Editor's Viewpoint

By John C. Ruback

"Everybody curses it, but no one does anything about it." This is a statement that I have heard applied to many things - from the weather to the US government.

There are really very few things that you and I, the little people, can't really do something about. We can do something about the weather, by staying out of it. We can do something about the "generation gap", by trying to understand the young people of today and helping them to see our points of view. (There's a good article on page about this; read it.)

After all these preliminaries, I want to talk about the US Post Office Department - which quite a few cuss without knowing too much about it.

First, I want to emphasize that I have never met a finer group of government employees than the people who work in various capacities for Uncle's "Men in Blue". These are dedicated men who are doing the best job that is humanly possible with what they have to work with.

And as some poet said, "Ay, there's the rub!"

The volume of mail in this country has been increasing over the years. If you could compare it to the inflation I wrote of last week, it would make the small percentage of inflation look fantastically small. FORTUNE magazine a few years back had an article on the mail and if I remember the figures accurately, the prediction was that if the mail volume continued to increase at the same rate as it has, by about the year 2000 every man, woman and child would have to be carrying or sorting the mail in order to handle the load.

Here in Burk the mail increase over the past few years has been about 8 to 10 percent each year. Any third grader could figure that it wouldn't take ten years for the mailload to double.

"Something should be done about it" - and the prospects of anything really happening are slim. A postal reform bill to make the Post Office Department a separate corporation (sort of like the TVA) has just about been killed by the House of Representatives.

If the Post Office were really set up like any other American business - set so that it would have to at least make enough money to put in the needed improvements and to do some real research into what was going to be needed to keep up with the volume - then we could see all sorts of up-to-date equipment and a real change in the speed with which the mail could be handled.

My reading (and I've read quite a bit because I've been associated with organizations and businesses that are bulk mailers for a number of years - and besides I've been a stamp collector for more years than I like to remember) - my reading tells me that the Post Office deficit, and hence the lack of any real money to put in the kind of equipment that could really handle the mail, are not caused by what some call "junk mail". The Postmaster General himself, I seem to recall, said that this so-called "junk mail" pays its own way.

One great source of the deficit has to be all of the mail sent by government departments and members of Congress under their franking privilege. And there's the big rub. If you were getting something for nothing, would you vote to make yourself pay for it? Not on your tinfole (a favorite expression of my father!)

If you agree that the postal service needs improvement and if you don't want to have to pay for it by an increase in first class letter rates, or by higher taxes to pay the Post Office Department's deficit each year, then maybe you'd better write your representatives in Congress about it. And a letter to Thaddeus J. Dulski, Chairman of the committee

Area Residents Honor Officers For Help In Clean-Up Campaign

SPEECHES BEFORE EATING: Congressman Graham Purcell, Jr. (3rd from right), surrounded by area residents and city and county officials, praise those who have done so much for their community.

SOME OF THE AREA RESIDENTS responsible for the appreciation barbecue: Willy Mae Smith, Bennie Steines, Leonard Dickerson, James Williams and W. W. Dixon.

SOME OF THE MEN who did the actual clean-up work stand with County Commissioner Clark Gresham (right) as he praises them and area residents for a job well done.

READY TO EAT! Congressman Graham Purcell Jr., (right) and other guests load up at the barbequetable for a first-class meal.

Congressman Graham Purcell, Jr., was one of the guests of honor at a community barbecue held this past Saturday in Freeman Park, Burkburnett.

Occasion of the celebration was to honor those Burk city and county officials who had assisted in the clean-up of this section of town. Area citizens contributed funds and a committee then stayed up all night preparing the barbecue and other food that went along with it.

Congressman Purcell praised the work which the people of the area had done for themselves, emphasizing that this spirit of cooperation was what all parts of our country need. He said that it was most important that people take pride in their city and particularly in the area in which they live.

Mr. Leonard Dickerson, acting as Master of Ceremonies, also honored Clark Gresham, County Commissioner, for the work he and his men had done in burning, cleaning and leveling many spots in the area. Mr. Gresham, in turn, brought forward several county employees who had spent many hours on the job.

Also introduced by Mr. Dickerson were Gary Bean, City Manager, F. R. McCandless, Mayor, and the members of the area committee who had cooked the food.

Assisting in the arrangements for the event was the Burkburnett Community Service Center.

Burk Native To Be Reporter At New Court

A native of Burkburnett began work this past Monday in the new court of record in Wichita Falls.

Joe B. Knox, son of Mr. R. W. Knox and the late Mrs. Knox of Burkburnett, is the court reporter of the first and only municipal court of record in the state. Wichita Falls Municipal Judge Lyle B. Cherry will occupy the bench, with Knox keeping a transcript of all business transacted.

Knox retired from the Navy in 1964 after more than 25 years of service. He was in business for himself for two years before joining the staff of the city of Wichita Falls.

