Tojo, Last Of Axis Dictators, Put To Death

Newsmen Barred From Executions; More Details Due

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Thursday, Dec. 23.—Former Premier Hideki Tojo and six other Japanese warlords were hanged today for Japan's crimes against humanity.

Tojo was the last to die of the three Axis dictators who plunged the world into the most bloody war in history.

The Army announced seven went to their deaths on the gallows in Sugamo prison, where they had been held for more than two and a half years—during and after their long trial.

Army Bars Reporters

Only Monday the U. S. Supreme court closed the last possible door of escape. It found it was without authority to act on the appeals of two of them, Gen. Kenji Doihara and former Premier Koki Hirota.

The seven were condemned by the international tribunal which handed out prison terms to 18 of their co-defendants.

The Army gave no details of the hangings. It promised to hand out more information later to newsmen, who were not permitted to attend.

The first of the condemned men dropped to his death at one minute past midnight today (10:01 a. m. Eastern Standard time).

Hangings Fast

Who was the first to die and the order in which they went were not indicated. It also was possible several were hanged at once because the executions went off fast.

The hangings were finished by 35 minutes after midnight.

A Buddhist priest and two U. S. chaplains were reportedly in the prison for the executions since early Wednesday.

Tojo survived his fellow dictators, Adolf Hitler of Germany and Benito Mussolini of Italy, because of America nmedical skill.

In September of 1945, as American troops came to arrest him, Tojo shot himself with a revolver. Quick medical attention and a transfusion of American whole blood saved him for the gallows.

Announcement Given

Tojo was the only one of the three to stand trial. Hitler supposedly died in the ruins of Berlin as the Russians closed in. Mussolini was killed by Italian partisans.

Col. Marion P. Echols, MacArthur's public information officer, apparently was at Sugamo prison when the hangings took place.

Capt. H. H. Hawkins, duty officer, said he received his information directly from Echols, who may furnish the additional details.

An announcement from the Army public information office said: "Between 001 and 0035 Dec. 23, all seven of the war criminals that were condemned by the international military tribunal for the Far East were hanged."

Leaders Named

Utmost secrecy surrounded the execution at the prison on strict orders from General MacArthur.

In addition to wartime Premier Tojo, the other six hanged were:

Gen. Kenji Doihara, the Manchurian plotter.

Koki Hirota, former premier.

Gen. Seishiro Itagaki, former war minister.

Gen. Heitaro Kimura, chief of the Japanese armies in Manchuria.

Gen. Iwane Matsui, who commanded at the rape of Nanking.

Lt. Gen. Akira Muto, chief of staff in the Philippines.

The brief announcement gave no other details.

The Army promised, however, that details of the last minutes of the seven warlords would be made public as soon as witnesses could be interviewed at the prison.

Newspapermen were not allowed to attend.

Cremation Planned

The seven were convicted of plotting and waging aggressive war in the Pacific and the Far East. An 11-nation Allied tribunal sat in judgment on them for 2½ years.

Headquarters has announced that bodies of the former cabinet members and military leaders will be cremated. To prevent enshrinement of the war criminals, their families will be denied their ashes.

U. S. Eighth Army was in charge of the executions. General MacArthur refused clemency to any of the 25 class "A" war crimes defendants convicted by the international tribunal. The 18 others received prison terms—16 of them for life.

Two of the condemned men appealed in vain for intervention of the United States Supreme court. The court decided Monday it had no jurisdiction.

It was a clear, cold night when

Dutch Deny Funds Are Being Used To Arm Their Troops

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 — The United States today halted all Marshall plan aid to the Netherlands East Indies pending settlement of hostilities between the Dutch and the republic of Indonesia.

The action was disclosed in a cable sent by Paul G. Hoffman, Economic Cooperation Administrator, to the chief of the ECA mission in the Netherlands.

A top ECA official said the move came after "full consultation" with the State department.

Text Not Made Public

The text of the cable was not immediately made public. However, it was known that the action cut off for the present any ECA aid grants to the Netherlands East Indies.

Dr. D. Soemitro, Indonesian envoy had asked Undersecretary of State Lovett to shut off Marshall plan aid to the Dutch, charging the assistance was being used to crush the Indonesian republic.

The Dutch ambassador, Eelco Van Kleffens, denied any recovery funds have been used to arm Dutch troops.

Homeland Not Affected

Apparently the suspension of recovery grants to the Netherlands Far Eastern territories does not affect ECA allocatons to the Dutch homeland. However, there

Man Robbed, Hit By Auto

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 22. (U.P) Within the space of about an hour early today, Louis Frank Ton, Chicago, was held up by a hitch-hiker and struck and seriously injured by an automobile.

The bandit fared worse. He was shot and killed about the time Ton was being admitted to a Cameron, Mo., hospital.

State Highway Patrolmen reported Ton was held up near the village of Stewartsville, Mo., by a hitch-hiker he had picked up in Utah. The man fled in Ton's army surplus truck.

Ton Starts Walking

After reporting the incident by telephone, Ton started walking down the highway. He was struck by an automobile whose driver failed to see him in the gloom. Hospital attendants said Ton suffered a fractured pelvis and a severe head injury.

Meanwhile, Leslie Lenn, night marshal at Osborne, Mo., discovered a man lurking in an alley there. Instead of complying with an order to put up his hands, the marshal opened fire. Ton's truck was parked nearby and troopers who had been manning a roadblock said there was no doubt that the man killed was the object of their hunt.

He was not identified. He was

Senate Fights Are Brewing

Senators Seeking Key Congress Jobs

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22—Both Republicans and Democrats in the new Senate may do some hot scrapping among themselves before they settle down to party line fighting.

In the making are contests for:

1. The post of Senate president pro tempore, mostly an honorary job so long as there is a vice president to preside over the chamber. Friends of Senator Tydings of Maryland are trying to put him in the spot which Senator McKellar of Tennessee held until the Republicans took control of Congress two years ago.

May Cause Fireworks

2. The minority (GOP) floor leadership. This is the one that may cause the most fireworks if Senator Wherry of Nebraska decides to fight for the job.

In the last session, Wherry served as acting leader because Senator White of Maine was ill. White did not seek reelection.

Ever since last month's election upset, self-styled liberals among the Republicans have been more or less openly clamoring for Wherry's scalp. Wherry also is said to have incurred the opposition of Senator Vandenberg of Michigan because some of his votes against certain foreign policy proposals sponsored by Vandenberg.

On the other hand, Senator Taft of Ohio—who appears likely to be re-elected chairman of the GOP policy committee—has told friends he prefers Wherry.

Plane Running Out Of Gas Over Ocean

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22 (AP) After being reported down, a four-engine Navy plane still was trying to make the mainland today on a flight from Honolulu, with its fuel supply nearing exhaustion.

The Navy said at 11 a. m. (CST) that the pilot of the B-17 reported he had only 325 gallons of gasoline, that he was burning 200 gallons an hour, and was 3½ hours out of San Francisco.

The Coast Guard radioed that its planes had rendezvoused with the distressed plane at 10:45 a. m. CST and were escorting the B-17 at 11,000 feet. The bomber was losing altitude, however.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22 (AP) Mayor Peter Martin of Colorado City, Tex., was relieved of his six-shooter here last night — by a thief.

Martin told police the weapon, clothing and other articles were stolen from his parked car. He is on a holiday trip to California.

Annual Community Christmas Trees Planned For Thursday

Two annual community Christmas trees are scheduled for Thursday, with Santa Claus and his helper passing out candy and balloons to every child who attends.

The City Recreation department will sponsor the trees. One of which will be in Fellowship hall at the First Presbyterian church from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. and the other at the Community Center, Sixth and Ave. B, from 3 to 5 p. m. Santa Claus will be present at the First Presbyterian church and his helper will be present at the Community Center.

Each event will be "come and go" type, with parents and older children bringing small children any time during the scheduled time of the trees. The children may stay as long as they like and each child will have an opportunity to talk to Santa Claus, it was announced. Santa Claus will

Changes In Wagner Act Set For Solons

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath predicted today the new Congress will pass a "single package" labor bill. He said it will provide for:

1. Outright repeal of the Taft-Hartley law.

2. Reinstatement of the Wagner act.

3. Revision of the Wagner measure, mainly along the lines President Truman outlined in his 1947 state of the union message.

McGrath told a reporter that while he has not discussed the matter with Mr. Truman, there is no basis for reports that the administration may decide against asking complete elimination of the Taft-Hartley law.

To Press For Repeal

"Of course we are going to press for outright repeal," said the Rhode Island senator. "How can there be any doubt about that? The party platform calls for repeal and the President campaigned for it."

McGrath said he looks for repeal, restoration of the Wagner act and revision of the latter measure to be handled simultaneously.

The senator added that he is not ruling out Wagner act changes in addition to those Mr. Truman urged two years ago.

The Wagner act was the basic labor law prior to enactment of the Taft-Hartley act. The latter

HST Off For Yule Holiday

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. (AP)—President Truman left by plane today for Independence, Mo., to spend Christmas.

Accompanying him were a secretarial staff and his personal physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham; Mrs. Graham and the two Graham children.

ARRIVES IN KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 22 (AP) —President Truman arrived by plane today to spend Christmas with his family at nearby Independence, Mo. The presidential plane, "Independence," landed at Fairfax Army air base at 1:20 p. m. (CST) after bucking strong headwinds on a flight from Washington.

The presidential plane, "Independence," took off at 9:07 a. m. (CST). Ordinarily it is a four-hour flight to Kansas City, but airport officials said that the plane would be bucking 70-mile-an-hour headwinds today. From Kansas City, the presidential party will drive to Independence.

HST In Holiday Mood

Mr. Truman left in a holiday mood. Just before boarding the plane, he waved to reporters and the crowd seeing him off and said:

"I hope Santa Claus brings you everything you want."

The President plans to return to Washington Dec. 29. He was not able to put away the cares of office entirely for his holiday. Along with presents for his family, he

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22—Lawmakers probing profits set to work today on a blueprint they hope the new Congress will use in any overhaul of the government's economic policies.

The chart is being drafted by a Senate-House economic subcommittee which yesterday wound up an extended investigation of how much money business is making now, where it comes from and how it is spent.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt), chairman of the group, said industrial leaders "made a better case for their profits than I expected."

Business Growing Bigger

During the hearings spokesmen for various industries argued that their profits are not too high—as consumer and labor groups contend they are—because more money is needed to meet a growing demand for still greater production.

Flanders, however, added this observation to newsmen:

"I am disturbed about the irresistible growth of the big, efficient corporations. No matter how well they are justified, they cannot keep growing indefinitely . . . without changing the social and economic system.

"They had better think seriously about this."

Tax Issue Involved

The Vermonter noted that the profits question affects not only wage negotiations and the prices

Amarillo Man Burned In Hotel Room Blaze

DALLAS, Dec. 22 (U.P) — An Amarillo man was burned about the face in a hotel room fire early this morning. His condition was not serious.

The victim, Homer Self, 50, was being treated for first degree burns about the face.

Police said Self apparently started the fire when he fell asleep with a burning cigaret in his mouth. He awakened in the smoke-filled room at 2:30 a. m. and ran into the hall shouting an alarm.

All other tenants on the eighth floor of the downtown hotel (Southland) filed to elevators and evacuated the building. Firemen said the move was "very orderly."

BIG SUM SET FOR CELEBRATION

Cost To Reinstall President Is Expected To Be $100,000

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22—It will cost about $100,000 to reinstall Harry S. Truman as president next month—plus some $215,500 more to celebrate the occasion.

The first figure is for erection of the platform and grandstands at the Capitol where Mr. Truman will take the oath of office January 20. Congress pays for that.

The second sum was figured out today by the inaugural committee headed by Melvin D. Hildreth. This group is putting on the week-long gala, which is being underwritten by local businessmen.

Hildreth said the outlay tentatively comes to $215,563—not including the inaugural ball which will climax the festivities.

"Only rigid economy and a far greater amount of donated services than in any recent inaugural have made it possible for the inaugural committee to carry out its responsibilities without greater expenditures," his statement said.

The largest expense is $98,075 for construction of grandstands

Posse From Two States Is On Trail Of Killer; Bloodhounds Are Being Used

(By The Associated Press)

LUCEDALE, Miss., Dec. 22—A mother, her daughter and her granddaughter were shot to death last night, and the sheriff who went to investigate was killed as he stepped from his car.

The slayer fled in the officer's automobile and Justice of the Peace J. W. Havard said a posse from two states is hunting the older woman's husband for questioning.

Victims of the quadruple slaying were Sheriff J. E. Nelson; Mrs. Murdock Hinton, 45; her daughter, Gloria, 18, and Gloria's two-month-old child, Judy. Gloria was not married, Havard said.

Havard gave this version of the slayings:

Gloria called the sheriff late yesterday and asked him to go home with her to investigate some "domestic trouble." The bodies of Mrs. Hinton and the baby were found at the Hinton home. The sheriff was killed at close range by a shotgun blast. The killer then apparently shot Gloria and drove off with her body in Nelson's car.

The car was wrecked about 10 miles south of Lucedale and Gloria's body was found in the wreckage. Her neck was broken

Fireworks Missing In Two Burglaries

Demand for fireworks—despite an official ban on firing any combustibles inside the city limits—was reflected in two burglaries in which loss approximated an estimated $100, officials reported this morning.

In addition to those breakings and enterings—both of them on East Broadway outside the city limits—officials were informed of the burglary of a wellhouse of Bill Farris of Shallowater route 1 and theft of property valued at approximately $125, as well as burglary of a store at 2802 East Ave. E.

Sheetiron Torn

W. J. Hodges said the greater amount of the fireworks was taken when someone tore a hole in a sheet iron of a stand he had erected across the highway from his fruit stand in the canyon.

Taken, he said, were $40 worth of roman candles, $10 worth of baby giant crackers, $6 in auto bombs, $6 in torpedoes, $5 in small firecrackers, $4 in repeating bombs, an $8.25 toy pistol, a $4.19 toy pistol and a 98-cent toy pistol.

Stand Is Entered

J. B. Robertson said his paper and pasteboard stand on East Broadway was broken and entered through the roof, and that 10 dozen firecrackers, a quantity of roman candles, eight to 10 buzz bombs, and two quarts of honey were taken.

Farris listed a floor buffer, a shotgun, extension cord and tools stolen from his wellhouse.

Six pounds of coffee, cigarets, perhaps two pounds of lard and a small quantity of candy were taken from the store, police investigators were told. A door hasp had been pried off, they were informed by Ray Enloe at the store.

Police were investigating a report that Christmas lights had been stolen from a residence at 2800-block North Third.

Woman Is Fined

A woman arrested by police at a local drugstore on a charge of shoplifting was assessed a fine of $25 in corporation court after entering a plea of guilty to stealing a cigarette lighter priced at 98 cents, police reported.

Relief Checks May Be Pared

AUSTIN, Dec. 22 —Possible decrease in individual old age assistance checks was forecast here today.

The state Department of Public Welfare told Gov. Beauford H. Jester that decreases will come if the number getting aid continues to climb while appropriations for pensions remain static.

Texas is now spending the maximum for welfare allowed by the constitution. This is 35 million annually in state money. It is matched with federal funds.

New Record Reached

The Department of Public Welfare's annual report to the governor, for the fiscal year ended Sept. 1, said that a new record high in the number of needy aged has been reached each month since May, 1946. Annual expenditures for old age assistance ranged upward from 44.7 million dollars in 1944 to 73.9 million in 1948.

In 1948, 29,621 cases were added to the rolls. Of these, 65 per cent became pensioners because of loss of employment or other adverse economic circumstances.

Aid to dependent children increased from 2.6 million dollars in 1944 to 7.5 million in 1948; aid to the needy blind climbed from 1.3 million to 2.3 million in the same period.

Cloudy And Cooler On Texas Weather Menu

(By The United Press)

Cloudy and a little cooler will be the Texas weather menu for the next 24 hours, Forecaster A. M. Hamrick predicted today in Dallas.

Although yesterday was the first day of winter, it was more in keeping with the first day of fall. Temperatures generally were in the 60s and 70s with Alice reporting a sizzling 88 degrees and Amarillo a comfortable low maximum of 46 degrees. Amarillo had the low this morning of 26. Brownsville's 66 was the high maximum.

A number of other points reported slightly below freezing this morning with readings generally in the 30s.

Teacher, Niece Hurt In Hunting Accident

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 22. (AP)—A Sheffield, Pecos county, school teacher and her niece were in a hospital here today following an unusual hunting accident last night.

Miss Bettie Mitchell, 63, and Gayla Cauthen, 10, were hospitalized for gunshot wounds in the chest and head. Their injuries were not considered critical.

They were inspecting traps last night with Jackie Cauthen, 13, Gayla's brother, and became separated from him.

The boy said he saw a flashlight held by his aunt, and thinking it was the eyes of a ringtail cat reflected by his own light, fired his 20-gauge shotgun.

Plane Missing With 24 Persons Aboard

ATHENS, Dec. 22 (AP)—An official at Hassani airport said today a Czechoslovak airline plane with 24 persons aboard has been missing since last night.

The airport said the plane was enroute from Rome to Athens with a crew of five and 19 passengers.

Capt. Arthur G. Ray of Amarillo, Tex., commander of the U. S. Army Air Force air-sea rescue unit at Wheelis field, Tripoli, North Africa, directed the search for the missing plane. Extremely bad weather hindered the searchers.

U. S. Armed Forces Play Santa To Children Throughout World

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 (INS)—American troops will donate part of their pay and sponsor elaborate Christmas parties this week to make Christmas brighter for thousands of foreign youngsters and displaced persons.

The Army will play Santa Claus throughout the world with gifts, Christmas dinners, entertainment and scores of holiday parties.

In Berlin, the 279th station hospital unit has already pledged one day's pay to help provide Christmas dinners and fun for 76,000 hungry children.

Party Fund Used

Meanwhile, nearly 175 German youngsters and orphans will be provided for through a special Christmas party fund in Munich.

More than 30,000 German school children will receive American gift packages in Stuttgart, and about 150,000 displaced little boys and girls will be entertained at Frankfurt.

In Wiesbaden, about 10,000 displaced persons and German children will be treated to taffy pulls, a "snowball dance," sleighriding and popcorn stringing bees.

Across the world in Asia, the program will be about the same. Tokyo will see a mammoth Christmas parade and orphans will be given toys made or repaired by American troops.

