

Men's singles got under way yesterday afternoon. Match play was resumed this morning to continue throughout the day. Semi-finals are scheduled for tomorrow morning and finals tomorrow afternoon.

Fifty Entered

Nearly fifty players were on hand yesterday for first round drawings. Twenty-five of them entered the men's singles event. There were ten doubles teams and two mixed doubles teams to report.

Ten Matches Played

Eight first round and two second round matches in men's singles were played yesterday. Frazier McCrummen defeated Paul Clark, 6-8, 6-2, in a first round match and then turned back Terrell, 6-0, 6-3 to advance to the quarter-final round as one of the tournament favorites.

In the classic match of the afternoon, Hubert Bell defeated Toothacher, 6-1, 5-7 and 8-6. The match lasted nearly three hours and had a large gallery before it finished.

Jim Stahl defeated Ralph Brock, 6-4, 7-5, in a first round match and on over Charles Truett, 6-3, 6-0 in a second round go.

Hank Roberts defeated Buster Moxley, 6-0, 6-0.

Albert Symes won over Orville Jenkins, 6-2, 6-0.

Carl Nail defeated J. E. Cole, 6-2, 6-3.

Roscoe Etter won over Copeland, 6-3, 6-0.

Renford Taylor eliminated Cecil Bickley, 6-2, 6-4.

MRS. MOODY WINS WIMBLEDON TITLE

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 1. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody today won the Wimbledon tennis championship for the fifth time, defeating Helen Jacobs, fellow Californian, in the final match 6-3, 6-1.

Mrs. Moody won the Wimbledon title first in 1927 as Helen Wills and repeated the next three years. She did not go abroad last year and the title fell to Cilly Aussem, of Germany, who did not compete this year.

The American champion's victory repeated the result of the last meeting between the two American women, Mrs. Moody winning last summer, in the finals of the Seabright, N. J., tourney, 6-0, 6-0.

OLD MAN PAR IS LICKED IN MEET

CANTERBURY CLUB, CLEVELAND, July 1 (AP)—After giving old man par a thorough licking in the opening round of the Western Golf association championship, a field of 147 players started out this morning on the second 18 holes, closely bunched.

Eighty-nine golfers were at the top of the score board within 10 strokes of the leader, youthful Alfred Sargent of Toledo.

Laying his iron shots dead to the pin, Sargent, who will be 24 tomorrow, gained a one stroke lead by (both counted out simultaneously after one hour 35 minutes).

ALBANY, N. Y. — Leo Numa, 218, Portland, Ore., threw Reginald Siki, 213, Senegal, 27:10.

MONTREAL, Que.— Earl McCready, 228, Oklahoma, won in straight fall from Steve Zonoski, 218, New Jersey; Sam Stein, 202, Newark, won two falls out of three from Whitey Hewitt, 213, Memphis.

EXPORTERS WIN OVER HOUSTON TO REACH FIRST PLACE

(By The Associated Press)

Intent on convincing the runners-up that their first half championship was no accident, the Beaumont Exporters regained undisputed leadership over the Texas league last night by beating Houston, 3 to 2.

The second such victory in successive evenings, it left the Exporters at the top of the standings with a cool 1.000, the Buffaloes at the bottom with an unblemished .000 and their six remaining colleagues in the circuit with an average of .500 apiece. Pitcher Luke Hamlin of the Exporters won his own game with a single scoring Easterling in the ninth.

Steers Whip Cats

George Murray pitched a five-hit shutout to enable the Dallas Steers to beat Fort Worth 8 to 0. It was Murray's eleventh victory of the season. The Steers made 15 hits, all off Milt Steengrafe, who resigned in favor of Paul Gribble in the seventh.

The Longview Cannibals took Tyler, 5-2, with a batting attack in the sixth and seventh innings that produced four of the runs. Gerald robbed Hank Thormahlen of the Buccaneers of a shutout in the last half of the ninth. He doubled to score Shortstop Schofield for the Indians' only run.

WARNER GROUP ON WAY TO LUBBOCK

A delegation of Stamford university football coaches, headed by Glenn S. (Pop) Warner himself, is on its way to Lubbock and the second annual Texas Tech Coaching school.

According to a communication received by Pete Cawthon, Tech Coach and promoter of the school, Warner and his two assistants, Claude (Tiny) Thornhill, line coah, and Charles (Chunk) Winterburn, backfield coach left Palo Alto, Calif. yesterday morning. They plan a leisurely automobile trip through California, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico and expect to arrive here on Saturday, July 9.

At Lubbock, Warner will join Hunk Anderson, head coach at Notre Dame, as principles in the football department of the coaching school which starts on Monday, July 11. Anderson will bring Marchmont Schwartz who will assist in backfield demohstrations.

Dr. Forrest C. (Phog) Allen of the University of Kansas, nationally recognized basketball authority, will head that department at the school. Other faculty members are Clyde Littlefield of the University of Texas, Jack Meagher of Rice, Rip Miller of Navy and Ray Morrison of S. M. U.

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Jim Levey, Browns — Drubbed White Sox pitchers for triple, double and two singles.

Wes Farrell, Indians—Scattered Tigers' nine hits and drove in three runs himself with double and two singles.

Arndt Jorgens, Yankees — Drove in four runs against Red Sox with double and two singles.

Bill Terry, Giants—Led attack on Braves' pitching with 15th homer and two singles.

Chuck Klein, Phillies—Clouted 23rd and 24th homers against Dodgers.

Guy Bush, Cubs—Blanked Reds with 8 hits.

Bill Swift, Pirates—His relief pitching stopped Cardinals and enabled Pirates to win.

Abilene Star Off For Olympic Trials

ABILENE, July 1. (AP)—Elmer "Bulldog" Gray, Abilene Christian college runner who bettered the national collegiate 880 record at Chicago recently, left Thursday for two weeks of training on California tracks before the final tryouts for the United States olympic team. The final qualifying meet will be staged at Palo Alto July 15-16.

Gray is a candidate for the team in the 800-meters event. He will be opposed by twelve or fifteen other middle distance stars, qualified through semi-final tryouts at Long Beach, Berkeley, Cincinnati, Chicago and Boston.