During World War II, Knox served aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise. Later he worked in the office of Naval Intelligence, Chief of Naval Operations and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The purpose of the new court of record is to provide prompt adjudication of cases on the municipal level and reduce the number of appeals to the county court. Heretofore, a defendant could appeal any case to a court of record, from which further appeals must be based only upon the merits of the case, according to Assistant City Attorney Edwin Lucke who is to be the prosecutor in the new court.

Knox was formerly assistant personnel director of Wichita Falls.

Chamber Hears Reagan Brown; Honors Burk Firemen At Luncheon

GUEST SPEAKER at the Chamber luncheon last Monday was Reagan Brown, Extension Sociologist from Texas A&M.

BURKBURNETT VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT poses for a group picture after the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at which they were honored guests.

"Put a ladder in the school room and you will raise the community," said the speaker at the monthly Chamber of Commerce luncheon this past Monday.

Speaking to almost sixty members and guests, Reagan Brown, Extension Sociologist at Texas A&M, gave a humorous, yet extremely serious, talk on the opportunities ahead of us in Texas and the problems we face.

Introduced by Gad Garland, Chairman of the Agri-Business Committee, Mr. Brown showed colored slides of various parts of Texas to emphasize his points. Praising the work of Burk citizens and of B. T. Haws, County Agent, Brown said that when we start making a better America we will also make a better Burkburnett.

The monthly meeting of the Chamber was arranged as a tribute to the members of the Burkburnett Volunteer Fire Department. Sixteen of the 25 members were able to be present. Introduced to the meeting were Reavis Wooten, newly elected chief; Harry Elliott, assistant fire chief; Buster Pruitt, president; Joe Ray McCuskey, vice-president; and Dick Chambers, secretary.

During 1969, the volunteer fire department has answered more than 75 calls. To express community appreciation for the many unpaid hours put in by volunteer fire fighters, the special affairs committee of the Chamber arranged their special guest appearance at the luncheon.

Chamber president, Bill Vincent, announced the results of the balloting for new directors. Elected for a three-year term were Lon Williams, Danny Schaffner, Dick Johnston, Loise Bean and Paul Avritt. The Directors will have their next meeting on Monday, November 10.

Next month's meeting is to be held at Boontown, U.S.A. Oil Park, with the Oil Park Committee presenting the program.

Legion Auxiliary To Sell Poppies Friday

The women of the American Legion Auxiliary and girls of the Junior Auxiliary will be on the streets again this Friday and Saturday selling those little red poppies that mean so much to the disabled veteran.

The poppies are made by disabled veterans. As each completed poppy leaves the hands of a disabled man it means monetary help for the necessities and comforts not supplied by the hospitals, a small amount of money added to the little store for the veteran's use when he goes from the hospital to the country, or help toward buying food, fuel and clothing for his family at home. The men beg to be permitted to make more and more poppies. Their need is pitiful and their eagerness to help themselves through earning money rather than to depend on charitable donations awakens the highest admiration.

The poppy-making has the beneficial effect in addition to the money it enables the veterans to earn. The hours for sick men in the hospital are long and monotonous. In idleness their minds are prone to dwell on the hardships of their families or on their own disabilities. Mental depression detrimental to recovery results. But men whose fingers are busy with bright red poppy petals do not give themselves up to depressing worry. The hours are made shorter for them and they are given a new interest in life. The occupational therapy departments in the hospital recognize the poppy work as having high therapeutic value.

Poppies are distributed entirely by volunteer workers and every penny received goes for aid to the disabled men and to needy children of veterans. The bulk of the poppy funds remains in the communities where they are raised, being expended by the local Legion Posts and Auxiliary Units in relief work in the communities throughout the year.

No price is fixed for the poppy. The newsboy's pennies and the businessman's dollar are equally acceptable. The amount dropped in the box of the poppy worker is a donation to relieve the suffering caused by war. The purpose of the Auxiliary's poppy program is to place the symbol of heroic sacrifice above the heart of every true American, giving at the same time an opportunity to aid the war's living victims.

So, please, each and every one, give even just a little for those who have given so much.

which has to do something about it all, would be of great help. Congressman Dulski (from New York) might just be swayed by some grass-roots sentiment to give the Post Office the equipment it so badly needs and to keep postal rates from rising again and again and again.

More on the Post Office. They try. And try hard. But when there is no address on a card, it can't be delivered! Postmaster W. T. Zimmerman says that if the mother who wrote a card last week, mentioning Robyn, a Revival at the church, her own work "at the hospital" and the fact that her freezer is full after putting up some more beans, will call at his office and furnish an address, then he and Uncle Sam will see that the card is speeded on its way.

Guidelines Of Life

By DON LEWIS BURKS, Pastor
Janlee Baptist Church

Hebrews 12: "Let us . . . run with determination the race that is set before us."

Having entered college on a track scholarship, I know that there are different kinds of runners. Basically, there are sprinters and there are distance men.

God the Holy Spirit, when giving us the book of Hebrews, likened the Christian life to a race. How we run that race depends upon our faithfulness to Him and His Word.

