NOW PREPARING NOTE

Announcement Follows Conference Between President and Secretary Bryan

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 2.—The United States Government will recognize the Republic of China. This announcement was made this afternoon following a lengthy conference between Secretary of State Bryan and President Wilson. During the conference they went over the details of the matter, after which Mr. Bryan returned to his office to draft the note giving official notice of the recognition.

This note will be conveyed to the Chinese government through the Chinese minister here.

PLANS FOR BETTERMENT WORKING GIRLS CONDITIONS.

Chicago, April 2.—Members of the state senatorial committee appointed to investigate tht white salve traffic, today in executive session, agreed to ask the co-operation of State street merchants in the formation of a permanent national organization to aid working girls.

According to the plans approved by Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara and the state senators composing the commission, the Chicago merchants, who employ large numbers of girls and young women will be asked to perfect an organization which will include branches in every large city in the country.

This association, it is expected, will take up the problems of the working woman in systematic fashion and will develop a comprehensive program for the aid and betterment of all women forced to earn their living in stores, factories or other places of employment.

Marriage, death or an immoral life are the only avenues of escape for girls from the toil of the sweat shops according to testimony of witnesses before the Illinois vice commission, which resumed its inquiry here today.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, chairman of the commission, devoted much time examining girls and women from the West side sweat shop district, where wages range from $2.50 to $5 a week.

Lieutenant Governor O'Hara agreed with Senator Juul to give one dollar each to sweat shop witnesses because it was believed they would be docked by their employers for the time spent before the commission.

The moral obligation of employers to make certain that all their employes are properly clothed and adequately nourished was emphasized throughout the session.

APACHE INDIANS MAY LEAVE LAWTON TONIGHT.

Lawton, Okla., April 2.—The 190 Apache prisoners of war who are to be transferred to the Mescalero reservation in New Mexico, under the supervision of Major George W. Goode, superintendent, have been busy today loading the special train which is to carry them to their new homes. The work will not be completed until late today. They will probably leave tonight.

All personal effects, ponies and mules will be taken. The 10,000 head of cattle belonging to them will be sold here and the money turned in the Apache fund.

The $40,000 Indian hospital and home for aged Indians of the affiliated tribes, of Southwest Oklahoma, which is to be located near Lawton and which was provided for by the sixty-second congress, will be erected this summer and will be ready for occupancy late in the fall. That is the announcement of John Charles, supervisor of construction, with the department of the interior, who accompanied by Lieutenant Ernest Stecker, agent came to Lawton to select a site. The hospital will be located two miles north of Lawton.

CHILDREN BURN TO DEATH WHEN HOME BURNS.

Marshall, Texas, April 2.—Two boys, one 3 years and the other 7 months old, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed L. Marshall's home in Northeast Marshall.

The bodies of the two children were found under a bed mattress by Fire Chief Griffin. Another child 4 years old escaped.

The mother had gone to take some laundry home and left the children alone. One of them played in the fire with a piece of paper and thus started the blaze.

The aldermen will probably be sworn in for their new terms at tomorrow night's session.

DALLAS EXCURSIONISTS WILL STOP HERE

Wichita Falls on Itinerary of Excursion of Dallas Business Men

Wichita Falls is included in the itinerary of the annual trade excursion by Dallas business men, who will be here early in the morning of Friday, April 18, arriving at 4 o'clock and departing three hours later. The time of arrival makes it impossible for ayn entertainment to be provided for the visitors, but it is expected that a number of Wichitans will meet them before they leave. They will arrive over the Denver on the first day of their trip and will visit points from Wichita Falls to Chillicothe on the Denver, going south from Chillicothe on the Orient to Sweetwater then west to El Paso, north through New Mexico to Amarillo, then down the Santa Fe.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR ANOTHER INDUSTRY

Owners of Glove Factory Will Give Answer to Chamber of Commerce Soon

Although negotiations have not been finally concluded, the outlook is excellent for the addition of another substantial industry to thoes in this city, in the form of a glove factory which will later add cotton pants and overalls o its output. This concern will move here from another southwestern city, being already an established institution with a recognized standing.

The owners of the plant met yesterday afternoon with a special committee from the Chamber of Commerce directorate, who gave assurance that Wichita Falls would take a certain percentage of the stock in the new corporation to be organized. The manufacturer will give definite answer within a short time.

The plant would employ from twenty-five to thirty-five women and girls and would be a welcome addition to this city's list of industrial plants.

DOUBLE PASSENGER SERVICE TO DALLAS

Katy Officials at Dallas Yesterday Arranged For Improved Service

At a meeting of Katy passenger officials in Dallas yesterday, arrangements were perfected, it is understood here, for two changes in service that will materially benefit Wichita Falls. One change contemplated means double daily service into Dallas, and the other provides for through service between Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells over the Wichita Falls & Southern and the Gulf Texas & Western.

No definite announcement as to these changes was made, but they are supposed to become effective April 9. The Mineral Wells service will not, it is believed, mean another train over the Southern, but will provide that the present train leaving here early in the afternoon shall make connections which will amount practically to through service. Details of the new Dallas train are not known here.