ROOKIE PLAYS HERO IN BUC VICTORIES

SWIFT GIVEN CREDIT FOR THREE OUT OF SEVEN WINS

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Today was the fifth straight for the Pittsburgh Pirates at the top of the National league race, and that comes close to being a record for sustained leadership of President John Heydler's effervescent circuit this summer.

Bill Swift, the rookie righthander, deserves special praise for the part he has played in the Pirates' present streak. Of their seven straight conquests, the lad from Kansas City has received credit for three as relief pitcher. He rescued Heins Meine in the fifth inning of yesterday's game with the Cardinals, yielded only four hits and one run the rest of the way, and his mates came from behind to win for him, 9 to 6.

Cubs Hold Second

Chicago held tight in second place by subduing Cincinnati, 7 to 0. While his mates were pounding Red Lucas for 12 hits and 26 bases, Guy Bush managed to keep eight Red blows well scattered.

Defeating Brooklyn, 9 to 3, the Phillies jumped from sixth place in the league standing to fourth, passing both the Dodgers and the Cards. Chuck Klein and Hal Lee each belted two home runs.

Bill Terry's 15th homer with one on touched of a six-run rally in the fourth inning that routed Lefty Brandt and give the Giants a 9 to 5 triumph over Boston.

Yanks Boost Lead

The Yankees found Boston easy pickings and increased their lead over the American league to nine and a half games as the second place Detroiters lost. Danny MacFadden, pitching against his old mates for the first time, received great batting support to win, 15 to 4.

Wes Ferrell was entirely too much for Detroit. The Cleveland ace held the Tigers to eight hits and knocked across three runs to give the Indians a 7 to 4 victory. It was Ferrell's win of the year.

St. Louis, though resting in sixth place, climbed well above the .500 mark in games won by defeating Chicago, 7 to 6.

Philadelphia and Washington were idle.

BCD ASKS FOR NO TAX LEVY

DIRECTORS REAFFIRM STAND TAKEN IN LAST DECEMBER

The board of directors of the Lubbock Board of City Development unanimously voted Thursday afternoon at City hall to ask that the reduced tax of half a mill for each dollar's city tax valuation for its support not be levied this year. The move reaffirmed the stand taken December 17, when City commission was asked not to levy a two-mill tax for the Board of City Development this year.

Board members, analyzed the present financial situation of the BCD and the anticipated revenues, and after this study the action was taken. It was pointed out at yesterday's meeting that when the resolution was passed last December it was not contemplated that an election to reduce the support of the organization would be held. However, the directors stood "pat on their former resolution and passed the motion," it was said.

Cut At Election

In Tuesday's election the millage tax was cut from two to one-half mill on the $1 tax valuation.

Directors attending were Sam C. Arnett, president; J. O. Jones, J. A. Hodges, Durwood H. Bradley, C. E. Maedgen, R. C. Smith, R. F. Hinchey, Dr. I. E. Barr, H. D. Grant, W. O. Stevens, George W. Pickle, F. R. Friend, and George A. Simmons. A. B. Davis, BCD manager, also was present.

The unit's budget for 1932 calls for about $19,000.

Kiwanis Conclave Brought To Close

DETROIT, July 1. (AP) — The seventeenth annual convention of Kiwanis International stood adjourned today after election of members of the board of trustees and others of ends and ends of business had been transacted in the closing session. Carl E. Endicott, of Huntington, Md., was elected president.

The 1933 convention will be held in Los Angeles.

Forgery Suspect Is Killed By Officer

HUNTSVILLE, July 1 (AP)—A gunshot wound suffered when he tried to evade arrest resulted in the death of a suspected forger, Texas H. Glenn, 32, of Aransas Pass.

Highway Patrolman M. L. Berry pursued Glenn and a companion after they allegedly had passed worthless checks to the amount of $70 at filling stations and other establishments on the Houston-Huntsville highway Wednesday.

The officer was unable to induce them to halt, so he fired four or five shots. One bullet struck Glenn at the base of the skull.

Before his death at a hospital here Thursday Glenn told officers he did not blame the officer for shooting.

Forgery charges were filed against both Glenn and his companion.

The salary of the governor of Maryland is $4500 a year.

Number Of Artist Course Presented

A three act comedy of 1730, Marivaux's "Love and Chance," was presented before a fair-sized audience last night in the high school auditorium as the second number of the Texas Technological college summer artists course.

Costuming was outstanding, and the plot was involved with the love life of a lady of rank who disguised herself as a maid to study the man to whom she was engaged.

Appearing in the cast were Lorraine Keeton, Grace Vivian Davis, Arthur DeHuff, Vernon Worthingham, Ford Rainey and Edgar Johnson.

J. K. WESTER, PROHIBITIONIST FOR 45 YEARS, SAYS DRY LAW IS FAILURE

Although Chairman J. K. Wester of the Lubbock county Democratic executive committee is a prohibitionist in practice, he believes the prohibition law "is a failure and the people have no respect for it."

"I've been a prohibitionist since I can remember, for at least 45 years, and whenever the prohibition question came up I stumped my part of the state for it," Wester declared.

"But the prohibition law doesn't punish all alike. It punishes the negro, the Mexican and the poor folks, but the high ups are never punished.

"There are plenty of people who make home brew in their homes, drink it, and give it away. But let a poor boy sell a pint of liquor to get some victuals with and he is sent to the pen.

"The prohibition law is not obeyed; the saloons are in the homes instead of in the towns."

Wester pointed out that neither congress nor the president can repeal the 18th amendment, and that the wet Democratic plank is a promise to offer the people an amendment to repeal the 18th amendment if a Democratic congress gains power.

Tom Hunter Starts West Texas Swing

COLORADO, July 1. (AP) — Inaugurating a ten-day swing through West Texas, Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, spoke here last night.

Hunter explained his plan for abolition of the state ad valorem tax, asked better control of public utilities, and said state expenditures should be reduced by abolition of most of the 120 state departments and bureaus and consolidation of the others.

Will Cooper, Colorado editor, introduced Hunter.