Have Big Season

At home in America, Army post exchanges will close their doors after one of the most ambitious business seasons. Their shelves are expected to be virtually bare of the thousands of Christmas trees and special lights which were ordered to brighten the yule celebration of troops in the continental United States.

In addition, the Army has issued a special Christmas release of 31,000 feather-weight phonograph discs for troops overseas and patients in U. S. hospitals. Each album contains a special Christmas message from Maj. Gen. Russell B. Reynolds, chief of army special services; songs by Frank Sinatra, and numbers by the Pittsburgh and San Francisco symphony orchestras.

Entertainment Planned

But Army, Navy and Air Force veterans sustaining the Berlin airlift will find their stockings filled with the cream of entertainment presents.

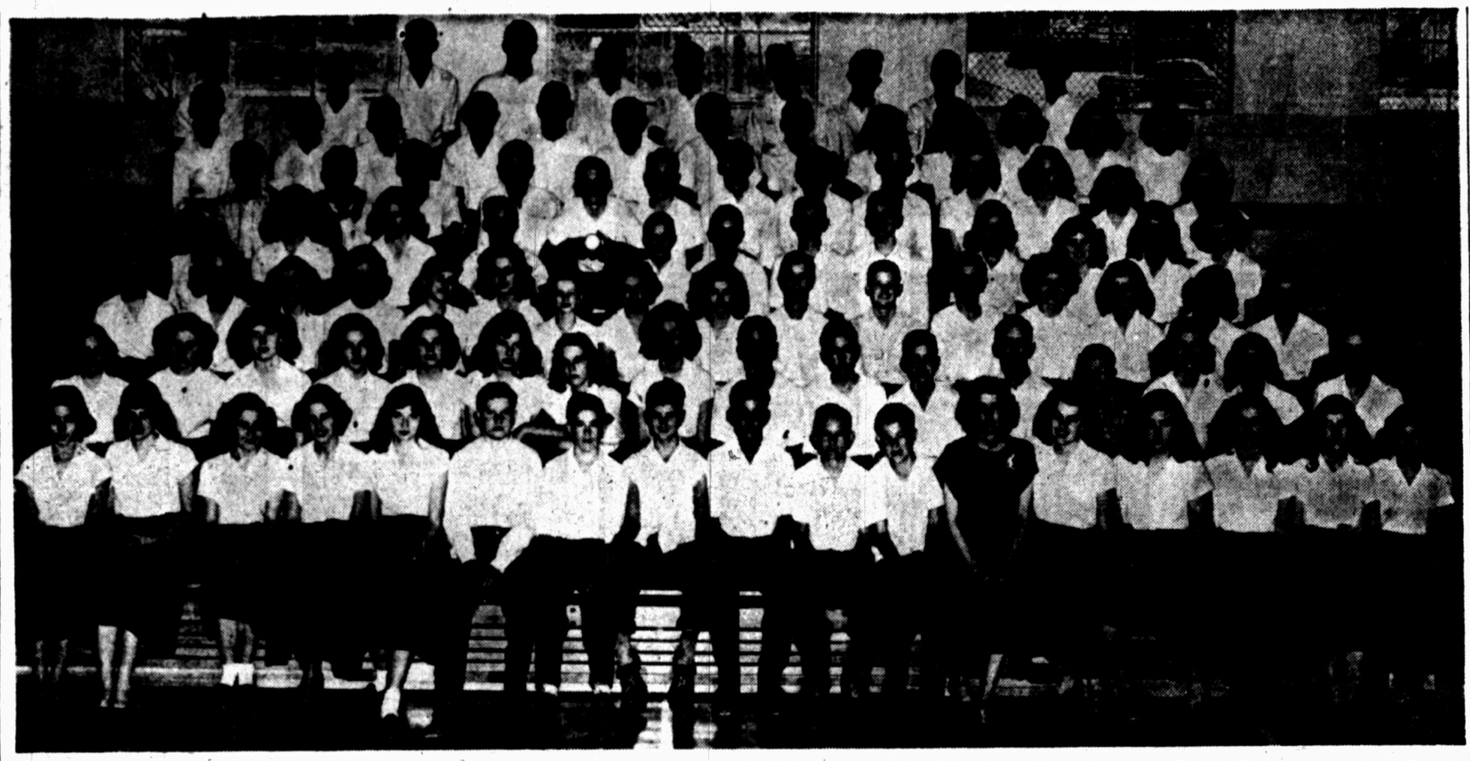

Comedian Bob Hope, Song Writer Irving Berlin and more than 30 top entertainers will put on shows for them during the Christmas week. A group of radio city chorines and Jinx Falkenberg will lend their talents to the efforts, while as many soldiers as possible will be given leaves to visit nearby European resorts with their families.

Artichokes take about three quarters of an hour to cook when they are covered with boiling water. After they are removed from the water they should be turned upside down to drain well.

Bill Collector Not Aware Of Robbery

CHICAGO, Dec. 22 (AP) — Three gunmen were busy robbing the two owners of the Vince Auto Sales company yesterday when a truck driver entered to collect a bill.

The robbers were searching Leonard Cardella, 24, and Vince Ciano, 24, when he entered. Unaware of the robbery, he explained to one gunman he had called for his weekly collection payment.

"How much do they owe you, pal?" one of the gunmen asked. "One dollar," the driver replied. The robber paid him. Then after the driver left he and his two companions tied up Cardella and Ciano. They escaped with $3,000 in cash and $1,600 in checks.

Saving Life Pays In Christmas Presents

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 22. (INS)—A 10-year-old boy who was born in France, and who saved the life of an English visitor, today was the recipient of Christmas presents that would make any American lad's eyes pop.

He is George Bishop of Kansas City, whose father is an ex-GI.

George won the "Youth Of The Week" contest on the Bud Abbott and Lou Costello radio program for his heroism in saving the life of Miss Isabelle Evans, 20.

Miss Evans wrote to the comedians telling them how George shoved her out of the path of a speeding truck.

Today George's presents began arriving. Into the tiny, one-room apartment of the Bishops came a bicycle, an electric train, a wrist watch, a ring, an electric dishwasher and a coin collection.

Still to come are the presents for George's mother—a radio, vacuum cleaner and five new dresses.

Hunger Causes Young Mother To Collapse

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 22 (INS) — A young Hartford mother collapsed today in the midst of busy Christmas shopping crowds. Her three-year-old daughter cried:

"My mummy's hungry and I am, too."

The mother, Mrs. Anna Pollok, 26, was found to be suffering from malnutrition. She admitted she had not eaten for two days. Her daughter had had only a few mouthsful of food in that time.

Mrs. Pollok told police that her husband in Hartford had failed to support her.

Baptist Church Shows Truth In Jesus' Parable Of Talents

WARRENTON, N. C., Dec. 22 (INS)—A Baptist minister and his small congregation in Warrenton today have shown the 20th century the truth of Jesus' parable of the talents.

The plan was offered the Rev. Gilmer Parrish by Parishioner C. M. Haithcock.

Passed Out Bills

Haithcock passed out 44 $5 bills during a Sunday service last April and the challenge to each congregation member to make the money grow.

Today the church in Warrenton is the recipient of $781.34 which grew from the original $220

One woman turned back $75. She had used her five dollars to buy fish on a wholesale market and then sell it. That was the biggest single increase, but one man invested his "talent" in cotton seed and gave the church the profit from the crop.

A woman member of the congregation made aprons with material bought with her money.

The Rev. Mr. Parrish invested his $5 in the flavoring extract business.

Next spring, the Warrenton congregation plans to try the teaching of the New Testament again.

Drugless Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can, now, hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results seven days after you start taking it.

DRUGGISTS, Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Mineral Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize its priceless value.

MEDICAL records show 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite when your eyes lack that bright spark and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

Read What They Say!

"We have sold Geo-Mineral for the last six months and it has been one of the best selling drug items we have ever handled"—say Porter Bros., pharmacists of Concord, N. C. "Users report amazing results in many instances, and we personally believe Geo-Mineral is a good medicine for purposes as indicated, and recommend it to sufferers who have tried other medicines with little if any results. They may discover that Geo-Mineral is what they have probably been needing and looking for — we unhesitatingly recommend it."

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Holiday Tea, Coffee Are Given For Clubs

Christmas programs, a tea and a coffee were Tuesday events for three women's organizations, Lubbock Woman's club, Shakespeare club and Garden Study club.

WOMAN'S CLUB AT ANNUAL TEA

At the annual Christmas tea given by Lubbock Woman's club in the home of Mrs. R. O. Bennett at 1901 Thirty-first Tuesday afternoon, a musical program was presented.

Mrs. E. C. Price played a piano number, "The Two Larks," and the J. T. Hutchinson Junior High school choir, directed by Miss Nell Goodloe, sang carols including "Silent Night," "The First Noel," "Jingle Bells," "Carol of the Bells" and "O Holy Night." Jerry Cox, one of the 16 members of the choir, sang a solo, "On the Night When Jesus Came."

Mrs. Charles Cobb, another guest, spoke on Christmas celebrations in England, Ireland and Scotland.

The tea table was laid with a chartreuse cloth and centered with a small Christmas tree adorned with chartreuse ornaments and flanked by white tapers in silver holders.

The 40 women who attended exchanged gifts. Mesdames J. L. Rosamond, W. B. Sides and R. C. Badgett made arrangements for the tea.

CHRISTMAS POEMS READ

Mrs. John V. Powers was hostess to 18 members of Shakespeare club Tuesday afternoon in her home at 3213 Twenty-first.

Roll call was answered with favorite Christmas poems. Gifts were exchanged and Christmas refreshments were served.

GUEST COFFEE HELD BY CLUB

A guest day coffee was given by the Garden Study club in the home of Mrs. Jack Griggs, Levelland road, Tuesday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. Hostesses with Mrs. Griggs were Mesdames Alfred Crosby and W. M. Cauley.

Each member was allowed an invited guest, and about 75 persons called. Presiding at the table were Mesdames Reginald Rushing and John Mallory, club president.

A grape arrangement of purple Christmas balls and silver leaves was used as a centerpiece. Mrs. W. I. Pittman displayed Christmas gifts which she had wrapped herself using garden articles.

The Christmas vacation at the school began on Dec. 16 and classes will resume on Jan. 5. A series of formal holiday balls preceded the vacation period, as well as numerous informal residence hall and club parties. A formal Christmas dinner on Tuesday night, Dec. 14, was followed by the traditional Christmas program presented by the student concert chorus. Climaxing the holiday events was the 21st annual Christmas vesper service on the eve of departure, followed by caroling around a giant lighted Christmas tree on the college campus.

Mary Haworth's Mail...

Girl, Important In Home Town, Says She Is Overwhelmed When She Is In City Society

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am in love with John and he with me; but I have a horrible feeling that I am not good enough for him, and I am afraid that eventually this will ruin everything between us.

He comes of a socially prominent Boston family and knows me only as an attractive girl who dresses well and is a good date. All that I am socially, in my present surroundings, I achieved myself. I spend all my money (and more) on beautiful clothes and a nice place to live, when I should be helping my plain hardworking family get a new car or paint their old house back in our home town.

In our small community my family is prominent, and as a child I was led to believe that I was a little better than my playmates who didn't have dolls as big as mine or dresses that cost as much. Then we moved to a larger town where no one knew (or cared to know) my family, and I was just plain Jane Doe from the sticks, who had nothing better than her numerous classmates.

GIRL IS PLAYING THE SNOB CIRCUIT

WHEN I was ready for college my family moved back to the old home place, and I chose a two-year college, mainly for the social life. I was out to make something of myself, for myself; and during summers I waited on table, saved pennies and fussed at my hard-working father until I had clothes as fine as any girl's in college.

I have nothing to offer John but my love and false pretenses—no beauty, brains, money or complete innocence, whereas he can offer me everything. He doesn't know yet that I feel this way; and how can I present my family to him, in view of my false front? How can I ever overlook the difference in our backgrounds? Help me to pull myself together, please. I can't give up after coming this far; I've reached my goal, but how can I retain it? (Signed) J. D.

IS MAN'S PRESTIGE OR SELF THE CHARM?

DEAR J. D.: You say that John can offer you everything, meaning what? Are you in love with John, the man himself? Or is it his birthright, social position and aristocratic background that bewitches?

If the latter, that's the "difference" that might ruin everything between you when it dawned on him, as it would eventually if you married him primarily to expedite social striving for snob-eminence as Mrs Somebody in the larger world.

Since you are a parvenu in John's present milieu, presumably he is disposed to love you for yourself alone, which suggests that it's safe to feel your lack of beauty, brains, money, etc., is immaterial to him if he proposes marriage; and that what would qualify you, from his viewpoint, to share his life, would be your loving his intrinsic self, so honestly and ingenuously that you'd hold him as dear if his parents were steerage immigrants and he a hod-carrier.

GIRL DOESN'T DO HERSELF JUSTICE

YOU'RE not a bad sort, and are being unduly rough on yourself, I think, as regards your guilt-stricken attachment to tinsel values. After all, the terms of your rearing formulated this bias. It appears that your parents permitted, and perhaps even encouraged, you to feel "stuck up" in relation to less plushy small town playmates; so they can't validly kick if you've shaken the dust of home from your feet and tacitly snub them, too, in process of fighting tooth and nail for cosmopolitan social rank.

As I see the picture, there is inextinguishable honesty in your character; your private distress about your false front bears witness to that; but unfortunately your family indulged you in borrowed claims to personal consequence in early years, or rather, imbued you with wrong concepts of "importance," so that free-for-all competitive social situations find you without conviction of intrinsic excellence—hence your harried drive for fancy wrappings and titular support, to be your social sesame in adult life.

What you lack, essentially, is true self regard. Given that, you would feel no need to apologize for plain origins, nor to seek eminence via the precarious route of coat-tail hanging.—M. H.

Two Peddlers Pose Question For Buyer

DALLAS, Dec. 22 (AP)—Two little boys, peddling mistletoe from door-to-door, sold Mrs. E. B. Miley of Dallas an armful for 20 cents.

Then one of the lads asked her, timidly:

"Can we go out in your yard and gather some more?"

Central Andrews County Field Extended By New Oil Producer

A mile southeast extension to the Parker field of Central Andrews county was completed by Fred W. Shield, of San Antonio.

The new producer is his No. 1 Armstrong, 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 10, block A-43, psl survey.

Shield ran a 24-hour pumping potential test on this project, producing 130.98 barrels of oil plus three-tenth of one per cent water.

As the gas-oil ratio was insufficient to be of consequence, it was not measured. Gravity of the petroleum was 30 degrees.

The pay section, at 4,605-4,640 feet in the San Andres lower Permian, was acidized with 7,000 gallons before the test.

This well is approximately two miles southwest of the town of Andrews.

To Complete Opener

Lion Oil Company No. 2 E. C. McLaughlin, southwest Scurry county discovery for flowing oil from a lime section in the Pennsylvanian, is preparing to run 7-inch casing and complete as a new field opener.

This exploration, located 10 miles southwest of Snyder, four miles west of the one-well Schattell field, and 660 feet from south and east lines of section 197, block 97, H&TC survey, is bottomed at 6,610 feet in line.

A Schlumberger survey has been run, and operator has ordered casing run.

The project flowed oil at the estimate rate of at least 20 barrels per hour, through a seven-eighth inch choke, on a drillstem test at 6,578.5-6,610 feet. No water was developed.

It was reported, following that test, that the venture would be drilled deeper. That plan was changed and operator decided to complete the wildcat on the current bottom of 6,610 feet.

Discovery Indicated

Placid Oil Company No. 1 Davis, indicated discovery from two lime zones in the Pennsylvanian in North-Central Scurry county, six and one-half miles north and slightly east of Snyder, was drilling ahead below 7,722 feet in Mississippian lime.

The prospector ran a one hour drillstem test at 7,633-76 feet. There was a blow of air for a part of the period. Recovery was 10 feet of drilling mud, with no shows of oil, gas or water reported.

This wildcat is to continue until it finds and explores the Ellenburger. That section is expected at any time. If it fails to produce operator will plug back and complete from the pay formations already penetrated which developed some free oil.

Lease Is Reported

An oil and gas lease on approximately 50,000 acres of unleased land in the Edwards T-Bar ranch in West-Central Lynn county, has been taken by James S. Noland of Midland, according to unofficial sources.

This report has not been officially verified. Terms of the lease, and consideration involved have not been learned.

The block sets in a short distance west of the town of Tahoka.

No information is available as to what Noland plans to do with the property.

Mother About To Give Birth To Child In Stranded Airplane

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 22. (U.P.)—Seventy-mile-an-hour winds today veiled the drama of an expectant mother about to give birth to a child in a stranded airplane on the ice of a small lake 100 miles east of here.

U. S. Air Force officers said the woman whose name was not known, was traveling in a Pacific Northern airlines plane that was forced down on the lake by a storm.

Two rescue planes, a C-47 and a helicopter, were sent to the scene They both landed safely but could not take off again. The Helicopter carried a doctor, who was reported tending to the woman in below-zero weather.

Other planes will take off for the scene as soon as the storm abates, officers of the 10th rescue squadron said.

Record Reveals Slaying Suspect Tried To Kill Rival In Triangle When He Was 12-Years-Old

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22 (U.P.) — Dr. Robert C. Rutledge, charged with slaying his wife's lover, tried to kill a rival for a girl's attentions when he was a 12-year-old "delinquent child," probation records at Houston, Tex., revealed today.

Houston Probation Officer W. E. Robertson quoted the record of a youthful triangle in which Rutledge shot a 14-year-old rival in the hip with a .22 caliber rifle. At the time, Rutledge said he "fully intended to kill" the other boy.

The 27-year-old pediatrician was released from a hospital here Monday after confessing to the knife-slaying of Byron C. Hattman, 29, in a Cedar Rapids, Ia., hotel room He tried unsuccessfully to commit suicide by taking poison when detectives arrived to question him

Signs Extradition Papers

Gov. Robert D. Blue of Iowa signed extradition papers yesterday for Rutledge's return to face first degree murder charges.

It also was revealed that Rutledge married previously in 1943 in Des Moines. Officials said he filed a divorce petition here more than two years later, charging that his first wife, USO Singer Eula Ruth Suggs, lived with him for only three hours.

Robertson said Houston records showed that Rutledge told police in 1933 that he shot his youthful rival because he was "beating my time" with a girl.