Some are sprinters who, after starting from their blocks with a great burst of speed, fizzle out after 100 or 200 yards and some can even go a quarter mile. Their spectacular performance thrills the crowd. But, unfortunately or unfortunately, the Christian life is not a sprint, and the Christian is not asked to be a sprinter, fizzling out when difficulties strike. This type of Christian gives up, quits, reneges, fails to count the long cost, and always loses because he has only a trump suit. He has no "stoppers." He is great at bidding it up but poor at seeing the contract through when vulnerable.

God is asking all Christians to be distance runners. When problems and heartaches arise, we will keep on running. When others offend and belittle us, we will keep on running. When it is unpopular and inconvenient to run, we will keep on running. We will not set up spiritual "patsys" and thus blame the crowd or the starting blocks for our poor performance. We will not waste time looking at other runners. We will set our eyes upon Jesus, the "Author and Finisher of our faith." The real glory lies in day-to-day "stick-a-bility" that few of us evidence enough of . . . that most of us have overlooked for momentary and temporary bursts of glory.

how can Lone Star Gas help you get rid of wrinkles?

We know all wrinkles are not due to aging. Some are due to drying. And dryers.

Some dryers affect clothes the way sun affects skin. They not only dry out moisture. They bake in wrinkles. Even in permanent press.

But gas dryers are more sensitive to your family's clothing. And more sympathetic to your work load.

Most new gas dryers have a special cool-down cycle that turns off the heat before your clothes become overheated.

That means your clothes have fewer wrinkles. And you have less ironing.

You also have less expensive utility bills. Because gas dries for about a penny a load.

See your gas appliance dealer or Lone Star Gas Company. Find out how to take it a little easier. And avoid wrinkles.

Graham TACKLERS attempt to tackle Mike Hanks as he eludes most of the Graham team.

Graham Outscores Burk In Tight Game

First downs	8	14
Yards rushing	585	509
Yards passing	65	38
Passes	5-8	4-8
Passes intercepted by . . .	2	1
Punts	5-26	4-50
Fumbles lost	0	2
Yards penalized	60	85

Graham barely escaped defeat Friday night as the Burkburnett Bulldogs played an outstanding game in 4-AAA competition.

District 4-AAA Outcome Very Much In Doubt

In 4-AAA there is no first place at the moment. Vernon has two victories and one loss - their loss to Graham. Graham has two victories and one loss - their loss to Hirschi. Hirschi has one victory and one loss - Vernon defeated them. Burk is one and one - with their loss to Graham. Bowie has three defeats and still must play Hirschi.

If Vernon is defeated by Burk and Hirschi and Graham win the rest of their games, then Hirschi will win district as they beat Graham, but if Hirschi is beaten by Burk, then Graham will come out on top.

Vernon will be in first place if they beat Burk and Hirschi and Graham lose.

Burk will win district if they win the rest and Bowie defeats Graham.

If anything else happens (Vernon - Hirschi - Graham win the rest of their games) then we don't know what will happen. All we can be sure of is that district play will be interesting for the remainder of the season.

Burk JV Defeats Duncan

The Burkburnett High School Junior Varsity traveled to Duncan last Thursday and defeated their Junior Varsity, 24 to 8.

If the game had been given to the outstanding player, then it would have been awarded to Bill O'Rourke, who scored fifteen points in the game. His first score was a field goal, then he scored two touchdowns before the final gun sounded.

Max Ludeke made the other TD for Burk. David Hubbard kicked an extra point and David Nicklas threw a pass for a two point conversion after one of O'Rourke's TD's.

FIRES EXPENSIVE

NEW YORK--While spectacular fires in business or industrial areas cause headlines, fires in residences account for more than 25 per cent of the nation's total fire damage, says the Insurance Information Institute. Of 960,000 building fires reported in 1967, more than two-thirds - 665,100 - were in residences.

Cub Scout Buccaneers Party Roaring Success

For a few hours Monday evening, the Burkburnett Town Hall rocked with the joyful laughter of Cub Scouts and families of Pack 156.

The meeting opened with a flag ceremony, then awards were presented to the cubs as follows: Bobcat pins - Lyn Stier, Kevin Prince, Ken Prince, Allen Van Cise, Bruce Atchleys, James Long, Ron Schrage, Gil Fowler, Russel Dziubanek and Bobbie Brightman.

Wolf badges - Don Ebert and Ron Clemer.

Webelos Outdoorman award - John Barnard, Robert Dziubanek and Mike Darden.

Webelos badges - Jack Lofton and George Pierce.

One Year Perfect Attendance pins - Jack Lofton and Ken McCarthy.

Den Chiefs Cord - Curtis Truman.

Adult Awards: One Year Service pins - Mrs. Alice Dziubanek, Mrs. Jackie Salmon, Mrs. Betty McCarthy and Mr. Hubert Cox.

Special recognition of Wolfe Ford Company, which has sponsored Pack 156 for the past 12 years was made by Cubmaster McCarthy on behalf of the Cubs. One of the den chiefs escorted Mr. Joe Wolfe to the stage, where he was presented a plaque in appreciation for the many services provided by Wolfe Ford Company to Pack 156.

