First Debate Set Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—The 1960 battle for the White House makes political history tonight as both presidential candidates debate domestic issues before millions of television viewers.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy, will address a larger audience than any two candidates have everr faced jointly as the four major networks televise and broadcast the hour-long debate starting at 8:30 p.m. EST.

While the debate will start at 8:30 p.m., EST, which is 8:30 p.m. Central Daylight Time, and most stations will carry at that time, CBS said some network stations and some non-network and independent stations plan to broadcast or televise it later than the actual hour it is conducted.

The great debates in the history of American politics—the Lincoln-Douglas debates 100 years ago, for instance—were insignificant affairs in comparison.

While Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas could rely only on their lung power to reach audiences in their battle for the U. S. Senate, Nixon and Kennedy will have at their command all the marvels of the electronic age.

But tonight's debate, the first of four scheduled, will not be a debate in the Lincoln-Douglas tradition.

While they assailed each other with no holds barred, Nixon and Kennedy will adhere to a routine carefully planned in advance.

The debate will originate in a CBS studio. Kennedy will appear first. He will have eight minutes to state his position.

The cameras then will swing to Nixon and he will have eight minutes to line his stand.

Then Howard K. Smith of CBS, the moderator, will signal a panel of four television and radio newsmen to begin firing questions.

The presidential hopefuls will have three minutes to reply to each question. His opponent, if he wishes to give a rebuttal, will have 1½ minutes to comment on the question and answer.

At six minutes before 9:30 p.m., Nixon will take over for a three-minute summation. Kennedy will have the last three-minute crack at the television viewers by virtue of a toss of the coin which decided the finishing order.

Between 250 and 300 newsmen will sit in other studios about 50 feet from the debators, using special telephones and direct wires to their offices to cover the story.

On Oct. 7 and 13 the candidates will meet for hour-long, all-subjects news conferences. The final meeting will be in New York on Oct. 21.

Krush Bidding For Neutrals

By LEWIS GULICK

NEW YORK (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev maneuvered today for the favor of neutrals in the swelling struggle over international leadership and the future of the United Nations.

The Soviet premier promised to hear out Cuba's Fidel Castro—even if Castro's speech to the U.N. General Assembly ran six hours instead of the predicted four.

He arranged an early evening date with Jawaharlal Nehru, Indian prime minister who had an appointment with President Eisenhower earlier in the day.

Khrushchev also planned to attend a luncheon given by Cleveland industrialist Cyrus Eaton, who said the purpose is "to consider means of increasing trade between the Soviet Union and North America." U. S. and Canadian industrialists were invited.

Khrushchev was off to a running start for his second week here as the result of a supposed rest weekend at the Glen Cove, Long Island, estate of the Soviet delegation to the U. N.

From the time of Khrushchev's Saturday noon arrival at the luxurious mansion, under heavy security guard, to his departure Sunday night, the 37-acre estate was the scene of diplomatic activity interspersed with Khrushchev news conferences.

The Kremlin boss met with newsmen with seeming casualness, once late Saturday and twice Sunday for question-and-answer periods lasting as long as 1½ hours. He alternately joked and, turning serious, tossed out new fireworks as followups to his Friday speech that shook the U. N.

He said:

1. Unless the U.N. is revamped, as Khrushchev proposes, "We will likewise be unable to solve the disarmament question."

Under Khrushchev's plan, the present setup under Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary-General of the U.N., would be replaced by three secretaries-general representing the West, the Communist and the neutral nations. Khrushchev says Hammarskjold is a lackey of the West.

2. If the U.N. is not reorganized according to his scheme, the world "shall continue to be in a state of cold war."

3. Under his proposed reorganization, each of the three groups could exercise a veto over U. N. actions. This point had been left unclear in his U. N. speech.

The bouncy premier, who conducted one press conference in the middle of the road in front of the estate, showed no reluctance in commenting on any subject the reporters could think up.

While berating the U. N. under Hammarskjold, he sported a tie clasp showing the U. N. emblem.

He agreed to "contemplate" running for president of the United States, provided he could run on the Communist ticket. He professed disdain for the anti-Communist demonstrators, saying this showed American culture.

He said the Soviets are ready to shoot a man into space, but he set no date. He said no spaceman launching has been tried yet.

Autumn Spell Still Grips Snyder Area

A spell of full-fledged fall weather endured today in the Snyder area.

Brisk north winds still held temperatures down, and thick grey clouds added a dash of moisture.

The lowest thermometer reading of the season was recorded here Saturday night when a minimum of 51 degrees was recorded. The high Sunday was a mild 78 degrees, and last night's low was 55 degrees.

A light intermittent drizzle this morning brought a trace of moisture.

Meanwhile, some sections of the state recorded heavy rains over the weekend.

The heaviest fall, 5.88 inches, fell at Marshall, near the Texas-Louisiana line. Up to 2.16 inches fell Saturday and 3.72 Sunday, and it continued to rain Monday morning.

There has been no flooding and the only damage reported was to trees at Marshall during a Saturday night thunderstorm.

Lighter amounts of rain fell throughout the state Sunday.

Arthur City on the Red River north of Paris measured 5.43 inches of rain for the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. Monday.

Texarkana got a 2.19 inch deluge and Longview recorded 1.87 [illegible] got a dousing 1.69 inches.

Cloudy skies and light rain and drizzle extended from north central to northeastern Texas early in the day. Fog covered Lufkin and cloudy to partly cloudy skies covered south central Texas and along the coast.

Most of the rains in north central and northeastern Texas were generally light to moderate.

Temperatures ranged from 46 at Lubbock early Monday to 72 at Beaumont. Sunday the maximum was 92 at Presidio and the low maximum was 64 at Sherman. Most other highs were in the middle 80s.

Rainfall totals for the 24-hour period ending at 6 p.m. include: Lufkin 1.12 inches, Brownsville .71, Corpus Christi .13, Dallas .01, Houston .45, San Antonio .03, Victoria .11, Waco .01, Cotulla .16, Sherman .41, Tyler .92, Harlingen .44, and traces fell at dozens of other places.

The five-day forecast issued Monday calls for temperatures 8 to 10 degrees below normal in north central and northeastern Texas and from 2 to 8 degrees below normal in other portions of the state. Rainfall is expected to be heavy in the eastern portion of southern Texas and light to average in the rest of the state.

Eggs, Fists Fly As Castro Friends, Opponents Clash

NEW YORK (AP)—Eggs and fists flew Sunday night when foes and supporters of Fidel Castro clashed outside the Cuban prime minister's Harlem hotel. Fifteen persons were arrested.

The battle royal erupted after about 6,000 persons gathered to watch Castro smile and wave from a window of the Hotel Theresa. Police quickly squelched the battle.

Other demonstrators and pickets—protesting the presence here of Communist leaders—showed no sign of halting their activities in other parts of the city.

Many of the Communist chieftains, and neutralist leaders, spent the weekend relaxing, holding conferences—and sightseeing.

The Harlem brawl began when four cars loaded with Castro foes stopped in front of the bearded leader's hotel. They were immediately surrounded by Castro supporters.

The occupants of the cars—some armed with ball bats—hopped out and a fight began. Several cops were hit by flying eggs. Two of the more than 500 policemen on guard were treated at a hospital for minor injuries.

Two of the 15 arrested were booked on felonious assault charges. The others were held on disorderly conduct charges.

Earlier, police had quelled another near riot which started after Castro sympathizers chanted "yellow press, yellow press—cha, cha, cha" to the throbbing beat of congo drums.

Police escorted about 50 Castro opponents away from the hotel, separating them from 300 Castro supporters.

During the afternoon, Castro and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic conferred for 90 minutes at Castro's headquarters.

While they met, about 1,500 Moslem and African movement demonstrators swarmed in the area carrying signs that read "Belgians and United Nations out of the Congo" and "Allah is the greatest."

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, a Harlem Negro Democratic congressman, issued a statement deploring "Castro's use of Harlem as a battleground for his own political ends."

About 100 Albanian anti-Communists paraded near the United Nations. Another group of 50 picketed near the building where Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is staying.

About 150 demonstrators picketed the offices of El Diario in support of the Spanish language newspaper's anti-Communist editorials.

The car bringing Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev back to New York City from Long Island was struck by a thrown egg.