Fully Intended To Kill

"I shot him fully intending to kill him because he was visiting a girl friend of mine," Rutledge said in a written statement. He also said he planned to slay another rival, but did not have a chance.

The report said that the boy had planned to shift responsibility for the shooting to a schoolmate "because the boy also had a .22 rifle."

Robert said that Rutledge was ruled a "delinquent child" and was put on probation in custody of his parents. He was ordered to be treated at the Bureau of Mental Hygiene. The case was closed nine months later when the bureau found no evidence of a psychotic condition.

Bogarts' Boxers Triumph Over Wild Life; Raise Big Stink

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 22. (AP)—The Humphrey Bogarts' busy boxer dogs just wanted to show their masters they finally have triumphed over Benedict canyon wild life—and raised quite a stink doing it.

A couple of months ago one of the pets of the actor and his actress wife, Lauren Bacall, was bitten by a rattlesnake and the other was scratched by a wildcat.

Yesterday both dogs bounded triumphantly into the Bogart house, dragging an animal with them. They killed it on the hallway carpet, right next to the living room, then looked up, expecting words of praise.

They saw their master leave the house as fast as they had entered it.

Bogart yelled, or words to that effect, "a skunk! and what an unhealthy skunk, scram, baby, scram!"

Social note: The Bogarts are spending Christmas with friends.

True Spirit Lost, Strayed Or Stolen

Old-Fashioned Christmas Is Sadly Missing With Years

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK—"Lost, strayed or stolen—one good old-fashioned Christmas. Finder please return."

But I suppose no one will ever bring it back. That Christmas is covered up with the years. It is laid away with childhood, in that vanished time when being a child was more simple than it is today.

And Christmas was simple then, too. Everything was simpler.

Dad brought home a four-bit tree and set it up in the living room. The base was made by knocking out one end of a fruit box. There weren't any fancy metal gadgets.

Orange Big Treat

It didn't take half a week's income to decorate the tree. We put on a few spangled candle holders, a star, and rope after rope of cranberries and popcorn strung on thread from mom's sewing kit.

It was a beautiful tree, simple and satisfying. Everyone in the family got a special pleasure out of it because he had done something himself to make it prettier.

There was always an orange in each stocking, and it was a big treat then. What would a modern child think of Santa Claus today for leaving him a common thing like an orange.

Modern Stuff Garbage

The presents were few but well chosen. There was something to wear—a new sweater or a stocking cap. But there was always something to play with, too. One year of golden memory it was a real flexible flyer sled, and by nightfall the four small brothers who shared this varnished wonder nearly had worn the runners off.

Whatever happened to that old-fashioned Christmas. It was talking to a friend about it the other day, and he said:

"I paid $5 for a Christmas tree this year, and the tinsel garbage we bought to throw on it cost me more than my father earned the week he married my mother. When we were through we didn't have a Christmas tree—we had a Hollywood production. And that's exactly what it looked like: all tinsel and no warmth. There wasn't a home-made thing on it."

Whatever happened to the old-fashioned Christmas, when Santa Claus packed a bag—instead of a sandbag?"

Marshall College Thundering Herd Invades Tech Tonight

Lubbock Westerners To Meet Abilene Eagles Here Tonight

Abilene's highly-rated Eagle cagers, defending champions of District 3-AA, will invade Lubbock Senior High gymnasium at 8 o'clock tonight for an important non-conference tussle with the speedy Westerners. A "B" tilt between the reserve squads of both teams will be unreeled at 7, officials reported.

The Eagles have played some of improvement this season, following a slow start, and the Abilene five is expected to make a strong defense of its crown in conference competition. The Eagles have looked good in several performances, although Coach Jake Bentley's free substitution policy has reportedly hampered the Abilene boys in several games. Bentley was swamped by a huge squad of candidates when the season opened, and he has used 15 to 20 players in most games in an effort to find his best combination.

The Egales have played some of the strong quintets in the state in the early games, including Highland Park of Dallas, Brownwood and Big Spring.

Heading the Eagle scoring machine are big Hub Ingraham, a veteran from the Abilene five of last season, and speedy Scotty Holland. Holland was a stellar gridder for the last two years, as well as a capable performer on the hardwood court. Other Eagle standouts include Bill Galusha and Kenneth Green.

Coach Roy Morris' Westerners, who have won eight games in nine starts this season, are expected to field their usual starting lineup for the tilt. Forwards will be Charles Galey and Jesse Fullerton, with big Jim Wilson at center. Guards will probably include Blair Hankins and Morris (Moe) Turner.

Plenty of seats will be available for Lubbock fans tonight, school officials announced, and ducats will be sold at prices of 30 and 60 cents.

Visitors Rate A Slight Edge

The powerful Thundering Herd of Marshall college of Huntington, W. Va., will invade the Tech gym tonight for a game at 8 p. m. with the Red Raiders of Texas Tech and the visitors rule a slight favorite.

The visitors, with an impressive victory chain already established during the past dozen years and more, will be after another exhibition game win. Marshall long has been a powerhouse and this year's team does not appear weaker.

The Herd features a fast break, clever ball handling and smooth passing, while rolling up high point totals in each game. Last year they averaged 65 points a game. They will be facing one of the top quintets in the Southwest in Tech, which has broken square against SMU, ranked 10th in the nation, beaten Rice and won four of the other five games on the schedule.

Open To Public

The game is open to the public, with students living in Lubbock admitted on activitiy tickets. But primarily, this is for the Raider fans who are unable to see them in action normally. Tickets have been priced at $1, with no reserved seats, and a capacity crowd is expected to see Coach Polk Robison's potential Border Conference champions in action.

So far the Raiders have won six of seven games, maintaining a 55 point average. They have victories over Tempe and Flagstaff in loop play and other victories over the strong North Texas Eagles, Rice, SMU and McMurry.

The visitors bring an attack that is famed throughout the nation for its excellence. Under Cam Henderson's coaching for 13 years, the Herd has piled up 257 victories against 93 losses and have won several invitational tournaments, in addition to the National Intercollegiate tourney crown, which they won in March of 1947 and again in December of the same year.

The Green Wave, as Marshall also is called, is led by Bill Toothman of Huntington, who last year scored 431 points at his forward position. Harold James of Ironton, O., the center, was second team man in scoring with 405 and Bob Koontz of Huntington was third with 293.

Grove Leads Tech

Toothman is a six footer who weighs 170 pounds. James is six feet four inches tall and weighs 175 pounds, while Koontz is six foot three and weighs 185 pounds. All three are lettermen, while the first two named were regulars last year.

Three other lettermen, Bob Wright, Jimmy Bakalis and Dick Erickson, also are on this year's squad and helping Toothman with the scoring duties.

Tech will counter with a team that includes such stars as Center Don Grove, leading Raider point man; Gene Gibson, rangy ball hawk, and Whistle Banks, play maker and sparkplug, forwards; and Ardis Barton, a stocky, consistently good defensive man, and Chester "Jiggs" Jackson, keen-eyed basket maker, guards.

In reserve will be Wimpy Hill, Wayne Bowles, C. W. Dukes, Charles Pinnell, George Belchef, Bill Edins, Derwood Patterson and J. R. McAnnally, many of whom will see action.

As a halftime feature, the Boy Club Pee Wee League boys will stage an exhibition game.

"Battle Of Champions" Slated For Lubbock Mat Card Tonight

Sled Allen is booming tonight's wrestling card at his arena as the "Battle Champions," with two of the outstanding heavyweights in the Southwest coming to grips, although neither has been rash enough to place his title on the line.

The main event brings together the Texas Junior Heavyweight champion, Milt Olsen, and the Southwest Junior Heavyweight champion, Dick Trout, in a two out of three falls match. The one-hour time limit shouldn't interfere. Olsen made a fine showing here last week, while Trout always pleases.

Canadian Due Here

In the semi-final, Monte LaDue of Toronto, Can., makes his first appearance in a Lubbock ring by taking on the stocky, stubborn Bennie Trudell of Montreal, Can. The two Canucks, if they are typical, should have a delightful time at each other's expense.

The preliminary brings together rowdy dowdy Pat O'Dowdy, the Big Spring promoter-wrestler, and Olan Boynton, the up and coming Amarillo grappler.

Allen, in announcing the card, requested that all persons able to bring foodstuffs or used clothing do so. Both the food and the clothing will be turned over to the Salvation Army to be distributed to the needy of Lubbock and vicinity at Christmas. Allen said that any article would be appreciated, including toys.

Lubbock mat fans should be treated to a Christmas card that is one of the best in recent weeks. Olsen proved to be a clever, adept wrestler and he won the crowd last week with his ability. Trout has been demonstrating that he can take care of himself and that he also knows his way around in the ring.

Little is known about LaDue, but he comes highly recommended. And if he compares favorably to the other Canadians on the circuit, should be liked by the crowd.

Tickets will be on sale from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. at Wylie's Drug store and the first bout will begin at 8 p. m.

Connie Mack's Hopes High For Next Year

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22 (AP) — Connie Mack hinted today on the eve of his 86th birthday that 1949 might be the year for the elusive "one more pennant."

Smiling a bit mischieviously, the man who helped form the American league and guide it through 48 seasons admitted that he has high hopes his Philadelphia Athletics can land the loop championship next season for the first time since 1931.

The remarkable old gentleman, whose Cinderella club hovered near the league lead until the last month of the '48 campaign, said cautiously his team should be "a little better."

Mr. Mack doesn't plan any formal observation of his birthday tomorrow. As a matter of fact, he said, he celebrated his birthday last October.

On Monday, Mr. Mack will leave for St. Petersburg, Fla., for a two-month vacation before spring training for his Athletics begins at West Palm Beach.

Amarillo, Waco Grid Teams Have Been Title Contestants Nearly Half Of Time

(By The United Press)

Waco and Amarillo, contenders for the state class AA schoolboy football championship to be decided at Fort Worth Christmas day, have participated in nearly half of the Texas Interscholastic league's 29 title games.

Fourteen times since the league was organized in 1920 one or the other of this year's finalists have barged into the title round, but this will mark the first time they have ever met.

It will mark the ninth time for a Waco team to advance to the payoff round and the fifth time for an Amarillo eleven. Waco has won four times and tied for one other, while Amarillo has copped four crowns.

Waco lays claim to another state championship—in 1921—but the claim is not recognized by the TIL. All of the state's teams were not in the league setup that year because of schedule mixups and Bryan won the recognized crown by defeating Oak Cliff 35-13. Waco, however, had the best record in the state that year.

Officially, Waco was in the finals for six straight years after that—from 1922 through 1927—and won the crown four times, then didn't make it to the championship round again until 1939, and not again until 1945.

Lost Only Title Game

Amarillo first gained the finals in 1930 and lost its only title game that year—to Tyler 25-3 in one of the biggest upsets in finals history. Then came three straight years of championship ball in 1934-35-36 and another crown in 1940.

Waco and Amarillo also are the only schools to win the championship three years in a row, Waco having turned the trick under Paul Tyson in 1925-26-27 and the Sandies under Blair Cherry on the above dates.

Waco won the championship in 1922 by defeating Abilene 13-10, then lost it to the same club in 1923 3-0 and lost again in 1924 when Oak Cliff blanked the Tigers 31-0.

Lubbock Won In 1939

The 1925 Tiger victim was Dallas Forest 20-7, while in 1926 Waco ousted Oak Cliff 20-7 and Abilene 21-14 in 1927.

Lubbock defeated Waco 20-14 in the 1939 finals and in 1945 Waco and Highland Park battled to a 7-7 co-championship before the largest high school finals crowd in history—more than 43,000 paid in the Cotton bowl.

In its three-year victory string, Amarillo disposed of Corpus Christi 48-0 in 1934. Greenville 13-7 in 1935 and Kerrville 19-6 in 1936. Then the Sandies won their fourth title at the expense of Temple 20-7 in 1940.

Eastern Cagers Win Intersectional Tilts

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (AP)—The east, winning six of nine games, took top honors in last night's major intersectional college basketball games.

CCNY beat Oklahoma, 53-51; Duquesne defeated Arizona, 57-51; St. Johns of Brooklyn trounced Iowa State, 71-47; Villanova trimmed William and Mary 70-48; Seton Hall humbled Detroit, 55-43 and Marshall nipped Hardin-Simmons, 62-59. These offset Cornell's loss to Illinois, 71-47; Pott's 58-52 defeat at the hands of Miami (Fla) and Yale's 78-62 licking by Stanford.

In other standout games, Southern Methodist beat Missouri, 59-49; Duquesne dunked Arizona, 57-51, for its third straight at Pittsburgh while at St. Louis the St. Louis Billikens rang up No. 5 with a neasy 74 to 47 triumph over Rice.

Golf Club Members Elect 1949 Officers

Sam McMillian was elected president of the Meadowbrook Publinx golf club for 1949 at a meeting of the club members Tuesday night in the studio of radio station KSEL.

Other officers elected were Houston Trammell, vice president, and Sloan Fortenberry, secretary and treasurer.

1949 Grid Slate Set

Childress Will Open Sept. 16

A non-conference battle with the Childress Bobcats of District 2-AA here Friday night, Sept. 16, will open the Lubbock High Westerners 1949 football schedule, Athletic Director C. R. (Pat) Pattison revealed Tuesday night.

A full slate of six non-conference games, as well as four District 3-AA title clashes, has been completed by the Lubbock High officials, and eight of the game contracts have already been signed. Two tilts, with Amarillo and Childress, have been negotiated, but contracts to the schools concerned have not been returned as yet. The games have been assured as a result of verbal agreements, however.

Six of the tilts, including four non-title games and two district meetings, will be played in Lubbock at Jones stadium, while four clashes will be played on opponents' fields.

Steers Follow Childress

Following the opening tussle with Childress, the powerful North Side Steers of Fort Worth will invade Lubbock on Sept. 23. The next Friday, Sept. 30, the Westerners journey to Plainview to battle their former District 1-AA rivals, then the Hub city schoolboys play host to Vernon of 2-AA on Oct. 7.

Two encounters with strong 1-AA elevens, Pampa and Amarillo, will close out the non-conference slate. The Pampa Harvesters will invade Lubbock on Oct. 14, then the Westerners go to Amarillo Oct. 21 for their most important non-title setto. The Westerner-Sandie tilt has been one of the top clashes in West Texas for many years, and officials of both schools have tentatively agreed on the date and site in order to continue the long rivalry.

Meet Lamesa Oct. 28

The Westerners open the District 3-AA conference race here Oct. 28 against the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes, then the Hub city schoolboys will have an open date the following weekend.

On Nov. 11 Lubbock High's eleven will journey to Odessa for an all-important Armistice day tussle that may decide the district crown. Odessa is expected to field one of the top teams in the state in 1949, and the Westerners are ranked by most West Texas grid experts as the top challenger to meet the Bronchos in conference play. The tilt will probably be an afternoon setto.

The Westerners make another long journey on Nov. 18, when they travel to Midland to tangle with the dangerous Bulldogs, then the Lubbock team will close the regular season against the Brownfield Cubs here Thanksgiving day, Nov. 24.

Good Schedule Carded

Four of the Westerners' opponents in 1949—Amarillo, Pampa, North Side and Odessa — had strong teams this season, and will probably return to the top bracket next season. The other six elevens are recognized as top-ranking teams and should provide Lubbock fans with one of the best schedules in recent years.

The complete schedule:

Sept. 16—Childress at Lubbock.
Sept. 23—North Side (Ft. Worth) at Lubbock.
Sept. 30—Lubbock at Plainview.
Oct. 7—Vernon at Lubbock.
Oct. 14—Pampa at Lubbock.
Oct. 21—Lubbock at Amarillo.
*Oct. 28—Lamesa at Lubbock.
Nov. 4—Open date.
*Nov. 11—Lubbock at Odessa.
*Nov. 18—Lubbock at Midland.
*Nov. 24—Brownfield at Lubbock.
*Denotes conference game.

Johnson To Be Pitted Against Van Brocklin

Cotton Bowl Classic Seen By Oregon Coach As Aerial Test

DALLAS, Dec. 22 (AP)—An aerial show befitting the pass-happy Southwest will go on display in the Cotton bowl, says a fellow who isn't from the Southwest but knows plenty about it.

Jim Aiken, drawling coach of the Oregon Webfoots, avers that you can look for plenty of flying leather when his Norm Van Brocklin hooks up with gimlet Gil Johnson of Southern Methodist Jan 1.

Aiken took time out from working his team to observe that Johnson was quite a passer. He saw him Nov. 27 when Gil pitched and ran SMU to a 7-7 tie with Texas Christian in the last minute of play.

But Genial Jim won't say Johnson is a better passer than Van Brocklin. He admits, however, that Norm is a better distance passer than short one because he throws the ball too hard.

Figures indicate that it will be a great aerial battle indeed. In 10 games this season Johnson pitched 128 times and completed 78 for 1,026 yards. His average was .609. Van Brocklin in the same number of tests tried 139 and connected on 68 for 1,010 yards. His average was .489.

Thus, two pitchers who between them have picked up more than a mile of yardage will be tossing it out in the Jan. 1 gridiron classic here.

The opposing coaches continue their Alfonso-Gaston act, each telling the other how good his team is shaping up.

Coach Matty Bell of Southern Methodist declared "I don't see how we can stop a team like that. I don't know of anything they haven't got in the way of an offensive machine."

Aiken countered with "we're likely to be fooled by a tricky team like Southern Methodist. "They are really very dangerous. I'd rather meet a power team any day than one like that."

The squads are training across town from each other.

Boxing Show To Be Held Here Jan. 21

The first local boxing show of the year, featuring bouts between Amarillo and Lubbock, will be held Jan. 21 at Sled Allen's arena on Texas avenue.

The first inter-city bouts of the year will be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and will precede the annual Golden Gloves tournament. There will be approximately 12 to 15 bouts on the card.

Amarillo this year has a stronger team than it had last year, with several outstanding boxers. In fact, the Amarillo boxing squad is so strong that they have three teams of about equal strength. Which one the city will send here is not known, but any one of the three will be strong competition.

Lubbock boxers are getting ready for the fights under the supervision of O. C. Foster, Bill Henderson and Babe Ritchie at Foster's Gym on Main street just off College avenue. Foster has been in athletics for several years, while Henderson still is fighting professionally, after holding the state Golden Gloves featherweight title for two years. Ritchie is one of the former heavyweight contenders and saw almost a dozen years in the pro ring.