SULPHUR SPRINGS HEARS FERGUSON

SULPHUR SPRINGS, July 1. (AP) —Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and her husband, James E. Ferguson, spoke here last night in behalf of the former's candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Mrs. Ferguson spoke for 20 minutes, reviewing her platform, while Ferguson talked for an hour and a half.

The former Governors were introduced by Mrs. W. S. Southerland and E. R. Chamberland. Judge J. K. Brim, was master of ceremonies.

Chamberland asked that the Fergusons be given an opportunity to redeem the state from what he said were the difficulties now confronting it.

The Ferguson came to Sulphur Springs from Greenville, and planned to leave for Linden today to fill their next speaking engagement.

Unemployment Body Will Meet Tonight

A newly organized Unemployment council of Lubbock and Lubbock county will have its first regular meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the courthouse, it was announced.

Henry T. Deverell, an unemployed carpenter, is president, and Bradner J. Moore, jr., is secretary. The council, organized Monday, has an enrollment of over 500 jobless white men and women who represent an estimated 1,500 dependents, Moore said last night that this number would be swelled by negro and Mexican unemployed.

The council's purpose, the leaders said, is to find work for members wherever possible. A milk fund will be raised to aid children of the jobless. Persons without jobs are asked to join the movement.

"Light One for ME"

It's pretty hard to be around a Chesterfield and not want one. That tempting aroma tells you the truth. It says . . . "Here's a milder cigarette. Here's one that tastes better."

Sure . . . there's a good reason. Several, in fact. Chesterfields contain the finest tobaccos grown.

These tobaccos are not only blended, they're cross-blended in Chesterfield's own special way.

They are rolled in the purest paper that money can buy. Grown right. Cured right. Blended right. Made right. Packed right. That's Chesterfield.

In fact, there isn't any way for a cigarette to be purer, milder or better tasting.

No wonder so many millions of smokers say "THEY SATISFY."

God's Permission Of Evil

"I call heaven and earth to witness this day that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Choose therefore life, that both thou and thy seed shall live." (Deut. Chap. 30, 19.)

REV. GREGORY A. BOECKMAN
Pastor of St. Joseph Church

God is the Ruler of the world. He holds all creation in the hollow of His hand. Nothing can happen against His will. If there is evil in the world, therefore, is not He accountable for it?

These reflections must come to every thinking man. They must puzzle many a good man. That there is evil in the world and lots of it, is evident. Right at the start of creation we see Cain guilty of murder. From that time on it has been murder, adultry, lying, stealing, slander and all kinds of wrong-doing. And yet God has forbidden evil under the heaviest penalties. He has thundered against it by the most solemn laws. By threats and calamities He has shown His prohibition and detestation of it.

Is He powerless therefore to prevent it? Is he a ruler who cannot enforce His laws? If He does not want evil in the world, why does He not stop it?

About His hatred of evil there can be no doubt. He positively and solemnly condemns it. Is He therefore helpless? "I call heaven and earth to witness this day that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Choose therefore life, that both thou and thy seed shall live." (Deut. Chap. 30, 19). These words of God Himself give us the answer.

Yes, God does forbid evil. He hates it, He condemns it, He does not want it. And He could stop it. If He wanted to He could change our nature and make us bond instead of free. But He has given us free will. We are not bound to do this or that. He could force us to do right and avoid wrong. But that would be granting us freedom and denying it by the same act. That would be a contradictien.

And, as God cannot contradict Himself, He will not prevent evil by compulsion. He has made us free men, free to do or not to do, to choose, if there were not evil as well as good. He permits the evil in order to leave us freedom of choice. But He forbids us to abuse our liberty by choosing evil.

If there were no evil in the world, there would be no virtue, for virtue means doing good and avoiding evil. But how could we avoid evil if God did not permit its existence? God therefore permits evil in order to allow man the exercise of his freedom as regards right and wrong. Were no evil possible, there could be no conquest of virtue over vice, no noble struggle of right against wrong, no triumph of justice over iniquity. Man would be a bondsman to necessity, not a free-man with liberty of choice, for with no evil there would be no choice between right and wrong.

Man values liberty above all else. For it he will sacrifice everything and risk even life. God giving us this greatest of gifts realized our responsibility and the danger of our abusing it, nay, even the possibility of our using it against Himself. But for His own all-wise reasons, He gave us this wonderful if dangerous endowment. He wants us to use it to serve Him, to do justice, to do good and avoid evil. But He will not force us for to do so would be to take back what He has given. And God does not reverse Himself.

Moral evil is not something in itself, but a negation. It is a refusal on the part of man to do his duty. It is using our free will against the purposes of its Giver. This results in all sorts of disasters. Injustice, calumny, bodily disease, feuds, wars and such, are for the most part the consequence of the abuse of our free will.

Everything in creation is good in itself. Evil means using a good thing in a wrong way. For instance, morphine is a good thing in itself. When used rightly it relieves pain and saves life. No hospital could be conducted without it. But when used wrongly, it constitutes an abuse and becomes a vice. Instead of being good it becomes evil. But the evil is not the morphine, but in the will of the man who uses it wrongly.

See how at times He endures the transgressions of sinners for years and years, patiently bearing with them, warning and entreating them to be converted and live. And when they turn from evil, behold how His mercy is poured out upon them, restoring them to His friendship. See His love for the sinner by what He suffered in order to redeem him from the consequences of evil.

In praying for those who lead evil lives the pious exercise charity. The holy missioners in trying to reclaim the sinner exercise that zeal which characterized Christ Himself. Evil, then, in God's providence works out good. It enables the just to look upon heaven as the reward of victory. It saves this world of men and women from being a mere machine.

God is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end of all things. He made all things besides man for man, but man He made for Himself. All men return to Him, either to glorify His mercy and to live by reigning with Him, or to display His justice by eternal banishment from Him whom they despised and whose laws they defied by choosing evil. God is the best judge of whether or not the permission of evil is worth while. He sees the present and the future. He knows all things, and He has decided on the tolerance of evil.

Since, therefore, we are not confirmed in good as the angels are, we must by our own free will do good and avoid evil, and thus win life's battle. Then we shall receive the reward of victory. Then shall we see face to face, not only God Himself, but all His plans. Let us serve Him now. Afterwards we shall understand Him and share in His Blessedness forever.