Later in the evening, "Calico Jack" the notorious pirate arrived and "pressed" a crew of Cubs and Webelos to sail on a treasure hunt. Following the direction of a treasure map, the treasure chest was soon found and the spoils divided.

The crew then enjoyed a large selection of refreshments. Judges had a hard time selecting "Best Costumed Contestants" but finally selected two: Donnie Ebert, clown and second, Jerry Ebert, girl adult.

Den No. 3 was given an award for best parent participation.

Spanish Club Holds Banquet

The Burkburnett High School Spanish Club had a banquet Monday, November 3 at the Mex-Tex Restaurant. Mr. Guillermo Garcia, assistant professor of Spanish at Midwestern University was the speaker. Mr. Garcia, who taught Spanish at BHS, spoke on "Latin American relations with the U. S."

The banquet was enjoyed by members and guests. Mrs. Gloria Skelton is teacher and sponsor of the Spanish Club.

WORK ACCIDENTS

NEW YORK--The number of work injuries and deaths per 100,000 workers has been dropping steadily in the past 25 years, says the Insurance Information Institute. In 1968, with an employed labor force of 75.9 million persons, 14,300 persons were killed, approximately 19 out of every 100,000 workers. This was about 36 per cent lower than the 1944 rate of 29.6 deaths per 100,000 workers.

By the time the average American reaches seventy, he will have consumed the equivalent of 150 head of cattle, 24,000 chickens, 225 lambs, 26 sheep, 310 swine, 26 acres of grain and 50 acres of fruits and vegetables, reports Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist with Texas A&M.

Lions Work With Crippled Children Honored By Gov.

AUSTIN--Governor Preston Smith has officially proclaimed November as "Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children Month." Lions League President E. J. Grindstaff of Ballinger and Executive Director Frank Robertson were in Austin to accept the proclamation.

In his proclamation, Governor Smith stated:

"For 17 years, the Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville has provided two weeks of summer fun--without any cost whatsoever--to more than 11,000 blind, deaf, mute and crippled children of Texas.

"In recent years, through its Rehabilitation Program for the adult blind, the Camp has helped more than 700 Texans to return to the sighted world as productive citizens.

"The Camp for children operates during the three summer months and the balance of the year is devoted to the adult training program.

"Lions is an international organization whose motto is, 'We Serve,' and the efforts of Texas Lions in behalf of crippled children, the deaf, the mute and the blind have contributed much to the welfare of these disadvantaged citizens of Texas.

"All citizens of Texas take great pride in this worthwhile project sponsored by the Lions Clubs of Texas."

Special features will be: Bathroom Bouquets, Christmas decorations, Candles, Pillows of all sizes and colors; Wall hangings, Clown bean bags and Stuffed animals.

There will also be an Old Fashioned Kitchen Pantry full of canned goods and a Bake Sale.

Remember . . . Christmas is just around the corner.

New Lions Club Holds Meeting

A new Lions Club has been formed in Burkburnett.

At noon on Wednesday, October 29, the Boomtown Lions Club had its first regular meeting, with President Joe Wolfe presiding. Sixteen of the 20 members of the new club were present, along with members of the evening club.

A nominating committee, composed of Jim Green, Chairman, Pat Patterson and Craig Davidson, was appointed. This committee is expected to present a slate to fill the other offices of the club.

Charles Hardage, secretary, also reported. The club set its dues and meals at $7.00 per month.

Charter night is planned for Tuesday, December 2, 1969. Details will be announced later.

Mrs. Elliott Speaks On Americanism

The Contemporary Study Club met in the home of Mrs. H. S. Thaxton for their regular business and social meeting. Mrs. Harry Elliott, president, called the club to order with the Club Collect.

The Club voted to help a family with a money donation for Thanksgiving. During the business meeting, various committee reports were given. A report on the rummage sale was given. The Club also voted to write to Wichita Falls Mayor, Kenneth Hill, to back him in his campaign on the clean-up of the movies.

Mrs. Harry Elliott brought the program, entitled "Today's Woman and Americanism." She related the background of several prominent American women and the part they took in our history. She named some of the jobs women had held and how important a woman is to Americanism.

Mrs. Mary Barnes won the door prize. The next meeting will be held Nov. 17th with Mrs. Barnes as hostess.

Another snack has been born for snacking Americans: crisp, dry celery. The dehydrated vegetable is processed by explosion-puffing. U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists say it retains good flavor, texture and color. It is ideal for dehydrated soup mixes and other prepared foods.

Homemakers HD Club Entertains Wichita Falls Club

The Friendly Homemakers Home Demonstration Club entertained the Pioneers Home Demonstration Club of Wichita Falls, with a salad luncheon Thursday, October 30, in the Community Room of the Burkburnett Bank. Halloween decorations were used.

Two sets of matching Halloween cutouts were used for name tags, two of each kind, a set for the members and a matching set for the visiting club members.

Partners were found by each member finding the visitor with the matching name tag. After everyone was seated, each woman and her partner were given a time to visit and find out as much as they could about each other, then each one introduced her partner, telling what she learned about her.