COLQUITT SIGNS JOINT RESOLUTION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

EXPLAINS HIS VETOES

Several Bills Involving Appropriations Fall Under the Axe

By Associated Press

Austin, Texas, April 2.—Governor Colquitt today signed the joint resolution for a constitutional amendment giving the legislature authority to fix salaries of county and district officials, he also signed House bill 681 relating to private corporations; also House bills 44 and 99 the latter making it unlawful for husbands to desert their wives or children and several other bills.

This afternoon he vetoed four measures as follows: The Senate bill creating an agricultural experiment station at Lufkin, House bill 88 creating a judicial district of El Paso county, the House bill for a training school for feeble minded and House bill 17 for a commissioner to inspect the State buildings at Austin. The first bills were vetoed because of the governor's policy toward additional appropriations. In relation to his veto of the bill for the training of feeble minded he called attention to his request to the legislature to reduce the appropriation from $50,000 to $25,000. Regarding the public building commission he said if the legislature had appropriated money for the necessary expenses of the administration such a commission would be unnecessary.

Pennsylvania Thirty-Fifth State to Ratify Vote Amendment

Harrisburg, Pa., April 2.—The State of Pennsylvania today joined the ranks of those states which have ratified the amendment to the Federal constitution providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people. The amendment was ratified when the Senate by a unanimous vote concurred in the previous action of the House in its endorsement. Pennsylvania makes the thirty-fifth state to ratify the amendment. Its ratification by only one more state is needed to make the amendment effective. (Yesterday's report saying only one moer state was needed after its ratification by Tennessee was an error).

Louisville, Ky., April 1.—The Rugby warehouse distillery which was flooded last night by the waters of the Ohio collapsed allowing five thousand barrels of whiskey valued at more than a quarter of million dollars to float away. Thousands of barrels more were saved by a dam hastily constructed around the distillery grounds.

While much damage has been done here it is believed the danger has passed as the crest of the flood passed this point last night. A stage of 45 feet was reached.

ABOLITION OF SUGAR TARIFF

THIS SAID TO HAVE BEEN AGREED UPON BY WILSON AND UNDERWOOD

NOT TO BE IMMEDIATE

American Sugar Growers Will be Given Time For Adjustment

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 2.—Features of the proposed new tariff bill were discussed at a conference of the subcommittee of the ways and means committee here today. The conference follows one between House leader Underwood and President Wilson at which the President is said to have urged several points.

The sugar schedule became one of acute interest today when it became known that Mr. Underwood and President Wilson had practically agreed on the removal of all duties from sugar. It is understood however, that they have agreed that the removal of duties should not take effect immediately but should be deferred until the sugar growers can adapt themselves to the conditions that will be created.

It is said that this provision will be inserted to stave off opposition from sugar growers in the Louisiana and Texas fields.

MISUSE OF PASSES IN COLORADO

COMMISSIONER HARLAN FINDS THEIR ILLEAL ISSUANCE AND USE GENERAL

EVERYBODY IS DOING IT

District Judges, County Officials and Ministers Even Involved

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 2.—Commissioner Harlan of the Interstate Commerce Commission who has been conducting an investigation into the alleged illegal practices of Colorado shippers and railroads in connection with the issuance of railroad passes and their use in that state said today that startling conditions had been revealed. It was announced today also that criminal indictments against a number of large shippers and several railroads had been returned.

In his preliminary report Commissioner Harlan said:

"I find in one month that over a single line of railroad, passes for 7,000 trips were issued to secure through shipments of goods. I find the greatest laxity in the issuance of passes and that public officials even are careless in this particular. I find district judges, county and state officials and even ministers of the gospel using passes improperly and even in some instances passes are demanded by county officials before they will perform their official duties where railroads are interested. The misuse of passes to secure interstate routings has been frequent."

ALL READY FOR WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN

Canvass For Membership to Chamber of Commerce Friday Afternoon

Everything is in readiness for the whirlwind membership campaign which the Chamber of Commerce will wage Friday afternoon and it is expected to add materially to the ranks of the organization in the few hours during which the campaign will continue.

The business section has been divided into districts, with a committee in charge of each, but all present members of the Chamber of Commerce will be expected to help as much as possible in the work. The chairman and members of the several committees are to meet at the Chamber of Commerce at 2 o'clock and start from there.

It has been several years since there was any organized membership campaign and this one is expected to be productive of good results. It is believed that there are a great many Wichitans who have moved here in recent years who have never joined because the matter has never "been put up to them," and that these may be enlisted in the work, with a few hours of co-operation and effort on the part of the old members.

FORT WORTH MAN WILL SPEAK HERE

R. O. McCormick, Secretary of Chamber of Commerce, There Will be Here Friday

R. O. McCormack of Port Worth, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, will be in Wichita Falls Friday and Friday evening at 7:30 will address the members of the Traffic Bureau and the Merchants' Association at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Mr. McCormack is one of the best posted men on rate matters in the Southwest being an expert in this line, and his address is expected to be of much interest. It will be open to the public and the presence of local merchants in particular is desired.

From here Mr. McCormick will go to Austin to attend a commission meeting at which he will represent the interests of this section.

Although the traffic bureau here has been organized less than two weeks, it is already making its presence known. One member announced today that he had already saved $160 on freight charges through the work of the freight bureau.