Foster said yesterday that if there were any amateur fighters in the area who wished to fight on the Lubbock team, which is not part of the Golden Gloves program, they are urged to come to the gym and work out. Foster is trying to get as strong a team as possible for the Lubbock squad and the experience they gain in these inter-city fights will stand them to good advantage when the Golden Gloves roll around.

Other dates on the schedule for the Lubbock fighters will be a match at Plainview on Jan. 21 and a return match with the Plainview fighters here on Feb. 24. Tentative dates are being set for other inter-city bouts.

Any boxer interested in joining the Lubbock squad should see Foster at the gym, or call 2-4755.

Best Fielding Mark Made By Cardinals

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, for the third straight year, compiled the best team fielding mark in the National league for the 1948 season.

Manager Eddie Dyer's Red Birds fielded .980 as a unit and made the fewest errors, 119 according to final official averages released today. The Pittsburgh Pirates finished second with a .977 mark and the pennant winning Boston Braves third at .976.

The last place Chicago Cubs accepted the most changes, 6,049, made the most assists, 1,810, and also led in double plays, 152. The Philadelphia Phillies made the most errors, 210, and had the worst fielding record, .964.

Sudan Takes Double Victory From Tahoka

SUDAN, Dec. 22 (Special) — Sudan High school basketball teams won a pair of victories from Tahoka here last night, the varsity beating the Bulldogs 43-13 and the B squad winning a 32-11 victory. Don Lance, with 15 points, sparked the Hornets, while Sam Carter, with eight, led the losers, in the varsity game.

Tulane Seeks Top Grid Fame Hard Way--By Beating Irish

90-Yard Tech Pass Play Tops In 1948

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (AP) —The National Collegiate Athletic Bureau totaled up its annual single-game and longest play statistics today, and a constant reader of these dispatcher should have no difficulty guessing who hogged the gridiron real estate honors.

Individually it was Stan Heath of Nevada and Fred Wendt of Texas Mines. Heath accounted for four season high marks and Wendt two. Consequently, Nevada claimed three team marks and Texas Mines four for 1948 single game performance.

Dominated On Offense

Both players and their schools dominated cumulative offensive figures for the season.

On the single-game basis, Heath (1) made the most rushing and passing yards, against San Jose State, 337; (2) the most passing yards, 327, against Oklahoma City university; the most pass completions, 22, against Tulsa; and (4) the most touchdown passes, 5, against Oklahoma City.

Heath was the only gridder to account for 300 or more yards in an afternoon on three different occasions. He also did it against St. Mary's with 306 yards.

New Mexico A. & M. was Wendt's patsy. His 327 rushing yards against them was a record, as well as the 42 points he scored —six touchdowns and six conversions, which helped earn him the year's scoring championship with 152 points.

Gil Johnson Tops

Gil Johnson's nine-for-nine passing feat for Southern Methodist against Pitt was the best in that respect. Gene Glick of Michigan State clicked on nine passes in one game, too, but one of them was intercepted.

Others in the year's "superlatives" included:

Individual single game:

Most extra points scored—Paul Bailey, Hardin-Simmons (vs. Tempe)—9.

Team single-game high marks of 1948—

Most yards, rushing and passing — Texas Mines (vs. New Mexico A. & M.) 717.

Most yards rushing — Texas Mines (Vs. New Mexico A. & M.) —645.

Most points scored — Texas Mines (vs. New Mexico A. & M.) —92.

The longest plays of the major-college season, as reported to the NCAB included:

Forward passing — Hawkins to Cal Stevenson, Texas Tech, vs. Texas A. & M. 90 yards.

Greenies Face A Rocky Road

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22. (AP)—Tulane's Green Wave has embarked upon a two-year plan to win top national football rating the hard way—by beating Notre Dame.

The plan was revealed last night in a routine announcement of the 1949 and 1950 schedules, which include a home-and-home series with the Fighting Irish. Navy, Virginia and six Southeastern conference opponents also are on each card.

Have Open Date

And on both schedules, for the Saturday preceding the Notre Dame contest, are two highly significant words—"open date."

That means Coach Henry Frnka will have two weeks each time to point for a victory over the Irish. And what's more, he should have one of the country's strongest teams to point with.

The next two years are expected to see the culmination of a rebuilding process which Frnka started when he took over Tulane's war-wrecked grid machine three years ago.

He whipped up a better team than most people expected for the past season, winning all games except for an early-season 13-7 loss to Georgia Tech.

They Await 1949

But 1949 was the year Tulanians hoped would bring a return to old-time glory. Then they said, would come a band of mighty men such as those which played unbeaten seasons under Clark Shaughnessy in 1925, Bernie Bierman in 1929 and 1931, and Red Dawson in 1939.

And 1949 is still the season for which Tulanians are waiting. For this year's team is coming back virtually intact.

Tulanians believe the sports writers slighted the Wave in ranking it only 13th in the Associated Press' final poll.

But nobody could slight a team that beats Notre Dame. And that 1949 Tulane team, with two weeks to point—well, it's a good plan, whether it works or not.

Freedom Train Near End Of Its Journey

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22 (AP)—The Freedom train is returning to Philadelphia Jan. 8 for a five-day showing and the end of its long journeying.

It was from Philadelphia that the train began its nation-wide tour over a year ago. Since then, it has visited 322 cities, with an estimated 3,800,000 persons viewing its precious cargo of America's most famous documents.

From Philadelphia the train will go to Washington for the inauguration of President Truman on Jan. 20.

Between The Lines...

By Joe Kelly

The other day the Texas Mines football team named an all-opponent eleven and Texas Tech players dominated. It isn't surprising. The Raiders handed the Miners their only defeat of the season, but it was by such a convincing score that the Raiders made an indelible impression on the Orediggers. But the significant thing to us is that in Border Conference selections, as well as all-opponent teams, not one backfield man has been named from Tech.

We were talking to Bill Kelley, the right end for Tech who made the All-Southwest and All-America honorable mention list, as well as the Miners' all-opponent team, about it. Bill had noticed the slight, if such it is, and thought it was strange. But he agreed that there was some logic for it. Primarily, backfield depth at Tech was greater than in the line. The Raider first string forward wall played longer, on the average, than did the backfield. The subs, good as they were, didn't have the chance to get their names in front of the opposing teams, or writers, as much as the regulars did.

The biggest power of the Tech backfield was in the versatility in the depth. Take fullback for instance. Bud Conley powered the line, J. W. Thompson slipped through it and turned in a fine job of broken field running and Earl Jackson hit the line hard, ran well in a broken field and showed the greatest speed. Any one of the three would have gone well on any other team in the confrence. Ernest Hawkins was the No. 1 quarterback, but with either Milton Rathbone or Bill Lyman calling signals, the team worked about as well. And there was a whole raft of halfbacks from which to pick.

We don't think that the Tech backfield was slighted. We think that it was a tremendous tribute to their depth that not one player was picked. The only Border loop back that we'd like to have over any single Tech back is Hook Davis of Hardin-Simmons and we'd like to have him in addition, not as a replacement. Rudy Krall turned in a great game here, but observers said that it was his lone game of the year. Fred Wendt didn't live up to expectations by a long shot and other names seem to escape us. We couldn't say that we were impressed by any other back, with the exception of Davis and Krall, on his performance here.

Bill Henderson makes his next appearance in the ring at El Paso on Jan. 14, fighting a boy named Rivera. Since there are two or three in the ring by that name, even Bill doesn't know what his handle is. He's said to be a salty 137-pounder, which is about the right weight for Bill to cut down to size. We were talking to Bill yesterday about his first El Paso experience and he liked it. And from information coming our way, El Paso liked Bill. Chuck Whitlock wrote that he was more cautious and cagier than he had been while fighting Golden Gloves, but still loved to mix it.

A nice letter in the mail yesterday from Bobby Poteet of Farwell in regard to Sunday's column. We were completely off the beaten track in referring to him as "Herman Poty" and can't imagine how our sensitive ears missed the name so far. We apologize for missing the mark, but the tribute to his sportsmanship stands. He was ineligible this year, incidentally, only because he had only recently moved to Farwell. Next year he'll be eligible and opponents had best keep their eyes on him. They say he's really that good.

There's an article on Notre Dame in the current Sport magazine by Grantland Rice that will be of interest in these parts, especially since SMU virtually has signed to play the Irish. Granny declares that Notre Dame gradually is being frozen out of the college grid world for two reasons: 1, they're "too good" and would spoil otherwise fine records; and 2, the religion angle, which attracts their large following. All of which is explained in great detail in the story, with Rice ending up, "If there isn't a place for Notre Dame in football, why should there be a place for football at all?"

The argument that Notre Dame is too strong merely is sidestepping the question, since USC and Purdue proved that the Irish aren't wizards. We think, to be candid, that the religion argument is 99 99-100ths of the answer in most cases. It isn't the large following; it's merely that religion provides the greatest recruiting system in the nation. There is no one Protestant institution that, as a drawing power for Protestant boys, compares with Notre Dame as a drawing power for Catholic boys. Which is not to say that Catholic boys won't go elsewhere for sports, but the cream of the crop is gathered in. And in this day of specialization, that's no mean answer.

Girl Cagers In Clash Tonight

NEW DEAL, Dec. 22. (Special) At last reports Toby Waggoner, superintendent of schools here, had not purchased a ticket for faraway points yet.

But he may wish he had before the night is over, for a slight matter of a girls basketball game is causing him all sorts of anguish. He admits to being like a man on the verge of being scalped—and he might be, if the New Deal girls don't win.

Much At Stake

The New Deal girls team plays host to Cotton Center's girls team in a game that has drawn the spotlight away from the boys game between the two schools.

Last year Cotton Center won district 18, one of the largest in the state, and then went on to the state championship tournament. They had an outstanding record and were considered just about the finest girls team ever developed in West Texas.

So what does that mean to Waggoner? Not much. He merely was the coach of that team last year and, when he moved here, many persons expected him to work the same miracles. Perhaps he has, although he has not turned the coaching reins entirely over to others.

This year's New Deal team has lost only one game and has won 14 so far this early in the season. And their only loss was by one point. By the same token, Cotton Center has dropped only one contest and appears almost as strong as last year.

Wolcott Is Rated As Logical Contender

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 (AP) —The National Boxing association said today it thinks Joe Walcott is the logical contender for Joe Louis' title — and then threw an indirect punch at British boxing.

All this came out in the final ratings for 1948.

The NBA didn't name any logical contender for Louis' crown. But it listed Walcott as the most likely looking of the lot.

Next came Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati light heavyweight who knocked out Joe Baski, the pride of Kulpmont, Pa., a couple of weeks ago.

Britisher Is Tenth

Now we come to the international angle. For at the top of the "honorable mention" group is Lee Savold of Paterson, N. J.

On December 6 Savold lost on a foul to Bruce Woodcock, who swooned to the canvas following a low blow.

Well, the NBA showed what it thought of that performance by putting the Britisher tenth in a field which admittedly is far from brilliant.

Following Savold, ahead of Woodcock, are such boxers as Billy Conn, Joe Maxim, Jimmy Bivins, Johnny Flynn, Joe Baski and Rusty Payne.

Comedian Gives Dogs To Fight Delinquency

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22 (AP)—Alan Young, film and radio comedian, believes the best way to prevent children from going to the dogs is to give them one.

For the fourth year, Young will appear at the animal shelter tomorrow to give away dogs to youngsters. He will pay the pound and license fees.

He has given away 300 dogs in previous years and says it is a good way to combat juvenile delinquency.

CHECK BOUNCES BACK

Autopsy To Be Made In Death

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (U.P) — An autopsy was ordered today to determine what caused the death of Beatrice Smith, a pretty 22-year-old blonde writer, whose body was found on a couch in the Fifth Avenue apartment of a prominent woman psychiatrist.

An empty bottle of sedative and a fully loaded .25 caliber automatic pistol were found under a pillow on the couch. The girl's body was clad only in a robe.

On a desk nearby police found a not eon blue paper which said: "I can't finish the book. I can't see."

Doctor Surprised

The girl had been living in the luxurious 10-room office apartment of Dr. Helen Flanders Dunbar since October, police said.

Dr. Dunbar, who left New York for Havana, Cuba, at 4 p. m. yesetrday, was reached by police by ship-to-shore telephone aboard the liner Nieuw Amsterdam. She expressed surprise at Miss Smith's death and could offer no motive for suicide.

The woman psychiatrist said Miss Smith had been doing some proof reading on her latest book. She said she knew nothing of the gun or the sedative found in her apartment.

Yule Program Given At Rotary Luncheon

A Christmas program that included carols by the choir of St. Paul's Episcopal church and a Christmas address by Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of Texas Tech college, was presented at the luncheon of the Rotary club today at the Hilton hotel.

The choir, under direction of Elton Plowman, with Mrs. Plowman at the piano, sang five numbers, then following Dr. Jones address, closed with "Silent Night" as a benediction.

Speaking on "The Heart of Christmas Is the Heart," Dr. Jones believes that giving is the major source of pleasure at Christmas, and that sincerity in the giving marks the degree of pleasure.

W. W. Rix was program chairman. Visiting Rotarians included Howard F. Parke of Napoleon, Ohio, Mike and Lloyd Wicks of Ralls, M. S. Doss of Seminole, Mancil Hall, Vic Streetman, Bill Chesher and V. Peterson, all of Littlefield; Arthur Kreiss of Floydada, Scudder Hull of Sedalia, Mo., and Dr. Ira Woods of Littlefield, district Rotary governor.

Club President Irving L. Jones was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. H. I. Robinson.

Indonesia Aid

was no immediate clarification on this score.

So far, ECA has approved Marshall plan grants to the Netherlands totaling $298,564,675 and $61,790,958 to the East Indies.

The action suspending aid to Indonesia was the second such move in as many days. ECA Chief Paul G. Hoffman yesterday announced the dropping, for the time being, of $70,000,000 in reconstruction aid for China.

DUTCH ARE ACCUSED OF VIOLATING AGREEMENT

BATAVIA, Java, Dec. 22 (AP) — The United Nations good offices committee accused the Dutch today of violating the Renville truce agreement in their new warfare against the Indonesian republic.

The Dutch, continuing their almost unopposed march through Indonesian territory, have taken all but two major cities in Java, Dutch communiques said, and in Sumatra the picture was reported much the same. The Indonesians have called for scorched earth tactics.

Accused In Cable

The good offices committee, which had tried to mediate the Netherlands-republic dispute, accused the Dutch in a cable to the security council at Paris.

The U. N. report to the council said the Dutch evidently planned their current campaign against the republic while still corresponding with Republicans through the United Nations. Since the "police action" began, the Dutch have seized all the top Indonesian political leaders and their army commander.

Features Of Ultimatum

The committee's report to the council, signed by Merle Cochrane of the United States and T W. Cutts of Australia, said the tone of a Netherlands letter of Dec. 17 — a day before the "police action" began — to the U. S representative required a reply within a time limit which was "impossible of fulfillment."

This, the committee said, gave the letter "some features of an ultimatum."

(The Dutch announced Dec. 11 they were breaking off discussions with the Indonesian republic and would form an interim federal government for the islands without it. On Dec. 16, the Dutch rejected a proposal by Republican Premier Mohamed Hatta for further talks).

Daily Markets

Stock Market

MARKET IS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (U.P) — The stock market was irregular today with year-end evening-up transactions comprising the bulk of the day's activities.

A few individual stocks were features. Common stock of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis (Nickel Plate) railroad rose more than a point and several other issues moved a point or more either way, including Atlantic, Gulf & West Indies, Superior Oil of California and Union Pacific.

Nickel Plate common responded to disclosure that directors had voted a $7.50 payment on arrears on the preferred stock but there was no reaction by the senior issue until shortly before the close when it made its first appearance on the tape at 134¾, up 4¾.

Another piece of dividend news in which Wall Street was interested was the New York telephone board's vote to pay the regular $2 quarterly dividend in the hope of early favorable action on its petition for a rate rise.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (AP) — Cotton futures turned irregular following early steadiness today. Light mill buying advanced prices as much as 40 cents a bale, but part of the gain was lost on hedging and liquidation. Quiet conditions in the cotton textile market and a lull in export buying retarded trading.

20 Are Found Guilty In Chile Conspiracy

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 22. (AP) A Chilean military court yesterday convicted 20 men of conspiring to overthrow the government last month. Former President Carlos Ibanez and three other men were acquitted.

The 20 convicted included four armed service officers, 15 noncommissioned officers and one civilian. They received sentences ranging from 514 days in exile in Chile to four years exile abroad. All were deprived of political rights for life.

Ibanez, a retired general, had been charged with heading an alleged plot to oust the government of President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla and set up a military regime.

The prosecutor at the trial charged the plot was inspired in Argentina. The Chilean government demanded that Argentina recall an Argentine diplomat in Chile who was alleged to have been involved.

Police Seeking Houston Killer

HOUSTON, Dec. 22 (U.P) — A thief who held up a bus driver and then shot his victim to death was the object of a county-wide police hunt today.

L. D. Gibbons, 26-year-old driver for the Houston Transit company, was found slumped over the steering wheel early today in a remote section of Houston.

Answers Radio Call

Patrolmen answered a radio call to the bus and found Gibbons still alive. Gasping, he was unable to say who shot him, and died before ambulances arrived.

Cash and tokens valued at $30 were missing from the bus till. Detectives have found no witnesses to the shooting, but they believed Gibbons died when he resisted a holdup.

Jap Hangings

the men who once ruled a vast empire began their final march.

It was evident they were handled with dispatch and probably military crispness.

This is the kind of treatment the warlords understood, although most of them long ago lost their military bearing.

In the closing days of the trial only Tojo and Muto among the seven condemned held to their military rigidity of manner.

Matsui, the Nanking commander, shook from palsy. General Kimura, who has been described as "closest to Tojo" in the last days in prison, walked with a stoop.

Itagaki, once the sardonic string puller of Manchuria, hunched. Doihara, the master plotter, seemed to shrivel.

Soldiers Guarded Gates

Hirota, the former premier and the only civilian among the condemned, had become a gnarled old man. At 70, he was the oldest to die.

These characteristics probably dominated the final bearing of the men marching to the gallows.

Newspapermen kept a chilly vigil outside the gates of Sugamo, which is a few miles from downtown Tokyo.

Alert young American soldiers guarded the gates.

Tokyo slept and the majority of the people will not know about the executions until later this morning.

The people were in the dark too when the warlords launched the attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, the act which lost an empire and led to the dock and the gallows.