Tito, Gen. Mehmet Shehu, premier of Albania and Janos Kadar, first secretary of Hungary's Communist party, did a little sightseeing Sunday.

Kadar visited Times Square, the Empire State Building and City Hall. Police said he was "very impressed."

Tito took a stroll through Central Park.

Shehu went to the top of the Empire State Building.

President Antonin Novotny of Czechoslovakia and Todor Zhivkov, Communist party chief of Bulgaria, visited Bear Mountain, N. Y., a resort area.

Thorne Rites Set Today

Graveside services were to be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Rosebud for Thomas Jefferson Thorne of Sweetwater who was found dead Saturday at the Planters Gin on the Roby Highway, where he was employed. He reportedly died of a heart attack.

Born December 10, 1898, in Falls County, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Francis F. Fluck of Quakerstown, Pa., one son, Robert D. Thomas of El Paso; three sisters, Mrs. F. A. Beauchams of Temple, Mrs. V. B. Sowders of Artesia, N. M., and Mrs. John Gibson of Rosebud; two brothers, W. W. Thorne of Fluvanna and F. P Thorne of Arizona; and one grandson.

Rev. R. L. Brown, pastor of the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, was to officiate at the services to be held in the Powers Chapel Cemetery at Rosebud.

Services were under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

No Personal Crisis Seen

By RELMAN MORIN

— U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, in an unexpected General Assembly appearance today, told the world organization that not his future but that of the United Nations is at stake in the crisis aroused by Soviet attacks on him.

Hammarskjold spoke against a background of heavy assault upon his office by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who has asked the assembly to abolish the secretary-general's job and substitute a three-man board.

The Communist contingents, possibly to show their disagreement, failed to join in applause for Hammarskjold, but smiled and thumped their fists upon their desks.

The secretary-general's brief talk opened a day to be marked by much diplomatic activity touched off by Khrushchev's offensives at the United Nations.

President Eisenhower is playing a big role in the activity, with meeting with African leaders. He is working for massive support against Khrushchev's attempts to recast the U.N. structure.

Khrushchev countered with a virtual ultimatum — "continued cold war" — unless his demands are met.

From all corners of the earth more heads of government rushed to New York, drawn by the great and increasingly dangerous conflict. Never before in history have so many presidents, prime ministers and princes been gathered under one roof.

Eisenhower, reportedly grim, had appointments this afternoon with Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India and the president of the United Arab Republic, Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The President prepared to stay overnight in New York. He sees Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Canada's Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker on Tuesday.

In the U.N. itself, delegates of the 96 nations braced for two more stormy sessions.

Fidel Castro trained his guns on American policy in Cuba in a speech expected to last four hours. Castro usually speaks without a text—"from the heart," his admirers insist—working himself into a frenzy of emotion.

Later, the 21-nation Steering Committee tackles the annual East-West battle over seating Communist China in the U.N. The Soviet Union has proposed it; the United States is determined to block it.

The votes of newly admitted nations—some neutralist, the allegiance of others yet unknown, may make the China fight a close one.

Overshadowing everything is the crisis created by Khrushchev's demands for a reshaping of the U. N. structure. He hammered at three main points:

1. That Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold favored the West in administering U. N. policies in the Congo.

2. That the office of secretary-general should be replaced with a three-man committee at the top, one representing the West, one the Communist bloc, and a third drawn from the neutralist nations.

3. That the U. N. headquarters be removed from New York. He suggested Austria or Switzerland.

It is widely believed that Khrushchev will suffer a shattering defeat if his proposals are put to the vote in the U. N.

James J. Wadsworth, chief of the American delegation, said in a television interview—NBC-Meet the Press—he believed th Soviet leader "overplayed his hand." Khrushchev's attempt to weaken the office of secretary-general, said Wadsworth, actually "has strengthened it."

Demos Open Headquarters

Democratic headquarters will open officially tonight at 7 o'clock in the old Snyder Drug No. 1 building on the west side of the square in Snyder. Appointments for all committees and officials needed for the Democratic campaign in Scurry County will be made at that time.

The Democrats have been delayed in opening their headquarters to spearhead the drive to win Scurry voters to the Kennedy-Johnson Presidential slate for lack of materials, but feel they have sufficient supplies to keep the headquarters going now, said L.A. McClanahan, chairman.

Following the business meeting, all interested may stay and watch the Kennedy-Nixon debate on TV. The group hopes to have a lively discussion about the debate to climax the opening.

Deficit Spending Threat To America, Ike Asserts

By JOHN SCALI

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — President Eisenhower today denounced deficit spending as a threat to American world leadership as well as "the way of the political coward."

"Nothing can more surely weaken our nation at home and abroad than such irresponsible spending," he said. "To indulge in deficit spending, except in cases of temporary emergency, is not only robbing our grandchildren, it is the way of the political coward."

The President spoke during a two-hour stopover here en route to New York for foreign policy talks with Prime Minister Nehru of India, and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

In remarks prepared for a meeting of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Eisenhower made no direct mention of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand for overhaul of the United Nations.

Instead, the President talked in general terms about the need for the United States to maintain a healthy economic base if it is to lead the free world in foiling Soviet plotting.

"The great material base today on which America's world leadership must stand is a sound, expanding, healthy and vigorous economy. The security and influence of America depend as much on a sound and expanding free enterprise economy as they do upon a strong military establishment," he said.

"Weakness on the economic side is fully as dangerous to us as weakness on the military side. Indeed, in the long run, it is more so."

From the accountants' meeting, the President drove one block to a hotel where he spoke briefly to a gathering of directors of the Eisenhower Exchange Fellowships, Inc.

Speaking extemporaneously to the directors, the President said that these fellowships, named after him, are "producing greater understanding in the world (because) they are helping bring proved leaders into positions of responsibility. And these exchanges will bring about, I hope, peace with justice."

The fellowships groups was organized in 1953 and awards study grants to 15 to 20 potential leaders from nations of the free world and about another five to Americans who go abroad for further study.

Eisenhower asserted, "Our country is going to be strong as long as leaders in business, education, philosophy, the professions and government recognize the need for obeying and respecting the great principles that have brought us to what we are today."

Moon Remains An Elusive Target For U. S. Rockets

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The moon remains an elusive target for American rockets, while the Soviet Union continues to hold a commanding lead in lunar exploration and may soon attempt to send the first man into space.

These are the cold facts facing U. S. space scientists today as they seek to pinpoint the reason for the failure Sunday of their latest moon rocket.

The giant Atlas-Able, most powerful space vehicle ever assembled by this nation, fizzled in an effort to hurl the first satellite into orbit about the moon.

The failure dealt a damaging blow to U.S. space prestige at a time when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is saying that the Soviet Union is ready to launch a man into space.

"It is difficult to say just when the Soviets will launch the first space man, but we are prepared," Khrushchev reported Sunday. He said a rocket and space ship are ready but it is up to Soviet scientists to decide the launching date.

The premier made the comments at the Soviet country estate at Glen Cove, Long Island. The first U. S. attempt to send an astronaut on a brief up-and-down ride, 120 miles into space is not expected until January of February.

The Atlas-Able payload was to have the most exhaustive study ever attempted of lunar environment.

A malfunction in the second stage engine doomed the experiment and sent the 387-pound payload to a fiery death as it dived back into the earth's atmosphere somewhere over the Indian Ocean.

The failure was a $9 to $10 million dollar bust. This is the price an official of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration placed on the rocket, the payload and the work involved.

A reserve Atlas-Able and payload are available to repeat Sunday's effort. They could be ready in two to three months if a study of data from Sunday's shot indicates that no major changes are necessary.

Dr. Adolph Thiel, a top project officer, reported the second stage of the Atlas-Able ignited, but burned abnormally. This sent the vehicle off course and prevented ignition of the third stage.

This was the seventh time the United States has sent a rocket toward the moon. Three of the previous shots failed because of rocket trouble.

One reached an altitude of 70,700 miles and another 63,580 miles before tumbling back into the atmosphere. Pioneer IV had too much speed and sailed past the moon into orbit about the sun.

The Soviets have reported firing three moon rockets. Lunik I whipped past the moon into solar orbit. Lunik II hit the moon. Lunik III went into a wide earth orbit that carried it around the moon and enabled it to take the first pictures of the backside.