Blackwell—R. E. Gatewood recently traded his highly improved dairy near Cleburne, for the W. A. Nix ranch which consists of twenty-two sections of land near this place. This deal represents a valuation of $95,000.

By Associated Press.

Memphis, Tenn., April 2.—The Mississippi River registered 48 and 8-10 feet here this morning, a rise of one foot in the last twenty-four hours. Officials of the Saint Francis Levee Board say that everything is in good shape to withstand the great volume of water which the Mississippi is being forced to carry to the gulf, and declare that unless extraordinary floods come this section is safe.

Carlo Gets a Little Rest.

Life Saving Companies May Be Sent to Cairo.

Washington, April 2.—Sherman Lemmon, assistant secretary of the treasury, today authorized companies of the life saving service at St. Louis and other points to go to Carlo if the situation warranted.

EXPRESS COMPANIES HARD HIT BY PARCELS POST.

Washington, April 2.—Express companies of the country have been hit hard by the operation of the new parcel post system, according to a statement submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission today by counsel for the companies in their final arguments against the reduction in express rates proposed by the commission. It was declared that the companies have suffered a loss approximating 25 per cent in small package business—a loss which amounts to about 6 per cent of the gross revenues of the companies.

Walker D. Hines asserted, that for the five companies he represented—the Adams, American, United States, Southern and Wells Fargo—application of the proposed rates to present business would reduce revenues about $26,000,00 a year, or 5.85 cents on every dollar's worth of business done. Such a reduction in revenues, he said, would be absolutely destructive. He maintained also that the formula-made rates would seriously disturb business conditions in large centers, such as New York and Chicago, by forcing a readjustment of competitive business conditions.

B. F. Fairchild of the New York Chamber of Commerce, for the express shippers, attacked Mr. Hines's argument as purely theoretical and hypothetical and insisted that the proposed rates would yield an ample revenue to the express companies. He maintained also that the present allowances made by the express companies to the railroads for transporting services were excessive.

MRS. JONES' INJURIES FOUND VERY SERIOUS.

Mrs. C. C. Jones, who was injured Monday while stepping from an automobile in Floral Heights, was hurt much more seriously than was at first believed. An X-Ray examination at Fort Worth yesterday indicated that the thigh had been broken just below the hip-joint, the bone being forced several inches into the flesh. Owing to Mrs. Jones' advanced age, this injury will probably disable her for the remainder of her life, though it is not expected to prove fatal. She was resting easily this morning, but it is doubtful if she will ever be able to use the injured limb again.

MANY AT OPENING OF NEWEST STORE

THRONGS ADMIRED DISPLAYS AT McGRATTAN-MILLSAPS LAST NIGHT

THE WICHITA FALLS SPIRIT

New Merchants Indicate at the Start They Have Caught It

Wichita Falls was introduced to her newest and one of her prettiest establishments last evening when the McGratton-Millsaps Company opened its doors. A large crowd of visitors of both sexes attended the opening, admired the attractive and up to date display of goods and enjoyed the music and souvenirs which were dispensed. The store is on Ohio avenue in the new building on the east side of the street, occupying floor space 50x150.

The store carries a very complete line of dry goods and ready to wear clothing for both sexes, including millinery and shoes. The interior is roomy and well lighted, affording excellent opportunity for attractive display of goods and there is no hint of crowding. The offices are on a deck above the ground floor, all the lower floor being occupied by the store proper.

The 50 foot front is set off by three extra large windows giving plenty of display space and judging from the appearance of the windows at the opening they will be an attraction in themselves.

Dainty souvenirs were given the ladies who visited the store at the opening, each receiving a sache booklet in assorted perfume flavors, with just a bit of reading matter inside telling the policies and purposes of the new store, making it a memento worth keeping. Excellent cigars were provided for the male visitors and courteous clerks and attendants extended greeeting and welcome.

Th personnel of those in charge of the new store includes J. W. Gamel, the general manager, who comes from New Mexico; Mrs. H. Ward, in charge of the ladies' ready to wear department; Miss Loraine Kite, at the head of the millinery section; John Pride in charge of the men's clothing and ready to wear depatrment; Eugene Baker, who will attend to the decorating and serve as shoe salesman.

The appearance of the store, the attractive line of goods and the general up to dateness and modern air which pervade the entire store indicate that Messrs. McGratton and Millsaps have caught the Wichita Falls spirit at the very start and that they have established a concern here of which Wichitans may be proud.

Wichita Falls, Texas, April 2, 1913

Take the A. & M. College and the State University out of politics, and make them two separate and distinct institutions, and make them the leading institutions of their class in the world. The talk of combining the two institutions, if carried out, is tatamount to abolishing one of them, and practically ruining both of them.—Sherman Democrat.

The average newspaper man is generally looked upon as one who is able to write a poem, weigh corn, discuss the tariff, umpire a ball game, preach the gospel, beat a lawyer, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire make one dollar do the work of ten shine at soirees, address a horticultural society, measure calico, abuse the liquor habit—both ways—subscribe to charity, go without meals, attack free silver, defend bimentalism, sneer the snobbery, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, overlook scandal, praise prize babies, administer to the afflicted, heal the disgruntled, fight to the finish, set type, mold opinion, scorn the flesh and the devil, be everything see everything, all at a small salary and support a family.—Weatherford Democrat.

