County As Partner Clinic Opens

Operation of the Mental Health and Retardation Program for Mitchell County begins here this evening between 6 p. m. and 10 p. m. with Dr. John T. Miller as consulting psychiatrist.

For the present, the county clinic will be located in the Rhoads-Cowan Clinic building.

Patients needing to see Dr. Miller must have appointments made in advance. Appointments may be arranged through Mrs. Bernice Hilliard, case worker for the county program.

Temporarily sharing the office of Mrs. Nina Farmer, Circuit Rider clerk, Mrs. Hilliard can be reached by telephone at 726-3974.

Clinic is being opened through Big Spring State Hospital (part of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Retardation) in partnership with Mitchell County Commissioners Court.

Its purpose, according to Dr. Preston E. Harrison, Big Spring Hospital, superintendent, is to insure accessibility of mental health services when needed by any resident of Mitchell County.

The county clinic will be a locally based operation, directly linked to the Big Spring

State Hospital and will receive the same assistance as if it were actually on the hospital grounds, said Dr. Harrison.

County is to provide clinic space, office supplies and equipment, and utilities. Permanent quarters, for the clinic will be announced by the county officials.

Hospital at Big Spring will provide services from the chief social worker when needed; will continue the case worker's in-service treatment as she makes weekly visits to the hospital; and provide other professional staff help when needed.

The hospital will also provide emergency admission for Mitchell County patients and assure direct admission for patients from this county at the Big Spring Hospital.

Program calls for the hospital to provide psychiatric service to all members of the community based on a sliding fee scale according to ability to pay.

Medications at the out-patient clinic will also be at a cost based on ability to pay. In no case will a patient be denied medication because of inability to pay. Medication will be See CLINIC Page 3

Monday Last Day For Tags

With just about four days to go before the deadline for buying new 1969 license tags, Mitchell County citizens still lack about one-third of the expected total.

Montie Hardegree, tax-assessor-collector, said Wednesday that about 1250 automobiles and about 350 pickups and trucks are yet to be registered.

Tax office will be open through the noon hour and will also be open until noon, Saturday, Hardegree said, for convenience of citizens.

"We've had a rush all week," he added, "but no long lines waiting and don't expect a waiting line here except possibly on the very last day which is Monday, March 31."

Deadline for registering all vehicles and attaching new license tags is Monday. After that day drivers of vehicles without the 1969 licenses will be subject to a fine up to $200.

Licenses bought after the deadline will cost buyers the 20 percent increase in fee as penalty.

Pickup Hit By Train

Price Hendrix, Westbrook farmer, was shaken up but walked away with no apparent injuries when his stalled pickup was struck by a Texas & Pacific freight train at 8:45 Saturday morning.

Hendrix was driving his pickup south on a country road in Westbrook when his motor stalled with the front end of the vehicle on the tracks at the railroad crossing, according to Jim Mauldin, Texas Highway Patrolman.

A freight train with Thomas F. Lewis as engineer was east bound at about 60 miles an hour, said Mauldin. The train hit the Hendrix pickup and completely demolished the truck.

Hospital Board Says Root To Retain Post

Charles Root will continue as administrator for Root Memorial Hospital here, it was announced Tuesday.

Members of the hospital board of directors voted unanimously at their Monday night meeting to accept a written application from Root, dated March 24, to continue in the administrative post "for an indefinite period on a trial basis."

Root, who suffered two heart attacks in a four-month period, submitted his resignation as hospital administrator at a board meeting last Nov. 24.

At that time he agreed to continue as administrator until Colorado City Hospital District board members could employ a qualified successor for the post.

According to Bob Reilly, secretary of the board, between 30 and 40 applications were received following board advertisements placed in newspapers and hospital journals.

Two of the applicants were considered qualified for the position and were interviewed by the board. They were Bill Austin of Ft. Worth and Paul Harper of Amarillo.

Austin declined the administrator's post after a period of consideration of its responsibilities and salary. Harper called the board last weekend that he had decided to accept another offer from a small hospital in another town, said Reilly.

Root then submitted a formal application to continue as administrator provided that he could be relieved of some of the responsibilities of the office.

Martin Weaver and George O. Witten are, Reilly said, to be assigned part of the responsibilities of the office.

The program, with Mrs. John Womack as chairman, will be combined with the annual Cuthbert Cemetery Association meeting. Kent Womack is association president.

Dedication program will start at 11 a. m. After a brief community history by Mrs. Witt Hines, Cuthbert oldtimers will have an informal session, "I Remember When."

The new marker, for an old and esteemed community in this county, will be placed at the entrance of the old cemetery, Farm to Market 1229 road,

The cast aluminum marker with Swedish steel effect measures 18 by 28 inches and is sponsored by the Cuthbert Cemetery Association members.

Inscription for the marker reads, "Site of Town of Cuthbert - Founded in 1890 by D. T. Bozeman, teacher and merchant, on a main wagon road, 16 miles northwest of Colorado City."

"Town was named for Bozeman's neighbor T. T. Cuthbertson. First postmaster was Mrs. Bozeman. A good (water) well attracted freighter."