BAILEY URGES EXPENSES CUT

ABOUT THOUSAND HEAR DALLAS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSMAN

About 1,000 persons last night heard Joseph Weldon Bailey, jr., a candidate for congressman-at-large from place No. 2, of Dallas ask their support of his candidacy. Bailey said he favored reduction of government expenses to lower taxes, state control of the liquor traffic, and decentralization of government.

Bailey spoke in a rope enclosed area at Broadway and Avenue K. He was introduced by District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley, a personal acquaintance and Bailey spokesman here.

Pointing out that governmental expense had increased from one billion dollars annually in 1909 to 14 billion in 1931, or from $10 per person to $100 per person, Bailey declared that if the same rate of increase were continued, the cost per capita in 1975 would be $1,000.

Bureaus Attacked

He attacked bureaus and boards and charged them with useless expenditures, decried efforts of the government to go into business as always ending disastrously, and urged that "we go back to the day when federal government had only certain functions to perform and people were governed by a few good laws and not by boards and bureaus." Bailey predicted that if the government sold 650,000 bales of cotton in August, as the farm board has announced, cotton prices would drop to three cents.

"Can anybody say the Eighteenth amendment is enforced? If you do, you don't know the conditions," he declared. "Prohibition is not the most important question, but it is an issue. I believe the liquor traffic must be controlled, but I believe that the federal government ought to have nothing to do with it." Bailey was applauded.

District candidates spoke before the Bailey address was made.

Highway Work For Division To Be Let

Bids for contracts on three highway jobs in this division of the state highway department probably will be opened at Austin, Saturday, and the jobs let at the regular letting.

One is the mile and two thirds job up the caprock on the west side of Blanco canyon, in Crosby county east of the county seat. A new route has been planned to connect paving through Crosbyton with paving from the Dickens county line west to the center of Blanco canyon.

A two county job, between Muleshoe and Sudan, in Lamb and Bailey counties, is planned. This section will shorten the distance between the two towns by about seven miles. The new route follows the Santa Fe main line.

The third job is in Andrews county between Andrews and the Gaines county line and is the last one from Terry county line to Odessa. Work is under way in both Andrews and Gaines counties on other projects.

TAHOKA MAN HURT

The main tendons in his right hand cut by glass when the hand was caught in a truck door he was attempting to close, J. A. Whittington, 47, of Tahoka was treated at Lubbock sanitarium Thursday. He later was dismissed.

WOMEN CAUSE DISTURBANCE; COP SLAPPED

Held at police headquarters 30 minutes, two women were released when their husbands arrived Thursday afternoon, after the two women had created what police considered a disturbance at offices of City-County Welfare association at 1312 Avenue G.

The pair, both of them 30 years of age and red-headed, resisted efforts of officers to quiet them. George Eubank, identifications officer, was slapped in the face, and kicked by one of the women.

Fifteen or 20 persons gathered at the city hall entrance after the women, who had been obtaining aid from the welfare association through their husbands, were taken inside the building. No disturbance was created there, it was said. Two young children accompanied the women to city hall.

Police said Miss Evelyn Richter, executive secretary of the association was threatened after one of the women sought to obtain her husband's work ticket. A rule of the association is that only men may obtain their tickets, it was said at the police station.

No charges were filed against the pair.

College Parkway Is To Be Filled Soon

Caliche will be used to fill the center parkway on College avenue between Nineteenth street and Fourth, highway department officials have announced.

Some of this work has already been done and the rest will be as rapidly as possible. Most of the caliche in the parking has been spread between Broadway and Sixteenth streets.

Residents asked that it not be done, so as to permit planting of flowers. The department waited some time but with traffic using the parking and cutting up the dirt, it was decided to go ahead.

PRIZE GOES TO HARDY ENTRY

MRS. A. R. SHIPP IS WINNER OF FIRST IN CONTEST

A dress length of silk crepe, first prize in a cotton dress contest conducted Thursday in connection with an all-day assembly of Lubbock county home demonstration club women at Shannon park, was won by Mrs. A. R. Shipp of the Hardy club, Miss Isla Mae Chitwood, county home demonstration agent, said.

Second prize, a pair of silk hose, was won by Miss Lillian Eklund of Union, and third prize of a dress length of cotton material was won by Mrs. F. F. Revier of Carlisle. Miss El Fleda Harrison, Lynn county demonstration agent, was judge, and prizes were donated by Carter-Houston.

About 75 women attended the outing. Basket lunch was served at noon. Following the lunch, Miss Harrison gave a demonstration of clothing judging, and two addresses, one by Miss Johnnye Gilkerson of Texas Technological college on "Every Day Attitude in the Home," and by Mrs. Emma Phillips, beauty expert here, on "How to be Well Groomed" were heard.

"Canned" Speeches

The average citizen may be pardoned if he shudders just a trifle on receipt of the news that politicians are now preparing to have phonograph records made of political speeches, for dissemination over the radio during the approaching campaign.

This news comes via the theatrical magazine Variety, which finds that Los Angeles politicians are already having such records made and that politicians in other parts of the country are expected to follow suit.

Getting the speeches of the candidates over the air is a fine thing, of course. It enables the candidate to reach a far wider percentage of the electorate than ever was possible before. But somehow, the thought of "canned" speeches being stored up for broadcasting purposes is dismaying. Campaign blah is harder to listen to when it comes out of a machine than when it proceeds from a flesh-and-blood thorax.

Three Hoodlums

The problem of dealing with racketeers isn't entirely insoluble, even in Chicago. That was proved just the other day when the police ambushed a gang that had planned to kidnap Morris Schecter, gambler, and shot three of them to death.

Interestingly enough, the three men had been questioned by city detectives only a week before; and the police lieutenant before whom they appeared warned them that "you fellows will wind up in the county morgue pretty soon if you don't quit that racket."

His words came true, with grim suddenness; and however much difficulty Chicago may have in restraining its underworld, there are at least three hoodlums who will never disturb the city's peace again.

The TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN PICTURES by JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The auto had been built to fall to pieces, and that wasn't all. It had a couple of tires that were ready to go flat.