There are only a few, however, who do all these things. That used to be the way. Now it is different. Most editors now ride down to their offices in their electric motor cars, do a few stunts around the office and then back to their homes are out in the country for a short spin. That kind of eidtors are the ones who succeed financially. The fellow who works from sunrise to sunset and then some, are the ones the Democrat has reference to. They are getting to be back numbers, though the papers they edit and whose destines they preside over show their worth. The real newspaper man—the man who knows the game, will make personal sacrifices that his sheet may present a respectable appearance rather than take from the business the earning and invest them in the purchase o "glad rags" that make the editor slim in the public eye. And, strange as it may seem, that kind of newspaper men seem to prosper and get through the world better than the other kind

TO PREVENT WASTE OF NATURAL GAS

Representative E. P. Haney has succeeded in putting through a bill that will tend to preserve the natural gas supply, as will be noted by the following letter from Mr. Haney, and a copy of the bill that will become a law with the signature of Governor Colquitt:

Austin, Texas, March 31st, 1913.—Editor Times: In response to a telegram from Mr. R. E. Huff, President Wichita Fals Chamber of Commerce on the 21st inst., stating that the Chamber of Commerce of Wichita Falls and the citizenship of the towns that are interested in conserving the gas of the Petrolia oil and gas fields, and stating further that a company is permitting a gas well to run wild in the Petrolia fields and thereby causing a waste of several million cubic feet of gas per day, and asking for immediate relief, I beg to state that I have put through both houses House Bill No. 887, a copy of which I herewith enclose, and the bill will go to the Governor this afternoon for his approval.

Under the present law it is only a $100.00 fine to wilfully permit a gas well to run wild. Under this bill you will note that a penalty of $300.00 per day, each day a separate offense, is prescribed. Also, owners of adjacent property may plug the well. This will undoubtedly give the relief demanded, and as the bill will go into effect immediately upon being signed by the Governor, you may state to those who are interested that they may then proceed to have the well in question properly kept.

Very truly yours,
EDGAR P. HANEY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 7849, of Title 224, Revised Civil Statutes of 1911, be amended so as to read as follows:

Article 7849. Any person, co-partnership, or corporation in possession, either as owner, lessee, agent or manager, of any well producing natural gas, in order to prevent the said gas from wasting by escape, shall within ten days after penetrating the gas bearing rock in any well hereafter drilled, shut in and confine the gas in said well until and during such time as the gas therein shall be utilized for light or fuel or power; provided, that this shall not apply to any well that is operated for oil. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $300 for each offense, to be recovered, with the costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the State of Texas, in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the act shall be committed or omitted, and each day such violation continues shall be considered a separate offense. Such suit may be brought at the instance of any resident of the State of Texas, without security or liability of cost. The amount of said penalty, when collected, shall be paid one-half into the school fund of the county in which said suit is brought, and one-half to said person at whose instance said suit shall be brought.

Sec. 2. That said Chapter 1, Title 134, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1911, be amended by adding thereto Article 7854a, to read as follows:

Article 7854a. If the owner of any such well shall neglect or refuse to cause said well to be plugged or shut in, as herein provided, for a period of twenty days after a written notice to do so (which notice may be served personally upon such owner, or may be posted in a conspicuous place at or near the well), it shall be lawful for the owner or operator of any adjacent or neighboring lands to enter upon the premises where said well is situate and to cause the same to be plugged if it be an abandoned well, or shut in if not abandoned, pursuant to the provisions hereof; and the reasonable cost and expense incurred in so doing shall be paid by the owner of said well, and may be recovered as debts of like amount are by law recoverable.

Sec. 3. That Chapter 1, Title 134, of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1911, be further amended by adding thereto Article 7854b, to read as follows:

Article 7854b. Aside from and in addition to the penalties provided in this chapter, it shall be the duty of any district judge, whether in term time or vacation, to hear and determine any petition which may be filed to restrain the waste of natural gas in violation of this Act and to issue such mandatory or restraining orders as may, in his judgment, be necessary. Such petition may be filed by any citizen of the State of Texas, and the same need allege no further financial interest than the petitioner possesses in common with all other citizens of the State in the natural resources thereof.

Sec. 4. The fact that the natural gas resources of the State are being wasted, together with the crowded condition of the calendar and the near approach of the end of the session, create an emergency and an urgent public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring that bills be read on three several days be suspended and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

There are rumors to the effect that there is a feeling of jealousy existing between Provisional President Huerta of Mexico and Gen. Felix Diaz, and that any day may bring on hostilities between the two that will result in such an affair as was pulled off which resulted in the assassination of President Madera and Vice President Suarez. Huerta and Diaz are more responsible for that cowardly and disgraceful affair than all others, and there would be little sympathy in this country expressed for either should both meet with the same fate as Madero.

A bicycle belonging to T. B. Noble, Jr., was found yesterday by the police hidden in some bushes on the bank of the river. It had been stolen from the Noble home and the thief evidently staked it out, intending to return later and make his get-away. When found the bicycle had an extra seat, which had probably also had been stolen.