"First Cuthbert school opened in 1893. First rural telephone line in the county."

was built in 1898 - from the Bozeman home to Colorado City.

"In 1907, Cuthbert boasted Bozeman's store, G. W. Womack's General store, a gin, a blacksmith shop, barber shop, church and school. Post office closed in 1959."

Cuthbert, once a thriving country village, had the first school in the northwest part of Mitchell County. It was located on Groves Creek. The school, later moved to Cuthbert, was kept up until 1938 when Cuthbert began transferring its pupils to Colorado City.

CONVERSATION CORNER

NOTICED the other day that people are playing the "What Would You Take?" game all over everywhere.

The idea is that players list what they would take with them in the event they were to be immediately evacuated from home to a distant airport.

Answers are supposed to be an index to the character. As the game goes, a player is allowed, say, only one book, two recordings, two changes of clothes, one luxury item, and so on.

The fad probably began with some wag who took to wondering about the atomic age. And that led to imagining how it would be if people had to leave in a hurry for some far-off but safer part of the world—or maybe the universe.

WHAT would you take with you?

If you could take just one book what would you grab? Thought first of the favorite complete collection of poetry written by Edna St. Vincent Millay. Discarded that for a complete volume of Shakespeare.

And then I knew. It would have to be the Bible, both Old Testament and New. Because therein lie words to live by—and die by.

Therein is the poetry of David, the lyrical Song of Solomon... the adventures of Noah and Jonah and Jacob and Joseph... the love stories of Esther, Rachael, Ruth. Therein are the prophecies, the prophecies come true, the parables and the promises.

Maybe if one read it slowly enough and often enough there would come the inner light... the "peace that passeth understanding." Which would be a comfort.

WHAT would you take with you?

Say you could take only two recordings. It would have to be the 101 Strings version of Schubert's Serenade, Estradita, Tales of Vienna Wood, The Rosary and all the old favorites, songs without words.

The second record would be a tossup between Nat King Cole and Andy Williams, though for a minute I might lean toward the instrumental version of the Beatles' "Hey, Jude" if the choice had to be made right now.

WHAT would you take with you?

Two changes of clothes would have to be the most comfortable slacks on hand and the brightest-most durable skimmer in the wardrobe.

It's that one luxury item which would be the undoing of every woman.

How could one choose between toothbrush, comb and brush, face cream, cologne, not to mention eyebrow pencil, bath oil and lipstick?

If the one luxury item is literal, then it would have to be lipstick. A woman can live without food but not without lipstick.

However, most women are great little schemers. The way it would work out every woman aboard the mythical flight would take with her one complete makeup kit... just in case it all turned out to be a false alarm and she had to come back home in broad daylight.

Second son, Timothy Burson, is in San Diego for basic training in the US Navy.

Mike and Tim missed seeing each other by exactly five and a half hours. Tim had to take a bus out of Lubbock at 11 a. m. and Mike flew in to Lubbock from Fort Carson, Colorado, at 4:30 p. m. the same day.

Mike and his little wife Kaye (nee Feaster) took a little ski vacation in New Mexico, by the way.

Other "members" of the family unable to attend the event because of illness are Mrs. J. D. Fortenberry of Sand Springs, the former Helen Saling, and her sister, Mrs. Glen (Joyce) Womack of Robert Lee.

Mrs. Williams helped rear the two girls following their mother's death. She is "Mother" to them and "Grandmother" to their four boys—Gary Lee and Trey Womack, Jimmy and Douglas Fortenberry.

Joni House of Odessa and Lisa Redman of Midland, granddaughters of the honored couple, registered guests. Miss Sherry Williams, another granddaughter, and Mrs. Merket presided at the serving table.

Others in the houseparty were Mrs. House, Mrs. Redman and Mrs. Jimmy Williams.

Seventy-three guests from Midland, Big Spring, Brownwood, Odessa, Lorraine, China Grove, Colorado City, Fairview Community, Payne, Seven Wells and other local communities called during the afternoon.

Refreshment table was covered with a ruby red cloth overlaid with sheer lace.

A bouquet of red and white carnations centered the table flanked by a three-tiered cake and a punch service.

Red tapers in crystal candle holders accented the buffet.

Registry table, covered with white net over red, was marked by a red carnation in a milk glass vase.

For the occasion Mrs. Williams wore a ruby red sheath dress complimented by a matching carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were married March 22, 1929, in the home of the late Rev. W. M. Elliott and Mrs. Elliott in Colorado City. Rev. Elliott, then pastor of First Presbyterian Church, performed the wedding ceremony.

They have lived in the Payne Community since their marriage. They first moved into Mr. Williams' family home, then into their present home on the same farm. Their home built 20 years ago, is south of the Payne Baptist Church, where the church was located for many years.

Mr. Williams, born near Houston, moved to Fairview Community with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Williams. They moved to Payne Community in 1921.

Mrs. Williams, the former Linnie Hammans, was born in Fairview, Mo. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hammans, moved their family to Spade Community, then to Payne in 1914.