The Tinies' weight had its effect and Duncy shouted, "Oh, we're wrecked," when both the tires blew out wind that caught poor Duncy's hat."

"Don't worry," said the funny clown. "This auto may turn upside-down, but we will be all right. I'm sure. I've run this thing before.

"You see, it is a crazy thing. I hop in it and have my fling. When things begin to happen it makes everybody roar.

"All hold on tight and you will see how funny this machine can be." Then he pressed on a lever and the auto seat went flop.

Of course this startled every lad and Scouty said, "Oh, that's too bad. I feel like I am going to fall. Perhaps we'd better stop."

The clown replied, "Don't worry, son. We're merely having lots of fun. I'll bring the seat back up again, so you'll be safe and sound."

But, when the seat rose in the air, it gave the Tinies quite a scare and Duncy cried, "I've had enough," as he jumped to the ground.

The other Tinies did the same. The clown then shouted, "Watch the flame!" And, instantly, the queer machine began to sput and spark.

"Those are real Roman candles, boys," the clown said. "Listen to the noise." Then, when the flames had died out, he exclaimed, "That ends my lark."

In just a moment Coppy found a treat. It was a big greyhound! "They're training him to jump real high," he shouted. "Gee, what fun!" The trainer said, "Stand where you are and I will let you hold the bar." Just then the Tinies grabbed it and the dog came on the run.

(Scouty joins a dwarf in a jugging act, in the next story.)

Ghosts Of Old Wilson Days Are Packing This Democratic National Convention, Returning Under Strange Guises

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, July 1.—Ghosts of the old Wilson days, when Democracy was at one of its rare zeniths of power, and of the McAdoo-Smith period, when the party went on the rocks of sectional and religious hatred, are packing this Democratic national convention.

Dutcher

Some of them are very live ghosts, virile and effective in this latest Donnybrook Fair, such as only Democrats love to stage.

Others are mere wraiths, obscure and shorn of prestige and power.

Woodrow Wilson might well be slightly dazed at the realignment of his friends and enemies as exhibited in this light. So might William Jennings Bryan, who turned one convention after another upside down. As for the causes they last stood for, who yet has heard the League of Nations mentioned here except as something no man dares endorse? And what must the fervently dry Bryan think of a party whose strongest thought on prohibition is to be wetter than the Republicans?

Well, anyway, many of the veterans of the Wilson, Bryan, McAdoo fights are here.

Wilson is dead and Bryan is dead. Charlie Murphy of Tammany Hall is dead and George Olvany has been succeeded by John Curry. Tom Taggart of Indiana is gone, and so are Roger Sullivan and George Brennan of Illinois, Ed More of Ohio and others.

Others simply stayed away. Colonel Edward M. House is at his Massachusetts home, although he declared long ago for Roosevelt. Vance McCormick, the campaign manager of 1916 who won with the slogan, "He kept us out of war," a sincere dry who bolted Smith four years ago, is in Harrisburg, Pa., with his newspapers.

Newton D. Baker, Wilson's secretary of war, did not come. But his prestige has been enhanced, if anything, since war time. A pre-eminent lawyer and still a great public man, Baker perhaps was the strongest "second choice" of the delegates.

And there's William G. McAdoo, Wilson's son-in-law and secretary of the treasury, under his regime, the unsuccessful "crown prince" candidate for the succession in 1920. McAdoo, the progressive hero who finally fell before Al Smith and the eastern bosses in 1924, now leading California's Garner delegation, a candidate for senator and a strong figure among the anti-Roosevelt leaders.

Several old Wilson men are among the Roosevelt leaders. Colonel Daniel C. Roper, one of the original Wilson supporters and later collector of internal revenue, is one of the six or eight most trusted lieutenants. Roper is a canny but honest type of politician.

Senator Cordell Hull, who framed our income tax system and the federal inheritance tax, later spending much of his time at the treasury to assist in formulating the war taxes, is one of the most distinguished statesman on the Roosevelt side.

Former secretary of the navy, Josephus Daniels, one-time superior of the New York governor, older but little changed in general appearance, is here both as a North Carolina delegate at large and as a newspaperman. A. Mitchell Palmer, Wilson's attorney general, who tried to succeed to the presidency in 1920, is a Roosevelt delegate from the District of Columbia.

Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, Senate defender of the League of Nations 13 years ago, was given the important post of chairman of the resolutions committee. Tall, white-haired, spectacled and of intellectual aspect, he sat listening patiently to the pleading of causes. He is publisher of the Omaha World-Herald.

It was James W. Gerard, pre-war ambassador to Germany under Wilson and until recently national party treasurer, who was used by Roosevelt to make the first official retort to Frank Hague's charge that Roosevelt was the weakest of the candidates. . . . Houston Thompson, once chairman of the Federal Trade Commission and still tall, large and healthy, is a Roosevelt alternate from Colorado. . . . Dr. Cary T. Grayson, once famous as the White House physician, came with his wife to see the show, but not to play any politics.

On the anti-Roosevelt side of the fence—

Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, father of the Federal Reserve and a secretary of the treasury, is a Byrd delegate who bitterly opposes abrogation of the two-thirds rule. Glass is often referred to as a pure Wilson Democrat. He is along in his 70's. . . . National Executive Chairman Jouett Shouse, Smith candidate for permanent chairman of the convention, was assistant secretary of the treasury after being a Wilson administration congressman through the war years. . . . James M. Cox of Ohio, who carried the league "torch" in the 1920 campaign after it had fallen from the stricken hands of Wilson, is regarded as one of the most important anti-Roosevelt leaders.

Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, old foe of Wilson and arch enemy of the league, kicked out of the 1920 convention for his bravery, is nursing a presidential candidacy here. . . . Governor Bill Murray of Oklahoma, who has the state delegation in his pocket, was a congressman in Wilson's first term and boasts that he was largely responsible for turning the 1912 convention to Wilson.

Bernard M. Baruch, New York banker, chairman of the War Industries Board and one of McAdoo's two financial angels in 1924, is here, continuing to support the fight on Roosevelt. . . . And Mayor Frank Hague of New Jersey is about the last of the old line powerful eastern bosses of the type which used to oppose Bryan, Wilson and McAdoo.