HORATIUS

Who kept the bridge in the brave old days of old, is probably the most pleasing Roman hero of historic narrative. He was what is known in some of the modern vernaculars as a Hum-Dinger. He stood pat and dared a powerful army to invade Rome and made it stick. He was crowned with a laurel wreath which in the matter of honor was about the same as getting yourself fastened to a Carnegie medal for rescuing a pie-eyed wreck from a duck puddle who thinks he was aboard the Titanic when it sank.

But, speaking of honor, the chap who will come in for tears of admiration as big as a gas meter for making a noise that reached round the world and blessed humanity from one end of the world to the other and who will reap a wreath worth mentioning is the chap who invented ALTA VISTA PURE ICE CREAM. That taste teasing, palate tickling ALTA VISTA PURE ICE CREAM that has a fetching farewell that you can't forget if you live until Matheuslah looks like a trundle bedder. TAKE A BUCKET HOME.

COUPLE MARRIED IN SURF AT PALM BEACH.

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 2.—A romance of the sea which had its inception two weeks ago, when the couple met for the first time in the water of the beach, had its culmination today in a most novel manner when Miss Linda Lund and Frederick Kirchner were married in the surf here.

The bride was dressed in a handsome silk bathing costume. In her hair were arranged orange blossoms, a large bouquet of which she carried in her hands.

The groom was likewise dressed in his bathing suit. The minister wore the ordinary clerical costume.

At the appropriate moment the groom produced from a mysterious recess of his costume the wedding ring.

Several hundred people witnessed the ceremony.

Don't Sacrifice Quality for Quantity

There is no economy in buying cheap Groceries. Every housewife knows this, or ought to know it, and a careful comparison will prove it. Our business has been builded upon the plan of handling only the very best grades of goods—giving the very best values, but never sacrificing for quantity or price.

We take pride in the knowledge that not a single customer has ever gone out of our store dissatisfied. Our prices are low—when the quality is considered, and a dollar spent with us buys a full dollars worth of groceries—no matter who buys them.

WINTER TERM EXAMS OVER

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS STUDENTS NOW HAVING COMPARATIVELY EASY TIME

LETTER FROM UNIVERSITY

Student There Gives Advice to High School Students Intending to matriculate

(By Jerome Stone)

Winter term examinations at the University of Texas having been finished not long ago, those students who were so fortunate as to pass in al lof their courses have been enjoying a comparatively easy time during the last few days. Interest in the barb-frat fight has temporarily subsided, several games have been played by the baseball team, one track meet has already been held, tennis enthusiasts may be seen on the courts every afternoon except Sunday, mid-term quizzes are yet some days in the future and the weather has reached that point where breezes neither too cold nor too warm blow softly over the campus, which for some days now has been covered with green grass and blooming flowers.

However, such rare although highly desirable combinations of circumstances probably fail to appeal to the large number of students who to use current expression "busted out" during the winter term just ended. Dr. H. Y. Benedict, dean of the academic department, has posted in the corridors of the main building the names of more than one hundred students of the academic department who failed to pass in enough courses during the winter term to remain in school. The number does not include members of the engineering and law departments and does not show what per cent were freshmen and what per cent were sophomores and upper classmen. Practically all of the students who "bust out" are sent home, but sometimes a few are given a chance to redeem themselves and are allowed to attend classes on condition that they raise their grades within one moonths' time.

The fact that so many students are compelled to leave school each term because of low scholastic standing should not be thought to indicate that those students have not spent much time on their work, for the contrary is generally the case. Students fail because of many reasons, chief among which is lack of proper training before entering the university.

The University of Texas ranks among the first educational institutions of the country and members of the faculty take good care to provide that students always toe the mark in scholarship requirements. The result is that many studtnts are unable to keep up the pace and are consequently required to leave the university. All high school students who intend to enter college should be careful to make the most of their time while in high school and should lern how to study before entering the university because in these ways they will avoid much future trouble.

In accordance with established precedent here the annual class track meet was held on Clark Field a few days ago in order not only to determine the champion class of the university but for the purpose of making preliminary selection of those men who will probably compose this year's track team. The meet resulted in a complete victory for the sophomore class and some very promising material for the varsity track team was discovered. Prominent among this material was Ralph Mathis of Wichita Falls about whom the "Texan" hal the following to say: "Mathis won first place in the mile and half run and ran on the winning relay and shuttle teams. His time on the mile was fourteen seconds better than was made this time last year. Unless all signs fail, Ralph Mathis is to be one of the best distance men that Texas has ever produced."

Coach C. C. Taylor, of the track team, has announced that five meets will be held this year and that the team will make at least one extended trip. In about three weeks the team will go to Stillwater, Okla., for a meet with Oklahoma A. & M., after which a trip will be made to Norman to compete with the track team of the University of Oklahoma. At his moment it seems practically certain that at least one Wichita Falls boy will be a member of the squad and will be taken along on the trip.

Not only have university people been interested in track work during the last few days, many of them have also become baseball enthusiasts. Four or five games have already been played and Varsity is developing much baseball "pep" considering the short time since the team began to train. The New York Giants have played several games in Austin and athletically inclined students have taken a great deal of interest in James Thorp, the world's greatest athlete, who is trying out for a place on the Giant's team. Matheson and McGraw have also come in for their full share of attention and it was with regret that the students saw the team for the last time Wednesday when after defeating the Austin League team, McGraw took his men back to San Antonio.