When that attack went off, only a few high ranking Japanese, hunched in their office at night, knew what was happening. The people did not learn of it until the next morning.

Activity Described

For more than an hour after the hangings none had emerged from the gates.

The heavy, white-painted wooden gates were closed and a spotlight played upon them.

A Kyodo news agency man who had maintained an all-night vigil said two Army sedans with military police jeeps fore and aft entered the prison shortly after 11 o'clock last night.

Then, promptly at 2 a. m., an unusual convoy sped from Sugamo prison, reported Duane Hennessy, Associated Press staffer.

Lights suddenly flashed on the main gate and a jeep rolled into the broad highway nearby.

An officer jumped out and halted scattered traffic.

Another jeep then led out from the prison two heavy Army trucks on which the rear curtains were lowered.

There was no way of telling if the trucks might have contained the bodies, whether they were on some other business, or whether they were a decoy for the watching newspapermen.

President

took with him a briefcase full of work for himself.

The paper work includes a three-page memorandum on the current economic situation, left with him yesterday by Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's council of economic advisers.

To Work On Message

The briefcase also contains material for his state of the union message to the new Congress. He will work on some phases of that message during his stay in Missouri and complete the draft after his return to Washington, probably next Wednesday.

Mrs. Truman and their daughter Margaret are awaiting the chief executive at the home on Delaware street where he has spent every Christmas except one since he became president in 1945.

He flew home that year through snow and sleet to be with his mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman, on his first Christmas as the nation's leader. Last Christmas, after the President's mother had died at the age of 94, he did not go home.

Mr. Truman will participate in the traditional Christmas Eve White House ceremonies despite his absence from Washington. He will speak by radio from Independence and give the signal for the lighting of the big living Christmas tree on the executive mansion's south lawn.

Disciplinary Commander Gets Greeting Second Christmas From Escaped Prisoner

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 22. (U.P)—The commander of the U. S. Army disciplinary barracks here read a Christmas greeting from an escaped prisoner today.

It was the second time that Vincent Gambino, 28, sent a note of yuletide sentiment to Col. J. J. France.

"Merry Christmas, colonel," Gambino wrote. "I would like to give myself up and serve my time so I can be with my family, but I am leery about getting an extra sentence for escaping."

This year, the card came from Los Angeles. Last Christmas Gambino wrote from Miami: "I'm sorry I had to leave, sir. But I just could not have stood another winte there."

Gambino escaped while working outside the barracks one day last year.

He explained that his son, John Wayne Medley, has served as Long's personal chauffeur while attending Louisiana State university for the last three years. The governor made the appointment of the elder Medlin at the youth's request.

"I've only been through Louisiana on a train, and I've never seen Gov. Long—although I just missed him when he came through Lubbock recently," "Colonel" Medley said.

Man Robbed

described as about 22 years old, six feet tall, of slender build, with hazel eyes and reddish brown hair.

Texan Who Looked Like Lincoln Dead

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 22. (U.P)—The man who looked like Lincoln no longer will walk down the streets of San Antonio in his black suit and tall stovepipe hat.

H. L. Summerville, who looked so much like the Civil war president that San Antonians called him "Abe," died yesterday following a long illness. He was 63.

Summerville, a commercial photographer in San Antonio for 31 years, usually wore the stovepipe hat on Lincoln's birthday. He made his likeness appear more amazing by putting an artificial mole on his cheek.

He was one of the most colorful figures in the southwest.

The tall, gangling photographer once ran for mayor of San Antonio just for the fun of it. He didn't win.

Family Wants Father Home For Christmas

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 22. (U.P)—Somewhere in Texas today there is a Cleveland man, Luther R. Turvey, 44, who is urgently wanted home for Christmas by his estranged wife and their five children.

Mrs. Turvey appealed to the press for help in finding her former husband, a steamfitter. She said they were married for 22 years and were divorced a year ago.

He took a bus for Texas a few days ago, she said, adding that she still loves him and would like to marry him again.

Superintendent For Stanolind Is Named

FORT WORTH, Dec. 22.—E. R. Wagner has been named plant superintendent of Stanolind Oil and Gas company's new Slaughter natural gasoline plant near Levelland. Announcement of the appointment was made today by John R. Evans, manager of Stanolind's North Texas-New Mexico division.

The plant is one of four to be completed by Stanolind early next year. The other three are —Elk Basin, Powell, Wyoming; Stano, Ulysses, Kansas, and Burnell-North Pettus, Pettus, Texas.

Slaughter plant is expected to be completed next March. It is located in the Slaughter field, 13 miles southwest of Levelland. The plant will process 90 million cubic feet of gas from the field per day, and will produce 80,000 gallons of gasoline and 100,000 gallons of butane and propane each day.

Wagner goes to the Slaughter plant from Stanolind's Salt Creek gasoline plant at Midwest, Wyoming, where he has been plant superintendent since July, 1943. Wagner studied at South Dakota School of Mines and the University of Wyoming, joining Stanolind in 1933. He served in various operating capacities until being made plant superintendent at Salt Creek.

Economic Policy

consumers have to pay but also the government's financial status. He said the wage-price problem can't be faced without also taking into consideration the question of boosting tax revenue.

"The government is looking for more pie to cut," Flanders said, "and it must have more pie. But we are reaching the saturation point on the amount of pie there is to be cut."

He said he will ask the Senate to sponsor a national conference of business, labor and farm representatives to seek agreement on long range policies.

Exemption Favored

Flanders did not comment on reported administration plans to demand revival of the excess profits tax on corporations to increase federal revenues and discourage price boosts.

But Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), who is not a member of the profits probe group, told a reporter he "might support an excess profits tax if it includes a special job-making exemption for small business." He said his idea is for a profit exemption up to $25,000 a year if this money is plowed back into capital investments that create more jobs.

The committee heard a warning yesterday from a Chamber of Commerce representative, Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt, that taxes already are too high and that a boost might mean an "inflationary revolt."

Schmidt, director of the chamber's department of economic research, later told a reporter he did not employ the term "in the sense of a revolution," but rather to describe the inflationary pressures which can be built up when taxes are high and wages and credit keep expanding.

Abernathy Resident Dies At Littlefield

M., and Bill of Alvin, Calif.; five daughters, Mrs. Monroe Lewis of Bakersfield, Calif., Mrs. Bula Freeden, Mrs. B. A. Tanner and Mrs. O. M. Skinner, jr., all of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Helen Pucket of Alice; and 25 grandchildren.

Labor Law

law actually is a Wagner act revision designed, according to its backers, to put labor and management on an equal basis.

1947 Message Quoted

In his 1947 message to the Republican-controlled 80th Congress Mr. Truman said:

"We should enact legislation to correct certain abuses and to provide additional governmental assistance in bargaining. But we should also concern ourselves with the basic causes of labor-management difficulties."

To that end, the President urged:

Outlawing of certain kinds of jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

Extension of Labor department facilities to help collective bargaining.

Other Measures Sought

Broadening of the social security program, better housing, a comprehensive national health program and a "fair" minimum wage to replace the present 40-cent-an-hour standard.

Creation of a commission to study the whole field of labor-management relations.

Some of those things Mr. Truman got, in one form or another, in the Taft-Hartley law. But he also got a lot more he did not want. So he vetoed the bill, which Congress promptly passed over his dissent.

Two days ago the Republican-controlled Senate-House committee set up to study the Taft-Hartley measure announced plans to recommend six "fairly important" changes in the law.

Fail To Understand

Last night McGrath said the Republicans "fail to understand what happened in this country November 2." He added:

"They fail to realize that the nation gave the Democratic party a mandate for the change in the Taft-Hartley law and the substitution of legislation that would preserve industrial peace by being fair to both labor and management."

McGrath said the Republicans were trying to "defend their handiwork at a time with judgment already has been passed and the execution of that judgment is about to be carried out."

have toys for children to play with while visiting him.

"This is not for the underprivileged children. It is for every child living in Lubbock," the City Recreation department announced. Need has nothing to do with whether children go to see Santa Claus at the annual trees.

"Santa extends a special invitation for all the children to be sure and come to his tree as it will be the last opportunity that they will have to visit with him while he is in Lubbock," it was stated.

Prisoner Taken To U. S. Reformatory

C. E. Luce, U. S. deputy marshal, this morning transported Walter C. Alexander, 36, of Morton to La Tuna federal reformatory from Lubbock county jail, officials said.

He had been held there under federal commitment as a parole violator, it was said.

Officials said they had arrested Ivison Brown, 24, a Lubbock negro, who had not satisfied an old assessment of $67 on a liquor law violation conviction.

Police said bond of $100 was set for each of two negroes who pleaded innocent of vagrancy. They allegedly had been frequenting places of low repute and were not working, officials said.

Tulia Woman Dies In Hospital Here

Mrs. C. C. Northcutt, 52, of Tulia died at 10:35 o'clock this morning in Lubbock Memorial hospital, where she had been a patient for a few days.

She is a sister-in-law of Mrs. A. L. Hawkins of 2012 Twenty-sixth street. Other survivors include her husband and a daughter who lives in Dallas.

Cause of death was a heart ailment complicated by pneumonia, relatives said. The body was taken by Tulia Funeral home to Tulia, where services will be conducted sometime Friday afternoon.

Senate Fights

Senate have been talking about a shift which would make Vandenberg—the retiring president protem—chairman of the GOP conference, Senator Millikin of Colorado the floor leader instead of conference chairman and Wherry the assistant leader.

The party members who describe themselves as liberals already are letting Millikin know that they want a bigger voice in shaping GOP policy in the new Congress.

A McKellar-Tydings fight, if one develops, also might involve more than two scrapping personalities. Some administration supporters are keeping their fingers crossed lest it open old civil rights wounds

Both Supported HST

While both McKellar and Tydings supported President Truman in the campaign, most southerners could be expected to string along with McKellar in a showdown battle with a border state contender.

McKellar, who will be 80 in June, has announced publicly he would be happy to resume the protem office as well as the chairmanship of the appropriations committee.

Tydings, 21 years younger, told a reporter yesterday:

"If the senators desire to elect me to this post, I would accept it as a very great honor."

but an inquest held that she, like the other three victims, was shot to death.

The Alabama highway patrol at Mobile, 30 miles south of here, said a two-state posse, aided by bloodhounds, was searching for Hinton in a thickly wooded area south of Lucedale.

Referring to the domestic trouble at the Hinton home, Havard said: "There has been continuous trouble out there, and we've had to go out there several times in the past."

Littlefield Man Dies In Traffic Accident

LAMESA, Dec. 22. (Special)—J. A. "Red" Cottrell, Littlefield auto salesman, was killed and a companion injured Tuesday night when the 1948 Cadillac in which they were riding overturned while rounding a curve on the Lubbock-Lamesa highway.

Davis Crews, the injured man, this morning was said to be in satisfactory condition in Lamesa General hospital. He suffered cuts, bruises and a possible fractured jaw in the accident.

Investigating officers said the car, driven by Cottrell, overturned when it went out of control on a curve between Lamesa and O'Donnell. The vehicle was badly damaged.

Cottrell, who suffered a broken neck, was dead upon arrival at the hospital, attendants said.

The body was to be returned today to Littlefield, where Hammond Funeral home will be in charge of burial. Funeral arrangements had not been announced this morning.

Survivors include the widow; a month-old son, Doyle Glenn; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cottrell of Sundown; and several brothers and sisters.

It will cost those people from $2 to $10 or more each for the parade seats.

Other budgeted outlays included: $9,350 for decorations, flag poles and flags; $6,976.50 for postage; $4,088.50 for telephone and telegraph; $2,750 for plans and specifications; $1,508.50 for insignia and badges; and $4,491 for medals.

The medals, which have a $2 price tag—plus 15 cents for mailing—are a special product of the Philadelphia mint.

Mystery Deepens In Death Of Ex-State Department Advisor

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (AP)—Mystery surrounding the death of Laurence Duggan deepened today as police sought to determine whether he committed suicide, was the victim of an accident or the object of foul play.

The suggestion that "foul play" had figured in the former State department expert's fatal 16-story plunge from his Manhattan office was raised yesterday by Rep. Karl Mundt (R-SD), acting chairman of the house un-American Activities committee.

Thorough Probe Asked

This was reportedly followed by a message from Sumner Welles, former under-secretary of state, asking New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer to order a thorough police probe of the death. O'Dwyer was understood to have agreed.

Welles said he was convinced Duggan had not committed suicide. He said a recent letter from Duggan backed up this belief, but he did not give details.

Mundt had said there was "more than a slight possibility of foul play" that might "lead directly to the Communist espionage conspirators." Later, he said, he had no evidence of his own to support his suspicions.

Witness Denies Accusation

Yesterday afternoon ex-Communist courier Whittaker Chambers, who purportedly once accused Duggan of giving him confidential government papers, denied he ever made such an accusation.

The FBI disclosed that 10 days ago it questioned Duggan, but added, without elaborating, that the questioning was merely "routine."

Welles and two other former high ranking State department officials yesterday strongly defended Duggan's record of 14 years service in the State department.

So far, police records have listed the 43-year-old Duggan as having either jumped or fallen to his death Monday night from the office of the Institute of International Education, of which he was president. Police said there were no indications of a struggle.

Subpoena Not Issued

Associates of Duggan theorized he might have fallen through an open window while trying to put on his galoshes. When Duggan's body was found Monday night he had on one galosh. The other was in his office, along with his hat and coat.

Department of Justice officials handling a federal grand jury investigation of espionage said yesterday no subpoena had been issued for Duggan to testify before it. The House committee in Washington also said it had not called Duggan.

A grand jury was expected to hear testimony today from Francis B. Sayre, former assistant secretary of state.

Sayre, along with his secretary, Miss Anna Belle Newcomb, was to have gone before the jury yesterday and to have appeared before the House committee today. After the jury postponed its session with him until today, the committee called off its meeting.

Documents allegedly were filched from Sayre's office in 1937 and 1938.

A top assistant of Sayre was Alger Hiss, indicted by a previous grand jury on charges of perjury for denying he furnished secret documents to Chambers.

Organist At Church Realizes Ambition

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 22. (AP)—A graying church organist nearing 50 knelt at an altar in Trinity cathedral yesterday and was ordained a priest of the Episcopal church.

The ordination climaxed the 23 years Alfred Hamer had served at Trinity as organist and choirmaster.

Bishop Austin Pardue of the Pittsburgh diocese said that Mr. Hamer did a "magnificent job," but the organist wanted something more.

"Five years ago he told me of his ambition to become a priest," Bishop Pardue said. "I thought it was a fine idea and agreed to see him through."

The newly-ordained priest studied privately in Pittsburgh under the Episcopal diocesan examining chaplain commission. He became a deacon a year ago.

Now he will have a new position as "choir precentor." He will coordinate musical activities in churches throughout the diocese and is qualified to assist in services at the cathedral.

One of the proudest spectators at yesterday's ceremony was the Rev. Hamer's son, a senior at Pennsylvania state college.

Mr. Hamer is a native of Boston and was graduated from the Boston conservatory of music.

THE QUESTION

What do you think is the solution to the problem of downtown parking space in Lubbock?

THE ANSWERS

TROY WOMACK, 3203 Twenty-seventh, co-owner of Bray's Cleaners: "I know what cities have that Lubbock doesn't have. That's more downtown parking lots. The down town property is so high, though, for people to buy it to build parking lots on."

MRS. ROSS AYERS, 1813 Ave. O, housewife: "Doing downtown shopping by bus certainly helps to keep from getting parking tickets. However, sooner or later, I'm sure Lubbock will need some large parking garages like the ones in Fort Worth and Dallas."

H. J. MCCABE, 2705 Twenty-ninth, dean of boys at Lubbock Senior high school: "This may not be a permanent solution but it is a temporary one—for people who work down here all the time to find some form of parking space away from the streets. The business firms might make that part of their business to see that their employes find such a place."

DAN TARPLEY, 2320 Main, operator of the commercial Printing Co.: "Lubbock it getting to be a pretty good sized town and the town likely will have to start to provide parking space like the bigger cities do. Through private enterprise or other means the town may have to build three and four story parking buildings. There might be a better system of utilizing some of the areas we now have in alleys and vacant lots for parking."

MISS KATIE BELL CRUMP, 708 Ave. R, teacher in K. Carter school: "I think that they are going to have to have underground parking or overground parking of several stories with some kind of lift. There is a great need for a centrally located parking space that doesn't take away from business space. Lots are too valuable just to utilize ground space. They need to utilize space underground and above."

MAX RUTLEDGE, 2712 Ave. U, agent for Southwestern Life Insurance Co.: "Lubbock is now growing to be a city and I lution to dow think the solution to down town parking would be a parking station like those in Dallas and other cities. I think some concern would profit by putting that in the city, considering the way Lubbock is growing and the future that we have."

National Publicity Given Area Stores

Twenty-fifth anniversary of Davis & Humphries, Inc., operators of Piggly Wiggly stores in Lubbock and on the South Plains received national publicity this month in the Weekly Turnstile, publication of the Piggly Wiggly Corporation.

The entire issue of the publication was devoted to an article and pictures of personnel of the Davis & Humphries stores and exterior and interior views of the company's stores over the area.

A picture of the interior of the company's first store in Lubbock and an exterior of their newest store and pictures of J. M. Davis, W. E. Humphries, president, and C. T. Williams, vice president, are on the cover of the publication.

In addition to a general warehouse and seven stores in Lubbock, the company operates stores in Big Spring, Floydada, Littlefield, Brownfield, Levelland, Muleshoe, Post, Seminole and Slaton.

Tidelands Move Angers Texas

Jester, Daniel Pledge Battle

(By The Associated Press)

Texas fumed with indignation today over the latest government move to take away its tidelands.

State Attorney General Price Daniel sounded the pitch: "Texas will fight this cause with the same spirit that caused our predecessors to win these lands by blood and valor at San Jacinto."

This is what the fuss is about:

Yesterday, U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark asked the Supreme Court of the United States to rule that the federal government has jurisdiction over the tidelands off the coasts of Texas and Louisiana.

Leases Are Sold

The tidelands are the underwater lands off the Gulf coast. Seven producing oil fields have been found in the deep-water tidelands off Louisiana in the past year. Explorations are going on in the Texas tidelands, though oil has not yet been found.

But Texas has sold leases in its tidelands to oil companies on 379,594 deep-water acres for $7,201,666.

This money has gone into the state government.