After a delicious meal, games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. George Watt, Mrs. Lloyd Walker, Mrs. David Watt, and Mrs. A. J. Reynolds. Mrs. E. M. Teeters won the door prize, which was a lovely Halloween table decoration, by having the lucky name tag, with "Halloween" written on the back.

Each one present received a purse-size first aid sewing kit, made by one of our members. Each member of the visiting club was presented a canister.

An enjoyable time was experienced by all present.

Guests from the Pioneers Club were Mmes. E. M. Teeters, Polly Horn, J. G. Leonard, Charles Avon, David Watt, A. J. Reynolds, Lloyd Walker, and George Watt.

Members attending from Friendly HD Club were Mmes. Mattie Cheney, Ellen Morris, Pearl Draper, Myrna Ballard, Jane Latour, Katie Miller, Evelyn Boucher, Nita Bangs, Mary Matteson and Ruth McBride.

U.S. Marines Help Vietnamese Child

DA NANG, Vietnam - Today she plays in front of her house like any other girl almost three years old. But last December this little girl, Nguyen Thi Phan Phuong, was nearly dead from congenital heart disease. She was too weak even to walk, let alone play.

First Marine Aircraft Wing and U. S. Navy personnel found her in the village of Tam Toa near Da Nang. Determined to help the sick child they nicknamed "Suzie," arrangements were made for her to go to the United States for heart surgery.

And it was Suzie that caught the hearts of thousands of Americans when she and her mother went to Orange County Children's Hospital, Santa Ana, Calif. The open-heart surgery which she required was performed last January.

In April, she returned to Vietnam and her home near the bay in Da Nang. Navy Lt. J. Scott Starlin, medical officer of Marine Air Control Group 18, said he has examined Suzie to keep track of her heart's condition. Overall, he stated, she is doing well and gaining enough strength although there is still evidence of heart murmur. "Without the surgery, though," he continued, "there was a 95 percent chance that she'd have been dead now."

SPECIAL GUEST at the Burk Lions Club was M/Sgt. Cahagatnam Dharmasothy of the Royal Ceylon Air Force, shown here with W. S. Tarkington of Sheppard Air Force Base.

1040 U.S. Individual Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q - I pay the medical bills for my aunt even though she is not my dependent. Does that mean I won't be able to deduct these costs?

A - As a general rule, only medical expenses paid for a dependent may be deducted along with the taxpayer's other medical costs. However, if you could have claimed your aunt, except for the fact that she had $600 or more income or filed a joint return with her spouse, then you may add the medical expenses you pay for her to your own expenses.

Q - I'm not sure I understand the notice I got from the service center. What should I do?

A - Call your local IRS office, they should be able to help you. When you call have the notice in front of you so you can identify it for the person helping you.

Q - Why can't a check made out to cash be used to support a charitable contribution?

A - To substantiate a deductible expense your records must indicate, among other things, the purpose of the expense, to whom paid, as well as the amount.

A check made out to cash does not indicate the nature of the expense and must be supported by other records, such as receipts.

A check made out to a specific organization, a charity for example, may well be sufficient to establish that a deductible contribution has been made.

Q - Under the 1968 gun law, if I take my own guns with me for a hunting trip to Canada, will I have any problem bringing them back in?

A - No, there should be no problem as long as you can show Customs that you took them out of the country. To do this, a bill of sale or other evidence of purchase or ownership will be helpful.

If you wish you may also use a procedure the Bureau of Customs has established for persons taking cameras and other valuables out of the country. Then there will be a record of your ownership when you return.

Q - The buyer of my summer home wants to pay me over a period of years. He says I can save on my Federal taxes that way. Is he right?

A - When certain conditions are met, profits on a sale may be reported over the period in which the payments are received. To qualify, payments during the year of the sale must be 30 percent or less of the selling price.

Depending on your tax bracket and other income, the option of reporting your profits over a period of years may provide a tax advantage.

Q - When can my husband take a withholding exemption at his job for our baby which is due next month?

A - As soon as the child is born. Also the full $600 exemption for a dependent may be taken on your tax return for a child born any time during the year. Your husband can take the additional exemption by filing a new Form W-4, Exemption Certificate, with his employer.

Soil Chemist Takes Look

At Fall Fertilizer Application

COLLEGE STATION - Fall fertilization for spring crops offers several advantages as contrasted to fertilizer application in the spring.

Dr. C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist, lists these advantages for fall fertilization. Avoid periods of unfavorable weather immediately prior to planting season which may prevent getting into fields when fertilizer must be applied. Applying fertilizer in the fall leaves soil undisturbed and thus conserves moisture for planting. Utilizes labor and equipment during periods when not needed for other farming operations.

Also, takes advantage of "off-season" prices and aids in avoiding temporary shortages of some fertilizers.

But Welch points out that it is difficult to generalize about fall fertilization and individuals must weigh advantages against such factors as lost nutrients from early application; soil characteristics and cropping systems and environmental factors such as temperature and rainfall.