In addition to track and baseball, just at the present time there seems to be a great deal of discussion concerning whether or not it is desirable to change the university paper, known as the "Texan" from a semi-weekly to a daily newspaper. There are plenty of advocates for both sides of the question and it is likely that a student mass meeting will be called in a few days to consider the proposition and to decide definitely concerning the question. It seems likely that a daily Texan will be established.

Another matter that is likely to demand attention in the near future is the question of consolidating the University of Texas with the A. & M. College. It seems to be the general consensus of opinion here that the measure would operate for the best interests of the university, but it is known, however, that the A. & M. students are opposing such a step and in all quarters much doubt exists concerning the probable attitude of the legislature on the porposition.

Some of those who are in favor of the consolidation urge that it is only a matter of a short time until it will be necessary to move the university to a larger campus. They point out that near the Austin Dam is located four hundred acres of land donated to the university by Col. G. W. Breckenridge of San Antonio and should Texas and A. & M. be consolidated, this land would offer an ideal location for the united schools. The present campus and architecture of the university could be devoted to other state purposes than education, for the state is said to be badly in need of more buildings at the present time. It is understood that Col. Brackenridge will present the university with three million dollars in cash on condition that the institution be moved to the land near the Austin Dam which he gave to the school.

It is more than probable that the university would have been moved before this time but for the fact that the business interests of many of the people of Austin would suffer by such a step. Business houses have been constructed, fraternity houses have been bought and paid for, people have built residences near the university, pavement has been laid in the vicinity, these and many other expensive improvements will always furnish good argument for those who are opposed to moving the university to a larger site. At present the school is situated on a campus of forty acres, whereas other collezes have grounds three, four, and even five times as large.

Although university politics did not occupy much attention last week, all indications point to the fact that for several weeks in the future politics will play a most important part in Varsity affairs. A number of candidates have already announced for office and are making active campaign for votes, but at the present time it is too early to forecast with any degree of accuarcy who will be elected and who will not. Among the offices which will be filled by popular student election are: Editor in Chief, managing editor; business manager, assistant business manager of the Texan.

At a recent mass meeting of Austin citizens it was decided to present the university with some token of good feeling. Steps were accordingly taken looking towards the construction of a sidewalk around the campus, a length of one mile. Work on this sidewalk has already begun and by the end of the spring term a cement walk costing more than $6000 will have been laid entirely around the campus.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Ceciltон, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

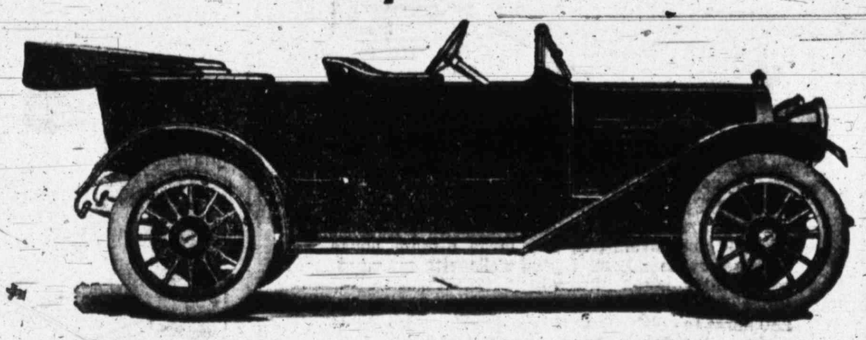

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Thedford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron." This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's "Thedford's."

His New Job Makes Bryan New Man; He's Sphinxlike Now, "Never Felt More Reticent," Says Commoner

(By Robert F. Wilson)

Washington, April 2.—On March 4 an interesting phenomenon occurred. One of the most communicative of public men in America suddenly became the most silent from the standpoint of newspaper publicity. On that day William Jennings Bryan accepted a place in the cabinet of Woodrow Wilson. And immediately correspondents discovered that between the Commoner, the champion of a cause, molder of the political opinions of millions of followers, wielding his influence almost entirely through the instruments of publicity—between such a figure and the position at the head of the American department of state there is a great (and silent) gulf fixed.

At 1:30 p. m., on March 4 Bryan was his same old self, talking freely with anyone who chose to question him. At 1:40 he was referring questioners to his new chief, Mr. Wilson, who had just taken the oath of office. And from that moment to this Bryan has not opened his lips "for publication." Whatever he has said has been given out either in formal typewritten statements or else uttered in public speeches.

W. J. BRYAN.

A Shock to Reporters.

All this threw a shock into the reporters. They, who had been predicting that the state department would become the best source of news in Washington, at first believed that Mr. Bryan must be indisposed or tired. They kept after him for days. They waylaid him in public building corridors and on the streets. They stormed his office. They stood him up in corners. There were more correspondents at the state department than at the White House, all engaged in the gentle sport of hunting the lost Bryan tongue.

"Gentlemen," said the secretary one day to a crowd which had stopped him, "I refuse to be catechized any more." The Bryan eye flashed ominously, and thereafter it became an accepted fact that Bryan had fitted in with the old state department tradition of silence.

But if the newspaper men were disappointed, the force of subordinate officials in the department were astonished in quite a different manner. Some alarming tales about Bryan had preceded him. He was said to be austere.