WASHINGTON.—Figures compiled by postal authorities show that Pacific coast business firms and individuals are the largest firms and individuals are the largest per capita users of air mail in the United States. During 1931 more than 406,000 pounds of air mail—an increase of 116,000 pounds over 1930—were shipped between Seattle, Wash., San Diego, Cal., and intermediate points.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1453 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene," "Normal Diet," "List of Books on," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Indigestion and Constipation for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

HOT WATER GYMNASTICS

Swimming is for many reasons one of the best exercises known. It is especially good for weak and underdeveloped people because the buoyancy of the water supports the limbs and allows free movements in all directions. Thus muscles can be trained in any desired manner, and muscles which are not used in ordinary movements can be brought into play in the water and developed.

Dr. Clendening

Governor Roosevelt's much described and photographed swimming exercises at Warm Springs, Ga., this spring indicate its usefulness in giving exercises to a victim of infantile paralysis.

Nothing is so deceptive as exercise in the water. The sense of lightness due to the buoyancy of the water, just mentioned, makes the swimmer feel that little effort is being exerted. Hence a person may stay in the water swimming or diving for hours without feeling much fatigue and be surprised after the swim is all over to feel more tired than when apparently much more strenuous exercise has been taken.

There is a danger in this feature when invalids or underdeveloped children are swimming to regain strength or to aid convalescence. They may very easily overdo and find themselves worse off than before. Strict attention should be kept on the time such individuals are in the water, and no matter how well or how fresh they feel, they should be warned to desist when the time limit is up.

Gymnastics in the water for crippled or paralyzed patients is one of the best forms of treatment. The use of water gymnastics for children with infantile paralysis in order to restore the affected muscles, is one of the best methods we have.

A warning, however, against the indiscriminate use of this method should be sounded. The direction must be in the hands of experienced instructors or the method will do more harm than good. "Muscle re-education under water is not swimming," says a distinguished authority on the subject.

Unless the instructor knows exactly how to exercise or re-educate the paralyzed muscles, the exercise may really strengthen the unparalyzed muscles. These, being opposed to the paralyzed muscles, cause a stronger pull than ever on the limb in the wrong direction.

Properly supervised, however, underwater gymnastics are splendid additions to the treatment of many muscular and nervous diseases.

Saturday's program will be climaxed by a dance, with the Melody Boys playing. A model plane contest is set for Sunday afternoon. The program will be prepared daily after pilots have arrived.

GARNER GROUPS

speeches continued.

Along about that hour a Tennessee delegate came over to the Texas section and tied in with Sam Rayburn and Amon G. Carter.

"You'll get nowhere with such tactics as that," said the Tennessean "neither for president nor vice-president."

"We are not running for vice-president," returned Mr. Carter, the Fort Worth publisher.

"Young Upstart"

"You young upstart, you", roared the Tennessean. Cooler heads intervened and led him away.

When the Virgin Islands, last on the roll-call of states, was reached, Mr. Carter sought to have the territory yield to Texas, which had no opportunity of its own to second Mr. Garner, but the two-man V. I. delegation announced it would "yield to nobody." The balloting then was undertaken without a final word for Garner other than that spoken by Mr. McAdoo. Mr. Carter said he had intended to deny the rumors of reported trades of Garner support, and to announce Garner was in the race for only the presidential nomination.

Garner reached his great strength on the third and last ballot of the morning, going up to 101 1-4 by virtue of a gain of 11 Oklahoma votes.

The one-fourth vote consistently with the speaker of the house was represented in the Illinois delegation by Rod D. Keehne, Chicago attorney and major general in the Illinois national guard. Gen. Keehne formerly was publisher of one of Hearst's Chicago newspapers.

SORE FEET

marching fellows. They paid no attention to the weather, the condition of the track nor the fact many of them were allotted weight for age. They knew their parades.

One perspiring marcher sniffed as a friendly spectator gave him a wave from a fan.

"Don't mind me," he said. "I did this for Bryan."

Some of the girls got a break. Gallant fellow delegates lifted them on shoulders and carried them around the hall, letting the drops of perspiration fall where they might.

Tall young Jimmie Roosevelt enjoyed two work-outs, matinee and night. After the parade for his father some of his close friends took the floor for another candidate and Jimmie fell in with them. He was broad minded.

Some of the bitter-enders, paraders with an evident marathon complex, were the fattest in the lineup. One of them must have weighed more than 300 pounds.

The chairman took judicial notice of the effort involved to get off a bit of Walshian sarcasm. As the delegates milled about the aisles instead of taking their seats as he advised, he suggested:

"If the gentlemen wish to get some exercise they might go outside."

ACTION COMPLETED

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—Congressional action on the second deficiency appropriation bill, carrying $22,000,000, was completed today when the senate agreed to the final conference report.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Securities markets began the last half of the year with a distinctly improved tone, after a temporary setback in stocks during the morning.

Bonds showed sustained strength, which appeared to be the principal influence in propping the share market. Announcement of the British war loan conversation, hailed in London as striking testimony to the fiscal strength of England, started an upturn in foreign dollar bonds which spread to domestic issues and finally to shares.

After a firm opening, the share market turned downward under the influence of further selling of National Biscuit, which dropped 2 points. Several other issues were carried off 1 to 2, including Corn Products, Safeway, Woolworth, Lambert, Harvester and Kresge, but most of these issues came back after midday, with the exception of Kresge.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, July 1 (AP)—Wheat today began the new crop year with fresh setbacks in prices. Big deliveries on July wheat contracts here, 4,097,000 bushels, had a bearish effect and so too did a decided break in the British exchange rate. Opening 1-8 to 7-8 off, wheat afterward held near the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 lower, and then steadied.

CLUB TO ERECT SIGNS

Final arrangements for the erection of four road signs bearing the 1932 football schedule of the Texas Tech Matadors were made at the luncheon of the American Business club in the Hilton hotel today noon. The signs will be erected within the next ten days.

The Gospel Four quartet from Los Angeles gave vocal selections as a feature of the program. Clinton Lackey was in charge.