Potassium can be applied in the fall if such is an advantage except on sandy soils, advises Welch. Where high amounts of potash are needed on grass and legume crops, two or more applications are advised.

Since phosphorus remains in the soil near the spot of placement, time of application has less effect upon its efficiency than for nitrogen. The need for high amounts of available phosphorus in the immediate seed or root zone will be of most importance in determining time of application, says the soil chemist.

Application of nitrogen in the fall should be considered only if ammonium forms are used, if soil temperature remains below 50-55 degrees F. during the period before planting and if properly applied to clay or fine textured soils. Welch says maximum efficiency can be expected when it is applied just prior to the period of use by the crop. Nitrogen in the nitrate form may be leached or lost through denitrification in water-saturated, alkaline, clay soils, he adds.

After landing in a small hay field 35 miles n.e. of Russellville, Ark. and the natives couldn't tell me where the nearest town or telephone was located, then getting lost on White River and help responding to my cries for assistance, I met two fishermen and saw their catch.

This all-day forced landing continues with a ride to a log cabin built without metal of any kind. How many readers have seen a house constructed without nails or other metal?

I was introduced to a man sitting on his front porch cleaning a long-barreled rifle with four coon dogs tied to as many posts. He gave permission to use his crank-type telephone. I met his wife who could have been a freshman queen in any college. They had three children, ages six months to three years of age.

Over two hours were spent trying to get an answer from anyone at Russellville. Finally, when I faintly heard what seemed to be a reply, I gave my location and needs, hoping against hope that the message was received and gas could be flown to me.

Mothers, you will be interested in what I learned during the time spent in the cabin.

The home had the rustic appearance of all log buildings I have seen. The floor was native soil, the large fireplace was glowing, and various utensils were hanging above the fire - no other stoves in the house. The beds were made up nearby and all curtains, clothing, furniture - in fact - all the interior was spotless. That young mother knew how to keep a home.

When I was introduced to her she was on the back porch with ears of shucked corn in her hands rubbing them back and forth on a washboard made very rough by driving nails through the metal from the underside then pulling them out leaving the rough edges around the nail holes on the top side. These small prongs of metal served to grate off the grains of corn from the ears that had been pulled while still in the dough stage. The tub was near full of the juicy crop. She explained they used the corn to make bread to go with the meat her husband killed in the woods.

I also found out that she had not had a doctor when the children were born, the reason being a doctor would have to ride the last 18 miles on horseback, and the cost was beyond their pocket book. A neighbor, known as a mid-wife, had assisted. No electricity, no radio, no nothing but quiet living was all I could see for enjoyment.

The father would not talk unless a direct question was asked, except once he asked a question - "Are you a Revenuer?" I immediately asked, "What's a Revenuer?" His reply will stick with me as long as I can remember for I had spent most of my time in the home asking questions. He explained, "A Revenuer is a guy who is always sticking his nose into other people's business."

About five o'clock a yellow Piper J3 Cub plane circled, landed and I received my much-needed gasoline. The switchboard operator on duty that day in 1942 got the message and relayed it to airport officials, you can imagine my feeling of relief having to stay in that quiet valley or walk out.

Next week a mistake that caused embarrassment personified because I was the fearless leader - but dumb.

AUTO ACCIDENT TOLL

NEW YORK - Among the 115,000 persons killed in accidents in 1968, a record 55,200 died in auto crashes, says the Insurance Information Institute. More than 4.4 million persons were injured in auto accidents.