So the tidelands are a multimillion dollar question. Clark's move yesterday was the latest link in the government's continuing action to gain title to these lands, now claimed by the states. The fight has been long and bitter. It has involved Congress, the courts, the executive branch of the federal government, the states' legal departments and the oil companies.

Special Case Claimed

In June, 1947, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the federal government has a "paramount" interest in the tidelands off the coast of California. Now Clark, a Texan, is trying to have the same principle extended to Louisiana and Texas.

But Texans claim that Texas is a special case.

They say that Texas retained title to its tidelands when Texas, a republic, joined the union.

Senator Tom Connally of Texas says his state has absolute title to its tidelands and cannot be deprived of them.

And over in Louisiana, Attorney General Bolivar Kemp announced that Louisiana's jurisdiction over the Gulf lands will be "defended vigorously all the way." He added: "we will fight at every step."

Just a few days ago, Louisiana's state mineral board estimated that the state has received more than $34,000,000 in bonuses and rentals of offshore oil properties.

Arguments Cited

Clark says Louisiana became a state in the same manner as California. So the Supreme Court de-

Plains Cotton Crop Is Above Normal; Irrigation Effective

OFFERS AN EYE TO PAY BILLS—Mrs. Ellen Peters, 21-year-old Cincinnati, O., mother, wants to sell one of her eyes for $10,000. Medical bills have put the family in debt, and a third child is expected in March. Her husband earns almost $200 a month, but that's not enough to pay their medical expenses. That's daughter Rita Ann, 2, with Mrs. Peters.

South Plains cotton production this year is better than what has been accepted in the past as a normal crop, but effects of the drouth that has become progressively worse for the last three years are emphasized in the official ginnings report released by the Bureau of the Census of the Commerce department showing 561,026 bales ginned in 15 counties prior to Dec. 1.

Reflecting the growing drouth, ginnings this year compare with 675,849 bales in the 15 counties to the same date last year, and with 961,742 bales in the same area which represented the complete 1947 crop.

Irrigation Effects Noted

The effects of irrigation on cotton production in the area also are sharply reflected, and two counties where irrigation is relatively heavy also show heavier cotton production than in the past, with the exception of 1947. The two af Floyd and Hale counties, where ginnings on Dec. 1 was close to the total production in 1947.

Irrigation benefits were noticeable also in Lubbock and Lamb counties where watering has gained sharply, but both counties are still far under the total 1947 production, despite the fact that both, particularly Lubbock county, is well ahead of late season estimates for the 1948 crop.

Drouth had telling effects in Crosby, Hockley, Lynn and Terry counties, where irrigation is used moderately. Other counties in the area are similar, on a percentage basis, but cotton production has not been as heavy as in those listed.

Most of Crop Harvested

There was no estimate on unharvested cotton in the 15 counties as of the Dec. 1 ginnings-report date, but it was probable that not more than 10 per cent of the total crop remained in the field at that time, leaving the total 1948 crop well under 600,000 bales.

Still far above what has been accepted as a normal crop approximating a half-million bales in the area, the 1948 crop, however, is about half the anticipated production set by agricultural

Unusual Operation On Slaton Child Appears To Be Success

SLATON, Dec. 22—It promises to be a very merry Christmas for 14-months-old Linda Kay Jones of Slaton, and for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jones too.

For Linday Kay, who started life with the odds heavily against her, is now well on her way to complete recovery after a series of operations. Her parents have spent more than $10,000, and when Linda Kay and her mother returned from Dallas at 6 o'clock this morning, they brought back good news from Dallas specialists.

Fed Through Tube

When Linda Kay was born in St. Mary's hospital in Lubbock nearly 14 months ago, X-ray pictures showed that her esophagus was divided, the top part running down and ending in a blind pouch, and the lower part running up from the stomach and joining the trachea or windpipe, instead of the top part of the esophagus.

She was unable to take food. She was immediately placed in an incubator and given oxygen treatment.

When she was three days old Lubbock doctors performed an operation, running a tube through an incision in her chest to the stomach. It was a temporary arrangement, but for seven weeks it was the only way she received food.

Operation Was Performed

Her parents decided to take her to a Dallas specialist. Leaving by automobile at 10:10 p. m., they

Trustees Hold Meeting Here

The board of trustees of Lubbock Independent School district met last night at Chatman hospital at 2303 East Ave. C for their annual dinner as guests of Dr. J. A. Chatman, prominent local negro physician.

While members of the board were present at one spot, they took the opportunity to hold a short business session.

Among other business, the board accepted with regret the resignation of Miss Stella Thurman, veteran Lubbock educator, and passed a resolution commending the splendid service rendered the schools during her employment here. Her resignation became effective as of Dec. 17.

Successor Named

R. D. Ford, present principal of the elementary school in Hereford, was named by the board to succeed Miss Thurman as principal of K. Carter school here.

Resignations of Mrs. Laverne Colgan of East Broadway school and Q. W. Marshall of Dupre school were also accepted at the meeting. Appointments included those of Mrs. C. M. Reese to Guadalupe school and Mrs. Lottie Mae Ford to East Broadway school.

The board accepted from contractors two new junior high

Miss Thurman Retires From Local Schools

Miss Stella Thurman, principal of K. Carter elementary school for 24 years and a member of the faculty of the Lubbock Public schools for 30½ years, was retired, at her request, by the board of trustees of the Lubbock Independent school district at the board's regular meeting last night. The board accepted the resignation "with regret" and passed a resolution, presented by Supt. R. W. Matthews, commending the splendid service rendered the schools of Lubbock by Miss Thurman.

Born in Carbon, Texas, on July 22, 1889, Miss Thurman graduated from high school in Sipe Springs, Texas, the town where her grandfather was the first white settler years previously. She graduated from Stamford college, attended Hardin-Simmons and University of Southern California, and received her degree in education from Texas Technological college.

In 1911 Miss Thurman began teaching. She came to Lubbock in 1916 at a salary of $60 per month. The following year she returned to Hamlin, but was recalled to Lubbock in April, 1918, by M. M. Dupre, former superintendent. For several years she taught fifth grade, and then spent three years teaching in high school. Her "teacher load" as a high school teacher consisted of classes in mathematics, English, and history, and coaching of girls' basketball. It was in January, 1924, when the building was completed, that she became principal of K. Carter school, a position which she has held since, with the exception of the school year 1947-48 when she was on leave of absence because of ill health.

As she discussed the fact that her school career was being brought to a close from her bed in West Texas hospital, Miss Thurman said: "Teaching children is like cultivating flowers. Each day you see them grow and unfold, leaf by leaf, and each has something beautiful within if you will only look for it and help develop it."

Build Self Confidence

In discussing bringing out the best in children, Miss Thurman had this advice for teachers: "Let the child believe that it is there; build up a self confidence in him and let him know that you believe in him."

"I have spent the happiest part of my life teaching the boys and girls of Lubbock. Nothing makes me happier than to walk into K. Carter school and have those little faces alight with love and happiness and say, 'Good morning, Miss Thurman.' Or to walk down the street and have some man or woman wave and say, 'Hello, Miss

Four Affected By Lethal Smog In Pennsylvania Have Relapses

DONORA, Pa., Dec. 22 (AP)—Four of the persons affected by the lethal smog that killed 20 persons here last October were hospitalized by relapses today.

Dr. William Rongaus, Donora board of health physician, said however, that "nothing in the air now made them sick. I treated them all personally when the smog was here and all of them suffered quite a lot. They just never got over the effects of the first attack."

Patient "Very Low"

Dr. Rongaus, one of eight physicians who worked day and night when the lethal smoke and fog of this mill town took its toll, said one of the four patients is "very low."

George Weisdock, 65, "is in pretty bad condition," Dr. Rongaus added. All were admitted to hospitals yesterday.

Meanwhile, the American Steel and Wire Co., which operates Donora's largest industry, disclosed it had hired the Kettering laboratory of applied physiology of the University of Cincinnati to investigate the cause of the tragedy.

Agencies Study Smog

State and federal agencies already are studying the disaster.

The American Steel and Wire Co. said the laboratory was employed as "a further step in attempting to clear up the uncertainty surrounding the deaths."

Public health officers have said there is no evidence that any one plant was responsible for the tragedy.

Lions Put $556 In Yule Basket Fund

The Lubbock Lions club, which passed up its weekly luncheon yesterday to help out in the Salvation Army Christmas cheer fund, enriched the fund by a total of $556, Capt. W. T. Gregory of the Salvation Army said.

Of this amount, $376 was actually collected at the Salvation Army's Christmas kettle campaign hut on Broadway, and the remaining $180 was donated by the club as the equivalent to an average weekly total spent for lunches.

One-hundred- and twenty - five Lions worked in 30-minute shifts of five to 12 men per shift during the day. The work was carried out under the direction of Harry Urguette, chairman of the Lions Club Christmas Activity committee.

316 Ask For Baskets

The Lions contribution to the fund brought the total to $2,789—just a few hundred dollars short of the goal of $3,000. The kettle campaign hut will be in operation through today and Thursday, Capt. Gregory said, while the street kettle stands will continue through Friday.

Volunteers from the various civic clubs in the city will solicit funds for the campaign today, and the work will be done by Lubbock 20-30 club on Thursday.

Of the 316 applications for Christmas baskets received to date, more than 300 have been found that would not have baskets without the Salvation Army fund, Capt. Gregory said. Today will be the last day for receiving applications, he added.

The Salvation Army is scheduling a Christmas party for families of applicants on Friday at the SA headquarters, 1112 Seventeenth, Capt. Gregory said.

Purse-Snatcher Is No Match For Shoes

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 22 (AP) — As long as Mrs. Evelyn Hatton has her shoes handy, she's ready for anything.

Mrs. Hatton said she was accosted last night by a purse-snatcher. "I took off my shoe and whopped him in the face. He ran. And I still have my purse," she reported.

She is the mother of Patrolman Robert Hatton of the Peoria police department.

Two Students Are Suspended After Water Pistol Robbery

AUSTIN, Dec. 22. (U.P.)—Two suspended Texas university students today found that holding up someone, even if the gun is a water pistol, is a serious offense.

The students, both 'teen-agers, were suspended from the university yesterday by Arno Nowotny, dean of student life, after the jokesters were turned over to school authorities.

Accusation Made

They were accused of forcing another student, Roger Chapman, to drive his car to a curb and taking his money, $2, at gunpoint.

After Chapman reported the incident, police broadcast an armed robbery alarm and urged officers to "use caution."

The students were arrested a few minutes later as they drove across the Congress avenue bridge.

Students Protest

They protested the holdup was a "joke," after handing police the water pistol.

Chapman later said he did not want to prosecute the men and said he would be an "unwilling witness" if police signed a complaint.

The idea of a holdup, the students said, came after they had stopped beer-drinking to squirt each other with the water gun.

OFFICERS ARE NAMED

DALLAS, Dec. 22. (AP)—The board of the 1948 State Fair of Texas met yesterday and reelected officers. The officers are R. L. Thornton, president; W. H. Hitzelberger, vice president; S. J. Cox, secretary and Fred Florence, treasurer.

Prospects For Peace In China Dim As New Cabinet Approved

NANKING, Dec. 22 (AP)—Chiang Kai-Shek gave the go ahead today to a new cabinet committed to an "honorable peace." But prospects for peace in China are dim.

Communist armies to the north rambled toward the Yangtze. Chiang's troops were in southward retreat. All of North China and the area of east central China north of the Yangtze appeared doomed. Jumpy Nanking residents fretted.

Chiang Approves Cabinet

In this darkness picture, Chiang approved a cabinet selected by Premier Sun Fo. The fact the cabinet was approved by Chiang was significant. Observers felt Chiang showed by this act that he was still boss of the Nationalist government and was not about to quit.

Sun announced Nationalist China would fight on until it could secure an honorable peace. Then he said there would be no surrender to the Communists. Observers felt some sort of a deal might be offered the Reds. Others felt the Communists would not want to make peace with a government headed by Chiang.

With the situation to the north crumbling fast, there was a possibility that the new cabinet may have to take to its heels soon.

Cities Isolated

The next major Nationalist stand is expected to be at the Yangtze. Just what Chiang can throw at the Communists here in the way of military strength has not been shown.

The vast area north of the Yangtze was being written off by some sources. Peiping and Tientsin held out against attacking armies but both were isolated and appeared hopelessly lost.

Battles raged outside both cities and the sound of gunfire could be heard within their limits.

Some reports here had the Nationalists repulsing Red attacks on the outskirts of both cities. Claims of more than 1,000 Reds destroyed were made at Peiping headquarters.

Cabinet Named

Central News said Nationalist troops were firmly entrenched southwest of Suchow. Other sources said thousands of government troops on the western flank of Pengpu joined a Nationalist retreat from the Hwai river line. Pengpu is 108 miles northwest of Nanking. Travelers said there was no fighting north of the Hwai in east central China.

Among the members of the new cabinet were Wu Te-Chen, vice premier and foreign minister; Hsu Yung-Chang, minister of national defense, Hsu Kan, finance minister; Yu Ta-Wei, communications; Robert K. S. Lim, health; Shen Chang-Huan, information; Mei Yi-Chi, education; Mei Juao, judiciary; and ministers without portfolio Chang Chun, a former premier; Chang Chih-Chung, Chen Li-Fu and Wong Wen-Hao.

Town May Change Name To Roosevelt

SUGAR NOTCH, Pa., Dec. 22. (AP)—The residents of Sugar Notch, which considers FDR its leading adopted citizen, today considered a plan to change the town's name to Roosevelt.

The name of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was placed first among citizens who "gave their lives for their country" on a war memorial monument unveiled here last summer. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt attended the ceremony.

John A. Riley, Democratic county chairman and head of the Sugar Notch Memorial society, said the move to change the name now awaits submission of proof to the county courts that the town of Roosevelt would not confuse its financial obligations, property identification and related matters.

Sugar Notch is a mining town of 2,500 in the hard coal belt of eastern Pennsylvania.

Island Of Guam Will Petition U. S. Congress For Citizenship

GUAM, Dec. 22 (AP)—The Assembly, the lower house of Guam, voted today to petition the U. S. Congress for citizenship for Guamanians.

The resolution, passed after a heated debate, ended a 17-month truce under which the Guam congress had asked that the U. S. Naval government be continued in full control of the civilian population of this central Pacific island fortress.

The vote on the resolution was 17 for, two against and seven members not voting. Concurrent action by the Guamanian council, the upper house, was virtually assured since the council previously favored the petition.

Status Insecure

The faction favoring the petition overrode the opposition of some business groups and assemblymen holding appointive jobs in the government.

"The Navy says it has done its best," said Assemblyman Frank Perez. "We who are being hurt are the ones to speak. I will ask anyone in this house if we have any secure spot on this island."

Perez said no land was free from military condemnation.

The resolution said Congress had delayed for 50 years defining the civil rights and political status of Guamanians as promised in the Treaty of Paris with Spain.

Thurman,' and know it is one of my boys or girls of yester-year."

Numerous benevolences to needy children within her school were recalled by patrons and teachers of K. Carter. Even this year Miss Thurman used a trunk she kept filled with clothes secured from former patrons when she found a child in need. She would take the child to the bookroom and unlock the trunk, find suitable clothing, and have the child call by the office after school to get the clothes. "I always tried to be careful in giving a child clothes, because I never liked to break the pride of a family," she said. Often her social work meant she must take her own money to help a family, teachers said.

sources early in the season. This varied from about the same 961,000 bales produced in 1947 to well over a million. The estimate was reduced as the season wore on and drouth continued.

Lubbock county was well out in front among the 15, and the only county where 1948 production went into six figures, compared with four in 1947. Lamb was the only other county in the area where it was considered possible this year's crop would reach six figures, and that was not probable.

Santa's Long Trip Will Be Broadcast

NEW YORK, Dec. 22 (INS)—Santa Claus' "flight from the North Pole" to bring Christmas joy into the homes of millions of kiddies will be broadcast by the National Broadcasting company on Christmas Eve.

A real U. S. Air Force B-29 flying over the "residence" of the jolly old fellow with the flowing white beard, will describe conditions at the top of the world.

Then, news analysts H. V. Kaltenborn, Ben Grauer and a group of actors will give a "make-believe" report on St. Nick's sleigh, an "interview" with Mrs. Claus, a description of the reindeer for the trip over the nation's chimneys, and an interview with Santa.

Kaltenborn will look over the Santa situation in the world and give his "analysis" of the significance of the flight.

arrived in Baylor hospital in Dallas at 4:20 a. m.

There doctors performed an unusual operation, removing a rib from the back of her chest, opening the blind pouch at one end of the divided esophagus, removing the other part from the trachea and joining the two parts into a single tube. Later, though, the esophagus closed and they had to perform the operation again.

Since then Linda has been a healthy youngster and lived a normal life, except that her mother has to take her to Dallas every two or three weeks to have her esophagus dilated as scar tissue develops. This involves no incision, and she no longer requires an anaesthetic.

Her doctors, who say they have performed similar operations upon four other patients, were optimistic when they saw Linda Kay Monday and say it won't be long before her treatments are finished.

And Linda Kay is feeling fine, eating normally, and looking forward to Santa's visit soon.

Man Sentenced On Defrauding Charge

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (AP)—John Donald Walker, 47, Rochester, N. Y., who was charged with defrauding women in three states of $108,000, has been sentenced to ten years in a federal penitentiary.

He was accused of defrauding Miss Mary Ashe, 55, of San Antonio of $55,000. Testimony showed that he met Miss Ashe in Washington, D. C., in November, 1946 and they were married in New Orleans on Jan. 27, 1947. Testimony further indicated he induced her to mortgage and later sell a San Antonio warehouse which she owned, then abandoned her in Detroit after securing the $55,000.

cision in the California case should apply automatically to Louisiana, he believes.

But is Texas a special case?

Yes," Texas entered the union under different circumstances, he concedes. But he adds: "nevertheless, to the extent that any of those differences are relevant at all, they point even more clearly to paramount rights in the (offshore property) in the United States.

As for the indignation in Texas: Gov. Beauford H. Jester said he could not put his feelings into language. But he did say:

"If the attorney general of the United States files this suit against Texas for its submerged lands in the Gulf, he is preempting the authority of the Congress of the United States to affirm or break the annexation agreement made with Texas when it entered the union.

Daniel Speaks Piece

"If the federal government can nationalize the land, minerals and other things along the coasts of the states of this union, it can nationalize them in the interior."