Three Minute Relief From Your Headache

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B.C.", a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B.C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B.C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs. Get "B.C.", in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, July 1. (AP)—The cotton market today opened firmer and fairly active. Liverpool cables were considerably better than due and the July position here opened 7 points up, while later months started to 5 points above yesterday's close. Prices soon lost this gain, however, owing to liquidation for over the week-end and more or less profit-taking. July dropped to 5.61, or 7 points down from the opening and even with yesterday's close. October eased off to 5.76, and December to 5.91, or 3 to 4 points down from the opening figures, but still one point above yesterday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market was steadier on reports of rather too much rain in the cotton belt.

The market eased gradually after the first hour until October dropped to 5.73 and December to 5.87, down 7 points from the early highs and 2 to 3 points under yesterday's close. The decline was due to liquidation for over the week-end, and in advance of the July 4 holiday.

Later in the morning prices rallied rather sharply owing to short covering and a marked improvement in stocks, and prices made new highs for the session at 5.85 for October and 5.98 for December or 11 to 12 points up from the morning lows and 8 to 10 points above the close of yesterday.

Around mid-session the market was steady and two points under the highs. Weekly statistics were about as expected and consequently failed to influence the market.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 1-5 higher on continued showers over the belt and trade buying. July rose to 5.70 and December to 5.98, making an advance of about 67 to 70 points from the recent low records. This attracted considerable realizing, and possibly some selling for a reaction, but offerings were absorbed by continued trade buying, and, after easing to about yesterday's close the market steadied again. At the end of the first half, active months were holding 3 to 4 points net higher. Selling seemed checked by nervousness over the weather outlook and the further progress of the crop. A private report indicated a decrease of 7.9 per cent in acreage, which was estimated at 37,935,000 acres, and placed the condition at 73.2. Liverpool cables reported foreign buying and covering on the easier sterling and said there was an improved demand for cotton cloths from India and China.

Trading was less active later and fluctuations were narrow. Trade buying appeared but advances met further realizing and prices at midday were about net unchanged to 3 points lower on the more active positions.

U. S. DEFICIT

was increased by $2,686,000,000 during the year.

EIGHT DEPARTMENTS ARE WITHOUT FUNDS

WASHINGTON, July 1. (AP)—Nearly $3,000,000,000 in the hole, the federal government today began a new financial year with eight big departments legally penniless because of a lagging congress.

Four annual appropriations bills that should have been law at midnight last night were caught, along with relief, in legislative machinery that promised to prevent adjournment of congress until next week.

Deficit Mounts

The last figures available before the new fiscal year began showed Uncle Sam with a $2,852,035,008 deficit, the biggest of any nation in peace times. Forecasts were the final total would be nearer $3,900,000,000.

The eight departments that legally ran out of funds with the expiration of the old year were:

State, justice, commerce, labor, treasury, post office, agriculture, and war. J. C. Roop, director of the budget, was not gravely concerned about the temporary lack of funds, saying that if the appropriations bills were law by next pay day everybody would be satisfied.

Congressional leaders predicted that before adjournment today all departments save war would have their allotments at the White House. Conferees still were at odds over a provision in the war bill to force retirement of 2,000 army officers.

Hoover Signs Bill

President Hoover yesterday approved the economy bill "with but limited satisfaction." Senator Robison of Arkansas, Democratic leader, retorted immediately in the senate with a statement that "the chief executive has not only had full opportunity to make definite suggestions but has been invited to do so by the senate, but has made no recommendations and contents himself with the declaration that he is disappointed."

House Democratic leaders, who originated the economy bill, frequently have insisted the administration was not co-operating.

DEMOCRATIC SESSION DEADLOCKED AS ROOSEVELT PUSHES FAR INTO LEAD

Smith in Pennsylvania.

His loss was a fraction of a vote in North Carolina and a vote in North Dakota.

At least some of the Roosevelt early ballot votes failed entirely to materialize. Tammany, polling in the center of the convention floor just as the light of dawn was coming in through the high windows of the big stadium, went solidly to Smith. In Pennsylvania, the Roosevelt total was below the pre-balloting claims.

The session which adjourned just after 9 o'clock this morning had begun at 9 last night. It was the Roosevelt generals who insisted that the delegates go on to the test of the roll call itself before adjourning. But after two ballots had failed to develop the push-over they had predicted, they tried in vain to adjourn, Chairman Walsh ruling that the loud chorus of "nos" sent up by the non-Roosevelt blocs were decisive.

Delegates Weary

They went out of the stadium a very weary lot, all of them. They had sat through hours of oratory, even before the balloting put its added tension on them. They had marched and shouted in a series of midnight demonstrations which, en masse, probably set a mark for endurance.

A weary lot, they gathered in hotel conference rooms to go on with their negotiations—and an uncertain lot, too, for none of the best informed seemed to consider himself capable of saying with assurance just what might be in store the hours just ahead for the candidates, the convention, and the party.

TECH BOARD

Wilson, and Mr. Jones are: R. A. Underwood and Riley Strikland, Amarillo; Thomas Johnson, McKinney; General John A. Hulen, Fort Worth; Mrs. F. N. Drane, Corsicana; John W Carpenter, Dallas; and Houston Harte, San Angelo.

Mrs. Drane is acting president of the college; Mr. Harte is treasurer of the board and Mr. Wilson is vice-chairman. W. T. Gaston, business manager, is secretary of the board. He will attend the board meeting.

DRY REVOLT

plans for a thoroughly representative conference.

Bishop Cannon, lashing out at the southern delegates who went along in the roll call for repeal, charged them with "a double betrayal," in permitting without protest adoption of the demand on congress to submit repeal, and in sitting "dumbly" impotently or indifferently" while the convention "actually voted that members of the Democratic party including their dry southern constituents, must support the repeal of the 18th amendment."

He said the "stinging rebuke of 1928" should have been enough but now "if southern Democracy is not to be hopelessly permanently disintegrated, the moral forces of the south must find expression under another leadership which will not betray them as in 1928 and 1932."

He blamed the Democratic action upon "hand-picked" political leaders" upon the "always disreputable, besmirched" Tammany and similar elements.