Mrs. Bruton Dies Today

Mrs. Lavardia Mae Bruton of Route 2, a Scurry County resident for 36 years, died this morning at 4:15 a.m. in Cogdell Memorial Hospital. She was 54.

Born July 5, 1906, in Cordell, Okla., she is survived by her husband, John L. Bruton; one daughter, Mrs. Edward Fowler of Weatherford; three sons, Forrest of Barstow, Calif., John Harley of Odessa, and Wayland of Jal, N.M.; her mother, Mrs. Effie Mae Keller of Snyder; one brother, Carl Keller of Snyder; and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Bell Funeral Home.

DOUBLE PROBLEM—Most students are likely to be a little confused at this time of year, but in the East Greenbush, N. Y. Folklorist Dobie Still Runs At Age 72, But 'Not Uphill'

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN (AP)—Famed folklorist J. Frank Dobie hit 72 today running "but not uphill."

He went to work early on next Sunday's syndicated column and took time out to say he would like occasionally to have a chance to "vote for a great man" for president of the United States.

"I'm not so het up over this presidential campaign as I have been over some others," Dobie said. "I'm not enthusiastic about either candidate, but I'm going to vote for Jack Kennedy."

Dobie, a lifelong Democrat and unquenchable rebel against the conventional in religion and education, said he is "dead set" against Richard Nixon.

The religious issue should have no place in the presidential campaign, Dobie said.

"What we need in the presidency is a free-thinker," Dobie observed. "That would be a great thing for our country."

"I'll tell you, somebody like Thomas Jefferson, Ben Franklin or Abraham Lincoln. Even George Washington. It would be envigorating to have a chance to vote occasionally for a great man."

Dobie was a strong Adlai Stevenson man and still is.

"There was a man with a great mind and that's what we need in politics," he said. "But, at least, Kennedy is a gentleman."

Dobie said he feels much better than he did two years ago. He had been seriously ill.

"But I'm not running uphill any more," the one-time cowhand quipped. "I've been frittering away a lot of time but now I'm back at work."

He was digging away on next Sunday's column—"I haven't missed a one since 1939"—and has "two or three" books laid out ready for writing. His latest, "I'll Tell You a Tale," is scheduled for publication Oct. 11. It is an anthology of what he considers to be some of his more interesting anecdotes and essays.

Dobie, often called the "grandfather of Texas folklore," had no special plans aside from his work, for this birthday.

"I'll have some more and we can celebrate then," he said.

Also known as "the best professor that ever got on a horse," Dobie forthrightly talked himself out of a job at the University of Texas after a 33-year stint as a teacher of writing.

He took sides pungently with Dr. Homer P. Rainey in the former university president's losing struggle with the regents and finally was fired in 1947. Dobie's refusal to resume active teaching after a leave of absence waas the official reason, but his friends said they knew it was because he was a born rebel who couldn't live happily under authority, and who wouldn't shut up.

In 1957 he was hospitalized with pneumonia. Subsequently he had a heart attack. Now he looks exceptionally strong. And his mind is as fertile as ever.

"It's not so much how long you spend on the road, but how far you travel, how much that's worth picking up that you pick up," Dobie says.

New Star In Nudist Show

LONDON (AP)—Lady Silvy Thynne, lovely blonde daughter of the sixth Marquess of Bath, plays a leading role in a new nudist movie.

She appears, unadorned and unashamed, in "Like Young," a British movie shot in the grounds of her father's stately home at Longleat, in Warwickshire.

"Lord Bath offered us a new naturist for the film when we arrived," Director Michael Winner reported.

"We already had a lot of extras—members of British nudist clubs. But he led us to the orangery and there was his daughter—stark naked.

"She threw herself into her role wholeheartedly, with a spontaneity any method actress might envy."

Lord Bath said he wants to see stills of the movie before it is released. "Not that I expect to object," he added.

Lady Silvy is 21 months old.

Man Finds Family Dead In Automobile

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP)—When Jack Bryden called home but got no answer Sunday he thought something might be wrong. So he hurried home to discover his wife, Meredith, 24, and three of their four young children dead in the family automobile parked in the garage. A vacuum cleaner hose ran from the exhaust to a rear window.

[illegible] Mrs. Bryden said in a farewell note. Police listed the deaths as a triple murder and a suicide.

Noted Flier Found Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—Ruth Rowland Nichols, 59, world famous flier, was found dead in her apartment Sunday.

Her body was found by the apartment house superintendent after an aunt of Miss Nichols, Polly Haines, said she had been unable to reach the former flier by telephone.

Police said the cause of death would not be known until a medical examination was completed. [illegible] death as a possible suicide.

Miss Nichols, who was a society girl, was regarded with the late Amelia Earhart as one of the pioneering women in American aviation.

Miss Nichols' latest achievement was in 1958 when she claimed women's records by flying an Air Force jet faster than 1,000 miles an hour at an altitude of 51,000 feet at the Suffolk County Air Force Base on Long Island, New York.

WCTU Opens Annual Meet

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Officials of the Women's Christian Temperance Union hit at unrestricted sales of alcoholic beverages and the problem of drinking mothers today as the organization's 86th annual national convention continued.

Mrs. Glenn G. Hays of Washington, D.C. and Ransom, Kan., past president of the WCTU and its current representative in the nation's capital, called for "new prohibitive and regulatory legislation" to curb drink-caused casualties and crime.

"The question is not one of legislating for the public morals, but of legislating for the public health and safety," she said.

The charge that drinking mothers are a major factor behind teen-age delinquency was made by Miss Jean Hanse of Evanston, Ill., national general secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, the WCTU affiliate for children 6 to 12 years of age.

Mrs. Fred J. Tooze of Evanston, Ill. and Portland, Ore. was re-elected by acclamation today as president of the organization.

Castro Asked To Join Buffer Group

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said Arab Leader Gamal Abdel Nasser has asked Fidel Castro of Cuba to join in an alliance to stand between the West and the Communist nations.

The president of the United Arab Republic conferred with the Cuban prime minister at the latter's residence in the Hotel Theresa in Harlem Sunday.

The Times said the major topic was the similarities between the problems of their countries. The pair also exchanged invitations for state visits to Cairo and Havana, the Times said, but no dates were set.

LBJ's Aid To Ticket Discussed

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Southern governors were divided today over how much help Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas is to the Democratic presidential chances in their states.

Most of them here for the opening of the 26th annual Southern Governors Conference felt the Texas senator would help Sen. John F. Kennedy over some of the rough spots in Dixie.

But Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina and host Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas said Johnson's name on the ticket hadn't helped as much as had been expected.

Faubus gave Johnson credit for helping the ticket a little in the South "but not as much as expected."

But Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee, a strong Johnson supporter at the Democratic national convention, called him "a tremendous help" in his state. Gov. John Patterson of Alabama echoed his sentiments.

The three-day conference opened today with such topics as conservation and industrial development on the program. But the governors couldn't keep their minds off politics.

While Ellington gave Johnson a lot of credit for Democratic strength in Tennessee, he said, "don't sell Kennedy himself short."

He said Kennedy, in his recent swing through Tennessee, had drawn the largest crowds since the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

California Man Is Slain

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A mutilated body found in the back of a pickup truck was identified Sunday as that of Paul G. Allison, 57, missing Santa Rosa, Calif., manufacturer.

Charles Allison of Denver, the victim's brother, made the identification.

The body was found under blankets and clothing in the camper top on Allison's pickup truck Saturday night. The truck had been parked since Tuesday in a self-service parking lot in downtown Reno.

The slain man's wallet, identification papers and a diamond ring were missing.

Coroner William Beemer said Allison had been stabbed in the back several times and had been beaten.

A three-state search for Allison began when he failed to arrive home Tuesday. He telephoned his wife, Helen, from Lovelock, Nev., Monday on the way home from taking his son John, 20, to Montana State University in Missoula.

Belgian Nobility On Visit To U. S.

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Prince Albert of Liege and his Italian wife, Princess Paola, will leave Saturday for a three-week visit to the United States.

A court source said they will return from their goodwill tour in time for the wedding of King Baudouin and Fabiola de Mora y Aragon of Spain. This would indicate that the wedding is to take place, at the earliest, in the last week of October and more probably in November.

Nixon For Broad Aid To Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — A broad program of federal aid to education, including college scholarships and money for building both public school and college classrooms, is advocated by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But he supported only indirect aid for teachers' salaries saying. "We must avoid the danger of rigid federal control over who teaches and what is taught in our public schools."