Attorney General Daniel said he didn't think the United States would give "this kind of treatment" to an enemy nation.

"Texas did not convey any of these lands or minerals to the federal government but specifically reserved them as part of the agreement of annexation approved by the Congress of the republic and the Congress of the United States."

Texas Land Commissioner Bascom Giles growled that his opinion "is not publishable."

Truman Vetoes Bill

What does Congress think about the matter?

In 1946, when the California case was pending, Congress voted to declare the tidelands the property of the states. President Truman vetoed the bill. In the 80th Congress, now about to pass out of experience, the House passed a similar measure. This bill was sponsored by the National Association of State Attorneys general. The Senate never acted on it.

And what do Texas oil men think of Clark's newest move?

D. Harold Byrd, president of the Independent Petroleum association of Texas, said: "The government's plan to grab the tidelands, its spending of Marshall plan funds for development and purchase of Middle East oil, are parts of a long-range scheme to throttle, then nationalize the petroleum industry."

R. L. Foree, Dallas independent and vice president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners association, said: "Federal red tape will choke an operator to death."

Stand On Reds Is Defended

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22 (AP)—Eric Johnston says that if opposing employment of a known Communist in a responsible position "make me dogmatic, doctrinaire and absolutist, I plead guilty on all three counts."

Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich used these adjectives in criticizing Johnston for the decision of major film producers, whose association Johnston heads, to dismiss 10 Hollywood writers, directors and producers charged with contempt of Congress.

In a statement yesterday replying to the judge, Johnston said "I presented the producers with two alternates: either they could employ persons thought by the public to be Communists and defend their employment, or they could dismiss them. The choice was up to the producers . . . the decision was entirely theirs. They made it unanimously."

In stating that "I would not employ a known Communist in a responsible position," Johnston added: "in this attitude I find myself in reputable company. The government of the United States will not employ Communists; our national labor unions are purging Communists from positions of leadership. This is my position. I intend to stand by it."

Judge Yankwich made his remarks Monday when he affirmed a jury verdict and ordered MGM studio to reinstate writer Lester Cole in his $1,350-a-week job and pay him $75,000 back salary. Cole and the others of the "Hollywood ten" were suspended a year ago. They had refused to tell the House Un-American Activities whether they were Communists.

Detroit Police Chief Attacks Systems In Other Big Cities

DETROIT, Dec. 22. (AP)—What some city officials of Detroit think about the situation in Chicago and other towns is enough to . . .

Well, here it is.

Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy charges that gangsterism, gambling and prostitution flourish in Chicago because the police permit it.

Detroit Called Best

Toy's scornful view came out at a hearing yesterday over a proposal to put Detroit's 4100-man police force under civil service.

Chicago and other cities got into the picture for comparative purposes.

Their troubles, Toy said, were largely due to civil service.

He wouldn't have it for Detroit inasmuch as the motor city's police department right now is "the best in this country, if not in the world."

Civil service, Toy said, detracts from efficiency and incentive.

Statement Challenged

"You won't find the activity in Chicago against gangsters that there is in Detroit," said Toy.

"In many large cities, Chicago among them," he added, "you can go into saloons and find slot machines, prostitution, and other rackets and the police do very little about it."

The logic of Toy's argument was challenged by Donald J. Sublette, secretary of the Civil Service commission.

He said the police commissioner "deliberately picked cities like New York, Chicago and Philadelphia, which are bad examples."

"He refrained," Sublette said, "from citing the good cities such as Cincinnati, which has a splendid reputation."

That was as far as it went for the time being.

Bermuda now has 13 motion picture theatres and another under construction.

Girl Waited, But Santa Never Came

BOSTON, Dec. 22 (INS)—"I waited for you all day last Christmas and you never came with my dollie."

Thus started out a letter to "Dear Santa," in the scrawl of a little girl, that arrived at the Boston postoffice. It added:

"I don't want a dollie this Christmas because mommy is sick and said you are to busy to come.

"Please come and make mommy better and please bring daddy back with you cause mommy is crying because he went away. He is in heaven.

"Goodbye Santa. I was a good girl, your friend, Anne."

Unlike many other such letters, Anne's won't end up in the dead letter section. It was picked up today by a group of Boston business men who will see to it that she gets a visit from Santa.

Dr. Jones Honored By Science Academy

Dr. E. N. Jones, vice president of Texas Technological college, was recently elected to honorary life fellowship in the Texas Academy of Science by the executive council of the organization. He was notified of the honor by letter Tuesday.

Made a fellow in 1931, Dr. Jones was given this additional honor in recognition of valuable service rendered to the academy, the letter stated. The honorary life fellowship entitles him to be the recipient of all fellowship privileges and exemption from payment of dues. He will also receive a copy of all of the academy's publications.

Town's Population Leaves For Winter

BELLE COTE, N. S., Dec. 22 (AP) — Society note: The entire population of Rear Belle Cote left town yesterday for the winter. Two-fifths of the citizens — Mr. and Mrs. Arsene Leblanc — moved to Margaree, N. S. Another two-fifths headed for Sydney. The other one-fifth came here.

Senior High School Will Present Music

Christmas music will be presented on the organ and piano at Senior High school from 7 to 8 o'clock Thursday night and will be amplified through the patio at the school, so passersby and persons wanting to stop may hear it.

Those who will play the organ are Gerre Hancock, Bill Rogan, Sue Allston, Kara Sam Dunn, Rossi Stiles and Dorothy Kennedy. They will alternate at the two pianos and the organ.

The heaviest wood known is ironwood. It weighs 81 pounds a square foot and sinks in water.

EDWARDS LOOKS AT STEPCHILDREN

Show Creator Says Nothing Very Wrong With Giveaways

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 22—Ralph Edwards, parent of the giveaway program, surveyed the radio situation and shuddered, "Are these my stepchildren?"

Edwards is the man (did you say culprit?) who touched off the epidemic of radio shows which give contestants everything but MGM studios and the Pentagon. Here's his comment:

"There are too many giveaway shows on the air. The listening public is getting too much of this type of show. The situation has gotten out of hand."

Creators Not Protected

This wouldn't have happened, added Edwards, if the National Association of Broadcasters had taken action.

"Instead of passing regulations about giveaways," said the marvel of Merino, Colo., "the N.A.B. should do something to protect the 'creator' of air show ideas.

"We spent years perfecting the idea for the 'Truth or Consequences' show. It was patterned after 'Information Please' and 'Prof. Quiz,' but it was the first successful show in which the contestant participated in the fun. We had a hit—so what happens? NBC permits a show like 'People Are Funny,' and other programs pop up with the same ideas as ours.

People Down On Giveaways

"Then we got the idea for the 'Hush' contests. We had lawyers work on it for months. The idea was a sensational success—so what happens? Along comes 'Stop the Music' and a lot of other shows.

"If the N.A.B. had protected us, this wouldn't have happened. As it is, everybody is down on the giveaways and worthy charities are in danger of losing a source of funds. The 'hush' contests have raised $10,000,000 for the Heart association, March of Dimes and other groups."

Although he has no kind words for his competitors, the 35-year-old toupeed quizzer upholds the giveaway show against the onslaughts of critics. Edgar Bergen and Fred Allen, who have faced "Stop The Music" competition, have claimed the giveaways are not entertainment.

Small Number Take Part

"There is entertainment in listening to the excitement of someone else winning a fortune," he declared. "Only 10 per cent of the listeners actually participate in the 'hush' contests. The others just listen for the fun—so it must be entertaining."

Short Takes. . . "Mama and Papa Hush"—Veloz and Yolanda—head out for a concert tour in the spring. She's expecting a family addition in January. . . . Charlotte Greenwood and Martin Broones celebrate their silver wedding anniversary today. . . Buster Keaton reportedly tossed his 2,000th pie in "The Good Old Summertime" . . . Shirley Temple is eager to do the "Suspense" air show, but has been told she's too young. "And Margaret O'Brien has been on it twice," she complains.

Old Racket Is Given New Twist In Iowa

LE MARS, Ia., Dec. 22 (INS)—A new twist was given to an old racket today.

Ed Flynn was conducting a whirlwind business in front of a downtown Le Mars department store with a sidewalk pre-Christmas bargain sale.

Chief of Police Fay Terping arrested the super-salesman, who, when asked what his profession was, replied:

"Why, I'm a professional shoplifter."

Terping said Flynn, who gave his address as Shakopee, Minn., was offering bargains to everyone who passed in front of the store on articles he had stolen from the store.

Eleven of the "bargains" were recovered.

No Answer Found To Shopper's Question

BALTIMORE, Dec. 22 (AP) — A department store saleswoman admitted she could not answer this question of a bewildered male shopper today:

"What size stockings should I get for a woman who wears size 6¼ gloves?"

IMPORTANT — Here's Lise Bourdin, the most photographed girl in France, as she arrived in New York. The top French model will do modeling, starting at $25 an hour, the highest price any American model commands.

Chile will install a plant in Valdivia for the preparation of medicinal oil from the "toyo," a small shark.

Death Has Struck Twice Since Spy Case Hearings Commenced

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 — If you've ever read a Greek tragedy, you'll remember how it was.

Death hovered over it. You could almost feel the chill breeze from its slow, circling wings. Then it pounced.

In the Washington spy case death has swooped twice and has even struck along the edges.

It began its slow circling on Friday, Aug. 13.

That was the day Harry Dexter White sat down in the hearing room of the House un-American Activities committee to try to clear his name.

He had taught at Harvard, worked for the government 13 years, been assistant secretary of the treasury.

White Asked Hearing

He hadn't been convicted of anything. No one had proved anything against him.

But his name had been brought into the spy case by Elizabeth T. Bentley and Whittaker Chambers.

They are both ex-Communists who said they had been messengers for a Communist underground among government officials.

Neither said White was a Communist. But Miss Bentley said he had been part of a group set up to give Communists inside government information. Chambers said White had been closely tied in with the Communists.

So White asked for a hearing, for a chance to defend himself publicly.

Dies From Stroke

On that Aug. 13 when he faced the committee he was 56 years old, and very ill. He had had a heart attack some time before.

He denied ever being a Communist or close to being one; ever knowing Miss Bentley or Chambers. He protested his loyalty to the United States. The questioning began.

White scribbled a note and passed it up to the chairman. The chairman read the note aloud:

"I am recovering from a severe heart attack. I would appreciate it if the chairman would give me five minutes rest after each hour."

The questioning went on, with time out for White to rest. When it ended White went home. In a couple of days he was dead of another heart attack.

Then there was Laurence Duggan, 43 years old.

Welles Praises Victim

For 13 years he had worked for the State department, held a job of great trust.

He died Monday night in a fall from his office window on the 16th floor of a New York building.

Shocked when he heard of Duggan's death, Sumner Welles, former undersecretary of state, said of him:

"He was one of the most brilliant, most devoted, and most patriotic public servants I have ever known."

But his name, too, had been brought into the spy case in a mixed up way with no charge ever made against him.

The records of the un-American Activities committee show that Isaac Don Levine, a friend of Chambers, told the committee this:

That Chamber once had mentioned Duggan as one of six people in the State department who "had passed confidential information along."

Levine told that to the committee a couple of weeks ago.

But yesterday Chambers denied he had ever said what Levine said he had said: that Duggan gave out information.

In fact, Chambers said, he had never met Duggan. He added: "He was a gentle and sensitive man from what I heard about him and he was devoted to his family."

Santa Claus Victim In Holiday Dispute

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 22 (AP)—Workers of the Westinghouse Electric Co. Pacific Ave. plant yesterday hung Santa Claus in effigy in a dispute with management over holiday time off.

The Santa effigy was paraded in front of the plant's main office by members of local 456, United Electrical Workers (CIO) before the "hanging."

The dispute is over interpretation of contract provisions for time off on Christmas and New Year's day.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Come the Yule season each year, and even the hardest hearts soften a bit. The Plainsman is no exception to the rule so today, with everyone else thinking about Christmas, he turns over his whole stint to that happy subject.)

That Girl on Broadway says Christmas shopping has its own theme song: "Blessed be the ties that Blind!"

Some people may doubt that father knows best, but after Yule shopping all must admit he owes best!

* * *

FOR years, one of the most famous figures of the film colony has solved the knotty problem of what sort of Christmas present to give those lucky people "who already have everything."

According to Irving Hoffman, in the Hollywood Reporter, here's how the film figure advises doing it:

"Go down to a poor neighborhood. Take along the sum you intended to spend on a Christmas gift for someone 'who already had everything.' Go to any small grocery store, doctor or dentist in the area and ask who's farthest behind in his bill—preferably, someone whose credit is about to be cut off.

"Pay that bill, or part of it. Make a note of the name and address of the beneficiary. Then send a Christmas card to the person 'who already has everything,' with this message on it:

"'You have paid $10 (or whatever the amount may be) on the account of John Doe, who is the father of five children and who was $30 behind on his grocery bill. A Merry Christmas!' Then sign your name."

DEAR SANTA CLAUS
(By Agnes Just Reid)

Dear Santa Claus, please bring to us,
And folks of every land.
The rarest gifts you've ever brought . . .
I think you understand.
It is not wealth, nor power, nor fame,
Nor ships on seven seas,
It is not stately buildings . . . no
We have enough of these.

It is not guns, nor bayonets,
Nor mighty submarines.
It is not airships for the air,
Nor powerful gas machines.
The thing we want is simple, quite,
But means our soul's release . . .
We're asking you to bring to us
The priceless gift of Peace.

So, put on extra reindeer, please,
Place sideboards on your sleigh,
Let cloudless skies be overhead
To make your day a Day.
Then hurry from your Northland home
To home of every Ken;
Leave Peace in all the stockings, please,
And in the hearts of men.

". . . that which is closest to your heart."

IN THE shadows of Bethlehem, a ragged little boy silently watches the wondrous pilgrimage to the manger. He sees great kings and noblemen leading splendid caravans of many chests, laden with rare gifts.

"He falls back into the darkness as his eyes fill with tears 'If only a pearl would fall from the hand of a king, then I would not be so ashamed. I have no gift for the Saviour—no gift.'

"He is about to turn and run into the hills, when suddenly, out of the night, an angel appears before him, saying: 'Give that which is closest to your heart, little boy.

"They say that a bright star, the Christmas star, appeared in the heavens over Bethlehem, as a ragged little boy placed a faded blue knapsack beside jewels, gold pieces, myrrh and frankincense.

"The knapsack contained the things closest to his heart — a sea shell that whispers in his ear; a piece of rope used to climb high trees; a jagged slingshot made from a forked limb, and a butterfly, preserved in candlewax.

"The tapering years have molded many things since that night in Bethlehem. They have wrought tall buildings that top the skies, ships that master our seas and even the sun has become our slave . . . yes, man masters all. It seems but one fact remains through the ages and that is, that a little boy is still just a little boy."—(Optimist Magazine).

"Probably the reason we all go so haywire at Christmas time with the endless, unrestrained and often silly buying of gifts is that we don't quite know how to put our love into words."—Harlan Miller, in Better Homes and Gardens.

LAST year, in Germany, reports H. Peter Dreyer, in Survey Graphic, a mother managed to save bread coupons over a period of months, so that for the holidays she could have a special loaf of white bread baked. She took the bread home, wrapped it as carefully as a precious piece of china, and let her two little boys "discover" it under the Christmas tree, strengthening their joyful belief that there is, indeed, a Santa Claus.

"SOMETIMES we make the criticism," observes Edward Frank Stepp, in the R&R Magazine, "that the taint of commercialism is to be found in the exploitation of this holiday spirit. But isn't it just possible that we are being unfair? We ought to be able to accept, by this time, the fact that our commercial and economic life cannot be divorced from our other lives — it is a part of our notion of democratic life and to be accepted, not treated as something not quite nice."

If Christmas didn't come around regularly, a lot of us might forget how to look up.

"CHRISTMAS is a happy time, a time of joy and giving. It is a time for heartfelt renewal of old friendships and the creation of new ones. It is a time when family ties are strengthened and memories of past Christmases are kindled by the blazing hearth. It is a time for kindliness and brotherhood towards all our fellow creatures. It is a time when the innate goodness of man breaks through his worries and sorrows with a festive greeting of cheer. Christmas is like a beautiful tapestry, woven in the image of God. There is nothing more divine than Christmas, nothing more human." — Trumbull Electric Co. house magazine

BY DREW PEARSON: DEWEY FAVORS SPECIAL G.O.P. SESSION TO SETTLE LEADERSHIP

A.F.L. Will Support Reasonable Labor Restrictions

WASHINGTON — Governor Dewey told young Republican leaders at an off-the-record dinner at the University club the other day that he favors calling a special Republican convention in 1949. The purpose would be to settle who will rule the G. O. P.—The conservative old guard or the young liberals who want to give the party a new look.

PEARSON

The idea of a special Republican convention was first proposed by the late Wendell Willkie's son, Philip, who has been out pushing the plan with G. O. P. leaders.

So far he has won over California's Governor Earl Warren, Minnesota's ex-Governor Harold Stassen and such Republican senators as George Aiken and Ralph Flanders of Vermont, Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Wayne Morse of Oregon, Ray Baldwin of Connecticut, Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Charles Tobey of New Hampshire, Alexander Smith of New Jersey and James Kem of Missouri.

Meanwhile, the split between the two G. O. P. factions is growing steadily worse. The old guard actually argues that the best strategy is to sit back and wait for a depression; they believe the people then will rally around the G. O. P. standard again. The liberal faction argues that a depression would drive the people to Henry Wallace, not the G. O. P., and that the best course is to build a progressive program and take it, Truman-style, to the grass roots. Both sides have been holding post-mortems on the election, but the first real showdown will come the third week in January when the Republican national committee meets here.

AFL Favors Part of T-H Act

The Taft-Hartley bill will be one of the most controversial questions before Congress, but President Truman and four A. F. of L. leaders had little trouble agreeing on its repeal provisions when they conferred at the White House recently.

The A. F. L. quartet consisted of President William Green, Secretary-Treasurer George Meaney and Vice Presidents George Harrison and Dan Tracy. They opened the conference by asking how far Truman would go in his labor recommendations to Congress.

"We of labor are hopeful the Democratic platform pledge for Taft-Hartley repeal and restoration of the Wagner act will be carried out in full and as quickly as possible," said Green.

"I'm for that," replied Truman. He added that there were some necessary amendments to the new act ,however, that he hoped the A. F. L. will support.