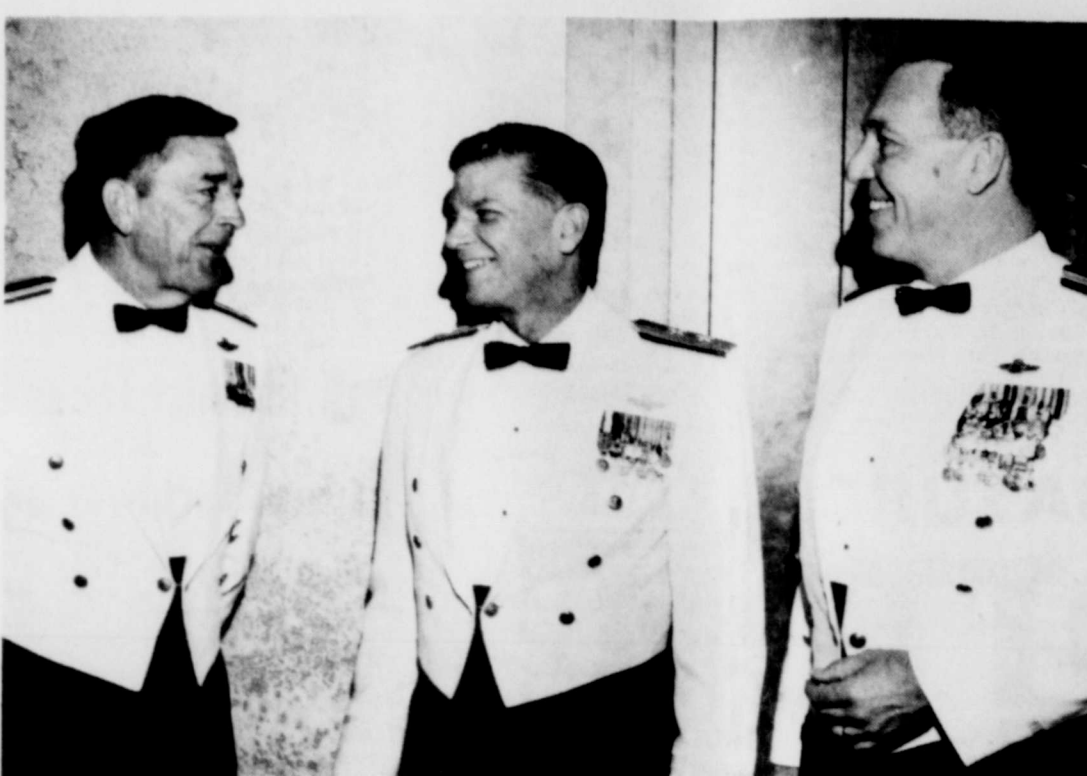

Sergeant's Oil Best At Art Show

SHEPPARD AFB, TEX. - - - Sgt. Thomas Holmstrand's oil, Nature's Anger, was selected as the best work at the art show held last week by the U. S. Air Force Regional Hospital at Sheppard AFB.

Two Departments Consolidated At Sheppard

SHEPPARD AFB, TEX. - - - The Departments of Communications Training, and Missile and Space Training of the 3750th Technical School will be consolidated into the Department of Communications and Missile Training effective Nov. 1.

This will leave the Technical School with six training departments. The others are Aircraft Maintenance, Civil Engineering, Comptroller, Transportation and Field Training.

Lt. Col. John Sleeper Jr., chief of the Department of Missile and Space Training, will be the acting chief of the new department, while Col. John T. Phillips, chief of the Department of Communications Training, is to be acting operations officer for the school.

The new department will have four branches. Maj. Francis F. Kimball is to be chief of the telephone branch; Maj. Joseph Cowles, chief of the missile branch; Capt. Harold E. Wigginton, chief of the electronic branch; and Capt. George M. Silverman, chief of the teletype branch.

The new department will have 10 officers, 528 enlisted men and 150 civilians for a total of 686 people. It is responsible for the training in 57 resident courses, 19 career development courses and has approximately 1,800 resident students.

Training is conducted by the department in 11 academic buildings. There are 201 classrooms and support rooms, 19 acres of pole climbing course area and 2,325 square feet of missile bay area used by the department.

The department also has construction vehicles valued at $16,355, 315.

The Communications Training Department was moved to Sheppard from Francis E. Warren AFB, Wyo., when that base was transferred to the control of the Strategic Air Command and became a ballistic missile site. The transfer took place between July 1958 and January 1959.

The Department of Missile and Space Training was initially established at Sheppard as the Department of Guided Missiles. Formulation of the missile training program began in 1955, and on Oct. 3, of that year Sheppard was assigned as the prime training center for the Atlas intercontinental missile. In 1957 the Jupiter and Thor intermediate range ballistic missiles were added to the mission. The Titan II program was established at Sheppard in July 1960 and the Titan II, in November 1961. The Titan II program of that group is the only one still being operated by the Missile and Space Training Department.

German, American Officers Reminisce On Recent Pilot Training

SHEPPARD AFB, TEX. - - - Your mission, should you decide to select it, will be to complete 55 weeks of German Air Force/mixed States Air Force Undergraduate Pilot Training. As the story goes, you can self-destruct at any time, or you can graduate a full-fledged pilot. The decision is up to you. If you choose to stay in the program, it will take a lot of hard work and stamina. The rewards are worth it to the man who really wants to become a pilot.

Second Lieutenant Ronald E. Bynum (USAF) and Second Lieutenant Siegfried Joop (GAF), Class 70-03, completed this very important mission Oct. 25th and earned their silver wings. As they look back upon the past few months, they feel it has been worth their efforts. "This is undoubtedly the best UPT program in the Air Force," said Lieutenant Bynum.

As early as 1960 the two departments began working together because it was that year that the first missile communication system was installed and the training of maintenance people was started by the Department of Communications Training.

Since 1954 the Department of Missile and Space Training has been absorbing the electronics fundamentals which were used in the communications courses.

Halloween Awards Given By NCO Wives

Winners of the Halloween costume contest at the party held by the Sheppard AFB Noncommissioned Officers Wives Club Saturday night were MSgt. Max Marsh, TSgt. Donald McMullen and Miss Sharon Rothaker.

The Club members honored their husbands with a buffet dinner and party at the NCO Open Mess. Dave and the Angels provided music for the event.

Other prize winners were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Schmitzer, Mrs. Melvin Payne and Mrs. James Skipipalls.