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP

How about those gals up at Colorado High?

They've just put the first sports title trophy on the shelf for their school this year as District Volleyball Champs.

Three of 'em were named to the all-district team, too - Linda Ezell, Mary Lou Cooley and Susan White.

Naturally, the whole team coached by Miss Linda Miller had a big hand in all the victories. I'm for telling 'em we're proud, and wish 'em the best in regional play in Lubbock.

For Our Children's Sake

Keep Our Schools Moving Up!

Colorado City has good schools. They are among the very best. Right now.

National Educational Association has cited our schools, pointing them out to educators across the state and nation as examples for other schools to study and follow. Teachers and school administrators from distant points, as far away as Michigan, have traveled here to obtain knowledge for better educational techniques.

Fine schools like ours don't just happen. They come from years and years of dedicated leadership and teaching, enlightened cooperation, community effort. They come from constant building... always improving. Never tearing down.

Mrs. Kenneth W. Cowan and Tom Rees, two Colorado City School Board Members who seek re-election in our School Board Election, Saturday, April 5, have key places in this successful school program.

As school board members they have worked in cooperation for the best interests of our children's education and our public schools. They have stepped above selfish, personal interests... to be sure our children are better equipped to meet the demands of tomorrow's citizenship.

Let's keep our schools moving forward. We can't afford to take a chance. We must not sacrifice our children and our schools to controversies and bickering which penalize other communities.

Be sure YOU VOTE TO RE-ELECT MRS. KENNETH COWAN and TOM REES. If you plan to be out of town Easter Weekend (that's election time) be sure to vote absentee by April 1.

Your Vote Will Count Most!

sponsibilities formerly handled by Root.

Weaver and Witten and the office secretaries, Mrs. Weldon Hardegree and Mrs. S. O. Palmer, will also relieve Root of part of the heavy "book work" which formerly fell to personal attention from the administrator.

Salary adjustments are being made in keeping with their expanded duties, said the board spokesman. Salary for the administrator remains at $13,200 per year.

Text of the application submitted by Root to Murrell Blassingame, board chairman, and unanimously accepted by board members follows:

"Since the board has experienced some difficulties in obtaining another administrator, and since I am sincerely interested in the welfare of the hospital, I hereby submit a proposal for your consideration.

"George Witten, Martin Weaver and I have agreed upon a new arrangement relative to duties, responsibilities and salaries. It is our opinion that the new arrangement will not create any additional expense to the hospital, nor will it jeopardize the efficiency of its operation. It will, however, allow me some additional freedom which will assist in protecting my health.

"If this new arrangement will meet with your approval then I would like to submit my application to continue in the position for an indefinite period on a trial basis."

Root Memorial Hospital, now owned by the Colorado City Hospital District, was originally established by the late Dr. C. L. Root, father of the administrator.

INDUSTRY ON THE LOOK. . .SEE CHURCHES, TOO

than wages and pension plans. They need food for their heart and soul. They need God.

A manufacturer recently arrived by plane in a West Texas city to decide if he was to locate a manufacturing plant there.

One of his first requests was "show me where I will worship."

All of which proves that churches, like other factors, are important in the business and industrial growth of a town.

But something more. The men and women who manage and direct and operate our complicated industrial plants need more

It is not unusual now for large industries to have chaplains and chapels within their plants. New office buildings are including appropriate areas for individual worship and prayer just as they provide cafeterias and offices.

As the rush and heavy demands of our times increase, there is a new realization that every man and woman needs time and place for inner life, for inner peace.

Church is that place. Discover it anew this Sunday with your family.

Book Review Here Tonight

At 8 o'clock tonight Mrs. Gerald Gordon will present the first book review for the 1969 series sponsored by the Cultural Activities and Education Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The review will be at Mitchell County Public Library, with no admission charge and will be followed by an informal social hour.

"North Toward Home," written by Willie Morris, has been chosen by Mrs. Gordon for the review. The book by Morris, an auto biography, received high praise from literary critics both in America and in England.

Morris, who grew up in Mississippi, received his degree at University of Texas in Austin, then went to Oxford on a Rhodes scholarship.

He became editor-in-chief of Harper's Magazine in 1965 and is still in his mid thirties. Mrs. Gordon, herself a journalist who chose to teach high school journalism classes, is among Colorado City's most popular book reviewers.

INDUSTRY ON THE LOOK. . .SEE CHURCHES, TOO

than wages and pension plans. They need food for their heart and soul. They need God.

A manufacturer recently arrived by plane in a West Texas city to decide if he was to locate a manufacturing plant there.

One of his first requests was "show me where I will worship."

All of which proves that churches, like other factors, are important in the business and industrial growth of a town.

But something more. The men and women who manage and direct and operate our complicated industrial plants need more

It is not unusual now for large industries to have chaplains and chapels within their plants. New office buildings are including appropriate areas for individual worship and prayer just as they provide cafeterias and offices.

As the rush and heavy demands of our times increase, there is a new realization that every man and woman needs time and place for inner life, for inner peace.

Church is that place. Discover it anew this Sunday with your family.