He said federal funds should be used to help build new public schools and to help local districts pay off bonded debt on new schools already built. He said the local money thus freed could be used to raise teachers' salaries.

Nixon's views were set forth Sunday night in the third of a series of "position papers" he is issuing during the election campaign to outline his views at length on various national issues.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told newsmen Nixon's program "is the most practical you can get in terms of what you can get through Congress. He said many Congress members would support such a program who would oppose any direct federal aid to increase teachers' salaries.

But Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said in a statement that such a program lacking salary aid "continues to miss the most essential issue." He contended also that matching construction grants would attract state money away from teachers' salaries, rather than adding to the total available for that purpose.

He said that Nixon, in advocating aid for college classroom construction, is now supporting a Democratic program which President Eisenhower vetoed twice when it was included in general housing bills.

On that point, Nixon proposed that the present federal program of low-cost loans for college dormitory construction be "greatly expanded into a program of both loans and matching grants for classrooms and laboratories and libraries as well."

DALLAS (AP)—Continued industrial development of Texas and progress in agricultural research were forecast by a Texas businessman at the Farm Equipment Institute convention which opened Sunday.

George A. Kelly II, president of F. A. Kelly Plow Co., of Longview, said growth of the petro-chemical industry in the state would continue in the 1960s.

Kelly said Texas agriculture "has been going through a period of great change—a transition, or perhaps a kind of industrial revolution."

While agriculture has no promise of significant growth in the new decade, he said, "commendable progress is being made in research to find new crops for the state to replace cotton and wheat."

"Texas, like other states, has witnessed a great transition in her agriculture—unprecedented use of machinery, fewer but larger farms."

Kelly said farmers are using "better feeds, better seeds, and improved fertilizers, as well as greatly improved farm methods and techniques."

In spite of this, he said, many small towns, "once thriving retail trade centers for farmers, are declining. People are leaving and going to larger centers."

More than 1,000 farm machinery executives and their suppliers are attending the convention.

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF SNYDER
REV. LYMAN ABBOTT
PROHIBITION

"It was not the method of Jesus. He lived in an age of total abstinence societies and did not join them. He emphasized the distinction between His methods and those of John the Baptist, that John came neither eating nor drinking; the Son of Man eating and drinking. He condemned drunkenness, but never in a single instance lifted up His voice in condemnation of drinking. On the contrary, He commenced His public ministry by making wine in considerable quantity, and of fine quality, and this apparently only to add to the joyous festivities of a wedding."

THE ELECTRIC CO-OP PROVIDES

PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS

When the Electric Cooperatives of Texas were first organized, their members agreed to serve anyone in their rural area who needed electricity.
The members borrowed money at interest to build their own electric systems and they are paying back principle and interest, often ahead of schedule.
This broad plan of area coverage has revolutionized rural life.
Twenty five years have passed since this covenant was made and the pledge is still unbroken.
Today the member-owners of the 77 electric cooperatives serving Texas can point with pride to efficient, dependable electric systems providing PARTNERSHIP POWER FOR PROGRESS.

Meat, Vegetables Aid Canned Soups

There's an old saying, "you are what you eat!" It's true indeed, for the right foods make you feel better. Now that summer is over, and cooler weather is nearer, appetites start to soar. Folks are ready to eat heartier meals that supply nourishment aplenty.

Canned condensed soups are perfect for satisfying these appetite demands. Canned soups supply many of the daily dietary essentials, since they fit into many of the Basic Four Food Groups. Bean with bacon, for instance, an excellent source of protein contributes to both the meat group and the vegetable group. Remember, too, when soups are prepared with milk their nutritive value is increased further.

BEAN AND FRANK POTAGE

3 tablespoons chopped celery; 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper; 1 frankfurter, sliced; 1 tablespoon butter or margarine; 1 can (11¼ ounces) condensed bean with bacon soup; 1 soup can water.

Cook celery, green pepper, and frankfurter slices in butter about 5 minutes or until tender; stir often. Blend in soup and water. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 3 servings.

PEA SOUP WITH TUNA

1 tablespoon butter or margarine; ¼ cup minced onion; 3 cups cold water; 1 package pea soup mix; ½ cup canned tuna fish, drained and flaked; ½ cup light cream or milk; 1 tablespoon sherry, optional.

In saucepan, heat butter or margarine and saute onion five minutes. Add water and soup mix. Bring to a boil, stirring frequently. Cover and simmer for 3 minutes. Add tuna fish, cream or milk and sherry, optional. Heat but do not boil. Makes 3—4 servings.

POTATO AND SPINACH SOUP

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed frozen cream of potato soup; 1 can (12½ ounces) clear chicken broth; ½ cup milk; 1 cup cleaned spinach leaves (tightly packed down, for measuring and then knife shredded)

Into a medium-sized saucepan turn the potato soup and chicken broth (just as they come from their cans), milk and spinach. Slowly bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Makes 4 servings.

MOSTLY CORN SOUP

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed turkey noodle soup; 1 can (10 ½ ounces) condensed consomme; 1 can (10 ½ ounces) condensed tomato soup; 1 can (12 ounces) whole kernel corn,

Water

Dried crushed basil

Salt

Pepper

Put the turkey noodle, undiluted soup in a medium-sized kettle. Drain corn, saving liquid; add enough water to the corn liquid to make 1 cup) add drained corn and water mixture to soups. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally. Just before serving add basil, salt and pepper to taste. Makes 6 servings.

Golden Potato Soup

1 can (10½ ounces) frozen soup; 3 cups liquified non-fat dry milk; 1 beef bouillon cube; ¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated); ½ cup finely-grated carrot (packed down)

Into a medium-sized saucepan over low heat thaw the frozen soup with the milk and bouillon cube, stirring occasionally. Force through a fine strainer. Return to sauce pan with cheese and carrot. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, just until cheese melts and soup is serving temperature; do not boil. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

ADD TASTE AND COLOR TO BEAN SOUP . . . with frankfurters celery, pepper

Club History Heard At Meeting Here

The Altrurian Daughters opened their 1960-61 season with a breakfast at the Martha Ann Women's Club, September 21 at 8 a.m. A short business meeting was held following the breakfast with Mrs. Ross Carroll, Jr., president presiding.

Mrs. J. D. Scott presented the program, "The History of the Altrurian Daughters." "The Altrurian Daughters club was organized in March 1930 with ten members chartering the club under the supervision of Mrs. Joe Caton, president of he Altrurian Club. In a short time the roll consisted of 31 members.

"The Altrurian Daughters Club was federated in 1930 making it a full-fledged Junior Club. In 1931 a delegate from the club was sent to Memphis and won first prize in the report class.

"Mary Lynn Nation (Mrs. J. D. Scott) was the first president and Martha Gray, (Mrs. P. W. Cloud) was secretary. The dues were 60 cents and initiation fee 50 cents. In 1931 the first year book was printed. The Club's motto 'We study today that we may meet the needs of tomorrow.' The club colors white and gold.

"The Altrurian Daughters, from its inception, has been instrumental in promoting civic projects. Among their achievements was the re-organization of the Parent-Teachers Association, the school lunch program, sponsored 4-H club girls, assisted with the Youth Center in 1951 and sponsored the Miss Snyder Contest in which Miss Nancy Teague was chosen Miss Snyder. Mr. C. T. McLaughlin furnished his plane to take Miss Teague and Mrs. Novis Rodgers to the finals in New Braunsfels. During the war years they rolled bandages under the supervision of Mrs. Eva Nelson.

"The members were not always engaged in civic improvements. Time was also spent in doing fun things. Mrs. Joe Caton's [illegible] year was the scene of many of their socials as well as the home of Mrs. Joe Strayhorn. Sweetheart parties, Mother's day teas and progressive dinners, Mexican dinners and scavenger hunts were enjoyed by the members.

"The Club spent many hours on money making projects. They held bake sales, style shows, rummage sales, and their most amusing project was preparing food and serving the Chamber of Commerce banquets. These affairs were held in the gymnasium of, what is now known as Travis Junior High, and the equipment for preparing food was most meager. It is told that Mrs. N. R. Clements and Mrs. B. L. McKinley made potato salad for one of the banquets in the bath tub. At these affairs the husbands of the members were recruited for dishwashing and it was their conviction that the Altrurian Daughters used more dishes than anyone.