Commoner Is Genial.

It was exactly an opposite Bryan who came in. From the first minute his geniality seemed to warm the musty old department, in which the very furniture—old mahogany and walnut, which has withstood twenty administrations—chills ebullience of spirit. Bryan met the whole force of subordinates during his first day in office, and completely won them with his kindly good nature.

A new spirit pervaded the department. By the end of the week the civil service employes, many of whom had been taught to regard Bryan as something between a horned demon and a torch swinging anarchist, were swearing by him, and bureau heads dho must soon give away to Democrats were regretting their departure more than ever.

While Bryan is taking his new work with a seriousness equal to its importance, he is not allowing it to depress him for a moment. He has sirply adapted his cheery deuocracy to the confines of a dighty important job. When he works it is with the speed of a six-cylinder racer, but he mixes up play with work. He is never so happy as when relating some personal mishap in learning the routine of his office.

He's Real Diplomat.

Having sized up Bryan satissactorily from the personal standpoint, the next concern of the department experts was to see how he would act as a diplomat. It was harh to believe that he would handle delicate international affairs with the finesse usually associated with more aristocratic temperaments than his. But Bryan immediately set fears at rest on this point.

The first situation confronting him was the settlement of the Cuban amnesty bill. Bryan sumoned the Latin-American experts. He grasped an intricate situation so quickly that it surprised the subordiantes. Then he disposed of the matter thoroughly and in a manner to satisfy the most critical of diplomats.

Shortly afterwards Bryan again showed his skill as a diplomat. He issued the statement warning the temperamental Latins not to revolute except for good reasons, and not for reasons of personal ambition. This was followed by the famous Chinese loan statement whose secondary meaning was that "dollar diplomacy" will be withdrawn from Central and South America. Except for the warning coming first, the announcement of the reversal of the "dollar diplomacy" policy could reasonably have been expected to by followed by revolutions in Latin-America.

Lodge Is Pleased.

The fact is, Bryan is showing all the signs of becoming an eminent secretary of state, one of the greatest this country has ever had. Even so meticulous a critic as the precise Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, a deep student of foreign affairs, after observing Bryan's methods for two weeks, has predicted as much; and Lodge has disapproved of every secretary of state since John Hay.

Broadened by travel, Mr. Bryan has peculiarly fitted himself for his present position by personal study of foreign affairs. He is an enthusiastic trade expansionist along democratic lines, and the recent promise in the Chinese pronounciamento of legislation giving our exporters adequate banking facilities abroad is probably the beginning of our most far sighted foreign policy of modern times.

Politicians Bother Him.

Contrary to expectations, the politicians and office seekers bother Bryan, who grudges the time taken from his regular work. There are several doors to Bryan's private office, and the other day an office hunter asked which one owuld take him out.

"All of the doors to this office lead outward," said Bryan. "There is only one door in, and that one is guarded."

But as a sphinx Bryan continues to be the wonder of the administration. He was genuinely touched the other day by the plight of the reporters. It was after the Latin-American statement was issued—one of the most cryptic utterances that ever came from the White House. A correspondent told Bryan that unless officially enlightened by him, the reporters would proceed to do their own reading between the lines.

"You may read between the lines, or above them or under them," said Bryan. "You are at liberty to do as you choose." Then, thinking to temper his attitude, he added: "You are the most unfortunate set of newspaper men in Washington to be assigned to this office. I never knew a time in my life when I felt more reticent."

Proposed Monument To Heroes os The Alamo

Copyright 1912

Combining beauty, grandeur and usefulness and representing the patriotic devotion of loyal Texans to the memory of the pioneers who fought for and won liberty, the Alamo Heroes Monument, to be erected in San Antonio on ground hallowed by the blood of the fortress' defenders who preferred death to surrender, will be one of the greatest works ever undertaken in Texas. Its graceful lines that emphasize rather than conceal the rugged strength of the structure will mark it as a work of art; its great height and the massive character of the base, its columns and statuary within and without will give grandeur, and its usefulness to the people of the whole state will be realized in its galleries, its auditoriums, its museums, its art gallery, its halls for state and national patriotic societies or associations and its individual rooms for each county in Texas for the maintenance of art or historical exhibits.

The Alamo Heroes Monument will rise to a height of 802 feet, the highest structure in the world. It has been designed along modern lines to possess strength and stability such as would not have been possible when the tower of Babel was built, for modern engineering has made possible feats that were impossible then or, for that matter, were impossible only a generation ago; yet with all the advance the science of engineering has made this monument will be one of its greatest accomplishments. It will contain four spacious auditoriums, a museum, an art gallery and statuary hall and a separate room for every county in Texas to be devoted by each to the encouragement of art and history by the maintenance of exhibits along these lines associated with that county. Near the top balconies will be provided for visitors that wish to take a look into the neighboring counties through the large telescopes to be provided for that purpose.

The base of the monument will be of solid granite rising to a height of fifty feet. On this base will be placed at each corner of the monument and arranged around the shaft high pillars, each eight feet in diameter and seventy feet high, all of solid Texas granite. These pillars will be surmounted by heroic size statues of Travis, Corckett, Bowie and Bonham, the four great leaders who died in the Alamo with the men in their commands who had followed them devotedly in the early days of the campaign for liberty, and who did not hesitate to follow them even to death. Above these statutes will be placed the six flags that have waved at different times over Texas, the Lone Star and the United States flags in the center, and on each side the flag of the Confederate States of America, of Mexico, Spain and France. Place will be made, too, for an emblem representing the Indian Tribes that possessed this land before the Spanish adventurers found their way here.