"There are three of them," he continued, "and I have spoken of them before. In my message to Congress last January, I urged a ban on jurisdictional strikes, on secondary boycotts and on strikes by irresponsible labor leaders that create a national emergency.

"We must protect the people from strikes in key industries that cripple production in other industries, even if we have to use the courts against the few unscrupulous leaders who cause them," Truman argued, obviously referring to John L. Lewis. "Our economy can't stand it, especially in these times of world unrest. I am sure responsible labor leaders like yourselves will agree."

"The A. F. of L. will accept the three amendments you propose," promised Green. His three colleagues also nodded assent.

"What's more," said Green, "we'll help you put them across, if you need our help. The changes you suggest are reasonable."

PUBLICITY given the "Dew Drop"—the plush plane supposedly built for "President" Dewey—will have a healthy effect upon Army-Navy waste in using special planes for VIP's (very important persons).

Two years ago Air Secretary Symington and Secretary of War Bob Patterson both took firm stands against setting aside special, deluxe planes for generals and cabinet members. However, this ban has gradually eased up, and a lot of money could now be saved in both the Army and Navy by curtailing the "plush jobs" reserved for private usage.

Real fact is that the Lockheed company was chiefly responsible for getting the Air Forces in trouble. Contract for the "plush job" was publicly announced on April 29, long before either Dewey or Truman was nominated. It was finished and took its first flight on Oct. 27, shortly before the election.

In the interim, however, the Lockheed people, long jealous over the fact that Truman rode in a Douglas, had gone to Dewey and suggested that he use the new Lockheed Constellation—after he became president of the United States. The Independence, made by Douglas, should be set aside, Lockheed suggested to Dewey, and he should ride in a really gilt-edged job—namely, the plane they were just finishing.

That was how the "Dew-Drop" happened to get its name.

Aids Aluminum To Moscow

Real fact about the black-marketing of scarce Marshall plan metals back to the U. S. A. from England, Holland and Belgium, is that W. B. Griffin of Modern Metals magazine called this to the attention of ECA administrator Paul Hoffman three months ago. So did Senator Vandenberg of Michigan—without result.

What happened was that last September, Griffin published the fact that European countries were shipping back to the U. S. A. scarce aluminum we had sent them under the Marshall plan, at an inflated price of 80 to 90 per cent. At present, U. S. manufacturers can get only about half the aluminum they want, so they'll buy it wherever they can.

Readers clipped the Griffin article and sent it to Paul Hoffman. No result. Then, Hoffman's close friend, Senator Vandenberg—responsible for his appointment as Marshall plan administrator—called him. Hoffman still pooh-poohed the idea that Europe was shipping metal back to us, even wrote a letter to that effect.

Now the return shipments are acknowledged.

Not generally realized, however, is the fact that we are playing into Russian hands by sending aluminum to Europe.

What happens is this. The ECA sells aluminum to Marshall plan countries at 16 cents a pound. This competes with aluminum produced in France, Italy, and Switzerland at 19 cents. These countries have greatly expanded their production since the war, but since they cannot compete with the 16-cent ECA aluminumu, they sell their product to Russia.

Result: Russia is now buying a good part of the European output and stockpiling it. Furthermore, it is paying for this aluminum in gold. The Soviet is already a large aluminum producer, able to supply its own needs. However, aluminum is one of the most essential of all war materials. Hence the Soviet stockpile.

What this means is that Canadian aluminum, badly needed in the United States, is indirectly going to Russia at the expense of American taxpayers.

It is estimated that 120,000 German children and students will receive meals from the Swedish Red Cross during the winter.

The Feminine Viewpoint

NOTICE to all husbands: The Christmas hinting season is now open.

So perk up and pay a little attention to the hints your wife oh, so casually, tosses your way.

MILLETT

From now until Christmas, when she admires something it is for a purpose.

If she pulls you over to a store window and says something like: "Isn't that a beautiful bag? It's just the right shade of brown for my new suit," don't just say "Unhuh," and move on. Study that handbag carefully. It's on Mama's list of Christmas wants.

MAKE A NOTE

SAME way when she calls your attention to a "simply stunning something or other advertised in the newspaper. Quit reading the funnies and make a mental note to hang onto that particular advertisement.

And when she starts telling you about something her best friend is going to get for Christmas, see if there's a wistful note in her voice. If there is, it means the girls have decided they both want the same thing.

Pay some attention this hinting season, men, and get your wife the gift she really wants. For there's nothing more frustrating to a woman than to have hinted and hinted for a gift she's dying to have and then have her husband run out on Christmas Eve and spend a hunk of money for just anything a salesgirl tells him she is sure his wife would like.

"Try And Stop Me"

FOR eight days and nights Mr. Berkowitz had been unable to sleep. All kinds of medicine had had no effect whatever, and in desperation, the Berkowitz family summoned a renowned hypnotist.

The hypnotist fastened a beady eye on Mr. Berkowitz and chanted, "You are asleep, Mr. Berkowitz! The shadows are closing about you. This vale of tears is becoming misty and obscured. Soft music is lulling your senses into a state of beautific relaxation. You are asleep! You are asleep!"

The anxious family looked at the ailing man—and sure enough, he was asleep! "You're a miracle worker," the grateful son told the hypnotist—and paid him a substantial bonus. The hypnotist, highly gratified, departed in triumph. As the outside door closed Mr Berkowitz opened his eyes. "Say," he demanded, "is that lunatic gone yet!"

U. S. Might Suffer Ill Will Of Both Sides In Java Struggle

White men art at war with brown men in the steaming jungle. That is the significance of the Dutch attack on the Indonesia republic for western Europe and North America—the two little islands of white peoples in a vast sea of color.

The guns of the Dutch have silenced a debate that has been going on since the end of World War II. They may have ended for a long time the hope of a peaceful conclusion of that debate.

From across the far Pacific you can hear those voices. The Dutchman is the efficient manager and exploiter of Indonesia's rich resources. He built up the profitable structure of processing and trade that existed before the war. He speaks with clear, calm precision, trying to keep out of his voice his irritation with those who do not understand the problem.

With Quiet Intensity

The native speaks with quiet intensity. He believes in his heart that he speaks for all the dispossessed and exploited millions of Asia. He is convinced that his is the voice of the future, of freedom and independence.

The Dutchman: You do not understand in America. When you say Indonesia, you have no picture of what we are faced with. The Malay is indolent. He does not create. In all the time that we have been there, no Malay has ever made a fortune.

The native: Of course not. We have been given no opportunity. We have been held in subjection under the Dutch system of colonial exploitation, and a very efficient system it was.

The Dutchman: Yes, but the Chinese who came to Indonesia have prospered. Many have made fortunes working alongside of us. Let's not talk of the past. Americans do not seem to appreciate that we offered the Republic of Indonesia independence in a federation with the Netherlands. We have been extraordinarily patient in the face of anarchy and chaos.

THE native: You expect us to move overnight, in a moment of time, from colonial serfdom—it was almost that—to orderly government. And this after we have suffered the terrors of invasion and occupation by the Japanese.

The Dutchman: The fact remains that your so-called government cannot control the irregulars and the guerrillas whose threats and depredations prevent any order in the territory over which the republic assumes jurisdiction. The leaders of these irregulars are, in effect, war lords. We have waited many months through long drawn-out negotiations for some indication that the republic could establish an orderly government.

The native: Your federation is merely a device whereby you can continue the kind of colonial exploitation that enriched the Netherlands before the war. Our toil, our sweat, our resources supplied nearly half of the wealth of Holland and made it possible for you to maintain a high standard of living.

The Dutchman: To begin with, your figures are quite wrong. The contribution of the Indies to our economy was at the most 15 per cent. In Borneo, the Celebes and, in fact, two-thirds of Indonesia, the people are willing to accept federation. You threaten their peace as well as the peace of the world.

* * *

'You Are A Few'

The native: Even if all that you said were true, which it is not, you cannot conquer us by force. We are millions and you are a few.

The Dutchman: Without us you will lapse into anarchy and barbarism. The trading structure we have built up will disappear. The police action we are taking is more essential for you than it is for us.

So the guns roar and the bombs begin to fall. During all the bitter debate, the United States has tried to intervene. But, the effort, it seems to me, has been too tentative, too timid, without constructive and positive purpose. This is the more tragic in view of our strong

IT'S UP TO THE PEOPLE

The increase of about $65,000,000, or more than 50 per cent, in the State's operating budget for the next two years as proposed by the State Board of Control, doubtless will impress most Texans as being very much too high.

However, proposed budgets at similar stages of preparation invariably are high—although this, admittedly, is higher than most. It is usual practice in all governmental departments to ask for more than officials expect to get in the hope of getting what they actually need.

The final budget will emerge from the legislative session which convenes next month. One guess is as good as another as to what the figures will be. But it is a safe bet the one now proposed will be trimmed greatly. The extent of the trimming probably will be determined in large measure by how vocally insistent public sentiment may be at that time for economies in governmental operation.

NOT A BIT CHILLY—Miss Dorothy Harrington, a stenographer, put aside office duties, donned a sun suit and felt perfectly comfortable as she arranged trimmings on a Christmas tree in front of her home in Kansas City. Why not cold in mid-December? The mercury hit 73, four degrees above any previous reading on the date.

"Truth Serum" Effective In Some Mental Disorder Cases

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 22. (U.P.)—A new "truth serum" is being used to treat some cases of mental disorders.

It is known as pervitin. Three Boston physicians report that it causes the patient to recall painful memories, intimate personal fancies and delusional ideas. Such information is needed, the physicians point out, for proper treatment.

Drs. Julius Levine, Max Rinkel and Milton Greenblatt, of the Boston Psychiatric Hospital, reported in the American Journal of Psychiatry that the drug had been administered to 75 patients.

The physicians said that when the effects of the drug wore off, the patients were less tense. They felt relaxed. Meanwhile, information about the patient had been learned. It was information needed to make a better diagnosis and better treatment.

Boy's Case Cited

The doctors reported a case of an 18-year-old boy who had attempted suicide. Because of an unhappy childhood, the boy had been a psychiatric problem since the age of four. While under the influence of the drug, the boy talked freely of his troubles and conflicts. Later, he thanked the doctors for helping him to break down his defenses, they reported. His condition improved.

The physicians also reported that two cases of amnesia had recovered after use of the drug.

The Boston group said the drug was "unusual" in that the patient can remember everything that went on during the interview. They explained that such was "extremely helpful" to the doctor as well as to the patient because they can discuss the ideas and conflicts that the patient has revealed.

After three years on the way from Britain, a radio set has just reached Burma.

Pioneer Texan Wants To Leave "Farewell" Christmas Message To Friends, Relatives

Ben L. Walters, whose eyes have seen the passing of 90 years, has a message he wants to send to his friends and relatives both in West Texas and farther back east.

The aged man, who came to Lubbock shortly before the founding of Texas Technological college in 1923, has operated the Stockyards cafe at 305 Fifteenth street since he came here to live. He explains that it no longer operates as a cafe but a few boarders eat there regularly. He lives in a room at one side of the small frame building.

Remembers Buffaloes

He saw the Lubbock area when Indians roamed it; he remembers vividly the herds of buffalo, antelopes and mustangs that used to move freely where irrigated farms now lie.

"It's my last roundup," he told The Evening Journal. "I'm looking at the 90's now. I wish to say to my friends and relatives that I am growing weak and am hardly able to get about. I would be glad for you to call and see me during the Christmas holidays. I would be glad to shake hands with you once more and bid you farewell."

Born In Alabama

Born in Alabama, Walters came to Texas with his parents when he was seven years old. They settled in Smith county, about 10 miles east of Tyler, where they lived for three years before moving to the Henderson-Kaufman county line.

He took up the cattle business at an early age and drove many cattle from southeast Texas to the then lush grazing lands of Northwest Texas.

In 1876 and 1877 he joined the Texas Rangers and with the Rangers he travelled over West Texas. Of the men he was associated with in those days he knows of only two who are still living—Tom Eubanks of Wilderspoint and Mont Spikes of Knox City.

After his service with the Texas Rangers, Walters went to Oklahoma. There, at Anadarko, he made contracts with the government to provide cattle for the Indians. He continued this work until the settlement of Oklahoma began.

Then he went back to Kaufman county. He lived at Munday immediately before coming to Lubbock.

His Stockyards cafe has been at the same location for 26 years. He calls it the oldest restaurant in this part of the country.

His advice to youngsters is this: "Never drink, gamble or carouse. I never did drink or gamble, and although I am not a church member, it can lead only to woe."

Plaque Of Former Professor Ordered

An order for a bronze facial plaque of the late Professor Kenneth M. Renner has been placed through the Texas Technological college bookstore, the Renner Memorial committee has announced.

In November of 1947, alumni and other friends of the Texas Tech dairy manufacturers department appointed a committee to arrange for a memorial to Professor Renner.

The plaque will hang in a hall of the Agricultural building. The amount in the memorial fund, above cost of the plaque, will go into the Kenneth Renner Memorial Loan fund, to be administered by college personnel for loans to dairy manufacturers students.

Members of the Renner Memorial committee are Arch Lamb, Earl Collins, Claude Brown, L. G. Harmon and John Ash.

NON-FIRER FIRED

BOSTON. (U.P.)—Frederick W. Cook, 75, boasts that during 27 years as secretary of state he has never fired an employe. Yet in the election Massachusetts voters "fired" him, electing his youthful Democratic opponent.

Shirred eggs, chicken livers and scalloped tomatoes make a delicious main course for a party luncheon. Let a tossed green salad, hard rolls and butter, dessert and a beverage complete the menu. The dessert might be an apple cobbler with hard sauce or fresh pears baked with spices and brown sugar.

Murder Conviction Of Negro Trio Attacked By White Man

ATLANTA, Dec. 22 (AP) — A white minister said yesterday a Negro and her two teen-aged sons, convicted of murdering a white farmer, were victims of "a great miscarriage of justice." He asked that they be paroled.

The nation, the minister told Georgia's pardon and parole board yesterday, is "disgusted" with the treatment given Rosa Lee Ingram and her sons Sammy, 14, and Walton, 16.

Result Of Circumstances

The convictions were the result of "circumstances," said the Rev. James Logan Delk of the Church of God in Hopkinsville, Ky.

The negroes are serving life for the slaying of tenant farmer John E. Stratford, 66, in an argument over pasturing their mule in the farmer's cornfield.

The minister said negro and white churches in Hopkinsville will provide a 170-acre farm free for five years if Rosa Lee and her sons are paroled. After five years, the negroes would pay rent on the farm.

Whispered Over Nation

"It has been whispered all over America that this woman and her boys are innocent," the Kentuckian said. "They did only what you or I, a minister, would have done. The boys came to the rescue of their mother when someone was beating her up.

"Millions of Americans will rejoice if you will right this wrong. The people are disgusted at the handling of this case so far."

Chairman Ed Everett noted that the board usually does not interfere in a life case until seven years are served.

The negroes were sentenced to death in January, but Superior (circuit) Judge W. M. Harper in July commuted the sentence to life in prison because, he said, the trio was convicted on circumstantial evidence.

Plane Take-Off From Bolling Field Without Anyone At Controls Makes Swallowing Hard

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The pilot threw up his hands. So did the co-pilot. The rest of the crew just sat on their hands.

And when I looked aft in the DC-3 (R4D to Navy men) and saw what was going on, I almost jumped out the escape hatch.

There we were rising from the runway at Bolling field in the two-engined plane—with nobody at the controls.

"Look, ma! no hands!" said some wag.

But sure enough. No hands! The Navy was taking us aloft to demonstrate a new "angle of attack" auto-pilot dreamed up by the Navy and perfected by Minneapolis Honeywell. It's something that some day may solve all the weather handicaps that have been in the pilot's forelock since the days of the Wright brothers.

Switches Flicked

Come to think of it, as we took off, it was as if the ghost of Wilbur or Orville Wright were up there, sitting in as co-pilot.

All Commander Eddie Saxman, the "pilot," did before we zipped down the strip and took wing was to flick a switch no larger than the one which controls the night light in your apartment bathroom.

A couple of green flickers flicked, indicating that everything automatic was automatic.

Co-Pilot Dick Knoeckel, who didn't have anything to do, either, tried to explain what was going on. He did his best:

"Angle of air attack," he said, "means, well . . . the difference between where you are going and where the plane is headed."

Uh-huh!

Sommander Bob Dose, an officer of Naval research, said it was a lot simpler than that. Angle of attack, he said, using both hands, means the wings are headed up a little and the rest of the plane is going straight.

Since we are going perfectly straight on a perfectly wonderful day, there was no challenge.

If you can understand it, there seem to be a lot of advantages to "angle of attack" auto-pilot control. A big plane with a heavy load practically can stall and come in at slow speed. Much safer that way.

Made Perfect Landing

You start in and hit the beam. Watch the instruments. Get down to 100 feet, nose headed for the runway. There is some disturbance. Like a little bad weather. You're on the beam and you stay there. Can't move the runway, can you? You don't have to.

For instance, at Bolling, we came in at 75 knots, Navy speed (82 miles an hour as the crow flies) and made a perfect landing. That's a lot slower than present day planes make it and a lot smoother and a lot safer.

Once more—no hands and no huff from the control tower except the cordial "come in."

By George, man. It was wonderful. Down the middle.

Santa, will you please bring me an "angle of attack auto-pilot" for Christmas. Sometimes the walls of my garage aren't big enough to save a barked fender!

Lawyer Wins First Case For Mother

CHICAGO, Dec. 22 (AP)—Lemoyne Stitt won his first case as a lawyer yesterday and his mother, Mrs. Martha Stitt, 43, said she was very happy. Mrs. Stitt was the defendant.

She was in safety court charged with running a stop light and ramming into a truck. Mrs. Stitt denied the charge.

"I think you ought to win your first case," Judge Irwin B. Clorfene told Stitt, "particularly since your client is your mother."

Ruhr Plant Control To Be International

LONDON, Dec. 22 (AP)—A seven-nation international control board—with Germany as one of the members—will be set up soon to boss Ruhr industries, diplomatic sources said today.

The plan has been developed during a conference of six western powers, the United States, Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, which probably will complete its work this week.

A formal communique may be delayed until after Christmas.

Details of the control board's functions were not disclosed, but officials who attended conference sessions said they represented major concessions to French demands for close supervision over production of the Ruhr, which yielded Germany the coal and steel for two wars.

Pigeon-holed indefinitely, one informant said, is the question of future ownership of the Ruhr plants.