Today the Altrurian Daughters still carry on the tradition of assisting in all community projects as well as State-sponsored projects. The club has a membership of 24 at the present."

Congressional appointments are needed for entrance to the Army, Navy and Air Force academies. This is not true at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn. Entrance is determined by competitive examinations in all states.

THE ROUGHHOUSE BOYS ARE IN TOWN

All Of Nixon's Campaigns Seem To Follow One Script

BY INEZ ROBB

Let us now give some concentrated thought to the hard luck that dogs Richard Milhaus Nixon. Not long after World War II, the current Vice-President started running for public office as a Republican, opposing, ostensibly, Democratic candidates.

Now in the last Presidnetial election in 1956, a total of 26,031,322 votes were cast for the losing, or Democratic, candidate for the highest office in the land. That would certainly indicate that there is quite a passel of Democrats in the United States. Since the vast majority is still at large and since a porportion, fully as numerous as that of the Republican party, has fought and bled in the nation's wars, it must be presumed that the great bulk of Democrats, as the great bulk of Republicans, are loyal, patriotic citizens.

Yet, by golly, such is Mr. Nixon's bad luck that he never runs for any office against a Democrat that said Democrat's patriotism and motives aren't under suspicion.

Now Senator Kennedy's true-blue Americanism is under question, as has been that of Mr. Nixon's Democratic opponents in the past. The Present Democratic candidate is Nixon-guilty because he will not accede to the demand of the Republican candidate that any and all criticism of the present Administration is harmful and un-American while Nikita Khrushchev is in these United States.

Since the Russian leader has indicated that he may sit it out here until January, Mr. Nixon would effectively muzzle the opposition. That would, indeed, be very nice for him and the G.O.P.

First, the Vice-President tried to slip the muzzle on his opposition on the religious issue. It continues to be raised by a clamorous gaggle of Nixon supporters whom the Republican candidate has not yet seen fit to repudiate in any way. Oh, sure, he has deplored the issue, but not the rabble that cries it.

Mr. Nixon or his ghost writers have coined a swell phrase for any criticism of the Administration. It is "national self-disparagement". My goodness, no nice person would want to be guilty of "national self-disparagement" would he? Better a man should hit his mother!

Any strictures on the present Administration, for whose wisdom and foresight Mr. Nixon has been taking so many bows, over its short-comings in military strength or economic growth is not legitimate in a political dialogue; it is "national self - disparagement," which is a dreadful thing.

It will give Khrushchev ideas, in the opinion of Mr. Nixon, as if the Russian needed any ideas other than the wild imaginings of his own fertile mind.

"If Senator Kennedy intends to address himself to Mr. Khrushchev and the Communist leaders," Mr. Nixon said piously in a speech in Springfield, Mo., "I say the American people will hold him accountable for his words."

Apparently, in the Nixon credo, any criticism of the domestic scene is not addressed to the domestic audience, i.e., to American citizens by his Democratic opponent, but directly to Khrushchev, et al. Of course, the Russian mastermind, totally without a spy system of his own or any means of information about the American military or economy, is wholly dependent upon such information as Mr. Nixon's opponent or opponents will utter in their campaign speeches!

How in the world would Khrushchev ever, ever find out anything about the U.S. state of preparedness or its economic development if those nasty Democratic opponents of Mr. Nixon didn't make their unAmerican speeches? How, indeed!

Well, sir, we're really getting into the campaign now. And, by the way, whatever became of the "new" Nixon? Sure faded fast, didn't he, when he felt the pinch?

THE MIKE BRIGADE—Snyder's two halfbacking Mikes—Morris (20) and Moffett (30) form a formidable 1-2 punch in the Tiger organization, as evidenced by this close-up snapped during Friday's Tiger-Big Spring Steer grid test. Moffett is the leather-lugger at this particular time, shown in the execution of a 25-yard kickoff return during the second quarter of play, while Morris leads his interference. Snyder was edged out in the contest, 14-12, the win being the third without loss for the Longhorns. The Tigers return home Friday for a joust against rugged Odessa-Permian of District 2-AAAA. Davidson Stars As Texans Trounce LA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Dallas Texans, tied for the top spot in the Western Division of the American Football League after a showdown battle with Los Angeles, have struck the first blow against the National League in the all-important battle for fan support.

Competing against the NFL Dallas Cowboys in a city that failed to support its last pro team, the Texans attracted 42,000 for their clash with the Chargers Sunday and whipped the West Coast eleven 17-0 on Cotton Davidson's passing and kicking.

Davidson, former Baylor star and an ex-Canadian League standout, hit Johnny Robinson with a 6-yard touchdown pass, kicked a pair of conversions and rounded out his performance with an 11-yard field goal with three minutes left to play.

The victory pushed the Texans into a tie with the Denver Broncos for first place in the West. Both have 2-1 records.

In the Eastern Division, Houston and New York are tied for the lead after the Oilers surprise 14-13 upset by the Oakland Raiders in the only other Sunday contest. The Titans and Oilers also are 2-1.

While 42,000 turned out for the AFL game at Dallas, only an estimated 30,000—rain cut the crowd—were on hand for the Cowboys NFL debut, a 35-28 defeat by the Pittsburgh Steelers Saturday night.

Elsewhere in the NFL, defending champion Baltimore blanked Washington 20-0, Cleveland thumped Philadelphia 41-24, New York edged San Francisco 21-19 and Chicago defeated Green Bay 17-14.

A stubborn Texans' defense, which has allowed only 37 points in three games, kept the vaunted Los Angeles attack from penetrating deep into Dallas territory. Three offensive thrusts by the Chargers wound up in missed field goal attempts by Ben Agajanian.

Davidson, completing 17 of 37 tosses for 167 yards, put the Texans in front to stay with a second-period touchdown strike to Robinson after Buffalo Napier recovered a Los Angeles fumble.

Spikes Hurt Slightly In Pro Contest

Jack Spikes, Snyder's TCU all-American and now star fullback for the Dallas (AFL) Texans, received a knee injury during the second quarter of yesterday's Texan-Los Angeles Charger game and was forced into sitting out the second half as a result.

The injury is not serious, however, as revealed in a telephone conversation which he placed last nigh to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spikes, here in Synder.

The elder Spikes reported that his son would be held out of practice for a day or two, but that he should be going full steam once again later in the week. The big fullback plans to pay a visit to TCU trainer Elmer Brown today for treatment of the twisted knee, and emphasized that it was not considered to be serious.

Longden To Appear At Sunland Park

Anapra, N.M.—Johnny Longden, the rider with more victories than any other jockey in the world, has accepted the offer of Sunland Park to serve as Honorary Steward at the plush new plant opening weekend September 30 - October 2.

Longden, who is recuperating from injuries suffered in a spill at Del Mar on Labor Day, will leave Los Angeles via American Airlines Saturday with his wife, Hazel, and will crown the winner of the Johnny Longden Handicap Sunday. The Longdens will spend several days in the Sun City as guests of Sunland Park before returning to their Arcadia, California home.

Longden is hopeful that his injuries will permit an early return to the saddle.

Raiders Lead SWC Stats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas Tech dominates Southwest Conference football statistics both teamwise and individually as the Red Raiders set the offensive pace.

Dick Polson tops the ball-carriers with 148 yards on 13 runs, Glen Amerson leads the passers with nine completions in 16 throws for 142 yards and two touchdowns and Tech is the team leader on offense with 345.5 yards per game.

Polson also is the No. 1 pass receiver with six catches for 75 yards and he leads the scorers, too, with 20 points.

Of the few departments left, Arkansas and Texas A&M have the individual leaders.

George McKinney of Arkansas is the total offense king, having rolled up 233 yards on 38 plays. He is 33 yards ahead of Amerson on 29.

Babe Craig of A&M leads the punters with a 38.8 yard average and Randy Sims of the Aggies tops in punt returns with an average of 21.0 yards on five runs.

Dorris Minton Paces Play In Fem Kegling

Dorris Minton was "queen bee" of the night Monday at Snyder Lanes, as she set the pace in the Ladies League there by rolling both the high line and top series of 190-491.

Her performance helped her Snyder Lanes team to a share of the league lead along with Jim's Welding Works. Both have won seven of the eight points registered during the first two weeks of play.