The exquisite grandeur of design and the architecture of the structure will impress itself on the mind whether viewed from without or within. The great lobby will focus the extent and magnitude of the monument like a beautiful and magnificent image that takes possession of the thoughts to the exclusion for the moment of all else. Everything about the structure will be on grand proportions and the lobby will be one of the most impressive sights of the monument. Visitors are to have free access to it at all times. Iits inside measurements will be 82 1-2 feet square, which also will be the inside measurements of the auditoriums, museum and art gallery, each of which will be larger than any hall in San Antonio today. The ceiling of the lobby will be fifty feet high, an opening in the center eight feet across forming its summit, and this opening is carried up through each succeeding story until it reaches a height of 700 feet. Here will be set into the ceiling, beautifully lighted by electricity the Lone Star of Texas. The space for one hundred feet beneath the star will have no opening from without to admit the light, so this star will be almost as brilliant in the day time as at night.

The elevators in the monument, four in all, will be located between the massive columns as far up as these extend, which will be to a height of 120 feet from the ground, and above that in the shaft, in which one will be placed in each corner and extending to the base of the dome. These elevators will have large carrying capacity, which will be necessary to accommodate the immense crowds that will visit the monument.

The rooms apportioned to the different counties of Texas, in number between 275 and 300 (for some will have to be provided for new counties that will be created in the years to come) will be located within the shaft of the monument, above the four floors in which will be placed the auditoriums, museum, art gallery and chambers for patriotic organizations. These will be reached by the elevators, one of which will be designated to serve them while the other will run on express schedule between the first landing at a height of about 120 feet, and the balconies at the top.

The dome of the monument will not be open to visitors, but will be offered to the Federal Government for an observatory such as is now maintained at a few places in the United States and which is much needed in the South. At the very top of the great structure will be located a powerful searchlight, the strongest that it will be possible to obtain. This powerful light may be turned on far-away towns if so desired, but generally it will be turned towards the clouds and its rays will be visible at great distances, far beyond points from which the great tower itself may be seen.

For the maintenance of this monument an admission price of fifty cents will be charged to the museums and art gallery and another admission price of fifty cents will be charged for a trip in one of the four elevators to the balconies near the top of the structure. These now are for sale at half price, that is, one ticket now being sold for the building fund will entitle the holder to admission to art gallery and museum and to the elevator trip to the balconies and return. It is contemplated to raise the sum of two million dollars for its construction by and through the sale of four million whole admission tickets at half price. There are four million inhabitants in Texas and this association, with the aid of its county organizations which are now being formed, purposes raising fifty cents for each inhabitant in each county. The projectors of the monument believe that this amount may be raised within one year by hard work and estimate that there years will be required to construct the monument. On this basis they hope in 1918, the two hundredth anniversary of the building of the Alamo chapel, the corner stone of Texas liberty, Texas may unveil the most magnificent and tallest monument in all the world. Then loyal Texans may feel that they have paid a debt of gratitude owed to those valiant and sacrificing men who gave their lives to free Texas from oppression.

Many persons may feel they cannot afford to give anything to this great work and others may not consider it worth fifty cents to them to live in a free country where their lives and property are safe, forgetful that Travis and his brand band gave their lives in this cause, but there are many that will contribute no only for themselves but for others also, will do far more than their share, each of them, because of being loyal Texans and above sectional pride or prejudice. That posterity may know who have helped to build this monument, a card index or register will be kept in the archives which will show each contributor to the building fund, each card bearing the signature of one donor and a record of place of birth, residence in Texas and amount contributed. These cards will be in the custody of the superintendent of the monument and be preserved in the museum where they may be seen and studied by visitors.

Active work of raising the building fund was begun a few weeks ago tickets having been placed in the banks and trust companies throughout Texas for sale to those desiring them, each bank retaining the money received on deposit until called for by the trustees to be put to the use for which it is given. Already much interest in the monument has been aroused and county agents are explaining the plan and purpose to the people in their respective territories, arousing more interest every day, so the monument fund is increasing rapidly. Each day brings nearer the time when the actual work of constructing this new world's wonder may be begun, each ticket purchased makes this work possible.

AFTER SICKNESS

How to Recover Strength

So many people are asking how to recover their strength after severe sickness that we are publishing this information for their benefit.

After grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia o rany illness what you need is new strtngth and better blood.

The most certain way to get this is by taking Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation (without oil). It creates strength, improves the blood, sharpens the appetite and restores the entire system to a healthy robust condition.

Mrs. Alice Mill of Newton, N. C., says: "I had a very severe attack of grippe which confined me to my bed for several weeks. After I was able to sit up, I felt weak, tired and worn out for a long time. A friend advised me to try Vinol and before I had taken one bottle I was entirely relieved of that tired, worn out feeling which usually follows grippe and I had regained my strength and felt well again.

Try a bottle of Vinol. Your money will be returned if it does not restore your vitality and strength.