"We got in a lot more jet time here," he added. This is due to the fact that students don't have to fly the T-41 aircraft. In this program, students first receive their academic and flight training in the Cessna T-37 aircraft and upon successful completion advance to the Northrop T-38 aircraft. "The facilities and equipment are exceptional," he said, "and the instruction is excellent."

When asked what he liked best about the program, Lieutenant Bynum replied, "the feeling you get after you have passed a check ride." "Each check ride is an obstacle; you just exist from one to another, and it is a great feeling to successfully complete one," he said. There are 14 check rides, seven to each aircraft. Lieutenant Bynum especially liked the cross-country in the T-38 during the later part of training. This was something he had looked forward to for a long time. To him it came as somewhat of a "reward" for all the long hours and hard work preceding it.

Lieutenant Bynum has now been assigned to fly the C-141 out of Norton AFB, Calif. The C-141 carries troops and cargo to Southeast Asia and Europe. Prior to this, however, he will attend a survival training course at Fairchild AFB, Wash., and complete a training course for the C-141 at Altus AFB, Okla.

His parents, SMSgt. and Mrs. James T. Bynum, reside in Burkburnett, Texas. Sergeant Bynum is stationed at Sheppard AFB. The lieutenant and his wife, Judy, reside in Wichita Falls. He is a graduate of Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas.

Second Lieutenant Siegfried Joop (GAF) was particularly impressed with how well defined and perfect the program was. He marveled at the intricate long-range planning of it all, and the fact that his last flight was scheduled only a very few hours before the dining-in. "I think this is real organization," he said, "I am especially proud that we, as young people, have the responsibility of flying these expensive aircraft and are entrusted with the knowledge that these highly qualified military and civilian people have taught us." "They have done their best to make good pilots out of us," he said.

"I liked the good relationship between the German and American students and instructors," said Lieutenant Joop, "and I hope that this friendship will last a very long time." "It is interesting to note," he added, "that my father was an officer in World War II and had to fight against America, and now, 25 years later, the American people are training me." Lieutenant Joop has been assigned to Luke AFB, Ariz. for further training in the F-104 Starfighter. Upon completion, he will return to Germany where he will

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Police Activity During Week

Major police activity during the past week for the Burkburnett Police Department centered around an attempted break-in, two thefts and an actual burglary.

This past Sunday, November 2, Officers Braley and Jackson surprised several individuals who were apparently attempting to break in to Wolfe Ford Company on Sheppard Road. This occurred at about 2:05 AM. The officers said that the men ran off into the weeds and so eluded them.

A bicycle was stolen - for the fourth time! - from the residence of Mrs. Ruth Ooten, 118 Avenue B on October 31. Mrs. Ooten told police that every other time the bicycle had been located, but this time it had been taken - and presumably far away.

On Friday, October 30, a corduroy coat belonging to Phil Kasper of Route 1, Iowa Park, was stolen from his car while it was parked by the bowling alley.

On Sunday, October 26, the Nixon Deep Rock Service Station, on the Oklahoma Cutoff was entered and about $18.90 in cash was taken from the cigarette machine.

Expert Advice on House Buying

Practice makes perfect, but when buying a house, you have to do it right the first time. Few people can afford the luxury of a second chance. A mistake can spell financial disaster, or an agonizing period of living in the wrong place at the wrong time under the wrong conditions.

That is why Byron Moger and Martin Burke, long-time experts in home construction and financing, have collaborated with Omar V. Garrison on a book that can assure first-time home buyers of success. Just published by Lyle Stuart, "How to Buy a House" can save the prospective home owner thousands of dollars as well as the heartaches of the trial-and-error method. It answers hundreds of questions that buyers invariably neglect to ask - until too late.

For instance, can the house be altered to serve changing family needs of the future? Can it grow? Can it accommodate rambunctious youngsters as well as aging grandparents who may come to stay? Is a new home or a resale preferable in any given case? Will creeping industrialization convert the neighborhood to a smog-choked slum? What about local taxes, schools, sewerage, recreation facilities, shopping?

In easy-to-read chapters, "How to Buy a House" gives step-by-step methods of judging a resale, and takes the reader through myriad construction problems from basement to rafters. Future upkeep costs, for instance, can be considerably diminished by taking simple steps long before construction begins in important matters like plumbing, air-conditioning and heating. And control of termites, dampness, flooding among others must be considered before the foundation is dug. Even allowance for a heavy piano in a particular room can avoid future headaches, to say nothing of adequate wiring for the electronic miracles of the future.

There's more to a house than construction, too. The offer-and-counter-offer rules of price haggling are explained. Surprisingly, despite this period of tight money, the authors outline federal loan programs that most "experts" know little about.

Present homeowners will also find the book invaluable, particularly in sections on repairs, replacement and renovations. And the book's major virtue is its clarity and readability, whether dealing with the pros and cons of fireplaces, or the complexities of title insurance and loans.

In a nutshell, "How to Buy a House" tells the right way to buy the right house in the right neighborhood at the right price. It will be the most valuable book in that future library.