A pair of Jim's Welding keglers close behind her in the tussle for individual honors, Cille Wilson posting a 485 series and 183 line, and Bessie Wilson coming through with a 477-179 effort for third place.

Snyder Lanes was tops in team series with 2055, followed by Jim's Welding (2033) and Foremost Dairies (2025). Foremost took the high team game of the night, 738, with Snyder Lanes falling next in line with 713-681.

Split pickups were earned by the following: Snyder Lanes—Martha Coffee 5-7, Jerri Wooley 3-10; Jessie's Beauty College—Pat Mueller 3-10, Joyce Green 7-4-5; Jim's Welding—Cille Wilson 4-5; Foremost Dairies—Faye Ross 4-5.

SCHEDULE LEANING TOWARD TOADS

Frogs, Hogs In Featured Contest

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas and Texas Christian, members of the Big Four of Southwest Conference football, tangle at Fort Worth Saturday night in a game due to have a profound effect on the championship race.

TCU, choice of many to win the title and rated No. 2 just back of Texas by the others, will put that "favorable schedule", to its first test.

The Horned Frogs are considered to have the best schedule, getting Arkansas, Texas and Baylor, the other members of the Big Four, at home.

Arkansas has raised a flock of eyebrows with its solid appearance as a contender, whipping Oklahoma State 9-0 and smashing Tulsa 48-7 last week. TCU made a poor start in falling before Kansas 21-7 but the Frogs pretty well redeemed themselves with a 7-6 triumph over Southern California last week.

Of almost as much interest will be the clash of Texas and Texas Tech at Austin in the second conference game on the week's card. Tech made its start in conference competition last week with a 14-14 tie with Texas A&M. Texas was pulling out of the doldrums, occasioned by an unexpected defeat at the hands of Nebraska, with a smashing 34-0 triumph over Maryland.

Texas Tech, following a rugged trail that has it meeting Texas, TCU and Baylor on successive weekends, must win this week to stay in the race. A defeat and a tie, which counts a half-game won, half-game lost, will just about eliminate a team.

Embued over good showings last week in intersectional football, Baylor and Rice follow the same pattern Saturday. Baylor blasts at Louisiana State at Baton Rouge while Rice hosts Tulane.

Baylor was impressive with a 26-0 victory over Colorado of the Big Eight Conference last week. Rice lost to Georgia Tech 16-13 but made a favorable impression on what is to come.

The record for the week in intersectional play was four victories against two losses and that makes the record eight decisions against 11 defeats for the season.

YANKS CLINCH BUNTING, TOO.

Buc Fantasy Now Reality

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

A dream 33 years in the making came true for the Pittsburgh Pirates today. They are the champions of the National League.

It was in 1927 that the Pirates last won the National League flag. They met the New York Yankees in the World Series and were humiliated in four straight. Danny Murtaugh, the manager who led Pittsburgh to the title, was a boy of 9 then.

Now, more than a quarter of a century later, the Pirates will try to even the old score, for they'll meet the Yanks again.

The Pirates won the pennant Sunday in unglamorous fashion, bowing to the Milwaukee Braves, 4-2, when Eddie Mathews blasted a home run in the bottom of the tenth inning.

But it was the humble Chicago Cubs, and pitcher Glen Hobbie in particular, who came to the rescue of the Buccos. Hobbie, beaten by St. Louis only last Friday, came back to hold the Cards to six hits to enable the Cubs to win, 5-0.

That mathematically eliminated the Cards, and, in fact, pushed them into third-place behind Milwaukee.

In other National League action, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Cincinnati Reds, 7-1, and the San Francisco Giants toppled the Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-9.

The Yanks clinched their 10th American League pennant in the last 12 years under Manager Casey Stengel by turning back the Boston Red Sox, 4-3. The Cleveland Indians aided the Yanks by white-washing Chicago, 4-0, to eliminate the White Sox from contention. The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Washington Senators, 3-1, and the Detroit Tigers edged the Kansas City A's, 6-5, in other American League games.

The series will open on Oct. 5 in Pittsburgh. The first two games will be played at Forbes Field. Then there will be an off day and the teams will play the next three games in New York on Oct. 8-9-10. If it isn't over by then, it's back to Pittsburgh for the final two games after another day off on Oct. 12-13.

Back in 1927, the Pirates faced the great Yankee Murderers' Row led by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, in the series. Yet, it was the Yankee pitching that won it. The Pirates managed to score only 10 runs in the four games. In fact, only two homers were hit in the series, both by Ruth.

This was the seventh National League championship for the Pirates. In addition to 1927, they won in 1901, 1902, 1903, 1909 and 1925.

Mathews" homer came off Elroy Face, who was making his 67th appearance on the mound for the Pirates. Until the eighth, the Bucs led, 2-0, behind Harvey Haddix. But the Braves tied it to set the stage for Mathews' homer.

Home runs by Joe Koppe and Tony Gonzales spearheaded Philadelphia's nine-hit attack on the Reds. Willie Kirkland drove in four runs, three with a homer and a double in an eight-run second inning, in the Giants victory over the Dodgers.

ELECTRICAL SERVICE NOW AT CENTRAL TIRE SERVICE—K. D. Herd above is all set for the generator, regulator and starter business at Central Tire Service located at 1931 Twenty-fifth Street. The battery shown here is one of the 6-volt batteries offered at a set price of $12.95 exchange for all makes of cars. Central also offers a 12-volt battery for $15.95 exchange. All have a 24-month guarantee.

Auto Electric Service Now Available At Central Tire

Now there is a complete electric service for your automobile at Central Tire Service located at 1931 Twenty-fifth Street. Long the center for tires, batteries and mufflers, Central Tire has added generators, starters, and regulators for the generator and all electrical accessories such as light bulbs and wiring.

Yes, you can now get complete electrical service at Central Tire Service with the same feeling of complete satisfaction you always have when you trade with Stanley Noah, owner of the concern.

Many times a dead battery is not really a bad battery, Noah asserts, adding that some time a battery has had all the fire used up and has had none replaced because of a defective regulator or a regulator that needs cleaning and adjusting.

"We added this electrical service to give better service, as the best performance from a battery or generator is obtained when the battery-generator and regulator is "tuned in" to work perfectly together and this can be done with the service we now offer," Noah said.

If your car is giving you a slow, sluggish start, bring your car in and let Central's electric mechanic check out your electric system for shorts in the wiring or possibly just set your voltage regulator up to put more power in your present battery.

Cars used mainly for start and stop driving around town, Noah says, should have the voltage regulator set higher to compensate for those extra starting strains placed on the battery. This will add many a month of life to your battery if the regulator is set to compensate for the extra work the battery does.

This specialized service does not cost you a penny extra when you have a new battery, a new regulator or a new generator installed at Central Tire Service-the purchase of either part entitles you to a "tune in" on all three. You can have your present regulator cleaned and adjusted to take better care of your battery for a nominal fee of $2.

Central Tire will make service calls at your home or office for the low, low price of $1.

Jessie's Beauty College Is Building Up Enviable Record

Jessie's Beauty College, 2207 Avenue S, is proud of the service they have been to the surrounding community and the record their graduates have made both at state board in Austin and as beauty operators for other concerns and as operators of their own shops.

Students are going to Austin every month now from Jessie's and are passing their examinations with flying colors and going into the dedicated work of making every woman as lovely as she can be. Mrs. Jessie Hampton, owner and operator of the college, has stated, adding that graduates of the school are filling positions all over this part of West Texas and requests for graduates keep coming in every week.

Among graduates who have started their own shops and are doing well are Evelyn Holladay with Evelyn's Beauty Salon at Ira, Buna Jackson with Buna's Beauty Shop at Union, Elnora Hamilton with the Fluvanna Beauty Shop, Madge Bruce with her shop at Hobbs, Ruth Franks with Ruth's Beauty Shop on Avenue R, Billie King with Billie's Beauty Shop on the Clairemont Road, and Helen Borum with Helen's Beauty Shop in the north part of Snyder.

Mickey Templeton, the first male beautician to graduate from Jessie's is doing very well working for a salon in Grand Prairie, Mrs. Hampton said, and added that she had heard glowing reports of his progress since leaving the school.