W. C. T. U. NOT IN THIRD PARTY MOVE

EVANSTON, Ill., July 1. (AP)—The national Women's Christian Temperance union disclaimed today any part in a third party "dry" movement at this time.

If W. C. T. U. members attend a purported third party convention of drys at Indianapolis July 4 they will be present as individuals, not as representatives of the W. C. T. U., said Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the national W. C. T. U.

"The women of the W. C. T. U. will decide for themselves as to what political action they will take," said Mrs. Boole, "and this will be done at our national convention in Seattle Aug. 12-19.

"The party opening the door to liquor is doomed," she concluded.

Four Are In ... On Liquor Charge

Charged with possession and transportation of liquor Thursday before Victor H. Lindsey, United States commissioner here, two white men and two negroes still were in county jail this morning. Two automobiles involved in deliveries of alleged liquor were ordered confiscated.

Tom S. Blocknell and Steve S. Nickson, negroes, were arrested in possession of 12 bottles of beer Lindsey said. Bonds of $500 and $300 were set, respectively. A white man arrested in connection with the beer has been released.

When federal agents arrested Bob McCaffree and J. M. Plumlee it was alleged that about one-half gallon of whisky was taken. A bond of $500 was set for each.

Bonus Seekers Will Hold Demonstration

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—A demonstration at the capitol tomorrow against adjournment of congress before some veterans' relief is granted was ordered today by Walter W. Waters, commander in chief of the bonus marchers.

Waters instructed the veterans to move by twos and threes to the capitol plaza at 9 a. m. He estimated 20,000 would be there. All were told to be orderly and not to march in military formations.

Hog Price Advance Is Continued Today

KANSAS CITY, July 1 (AP)—The advance in the price of hogs continued at the Kansas City stockyards today. The general market ruled 10 to 15 cents higher than yesterday when a new top for the year was established. The top price paid today was $4.85 a hundred pounds, nearly $2 more than the 53-year record low of only a month ago.

Bank Robber Slain In Police Battle

CORPUS CHRISTI, July 1. (AP)—A. U. Wright, 27 real estate dealer, was killed in a gun fight with police yesterday after robbing the Texas State Bank and Trust company of $11,550. The money was recovered from the automobile in which he tried to escape. A coroner's verdict was that Wright's death was due to gunshot wounds inflicted by officers in performance of their duty.

PHYSICIAN CALLED

Police were notified last night by an unidentified person that a baby was ill and suffering from a high fever at a home in the 1100-block of Seventh street, and that the mother would not summon a doctor, because of her religious convictions. Police reported an aunt of the child subsequently had called a physician.

Ponder State Bank Is Robbed By Pair

DENTON, July 1. (AP)—Two men robbed the Ponder State bank, at Ponder, 12 miles from Denton, of $3,500 yesterday. They escaped in an automobile.

One man waited outside in the car while the other entered the bank, covered two employes and a customer with a pistol, and took the money. He ordered the three into the vault and slammed the door but it did not lock. He then ran outside and escaped with his confederate.

Hoodlum Confesses To "Baby Killing"

NEW YORK, July 1. (AP)—Police Commissioner Edward P. Mulrooney announced today that Frank Giordano, scheduled to die tonight in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison, had confessed he was in the automobile from which the shots were fired in the Harlem "baby killing" a year ago and that Vincent Coll, slain gang leader, did the shooting.

One-Cent Damages Awarded Plaintiff

FORT WORTH, July 1 (AP)—A jury verdict for 1 cent was returned in a justice court damage suit yesterday.

And the defendant appealed to county court.

The case involved an automobile collision, P. J. Yancy filing suit in Justice J. H. Faulkner's court, asking $100 damages of R. B. McClung. He was awarded 1 cent.

Anyway, court costs will amount to four or five dollars, which McClung will have to pay if he loses the appeal.

Menjou's Adopted Son Faces Charge

LOS ANGELES, July 1 (AP)—Harold L. Menjou, 20, adopted son of Adolphe Menjou, film actor, has been ordered to trial in superior court on charges of second degree murder and drunken driving.

Menjou was charged with driving an automobile at an excessive rate of speed at the time it overturned killing his companion, 16-year-old Marjorie Gauthier to whom he was engaged to marry.

TEXAN FOUND DEAD

HEARNE, July 1 (AP)—W. L. Bishop, 48, hardware dealer, died today of bullet wounds inflicted at his office. He was found slumped over his desk, shot through the head and chest. An open Bible lay on the desk.

HENDERSON APPEALS

AUSTIN, July 1 (AP)—Roy Henderson, convicted in Wharton county on a charge of extortion and given ten years in the penitentiary, appealed from the verdict to the court of criminal appeals today.

Fox Threatened By His Sister-In-Law

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—William Fox, motion picture producer, was accused in supreme court Thursday of unlawfully incarcerating his brother Aaron in a sanitarium, and was threatened with a suit for $250,000.

Mrs. Aaron Fox, his sister-in-law, made the charges in a petition asking she be appointed guardian of her two children, William Fox II, six years old, and Anne Carol Fox, four.

The petition was granted by Justice John L. Walsh.

William Fox conspired with "a certain well known alienist in the city of New York," the petition charged, to place Aaron Fox in a "Hartford retreat" to prevent him from re-entering the film field and to bar him from testifying before the senate committee investigating William Fox' activities in the stock market.

Mrs. Fox added her children had "a good and substantial cause of action" against William Fox and would enter suit.

Butler Lauds Wet Democratic Plank

PARIS, July 1 (AP)—Commenting on the wetness of the Democratic platform, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, leader of the repeal fight at the Republican national convention, declared today the "Hoover straddle plank is doomed to the fate it deserves."

"The declaration in respect to the Eighteenth amendment reported adopted at the Democratic convention is clear cut, definite and direct," Dr. Butler continued.

Dr. Butler predicted early repeal of the amendment and said it would close an era of lawlessness without parallel in the history of any modern nation."

FORMER OFFICER DIES

DALLAS, July 1 (AP)—Samuel Sumner Hall, 75, retired police sergeant and once chief of police at Waco, died at his home here Thursday.