In the 15 months since the school opened, students have enrolled from Hamlin, Post, Sweetwater, Loraine, Colorado City, Spur, Roby, Rotan and Sweetwater as well as from the small communities in Scurry County.

"We're very proud of our students and their records and hope to continue to turn out excellent beauticians to meet the demand from this area," Mrs. Hampton stated," and we have had great luck in being able to place our graduates when they are willing to go where the opportunity arises"

The beauty college opened in June of 1959 and has had two hair style shows sponsored by the Snyder Kiwanis Club, the first one being in November with the first graduating class and the second in July.

Classes start almost every week at Jessie's and they are planning a new course in "advanced hair styling" for their graduates so they can keep up with all new trends and styles. This course will start Oct. 10 and will be a series of five lessons, one each Monday for five weeks.

The college is adding new services as the area and the students demand it.

BEAUTY HANDWORK—Beginners on the road to becoming a full-fledged beauty operator via Jessie's Beauty College, 2207 Avenue S, are these four ladies from the surrounding area. At the front table Judy McKimmey of Roby applies the emory board to the fingernails of Shirley Masters of Post while Bonnie Sheid of Snyder brightens the nails of Jack Toups of Sweetwater at the rear table with a specially mixed shade of orange.

Graham Says Berlin Visit Providential

BERLIN (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham, under attack by the Communists, today called his visit to divided Berlin "providential."

A huge tent holding 20,000 persons has been set up for him within 100 yards of the "Little Iron Curtain" that separates the two parts of the city. The first of a week's series of meetings was to be held tonight.

"We planned this trip more than 18 months ago," he told a news conference, "and we did not know that we would be here at this difficult time. It is providential that we should be here just now, where the two worlds meet."

"Berlin is the most prayed-for spot in the world just now—unless it is New York," he said.

The Communists have attacked him as a representative of "Wall Street" and "American imperialism." Communist police have questioned choir-singers and other helpers recruited in East Berlin for the meetings.

There were unconfirmed reports that East Berliners had been forbidden to attend. There is normally no interference with Berliners moving between the two parts of the city. Since early this month, the Communists have required West Germans on visits here to get a special pass to go into East Berlin.

Four Unhurt When Plane Lands On Car

BUFORD, Ga. (AP)—Four persons escaped injury when a single-engine airplane made an upside-down crash landing atop a moving auto near Buford.

The pilot, Howard G. Dean Jr. of Atlanta, and the auto occupants Mr. and Mrs. Raiford Bagwell Jr. and Mrs. Bagwell's brother, James Brown, 15, all of Buford, were unhurt.

Dean said that his motor had conked out but a sudden gust of wind caused him to lose control just before he would have touched ground.

Big Renewal Set In Dallas

DALLAS (AP)— Five firms have bought more than $4 million worth of downtown Dallas property in what has been revealed as a gigantic urban renewal plan by private enterprise.

Thirty-nine separate tracts are involved in Dallas' fading western downtown area. The tracts are bounded roughly by Elm, Lamar, Field and Commerce streets.

During the past five years 54 separate tracts in the area have been purchased by S. P. Cimiotti. Until last week he was simply named as "trustee" for unnamed purchasing parties in deed transfers recorded in the county clerk's office. Because of the recent illness of Cimiotti, the deeds were re-recorded under the real owner's name.

The largest number of Cimiotti-to-company shifts, 24, went to the Dallas Texas Corp., headed by W. T. Overton, son of W. W. Overton, board chairman of the Texas Bank and Trust Co.

Seven more went to W. W. Overton Jr. & Co.; one to Overton Real Estate Co.; two to McCright Industries Inc., and five to Merchants Buildings, Inc.

Merchants Buildings, Inc., is interwoven with the various Murchison family interests in Dallas.

Most of the buildings purchased in the semi-blighted area have been razed and converted into parking lots.

Say Planets Hostile To Earth Men

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — A spokesman for the British Flying Saucer Society said today that before the Soviets—or anyone else—try to put a man on a planet they'd better get the planet's permission.

"We've been informed by the cosmic masters," said William Mayhew in an interview, "that earth men will not be allowed to land on other planets."

Mayhew, a lawyer, and 700 other members of the society have been attending Britain's first National Flying Saucer convention.

During their two-day session in London they said they established contact with a spokesman on Mars through one of their officials, George King.

King went into a yogi trance and said a Martian spoke through him. He recorded the message purportedly from Mars. The message—apparently directed at the leaders of East and West—was broadcast through the convention hall.

The delegates listened in respectful silence as the "master on Mars" said: "Unless much ground is given by both sides alike—"

Here the spokesman was interrupted by what sounded like a very earthy cough. Delegates were unable to say if the cough was King's or the Martian's.

"If you go on as you are at the moment," the voice went on, "fostering suspicion, arguing and boasting about your latest weapons, then a conflict will most surely come."

The voice said the conflict would take place between 1963 and 1964.

'Stand-Ins' Advocated

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Dr. Martin Luther King advocates peaceful stand-ins to "dramatize the continued injustices the Negroes face in the area of voter registration."

The Negro leader of the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott said Sunday that "stand-ins" at registration places must follow sit-ins at lunch counters, wade-ins at beaches and pools, and kneel-ins in churches.

The Atlanta minister, at a meeting sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, also said, "Even in counties of the Deep South where resistance is great, Negroes must organize themselves by the hundreds of thousands to stand nonviolently and peacefully for hours in the corridors and on the sidewalks of places of registration."

Car Smacks Into Herd Of Cattle

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — A speeding car smacked into a herd of cattle on the road Sunday night killing 11 cows, a cowboy's horse and two men in the car.

There were five men and one woman in the car, all from the Idaho Falls area. They were driving to this eastern Idaho city at a speed that patrolman C. B. Roberts said was in excess of 100 miles per hour.

Violence In State Claims Lives Of 17

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Highway accidents and other violence claimed at least 17 lives in Texas during the weekend.

Eleven persons died in car crashes, three persons were shot to death, two died in fires and one drowned.

The Associated Press count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended midnight Sunday.

Mrs. Lela Jewett Blankenship, 41, of Beaumont, died in a fire at her home Sunday.

Hippolito Leal Garza, 24, of Jourdanton, and Miss Celia Rizo, 17, of Natalia, died Saturday when their car ran off U.S. 81 near San Antonio.

Santiago Gonzales, about 26, of Port Isabel, was found shot to death early Sunday near Port Isabel.

Mathis Skains, 55, of Houston was killed and two other men were injured when two pickup trucks collided during a rainstorm Saturday near Waverly.

Jesse E. Griffith, 44, Denton, was fatally injured Sunday night in Fort Worth when his car failed to make a curve.

Prestige Abroad Is Important, Says JFK

EDITOR'S NOTE: In an effort to obtain and compare their views on specific topics, The Associated Press submitted seven questions to Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Democratic and Republican presidential nominees. Kennedy replied to each. Nixon did not, saying through an aide that campaign pressures did not permit time for a personal reply.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said today the next president must restore American prestige abroad and provide moral leadership in the civil rights field at home.

He also expressed the belief that a Democratic president "would be better able to work in harmony with the Congress to get this country moving again."

The Democratic presidential nominee outlined those and other views in reply to specific questions submitted to him by The Associated Press.

The questions and his verbatim replies:

1. What makes you think you are better qualified than your opponent to be president of the United States?

I will leave any comparison to the voters in November. But I run for the presidency after 18 years in the service of our nation—four as a naval officer in the South Pacific and 14 as a member of the House and Senate—convinced that I can best contribute to my country at this time in the executive branch, where a new and vigorous approach will be needed to win the peace. Based on views dating back to my 1939 visit to the Soviet Union, my book in 1940 on England's unpreparedness for war, and my active participation on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, I believe that America in the Sixties will urgently need leadership capable of summoning every element of our strength to meet our commitments around the world. And my repeated visits to every state in the union convince me that the American people are ready for that kind of new leadership.

2. Do you believe you would have more success in getting a legislative program through Congress than President Eisenhower did, and if so, why?

Every objective observer agrees that the Congress will continue to be strongly Democratic—that a continuation of divided government will mean continued inaction on vital problems—and that a Democratic president, with long experience in both the House and the Senate, and with a mandate from the people, would be better able to work in harmony with the Congress to get this country moving again.

3. Won't the program you are advocating cost more money than now is being spent by the federal government? Would you recommend a tax increase to cover any added outlays?

This country can afford to meet all of its basic needs—even if that requires increased outlays to give protection and priority to both our retaliatory and our conventional forces, to build schools in areas of critical shortage, to hold out the hand of friendship to new nations in search of stability, and other programs I have discussed. Some of that increase can be financed from savings on other programs—cutting down our farm surpluses and reducing waste in the Pentagon, for example. Some of it may have to be financed by a shift in our spending programs until our priority needs have been met. Others can be financed through closing tax loopholes and better enforcing our tax laws. Some programs—such as medical care for the aged and self-liquidating power projects—are not a burden on the taxpayers.

Above all, I am convinced that a nation on the move, growing at a more rapid rate than we have for the past eight years—with more people working and more industries operating at full capacity—will produce far more revenues without an increase in taxes. But there is no doubt in my mind that the American people would meet any sacrifice asked of them if it meant the difference in our survival and national security.

4. Do you believe American prestige has sagged in the world? If so, how would you restore it?

The sag of American prestige is evident around the world. A Gallup poll found a majority of citizens in 10 foreign capitals convinced that Russia would outstrip us by 1970. In recent years, we have seen attacks on our leaders and good name, we have seen friends become neutral or hostile, and the world has seen us apparently standing still in areas where the Communists are pushing ahead. The next president must restore our image of a nation acting with vitality both at home and abroad.

But prestige will not be restored by any massive public relations operation. We must earn the respect and friendship of other nations—by assuring them of our ability to protect them from war, by demonstrating an earnest desire for peace, by evincing an understanding of their own problems rather than merely enlisting them as allies against communism, and, above all, by practicing at home what we preach abroad: human rights and equality, economic progress and security, and educational and scientific achievements second to none—while emphasizing our devotion to liberty and self-determination for all our spiritual advantage as well as our material advantages.

5. What would you do as president to bring about greater equality among the races in the United States?

All men are already created equal. The role of government is to protect them in the enjoyment of their rights and make certain of their equality of opportunity. In addition to his leadership on new legislation designed to implement the full constitutional rights of every American, the next president must carry out the Civil Rights Commission recommendations for executive action, such as strengthening the Government Contracts Committee. The executive branch, as an employer and as a law enforcement agency, must set a high standard for all to follow. Finally, the president must be a moral leader—using the educational and inspirational powers of his office to achieve the goals of harmony and justice our national responsibilities require.

6. In your judgment will the so-called religious issue be a decisive factor in the election outcome?

I hope that no one will cast his vote in this election on religious grounds. With all of the critical issues this nation is facing, at home and abroad, I cannot believe that many voters—once they have satisfied themselves as to the sincerity of my views on church and state, and in support of the American Constitution—will be influenced by appeals to prejudice.

7. Do you believe American security and intelligance operations have been satisfactory or bungled? What action would you take to avoid a repetition of code clerk defection and the U2 incident?

I do not think that any candidate in any election should charge "bungling" in our security and intelligence operations without complete access to executive files. I am sure there is a common desire by all Americans of both parties to provide the most effective system—and, while it is difficult to provide complete protection on all occasions against human frailty, the next administration, whether Democratic or Republican, must give constant vigilance to improving these efforts. But may I suggest that a question of equal importance is what is done with the intelligence reports after they are submitted—and whether we are taking action in advance of the crisis stage on problems which are clearly reported to be arising.

Junior Editors Quiz on GEOGRAPHY

QUESTION: What are the Sandwich Islands?

• • •

ANSWER: This is the name once given to the island group we now call our fiftieth state—Hawaii. The islands in the Pacific Ocean were chiefly inhabited by Polynesians, who came there from other islands. There is evidence that Dutch, Japanese and Spanish explorers visited the islands in the 1500's. Captain James Cook of the British Navy discovered them in 1778 and named them the Sandwich Islands in honor of his patron, the Earl of Sandwich. A native chief became ruler before 1800 and his family and heirs owned all the land until 1848. In 1894, Hawaii became a republic and by 1900 was annexed to the United States. Hawaii officially became America's fiftieth state in 1959.

Krush Attains His Two Major Goals

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press ews Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev, having done his best to paralyze the United Nations, has no reason for staying around now except to watch a cripple try to walk.

He had two purposes in coming here—to make propaganda and to undermine the United Nations. He accomplished both.

By his performance last week in New York—despite the bleeding heart he exhibited to backward peoples—he showed himself a hypocrite, a destructive force, a bully and a bore.

It is perhaps no accident he seems upset by the thought of death and disaster. It may be a pattern of his mind. Just read his speech to the United Nations and many previous speeches.

He dwells on annihilation:

His two-hour speech to the United Nations could have been delivered in an hour. It was a long-winded kind he delivers to captive audiences in Moscow. It had a few moments of thunder. As a whole it was a bore.

Khrushchev talks peace but he acts like a man frightened of it.

For more than a year he desperately wanted a summit meeting. Then at the last moment, after the U2 spy plane incident, he backed away and wrecked it.

It was thought at the time he might have been trying to save face.

But he came to this country where it was possible, at the United Nations to make a new start toward peaceful settlement. Instead, he exploded in denunciation and undermined the world's greatest agency for peace.

He talked, as he has many times before, of the need for disarmament. The next day he made disarmament impossible by declaring there could be none unless he had his way in demanding a basic change in the U.N. itself.

This was when he castigated tary-general, who had been critical of the Soviets' efforts to penetrate the Congo when the United Nations was trying to restore peace there.

Khrushchev called for revising the fundamental structure of the Hammarskjold's job and creating a three-man secretariat to run the show.

One man would represent communism, one the West, and the third the neutral nations. Under the setup a veto by any of the three would paralyze the United Nations.

But Khrushchev knew his idea was impossible of achievement when he offered it.

Church Sets Top Budget

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — What is believed to be the largest annual local church budget "in the history of Christendom" was approved Sunday by the 12,000-member First Baptist Church.

The $1,195,000 budget was adopted by members at the morning worship service.

Pastor W. A. Criswell said "this is probably the most stupendous financial program ever undertaken by any church in the history of Christendom."

More than half of the 1961 general budget will go for missionary causes outside the local church program. The church supports five missions in the Dallas area and regularly tops all of the 32,000 Southern Baptist Convention churches in total gifts to world missions.

Parley Opens On World Fiscal Problems

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Finance ministers and central bank officials from more than 50 nations open today five days of meetings to discuss the free world's fiscal problems.

In advance of the opening session, Managing Director Per Jacobsson of the International Monetary Fund said two problems would be paramount: (1) the steady outflow of gold and dollars from the United States and (2) the imbalance caused by the dramatic buildup of monetary reserves by Germany and some of her prospering neighbors.

Nothing concrete is likely to be done about either problem. Nor are major decisions expected on any other matters during the annual meetings of the IMF, World Bank and International Finance Corp.

While problems exist, none are deemed pressing enough to demand multination action at this time. Also, there may be some reluctance to initiate any major move at a time when the United States faces a change of administration.

The problem of the outflow of gold and capital from the United States is two-fold. First, short-term investment money is moving to Europe in significant quantities because interest rates there are higher. Secondly, the United States continues to run a deficit in its total financial transactions with the rest of the world.

Jacobsson told a weekend news conference the flow of funds toward higher rates does not concern him because it is a temporary development. As for the deficit in the U.S. balance of international payments, he said the amount coincides with the value of new American private investments abroad which represent an addition to this country's assets. For this reason, he said, it means "no loss of substance" to the United States.

U.S. officials now believe the 1960 payments deficit will range between $2.5 billion and $3 billion. Last year's deficit was $3.8 billion.

Improvement stems from a jump in exports, which now are estimated at about $20 billion for the year, compared with about $17.5 billion last year.

Germany and some other European countries, notably Italy and the Netherlands, have a problem opposite to that of the United States. They are steadily building up their reserves at the expense of the rest of the world.

Jacobsson said these countries should begin financing underdeveloped nations.

In its annual report, the IMF also called on industrialized countries to aid underdeveloped areas.

Makes Catch Early

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP) — A 2-pound, 10-ounce bass jumped into S. E. Hunsuck's boat just as he dropped anchor in shallow water over the weekend.

"I didn't catch another fish all day," he said. "In fact, I never even got a bite."
